8. Note, It was Resolved, That when a Copyholder surrenders to the Lord, to the use of his Wife, and his younger Son, without limitting any Estate, they have for life only; for aswell Estates as Discents shall be directed by the Rules of Law, as necessary consequents upon the Custome, except there be a special Custome within the Manour; that sibi et suis, or sibi & assignatis may create an Estate of Inheritance. Cook 4. Part, 29. Buntings Case.

9. A Copyholder in Fee of Lands discendable in Borough-English, having three Sons and one Daughter, devised his Land to his eldest Son, paying to his Daughter, and every of his other Sons, 40 s. within two years next after his decease; and made a surrender to the use of his Will, and dyed; the eldest Son was admitted, and did not pay the money within the two years, the youngest Son entred. It was adjudged, That his entry was lawful: For it was Resolved, That the Law shall construe in this Case, the word paying, to be a limitation, of which the younger brother in Borough-English, might take advantage, and to amount to as much as if he had made the devise of the Land to his eldest Son untill he should make default of payment. Mic. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Wellock and Hemonds Case, vouch. in Cook 3. Part, in Bracflours Case.

10. See Cook 1. Part, 140. in Chudleighs Case, where it is Resolved, That an Estate made to one and his Heirs, during the life of J. S. is but an estate for life, upon which a Remainder may depend: And that an Estate made to one and his Heirs on the body of J. S. begotten, is an estate tail, and no Feesimple, against the Opinion of Ascough 20 H. 6. 36.

2. Where the Heir and his Lands shall be charged for the Debt of his Father, or other Ancestor; where not: And what shall be a good bar pleaded by him in such Action; what not: and where he shall be relieved against such Charge of his Ancestor; where not.

1. A. acknowledged 5 Statute of 3000 l. to the King, and dyed; after his death, a Scire facias issued forth against the Executors of the last Will and Testament of the said A. and the Heir of the Lands and Tenements which were his: At the day, the Sheriff returned, That he had not Executors, but that Scire feci tr. militi filio et hæred. dict. A. quod sit, &c. who made default, whereupon Judgment was given for the King, that he should recover recover againſt the ſaid W. Whereupon he brought a Writ of Error. It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other points), That if Lands of the Heir be ſeized in Execution upon a Recognizance of his Auncеſtor, he ſhall not have contribution againſt a purchaſor of his Auncеſtor, although he come in without conſideration, and although the Heir be not charged as Heir, but as Ter-Tenant; but one Purchaſor ſhall have contribution againſt another Purchaſor, and one Heir againſt another Heir, becauſe they are in equali jure: And therefore in this Caſe, the Writ which iſſued out in this Caſe againſt the Heir, without naming the Purchaſors, was good, although he was charged as Ter-Tenant. 2. If divers acknowledg a Recognizance, the Charge doth not ſurvive, and the Land of the one ſhall not be put in Execution, but all their Lands equally. In the principal Caſe, three Errors were aſſigned. 1. That the Scire facias was ſeized hæredes terrarum & tenementi. which is unproper, for that one is Heir to his Auncеſtor, and not to the Land. 2. That the Return did not anſwer the Writ. And 3. Becauſe the Judgment was given generally, where it ought to have bin ſpecial, for by ſuch Judgment, his own Land ſhould be charged: but theſe Exceptions were not anſwered, nor Reſolved. 26 Eliz. in the Exchequer Chamber. Sir William Herbert's Caſe. Cook 3. Part, 11.

2. If a man by Deed Granteth a Rent-charge to one and his Heirs, and doth not ſay for him and his Heirs, and dyeth, now the time of Election to make it an Annuity is paſt; and therefore if the Grantee bringeth a Writ of Annuity againſt the Heir, it ſhall not diſcharge the Land, becauſe when no Election doth remain, it is as much in Law as if the Election had never bin. 17 Eliz. Dyer, 344.

3. A Scire facias upon a Recognizance in Chancery, the Defendant was returned dead: whereupon a ſecond Scire facias iſſued againſt the Heir of C. and againſt the Tenants of the Lands of C. which he had tempore recognitionis vel poſtea: Whereupon the Sheriff returned F. Ter-Tenant of ſuch Lands, and omitted to return any thing concerning the Heir; Upon this the Defendant pleaded, That C. had nothing in the Land at the time of the Recognizance, or ever after; which being tryed, it was found, that C. was ſeiſed, and a Verdict for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there was nothing returned concerning the Heir, and therefore no Judgment could be given. It was Reſolved by the Court, That although the Return had bin better, if he had found who was Heir, and that he was warned, or that there was not any Heir in the ſaid County. Yet it was holden good enough: For anciently the Scire facias was only againſt the Ter-Tenant; and the Heir was not charged in the Scire facias but as Ter-Tenant; and if the Return be not good or formall, yet it was helped by the Statute of Jeofailes; and miſ-return, and inſufficient Return, quoad the Heir is but a Diſcontinuance which is helped by the Statute: Wherefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Trin. 9 Car. in B. R. Eyres and Taunions Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 215. and 228. And Hill. 1 Car. In a Scire facias againſt the Heir, and Ter-Tenant, he is only charged as Ter-Tenant: And by pleading riens by diſcent, and found againſt him, the Execution was againſt the moyety of his Land, and not of all, as the Heir ſhould have bin upon a falſe Plea. Hill. 1 Car. Bowyer and Rivets Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 215. See Poph. 153. acc.

4. Debt againſt an Heir, who pleaded Riens by Diſcent the day of the Action brought: The Plaintiff pleaded, That before he brought another Writ againſt the ſame Heir, upon the ſame Bond in this Court, and the Defendant was Outlawed, which Outlawry, for the inſufficiency of Proclamations, was reverſed, and he freſhly brought this Writ, and averred, that the Defendant had Aſſets the day of the firſt Writ: Whereupon the Defendant demurred. It was the Opinion of the Court againſt the Plaintiff, for that the Defendant had alienced the Aſſets before the ſecond Writ was brought, and then he is not chargeable. The like hath bin pleaded againſt the Executor, but no Judgment hath bin given in theſe Caſes. Hill. 12 Jac. in C. B. Spray and Sherrots Caſe. Hob. 248.

5. Debt brought in London againſt the Heir upon an Obligation made by his Father, who pleaded, Nothing by diſcent at the time of the Writ brought; and the Plaintiff did aver Aſſets by diſcent in London, in the Pariſh and Ward aforeſaid. And in Evidence, gave Aſſets in Cornwall; and if it were good Evidence, or the Jury might find it, was the Queſtion. It was conceived, That it was not good Evidence, nor the Jury could not find it, being a local matter, 10 Eliz. Dyer, 271. But ſee Cook 6. Part, 47. that being but for conformity and neceſſity of tryall to alledg a certain place. Yet it was Reſolved, That the Jurors might find Aſſets by diſcent in any other County within England: And the Law is, That in ſuch Caſe the Plaintiff ſhall have in Execution all the Lands which the Heir hath, and perhaps he hath Lands in divers Counties; and therefore although that one place be named for neceſſity, yet the Jurors may find all that which by Law ſhall be chargeable in ſuch Caſe, in what Towns or Counties ſoever it lyeth. Cook 6. Part, 47. Dowdall's Caſe.

6. If a man binds himſelf in an Obligation and his his Heirs, and he hath Lands and heirs on the part of his Father, and alſo on the part of his Mother; one of the heirs and his Land ſhall not be only charged, but the Heirs and Lands of both parts ſhall be equally charged. Cook 2. Part, 25. in the Caſe of Bankrupts, &c.

3. Where, and what Chattels or other things perſonall, the Heir ſhall have after the death of his Anncestor; What not.

1. IT was adjudged in the Common-Pleas, That Waſte might be committed in glaſſe annexed to Windowes, for it is parcel of the houſe, and ſhall diſcend as parcel of the Inheritance to the Heir, and the Executors ſhall not have them: and although that the Leſſee himſelf at his own Coſts, put the glaſſe in the Windowes; yet the ſame is parcel of the houſe, and he cannot take it away, or waſte it, but he ſhall be puniſhed in Waſte. Cook 4. Part, 63. in Herlakenden's Caſe.

2. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That glaſſe annexed to Windows by nayls, or in other manner by the Leſſor or Leſſee, cannot be removed by the Leſſee; for without glaſſe, it is an imperfect houſe, and by Leaſe or grant of the houſe, it ſhall paſſe as parcel thereof, and the heir ſhall have the glaſſe, and not the Executors; and there is no difference, if it be faſtned by Nayls, Screws, or Irons through the Poſts or Wales; and ſo it is of Wainſcot by any of thoſe wayes; they are parcel of the houſe, and the heir ſhall have them as parcel of his Inheritance. Mich. 42 Eliz. in C.B. Warner and Flettwood's Caſe. Ibid.

3. A man hath not an abſolute property in things which are feræ naturæ; but he may have a Qualified property in them: If a man hath Beaſts which are ſavage, ratione privilegii, as by reaſon of a Park, Warren, there he hath not abſolute property in the Deer, for in treſpaſſe he ſhall not ſay ſuos; but in ſuch caſe they belong to him ratione privilegii: and they ſhall not go to his Executors, but the Heir ſhall have the Deer. And ſee, that the Heir may have an Inheritance in a Swan-mark; and that appears in Stew. v. l's Caſe; viz. Notum ſit omnibus, Quod ego Johannes Steward Conceſſi ſ'lio meo primogenito et hæredibus ſuis Cigni notam meum armorum meorum prout in margine lateralı pingitur quæ mihi jure hæreditari diſcendebat poſt mortem patris mei, Habendum ſibi et hæredibus ſuis una cum omnibus Cignis, et cygnicalis, &c. Cook 7. Part, 17. in the Caſe of Swans.

4. In Treſpaſſe for entring into his Cloſe, and taking of Fiſh out of his Fiſh-Pond with Nets and other Engines; the Defendant pleaded, That A. was ſeiſed of the Cloſe and Pond, and put the Fiſhes into the Pond, and made the Defendant his Executor, and dyed; and that he as his Executor took the Fiſhes. It was adjudged in that caſe, That the heir ſhould have the Fiſhes in the Pond, and not the Executors, for that they are Chattels diſcendable. Clench ſaid, But it is Felony to take them. Popham, If they be in a Trench, ſo as they may be taken with the hands of men, without Nets, or other ſuch Engines, it is Felony: otherwiſe not. Hill. 43 Eliz. B. R. Girley and Trewes Caſe. Goldesbr. 129.

More Heirs.

1. IN a Formedon in the Diſcender, it behoves the Demandant to make himſelf Son and Heir, or Coſen and Heir to him who was laſt actually ſeiſed by force of the tail; for a later Seiſin in any heir in tail after, ſhall abate the Writ: and it behoveth him who was laſt ſeiſed, to make himſelf Heir to the Donee; or otherwiſe the Writ is naught, and it is not ſufficient that he be named Son; for he may be Son, and not Heir. Cook 8. Part, 88. in Buckmers Caſe.

2. A man mortgaged Lands, upon Condition, That if he or his heirs repay 100 l. at ſuch a day, he ſhall re-enter: he dyes, leaving Iſſue a daughter only, his wife being privily enſient with child of a Son; the daughter and heir at the day payes the 100 l; and afterwards the Son is born: Whether the Son ſhould enter upon the Siſter, or that ſhe ſhould retain the Land for ever, was the Queſtion? It was the Opinion of the greater part of the Juſtices, That the Siſter ſhould retain the Land againſt the Son born; for in as much as ſhe paid the money, (and if ſhe had not paid it, the Land had been loſt) if ſhe could not retain the Land againſt the Son, ſhe hath no remedy for the money: and by payment thereof, ſhe hath gained the Land, and is in as a Purchaſor, although ſhe was entituled to it by a Condition, and as heir: Some other Juſtices held contrary, becauſe ſhe hath it as heir, and then the nearer heir being born, ſhall defeat her. And her payment was voluntary, which ſhe might have omitted. Mich. 13 Car. in the Court of Wards. Kirtons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 61.

3. Theſe Points were Reſolved by the Juſtices, in a Caſe referred unto them, out of the Court of Wards: 1. That a Divorce being by Sentence in the Spiritual Court, between K. and his Wife, Cauſa præcontractus, the parties being dead between whom it was, the Court of Wards cannot now examine, to prove another heir, againſt that Sentence. 2. That one being by Office found heir, another exhibiting his Bill to traverſe that Office, ſhall not be admitted thereunto, untill he hath another Office finding him to be Heir. 3. That where a Bill is to be admitted to a Traverſe which abates by the death of the Defendant, and a Bill of Reviver is exhibited, which abates by death or marriage of the Plaintiff, that there cannot be any Bill of Reviver: For a Bill of Reviver cannot be after a Bill of Reviver. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Robertſon and the Lady Stalleges Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 186.

4. In Ejectione Firmæ, The Cuſtome of a Mannor was, That upon the death of every Copyhold, his Heir ſhould pay ſuch a Fine as ſhould be reaſonably aſſeſſed: and further the Cuſtome was, That if a Copyholder dyed, and the Heir cometh not the next Court to be admitted, Proclamation ſhall be made; and if after 3. Proclamations, the Heir cometh not in, the Lord ſhall ſeize the Copyhold: A. Copyholder dyed, his death was preſented, and that W. was his Heir, and Proclamations were made at 3. Courts, and the Heir did not come, and therefore the Lord ſeiſed the Copyhold: It was ſhewed. That the heir at the time was beyond the Seas; and afterwards having Notice of the death of his Anceſtor, he tendered his Fine, and entred, and let the Land to the Plaintiff: The Queſtion was, Whether his being beyond Sea, ſhould excuſe him of the Forfeiture? It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That it was no Forfeiture; for the Heir being beyond the Seas, ſhall not be intended, to have knowledg of the diſcent, nor of the Proclamations, and therefore is excuſable, as well as if being beyond Sea, he ſhall be excuſed from an Outlawry, from a Diſcent, which takes away an entry, and from a Non-claim upon a Fine at the Common Law. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 7 Jac. in B. R. Sanderbill and Kelſeys Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 226.

5. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That Coats of Arms placed in any Window, or Monument in the Church or Church-yard, cannot be beaten down and defaced by the Parſon, Ordinary, Churchwardens, or any other: And if they be, the Heir by diſcent intereſſed in the Coat, may have an Action of Treſpaſſe. 9 E. 4. 14. Sir William Witches Caſe. And ſo it was Reſolved in Pymm and Garrens Caſe, 11 Jac. in C. B. for the Heir as well inheritable to Arms, as to Heireloones, Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Francis and Leyt Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 367.

6. A man made a Leaſe for years, Reſerving a Rent to him, his Executors, and Aſſigns, during the Term; the Leſſor dyed; and his Heir who had the Reverſion, brought Debt for the Rent: It was urged, That the Rent was incident to the Reverſion, and therefore the heir ſhould have an Action of the Rent. But it was Reſolved, That the Action would not lye by the heir: For when a man paſſeth Lands from himſelf, the Law gives him liberty to paſſe them in ſuch manner as he will; and this liberty ought to take effect according to the expreſſe words; for the Law will not extend them farther: for his intent ſhall appear by the words; and then it cannot be intended that the Heir ſhould have the Rent, becauſe the words are not ſufficient to give it to the Heir. Hil. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Richmonds Caſe, Owen 9.

7. It was found by Office, That J. S. who held the Mannor of D. of the Queen, dyed without Heir: whereupon W. S. as Heir to him, did traverſe the ſaid Office; and was at Iſſue with the Queen, If Heir or not? (depending which Suit) he made a Feoffment in Fee, with a Letter of Attorney to make Livery. It was found againſt the Queen, and Judgment given againſt her; and before Amoveas Manum, the Attorney made Livery. It was adjudged good; for by the Judgment againſt the Queen, her poſſeſſion was utterly defeated, and the poſſeſſion was in the party before any Amoveas Manum is ſued forth: for that ſerves but to compell the Eſcheator to avoid the poſſeſſion, if he holds the Land after the Judgment; and in ſuch caſe, no Livery is neceſſary to be ſued: and therefore, the Feoffment in the principal Caſe is good, and ſhall bind the Heir. Mich. 37 Eliz. in C. B. Brown and Hervyes Caſe. Owen, 115.

8. In Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of the Land in Queſtion, and of 20. Acres of Lands more in Fee, had Iſſue 3. ſons, James, William, and Anthony; and gave to W. his ſecond ſon, 10 Acres of the 20; and to Anthony, other 10 Acres, and gave to James his eldeſt ſon, the Land in Queſtion, and willed, That when James ſhould dye without heirs of his body, that W. ſhould be his heir, and Anthony ſhould have his part; and if either the ſaid William or Anthony ſhould dye, that then one of them ſhould be the others Heir; and dyed: James dyed without Iſſue; William dyed, having Iſſue R. under whom the Defendant claimed: upon whom Anthony entred, and made the Leaſe: It was adjudged, That the Plaintiff ſhould be barred: for the laſt clauſe, That W. and A. ſhould be the others heirs, was to be applyed only to the 20. Acres, which either of them might take from the other; and not to the Lands given to James: Then touching thoſe, ſince there was no

Eſtate

Eſtate given to James, and that for default of Iſſue, W. ſhould be his Heir, that gave W. an Eſtate of Inheritance either in Fee-ſimple, or ſuch entail as James had: for although none can be truly Heir, but ſuch as the Law makes Heir, yet there is an Heir by appellation, and vulgar acceptance; and therefore if by my Will I appoint that J. S. ſhall be Heir of my Land, he ſhall have it in Fee; for ſuch Eſtate as the Anceſtor hath, he is to inherit: And therefore in the principal Caſe, the word Heir, in the later clauſe between W. and A. ſhall give him but an Eſtate for life, becauſe the brother to whom he is made Heir, had but an Eſtate for life before. Hill. 11 Jac. in C.B. Spark and Parnell's Caſe. Hob. 75.

9. Upon a Special Verdict, upon the words of a Will; The words were theſe; I make my Coſin Giles Bridges my ſoll ayere and Executor: the Queſtions were; 1. Whether any Eſtate paſſed by the words of the Will. 2. What Eſtate paſſed. And, 3. Whether the falſe Orthography did hurt the Will. It was Objected, That the Lands did not paſſe: and if they did paſſe, yet they paſſed but an Eſtate for life. And it was Objected, That there is no neceſſary implication, that the Teſtator intended to deviſe his Lands, and the Will doth not ſay, he makes him his Heir of his Lands, but generally his heir: which by the Civil Law may extend to goods. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That here although the words of the Will be not proper, yet we may collect the Teſtators meaning to be, by making of the party his Heir, that he ſhould have his Lands: and it is all one, as if he had ſaid, Heir of my Lands. And here he not only makes him his Heir, but his Executor alſo; and therefore if he ſhall not have his Lands, the word [Heir] is meerly nugatory, and to no purpoſe; for by being Executor only, he ſhall have the goods: and he is in this caſe, hares factus, though not hares natus. And the word Heir, implyes two things: 1. That he ſhall have the Lands: 2. That he ſhall have them in Fee-ſimple. Hill. 1650. in B. R. Taylor and Webb's Caſe. Styles, 301, 302, 307, 308, 319.

10. Note: There is a difference between Lineal and Collateral heirs: If a man be ſeiſed of Lands in Fee-ſimple, and his eldeſt ſon be attainted of Felony, and dye in the life of his Father without Iſſue; the ſecond brother ſhall immediately inherit from the Father: but otherwiſe it will be, if the Elder brother or his Iſſue ſurvive the father. 32 H. 8. Dyer, 48. Mar. 334. in Mack-Williams Caſe, &c.

Homage and Fealty; and Homage Auncestrel.

1. THere is a two-fold Homage; viz. Homagium Ligeum; which is that which we call Legiance, which is that which Bracton ſaith, Soli Regi debetur ſine Dominio ſeu Servitio: It was an Oath, which the Saxons long before the Conqueſt, took of their Subjects and Vaſſals, Sir Ed. Cook, Lib. 7. in Calvin's Caſe, ſaith, It was inſtituted firſt by King Arthur: for amongſt the Laws, Sancti Edwardi Regis, Cap. 35. it is, Quod Omnes Principes et Comites, Proceres, Milites et liberi homines debent jurare, &c. in Falkmote. Et ſimiliter, omnes Proceres, et Milites, et liberi homines univerſi totius Regni Britannia, facere debent in pleno Falkmote fidelitatem Domino Regi. Hanc legem invenit Arthurus, qui quondam fuit Inclitiſſimus Rex Britanniæ. Hujus Legis authoritate expulit Arthurus Rex Saracenos, et inimicos, à regno ſuo, &c. Et hujus Authoritate Ethelredus uno et eodem die per univerſum ſuum Regnum Danos occidit. But long before that time, you ſhall find, That the Oath of Fealty and Allegiance was in ure: For Malmesbury Reports that in the Life of King Edgar, That there came to the Court, Kenadie King of Scots, Malcolme King of Cumberland, The Arch-Pirate Macteff; all the Kings of the Welſh, Duſual, Griffeth, Hoel Dha; whom King Edgar bound to himſelf in a perpetual Oath of Fealty. See Selden. Title of Honour.

2. Homagium Feudale, had his Original upon the Creation, of Feuds, or Tenures, which alſo was in the Saxons time, long before the Norman Conqueſt: For, it is found, that in the Saxons time King Alfred at Peace with Gauthurn the Dane, whom he wonne over to the Faith, gave him the Province of the Eaſt Angles, and Northumberland, to be poſſeſſed by a feodall and hereditary right; viz. under Fealty of the King, that he might preſerve that by hereditary right, which he had invaded by robbery. Melmesbury de rebus geſtis. See Concill. Sax. 379.

3. Homagium Ligeum, is inſeparable from the perſon of the King; nor can it be reſpited: but Homagium feudale may be reſpited. Cook 7. Part, in Calvin's Caſe.

4. Mr. Littleton: Homage is the moſt Honourable, and the moſt humble Service that the Tenant can do to his Lord; for when the Tenant ſhall do Homage to his Lord, he ſhall kneel upon both his knees ungirded, bare-headed; and the Lord ſhall ſit, and hold the hands of his Tenant between his hands; and the Tenant ſhall ſay, Jeo devenge voſtre home; i. e. I become your man from this day forward for life and member, and ſhall bear to you faith, for the Lands which I claim to hold of you: ſaving that Faith which I owe to our Lord the King. See Litt. 18 & 29 E. 3. 49. by Mowbray, for the manner of doing Homage.

5. Where Homage is done to the perſon of the King; It is done in theſe or the like words: See the Homage of Oneal; Ego Nolanus Oneal Senior tam pro meipſo, quam pro filiis meis, et tota Natione mea, et Patentelis meis et pro omnibus ſubditis meis devenio Legeus homo veſter. Sir John Davis, Lib. 1. of the Conqueſt of Ireland, 48.

6. The Kings Chamberlain may receive Homage for the King: but then it muſt be by a Privy Seal directed unto him from the King to receive it, 12 H. 4. Tit. Livery, 4.

7. When the Tenant doth Fealty to the Lord, he taketh an Oath, that he ſhall be faithful and loyal to the Lord, and bear faith to him for the Tenements which he claimeth to hold of him. Homage is the moſt honourable, and the moſt humble Service that the Tenant can do to his Lord; but Fealty is a more ſacred ſervice then Homage: for that it is made upon Oath, and the other not: and the words in the Oath of Fealty; ſcil. to be faithful and loyal, and to bear faith for the Tenements which he claimeth to hold of him, are alſo parcel of the words of doing of Homage. And that is the reaſon, that the Law maketh ſo great account of the Seiſin of thoſe ſervices of Homage and Fealty; for Seiſin of them is ſo inеſtimable in the Law, that no diſtreſſe for them of any goods, or Chattels (of what value ſoever), is exceſſive in Judgment of Law; and although that the Lord often diſtrain for them, ſo that the Tenant cannot till his Land; yet the Tenant ſhall not have an Aſſiſe of Sovent diſtreſſe, as he ſhall have for Rent and other profits: And Seiſin of Homage, is Seiſin of Superiour and Inferiour Services. Cook 4. Part, 8. Bevill's Caſe.

8. A man may hold by Homage and Fealty, and yet they ſhall never be done by him: As if Lands holden by Homage and Fealty, be conveyed to Mayor and Commonalty, or to other Corporation aggregate of many perſons; in this caſe they ſhall hold by Homage and Fealty, but they ſhall never do them. And yet in ſuch caſe, although they have enjoyed the Lands above 60 years; yet if they alien the Land, the Lord may diſtrain for the Homage and Fealty. 33 H. 8. Br. Fealty, 15.

9. If the King grant to me at this day, Quod Ego, et hominis mei, ſhall be acquitted from the payment of Toll; I and my men, Villeins and Homages, ſhall be acquitted by that Grant: for that the words of Homageres are, I become your Man; as Littleton is, 14 H. 6. by Choine and Junc. Fitz. tit. Grants, 9.

10. A man ſhall do Homage but once: And therefore, If Lands diſcend to me, which is holden of the ſame Lord by Homage; I ſhall do Fealty again to him; but I ſhall not do Homage again: and if both Lands are holden of the King by Homage, he ſhall not ſue reſpite of Homage in the Exchequer, but for one Homage only. 24 H. 8. Br. Fealtie, 8.

11. Note. It is holden, 14 H. 4. 5. by Hankford, That an Enfant may do Homage, and it is ſufficient for the Lord to avow upon that Seiſin. And ſee, 32 E. 3. Fitz. tit. Age, 80. by Thorp, A man may ſee, That an Enfant ſhall do Homage by his Friends: Yet there in a Per Que Servitia againſt an Enfant of the age of 3. years. It was ſaid by the Court, That he ſhould be attendant by Fealty and other Services by which he held of the Conuſor, and ſhould not do homage: yet the Plaintiff there declared, That he held by Homage.

12. The Husband ſeiſed in the right of his wife, ſhall not do Homage untill Iſſue had, and then he alone ſhall do the Homage. 7 E. 4. 12. 10 H. 6. 24. but after the death of the Wife, he ſhall not do Homage. And ſee, whereas it is ſaid in Litt. that, Mich. 15 E. 3. it hath been ſeen, that the husband and wife have done Homage in the Common-Pleas. See for that, Fitzh. Na. Br. 217. That the wife ſhall not do the Homage with her husband, becauſe the Homage is left for the time, Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 66.

13. It is regularly true, That when a Tenant hath once done Homage to his Lord, he is excluded for the Term of his life, to do Homage to any other alience, or heirs of the Lord: but in ſome caſe, the Rule faileth; as in the Caſe following; viz. A. holdeth of B. as of his Manor of D. whereof B. is ſeiſed in tail; B. diſcontinueth the Eſtate tail, and taketh back an Eſtate in Fee-ſimple: A. doth Homage to B; B. dyeth ſeiſed, and the Iſſue in tail entreth. In this caſe, A. ſhall do Homage again to the heir of B, becauſe he is remitted to the Eſtate tail, and the Eſtate in which his Father had (in reſpect whereof the Homage was done) is vaniſhed.

vanished, and therefore the homage it self is also vanished; for the heir in tail is in of a new Estate, in respect whereof, A. ought to do a new Homage. And so it is when the Tenant hath done his Homage, and the Mannor is afterwards recovered from the Lord in a Precipe by a stranger, the Tenant shall do Homage again to the stranger, because the Estate of him who received the first Homage, is defeated by the Recovery. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 103.

14. See Temps. E. 1. title, Jurisdiction, 13. It is holden, That a Parson shall not take Homage; but contrary of a Bishop.

15. The Tenant for life of Seignory, shall have the Wardship of the heir of the Tenant, because it is a profit; but he shall not have his Homage or Escuage, because it is a Real Service. 6 E. 2. Gard. 122. by Wilby.

16. 19 E. 2. tit. Fines, 71. Tenant for life may hold by Knights-Service, and do Escuage, but he cannot do Homage: the Case there was, Of a Lease for life to hold by Knights-Service; the Remainder in tail by Socage. And it was holden to be a good reservation, although the Tenant for life held by one service, and he in the Remainder by another service.

17. Homage Auncestrel is, Where a man and his Auncestors time out of mind did hold their Land of the Lord by Homage; If such Lord hath received Homage, he is bound to acquit the Tenant against all other Lords above him of every manner of Service: And if the Tenant hath done Homage to his Lord, and is impleaded, and voucheth his Lord to Warranty, the Lord is bound to warrant the Lands to him; and if the Tenant loseth, he shall recover in value against the Lord, so much as he hath at the time of the voucher, or any time after.

18. Where there is Homage Auncestrel betwixt an Abbot and Covent, and their Tenant, If the Abby be dissolved, although that a new one be founded of the same name, and all the possessions be granted unto them; yet the Homage Auncestrel is gone. So it is, If a man in his Natural Capacity holds by Homage Auncestrel, and sells the Lands to another, although he repurchase the Lands again, yet is the Homage Auncestrel destroyed. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 102. and 202.

19. Tenant by Homage Auncestrel, maketh a Feoffment in Fee on the part of the Feoffor; the heir performs the Condition, and enters; the Homage is destroyed in respect of the Interruption of the Continuance of the privity betwixt the Lord and the Tenant: But if the Recovery be against the heir by feyned title, and he recover the Land again, the Auncient Tenure doth remain, because the right was a sufficient means to continue the privity. Mich. 14 Eliz. agreed in the Lord Cromwell's Case.

20. In case of Homage Auncestrel, there is a speciall Warranty in Law, That all the Land which the Lord hath at the time of the voucher, shall be lyable to Execution in value, whether he hath the Land by discent, or by purchase, because the Voucher is in the place of an Action; but in case of an Expresse Warranty, the heir shall be charged only with the Land which he had by discent by the Auncestor who created the Warranty. See 28 E. 1. Voucher, 291. 9 E. 2. Warr. Charta, 20. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 103.

21. If the Lord grant the Services of his Tenant by Homage Auncestrel, the Tenant shall not be compelled in a Per Que Servitia to attorn, unlesse upon a grant of the Seignory, he will grant in Court to warrant the Land to him: And if the Tenant vouch by force of this Warranty in Law; It is a good Counter-Plea, that the Tenant or any of his Auncestors recepit de servitio suo, et fecit servitium A. B. sine aliquo conditione de sua propria voluntate. 18 H. 6. 2. by Newton.

22. The Service of Homage is so near annexed to the person as well of the Lords side as of the Tenant, that the Tenant ought to seek the Lord, to the end that he may do him homage, if the Lord be within the Realm. And see Bracton, Lib. 2. Cap. 8. Sciendum est quod ille qui homagium suum facere debet obtentum reverentia quam debet Domino adire debet Dominum suum. ubicunq; fuerit inventus in regno vel alibi, si possit commode adiri, et non tenetur Dominus quærere Tenementum suum, et sic debet homagium suum facere. See Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 104.

23. If the Tenant who holdeth by Homage Auncestrel, maketh a Feoffment in Fee of the Land, to his own use; the Acquital is gone and destroyed: as it was holden 21 Eliz. in the Reading of Windham; and so if he alien upon Condition, and after doth enter for the Condition broken, the Acquittal is destroyed. Like the Case of Coparceners; If one of them after partition made, makes a Feoffment in Fee, and takes back again to her and her heirs; yet the privity of Estate to have Aide, or to deraigne the Warranty, paramount is destroyed.

24. Note. Although it be said by Littleton, 33. that if the Tenant hath done once Homage to the Father; that he shall not do Homage to the Son again: Yet see Brook, Tit. Homage and Fealtie, 4. The Tenant may cause the Son to receive his Homage by a Writ de Homagio Capiendo, to have the benefit of his Warranty. See 45 E. 3. 23. acc.

Homage

Honnors.

2. A Copyholder of the Mannor of Tuddington, where the Cuſtome was, That any Copyholder might ſurrender out of Court into the hands of two Tenants of the Mannor, to the uſe of any other) ſurrendred into the hands of two ſuch Tenants of the ſaid Mannor, to the uſe of B. and C. ſon of the ſaid B. and the longeſt liver of them both: and for want of Iſſue of the body of C. the Lands to remain to the uſe of M. Wife of J. S. this ſurrender was preſented: B. and C. his Son were admitted accordingly. Afterwards B. and C. his Son dyed without Iſſue. The Verdict found, That the Land was cuſtomary Land of the Mannor of Tuddington, and that the ſurrender ought to be into the hands of two Tenants of the ſaid Mannor; but the Copy of the ſurrender was found in hec verba Tuddington, in the Margent, viz. at the Court Baron of the Honnor of Hampton; J. S. and J. D. Tenants of the Honor of Hampton do preſent, That A. did ſurrender into the hands of two Tenants of the Honor, &c. ut ſupra. It was objected, That that being a Court of the Honor, and the ſurrender being into the hands of the two Tenants of the Honor, was not good. But it was holden by the Juſtices, That the ſurrender was good enough: For Tuddington being in the Margent, it ſhall be ſaid a diſtinct Court by it ſelf. For an Honor conſiſts of many Mannors; yet all the Courts of the Mannors are diſtinguiſhed, and have ſeveral Copyholders; and although there is for all the Mannors but one Court, yet they are quaſi ſeveral and diſtinct Courts: whereupon it was adjudged, That the ſurrender was good, and Judgment given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 8 Car. in B.R. Seagood and Honts Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 267.

2. In a Quo Warranto, for uſing Liberties within the Town of Petworth, and in keeping a Fair and Market, and taking of Toll, the Defendant juſtified under the Title of the Earl of Northumberland; and ſhewed, That 5 Mariæ, the Honor of Petworth was conveyed by Act of Parliament to the Earl of Northumberland, and the Heirs Males of his body, the Remainder to H. P. in tail, with all Markets, Fairs, Tolls, &c. and that the ſaid Earl dyed, and that the ſame diſcended to the now Earl of Northumberland, ſon of the ſaid H. P. and ſhewed, that there was an Officer called the Baylift and Portreen of Petworth, that uſed to take Toll of every one, by reaſon whereof he did take Toll of ſome of the Tenants of the Earl of Arundel; and the Queſtion hereupon came betwixt the two Earls, Whether the Mannor of Petworth be within the Honor of Petworth: And whether this Honor of Petworth was holden of the Honor of Arundel or not. In proof that Petworth was an Honor, was ſhewed, the grant or confirmation of Hen. 2. Dux Normandiæ, de Honore de Petworth. In the time of R. 2. it was called an Honor and Barony; and a gift made to John Duke Holland of Exeter, of all his Honors, Mannors, and Barronies of Petworth: and divers other Preſidents were ſhewed, where it was called the Honor of Petworth; 19 E. 4. Magnum Dominium de Petworth. It was objected, That H. 2. Dux Normandy was but a Subject, for by the mediation of Maud the Empreſſe, the Dukedome of Normandy was granted to him; and it was granted him by the name of Dux Normandiæ et amicus noſter, but he did not name himſelf King: And it was ſaid, an Honor could not be granted by a Subject, but by the King himſelf. But the Opinion of the Court was, That a man might have an Honor, a Barony, or an Earldome by Preſcription: On the other ſide, It was ſaid, That Petworth was no Honor, but that the ſame was parcel of the Honor of Arundell; and a Book called Extenta terrarum, Comitatum of the Earl of Arundell, and of eight Hundreds there named to be belonging to the Earl of Arundell, whereof Petworth was one; and it was ſaid, That one Honor cannot be holden of another. But the Jury found Petworth to be an Honor, and that the Mannor of Petworth was parcel of the Honor of Petworth, and that they had the ordering of a Fair, Market, and uſed to take Toll of all, except of the Earl of Arundell's Copyhold-Tenants, and Free Tenants. And the Court did all agree, That the Jury had done well, and had given a good Verdict; for the Jury found, That they had Toll of ſtrangers, but not of others, ſcil. of the Tenants of the Honor of the Earl of Arundell. Paſc. 10 Jac. The King and Levets Caſe, Bulſt. 1. Part, 195, 196, 197.

3. King H. 6. by his Letters Patents, in conſideration of the good Service of John Earl of Shrewſbury in the City of Waterford in Ireland, et pro eo quod terra prædict. noſtra in Hibernia contra inimicorum et Rebellium noſtrorum inſultus potentias defendat. created him Earl of Waterford, to him and the Heirs Males of his body: and further granted him the Caſtles, Honors, Mannors of Dungervan, to hold by Homage and Fealty; and by the Service to be his Majeſties Seneſchal of the Realm of Ireland. Afterwards in the Parliament of Abſentees, 10 May, 28 H. 8. by the long abſence of George Earl of Shrewſbury, Heir Male of the ſaid Earl. It was enacted, That the King ſhould have and enjoy in the right of his Crown, all Henors, &c. and all and ſingular the poſſeſſions Spiritual and Temporal whatſoever of the ſaid George Earl of Shrewsbury and Waterford. King Hen. 8. reciting the ſaid Act Des Abſentees, Nottatur ſtatum & Dignitatem prædicti Comitatus diminute ſed amplius augere, did grant to the ſaid Earl and his Heirs, divers Mannors and Lands within the Counties of Nottingham, York, and Derby. The Queſtions were, 1. Whether by the long abſence of the Earl of Shrewsbury out of Ireland, the ſaid Title of Honor of Earl of Waterford, were loſt or forfeited. 2. If by the ſaid Act of Abſentees, the title of Dignity of Earl of Waterford be taken away as well as the ſaid Mannors, Lands, and other Hereditaments. It was Reſolved, 1. That foraſmuch as it doth not appear what defect was requiſite, and that the conſideration Executory was not found to be broken, that the ſaid Earl did remain Earl of Waterford. 2. It was Reſolved, That the ſaid Act Des Abſentees, did not only take away the poſſeſſions which were granted him at the time of his Creation, but alſo the Dignity it ſelf; for although one may have a Dignity without poſſeſſions, yet it was very inconvenient that Dignity ſhould be cloathed with Poverty. And the Duke of Bedford (George Nevil, by Act of Parliament 17 E. 4. was degraded, becauſe the ſaid George Nevil had not by inheritance any livelihood to ſupport the Name, Title, and Dignity of a Duke. 12 Jac. referred to the Juſtices. The Earl of Shrewsbury's Caſe. Cook 8. Part, 106, 107, 108.

4. The Counteſs Rivers was arreſted by a Bill of Middleſex, and prayed her Privilege; ſhe being created a Counteſs under the Great Seal; but becauſe the Letters Patents did not mention any Inſtance of her, nor name her Counteſs of any place, nor ſhe never had reference to Parliament; nor to any other publick ſervice; for theſe cauſes, the Privilege to be free from Arreſt, was denyed her by the Court. Hill. 1650. in B. R. The Counteſs Rivers Caſe. Styles 252.

5. It was Reſolved, That the name of a Dignity; as of an Earl, Viſcount, &c. might be entailed by the Kings Letters Patents, to one and the Heirs Males of his body, and that it is not within the Statute of Donis Conditionalibus; and every Earl, Viſcount, or Baron, is created of ſome place certain; and ſuch Dignity might be forfeited by an Attainder of Treaſon at the Common Law, by reaſon of a Condition tacitè annexed to the Dignity; and alſo ſuch a Dignity is forfeitable for Treaſon by expreſs words within the Statute of 26 H. 8. of Treaſon. 7. Part, Nevills Caſe.

Hoſteler, Inkeeper, or In-holder.

1. IN an Action upon the Caſe againſt an Inholder upon the Cuſtome of England for not ſafe keeping of the Plaintiffs goods, the Caſe was, The Defendant pleaded, That they were not carried away by the default of him or his ſervants. It was found upon the Evidence, That the Gueſt came to the Inn to lodg there, and the Inkeeper ſaid, That his houſe was full with Gueſts, and did not admit him; and the party ſaid he would make ſhift amongſt his other gueſts, and he was there robbed of his goods. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Inkeeper ſhould not be charged with the goods loſt, becauſe he refuſed the gueſt: But in that Caſe, it was holden, if the cauſe of refuſal was falſe, then an Action upon the Caſe would lye againſt the Inholder. Paſc. 5 Ma. Dyer, 158.

2. An In-holder commanded his gueſt to put his goods into ſuch a place under lock, otherwiſe he would not Warrant them; the gueſt ſuffered them to lye in the outward Court, where they were taken away. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Inkeeper ſhould not be charged with the goods. Mich. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 266.

3. An Action upon the Caſe lyeth againſt an Inn-keeper, who denyes lodging to a Traveller for his money if he hath ſpare lodging, becauſe he hath ſubjected himſelf to keep a common Inn: But in ſuch Action brought, the Plaintiff needeth not ſhew that the Inn-keeper hath a License to keep the Inn. And in this Caſe, it was holden, That if an Inn-keeper doth take down his Sign, and yet keepeth an Hoſtery, an Action upon the Caſe will lye againſt him if he do deny lodging to a Traveller for his mony, but if he taketh down his Sign, and giveth over the keeping of an Inn, then he is diſcharged from giving lodging. It was holden in this Caſe, That it is lawfull to erect an Inn, if it be not in Nocumentum: And if one be endicted for erecting of a common Inn, if the endictment be not ad Nocumentum, it is inſufficient, and not good. Tr. 21 Jac. in B. R. Godbolt. 340.

4. In an Action upon the Caſe againſt a common Inn-keeper, theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That if a man commeth to a common Inn, and giveth his Horſe to the Hoſtler, and requires him to put him to Paſture, and he doth ſo, and the Horſe is ſtolen; ſtolen, the Hoſtler ſhall not anſwer for it, becauſe it is not infra hoſpitium; but if the Inn keeper put the Horſe to graſs without requeſt, which is Poſſea, he ſhall anſwer for it. 2. Reſolved, That if a man be lodged with any who is not an Inn-keeper, upon requeſt, and his goods be ſtole by Servants; the party who lodged him ſhall not anſwer for them: And in a Writ brought againſt an Inn-keeper, the Writ needs not to mention, that he keeps a common Inn. 3. Reſolved, That an Inn-keeper ſhall not anſwer for the goods, unleſſe there be default in him in the ſafe keeping and cuſtody of them. And it is no plea in an Action brought againſt him, to ſay that he delivered the key of the Chamber to the Gueſt: And he ſhall be charged, although that the goods were not delivered to the Inn keeper, or that the party did not acquaint him with them; but if the ſervant of the Gueſt, or other at the requeſt of the Gueſt lodgeth with him, who ſteals the parties goods; the Inn-keeper ſhall not be charged with them. Cook 8. Part, 1. Calyes Caſe.

5. In Trover and Converſion, the Caſe was; One poſſeſſed of five Kine, delivered them to Paſturage to the Defendant, and agreed to pay him 12 d for every Cow weekly as long as they remained with him at Paſture. Afterwards he ſold them to the Plaintiff, who required them of the Defendant, who refuſed to deliver them to the Plaintiff, unleſs he would pay for the Paſturage of them for the time they had bin with him, which came to 10 l. Afterwards J. S. paid to him the 10 l. by the appointment of the firſt owner; whereupon he delivered them to B. It was holden in this Caſe, That this denyal upon demand and delivery of them to J. S. was a Converſion, and that he might not detain the Cattel againſt him that bought them, but is put to his Action for the Paſturage. And it is not like to the Caſe of an Inn-keeper, for he may retain the Horſe delivered unto him, untill he be ſatisfied for his Paſturage, or other meat. Hill. 7 Car. in B. R. Chapman and Allens Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 197.

6. In Trover and Converſion, the Caſe was this: A ſtranger came to an Inn with a Horſe, without the knowledg of the owner, and there left him to ſtand at Hay: The horſe eat out his price and value, the party which left him, came not to pay for him. Afterwards the true owner of the horſe hearing of him, came to the Inn, and finding his horſe there, demanded him of the Inn-keeper, who refuſed to deliver him, unleſſe the mony there owing for him, was paid: And whether the Inn-keeper might keep the horſe until he was paid and diſcharged for his meat, in regard he who left the horſe there, was not the true owner of the Horſe; the Court was divided in Opinion, two of the Juſtices were of Opinion, That he might keep him for his meat; two other of the Juſtices, That he might not keep the horſe, but was left to his Action againſt him that left him there for his meat. The Caſe was not adjudged, but after agreed betwixt the parties. Trin. 9 Jac. in B. R. Shipwiths Caſe. Bolſt. 1. Part, 170. See Mich. 14 Jac. in B. R. Robinſon and Walters Caſe, this doubt Reſolved, viz. that the Inn-keeper may keep the horſe till he be ſatisfied for his meat.

7. Note, It was agreed by the Juſtices, That if an Inn do uſe the Trade of an Ale houſe, it is within the Statute of Alehouſes; and no perſon is to erect an Inn without Licenſe of the King; And the Statute of Alehouſes includes all excepting only Booths in Fairs, not to keep an Inn and an Alehouſe, but to be ſuppreſſed. But a man may keep a common Inn for the relief of Travellers, Paſc. 9 Jac. in B. R. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 109.

8. In an Action upon the Caſe againſt an Inn-keeper, for not ſafely keeping the Plaintiffs goods, the Caſe was: The Plaintiff being a Gueſt in the houſe, went from thence to London, and left his goods with the Defendant, ſaying he would return within two or three dayes: He returned accordingly within the three dayes, and in the interim, his goods were ſtolen while he was abſent: And whether the Defendant as an Inn-keeper ſhall be chargeable without any ſpecial promiſe for the ſafe keeping of them, was the Queſtion. It was objected, That in Sir Edwin Sands's Caſe, it was adjudged, Where he came to an Inn, and lodged, and went out thereof in the morning, and left his Cloak-bag there, intending to return at night, and at night he returned accordingly, and in the Interim his Cloak-bag was ſtolen; that he might have his remedy upon an Action grounded upon the Cuſtome againſt the Inn-keeper. But in the principal Caſe it was Reſolved, Where he leaves goods to keep, whereof the Defendant is not to have any benefit, and goeth from thence two or three dayes, although he ſaith he will return, yet he is at his liberty, and therefore is not any Gueſt during that time: nor is the Inn-keeper chargeable as a common Hoſtler for the goods ſtolen during that time, unleſs he make an eſpecial promiſe for the ſafe keeping of them. Paſc. 4 Jac. in B. R. Gelly and Clarks Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 188, 189.

9. In an Action upon the Caſe againſt the Defendant an Inn-keeper, the Plaintiff declared upon the Cuſtome, That Inn-keepers ought to keep the goods of their gueſts ſafely; and ſhewed, That J. S. ſervant of the Plaintiff, was lodged at the Defendants houſe, and that he having there a bag, with 60 l. in money of the Plaintiffs therein, quidam malefactores unknown to the Plaintiff, the ſaid bag of money in the ſaid Inn being, in default of the Defendant ſendant and his Servants carried away: Upon Not Guilty found againſt the Defendant. In Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, That the Action ought to have bin brought by J. S. the ſervant, and not by the Maſter. 2. The Maſter was not a Gueſt. But the Exceptions were over-ruled by the Court, for that the Action did well lye by the Maſter, and the Cuſtome well alledged. Trin. 7 Jac. in B. R. Beedle and Marris's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 224.

10. A. brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt B. for goods imbezelled out of his Inn; and it was found for the Plaintiff. In arreſt of Judgment it was excepted unto, becauſe he had not alledged it to be in Communi Hoſpitio; yet becauſe the Declaration layed the Cuſtome for common Inns, and then layed, That he was Hoſpitatus in Hoſpitio, the Plaintiff had Judgment, for it ſhall be intended, that it is Domus non Hoſpitium, if it be non Commune. Trin. 16 Jac. in C. B. Maſon and Graftons Caſe. Hob. 245.

11. In Trover and Converſion of a horſe, a Saddle, a Bridle, and a Saddle cloath. The Defendant pleaded, That he did keep a common Inn called the Sword and Buckler in Holborn, and that before the time of the Converſion, one J. S. was poſſeſſed of the ſaid horſe, and came riding upon him into the ſaid Inn with the ſaid horſe, and did requeſt the Defendant to keep the horſe there at meat, and he did ſo for the ſpace of ſeven Weeks; and that afterwards the Plaintiff came thither, and demanded his horſe, the Defendant ſaid, that if he would pay him for his meat, he would deliver him, which he refuſed, and for his ſatisfaction, he detained the horſe. It was the clear Opinion of the whole Court, That the Defendant might keep the horſe untill he was paid for his meat. Hill. 14 Jac. in B. R. rott. 650. Stirt and Drungolds Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 289. See before, Sect. 6. Skipwiths Caſe, the doubt there Reſolved: and ſee before, ſect. ibid. Robinſon and Walters Caſe. See Poph. 127. acc.

12. An Inn-keeper was Indicted upon the Statutes of 13 R. 2. and 4 H. 4. whereas the common price of Oats in B. betwixt the 1. of March, 15 Jac. and 1. Marcii, 17 Jac. was not above the rate of 20 d. pro quolibet modio, that the Defendant exiſtens communis ſtabularius, ſold diverſis ſubditis Domini Regis in Manſionalem in Holborn 200 Buſhells of Oats for 21 s. 8 d. the Buſhel contra formam Statuti in hujuſmodi Caſu edit et proviſ. Diverſe Exceptions were taken to the Indictment. 1. Becauſe it is Quod Commune pretium in Mercatu, &c. was not ultra 20 d. the Buſhel, which is incertain. 2. That it is Quod commune pretium pro quolibet modio avenarum non fuit ultra, &c. where it ought to have bin pro modio, or pro aliquo modio, and not pro quolibet. 3. Becauſe it is Quod Johes Johnſon exiſtens communis Stabularius ſold, which infers, that he was a common Inn keeper at the time of the Indictment, and not at the time of the offence committed. 4. Becauſe it is, That he ſold within his Manſion houſe, and doth not ſay within his Inn. 5. Becauſe it is, he ſold diverſis ſubditis Domini Regis, and doth not ſay Hoſpitibus; for otherwiſe it is no offence. But all the Exceptions were diſallowed by the Court; wherefore it was adjudged for the King, That the Indictment was good. Hill. 18 Jac. in B. R. Johnſons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 609.

13. The Caſe was; A. purchaſed Copyhold-Land 9 Jac. to him and his Son for their lives, the Remainder to his Wife; and two years after, he became an Inn keeper and received all the profits of the Land till 4. Aug. 4 Car. at which time he became Debtor, and committed divers acts which declared him to be a Bankrupt. And 5 Car. upon a Petition to the Lord Keeper, that he ſaid A. was a Petit Chapman, and did get his living by buying and ſelling, and was endebted to divers, and became Bankrupt, they prayed a Commiſſion of Bankrupts againſt him, which was granted, and the Commiſſioners adjudged him a Bankrupt, and ſold this Copyhold-Land. Afterwards A. dyed, and his Wife, and B. his Son entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff. The points in this Caſe, were three, 1. Whether an Inn-keeper might be a Bankrupt within the Statutes of 34 H. 8. 13 Eliz. 21 Jac. It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That an Inn-keeper quatenus an Inn-keeper, was not within the ſaid Statutes, becauſe he doth not ſell any thing, but offer it: He that ſells any thing, doth it by contract, but the Inn-keeper doth not contract with his Gueſts, but provides for them, and cannot take unreaſonable rates as he that ſells; and if he doth, he may be endicted for extortion, as a ſeller cannot be. 2. Reſolved, That he is not within the words of the Statute 6, which are, If the Offender purchaſe, but here he was not an Offender at the time of the purchaſe. It was Reſolved and adjudged againſt the Defendant, That he was not a Bankrupt within any of the ſaid Statutes, and that the purchaſe was well made, and not to be avoided. But it was Reſolved by them all, That Copyhold-Lands were Lands within the ſaid Statutes, which might be ſold by the Commiſſioners. Hill. 10 Car. in B. R. rott. 73. Criſp and Pratts Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 395. See Marſh. 34. the ſame Caſe.

Huy-and-Cry; and Hundreds, and Hundredors.

1. Where the Hundred shall be charged in Actions brought upon the Statute of Winchester, and other Statutes of Huy-and-Cry; Where not.

1. NOte, It was adjudged in the Kings Bench, That an Action upon the Statute of Huy-and-Cry againſt an Hundred, will never lye by Bill, but ought to be ſued by Writ; and the reaſon is, becauſe the Action is brought againſt Inhabitants, which are a multitude, and for that it cannot be in Cuſtodia Mariſchalli as another private perſon may be. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Goldesbr. 148.

2. One Combford was robbed within the Hundred of O. in Staffordſhire, and he and his Servants purſued the Fellons into another County, and there one of the Fellons was taken, and the Hundredors did nothing. It was moved, That he might have his Action againſt the Hundred, although that he himſelf was reſident within the ſame Hundred: But the Opinion of the Court was, That he ſhould not: for they ſaid, That if a ſtranger make Huy-and-Cry, ſo that the Fellons be taken, the Hundreds are diſcharged. Trin. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Combford and the Hundred of Offlayes Caſe. Goldesbr. 55.

3. Note, It was Reſolved in an Action brought upon the Statute of 13 E. 1. againſt the Hundred of Evenger in Hampſhire, That although that the Statute be general, and no time be limitted in it; yet the Robbery ought to be done in the day time, and not in the night: And there the Caſe was, That one was robbed in January after Sun-ſetting during day light; and it was adjudged, That the Hundred ſhould be charged, becauſe it was a convenient time for men to travail, and to be about their buſineſſes. Cook 7. Part, Aſhpools Caſe.

4. A. was robbed in the County of Buckingham, and thereupon he brought his Action againſt the Hundred, who pleaded, Not Guilty. The Jury found a ſpecial Verdict, That he was robbed the day and year in the Declaration; but they found both the Pariſhes were within the ſame Hundred. It was the clear Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Plaintiff ſhould have Judgment, for it is not material within what Pariſh he be robbed, ſo it be within the ſame Hundred. Trin. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Barnells Caſe. Goldesbr. 58.

5. An Action upon the Statute of Winchester was brought againſt a Hundred in Glouceſterſhire, and the Jury found a ſpecial Verdict, That the money was delivered to a Carrier to carry to London, who packt it up: And as he was on his Journey, certain Malefactors came to him in another Hundred, and there took his Horſe and Pack, and led him into a Wood within this Hundred, where the Action was brought: And if this Hundred was guilty, the Jury prayed the advice of the Court. It was agreed by the whole Court, That this was Robbery within the firſt Hundred, and not in the ſecond, for upon the firſt taking, he was robbed; but if the Carrier had led the Horſe himſelf, then it ſhould be adjudged in his own poſſeſſion, and no robbery untill he came into the ſecond Hundred: And if a man have money, and the Malefactors take him in one Hundred, and carry him into another Hundred, and there riffle him, this ſhall not be robbery in the firſt, but only in the ſecond Hundred, for he was always in poſſeſſion per Curiam. A mans Purſe was picked in the Kings Bench, and the Thief taken with the manner; but a Key being faſtned to the Purſe, ſtill ſtuck in the pocket. It was the Opinion of two Juſtices, That he was ſtill in poſſeſſion; and ſo it was no Robbery. Paſc. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 86.

6. An Action upon the Statute of Huy and Cry was brought againſt Inhabitants in dimid. Hundredi de Waltham, and the Defendants found guilty. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Action would not lye, becauſe it was not brought againſt the whole Hundred. It was Anſwered on the Plaintiff's behalf, That the half Hundred is a Hundred by it ſelf. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Writ ſhould have been brought againſt them in this manner; Inhabitantes in Hundredo de W. called the half Hundred of Waltham. But yet the Court held the Writ to be good: For the Writ is, and ſo it ſhall be intended, to be brought againſt the men inhabiting within the half Hundred of W. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 15 Jac. in C. B. Conſtable and the Hundred of Walthams Caſe. Brownlow, 2. Part, 158.

7. In an Action upon the Statute of Huy and Cry brought againſt an Hundred, It was Reſolved by the Court, That if one be aſſaulted to be robbed in one Hundred, and he eſcape and flyeth into another another Hundred, and the Theeves instantly purſue him, and rob him there, It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Hundred in which he was robbed, ſhall be only charged. Mich. 10 Car. Dent Caſe. Hutton, 125.

8. In an Action brought upon the Statute of winchester, and 27 Eliz. of Huy and Cry, The Plaintiff declared upon the ſaid Statute; and ſhewed alſo, How that within 20. dayes before the Action brought, he was ſworn before a Juſtice of Peace, that he was robbed of ſo much money, and that he did not know any of the Felons, and concluded, that the Defendants had not taken any of the Felons, nor ſatisfied him contra formam Statut. prædict. It was moved, That the Concluſion was not good. But it was adjudged by the Court, upon View of Preſidents, That the Concluſion was good, and the beſt form; and not to conclude contra formam Statutorum prædictorum, becauſe the Action was grounded upon the Statute of Winchester, which gives only the penalty and remedy, and the other Statute ſhews, how only the Examination ſhall be, but gives not any Action. And the words in the principal Caſe, Statuti prædict. refers only to the Statute of Winchester. Trin. 5 Jac. in B R. Andrews and the Inhabitants of Lenknors Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 187.

9. An Action upon the Statute of Winton. was brought againſt the Hundred of W, ſuppoſing that the Plaintiff was robbed of 80 l. in money, and of divers other things: and that he made Huy and Cry. Upon Not-guilty, It was found, Quod quoad depredationem et ſpoliationem infra ſcript. 80 l. that the Defendants were guilty, and damages aſſeſſed to 90 l. Et quoad reſiduum infra ſcript. Not guilty. And Judgment for the Plaintiff for ſo much as was found for him; and that the Defendants, ſint in miſericordia. Et quoad reſiduum Quod Querens nil Capiat per breve. Errour was aſſigned; for that the Hundred cannot be guilty de Captione, &c. but they are to be found guilty for not taking the Theeves, and not Anſwering of the money. But it was Reſolved, That the Declaration was good enough, for ſo much as was proved whereof the Plaintiff was robbed: and although the Plaintiff had put in divers things in his Declaration; yet it was good for ſo much as was proved. And the finding that they were guilty of the Captio, is as much as to ſay, that the Plaintiff was robbed of ſo much, and that they had not made him amends. And whereas it was ſaid, That the Judgment ought to have been Quod Capiantur, becauſe they did it in Contempt. It was Reſolved, That this only is a malefeſance, and therefore the Judgment ſhall be in miſericordia. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. O'dfield and the Hundred of Witherley's Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 350.

10. In an Action upon the Statute of Winton. ſuppoſing that he was robbed in ſuch a High-way in Diviſis Hundredorum, and that he gave notice to the Inhabitants of the Hundred near to the place where he was robbed. It was ſaid, That the Declaration was not good, becauſe he doth not ſhew, that the High-way was within any Hundred; and it ought, that Notice be given to the Inhabitants of both Hundreds. But the Opinion of the Court was, That if Notice be given to the Inhabitants of either of them, it is ſufficient. Wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Paſch. 21 Jac. in B. R. Foſter and the Inhabitants of the Hundreds of Specher and Iſlieworth. Cro. 2. Part, 675.

11. In an Action upon the Statute of 27 Eliz. of Huy and Cry, the Caſe was this; Money was delivered to a Carrier, who put the ſame in his Cart, and ſent his Boy with the Cart; but before he could get to the Cart, it was robbed, and the money carried away. The Boy made Huy and Cry, and came before a Juſtice, and prayed he would examine him; who would not: but the Carrier would not go to the Juſtice to be examined; but the Plaintiff went to him, and was examined; and afterwards brought his Action againſt the Hundred. In this Caſe, It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Plaintiff had failed in his Action for want of ſufficient examination; and the Examination of the Maſter, or of the Owner of the goods, was to no purpoſe. It was then moved, If an Action framed upon this Statute would lye againſt the Juſtice of Peace who refuſed to examine the Boy? It was the better Opinion of the Court, That it would lye; For that the Examination is to be before him by the Statute not as a Judge, but as a Miniſter appointed by the Statute. Trin. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Green and the Inhabitants of the Hundred of Buckle-Churches Caſe. Leon. 323.

12. Reymond brought an Action upon the Statute of Winton. againſt the Hundred of Okieg; and ſet forth, That J. S. his ſervant was robbed of 68 l. by perſons unknown within the ſaid Hundred, and that he made Huy and Cry: and that the ſaid J. S. had made Oath before ſuch a Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid County next adjoyning to the ſaid Hundred, within 20. dayes before the Action brought, That he did not know any of the parties who robbed him, and that the Hundred had not made him any recompence. It was moved, That the Action did not lye, becauſe the Plaintiff himſelf was not ſworn, That he did not know any of the parties: For it is not ſufficient, that the ſervant who was robbed was ſworn: For by the Statute of 27 Eliz. the party who brings the Action, ought to make the Oath. And it was ſaid, That the ſervant who was robbed, ought to have brought the Action, and then his Oath would have been sufficient; but when the Master brings the Action, he himself ought to be sworn. But it was Resolved by the Court, That the Action well lyes for the Master, and that the Servants Oath was sufficient; for it is properly in his Notice that he was robbed: and the Master knowes it not that he was robbed, or who were the parties, but by the report of his servant: and it would be inconvenient, if the Master should not bring the Action, but the servant; for the servant might release, or compound, or discontinue the Suit, and so the Master should lose by his falshood: therefore the Master shall bring the Action, and have his servant who was robbed to be his witnesse. Trin. 2 Car. in C.B. Reymond and the Hundred of Okings Case. Cro. 1. Part, 26.

13. An Action was brought upon the Statute of Winton. against a Hundred; the Plaintiff declared upon the Statute, and further shewed, that he took his Oath before J. S. Justice of Peace within the County of B, in which the Robbery was supposed to be, and Inhabiting within the Hundred within 20 dayes before his Action brought, That he was robbed, and did not know any of the parties according to the Statute of 27 Eliz. upon a Special Verdict it was found, That the Oath was taken before the said J. S. at his Chamber within the Middle Temple London: And whether he took the Oath before the said J. S. Justice of Peace of the said County, and inhabiting in the said County secundum formam Statuti, was the Question? It was said, That a Justice of Peace hath his Jurisdiction within the County where he is a Justice of Peace, and not elsewhere, and may not elsewhere exercise his Jurisdiction. And the Statute of 27 Eliz. appoints the Oath and Examination to be taken by the Justices of Peace Inhabiting in or near the Hundred; and what he doth out of the County, is Corem non Judice, and their Jurisdiction is a private Jurisdiction. This Case being propounded to the Justices of the other Courts, and Barons of the Exchequer, It was the Opinion of this Court, and of all the other Justices, That this Examination taken at London by a Justice of the Peace of the County Inhabiting within the Hundred, was good enough. And it was said by them, That the Act of 27 Eliz. was not an Act of exercising Jurisdiction, but rather a direction, That such an Oath and Examination shall be taken; and which may be as well taken in other place, as within the County. And the Court said, There is a difference where a Justice of Peace doth an act to compell another to perform, as to imprison one for not performance; or to command one for an Offence to be imprisoned; such acts Acts cannot be done, but where his Jurisdiction extends: But Justices of Peace may take Informations against Offenders in any place out of the County, to prove offences in the County where they are committed; but they cannot compell any of the County out of the County to make a Recognizance, for they cannot use any coercive power out of the County. It was adjudged in the principal Case, That the taking of the Oath and Examination was well executed, within the meaning of the Statute of 27 Eliz. Pasch. 7 Car. in B. R. Helies and the Hundred of Banhurst Case. Cro. 1. Part, 153, 154.

More Hundred and Hundreders.

1. IT is said, in the Mirrour of Justices, and 12 H. 7. by Fineux, That Alfred King of the West Saxons divided this Land; first into Counties and Shires: and committed the Government of Trust of each County or Shire, to one particular man thereof, who was called the Sheriff: but this being found to be too large a Circuit for one man. Counties were afterwards divided into Hundreds, Ridings, Laches, Wapentakes; all purporting one and the same Jurisdiction in point of substance, though distinguished by several Nominations; of which the chief Officer was the Constable, or the Constable of the Hundred, 12 H. 7. 17, 18. Afterwards about 4 E. 3. there were Constituted Petty Constables or Headborough. See Stat. 4 E. 3. Cap. 3. and Lambert Constables, 9.

2. A Hundred might be let for years; for it was an Hereditament, of which a Lease might be made. 15 H. 7. 8.

3. If a man hath a Hundred, with the goods of Felons, Outlawes, Fines, Amerciaments, Returns of Writs, and such casual hereditaments within the Hundred; such Hundred with the Casual hereditaments, may be let to Farm under yearly Rent: and such demise of the Hundred and of them shall be good. Cook 3. Part, 33. in Baker and Bakers Case.

4. Note. The King by his Writ cannot alter the Jurisdiction of the Hundred Court, Court Baron, County Court, and the like, which are Courts at the Common-Law: and all things determinable in the Hundred Court, or such like Courts, are determinable by the proper Judges of the said Court; And the Lord of the Hundred, or of the Court-Baron, where a Plea is holden before them by Writ of Right, Writ of Admeasurement, or the like, like, are not the Judges thereof, but the Suitors are the Judges thereof there. Cook 6. Part, 11. Jentleman's Caſe.

5. If a man have a Hundred, Fair, Market, Warren, Park, which are appendants to Manners, or in groſſe, if afterwards they come back to the King, they are not drowned, nor extinguiſhed in the Crown, but they remain as they were before in eſſe. Cook 9. Part, 25. in the Caſe of the Abbot of Marcella; and ſee there: How that a man may have Waife, Eſtray, Catalla Felonum, and other Franchiſes, within a Hundred.

6. If the Jury in a Hundred or a Leet, tax an Amercement, the ſame is ſufficient without other Affirment, for the Amercement is the Act of the Court; but if the Steward afferr an Amercement upon the preſentment of the Jury, the ſame is void, and ſhall not bind. But the Court ſhall aſſeſſe Fines, and the ſame ſhall not be afferred by any other; and that for Contempts and miſdemeanors in Courts.

7. If the Lands in Queſtion upon a tryall, and Venire fac as returned, do lye in four Hundreds; if 4. of any Hundred do appear, it is ſufficient: And if a Jury be of two Counties returned, and both Arrays are challenged, two of the one County ſhall try the Array of that County, and two of the other County ſhall try the Array of the other County, and they ſhall not joyn until they be ſworn of the principal; and two of one Hundred, and two of the other Hundred do ſuffice. Idemptitate Nominis.

1. THE Writ of Idemptitate Nominis lyeth; Where in a Writ of Debt, Covenant, Accompt, or any other perſonal Action, a man is ſued: And upon the Capias or Exigent, another man is taken, who beareth the ſame name; Then he who is arreſted, may ſue forth this Writ of Idemptitate Nominis: And it ſhall be ſued forth to the Sheriff, if he be arreſted by him; and this Writ is in the nature of a Commiſſion, to make Enquiry if he be the ſame man or not; and if he be not found the ſame party, then he ſhall go without day. See Fitzh. Nat. Br. acc.

2. If a man be taken by a Capias utlagatum, He may ſue forth a Writ de Idemptitate Nominis in the Chancery directed, either to the Juſtices of the Common-Pleas, or Juſtices of the Kings-Bench, out of which the proceſſe doth iſſue, commanding them to make Enquiry as before is ſaid And thereupon, the Juſtices ſhall award this Writ which is a Commiſſion to make the Enquiry, and to know the truth. But if a man be Outlawed in the Common-Pleas, and be taken by a Capias, he may come into the Court of Common-Pleas, and pray a Writ of Enquiry, Whether he be the ſame perſon, without ſuing the Writ de Idemptitate Nominis.

3. If an Exigent be awarded upon an Indictment, If one come and ſaith, he hath the ſame name as he againſt whom the Proces upon the Indictment is awarded, and prayeth that the King's Attorney may put a difference of their names; the ſame ſhall not be done, becauſe that ſhould change the Indictment, becauſe the Proces ought to be made according to the Indictment: but if he be grieved by the Proceſs, he muſt ſue forth the Writ Writ de Idemptitate Nominis; and he hath not any other remedy. And the party may have this Writ to the Juſtices of Peace, if they award proceſſe of Outlawry upon Indictments taken before them; and alſo to Juſtices of Goal-delivery. Regiſter 195, 196.

4. Note. It was holden by the whole Court, That a man ſhall not have a Writ de Idemptitate Nominis, where there are two names of Baptiſm; but it lyeth only of ſirnames. Mich. 25 H. 8. Dyer, 5.

5. A. brought a Writ of ſecond Deliverance againſt Ralph Stubbs; and after Verdict, had a Judgment to recover Coſts and Damages, amounting to 16 l: and had a Capias utlagatum directed to the Sheriff of York, to take the ſaid Stubbs in Execution: and after the ſame Term, one Ralph Stubbs the younger, brought a Writ of Idemptitate Nominis, unto the Juſtices, and had a ſuperſedeas to the Sheriff, to forbear any Execution againſt the ſaid Ralph the younger: and divers Preſidents were ſhewed of like Writs brought in caſe of Outlawry, where one was taken upon a Capias utlagatum, for another of the ſame name; ſcil. 36 H. 6. rott. 411. John Skyers Caſe. 10 H. 7. rott. 137. Fuller and Ayres Caſe. But notwithſtanding theſe Preſidents, the Court was of Opinion, That in the principal Caſe, the ſuperſedeas thereupon was not warranted, but that the Defendant Stubbs the younger might have his Action of Falſe Impriſonment; For that the Defendant being named Ralph Stubbs, without addition, ſhall never be accounted the younger, but alwayes the elder of the two of that name; Nevertheleſſe for the avoiding of multiplicity of Suits, It was Ordered, That the Defendant ſhould appear to the Sci e facias upon the Idemptitate Nominis, and plead, and go to tryal; and if upon tryal he was found to be the ſame man, then the money remaining with the Sheriff to be delivered to the Plaintiff. Ignorance and Notice.

Where Ignorance of the Law ſhall not excuſe: But Ignorance of matter of fact; Where it ſhall excuſe the party; Where not: And where a man is to take Notice of a thing at his peril; Where not.

1. NOte. In an Evidence given to the Jaquiſt; It was holden by the Juſtices, That if a man hath a Dogg which killeth Sheep, the Maſter of the Dogg being ignorant, and having no knowledg of the Condition or property of the Dogg, ſhall not be puniſhed for the killing of them: otherwiſe it is, if he did know of the Condition of the Dog. Hill. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 25.

2. The King preſented (by reaſon of the Temporalties of a Biſhop were in his hands) to a Prebend, and afterwards he repealed his Preſentation; Notwithſtanding the Clerk was Inſtituted & Inducted by the Dean & Chapter, Guardians of the Temporalties during the Vacation: Afterwards the King reciting that he was canonicè inſtitutus, ratified the preſentment; after, a Biſhop is created, and the Incumbent dyed: It was the Opinion of the Court, That the King ſhould have the Preſentation now; for by reaſon of Repeal, the Church was not full before: and then if the Preſentment was void, the Confirmation of it was void alſo. But it was holden, That a common perſon could not repeal his Preſentment. It was a Quære in this Caſe of the King, If it needed to be averred, That the Guardians of the Spiritualties had Notice of the Kings Repeal? It was holden, That they were to take notice of it, being matter of Law, and not of fact. Trin. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 292.

3. An Action upon the Caſe was brought by Mildmay againſt Standiſh, becauſe he had openly ſaid and publiſhed, That certain Lands which lawfully appertained to the ſaid Mildmay; were lawfully aſſured for the Term of 1000 years, to J. T. and O. his wife, and that they of the Intereſt of that Term were lawfully poſſeſſed; and ſo for ſlandering his Title, and ſhewing all in certain, and how he was prejudiced by ſpeaking thoſe words, he brought his Action.

The

The Defendant Standish in his Plea juſtified the words; Upon which the Plaintiff demurred. In that caſe it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. For although de facto the ſaid J. T. and O. his Wife, had a limitation of thoſe Lands by the Will of J. D. for 1000 years, which was the Occaſion that the ſaid Standiſh, being a man not learned in the Law, affirmed and publiſhed the ſame; yet becauſe he had taken upon him the knowledg of the Law, and interpoſed himſelf in a matter which did not concern him; and had publiſhed, That the ſaid T. and O. had an Eſtate for 1000 years in the ſaid Lands in ſlander of the Plaintiff's Title: for this cauſe, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. See Mildmay and Standiſh's Caſe. Cook 1. Part, 177. in the end of Mildmay's Caſe.

4. A man made a Feoffment in Fee of his Land, and for the better aſſurance, bound himſelf in an Obligation, That he and his ſon ſhould do all acts deviſed by the Obligee; The Obligee deviſed a Deed of Releaſe; the Father delivered it as his Deed, but the Son did not deliver it; but becauſe he was not learned, he required the Obligee to read the ſame unto him, or to have the Deed to be read unto him; which he refuſed, and brought his Action againſt the Father upon the Obligation, & adjudged, That the Action was maintainable. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That if a man who is not learned, be bounden to make a Deed, he is not bound to deliver it, before it be expounded to him; and if it be in a Language which he doth not underſtand, he is not bound to deliver it, unſill it be expounded to him. 2. Reſolved, That if a man be bounden, yet if the Deed be in ſuch a Language that the party doth not underſtand, If he demand that the writing be read unto him, or expounded unto him, and he is ready to do it, he may refuſe to deliver it. And ſo Nota, ignorantia facti, ſcil. Leſſionis et Linguæ excuſat, ſed ignorantia Legis non excuſat. Cook 2. Part, 2. & 3. Manſers Caſe.

5. If a man bargain, ſell, and grant by Deed Indented and enrolled, Lands unto a common perſon for life, the Remainder to the King in Fee; and afterwards the King makes a Leaſe for life or years, without reciting the particular Eſtate, the Leaſe is void; for the Subject is tyed to take Notice of this Inrollment, as well as of the enrollment of the Letters Patents; and the rather, becauſe by the ſame Deed enrolled, the Kings Eſtate is created. Cook 1. Part, 45. in the Caſe of Altonwoods.

6. Note. It was Objected in Cook 4. Part, 10. in Bevil's Caſe, That the words in the Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 2. (Actual Poſſeſſion or Seiſin) did exclude Seiſin in Law; and therefore hath altered the common Law. For although at the Common-Law, Seiſin in Law was ſufficient to make Avowry; yet the ſaid act doth allow only of actual poſſeſſion and ſeiſin: and the reaſon of that was, becauſe actual Seiſin is the ſure Cognuſans of right: and therefore it was ſaid, That that Act by expreſs words, extended only to actual poſſeſſion, and not to relieve thoſe who for a long time of 60. years had neglected to have actual Seiſin of their ſervices: and eſpecially of ſuch which ought to have been done twice every year. And it was ſaid, That that was Craſſa et ſupina negligentia, which the Law did never intend to relieve. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That Seiſin in Law was ſufficient to make Avowry within the meaning of the ſaid Statute: For the intent of the Act was, to limit time, within which Seiſin ought to be had, and not to exclude any Seiſin which was a lawful Seiſin by the Common-Law: Alſo it is not againſt the Letter of the Act; for the 3. firſt branches extend to actual Seiſin; and the 4th extends as well to actual, as to Seiſin in Law: The ſaid words in the Act; ſcil. Actual Poſſeſſion or Seiſin in the diſjunctive, maketh diſtinction between actual poſſeſſion, which referreth to the firſt 3. branches; and a Seiſin, be it actual or in Law, which referreth to the 4th branch: ſo that actual is coupled with poſſeſſion, and ſeiſin, is diſjoyned by the word [Or] and ſtands of it ſelf indefinitely; and ſo reddendo ſingula ſingulis, all ſtands well together. Cook 4. Part, 10. in Bevil's Caſe.

7. A man ſeiſed of divers Lands holden in Capite, deviſed parcel of the ſaid Lands to divers perſons to have and hold to them and the Survivor of them, untill ſuch time and term as 800 l. by them, or the Survivor of them be levied, and that to imploy for the preferment of his daughter, and dyed; his ſon and heir took the Will into his hands, and entred into the ſaid Lands, and received the profits of them for his life: afterwards the Deviſees entred and received the profits, and levied of them 640 l. according to the Will: And if the profits taken by the Heir, and which the Deviſees might have received, ſhall be accounted parcel of the ſaid ſum of 800 l. was the Queſtion? It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That where the words are, Untill the ſaid ſum of 800 l. be levied; the ſame is as much to ſay in Law, as if the words had been, ſhall or might be levied; for otherwiſe it ſhould be in the power of thoſe who have levied the money to exclude him in the Reverſion or Remainder to take the profits. And in this caſe, It was ſaid and agreed, That if the Conuſee of a Statute Merchant or Staple, neglect to the profits, yet when the Conuſee might have been ſatisfied all his debt, according to the extent; and he by his Negligence, or Ignorance refuſed the ſame; the Conuſor ſhould have his Lands again. Cook 4. Part, 82. Sir Andrew Corbett's Caſe.

8. It was Reſolved in the Counteſſe of Rutland's Caſe, Where a Capias was awarded againſt the Counteſſe out of the Court of Common-Pleas, That the Sheriff or his Officer might without any eſſence by a Warrant arreſt the perſon of the Counteſſe; for he is not to diſpute the Authority of the Court, in awarding Proceſſe, but he is to execute the Writs to him directed, to which he is ſworn: and although it appeared in the Capias, that ſhe was a Counteſſe, againſt whom Capias did not lye, and Ignorantia juris non excuſat, and eſpecially Sheriffs and other Miniſters of Law and Juſtice, as was Objected: yet foraſmuch as in ſome Caſes, a Capias lyeth againſt a Counteſſe, as for a Contempt; for that cauſe, It was Reſolved, That the Sheriff or his Officer ought not to examine the act of the Court, but ought to execute the Writ. But becauſe in the principal Caſe, there the Sergeants did arreſt the Counteſſe upon a feigned Action of their own heads without any Warrant; in that Caſe, it was adjudged to be falſe Impriſonment. Cook 6. Part, 54. The Counteſſe of Rutland's Caſe.

9. A Leaſe for years was made rendring Rent, and with Condition, That if the Leſſee ſhould aſſign his Term, that the Leſſor ſhould re-enter; and the Leſſee aſſigned his Term. It was adjudged in that caſe, That although the Leſſor accepted the Rent by the hands of the Leſſee; yet becauſe the Leſſor had not Notice of the Aſſignment, the acceptance of the Rent ſhould not conclude him of his entry. Hill. 38 Eliz. in C. B. rott. 1302. March and Curtis Caſe, vouch. in Cook 3. Part, 65. in Pennants Caſe.

10. If the Leſſor in the abſence of the Leſſee entreth, and maketh a Feoffment in Fee, and the Leſſee re-entreth, although the ſame doth amount to an Attornment in Law, yet without Notice given of this Feoffment to the Leſſee, the Feoffee ſhall not make demand of the Rent reſerved upon the Leaſe for entry for Condition broken. True it is, that the Feoffee may diſtrain, or have an Action of debt for the Rent, but in his Avowry, or Count, he muſt allege the Feoffment to be whereof the Leſſee had Notice: But if he demand the Rent upon Condition, without Notice, it is not poſſible the Leſſee ſhould know to whom to pay the Rent, without Notice, to ſave his Term. So if the Leſſor bargain and ſell the Reverſion by Deed Indented and enrolled, The Bargainee ſhall never take benefit of a Condition, upon a demand, without giving Notice to the Leſſee of the Bargain and Sale; for although the bargain and ſale be by Deed Indented and enrolled on Record; yet foraſmuch as it may be enrolled in ſo many Courts in ſecret manner, the Law will not compell the Farmors who have conditional Leaſes, to make ſuch infinite ſearch to ſave their Terms: but the Law for the preſervation of the Term and Intereſt of the Leſſee, will compell the Bargainee to give Notice to the Leſſee who is a ſtranger to it. And although Littleton ſaith, That the Leſſee ſhall not be miſconuſant of Feoffments made upon the Lands, the ſame is to be intended as to Diſtreſſe, Action of Debt and Waſte: in which caſe the Law doth compell the Feoffee in his Avowry to give notice: but Littleton is not to be intended as to demand of Rent, to have advantage of a Condition without Notice thereof given. Cook 5. Part, 113. in Mallories Caſe.

11. A man by his Will deviſed Lands to A. his ſon for 60 years, after the death of the Deviſor, if the ſaid A. ſhould ſo long live; and after to the uſe of B. his ſon for life, and after to the Heirs males of the body of A, with divers Remainders over. Provided, That if A. do not ſuffer his Executors quietly to carry away all the goods in his houſe, or doth any thing to hinder the intent of his Father, that then the uſes limited to A. and his Heirs ſhould ceaſe; the Deviſor dyed, the Executors came to the houſe, and would have carried away the goods, and A. would not ſuffer them to carry them away, but forbade them: he in the Remainder entred for the Condition broken. It was Reſolved in this caſe, (amongſt other Points) That although a particular diſturbance by a ſpecial act had been ſhewed; yet A. ſhould not loſe his Eſtate: For none ſhall loſe any Eſtate or Intereſt which he lawfully had, without an act and default in himſelf: and therefore in as much as A. was a ſtranger to the Feoffment, yet he ſhould not loſe his Eſtate, without Notice given him of the Proviſo, and of the Will of his Father. And in this Caſe, the Caſe put by Popham, in Cook 5. Part, Malloriet Caſe, Grantee of a Reverſion, or Feoffee ſhall not take advantage of a Condition for non-payment of Rent upon a demand, without Notice given to the Leſſee. And the Caſe of 1 Jac. in C. B. betwixt Beconſhaw and Southcot, That if the Eſtate of the Lord of a Manor ceaſe by limitation of an uſe, and the uſe and eſtate is transferred to another who demands Rent of a Copyholder, who denyes to pay it, the ſame is no Forfeiture, without notice given to the Copyholder of the alteration of the uſe and eſtate, were affirmed for Law. But it was agreed, That if a man be bound to keep the Award of J. S. and J. S. maketh an Award, the Obligor ought to take Notice of that at his peril, becauſe he hath bounden himſelf unto it. Cook 8. Part, 90, 91, 92. Fremans Caſe.

12. In an Action upon the Case, the Plaintiff declared, That he was seised of the Mannor and Castle of H. in Fee by purchase, and that he was in speech to demise the same to R.E. for 21. years, under 200 l. Fine, and 100 l. Rent; And that the Defendant (præmissorum non ignara) said, I have a Lease of the Mannor and Castle for 90. years, and then published a Demise supposed to be made by George Lord Audley (Grandfather of the said George who sold the Lands to the Plaintiff) for 90. years to E. D. her Husband; whereas the said Lease in truth was counterfeited. The Defendant pleaded in barr, That such an Indenture came to her hands; and traversed, that she knew of the Forgery. In this Case it was Resolved, 1. That if the Defendant had affirmed and published, that the Plaintiff had not any title to the said Mannor and Castle, but that she had right to them, because she pretendeth that she hath right to them, although in truth she had no right; yet no Action lyeth. 2. It was Resolved, That there was other matter in the Declaration to maintain the Action, because it is alledged in the Declaration, that she knew of the Communication of the making of the Lease to R. E; and also that she knew that the Lease was forged and counterfeited, and yet (against her own knowledg) she published, that it was a good and true Lease, by which the Plaintiff was defeated of his bargain. 3. Resolved, That the Barr was insufficient; for the knowing of the Defendant of the Forgery was not traversable. Mich. 33 Eliz. Cook 4. Part, 18. Sir Gilbert Gerrard and Mary Dickensons Case.

13. If a man who hath cause to bring an Action of Accompt against one as his Bayliff or Receiver, doth make his Executors, and dyeth: In that case, his Executors shall have an Action against him, because the Executors may by Rentalls or otherwise know how to charge him. But an Action of Accompt doth not lye against the Executors of a Bayliff, or Receivors for the Receit, or Occupation of their Testator, because they being ignorant of Accompts of their Testator are not able to defend themselves. Fitzh. Na. Br. 117. acc.

14. In Assumpsit, the Plaintiff declared, That he was possessed of a heap of Woad, containing 10 Tuns, and that the Defendant in Consideration that the Plaintiff would set and deliver him one Tun of the said Woad, he would pay him for it within 6. moneths after the rate that he should sell the rest, and shewed that he sold and delivered to the Defendant one Tun; and afterwards sold to J. S. the residue at the rate of 23 l. the Tun; and the Defendant paid him not the 23 l. according to his promise: And thereupon Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. And Errour brought in the Exchequer Chamber, and there the Judgment was reversed, because the Plaintiff had not alledged, that he had given Notice to the Defendant of the sale and prize of the rest, being a thing of his private knowledg; and the Defendant could not, being a stranger, take notice what the price was for which the rest was sold. Trin. 12 Jac. in C.B. Holmes and Twists Case, Hob. 51.

15. If the Patron who is a Lay-man, presents his Clerk to the Ordinary, and he is not well learned, it is lawful for the Ordinary to refuse him, and of it to give notice to the Patron, to present another before there be any Collation by Lapps, because the Patron could not have Conusance whether he were a fit Clerk or not: But if the Patron be a spiritual man, and one not well learned is presented, and the Ordinary refuseth him, in such case it hath been said, That the Ordinary needeth not to give Notice to the Patron of the Inability of the Clerk, because it is intended, that a Clerk may have cognizance of the sufficiency of the other, before he presented him to the Bishop. 18 H. 7. 49. by Frowch in Kellaway.

2. Where the Judges of the Civil Law ought not to be misconusant of the Common-Law; nor the Judges of Common-Law, of the Civil Law: And where Ignorance of an Act of Parliament shall excuse; Where not.

1. A. and B. did contract Marriage betwixt them per verba de præsenti tempore; and afterwards the said B. took to Husband J. S; and afterwards A. Libelled against B. upon the said Contract, in the Court of Audience; upon which Libell it was Decreed, That the said B. should subire matrimonium with the said A. Et insuper decretum et declaratum fuit dictum matrimonium fore nullum: And further decreed, That the said A. and B. should entermarry; which they did, and had Issue C. the Plaintiff J. S: In this case (amongst other things) it was Resolved, That although the said J. S. being de facto the Husband of the said B. was not party to the Suit, nor to the Sentence in the Spiritual Court, which dissolved the marriage between him & B; yet the sentence against B. being but Declaratory, was good, and should bind the Husband de facto. And it was said, That forasmuch as the Conusance of the right of Marriage doth belong to the Ecclesiastical Court; and the same Court hath given sentence in this Case, the Judges of the Common Law (although it be againſt the reaſon of that Law) are to give faith and credit to their proceedings and ſentences, and to think that their proceedings are Conſonant to the Law of the Church; for Cuilibet in ſuâ arte perito eſt credendum. Cook 4. Part, 29. Bunting and Lepingwell's Caſe. See Cook 5. Part, 5. in the Caſe of Eccleſiaſtical perſons. acc.

2. A. ſeiſed of a Manor holden by Knights-Service in Capite, took B. to wife, who betwixt them had Iſſue C; afterwards the Marriage betwixt A. and B. in the Court of Audience by ſentence is declared to be void, becauſe they married infra annos nubiles; and they are divorced: A. takes to Wife D: and afterwards before Commiſſioners Eccleſiaſtical, the marriage betwixt A. and B. is declared lawful by Sentence. It was Reſolved in this caſe, That againſt the ſaid firſt Sentence of Divorce, the parties ſhall not be received, ſo long as the ſame remains in force to aver, That they agreed, or conſented to the Marriage, 1. Becauſe the Eccleſiaſtical Judge hath declared the ſame to be void; and although that they were of the age of conſent, yet if the original Contract was void, then there was juſt cauſe of Divorce. 2. Becauſe that the Eccleſiaſtical Judg, is Judg as well of the aſſent as of the Contract: and although he ſhew cauſe of his Sentence, yet the Temporal Judges ſhall not examine the cauſe, Whether it be true or not. Cook 7. Part, 43. 44. Kenns Caſe.

3. In Debt, the Defendant pleaded an Excommengenient of the Plaintiff; and the Excomengement was Certified by the Official, under the Seal of the Biſhop of Durham; and it was univerſis et ſingulis Clericis et Literatis quibuſcunq; per totam Diœceſim Dunelm. In this Caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That the plea of Excommengement was inſufficient, becauſe the Excomengement was certified by the Official, whereas it ought to be by the Biſhop himſelf, who is immediate Officer to the Court. 2. If the Biſhop himſelf had certified it, yet it had been inſufficient, becauſe it was particularly directed univerſis et ſingulis Clericis per totam Diœceſim. Dunelm. by which the Court was excluded, and was not directed to the Court it ſelf. 3. Reſolved, That in ſome caſes, although that an Excomengement be a ſpirituall thing, yet the Common Law ſhall adjudge upon the manner and matter of the Certificate of the Excomengement. As if a Biſhop be ſued, and he plead an Excomengement of the party by himſelf, or his Commiſſary, although it be for another cauſe then is in Queſtion, yet the ſame ſhall not diſable the party, becauſe that he himſelf is party. 4. The Biſhop ought to certifie that which is in his own Court, and not that which is in the Court of another: and he cannot Certifie, that another Biſhop hath Certified him, Or that he hath ſeen an Excomengement made by another Biſhop: but yet he may Certifie an Excomengement by his Commiſſary, if it be in his own Court. Cook 8. Part, 68, 69. Trollops Caſe.

4. Debt was brought by an Adminiſtrator upon an Adminiſtration granted by an Inferiour Ordinary; The Defendant pleaded, That before Adminiſtration granted to the Plaintiff, Adminiſtration was committed unto him by the Guardian of the Spiritualties ſede vacante of the Archbiſhop, becauſe the Inteſtate had bona notabilia in ſeveral Dioceſſes. The Plaintiff pleaded, That before the Writ purchaſed, the ſaid Adminiſtration in the Prerogative Court was repealed and annulled. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, (amongſt other things) That foraſmuch as the Eccleſiaſtical Judge had pronounced the Adminiſtration to be void, that it ſhall be intended, that they were void ab initio. Alſo Adminiſtration is but an Authority which may expect and commence in futuro, and therefore ſhall be ſuſpended, untill the other be repealed. Cook 8. Part, 135. Sir John Nutton's Caſe.

5. J. B. Judge in the Prerogative Court, took Bond of S. upon granting of Adminiſtration, that the Adminiſtrator ſhould diſpoſe of the Surpluſage of the goods after Debts and Legacies paid, according to the direction of the Court. The Judge finding a Surpluſage, did give ſentence, That the Adminiſtrator ſhould give certain portions to the Kindred of the Inteſtate, not being his Children. In this caſe, It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That whereas the Statute of 21 H. 8. appoints the Adminiſtration to be granted; and that the Ordinary may take Sureties for the Adminiſtration of the goods of the dead, That the Ordinary may not impoſe any other or further Condition upon the Bond: and although the Ordinary will pretend, That the Statute is to be extended as well to the diſpoſition of the Surpluſage as to the Debts and Legacies; Yet it was Reſolved, That that is not under their Judgment, for they muſt take their Bond according to the Law: and when it is ſued, the meaning and expoſition of the Statute, and of the Condition of the Obligation are both to be judged by the Courts of Common-Law. And it is not in the power of the Ordinary to give the Surpluſage where he will. Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Slawney's Caſe. Hob. 83.

6. If a man who is non compos mentis, give himſelf a Mortal Wound; and before he dyeth, he becometh of ſane memory, and afterwards dyeth of the ſame wound: In this Caſe, although that he dyeth of ſane memory, yet becauſe the Original Cauſe of his death was, when he was not Compos mentis, and ignorant of what he did, he ſhall not be felo de ſe, becauſe the death, &c. hath relation lation to the Original act, which was the ſtroke or wound which he gave in the time of his Ignorance, and when he was Non Compos mentis. 22 E. 3. Corone. 244. Cook 1. Part, 99. in Shelly's Caſe. See Cook 4. Part, in the Caſe of Appeals, 42. Heydons Caſe, acc. And ſee Cook 4. Part, 125. in Beverley's Caſe, All Acts done by a Lunatique, or by one who is non Compos mentis during his Lunacie; are equivalent to acts done by an Ideot, and are voidable, but all acts done by himſelf inter lucida intervalla, when he is of ſound memory, ſhall bind him.

7. A. Tenant for life, the remainder in tail to B, the Reverſion to B. and his Heirs expectant: B. levied a Fine to C. and D, and to the Heirs of C. unto the uſe of them and their Heirs, and had Iſſue and dyed before all the Proclamations paſt, the Iſſue then being beyond Sea, the proclamations paſſed, and after the Iſſue returned, and made his claim to the Remainder. In this Caſe, amongſt other Points, it was Reſolved, That although that the Iſſue in tail be beyond Sea, yet in as much as he is privy, and out of all the Savings in the Statute of 4 H. 7. he is bound, although he be beyond Sea. And it was holden, That the entry and claime of the Iſſue in tail before all the Proclamations paſſed, is not material: For if the entry and claym of the Iſſue in tail ſhall be of any force, then it ſhall be hard to bind them for want of claym, which have not power or intelligence to make entry or claym: And if Infancy, Coverture, Non ſane Memorie, or Impriſonment of the Heir in tail, in ſuch caſe ſhould give power to him to avoid a Fine, in no caſe a man ſhould be aſſured of Lands which are conveyed unto him by Fine. Cook 3. Part, 91. in the Caſe of Fines.

8. The King ſeiſed of a Mannor in Fee in the right of his Crown, granted Copyhold Lands parcel of the Mannor to one in Fee; and afterwards by Letters Patents under the Seal of the Exchequer, made a Leaſe of theſe Lands for 21. years. The Leſſee granted his Eſtate to a Copyholder; The King reciting the Leaſe for years, granted the Reverſion in Fee. the Leaſe for years expired: the Grantee of the Reverſion entred upon the Copyholder. In this Caſe, it was, amongſt other things, Reſolved, That the Leaſe under the Exchequer Seal was good by common uſage. For that the Cuſtomes of the Kings Courts are a Law. And it was holden, That every Court at Weſtminſter ought to take Notice of the Cuſtomes of other Courts there; but otherwiſe it is of Courts in the Country. Cook 2. Part, 16, 17. Lanes Caſe.

9. A. was in Execution ſeverally under the Cuſtody of the Sheriffs of London, at the Suits of B. & C: the old Sheriff did deliver the body of A. by Indenture, in which the Execution of B. only was mentioned, and the other omitted: Afterwards A. in the time of the new Sheriffs, made Eſcape. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That the old Sheriffs ought to give notice to the new Sheriffs, of all Executions which they had againſt any parties, although that the Executions were of Record; For the new Sheriffs are not compellable to take knowledg of them at their perils. And it was Reſolved, That untill the Priſoners are delivered to the new Sheriffs, they do remain in the Cuſtody of the Old Sheriffs; notwithſtanding the Letters Patents of the new Sheriffs, and the Writ of Diſcharge, and the Writ of Delivery. But if the old Sheriff hath divers perſons in his Cuſtody in Execution, and dyeth, the new Sheriffs at their perils ought to take Notice of all Executions againſt any perſons which they find in the Goal; and that for neceſſity ſake, Cook 3. Part, 71. Weſtbies Caſe.

10. A man is Inducted in a Benefice with Cure, of the value of 8 l. per annum, and accepts another Benefice; and afterwards he is made Biſhop: and before Creation and Inſtallation, the King by his Letters Patents grants to him a Plurality, and that he ſhall hold both Benefices beſides his Biſhoprick; and afterwards pretending his Letters Patents to be void, the Preſentee of the King for Lapps Libels againſt him for Tythes in the Spiritual Court; and upon a Prohibition awarded, he prayes a Conſultation, but makes no mention of the Statute of 21 H. 8. 13. of Pluralities, in his Plea. In this Caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved; 1. That before the Statute of 21 H. 8. If a man hath a Benefice with Cure, and takes another Benefice with Cure, that the firſt was void, but that was by the Spiritual Law, and not by the Common-Law; and therefore no Lapps ſhould encurre without Notice, and yet the Patron might preſent, and take upon him Notice of the Avoidance if he would: But now by the Statute of 21 H. 8. if the firſt Benefice be of the value of 8 l. the Patron at his peril ought to preſent unto it: For in as much as to an Avoydance by Act of Parliament, every one is party, every one ought to take Notice of it at his peril. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of 21 H. 8. was a general Act, of which the Judges ought to take Notice Ex Officio; and ſo ought the Judges to take Notice of all general Acts: but contrary of particular Acts; and therefore of the Statute of 18 Eliz. concerning Colledges in the Univerſities, &c. the Judges are not to take Notice, becauſe they are particular Acts. But the Statute of 13 Eliz. Cap. 10. & 18 Eliz. Cap. 11. concerning Colledges, Deans, Chapters, Hoſpitals, Parſons, Vicars, or any other perſon having Spirituall or Eccleſiaſtical Livings, are generall

Acts, whereof the Judges ſhall take knowledg. But the Statute of 1 Eliz. concerning Leaſes made by Biſhops, is a ſpecial Act, becauſe it concerns the Biſhop only; and of that, the Judges ſhall not take Notice Ex Officio: Of every Act which toucheth the King, the Judges Ex Officio are to take Notice, becauſe every Subject hath intereſt in the King. Cook 4. Part, 75, 76. Hollands Caſe.

11. Two Joynt-Tenants were with Warranty; Partition was made betwixt them by Judgment in a Writ de Partitione faciendâ, by force of the Statute of 31 H. 8. cap. 1. It was adjudged that the Warranty did remain, becauſe by Writ they are compellable by the Statute to make Partition; and the party hath purſued his remedy according to the Act, and therefore none can have wrong by the operation of the ſaid Statute, to which every one is a party. But if they had made Partition by Deed by conſent after the ſaid Act, although by Writ they were compellable to make Partition; yet forasmuch as they have not purſued the Statute to make Partition by Writ in ſuch Caſe, ſuch Partition doth remain at the Common Law, and by conſequence the Warranty is gone. Cook 6. Part, 12. Morrices Caſe.

12. Divers Souldiers who were preſſed, and went towards Ireland to ſerve the Rebells before they had ſerved in the Wars, departed and eſſoyned themſelves; and upon conſideration of the Statutes of Captains and Souldiers, it was Reſolved by all the Judges, That the Statute of 18 H. 6. cap. 19. was of little force, becauſe the ancient manner of retaining of Souldiers was now changed. But it was Reſolved by them, That the Statutes of 7 H. 7. cap. 1. and 3 H. 8. cap. 5. were ſpecial Acts of Parliaments, and were not made for the Reigns only of the ſaid Kings. For that the general word (King) in the ſaid Statutes, did extend to all his Succeſſors; and according to this Reſolution, divers Souldiers who departed were attainted and executed. See Cook 6. Part, 27. The Caſe of Souldiers.

13. See, that the Act of 35 H. 8. which concerneth the capacity of the Queen, was Reſolved to be ſuch an Act of which the Judges ought to take knowledg, becauſe the ſame concerneth the Kings Wife, which in ſome ſort doth participate of the Honour of the King. See Plow. Com. 231. in the Lord Berkeyes Caſe. Cook 7. Part, 28. in the Princes Caſe, &c.

14. Note, It was Reſolved, That the Statute of Weſt. 1. de Miſefactis in parcis. The Statute de Forreſta. The Statute of 22 E. 4. and 35 H. 8. concerning Forreſts, are general Acts of Parliament, of which the Judges are to take notice. Cook 8. Part, 137. Sir Francis Barringtons Caſe.

Jeofailes.

What things are holpen by the Statutes of Jeofailes; What not.

1. ACTION upon the Caſe upon Aſſumpſit; the Defendant pleaded, Non Aſſumpſit, and the Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That the Plaintiff had alledged no place of the Aſſumpſion. And it was ſaid, That when an Iſſue is miſ-tryed, it is not helped by the Statute, and here no place is alledged, whereupon the tryal may be. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Statute ſhall be taken liberally, ſo that if a Verdict be once given, it ſhall be a great cauſe that ſhall hinder the Judgment. Yet when it is tryed and found, the Plaintiff ought to have Judgment. Tr. 29 Eliz. in C.B. Goldesbr. 48.

2. Action upon Aſſault and Battery, the Defendant was condemned by Nihil dicit, and a Writ of enquiry of damages went forth, and then the Attorney of the Plaintiff dyed, and another Attorney without warrant, prayed the ſecond Judgment and Execution. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if in an Action after Judgment, the Attorney dye, a new Attorney may pray Execution without Warrant, but in this Caſe, becauſe he dyed before the ſecond Judgment, it ſeems he ought to have a Warrant of Attorney. The Preignotaries ſaid, That if after Judgment one of the parties dyed, the Writ ſhould abate: And it was agreed, That this was not within the Statute of Jeofailes, for a Verdict is that which is put in Iſſue by the joyning of the parties. Trin. 29 Eliz. in C.B. Goldsbr. 49.

3. Error, for that the Action was brought in the time of Queen Eliz. and the parties then at Iſſue, and a Venire returned. Afterwards in the time of King James, an Habeas Corpora was awarded with a Tales, which recited, Quod habeat Corpora Juratorum ſummonit. in Curia nuper Reginæ. And becauſe the Jurors were never ſaid to be ſummoned in Curia Reginæ, it was held Error, and the Judgment reverſed. And it is not holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes 32 H. 8. nor 18 Eliz. for the ſame proceſs ought to Warrant the other, which was not done in this Caſe. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Sir Fran- ch Knowls and Reckingſhaws Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 83.

4. Treſpaſs, for that he took and carried away three load of Wheat, being ſevered for Tythes conpacum, omitting the words vi et armis. After Verdict, It was moved, That the Bill ſhould abate, for it is the eſſential part of the Declaration, which induceth to have a Fine for the King. And ſuch was the Opinion of the whole Court; and that it is not holpen by the Statutes of Jeofailes. And ſo was it adjudged. Hill. 13 Jac. in Wilſh. and Taylers Caſe, where Judgment was reverſed for taking a bag of money, becauſe vi et armis was omitted. Paſc. 17 Jac. in B. R. Willis and Neidlers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 526.

5. A Writ of Right againſt Husband and Wife, of two parts of 40 Acres of Lands in S. they pleaded, That J. S. was ſeiſed, and deviſed it to his Wife, one of the Tenants for life, the Remainder to B. in Fee, which was his Heir, and dyed, and they prayed in aid of B. who joyned to them, and thereupon they came and pleaded to the grand Aſſiſe, and the firſt day of the Term, the Aſſiſe appeared, and 16 were ſworn, whereof four were Knights, and the reſt were Squires and Gentlemen, and the Title was all one as before, in Trin. 28. For this ſame B. was Tenant in that other Action for the third part. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was not aided by the Statute, for there is not any certainty in the Grant, but if he had given it a certain name, as Green Acre, then although he had miſtaken the Pariſh, yet it had bin good enough. Trin. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Ibgraves Caſe. Goldsbr. 90.

6. Debt was brought in the Kings Bench upon four Obligations to pay money. Three of them were tryed in London in Trinity Term, the fourth was tryed at Lent Aſſiſes after, and there was not any continuance from Trinity Term, to Lent Aſſiſes, which was much inſiſted upon: yet Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 10 Jac. rott. 104. See Paſc. 17 Jac. in B.R. Smith and Bowyers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 528. acc.

7. In an Action brought in the Common Pleas, In Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, That the Venire facias did vary from the Roll in the Plaintiffs name, for the Roll was Peter Percy, and the Venire facias, John Percy, and the Poſtea was according to the Roll, which was his true name. It was holden, That in Caſe no Venire facias iſſueth, the ſame is holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes, and this Caſe is in effect, as if no Venire facias had iſſued forth. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if there be no Venire facias, nor Habeas Corpora: yet if the Sheriff doth return a Jury, the ſame is helped by the Statute of Jeofailes. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt. 194. Trin. 7 Jac. rott. 787. in the Exchequer, Herenden and Taylor Caſe adjudged accordingly. See Cook 5. Part, Biſhops Caſe.

8. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Venire facias wanted theſe words, Et habeas ibidem Nomina Juratorum, but the words Venire facias Duodecim, &c. were inſerted. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That it was good, and that the firſt words are ſupplyed in the laſt, and that they are holpen by the Statutes of Jeofailes, after Verdict. Paſc. 12 Jac. in C. B. Bude and Stabbings Caſe. Brown. 2. Part, 167.

9. In an Action for words brought in the Chancery by a Clark there; A Venire facias was awarded, returnable in the Kings Bench. The Writ was, Venire facias 12 Quorum quilibet habet 4 l. terrarum aut minus, &c. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, that the Venire facias was ill, for that the Statute of 27 Eliz. cap. 6. extends only to Writs of Venire facias in the Kings Bench, Common Pleas, Exchequer, Juſtices of Aſſiſe, and no other Courts, and the Chancery is omitted, and therefore the Venire was not Warranted by the Statutes. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That this clauſe inſerted in the Writ (although it was not Warranted by the Statute, as it was agreed by all the Juſtices upon peruſal of the Statute) yet it is not prejudicial to any, but makes the better tryal; and by the Common Law, Judges may direct a Venire facias, tales quorum quilibet habeat tantum de terris: And Preſidents were ſhewed out of Chancery, where the Venire facias was, as in this Caſe. And the Opinion of the Court was, That if it was not good at the Common Law, yet it was now clearly made good by the Statute of 32 H. 8. wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 21 Jac. in B. R. Pollot and Feilds Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 672. See Hill. 33 Eliz. in B. R. rott. 92. Morrice and Thomas's Caſe, adjudged acc.

10. A Scire facias in Chancery upon a Recognizance of 300 l. by one C. the Defendant was returned dead; Whereupon a ſecond Venire facias iſſued againſt the Heir of C. and againſt the Tenants of the Lands of C. which he had Tempore recognitionis, whereupon the Sheriff returned Ter-Tenants of ſuch Lands, and omitted to return any thing concerning the Heir; upon this, the Defendant pleaded, That he had nothing in the Lands, at the time of the Recognizance, nor ever after. It was found for the Plaintiff, That C. was ſeiſed. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, becauſe nothing was returned againſt the Heir, viz. that there was not any Heir, or that the Heir had nothing; and it is a Non-return of the Sheriff, and and not a miſ-return, and is not helped by the Statute of Jeofailes. But it was agreed by the Court, although the return had bin better, if it had bin found who was Heir, and that he was warned, or that there was not any Heir in the ſaid County, yet it was well enough; and the miſ-return, or inſufficient return of the Sheriff quoad the Heir (becauſe he is not named in the return) is but a Diſcontinuance, which is helped by the Statute of Jeofailes. Trin. 9 Car. in B. R. Eyres and Tauntons Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 215. and 228.

11. Ejectione firmæ of ſix Meſſuages, 100 Acres of Land, 300 Acres of Paſture; after Verdict, it was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That this ſuit is by Original Writ, and the Original doth not Warrant the Declaration, for the Original is of one Meſſuage and 60 Acres of Land, and ſo varies from the Original in the number of the Meſſuages and the Lands. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this ſhall not be intended, the Original upon which the Plaintiff declared, but that there was another Original, which is imbeſſeled. 1 Becauſe the Writ bears Teſte 18 Aprilis, returnable 15 Paſc. and this Declaration is in Trinity Term, and here is no continuance upon this Writ. 2. The Writ is againſt the Defendant and a Copyholder; and in this Declaration there is no name of the Copyholder, wherefore it ſhall be intended that this Declaration is grounded upon another Original. And this want is holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes. Trin. 9 Car. in B. R. Johnſon and Davy's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 238.

12. A. brought a Formedon againſt B. in C. B. and there was a ſpecial Verdict found, and Judgment given, Error brought and alledged for Error, That after Verdict given, no default in the Writ ſhould prejudice the party by the Statute of 18 El. It was the Opinion of Popham Chief Juſtice, That if there be no Writ, it is holpen by the Statute, but it is otherwiſe if there be an inſufficient Writ in matter. And in every Writ of Formedon, there are two things requiſite, the one is the gift, the other is the conveyance to the Defendant, and if either of theſe two fail, the Writ is inſufficient in ſubſtance, and is not holpen by the Statute. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Dewnalt and Cattesbyes Caſe. Goldesbr. 126.

13. In Debt, the Plaintiff declared upon a Demiſe for Rent; The Defendant pleaded, That before the Rent due, the Plaintiff did enter upon him, but did not ſay, that he did expel, or hold him out; and ſo iſſue was taken, Non intravit, and found for the Defendant, and Judgment was given for him; for although the plea in bar was inſufficient, yet the Verdict was full to the Iſſue. Trin. 17 Jac. in C. B. Reynolds and Bucklet Caſe. Hob 326.

14. A. brought Debt againſt B. upon the Statute of 21 H. 8. The Writ was Precipe B. quod reddat nobis et A. qui tam pro nobis quam pro ſipſo ſequitur 110 l. quas nobis et præfat. A. debet; and declares for the taking to Farm of 6 Acres of Lands, and holding the ſame ſix Moneths, &c. And for 60 l. and for further taking to Farm other Lands, and holding the ſame five Moneths per quod alias, &c. for 50 l. The Defendant pleaded, quod ipſe non debet præfat. A. qui tam, &c. the aforeſaid 110 l. neq; aliquam inde denariam in forma quo, &c. Iſſue was joyned, and found that the Defendant did owe 30 l. and for the reſt quod non debet. Exception was taken, for that the Verdict expreſſes not for which Farm, nor for which of the Moneths the 30 l. was due. But this exception was diſallowed, becauſe the demand and Iſſue was for 110 l. in general, though it had bin more formal to have diſtinguiſhed them. Another exception was, That the Defendant hath not anſwered the Writ and Declaration. For the Plea ought to have bin as the demand is, Quod ipſe non debet diſt. Domino Regi et præfat. A. qui tam; this was holden a good exception, becauſe the Statute of Jeofailes excepts penal Statutes, Paſc. 18 Jac. in C. B. Star and Lewis Caſe. Hob. 327. See Trin. 7 Jac. in C. B. Hob. 101. More and Huſſeys Caſe, where the Judgment was reverſed, becauſe there were no plegii de proſequendo entred for the Plaintiff; for they took it not to be within the remedy of the Statute of Jeofailes, becauſe they held it a penal Law, and ſo excepted. See Lib. ibid.

15. Treſpaſs was brought for taking of a Kettle at Weſtowne; the Defendant juſtified by reaſon of a Cuſtome in the Mannor of T. and the Plaintiff joyned iſſue de injuria ſua propria abſq; tali cauſa. The Venire facias was awarded de vicineto de Weſtowne et Manerio de T. by the Roll, and a Verdict for the Plaintiff, and although the Plaintiff ſhould not have traverſed the cauſe generally, but the Cuſtome, yet that was adjudged holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes, as matter of form, becauſe abſque tali cauſa, contained the Cuſtome and more. Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Banks and Parker's Caſe. Hob. 76.

16. In Trover and Converſion againſt the Defendant, the Declaration upon the Imparlance Roll had ſpaces for the day and year of loſing, finding, and Converſion of the goods, but the Iſſue, Roll, and all the reſt was perfect in this point. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Imparlance Roll could not be amended and made perfect by the Iſſue Roll, becauſe it was the Original, and was the Warrant to the other. But yet becauſe cauſe upon Iſſue, Not Guilty, Verdict was given for the Plaintiff; this Court gave Judgment for him, becauſe the Declaration, as it was found in the Imparlance Roll, was good enough in matter; for the Trover and Converſion was layed in the Preterperfect Tenſe, and ſo before the Action brought, and ſo the fault in the Declaration being but in form, was holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes. Mich. 12 Jac. Parker and Parkers Caſe. Hob. 76.

17. Treſpaſſe brought for entring into an houſe, and breaking of his Cloſe in D. the Defendant ſaid, That the ſaid houſe and Cloſe contains 20 Acres, and is, and at the time of the Treſpaſſe ſuppoſed, was his Freehold: The Plaintiff replyed, Quod locus et clauſa in quo ſupponitur Tranſgreſſio eſt unum Meſſuagium, and makes him a title to it; and for that the Plaintiff by his Replication made to him Title to a Meſſuage, and did not maintain his Declaration, which was for the Meſſuage and Cloſe. It was awarded Quod querens nil capiat per billam. Quære if this do not amount to a Diſcontinuance of the Cloſe only, and ſo is helped by the Verdict. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 158.

18. Error brought to reverſe a Judgment; the Error aſſigned was, That the Suit was commenced 35 Eliz. and the Venire facias to try the Iſſue, bore date 33 Eliz. It was adjudged by the Court, That a Venire facias which bears Teſte 33 Eliz. cannot poſſible be to try an Iſſue in 35 Eliz. which is two years after; and therefore here was no Venire facias, and ſo it was helped by the Statute of 18 Eliz. after Verdict. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Bowyer and Jenkins Caſe. Goldesbr. 188. Tanfield ſaid, That it was adjudged in this Court, in Yorks Caſe, That it was not holpen by the Statute.

19. A. brought Treſpaſſe of Battery againſt B. the Defendant made juſtification, by conveying himſelf an Eſtate by Copy in a piece of Ground, parcel of the Mannor of D. whereof J. S. was ſeiſed: and the Plaintiff came upon it, and he laid his hands upon him Moliter. The Plaintiff replyed, and conveyed himſelf alſo an eſtate by Copy, of another piece of the ſame Mannor, and then layed, That the ſaid J. S. Lord of the ſaid Mannor, had had for him and his Tenants of this piece of ground, a way over the Defendants piece, &c. And thereupon Iſſue was taken and found for the Plaintiff. The better Opinion of the Court in this Caſe was, That this was not holpen by the Statute, becauſe in deed this was no Iſſue at all, nor thing, nor poſſible iſſuable; and therefore the Verdict muſt alſo be void, for a Verdict cannot make that good, that the Court ſees cannot be in Law, ſo that this is the Office of the Court to judg. Hill. 13 Jac. in C. B rotr. 2311. Tasker and Salters Caſe. Hob. 112, 113.

20. In Treſpaſs by A. againſt B. and C. Iſſue was taken, That J. S. Prebend of the Prebendary of P. in the Church of S. and all his Predeceſſors, Prebendaries, &c. had uſed time out of mind to keep a Shepheard for certain Sheep of theirs, following the ſame ſheep, for the better keeping of them, feeding together in a certain Paſture from the Sheep of Tho. Earl of Suffolk in the ſame place, and Iſſue was found accordingly. It was moved that this was a void Verdict, for the Preſcripion was ſenſleſs, and could not ſtand, that the Sheep could be kept time out of mind from the Sheep of the Earl of Suffolk, being but one mans life. But yet by the Rules of the Court, Judgment was given according to the Verdict, for the Plaintiff, for the ſubſtance of the Iſſue was the keeping of the Sheep of the Prebendary feeding together; and the other part was but a conſequent of it, that thereby they were kept from the Sheep of the Earl. Trin 14 Jac. in C. B. Nepper and Jaſper and Georges Caſe. Hob. 117.

21. Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, et alia enormia ei intulit; upon Not-Guilty, and damages 400 l. in reſpect of the abuſe of the Plaintiffs Wife. It was moved, That upon the Return of the Venire facias, there wanted theſe words Quilibet Juratorum per Plegios, ſo it is as if there had bin no return of this Writ. But the Court held, That it was not as a blank return, where no return is at all, or that the name of the Sheriff is omitted, but here is an inſufficient Return, which is helped by the Statute of Jeofailes. For the omiſſion of the Pledges is but matter of form, and not like to Huſſeys Caſe, where there was want of Pledges upon the Original. Paſc. 17 Jac. in B. R. More and Blackwells Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 534.

22. The Plaintiff exhibited a Bill againſt the Defendant, one of the Clarks of the Kings Bench, for money due upon an Obligation: And Iſſue was joyned, and the cauſe tryed, and a Verdict for the Plaintiff. The Defendant moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Bill was not filed, and that it was not helped by the Statute of Jeofailes, nor within the Statute. But afterwards the Court granted, That a new Bill ſhould be filed, ſo that the matter might be put to Arbitrament. But the Court ſeemed to be of Opinion, That the want of a Bill was not holpen by the Statute. Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Weeks and Wrights Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 81.

23. An Action was brought for an Aſſault and Battery in Surrey. The Defendant pleaded a plea of Juſtification in Middleſex. The Plaintiff replyed, that he beat him in Southwark which is in Surrey, de injuria ſua propria abſque tali cauſa. And this this Iſſue was tryed by a Jury in Middleſex, and found for the Plaintiff, and Error brought. It was ſaid, That the tryal was not good; becauſe the Venire facias, was here from one place, where it ſhould have bin from both places, for here two Iſſues are to be tryed, and ſo it is not within the Statute of Jeofailes. But the Court held, That the tryal was well enough. Here are two Iſſues, but you have made them one by pleading, and ſo it is within the Statute of Jeofailes, and helped by it. Mich. 1649. Hill and Blunden's Caſe. Styles 206.

24. One exhibited a Bill in placito debiti againſt Wilſon an Attorney of the Common-Pleas. And after Verdict it was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Original Bill was not filed with the Cuſtos Brevium, as it ought to be. But it appeared to the Court, That the Tenor of the Bill was entred of Record in hæc verba. It ſeemed to the Court, That this was remedied by the Statute of Jeofailes, as being in the nature of a want of an Original after Verdict. Yet the Court would adviſe of it, becauſe it had otherwiſe bin ruled in one Roods Caſe, an Attorney of this Court. Trin. 12 Jac. in C. B. Wilſons Caſe. Hob. 130.

25. A. brought an Action of Trover and Converſion of good againſt W. in the Kings Bench, the Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty, and the Plaintiff had a Judgment; the Defendant brought Error, and aſſigned two Errors. 1. That there was no Bill filed. 2. That there was no bail; and upon a Certiorari, it was returned. It was certified there was neither Bill nor Bail filed: And the Judgment, notwithſtanding thoſe Errors aſſigned, was affirmed in the Exchequer Chamber. For 1. The want of a Bill, being the Original, was taken to be within the meaning and intent of the Statute of 18 Eliz. and remedied to the equity of that Statute. 2. The want of a Bail was not material, becauſe it might be that the Defendant was in Cuſtodia Mariſchalli at the time of the Plaintiffs Bill exhibited, according as the Bill ſuppoſeth. Trin. 17 Jac. Willis and Woodhouſes Caſe. Hob. 264.

26. Treſpaſs for taking and carrying away 100 Loads of Turf, the Defendant pleaded quod locus in quo (whereas there was no place aſſigned), was two Acres called B. in L. which was his Freehold, and that he digged the Turf there, and carried them away prout. The Plaintiff ſaid, That locum in quo was a piece which contained 20 Acres in L. alia quam, &c. and the Defendant quoad aliquam tranſgreſſionem in prædict. 20 Acres; pleaded Not Guilty; Whereupon Iſſue was taken, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That this was no Iſſue, for there was no 20 Acres, nor place certain in the Declaration. Yet the Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff, for although it was not in the Declaration, yet it was no departure from the Declaration, for both parties agreed that the Treſpaſs was done at L. and ſo it is not a Verdict out of the matter, and ſo no Iſſue, but is a Verdict holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes. Hill. 14 Jac. in C. B. rott. 861. Plant and Thorleyes Caſe. Hob. 176.

27. In a Writ of Error of a Judgment in the Common Pleas in an Ejectione firmæ; It was aſſigned for Error, That the Declaration was, That J. S. 21. Martii, 6 Jac. let Lands to the Plaintiff for ſeven years, by vertue of which he entred, and was poſſeſſed untill the Defendant poſtea ſcript. anno ſexto prædict. ejected him. After Imparlance, the Plaintiff made a ſecond Declaration, and there the Ejectment is ſuppoſed to be 26. Maii anno ſupradict. And the Writ was brought of that Ejectment. It was found againſt the Defendant, and Judgment for the Plaintiff: And whether it was erronious, becauſe no day was mentioned in the firſt Declaration, was the Queſtion. It was agreed in this Caſe, That the firſt Declaration is the principal Declaration, and if any matter of ſubſtance be omitted in it, it cannot be helped or amended by the ſecond, for that is but a meer recital: And therefore if the firſt be not good, the tryal is erronious. But the Court held in the principal Caſe, That the firſt declaration was good; for he declares of a Leaſe 25 Martii, 6 Jac. which is the firſt day of the year. And the Poſtea, ſcil. 6 Jac. that the Defendant directed him, is certain enough, for the year when he made the Ejectment, and the day of the Ejectment, is not material, it being before the Action brought. Hill. 9 Jac. in B. R. Merrill and Smiths Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 211.

28. Account was brought againſt J. G. of divers Receipts and parcells, to all which, except one, the Defendant pleaded to Iſſue, and for one parcel, pleaded nothing. It was moved, That the Plea was diſcontinued, becauſe he did not anſwer to parcel. And it was ſaid, That the Diſcontinuance was not aided by the Statute of 32 H. 8. becauſe no anſwer was given to one parcel, and of parcel the Plaintiff could not have Judgment according to his Declaration, for of the parcel to which no anſwer was made, no Judgment could be given. But it was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Statute of 32 H. 8. did extend to it, for it is thereby enacted, That after Verdict found, Judgment ſhall be given, any Diſcontinuance notwithſtanding. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Gomerſall and Gomerſalls Caſe. Godbolt. 55.

29. In Treſpaſs for entring his houſe and Cloſe at G. the Defendant juſtified, That a Capias utlagatum was by a Warrant from the Sheriff directed to him, to execute upon one J. S. and becauſe it was the common voice that J. S. was at the Plaintiffs houſe, he went in a foot path through the ſaid Cloſe to the ſaid houſe, and asked leave of the Plaintiff to enter enter his houſe to ſearch for the ſaid J. S; and that the Plaintiff gave him leave: Whereupon he entred, and not finding J. S. he returned the ſame way. Iſſue was joyned upon the Licence; And it was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there was not any Replication for the Cloſe, nor any Iſſue joyned thereupon, ſo that all was diſcontinued. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That Judgment ſhould be given for that which was found, and that the diſcontinuance for the other was helped by the Statute of Jeofails. Mich. 12 Jac. in B.R. Watts and Kings Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 353.

Impriſonment. See more upon title, Falſe Impriſonment.

Who have power to impriſon mens perſons; Who not: And in what Caſe, and for what Cauſe, and by what and whoſe Warrant or Command, a mans perſon may be impriſoned; What not.

1. IMpriſonment is nothing elſe but the reſtraint of a mans perſon, ſo as he cannot freely go at all times to all places, without bail or mainprize; and may be as well in a man's own houſe, as in a Common Priſon, Goal, or other place whatſoever; in ſome Caſes, and for ſome Cauſes it may be lawful; and in ſome Caſes, and for ſome Cauſes, ſuch a Reſtraint may be unlawful; and then it is called, Falſe Impriſonment.

2. In all Actions, Quare vi et Armis, as Raſcous, Vi et Armis, &c. If Judgment be given againſt the Defendant, he ſhall be Fined and Impriſoned: For to every Fine, Impriſonment is incident; and alwayes when the Judgment is, Quod defendens impriſonetur; it is as much as to ſay, Capiatur uſq; finem fecit. Cook 8. Part, 59.

3. In an Attaint, If the Plaintiff be Nonſuit, or barred, he ſhall be Fined and Impriſoned; ſo if the Attaint paſſe againſt the Defendant, if he were party to the firſt Record, he ſhall be Fined and Impriſoned: but if he were not party to the firſt Record, as Tenant by Reſceit, or other Tenant, he ſhall not be Fined nor Impriſoned. 42 E. 3. 26. 14 Aſs. 2.

4. For Contempts done to any Court of Record againſt the Kings Command, by Writ under the great Seal, the Defendant ſhall be Fined and Impriſoned; as in a Quare non admiſit, Quare Incumbravit, Attachment upon Prohibition, &c. Cook 8. Part, 60. Beechers Caſe.

5. If Judgment be given againſt one in the Common Pleas, in a Writ of Recaption; he ſhall be Fined and Impriſoned; but if the Writ be Vicontiel in the County, there he ſhall not be Fined and Impriſoned, becauſe the Court is not of Record; and Regularly thoſe that cannot make a Record, cannot Fine and Impriſon. Cook 8. Part, 120. in Dr. Bonham's Caſe.

6. The Statute of Weſt. 2. Cap. 11. makes the Auditors before whom an Accompt is taken Judges of Record, becauſe they have power thereby to commit the Defendant to priſon; which cannot be done, if they be not Judges of Record. But if the Accompt be before one Auditor, the ſame is out of the Statute; for he cannot commit the Defendant to priſon, 10 H. 6. 14. So if the Lord be found in Surpluſage, the Statute is made againſt the Accomptant only, and the Lord cannot be committed to priſon. Cook 10. Part, 103. in Denbawds Caſe.

7. Note, per Curiam, That of Courts, ſome may Fine, and not Impriſon; as the Court-Leet: Some cannot Fine, nor Impriſon, but Amerce; as the County Court, Hundred, Court Baron, &c. No Court can Fine and Impriſon, which is not a Court of Record. Some may Impriſon, and not Fine; as the Conſtable at the Petty Seſſions, for any Fray made in diſturbance of the Court, may Impriſon, but not Fine. Some Courts cannot Impriſon, Fine, nor Amerce; as the Eccleſiaſtical Court holden before the Ordinary Arch-Deacon, &c. or their Commiſſaries, or the like, who proceed according to the Canon, or Civil Law. Some Courts may Fine, Impriſon, and Amerce, as the caſe requireth; as the Courts of Records at Weſtminſter, or elſewhere. Cook 11. Part, 41. in Richard Godfreys Caſe.

8. A. the Executor of the Will of J. S. ſued a Writ of Accompt againſt B, Receiver of the moneys of the ſaid J. S; The Defendant pleaded, Never his Receivor to render an accompt: which was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given, That the Defendant ſhould Accompt. And upon that, a Capias ad Computandum was awarded: upon which the Defendant being taken, being in Cuſtody, did accompt, and was found in arrears, and his body was Impriſoned in Execution. Afterward, the Will was annulled in the Spiritual Court, becauſe the ſaid J. S. the Teſtator was an Ideot born, which was Certified into the Chancery, and from thence ſent into the Kings-Bench, where the Accompt was brought: He who was in Execution, brought an Audita Querela. Trin. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 203. See Cook 8. Part, 143. in Dr. Darcies Caſe, It was ſaid, That 35 H. 8. it was adjudged, That in ſuch Caſe an Audita Querela did lye.

9. A man Outlawed upon a Judgment in Debt, the Chancellor not being certified, that the Plaintiff was ſatisfied, had pardoned the Outlawry, Ita quod ſtet reſt. where it ſhould have been, That he ſatisfied the Plaintiff; and upon two Nihils returned, it was allowed. See there, where one is Outlawed for a Fine to the King in Treſpaſſe, he ſhall not have a pardon till the Chancellor be aſſured that the party is ſatisfied. After the year, the Plaintiff ſued a Scire facias, and had Execution by default, and a Capias, and an Exigent; and if upon the Capias utlegatum, the Defendant ſhould avoid the Outlawry by Plea, is a Quære, in 3 Eliz. Dyer, 172.

10. An Information of Perjury was brought againſt Bronker in the Star-Chamber, for returning one who was not choſen a Knight of the Parliament, he was fined and impriſoned according to the Statute for the falſe Return. But it was further ſaid in the Caſe, That it appeared that he took not his Oath at the entry of his Office by the perſwaſion of J. D. to whom a Dedimus Poteſtatem was given to take it: and in that caſe they were both Fined and Impriſoned for the Contempt. Trin. 1 Eliz. Dyer, 168. Bronkers Caſe.

11. The Statute of Weſt. 2. of Raviſhment of Wards, is, Si ille qui rapuit non habens jus in Maritagio, licet poſtea reſtituit puerum non maritatum, vel de Maritagio ſatisfecerit, puniatur tamen pro tranſgreſſione per priſonam duorum annorum. And the Caſe was, A Writ of Raviſhment of Ward upon this Statute was brought againſt Huſband and Wife, and others; The Jury found, That the Wife was guilty of the Raviſhment, but not the Huſband; and aſſeſſed Coſts and Damages. It was, amongſt other things, Reſolved in this Caſe, That a Feme Covert was not within the ſaid Statute, becauſe ſhe is diſabled to ſatisfie; and the goods of the huſband who is innocent, are not lyable by the Statute, to anſwer for the Raviſhment done by the Wife: and the Law did not intend ſo ſevere a puniſhment as Impriſonment for two years, for the not doing of that which the Law had diſabled the party to do. Cook 9. Part, 72. Dr. Huſſyes Caſe.

12. The Queen granted a Commiſſion to ſeveral perſons, to Order the Intereſt of the Office of the Ex'genter of London, which the Queen did pretend did belong unto her. Whereupon a Bill was exhibited before them, againſt Scroggs; who demurred upon their Juriſdiction, and would not Anſwer; and thereupon they committed him to the priſon of the Fleet. But in that caſe, The Juſtices of the Common-Pleas, granted a Habeas Corpus, and diſcharged him of his Impriſonment, becauſe the Office was incident to the Chief Juſtice of that Court, and he was a neceſſary Officer, whoſe attendance was neceſſary in Court. Mich. 2 Eliz. Dyer, 176. Scroggs Caſe.

13. A. arraigned upon an Indictment of Murder of one J. S. was found Not guilty of the Murder, but guilty of Manſlaughter; for which he pleaded the General Pardon of 35 Eliz. The Attorney General for the Queen ſaid, That there was an Exception in it of all perſons being in Priſon by the Commandment of the Privy Councel: and ſaid, That the ſaid A. was committed by the Lord Chamberlain for ſuſpition of the ſaid Felony, and for the ſame in priſon at the time of the Parliament, and ſo a perſon Excepted. To which it was ſaid, That before the ſaid Parliament, and after the ſaid Commitment by the Lord Chamberlain, he was brought into the Kings-Bench by a Habeas Corpus, and was for the ſaid offence committed by the ſaid Court to the Marſhalſey, and there was remaining at the time of the Parliament by force of the Commitment of that Court. In that caſe, It was the Opinion of the Court, That if a man be committed by a Privy Councellour, and removed by Habeas Corpus, and committed by that Court, he ſhall now be ſaid to be impriſoned by the Commitment of that Court, and not of the Privy Councellor. Mich. 40 Eliz. in B.R. Arrundel's Caſe. Goldeſbr. 133.

14. In an Action of Falſe Impriſonment againſt two; the Defendants juſtified, and ſet forth, That London was an Ancient City; and that the Mayor of London is a Juſtice of Peace, and that the Defendants were Sergeants of the Mace according to the Cuſtom of London; And that L. Lord Mayor commanded the Defendants to arreſt the Plaintiff for cauſes unknown to them. It was holden by the Court, That the Arreſt and Impriſonment was not juſtifiable: For here it is ſhewed, That the Mayor is a Juſtice of Peace, and it doth not appear, whether he did it as a Juſtice of Peace, or Mayor: and a Juſtice of Peace cannot command his Servant to Arreſt one, without a Warrant in writing. And it was ſaid in this caſe, That although the Judges knew the Authority of the Mayor by which they arreſted men, yet becauſe it did not appear to them judicially as Judges, it muſt be pleaded. And it was ſaid, That the Servant is not an Officer to the Mayor as he is a Juſtice of the Peace, but the Conſtable: And it was ſaid, that the Plea in this Caſe was, That the Mayor commanded to Impriſon him preſently, without ſhewing any cauſe; which is not good: For the Judges cannot impriſon without ſhewing cauſe; But they and the Mayor both may command an Officer to arreſt a man, without ſhewing cauſe for elſe, before he ſhall be examined, he may invent and frame an excuſe. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 3 Jac. Brody's Caſe, in B. R. Brownlow, 1. Part, 204.

Impriſon

15. Sir William Chauncy being committed to the Fleet by a Warrant from the High-Commiſſioners in Cauſes Eccleſiaſtical, was brought to the bar by Habeas Corpus: the Return of which was in hæc verba, We require you to take into your Cuſtody, the body of Sir William Chauncy, letting you to know, That the cauſe of his Commitment is, That he being convented before them for Adultery, and for expelling his Wife from his company, without allowing her any maintenance; and upon his own confeſſion convicted thereof, He was by Order of the Court enjoyned to allow his Wife a Competent maintenance according to his ability; and to perform ſuch ſubmiſſion and other Order for his Adultery, as by Law ſhould be enjoyned him; which he refuſed to do. It was Reſolved in this caſe by all the Juſtices, amongſt other things, That the Impriſonment by the High-Commiſſioners was not lawful. And it was agreed, That if a perſon be impriſoned which hath the priviledg of this Court, This Court may deliver him without bail; For the King is the Supream Head by the Common-Law, as to the Coercive power; and that the Letters Patents of the King cannot give power to Impriſon, where they cannot Impriſon by the Common-Law. And ſo it was adjudged in Simpſon's Caſe, 42 Eliz. who was cited before the High-Commiſſioners for Adultery with Fifts Wife, and adjudged, that they could not impriſon for that. And afterwards, Sir William Chauncey was bailed; and afterwards by the Mediation of the Metropolitan, he was reconciled to his Wife. See Paſch. 9 Jac. in C.B. Sir William Chauncy's Caſe. Brownlow, 2. Part, 18, 19. And Cro. 2. Part, 82, 83. acc.

16. Two Juſtices of Peace may view a force, and make a Record of it, and commit the offendors to priſon; but that muſt be done in flagrante Oriente: For if they do not commit thoſe immediately upon the View, they cannot commit them afterwards. See 27 H. 6. 9. Brownlow, 2. Part, 166. acc.

17. A. was Excommunicated by the Ordinary of the Diocels, for an Offence in procuring a Prieſt to marry a Gentlewoman to a Ploughman: And after Abſolution, he was committed to priſon for the ſame Offence by the High Commiſſioners. It was holden in this caſe, That the matters concerning Marriages, Tythes, were examinable before the Ordinary, and not before them: and because he had ſuffered Impriſonment before for the ſame cauſe; and that neither the Statute of 23 H. 8. nor the Canon doth extend to the High Commiſſioners: The Court ſet the party at Liberty, if the High Commiſſioners refuſed to do it. Hill. 6 Jac. in C. B. Pierpoints Caſe. Godbolt, 158.

18. A man brought a Child of the age of ſix years, into the Pariſh of W, and there would have left it without keeping or nouriſhment, to the deſtruction of the Child contra pacem. For which the Defendant being Conſtable of the Pariſh, arreſted the Defendant and put him into Priſon, till he did agree to carry away the Child from thence to the place from whence it came. In an Action of Falſe Impriſonment, The Defendant Juſtified for that cauſe: and it was moved, That the Juſtification was good, for that every Subject might do it, à fortiori the Conſtable. And it was ſaid, that it was holden, 20 Eliz. That if in ſuch caſe, the Child had famiſhed for want of ſuſtenance, it had been Murder. The Court was of Opinion, That it was a great offence in the Plaintiff who brought the Action for the Falſe Impriſonment; and he could not obtain Judgment in it. But the Court held, That the Offence ought to be puniſhed according to Law; But the Conſtable could not impriſon a Subject at his pleaſure, but according to Law ſtay him, and bring him before a Juſtice of the Peace, to be there examined: and if he had pleaded, That he had ſo done, his Plea had been good: Or if he had pleaded, That the Plaintiff refuſed to carry away the Child. But as the Plea was, it was not good. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B.R. Beal and Carter's Caſe. Leon. 327. See Popham, 35 Eliz. 13. p. 3. a Caſe adjudged contrary to this Caſe.

20. T. Harriſon was Indicted; for that 4. May, all the Courts at Weſtminſter ſitting, he ruſhed to the Bar of the Court of Comon-Pleas, and in diſturbance of the Juſtices, and of the Court and Adminiſtration of Juſtice, and againſt the King and his regal Majeſty, he publickly and malitiouſly intending to draw Juſtice Hutton into diſpleaſure of the King, and to bring him in danger of his life, and forfeiture of his goods, ſpake theſe words of him, I accuſe Mr. Juſtice of High Treaſon. And he being found guilty, The Judgment was, That he ſhould pay a Fine to the King of 5000 l. and be impriſoned during the King's pleaſure. It was Informed in that Caſe, by the Clerk of the Crown, That Impriſonment during the King's pleaſure, is uſually entred; and not Impriſonment during life, but where there is an Awarding of forfeiture of Lands during life. Mich. 14 Car. in B.R. Harriſons Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 362.

21. Upon a Habeas Corpus returned, of the caute of Impriſonment of ent Hodges by the Mayor of Liskerrit, in the County of C; The Mayor Certified the cauſe to be, That he impriſoned him (Quia male ſe geſſit) and for uſing undecent ſpeeches to him, and that, in his Hall, with a Spit, inſultum fecit, et conatus fuit eum verberare, : and for theſe cauſes, he juſtified the Impriſonment. Divers Exceptions were taken to the Retorn; 1. It is too general; ſcil. Quia ſe male geſſit: Alſo if there was any juſt cauſe of Impriſonment for undecent words by him uſed, his Impriſonment ought to have been preſently, as is Reſolved in Cook 8. Part, in Bonham's Caſe: but here he was not Impriſoned till after a month after the words were pretended to be uſed. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Cauſe, That the Impriſonment was unlawful; for not being ſhewed Quouſq; and for what cauſe certain he was Impriſoned by him; and he ought not to impriſon him for ever: and alſo becauſe it was not mentioned in the Retorn for what time he Impriſoned him. And the Court held, That for male geſtures, as ſaying to him, He lyed, he could not Impriſon him. And the Court held, That it was a very barbarous courſe, for the Mayor to have Impriſoned the party in ſuch a manner, as to be kept in a Dungeon without Bed, Bread, or Meat, for a months ſpace, and that without any juſt cauſe at all. And Impriſonment ought to be only according to the Quality of the Offence. Stat. Marlbridg, Cap. 1. ſecundum quantitatem, et qualitatem delicti. And therefore the whole Court was clear of Opinion, That the Impriſonment was unjuſt and unlawfull; and ſo the party ought to be diſcharged. Mich. 21 Jac. in B. R. Hodges and Hawlin the Mayor of Liskerrit's Caſe, Bulſtr. 2. Part, 139.

22. Sir Henry Lea was committed to the Fleet for diſobeying a Decree made in the Court of Requeſts: And having Suits in the Common-Pleas, he prayed a Habeas Corpus; upon the Retorn of which, the Cauſe of his Impriſonment appeared to be for a Contempt for not performing the ſaid Decree, and no other cauſe appeared in the Retorn. The Court was of Opinion, That they could not deliver him, becauſe no cauſe appeared in the Retorn to warrant their Delivery of him. It was informed the Court, That the Decree was made upon a Bill containing this matter; viz. H.L. pretending title unto Lands which Sir Henry Lea held by Diſcent, ſhewed his Title to the Kings Majeſty, and thereupon the King upon the Petition of H. L. ſent for Sir Henry Lea, and had ſpeech with him, that he would give to the ſaid H. L. ſome recompence for his title which he pretended to have to the ſaid Lands; and thereupon Sir Henry Lea, at the inſtance of the King, did promiſe the King, That if the ſaid H. L. would not moleſt him for any of the ſaid Lands, that he would give the ſaid H.L. 200 l. per annum. And for not performance of his promiſe, H. L. exhibited his ſaid Bill in the Court of Requeſts, upon which the Decree was grounded. Sir Henry Lea Anſwered, That he did not know of any ſuch promiſe he made to the King, and pleaded to the Juriſdiction of the Court. And upon Certificate made to the Court, that he made ſuch a promiſe to him, The Court made the ſaid Decree. And it was moved to the Court, That becauſe it appeared, that H. L. had remedy at Law upon the promiſe, that the Court would grant a Prohibition, and deliver the party from his Impriſonment. But the Court would not ſo do, but ſaid, They would adviſe of the Caſe: but without the parties to an Agreement. And Cook, Chief Juſtice, ſaid to H. L. he had learned a Rule in his Youth, which was this, Cum pare luctari dubium, cum Prelate ſtultum eſt, Cum puero puna, cum muliere pax. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Sir Henry Lea and Lee's Caſe. Godbolt, 199.

23. A. was committed by the High-Commiſſioners to the Gate-Houſe, becauſe before that time he had been ſentenced and enjoyned penance for incontinency, and was fined to the King, and that he ſhould pay Coſts: And for not performance of all, he was committed. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the High-Commiſſioners cannot impriſon a man for a Fine Impoſed, nor take an Obligation for it to the uſe of the King, but they ought to eſtreat it into the Exchequer. But for the Penance or Eccleſiaſtical Cenſure lawfully made, they may commit the perſon to priſon, untill he conforms himſelf to their ſentence. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Williams Caſe. Noy, 17.

24. In Action of Treſpaſſe, for Aſſault, Battery, and Impriſonment at D: The Defendant as to the Aſſault and Battery pleaded Not guilty; and as to the Impriſonment, he juſtified the ſame at S. in this manner, That there the Court was held before him for the Stannery, he being the Steward of his Court, in which Court there was a Suit betwixt the now Plaintiff and another for debt; which Suit there went againſt the now Plaintiff, who was condemned in the Suit, and taken by his Command in Execution for this, untill he ſhould pay it and his Fine, which is the ſame Impriſonment, and ſo juſtifies, abſq; hoc, that he was guilty at any place, extra Curiam Stannaria. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Plea and Traverſe was not good; The Plea is repugnant in it ſelf, having firſt to all the Treſpaſſes pleaded pleaded, Not guilty; and afterwards unto pareell made a Juſtification: alſo the Traverſe is not good. The place where the Court was is D; and the Juſtification is local at S; and you ought in your Traverſe to have ſaid, abſq; hoc, that you were guilty at D, or in any other place extra Juriſdictionem Curiæ Stannariæ. Alſo the Traverſe here is not good, for by this it doth not appear what the Juriſdiction of the Court of Stannery is, nor how far the ſame doth extend it ſelf. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. 25. A Priſoner was brought to the Bar by Habeas Corpus, who was committed by the Committee of Plundered Miniſters to priſon; and theſe Exceptions were taken to the Return, 1. There was no time expreſſed, how long the party ſhould ſtand committed, ſo as he is committed without limitation of time, which is illegal. 2. He was committed by the name of Mr. Smith, and his name of Baptiſm was omitted, which ought not to be. And for theſe cauſes, the Commitment was adjudged illegal, and the Priſoner was diſcharged. Hill. 23 Car. B.R. Smiths Caſe. Styles, 90.

26. A. & B. Surveyors of the High-Wayes, were committed by an Order made in Seſſions, until they ſhould pay the arrearages of moneys collected by them upon the Statutes of 2 & 3 Phil. & Mar. cap. 8. for amending of High-Wayes: Theſe Exceptions were taken to the Order, 1. To the Mittimus, becauſe the parties were not convicted before the Juſtices as they ought to be. 2. The Mittimus is repugnant in it ſelf. For they are committed for not payment of illegal Rates levied upon the Pariſhioners; and if they be illegal, then they are not to be paid. 3. They are committed for not payment of all the money by them levied; whereas they are to deduct 8 d. in the pound out of it for their pains in collecting of it; and ſo they are committed for more then is due. It was the Opinion of the Court, That becauſe it was an Order for repairing of High-wayes, which was for the good of the Commonwealth, that they ſhould have time to maintain and make good their Order. Mich. 1653. in B.R. Styles, 399, Wades Caſe.

27. Sir William Bronker was brought before a Juſtice of Peace, upon an Information, That he had cheated one at Play with falſe Dice; The Juſtice required him to find Sureties for his good behaviour: and upon his refuſal, committed him to priſon. And upon a Habeas Corpus brought by him, he prayed to be delivered, becauſe there appeared no matter ſufficient upon the Return, why he ſhou'd be committed. It was ſaid by the Court in that Caſe, That a Juſtice of Peace cannot bind one to the good behaviour upon a general Information; Or commit him to priſon for refuſing to find Sureties for his good behaviour upon ſuch Information. Paſch. 23 Car. in B.R. Sir William Brookers Caſe. Styles. 16.

28. A. and 7. others were committed by the Mayor of London to Newgate, for refuſing to enter into a Recognizance to appear before the Lords of the Councel. Upon an Habeas Corpus returned, it appeared, That by an Order from the Councel Table, they were to come before the Mayor to treat of Forrein matters; and when they appeared, being required by the Mayor being in Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer for the City, to perform the Order of the Lords of the Councel, and to enter into a Recognizance; they refuſed ſo to do. Whereupon he commited them. It was ſaid in this caſe, That the Return was not good, becauſe it did not mention the Order, nor ſhew what the Order was; ſo as the Court might judg thereof. And alſo becauſe the Recognizance is demanded of them to appear before the Lords of the Councel, no time nor place being appointed, nor cauſe ſhewed why it was demanded. Trin. 15 Car. in B.R. Wolnoughs Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 397.

29. The Court was moved on the behalf of W: that whereas he being a Priſoner in the Kings-Bench Priſon for debt, and having agreed with his Creditors for their debts, he was diſcharged by them, that the Marſhall of the ſaid Bench, did keep him ſtill Priſoner there for the payment of Action money. The Court would not diſcharge the Priſoner, but ſaid, he had two remedies againſt the Marſhal, for he might either bring his Act on of Falſe Impriſonment againſt him; Or he might Indict him for Extortion: But yet they give Order that the Marſhall ſhould diſcharge him paying his Fees. Trin. 1655 Webbely and Sir John Lenthall's Caſe, in B. R. Styles, 454.

30. A man was committed to Priſon for ſpeaking words againſt the Parliament; Whereupon he was Endicted and Convicted and Fined 100 l. and ordered to lye in priſon till he could find Sureties for his good behaviour. Upon a Habeas Corpus, being brought into Court, he prayed that he might be diſcharged, becauſe he was pardoned by the Act of Oblivion. The Court ſaid, That it doth not appear to us, That he is not Excepted, and therefore we cannot deliver him. Whereupon a Certiorari was awarded to remove the Record hither, whereby he ſtands Convicted, and he might enter the Suggeſtion upon it, that he is pardoned by the Act. Trin. 1655: in B. Implication.

1. A Man maketh a gift to the Husband and Wife, and to the Heirs of the body of the Husband, and if the Husband and Wife dye without Iſſue of their bodies, that then it ſhall remain over: in this Caſe, although the Will of the Donor appear, that the Wife ſhall be alſo Donee in tail; yet foraſmuch as by the order of the Common Law, ſhe could not have the eſtate of Feeſimple conditional, for the ſame cauſe ſhe could not have an eſtate tail by the Statute, 12 E. 3. Variance 77.

2. If a man make a Feoffment in Fee, Ita quod the Feoffee ſhould do ſuch an Act. In this Caſe Mr. Littleton ſaid, It is commonly uſed in ſuch Caſes, to have theſe words (and if the Act be not done, that it ſhall be lawful for the Feoffor to reenter), which he ſaid was more then needed, for the firſt words are ſufficient in Law, and include them, yet he ſaid they are well put in, to declare and expreſs the Law to the people. Cook 1. Part, 104. in Shelleyes Caſe.

3. A man deviſed Lands to another man and his Heirs, and the Deviſee dyed in the life of the Deviſor, and then the Deviſor dyed. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Heir ſhould not take by the Deviſe; for in that Caſe, the Heirs are not named as words of purchaſe, but only to expreſs and limit the eſtate which the Deviſee ſhould have, for without theſe words (Heirs), the Deviſee could not have the Feeſimple, and the Heirs are named only to convey the Lands in Feeſimple, and not to make any other to be purchaſor then the firſt Deviſee. See Brett and Rigden's Caſe. Plow. Com. 342.

4. If a man bind himſelf and his Heirs in an Obligation, and dyeth ſeiſed of Lands aſwell on the part of the mother, as on the part of the Father, the Law implyeth, that neither the Heir on the part of the Father, nor the Heir on the part of the Mother ſhall be only charged, but both Lands ſhall be charged, 11 H. 7. 12. So if two men allien with Warranty, the Lands of one ſhall not be only rendred in value, nor if one dyeth, the Land of the ſurvivor ſhall not only be rendred in value, but the charge ſhall be equal upon, for ſo much is implyed in the lien. And ſo if two bind themſelves to Warranty, and both dye, both their Heirs ought to be vouched, and they ſhall be equally charged. Cook 3. Part, 14. in Sir William Herberts Caſe.

5. A. ſeiſed in Fee by Indenture in conſideration of bloud, Covenanted with B. his Nephew, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of B. in tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of B. Proviſo, That if the ſaid A. by himſelf, or by any other during his natural life, tender to the ſaid B. a Ring of Gold, to the intent to make void the ſaid uſes, that then the ſaid uſes ſhould be void. Afterwards A. was attainted of Treaſon, The King by his Letters Pattents made a Leaſe to C. and D. of the Lands for 40 years. The Attainder was confirmed by Act of Parliament, 28 Eliz. And by another Act at the ſame Parliament it is enacted, That all perſons which claim any eſtate or Intereſt in the Lands of any perſon attainted, not inrolled ſince 28 Eliz. ſhall within two years after the Seſſion of this Parliament, bring into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer his or their Grant, conveyance or aſſurance, there the effect thereof to be enrolled on Record, or elſe the conveyance to be void: The King by his Letters Pattents reciting the ſaid Proviſo, and that the benefit of the ſame is given to him by Parliament, did Authorize Eto tender the Ring of Gold to B. to the intent to make void the ſaid uſes; who makes the tender to Accordingly, which he refuſeth to accept of. In this Caſe (amongſt many other points) theſe were Reſolved. 1. That Conditions which are perſonall, and in privity, and inſeperably annexed to the perſon, cannot be performed by another, and ſuch a Condition is not given to the King by the Statute of 33 H. 8. cap. 20. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Condition in the principal Caſe, ſcil. the tender of the Ring of Gold was not annexed to the perſon of A. but any other might make the tender, and the ſame was given to the King by the Statute; and when the Statute gives the Condition it ſelf to the King: It was Reſolved, That the performance of it, which was the ſubſtance of it, which was not inſeperably annexed unto the perſon, was implicatively given to the King. Cook 7. Part, 12, 13. Sir Francis Englefields Caſe.

6. The King made a gift in tail of a Park, and afterwards granted the Reverſion thereof to J. S. in tail; and if the Donee of the Reverſion paid 10 l. at the Receipt of the Exchequer to the uſe of the King, that then he ſhould have pradictam reverſionem to him and his Heirs. In this Caſe (amongſt other points) it was Reſolved, That if he who had the Reverſion in tail had dyed before the Condition performed, his Heir or his body might have performed the Condition, and had Fee, for that power implicatively diſcended to the Heir, as an Inheritance annexed to the foundation; and in that Caſe, after the Condition performed, he ſhall ſhall have the Fee quodam modo by diſcent. Cook 8. Part, 75. The Lord Staffords Caſe.

7. A man made a Leaſe of a houſe by theſe words (Demiſe and Grant), and the Leſſor Covenanted that the Leſſee ſhould enjoy the houſe during the Term, without ejection by the Leſſor, or any claiming under him; and bound himſelf to perform all Covenants and Grants, Articles, and Agreements in the Indenture. The Leſſee aſſigned over his Term, and a ſtranger entred upon the Aſſignee, and made a Leaſe for years, who brought Ejectment againſt the Aſſignee and recovered; and in Debt upon the Obligation, the Leſſor pleaded performance of all Covenants, &c. It was in this Caſe a point Reſolved, That the expreſs Covenant did qualify the generality of the Covenant in Law, and did reſtreyn the ſame by mutual aſſent of the parties, that it did not extend further then the expreſs Covenant. Trin. 41 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 80, Nokes's Caſe. Note, in that Caſe it was ſaid, That if a man maketh a Leaſe for life, and binds himſelf and his Heirs to Warranty, that here the expreſſe Warranty, doth not take away the Warranty in Law; for if he in the Reverſion grant over his Reverſion, and the Leſſee attorn, and is afterwards impleaded, he may vouch the Grantee by the Warranty in Law, or he may vouch the Leſſor by the expreſs Warranty; And if a man make a Feoffment by the word Dedi, and with an expreſs Warrant in the Deed, he may uſe the one or the other at his election: But if a man maketh a Feoffment by this word Dedi, which implyes a Warranty, the Aſſignee of the Feoffee ſhall not vouch. See ibid. Cook 1. Part, Buckhurſt's Caſe. Cook 5. Part, Spencers Caſe. 20 E. 3. Counterplea of Warranty 7. 31 E. 3. Voucher, 289. for theſe differences.

8. Husband and Wife made a Leaſe for years by the word Demiſe, by Indenture, and the Leſſee Covenanted for himſelf, his Executors, and Adminiſtrators, That he, his Executors, Adminiſtrators, or Aſſigns, would build a Brick Wall upon the Land Demiſed. The Aſſignee aſſigned over his Term, and for not making the Brick Wall, the Covenant was brought againſt the Aſſignee. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That when a Covenant extends to a thing in eſſe parcel of the Demiſe, that that ſhall bind the Aſſignee, although he be not bounden by any expreſs words. But when the Covenant extends to a thing which is not in eſſe at the time of the Demiſe made, the ſame ſhall bind the Leſſee, his Executors and Adminiſtrators, but not the Aſſignee. 2. Reſolved, That if a man maketh a Feoffment by this word Dedi, which implyeth a Warranty, the Aſſignee of the Feoffee ſhall not vouch. But if a man maketh a Leaſe for years by the words Conceſſi, or Demiſi, which implyeth a Covenant, if the Aſſignee of the Leſſee be evicted, he ſhall have a Writ of Covenant: For the Leſſee and his Aſſignee hath the yearly profits of the Land, which ſhall grow by his labour and induſtry for annual rent, and therefore it is reaſon, that when he hath ſpent his labour, and imployed his coſt upon the Land, and be evicted, whereby he loſeth all, that he take ſuch benefit of the Demiſe and Grant, as the firſt Leſſee might, and the Leſſor hath no other prejudice then his ſpecial contract, which the firſt Leſſee hath bound him unto. Cook 5. Part, 17, 18. Spencers Caſe.

9. Husband and Wife ſeiſed of the moyety of the Mannor of J. to them, and to the Heirs of the Husband: the Husband levyed a Fine to J. S. who ſuffered a Recovery, in which the Husband only was vouched, which Recovery was to the uſe of the Conuſee and his Heirs. The Conuſee made a Feoffment to A. who thereof enfeoffed B. and C. in Fee; and afterwards an Exchange was had betwixt A. and B. and C. and is executed, the Exchange was of the moyety of the Mannor of J. for the 4th part of the Mannor of D. B. and C. the Exchangees of the fourth part enter into that, and thereof enfeoff E. the Husband dyeth, the Wife entreth into the moyety of the Mannor of J. A. re-enters into the fourth part of the Mannor of D. In this Caſe, theſe points, amongſt others, were Reſolved. 1. That in every Exchange, the word (Exchange) tacitè implyes a Condition and a Warranty in Law, which is a ſpecial Warranty in reſpect of the reciprocal conſideration of the Land, but none ſhall vouch by force of ſuch Warranty, but the Exchangers or their Heirs. 2. Reſolved, That if A. gives three Acres to B. in exchange for other three Acres; and afterwards one Acre is evicted from B. B. may enter into all his Land, and the Exchange is defeated in the whole, by reaſon of the Condition in Law; and a Condition ought to defeat the whole eſtate, and not parcel of it, and there is no difference between things entire, as a Mannor, and ſeveral things given in Exchange. Paſc. 1 Jac. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 121. Baſtards Caſe.

10. The Son is Lord, and the Father is Tenant by certain Rent, the Rent is behind, the Tenant dyeth, the Tenancy diſcendeth to the Son; in that Caſe, the Rent is determined by the Act of Law, and the Executors of the Lord ſhall not have Debt for the Arrerages, becauſe that the Lord himſelf could not have an Action for them. But if a Woman be endowed of a Rent, or if a Rent be granted for life, and the Tenant Attorneth, and the Rent is behind, and afterwards the eſtate in the Rent determines by death: The Executors of the Tenant in Dower, or the Grantee ſhall have an Action for the Arrerages, becauſe by poſſibility the Teſtator himſelf might have had an Action, for if he had ſurren-

dred his eſtate to him in the Reverſion, he ſhall have debt for the Arrerages incurred before. 2. Becauſe that theſe particular eſtates, with attornment, amounts to a real contract, which realty when the eſtate is determined, reſolves it ſelf into a perſonalty. Cook 4. Part, 59. in Ognell's Caſe.

11. The Father granted a Rent charge out of his Land to his Son in Fee, the Rent was behind, the Father dyed, the Land diſcended to the Son by which the Rent was by act in Law extinct, the Son brought Debt againſt the Executors of the Father for the arrerages encurred in the life of the Father. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That it did not lye as for Arrerages of Rent, but as Arrerages of an Annuity, the Action was maintainable, for there the Election did remain, which the Heir had not determined by bringing his Writ. 45 E. 3. Executors 71. ibid.

12. A man by Deed Indented, demiſed a houſe and Land (Exceptis omnibus arboribus &c. adtunc creſcent. ultra creſcentiam 21 annorum : Habendum tenementa prædict. cum pertinentiis exceptis præexceptis for life. And afterwards by the ſame Indenture he covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed de tenementis prædict. to the uſe of J. S. in tail, with divers Remainders over. J. S. entred and ſhewed unto J. D. Trees, and commanded him to cut them, being Oaks growing upon the Lands, being above the age of 21 years. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other points, That when the Leſſor excepted the Trees, and afterwards had an intention to ſell them, the Law gave him and them who would buy, power as incident to the exception, to enter, and to ſhew the Trees to thoſe who would have them, for without ſight, none would buy them, and without entry, they could not ſee them. As in 9 H. 6. 29. A man ſeiſed of a houſe in a Borough deviſeable, deviſed the ſame to a Woman in tail, and if the Woman dyed without Iſſue, that the Executors might ſell and diſpoſe of it for his ſoal. In that Caſe, it was adjudged, That the Executor might by Law enter into the houſe, to ſee if it were well repaired or not, to the intent to know at what value the Reverſion is to be ſold. And the Law giveth power to him who ought to repair a Bridg, to enter into the Land. And to him who hath a Conduit within the Land of another, to enter into the Land, and mend it when cauſe requireth. 9 E. 4. 35. See Cook 11. Part, 52. Richard Lyſords Caſe.

13. Vaux was Indicted of Poyſoning N. Ridley. It was Reſolved, That the Indictment upon which he was Arraigned, was inſufficient, becauſe it was not expreſly alledged that the ſaid Ridley received and drank the ſaid poyſon. For the Indictment is, Quod prædict. Nicholaus Ridley ſcicns prædictum potum cum veneno ſore intricatum, ſed ſidem adhibens perſwaſioni dict. T. recepit et bibit per quod, &c. So that it doth not appear what thing he drank, for theſe words (venenum prædictum) were left out in the Indictment, and the ſubſequent words, ſcil. per quod prædict. N. immediate poſt receptionem veneni prædict. &c. which words imply receipt of poyſon, are not ſufficient to maintain the Endictment. For the matter of the Indictment ought to be fully expreſſed and certain, and ſhall not be maintained by Argument or implication. Paſc. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 44. Vaux's Caſe.

14. Sir Walter Rawleigh was Indicted of Treaſon at Wincheſter, 1 Jac. before Commiſſioners. It was Reſolved, That he could not be executed by a Privy Seal, or Great Seal, without being demanded, What he could ſay. Wherefore he was brought by Habeas Corpus to the Kings Bench, and there demanded, Whether he had any thing to ſay for himſelf. He ſhewed, That the King had imployed him as General in a Voyage, and had given him power de vita, et membris of others. Mr. Attorney General ſaid, The King pardoned no Treaſon by Implication, but it ought to be by ſpecial words. He was afterwards executed at Weſtminſter. Mich. 16 Jac. Sir Walter Rawleigh's Caſe. Hutton 21.

15. Note, It was Reſolved, That if a Rent-charge be granted, payable at two Feaſts; and if it be behind for a Moneth after the Feaſts, that he might diſtrein, that there needs no demand, but the very diſtreſs is a demand of it ſelf. Trin. 16 Jac. Kind and Ammeyes Caſe. Hutton 23. See 31 Eliz. Boſden and Downs Caſe contr. See 3 Car. Coppleſton and Langfords Caſe. See Mich. 8 Car. in B. R. Lamb and Weſt's Caſe. Hutton 114. acc.

16. The King Grants to J. S. ſo many of the Debts, Duties, Arrerages, and ſums of mony, being of Record in our Court of Exchequer, Court of Wards, &c. in any year, or ſeveral years, from the laſt year of Hen. the 8th, to 13 Eliz. as ſhall amount to 1000 l. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That by the words of this Graunt (Arrearia) the Grantee ſhould not have Arrerages of Rents, Reliefs, and mean Rates of Lands in the Court of Wards Trin. 9 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Stockdales Caſe. Cook 12. Part, 86.

17. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That if the Defendant ſuffer the Plaintiff his Executors, &c. not onely to threſh Corn in the Defendants Barn, but to carry it away from time to time, and at all times hereafter convenient, &c. The Defendant ſuffered the Corn to lye there two years, in which time a part of it was eaten with Rats, and then the Defendant threſhed it. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Bond was forfeited:

tad: For the words are not that he ſuffer the Plaintiff in convenient time to come and threſh. But the words (at all convenient times) ſhall be conſtrued at all times when it pleaſeth the Plaintiff, unleſs in the Night, and Sabbath dayes. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. The Earl of Kent and Byars Caſe. Owen 55.

18. The Plaintiff brought an Ejectione firmæ, and a ſpecial Verdict was found upon a ſurrender of Copyhold Lands, which was to the uſe of the ſecond Son for life, after the death of the Tenant and his Heire. It was adjudged, It was not good in a ſurrender; for although it be good in a Will, yet Implication is not good in a ſurrender. And in Copyhold Caſes, a ſurrender to the uſe, &c. this is no uſe, but an explanation how the Land ſhall go: And if the Lord grant the Land in another manner then I appoint, it is void. Hill. 5 Jac. in C. B. Allen and Najbes Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 127.

19. In a Formedon in the Diſcender, the Writ was general, and the Count was upon a Feoffment made after the Statute of Uſes: upon a ſpecial Verdict, it was found, That the words were to the uſe of G. and D. and of the Heirs Males of the bodies of the ſaid G. and D. lawfully to be begotten, and for default of ſuch Iſſue Male of both the bodies of the ſaid G. and D. or either of them lawfully to be begotten, then to the uſe of, &c. It was holden in this Caſe, That this was but a gift to a man and his Iſſue, for this is but to both of them for life. And by a Deed, an Implication cannot be intended, if there be not apt words for it; but otherwiſe it is in a Will. Mich. 15 Jac. in C. B. Nevill and Nevills Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 153.

20. A. Copyholder of the Mannor of T. (where the Cuſtome was, That any Copyholder might ſurrender into the hands of two Tenants, Copyholders of the ſaid Mannor, to the uſe of any other) ſurrendred into the hands of two Tenants his Copyhold Lands, to the uſe of F. R. and J. R. Son of the ſaid F. R. and of the longeſt liver of them both, and for want of Iſſue of the ſaid J. R. the ſon of his body, the Lands to remain to M. S. wife of W. S. this ſurrender not to ſtand and be in force untill after the death of A. A. dyed, and the ſurrender was preſented the next Court, F. R. and J. R. Son of the ſaid F. R. were both admitted to them, and the longer liver of them, and to the Heirs of the body of the ſaid J. R. the Son, the Remainder to the younger Son of the ſaid M. S. It was found, That F. and after J. R. dyed without Iſſue, and that H. S. was the younger Son of M. S. at the time of the ſurrender, who was admitted Tenant. It was a Queſtion in this Caſe, Whether upon this ſurrender J. F. had an eſtate for life only, or an eſtate to him and the Heirs of his body. It was Reſolved, That J. R. had but an Eſtate for life, and being an eſtate for life by expreſs limitation, it ſhall not be an Eſtate to him higher by Implication. And although peradventure it might be further enlarged by Implication in a Deviſe; yet it ſhall not be ſo in a ſurrender or Conveyance, in paſſing of which, the party ought or might have had ſufficient Counſel to direct him. Mich. 8 Car. in B. R. rott. 195. Sergood and Hones Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 267. See Naſh and Allens Caſe before, ſect. 18. acc.

21. Action upon the Caſe upon Indebitatus Aſſumpſit to pay him 2 s. a peece for every cloath he ſhould buy for the Defendant: the Plaintiff declared for ſo much money due to him, and had a Verdict. The Defendant in Arreſt of Judgment ſhewed, That it is not averred by the Plaintiff, That he gave notice to the Defendant how many Cloaths he had bought for him, and ſo it is not certain what is due to him. It was anſwered, That the Cloaths were bought for the Defendant himſelf, and he may very well take notice of them, without any notice given him. 2. It was ſaid here is a requeſt ſet forth for the payment of the money, and this implyes a notice. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the requeſt doth not imply a Notice, and ſo it was ſaid, it was Reſolved in Twiſts Caſe; beſides the notice ought not to be by Implication, but muſt be averred certainly. Mich. 23 Car. in B. R. Tazner and Lawrences Caſe. Styles 53.

22. In Ejectione firmæ, It was found by ſpecial Verdict, That A. having two Sons, B. his eldeſt, and C. his younger, by Indenture Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed of the Lands in Queſtion, to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after his deceaſe to the uſe of B. his Son and Heir, and the Heirs of his body, the Remainder to his own right Heirs. Provided, nevertheleſs, That if A. the Father ſhould at any time during his life, be minded upon any occaſion to make void or change the uſes, that then it ſhould be lawful for him, being in perfect health and memory by writing under his hand and Seal, and by him delivered in the preſence of three credible Witneſſes, to declare that his Will and pleaſure is, That the ſaid uſes, or any of them ſhould be altered and made void; and that then, and from thenceforth, the ſaid uſes ſhall be void, and that the ſaid A. and all other ſhall ſtand ſeiſed to ſuch uſes, as by ſuch writing ſhall be limitted, That A. made his Will in writing under his hand and Seal, and thereby did deviſe the ſaid Lands to C. and the Heirs of his body; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to his Son B. in tail, the Remainder to his Daughter in Fee, and that the Will was Seal'ed in the pre-ſence of four credible Witneſſes. A. dyed, C. entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff, upon whom B. entred, and ejected him. In this Caſe, it was agreed by the Juſtices, That although the Verdict doth not find, That A. the Father was in perfect health and memory, yet it was good enough, for it ſhall be ſo preſumed, unleſs the contrary be ſhewed. 2. That all forms and circumſtances preſcribed, muſt be obſerved. But it was Reſolved, Though Revocations muſt obſerve the Circumſtances which the owner impoſeth upon himſelf; yet no more ſhall be impoſed upon him, but his power ſhall be taken favourably agreeable to a Rule, that every man may have power over his own, which is the reaſon that the latter Act, which cannot ſtand with the former uſes, is conſtrued a Revocation, although according to expreſs words and vulgar ſenſe it is none. And for the clauſes, ſcil. then and thenceforth, they are ſuperfluous and of no force, for the power of Revocation is perfect and compleat before they come to thoſe words: And then words needleſs ſhall not impeach a clauſe which is certain and perfect without them: And therefore he ſhall have power to declare the uſes void, according to the nature of his Declaration in Law, which in Caſe of a Will, is from his death, or according as he ſhall expreſly appoint the time. And therefore in this Caſe, If A. had made a ſimple Declaration in writing, and not in a manner of a Deed to any perſon certain, that the uſes ſhould be void, and had Signed, Sealed, and Delivered it in the preſence of three Witneſſes, and had either in the body of the Deed, or verbally declared, That it ſhould take effect upon 100 l. paid, or at his death and not before, this Revocation ſhould be good. Trin. 17 Car. in C. B. Kibbet and Lees Caſe. Hob. 312, 313.

23. Leſſee for years of a Term upon Condition, That he ſhould not allien to any, but to his Children; the Leſſee deviſed part of the Term to H. his Son after the death of his Wife, and made J. S. and another his Executors, and dyed: the Leſſor entred for breach of the Condition. It was ſaid, That it was a forfeiture; for that by the Deviſe to his ſon, after the death of his Wife, is an Intereſt in the mean time, thereby given to the Wife. But the Opinion of the Court was, That it was not a breach of the Condition; For this Deviſe of the Land to the Son, is but a demonſtration when his eſtate ſhall commence, and in the interim, the Executors may well have it; and the Law will not conſtrue it to be a Deviſe by Implication, in deſtruction of an eſtate to make a breach of a Condition. But if the Deviſe had bin to the Executors after the death of the Wife, that peradventure might by Implication carry the Term to the Wife, for his intent was, That his Executors ſhould not have it untill after his Wives death, and none other could have it in the interim. But they all agreed, That a Deviſe to his Heir of his Land after the death of his Wife, is a good Deviſe by Implication to the Wife. Trin. 2 Jac. in B. R. Horton and Horton's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 74, 75.

24. In Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, Whereas he had ſold to the Defendant certain Cloaths for 370 l. one moyety of the money to be paid within 14 dayes, and the other moyety to be paid at the end of three Moneths; whereof the Defendant had paid the one moyety at the end of fourteen dayes. The Defendant, 20 May, In conſideration that the Plaintiff would accept his Bill for 137 l. to be paid the firſt day of December following, aſſumed to pay the 137 l. and alledgeth he accepted his Bill, and that he had not payed the 137 l. nor the 40 l. reſidue of the ſaid moyety. Upon Non Aſſumpſit pleaded, and found againſt the Defendant, and Judgment. Error was brought and aſſigned, becauſe there is not any promiſe alledged for the payment of the 48 l. and he hath alledged the breach, as well in not payment of the 48 l. as for the non-payment of the 137 l. But the Court ſaid, That by the ſale of the Cloath for 370 l. to be paid by moyeties at certain dayes, there is an implyed promiſe to pay the ſums at thoſe dayes: and then the breach alledged in non-payment of the ſaid 137 l. according to the other promiſe, and the delivery of the 48 l. which is upon the promiſe before, is well enough aſſigned: And in this Caſe, although there were ſeveral promiſes, yet it was holden, That Non Aſſumpſit extended to the ſeveral promiſes. Indict-

Indictments.

1. What perſons have power to take Indictments, what not; and where, and what Indictments taken before them ſhall be good, where not.

1. AN Inquiſition was taken at Biſingſtock in Com. D. 21. die Decembr. coram I. S. Gener. uno Coronator. Dom. Regina, in Comitatu prædicto ſuper viſum corporis E. S. Generoſ. tunc & ibidem mortui jacent per Sacramentum, &c.. Exception was taken againſt this Indictment, becauſe the Indictment was taken before J. S. Coronator in Com. prædict. and doth not ſay, Coronator Comitatus prædict. nor de Com. prædict. and every Coroner of a County, is a Coroner in every County of England, but not of every County. But the Exception was diſallowed, for the Court ſaid, That the Coroner in the County, &c. ſhall be in all reaſonable intendment taken, to be Coroner of the County; and that is proved by the Writ de Coronatore eligendo; which is, Quia I. nuper unus Coronat. noſtr. in Comitat. tuo diem clauſit extremum &c. and ſo it is taken in the Lord Willoughbies Caſe. Plo. Com. 71. Cook 4. Part 41. Heydon's caſe.

2. In an Appeal of Murder, the Defendant pleaded, that Autrefoits by Inquiſition taken before the Coroner of the Queens houſhold, and B. B. one of the Coroners of Middleſex, he was indicted of Man-ſlaughter, which Inquiſition was certified to Newgate at the Goal delivery, and the Defendant was thereupon arraigned, and confeſſed the felony, and had his Clergie: In this caſe (amongſt other points) it was reſolved, That at the Common Law, the Coroner of the Houſhold had an exempt Juriſdiction within the Verge, and the Coroner of the County could not meddle, as appears by Articuli ſuper Chartas: And ſo it was adjudged in Swift's caſe, where a Coroner of a County took an Inquiſition within the Verge, and it was avoided by Plea, and that the one could not meddle within the power of the other; but it was agreed, That the Juſtices of the King's Bench, Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, &c. may enquire, hear, and determine all murders, &c. within the Verge, for their authority is general through all the County. 2. Reſolved, That the Indictment was inſufficient, for it doth not appear, that Dale, where the ſtroke was, was within the Verge; and though it was, yet it ought to be found by the oath of the Indictors, and it cannot be ſupplyed by an averment, and it ſhall not be void as to the Coroner of the Houſhold, and good before the Coroner of the County, and the Defendant hath averred that Dale was within the Verge; ſo the Coroner of the County could not take the Indictment only. Cook 4. Part 46. Wrote and Wiggs caſe.

3. Upon the Statute of 2. E. 6. cap. 24. where Juſtices of Goal delivery, or of Oyer and Terminer, have power to proceed to the tryal of Acceſſaries, where it is certified, That the Principal is attainted, convicted, or otherwiſe diſcharged by courſe of Law. It was a queſtion, if the Juſtices of the King's Bench were within the words, Juſtices of Goal delivery, or Oyer and Terminer. It was objected, That the King's Bench is the higheſt Court of ordinary Juſtice within the Realm, and above the authority of Juſtices of Goal delivery, and Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer, and is more then the Eyre; for that they may examine the Errors of Juſtices in Eyre, Goal delivery, and Oyer and Terminer; and therefore they being paramount all other Juſtices, cannot be included within their Inferiors, viz. Juſtices of Goal delivery, and Oyer and Terminer: But it was reſolved, That the Juſtices of the King's Bench are the ſoveraigne Juſtices of Goal delivery, and of Oyer and Terminer, and therefore they are included within the ſaid words: See 4. H. 7. 15. That if an Indictment of Forcible Entry be removed into the King's Bench, the Juſtices of the Bench ſhall award Reſtitution; and yet the Statute of 8 H. 6. cap. 9. ſpeaketh only of Juſtices of Peace; and there in the principal caſe, the Juſtices of the King's Bench did write to the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, and Goal delivery in London, before the Principal was arraigned, to certifie the Record, who certified the ſame accordingly; upon which the Lord Strachey was arraigned, Cook 4. Part 118. the Lord Sanchar's Caſe.

4. By the Statute of 1 E. 6. It is Enacted, That in all caſes where any perſon or perſons heretofore have been, or hereafter ſhall be found guilty of any manner of Treaſon, Murder, Man-ſlaughter, Rape, or other Felony whatſoever, for which Judgement ſhall or may enſue, and ſhall be reprieved in priſon without judgement, That the Juſtices of Goal delivery ſhall have full power and authority to give Judgement of death againſt ſuch perſon ſo found guilty, and reprieved, &c. It was holden by the Juſtices, that before that act at the Common Law, if a man had been Indicted and Convicted by Verdict or Confeſſion before any Commiſſioners, and before Judgement, the King had dyed, that in that caſe no judgement could be given, for the King for whom the judgment ſhould be, is dead, and the authority of the Judges which ſhould give Judgement, is determined; but that now is remedied by the ſaid Act. Cook 7. Part 21. in the caſe of Diſcontinuance of Proceſs. And ſee there, If a man be Indicted in the time of one King, and pleads to Iſſue, and the King dyeth, that he ſhall plead de novo. See 3 & 4 Mar. Dyer. Smiths Caſe. See 1 & 2 Eliz. Palmer's Caſe adjudged, &c.

5. Error to reverſe a Judgement given upon an Indictment of one a common Barrettor, before Juſtices of Aſſize, who upon the Indictment, Proceſs being awarded, he appeared gratis at the following Aſſizes, and pleaded Not guilty, and then a Venire Facias was awarded returnable the ſame Aſſizes, and thereupon he was tryed and found Guilty. For Error, it was alledged, That this Venire Facias was miſawarded to make it returnable the ſame Aſſizes, where it ought to have been returnable at the next Aſſizes, ſo as there ought to be fifteen dayes between the Teſte of the Writ, and the day of Return, and not to be made returnable the ſame day: And it was ſaid, It is true, when the party is in the Goal, ſuch Tryal may be the ſame Aſſizes; but not when the party is at large, and comes ingratis. But it was Reſolved by the Court, that the Tryal was good, and they might try the party at the ſame Aſſizes, and there is no difference where the party is at liberty, and comes in gratis; and where he is in Cuſtodia, in the Goal. Hill 9 Jac. in B. R. Chapman's caſe, Cro. 1. Part 248.

6. A. was Indicted for Extortion by two ſeveral Indictments; one, that he was Bayliffe to the Sheriffe of W. had received 20 s. from one extorſivè colore Officii; the other, that extorſivè he took 6 s. 8 d. Theſe Indictments were before Juſtices of the Peace at their Seſſions in the County; and he thereupon being committed to priſon, was enforced preſently to plead to thoſe Indictments, and the ſame day they were tryed, and he convicted, and Judgement againſt him at one and the ſame Seſſions: whereupon he brought Error, and Error was aſſigned, becauſe the Indictment and the Tryal was at one and the ſame Seſſions: It was the opinion of the Court, That Juſtices of Goal delivery may take an Enqueſt the ſame day, but it is not ſo of Juſtices of Peace. Hill 11 Car. in B. R. Bemſteads caſe, Cro. 1. Part. 318, 323.

2. What is a good Indictment, what not; and for what things or cauſes a man may be Indicted, what not; and where ſuch Indictment ſhall be good, where not.

1. A Man was Indicted for ſtealing a Hat and a Band, and other ſuch things; The Priſoner ſaid, That he was before that time Indicted for goods ſtollen the ſame day and time, and acquitted; It was the opinion of Gawdy and Chench, Juſtices, That he might not ſeverally be Indicted for goods ſtollen at one time; as if a man ſteal a dozen of ſilver ſpoons, he may not be Indicted for two in one Indictment, and for two other in another Indictment. Fenner contrary, for he ſaid it was one Cobham's Caſe, who was Indicted for goods taken in two ſhips, and acquitted; and afterwards he was condemned for other goods taken at the ſame time. Mic. 40. Eliz. B. R. Goldsbr. 132.

2. A man was Indicted becauſe he ſpoke againſt the Book of Common Prayer; and alſo the Indictment was, Quod recuſavit uti communi precatione & adminiſtrare Sacramenta. Divers Exceptions were againſt the Indictment, 1. The Indictment it appears was taken before the Lord Anderſon and Baron Gent, Juſtices of Goal delivery, and it is not ſhewed that they are Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, nor of Aſſize. 2. The Indictment is, recuſavit uti &c. prout, and doth not ſay, appointed by the Book of Common Prayer. 3. The Defendant was twice Indicted, and upon the ſecond Indictment the Judgement was given before the ſaid Juſtices, That he ſhould be deprived of his Benefice: The Court conceived the Indictment was not good, and that eſpecially for two cauſes. 1. Becauſe they gave Judgement of Deprivation; for although the Statute ſaith, That the Offender ſhall be deprived ipſo facto, yet they cannot give Judgement of Deprivation, which is a Spiritual Act in which the Judges are not to deal with. And 2. for that it doth not appear whether the Defendant was Curate of the Pariſh where he refuſed to ſay Divine Service, or not; and if he were not, then he was not puniſhable by the Statute. Mic. 40. Eliz. in B. R. Goldesbr. 162.

3. Error brought in R. B. upon a Judgement given at the Seſſions at Hicks-Hall upon an Indictment for words ſpoken againſt the Lord Fairfax. Divers Exceptions were taken to the Indictment: 1. That the ſaid Juſtices had no power to hold plea for words ſpoken. 2. It is Juratores jurati, ſtatim, triati, triati, ad voluntatem dicunt, and the words ad dicendum were left out. 3. There iſſued a Capias pro fine againſt the parties, where no fine was ſet. 4. The Indictment was joynt, whereas they ought to be ſeveral Indictments. 5. It doth not appear that the Parties were tryed in Court, for it is only ſaid, that they were ducti ad Barram; and then that they were removed from Hicks Hall to Newgate. All the Exceptions were over ruled by the Court; but the ſecond Exception where it wanted the words ad dicendum, and that the Court held to be a good Exception, and the Clark of the Peace fined 40 l. Hill. 1650. in B. R. William's Caſe, Styles 244.

4. A. and B. were joyntly Indicted for blaſphemous words ſeverally ſpoken; 1. Upon the late Statute made againſt Blaſphemy, and were convicted: It was ſaid, that the Indictment was not good, becauſe joynt; for the words being ſpoken ſeverally, they ought to have been ſeverally Indicted, and ſeveral Indictments againſt them: Rolls Chief Juſtice, the Indictment is good enough, although it be joynt, the Indictment is upon one and the ſame Statute, and for one and the ſame offence; as in caſe of ſeveral Perjuries, and ſeveral Batteries, where a joynt Indictment doth lye; although it doth not for ſeveral Felonies; and the words ſhall be taken reddendo ſingula ſingulis, i. e. the words to each of them, as they ſpoke them. Hill. 1651. in B. R. Tawney and Norwood's Caſe, Styles 312.

5. Action upon the Caſe brought for cauſing him to be Indicted for ſtealing of a Mare; found againſt the Defendant. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgement, That upon the preferring of the Bill to the Grand Jury, they found an Ignoramus, and ſo there is a Repugnancy in the Declaration, which ſets forth, That the Plaintiff cauſed him to be Indicted. Another Exception was, That all the Proceedings mentioned in the Declaration, are expreſſed to be before the Judges as Commiſſioners for Goal Delivery, and not as Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer. The Court ſaid, That they will intend, That the Indictment was before them as Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer; and it is not material before what Authority he was Indicted, and the trouble the party is put unto by reaſon of this Judgement, is the cauſe of his Action: and the words here are to be conſtrued according to common Intendment, viz. That he was Indicted, though the Indictment was not found but an Ignoramus; and ſo by conſequence it was no Indictment upon which he could be tryed to come in danger of his life. Trin. 1653. in B. R. Styles 372.

6. A man was Indicted for Forging and Publiſhing of Letters of Credence to gather money, and he was Convicted, and Judgment given againſt him upon his own Confeſſion, and a Fine ſet upon him of 160 l. & quod Capiatur. It was Excepted againſt the Indictment, being it did not appear that he received any money upon thoſe counterfeit Letters, nor at what time; and it is not ſaid, quod counterfecit falſo: It was Reſolved that the Indictment was good, for the ſubſtance of the Offence for which he was Indicted, was, the Forging and Publiſhing the Letters, and not the collecting of the money: and the word counterfecit neceſſarily implies the word falſo: It was holden that the Indictment was good, Paſc. 23. Car. in B. A. Savage's Caſe, Styles 12.

7. Appeal of Murder againſt W. the Writ was to anſwer to A. B. alias dicti A. C. Fratris & Hæredi. of the dead: Upon this Indictment the Defendant was diſcharged, becauſe the name of Brother, which enabled him to bring the Appeal, was in the alias dictus: for that the alias dictus is no part of his name. Alſo the Declaration in the Appeal was not good, for it was Quod Defend. percuſſit, 1 Maii, whereof he languiſhed at D. three weeks, and there dyed; and ſo the Defendant die & anno murdravit. Quere, Becauſe Dies & pradict. was the day of the ſtroke, and not of the death: But for the firſt cauſe the Plaintiffe was diſcharged, Mi. 33. H. 8. Dyer 50.

8. A man was Indicted, and the Indictment was, That A. apud D. inſultum fecit in pradict. B. who was murdered, & ipſum eum quodam cultello felonicè percuſſit, occidit, & murdravit: without ſaying ex malitia præcogitata: Alſo the Inquiſition was Berk. Inquiſitio capt. ibid. without ſhewing where the Inquiſition was made. The Defendant was Outlawed upon the Indictment, and the Outlawry was reverſed for theſe Errors in the Indictment. It was holden in this Caſe, that the word Murdravit implyed ex malitia præcogitata. Paſc. 7. E. 6. Dyer 68, 69.

9. There was a general Pardon in which Murder was excepted. A man was Indicted, Quod ipſe ex malitia præcogitata, in L. D. inſultum fecit, & ipſum L. D. Felonicè percuſſit dans ei unam plagam mortalem &c. without ſaying & ſic pradict. A. ipſum L. D. interfecit & murdravit, and there wanted the word Murdravit in the Indictment; it was adjudged in this Caſe, that without the word Murdravit in the Indictment, it was but Man-ſlaughter, and ſo within the general Pardon. Mich. 14 Eliz. Dyer 304. See 1 Mo. Dyer 99. acc.

10. Exception was taken to an Indictment of Murder, it being Quod percuſſit, and doth not ſay Felonicè percuſſit; It was urged, that the Indictment was good enough, for that the word Murdravit was in the Indictment, which doth ſupply felonicè, 5 E. 6. Dyer 69. But it was the opinion of the whole Court, that the Indictment was inſufficient; and the omiſſion of the word felonicè was not ſupplied by the word Murdravit; and the Book of 5 E. 6.

was denyed for Law; and it was holden, that where an Indictment was, Quod furatus fuit unum equum ad valent. 10 s. That the Indictment was not good, becauſe the word felonicè was omitted, and that the word furatus did not comprehend nor imply felonicè. M. 8 Jam. in B. R. Penruddock and Langford's Caſe, Bolſtr. 1 Part, 93.

11. Exception was taken to an Indictment of Murder, it was thus, That the aſſault and affray is therein expreſſed to be 13 Febr. at O. and that he gave him a blow on the right ſide, in this manner expreſſed, ſcil. Dans eadem unam plagam mortalem, & adtunc & ibidem, without ſhewing of any time certain when this blow was given. It was, that he being then ſtruck, Languebat a 12. die Feb. uſque 13 die Feb. and ſo (a) doth exclude 12 die, and ſo no day layed at all. 3. So the ſaid prædict. &c. prædict. 13 die Feb. did kill and murder him. It was holden in this Caſe, That becauſe there was no place laid where the ſtroke was given, the Indictment was inſufficient. And as to the point of time, it was ſaid, That theſe words ad tunc & ibidem, refers to all the whole ſentence: As to the words, (inter horas) by theſe words there is a diſtinction of time denoted, as time paſt, and time to come: Here it is ſaid, That he killed him the 13 day, which cannot be as it is layed, ſo as this is a fault incurable; The Indictment was quaſhed, Paſc. 10. Jac. in B. R. The King and Clarke's Caſe, Bolſt. 1 Part, 203.

12. In an Indictment of Murder, divers Errors in it were alledged, 1. Becauſe in the Indictment it was alledged, That the Indictment was taken before W. S. Coronator Reginæ infra Libertatem dicto Dominæ Reginæ Villæ ſuæ de Coſſam prædict. ſuper viſum corporis; and it is not alledged to what places the Liberty doth extend, nor whether part, or any of the Town of Coſſam be within the Liberty, and ſo it doth not appear that the Coroner had Juriſdiction, and Indictments, which are the Kings Counts, ought to have a full and preciſe certainty; But Reſolved, the Indictment was good enough; for if Indictments be to a certain intent in general, it is good enough: and here is a certain Intendment in general, that Coſſam is within the Liberty of Coſſam. 2. It was ſaid, That there was no ſuch word as Manillam, and it ought to be Mammillam. Reſolved, That falſe Latine ſhould not quaſh Indictments. 3. That the length and depth of the word was not ſhewed: Reſolved, that when the wound pierceth the whole body, the length or depth of it is not to be certain ſhewed. 4. Objected, There wanted Percuſſit in the Indictment; and for that cauſe it was Reſolved, that the Indictment was not good. Coke 5. Part, 120. Longs Caſe.

13. One who had killed his Maſter, was indicted of it as of a voluntary Murder, without the Proditorè in the Indictment, and upon the Evidence it appeared, that the Offence was Petit Treaſon, and upon this Indictment of Murder, he was found Guilty; and yet the Priſoner was reprieved, and had not Judgement, for want of the word Proditorie in the Indictment, M. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 235.

14. One was Indicted, Quod Burgliter fregit Eccleſiam in noctè ad ſpoliandum & depredandum bona Parochianorum in eadem exiſtent. but he took away nothing; yet it was holden Burglary, and the Indictment good. Paſch. 1 Ma. Dyer 99.

15. An Indictment was, Quod Felonicè cepit bona & catalla cujuſdem hominis ignoti: It was holden by the Judges that the Indictment was good, becauſe it may be that the goods are carried into another County, ſo as the proper Owner of them could not be found; and ſo it was holden, That an Indictment de morte cujuſdem ignoti, was good. 5 Aſſ. M. 1 Ma. Dyer 99.

16. A. B. was arraigned upon an Indictment of the Rape of one of the age of 7. years, and not above, and the Indictment was, Quod ipſam felonicè rapuit & carnaliter cognovit: The Court doubted whether there might be a rape of a Girl of ſo tender years, but they held that if ſhe were of the age of 9. years, it were otherwiſe: The party ſaid, he was a Scot born, and therefore prayed his Tryal per mediatem Linguæ, but the Court denyed it, for that he is not accompted an Alien, nor the Scottiſh Language a ſtrange Language, but meer Engliſh, Mic. 14 Eliz. Dyer 304. See M. 9 Car. in B. R. Martin Pages Caſe, Cro. 11 Part, 142. to the firſt point of this Caſe.

17 A man was Indicted of an Aſſault and Battery upon one J. Pariſh Prieſt, without naming him by his Sir-name; It was holden that the Indictment was good; for if it had been, in quendam ignotum, it had been good, as a Murder or Robbery, de quodam ignoto; and it was holden, That if he be vexed upon an Indictment in which his very name is put, he may aver, that it was one and the ſame Aſſault, Tr. 11 Eliz. Dyer 285.

18. A. was Indicted for ſpeaking ſlanderous words of the Queen three moneths paſt, contra formam diverſorum Statutorum, generally, without ſaying unde ſcandalum in Regno, inter Dominum Reginam & Magnat. vel Populum ſuum oriri poterit: He was Arraigned, and found Guilty. The Queſtion was, what Judgement he ſhould have, and by what Law, for he is not puniſhable by the Statute of 1 & 3 Ma. becauſe the three moneths are paſt; and the Statutes of 2 and 12 R. 2. extend only to puniſhing of ſlander of the Nobles: Wherefore it was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That he was puniſhable by the Statute of Weſt. 1. cap. 4. and according to that Statute he had Judgement of Fine and Impriſonment at the Queens pleaſure, M. 5 Ma. Dyer 155.

19. A an Iriſhman was arraigned upon the Statute of 25 H. 8. of Treaſon, for that he being the Kings Subject 9. Julii, 7 Car. at Lisbon in Spain, uſed theſe words [I will kill the King] innuendo Dominum Carolum Regem Anglia, if I may come unto him. And 9. Aug. 9 Car. he came into England for the ſame purpoſe. He pleaded, Not guilty. It was proved, That he ſpake the words on Shipboard in Spain in great heat: and that he added theſe words, [Becauſe he is an Heretique,] And for that his trayterous intent and imagination of his Heart is declared by theſe words; It was holden to be High-Treaſon by the Common-Law: And upon tryall by a Jury of Middleſex, he being found guilty: He had Judgment. And it was holden, That although this and his returning into England were Treaſon by the Statute of 23 Eliz. yet the Kings Attorney proceeded againſt him for that cauſe upon the Statute of 25 E. 3. of Treaſon. Mich. 9 Car. in B. R. Arthur Crobagoes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 242.

20. A man was Indicted in London, That he being poſſeſſed of a Leaſe of a houſe for 6. years; the Reverſion to the Corporation of Haberdaſhers in Fee; that he 3. Aprilis, 7 Car. the ſaid houſe Felonicè, voluntariè, et malitioſè combuſſit, ea intentione ad eandum domum Manſionalem, necnon diverſas Domus Manſionales diverſorum legeorum Domini Regis ibidem contiguè adjacent. ad tunc et ibidem felonicè et malitioſè totaliter comburendo, et igne conſumendo contra pacem. It was agreed, That it was Capitale crimen, et ſelleo animo perpetratum; eſpecially it being done felonicè et malitioſè, in deſtruction of the houſes in a ſtreet of the City. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was not Felony to burn a houſe whereof he was in poſſeſſion by vertue of a Leaſe for years; and that burning of houſes was not felony, unleſſe they were ædes alienæ: and though it was ſaid in the Indictment, That it was ea Intentione, ad Comburendum felonicè, the houſes of divers others Contigue adjacentes; yet being an Intent only without fact, it was not Felony: and it cannot be ſaid to be done Vi et Armis, when it is in his own poſſeſſion. But becauſe it was an Exorbitant Offence, and found, the Court Ordered, He ſhould pay 500 l. to the King, and be Impriſoned at the Kings pleaſure. Mich. 10 Car. in B. R. Holmes Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 274.

21. A man was Indicted and arraigned, That about 12. of the Clock in the Forenoon, he broke open Domum Manſionalem Hugonis Audley in the Inner Temple, no perſon being in the ſaid houſe, and ſtole from thence 40 l: It was Reſolved, 1. That a Chamber in an Inns of Court, may be ſaid to be Domus Manſionalis, of him who is the Owner of the Chamber. 2. That the breaking of ſuch a Chamber, and taking away 40 l. was Burglary: of which, Clergy was taken away by the Statute of 39 Eliz. 13 Car. in B. R. Evans and Finches Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 340.

22. A man was Indicted upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. That in the Church yard ſuch a day extraxit gladium againſt J. S. et ipſum percuſſit. And becauſe the Statute was, If any malitiouſly ſtrike another, or ſhall draw any weapon with intent to ſtrike any perſon; And the Indictment was, Quod extraxit, but doth not ſay, ad percutiendum: And becauſe it is percuſſit, without ſaying malitioſè, the party was diſcharged. Trin. 4 Car. in B. R Noy, 171.

23. Note. It was Reſolved by all the Judges, nullo contradicente, That if any Sheriff, Under-Sheriff, Sergeant, or Officer, who hath execution of Proceſs, be ſlain in the doing of his duty, it is Murder in him that kills him, although there was not any former malice betwixt them: for the execution of Proceſs, is the life of the Law; and ſuch offence is contra poteſtatem Regis et Legis; and therefore in ſuch caſe, there needs not any enquiry of Malice. 2. Reſolved, If there be Errour in awarding of Proceſs, or in the miſtake of one Proceſs for another, and an Officer be ſlain in the Execution thereof, the Defendant ſhall not have advantage of ſuch Errour: But the reſiſting of an Officer who comes to make an Arreſt, if he be ſlain, is Murder. 3. It was Reſolved, That when an Officer is ſlain, there needs not any ſpeciall Indictment upon all the matter to be drawn, but a a general Indictment, That ſuch a party Ex malitia ſua præcogitata percuſſit, &c. and although there be not proof made of any precedent malice, yet the Indictment is good; for the Law preſumes malice. Paſch. 9 Jac. in B. R. Mackally's Caſe: Cro. 2. Part, 281.

24. Upon an Indictment of Murder, the Caſe was; A. ſon of J. S. fighting with B. in the fields; and the ſaid B. beating him ſo as his Noſe bled. He thereupon went to his Father, telling him, and complaining of that Battery. The Father inſtantly finding B. in the Field, called him Villain, and ſtruck him with a little Cudgel, of which ſtroke B. afterwards dyed. It was Reſolved by the Court, That this was not Murder, but Manſlaughter; for he going upon the complaint of his ſon, not having any malice before, and without anger beating him, of which ſtroke he dyed, the Law ſhall adjudge it to be upon that ſudden occaſion and ſtirring of blood, and will not preſume it to be upon any former Malice, unleſſe it be found: and although the place where his ſon complained, was a Mile, it was not materiall, being all upon one paſſion.

Where-

Wherefore it was adjudged, It was not Murder; and being before the General Pardon, was discharged thereby. Hill. 9 Jac. in B.R. John Royley's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 296.

25. Exception was taken to an Indictment of a Rescous, because it wanted the word Vi et armis, and because the place where the Rescous was made, was not certainly expressed; it was holden by the Court, That for the place, it shall be taken to be where the Arrest was; and it is good enough without the words, vi et armis; for percussit, implyes it to be done with force. Pasch. 12 Jac. B. R. Cramlington's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 345. A man was Indicted De verberatione et vulneratione of J. S: and the words, Vi et armis were omitted in the Indictment. It was adjudged, That the Indictment was good, and that it was helped by the Statute. Pasch. 16 Jac. in B.R. Godbolt, 272.

26. The Mayor of Lyn was Indicted, for that he had received 24 s. of one A. for giving Judgment in an Action of Debt depending before him against B; and he was Indicted thereof of Extortion in Contemptum Dominæ Reginæ et contra formam Statuti. It was holden, That the Indictment was insufficient; for that there is not any Statute to punish any Judge for any such matter; Et satis pœnæ est Judici quod Deum habet ultorem. But it was said by some of the Justices, If in the Indictment there be words of Extortion, or Bribery, although such an Offence in a Judg be not materially Extortion, if the words Contra pacem, be in the Indictment, it is good. Hill. 27 Eliz. in B. R. The Mayor of Lyn's Case. Leon. 295.

3. Indictments upon Statutes and Acts of Parliament for several Crimes and Offences: And where such Indictments are good, for the matter or form of them; Where not.

1. S. And others were Indicted upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, because they had expulsed A. out of his Land, and disseised the Mayor and Comminalty of London, who were in Reversion. The Indictment being removed into the Kings-Bench, Restitution was prayed for the City; And the Lessor prayed, That no Restitution might be, because they had let the house to another, and that he who had procured this Indictment, claimed in by a Custome of London, That the Executor of the last Termor should not be put out, if he shall give as much for it as any other will; whereas in truth, there is no such Custome. It was the Opinion of the Court in this case, That Restitution shall be always made to him in the Reversion, and not to the Lessee for years, for that he who is disseised, shall be restored; and then the Lessee may re-enter. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Sovers Case, Leon. 327.

2. In an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, the Case was, One was Lessee for years, the Reversion did belong to the Company of Goldsmiths: And the Indictment was, That A. expulit et disseisivit the Company of Goldsmiths, et quendam J. S. tenentem expulit. It was said in Exception to the Indictment, That a Disseisin might be to one, although not in possession as to a Recoveror upon a Term for years, but he could not be expulsed, if he was not in possession: for privatio præsupponit habitum. Also it was Excepted, That there was no place shewed where he expelled him. The Court was of Opinion, That for the place it was not material, for he could not expell him at any other place then upon the Land. And as to the Objection, That the Indictment is, That he disseised and expelled the Tenant of the Freehold out of the possession of the Freehold. It was Answered, That the possession of the Term, is the possession of him in the Reversion. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B.R. Godbolt, 45.

3. A. and B. and two other persons, were Indicted upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. of Recusancy, the words of the Indictment were, Quod illi nec eorum uterq; venerunt to any Parish Church. It was said, That the Indictment was not good; for uterq, doth refer to one of them, and not where there are many, and so is an Insensible word; and so upon the matter there is no offence laid to their charge. And the Opinion of the Grammarians was, That the word uterq; doth aptly signifie one of them. Gawdy, Justice, said, That the Opinion of Grammarians was not to be asked in this case; for that the word uterq; is not an unusual word in our Law. 28 H. 19. Obligamus nos et utrumq; nostrum. And see 16 Eliz. Dyer, 337. a Covenant to others, et eorum utriq; to make assurance; and there uterq; doth amount to quilibet. Wray said, Although it be sometimes so taken in an Obligation, yet it shall not be so in an Indictment. But all agreed at last, That the word uterq; was but matter of Surplusage, and therefore should not hurt the Indictment. Mich. 33 Eliz. in B.R. Sheldon Case. Leon. 241.

4. A. was Indicted upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. Cap. 1. for withdrawing divers persons her Majestics Subjects from the Religion established in England, and to promise Obedience to the Church of Rome; and for that he himself was withdrawn from the Obedience of the Queen. Exception was was taken to the Indictment, because the Indictment was not found within the year after the Offence committed: For there is a Proviso in the Act, That all Offences against the Act, shall and may be enquired within a year and a day after the Offence committed. It was the Opinion of the Court in this case, That this Case was not within the Proviso of that Statute: For that the words in that Proviso refer only to such Offences contained in the Act, which toucheth the Supremacy and causes Ecclesiastical, and such Offences ought to be enquired of within one year and a day. But this Indictment doth consist upon other matter, for the withdrawing himself from the Obedience of the Queen, which is an offence out of the compasse of the Proviso, and therefore the Enquiry of it not restrained to any time; and of the offences of Treason withdrawing himself, &c. are not restrained to time within the said Act. Mich. 33 Eliz. in B.R. Guilfords Case, Leon. 238.

5. Errour brought to reverse a Judgment upon an Indictment of Recusancy against the Lord St. John. The Errours assigned were, 1. The Indictment is, apud Castrum Winton. and doth not say in what Parish or County Winton is. 2. It is Coram J. F. &c. Justicior. de Goala deliberand. And doth not say, Justicior. ad Assisas et ad Goalam deliberand. 3. The Indictment is against Dominum St. John, without addition. 4. It is Quod non accessit ad A. Ecclesiam Parochialem praedict. and there is not any Church mentioned before. The Court over-ruled all the said Exceptions, and said, It was a doubt whether any Exception be good upon Conviction of Recusancy: For the Statute of 3 Jac. is precisely, That it shall not be void or discharged for default of Form or other matter, untill after conforming himself by coming to the Church. But because in the Judgment, there was not Capiatur, the omission of which was apparant prejudice to the King; for this cause, the Judgment was Reversed. Mich. 14 Car. in B.R. The Marquesse of Winchester's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 362.

6. Indictment of Forcible Entry into Tythes, where the party ousted prayed Restitution. It was moved, If an Indictment were maintainable for entry in Tythes? It was agreed, That Assise lyeth for Tythes as a Lay-Inheritance; and that Indictments should be allowed for them, as well as for Rents: and for Rents, a Forcible Entry doth lye, Fitzh. Na. Br. Whereupon afterwards a Writ of Restitution was awarded. Mich. 6 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 246.

7. A. was Indicted upon the Statute of 1 Jac. of Felony, for having two husbands. It was found, That A. was lawfully married to P; and before the Judge in the Audience, she sued a Divorce against P. propter saevitiam; whereupon it was Decreed, That propter saevitiam of her husband, she should be separated à mensa et thoro. And it was expressly in the Sentence, that she should not marry any other during the life of P: she afterwards, P. living, and she knowing thereof, took to husband J. S; and if this was Felony within the Statute, was the Question. It was said in this case, That this being a Divorce ex causa subsequente; scil. Causa Adulterii, was but a separation à mensa et thoro, and is no dissolution à vinculo Matrimonii; and therefore notwithstanding such Divorce, that the Marriage continued betwixt them. And the Case, 40 Eliz. in B. R. was vouched; and Trin. 2 Jac. Stowel's Case, That after such a Divorce, the Wife should have Dower of the Husband's Lands. The Proviso in the Statute being, That the Parties Divorced by Sentence, If he take another Wife, or she take another Husband: The Court doubted, If this extends to every manner of Divorce; But inclined to be of Opinion, That she was not within the Proviso; for if this should be suffered, many would be Divorced upon such pretences. Wherefore the Court advised the Woman to procure a Pardon to avoid the danger of the Statute. Pasch. 12 Car. in B. R. Porters Case.

8. A. and others were Indicted in the Kings-Bench upon the Statute of 4 and 5 Ma. because they took away F. the daughter of J. S. under the age of 16. years, in the Custody of her Father, without his Consent, et contra formam Statuti: A. was found guilty. It was moved in Arrest of Judgment, That the Indictment was Coram non Judice; because the words of the Statute are, The party offending shall be punished by two years Imprisonment, and pay such Fine as the Star-Chamber shall appoint; and that the Council in the Star-Chamber, and the Justices of Assise, shall have power to determine, &c. And whether this shall extend to the Justices of the Kings-Bench, This was doubted by the Court, because there be no Justices of Assises for Middlesex, unlesse the Justices of the Kings-Bench. 2. Admitting they might hear and determine; If they might impose a Fine, or only give Judgment for the Imprisonment, because the Fine by the Statute is appointed to be assessed in the Star-Chamber, and in no other place. Quære. The Points were not Resolved. Trin. 12 Car. in B. R. Mary Smiths Case, Cro. 1. Part, 335.

9. A. and B. were Indicted upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. For that they such a day and year at D. intraverunt in unum Messuagium existens Liberum Tenemento cujusdem J. S. et ipsum Libero

Tenemento ſuo injuſtè et ſine judicio diſſeiſiverunt, et ipſum ſic inde expulſum extra poſſeſſionem inde vi et Armis et manu forti extra tenuerunt et alia, &c. Exception was, That it is alledged, Quod intraverunt; and it is not ſaid, pacifice: For otherwiſe it might be, that the Entry alſo was with force; and every Indictment ought to be certain; and all Indictments mentions the Entry to be either pacificè or forcibly. But it was the better Opinion of the Court, That the Indictment was good. For an Indictment upon this Statute may be upon both branches thereof, for the entring with force, and the detaining with force, or upon any of them, by it ſelf; Then when the Indictment mentions that he entred generally, It ſhall never be intended to be with force, unleſſe it be ſhewen. And an Indictment which chargeth any with a Tort, ought to be preciſe in the point of charging. But where it is not to charge him for his entring, but for his forceable detaining onely, it is good; for no force ſhall be intended, unleſſe preciſely alledged. Mich. 1 Jac. in B. R. Sir William Fitzwilliams's Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 19.

10. Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. againſt J. S. and others; for that they, 16 July, 44 Eliz. Vi et Armis et manu forti diſſeiſiverant J. D. of ſuch Lands et adhuc extra tenent, eundem J. D. contr. pacem dict. Dominæ Reginæ: the Indictment was found at Lent Aſſizes, 1 Jac. Two Exceptions were taken to the Indictment. 1. The Indictment is diſſeiſiverunt, and doth not ſay, Expulerunt. 2. Becauſe it is alledged, Quod adhuc detinent, which is a Tort, and yet it is not ſaid, Contra pacem Domini Regis. For the firſt Reſolved, That Diſſeiſiverunt, implyes Expulerunt. For the ſecond, Reſolved, That the Deteiner may be without force, and not againſt the Peace. Wherefore the Indictment was held to be good, and Reſtitution was awarded. Trin. 2 Jac. B. R. Andrews and the Lord Cromwell's Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 31.

11. Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. was againſt P. and others, for expelling S. from his Copyhold. Exception was taken to the Indictment, becauſe Diſſeiſivit was not in the Indictment. It was the Opinion of the Court, That a Copyholder ſhall now have an Indictment of Forcible Entry, but Diſſeiſivit ſhall not be in it; for no Jury will find that, becauſe it is not poſſible, becauſe a Copyholder hath no Freehold: Yet a Copyholder ſhall have a Plaint in the nature of an Aſſiſe, againſt a Stranger. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Indictment was good. Trin. 2 Car. in B. R. Pleydons Caſe. Popham, 205.

12. Errour to reverſe a Judgment upon an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6: The Errour aſſigned was, The want of the word adhuc in the Indictment: It being exiſtens Liberum Tenementa of J. S; and doth not ſay, adhuc exiſtens. Alſo it is not ſaid in the Indictment (ibidem) they did enter; and Williams and Skidmores Caſe was vouched to be ſo adjudged. See 5 E. 6. 68. 23 H. 7. 98. in Kellaway: The Court held in this Caſe, all being coupled here together, the day, the time and the place, then the words make all good; for thereby it appears, That it was his Freehold, and the time being laid here, when he entred this Indictment, may be good enough, without ſaying (adhuc): Yet the Court would not over-rule the Caſe. Trin. 9 Jac. in B. R. Hut and Lanckfords Caſe, Bolſtr. 1. Part, 177.

13. A. was Indicted upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry. Exception was taken to it, becauſe the Statute was miſrecited; alledging in the Indictment, That the Fine mentioned in the Statute, was by the Statute given dict. Domino Regi; whereas the words in the Statute are Domino Regi, without the word dicto. The Court was there of Opinion, That it was a good Exception; and ſo by Rule of the Court, the party was diſcharged, and a Writ of Reſtitution awarded. Trin. 10 Jac. in B. R. The King and Coles Caſe, Bolſtr. 1. Part, 218.

14. Exception was taken to an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, becauſe the Indictment was fortitudine, et potentia magnâ; but there was no manu forti. It was holden by the Court to be a good Exception; and the Indictment for that cauſe was Quaſhed. Trin. 12 Jac. in B.R. The King and Cox's Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 258.

15. A. was Indicted for building of a Cottage pro habitatione contrary to the Statute of 31 Eliz. Cap. 7. The Exception was taken to it, That it was not ſhewed, that any one did dwell in it. But it was Over-ruled by the Court; and that the Indictment was good and ſufficient, the ſame being only for the building of the Cottage. Trin. 12 Jac. B.R. The King and Phillips Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 264.

16. Upon an Indictment upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. Cap. 10. for taking of Partridges. Exceptions was taken to the Indictment, the the taking therein being layed to be cum retiis, &c. whereas there is no ſuch words, cum retiis; and for that cauſe Ruled, That the Indictment was not good. Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. The King and Rivets's Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 178.

17. In

17. Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. ſuppoſing that ſuch a day and year he entred with force and arms into ſuch Lands exiſtens Liberum Tenementum J. B. and him with force expelled. Exception taken, becauſe not alledged adtunc exiſtens. It was holden by the Court, a good Exception: for it may be at the time of the Indictment, it was the Freehold of J. B. but not at the time of the Entry. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Sir Nicholas Points Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 314.

18. W. P. was Indicted upon 8 H. 6. in this manner; Ad Seſs. Pacis, &c. Per Sacrament 12. Juratorum exiſtit præſentatum. Quod W. B. nuper de Moſton juxta Tuthury in Com. &c. Cleric. 1. Julii, &c. vi et armis in unum Meſſuagium exiſtens the Vicarage-houſe in Moſton prædict. adtunc exiſtens Liberum Tenementum. H. T. Vicar there intravit, et ipſum H. vi et armis ac manu forti expulit. 1. Exception, It doth not ſay, proborum et legalium hominum; but non allocatur; for they ſhall be ſo intended, if not ſhewed to the contrary. 2. It doth not appear in what County Moſton is; for the words, in Com. Derbie, refer to Tuthury; Non allocatur; for it ſhall be intended one intire Name. 3. There wants the uſual words, adtunc et ibidem, as 6 E. 6. 69. It was ſaid, That the reaſon in 6 E. 6. was, becauſe the offences there was of ſeverall natures: But in an Indictment of Treſpaſſe, as here, it is otherwiſe: The Rule was, That the Indictment was good; and Reſtitution awarded. Hill. 1 Jac. in B.R. Bawds Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 41.

19. Exceptions, To an Indictment upon 8 H. 6. was, 1. That the Inquiſition was taken before A. and B. Juſtices of the Peace; and doth not ſay, Necnon ad diverſas felonias tranſgreſſiones, &c. Non allocatur: for upon this Statute, Juſtices of the Peace only have Authority to enquire. 2. It is in unum Meſſuagium ſive Domum; which is void for incertainty: Non allocatur. It's true, an Entry is not good into a Meſſuage ſive Tenementum. But Meſſuagium ſive Domus, are one and the ſame. Trin. 19 Jac. B. R. Ellis Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 633.

20. R. F. R.B. and J. H. Were Indicted, de eo quod Sarah Cox being a perſon, and having a Portion of 1300 l. for lucre of gain of the ſaid Portion, they took her at Newington in the County of Middleſex againſt her Will, and carried her to St. Saviours in the County of S; and there the ſaid R. F. by the abetment and procurement of the ſaid R. B. and others, married the ſaid Sarah in the ſaid Pariſh of St. Saviours in the County of Surrey, againſt the form of the Statute in that caſe provided. Upon this, the R. B. and J. H. were arraigned. It was much inſiſted upon, and many Preſidents ſhewed, That the taking away of a Woman, unleſſe ſhe be married or defiled, is not felony. See 13 Jac. in the Star-Chamber, Bruton and Morris Caſe. And ſee 16 Eliz. in the Lord Anderſon's Reports, where was agreed by the Juſtices, That if a Woman be taken againſt her Will, and enforced to contract her ſelf in marriage, yet is not married, it is no felony: But if ſhe be married, or defiled, it is Felony. But after many Arguments and debate of the matter, It was Reſolved, That Judgment ſhould be given againſt the Defendant. And whereas it was Objected, That the Statute upon which they were Indicted, was an Obſolete Statute. It was ſaid, It was a good Statute, and in uſe, but many had not been executed thereupon, becauſe they had their Clergy: for the taking away whereof, the Statute of 39 Eliz. Cap. 8. was made. And whereas it was pretended, That the ſaid Sarah was married with her conſent, and therefore not within the Statute. The Court ſaid, That the taking being unlawful, and againſt her Will, although the marriage was with her Will, yet it was Felony within the Statute. (Note, The Statute upon which the Indictment was, was 3 H. 7. Cap. 29.) And although this was not a Marriage de jure, becauſe ſhe was in a fear, that ſhe knew not what ſhe anſwered or did; Yet it is a Marriage de facto, and it is Felony within the Statute. And Judgment was given, That they ſhould be hanged. Mich 13 Car. in B. R. The Caſe of the Lady Fulwood and others. Cro. 1. Part, 347, 348, 350, 364.

Tenemento ſuo injuſtè et ſine judicio diſſeiſiverunt, et ipſum ſic inde expulſum extra poſſeſſionem inde vi et Armis et manu forti extra tenuerunt et alia, &c. Exception was, That it is alledged, Quod intraverunt; and it is not ſaid, pacifice: For otherwiſe it might be, that the Entry alſo was with force; and every Indictment ought to be certain; and all Indictments mentions the Entry to be either pacificè or forcibly. But it was the better Opinion of the Court, That the Indictment was good. For an Indictment upon this Statute may be upon both branches thereof, for the entring with force, and the detaining with force, or upon any of them, by it ſelf; Then when the Indictment mentions that he entred generally, It ſhall never be intended to be with force, unleſſe it be ſhewen. And an Indictment which chargeth any with a Tort, ought to be preciſe in the point of charging. But where it is not to charge him for his entring, but for his forceable detaining onely, it is good; for no force ſhall be intended, unleſſe preciſely alledged. Mich. 1 Jac. in B. R. Sir William Fitzwilliams's Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 19.

10. Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. againſt J. S. and others; for that they, 16 July, 44 Eliz. Vi et Armis et manu forti diſſeiſiverant J. D. of ſuch Lands et adhuc extra tenent, eundem J. D. contr. pacem dict. Dominæ Reginæ: the Indictment was found at Lent Aſſizes, 1 Jac. Two Exceptions were taken to the Indictment. 1. The Indictment is diſſeiſiverunt, and doth not ſay, Expulerunt. 2. Becauſe it is alledged, Quod adhuc detinent, which is a Tort, and yet it is not ſaid, Contra pacem Domini Regis. For the firſt Reſolved, That Diſſeiſiverunt, implyes Expulerunt. For the ſecond, Reſolved, That the Detainer may be without force, and not againſt the Peace. Wherefore the Indictment was held to be good, and Reſtitution was awarded. Trin. 2 Jac. B. R. Andrews and the Lord Cromwell's Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 31.

11. Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. was againſt P. and others, for expelling S. from his Copyhold. Exception was taken to the Indictment, becauſe Diſſeiſivit was not in the Indictment. It was the Opinion of the Court, That a Copyholder ſhall now have an Indictment of Forcible Entry, but Diſſeiſivit ſhall not be in it; for no Jury will find that, becauſe it is not poſſible, becauſe a Copyholder hath no Freehold: Yet a Copyholder ſhall have a Plaint in the nature of an Aſſiſe, againſt a Stranger. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Indictment was good. Trin. 2 Car. in B. R. *Ployden*s Caſe. Popham, 205.

12. Errour to reverſe a Judgment upon an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6: The Errour aſſigned was, The want of the word adtunc in the Indictment: It being exiſtens Liberum Tenementa of J. S; and doth not ſay, adtunc exiſtens. Alſo it is not ſaid in the Indictment (ibidem) they did enter; and Williams and Skidmores Caſe was vouched to be ſo adjudged. See 5 E. 6. 68. 23 H. 7. 98. in Kellaway: The Court held in this Caſe, all being coupled here together, the day, the time and the place, then the words make all good; for thereby it appears, That it was his Freehold, and the time being laid here, when he entred this Indictment, may be good enough, without ſaying (adtunc): Yet the Court would not over-rule the Caſe. Trin. 9 Jac. in B. R. Hart and Lanckfords Caſe, Bolſtr. 1. Part, 177.

13. A. was Indicted upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry. Exception was taken to it, becauſe the Statute was miſrecited; alledging in the Indictment, That the Fine mentioned in the Statute, was by the Statute given dict. Domino Regi; whereas the words in the Statute are Domino Regi, without the word dicto. The Court was there of Opinion, That it was a good Exception; and ſo by Rule of the Court, the party was diſcharged, and a Writ of Reſtitution awarded. Trin. 10 Jac. in B. R. The King and Coles Caſe, Bolſtr. 1. Part, 218.

14. Exception was taken to an Indictment upon the Statute of 8 H. 6. of Forcible Entry, becauſe the Indictment was fortitudine, et potentia magna; but there was no manu forti. It was holden by the Court to be a good Exception; and the Indictment for that cauſe was Quaſhed. Trin. 12 Jac. in B.R. The King and Cox's Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 258.

15. A. was Indicted for building of a Cottage pro habitatione contrary to the Statute of 31 Eliz. Cap. 7. The Exception was taken to it, That it was not ſhewed, that any one did dwell in it. But it was Over-ruled by the Court; and that the Indictment was good and ſufficient, the ſame being only for the building of the Cottage. Trin. 12 Jac. B.R. The King and Phillips Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 264.

16. Upon an Indictment upon the Statute of 23 Eliz. Cap. 10. for taking of Partridges. Exceptions was taken to the Indictment, the taking therein being layed to be cum retiis, &c. whereas there is no ſuch words, cum retiis; and for that cauſe Ruled, That the Indictment was not good. Paſch. 14 Jac. in B. R. The King and Rivett's Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 178.

4. Where Indictments ſhall be void for Incertainties, repugnancy, and other Imperfections: And where, and for what Cauſe Indictments ſhall be Quaſhed; for what not.

1. EXception was taken to an Indictment upon the death of a man, becauſe theſe words, in pace Dei et Domini Regis, were omitted: And although in Indictments theſe words are uſually inſerted; yet the Exception was not allowed, becauſe ſuch words, are not words of ſubſtance, but only inſerted by way of amplification, to aggravate the hainouſneſſe of the Crime. Cook 4. Part, 41. in Heydon's Caſe.

2. H. was Indicted before the Coroner of D. of Murder; Exception was taken to the Indictment, becauſe the ſtroke was ſaid to be ſuper ſiniſtram partem lateris; and doth not ſhew in what part, and ſo Incertain. But the Court held it to be certain enough; for Latus, is a place known. Mich. 3 Jac. in B.R. Hall's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 97.

3. An Indictment was, for ſtopping of a Water-Courſe; and it was Quaſhed as inſufficient, the words being, Quod Quadam pars aquæ, was by him ſtopped; which words are too incertain: For it ought to have been Quadam pars terræ aqua co-operta: or Magna pars aquæ; as Cook 4. Part, Lutterell's Caſe; Whereupon the party Indicted was diſcharged of the Indictment. Mich. 11 Jac. in B. R. The King and Sorrels Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 324.

4. A. was Indicted of Man-ſlaughter, and afterwards of Murder, the Indictment was removed into the Kings Bench; and Exception was taken, being that ad tunc & ibidem cum pugione in ſiniſtra parte Collis percuſſit, where it ſhould have been Colli. The Court held this to be a good Exception: It was then moved, That this Exception ought not to be allowed him, becauſe the Party was Out-lawed upon this Indictment before the Coroners. The Court ſaid, If that be ſo, then the Exception is not to be allowed, and then he hath no remedy but a Writ of Error, Paſc. 9 Jac. in B. R. The King and Lemmans Caſe, Bolſtr. 1 Part, 109.

5. A great multitude of Welſhmen were Indicted for the death of a man by an Inquiſition taken before the Coroner of the County of Mountgomery in Wales: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Coroner cannot take any Inqueſt, unleſs it be ſuper viſum Corporis; and that is the reaſon, That if a man drown himſelf, and cannot be found, the Coroner cannot enquire of the death of that man: but for the King to have a forfeiture of his goods, an Inquiſition ought to be taken before the Juſtices of the Peace. The Indictment was quaſhed by the Rule of the Court. Hill. 2 Car. in B. R. Poph. 200.

6. An Indictment againſt A. a Baker was quaſhed, for theſe cauſes. 1. The Indictment was for uſing facultatem Piſtoris, and doth not ſay Panis Humani. 2. Becauſe it was for baking Panis tritici, Anglicè, Houſhold-Bread, whereas it ſignifies only Bread made of Wheat, and not Houſhold Bread, for that may be made of any Corn, Paſch. 23 Car. in B. R. Styles 24.

7. A. was Indicted before B. and C. Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, for ſpeaking theſe words againſt the Queen Mother of France; The Queen Mother is a Whore of Babylon; ſhe is a Whore, and hath had a Baſtard; upon which Indictment, Judgment was given againſt the Defendant. And Error brought. 1. Error was, that he ought not to be Judged for the words, becauſe they are ſpoken neither againſt the Common Law, nor againſt any Statute. 2. The Proceedings were againſt Law; for that he was Indicted and Tryed in one day, whereas there ought to have been 15. dayes between the Indictment and the Tryal. 3. It doth not ſay that the words were ſpoken contra Pacem. 4. Becauſe the Judgement was, That he ſhould be Impriſoned for a year without Bail, which ought not to be. It was holden by the Court, That Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer cannot try an Indictment the ſame day; nor Juſtices of the Peace in the ſame Seſſions in which it was preferred: Nor can Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer proceed upon an Indictment which is not taken before themſelves, but Juſtices of Goal-delivery may. 2. The Court held, That there ought to have been 15. dayes between the Indictment and the Tryal: And it was Ordered, That the Kings Attorney ſhould ſhew cauſe why for theſe Errours the Judgement ſhould not be reverſed: Trin. 23 Car. in B. R. the King and Plats Caſe. Styles 28, 29.

8. A man was Indicted before Commiſſioners of Sewers, for a Nuſance made on the High way, by opening of water in the River, at his Mill, whereby the water overflowing the Banks, did annoy the way: It was the opinion of the Juſtices, that the Commiſſioners of Sewers have no power to meddle with ſuch Nuſances in the way, but only with paſſages by water; wherefore the Indictment was quaſhed. M. 23 Car. in B. R. The King and Hides Caſe. Styles 60.

9. Indictment againſt A. and B. for that they inſultum fecerunt upon J. S. in Eccleſia in Shoreditch dicto prædict. & prædict. J. S. adtunc & ibidem in Eccleſia de St. prædict. verberaverant, vulneraverant, &c. contra formam Statuti, &c. The Grand Jury found Bill a vera as to A. and Ignoramus for B; A. appeared and pleaded, and it was found againſt him. It was Excepted unto, that it was contra formam Statuti, for that this is an offence not puniſhable by Statute, unleſs he ſmote with a weapon, or drew a weapon in the Church or Churchyard to that intent, which is not ſaid in the Indictment: And by the ſecond clauſe in the Statute, for ſmiting and laying violent hands, it is Excommunication ipſo facto, and it is not mentioned how he ſtruck in the Indictment. It was agreed by the Juſtices, that for an Offence at the Common Law, as this was, the Indictment concluding contra formam Statuti, was not good: Alſo the offence is alledged to be in Eccleſia de St. prædict. and S. was not named before; wherefore Ruled, that the Indictment was void, and the party was diſcharged. Tr. 12 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1 Part, 334. Chomleys Caſe.

10. J. S. and 27. others were Indicted, for that they engroſſed magnam quantitatem ſtraminis & feni, at C. with an intent to ſell it, and make it dearer; It was Reſolved, That the Indictment that they engroſſed magnam quantitatem ſtraminis, &c. was altogether incertain, not mentioning how many Loads of Hay, and how many of ſtraw, they engroſſed; and the Indictment was quaſhed. M. 10 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1 Part, 277.

11. A. was Indicted, That he was Communis Barrator litium, & diſcordiarum inter Vicinos ſeminator, & pacis Regis perturbator, in magnum contemptum Domini Regis: omitting the words contra Pacem Domini Regis, vel contra formam Statuti: for that cauſe the Indictment was holden inſufficient and and quaſhed, for it is an eſſential part of the Indictment, Paſch. 17 Jac. in B. R. Palfreyes Caſe, Cro. 2 Part, 527.

12. Sir William Read, a man aged 90 years, infirme, and who had kept his chamber for a year and more for Infirmity, was Out-lawed upon an Indictment, for not repayring a Bridge; and being admitted to bring Error, it was moved, that he might appear and put in Bayl by Attorney, and not in Perſon: But it was replyed, that he could not ſo do, being againſt the Courſe of the Court; nor would the King's privie Seal help him therein: wherefore being brought upon mens ſhoulders to the Bar, he aſſigned for Error in perſon, That he is named in the Indictment, William Read de Com. Middleſex; whereas it ſhould have been of ſuch a place in Com. Middleſex. and for that cauſe the Outlawry was reverſed. Tr. 19. Jac. in B. R. Sir William Reads Caſe, Cro. 2 Part, 616.

13. A. was Indicted of Felony, and Arraigned for killing a woman within the Verge, The truth was, he beat the woman at D. within in the Verge; but ſhe died at S. out of the Verge. Divers Exceptions were to the Indictment. 1. It doth not ſay, upon which part of the body the woman was wounded; but generally, that it was upon the hinder part of her body. 2. It is not ſhewed, of what length and bredth the wounds were; ſo as it cannot be known whether the wounds were mortal or not. 3. That the Coroner of the County, and the Coroner of the Verge, ought to coyn in taking the Iſſue, ſuper viſum corporis; which was not done, but the Inquiſition taken by the Coroner of the Verge only: It was adjudged by the Court, that for theſe cauſes the Indictment was not good. Hill. 23 Car. B. R. The King and Savages Caſe, Styles 76.

14. A. C. a woman, Indicted at S. in Suffolk, for Felony and Witchcraft, brought by Habeas Corpus, was Arraigned at the Bar: Exception was to the Indictment. 1. That it doth not ſay that the Juſtices before whom it was taken, were Juſticiarii ad pacem tenend. in prædict. Villa. 2. That it was too general; for it ſayes, that the Priſoner Practicavit Artes Diabolicas; but doth not expreſs what: Both Exceptions were over-ruled by the Court, for it was ſaid, that the employing of wicked Spirits to any intent whatſoever, is Felony within the Statute: But becauſe the party had been acquited upon ſeveral Indictments for the ſame matter, and it appeared that this Indictment was proſecuted for malice, the Priſoner was Bayled. Trin. 24. Car. in B. R. The King and Camells Caſe, Styles 116.

15. An Indictment of Perjury was, That it was in plena Seſſione, generally; but it did not appear in what Seſſions it was, whether it was the Quarter Seſſions, or not, as it ought to be by the Statute; and alſo it doth not ſhew, that any of the Juſtices before whom it was taken, were of the Quorum: And for theſe cauſes, the Indictment was quaſhed. Trin. 24 Car. in B. R. Styles 124.

16. Indictment of Forcible Entry made upon a Leſſee for years, upon the Statute of 21 Jac. Exception was taken, that it doth not appear by the Indictment that the Leſſee had any Title to the Land at the time of the Force committed, for the force is ſuppoſed to be done before the Leaſe began. 2. The Leaſe is ſuppoſed to be a Leaſe for ſo many years, if J. S. ſhall ſo long live; and it was not averred that J. S. was alive, at the time of the Forcible Entry made; and it was adjudged in the Lady Morleys Caſe, that there ought to be an allegation of the life of J. S. The Indictment was quaſhed by the Rule of the Court. Mich. 24 Car. in B. R. The King and Brays Caſe, Styles 147.

17. Indictment was againſt the Inhabitants of Mile-end, within the Pariſh of S. for not Repairing the High way. Exception was taken, that Mile-end was but a Hamlet within the Pariſh, and a Hamlet within within a Parish, cannot be charged to repair a High way, except it be by Preſcription; for of common right the whole Pariſh is charged with it; The Exception was allowed by the Court, and the Indictment quaſhed. 1. Mich. 1649. B. R. Styles, 163.

18. An Indictment of Aſſault and Battery was quaſhed, becauſe the Indictment was taken before the Juſtices of Aſſizes and Goal delivery, and Oyer and Terminer; but it doth not appear by what Commiſſion it was taken; and the Court ſaid, That ought to be ſhewed particularly, Trin. 1650. B. R. Falconbridges Caſe, Styles, 228.

19 An Alien born, was Indicted for uſing a Trade, upon the Statute of 22 H. 8. cap. 13 The Indictment doth not ſay, that he is Alienatus extra Angliam; for this cauſe the Indictment was quaſhed. Paſch. 1651. B. R. Horman and Jacobs Caſe, Styles, 256.

20. An Indictment was for a private Treſpaſs, viz. for ſtopping an ancient Water-courſe; and the Indictment did not conclude ad Commune Nocumentum, but ad grave damnum: The Court was of opinion, That a man may be Indicted for a private Treſpaſs, but becauſe the party here hath made to himſelf no Title to the Water-courſe, the Indictment was quaſhed. Hill. 1651. B. R. Styles, 314.

21. In an Indictment for not repairing a Highway; the Indictment did conclude, that the party ought to repair it by reaſon of his Tenements: It was Reſolved, That that was uncertain; for it ought to have ſaid, That he, and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate he hath in the Tenements, uſed to repair it. And 2. It ſhould have ſaid, That by reaſon of the Tenure of his Tenements he ought to repair it, and not by reaſon of his Tenements; and for theſe imperfections the Indictment was quaſhed. Hill. 1653. in B. R. Styles, 400.

22. A man was Indicted upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. for uſing the Trade of a Draper, not having ſerved an Apprentice in that Trade, according to the Statute. There were two Exceptions taken to it. 1. It is ſaid, That he uſed the Trade in the year 1653. and doth not ſay, The year of our Lord. 2. It is not ſaid, That the Jury was Returned. Both the Exceptions were held good, and the Indictment quaſhed, Paſch. 1655. in B. R. Styles, 448.

23. Four Indictments were preferred againſt one man, two, for erecting Purpreſtures; the other two for continuing of them: Upon Tryal, the party was found Guilty, not of the erecting of them, and therefore it was ſaid, he could not be guilty of continuing of them: The Court ſaid, You may be guilty of continuing of that which another did erect, and not you; But if the Erecting and Continuance be mentioned in one Indictment, you cannot be Guilty; wherefore the Court adviſed the party to plead to the Indictment; for nothing appears in the Record, but only that you kept the High-way ſtopped, but ſayes not who ſtopped it. Paſc. 1655. in B. R. Gunters Caſe, Styles, 148.

More Indictments.

1. A Man was Indicted upon the Statute of 1 Eliz. cap. 2. for omitting of the Croſſing of a Childe in Baptizing of him. The Caſe was, That a Miniſter out of his Cure, at another Church, viz. at Chelmsford in Eſſex, did Baptiſe a Childe, without the ſigne of the Croſs, for which he was indicted: There were many Exceptions taken to Indictment, which were not ſpoken unto, or elſe were over-ruled, vide Librum at large. 1. One Exception amongſt the reſt was, That the Indictment doth not ſhew where the Chriſtning was, but generally at Chelmsford. This Exception was ſaid by the Court to be material, and iſſueable; and for not ſhewing this, the Indictment was quaſhed. Hill. 29. Eliz. in B. R. Goldeſbr. 119.

2. A. and B. were Indicted for not Repairing ſuch a Bridge: Exception was taken to the Indictment; 1. Becauſe it is not alledged in the Indictment, that the Bridge is over the Water, and ſo needful to be amended. 2. It doth not appear in the Indictment, that at that time the Bridge was ruinous or decayed. 3. The Indictment is, That A. and B. debent & ſolent reparare Pontem; but it is not ſhewed that their charge of repairing of it is ratione tenura; and it was ſaid, That a Preſcription cannot be that a common perſon ought to repair a Bridge, unleſs it be by reaſon of his Tenure. The Exceptions were allowed by the Court, and the Indictment quaſhed. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Bridge and Nicholls Caſe. Goldeſ. 346.

3. Serjant Hoskins was Indicted for not paving the Kings High way in the County of Middleſex in St. Johns-Street, ante Tenementa ſua; In the Indictment it was not ſhewed, how he came to be chargeable to repair the ſame: Nor was it ſhewed, that he was ſeized of any houſe there, nor that he dwelt there, nor was it averred that he had any Tenements there; and for theſe incertainties, the Indictment was quaſhed. Paſch. 3 Car. in B. R. Serjant Hoskyns Caſe. Goldeſb. 400.

4. Four men were Indicted for erecting and keeping four ſeveral Inns in B. Exception was taken to it, becauſe it was not layed to be ad Nocumentum; for if it be not ſo layed, it is not punishable: but if the ſame be an annoyance, and inconvenient for the Inhabitants, the ſame ought particularly ularly to appear, otherwiſe it is lawful to erect an Inn. It was agreed by the Court, if an Indictment be for an offence, which the Court ex Officio ought to take notice of, there the Indictment being general, ad nocumentum, & contra Coronam & dignitatem, is ſufficient: But in this caſe, becauſe the Indictment wants the words ad Nocumentum; the Court gave order that the Indictment ſhould be quaſhed, Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Goldesb. 345.

5. J. S. was Indicted, for that he at S. in the County of Middleſex, had erected a Barn upon parcel of the High-way, leading from &c. ad grave damnum, & nocumentum omnium Legeorum & ſubditorum Domini Regis per viam prædict. cuntium tranſeuntium & equitantium; but it was not ſaid in the Indictment to be contra pacem; for which cauſe the Indictment was inſufficient. The queſtion then was, whether it ought to be quaſhed: Berkley Juſtice ſaid, it ought not to be quaſhed till a Certificate be made that the Nuſance is removed. Croke Juſtice was of opinion; becauſe it was certified by the inhabitants that there was never any ſuch Nuſance erected, and becauſe the Indictment was vitious, that it ought to be quaſhed; for to Traverſe it, and to try it, were a charge to no purpoſe: Quære, Trin. 16 Car. in B. R. Leytons Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 422.

6. A. was Indicted, for that he took upon him to be a Juſtice of Peace in the County of B. not having Lands of 40 l. per annum, and that he ſent his Warrant to have one before him to finde Sureties for the Peace. Exception was, That the Statute appoints a penalty, therefore not by Indictment; and of that opinion was the Court, That when the Statute appoints a penalty for the doing of a thing which was no offence before, and appoints how it ſhall be Recorded; it ſhall be puniſhed by that meane, and not by Indictment; alſo it is not ſhewed that he had any Commiſſion, or did act by vertue of a Commiſſion: and for theſe cauſes the Indictment was holden to be ill. Mich. 20 Jac. in B. R. Caſtles Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 643.

7. Error brought to reverſe a Judgement upon an Indictment before Juſtices of Peace, for theſe ſcandalous words; ſcil. That the Religion now profeſſed, was a new Religion within 50 years; Praying was but prating; and hearing of Sermons more edifying then two hours preaching: The Defendant being Convicted, was fined 100 l. This being aſſigned for Error. That this was not an Offence inquirable by Indictment, and before Commiſſioners of the Peace, but only before the High Commiſſioners: The Court was of that opinion, but yet would adviſe upon it. Paſc. 15 Jac. in B. R. Atwoods Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 421.

8. H. and eighteen others were Indicted for Ryot in Lincolnſhire, and J. S. of Huttoft, Yeoman: Exception was taken for want of addition of the place, for Huttoft was only to J. S. laſt named: It was holden by the Court, That the word Yeoman went to them all, but the place named Huttoft did not go them all; and therefore for want of addition of a place where the other parties Indicted did dwell, the Indictment was quaſhed, and the parties diſcharged, Paſch. 10 Jac. in B. R. Haſtings Caſe. Bolſtr. 1 Part, 183.

9. The Lord Vaux was Indicted for his refuſal to take the Oath of Allegiance, being lawfully offered unto him, he being of the age of 18 years, or more; the ſame being certified to the Court under the hands of divers of the Privie Council: The Lord Vaux after the Oath was read to him in Court, prayed that Counſel might be aſſigned to him: But the Court ſaid, They could not aſſigne him Counſel in this Caſe: Being much preſſed to plead to the Indictment, he refuſed ſo to do; but afterwards he did confeſs the Indictment: whereupon Judgement was prayed for the King. Yelverton, one of the Juſtices, ſaid to the Lord Vaux, That nothing was tendred to him to do, but the ſame which ought to be tendred to all the Kings Subjects, and further he ſaid unto him, That he, and all thoſe who ſhould offend in this manner, have incurred the danger of a Præmunire, the which he hath here by his refuſal to take this Oath of Allegiance, being duely tendred unto him; and therefore he pronounced Judgement againſt him, according to the Statute of 16 R. 2. viz. To be out of the Kings Protection, his Lands, Tenements, Goods and Chattels to be perpetually forfeited to the King, and for to be impriſoned during his life: Paſch. 10 Jac. B. R. The King and the Lord Vaux Caſe, Bolſtr. 1 Part, 197, 198.

10. A man was Indicted for Perjury in an Affidavit made before Sir Robert Rich; and becauſe it is not layed; That Sir Robert Rich is a Maſter of the Chancery; and becauſe it is no perjury within the Statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 6. and becauſe the Indictment concludes thus, to be contra formam Statuti of 5 Eliz. for Perjury in this Affidavit which is not within the Statute, the Indictment was quaſhed, and the party diſcharged. Hill. in 1 Car. B. R. The King and Bell's Caſe, Bolſtr. 3 Part, 332.

11. In an Indictment, Exception was taken to it, for that it was, That the ſaid F. who was murthered ſuch a day, apud quendam Down. vocat Weſton Down. in Com. H. inſultum fecit, & quod ibidem habuit & tenuit quendam Gladium in his right hand, & pradict. Franc. percuſſit, and doth not ſay ibidem percuſſit; for it is not a neceſſary intendment that the proſecution was at the ſame place; Alſo it was, whereof inſtanter obiit, and that is no certainty; and for theſe cauſes the Indictment was inſufficient, and quaſhed, M. 3 Car. in B. R. Goodridges Caſe, Hetley 35.

12. A.

12. A. was Indicted for drawing his Sword in Weſtminſter-Hall, the Court then ſitting, in reſiſting the Sheriff who was making an Arreſt: And being found Guilty, it did appear that the fact was done upon the ſtairs of the Court of Requeſts, out of the view of the Courts: Yet it was holden, That being in the Hall, it was as much as if it had bin in view of the Court; but becauſe the Indictment was not good, for it wanted Coram Regina; he had Judgment only of perpetual Impriſonment, and to pay 1000 l. Paſc. 37 Eliz. in B. R. Carns Caſe. Owen. 120.

13. A man was Indicted at the Aſſiſes in Kent, upon the Statute of Ingroſſers and Regrators, for Ingroſſing of Apples, Pears, and Cherryes. It was Objected, That they were Victualls intended within the Statute of 2 E. 6. For there Coſtermongers are called ſellers of Victualls. But the better Opinion of the Court was, That they were not within the Statute of Ingroſſers; And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, 4 Jac. and affirmed upon a Writ of Error brought in the Exchequer-Chamber; and they ſaid, If they ſhould be adjudged Victualls, the Trade of Coſtermongers would be deſtroyed; wherefore the ſaid Indictment was not holden to be good. Hill. 1649. in B. R. Styles 190.

14. R. was Endicted in Durham for Murder: Afterwards the Indictment was removed into the Kings Bench; where he pleaded the Kings Pardon, in theſe words, viz. Homicidium felonium, Interfectionem necem, &c. ſeu quocunque alio modo ad mortem devenerit. And there was a Non obſtante in the Pardon of any Statute made to the contrary. It was ſaid the King might diſcharge it; and that it is a Prerogative which is not taken away by the Statute of 2 E. 3. cap. 2. or 13 R. 2. cap. 11. and the eſpecial words, quocunque alio modo ad mortem pervenerit did extend to all deaths whatſoever. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That the King could not Pardon Murder, for that it is contra juſticiam, which the King cannot do, as is ſuppoſed. And a Pardon of all Felonies, will not extend to murder; and the King cannot diſpenſe with the Statute of 13 R. 2. by a Non obſtante, becauſe that Act binds the King in point of Juſtice. Quære, the Caſe was not Reſolved by the Court. Trin. 18 Car. in B. R. Rickbyes Caſe. Mar. 213.

15. A. was Indicted of Man-ſlaughter, and found Guilty: It was ſaid, That the Indictment was inſufficient, becauſe there was dans, &c. without adtunc et ibidem, and alſo becauſe it was plagam ſeu contuſionem, which is incertain; alſo that the party killed langu bat à predict. 15. die uſque decimam ſextam: and there was no time between thoſe dayes, but it ought to have bin, that he languiſhed from ſuch an hour to ſuch an hour: And it was ſaid, That where an Indictment was, That A. killed B. inter horam decimam et undecimam. It was adjudged, That it was naught. But all the Exceptions were diſallowed by the Court, and the Indictment ſtood good. Wherefore the party prayed his Clergy, which was allowed him. Paſc. 17 Car. in B. R. Sir Matthew Minches Caſe.

Informations.

1. Informations upon ſeveral Acts of Parliament, Statutes, and Penall Laws for ſeveral Crimes and offences: Where, and in what Courts to be brought, and what ſhall be a good Bar in them; What not.

1. AN Information was againſt J. S. upon the Statute of 4 H. 7. cap. 9. for bringing in of Gaſcoigne Wines in a ſtrange Ship. The Defendant pleaded as Aſſignee of part of a Licenſe granted by the King, but ſhewed not the Letters Patents, nor averred the life of the Patentee, nor did he ſhew the Deed of Aſſignment; but averred, that there was a Cuſtome amongſt Merchants to aſſign by word: And afterwards he waved his Plea, and pleaded the Statute of 32 H. 8. The Queſtion was, if that took away the Licenſe before. But for the inſufficiency of the Defendants Plea for the matters aforeſaid, Judgment was given againſt the Defendant. Paſc. 34 H. 8. Dyer, 53. See Cook 6. Part, in Bellamys Caſe. Where the Aſſignee ſhall ſhew the Deed where not.

2. An Information in the Exchequer was, upon the Statute of Uſury: The Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty. The Informer gave in Evidence, an uſurious contract upon a Bargain of Wares. And although it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Information being for the loan of money, that the Evidence was not purſuing to the Iſſue. Yet the Jury found the Defendant Guilty againſt the Opinion of the Court. Whereupon it was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there was no proof of the Iſſue; for there are three words in the Statute, Bargain, Loan, and Chevifance, which are ſeveral things. And if the Confirmation be conceived upon Loan, and the Informer giveth in a corrupt bargain for Cloath, the ſame doth not maintain the Information. So if the Information be be grounded upon uſurious contract by way of Mortgage, and an uſurious loan be given in Evidence, the ſame doth not maintain the Iſſue. But if the Information had bin generally upon an uſurious Agreement, and the Informer giveth in Evidence a Loane, that perhaps may be good, becauſe every loan is an agreement. Alſo it is not alledged any place where the contract was made, ſo that no tryal can be had thereof. It was the Opinion of the Court againſt the Informer: Whereupon after Error was brought; and much inſiſted upon, that it needed not be alledged the place in the Information where the corrupt Bargain was, or where the contract was, For that the Offence puniſhable by the Statute, was the receipt of the exceſſive loan, and not the contract. The Caſe was not then Reſolved. Mich. 29 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Sir Wolſtan Dixſy's Caſe. Leon. 96.

3. Information upon the Statute of Uſury by an Informer, Qui ſequitur tam pro Domina Regina, quam pro ſeipſo. The Queens Attorney entred, Non vult ulterius proſequi, and the ſame was pleaded in bar againſt the Informer. And it was adjudged by the whole Court, That the ſaid entry by the Attorney General was no bar againſt the Informer, and ſo it is if the Queen be Non-ſuit. And Wray Chief Juſtice ſaid, That ſuch was the Opinion of the Lord Anderſon, and Gawdy Juſtices. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Shilton and Taylers Caſe. Leon. 119.

4. An Information was exhibited upon the Statute of Uſury, and ſhewed the uſurious contract in certain, upon which it appeared, that the ſum of 10 l. was reſerved, and received for the loan of 100 l. againſt the form of the Statute, &c. And although it appeared that the ſame, and that he concluded contra formam Statuti. Yet becauſe he did not expreſly ſay, that the ſame was per corruptam commendationem, according to the words of the penal Statute, it was adjudged that the Information was inſufficient. Paſc. 20 Eliz. in the Exchequer, vouch. in Cook 11. Part, 58. in Dr. Foſters Caſe.

5. In an Information upon the Statute of Uſury: It was found, that quoad corruptam agreementam, the Defendant was guilty; and that he took the profits of the Land for performance of that corrupt agreement to 60 l. but it was not found that he lent the 100 l. as in the Information. It was Reſolved, That the Verdict was void. Whereupon a Venire facias de novo was awarded; and the Plaintiff after Evidence, was Non-ſuit, and Judgment given, and 40 l. Coſts to the Defendant. Error was brought, and aſſigned for Error, that the Verdict was well enough, and ſo there ought not to have bin a new Tryal. But the Court held, That the Tryal was ill and imperfect, and the firſt Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 6 Jac. in B. R. Cook and Lovedayes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 210.

6. Information in the Exchequer, That the Defendant by way corrupta bargania et chevanſa facta betwixt the Defendant and one J. H. received of E. H. Adminiſtrator of J. H. betwixt the 23. of June, 14 Jac. 65 l. viz. for the uſe and occupation of a houſe in D. in the County of M. from Midſummer 14 Jac. unto Mich. 14 Jac. 15 l. et pro abſtentione et detentione ſolationis 1000 l. from 16. Aprilis 1614. for ſix Moneths then following, 50 l. ubi revera praedict. Meſſuagium tunc valebat dimittendo per annum 20 l. et non ultrà, and thereupon demanded 3000 l. After Verdict for the Plaintiff; It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Information was not good, becauſe he doth not ſhew in certainty what the Bargain was, but per viam corrupta, &c. The Exception was not allowed, for that ſo was the uſual courſe of the Exchequer, and that is to be proved in Evidence. It was agreed in pleading to avoid a Bond, or an Aſſurance, it ought to be particularly ſhewed, for that the party is privy to his own contract, but the Informer is not privy to it; and therefore it ſufficeth for him to ſhew the particulars upon the Evidence. 2. It was ſaid, That it was not good for the incertainty, for there are three times alledged, and it doth not appear to which of thoſe times the actunc valebat refers, and if it refers to the laſt time, then it is no Offence, and ſo the Information not good, for that the Defendant ought to be certainly and preciſely charged who is to be fined and impriſoned. And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged. Trin. 13 Eliz. in Farnaby and Bethe Caſe. Trin. 43 Eliz. in Harriſon and Bagſhaws Caſe. But notwithſtanding theſe Exceptions, it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 15 Jac. in B.R. Peto and Sanderſons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 400.

7. An Informer ſued a Recuſant for the penalty of 20 l. the Moneth, for not repairing to a Parish Church, nor other Chappel, or uſual place of Common Prayer, or Divine Service. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 23 Eliz. That every Recuſant, being a Recuſant convict, ſhould forfeit to the King for every offence 20 l. and pleaded the Statute of 28 Eliz. That every Offender againſt the Statute of 23 Eliz. ſhould pay for every Month after ſuch Conviction, without any other Indictment, 20 l. to the King at the Exchequer; and pleaded the Statute of 35 Eliz. quod unus pars by the ſaid Statute, ſhould be paid to the Informer. It was in this Caſe (amongſt other points) Reſolved. 1. That the Statute of 28 Eliz. had not taken away the liberty which the Informer had by the Act of 23 Eliz. becauſe the ſaid Act did not extend to any abrogation, but rather to a more ſpeedy Execution of the Act of 23 Eliz. and the Statute is in the affirmative, and Regularly, Statutes in the affirmative, do not take away precedent Acts in the affirmative. 2. That the Act of 35 Eliz. did not abrogate the Statute of 23 Eliz. as unto an Action popular; for the purpose of that Act was only to ouſt delayes, and for more ſperdy remedies for the recovery of the forfeitures made by married Women. 3. Reſolved, That after an Action popular begins, although the Kings Attorney will enter an ulterius Nolle Proſequi, nor Reply, yet the Informer might proſecute for his part, as it was Reſolved in Stretton and Taylers Caſe. Cook 11. Part, 58. Dr. Foſters Caſe.

8. In an Information againſt Husband and Wife, for that the Wife being above the age of 16 years, did not repair to any Church, &c. Whereupon the Informer (qui tam quam, &c.) demanded 120 l. The Husband and Wife appeared, and the Wife pleaded, Not Guilty; which was found againſt her. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That an Information lyes not againſt Husband and Wife, for Recuſancy of the Wife to recover 20 l. per menſem: For that the Statute of 7 Jac. cap. 6. appoints, That if a Feme Covert be convicted, that ſhe ſhall be committed to Priſon, and if her Husband redeem her out of Priſon, he ſhall pay 10 l. per menſem, ſo as this latter Law doth abrogate the firſt, that the Husband ſhall not be charged for the Recuſancy of his Wife. But the Exception was diſallowed. For the Court was of Opinion, That this Act of 7 Jac. doth not alter any former Law, but preſcribes, That a Feme-Covert, being convicted, if the after 3 Months doth not conform her ſelf, ſhe ſhall be committed to Priſon, unleſs the husband will pay 10 l. for every Month that ſhe ſhal be out of Priſon, and not conformed. Paſc. 17 Jac. in B. R. Parker and Sir John Curſons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 529. See Cro. 480. acc.

9. Information for the King, and Informer, ſuppoſing, That after the end of the Seſſion of Parliament, 3 Jac. was a Recuſant convict, and after his Conviction for two years before, 31. Oct. 9 Jac. at the Pariſh of D. ſe conformavit, and came to Church, and there continued during the time of Divine Service, That notwithſtanding, for three years next after, 31. Oct. 9 Jac. he had not received the Sacrament of the Lords Supper in that Church, nor in any other place, contra formam Statuti. Upon Not Guilty found againſt the Defendant; It was moved, That the Information was uncertain, becauſe no certain time of the Conviction is ſhewen, nor how, nor in what Court, nor before whom: Nor is it ſhewed before whom he conformed himſelf. But the Exceptions were overruled by the Court; for by his pleading Not Guilty, all thoſe things were admitted, and it is only to be given in Evidence; and the matter of fact is only tryable, Whether he hath received the Sacrament. 2. It was excepted, That no Informer can demand a penalty upon a penal Statute, but by an Information exhibited within one year after the Offence; but the Court held it good enough; for although it was not good for the Informer, yet it was good for the King. Hill. 12 Jac. in the Exchequer, Sywedale and Sir Edward Lethalls Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 365.

10. In an Information upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Maintenance; the Caſe was, as it was found by Verdict, That A. was ſeiſed, and made a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf and B. whom he then intended to marry, and to the Heirs of A. The Marriage took effect: A. enfeoffed a ſtranger and dyed: B. not having bin in poſſeſſion, nor being in poſſeſſion by Indenture, demiſed the Land to the Defendant, being brother of her half bloud, for years. It was Reſolved, That this was a good Leaſe, though made off from the Land to paſs an Intereſt within the Statute. It was, 2. Objected, Becauſe the Entry of the Wife was now lawful by the Statute of 32 H. 8. that then ſhe might diſpoſe of the Land. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That the meaning of the Statute was to repreſs the practices of many, that when they thought they had right to Lands, they for the furtherance of their pretended right, conveyed their Intereſt to great perſons, and with their countenance did oppreſs the poſſeſſors: And in this Caſe they Reſolved, That although this Leaſe was made to her Brother of the half bloud, yet it was in danger of the Statute; and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Skyright and Pages Caſe. Leon. 166.

11. The Queens Attorney proſecuted a Premunire for the Queen and J. S. againſt the Dean of Chriſt-Church in Oxford, and others, becauſe they did procure J. S. to be ſued in the City of Oxford before the Commiſſioners there in an Action of Treſpaſs according to the Eccleſiaſtical Law. In which ſuit, J. S. pleaded, his Freehold, and ſo in the Juriſdiction of the Court, and yet they proceeded, and J. S. was condemned and Impriſoned: And after that Suit, the Queens Attorney withdrew the Suit for the Queen. It was holden by the Court in this Caſe, That if the Queens Attorney will not proſecute, the party grieved cannot maintain this ſuit; For the principal matter is the Premunire, the Conviction, and the putting of the party out of the Protection of the King, and the Damages are but acceſſary, and then the Principal being releaſed, the Damages are gone. Mich. 27 Eliz. in B. R. The Queen and the Dean of Chriſt Church in Oxfords Caſe. Leon. 292.

12. A. informed againſt B. upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 5. That whereas the ſaid A. had a Plaint of Debt againſt J. S. in the Guild-

Hall

Hall of N. upon which iſſued out an Attachment againſt J. S. by which the Sheriff being ready to attach J. S. the Defendant in diſturbance of the Execution, did publiſh and ſhew to the Sheriff a Conveyance by which he claimed the ſaid goods, as conveyed to him by J. S. and averred the fraud, &c. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That this was within the Statute, and the words of it faith, delay, hinder, or defraud Creditors, for here is a delay, for want of ſerving the ſaid Execution, and attachment; and the appearance of J. S. to the ſuit of the Plaintiff is delayed, which miſchief is within the remedy of the Statute. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Pendleton and Gamſton's Caſe. Leon. 47.

13. Note, In all Caſes where the King is meerly a party, or when the Information is tam pro Domino Rege, quam pro ſeipſo, when the King dyeth before Judgment, all the proceedings upon the Information, are utterly abated and loſt, quia Rex, fait pars, Qui mortuus eſt. Mich. 6 Ed. 6. rott. 15. An Information preferred by the Kings Attorney, only againſt Michael Harcourt, upon the Statute of Maintenance. Hill. 5 E. 6. rott. 22. in the Exchequer. In an Information upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. of buying of Tythes tam pro Domino Rege, quam pro ſeipſo; after iſſue joyned, the King dyed, and the Defendant appeared upon the Attachment, and pleaded de novo. See Cook 7. Part, 31. in the Caſe of Diſcontinuance of Proceſs.

14. A. not being a party grieved, exhibited a Bill in the Star-Chamber againſt B. for Extortion, Oppreſſion, and other Offences. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That when a Bill contains any particular Offences, and after the ſame Bill contains general words, which include many Offences of the ſame kind; and the Plaintiff proves the particular Offences, he may examine other particular Offences included in the general words in aggravation of the particular Offences; and if they be proved, the Court will give the higher ſentence againſt the Defendant. But if the Plaintiff hath not proved any of the Offences particularly expreſſed in the Bill, the Defendant ſhall not be cenſured by the particulars grounded upon the general words of the Bill. Paſc. 10 Jac. in Cam. Stellat. Dr. Manning's Caſe. Brownl. 2. Part, 151.

15. In the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 13. there is a Proviſo, That every Parſon promoted to any Parſonage, ſhall be perſonally reſident, and abiding in, or upon his ſaid Benefice; and in Caſe any ſuch Parſon keep not reſidence at his Benefice, but doth abſent himſelf wilfully by the ſpace of a Moneth together, or two Moneths at ſeveral times in any one year; he ſhall forfeit for every default, 10 l. one half to the King, and the other half to the Informer. A. was Incumbent of the Rectory of S. in the County of K. and he was ſeiſed of a houſe in S. aforeſaid, ſcituate within 20 yards of the ſaid Rectory, and held that houſe in his own occupation, and he did not let it to any other, and he inhabited in the ſaid Meſſuage, and not in the Parſonage houſe: And for his non reſidency upon the ſame, an Information was brought againſt him upon the ſaid Statute. It was ſaid in this Caſe, there were two cauſes of making of the ſaid Statute. 1. Hoſpitality. 2. Relief of the poor. And for that cauſe, it was Reſolved, That he ought to be reſident upon the Parſonage houſe, and ſo was it Reſolved by the Court, and that the reſidence within his houſe adjoyning, was no reſidence within the ſaid Statute. But by the mediation of Cook Chief Juſtice, the Caſe was compounded. Hill. 8 Jac. in C. B. Dr. Newman's Caſe. Brown. 2. Part, 54.

16. Information was upon the Statute of 5 and 6 E. 6. for buying of Seed Corn, having ſufficient of his own, and not bringing of ſo much unto the Market of his own Corn. In that Caſe, it was ſaid by the Juſtices for Law, That a Contract for Corn in the Market, or which was not there that day, is not within the breach of the Statute. But if Corn or Grain be in the Market, although that the contract be made in a houſe out of the Market, and delivered to the buyer out of the Market, yet it is within the Statute: And in that Caſe, it was ſaid by the Court, That the Market ſhall be ſaid the place in the Town where it hath bin uſed to be kept, and not every place of the Town. H. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Gatbolt. 131.

17. Information was before the Juſtices of Aſſiſe in the County of Eſſex, upon the Statute of 21 H. 8. cap. 13. for Non-reſidency upon his Parſonage houſe for 11 Moneths, viz. the Church of B. in the ſaid County. The Defendant pleaded the ſaid Statute of 21 H. 8. That one who hath two Benefices, may be reſident upon the one; and alledged, That he was Inſtituted, and Inducted, as well to the Vicarage of E. in the County of Middleſex, as unto the ſaid Church of B. in the County of Eſſex. It was demurred unto, becauſe he did not ſhew a diſpenſation for Pluralitv. But it was Reſolved by the Juſtices, with conference with the other Juſtices, That the Information did not lye before them as Juſtices of Aſſiſe, or of Oyer and Terminer; and the Statute giveth it onely in the Kings Courts, where they may be Eſſoigned, Wager their Law, &c. Wherefore it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, for the Defendant. Mich. 4 Car. in B. R. Green and Gay's Caſe. Cr. 1. Part, 104.

18. Information was againſt the Defendant upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. cap. 4. for exerciſing the Trade and Occupation of a Brewer for 12 Moneths, he having not bin brought up as an Apprentice ſeven years in the ſaid Art, contra formam Statuti. Being found againſt the Defendant, it was moved in Arreſt of Judgment. 1. That a Brewer is not of ſuch a Trade as is prohibited by the Statute. 2. That by the Statute of 31 Eliz. cap. 5. Offences againſt the Statute of 5 Eliz. are to be enquired of only in the Seſſions of Peace, or Leets within the Counties where the Offences are committed. But upon conſideration had of the Statute, it was adjudged. 1. That a Brewer was within the expreſs words of the Statute. 2. That although the Statute mentions ſuch Courts there named, yet it not in the negative (and not in any other Court), but not in another County; and this being a Suit for the King brought in the Kings Bench, this Information is maintainable, for it is in the moſt proper Court for him. And ſo it was adjudged. Paſc. 3 Jac. in B. R. for uſing the Trade of a Spurrier. Alſo the Kings Bench ſitting in Middleſex, they had the power of the Seſſions there. Mich. 4 Jac. in B. R. Sheyle and Taylors Caſe.

19. Error was brought of a Judgment given in an Information in the Guild-Hall of London, becauſe the Information was brought in London upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. for exerciſing a Trade wherein he was not bound Apprentice. It was Reſolved, That this being a penal Law, ought not to be ſued, but in the Kings Courts at Weſtminſter, where the Kings Attorney is to acknowledg or deny. Cook 6. Part, 19. and therefore was not ſuable at London. Wherefore the Judgment was reverſed. Trin. 17 Jac. in B. R. Miller againſt the King. Cro. 2. Part, 578.

20. The Statute of 39 Eliz. for Tillage is, That Lands converted before the Statute, ſhall be reſtored into Tillage before the firſt day of May, 1599. and being ſo reſtored, ſhall ſo continue for ever. In an Information upon the ſaid Statute, it was found, That Land was auncient Tillable Land, and alſo uſed for Tillage 13 years before the Converſion, and converted before the Statute, and not reſtored, ſ. May, 1599. and that the Defendant was only an occupier for the laſt year, but never before. It was a Queſtion, Whether he were puniſhable as an Offender within the Statute. It was Reſolved, That although he was out of the words of the Statute, yet he was within the intent thereof, for it extends to puniſh the Occupier and continuer thereof in Paſture, and not the Converter only of it, for then all Lands which were converted before 19 El. to 1. Maii, 1599. ſhould be out of the Statute. Hill. 14 Jac. in B. R. Parker and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 419.

21. An Information was exhibited upon the Statute of 2 H. 6. cap. 15. for Fiſhing, which are, That every perſon which ſetteth or faſteneth in the River of Thames, any Nets, or Engines called Trincks, or any manner of Nets to any Boats, Poſts Anchors, or the like thing, to ſtand continually day and night, forfeiteth to the King 5 l. for every time, &c. and the Defendants having ſet and faſtned Nets called Trincks in the River of Thames, &c. to Boats Day and Night, ſo long time as the Tide did ſerve, and not continually. It was Reſolved, That the ſame was within the Statute, for the Nets called Trincks cannot ſtand, but for ſo long time as the Tyde ſerveth; and the word continually, ſhall be taken for ſo long time as they may ſtand, and as the time of Fiſhing endures, be it in the day or night. Mich. 9 Jac. in B. R. Cook 12. Part, 89.

22. An Information was upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. That the Defendant received an Apprentice, who departed out of his Maſters Service, and reteined him without a Teſtimonial. The Queſtion was, Whether the ſaid Statute as to that clauſe, did extend to Apprentices, or to other Trades mentioned in the Statute. It was the Opinion of Hobart Chief Juſtice, and of the other Juſtices, That it never was the intent of the Statute to make an Enfant who was an Apprentice, to be within the danger of that Statute, for an Enfant at the age of 14 years, may be bound an Apprentice: And the puniſhment which is given by the Statute is, That ſuch perſon ſhall be whipt as a Rogue, which plainly proves, the Statute intends only thoſe who are of full age, and if other conſtruction ſhould be made, perchance the Son of a Gentleman may be puniſhed as a Rogue by ſuch departure. Mich. 19 Jac. in C. B. Winch. 25.

23. In Information upon the Statute of 27 Eliz. of Fraudulent Conveyances. It was ſaid to have bin adjudged in Woodyes Caſe. Where one after Marriage aſſigned a Leaſe for years quaſ in Joynture for his Wife, and afterwards ſold it to one who had no notice of this Conveyance, that it was within the Statute, although at firſt it was not made upon any truſt, or any clauſe of Revocation thereof, becauſe it was a voluntary Conveyance at firſt, and ſhall be intended fraudulent at the beginning. But if at the time of the marriage or afterwards, by reaſon of a Portion given by his Wives friends in recompence thereof, and for a proviſion for the maintenance of his Wife, he had made an Aſſignment of ſuch a Leaſe to his Wives friends, and had afterwards taken the profits thereof; and then had ſold that Term, then it had not bin within the ſaid Statute. Paſc. 5 Jac. in B. R. Colvile and Parker's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 158.

24. An Information was exhibited by the Attorney General, againſt divers Juſtices of the Peace, upon the Statute of 13 H. 4. Cap. 9. for that they did not make Enquiry of a notorious Ryot done by divers perſons in the County of L. in burning of hedges, within one moneth after the Ryot done. The Juſtices inclined to be of Opinion, That they were not within the Statute, if Notice were not given them of ſuch Ryot, See Mich. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 210. It is there a Quare.

25. An Information of Perjury was exhibited in the Star-Chamber againſt a Sheriff, for returning one who was not Elected, to be a Knight of the Parliament. It appeared, that he did not take his Oath at entrance of his Office, by the perſuaſion of J. S: Yet he and J. S. were both Fined and Impriſoned by Sentence of that Court for their Contempts. Trin. 1 Eliz. Dyer, 168. Brookes Caſe. And ſo it was done, Hill. 5 Car. in the Star-Chamber, in Long's Caſe.

26. An Information was exhibited againſt the Mayor and Comminalty of London; for that they did not ſuppreſſe an unlawfull Aſſembly in the City made in June 4 Car. in the day-time, where Dr. Lamb was ſlain in a Tumult, nor any of the offenders taken or Indicted for that Felony. The Mayor and Commonalty appear, and confeſſed the Offence et poſuerunt ſe in gratiam Curiæ. They were Fined 1500 Marks; for it was conceived to be an Offence at the Common-Law, to ſuffer ſuch a Crime to be committed in a Walled Town tempore diurno, and none of the Offenders taken or Indicted for it. And a Preſident, 21 H. 6. was ſhewed; againſt the Town of Norwich, That there was a great Riot in Norwich; and one Gladman took upon him to be King, and went with a Crown of paper in a Riotous manner to the Priory of Norwich; and for that, their Liberties were ſeiſed: although afterwards regranted unto them. 27. In an Information for ſtopping a High-Way; It was ſet forth, That time out of mind there was a Common High-way for Horſe, Foot, and Carriages in ſuch a Lane leading to divers Market Towns; and that the Defendant with Hedges and Ditches ſtopt it, and incloſed it, and ſo held it. The Defendants confeſſe the old Way; but ſay, It was ſo foul and drowned with water, and dirt, that Paſſengers could not paſſe it; and that for the profit and eaſe of the Paſſengers, J. S. ſeiſed of a Cloſe adjoyning, layed out another Way more Commodious for the people: and before the laying out of it, a Writ of Ad quod damnum iſſued to enquire, Whether it were to the damage of, &c. and it was found, that it was not to the damage. It was holden by the Court, That this was no good Plea, both for the matter and the form of it, becauſe in the Plea it did not appear by what Authority J. S. did it: for it is but at his pleaſure, and he may ſtop it when he will; and by the laying out, the Subjects have not any Intereſt therein; nor is it ſuch a Way as Inhabitants are bound to Watch it, or to make amends, if a Robbery be done in it. And the pleading of the Ad quod Damnum, and the Inquiſition upon it, is to no purpoſe, when he doth not plead, That he obtained the Kings Licence for the doing of it. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. The King and Ward's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 193.

28. An Information was exhibited in the Court of Common-Pleas againſt Sir Francis Lovel; for that he had not repaired to Church for 11. moneths together; upon which Information, a Judgment was for the King and Informer for 220 l: It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Information did not lye in the Common-Pleas, but was by the letter of the Statute of 27 Eliz. reſtrained unto the Court of Kings Bench only: And this, Counſel took life, upon ſome words of Coke, Chief Juſtice, in Cook 11. Part, in Dr. Foſter's Caſe, Where he ſayes, That the Statute of 28 Eliz. had reſtrained the Informer only to the Kings-Bench. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That the Information exhibited in the Common-Pleas, did lye: For the reſtraint to the Kings-Bench only extends to the King alone in Caſe of Indictments: But by another Clauſe of the Statute, It is by Action of Debt, Bill, Plaint, or Information in any Court of Record of the Queen, for the Informer and the Poor; ſo as the Informer is enabled by the Statute, to exhibit his Information in the Court of Common-Pleas, Mich. 15 Jac. in C. B. Fye and Lovell's Caſe. Hob. 205.

29. The Kings Attorney did Inform in the Star-Chamber, againſt J. S, ſuppoſing that he had forged a Leaſe of divers Lands, parcel of the poſſeſſions of Sherborn, in the name of Sir Walter Rawleigh when he had it. The Information was of divers things, of which Long Meare was one named in it. Now it appeared, that Long Meare was not named neither in particular, nor in the general, but all the reſt were in it. The Defendant pleaded, Not guilty. It was adjudged, That as the Bill was layed, he was not guilty; for it is not the ſame Leaſe, and the unneceſſary Curioſity of the party in laying his Information, as was Reſolved, had ſpoyled his Caſe: Whereas if the Information had been general, it had been good. Paſch. 16 Jac. in Canc. Stellat. Meyres Caſe. Hob. 272.

30. A. did Inform againſt W. Inn-holder, for uttering of Fleſh 30. dayes forbidden, unde Petit adviſamentum Curiæ, et quod forisfaciat 5 l. for every offence unde Ipſe petit mediatatem. It was the Opinion of Hobart, Chief Juſtice, That the Information was inſufficient: For an Information hath not only ſomewhat in it of an Indictment to lay down the offence in it, but hath alſo the nature of an Action, for the party to demand his due, as in in another Action which is but his Office to demand certain, and not the Court to assign; therefore if he make no demand, or demands that which appears not to be due, his Information is insufficient. Trin. 16 Jac. in C.B. Pye and Wesly's Case. Hob. 245.

2. Informations of Intrusion upon the possessions of the King or his Committee, where good; Where not: And what shall be good barrs thereto; What not. And in what Courts; In what not.

1. JOhn Lord Bourcher, having Feoffees to his use of his Mannor of O, and other Mannors, 23 H. 8. made his Will in this manner, viz. I beseech the King to be gracious to me for the 500 l. which I owe him, and to accept, after the death of my Wife, my Mannor of O, To have and to hold to him and his Heirs for ever, such sums of moneys as shall please his Highnesse, to mine Executors over and above the said 500 l. towards the performance of his Will. Afterwards, meant betwixt the making of his Will and his death; he did request his Feoffees to enfeoffe others to the use of himself for life; the remainder to B. his Bastard Son, and the heirs of his body; the remainder to his right heirs: He and his Wife dyed; B. after the Statute of 27 H. 8. bargained and sold the said Mannor of O. to J. D, and suffered a Common Recovery to the use of J. D. and his heirs; who entred, and took the profits: And this Will being found by Office prout, Intrusion was brought by the Attorney General against J. D, and it was averred, That the said Lord Bourcher and his Wife were both dead: and all this matter was pleaded in Barr, and Judgment demanded of the Intrusion. Divers Exceptions were taken to the Information: 1. The Will was not found by Office; and the King cannot take but by matter of Record. 2. It was, That the King by his Will dedit the Mannor of O, &c. to the King; and Cestuy que use, cannot devise by the Statute of 1 R. 3. 3. The words in the Will were, paying to his Executor: and being a Condition, it ought to have been shewed to be performed. 4. A use or possession of a Freehold may not be settled in the King, without matter of Record. 5. The Command that he made, That his Feoffees should make a Feoffment to Uses, was a Countermanding of the Will. To these Exceptions, there is no Answer or Resolution; by which it appeared, that they were good: and so the Information not good. Mich. 6 E. 6. Dyer, 73, 74.

2. In a Writ of Intrusion brought in the Exchequer, for Intrusion upon the possessions of the Queen; the Case was, That King Ed. 6. was seised of the Mannor of C, of which a great Wood was parcel; and granted the said Wood in Fee: afterwards the Wood came to the Crown by Escheat for Treason; and then the Queen granted the Mannor et omnes boscos ante hac usitata vel reputat. ut parcel. &c. It was adjudged in this Case against the Queen in the said Information; and that the said Woods passed to the Patentee by the words, Ante hac, &c. Pasch. 20 Eliz. Dyer, 362. See Cook 6. Part, in Sir Moile Finch's Case.

3. In an Information of Intrusion brought in the Exchequer against J. P. for Intruding in a Wharf and a house called Wolley Key in London; the Case was; J. P. seised of a Wharf and a house holden in bargayn, devised the same to his Wife and her heirs, upon Condition, That his Wife by the advice of Learned Counsel, within convenient time should assure the same for the maintenance of a Free-School, and Almes-men and Almes-women for ever; and that his Wife should have the Issues and Profits of them during her life, bearing the Charges of the same School, &c. and made his Wife his Executor, and dyed; she entred, and was seised, and afterwards made a Lease for years of them: and the heir entred for the Condition broken. It was Resolved, 1. That these Lands did not come to the King, by the Statute of 23 H. 8: for that Statute gave the Lands which were given to superstitious uses, to the King: but these uses were good uses, and not given by that Statute, or any other Statute which gave Lands to superstitious uses. 2. It was Resolved, That the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Wills, did take away the force of the said Act of 32 H. 8. And therefore it was said, That a Devise made 4 and 5 Ma. to the Masters and Fellows of Trinity Colledg in Cambridg, to find a Grammer School, was good, by the Statute of 1 & 2 Ph. & Mary; which enabled a Devise to Spiritual Corporations. 3. It was Resolved in this Case, That the Condition was broken; and that the Wife had disabled her self to perform the Condition, by making the Lease for years. and therefore the Entry of the Heir was lawfull. Cook 1. Part, 23, 24. Porter's Case.

4. In an Information of Intrusion in the Exchequer, for intruding upon the possessions of the King: the Case was, That the Guardian and Chanoes Regular of a Colledg, seised of divers Lands ancient Copyholds of the Mannor of D, granted parcel parcel of thoſe Lands to A. and B. for their lives by Copy, according to the Cuſtome of the Manor. And afterwards, 30 H. 8. they by Deed Indented, made a Leaſe to C. of the ſaid parcels of Lands for 80. years, rendring the auncient Rent; and afterwards ſurrendred their Colledg to the King: and afterwards the Statute of 31 H. 8. was made: A. and B. dyed; C. the Leſſee entred: Whereupon the Information of Intruſion was brought. In this Caſe it was adjudged, That the Leaſe made to C. of the ſaid Lands, whereof A. and B. were ſeiſed by Copy, was void. And it was Reſolved, That the ſaid Copyhold Eſtate, was an Eſtate for life within the Statute of 31 H. 8. Cap. 13. Sect. 9. for the intention of the Act was to avoid doubling of eſtates, and to have but one ſingle eſtate in eſſe at one time. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of Weſt. 2. de Donis Conditionalibus did not extend to Copyholds. It was Reſolved, That although it was not found, That the ſaid Rents were the uſual Rents, and accuſtomed Rents to be reſerved within 20 years before the Parliament; yet in as much as the Jury have found, That the accuſtomable Rent was reſerved, and a Cuſtome goeth to all times before, it ſhall be intended, that that was the accuſtomable Rent. Judgment was given for the Queen. Paſch. 26 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Cook 3. Part, 7. Heydon's Caſe.

5. Note. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That when the King's Tenant ſeiſed in Fee-ſimple, dyeth without heir, that the Fee and Freehold is preſently after his death, and before Office found thereof, caſt upon the King. For in ſuch caſe it ought to be in ſome perſon; and if any perſon entreth into the Land, and take the profits thereof, An Information of Intruſion for the King, may be preferred againſt him before Office or Seizure; for the King preſently by the death is in actual poſſeſſion, and hath not a Freehold in Law, as a Common perſon in ſuch caſe hath. Cook 4. Part, 58. In the Caſe of the Warden and Commonalty of Sadlers.

6. In an Information for Intruſion upon the poſſeſſions of the King, exhibited in the Exchequer; the Caſe was, A man ſeiſed of houſes in Fee, Deviſed them to his wife being an Alien born, The King by his Letters Patents under the Great Seal made the Wife a Denizen, the Devſor dyed; the Wife took another Husband, and the Letters Patents being naught in the Teſte, they obtained an Exemplification of the Inrolment of the Letters Patents under the Great Seal, which was with a true Teſte; And afterwards Office was found before Commiſſioners, by force of a Commiſſion directed unto them under the Exchequer Seal; by which it was found, that the wife was an Alien born. In that caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved, 1. That an Office found by Commiſſion under the Exchequer Seal, is not ſufficient to entitle the King to the Lands of an Allien born; but ſuch Office ought to be found under the Great Seal. 2. That in Caſe of an Allien, perſon attainted, ſo long as he liveth, Villain of the King, Alienation in Mortmain, and the like, the Inheritance or Freehold of the Land doth not veſt in the King, untill Office found under the Great Seal. 3. Reſolved, That the exemplification of the Inrollment of the Letters Patents of Denization, were pleadable by the husband and wife, by the Statute of 13 Eliz. Cap. 6.

7. In an Information of Intruſion into a houſe, and certain Lands in Sutton Galtres, againſt P. B. and others, the Caſe was; King Ed. 6. demiſed the Manner of Sutton Galtres to T. F. for 31. years. The Queen having the Reverſion by her Letters Patents reciting the ſaid Leaſe, demiſed the ſaid Mannor to H. B. for 21. years in Reverſion. H. B. granted parcel of the Mannor to a ſtranger; and afterwards the Queen by her Letters Patents reciting the ſaid Leaſe to H. B. pro et in conſideratione ſurſum-reddicionis totius ſtatus, tituli termini annorum et inter eſſe de et in præmiſſis per prædict. Literas Patt. eidem H. B. conceſſ. demiſed the ſaid Mannor to the ſaid H. B. for 21. years Habendum à die Confectionis prædict. Literarum Patent. for the lives of 3. others. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, amongſt other Points, That the ſaid Grant made by the Queen to H. B. for three lives, was utterly void, for that the Queen was deceived in the Conſideration; for all the Eſtate and Term demiſed to the ſaid Humphry B. by the Queen, was not ſurrendred according to the Conſideration; and it was but a ſurrender in ſhew, and not in ſubſtance; the ſaid H. B. having made Demiſes of parcels thereof before to ſtrangers. Wherefore it was adjudged for the Queen againſt the ſaid P. B. and others, who claimed under the ſaid Letters Patents. Cook 5. Part, 44. Barwick's Caſe.

1. ERrour was brought to reverſe a Judgment given in the Common Pleas, upon an Information there exhibited, for ſelling of Wine without Licence contrary to the Statute: The Errour aſſigned, was, Becauſe the Information was in the Court of Common-Pleas; and the Offence was at Lambeth in Surrey. It was Objected, That by the Statute of 21 Jac. the Information was to be in the County where the Offence was committed. It was Reſolved, That the Statute of 21 Jac. is not to put the party without remedy; and if the party cannot bring his Action by the Statute of E. 6; then the Statute of 21 Jac. barrs him not to prefer an Information in any other County. And it was holden, That by the Statute of 21 Jac. no Juriſdiction is given to Juſtices, where they had not power before: And the Courts of Record in the Statute of 7 E. 6. ſhall be intended the Courts at Weſtminſter, and not a Court of Record elſewhere. 2. An Information was exhibited for the King, the City of London, and the Informer, upon the Statute of 1 Jac. Cap. 22. For that the Defendant being a Currier, brought two Hides of Tanned Leather, and ſold them unwrought, and not converted into made Wares, to one J. S. a Shoomaker in London, and thereupon demanded a third part for the King, a third part for the City, and a third part for himſelf. It was found by Verdict, That the Defendant being a Citizen and Inhabitant of London bought the ſaid two Hides of perſons unknown, and Curried them with Oyl and Tallow, and ſhaved and dyed them; and being ſo wrought, ſold them to the ſaid J. S; and if this be a buying and ſelling againſt the form of the Statute, was the Queſtion? It was Reſolved by the Court, That it was an Offence againſt the Statute of 21 Jac. and the value forfeited by the Statute, for this ſelling by a Currier, not being cut out and made into Wares, is againſt the meaning of the Statutes of 6 E. 6. Cap. 15. 27 Eliz. Cap. 17. & 1 Jac. Cap. 21. And in this Caſe, It was alſo Reſolved, That a Currier may not buy nor ſell by the whole ſale. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 15 Car. in B. 3. Error becauſe of a Judgement in Coventry, upon an Information upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. for exerciſing the Trade of an Ironmonger not being Apprentice: It was aſſigned for Error, That the Statute of 21 Jac. appoints, That every Common Informer ſhall be ſworn before his Information be received, which this Informer was not. 2. Becauſe Informers cannot ſue upon that Statute to have the moyty; for by the expreſs words of the Statute, the forfeiture is given to the Corporation, and for the benefit of the poor. For the firſt, it was Reſolved, That the firſt is no parcell of the Record, but is only a direction to the Officers, That none be received unleſs he be firſt ſworn. And for the ſecond, Although the Statute gives one moyty to the King, and the other to the Informer, except in Corporate Towns, it is to be underſtood, That in that caſe the forfeiture given to the King, belongs to the Corporation, and the Informer is to have but part ſtill; the Judgement was affirmed, Trin. 9 Car. in B R. Cro. 1 Part, 230.

4. Error brought to reverſe a Judgement given upon an Information of Extortion, exhibited at Oxford at the Aſſizes there, for taking more money of one that was bound Apprentice with him, being by Profeſſion a Taylor, then by the Law he ought. It was aſſigned for Error, That Juſtices of Aſſize have no power to determine offences of that nature: To which it was anſwered, That as Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, they have power to determine of offences of that nature: But becauſe it did not appear by vertue of which Commiſſion they tryed the Offence, but both Commiſſions are jumbled together in the Record, and they have not authority by all their Commiſſions: and becauſe the Judgement is, Ideo Conſideratum eſt, and doth not ſay, per Curiam; the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 1654. in B. R. Richardſon's Caſe, Styles, 430.

5. A Joynt Information was exhibited againſt A. and B. two Juſtices of the Peace, for not enquiring of a Ryot, and a Verdict found againſt them. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That there ought to have been ſeveral Informations, becauſe their Offences were ſeverall; and the one is here acquitted, and ſo Judgment cannot be given againſt the other, who is found guilty. It was Reſolved by the Court, That as an Attachment in a Prohibition is ſeveral; ſo execution here may be ſeveral, and it is not materiall, though one be acquit, and the other found guilty. Hill. 1650. in B. R. Maine and Serjant's Caſe. Styles, 245.

6. An Information was exhibited upon the Statute of 5 E. 6. Cap. 14. for Ingroſſing of Corn, divers ſtacks of Corn, and it was by the word Cumulus: It was ſaid by the Court, That they they did never ſee an Information in this kind, but for ſo many Loads of Corn, or Quarters of Corn, but never with this word Cumulus, being altogether uncertain; for the ſame might be a heap threſhed or in ſhocks: And therefore can be no good barr to this Information, which is framed upon a Penal Law. Wherefore the whole Court were of Opinion, That the Information here was not good, for the incertainty. The King and Whichers Caſe. Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 317.

7. One Information was exhibited againſt two Perſons, upon the Statute of 21 H. 8. Cap. 13. for Non-Reſidence, and for taking a Farm; The one of them pleaded Sickneſſe, and that by advice of his Phyſitians, he removed in better Ayr for the Recovery of his health: The Court held this Plea to be good and Juſtifiable. See Cook 6. Part, 21. Butler and Goodale's Caſe. The other pleaded, That he took the Farm onely for the maintenance of his houſe and family; This Plea alſo was holden good by the Court. It was moved to the Court; That in regard the Plaintiff was a Common Informer, and that this Information was exhibited only to draw ſome Compoſition from the Defendants, as formerly he had done from others, for which Bills of Indictment were proſecuted againſt him upon the Statute of 18 Eliz. Cap. 5. That the Informer might put in Sureties to anſwer Coſts, if the matter went againſt him. The Court ſaid, That could not be done, but gave a Rule, That the Defendants ſhould not anſwer the Information, untill the Informer appeared in perſon. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Martin and Gunneſtones Caſe, Bolſtr. 2. Part, 18.

8. The King's Attorney in the Star-Chamber Ore Tenus informed againſt Goodrick and others, and charged them, that they had ſpoken and publiſhed of the Earl of Northampton, one of the Peers of the Realm, Lord Privy Seal, and Warden of the Cinque Ports, divers falſe and horrible ſcandals; ſcil. That more Jeſuits, Papiſts, &c. have come into England ſince the Earl was Warden of the Cinque-Ports, then before. 2. That the ſaid Earl had written a Book onely againſt Garnet, but ſecretly he did write to Bellarmine, intimating, That he wrote the ſaid Book Ad placandum Regem ſive ad ſciendum populum, and requeſted him, that this Book might be Anſwered. The Defendants confeſſed the relating of the words, which they ſaid they heard by hear-ſay from ſeveral perſons. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved by all the Judges of England called to aſſiſt the Court, 1. That the publiſhing of falſe Rumours concerning the King, or the Grandees of the Realm, was puniſhable either by the Common Law, or in the Star-Chamber, ore tenus. 2. That ſuch Rumours ought to be falſe and horrible, to the ſubverſion and deſtruction of the Realm, according to the Statute of 2 R. 2 Cap. 53. 3. Reſolved, That if one hear ſuch falſe and horrible Rumours, it is not lawful for him to relate to others, that he hath heard J. S to ſay ſuch falſe and horrible words. 4. Reſolved, That if A. ſay to B. Did you not hear that C. is guilty of Treaſon? This Tant amounts as to a ſcandalous Publication; and in a private Action for ſlander of a common perſon: If J. S. publiſh, that he hath heard J. N. ſay, that J. G. was a Traytor or a Thief, in an Action upon the Caſe, if the truth be ſuch he may juſtifie: But if J. S. publiſh generally, That he hath heard generally without a certain Author, That J. S. was a Traytor, there an Action upon the Caſe lyeth. 5. Reſolved, That in caſe of Scandalum Magnatum, the party may have his Action to recover his damages; or a Bill may be exhibited in the Star-Chamber againſt him for the ſame, in which the King ſhall have a Fine, and the party ſhall be Impriſoned. Mich. 10 Jac. in the Star-Chamber, Book 12. Part 132, 133. The Earl of Northampton's Caſe.

Inrolments.

Inrolment of Bargains and Sales within the Statute of 27 Hen. 8. how Conſtrued; and when a Deed is Inrolled, to what time it ſhall relate; And where the Inrolment ſhall avail as much as the Deed it ſelf.

1. A Man ſeized of divers Mannors and Lands, part in Leaſe for years, with Rent reſerved, part Copy-hold, for valuable Conſideration Demiſed, Granted, Bargained, and Sold the ſaid Mannors &c. with all Rents reſerved upon any Demiſe, to J. S. after the death of the Bargainor, for 17 years: The Deed was acknowledged to be Inrolled; and afterwards he covenanted, to ſtand ſeized of the ſaid Mannors and Lands, to the uſe of himſelf, and the Heirs of his body, no Attornment was had to the Bargainees, and afterwards the Bargainor dyed. It was Reſolved in this caſe amongſt other points, That the Leſſees had election, to take the Land by Demiſe, or by Bargain and Sale; and the Law will not enforce them to take by Demiſe, for then they ſhould loſe the Rents reſerved upon the Leſſees for years, but the Intereſt paſſeth to the Bargainee, for the Statute of 27. H. 8. doth execute the poſſeſſion to the uſes, and the Deed needs not to be Inrolled; for that the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Inrolments, doth not extend to it, becauſe no Freehold paſſeth, but only an Eſtate for years. Cook 2 Part 36. in Rowland Heywards Caſe.

2. A man made a Leaſe for years, and afterwards Bargained and Sold the Reverſion to one, and his heirs, and before the Deed Inrolled, he levied a Fine of the ſaid Lands to him and his heirs, and afterwards the Deed was Inrolled within the ſix moneths: It was adjudged in that caſe, That the Conuſee ſhall be in by the Fine, and not by the Deed Inrolled; for when the Fee-ſimple paſſeth by the Fine to the Conuſee and his heirs, the Inrolment of the Indenture of Bargain and Sale, cannot deveſt the Eſtate which is ſettled in him by the Fine; and it was holden in that caſe, that it might be averred that the Deed was Inrolled ſuch a day after the Fine levied. Cook 4 Part, 71. Hind's Caſe.

3. If a man covenanteth to ſtand ſeized to the uſe of his Wife, Son, or Couſin, without any expreſs words of conſideration, there the uſe ſhall riſe, for ſufficient conſideration appeareth, and Fatherly love and affection appeareth: But if the Father by Deed Indented, in conſideration of 100 l. paid, covenanteth to ſtand ſeized to the uſe of his Son, there no uſe ſhall be raiſed to the Son, if the Deed be not Inrolled, for that the ſame is in the nature of a Bargain and Sale, and there expreſſum facit ceſſare tacitum. Cook 7 Part, 40. in Bedell's Caſe. See Cook 11 Part, 25. in Harpers Caſe acc.

4. A. ſeized of Lands in Fee, Demiſed the ſame to Huſband and Wife, and a Stranger, Habendum to the Huſband and Wife for their Lives, the remainder to the Stranger for his life, rendring during their lives yearly Rent at two Feaſts, Michaelmaſs and our Lady; the Huſband dyed, A. by Indenture in conſideration of 100 l. to him paid, Demiſed, Granted, and to Farm let the ſaid Lands to J. S. Habendum to him, from the day of the date of the Indenture, for 99 years; the Wife did not Attorne: It was Reſolved in this caſe, 1. That the words (Demiſe and Grant) for conſideration of money, did amount to a Bargain and Sale for the ſaid years, and that there needed no Inrolment of the Deed, becauſe but a Term for years paſſed: But 2. It was Reſolved, That if a man covenants in conſideration of money, to ſtand ſeized to the uſe of his Son in Fee, if the Deed be Inrolled, it is a good Bargain and Sale, without the words Bargain and Sale, becauſe they amount to ſo much: So if a man alien and give Lands to one and his heirs by Deed Indented and Inrolled, it amounts to a Bargain and Sale, and the Lands ſhall paſs without Livery and Seiſin. Cook 8 Part, 94. Foxes Caſe.

5. The Father was Tenant for life of Copyhold (where the Guſtome was to have for two or three Lives ſucceſſive) the remainder to his eldeſt daughter for her life, the remainder to his ſecond daughter for her life, poſt mortem of the one or the other; the Father Tenant for life, by Bargain and Sale Inrolled, purchaſed the Inheritance of the Copy hold of the Lord, who levied a Fine of the ſame to his Son and his heirs with Proclamation, according to the Statute of 4 H. 7. the Father dyed, the Son Entred, the Wife Entred; the Queſtion was, Whether the eldeſt daughter in remainder might enter, or if ſhe were barred by the Fine. It was Reſolved in this caſe (amongſt other Points) That no Fine or Warranty ſhould bar any Eſtate in Poſſeſſion, Reverſion, or Remainder, which is not deveſted, and put to a right uſe; and in the principal caſe, the Bargain and Sale did not deveſt the Eſtate of them in the remainder: 1. Becauſe the Lord did that which was lawful for him to do by Law, and the Copy-holder did accept that which he well might do. 2. Becauſe the Copy-holder was in poſſeſſion, and ſo was only paſſive, and not active, and therefore cannot divert the Eſtate of thoſe who had the Freehold and Inheritance. 3. Becauſe the Bargainee was in by the Statute of Inrolments, and an Act of Parliament can do no wrong; Cook 9. Part, 104, 105. Margaret Padgers Caſe.

6. Note, It was ſaid by the Lord Dyer, That it was adjudged in the Common Pleas, That if a man Bargaineth and ſelleth his Reverſion of the Tenant for life, by words of Bargain and Sale only, and the Deed is not Inrolled within ſix moneths, and after the Tenant for life doth Attorn; yet notwithſtanding that, that the Reverſion ſhall not paſs, becauſe Bargain and Sale are not apt words to make a Grant, Paſch. 23. Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt, 7.

7. A Recognizance was acknowledged before J. S. one of the Maſters of the Chancery, the Recognizee dyed before the ſame was Inrolled, It was a Queſtion whether at the Petition of the Executors it might be Inrolled; It was agreed by all the Juſtices in that caſe, That the ſame might be Inrolled: for it was like the Conuſans of a Fine before a Judge, which muſt be removed out of the hands of the Judge by a Certiorari, and yet it is no Record until it be perfected. Mich. 30 Eliz in C. B. Haltods Caſe, Godbolt, 141.

8. A man Bargained and Sold Land by Deed Indented, Dat. 11. Jun. 1 Jac. Afterwards 12 Jun. the ſame year, Common was granted to the Bargainee for all manner of Cattel Commonable; 15. Junii, the Deed of Bargain and Sale was Inrolled: it was adjudged in that caſe a good Grant of the Common; and the Inrolment ſhall have relation as to that, although to collateral things it ſhall not have relation. Mich. 15. Jac. in B. R. Ludlow and Stacies Caſe. Godbolt, 270.

9. Note, Upon an Evidence at the Bar in an Ejectione firmæ, where the Caſe was, That Ed. Earl of Salop, was Tenant for life of the Manner of A. the Remainder to Grace Lady Chandiſh his Siſter, of two parts thereof for life, the Remainder of the third part to the ſaid Grace, and the heirs male of her body the Remainder over, &c. and ſhe by Indenture Inrolled, Bargained and Sold to the ſaid Edward, all her moyty, part and property of the ſaid Mannor, and Covenants to ſuffer a Recovery for further aſſurance; and after a Recovery is had, with Voucher of the ſaid Grace, it was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, 1. That this was a good Recovery of the whole third part, and not of the moyty of the third part. 2. That where bargainee by Indenture, after the Sealing and Delivery of the Indenture, and before the Inrolment, letts the Land for years, and afterwards the Indenture is Inrolled ſix moneths; yet the Leaſe is void, and the Relation of the Inrolment ſhall not make it good. 3. That where one by Indenture Bargaineth and Selleth, Demiſeth, and Granteth Lands, and the next day after by Indenture reciting that Grant, Grants the Reverſion to divers uſes, the Leſſee Attornes, it is a good Grant of the Reverſion, although there was not any proof that the Bargainee for the moyty entred, before the Grant of the Reverſion, or that the Bargainee waved the poſſeſſion; for the Leſſee ſhall be adjudged in actual poſſeſſion, by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, and the Reverſion is immediately devided from the Poſſeſſion, and he hath a good Reverſion; but in caſe of a Leaſe for years at the Common Law, until the Leſſee enters, or the Leſſor wave the poſſeſſion, the Reverſion is not divided, nor paſſeth by the words of Grant of a Reverſion, Paſch. 4 Car. in C. B. Iſeham and Morrice's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 77.

10. A. bargained and ſold by Indenture 8 July, 20 Jac. the Deed was acknowledged 10 July, the 9 of October following, the Bargainor ſuffered a Judgement to be had againſt him in C. B. and 18. October the Indenture was Inrolled; The Queſtion was, whether the Bargainee was ſeized at the time of the Judgement; for if the Inrolment ſhall have Relation to the Sealing and Delivery of the Indenture, then the Bargainor was not ſeized at the time of the Judgement: All the Court agreed, That the Inrolment of the Deed within the ſix monethes, relates to the Sealing of the Deed, and makes the Bargainee in, to avoid all incumbrances made unto ſtrangers after the Enſealing. But Jones Juſtice conceived, that in rei veritate, the Bargainor ſhall be ſaid to be ſeized alwayes until the Inrolment, and nothing paſſeth to the Bargainee, until the Inrolment; for it is ſo expreſly appointed by the Statute, and it is quaſi conditio præcedens, and until it be performed, nothing veſts in the Bargainee: And he cited Bellingham and Alſops Caſe to be ſo adjudged, 2 Jac. Crook Juſtice was of opinion, that when the Inrolment is within the ſix moneths, he is in ab initio, and the Fee veſts in the Bargainee ab initio, and the Statute of 27 H. 8. executes the poſſeſſion to the uſe; but that is ſtopped until the Deed be Inrolled, and when it is Inrolled, it is within ab initio: Whereupon the Court would further adviſe of the Caſe, Hill. 4 Car. in B. R. Rott. 687. Flower and Baldwin's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 158.

11. The Caſe was upon a ſpecial Verdict, That A. ſeized of Land in Fee by Indenture 27 Feb. 38 Eliz. for money Bargained and Sold the Land to B. and C. in Fee, who by Indenture, Date 28. Feb. 38. Eliz. reciting, whereas A. by Indenture 27. Feb. 38. Eliz. had ſold them all ſuch Lands, they in conſideration of ſuch a ſum of money, Bargained and Sold to the ſaid A. and his heirs, all their Eſtate which they had by the ſaid Indenture Enrolled, of and in the ſaid Lands, to him and his heirs. Afterwards 5 May 38 Eliz. the firſt Indenture was Enrolled, and afterwards 6 Auguſt 38 Eliz. the ſecond Indenture was Enrolled; Whether this ſecond Indenture had well conveyed the Land, was the Queſtion: Daniel and Kingſmith Juſtices held, That the Land was well conveyed; for when the firſt Indenture is Enrolled, it being betwixt Privies, ſhall have relation to the Enſealing and Delivery of it; and the words in the ſecond Indenture are apt enough to paſs the Land: Anderſon Chief Juſtice, and Warburton, contr. That it was againſt a Rule in Law, to paſs that which a man hath not; and until the words of the Statute be performed, that is, until the Deed be Enrolled, they have nothing at all, and therefore can paſs nothing: Walmeſley agreed, That the Lands did not paſs becauſe of the miſrecital of the ſaid Deed, to be Enrolled, where there was not any ſuch, otherwiſe the Land would have paſſed; for he conceived the Land to be in the Bargainee after the Inrolment ab initio. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſch. 2 Jac. in C. B. Rott. 1618. Bellingham and Alſops Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 52, 53.

12. In a Replevin, the Caſe was; A man ſeized of Lands in Fee, is bound in a Recogniſance of 200 l. and then Bargains and Sells all his Lands, and then the Recogniſance is forfeited, and the Conuſee ſues out a Scire facias againſt the Conuſor, before the Deed was Enrolled, and had Judgement to have Execution; The Queſtion was, if the Bargainor was a ſufficient Tenant againſt whom the Execution was ſued? It was the opinion of the Juſtices, That when the Inrolment came, the Bargainee was not in ab initio, and that then the Scire facias was not well awarded; and Judgement was given againſt the Defendant, and for the Plaintiff, in the Replevin. Trin. 42 Eliz. in C. B. Mallory and Jenning's Caſe. Owen 69.

13. The Kings Tenant by Knight Service, Bargained and Sold his Lands to Sir Henry Dimmock, and his heirs, Sir Henry Dimmock dyed, his Heir within age, and then the Deed was Inrolled; The Queſtion was, If the King ſhould have Primer Seiſin; It was objected, that he ſhould not, becauſe Sr Henry did not dye within his Homage, but the Land was in the Bargainor: But all the Juſtices held, that his Heir ſhould be in Ward, and ſhould pay Primer Seiſin if he were of full age; for the Statute ſayes, That no uſe ſhall be, unleſs the Deed be Enrolled; but if it be Enrolled, then the Bargainee ſhall be Tenant ab initio: But all the Juſtices held, That the wife of Sir Henry ſhould not be endowed; and that the Rent paid to the Bargainor at the day incurred after the Bargain and Sale, is good, and the Bargainee hath no remedy for it, becauſe it is a thing executed. Paſch. 5 Jac. in Car. Ward. Sir Henry Dimmocks Caſe, Owen 149. Hob. 130.

14. The Caſe was, A. and his Wife being ſeized of the Parſonage of H. to them, and the heirs of J. did grant the ſame to King Hen. the 8. and his heirs, by their Deed, date 31. H. 8. And then the King by his Letters Patents, 21 July, 31 H. 8. did Grant the Parſonage of B. to which the Vicarage belonged, to them, and the heirs of A. in conſideration of the Parſonage of H. Given and Granted by them to him, not ſaying by Deed, nor by what means: Then after, 26 July, the Deed was acknowledged by A. and his Wife, and Enrolled ſecundum formam Statuti: It was holden in this caſe, That although the Deed to the King was not acknowledged, nor Enrolled at the time of the Grant made by the King, yet the relation of the Inrolment, and the operation of the Law, ſhall make the Conſideration true, and in effect ſufficient, as touching the Husbands Eſtate, and the King not deceived: and although it be true, that it was not compleat nor perfected for want of Inrolment, at the time of the King's Grant, yet when the Inrolment came upon it, it takes his effect neither from the Inrolment, nor by it, but from and by the firſt Act; and therefore between the Parties it ſhall binde, to all purpoſes, ab initio: And therefore if J. give Lands to the King by Deed, and after charge the Land, and then J. levie a Fine to the King of the ſame Land, and then the Deed is Enrolled, the King ſhall hold the Land diſcharged. Hill. 12. Jac. in C. B. Rott. 1844. by Hobart Juſtice, in the argument of Needler and the Biſhop of Wincheſters Caſe, Hob. 211, 212.

15. Note, It was agreed by all the Juſtices, That if a man Bargains and Sells his Lands by Deed Indented to be Enrolled, and before the Deed be Enrolled, he maketh Livery to the Bargainee, and after the Indenture is Enrolled, that in caſe the Livery doth prevent the operation of the Inrolment, and the party ſhall be accounted in by the Livery, and not by the Bargain and Sale; for Livery is the more worthy, and the more worthy Ceremony to paſs Eſtates, and therefore it ſhall be preferred, Mich. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Stonly and Brackbridges Caſe. Leon. 5.

16. In an Ejectione firme, the Defendant pleaded a ſpecial Bar, which was inſufficient: The Plaintiff conveyed the Land to his Leſſor by Bargain and Sale, acknowledged before J. S. Juſtice of Peace of the Weſt-Riding in Yorkſhire, and J. D. Clerk of the Peace there, and Enrolled within ſix moneths. The Plea was holden inſufficient, becauſe it did not appear that the Land in queſtion which was conveyed, did lye within the Weſt-Riding: But it was holden, That although the words of the Statute be before Juſtices of the Peace of the County, yet it will ſerve before a Juſtice of the Peace of the Weſt Riding, if the Land lye there. Hill. 13 Jac. C. B. Perkin and Perkins Caſe, Hob. 128.

17. In Debt, the Plaintiffe declared upon a Recognition taken before the Lord Hobart, Lord Chief Juſtice of the Common Pleas, in Fleetſtreet, in Serjants Inn, out of Term, and laid his Action in London; The Queſtion was, Whether the Action ought to be brought in Middleſex, where the Recognizance is Recorded and Enrolled, or in London; becauſe the Entry of the Record is, That the Recognizance was acknowledged before the Lord Hobart, ut ſupra: In this caſe it was agreed, That although it was not a perfect Record before it was entred upon the Roll, yet when it is entred, it is a Recognizance from the firſt acknowledgement, and bindes the perſon as a Recognizance from that time. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Scire facias upon ſuch a Recognizance, ſhall be directed to the Sheriffs of London, and not to the Sheriffs of Middleſex: But if the Entry of the Record were general, That the Record was taken before the Lord Hobart, then it ſhould be underſtood it was in Court; and then it was Reſolved, that the Action was to be brought in Middleſex, Mich. 14 Jac. in C. B. Hall and Winckfeilds Caſe. Hob. 195.

Joynder in Action.

Joynder in Action; and who ſhall, or may, or muſt joyne in Actions, who not; And where one Action muſt be brought againſt the perſon, or where ſeveral Actions; And in what Writs they may joyn, in what not.

1. ONe Action upon the Caſe was brought by two ſeveral men for calling them falſe Knaves and Thieves: It was adjudged, That they cannot joyne in one Action, becauſe the Defamation of the one, is not the Defamation of the other; and ſo it is in caſe of Falſe Impriſonment, Trin. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 19.

2. A. one of the Clerks of the Chancery, married a woman who was Executrix to her Husband, In an Action of Debt brought againſt them in the Common Pleas; the Husband brought a Writ of Priviledge to have removed the ſaid Action into the Chancery; and by all the Juſtices the Writ was diſallowed, and the Defendant Ruled to anſwer there, becauſe the Wife was joyned with the Huſband in the Action there, and ſhe could not have the priviledge, and therefore not the Husband; and ſo it was adjudged by the whole Court: But ſee 27 H. 8. 20. Where a man brought an Action in the Common Pleas againſt Husband and Wife, and at the Pluries Retorned, he and Wife were Arreſted into an Inferiour Court veniendo to Weſtminſter, and becauſe the Husband had Priviledge there, the Wife had it; but Dyer ſaid, That the reaſon of that was, becauſe the Wife came in aid of her husband, Mich. 24 Eliz. in C. B. Pole's Caſe, Godbolt 10. See Trin. 17. Car in B. R. Levit and Sir Simon Fanſhawes Caſe, acc.

3. One charged two men as Receivors; The Queſtion was, if one of them might plead, Ne unque ſon Receiver? It was ſaid, he could not; but Ne unque ſon Receiver abſque hoc, That he and his Companions were Receivers: It was holden by the Court, that it was well without Traverſe; See 10. E. 4. 8. An Accompt was brought againſt one, ſuppoſing the Receipt of 200 l. by the hands of J. P. and R. C. the Defendant as to 100 l. pleaded, That he received it by the hands of J. P. tantum, without that, that he received it by the hands of J. P. and R. C. and as to the other 100 l. he received them by the hands of R. C. only. It was there doubted if it was good or not: but See Fitz. Acc. 14. If an Accompt be brought againſt two, and one ſaith, he was his ſole Receivor, and hath accompted before ſuch an Auditor; if the Plaintiff anſwer to his Bar, he ſhall abate his Writ, becauſe the Receipt is ſuppoſed a joynt Receipt, Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Godbolt 43.

4. If two men be partners of Merchandizes in one ſhip, and one of them appoints and makes a Factor of all the Merchandizes; it was moved, and not denyed by the Juſtices, that both of them may have ſeveral Writs of Accompt againſt him, or they may joyn in one Writ of Accompt if they pleaſe, Mich. 29 Eliz. B. R. Godbolt 90.

5. A. and others, brought Treſpaſs againſt B. for breaking their Cloſe, and carrying away their Corn: It was found by Verdict, that A. was ſole ſeized of the Cloſe, where &c. and ſo ſeized, expoſuit ad Culturam, to the others; viz. That the ſaid A. ſhould find one half of the Corn ſowed, and the other parties the other half; and that the ſaid Land ſhould be Plowed and Tilled, and the Corn thereof coming be reaped and cut at the charges of the other parties. It was the opinion of the Court, That notwithſtanding the words Expoſuit ad Culturam, that no Eſtate therein paſſed to the other parties, but the ſaid A. did remain ſole ſeized, as before; and therefore it was adjudged, That they could not joyn in the Action of Treſpaſs for breaking of the Cloſe; and therefore it was adjudged, Quod the Plaintiffes nihil Capiant per Breve. Hill. 20 Eliz. in C. B. Hare and Okelies Caſe, Leon. 325.

6. Husband and Wife were Tenants for life, the remainder to an Infant in Fee, and they three levied a Fine, and the Infant only brought a Writ of Error to Reverſe it: It was objected, That they all three ought to joyn in this Writ, and that the Husband and Wife ought to be ſummoned and ſevered: But it was the opinion of the Court, That the Writ was well brought; for the Error is not aſſigned in the Record, but without it in the perſon of the Infant, and that is the cauſe of the Action by them, and for no other: Two Infants levie a Fine, although they joyn in Error, yet they ought to aſſigne Errors ſeverally, and they may Sue ſeveral Writs of Error: Afterwards it was holden by the Court, That the Writ was well brought, and the Fine was reverſed as to the Infant only; Mich. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Piggot and Harringtons Caſe, Leon. 317.

7. A. was bound in a Recognizance to B. in 1000 l. and afterwards he enfeoffed the Conuſee of part of the Land; and conveyed the reſt of the Land to C. his Son, and E. his Wife, for the joynture of the Wife; the Conuſee ſued forth Execution upon his Statute; and thereupon C. alone, without without mentioning his Wife, brought an Audita Querela. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the not naming of the Wife in the Writ, did not prejudice the Plaintiff, but that the Writ was well brought. Mich. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 194.

8. A Replevin was brought against six, the one avowed, and the other five made Conusors as Bayliffs to the first, for an Amercement for the breaking of a By-law in a Leet. Judgment was given against them, and Costs and damages: And they six brought a Writ of Error, and the Defendant in the Writ of Error, pleaded the Release of one of the five in Bar. It was Resolved in that Case, That because the Law compelled the Defendants to joyn in the Writ of Error, to reap no benefit, but to discharge themselves of a charge imposed upon them, that the Release of the one did not bar the other. See Cook 6. Part, 25. Ruddock's Case. See there, In an appeal, four men were Outlawed, they all four joyned in a Writ of Error, two appeared, and two made default. It was agreed, it was the default of them all, because it was their folly that they joyned in the Writ, for they might have had several Writs; but in Ruddock's Case they were compelled to joyn, and so no folly in them, ibid.

9. Debt was brought by six Executors named in the Writ, and after three of them being summoned and severed, the three others bring Debt upon an Obligation made to the Testator: Upon Non est factum pleaded, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Error brought and assigned, for that there was no mention in the Writ of those who were summoned and severed; for they being alwayes Executors, ought to be named in the Judgment. It was said by the Preignothories, That the course was, That upon summons and severance, that Judgment should be only for those who prosecuted; which course the Court approved, and to be no cause of Error, for that they who were severed, never proved the Will, or it may be, never will prove it, or administer; and therefore Judgment shall be only for those that prosecuted. Mich. 11 Car. in B. R. Price and Packhurst's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 303.

10. A man Covenanted to stand seised of a Farm, and 100 Acres of Lands thereunto belonging, to the use of himself and his Wife for their lives, for the Joynture of the Wife, and after to the use of his Son and Heir, excepting the Timber-Trees, saving that his Wife shall have, and take the shrowds and loppings of them, and dyed, the Wife survived, and took to Husband the Plaintiff. The Defendant as Son and Heir, cut down five Oaks growing upon the said 100 Acres, whereby the Plaintiff lost all the benefit he might have of the loppings: Upon Not Guilty, being found for the Plaintiff. It was moved (amongst other exceptions), That the Action here is brought by the Husband and Wife, whereas the Husband alone should have brought the Action, for he only might have released the damages, and the wrong is to his possession. But the Court disallowed of the Exception, for the Husband having the Land in the right of his Wife, he may well joyn her with him in suing for the damages, and she shall have the damages, and the Action also, if she survive her Husband. Hill. 11 Car. in B. R. Trigmiel and Reeves Case. Cro. 1. Part, 316.

11. Two were joyntly convicted in a Bill of Trespass of a Rescous in Middlesex in the Kings Bench, to the damages of 40 l. they joyned in an attaint. It was holden in that Case, That although the Fine and Imprisonment be several, yet they may well joyn in an Attaint against him, inasmuch as the Plaintiff hath joyned them in one Action. 30. Ass. 49. In a Court Baron, If two are amerced for one Trespass outragiously, they shall not joyn in a Writ de Moderata Misericordia, for they should be amerced severally, although the Trespass be made joyntly. See Fitzh. Nat. Br. 75. Cook 11. Part, 43. in Godfreyes Case.

12. Audita Querela was brought by three to avoid a Judgment against the said three, where one of them was only taken in Execution upon the Judgment, the others not being touched, Exception was taken to the Writ, because he who was in Execution, ought only to have had the Audita Querela, and the others who never yet were grieved, ought not to joyn with him. But the Court was of Opinion, That the Writ was well brought, for they being parties to the Judgment, and lyable to the Execution, although it was never had against them, yet for their Indemnity, might well have an Audita Querela, and joyn with him who is in Execution. 13. A man held by Herriot Customs of divers Lords; and he made a Fraudulent Conveyance of 20 Horses: One of the Lords brought debt for him and the Queen for the value of the 20 Horses, upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. It was the Opinion of Dyer and Harper, that the Action was maintainable; but Manwood held the contrary, because the other Lords were grieved as well as he; and the Statute shall not be construed to aid only one concerning his Grief. And Harper Justice held, That all the Lords might joyn in one Action; but Quære hoc. Trin. 18 Eliz. Dyer, 351.

14. Debt upon an Obligation of 40 l. the Defendant pleaded a Release, the Plaintiff demanded Oyer of the release, which was, That the Plaintiff acknowledged himself to be discharged of all Bonds, Debts, and Demands by the Defendant, untill the day of the Release; and that the Plaintiff is to deliver liver all Bonds as he hath yet undelivered to the Defendant, except one Bond of 40 l. not yet forfeited, in which he and two others ſtand bounden to the Plaintiff; and the Plaintiff averred, That the Obligation which was excepted, and whereupon the Action is brought, is all one Bond; upon which the Defendant demurred in Law. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other points, that the Plaintiff had miſconceived his Action, for that it appeareth upon his own confeſſion, that the Bond of 40 l. excepted, was a Joynt-Bond; and therefore his Writ did abate, becauſe he had brought his Action againſt one only. Cook 9. Part, 53. Hickmots Caſe.

15. A man ſeiſed of a houſe in Gavelkind, having Iſſue three Daughters, A. B. and C. gave the houſe to A. and the Heirs of her body, the Remainder of the moyety to B. in tail, the Remainder of the other moyety to C. in tail; and if B. dye without Iſſue, the Remainder of her moyety to C. with the like Remainder for want of Iſſue of C. to B. A. Tenant in tail diſcontinued, and dyed without Iſſue. B. dyed without Iſſue, by which the right of her moyety came to C. afterwards C. dyed, and her right diſcended to ſeveral Heirs in Gavelkind, who brought one Formedon in the Remainder, and by one Writ demanded ſeveral Remainders. In this Caſe, it was adjudged, That when all is given to A. in tail, although that the Donor divides the Remainders by moyeties: Yet when all the Land doth remain to C. and all the Remainders do depend upon one eſtate, and are derived out of one root, and begin by gift at one time, the Heirs of C. might have one Formedon in the Remainder, and ſhall not be driven to ſue ſeveral Formedons in the Remainder. In this Caſe, it was further holden for Law, That in all real Actions founded upon Title; If there be two ſeveral diſtinct gifts to one, with ſeveral Remainders over to one; there, becauſe the Foundation of them is the gift, which was ſeveral, there ought to be ſeveral Writs; but if the Foundation be one, at one time, and out of one root, there, although that they are ſeveral Inheritances, yet one Formedon lyeth, and not ſeveral Formedons. Alſo in all real Actions founded upon Tort, and not upon Title; The Demandant may demand by one Writ divers Lands which come to him by ſeveral Titles. As if divers Remainders diſcend from divers and ſeveral Anceſtors, and I be Diſſeiſed of them, I may have one Writ of Right, or Entry, in the nature of Aſſiſe, comprehending all the Rights in one Writ, becauſe that in theſe Caſes, no title is made in the Writ: But if I bring a Writ of Entry upon a Diſſeiſin made to my Mother and my Aunt, Coparceners in Feeſimple, the Writ ſhall abate, for that their Title is to be made in the Writ. Cook 8. Part, 68, 69. Buckmers Caſe.

16. Three Coparceners and a ſtranger, purchaſe the part of one of them, he and the other cannot joyn in a Writ de Partitione facienda againſt the third, neither by the Common Law, nor by the Statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 32. becauſe the one may have a Writ at the Common-Law, and the other by the Statute Law, and ſo they have ſeveral remedies, and therefore they ſhall not joyn in one Writ. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 175. See Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 243. acc.

17. Three Coparceners are of a Reverſion, one alieneth her part; the particular Tenant dyeth, the eldeſt entreth into the whole. It is the better Opinion of the Book, that the Grantee, and the other Coparcener, cannot joyn in a Writ de Partitione facienda againſt the third. 3 Ma. Dyer, 128.

18. Note, It hath bin taken for a Rule in Law, That Tenants in Common ſhall joyn in ſuch Actions where the Recovery of the one ſhall give advantage to the other: As in an Aſſiſe of Nuſans, the thing which is done to the Nuſance ſhall be removed, and ſhall be an advantage to them both. And ſo it is in Secta ad Molendinum, Quare Impedit, &c. But in a Writ of Forger of Falſe Deeds, they ſhall not joyn, for there the Recovery of the one, ſhall not give advantage to the other, for nothing ſhall be recovered but damages, and that the Deed ſhall be cancelled. And ſo in a Curia Claudenda, or in a Writ of Cuſtomes and Services, they ſhall joyn for the reaſon aforeſaid. Fitzh. Nat. Br. acc.

19. If two men be robbed of one joynt ſum of money: It was holden that they might joyn in an Action upon the Statute of Winchester; but contrary if it was of ſeveral ſums. Paſc. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 370.

20. Error was brought of a Judgment upon a Demurrer in the Common Pleas: The Error aſſigned was, becauſe the Record was, Ad reſpondendum Domino Regi, et Præſidenti Collegii, &c. Qui tam pro Domino Rege, quam pro ſeipſo ſequitur quod reddat ei 60 Libras, unde idem Præſidens, qui tam, &c. whereas the Action ought to have bin brought by the Preſident only, qui tam, &c. and not by the King and Preſident. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court: For being an Original Writ, the Writ is moſt often ſo, and ſometimes it is otherwiſe, and the Court conceived it was good both wayes. But the Court ſaid, That Informations are alwayes, That the party, qui tam, for the King quam pro ſeipſo ſequitur, &c. Trin. 8 Car. in B. 21. A. and B. ſued in the Admiral Court before the Lieutenant of the Admiral J. S. for a thing done upon the body of the County. J. S. brought his Action

Action upon the Case in London against A. only, and the Writ was brought upon the Statutes of 13 R. 2. and 2 H. 4. ad respondendum tam Domino Regi et Dominæ Reginæ quam J.S. and declared against A. only, with a simul cum prædict. B. and upon this Count and Declaration, it was demurred in Law; and one point was, If the Action brought by the King, and the party grieved, were good, and that depended upon this matter, if this suit and vexation by two were not several in themselves, and in the Election of the party, whether he would sue both in one Action, or not; for it was conceived, That this contempt contra prohibitionem actus, was a crime and contempt to the Crown, and in this Offence, each of them is principal: And divers Precedents were shewed, where the like Action was so brought, viz. 1 Ma. in B. R. by Swinton; Qui tam pro Regina quam pro ipsâ. See 4 Ma. Dyer, 159.

22. Note, none shall have an Action of Waste, but he who hath the immediate estate of Inheritance in him, but another may joyn in an Action of Waste with him for conformity: As if a Reversion be granted to two, and to the Heirs of one of them, they shall joyn in the Action. The same Law is of the surviving Coparcener, and the Tenant by the Curtesy. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 53.

23. So note, when a Right discends to Parceners from one Action, there they shall joyn in Actions real auncestrel, although they are in several degrees from the same Auncester, but their Issues shall not, because a several Right doth discend from several Auncestors to every one of them. Cook 1. Part, Institutes, 164. See before Cook 8. Part, Buckners Case, &c.

24. Note, for things entire, Tenants in common shall joyn in Actions, but for things severable and realls, they shall have several Actions real; but they shall joyn in personal Actions. Cook 5. Part, 21. Cook 1. Part, Institutes 196.

25. Three Covenanted joyntly and severally, with two severally, and afterwards one of the Covenanters married with one of the Covenantees. It was the Opinion of the Justices in that Case, That a man might Covenant with two severally, for that a Covenant sounds only in damages, and it differs from the Case of a Bond; but the Court held clearly, That they ought not in such Case to joyn in an Action of Covenant. Trin. 17 Car. in C. B. Marsh. 103.

Joynture.

1. Joynture; What it is; What shall be said to be a good Joynture within the Statutes of 11 H. 7. cap. 20. The Statute of 27 H. 8. What. And where the acceptance of a Joynture shall bar the Wife of her Dower; where not.

1. A Joynture is a competent livelihood of Freehold for the Wife, to take effect presently after the death of her Husband, if she be not the cause of determination, or forfeiture thereof: and therefore if the Husband maketh a Feoffment in Fee to the use of his Wife for another mans life for her Joynture, the same is not a Joynture within the said Statutes; for that the estate is not for the Wives life. But if a man maketh a Feoffment in Fee to the use of himself for life, and after to the use of his Wife during her Widdowhood for her Joynture, the same is an estate to her for her life, and it cannot determine without her own act, and therefore it is a Joynture within the said Statutes. Cook 4. Part, 3.

2. A. seised of the Mannor of T. in Fee, and A. and his Wife seised of the Mannor of H. to them, and the Heirs of their two bodies begotten, by an estate made to them before the Coverture for the Joynture of the Wife, the Reversion to A. in Fee: F. amounting to the value of two parts, and H. to the third part, both holden in Capite. A. by his Will devised the Mannor of F. to his Wife for life, upon Condition that she should not take her former Joynture in H. with divers Remainders over; the Wife by word in pais, waived her estate in H. and agreed unto the Mannor of T. and entred into it. In this Case (amongst other) these two points were Resolved. 1. If Lands in the Common-Law were given to Husband and Wife in tail, or in Fee, and the Husband dyed, the Wife could not devest the Freehold out of her, by any verball waiver or disagreement in pais; but if she agreed to the estate by word in pais, then she might waive such estate afterwards in a Court of Record. 2. Resolved, That an Estate created by limitation of use, before the Statute of 27 H. 8. of uses, could not be waived by word in pais. But it was Resolved in the principal Case, the refusal in pais to have the Mannor of A. and the entry and agreement agreement to the Manner of T. was a good agreement to the one, and a refusal to the other, and thereby the Inheritance devested by the Statute of uses; by which Statute a Woman may refuse her Joynture in pais, and be endowed by consent in pais, or by Writ of Dower. Cook 3. Part, 28, 29. Butler and Bakers Case.

3. The Husband seised in Fee, made a Feoffment to the use of himself, without impeachment of Waste, and after his decease, to the use of his Wife for her Joynture, upon Condition that she should perform his last Will; the Husband dyed, the Wife entred, and agreed to that estate, and afterwards brought a Writ of Dower. In that Case, these points were Resolved. 1. That by the Common Law a Right or Title which a Woman had to an Estate of Inheritance, or Freehold, could not be barred by acceptance of any collateral satisfaction or recompence, if it be not by Release, Confirmation, or a thing which did amount to as much. 2. That the Estate limitted in Remainder to the Wife for her life, is a good Joynture within Statute of 27 H. 8. but such estate ought to take effect immediately after the death of the Husband. 3. That an estate limitted to the Wife upon Condition, is a good Joynture within the said Statute, if the Wife after the death of the Husband accept of it. 4. Resolved, That if a Joynture be made to a Woman before Coverture, that after the death of the Husband, she cannot waive the same and take her Dower as she may of a Joynture made to her during the Coverture; but if Lands be conveyed to a Woman before Coverture for part of her Joynture; and after marriage more Land is conveyed unto her for her full Joynture, and in satisfaction of her Dower; if after the death of the Husband, the Wife waives the Land conveyed to her after marriage, she shall retain the other Land and her Dower also, for that the Land conveyed to her in part of her Joynture, is not a bar of Dower for the incertainty of it. 5. Resolved, That no estate made to a Woman upon Condition to perform his Will, may be averted to be for the Joynture of the Woman. Cook 4. Part, 1. Vernons Case.

4. The Duke of Somerset purchased Lands to himself, and to the Dutchess his Wife, and to the Heirs Males of their two bodies, which is not mentioned to be an Estate mentioned within the Statute of 27 H. 8. to be a Joynture which shall be a bar in Dower; yet it was adjudged to be a good Joynture within the intent of the said Statute. Hill. 1 Eliz. Dyer, 96.

5. A. seised of Lands in performance of Covenants of Marriage of his Son with one B. made a Feoffment to the use of B. for life for her Joynture; the Marriage took effect, and the Father dyed. It was found by Office, That the Son was seised of the Land in Fee ut supra, and of other Lands holden of the King in Knight-Service, as of his Dutchy of Lancaster, his Heir within age, the Wife sued to have her Dower of the other Lands. It was the Opinion of the Justices, That this was a good Joynture to B. within the intent of the Statute of 27 H. 8. and yet the Estate was made before Marriage, so as there was not any Husband or Wife at the time of the making of the Estate, and the Estate made, was only to the Woman. Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 228. Ashtons Case.

6. It was concluded and agreed by Indenture, between Sir Maurice Dennis, and E. S. aswell in consideration of Marriage after to be had betwixt them as for other considerations, that the said Sir Maurice and his Heirs, would from thenceforth stand seised of divers Lands to the use of himself and his Heirs, untill the said Marriage solemnized betwixt them, and after the Marriage to the use of the said Sir Maurice and Eliz. and their Heirs; the Marriage took effect, Sir Maurice dyed. It was Resolved in that Case, That although it was an Estate in Feesimple which was conveyed to the Wife; yet it was a good Joynture within the Statute of 27 H. 8. for it is a competent livelihood to the Wife, to take effect immediately after the death of the Husband, which is within the definition of a Joynture. Hill. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 248. Sir Maurice Dennis's Case.

7. If a man deviseth Lands to his Wife generally, it cannot be averred to be for the Joynture of the Wife, and in satisfaction of her Dower; because a Devise cannot be averred to another use then to the Devisee, if it be not expressed in the Will. But if a man deviseth Lands to a Woman for Term of her life, or in tail, &c. for her Joynture, and in satisfaction of her Dower. It was Resolved, That the same is a good Joynture within the Statute of 27 H. 8. for as an estate for life made be to a Woman before Marriage, when she is not his Wife, is within the equity of the Statute, so an Estate made to a Woman for her life, which taketh effect presently after the death of her Husband, when the Marriage is dissolved, is within the equity of the said Statute. Mich. 39 Eliz. in the Court of Wards, Leake and Randalls Case, vouch. in Cook 4. Part, 4. in Vernons Case.

8. If a Woman hath Lands conveyed unto her for her Joynture, and she enters, and claimes them for her Joynture, and after the death of her Husband, she brings a Writ of Dower, intending thereby to have her Joynture, and Dower also. It was adjudged in that Case, That by the bringing of her Writ of Dower, she estopped her self to claim any eſtate in the Land conveyed to her before, as it was Reſolved in Purſlow and Sharps Caſe. See Cook 4. Part, 5. acc.

9. In Dower, the Defendant pleaded in Bar, That the Father of the Husband of the Demandant was ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, and made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of the Husband and his Wife for their lives for the Joynture of the Wife, the Remainder to their right Heirs; and that afterwards the Father dyed in the life of the Husband, and after the Husband dyed. It was adjudged, That this was no Joynture to bar the Dower, becauſe the Eſtate of the Wife at the commencement, took not effect immediately after the death of the Husband, et quod ab initio non valet, tractu temporis non convaleſcit: And it was ſaid, That if a Feoffment be made unto the uſe of the Husband for life, the Remainder to J. S. for years, the Remainder to the Wife for her Joynture, this is not a Joynture to bar her Dower. Trin. 20 Jac. in C. B. Sherwells Caſe. Hutton, 51.

10. An Aſſurance was made to a Woman, to the intent it ſhould be for her Joynture, but it was not ſo expreſſed in the Deed. The Opinion of the Court was, That it might be averred, that it was for a Joynture, and that ſuch an averment was not traverſable: And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in a Caſe between the Queen and the Lady Beaumont. Trin. 7 Eliz. Owen 33.

11. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, having Iſſue three daughters: By Indenture betwixt him and B. in conſideration of 200 l. paid by the ſaid B. and in conſideration of a marriage betwixt C. the Son of the ſaid B. and M. the Daughter of A. and for the eſtabliſhing of all his Lands in his bloud, to have continuance for ever, Covenanted to aſſure a moyety of ſuch Lands to the uſe of the ſaid C. and M. his Wife, and the Heirs of her body, begotten by the ſaid C. the Remainder over. And of the other moyety of his Lands, to the uſe of the ſaid C. and M. and the Heirs of her body, ut ſupra, the Remainder over; and of the reſidue of the ſaid A. for life, the Remainder ut ſupra, with Proviſo for A. to make Leaſes for 21 years. The Conveyances were made accordingly. C. dyed, M. took a ſecond Husband, they by Fine conveyed the Land to the Defendant, upon whom the Iſſue entred, as upon a forfeiture by the Statute of 11 H. 7. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That M. was not any Joyntreſs within that Statute, for it is an advancement by the Anceſtors of the Woman, and it is not of the purchaſe of the Husband, or his Anceſtors, nor is it aſſured by the Anceſtors of the Husband; And although money is found to be paid, yet it is not found to be of the value of the Land, nor of what value the Land was; and it is immediately for the life of the Husband, which may be an Eſtate ſufficient for the money. Trin. 6 Car. in B. R. Copland and Pyatts Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 177.

12. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, Covenanted with B. aſwell in conſideration of 200 l. paid by B. as in conſideration of Marriage betwixt L. his Son, and E. the Daughter of B. to convey Lands to the uſe of L. and E. and the Heirs of the body of E. to be begotten, and to his right Heirs; the Marriage takes effect, the Father dyes before the aſſurance: L. in performance of his Fathers Covenants, makes the aſſurance, and afterwards they have Iſſue. Afterwards L. makes a Feoffment to W. to whom L. and E. his Wife levyed a Fine: A. enters as for a forfeiture, by the Statute of 11 H. 7. Reſolved, 1. That although this was a Conveyance aſwell for money, as in conſideration of Marriage; yet it being by the Husband or his Anceſtors, it was a Joynture within the Letter and meaning of the Statute of 11 H. 7. The ſecond point was this, being a Joynture within the ſaid Statute, if the alienation by the Wife with her firſt Husband be a forfeiture within the Statute. It was Reſolved it was not any forfeiture within the words, nor within the intent of the Statute. Not within the words, for the words be, If any Woman being ſole, or with any after taken Husband, and here ſhe was not ſole, and this Husband who conveyed it, is he who was married to the Wife before the Conveyance: Alſo it was out of the intent of the Statute, becauſe the Husband who made the Aſſurance, joyned with the Wife in the alienation, and this Statute is to be taken ſtrictly. Paſc. 16 Jac. in B. R. Kirkman and Thomſons Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 474, 475.

13. In a Writ of Error to reverſe a Judgment in a Writ of Dower in the Common-Pleas, there were two Queſtions. 1. If a Feme-Covert hath an eſtate limitted to her by her Husband for life, the Remainder to a ſtranger in tail, and afterward the Husband alters this eſtate, and limits to the Wife another Eſtate; Whether the Wife hath Election which Eſtate ſhe will have, and waive the remitter, and ſo prejudice him in the Remainder, or if for the benefit of him in the Remainder, ſhe ſhall be remitted volens nolens, notwithſtanding her claim to take by the ſecond Eſtate limitted. It was adjudged in the Common-Pleas, that ſhe was remitted for the benefit of him in the Remainder. And upon this Writ of Error brought. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Court alſo, That ſhe is remitted inſtantly by her entry; and that it is not any Joynture, becauſe it is an Eſtate for life, limitted to begin after an Eſtate tail: And although the the eſtate tail be ſpent by the husbands death without Iſſue, ſo as her Eſtate begins preſently by the death of her husband; yet forasmuch as whatſoever happens, it could not be ſaid to be a Joynture at the beginning, what afterwards happens, ſhall not make it to be a Joynture. See the Caſe at large, Trin. 16 Jac. in B. R. Barbara Wood, and Sir John Shurley and his Wives Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 489.

14. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, having Iſſue two Daughters M. & E. Covenants with J. K. in Conſideration of Marriage betwixt the ſaid J. K. and the ſaid M. his Daughter; and in Conſideration of 100 l. to be paid by the ſaid J. K. at ſuch a day, to aſſure thoſe Lands by Fine to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of the ſaid J. K. and M. and the heirs of their bodies, the Remainder to the ſaid E. and her right heirs: the Marriage takes effect; J. K. and M. had Iſſue R; J. K. dyed; M. took a ſecond husband, and aliened the Land by Fine to the Defendant: R. enters for the forfeiture. It was the Opinion of all the Barons in the Exchequer in this Caſe, That this is not any Joynture within the Statute of 11 H. 7. becauſe the Land moved from the Wives Father, and her advancement in Marriage, is intended to be the cauſe of the guift, and not the money; and this appears by the limitation, becauſe it is to her and her husband in ſpecial tail, and after to the wife in general tail; and for want of her Iſſue to her ſiſter in Fee: and although the husband paid the 100 l. that is not to be intended a valuable Conſideration for the Land; but for the eſtate limited to him. Mich. 19 Jac. in the Exchequer. Xynſton and Lloyd's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 624. See *Copland*s Caſe before.

Joynt-Tenants, Joynt Tenancy, and Tenants in Common.

1. Where, and by what Feoffment, Graunt, Guift, Will, Deviſe or Limitation, by Deed, or without Deed, men ſhall be ſaid to be Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in Common: And by what not.

1. A Man deviſeth Lands to his eldeſt Son, and to his youngeſt Son; Gawdy, Juſtice, conceived, That they were Tenants in Common, becauſe the eldeſt ſon ſhould take by Diſcent. But the Opinion of the Court was, That they were Joynt-Tenants: For if a man make a Guift in tail to his eldeſt ſon, the Remainder in Fee, he ſhall be in by Deviſe for the benefit of the Iſſues, and ſo in the other caſe he ſhall take by the Deviſe for the benefit of him in the Remainder: and ſo in both Caſes, they ſhall be Joynt-Tenants: And ſuch was the Opinion of the whole Court. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldeſbr. 28.

2. If a man ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, hath Iſſue two Daughters, and he Deviſeth his Lands to his Daughters in Fee; The Opinion of the Court was, That they are in by Deviſe, and not by diſcent, and ſo they be Joynt-Tenants, and not Parceners: Otherwiſe it ſhall be, if there were but one Daughter, and the Father Deviſeth the Land to her: ſo if he deviſe the Land to his ſon and heir in Fee. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C.B. Goldeſbr. 141.

3. A. let Land to two, Habendum vis ad terminum vita eorum (conjunctim) et alterius diutius viventis et aſſignis ſuis qui primus eorum decedere contingent. durante vita ejus qui ſuperſtes, et non aliter: In that Caſe, the Opinion of the Court was, That they were Joynt-Tenants. Then the Queſtion was, If he which dyed firſt, doth aſſign all? If the whole ſhall paſſe, or but a moyty? Mich. 31 H. 8. Dyer, 46. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 187. he can aſſign but a moyty, becauſe he hath but a moyty in right.

4. If a man give Lands to a man, and to ſuch a Woman as ſhall be his Wife, the man taketh the whole; but if a man maketh a Feoffment in Fee, to the uſe of himſelf and his Wife that ſhall be, the Wife ſhall take joyntly with him, notwithſtanding that at the firſt all veſts in the husband. See Cook 1. Part, 101. in Shelleys Caſe. See 17 Eliz. Dyer, 340. acc.

5. If a Leaſe be made to A. during the life of B. and C, without ſaying, [And during the life of the Survivor of them] if one of the Ceſtuy que uſes dyeth, the Eſtate is not determined; but A. ſhall have the Term during the life of the Survivor of them: And ſo it was Reſolved. Mich 5 & 6 Eliz. at St. Albans Term. For one had a Freehold by way of Limitation of Eſtate during the life of two men, and by conſtruction of Law during the life of the ſurvivor of them. Cook 5. Part, in Brudnell's Caſe.

6. A Copyholder ſurrendred to the uſe of a Feme Covert for life, the Remainder to the right heirs of the husband and wife; the Wife dyed, having Iſſue by a former husband: afterwards the Husband dyed, and his heir brought a Plaint in the nature of an Aſſiſe againſt the Heir of the husband. Raſtall demanded of the Juſtices, What the Law was in that caſe. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That for one moyty it was executed to the Wife in her life (as Tenant for life; the Remainder to his right Heirs, hath a Fee executed) and for the other moyty it ſhould be alſo to the Heir of the wife by way of Remainder, for the husband cannot; for it was limited, to their right heirs, and he who firſt could ſhould have it; but if both had been dead during the life of the Tenant for life, they ſhould take entirely as purchaſors. But if the husband dyed firſt, his heirs ſhould have one moyty as a purchaſor; and the heir of the wife the other moyty as executed in the life of his Mother. Mich 4 & 5 Eliz.

7. A Rent of 10 l. per annum is granted to A. and B. Habendum to them; viz. to A. untill he marry) and to B, untill he be preſented to the Church of D: It was holden, That in this caſe they are Joynt-Tenants, notwithſtanding the ſeveral limitations; and if one of them dyeth before marriage, or preſentment, the Rent ſhall ſurvive. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 180.

8. If Lands be given to two men, and to the heirs of their bodies, the Remainder to them and their heirs, they are Joynt-Tenants for life, Tenants in Common of the Eſtate tail, and Joynt-Tenants of the Fee-ſimple. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 183. acc.

9. A man poſſeſſed of a Term for years, deviſeth the ſame to his two ſons equally; It is a Quære in 27 H. 8. Dyer, 25. If they be Joynt-Tenants, or Tenants in Common. Hill. 29 Eliz. in the Caſe between Cook and Petwell, this Quære was Reſolved, That they are Tenants in Common. See Cook 3. Part, 33. in Ratcliff's Caſe, acc. that theſe words [Equally deviſed] make a Tenancy in Common.

10. Land was given to the Father and Son in tail, the Remainder over; the father dyed, the ſon is his heir in tail, and he diſcontinued the Land, and dyed without Iſſue; there is a Quære in 4 Ma. Dyer, 145. Whether he in the Remainder ſhould be put to ſue ſeverall Formedons; or have one Formedon? But that Quære is Reſolved, in the Caſe, 4 Ma. Dyer, 149. where the Caſe was, That before the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, an uſe of Lands was limited to A. and J. S. in ſpecial tail, they intermarried, and then the Stat. of 27 H. 8. was made, that made them Joynt-Tenants by individed moyties, for that executed the poſſeſſion in ſuch form, quality and condition as the uſe was: and therefore in that Caſe, It was holden, That when the husband did alien the whole to one of the Feoffees; that the wife might have her Cui in vita of the moyty; and that if ſhe dyed, the ſon might maintain one Formedon of the whole. Trin. 4 Ma. Dyer, 149.

11. If one Coparcener grants a Rent to the other two Coparceners for equality of partition, although that the words are joynt, yet they ſhall have the Rent in the degree and quality of Coparcenary, and not joyntly; and if two Coparceners make a Feoffment in Fee, rendring Rent to them and their Heirs, the Heirs of the one and the other ſhall inherit, becauſe that their right to the Land was ſeveral. 15 H. 7. 14. Plow. Com. 134. b. Cook 5. Part, 8. in Juſtice Wisdom's Caſe.

12. If Lands be given to a married man, and a married woman, and to the heirs of their two bodies, it is a good Eſtate tail, and it is a Common poſſibility, that one ſhall dye before the other, ſo that marriage may follow: but if Lands be given to a man and two women, there the Law doth not intend, that he ſhall firſt marry the one, and then the other: and therefore in ſuch caſe they are ſeverall Inheritances at the beginning: As if Lands be given to two men and their wives, and to the heirs of their two bodies begotten; in this caſe, the Law ſhall not expect ſecond marriages; but in this caſe they ſhall have joynt Eſtates for their lives, and the one husband and wife ſhall have one moyty in tail in Common with the husband and wife of the other moyty, and ſo ſeverall Inheritances; otherwiſe there ſhall be a poſſibility upon a poſſibility. Cook 10. Part, 50. in Lampits Caſe.

13. If a man make a Leaſe of Land to two men during their lives, and they aſſign their Eſtate over, the aſſignee hath an eſtate for the life of the two men; and if one dyeth, he ſhall have it during the life of the other, which is the ſurviour: But if a man deviſeth Lands for 100 years, if A. and and B. ſo long live, and one of them dyeth, the Leaſe is determined. See Hill. 7 Jac. in C. B. Hughes and Cranmers Caſe. Cook Select Caſes, 66. acc. And the reaſon there given is, for that the life of a man is more collateral unto the Eſtate for years. See 3 E. 6. Dyer, 67. Farringtons Caſe, There the Caſe was, A Leaſe for years to two, Proviſo, That if they dyed within the Term, that it ſhould ceaſe: they made partition, and afterwards the one dyed. It was there holden, That the Executor of him that dyed ſhould have it; which Caſe ſeems contrary to the Caſe before.

14. Lands were given to three by the premiſſes of a Deed, Habendum to one for life, the Remainder to another for life, the Remainder to the third for life: this being found by a Special Verdict, It was the Opinion of the Court, That they were not Joynt-Tenants, but that they ſhould take ſucceſſively. Paſch. 5 Ma. Dyer, 160.

15. The next Avoidance was granted to three, Habendum eis et uni eorum conjunctim et diviſim; the firſt preſented the third, who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted. It was adjudged to be good; but if the Biſhop had refuſed his ſole preſentment, It was conceived he might have failed in the Quare Impedit; becauſe it was conceived, that the ſeverance by the Habendum was void in Law. See 21 E. 4. 18. Mich. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 304.

16. A man deviſed Lands to his two daughters in tail; they by word made partition, and then the one dyed. It was the Opinion of the Court, That they were Joynt-Tenants, and that the other ſhould have the whole by Survivorſhip, and that the partition made by word, was not good. But it was there ſaid, Peradventure, if it had been of a Term, it had been good by word. Paſch. 18 Eliz. Dyer, 350.

17. A Leaſe to the Mother and Son, to have to them for Term of life, five uni eorum poſt alterum, ſicut nominantur in Indentura, et non Conjunctim. It was adjudged, That they were not Joynt-Tenants, but the ſame took by remainder. Mich. 20 Eliz. Dyer, 361.

18. A. deviſed Lands to B. and C, and to 4. other perſons, Habendum to them, their Heirs and Aſſigns, in perpetuum et quod eorum omnes haberent equalem et conſimilem partem; part and part like, and every of them to have as much as the other. It was adjudged in this caſe, That by reaſon of theſe words [part and part like,] and being deviſed to them, their heirs and aſſigns; and being in a Will, it was a Tenancy in Common, and not a Joynt-Tenancy. Trin. 3 Car. in C.B. Thorowgood and Collins Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 53.

19. A. B. and C. being Joynt-Tenants for years; C. let her part to A; afterwards A. and B. make a Leaſe: and in an Ejectione Firmæ, the Plaintiff declared upon the Joynt Leaſe of them both. Popham and Fenner, Juſtices, held, That this Leaſe well warranted the Declaration; for that upon the matter, they both let the Inheritance. But Tolverton and Williams, Juſtices, held the contrary, becauſe the Declaration ſuppoſeth, That they both let the Inheritance as Joynt-Tenants, which appears to be falſe; For they two let but two parts joyntly; and the one of them having a third part as Tenant in Common, let that part only; and ſo the Declaration ought to have ſhewed the truth, and the ſpecial matter: It was adjourned. Mich. 3 Jac. in B.R. Jurdain and Steeres Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 83.

20. In Treſpaſſe, the Caſe was; One deviſeth his Lands to his two ſons, and to the heirs of their bodies; and ſaith, That his Executor ſhall have them, untill they come to their ſeverall ages of 21. years: One attains the age of 21. years; Whether he might enter, was the Queſtion? It was ſaid, It was a joynt Eſtate to them, and that the Survivour ſhould hold place for the Freehold; which cannot be, if they ſhould have ſeveral Commencements, and that the Executor ſhould hold them, untill they both came of full age. But the Opinion of the Court was to the contrary; for the words being, untill they accompliſh their ſeverall ages; that is, reddendo ſingula ſingulis, when either of them came to the age of 21. years, he ſhould then have his part and poſſeſſion, and yet the Joynture ſhould hold place. Mich. 8 Jac. in B. R. Aylor and Chepe Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 259.

21. If before the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, a Feoffment be made to a man and a woman, and their heirs, and they entermarry, and then the Statute is made; In that caſe, they hold by moyties; for if the husband alieneth, it is good for a moyty, becauſe the Statute executes the poſſeſſion according to ſuch quality, manner, form and condition, as they had in the uſe. Plow. Com. 58. in Talbot's Caſe. But if a Reverſion be granted to a man and a woman, and their heirs, and before Attornment they entermarry, and then Attornment is had, in that caſe the husband and wife ſhall have no moyties, no more then where a Feoffment is made to a man and a woman, and their heirs, with a Letter of Attorney to make Livery, they entermarry, and then Livery is made ſecundum formam Chartæ; in that caſe they have no moyties. Cook 2. Part, 68. in Tookers Caſe. Plow. Com. 483. in Nicholls Caſe.

22. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, levied a Fine thereof to B. and C, and to the heirs of B, who granted and rendred the Land to A. and his Wife, (who was not party to the Writ of Diſtreſs, and to the heirs of A: A. ſuffered a Recovery with vouchers in the life of his Wife, and afterwards dyed; the Wife dyed: he in the Remainder brought a Scire Facias to have Execution of the Remainder. It was adjudged, That it did lye. And in this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved: 1. That the grant and render to the Wife was not void, but voidable, although ſhe was not party to the Conuſans, nor to the Writ. 2. That this Recovery againſt the husband only ſhould not bind the Remainder; for between husband and wife, there are no moyties, and the Husband hath not power to ſever the Joynture, nor to diſpoſe of any part of the Land, and he during the Wifes life, is not ſeized by force of the Taile, and by no act that he can do, can he execute it for any part; ſo that the Precipe being brought againſt him alone, the recompence for any part cannot enure to the Eſtate Taile, or to the Remainder, for to the whole Eſtate it cannot enure, becauſe the Wife hath a joynt Eſtate with him in poſſeſſion at the time of the Record, or who was not party to it, and for a moyty it cannot be good, for there are no moyties between Husband and Wife, and the Eſtate of him in the Remainder doth depend upon the entire Eſtate made to the Husband and Wife, and not upon any part made to the Husband alone; & the Joynt-Tenancy between the Husband and Wife cannot be ſevered by the Judgement given againſt the Husband; and although the Husband hath the whole Eſtate of Inheritance, yet becauſe by no poſſibility it can be executed, nor the Joynture ſevered during the Wives life; in this caſe it is as much as if the Husband alone had had a Remainder in Tail, exportant upon an Eſtate for life, in which caſe Common Recovery againſt him ſhall not binde, becauſe he was not Tenant to the Precipe; but the Recovery as to the Eſtate of the Husband took effect by Eſtoppel and Concluſion: Trin. 39. Eliz. in Owen and Morgans Caſe. Vouch in Cook 3. Part, 5. in the Marqueſs of Wincheſters Caſe.

23. A. ſeized of Lands holden by Knights Service in Capite, by Indenture made between him and B. and did Bargain, Sell, Grant, Releaſe and Confirm unto the ſaid B. Son and Heir apparent of the ſaid A. the Land, to have and to hold to the ſaid B. and C. and their Heirs and Aſſigns, to the only uſe and behoof of the ſaid A. and B. their Executors and Aſſigns for ever; and Covenanted to make further Aſſurance; and Livery and Seiſin was made according to the intent of the Indenture, to the Uſes within mentioned; A. the Father dyed, B. his Son within age: And whether B. ſhould be in Ward to the King was that Queſtion: The chief Queſtion was, if the Father and Son were Joynts or Tenants in Common: It was Objected, That the Father was in by the Common Law in the Per, and the Son, as to the other moyty, ſhould be in by the Statute in the Poſſ, and ſo Tenants in common; But it was Reſolved by the Court, That they were Joynt-Tenants, and that the Son ſhould have the Land by Survivor; and becauſe the Father and Son were Joynt-Tenants by the original Purchaſe, that the Son being in by Survivor, ſhould not be in Ward, Mich. 7 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Sammes Caſe. Cooks Select Caſes, 55, 56, 57.

24. If a man and his Wife Enfeoffe two by Deed, To have and to hold, to them and their heirs, and afterwards the Feoffer and his Wife levie a Fine Sur Conuſans de Droit, to them, and the heirs of one of them, yet both have the Fee ſimple as they had before; and therefore the fine ſhall but enure as a Releaſe. 2. The Fine Sur Conuſans de Droit may ſtand with the Eſtate which they had before, for the Tenements are the right of the one and the other, and the Fine is not Executory, but to extinct of the Right only of the Wife, and therefore it is no Eſtopel. 6 R. 2. Eſtopel. 2 Cook 2 Part, 74. in the Lord Cromwel's Caſe.

2. Where, and by what, and by whoſe Act, and when the Joynt-Tenancy betwixt Joynt-Tenants ſhall be ſevered, and when, and by what not.

1. TWo Joynt-Tenants are for life, and one makes a Leaſe of his part or moyty for years, reſerving to him and his heirs a Rent; the Leſſor dyeth: if the Term was gone by his death, or that the Survivor ſhould hold the whole Freehold diſcharged of the Term; and admit that the Term did continue, if the Survivor ſhould have the Rent, was a doubt. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Term did continue, but that he ſhould hold it diſcharged of the Rent. Mich. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 187. Sec 2 Mar. Plow. Com. Fulmerſton and Steward's Caſe, 101 and Dyer 103. acc.

2. A Leaſe is made to two for Term of their lives (this Clauſe being added and expreſſed, & diutius eorum viventi) and afterwards they make partition, and one dyed, and he in the Reverſion entred, and his Entry was adjudged lawful, notwithſtanding the word, & diutius eorum viventi, for without them ſo much is implyed by the Law, and the partition did not make a ſeverance, as it was holden. 30. Aſſ. 8.

3. Two Joynt-Tenants of a Leaſe for 21 years, one Leaſeth his part for ten years. In that Caſe it was was holden, That the Joynture is ſevered for the whole; becauſe a Term for a ſmall number of years is as high an Intereſt, as a Term for many years, Hill. 18 Eliz. in C. B. adjudge acc. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 191.

4. Two Joynt-Tenants, one makes a Leaſe for life, the Remainder to his Companion in Fee, it is a ſeverance of the Joynture, and it is a good Remainder, 38 H. 6. 24. So if two Joynt-Tenants be of 20 Acres, and one makes a Feoffment of his part in 18 Acres; the other cannot releaſe unto him his entire part, but only in the two Acres reſidue; becauſe for the 18 Acres the Joynture is ſevered. Cook 1 Part Inſtitutes 193.

5. If a Tenant for life grant his Eſtate to him in the Reverſion, and a Stranger; It is a ſurrender for a moyty, for by acquiſition of the Reverſion, and of the particular Eſtate at ſeveral times, his Reverſion expectant upon his particular Eſtate for life, drowns the other, and it cannot remain diſtinct in Law and Grantable over, Cook 2 Part, 61. acc. Weſcots Caſe.

6. If a Feme ſole, and J. S. purchaſe a Term joyntly, and afterwards they Intermarriage, It was adjudged in Bracebridges Caſe, that it was no ſeverance. See 14 Eliz. Dyer 318.

7. A man makes a Leaſe to two for twenty years, and afterwards confirms the Eſtate of one of them for life; Quare, If it be a ſeverance of the Joynture, 32 Eliz. Fitz. Quid juris clamat, 5. Br. Joynt-Tenants, 57.

8. Two Joynt-Tenants and a Releaſe is made to one of them, with Warranty, the ſame is a ſeverance of the Joynture, 24 E. 3. Quare, If a Fine executory be a Severance before Execution. See 41 E. 3. 326. per Perſey, that it is.

9. Two Joynt-Tenants, one within age, and the other of full age, make a Leaſe for life, and after he of full age dyeth, and the other recovers the moyty in dum fuit infra ætatem. Tenant for life dyeth, the heir of the other entreth; the Infant ouſted him, and he brought an Aſſize. Quare, If it be maintainable; for when he of full age dyed, the Reverſion ſurvived to him within age: But when he brings dum fuit infra ætatem, and recovers his own moyty, and makes it as a Leaſe of the moyty by him in full age: But becauſe it is a priviledge which goes only to his perſon; It was the opinion That the ſurvivor ſhould have the whole; and if he had not brought this Writ, all was once in him by the Survivor.

10. A. and B. Joynt-Tenants for life, the Reverſion over in Fee; Judgement is given againſt A. in Debt, and he Leaſeth to his Companion before Execution; It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That although that A. between whom the Releaſe is made between them, is in by the Leſſor, and not by A. yet as to him who had the Judgement in the Action of Debt, he by his own act ſhould not defeat him of his Execution, but as to him the eſtate of A. hath continuance; but if A. had dyed before Execution, the Survivor ſhould hold the Land diſcharged of the Execution. Cook 6 Part, the Lord Abergevenies Caſe.

11. Two Joynt-Tenants, one makes a Leaſe for years to the other, and afterwards releaſeth to him for life: Quare, How the ſam. Releaſe ſhall enure; if upon the poſſeſſion of the Termer, or upon the joynt Freehold, 40 Edw. 3. 41. 33 Hen. 6. 5.

12. Two joynt Tenants are with Warranty; and the one diſſeiſeth the other, and the Diſſeiſee bainge an Aſſize, and upon his Prayer hath Judgement to recover in Severalty; in ſuch caſe the Warranty is gone. But Coke Chief Juſtice ſaid, That he conceived, that the Judgement ſhould not be in ſuch caſe to hold in Severalty, 1. Becauſe the Plaintiffe in an Aſſize ought to Recover according to his Plaint, and that is of nothing in Severalty. 2. Becauſe he ought to recover by the view of the Recognitors, and that is of nothing in Severalty. And 3. It ſhould be prejudicial to the Plaintiffe, as well for the Survivorſhip, as for the Warranty; and the Prayer of the Party cannot alter the Judgement of the Law in ſuch Caſes.

13. If two Joynt-Tenants be within age, and one maketh a Feoffment in Fee of his moyty, and dyeth, the Survivor cannot Enter, by reaſon of the Infancy of his Companion, for by his Feoffment the Joynture was ſevered, ſo long as the Feoffment doth remain in force; and therefore in ſuch Caſe, the heir of the Feoffer ſhall have Dum fuit infra ætatem, or ſhall Enter in the moyty: But if two Joynt-Tenants be within age, and they joyn in a Feoffment, in ſuch caſe a joynt right doth remain in them; and therefore if one dyeth, the Right ſhall ſurvive, and the Survivor ſhall have the Right of the Land as from the firſt Feoffor, Cook 8 Part, 43. in Whittingham Caſe.

14. A. and B. his Wife being Ceſtuy que uſe in ſpecial Tail, the Remainder to the uſe of A. in general Tail, the Remainder to the uſe of C. in Fee, A. 26. H. 8. did Enfeoffe J. S. who before the Statute of 27 H. 8. Enfeoffed L. who Enfeoffed C. in Fee, who 3 E. 6. Enfeoffed J. D. in Fee; A. dyed, the ſurviving Feoffee Entred for the reviving of the Uſes; and it was adjudged, that his Entry was lawful, for he had joyned his ancient Fee-Simple; for it was agreed by all the Juſtices, that the Feoffment of C. was not within the Statute of 1 R. 3. becauſe he had onely an uſe in Remainder, and he who hath but an Eſtate in uſe in Remainder, or in Reverſion, cannot make an Eſtate over by the Statute of 2 R. 3. nor make a Feoffment and Grant of the Fee-simple of the Land, he cannot make; for then would follow fraction of the Estates of the Feoffees and particular Estates without Donor or Lessor: And if there be two joynt Feoffees to the use of another, and the one disseiseth the other before the Statute of 27 H. 8. and after the Statute is made, there shall not be Fraction of Estate of the Feoffee for one moyty, nor a breach of the Joynture; for the Statute of 27 H. 8. saveth the Warranty, which by such Fraction of Estate should be lost. Mich. 10 Eliz. Plow. Com. Delamore and Bernard's Case, Cook, 350. 1 Part, 128. acc.

15. If before the Statute of Westm. 2 de Donis. Lands had been given to Husband and Wife, and the heirs of their two bodies begotten, and they have Issue, and the Husband post prolem suscitatam, alieneth the Land, and dyed before the Statute, and the Wife survived, and dyed before the Statute, the Issue should have a Formedon: For notwithstanding the same alienation, a right doth remain; for as much only as the husband aliened, which Right is entailed by the Statute, and before the Statute, the Issue in such case might have a Sur Cui in vita, and claim as Heir of the body of both, for the Feoffment was no Bar, but a discontinuance: And in all cases where the wife may have a Cui in vita by the Law, she shall enter by force of the Statute of 32 H. 8. and where the Issue cannot have a Sur Cui in vita, or a Formedon, there he shall not enter within the Remedy of the Statute; and therefore if the Husband hath Issue, and alieneth, and the Wife dyeth, the Issue shall not Enter during the life of the Husband, because at the Common Law he had no remedy to recover the Land during the Husbands life; but if the husband alieneth, and then the Wife is divorced Causa praecontractus, or any other Divorce which dissolveth the Marriage, a Vinculo Matrimonii, then the Wife during the life of the Husband may Enter, Cook 8 Part, 73. in Grevolies Case.

16. Two Joynt-Tenants for life, one made a Lease for 60 years, if he and his Companion live so long, afterwards he surrenders his moyty, and takes back an Estate, and dyes: If this Lease shall endure as long as his Companion lives, or did determine by his death, was the Question. It was Resolved by the Court in this Case, That the Lease determined by the death of any of them; for it is, if they two live so long. And 2. That the Lease is chiefly determined by the death of him that made it; for it hath no continuance no longer then the Joynture continues. Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Daniel and Waddingtons Case. Cro. 2 Part, 377. See 3 Eliz. Dyer, 187. and 37 Eliz. Harbin and Bolton's Case, adjudge acc.

17. In Trespass the Case was, Husband and Wife in the right of the Wife and a third person, were Joynt-Tenants for the lives of the Wife and the third person; the Husband and Wife by Indenture let the moyty for 21 years; the Wife dyed, the surviving Joynt-Tenant entred, and drave out the Cattel, and the Lessee brought Trespass: It was Objected, That the Lease should not binde, because the Husband was not Joynt-Tenant, unless in the Right of his Wife, and had not power to contract for any longer time then during the life of the wife, and the Wife here is dead. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court, that the Lease was good, and is as a Lease made by her, until she after the Coverture, or one who claims in privity by her, avoid it by Entry; for it is not void by the death of the Husband, but voidable only; and the avoidance ought to be by Entry, and which cannot be by the Joynt-Tenant survivor, for he is in paramount the Wife, and not under her, and therefore the Lease is good, and shall binde as long as any of the Joynt-Tenants be alive. Mich. 13 Car. in B. R. Smalman and Agborowes Case. Cro. 2 Part, 417. Bridgeman 43. acc.

18. Two Joynt-Tenants, Copyholders in Fee, one surrenders into the hands of two Tenants to the use of his last Will, and makes his Will of the Land, and dyes, the surrender is afterwards presented. It was Resolved by the Court, That the same should binde the survivor; for being presented, it must relate to the first time of the surrender. Mich. in B. R. Porter and Packers Case Cro. 2 Part 100.

19. In a second Deliverance, the Case was, J. S. and E. a Feme sole, were Joynt-Tenants for life, the woman took a Husband, who by Fine grants to J. S. Tenementa praedict. & inter, & quicquid habeat pro termino vitae of the said E. & illa ei reddidit, Habendum to him and his Assign for the life of the said E. and whether this should enure by way of Release, or by Grant of the Estate, and severance of the Joynture of the moyty, so as this Estate should endure during the life of E. was the Question. It was Resolved in this Case, That it should enure by way of Release, by reason of the words ei reddidit, and both Estates being in him, the Law shall vest that in him, as if he had it from the Feoffer: And it was said, That by whatsoever means he comes to the Estate of his Companion, it shall enure by way of Release, and that he shall be said in of the entire Estate, as by the Feoffment: And if one Joynt-Tenant bargains and sells by Deed Enrolled unto his Companion, although that vests the Use, and the Statute the possession, yet being in him, the Law shall construe it to be entirely in him, and not by division of Estate; Wherefore in the principal case it was Resolved by them all, That there was no Occupancy for that moyty of E. but but is determined by the death of J. S. Mich. 22 Jac. in B. R. Enflace and Stevens Case. Cro. 2 Part, 649.

20. E. R. poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 31 years, married J. S; then he and his wife mortgaged their Intereſt and Term of years to J. D. and after and before the day of payment, E. R. dyed; J. S. the Husband paid the money at the day, in redemption of the Mortgage, and Entred, and made A. his wife his Executrix, who Entred; C. took Letters of Adminiſtration of the goods of E. R. and Entred upon the Leſſee, upon whom A Entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiffe. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Plaintiffe ſhould recover; the reaſon was, That although the Leaſe was at firſt the Wifes, and the Husband poſſeſſed thereof in her Right, yet by the Inter-marriage he had full power to alien it; and if he ſurvive his Wife, he is to enjoy it againſt her Executors: Like the Caſe where the Husband and Wife and a third perſon purchaſe Lands joyntly, the Husband alieneth the whole Land, and then the Wife dyeth, the third perſon ſurviving ſhall have an Aſſize of the whole. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. Young and Radfords Caſe, Hob. 3.

21. A man Deviſed Lands to A. and B. his ſons, to be equally and indifferently divided between them. In this Caſe it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That they are Tenants in Common, and not Joynt-Tenants: And in this Caſe it was Agreed alſo by the Court, That if a Reverſion do deſcend upon one Joynt-Tenant, by this the Joynture is ſevered, and by operation of Law, they are now become Tenants in Common: But if Lands be given to two, and to the heirs of one of them, and after the Reverſion deſcends upon one of them, this ſhall not ſever the Joynture. Paſch. 9 Jac. in B. R. Newman and Edward's Caſe, Bolſtr. 2 Part, 113.

22. Two Joynt-Tenants for yeers of a Mill, the one of them grants his Eſtate, the other ſuppoſing that all comes to him by Survivorſhip, and as he took the Law to be; Grants, Bargains, and Sells the ſame to J. S. by the name and words of Molendinum ſuum generally, and all his Eſtate, Right, Title, and Intereſt, and Covenants to ſave harmleſs the Vendee from all acts done by him, or diſturbances, and bound himſelf in an Obligation, to perform all the former Articles and Agreements: The Vendee being evicted out of part, brought Debt upon the Bond in the Common Pleas, and had Judgement; and now Error was brought, and aſſigned for Error generally. That Judgement was given there for the Plaintiff, where it ought to have been given for the Defendant. It was Objected in this Caſe, That nothing hereby paſſed, but what he had rightfully in him to paſs. The words of the Grant are Molendinum ſuum, and all his Eſtate in the ſame; the which general word Molendinum ſuum is afterwards bounded and reſtrained by the ſubſequent words, viz. (all his Eſtate) and he had not any intent to paſs any more then he had in him to paſs; And it was ſaid, Joynt-Tenants as to the poſſeſſion of a thing in Joynture, are ſeized by Entireties of the whole, and of every part equally; but in right only of a moyty, and by a Grant of the whole by one of them, there doth only paſs a moyty. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Bond was forfeited, for that here the Covenant is generally to paſs the whole Mill, and the money was paid for the whole Mill: and it was ſaid, That if two Joynt-Tenants be, and the one grants all which he hath by ſurvivorſhip, all paſſeth; for his judging and miſtaking the Law, cannot alter his firſt Grant; and this word (all his Eſtate) cannot prejudice and diminiſh his firſt Grant, eſpecially when he takes upon him to paſs the whole. The Judgement in the Common Pleas was affirmed. Hill. 7 Jac. in B. R. Proctor and Johnſons Caſe. Bolſtr. 1 Part, 3.

23. A Leaſe was made by Sir Richard Waynman unto one Trupenny, in this manner; Habendum for 40 years, if Trupenny, his wife, or any children of his ſo long ſhould live. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the laſt [or] did disjoyn all, the copulative there diſjoyned by the Disjunctive ſubſequent, Paſch. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Baldwine and Cox Caſe, See Godbolt, Trupenny's Caſe.

More Joynt-Tenants.

Where one may prejudice his Company, where not.

1. TWo Executors of a Term, and one granted all that to him appertained; It was the Opinion of the Court, That the whole ſhould paſs, becauſe one Executor had an entire authority; but it was contrary holden of Joynt-Tenants. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 23. See Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 184.

2. Note, It is put for a Rule, That every act done by one Joynt Tenant for the benefit of him and his Companion is good; but one Joynt-Tenant cannot prejudice the other in any matter of Inheritance or Free-hold; but as to the profits of the Free-hold, one may prejudice the other, becauſe there is privity and truſt betwixt Joynt-Tenants, and it was a folly in him to joyn in Eſtate with him who would break the Truſt. Cook, 2 Part, in Tooker's Caſe.

3. If there be Lord and two Joynt-Tenants by certain services, and the Seignory is granted over, and one Joynt-Tenant attorneth, it is as good as if both had attorned, because the Seignory is entire: But if the Reversion of two Tenants for life, or the Rent or Seignory of two Joynt-Tenants be granted by Fine, there, in a Quid Juris clamat, Quem reddium reddit, or Per quæ Servitia, the one shall not be suffered to attorn without his companion. 1. Because the Plaintiff ought to have attornment in such manner as he demanded it. 2. If one attorne only, he may prejudice his companion, as if he will not claim to be unpunished for Waste, or a Condition to have Fee; for upon a general Attornment in a Court of Record, the Lesse shall lose all advantages which are not claimed of Record: But in case of a Grant by Deed, no such prejudice can happen; and therefore in such case, the Attornment of the one shall binde the other, because it cannot prejudice his Companion. Cook, 2 Part, 67. in Tooker's Case.

4. In personal Actions one Joynt-Tenant may release the whole, but not where the personalty is mixed with the realty; and therefore in a Writ of Ward brought for the Body, and two Joynt-Tenants, the Release of the one shall not prejudice the other, but shall give the whole Wardship to his Companion: But in an Action of Waste brought by Joynt-Tenants, there the Intent of the one, shall bar the other, because the personalty and the damages is the principal. 9 H. 7. 15. per Curiam.

5. The three daughters and heirs of the Lord Latimer; and their Husbands brought a Quare Impedit against Hall and others; the Defendants pleaded a Release of one of the Husbands of one of the daughters, pendant the Writ; upon which the Plaintiffs did Demur. It was adjudged in that Case, That the Writ should abate, but as to that Husband and Wife only, and not as to the rest: And there in that case it was layed as a Rule, That in all cases, as of a thing entire, and in the realty, as Presentation to a Church, Wardship of the body, &c. the Release of the one shall enure to the benefit of the other; Then it was moved, that the Count was insufficient, because the Plaintiffs in their Counts, entitle themselves that the Lord Latimer was seized in Fee of the Advouson, and granted the next Avoydance to J. S. and afterwards the Church became void, and that J. S. presented, and to convey the descent to them, without alledging any presentment in the Lord Latimer, or in any other but in the Grantee of the next Avoydance: But the Court Resolved, That that was a sufficient Title, because he did it in the Right and Title of the Grantor, and therefore shall serve for him to make a Title in a Quare Impedit. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C. B. The Countess of Northumberland's Case. 97.

6. In a Replevin against B. one attorn'd, and the other made Consuans as Bayliffes to the first, for an Amercement for the breaking of a By Law in a Leet, and judgement was given against them, costs and damages, and they all six brought a Writ of Error; the Defendant in the Writ of Error pleaded the Release of one of them in Bar. It was Resolved, That because the Law did compel the Defendants to joyn in the Writ of Error, not to reap any benefit thereby, but to discharge themselves of a charge imposed upon them, that the Release of the one should not bar the others, Cook 6 Part, 25. Ruddock's Case.

7. A. and B. two Joynt-Tenants for life, the Reversion over in Fee; Judgement is given against A, in debt, and afterwards he Releaseth to his companion before Execution. It was Resolved in this Case, 1. That although that B. to whom the Release was made, as betwixt them, is in by the Lesse, and not by A; yet as to him who hath the Judgment on the Action of Debt, he by his own wrong shall not defeat him of his Execution; But if A. had dyed before Execution, the survivor should hold the Lands discharged. 2. It was Resolved, That when the Release is made to B. and he dyeth, and he in the Reversion enters, and is in of his ancient estate, yet as to him who hath the Judgment, the Estate of A. hath continuance during his life; and if Husband and Wife seized of a rent or Common in Fee, doth Release to the Tenant, the Rent is extinct, yet having regard to the Wife, it hath continuance, for that she shall be endowed of it. Cook, 6 Part, 78. The Lord Abergavenny's Case.

8. Two Joynt-Tenants of a Term, the one grants to J. S. that if he pay him 10 l. before Mich. that then he shall have his Term; the Grantor dyes before Mich. J. S. payes the money to his Executor, yet he shall not have the Term, but the same shall go to the Survivor, because it was but in the nature of a Communication; but if he had made a Lease for years to begin at Michaelmas, the same had bound the Survivor: See Plo. Com. 263. in Hales Case. Cook, 1 Part, Institutes, 184. acc.

9. If two Joynt-Tenants be, and the one is indebted to the King, and dyeth, the other shall hold the Land discharged against the King; But if the Husband and Wife purchase a Term jointly for 60 years, and the Husband being indebted to the King dyeth, now this Term shall be subject to the Kings debt, because the husband might have disposed of the whole Term. Plow. Com. 321. Fitz Nat. Br. 149.

10. If there be two Joynt-Tenants, one cannot Enfeoffe his Companion; but if there be two Joynt-Tenants, one of them may Release unto the other; Tenants in Common may Enfeoffe one another, but but Co-partners may both Releaſe and Enfeoff one another, 10 E. 4. 3.

11. A Leaſe was made to A. and B. his Wife, and C. their eldeſt Son, for their lives, and the Survivor of them; B. dyed, and A. Leaſed his part to C. and D. his younger ſon, for 8 years immediately after the death of A. if C. ſhould ſo long live, with divers remainders over depending upon the life of C: A. dyed, C. ſurvived him. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Leaſe remains in force for the life of C. becauſe that every one had an Intereſt for the life of the other; and therefore if one Joynt-Tenant for life, makes a Leaſe for years in poſſeſſion, and dyes, the Leaſe continues. Trin. 37 Eliz. in B. R. Hobbia and Charts Caſe. Popham 96. 2.

12. If Husband and Wife, and a third perſon, had purchaſed Lands to them and their heirs, and the Husband before the Statute of 32 H. 8. had alienes the whole Land unto a ſtranger in Fee, and dyed; in this Caſe the Wife, and the other Joynt-Tenant were Joynt-Tenants of the Right, but by ſeveral manners, viz. the Wife had right of action, and the other Joynt-Tenant right of Entry: For at the Common Law, the alienation of the Husband was a diſcontinuance to the Wife of the one moyty, and a Diſſeiſin to the other Joynt-Tenant of the other moyty; and yet theſe rights differing, might ſtand well in Joyncure; for they are Joynt-Tenants of the Right, becauſe they may joyn in a Writ of Right, Cook, 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 188.

13. A Writ of Right of Advowſon was brought againſt A. B. and others, upon a Verdict by the Grand Aſſize; It was ſhewed, That the Tenants were Copercenters, and that one of the Tenants was dead after the Darrein continuance, which was pleaded in abatement of the Writ; the Kings Attorney traverſeth, that they were Percenors; upon which it was demurred. It was the Opinion of the Court, were it admitted that they were not Copercenors, but Joynt-Tenants, yet the death of the one ſhould abate the Writ, being in a Real Action; and it is not like an Aſſize of Novel Diſſeiſin, Mordancestor, where the death of one of the Tenants ſhall not abate the Writ as long as there is a Tenant living. Hill. 15 Car. in B. R. The King and Sir John Drydons Caſe.

14. A. and B. Joynt-Tenants for years: B. ſuffers C. to occupy his moyty with him, A. brings a Writ of Partition, but B. and C. ſuppoſing that B. had granted a moyty of his part to C; C. ſhewed that he was but Tenant at Will to B. and thereupon the Writ was abated, and Reſolved, that A. might have a new Writ of Partition againſt B. by Joyners accompts, Hill. 6 Jac. in B. R. Beedle and Clark's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 218, 219.

15. A. and B. Joynt-Tenants of a Leaſe made by J. S. A. doth Aſſent, and Covenant, and Agree, that B. ſhall occupy all the Land, and ſowe it with his own Corn: After the Land is ſowed, B. dyeth, A. the ſurvivor grants the Corn to J. S. It was agreed, That if there be two Joynt-Tenants, and one grants to the other that he may ſow the Land, yet may the other occupy with him, for thoſe words do not transfer any ſole Intereſt; but if he ſaith, that he ſhall occupy all the Land, and ſhall ſow it ſolely, that doth exclude him for having any Intereſt with him. Paſch. 35 Eliz. in B. R. James and Portmans Caſe. Owen, 102.

16. Debt upon an Obligation; the Condition was, That whereas J. S. was Leſſee for years of ſuch Lands, that if the ſaid J. S. upon the Feaſt day of S Mark, 12 Jac. upon requeſt of the Leſſor, his Heirs, or Aſſigns, ſhould deliver the poſſeſſion of the ſaid Farm to the Leſſor, his Heirs, or Aſſigns, to have and enjoy the ſame after ſuch Requeſt, that then &c. And the Caſe was, That J. S. being in poſſeſſion, and the Plaintiffe the Leſſee ſeized in Fee of the Reverſion, the Plaintiff the Leſſor by Deed Indented and Enrolled, Bargained and Sold to C. and D. the Reverſion; Habendum, to them and their Heirs; and afterwards, the next day after the Feaſt of S Mich. the Bargainees did requeſt the ſaid J. S. to deliver the poſſeſſion to them; and it was found, That one of the Bargainees did alone come to the Capital Meſſuage, without any notice before given of his coming, and there as Aſſignee of the Plaintiffe, did require the ſaid J. S. to deliver the poſſeſſion according to the effect of the Condition. The Queſtion was, If this Requeſt was a legal Requeſt of the delivery of the Poſſeſſion or not. It was Reſolved that it was, being made by one of the Joynt Bargainers Aſſignes, and that notice in this caſe was not material; and if it was, the Defendant ought to have pleaded, That he had not notice of the Aſſignement, or Bargain and Sale. And it was ſaid in this Caſe, That every Act done by a Joynt-Tenant for the benefit of him and his Companion, ſhall binde; and if there be two Joynt-Tenants in Fee, and one ſeized in the right of his Wife, of Land to which the Wife hath Title of Dower, the one Joynt-Tenant, or the Huſband, may aſſigne the Dower; becauſe when the Husband, or one Joynt Tenant doth any thing out of Court that they are tyed to do, it ſhall be intended to be the act of the one and the other. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 15 Jac. in B. R. Hogen and Paynes Caſe. Owen, 129, 130.

17. A man ſeized of Lands in Fee, by Will deviſed all his Lands to C. his Wife, for life; and after her deceaſe, to his three daughters, A. B. and C. and to the heirs males of their bodies lawfully begotten; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the heirs females of their ſeveral bodies; Provided, That if any of their Children, or any of their Heirs of their ſeveral bodies iſſuing, ſhall at any time alien, ſell or diſcontinue any of the ſaid Lands to them given, whereby the ſame may not continue as the ſame is appointed by his Will; the perſons ſo offending for ſo much of the premiſes as they ſhould offend in, from thenceforth to be excluded, and dyed. The Wife dyed, A. and C. dyed; Whether D. ſhould have all as ſurvivor during her life, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved by the two Lord Chief Juſtices, and Chief Baron in the Court of Wards, That the ſaid Daughters were Joynt-Tenants for life, and that the ſurvivor ſhould have the whole during her life, and that touching the Inheritance, they were ſeveral Tenants in tail. Trin. 9 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Fletchers Caſe, Lea 47.

Iſſues joyned.

Iſſues joyned in ſeverall Actions: Where, what, and where they ſhall be good; when, and where not: and when the party ought to take a Traverſe to the Declaration, Replication, Conveyance, or other matter: and what traverſe ſhall be good; What not: and where the Evidence doth maintain the Iſſue; where not.

1. IN an Action of Debt brought upon the Statute of Purveyors, becauſe he had cut down certain Trees contrary to the Statute of 5 Eliz. The Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty. It was holden by the Court, to be no good Iſſue; but the Court commanded the party to plead, Nil debet. Trin. 28 Eliz. Goldesbr. 39.

2. Debt upon the Statute of Uſury; The Writ was, ad reſpondendum tam Domino Regi as to the party, quod reddat tam Domino Regi quam to the party 98 l. quas præfat. Domino Regi quam to the party detinet ratione cujuſdam attempt. contra formam Statuti. And Declared of the loan of 95 l. for a Moneth, for 20 Marks Intereſt and Uſury to be paid at the end of the Moneth; and declared That the Defendant habuit et recepit the ſaid Uſury, ultra ſortem, contra formam Statuti. The Defendant pleaded Non habuit, nec recepit pro accommodatione dict. ſum 95 l. ſcil. the ſaid 20 Marks ultra prædict. 95 l. contra formam Statuti. Iſſue being joyned, upon that it was found for the Plaintiff. It was ſaid in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Plea made a Jeofail, becauſe the Statute doth not ſpeak of any receipt of Uſury, but forbids the loan for Uſury. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiff ſhould recover, although the Statute of Jeofailes was not made: And it was holden, That when the Defendant traverſeth the ſurpluſage, ſcil. the Receipt of the Intereſt, ſcil. the 20 Marks, ultra, &c. that that was a Negative pregnans; and implyed, That the money was delivered for Uſury. Mich. 1 Ma. Dyer, 95. Wiltons Caſe.

3. A. was ſued by ſubpœna out of the Common Pleas, by Bill upon an Information of Uſury, contra formam Statuti; The Defendant by his Attorney pleaded Not Guilty. It being found againſt him, It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the proceſs was no lawfull proceſs, and that the Plea of Not Guilty in this Action, was not an apt Iſſue; and alſo it is not expreſſed againſt what Statute, but generally contra formam Statuti. But all the Exceptions were diſallowed by the Court: And at laſt per ſtatutum de Jeofails, which ſpeaks of miſ-continuance of proceſs, Judgment was given againſt the Defendant. Hill. 18 El. Dyer, 346, 347.

4. In Treſpaſs upon the Statute of 5 R. 2. for entry into three Acres of Lands ubi ingreſſus non datur per legem. The Defendant as to two Acres, conveyed to himſelf a title by a guift in tail, and gave colour, and for the third Acre, he entituled himſelf by an Allotment upon a Partition; the Plaintiff intituled himſelf, and traverſed the gift in tail, and alſo traverſed the Allotment upon the Partition for the three Acres, upon which they were at Iſſue. And it was found by Verdict given in open Court for one of the two Acres, for the Defendant, ſcil. the gift in tail. And for the other, It was found for the Plaintiff, ſcil. Nt dona poſſe; and for the three Acres, ſcil. upon the allotment, they were not agreed; wherefore, by leave of the Court, they went from the Bar to enquire of the allotment; and afterwards they returned and gainſaid their Verdict given in open Court for the Defendant, and found for the Plaintiff, as alſo for the ſecond Acre, and aſſeſſed damages accordingly; and this latter Verdict for the allotment only, they affirmed in open Court the next morning, without ſpeaking any thing of their alteration. Notwithſtanding, upon great deliberation had thereof by the Court, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 204.

5. In a Writ of Ward of the Land, and of the Heir of R. C. the Defendant pleaded, That R. C. levyed a Fine to the Defendant cum ceo, &c. who rendred the Land to him in tail, ſaving the Reverſion to the Defendant, and ſo R. C. the Donee hold of him: To which the Plaintiff replyed, That the Defendant releaſed to R. C. all his right, and ſo R. C. became his Tenant; to which the Defendant by way of Rejoynder ſaid, That he did not Releaſe, upon which they were at Iſſue. It was holden no good Iſſue, for which he ſaid he did not Releaſe, but continued his Eſtate at all times in tail by force of the Fine, and thereupon Iſſue was taken: Upon which it was inferred, That forasmuch as the Writ of Ward was brought, aſwell for the Land, as for the Heir, that the Replication ſhall not be good, if not that the Lord have the Wardſhip of the Land in the ſame Caſe, 38 E. 37. Note, the reaſon of that book is, becauſe it appeareth by the joyning of the Iſſue. It was pretended, That by the Releaſe, the eſtate tail was extinct; for the Iſſue is, Whether he continued his Eſtate tail by force of the Fine, and that without doubt he did, although the Releaſe was made. Cook 2. Part, 92. in Bingham's Caſe.

6. In a Replevin, the Defendant avowed for Rent, For that E. E. was ſeiſed in Fee, and took to Husband T. P. and had Iſſue by him J. P. and dyed: and T. P. being Tenant by the Curteſy, the Reverſion to J. P. J. P. granted a Rent-charge to the Defendant for life, and ſhewed the death of the Tenant by the Curteſy, and ſo avowed. The Plaintiff ſaid, That E. E. was ſeiſed in tail, and ſo conveyed it to J. P. in tail, and that J. granted the Rent, and dyed, and that the Land diſcended to the Defendants Wife as Heir in tail, abſque hoc, that E. E. was ſeiſed in Fee; upon which, Iſſue being joyned, it was found for the Defendant. In ſtay of Judgment it was ſaid, That this Iſſue was not well joyned; For the ſeiſin in Fee of the Grantor ought to be traverſed, and not of any Anceſtor paramount. But it was holden by the Juſtices, in regard the ſeiſin in Fee is ſpecially alledged in E. E. and the continuance of the Reverſion in T. P. therefore the ſeiſin alledged in her might be well traverſed; and if it be not an apt Iſſue, it is helped by the Statute of 32 H. 8. For it is an Iſſue, although it be not an apt Iſſue. Mich. 2 Jac. in B. R. Piggot and Piggots Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 44.

7. In Debt upon an Obligation, the Defendant pleaded payment of 50 l. 14 Junii, 11 Jac. according to the Condition of the Bond; the Plaintiff ſaid Quod non ſolvit the ſaid 50 l. the ſaid 14 day of Auguſt, Anno ſupradict. quas ei ad eundum diem ſolvere debuiſſet. And Iſſue being joyned in this manner, the Verdict found Quod non ſolvit predict. 14. Junii prout Defendens allegavit. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, and Error brought and aſſigned, that there was not any Iſſue here joyned, for the Defendant pleading payment at one day, and the Plaintiff replying to another day, and concluding, et hoc petit quod inquiratur, &c. it is not to that which the Plaintiff concludes, and ſo there is not a Negative and an affirmative; and of that Opinion was Haughton, one of the Juſtices; but the Court held the Iſſue joyned well enough, and that the word (Auguſt) was ſuperfluous and void, and that predict. 14 die, without more, had bin ſufficient. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Sir Nicholas Hill and Bonython's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 549, 550.

8. In Debt, the Defendant pleaded, Plenè adminiſtravit: The Plaintiff ſaid, That at another time he brought an Action of Debt againſt the now Defendant; whereupon ſhe was Outlawed upon the mean proceſs, and ſhe brought Error, and reverſed the Outlawry. Whereupon he preſently brought his Action, and that at the time of the firſt Writ brought, ſhe had Aſſets, Et hoc petit quod inquiratur per Patriam et Diſcendens ſimiliter. And hereupon a Verdict was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment: And Error brought and inſiſted upon, That here is not any Iſſue at all joyned, and therefore not helped by the Statute of Jeofails; for here is a matter affirmed by the Plaintiff, which ought to be anſwered unto by the Defendant by confeſſion or denyal, but here the Plaintiff doth not expect the Defendants anſwer, but concludes his Plea with Hoc petit, &c. whereas he ought to have averred his Plea, and the Defendant then have anſwered; ſo as here is a Tryal without any Iſſue, which is not good: And of that Opinion was the whole Court, and the Judgment reverſed. Trin. 18 Jac. in B. R. Aldrich and Wallhall's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 597, 580.

9. Debt brought in Hilary Term 22 Jac. upon an Obligation dated 20 Maii, 20 Regis nunc; the Defendant imparled: And in Eaſter Term 1 Car. the Declaration and Plea of the Defendant was entred, and he declared thereon, upon an Obligation 20 Maii, 27 Regis nunc. Afterwards by order, it was amended, and made Regis Jacobi: and the Defendant pleaded thereunto a Judgment upon another Bond of 500 l. dated 5 Regis nunc. (which was miſtaken, for it ought to have bin Regis Jacobi) and that he had not any thing in his hands, but only to ſatisfy that Judgment. The Plaintiff joyns Iſſue, that the Recovery was by fraud and Covin, and found for the Plaintiff. In Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, That this Plea was repugnant and impoſſible, That a Recovery ſhould be Anno quinto Regis nunc. But the Court was of Opinion, That forasmuch as there was a default in the Defendants Plea, though the Plaintiff had joyned Iſſue thereupon, and the Defendant hath not confeſſed Aſſets in his hands, but only for that Judgment; yet the Plaintiff having a good Declaration, ſhould have Judgment, and Judgment was for the Plaintiff accordingly. 10. In a Scire facias upon a Recognizance againſt J. H. and others his Sureties for the good behaviour; For that the ſaid J. H. with other perſons riotouſly at 11 at night illicitè, entred into a Cloſe of one J. D. called L. and cut up a Quick-ſet hedg in the ſaid Cloſe. The Defendant pleaded to all the Offences, but the entring of the ſaid Cloſe, and cutting down of the Quick-ſet hedg, Not Guilty, and juſtified, for that the ſaid Cloſe is, and was a High way leading from S. in the ſaid County over the Cloſe to N. and becauſe the ſaid Way was ſtopped up with the Quick-ſet hedg, he cut it up, to uſe the ſaid Way. The Plaintiff replyed, That the ſaid J. H. de injuria ſua propria et ex malitia ſua precogitata, with others cut down the ſaid Quick-ſet hedg prout is alledged, upon which Iſſue was joyned, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That there was not any Iſſue joyned. For de injuria ſua propria where one juſtifies for a Way, or ſuch particular cauſe, is no Iſſue, but he ought to traverſe the Preſcription; and alſo he ought to ſay abſque tali cauſa; and of that Opinion was the whole Court. It was Objected, That there was an Iſſue of Not Guilty, which is for the riotous entry, and riotous aſſembly, which is a breach of the good behaviour. But the Court held, That that tryal of the Iſſue of Not Guilty, is but matter of form, and the ſubſtance is upon the ſpecial matter found. It was adjudged for the Defendant, and that he ſhould be diſcharged. Mich. 18 Jac. in B. R. The King and Hoppers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 599.

11. Treſpaſs wherefore he broke his Cloſe; The Defendant Juſtifies for a Way, the Plaintiff replyed, That he did the Treſpaſs of his own wrong without any cauſe alledged, and ſo an Iſſue joyned, and after a Verdict. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Iſſue was not well joyned, and prayed a new Tryal, becauſe the Iſſue ought to be ſpecial; but the Exception was diſallowed, and the Opinion of the whole Court was, That it was helped by the Statute of Jeofails. Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Swoff and Solley's Caſe. Brown. 1, Part, 200.

12. Treſpaſs Wherefore with force and Arms he took the goods and Chattells of the Defendant and Impounded them, the Defendant pleaded, the common bar, and the Plaintiff aſſigned a place; and at Iſſue upon that. After Verdict, it was moved, That there was no Iſſue joyned, becauſe the Lands are not in Queſtion, and ſo no Aſſignment neceſſary: Notwithſtanding Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, becauſe it was holpen by the Statute of Jeofailes. Hill. 6 Jac. in B. R. Plaint and Thorley's Caſe. Brown. 1. Part, 200. And ſo it was ſaid, It was adjudged. Trin. 4 Jac. in C. B. Rot. 1131.

13. In Debt upon an Obligation, with a Condition to pay ſuch a ſum of money at ſuch a Feaſt next after the day of the date of the Obligation; and the day of the date of the Obligation was omitted in the Record of the Niſi Prius, ſo as it doth not appear which ſhall be the Feaſt at which the money ought to be paid after the date. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That that was no perfect Iſſue, and for that, the Juſtices of Niſi Prius have no power to proceed upon it, for that it ſhall not be amended. Hill. 8 Jac. in C. B. Brown. 2. Part, 47.

14. Debt upon an Obligation of 40 l. for the payment of 20 l. The Defendant pleaded, That he had payed the 20 l. according to the Condition upon which they are at Iſſue: And at the Niſi Prius, the Defendant gave Evidence, That he paid the money to the Plaintiff before the day, and that the Plaintiff had accepted of it. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the payment before the day, was a ſufficient diſcharge of the Bond, but becauſe the Defendant had not pleaded the ſame ſpecially, the Opinion of the Court was, The Jury muſt find for the Plaintiff. Mich. 24 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt. 10.

15. Debt upon an Obligation, the Condition was, That whereas the Plaintiff was in poſſeſſion of ſuch Lands, If J. S. nor J. D. nor J. G. did diſturb him by any indirect means, but by due courſe of Law, that then, &c. The Defendant pleaded, quod nec J. S. nec J. D. nec J. G. did diſturb him by any indirect means, but by due courſe of Law. Exception was taken to it, That he hath pleaded neque ſuch, nor ſuch, nor ſuch, had diſturbed him by any indirect means, but only by due courſe of Law; and that cannot be tryed, neither by Jury, nor by the Judges: Not by the Jury, becauſe it is not to be put to them, Whether they had diſturbed him by indirect means, or by the due courſe of Law, for they ſhall not take upon them the conſtruction, What is an indirect means, or by due courſe of Law, for it appertaineth to the Judges to adjudg that; Not by the Judges, becauſe he hath not put it in certain, that it was a due courſe of Law by which he diſturbed him; And of that Opinion was the whole Court, and the Exception allowed. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Deighton and Clarks Caſe. Godbolt. 62.

16. In an Action upon the Caſe, for that the Defendant ſaid, That the Plaintiff is a perjured Knave, and that he would prove, that the Plaintiff ſcil. the ſaid T. B. had forſworn himſelf in the Exchequer: The Plaintiff layed it, and ſuppoſed in his Declaration, the words to be ſpoken in London. The Defendant pleaded in bar of the Action, That the ſaid T. B. being one of the Collectors of the Subſidies before the ſpeaking of the ſaid words, Mich. 27 Eliz. did exhibite a Bill againſt the Defendant, containing, That the Defendant being aſſeſſed in 10 l. goods, the Plaintiff came to him, and demanded 16 s. 8 d. which he did refuſe to pay, and that demand and refuſal was ſuppoſed to be in London, in ſuch a Pariſh, Et pro verificatione præmiſſorum uſitanc et ibidem Sacrament. Corporale per Barones præfat. T. B. præſtitit. The ſaid T. B. ſwore the ſaid Bill in ſubſtance was true, ubi revera, the ſaid Defendant did not refuſe per quod, the ſaid Defendant poſtea, viz. prædict. tempore quo dixit de eadem T. B. prædict. verba prout ei bene licuit. The Plaintiff replyed, That he ſpake the words de injuria ſua propria abſque tali cauſa per priſat. the Defendant ſuperius allegat. Upon which Iſſue is joyned, and a Venire facies was awarded to the Sheriff of London, and it was found for the Plaintiff, and damages 400 l. In Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, and ſo afterwards Reſolved, That here was no good tryal, nor no good iſſue joyned, for the Iſſue doth conſiſt upon two points tryable in ſeveral Counties, viz. the Oath which was in the Exchequer, and that ought to have bin tryed in Middleſex, and ſecondly, the matter which he affirmed by his Oath, viz. the demand and refuſal to pay the Subſidy, and that was alledged to be in London, and there to be tryed: and the Iſſue de injuria ſua propria, &c. goeth to both, and the ubi revera will not amend the Caſe, and both are material. But the Court was of Opinion, That if this Iſſue could have bin tryed by any one of the Counties, it had bin moſt properly and naturally to be tryed where the Oath was, and that was in Middleſex. It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, and Judgment ſtayed: And the Court was of Opinion, That this was not helped by any of the Statutes of Jeofailes. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Box and Mounſlows Caſe. Godbolt. 107, 108.

17. A man in conſideration of Marriage, doth aſſume and promiſe to do three ſeveral things: For non performance of one of them, the party to whom the promiſe is made, brings an Action upon the Caſe, and to enable him to the Action, ſayes, That the Defendant in conſideration of Marriage, did promiſe him to perform the ſaid thing for which the Action is brought, without ſpeaking of the other two things. The Defendant pleads in bar Non Aſſumpſit modo et forma! It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a good Iſſue. For the Contract being entire, if it be not a good Plea, the Defendant might be charged for the ſeveral things, which cannot be, being one contract by word. But it is otherwiſe of ſeveral contracts in Writing. Mich. 5 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt. 254.

18. In Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, Whereas he ſold to the Defendant certain Cloaths for 170 l. one moyety to be paid at the end of 14 dayes, the other moyety at the end of three Moneths. The Defendant in conſideration the Plaintiff would accept of his Bill for 137 l. to be paid the firſt day of December following, promiſed to pay the 137 l. and alledgeth, that he accepted his Bill, and that he had not paid the 137 l. nor the 48 l. reſidue of the ſaid moyety, contrary to his promiſe. The Defendant pleaded Non Aſſumpſit, and found againſt him, and damages entire, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber: It was alledged, That this Iſſue Non Aſſumpſit generally, is not good, for here being ſeveral promiſes, he ought to have traverſed them ſeverally. But all the Juſtices held, That Non Aſſumpſit generally, extended to all the ſeveral promiſes, and the Judgment was affirmed, Mich. 17 Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber, Heath and Danatley's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 544. Note, in that Caſe, it was ſaid by Tanfeild Chief Baron, That upon an Information in the Kings Bench, where ſeveral Contracts upon Uſury being alledged, Iſſue was joyned, Whether it were corrupte agreatum modo et forma prout. And it was Reſolved by all the Juſtices of England, to be an ill Iſſue, for he ought to have traverſed the agreements, becauſe they were ſeveral. Paramore and Robinſons Caſe, in B. R.

19. Debt brought upon the Statute of 2 E. 6. for not ſetting forth of Tythes; The Defendant pleaded Nihil debet, and adjudged a good Iſſue. Mich. 15 Jac. in C. B. Bawtry and Iſteds Caſe. Hob. 218.

20. In a Replevin, the Defendant avows for Damage-feaſant; The Plaintiff in Bar ſayes, That A. was ſeiſed of a houſe and Land whereunto he had Common, and demiſed the ſame to him, to him 30. Martii 11 Jac. to hold from the Feaſt of St. Mich. for a year: the Avowant traverſeth the Leaſe modo et forma: whereupon Iſſue was taken, the Jury, That the ſaid A. made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff 25 Martii, for one year. In this Caſe, although this be not the ſame Leaſe that the Plaintiff pleaded, nor was to take his limitation, but from the day excluded: Yet the Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff; For the ſubſtance of the Iſſue is, Whether the Plaintiff have ſuch a Leaſe or no from A. as by force thereof he might Common at that time, which appeared for him in this Caſe; and the modo et forma in the reſt, is not material; Yet it muſt not depart altogether from the form of this Iſſue; for if it had bin found, That he had right of Common by a Leaſe from another, or as an Owner, it would not have ſerved his turn, for that had bin clear out of the Iſſue, both in matter and form. Tr. 12 Jac. in C. B. Pope and Skinners Caſe. Hob. 72. 73.

21. In Treſpaſs, the Defendant pleaded, That J. H. was ſeiſed in Fee, and granted a Rent of 4 l. to J. D. with clauſe of diſtreſs, and conveyes the Rent to the Defendant, for which he diſtreyned; the Plaintiff replyed, That before the Grant, W. H. was ſeiſed, and had Iſſue J. H. the elder, and J. H. the younger, and that he deviſed his Lands to his ſaid two Sons in tail, and dyed, and J. the eldeſt dyed without Iſſue, and J. the younger had Iſſue A. and dyed, and that A. gave leave to the Plaintiff to put in his Horſe, abſque hoc quod prædict. J. H. Pater fuit ſeiſitus in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo prout. Upon which Iſſue was joyned, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That there was no Iſſue, for it was not pleaded, That J. H. Pater was ſeiſed in Fee as the traverſe was: But notwithſtanding, Judgment was given for the Plaintiffs for although Pater be added, yet prædict. J. H. prout the Defendant had alledged, binds it to that perſon that the Defendant had pleaded, and that Pater is but John, and cannot do hurt, eſpecially ſince it may ſtand true that he was Pater. Trin. 14 Jac. in C. B. Blackford and Atkins Caſe. Hob. 217.

22. Action upon the Caſe, for that the Defendant did cauſe the Plaintiff to be Arreſted for the felonious ſtealing of five Heifers, and cauſed him to be brought before J. S. Juſtice of the Peace, and at the Seſſion at the Guild-Hall in London, cauſed him to be endicted maliciouſly and falſly for the Felony of ſtealing the ſaid five Heifers, and cauſed him to be detreyned in Priſon, til at the Goal delivery 13 Jac. he was legally acquitted: The Defendant ſaid, That 18. Nov. 13 Jac. he was poſſeſſed of the Heifers, and certain Malefactors ſtole them from him at B. in the County of D. and 22. Nov. 13 Jac. the Defendant purſued them to London, and found them in the poſſeſſion of the Plaintiff, and required him to ſhew them unto him; and becauſe the Plaintiff denyed and refuſed to let him ſee them, and gave uncertain anſwers, and the Defendant did ſuſpect he had committed the Felony, to have examination of the premiſes, he did procure a Warrant from the ſaid J. S. Juſtice of Peace: whereupon he was brought before him, and examin'd; and becauſe the ſaid J. S. did ſuſpect him, he bound him in a Recognizance to appear at the next Goal delivery, and bound the Defendant in a Recognizance to proſecute: Whereupon he did exhibite his Bill, and gave in Evidence, That the Cattel were ſtolen from him, and gave in Evidence ut ſupra. The Plaintiff replyed, That T. B. was poſſeſſed of the ſaid five Heifers at C. in the County of Middleſex, and did ſell them to the Plaintiff, being a Butcher, in open Market, and he paid Toll and he drave them home to his houſe, and killed four of them; and then 22. Nov. the Defendant came to his houſe to ſearch for the ſaid Cattel, and he did ſhew to him the Steer that was then living; and the Defendant had ſufficient notice that the Plaintiff had bought them in open Market: and that although the Defendant did know that the Plaintiff had bought them, yet out of Malice and againſt his knowledg, he did charge the Plaintiff with the Felony, abſque hoc, that the Plaintiff did refuſe to permit the Defendant habere viſum of the ſaid five Heifers, or to ſhew how he came by them. The Defendant demurred, and ſhewed, That the matter of inducement to the Traverſe, was inſufficient, and not traverſable. This Caſe being oftentimes argued; It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That Judgment was to be given againſt the Plaintiff, becauſe that all that was done after J. S. his Warrant, was illegal. But they agreed, That the Plaintiff might have had an Action for the charging of Felony; and all that was done before the ſaid Warrant, Houghton Juſtice only diſagreed, for he conceived Judgment ſhould have bin given for the Plaintiff, for that the Plea of the Defendant was no juſtification for what was done before the Warrant. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Weal and Wells Caſe. Bridgman 60, 61, 62, 63.

23. Error to reverſe a Judgment given for three: The Error aſſigned was, That one of them was dead tempore Judicii redditi: The other anſwers, That he was in full life tempore Judicii, ſcil. at ſuch a day, ſcil. 18. Auguſti. The whole Court was clear of Opinion, That the ſcilicet was idle, and the other Iſſue good, that he was of full life; the ſole and material Iſſue here being the time of the Judgment: And the Court ſaid, There is no book wherein mention is made of ſuch an Iſſue joyned upon a ſcilicet, and ſo by the Rule of the Court, the ſcilicet was void, and the other Iſſue to ſtand good, whether the party was living at the time of the Judgment given, or not. Trin. 10 Jac. in B. R. Barkerville and Henſkam Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 26, 27.

24. In an Action upon Aſſumpſit. the Caſe was; the Father in Conſideration that his ſon the Plaintiff would pay ſuch a ſum for him, did promiſe, that he would ſuffer his Land to deſcend upon him. And the Plaintiff ſet forth in his Declaration, That the money was paid by him in ſatisfaction and diſcharge of the debt; and for breach, he ſet forth, That he did not ſuffer his Land to deſcend upon him. It was demurred upon, That this was no good Iſſue. But the Court Reſolved, That this was a good Iſſue, and ſaid, The difference will be, where the Caſe ariſing upon the Aſſumpſit, is in the Affirmative, and where in the Negative: where it is in the Affirmative, it ought to be averred in facto, that the Land did deſcend: but otherwiſe wiſe it will be, where it is in the Negative; for there it is good and ſufficient to ſay, Quod non permiſit; that he did not ſuffer the Land to diſcend: Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Hill. 9 Jac. in B. R. Gray and Gray's Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 18.

25. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas he and one A. were joyntly and ſeverally bound to a ſtranger for the debt of the ſaid A: which A. dyed, and the Defendant married his wife, and ſo the goods of A. came to his hands; yet the Plaintiff 1. Maii, after which was the day of payment of the money, paid 25 l. for avoiding of the forfeiture; and that the Defendant as well in conſideration of the premiſſes, as that he peaceably enjoy the goods, promiſed to pay the ſaid ſum cum inde requiſitus fuerit: The Jury upon Iſſue joyned, found the payment of the ſaid ſum, and all the ſpecial matter. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That although the Jury have found ſufficient cauſe of Action, yet if the Declaration be not according, the Plaintiff ſhall not have Judgment: and here the Plaintiff hath declared upon two Conſiderations, and the Jury hath found but one; ſcil. if he peaceably enjoy the goods of the Teſtator: and alſo the Plaintiff declared of a ſimple promiſe, and the Jury have found a Conditional promiſe, ſi gaudere poteſt, &c. and ſo the promiſe ſet forth in the Declaration, is not found in the Verdict. The Juſtices were of Opinion, That the firſt Conſideration was good, and then the promiſe is good. But the ſecond Conſideration is void; ſcil. That the Defendant ſhall enjoy the Teſtator's goods: and therefore the Court was clear of Opinion, That the promiſe found by the Jury, was not the promiſe alledged in the Declaration, and ſo the Iſſue was not found for the Plaintiff. Wherefore the Judgment was ſtayed. Hill. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Muſted and Hoppers Caſe. Leon. 173.

26. In Treſpaſſe of Aſſault and Battery againſt P. and S; the Defendants ſaid, That they were Leſſees of certain Lands of the Plaintiff; and that the Plaintiff came and took away certain Poſts which were upon the Lands, and they joyntly took them from him: S. pleaded, That he found the Plaintiff and P. contending for the ſaid Poſts, and he to part them moliter, put his hands upon the Plaintiff, which is the ſame, &c. The Plaintiff Replyed, de injuria ſua propria abſq; tali cauſa pro ipſis P. et S. allegat. Upon which, Iſſue was joyned; which was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That here was not any Iſſue; for the Plaintiff ought to plead ſeverally to both Pleas; for here are ſeverall cauſes of juſtification, and that abſq; tali cauſa, doth not anſwer to both. The Court was of Opinion, That both Pleas depend upon one matter, but are ſeveral cauſes; for two juſtifie by reaſon of their Intereſt, and the third for the preſervation of the Peace: And the Court held, That although it be not a good form of pleading, yet by reaſonable Conſtruction, this word [Cauſa] ſhall be referred to every cauſe, and ſo the pleading ſhall be maintained. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Engliſh and Pollitony and Smith's Caſe. Leon. 124.

27. A. brought a Writ of Forger of falſe Faits againſt H. of Glouceſter, and declared upon the forger of an Indenture, in quo Continetur, Quod quidam Abbas Monaſterii de Glouceſt. Demiſit Scitum Manerii de R. et terras Dominicales, &c. The Defendant pleaded, Not guilty. And it was given in Evidence on the Plaintiff's part, a Leaſe ſuppoſed to be made and forged, containing, That the ſaid Abbot Leaſed the ſaid Scite, and all the Demean Lands of the ſaid Mannor exceptis duobus ſeperalibus clauſuris inde, &c. vocat. &c. It was holden, That this Evidence was good enough to maintain the Iſſue; for it is not neceſſary to conſtrue terras Dominicales, omnes terras Dominicales: for the Lands not excepted are terræ Dominicales: and ſo the Count is ſatisfied by the Evidence. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Athins and Hales Caſe. Leon. 139.

28. An Action of Aſſault and Battery was brought againſt W. Malin of Langley: and in the Record of Niſi Prius, It was William Langley of Malin. And this being moved in Arreſt of Judgment, It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it ought to be amended; for it is a miſpriſion apparantly of the Clerk, and the whole Record beſides is right; and the Record of Niſi Prius ought to be amended by the Record in Banco, according to 44 E. 3. But if the Iſſue had been miſtaken it had been othe wiſe. Mich. 6 Car. in C. B, Malins Caſe, Hetley, 64.

29. Errour of a Judgment in the Court of Beverley in Debt, where the Plaintiff declared in Debt of 20 l: viz. 16 l. upon an Obligation, and 4 l. upon a Mutuatus. The Defendant pleaded Quoad the 4. Non debet et de hoc ponit ſe ſuper Patriam, et prædict. Querens ſimiliter: and as to the other, he demands Oyer of the Obligation and Condition; which was to pay 8 l. at a day, and he pleads payment at the day, Et de hoc ponit, &c. and the Plaintiff ſimiliter; and a Verdict was for the Plaintiff quoad the Bond, and quoad the other for the Defendant, and the Plaintiff had Judgment, It was aſſigned for Errour, That there was not any Iſſue, for the Defendant ought to have pleaded, Quod ſolvit et hoc paratus eſt verificare; and the Plaintiff ought to have Replyed, Non ſolvit et hoc petit. &c. ſo there had been an Affirmative and a Negative; but as it is here, there is no Iſſue at all, and not aided by the Statutes. But the Court held, That forasmuch as the Defendant pleads payment, Et de hoc, &c. and the Plaintiff joyns with him, That the Jury ſhall enquire whether he hath paid: and the Jury finding, that he hath not paid, it is good enough, and ayded by the Statute of Jeofailes. Mich. 8 Car. B. R. Parker and Taylor's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 231.

30. In an Action of Aſſault and Battery, the Defendant pleads a ſpecial Plea, and Juſtifies; the Plaintiff Replyes, de Injuria ſua propria: and upon this an Iſſue is joyned; and a Verdict for the Plaintiff. The Defendant moved in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Replication was not good, becauſe it anſwers not the ſpecial matter, nor takes any traverſe by an abſq; tali cauſa, as it ought to do, and ſo there is no Iſſue joyned, and conſequently there can be no Judgment. It was the Opinion of the Court, That where there is an immaterial Iſſue, there ought to be a Repleader, and it is not helped by the Statute; and there can be no Judgment, for that the matter is not put in tryall; and for that cauſe it would be unreaſonable to give Judgment. And it was holden, That the Iſſue in this caſe was an Immaterial Iſſue, and therefore a Repleader was awarded: And the Court held in this caſe, That if there be two or three things in a Declaration upon which an Iſſue may be joyned, if an Iſſue be joyned upon any of them, it is well. And alſo they held, That an Affirmative and an Implyed Negative, do make a good Iſſue, although it be not an expreſſe Negative. And ſo it was adjudged, Trin. 8 Car. in this Court, in Taylor and Sparks Caſe, Mich. 24 Car. in B. R. Jennings and Lees Caſe. Styles, 351, 210, 211.

31. A. as Executor brought Debt upon divers Obligations, The Defendant pleaded, That he did pay a leſſer ſum then is expreſſed in the Obligations to the Teſtator during his life, and that he did accept thereof in full ſatisfaction of the ſaid Obligations. It was Demurred upon the Plea. The Queſtion here is, Whether the payment, or the acceptance of the money, be to be traverſed? The Court held, It was indifferent, to traverſe either of them; but ſaid, It was more proper to joyn Iſſue upon the payment: But the Court would adviſe. But in this caſe, it was ſaid, That if he do receive it, it ſhall be adjudged in ſatisfaction of the Obligation; for he muſt receive it, upon ſuch Terms as the other will pay it. Mich. 1650. in B. R. Bois and Cranfields Caſe. Styles, 239.

32. N. brought Debt upon an Obligation againſt M. as Executor; the Defendant pleads generally pleinement adminiſtravit: and after Iſſue joyned, he gives in Evidence, a Judgment of the Teſtator, to make his Plea good: upon which, a Special Verdict was found. It was argued, That a Pleinement Adminiſtravit, is a Plea in barr, although it be not a perpetual barr; and it is a general Iſſue, becauſe it comprehends many things which may be given in Evidence. Rolls, Chief Juſtice, ſaid, If upon the general Iſſue, one ſhould give in Evidence, Non eſt factum, would it be good? And he ſaid, Certainly this is not the general Iſſue intended by the Statute (meaning the Meal Act), although it be a common Iſſue; for the general Iſſue intended, ought to be an Iſſue proper to the Action that is brought, and which might have been pleaded at the beginning, and who can tell upon this Plea, what you will give in Evidence, and ſo the Plaintiff can never be provided for you at tryal: and therefore you muſt rely upon your ſpecial Plea of Fully Adminiſtred, and not vary from it by ſhewing new matter. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Trin. 1653. B.R. Newman and Maſſey's Caſe, Styles, 328.

33. In Treſpaſſe for a Way, the Defendant did juſtifie, and ſaid, He had a Way not only ire, equitare, et averia ſua fugare, but alſo carucis et carretagiis carriare. The Plaintiff traverſed it abſq; hoc, that he had a Way not only ire, equitare, &c. in the words aforeſaid; and thereupon they were at Iſſue, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That the Iſſue was ill, becauſe it was not a direct Affirmative, but by inducement onely: But non allocatur: And Jones, Juſtice, ſaid, That if I ſay, not only J. G. hath been at ſuch a place, but alſo J. N; it is a good Affirmative, that both have been there. And the Court ſaid, The pleading is more elegant then formal. Mich. 15 Car. in B.R. Hicks and Wibbs Caſe, Marſh, 55.

34. A man was bound to keep a Pariſh harmleſſe from a Baſtard-Child; and for not performance thereof, the Obligee brought Debt upon the Obligation. The Defendant pleaded, That he had ſaved the Pariſh harmleſſe, and did not ſhew how. The Plaintiff Replyed, and ſhewed, How that the Pariſh was warned before the Juſtices of the Peace at the Seſſions, and there ordered by Record, to pay ſo much for keeping of the Child; and becauſe the Defendant had not ſaved harmleſſe, &c. The Defendant pleaded Nul tiel Record. Upon which, the Plaintiff did demur. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That the Plea Nul tiel Record, upon an Order at Seſſions of Peace, is a good Plea; becauſe an Order at Seſſions is a Record. 2. That notwithſtanding Judgment ought to be given for the Plaintiff, becauſe the Defendant's bar was not good, in that he hath pleaded in the affirmative, That he hath ſaved the Pariſh harmleſſe; and doth not ſhew how, as he ought to do. But if he had pleaded, Non damnificatus, that had been good, without without further ſhewing; which he hath not done. And it was agreed, That the ſame was not helped by the Demurrer, becauſe the ſame was matter of ſubſtance; but the Plaintiff might take advantage of it. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 17 Car. in B. R. Maſſo, 121.

1. Where upon an Original, Judgment ſhall be of Part at one time, and of Part at another; Where not. And where, and in what Actions a man ſhall have ſeverall or double Judgments upon one Original: Where not.

1. A Formedon was brought againſt A, B, and C; A. and B. confeſſed the Action; C. pleaded Joynt-Tenancy with B, without ſaying, that A. had any thing. The Demandant maintained his Writ; viz. That they all three were Joynt-Tenants: and upon that, Iſſue was taken, and the Court held the Iſſue to be good. But in that caſe, 'although the Action was confeſſed; yet the Demandant ſhould not have Judgment for part, untill the Iſſue was tryed. Mic. 26 H. 8. Dyer, 6.

2. Husband and Wife brought a Scire facias to have Execution of a Recovery in a Writ of Dower; where the Demand was of 6. Meſſuages, and 100 Acres of Lands, in Littleton and Stanwell, in Com. Midd. As to the third part of the Lands in L; the Tenant confeſſed the Action, and Judgment was given for that, That the Plaintiffs ſhould recover Seiſin: and as to the Tenements in S, the Defendant pleaded to Iſſue. Afterwards the Plaintiff waived that, and prayed Execution of the third part of the Lands in L; And upon advice of the Court, and Preignothories, a ſpecial Scire facias was ſued forth, reciting the Record as it was pleaded, commanding the Tenant to ſhew cauſe, wherefore the Demandants ſhould not have Execution of the third part of the Tenements in L: and upon default of the Tenant, upon a Scire facias returned, the Demandants had a ſpecial Writ of Seiſin of the third part of the Tenements in L. Paſch. 29 H. 8. Dyer, 34 Soper's Caſe.

3. A Writ of Dower was brought againſt 8. ſeveral perſons; Two of them confeſſed the Action, and the reſt pleaded in barr. Judgment was preſently given, That the Demandant ſhould recover the third part of two parts in 8. parts, to be divided; and afterwards the barr being againſt the Defendants, the demandant had Judgment to have Seiſin againſt them, of the third part of the 6. parts of the premiſſes in 8. parts, to be divided. See 10 Aſs. 2. 17 E. 3. 4. Mich. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 187.

4. A Writ of Entry in the Quibus in the nature af an Aſſiſe, was brought againſt the mother and her two ſons who were within age; the mother appeared by Attorney, and the two ſons by their Guardian; and ſhe pleaded, Quod non diſſeiſivit, which was found againſt the mother, that diſſeiſivit, but the Sons did not diſſeiſe the Demandant. It was the Opinion of the Court, That Judgment ſhould be given againſt the Mother for the whole: and that the Plaintiff as to the ſons ſhould be in miſericordia. And Judgment was given accordingly. Trin. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 312.

5. In a Quare Impedit brought, the Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff, and the value of the Church and Rectory, but the Jury was not charged of 3. Points; ſcil. De plenitudine, Ex cujus Preſentatione, Si tempus ſimeſtre tranſierit; as it ought to have been. Cook 10. Part, 118. in Cheney's Caſe. And alſo no Judgment was given by the Juſtices of Niſi Prius; as there might have been by the Statute of Weſt. 2. Now upon the return in Banco, The Plaintiff prayed a Writ to the Biſhop, to enquire of thoſe 3. Points. But at laſt, upon the Plaintiff's relinquiſhing of his Damages, he had Judgment; and had a Writ to the Biſhop ſuo periculo. Mich. 4 Ma. Dyer, 135. Poyner's Caſe.

6. An Ejectione Firme was brought againſt two; the one appeared, and pleaded the general Iſſue: afterwards the other appeared, and pleaded an Entry after the laſt Continuance in abatement of the Writ, upon which the Plaintiff Demurred; and afterwards the Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff: Yet the Opinion of the Court was, That he ſhould not have Judgment, becauſe by his Demurrer he confeſſed the Entry, and thereby abated his own Writ; and the reaſon is given, becauſe in his Action the Term is to be recovered: but if he had only Imparled to the Plea, it had been otherwiſe. Hill. 6 Eliz. Dyer, 226.

7. A Writ of Partition was brought againſt two, one of them confeſſed the Partition; the other pleaded to Iſſue. In the Record of Niſi Prius, the name of the Defendant was omitted by negligence of the Clerk, and written prædict. ſimiliter, and no more: and alſo the Jury was ſummoned between the Plaintiff and both the Defendants; whereas one of them was no party to the Iſſue. The Opinion of the Court was, That it was miſpriſion of the Clerk only: and therefore it was amendable; and awarded the Amendment of it; and then Judgment was given againſt the Defendants. Paſch. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 261. Wotton and Cook's Caſe.

8. In a Writ of Accompt, Judgment was given quod Computet; Et Ideo in miſericordia, quia non prius Computavit. The Defendant brought Errour; and the Queſtion was, If after that Judgment, Errour did lye or not? It was Reſolved, That a Writ of Errour upon that Judgment quod Computet. did not lye before the final Judgment given: 1. Becauſe the Record ſhall not be removed, untill the whole matter of the Accompt be determined, and that cannot be, untill Judgment be given of the Arrearages and Damages. 2. Becauſe the Writ of Errour ſhall be intended not only de principali et Integro, but de judicio graviter damnoſo, and that ſhall be intended the Judgment by which he ſhall recover the Arrearages and Damages. 3. Becauſe the award quod Computet, is but an Award which is Interlocutory, and not definitive. 4. Becauſe till the latter Judgment, the parties have day in Court by the Roll; which proves, that the Plea is not fully determined. Cook 11. Part, 38. Metcalf's Caſe.

9. The Lady Willoughby, wife of the late Sir Francis Willoughby, ſued in Chancery as Adminiſtratrix of her late Husband, againſt P. W. who had married one of the daughters of the ſaid Sir Francis. The Defendant pleaded, That before Adminiſtration committed to the Plaintiff, he himſelf put in a Caveat in the Spiritual Court; hanging which Caveat, ſhe obtained Letters of Adminiſtration; whereupon he hath appealed; which appeal is not yet determined, and demanded Judgment, if hanging this Appeal, the Plaintiff ſhould be received to ſue in this Court as Adminiſtratrix. It was the Opinion of Egerton, Lord Keeper of the Great Seal, That the Defendant's Plea was good to ſtay the Suit, untill the Plea be determined: But not to be diſmiſſed out of Court. And he ſaid, There is a difference between an Appeal in the Spiritual Law, and a Writ of Errour: For by the purchaſing of a Writ of Errour, the Judgment is not impeached, untill the Record be Reverſed. But the very bringing of an Appeal, is a ſuſpenſion of the firſt Judgment in the Spiritual Court for the principal matter, but not for the Coſts. Hill. 43 Eliz. in Cancel. The Lady Willoughbyes Caſe. Baldiſon. 119.

2. Where the Plaintiff ſhall have Judgment to recover, but there ſhall be a ceſſat executio for a time, and for what cauſe, and where not.

1. IF one hath a Reverſion with Warranty; and upon Aid preyer, Receit, or Voucher, the Land is loſt, and Judgment is given to recover in value; yet Execution ſhall ceaſe, as to have the Land in value untill the death of the particular Tenant. Hill. 4 Ma. Dyer, in the Counteſs of Surrey's Caſe, 139.

2. A Writ of Partition was brought by Wotton againſt Cook and Temple; they appeared, and confeſſed the Partition. In that Caſe, Judgment was given, with a ceſſat Executio; and there they made ſeverally Title to the Lands, and traverſed the ſuppoſal of the Writ and Count. Paſc. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 260. See ſect. before, Wotton and Cook's Caſe.

3. A. brought a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop of London, and J. S. Declared, That Henry Earl of S. was ſeiſed of the Manner of W. to which the Advowſon of the Church of W. was appendant, who preſented J. S. one of the Defendants, who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and afterwards the Earl dyed ſeiſed, after whoſe death the Manner diſcended to R. Earl of S. who levyed a Fine of the ſaid Advowſon to J. D. in Fee, who granted the next avoydance to the ſaid A. the Plaintiff: And afterwards J. S. reſigned to the Biſhop, the other Defendant, by which the Church became void by the ſaid reſignation, and ſo it belonged to the Plaintiff to Preſent. The Biſhop pleaded, That he claimed nothing in the Church but the Admiſſion, Inſtitution, &c. and demanded Judgment ſi abſque ſpeciali impedimento, &c. I. S. pleaded, That before the Writ brought, he was in the ſaid Church by the ſpace of ſix Moneths of the Preſentment of Hen. Earl of S. abſque hoc that the Church was void modo et forma, as the Plaintiff declared. In that Caſe, as to the Plea of the Biſhop, the Plaintiff prayed a Writ to the Biſhop, and the ſame was granted to him by the Statute, but with a Ceſſat Executio, untill the Plea between the Plaintiff and the other Defendant was determined. And as to the Plea of J. S. the Plaintiff did maintain, That the Church was void modo et forma, &c. upon which they were at Iſſue; and at a Niſi Prius, it was found for the Plaintiff. Cook 7. Part, 25. Hall's Caſe, acc.

4. A. brought an Action of Debt upon a Bond of 200 l. againſt B. and E. his Wife, Executors of J.S. The Defendants pleaded fully Adminiſtred, and ſo nothing in their hands; the Plaintiff replyed, That they had Aſſets: The Jury found, That there was Aſſets, to the value of 172 l. and Judgment was given to recover the whole Debt of 200 l. and Coſts and Damages of the goods of the Teſtator, &c. and if not, then the damages of their own goods. Upon a Writ of Error brought upon the ſame Judgment in the Exchequer Chamber, the Judgment was affirmed: For upon the Bar, the effect of which is nothing in their hands, the Plaintiff might have prayed her Judgment preſently, for thereby he confeſſeth the Debt, but he cannot have Execution, untill the Defendants have goods of the deceaſed, Cook 8. Part, 134. Mary Shipley's Caſe.

5. If a man have Common of Eſtovers to his houſe, and ſuffer his houſe to fall down, he can now claim no Eſtovers, and if he ſue for them, and the other plead, That his houſe is down; he ſhall not have Judgment with a ceaſing of Execution, till he have re-edified his houſe, as in a Warrantia Chartæ, or a Writ of Meſne, where the Defendant pleads, That he is not ſued nor diſtreyned, he ſhall have Judgment but no Execution for the preſent: So in a Writ of Dower againſt the Heir, If he plead, That the Demandant detains the Evidences, he ſhall have Judgment preſently, with a Ceſſat Executio. But in the Caſe of Eſtovers, the Plaintiff ſhall be barred, for at the time of the Action brought, he hath no right of Eſtovers, but it is in ſuſpence; and therefore it is not a perpetual, but a temporal bar, and if he do re-edify his houſe in the ſame place, he ſhall have his Eſtovers again. Quære, If he bring an Aſſiſe, or a Quod permittat for his Eſtovers where his houſe is down, and Judgment paſs againſt him, if he ſhall not be barred finally, rather then where Iſſue in tail is barred by Warranty and Aſſets, and then alliens the Aſſets againſt his Iſſues, yet the bar ſtands, which ſhould not but for the Judgment. See Cook 4. Part, Lutterells Caſe. And the Opinion of Hobart Chief Juſtice, in the Argument of Cooper and Andrews Caſe. Mich. 10 Jac. in C. B. Hob. 139.

3. Where the Plaintiffe ſhall have Judgement to Recover, although the Iſſue be found againſt him, where not; And where he ſhall have Judgement, though his Declaration be found by Verdict to be Falſe, where not; And where Judgement ſhall not be given, although the Party hath right.

1. LEſſee for years Covenanted by Deed with his Leſſor, that he would not cut down any Trees from off the Land, and bound himſelf in an Obligation to perform the Covenants. In Debt brought upon the Obligation by the Leſſor, he aſſigned a breach, That the Leſſee had cut down 20 Oaks. The Defendant pleaded, That he did not cut down the 20 Oaks, nor any of them. The Plaintiffe replyed, That he cut down 20 Oaks; and the Jury found that the Defendant had cut down 10 Oaks: It was doubted, if upon the Verdict, Judgement could be given for the Plaintiffe: But at laſt, it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiffe ſhould have Judgement, for that the Covenant was broken by the cutting down of ten, and that the alledging of the reſt was ſurpluſage. Paſch. 4 Mar. Dyer, 115.

2. An Action upon the Caſe by Sir John Bridges, for theſe words, There is a great Neſt of Thieves at P. and Sir John Bridges is a maintainer of them, and he is a ſtrong Thief himſelf. The Defendant made a Juſtification of certain words which he ſpake, ſounding to a ſuſpition that he was a Favourer of Thieves, abſque hoc, That he propalavit dicta verba in Narratione ſpecificat. modo & forma prout. It was found by Verdict, That he ſpake all the ſaid words, except the word [ſtrong.] It was moved upon this Verdict, That there might be no Judgement, becauſe the matter is not proved in ſuch manner as the Plaintiffe Declared: But after a great debate at the Bar, the Plaintiffe had Judgement. Mich. 6 E. 6. Dyer, Sir John Bridges and Warenfords Caſe.

3. If a man bring an Action of Debt, and Declare, That the Defendant 4 Aprilis, 24 Eliz. made a Bond bearing date the ſame day and year; and the Defendant plead Non eſt factum; and it is found that the Bond was Delivered at another day (before or after) than the Plaintiffe hath declared: It was holden by the Court, That yet Judgement ſhall be given for the Plaintiffe, for as much as the Date is not material, and the Defendant cannot be twice charged, charged. Cook 2. Part, 5, in Goddards Caſe.

4. It was Reſolved by the Court, That if the Principal be pardoned, or hath his Clergie, the Acceſſary cannot be Arraigned; and none can be Principal, before he be adjudged ſo by Law, and by Judgement upon a Verdict, or Confeſſion, or by Outlawry; and it is not enough that he be Principal, and the acceptance of a pardon, or prayer of Clergie, is an Argument, but no Judgement that the party is guilty: But if the Principal after Attaindor be pardoned, or hath his Clergie, the Acceſſory may be arraigned; for that it appears judicially that there was a Principal. Trin. 32 Eliz. Cook 4 Part, 43. Eyers Caſe.

5. In a Writ of Entry in the Quibus of 70 Acres of Land in H. the Tenant pleaded, That one C. poſſeſſed in Fee, and Demiſed the Land to him for life, the Defendant Entituled himſelf to the Land, abſque hoc quod demiſit, modo & forma: It was found, That C. and ſix others were ſeized to the uſe of the ſaid 70 Acres, and of a houſe in H. which Houſe and Lands had been from time to time called W. and that the ſaid C. and the other ſix, joyned in a Leaſe of the ſaid Houſe called W. with the appurtenances to the Tenement. It was holden by the Court, That this Demiſe will not maintain the Iſſue for the Tenement; and though it was not found expreſly, that the 70 Acres were appertaining to the Houſe called W. which was found to be Demiſed, yet Judgement was given for the Plaintiffe. Hill. 5. Mar. Dyer, 158.

6. Note, It was ſaid and agreed in the Caſe between Vere and Jeoffries, That where one had goods only in an Inferiour Dioceſs, and yet the Metropolitan of the Province, pretending that he had bona Notabilia in diverſ. Dioceſ. committed Adminiſtration, that this Adminiſtration was not void, but voidable only by ſentence, becauſe the Metropolitan hath Juriſdiction over all the Dioceſſes in his Province, and therefore it cannot be void; but if Judgement be given upon ſuch Adminiſtration, it is not void, but voidable: But if an Ordinary of a Dioceſs committeth Adminiſtration of goods, where the party hath bona Notabilia in diverſ. Dioceſ. ſuch Adminiſtration is meerly void, as well to the goods in his own Dioceſs, as elſewhere, becauſe he can by no means have Juriſdiction of the Cauſe; and a Judgement given upon ſuch an Adminiſtration, is utterly void. Vere and Jeoffries Caſe. Vouch in Cook, Part, 30. in Princes Caſe.

7. In a Replevin, the Plaintiffe entituled himſelf to have Common of Paſture to his Copyhold; It was found by Verdict that he ought to have the ſame Common, but that every Copyholder had uſed to pay time out of minde &c. pro eadem Communia unam Gallinam, & quinque ova annuatim; and yet notwithſtanding that Verdict, the Plaintiffe had Judgement; and the reaſon was, becauſe the ſame was not a mannor of Commoning, but a collateral recompence to be paid for the Common. Trin. 37 Eliz. in Cook 5 Part, 70. Gray's Caſe: And in that caſe, this Caſe was put by Popham, A man preſcribed to have Pot water out of a River, and the Jury found that he had had, paying 6 d. yeerly. In which caſe he ſaid he had failed of his preſcription, for he preſcribed abſolutely; and the Jury found a Preſcription ſub modo, and therefore in that caſe he could not have Judgement.

8. In a Replevin, the Defendant made Conuſans as Bayliffe of J. S. of the Mannor of H. ſuppoſing that the Land was holden of the ſaid J. S. by Fealty, and Rent of 20 d. and Suit of Court, and alledged Seiſin of all the ſaid Services within 50 years; the Plaintiffe made and conveyed to himſelf Title to the Land, and ſaid, That he held by Fealty, and 12 d. and Suit of Court, pro omnibus Servicius, and had ſeized the ſeizin of the Fealty, 20 d. rent, and Suit of Court; and the Jury found the ſeiſin of the 20 d. rent, prout. It was Reſolved by the Court, That in this caſe no Judgement could be given, becauſe all the ſervices and things compriſed in the Traverſe abſque hoc, were not found for the party affirmatively. Mich. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 33. See Cook, 4 Part, 9. in Bevills Caſe, That ſeiſin of Rent, is a ſeiſin of Fealty, Homage, and other annual Services on Land, but not an actual ſeiſin.

9. Debt againſt J. S. Sheriffe of the County of D. and the Plaintiffe ſet forth, That he Recovered in B. R. 309 l. againſt J. D. and that the body of the ſaid J. D. was taken in Execution by the ſaid J. S. Sheriff of D. at S. in the ſaid County, and that afterwards the ſaid J. S. ſuffered him to eſcape in the pariſh of B. in London; The Defendant pleaded in Bar, That the ſaid J. D. was in his Cuſtody in Execution, until afterwards at S. he brake Priſon, againſt the Will of the ſaid J. S. and eſcaped; upon which he made freſh Suit, and he retook him; The Plaintiffe by Proteſtation, That he did not make freſh Suit, that after the eſcape, and before he retook him, he ſuffered him to be one whole day and a night at London, out of his View; Whereupon the Defendant did demur in Law. In this Caſe, amongſt other things, it was Reſolved, That the Defendants Bar was inſufficient, for the Plaintiffe hath Declared of an eſcape in L. and the Defendant juſtifies the retaking him at S. and ſo the eſcape at London is not anſwered; but for as much as the Plaintiffe doth not deny the freſh Suit, but by proteſtation hath relyed upon that matter only, that the Priſoner was out of his ſight, and the Court ſhall not intend other matter to maintain his Action then he himſelf hath ſhewed: and now upon the Record it doth not appear that the Plaintiffe hath cauſe of Action; for that cauſe the Plaintiffe perceiving the opinion of the Court, did discontinue the Suit. But it was agreed by the Court, That if the Plaintiffe had Demurred upon the Bar, that he should have had Judgement. Cook 3 Part, 52. Rigemayes Case.

Plaintiffe

10. In a Replevin, the Plaintiffe Declared, R. F. was seized of the Land, where &c. in Fee, and made his Will, and thereof made B. C. and D. his Executors, and thereby devised the said Lands to J. F. his eldest son, for 60 years, if the said J. F. should so long live; the remainder to F. F. his son for life, the remainder to the heirs males of the body of J. F. with divers Remainders over, and dyed, and that J. F. entred, and made the Lease to the Plaintiffe, who put in his Cattel, &c. In Barr of which the Defendant said, and confessed the seisin of R. F. and that he made his Will prout, but said further, After the making of the said Will, he made a Feoffment of the said Lands (inter alia) to J. D. and J. G. and their heirs, to the use of the said J. F. after the Devisors death, for 60 years, if he should so long live; and after to the use of the said T. F. for life, and after to the use of the heirs males of the body of the said J. F. with divers remainders over: Proviso, That if the said J. F. should disturb his Executors, and should not suffer them to take away the goods of the said R. F. which should remain in his dwelling house, &c. that then the uses limitted to the said J. F. and his heirs should cease, and shewed that R. F. dyed possessed of goods which were in the said House at the time of his death, and that the said J. F. would not permit the Executors to take and carry them away, by which the said Term limitted to the said J. F. did cease, and he the said T. F. being in remainder did Enter. Upon which the Plaintiffe did demur in Law. In this Case (amongst many other points) it was Resolved, That although it now appeareth, that although the Title by which the Plaintiffe claimeth, was destroyed, (for the Plaintiffe claimed by the Will of R. F. the Father, which Will was after wards countermanded by the Feoffment) yet the Plaintiffe should have Judgement, because his Declaration is good, and the Avowant in his Replication hath done two things; One, He hath destroyed the Title which he made by Will; the other, he hath given to the Plaintiffe another Title, viz. To have the Land for 60 years, by force of the uses declared upon the Feoffment: So that now upon the whole Record (upon which the Court ought to judge) the Plaintiffe hath a lawful Term in the Lands, and so Judgement is to be given for the Plaintiffe, although that the Title which he made for himself was destroyed: and Judgement was given accordingly. Mich. 7 Jac. in C. B. Cook 8 Part. 90, 91, 92. Frances Case.

11. Debt for arrearages of Rent; The Defendant pleaded Nil debet; It was found for the Plaintiff, and in arrest of Judgement, Exception was taken, that it appeared upon the Plaintiffs own shewing, that he demanded more then was due; and then the Verdict is not given for the thing demanded, and it doth appear that here is an unjust demand, and if the Defendant had demurred upon the Declaration, it would have been adjudged no good Declaration, and the Plaintiffe here hath falsified his own Writ. But the Opinion of the Court was, That the relinquishing of part, is not falsifying his own Writ, although the thing demanded be entire; and here the Plaintiffe desires Judgment only for what is due, and he may as well Release after the Writ brought, as before; and he may release or relinquish as well where there is an ill demand, as where there is a good demand: wherefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiffe. Hill. 24 Car. in B. R. Barber and Pomeroyes Case. Styles, 175.

12. In an Action upon the Case for speaking of these words of the Plaintiffe, having speech of a Cow of the Defendants; He and his fellows have stollen her, and I do charge him with flat Felony. The Defendant pleaded in Bar an Award made by two Justices of Peace between the Parties: It was said for the Plaintiffe, That the Award did not binde the Plaintiffe, for the Award concerned only the speaking of the words, but spake nothing of the Imprisonment, which the Plaintiffe layed in the Declaration. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Declaration was ill, and the Plea also; for the Plea is entire, and yet goes not to all the matter alledged in the Declaration, but the Plea is only to part of them; and therefore, if any part of the Declaration be good, Judgement ought to be given against the Defendant for that part, and the Plea in Bar is naught; and so Judgement was given for the Plaintiffe, Trin. 1650. B. R. Denton and Cabors Case. Styles, 247.

13. Debt against an Administrator; He pleaded several Recoveries had against him in the Court of Chester, which amounted to all which he had in his hands. The Plaintiffe replyed, That one of the said Recoveries was by Covin, and that the other Recoverer had accepted of a Composition, and that the Defendant delayed to accept of Release of it, to delay the Plaintiffe. In this Case, amongst other things, it was Resolved, 1. That the Barr was insufficient, because he did not shew that the Court of Chester had power to hold Plea of Debt, nor doth he shew that the Testator was bound in an Obligation; and if it were upon Contract, the Administrator was not chargeable in Debt. Also the Court held, That the Replication was ill: Yet because the Barr was insufficient, although that the Replication was ill, yet the Court was of opinion

nion that the Plaintiffe should have Judgement, because he had not shewed any thing against himself; But if it had appeared by the Replication, that he had no cause of Action, then he should have been barred, and should not have had Judgement, Cook, 8 Part, 134. Turners Case.

4. Judgement against Executors; where it shall be of their own goods, where not; and what manner of Judgement it shall be.

1. IN Debt brought against an Executor, he pleaded that he had fully Administred, and gave in evidence, That he had paid debts upon Contracts made by his Testator, upon which the Plaintiffe did Demur in Law: The Court was of Opinion, That the same was no cause to delay Judgement, because he was not compellable to pay such debts; and admit that the Debtees had Obligations, yet because the Defendant hath not shewed, that he paid the said debts before this Action brought (for if he pay them pendant the Writ, the same is no Administration) there they gave Order that Judgement should be Entred against the Plaintiffe, and that the Judgement should be but of the goods of the dead, quod nota, Pasch. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 32.

2. Debt against two Executors, one appeared and confessed the Action, the other made default, and Judgement was given to recover of the goods of the Testator in both their hands; and to that end, Issued forth a Scire facias, upon which the Sheriffe returned Nihil, but that he that made default had wasted the goods before the Receipt of the Writ; upon which a Scire facias issued only against him who had wasted, and upon default upon the Scire facias returned, Execution was awarded of his proper goods only who made default. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 210.

3. Debt against J. S. Executor of B. Executor of A. upon an Obligation of A; the Defendant said A. did owe upon a Statute to B. 100 l. after whose death, goods of the value of 100 l. came to the hands of B. as Executor of A. with which he paid himself, &c. & ultra; the said goods the said B. in vita sua fully administred, and so nothing in the hands of B. &c. The Plaintiffe said, Assets in London, ultra. &c. tempore mortis B. It was found for the Plaintiffe, and he had Judgement of the goods of A. in the hands of the Defendant, and damages of the proper goods of the Defendant. The Sheriff returned Devastavit against the Defendant, because he found Assets in the hands of B. tempore mortis; upon which Judgement was given that Execution should be of the proper goods and chattels of the Defendant; and if nulla bona were returned, then the Plaintiffe might have a Capias or an Elegit at his Election. Trin. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 185. Sir John Chickens Case.

4. A Termor covenanted for him and his Executors to repair, uphold, and sustain a house at his own costs and charges, principal Timber (in casu vel in defectu reparationis, or otherwise in default of the Lessee) only excepted, and dyed, the house was burnt through the default of the Executors; It was adjudged in that case, That an Action of Covenant did lye against them, and dammages recovered of the goods of the Testator, and not conditional, if they had not of their proper goods; and such Judgement was given upon great advisement had by the Court. Pasch. 15 Eliz. Dyer, 324.

5. It was Resolved by the Court, That if A. be bounden in a Recognizance, or in a Statute Merchant, or in a Statute Staple; and afterwards a Recovery is had against A. in an Action of Debt, and A. maketh his Executors, and dyeth, his Executors are bound by the Law to pay the debt due upon the Recovery, although it be puisne, before the debt due by Recognizance or Statute; because although that both are Records, yet the Judgement in the Kings Court upon Judicial and Ordinary Proceeding is more notorious and conspicuous, and of more high and eminent a degree, then a Statute or recognisance taken in private, and by consent of the parties, and therefore preferred in Judgement of Law before a Statute or Recognizance, Pasch. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Pemberton and Barhams Case. Hill. 42 Eliz. in B. R. Bearblock and Reads Case. Vouched in the Case of the Warden and Commonalty of Sadlers Case. Cook 4. Part, 60. Set 40 Eliz. in C. B. Harrisons Case, Cook 5 Part, acc.

6. An Executor brought an Action upon the Case against another Executor, upon an Assumpsit made by the Testator: It was adjudged that the Action was maintainable, because after the death of the Debtor, the debt doth remain, and it should be a defection in the Law, if there should be no means for the recovery of it. And in that Case, It was Resolved, That the Plaintiffe needed not to aver, That the Defendant had Assets to pay Legacies, for that Debts upon simple Contracts are to be paid before Legacies, and debts upon simple contract shall be paid before the reasonable part of the Wife or children. Cook 9 Part, 91. in Pinchon's Case.

7. In Assumpsit, the case was, The Defendant being possessed of an Interest of a Term as Executor to J. S. who was indebted to the Plaintiffe, in conſideration, that the Plaintiffe would not moleſt him, but would defer the payment till Michaelmas, did promiſe to pay him the money, or to aſſigne the ſaid Term to him for it at Michaelmas next: Being upon non Aſſumpſit found for the Plaintiffe, and Judgment given: Error was brought, and aſſigned for Error, that the Plaintiffe had not averred, that the Executor had Aſſets at the time of the Aſſumpſit: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Plaintiffe in his Declaration needed not to aver that the Plaintiffe had Aſſets, for the Law ſhall preſume prima facie; that the Teſtator would not leave a greater charge upon his Executors, then he would benefit for them to diſcharge it, and therefore Aſſets ſhall be intended. 2. Reſolved, That the money which the Executor ſhall pay upon ſuch general Aſſumpſit, in ſatisfaction of the debt of the Teſtator ſhall be allowed unto the Executor upon his Accompt: And in that caſe, It was ſaid by Cook Chief Juſtice; If there had not been any debt, and the Executor had not any thing in his hands at the time of the promiſe, that the Defendant might give the ſame in Evidence, and ſo helps himſelf, for then there was not any conſideration to ground the Aſſumpſit upon, Cook 9 Part, 94. Banes Caſe.

to

8. Debt againſt an Adminiſtrator upon an Obligation made by the Teſtator of 600 l. the Defendant pleaded in bar, a Recognizance to the King, of 100 l. and another Recognizance of 809 l. pro vero et juſto debito, and another Recognizance to J. D. 1000 l. pro vero et juſto debito, and pleaded divers other Recognizances of great value, and that ſhe had fully Adminiſtred, et quod nulla habet bona which were of the Inteſtate in her hands praterquam bona et catalla ad valentiam of the ſaid Recognizance to the King, and the other Recognizances, and averred, the ſaid Recognizances were in force, et quod ipſa nulla alia ſive plura habet bona praterquam bona not ſufficient to ſatisfy the aforeſaid ſeveral Debts. The Plaintiff replyed, That the Recognizance to J. S. was for the payment of 400 l. which the Teſtator paid in his life time, which J. S. received; and that the other Recognizances were for performance of Covenants, all which were performed, and the ſaid Recognizances were kept on foot by fraud of the Adminiſtrator, and averred that the Adminiſtrator had goods in her hands praterquam bona ad valent. pradict. 100 l. due to the King. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the bar was inſufficient. 1. Becauſe it was repugnant, for firſt, ſhe pleads ſhe had not goods and Chattels praterquam bona et catalla ad valentiam of the ſaid Debt to the King, and the other ſeveral Recognizances, and afterwards ſhe pleads, That ſhe had not bona et catalla, qua non ſufficiant ad ſatisfaciendum pradict. ſeparalia debita, which is repugnant. 2. For that the Defendant hath not averred, That A. who was joyntly bound with him in the ſaid Recognizances, had not payed the debts; and when a bar is inſufficient in matter, and the Writ and Declaration is good, and the Replication ſuperfluous, there the Plaintiff ſhall have Judgment. Cook 9. Part, 108. Marial Triſh on's Caſe.

9. Error of a Judgment in C. B. the Error aſſigned was, for that in Debt againſt Husband and Wife as Adminiſtratrix, the Defendant pleaded payment by the Wife after the death of the Inteſtate, according to the Condition of the Bond; and Iſſue was joyned and found thereupon for the Plaintiff, and Judgment given quod recuperet debitum againſt them de bonis teſtatoris et ſi non, &c. the damages de bonis ſuis propriis, where it being a falſe plea, the Judgment ought to have bin for the Debt, de bonis propriis. 2. The Judgment ought to have bin for the damages of the goods of the Husband, only for that a Feme Covert can not have goods. But Reſolved, That the Judgment was well given, for although the Plea is falſe, yet he is not altogether a ſtranger to the Teſtator. 2. Although the Wife hath not goods during the Coverture, yet becauſe the Husband is charged only in reſpect of the Wife, and ſhe might have goods if ſhe had ſurvived, and Execution might be then taken againſt her, therefore the Judgment is good; and the Judgment was affirmed. 5. Where Judgment ſhall be given againſt the Verdict for a Cauſe which appears to be matter of Record, or that the Verdict is found againſt the Law; Where not.

1 EXception was taken to an Indictment of Murder; of Principal and Acceſſaries, becauſe the wound was given the 4th day of Auguſt, and the death was the 19th day of December next following; and the Indictment ſaith, That T. M. and W. M. (who were the Acceſſaries) tempore felonia et Murdri pradict. ſcil. 4 Auguſt, &c. felonice fuerant preſentes, &c. ad felonias et Murtrum pradict. in forma pradict. faciend. And it was ſaid in maintenance of the ſaid Indictment by the Kings Councel, That the death hath relation to the ſtroke; for if a man Non Compos mentis ſtrike himſelf, and afterwards becommeth of ſane memorie, and dyeth, the death hath relation to the ſtroke, and he forfeiteth not: Alſo it was ſufficient, becauſe it is the Office of the Jury to find veritatem facti; and becauſe they have found all the circumſtances, and truth of the Fact, although they conclude againſt the Law, yet their finding is good. But it was Reſolved by the Court, upon conference had with the other Juſtices, That the ſaid Indictment was repugnant and inſufficient as to the ſaid T.M. and W.M. for that no Felony was committed till the death, and none ſhall be adjudged a Fellon by relation. Cook 4. Part, 42. Heydons Caſe.

2. A man brought an Action upon the Caſe in the County of N. againſt S. and declared, That H. recovered againſt him in the Common Pleas, and after Judgment, and before Execution, H. dyed, and that the Defendant knowing it, and malitiouſly, and deceitfully plotting and contriving to Outlaw the Plaintiff, in the name of H. took out a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum, directed to the Sheriff of London; and there purchaſed an Exigent, and afterwards a Capias utlagatum directed to the Sheriff of N. by force of which he was taken and Impriſoned in the County of N. and forfeited his goods and Chattels, until he had purchaſed his Pardon. And upon that Declaration, the Defendant did demur in Law, becauſe that the Action ought to have bin brought in the County of Middleſex, where the wrong began, for there the Defendant purchaſed the Capias, Exigent, and Capias utlagatum, and thereby all his goods were forfeited But it was Reſolved by the Court, That the Action was well brought in N. For that it is a Maxime in Law, that ibi ſemper debet fieri triatio ubi Juratores melioren habere poſſunt notitiam; and the viſible wrong was in the County of N. for there the Plaintiff was Impriſoned, and when matters of Fact are mixt with matters of Record, and when the matter in one County depends upon matter in another County, there the Plaintiff may chuſe in what County he will to bring his Action. As if a man conſpire to endict one in one County, and afterwards doth execute the ſame in another County, there the party is at his Election to have his Action in what County he pleaſeth. Cook 7. Part, 1. Balmers Caſe.

6. Where a Judgment may be reverſed in part, and ſtand good for other part; Where not: And where no Judgment can be given.

1. AN Act on upon the Caſe was brought for words ſpoken at two ſeveral times: Judgment was for the Plaintiff, and ſeveral damages being found by the Jury, one entire Judgment was given for the damages and Coſts. And now upon Error brought, That for the firſt words, the Action did not lye (the words were), He hath poyſoned J. S. quendam J. S. adtunc defunctum innuendo; and he did not aver that he was dead at the time of the ſpeaking of the words. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices and Barons in the Exchequer Chamber, That the Action did not lye, and that the Judgment was erronious. And then it was a Queſtion if it were reverſable for all, or only quoad the Judgment for thoſe words. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Judgment ſhould be reverſed only quoad, the damages for the words for which the Action did not lye, and ſhould be affirmed quoad the Coſts, and the reſidue, for that Coſts are due where part of the words are found. Paſc. 11 Jac. in B. R. Jacob and Mills Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 343. See Hob. 6. the ſame Caſe.

2. Error upon a Judgment in C. B. upon a Formedon; The Judgment was upon a Verdict found, Quod recuperet ſeiſinam de uno Meſſuage, et de duobus acris terre et Paſture, not mentioning the quality of the Land, nor the quality of the Paſture, which being ill for the incertainty. It was moved, That the Judgment ought to be affirmed for the Meſſuage. It was holden by the Court, That the Court of Common Pleas might have given Judgment for the Meſſuage only. Yet when they have given one intire Judgment for the Meſſuage and Land, this being ill in part, ought to be reverſed for the whole, and cannot be affirmed for part, and reverſed for the reſidue. Hill. 11 Car. in B. R. Gosdier and Platts Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 338.

3. A. recovered 400 l. Debt againſt B. who dyed; upon a Scire facias into the County of S. the Sheriff returned R. Tertenant omnium terrarum et tenementorum in Balliva ſua quæ fuerunt prædict. B. Judgment was given, That A. ſhould have Execution againſt the ſaid R. Whereupon A. prayed an Elegit entred upon the Roll, Elegit ſibi liberari medietatem omnium terrarum et tenementorum in Com. S. tenend. &c. quousque, &c. and left out quæ fuerunt prædict. B. and for that cauſe, the Judgment was reverſed quoad adjudicationem Executionis; and yet the Writ of Elegit, and the return of it were well in that point. Mich. 5 Jac. in B. R. Reeve and Gwens Caſe. Hob. 90.

Judg-

4. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, A. being ſeiſed of Lands in Feeſimple, conveyed his Land by Deed of Feoffment unto T. his Son, in this manner, ſcil. to him, and the Heirs of his body, Habendum, to the uſe of him and his Heirs for ever, who afterwards deviſed all the Lands by his Will; under whom the Plaintiff claimed: the Queſtions were, 1. What Eſtate Thomas had by this Feoffment, if tail, or Fee. 2. If tail, Then whether Tenant in tail might be ſeiſed to another uſe. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That he had an Eſtate tail, and that Tenant in tail could not ſtand ſeiſed to an uſe, according to 24 H. 8. br. Feoffments to uſe, 40. And therefore it was adjudged in this Caſe, That whereas the Plaintiff in the Ejectione firmæ claimed the whole, in regard but one moyety did belong to the party under whom the Plaintiff claimed, That Judgment ſhould be entred only but for a moyety for the Plaintiff. Trin. 13 Jac. in B. R. Cowper and Franklins Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 185.

5. Error upon a Judgment in C. B. in an Action upon Aſſault and Battery; the Error was, that the Action was brought againſt three, who all appeared, and pleaded, Whereas one of them was an Infant within age, and Judgment entirely was given againſt them all, which muſt be void againſt the Infant. It was the Opinion of the Court, That for an Error in Law againſt ſome of the Defendants, it is reverſed in all of them, otherwiſe of an Error in fait. It was the Opinion further, That the Judgment in this Caſe was entire, and was to be reverſed for the whole, although it be good in ſome part. Trin. 24 Car. in B. R. Aylet and Oats Caſe. Styles 121, 125.

7. Where a Judgment ſhall not be given, although the party hath right: Where given, though there be no Original ſued out; and where no Judgment can or may be given: And where, if given, not to be reverſed, but by Error or Attaint.

1. If the point in Iſſue be found againſt the Plaintiff, there the Plaintiff cannot have Judgment, although he hath right; This appeareth in Cook 3. Part, 42. in Ratcliffs Caſe, (ſee the Caſe at large) There the Iſſue was, Whether Elizabeth the Mother, had the cuſtody of Martha at the time of the Contract of Marriage. There, upon the ſpecial Verdict, divers things were found without Warrant, and which were not material to the Iſſue joyned. And although in that Caſe it appeared, That the Plaintiff had right againſt the Defendant; yet becauſe the Iſſue was found againſt him, Judgment was given, That the Plaintiff ſhould not take any thing by his Writ. Cook 3. Part, 42. Ratcliffs Caſe.

2. Upon a ſpecial Verdict, the Caſe was, Tenant for life, the Remainder in Fee to the Plaintiff; Tenant for life leaſeth for years, the Leſſee is ouſted, and the Tenant for life diſſeiſed: The Diſſeiſor maketh a Leaſe for years, and his Leſſee ſowed the Land, and Tenant for life dyed, he in the Remainder in Fee entred; the Defendant took the Corn ſowed, and he in the Remainder brought Treſpaſs. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Defendants claiming by the Leſſee of the Diſſeiſor, had not the meer right in them, but in reſpect of his poſſeſſion, ſhould bar the Plaintiff, but the meer right was in the Leſſee of the Tenant for life, and he might have an Action of Treſpaſs, and recover all the mean profits againſt the Leſſee of the Diſſeiſor; therefore he in the Reverſion ſhall not have remedy for them alſo, for then the Leſſee of the Diſſeiſor ſhould be twice charged; but as to the entry into the Lands, and taking of the Corn, it was good matter of juſtification by the Defendants; but becauſe they pleaded Not Guilty, the Plaintiff had Judgment for the Entry, but was barred for the reſt. Cook 5. Part, 85. Sir Henry Knivets Caſe.

3. Treſpaſs of Aſſault and Battery was brought and tryed in Middleſex, and the Bill upon the File was in London. It was Reſolved, That it was a Declaration and Tryal without Bill, which was aided by the Statute of Jeofailes, Hill. 20 Jac. in B. R. Col brop and Culpepers Caſe. And Judgment in that Caſe was for the Plaintiff. So, where Debt was brought in Exeter, and the Writ ſuppoſed to be within the County of Devon. After Verdict, it was held, That the Writ in one County, cannot be for an Action in another County, and therefore it was a tryal without an Original; and that is helped by the Statute. But ſee [the Caſe, where Error was brought upon a Judgment in Ejectione firmæ, for that the Original bore date 24. Jan. 6 Car. and the Ejectment was ſuppoſed 31. Jan. And after Verdict, upon Not Guilty pleaded, it was found for the Plaintiff, and Judgment entred; and the ſame was aſſigned for Error. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the Judgment was Erronious, becauſe the Original was certified as an Original in that Action which was between the ſame party, and the ſame Term; but becauſe it was taken out before the cauſe of Action; it was holden to be a vitium and ill Original, not helped by the Statute, and the Judgment therefore was reverſed. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. Jobs and Steyners Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 98, 205.

4. Error brought of a Judgment in C. B. in an Action upon the Caſe for words; the words were, Thou was forſworn in a Court of Record, and that I will prove. Judgment was given there, That the Action would not lye for the words, becauſe he did not ſhew in what Court of Record he was forſworn. The Error aſſigned was in the matter of Law, That the Judgment there was given for the Defendant, where it ſhould have bin for the Plaintiff. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Action well lay for thoſe words; and it ſhall be taken that he ſpake the words malitiouſly, accuſing him of perjury, and upon a falſe Oath, upon judicial proceeding in a Court of Record: Wherefore the Judgment was holden to be erronious, and it was reverſed. Hill. 13 Car. in B.R. Cecly and Hoskins Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 366.

5. Debt upon an Obligation dated 20 Maii, 21 Jac. and the Plaintiff declared upon an Obligation of 20 Maii Regis nunc, which after was amended, and made 20 Jacobi; the Defendant thereunto pleaded a Judgment upon another Bond of 100 l. dated Anno 5 Regis nunc; and that he had nothing in his hands upon which Iſſue was joyned, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, That the Plea was repugnant and impoſſible, That a Recovery ſhould be of 5 Regis nunc; and therefore the Iſſue joyned, was naught, and no Judgment could be given upon it. But the Court was of Opinion, That ſo much as there was a default in the Defendants Plea, although the Plaintiff hath joyned Iſſue thereupon, which is found falſe; yet the Plaintiff having a good Declaration, ſhould have Judgment. Mich. 1 Car. in B. R. Knight and Harpers Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 18 See before, in Title Iſſue joyned, the ſame Caſe.

6. The Caſe was, A Copyho'd was ſurrendred to J. S. in truſt, that ſo an Allien might take the profits thereof to his own uſe. Upon this an Inquiſition was taken for the King: whereupon the Lands were ſeized into the Kings hands. It was moved in this Caſe, That the Record was not removed out of the Chancery, but only an extract out of the Record in Chancery: and therefore Judgment could not be given upon it in the Kings Bench; but Judgment muſt be given upon the Record it ſelf; and the Court of Chancery is the only Judg of the Inquiſition, and ſo there might be one Judgment in the Chancery, and another here, if the Record be not removed here: And it was ſaid, There is a difference where a Tranſcript of a Record is removed out of a Court which cannot proceed upon the Record it ſelf; and when it is a Tranſcript of a Record, the Court may proceed in: And it was ſaid, That the Court here cannot judg, if the Commiſſion and the Inquiſition upon it were well executed or not: and therefore there could not be any Judgment given upon it here. But the Court was of Opinion, That they might give Judgment againſt the King, without the Inquiſition, and the Record is tranſmitted hither to determine whether the King or the party hath right, and the Chancery cannot entermeddle with it: And it was ſaid, That if an Office be found to entitle the King in Chancery, and it be tranſmitted hither, and it appears to this Court, That the Office is not good, that this Court might give Judgment againſt the King. Paſc. 24 Car. in B.R. the King and Hollands Caſe. Styles 21, 41, 90, 95.

7. By a private Act of Parliament in 5 and 6 Ed. 6. That the Quarter-Seſſions for the County of Angleſey in Wales ſhould be holden at Beaumaris, except in time of Plague, or other contagious Sickneſs; which being a private Act, it was exemplified and ſhewed to the Juſtices at their Seſſions under the Great Seal; and yet they proceeded, and took divers Indictments at N. another place within the ſaid County. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That all the ſaid Indictments taken before them were void, et coram non Judice; for which the ſaid Juſtices were fined for their contempts. Mich. 4 Ma. Dyer, 135.

8. A Fine ſur conuſans de droit come ceo, was levyed of certain Lands in W. C. and E. upon which Fine four Proclamations were made every Term, but the 13 Proclamation was made 7. Junii in Trinity Term, whereas in truth, it was Dies Dominicus. Whereupon Error was brought to reverſe the Fine; and whether the whole Fine ſhould be reverſed or no, or the Proclamation only, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Fine ſhould ſtand in force, for the Fine is a matter of Record perfect and full before the Proclamations, and ſhall bind the right of the parties, and the Proclamations are another matter of Record which ſhall have another entry on Record after the Fine, ſo as they are ſeveral matters of Record, and therefore an Error in the Proclamation, is no Error in the Fine: And therefore the Proclamations were reverſed only, and not the Fine: And note, it was ſaid in that Caſe, That there needed not any Writ of Error to have bin brought to reverſe the Proclamations, becauſe they might have bin avoided by Plea. Mich. 5 Eliz. Plow. Com. 265. Fiſh and Brockets Caſe.

9. A Recognizance was made to Sir Nicholas Bacon, Keeper of the Great Seal, and to two others, and the ſaid Recognizance was taken before Sir Nicholas Bacon himſelf. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, Juſtices, That the ſame was void as to Sir Nicholas Bacon; but it was good to the other two. Paſc. 5 Eliz. Dyer, 220.

10. In a Quo Warranto againſt the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Jurats of Maidſtone in Kent, the Caſe was: In the Quo Warranto brought againſt them. It was Ordered by the Court, That they ſhould have day to plead until a fortnight after Trinity Term, and they had not pleaded accordingly: Whereupon Judgment was entred in the Roll, and the Writ of ſeiſin awarded, and Execution thereupon. Afterwards by a private Order in the vacation by the Lord Chief Juſtice, and another Juſtice. It was Ordered, That the Judgment ſhould be ſtayed; and the truth was, it was never entred in the Rolls of the Court, and therefore it was prayed, That the Judgment might not be filed, but that the laſt Order might ſtand. It was Objected, That that could not be, for that by the Judgment given, the King was entituled to have the profits of the Franchiſes, which he ſhould not loſe; and after Judgment entred, there can be no plea. And one Sir John Wells Caſe was vouched; where in a Quo Warranto, the Defendant had day to plead, otherwiſe Judgment ſhould be entred to ſeize, and he failed to plead at the day, and the Judgment was not filed, and yet he could not be relieved. The Court ſaid, This was a Caſe of great extremity, and they would adviſe of it; and in the mean time, that the plea ſhould be Recorded. And in this Caſe, it was ſaid, That the Kings Bench cannot reverſe a Judgment, although it be the ſame Term without a Writ of Error but that is where Error lyes in the ſame cauſe in the ſame Court, as upon an Outlawry, but if no Error lyes in this Court for the ſame cauſe, but in Parliament, then the Kings Bench may reverſe the Judgment without a Writ of Error, being in the ſame Term: And it was ſaid by them, That the Judgment was here never of Record, for the Roll, until it be fixed to other Rolls, is no Record. Trin. 2 Car. in B. R. The Caſe of the Mayor and Bayliffs of Maidſtone. Poph. 181.

8. Several Caſes; where Judgments have bin Arreſted and ſtayed; and if Judgment have bin given, where they have bin reverſed, and the ſeveral Cauſes of ſtaying, or reverſing of ſuch Judgments.

1. IN Debt againſt an Adminiſtratrix; the Caſe was, The Plaintiff had Judgment againſt the Husband, and ſued him to Outlawry: He brought a Writ of Error, and removed the Record into the Kings Bench, and reverſed the Judgment for the Outlawry, but the firſt Judgment was affirmed, and then he aſked wledged a Statute, and dyed: His Wife took Letters of Adminiſtration. The Statute is extended upon the Wife, and all the goods which ſhe had of the Inteſtates taken in Execution. After which, the Plaintiff in the Kings Bench ſued a Scire facias upon the Judgment againſt the Wife, ſhe pleaded the Statute in Bar, and the Extention, and more then that, ſhe had nothing to ſatisfy. Upon this Plea, the Plaintiff demurred in Law: The Court ſeemed to incline, That this was no bar, for although the Wife hath not any means to help her ſelf, or to prevent the extent of the Statute; yet it ſeemed to the Court, That this would not avoid the Execution: And the Wife might have an Audita Querela againſt the Conuſee of the Statute, and ſo make the extent void. Hill. 8 Jac. in C. P. Beu-block and Reads Caſe. Brownlow, 2. Part, 39, 40.

2. An Action of Battery was brought in the Court of Plymouth before the Mayor and Bayliffs. Judgment was given for the Plaintiff, and a Writ of Enquiry of damages was awarded to the Serjeant of the Mace, That by the Oath of twelve men, he ſhould enquire which Writ was returnable at the next Court before the Mayor and Bayliffs: Upon Error brought, it did appear by the Record certified, That the Writ to enquire of damages, was taken before the Mayor who was Judg of the Court. And for that cauſe, the Judgment was reverſed, for the Writ warrants an enquiry before the Serjeant at Mace, who is a diſtinct Officer, and ſo the Enquiry before the Mayor not warranted by the Writ. Trin. 3 Jac. in C. B. Bayly and Moons Caſe. Brown. 2. Part, 203.

3. Aſſumpſit, for that the Defendant in conſideration of ſuch a ſum of money paid to him, promiſed to aſſure ſuch Copyhold Lands to the Plaintiff, in ſuch manner as J. S. ſhould adviſe. And ſhewed,

ſhewed, That J. S. adviſed, that he ſhould make a ſurrender of that Land at the next Court of the Manner, to the uſe of the Plaintiff and his Heirs, and ſhould enter into a Bond of 40 l. for the enjoying of it againſt all perſons, all which he had not done: Upon Non Aſſumpſit found for the Plaintiff, It was moved, That this breach in not entring the Bond, was ill; and damages being given for that as for the other, no Judgment might be entred, and of that Opinion was the whole Court: For the Order that J. S. made, That the Defendant ſhould enter the Bond, was out of the Aſſumpſit; and the damages being given entire, was ill alſo: And ſo the Judgment was ſtayed. Paſc. 4 Jac. in B. R. Stainroide and Lacocks Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 115.

4. Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared, Whereas the Defendant was endebted to him 15 l. the Defendant promiſed to pay it by 21 s. the Quarter, and to enter Bond upon requeſt for the payment of ſuch ſums; and alledged a requeſt to enter Bond, which requeſt was made after the end of the Quarter. After a Verdict for the Plaintiff, it was alledged, That the requeſt to enter Bond of 30 l. and refuſal of it, was no breach, for there was not any promiſe to enter any Bond certain. But the Court ſaid, It was good enough, for it ſhall be intended a Bond of double the Debt, which is uſual. But becauſe the requeſt is alledged to be after a Quarter day, and if there ſhould be a Bond for the payment of it, it would be forfeited preſently for that cauſe. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſc. 4 Car. in B. R. Gregory and Wikes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 136.

5. Error of a Judgment in a Quod ei deforceat in the nature of a Writ of Right. The Writ was general, and the Count was of a Meſſuage, 29 Acres of Land, 30 Acres of Meadow, 40 Acres of Paſture, and 20 Acres de Jampna et bruaria, which ought to have bin alledged in certain. But it was holden by the Court to be good enough, for that Jampna & bruaria are not intended Lands of ſeveral ſorts, but of one and the ſame kind and Land; and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in the Lady Howard and Candiſh Caſe. 2. It was ſaid, That the Iſſue was not well joyned, becauſe he pleaded, That he had majus jus tenendi tenementa praedict. then the Plaintiff, and he doth not ſay ſibi et haeredibus ſuis. But non allocatur. For the Court intended not he ſhould have a leſſer eſtate then Fee, and if he were but Tenant for Life, it was at his perill to take ſuch a pleading, for that it is a forfeiture of his Eſtate. The Judgment was affirmed. Hill. 5 Car. in B. R. Griffith and Jukins's Caſe. Croke, 1. Part, 329.

6. Error brought by the Principal and Bail, and and the Error was aſſigned aſwell in the principal Judgment, as in the Execution againſt the Bail. It was the Opinion of the Court, The Writ was not well brought. Then they brought ſeveral Writs quae coram vobis reſidunt; the Error Aſſigned by the Principal was, That the Declaration was ill: And upon reading of the Record, it appeared, That the Action was brought before there was any cauſe of Action. Wherefore the Court held the Declaration to be ill, and erroneous: and therefore the Judgment was reverſed, and then the Writ of Error by the bail fell of it ſelf. Hill. 15 Car. in B R. Smith and James Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 415.

7. Error of a Judgment in Debt upon an Obligation upon a Demurrer, becauſe Judgment was given for the Defendant, Quod querens nihil Capiat per breve. It was aſſigned for Error, That the Action was brought by an Attorney there by Bill of Priviledg, and not by Original Writ; ſo the Judgment ought to have bin nihil Capiat per billam, and not per Breve. The Clarks held it to be Error; but the Court doubted of it, becauſe it was in the Judgment which was by the Court; and therefore the Court would adviſe of it. Trin. 25 Car. in C.B. Reymound and Barbeges Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 419.

8. Error in the Exchequer of a Judgment in B. R. in Aſſumpſit; Whereas the Plaintiff ſold him 29 peeces of Prunes, conteyning 189 hundred, and 21 l. weight at the rate of 18 s. 8 d. the hundred, which in toto ſe attingunt to 174 l. 19 s. 8 d. The Defendant in conſideration thereof, promiſed to pay him at the end of a Moneth, the ſum of 174 l. 19 s. 8 d. Upon Non Aſſumpſit, and Judgment for the Plaintiff. It was aſſigned for Error, That the ſum contracted for, was more then 174 l. 19 s. 8 d. according to 18 s. 6 d. the Hundred weight. It was holden by all the Juſtices and Barons, to be Error; and although it was alledged, That the promiſe might be leſs then was agreed to be paid for; the Court held, That ſuch an intendment perhaps might be, when a leſſer ſum is promiſed, but when the promiſe here is to pay the ſaid ſum of 174 l. 19 s. 8 d. that refers to that ſum which is caſt up, which is apparently falſe; therefore the promiſe cannot be in ſuch a manner; and it is impoſſible to pay that which is not the Bargain. Trin. 8 Jac. in B. R. Anderſon and Dunſa's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 247.

9. Errour of a Judgment given in a Writ of Right of Lands in Durham. The Writ was, Quia Dominus remiſit nobis Curiam. The Defendant imparled, and after divers Imparlances, made default; and thereupon Judgment final was given in Durham. It was aſſigned for Errour, 1. That the Writ ought to be returnable coram Juſticiariis de et Banco, and not coram Juſticiariis Itinerant. in Durham; but that was ſaid to be the Courſe, and therefore non allocatur. 2. Error, becauſe final Judgement was given upon a default after Imparlance, whereas it ought only to have been a Petit Cape; for, no final Judgement thereupon after a plea pleaded, and Iſſue joyned, or Demurrer: It was ſaid, That that is true, that after a plea pleaded, &c. no final Judgement ſhall be, but a Petit Cape; but a default after Imparlance, and before a Plea pleaded, is Quaſi a departure in deſpight of the Court: The Court did not give any Reſolution in the Caſe, but ſeemed to incline, That a Judgement final ſhould not be given, unleſs upon a departure in deſpight of the Court, which is upon a default of the ſame Term after Imparlance; otherwiſe, if day be given to another Term, and then the Tenant makes default. 3. Error was, That the Writ bore date 20 Feb. 6 Jac. and in the Declaration, the Expleas were alledged in the time of Queen Eliz. in the ſeizin of the Defendant himſelf: and by the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Limitation, a Writ of Right of his own ſeizin cannot be but within 30 years before that time, and this ſeizin alledged may be before that time; and for that Error, the Judgement was reverſed. Mich. 9 Jac. in B. R. Lilborne and Heroes Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 392.

10. In Treſpaſs, the firſt Declaration wanted the words vi & armis; but the ſecond Declaration which was after Imparlance, had thoſe words. It was Reſolved by the Court, That the words vi & armis, were matter of ſubſtance, which could not be amended, and for that cauſe the Judgement was reverſed, Trin. 17 Jac. B. R. Ford and Fords Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 597. See 37 Eliz. in B. R. Sheer and Bridges Caſe, where an Action of Battery was brought, and the Declaration was, Quod cum, the Defendant did aſſault and beat him, without affirming vi & armis, and for that cauſe the Judgement was reverſed, ibid.

11. In Detinue of a Bond, it was found for the Plaintiffe, and damages aſſeſſed 7 l; and if the Bond cannot be reſtored, then they aſſeſſed damages beſides the 7 l. 20 l. more; and thereupon it was adjudged, that he ſhould pay the 7 l. and the ſaid Bond of 20 l. And a Diſtringas was to the Sheriffe to diſtrein for the ſaid Bond, or 20 l. It was alledged for Error, That the Judgement ought to be conditional; viz. the ſaid Bond, or if he cannot have the ſaid Bond, then the 20 l. and thoſe conditional words were omitted. And although it was urged that it ſhall be intended conditional, yet the Court was of Opinion, that the Judgement was erroneous; for by that Judgement and awarding of the Diſtringas, the Sheriffe might diſtrein for the one or the other at his choice, which ought not to be, but he ought to diſtrein for the thing it ſelf, and if he cannot have it, then for the 20 l. The Judgement was reverſed, Trin. 21 Jac. B. R. Peters and Heywards Caſe, Cro. 2 Part, 681.

12. Accompt brought againſt a Feme-Covert, and her husband, as Adminiſtratrix, and Judgment was given Quod computent; the Wife dyed, and the Husband brought a Writ of Error to reverſe this Judgment. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Writ of Error did not lye, becauſe the Record cannot be removed by it, for that would diſturb the proceedings in the Common Pleas, and the party would have no benefit of his Suit, if the Record ſhould be removed, nor any remedy for the recovery of the arrears due unto him. Trin. 1651. B. R Spittlehouſe and Farmoryes Caſe, Style, 290.

13. In an Action upon the Caſe, for words after a Verdict found and the Plaintiff, Judgment was given for the Defendant; and therefore the Entry was, Ideo conceſſum eſt, quod Querens nihil capiat per Billam. It was holden to be a manifeſt Error by the Court; for the Entry ought to have been, Ideo conſideratum eſt. Hill. 11 Car. B. R. Slotorats Caſe, Cro. 1. Part, 319.

14. Error brought of a Judgement in an Inferior Court, the Entry being Ideo Conceſſum eſt per Curiam quod praedict. J S. recuperet: It was Objected, that the word Conceſſum, it is a Form of Entry, and ſo is Cook, 1 Part, Allenwoods Caſe for the Queen; Cook 1 Part, Porters Caſe. againſt the Queen; Cook 8 Part, the Princes Caſe; and Cook 10 Part, Suttons Caſe. But it was Reſolved, That the Entry was not good, for that it ought to be Ideo conſideratum eſt per Curiam; for the word conſideratum eſt, is very ſignificant, and implies two conſiderations. 1. To be a granting of an Award of the Court. 2. That this was done by them upon very good conſideration. Paſch. 13 Jac. B. R. Robins and Sambeths Caſe. Bolſtr. 8 Part, 92. 93.

15. Upon Covenant upon Articles, one of which was to allow ſuch a ſum of money to an Under-Clark of the Six Clarks Office by the ſheet for every Quire of paper he ſhould write in Copying and Engroſſing of Bills, Anſwers, &c. as was expreſſed in the ſaid Articles; The Plaintiff obtained a Verdict againſt the Defendant: In arreſt of Judgment it was inſiſted upon, that there was more found in the breach of the Covenant aſſigned, than was contained in the Covenant it ſelf; for it was found that he had not payed for 72 ſheets, which was five quire and a half, and ſo damages were given for more than ought to be, for the Covenant was to pay ſo much the Quire, and mentions not the half. The Court held the ſame a good cauſe to ſtop the Judgment; for they ſaid, the Law will not

ſupply a Caſe, nor deſire to bring it within the Covenant to ground a breach thereupon. Paſch. 23 Car. B. R. Needler and Gents Caſe, Styles, 2.

9. Where Judgement ſhall be that the Party ſhall be in Miſericordia; and where Capiatur, & contra.

1. DEbt by an Executor, The Defendant pleaded a Releaſe of the Teſtator made unto himſelf, and upon Non eſt factum, pleaded and found againſt him: Judgement was in Miſericordia; and thereupon Error was brought, and the Judgement was reverſed, becauſe it ought to have been Capiatur, for that he pleaded a falſe Deed, Paſch. 7 Jac. B. R. Gibſon and Harbottles Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 255.

2. Trover brought againſt Husband and Wife, of a Trover and Converſion of the Wife during the Coverture. Upon Not Guilty, It was found againſt them for part, and for other part it was found for the Defendant; and the Judgement was, Quod Quatens recuperet his damages, and that the Wife ſit in Miſericordia, and that the Plaintiff. Quoad reſiduum unde defendentes in quietati ſint ſit in Curia; In Error brought, it was aſſigned for Error, becauſe the Judgment is, that the Wife ſit in miſericordia, whereas it ſhould have been, that the Husband and Wife ſint in Miſericordia, for that ſhe cannot pay without her Husband: And it was ſaid, That it was the uſual courſe for Treſpaſſes done by the Wife during Coverture, if they were Convicted, to have Judgement Ideo Capiantur againſt both; yet there is no offence by the Husband himſelf. For the firſt cauſe, the Court held the Judgment to be Erroneous, and ſo it was reverſed. Mich. 15 Jac. in B. R. Wood and Dr. Suckling's Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 437.

3. Error was brought upon the removal of the Record into the Common Pleas, of a Judgement given upon an Information before the Mayor of London, upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. for uſing a Trade, whereby they demanded 40 s. for every moneth: The Error aſſigned was, That it being a penal Law, ought not to be Sued but in the Kings Courts at Weſtminſter, where the Kings Attorney is to acknowledge or deny. Cook 6 Part, 19. Alſo the Judgement was, Quod eſſet in miſericordia; where it ſhould be, Quod Capiatur. It was Reſolved, That for theſe Errors, the Judgment ſhould be reverſed, and was reverſed accordingly. Trin. 17 Jac. in B. R. Miller and the Kings Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 538.

4. A Judgement in the Court of Derby, in Debt upon an Obligation, and Non eſt factum pleaded, was Entred thus; Quod Capiatur; but the Judgement certified was in this manner, Ideo in miſericordia Capiatur, without aſſigned for Error; It was moved to the Court, that the words [in miſericordia] were ſtricken out, and the Judgement is only Capiatur, and a Certiorari was awarded, which certified, that the words [in miſericordia] were not in the Judgement but a Capiatur only. It was the Opinion of the Court, That a Certiorari ſhould not have been awarded to an Inferiour Court, to certifie that which the Record ſhould certifie; and becauſe the Record certified had the words in it, and the line was underneath drawn, and for that the Capiatur was written with another hand, the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 14 Jac. B. R. Dryſcat and Heatons Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 542.

5. Debt upon the Statute of 2 Mar. for taking 10 d. for a Diſtreſs, ſub pœna forisfacturæ of 5 l. The Defendant pleaded Nihil debet; and the Jury found Debet, and aſſeſſed damages 2 d. and coſts 53 s. 4 d. The Coſts were increaſed by the Court to 7 l. and Judgment given, that he ſhould have a Writ for the 5 l. and damages and coſts, and the Defendant to be in miſericordia. Error was brought. 2. Errors aſſigned. 1. That the Judgment ought to be Capiatur. To that it was anſwered and Reſolved, That the Judgment was well; for that the Judgment was for Debt upon the Not payment, and not upon the Statute, being a penal Law. 2. Error was, that no damages or coſts ought to be given, becauſe it is a penal Statute, and the penalty is given by the Statute, and therefore he ought to have no more for coſts and damages. But Reſolved, That the Judgment was good, notwithſtanding that Exception, for when a Statute gives a penalty certain, and gives an Action of Debt, there if the Defendant doth not pay it upon demand, but forceth the party to a Suit, there he ſhall recover damages, and he ſhall alſo recover his coſts; but where the Duty is uncertain, there the Statute intends to give the treble value, and not any coſts; the Judgment was affirmed. Trin. 14. Car. B. R. North and Wingates Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 403, 404.

6. Error brought to reverſe a Judgement given for the King, upon an Indictment againſt the Marquiſs of Winchester, upon the ſtatute of Recuſancy, for his abſence from Church for two moneths. It was found by Verdict, that he was abſent for one moneth, parcel of the time, and not Guilty for the other moneth; whereupon it was adjudged, that he ſhould forfeit 20 l. Divers Errors were aſſigned, 1. That the Indictment was ad Caſtrum Wiston. and doth not ſay in what Pariſh or County Wiston is. 2. It is againſt him by the name of Dominum St. John, without addition. 3. That non acceſſit ad

Eccleſiam

Exclesiam prædict. where no Church was mentioned before. All which Errors were disallowed by the Court: But because the Judgement was not Idem capiatur, the omission of which is apparent to the Kings prejudice, and in every Conviction upon Inditement, the Judgement is Quod capiatur; for this cause the Judgement was reversed. Mich. 14 Car. B. R. The Marquess of Winchesters Case. Cro. 1 Part, 362.

Mort Judgements.

1. THe Consisee of a Statute Staple in a Writ of Detinue upon the same Statute upon Garnishment, recovers by erroneous Judgement against the Garnishee, and hath the Statute delivered unto him; the Garnishee brings a Writ of Error, and the Consisee sues Execution upon the Statute, and hath it: In this case, although the Garnishee reverseth the Judgement, yet in as much as the Statute was executed, the Execution shall not be avoided by the reversal of the Judgement, because the Judgement was only to have the Statute delivered, and the Execution upon the Statute is a thing executed, and doth not at all depend, but the Judgement; and yet the Garnishee shall have remedy upon the reversal of the Judgement by Audita Querela. See Cook 8 Part, in 142. in Dr. Drories Case. &c.

2. Debt brought by an Executor upon an Obligation made to his Testator; the Defendant pleaded in Bar a Recovery by the Testator in his life time, upon which there was a Demurrer in Law upon Error brought. It was Objected, That it was in the Election of the Plaintiff either to Sue Execution upon that Judgment, or to have a new Action; for the Deed was not changed notwithstanding the Judgement. 2. That it was against reason to compel the Plaintiff to Sue Execution upon the first Judgement, which perhaps was erroneous, and reversable by Error or Attaint. But it was Resolved, That so long as the first Judgement did remain in force, he could not have a new Action upon the same Obligation: for when a man hath debt upon an Obligation, and by ordinary course of Law hath Judgement upon it, the Contract by Specialty, which is the most base in nature, is by the Judgement changed into a matter of Record, which is of a more high nature. And 2. If he might have a new Action, he might have infinite Actions and Judgements, and upon every Judgement the Defendant should be amerced, which would be very mischievous to the party. 3 Jac. in C. B. Cook 6 Part, 44. Hogans Case.

3. A. recovered against B. 60 l. in an Action upon the Case upon a promise, against which B. C. brought a Plaint of Debt in London, and Attached the said money in the hands of B. and had Execution according to the Customs of London: Now A. Sued a Scire facias against B. upon the said Judgement, who pleaded the said Execution by Attachment; upon which A. did Demur in Law. It was in that Case holden by the Court to be no Plea, for a Duty which accrueth by matter of Record, cannot be Attached by the Customs of London, and notwithstanding that the Customs be layed generally in aliquo debito, and damages recovered are quoddam debitum, yet the Law is clear, That Judgements given in the Courts of the King, cannot by such particular Customes be defeated and avoided; and in the argument of that Case, it was agreed by all the Justices, and by Bromley Lord Chancellor, and so said to be adjudged, That where a Merchant having in an Action recovered damages, became Bankrupt, upon which a Commission issued forth upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. of Bankrupts, That the Commissioners could not intermeddle with such damages to dispose of them to the Creditors, according to the Statute. Trin. 27 Eliz. in B. R. Flood and Sir John Perrots Case. Leon. 19.

4. A. brought a Scire facias against B. Administrator of J. S. upon a Recovery had against the Intestate in an Action of Debt; The Defendant pleaded, That before the said Judgement was given, the Testator did acknowledge a Statute unto one J. D. and that the same was not paid in the life of the Testator, and that he had not any goods of the Intestate in his hands, beyond what would satisfie the said Statute. It was Resolved by the Court to be no Plea, because that a Statute is but a private and pocket Record, as they call it, and shall not be satisfied before a Judgement had in a Court of Record. Trin. 33 Eliz. in B. R. Read and Bayliss Case. Leon. 328. Mich. 32 Eliz. in B. R. in Coury and Barhams Case adjudged acc.

5. In an Act on upon the Case, it was agreed by the whole Court, That where Judgement is given that the Plaintiff shall recover; and because it is not known what the damages are, therefore a Writ issueth to enquire of the damages. That it is not a perfect Judgment before the damages returned and adjudged; and therefore after such an Award of the Court, such matter may be shewed in Arrest of Judgement: And Periam Justice said, That the difference is, where damages are the principal thing to be recovered, and where not: for if they be the principal, full Judgement is not to be given before they be returned; but it is otherwise in debt, where an entire sum is demanded. Pasch. 35 Eliz. in C. B. Bigbton and Sawles Case. Leon. 309.

6. Debt againſt an Executor, upon fully adminiſtred; the Plaintiff replyed, that he had Aſſets, and the Defendant relicta verificatione confeſſed the Action, nec quia ipſe detinet; and Judgement was given againſt the Defendant de bonis Teſtatoris, which was entred in the Roll: It was moved to the Court, That his Confeſſion ſhould contain that he had Aſſets ſufficient, and that it might be added to the Entry: But the Court refuſed ſo to do, for that naturally the Confeſſion can extend no farther then the Count, which is the Debet, and not the Aſſets, Hill. 14 Jac. C. B. Bird and Cumins Caſe. Hob. 178.

7. Debt upon an Obligation, Conditioned for the payment of a leſſer ſum; the Defendant pleaded a Tender at the day, and that he was tunc tempꝰ priſt. The Plaintiff received the ſum in Court, and Judgement was given to acquit the Defendant of the ſum received; The Plaintiff to have damages, alledged a demand of the money from the Defendant; upon which it was Demurred, and Judgment was given againſt the Plaintiff; for if the Plaintiff would have damages, he ought not to have received the money, but to ſuffer it to remain in Court: For after Judgment, Quod eat ſine die, no Iſſue can be taken. Paſch. 4 Jac. C. B. Harold and Charworthies Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 126.

8. Error to Reverſe a Judgement given againſt the Plaintiff being an Infant; The Error aſſigned and inſiſted upon, was, Becauſe that the Judgment given againſt him, was, Quod Capiatur, which ought not to be: Upon the Book of 17 Eliz. Dyer, 388. Where if an Infant be Plaintiff by his Prochin Amy, after his default makes an Attorney, and afterwards become Non-ſuit, he ſhall not here be amerced, for that he was within age; and if ſo, then no Capiatur ought to be awarded againſt an Infant. See 14 E. 3. 18. Two were found Diſſeiſors with force and Armes, the one of them was an Infant but of 18 years of Age, therefore he was not Impriſoned, but the other was: and ſee Paſch. 43 E. 3. Fitz. Impriſonment 16. In an Aſſize. It was found for the Plaintiffe, and adjudged that he ſhould recover ſeiſin of the Land, and that the Tenant ſhould be amerced, and taken; but becauſe that it appeared that he was within age, he was neither to be amerced nor Impriſoned: And in the principal Caſe the Court was of Opinion, That there was no Caſe in Law to warrant ſuch Judgement, that the Infant ſhould be amerced, or a Capiatur awarded againſt him, and therefore the Judgement was reverſed. Trin 9 Jac. in B. R. Daly and Hilbrooks Caſe. Bolſtr. 1 Part, 172.

9. Error to reverſe a Judgement in C. B. in Debt, againſt the Defendant, as Adminiſtrator of J. S. who pleaded, that before the Writ purchaſed, the Adminiſtration to him was revoked, and committed to another, and ſaid, that at the time of the Writ brought, he had then in Aſſets in his hands, to the value of 200 l. but before the Judgment given, he had delivered it over to the new Adminiſtrator; and all this being ſo confeſſed, the Plaintiffe ſaid, that this Revocation, Aſſignation, and all that was Acted, was by fraud between him and the party to whom the ſecond Adminiſtration was granted: Upon which Iſſue was joyned, and the Jury did finde the Covin, and a Verdict was for the Plaintiff, and Judgment, Quod recuperet de bonis Teſtatoris abſolutely. Error was brought and aſſigned, becauſe the Judgment was given abſolute, whereas it ought to have been conditional. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Judgement being abſolutely given, was good, and not erroneous, and they were not reſtrained, as the caſe was, to give Judgment conditional; and afterwards the Judgment was affirmed. Mich. 9 Jac. in B. R. Morgan and Sayer Caſe. Bolſtr. 1 Part, 187.

10. A Scire facias by A. againſt B. to have Execution of a Judgement, which was for 20 l. which Judgement was de Octab. Hill. 2 Car. One being returned Terr-Tenant pleaded, That after the Judgment, viz. 22 Jan. he againſt whom the Judgment was, acknowledged a Statute, and that by that the Land was extended, and, after Liberate, delivered in Execution, and demanded Judgment: upon which the Plaintiff did Demur in Law: And the Queſtion was, to what day the Judgement ſhould have relation, for it appears in the Pleading, that the 20 day of Jan. was the day of Eſſoin. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Judgement ſhould have relation to the firſt day of Term, as well as if it had been a Returne in the Term, for otherwiſe it ſhould be incertain. See 5 Mar. Dyer 200. And one Gilliaghams caſe was vouched, viz. a Releaſe of all Judgements before the fourth day, and after the day of Eſſoin, would not releaſe this Judgement, which was de Octab. Hilarii: And it was holden, That if a Writ of Error be brought after the Octab. and before the 4 die poſt, it is good, and ought after Judgment: It was adjudged for the Plaintiff in the Scire facias. Hill. 3 Car. in C. B. Sandford and Cooper's Caſe. Hutton, 95.

11. A Judgement was given in the Common Pleas againſt the Principal, without an Original; and upon this Judgment there Iſſued forth a Scire facias againſt the Bail, and two Nichills returned, and thereupon Judgement was given againſt the Bail. Error was brought by the Bayl to reverſe this Judgement: It was ſaid, that the Judgement was erroneous, becauſe being upon a Scire facias, which is a Judicial Writ, it ought to be grounded upon an Original, and it not being ſo here, it is

Error,

Error in fact, although not Error in Law. It was Reſolved, That two Nichils returned upon a Scire facias do amount to a Scire feci, and a Judgement given thereupon is good, and therefore it is too late now to ſay, That the Scire facias was not well executed. The Judgement was affirmed, Trin. 1651. B.R. Barrak and Thompſons Caſe. Styles, 288.

Jurours.

1. Who is a ſufficient Jurour, who not; When, and at what day the Jury is to be demanded: Where to be examined and ſworn. And where a Juror ſhall be withdrawn, and when: and where not. And for the finding of the Jury.

2. IN an Information for the Queen againſt J. S. A Juror, was Challenged for want of Freehold. And upon Examination, it was found, That he had 20 s. per annum Land, It was doubted by ſome of the Juſtices, if the Challenge was not good, becauſe the Statute is made for the benefit of the Common-wealth, and therefore the Queen ſhould be bound by it, although ſhe is not named, according as Gawdy conceived, he ought to have 20 s. per annum at leaſt by the Common-Law. Yet Popham commanded the Jurour to be ſworn, although the other Juſtices would have ſent to the Juſtices of the Common Pleas for their Opinions therein. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. The Queen and Sir Chriſtopher Blunts Caſe. Goldesbr. 137.

2. A. being Indicted and Arraigned for Murder before the Coroners, and upon that Enqueſt; Pleaded for matter in Law to the Endictment, That he ought not to be Impeached upon that Indictment, and pleaded the Statute of 14 H. 4. cap. 9. That none ſhould be put upon any Pannel of Enqueſt, unleſs by the Bayliffs and Miniſters of the Sheriff known, and that the ſaid Jurours ſhould be probi et legales homines: and ſhewed, That one of the Jury nominated himſelf to be one of the Jury, and was not returned by any of the Sheriffs Bayliffs, nor by the Bayliff of any Franchiſe who ought by Law to return them: and for that, that two of the ſaid Jurors were Outlawed in Actions of Debt, and averred the Outlawries were in force, and not reverſed or vacated. There were two Queſtions. 1. If the Statute of 14 H. 4. extended to Enqueſts taken before Coroners, or only to Endictments before Juſtices of the Peace, and of Oyer and Terminer. 2. Whether it extended to perſons Outlawed in perſonal Actions, or only to perſons Outlawed for Felony or Treaſon. All the Juſtices of England, and Barons of the Exchequer, being aſſembled together to reſolve theſe doubts: The greater part of the Juſtices and Barons were of Opinion, That the Statute of 14 H. 4. extended aſwell to Endictments taken before Coroners; as before Juſtices of Peace, &c. 2. That it extends to perſons Outlawed in perſonal Actions, becauſe a man Outlawed in a perſonal Action, is not probus et legalis homo. But it was holden by the Court in this Caſe, That whereas a man is not convicted or acquitted, he might be Arraigned upon a new Indictment; and the party being Arraigned upon a new Indictment, pleaded Autrefoits acquitted upon an Indictment found before the Coroners, but the Court ſaid, it was no Plea; wherefore he was commanded to anſwer. Hill. 4 Car. in B. R. Sir William Withypoles Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 95, and 105.

3. In a Writ of Right brought by the Lord Windſor againſt Husband and Wife, the four Knights and 15 others of the Grand Jury appeared; but the Tenants made default. It was ſaid in that Caſe, That the Jurours ſhall not be demanded, but the default of the Tenants only recorded, for that the Enqueſt ſhall not be taken by default in this Writ, as it ſhall be in other perſonal Actions. But it was ſaid, That the default of the Demandant, or of the Tenant after the Miſe joyned, was peremptory; and then a Queſtion was, Whether the Demandant ſhould have ſeiſin of the Land without a Petit Cape. Paſc 1 Ma. Dyer, 98, and 103. The Lord Windſors Caſe.

4. A Jury of Middleſex was demanded the firſt day of the Term in the Common Pleas; ſome of them appeared, and ſome not, ſo as the Jury was not full, and the Defendant did not appear, either in perſon, or by his Attorney. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Enqueſt ſhould be taken by default, becauſe the parties are alwayes demandable before the Jurors. And it was ſaid in that Caſe, That if in ſuch Caſe the Plaintiff make default, he ſhall be Non-ſuit. Mich. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 265.

5. Note, It was holden by Leonard chief Clark, and by all the Prothonotories in the Common Pleas, That if the Jury appear at the day of the Return of the Habeas Corpora, or Diſtringas, and the Plaintiff doth not appear, nor any Writ is returned, yet the Plaintiff is demandable, and if he doth not appear, he shall be Nonsuit, because the parties have day by the Roll. But it was much doubted, if the course was such in the Kings Bench. Hill. 12 Eliz. in C. B. Dyer, 286.

6. If a Jurour do happear at the bar upon return of the Writ, and after is adjorned upon a pain, and afterwards makes default; in that Case, he shall not be fined presently by the Court, because he shall be fined according to the value of his Land, and that shall be enquired of by the other his companions of the Jury, because the Court cannot know the same. 4 E. 4. 6. 20 Ass. 11. Cook 8. Part, 43. in Grisleys Case.

7. In an Attaint in the Kings Bench, the Grand-Jury did appear, and one Challenged himself, forasmuch as his Ancestors had bin Barons and Lords of Parliament, and that they had place in the same house of Parliament. This matter was tryed by six Tryers of the same Jury, for the which he prayed allowance of his Challenge, and that he ought to be discharged. But in that Case, the Chief Justice said, We cannot allow it, without a Writ testifying the same, for we ought to be informed of your Challenge by matter of Record, otherwise we cannot allow it, which the whole Court assented unto. 35 H. 6. 46. See in Cook 6. Part, 53. in the Countess of Rutlands Case.

8. Note, In an Action of Waste, the Jury is to have the view of the place, and thing wasted. And in an Action of Waste brought for uncovering of a Barn, by which the Timber was become rotten, and in the destroying of the stocks of Elms, Ashes, &c. and upon the general Issue, it was found for the Plaintiff: And in this Case amongst other things, it was agreed by the whole Court, That if six of the Jury be examined upon a voire dire, if they have seen the place wasted, it is sufficient; and the rest of the Jury need not to be examined upon a voire dire, but only to the Principal. 2. If the Jury be sworn, that they know the place, it is sufficient although they be not sworn that they saw it; and although that the place wasted be shewed to the Jury by the Plaintiffs servants; yet if it be by the commandment of the Sheriff, it is as sufficient as if it had bin shewed unto them by the Sheriff himself. Mich. 11 Iac. in C. B. Sir John Gage and Smiths Case. Godbolt. 209.

9. In Detinue of a Chain of Gold; the Plaintiff declared, That A. his brother was possessed thereof, and dyed Intestate, and that the Bishop of Cork in Ireland, granted him Letters of Administration, and that he as Administrator was possessed of the Chain in London, and that it came to the Defendants hands, who detayned it, the Defendant pleaded the general Issue, and the Jury gave a special Verdict, and found that the Administration was committed to the Plaintiff at London by the Bishop of Cork in London, but did not find that the Plaintiff was possessed of it at London. In this Case (amongst other points) it was holden by the Court clearly, That upon the general Issue pleaded, the Jury may find a Forrein matter, as a thing done out of the Realm, but it shall not abate the Writ if it be not matter of substance and pleaded before; but it was said, That in the principal Case, the finding of the Letters of Administration was more then they had in Issue, and it was but matter of Evidence, for the substance of the Issue in this Case, was the possession, and not the Administration, & for that the Plaintiff might have an Action of his own possession, without shewing the Letters of Administration. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Pasc. 27 Eliz. in C. B. Carter and Crosts Case. Godbolt, 33.

10. In an Action upon the Case, the Plaintiff declared to pay money upon a Request, but did not alledg any Request in certain: The Jury finds the Assumpsit, and so for the Plaintiff. It was said in this Case, That notwithstanding that the Jury find the Assumpsit, yet that doth not reach to the request, and without that, the Assumpsit is void, and 5 E. 4. was cited, That if a Declaration be vitious in a point material, and the Issue is taken upon another point, there the finding of it by the Jury doth not make the Declaration good. So that in the principal Case, Judgment was given for the Defendant: And in this Case, it was agreed, That if a man bring Trover and Conversion, and doth not alledg a place where the Conversion was, although that the Issue for the Trover be found by the Jury for the Plaintiff; yet he shall not have Judgment. Hill. 16 Iac. in B. R. Hill and Wades Case. Godbolt. 274.

11. Error brought to reverse a Judgment given in the Court of Lincoln in an Action of Trespass. One Error assigned was; because it appeared, That 18 Jurours were only returned upon the Panel, whereas they ought to have bin 24 returned by the Statute of Westminster, 2. cap. 38. And for that cause, it was ruled by the Court to be an insufficient return. Pasc. 2 Car. in B. R. Holms and Wrengreves Case. Godbolt. 370.

12. Hopefull Tilden was Arraigned at the Bar of the Kings Bench for a Buggery supposed to be done at Hide, one of the Cinque Ports; and the Record being removed into the Kings Bench by a Certiorari directed to the Mayor and Jurats of the said Town, and not to the Lord Warden of the Cinque Ports. The Prisoner Challenged one of the Jurats, being the Foreman, who was sworn and marked; and he was sworn and marked before the Challenge was heard by the Court, The Court therefore without the assent of the Kings Attorney, who was there present, would not alter the Record; and and becauſe he would not conſent to alter the Record, the Challenge was diſallowed. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. Hopeſhill Tilden's Caſe.

13. In Waſte, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant was ſeiſed in Fee, and made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to the Plaintiff in Fee, after which he committed Waſte. The Defendant ſaid, That he was ſeiſed in Fee, without that, that he made the Feoffment as the Plaintiff declared: upon Iſſue joyned, it was found, That the Defendant was ſeiſed in Fee, and that he made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf for the life of J. S. without Impeachment of Waſte, the Remainder ut ſupra. It was ſaid by the Juſtices, That the Jury had found ſuch an Eſtate as was alledged by the Plaintiff, which although that they found this Priviledg to be diſpunithed of Waſte, which upon the matter, proves that the Plaintiff hath no cauſe of Action; yet becauſe the Tenant may chuſe whether he would take hold of this Priviledg or not, the Jury cannot find a thing which is out of their Iſſue, and whereof the Defendant will not take advantage by pleading; and for that cauſe, it was holden by the Juſtices, That the Verdict was void. Paſc. 25 Eliz. in C. B. Keyre and Davarts Caſe. Owen 91.

2. When, and where Jurors ſhall be returned de Circumſtantibus; and a Tryall and Verdict by them, good; when and where not.

1. IN a Writ of Entry in the Quibus of 70 Acres of Lands in H. the parties were at Iſſue, and found for the Plaintiff: And in Arreſt of Judgment, it was moved, amongſt other things, That a Jurour who had made his appearance, and his appearance was Recorded, and who was not diſcharged by any Challenge; and he being ſworn upon another Inqueſt, three other de Circumſtantibus were put to make up the twelve a full Jury; whereof one was in his place, by whom after, the Iſſue was tryed. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was well enough; and the tryal good. Hill. 5 Ma. Dyer, 158.

2. At the Niſi Prius, a full Jury appeared; but yet but two Hundredors, the two Hundredors were ſworn; and the Plaintiff had a Tales de 12 Circumſtantibus Hundredorum, and they were ſworn annexed to the 8 Principal in the Pannel; and that was admitted by the Court, and the Plaintiff had not a Decem tales de Circumſtantibus, becauſe the Principals were holden to be indifferent, ſaving only that it failed of Hundredors, who after were returned as aforeſaid, and ſo it was a full Jury. Paſc. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 200.

3. Upon the Statute of 35 H. 8. cap. 6. It was holden by the Juſtices, That one of the Principal Pannel may be joyned to 12 de Tales de Circumſtantibus, or upon the Tales joyned to the 12 of the Principal Pannel; and yet the words of the Statute are in the Plural number, ſcil. proceed with thoſe added. Alſo it was holden by the Juſtices, That if two of the Principal Pannel do appear, that Tales de 12 Circumſtantibus, ſhall be granted; and if the two be withdrawn, the Tryal may be only by the Tales. Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 245.

4. In Treſpaſs upon the general Iſſue at the Aſſiſes, one of the Jurours upon the Principal Pannel appeared only, and at the prayer of the Plaintiff, a Tales de Circumſtantibus was returned by the Sheriff in this manner, the title was Nomina 10 Talium; and under it he returned 11 Jurours. In this Caſe, theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That when but one of the Principal Pannel appeareth, the Court may award 11 Tales by the Statute of 35 H. 8. cap. 6. 2. That a Tales is to be granted when the Tryal is per mediatatem linguæ, although an Allien hath no Freehold nor Iſſues, ſhall not be returned upon him, and although there be not any County, and that for the ſpeedy Execution of Juſtice. 3. That the miſpriſion of the Sheriff in the Principal Caſe ſhould be amended, and Decem put out of the Title, and then the Title ſhall be Nomina Talium only. 4. If at the time of this granting of the Tales, the Principal Pannel ſtands, and is afterwards quaſhed, yet the Tales ſhall ſtand; for it is ſufficient if there were Tales at the time of the granting of it. 5. That if one of the Jurours dyeth before appearance, or if one dyeth before the Verdict be given after he is charged, That a Tales ſhall be awarded. 6. That the Tales ought to be under the number of the Principal Pannel, and that now by the Statute, Tales may be of an uneeven number. 7. That in every new Tales, the number ſhall be leſſened, as if the firſt be Decem Tales, the next ſhall be Octo Tales. But if a Tales be awarded, and afterwards quaſhed by Challenge, there he may have a new Tales of the ſame number. 8. Reſolved, That if the Principal Pannel be quaſhed, the Tryal may be by Tales only, and if the Tales do not amount to make a full Enqueſt, a Tales to ſupply the firſt Tales, may be awarded. Mich. 10 Jac. Cook 10. Part, 103, 104. Denbawdes Caſe.

5. Error of a Judgment at the Grand Seſſions in the County of Pembroke in an Aſſiſe of Darrein Preſentment; among others, one Error was aſſigned, That Tales de Circumſtantibus was awarded, which ought not to be in an Aſſiſe, but upon Niſi Prius, Prius. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it had bin a manifeſt Error if it had bin ſo. But upon view of the Record, there were not Tales de Circumſtantibus, ſed quod habeat Decem Tales ſecundum formam Statuti; and therefore the Exception was diſallowed. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. Cort and the Biſhop of S. Davids Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 249.

3. Where the Juſtices may take notice of the Offences and miſdemeanors of the Jurors; and where they ſhall be fined to the King for ſuch Offences, where not: And where their Verdict ſhall be void by reaſon thereof; where not.

1. IN Treſpaſs, the Jury being charged, and Evidence given, they being retired to a houſe to conſider of their Evidence, they remained a long time without concluding any thing; The Officer who attended them conſidering their delay, ſearched them if they had any thing about them to eat, upon which ſearch, it was found that ſome of them had Figs, and others Pippins, which being moved to the Court, the Jurors were examined upon Oath. Two of them did confeſs that they had eaten Figs before they had agreed of their Verdict, and three of them confeſſed, That they had Pippins, but did not eat them, and that they did it without the Wills or knowledg of any of the parties to the ſuit. The Court impoſed a Fine upon each of them that had eaten, to 5 l. a peece, and upon the others that had not eaten, 40 s. But notwithſtanding the ſame miſdemeanor of the Jury, the Court held their Verdict to be good. See 35 H. 8. 55. Where the eating and drinking of the Jury at their own Coſts, was holden only Fineable. And ſee Book Entries 251. The Jurors after they went from the Bar to be adviſed of their Verdict, comederunt quaſdam ſpecies, ſcil. Raiſins, Dates, &c. at their own Coſts, aſwell before, as after they were agreed of their Verdict; they were committed to Priſon, but their Verdict was good, although it was given againſt the King. Hill. 30 El. in C. B. Mounſon and Wells Caſe. Leon. 132, 133. See 29 H. 8. Dyer, 38.

2. In Debt brought upon an Obligation, in the Caſe betwen Sir John Smith, and Peaze; which ſee, Paſc. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Leon. 17. Lib. 1. Title Covenant, Sect. 1. In Arreſt of Judgment in that Caſe, it was moved, That J. S. Sollicitor of the Plaintiff in that Suit, had given 8 s. to the Jurors money, betwixt their Charge and their Verdict, which matter was teſtified by the Oath of two men; upon which the Court examined J. S. who upon his Oath denyed the matter, as alſo did the Foreman of the Jury, to whom it was ſuppoſed the money was given. It was moved, If the Receipt of the money by any of the Jurors ſhould make the Verdict void. It was the Opinion of the greater part of the Juſtices, That for that cauſe the Verdict was void, and for that cauſe the Judgment was reverſed. Paſc. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Sir John Smith and Peazes Caſe. Leon. 17.

3. In Ejectione firmæ, it was found for the Defendants: Three of the Jurours had ſweet-meats in their Pockets, and thoſe three were for the Plaintiff untill they were ſearched, and the Sweetmeats found, and then did agree with the other nine, and gave Verdict for the Defendant. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That whether they eat or eat not, they were Fineable for having of the Sweetmeats with them, for that it is a very great miſdemeanor: and becauſe this matter was moved after the Jurors departed from the bar, and the Court cannot know which of the Jurors the three were, nor know for which three to ſend for; and for that the nine drew the three who had the Sweetmeats to their Opinion, the Court ſaw no cauſe to ſtay the Judgment; contrary, if the three had drawn the nine to them, to be of their Opinion: and therefore Judgment was given for the Defendant according to the Verdict. Trin. 21 Jac. in B. R. Sely and Flaples Caſe. Godbolt. 353.

4. Of what things the Jury may properly enquire, and of what not: Where one Jury may try a Cauſe twice, where not; and where once they give their Verdict, they ſhall not be ſworn again: And of Miſtryall.

1. UPon the view of an Enfant brought into Court to be inſpected, who had during the Coverture joyned with her Husband in levying a Fine of her Lands, ſhe was by the Court adjudged within age: Whereupon a Scire facias iſſued out to the Tert-Tenants, who came in and pleaded, That ſhe was of full age at the time of the Fine levyed; upon which Plea, Iſſue was joyned, and a Tryall had at the Aſſiſes, and a Verdict for the Plaintiff, who now came in Court, and prayed Judg-

Judgment upon the Verdict. In this Caſe, it was ſaid by the Chief Juſtice, That the Court is to Judg of the Infancy, and not the Jury, and therefore you have not proceeded duly, but the proceedings do no hurt, for that we adjudg ſhe was within age; and gave order that the Judgment ſhould be reverſed. Mich. 1655. in B. R. Vidian and Fletchers Caſe. Styles 472.

2. In Trover, and Converſion of a Bag of money; upon a ſpecial Verdict, the Caſe was, A. recovered of B. 40 l. in the County Court; a Capias iſſued againſt B. and non eſt inventus returned by the Defendant, Sergeant at Mace; a Scire facias is iſſued againſt W. one of the pledges of B. and upon this, three Butts of Sack of the goods of W. were taken in Execution; the Plaintiff being preſt at to ſtay the Sale of the goods ſo taken in Execution, paſſed the ſaid Bag of money, and ſo left it in the hands of the Defendant, to the end that he ſhould keep the ſame until the next Court day, and this only as a pledge, for the redelivery of the goods to the Defendant, upon his requeſt, if W. in the interim ſhould not obtain from A. the ſparing of the Execution; and the Jury found no requeſt made, nor W. had ſtayed the Execution, but found the Requeſt of the Plaintiff to the Defendant, to deliver the Bag of money, and his refuſal to do it: It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That this being a Bailment, and the Writ of Execution being expired, and the time paſt limitted to the Defendant by the Writ to ſell the goods, it was impoſſible to have the goods again, but he was to have the Bag of money which was pledged for them, and that this Reteyner of the Bag of money, though upon requeſt, was no Converſion: And whereas the Jury in this Caſe finde the Defendant Guilty, de Inventione & Converſione, The Court was of Opinion, That this finding of theirs was not material; and it was ſaid, That the Jury is only to finde matters of Fact, but are not to meddle with the matters here of a Converſion, being matter of Law, this only being to be determined by the Judges. Trin. 11 Jac. in B. R. Iſoack and Clift Caſe. Bulſtr. 2 Part. from 307. to 314.

3. A. ſeized of Lands holden of the King, as of his Manor of S. by Knight-Service, Suit of Court, dyed ſeized thereof, B. his Son and Heir being an Infant; whereupon in an Office after his death it was expreſſed, That A. at the time of his death, held Tenuram. prædict. de Domino Rege, per Servitium Militare, & per Liberum, & Annuatim reddium of 2 ob. and by the Service at his Court at S. The Court of Wards upon view of former Offices, Records, and other Evidences concerning the ſaid Lands, Ordered, That B. ſhould be admitted to Traverſe the Office in point of the Tenure in Capite, which was admitted, ſo that B. at his full age Sued a general Livery; and then after B. did ſell ſome part of the Lands to J. S. who dyed thereof ſeized, his ſon and heir being of full age. One Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether now B. yet living, may proceed in the ſaid Traverſe, the Traverſe being made 5. Eliz. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices Aſſiſtants of the Court of Wards, That ſuch Jury as ſhou'd hereafter enquire of the Tenure of the ſaid Lands, are not, nor ſhould not be eſtopped and concluded by the Suing of the ſaid Livery, and finding of the ſaid Office, but that they may finde the truth of the Tenure, notwithſtanding the Suing of the ſaid Livery, and finding of the ſaid Office: Whereupon a Decree paſſed accordingly. Trin. 8 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Scourfields Caſe. Leon. 22.

4. Note by Rolls Chief Juſtice, That if there be a Tryal, and a Verdict upon it, the ſame Iſſue cannot be tryed again by the ſame Jury, although the Chancery do Order ſuch Tryal; but if there be a miſ-Tryal, the party muſt move the Court where the Action was Commenced firſt, for a Venire facias de Novo, to ſummon a new Jury. Paſch. 1655. B. R. Styles, 445.

5. Error of a Judgement in C. B. in a Writ of Annuity; The Error aſſigned was, becauſe a Juror was returned upon the Venire facias, Hugh Meilby, and upon the Diſtringas Hugh Melihy was returned. It was holden by the Court, to be a manifeſt Error, unleſs it might appear by Examination of the under Sheriff, that he was the ſame perſon; and although this was in the time of another Sheriff, who was diſcharged, and the under-Sheriff alſo, yet he being in Court, he was Examined, and the Juror himſelf, if he were ſworn; and it appearing that he was the ſame perſon ſo named, it was awarded it ſhould be amended. Hill. 15 Jac. in B. R. Sir Philip Stanhope and Stanhopes Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 457.

More Jurors.

1. ERror to reverſe a Judgement in the Exchequer, upon an Information upon the Statute of Uſury; The Jury upon Not Guilty pleaded, found Quod quoad corruptum agreamentum, the Defendant was Guilty, and took the profits of ſuch Land, and took the profits to the value of 60 l. But it was not found that he lent the 100 l. prout the Information. It was Reſolved in the Exchequer, That the Verdict was void; whereupon Error was brought, and aſſigned that the Verdict was good, and ſo there ought not to be a new Tryal, as was there awarded. And 2. In regard the Verdict was but imperfect, he ought not to have a Venire facias de Novo, but Distringas Juratorum, to make their Verdict perfect. But it was the Opinion of the Justices, That the Jury having once given their Verdict, although it be imperfect, shall never be sworn again upon the same Issue, unless it be in case of Assize, where they are to recover upon view of the Jurors. Mich. 6 Jac. in B.R. Cook and Lovedayes Case. Cro. 2 Part, 210.

2. Debt upon an Obligation of 40 l. by Edmond S. upon Oyer of the Deed and the Condition. It was Entred, Noverint univ.rsi &c. me Edwardum teneri, and he subscribed it by the name of Edmond, which was his true name: The Jury found it was the Deed of Edmond: It was the Opinion of the Court, That although it be subscribed by the name of Edmond, yet that is no part of the Bond; which being apparent, the Plaintiff cannot have Judgement; and it was said by the Court, That although the Jury have found it to be the Deed of Edmond, yet that will not help it. It was adjudged against the Plaintiff. Trin. 20 Jac. in B. R. Mayby and Shepherds Case. Cro. 2 Part, 640. See Dyer, 279. acc.

3. If Jurors are sworn to enquire, and after some of them are discharged by the Justices, they shall not be charged for any matter which they did when they were sworn; and if after a Conspiracy, the Conspirators are sworn upon the Enquest, to enquire &c. and they with the others of the Jury do Indict him against whom they do conspire; No Writ of Conspiracy will lye against them, because such thing cannot be false, or malicious, because they do it upon their Oaths, and that with divers others beside themselves; Mich. 13 Jac. in B. R. Agard and Wilds Case. Bridgman, 130, 131.

Furis Utrum.

Juris Utrum: Where it lyeth, for whom, and against whom it lyeth: Barr in it; and of divers other Matters concerning it.

1. Juris utrum, is a Writ of Right in its nature, and the Mise shall be joyned therein. Fitz. N.B. 49 It is a Writ of the highest nature that a Parson can have, and lyeth properly where the Lands or Tenements of the Parsonage are aliened by his Predecessors; or where a Recovery is had of Lands or Tenements against his Predecessor by Default, or by Reddition, or for want of pleading of his Predecessor, where he hath not prayed in aid of the Patron and Ordinary: So if a man do Recover by Action tryed against the Parson, or his Predecessor, Lands or Tenements, by Verdict; and the Parson doth not pray in aid of the Patron and Ordinary, to administer a Plea to defend the right of the Land; his Successor in such case shall have a Writ of Juris utrum. See Nat. Brev. 28. and 38 E. 3. Tit. Incumb. 1.

2. If an Annuity be recovered against a Parson, in that case his successor shall not have Juris utrum upon that Recovery; for that nothing is taken out of his possession, but it is a charge only upon the Person, which shall not binde the successor, 19 H. 6 40.

3. In a Juris utrum, the Tenant pleaded, That his father was seized, and dyed seized, and that the Predecessor of the Plaintiff did abate, against whom the Tenant brought a Mort dauncester, and recovered, and he entred, and so it is his Lay-fee, and not the Frankalmoign of the Church of the Plaintiff; and it was holden to be a good Plea, and not a double Plea by alledging the Recovery, and Lay-fee; for that it is a Writ of Right, where the party ought to conclude to the Right, viz. That he hath more right to hold the Land in manner and form, &c. then the other hath to demand in the form he hath demanded it, as the conclusion is in a Writ of Right. See 19 H. 6. 8. acc.

4. The Provost of Wells Parson in Parsonet of the Parsonage of W. let the Tythe for 50 years, rendring rent, which Lease was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter, but not by the Patron and Ordinary, afterwards the Provostship was by Parliament united to the Deanry, cum primo vacare contigerit; the Provost dyed, and the Dean accepted the Rent: It was adjudged in that case, that the Lease was void by his death; for that a Parson or Prebend cannot make any discontinuance; but in such case their Successors shall have and maintain a Juris utrum. Trin. 7 Eliz. Dyer 239.

5. The Writ of Juris utrum lyeth for the Parson, Prebend, &c. upon an Alienation or Discontinuance of the Lands of his Parsonage, or Prebendary, quatenus he is Parson only; and therefore if an Abbot or a Prior be Parson imparsonee, and alieneth the Land of the Rectory, his Successor shall have Juris utrum, but then it must be brought as Parson. But yet upon a Disseisin made to himself, a Parson may have an Assize of the Lands or Tenements of his Rectory, or a Writ of Entry in the Quibus in the nature of an Assize, or a Writ of Entry in the Per or Cui or in the Post: But in Disseizin made to his Predecessor, he is alwayes put to his Writ of Juris utrum.

6. If a Writ of Right be brought against a Parson, Parſon, and after a Miſe joyned he maketh default, and Judgment be given againſt him upon his default, this ſhall not binde his ſucceſſor, but the ſucceſſor ſhall have a Juris utrum, becauſe the Parſon did not pray in aid of the Patron and Ordinary, and he had not the meer Right in him to loſe by his default: And in that caſe, the Parſon himſelf might have a Juris utrum, notwithſtanding the Bar in the former Action; becauſe that is his Writ of Right, and a Writ of the higheſt nature which a Parſon can have; as is ſaid by Littleton, Sect. 646.

7. A Parſon alienated the Right of his Church with Warranty, and afterwards the Alienee was impleaded, and he vouched the Parſon, who entred into the Warranty, and loſt by Action tryed: Yet it was holden in that caſe, that his ſucceſſor ſhould have a Juris utrum of the Seizin of his Predeceſſor, which he had before the Alienation. See 40 E. 3. 17. 11 H. 4. 17. Juris utrum 19. 7. Eliz. Dyer, 239, 240. before.

8. Note, There is a difference in Real Actions, between ſuch Parſons as have not the meer Right in them, but a qualified Right, and ſuch as have the meer Right in them; for in the firſt caſe, although they be barred on real Actions, (without making them parties who have Intereſt) they ſhall not binde the ſucceſſors, as in caſe of Parſon Prebendary; for in ſuch caſe, in a new Action of the ſame nature, by the Succeſſor, he ſhall falſifie the Recovery; for that the Recovery is not any diſcontinuance, but the Succeſſor may Enter. And it hath been adjudged, That in a Writ of Right, againſt a Parſon who joyned the Miſe upon the meer Right, and afterwards made a default, and Judgement was given againſt him; yet his Succeſſor had a Juris utrum, becauſe he had not the meer Right, nor prayed in aid of the Patron and Ordinary. See Cook, 6 Part, 8. in Ferrors Caſe.

9. If a Writ of Annuity be brought againſt a Parſon, or Vicar, upon a feigned Preſcription, or by a Grant made by the Patron and Ordinary, before the Statute of 13 Eliz. and he prayeth in aid of the Patron and Ordinary, and loſeth by Action tryed; and all the ſame is framed to make an evaſion out of that Statute. It was holden, that ſuch Intention was taken to be within the Equity of the Act; for although the Annuity charge the Parſon, or Vicar, and not the poſſeſſions, yet it was holden to be within the miſchief of the Statute, ſcil. Impoveriſhing of the Succeſſor, Cauſe of Dilapidations, and decay of Spiritual Livings, which are miſchiefs mentioned in the preamble of the Statute. Paſch. 24 Eliz. in C. B. Eintries Caſe. Vouch. in the Caſe of Eccl. ſiaſtical perſons. Cook, 5 Part, 15.

10. A Recovery had in a Ceſſavit againſt a Parſon by default, ſhall not bar his Succeſſor, but he muſt have his Juris utrum againſt him who recovered. See 7 H. 4. Juris utrum, by Haulford.

11. If a Parſon be Tenant in Common of a Wood, or other Land, in the Right of his Church, with another, and the other doth waſte in the Wood or Land, the Parſon ſhall have a Prohibition; but if a Parſon be Patron of a Vicarage, and the Vicarage doth void, and a Stranger doth preſent, the Parſon ſhall have a Quare impedit, or Darein Preſentment; But if the ſix moneths be paſt, he ſhall not have a Writ of Right of Advowſon, becauſe that Writ is given only for him who hath the entire Fee and right in him; and the Parſon hath not the ſame, for the Right is in the Patron and Ordinary. See Cook 12 Part, 40. Fitz. Nat. Brev. 40. acc.

12. If a Juris utrum be brought by a Parſon of a Church, a collateral Warranty of his Anceſtor is no Bar; for that he demandeth the Land in the Right of his Church, in his Politique Capacity, and the Warranty deſcendeth on him in his Natural Capacity. See Cook, 2 Part, Inſtitutes, 370.

Juſtification.

Where in Treſpaſs, Falſe-Impriſonment, or other Action, brought againſt a Sheriff, Officer, or other Miniſter, a Juſtification made by them ſhall be good, where not:

1. NOte in ſome caſes a man may juſtifie the doing of a wrong, viz. in caſes which ſound for the Common-wealth. As a man may juſtifie the making of Bulworks in the Lands of another, for the good of the Common-wealth, without licence; So a man may juſtifie the pulling down of a Houſe which is on fire, for the ſafeguard of the Neighbours houſes: So if the Sheriffe purſueth a Felon to a Houſe, and to have the Felon, he breaks the Door of the Houſe, the ſame is juſtifiable, becauſe it is for the good of the Common-wealth that Felons be taken. But it is otherwiſe in particular caſes, and therefore if the Sheriff breaks the Houſe to Arreſt a man who is in the Houſe, by virtue of a Capias, in Debt or Treſpaſs, he ſhall be puniſhed for it, becauſe it is a particular caſe, and not for the Common-wealth.

Trin. 23 Eliz. 8. Dyer, 37. Trin. 38 H. 8. Dyer 60. acc.

2. Twynnard being a Burgeſs of the Parliament, was taken and Arreſted upon a Capias utlagatum after a Capias; and having a Writ of Priviledge of Parliament, he afterwards ſuffered him to eſcape. The Queſtion was, Whether he ſhould be charged: It was holden by the Juſtices, That he ſhould not be charged, for that where no default nor Lacheſs can be aſcribed to the Sheriff, there is no reaſon to charge him: For the Office of the Sheriff is chiefly in the ſerving and executing the Writs and Proceſs of the Court, to which he is an immediate Officer, and which he is ſworn to do; & he is to execute the Writs which come unto him, and is not to diſpute the authority of the Court, whether it be lawful or not; and therefore, if a Capias come to him without an Original, and he execute the ſame, he is excuſable in a Falſe Impriſonment. Trin. 38 H. 8. Dyer, 60, 61.

3. The Factor of the Plaintiff, and the Sheriff did Arreſt a man who was condemned in debt, without a Writ, and he being in the Cuſtody of the Sheriff, the Sheriff and Factor procured a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum to be ſued out againſt him, and by that Writ they Arreſted the Priſoner again: The Priſoner being brought into Court upon the Retorn of the Writ, the matter was examined, and found ut ſupra: But becauſe it was found clear, that the Plaintiff was free from the covin and fraud of the purchaſing the Writ, the Defendant was committed to priſon in Execution, and both the Sheriff and the Factor were amerced for their miſdemeanor by the Court. Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 243.

4. In an Action upon the Caſe, for calling the Plaintiff Murderer and Thief; the Defendant juſtified as to the Murther, becauſe he was Indicted of Murder at Cheſter: and for Thief, the Defendant juſtified, becauſe there was a Robbery done, and the common fame was, that the Plaintiffe was guilty of it. The Court held the Juſtification not to be good, neither the one nor the other; But they ſaid, That if it were in a Falſe Impriſonment, there the arreſting of the Plaintiff, and the bringing him to priſon to anſwer to the Law upon common fame, there ſuch Juſtification might perhaps be allowed as good. Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 236.

5. The Caſe was, Two Joynt-Tenants were of a Houſe, one of them acknowledged a Statute, and dyed poſſeſſed of goods in the ſame houſe; the Sheriff with the Jury came by Proceſs of Law to extend the goods, and they offered to enter into the ſaid Houſe, to extend the ſaid goods; and the Defendant præmiſſorum non ignarus, intending to diſturb the Execution, the door being open, ſhut the door, by reaſon of which, the Sheriff could not extend the ſaid goods. In this Caſe, (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, That if any houſe be recovered in any real Action, or by Ejectione firmæ, the Sheriff upon an Habere facias ſeiſinam, or poſſeſſionem, may juſtifie the breaking open of the houſe for to do Execution, for that after Judgment it is not his houſe. 2. In all caſes in which the King is party, the Sheriff, after he hath ſignified the cauſe of his coming, if no door be open, may break the houſe, and do Execution; but in caſe, where he may enter without breaking of the houſe, or upon requeſt, there if he breaketh the houſe, he is a Treſpaſſer. 3. That in all caſes, where the door is open, the Sheriff may enter into the houſe to do Execution at the ſuit of a Subject, either of the body or goods. 4. It is not lawful for the Sheriff upon requeſt, and denyal made, in the caſe of a common perſon, to break the houſe of any Subject, upon the inconveniencies of Murthers and Robberies, under colour of doing Execution; and the Sheriff cannot break the houſe by force of a Fieri facias, but he is a Treſpaſſer; and yet the Execution which he there doth, is good. That in the principal caſe, the Sheriff had not done his duty; for it doth not appear that he had made any requeſt to open the door, and therefore the party might lawfully ſhut the door of his own houſe. It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 2 Jac. in B. R. Cook 5 Part, 91. Semaynes Caſe.

6. In a Quare Impedit, the Plaintiff declared, That A. was ſeized of a Mannor in Fee, to which the Advowſon of a Church was appendant, and preſented J. S. who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; A. died, his heir levyed a Fine of the Mannor, to which &c. to B. in Fee, who granted the next Avoydance to the Plaintiff, and that J. S. had reſigned, and ſo it belonged to him to preſent. The Defendant pleaded, That before the Writ brought, he was in by ſix moneths of the Preſentment of the ſaid A., without that, that the Church was void, modo & forma, as the Plaintiff had declared, and for that they were at Iſſue, and found for the Plaintiff. And the Jury ex Officio found, that the Church was full of J. D. by the Preſentment of the King, depending the Quare Impedit between the Plaintiff and the ſaid J. D. and that the Church was of the value of 80 l. per annum, and that the Action was brought within the ſix moneths after the Avoydance: Upon which, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. That he ſhould recover his Preſentment to the Church againſt the ſaid J. D. although that it was full of the Preſentment of the King; and alſo, that he ſhould recover againſt him damages ad valorem Eccleſiæ, half a year; and had a Writ to the Biſhop, and that he admit idoneam perſonam to the ſaid Church, at the Preſentation of the Plaintiff. And upon this Judgment, Error was brought. And in this Caſe (amongſt many other points) it

Reſolved, That although that it was found ex Officio, that the Church was full of J. D. who was a ſtranger to the Writ, and it doth not appear that he came in by better Title then the Plaintiff had; yet the Plaintiff ought to have a Writ to the Biſhop generally, and then prevail who can; and the Biſhop ought to execute the ſame; for he cannot return the Writ that the Church is full of another, for no Iſſue can be taken between the Plaintiff and him, for he hath no day in Court; and although a third perſon hath right, yet the Biſhop is excuſed, becauſe he hath his Warrant by Proceſs of Law; no more then the Sheriff can upon an Habere facias Seiſinam, return that another is Tenant of the Land by Right. Cook 6 Part, 52, and 54. Boſwell's Caſe.

7. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, and Barons of the Exchequer, that although it be apparently erroneous, yet if the Miniſter of Juſtice in the execution of an Arreſt of a man, by vertue of his Proceſs be killed, that the ſame is Murder; for the Miniſter is not bound to diſpute the authority of the Court which awardeth the Proceſs, but his Office is to execute the Proceſs; and therefore if a Capias be awarded againſt a Baron, Counteſs, or other Peer of the Realm, which is erroneous, becauſe their bodies by the Law are priviledged in ſuch caſes, yet if the Officer be killed in the Execution thereof, it is Murder. Cook 9 Part, 69. Mackalleys Caſe: and ſee there the difference put, when the Court hath Juriſdiction of the Cauſe, but proceeds inverſo ordine; there if the Officer arreſteth the party, he may juſtifie the ſame, and an Action will not lye againſt the Officer; and therefore if in Debt againſt a Duke, he Arreſt him by vertue of a Capias, he may juſtifie it, and he is not puniſhable for it: But when the Court hath not Juriſdiction of the Cauſe, then all the Proceedings before them, is Coram non Judice, and the Officer is not to obey them who are not Judges of the Cauſe; and therefore if ſuch Officer by Warrant or Proceſs from them, doth Arreſt a man, the ſame is not juſtifiable, but an Action of Falſe Impriſonment will lye againſt ſuch Officer. Cook 10 Part, 70. The Caſe of the Marſhalſey.

8. The Caſe was, The Steward of a Court Leet impoſed a Fine joyntly upon A. B. and C. chief pledges, becauſe they refuſed at the ſaid Court Leet to preſent that they ought to pay at every Leet, pro certo Letæ, 10 s. to the Lord; and becauſe the ſame was not payed, the Lord Diſtreined, and Juſtified and Avowed the Diſtreſs: In this Caſe, amongſt other things it was Reſolved, 1. That the Lord cannot diſtrein for Head-ſilver, or pro certo Letæ, becauſe it is a thing againſt Right, and for the private of the Lord, which thing alſo he cannot have without Preſcription; and therefore as he cannot preſcribe in the Principal, ſo he cannot preſcribe in the Diſtreſs for it, and therefore the Avowry and Juſtification was Reſolved not to be good. Cook, 11 Part, 44. Godfreyes Caſe.

9. A Juſtice of Peace made a Warrant to a Conſtable under his Seal, to bring the Wife of J. S. before any Juſtice of the ſaid County, to find Sureties for the good behaviour; J. S. and J. D. offered a Recognizance to another Juſtice of the ſame County who did not make the Warrant, to appear at the Seſſions; the Conſtable brought the party before the Juſtice who made the Warrant, who refuſed to finde Sureties, for which the Conſtable brought the Party to priſon, and he brought an Action of Falſe Impriſonment. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That the ſaid Warrant made Coram aliquo Juſticiorum, it was in the Election of the Conſtable, to bring the party attached before what Juſtice he pleaſed; for in preſumption of Law, he is the more indifferent then the Offender himſelf. 2. That when the Officer in this caſe had the party before the Juſtice, and he refuſed to find Sureties, the Officer might without a new Warrant carry the Party to Priſon, and that by the words of the Warrant, Etſi hoc facere recuſaverit, then he is to carry him to the next Goal, and his Juſtification thereof is good. Cook 5 Part, 59. Foſters Caſe.

10. Trover and Converſion of two Steers; The Defendant being an Attorney of the Common Plea, Juſtifies the taking of them as Under-Sheriff, by reaſon of Proceſs from the Exchequer, to levie of the Occupiers of the Lands of divers perſons, in a Schedule in the Writ named, the debts therein ſpecified, and doth not recite the Schedule; and that he being Under-Sheriff, took the two Steers in the lands of the Plaintiff, which was lately the land of one J. S. who was debtor to the King in 50 s. being behind upon the Land. Exception was taken, becauſe it was not ſaid, that the Land ſuch a day was the Land of J. S. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was a good Warrant to levie the money of the Occupiers of the Lands that were the Lands of J. S. and ſo the Juſtification was good. Mich. 16 Jac. in C. B. Caſford and Oſmonds Caſe. Brownlow, 1 Part, 17.

11. In Treſpaſs for an Aſſault, Wounding, Taking, and Impriſoning: The Defendant pleads, Quoad the Aſſault and Wounding, Not Guilty; and Quoad the Taking and Impriſoning, he Juſtifieth by a Warrant he had from the Mayor of London, but doth not ſhew in his Plea any time when the Warrant was made, nor yet the place where it was made: And in his Juſtification of Taking and Impriſoning, he leaves out the Aſſault. It was the Opinion of the Court, ſeveral Aſſaults are here layed, ſcil. The Aſſault in the Wounding, and the Aſſault in the Taking; and here in his perſon he hath Juſtified Quoad Captionem & Impriſonamentum; but in his Juſtification he hath left out his Aſſault, which is the principal Cauſe of the Demurrer; Wherefore it was the Opinion of the Court, That for the Omiſſion of the Aſſault in the Taking and Impriſoning, that his Juſtification was not good. Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Wilſon and Dodds Caſe. Bolſtr. 335, 336. See Cook, 4 Part, 62. Herlakendens Caſe, acc.

11. An Action upon the Caſe was brought of Falſe Impriſonment by the Husband againſt the Defendant for making an Aſſault in and upon his Wife, and Impriſoning of her. The Defendant juſtified, That a Warrant was directed unto him to take Julian Doyley Widdow, who by force thereof did take her, being the Plaintiffs Wife; and the Judgment was Quod caperet Julianam prædict. per nomen Julian Goddard ad ſatisfaciend. to Leonard Loves pro damnis; and the truth was, That at the time of the Warrant iſſuing out againſt her, ſhe was then Julian Goddard Widdow, but at the time when ſhe was Arreſted and Impriſoned, the Wife of the Plaintiff, called Julian Doyley, and the firſt Action was brought againſt her by the name of Julian Goddard Widdow. In this Caſe, the Court was clear of Opinion, That here was a good diſſignation of the party in nomination that was to be taken: And upon this Capias, If the Sheriff had returned, Non eſt inventus, it would have bin an ill return, and falſifyed all the proceedings; and ſo the Opinion of the Court was, That the Action of Falſe Impriſonment brought by the Husband, was not maintainable. Hill. 6 Jac. in B. R. Doyley and Whites Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 80, 81. Cro. 2. Part, 313. the ſame Caſe.

2. Where a man juſtifies the entring into the Lands of another; and where the entermedling with the goods of another: Where ſuch Juſtification ſhall be good, and where not.

1. A. Brought an Action of Waſte, and declared, That he let a houſe and ſix Acres of Land, and ſix Acres of Wood to the Defendant, who committed Waſte, cutting down and ſelling 20 Oaks, growing ſparſim in the ſaid Wood, the Defendant as to ten of the ſaid Oaks, ſaid, That the ſaid houſe tempore quo was in decay of the Timber, and that he cut down the ſaid ten Oaks, and beſtowed them upon the reparation of the ſaid houſe; and that for the other ten, that they grew upon an Acre of the Lands aforeſaid, which ſometimes had bin Arable, and for the bettering of the Lands, he cut them down, and ſo juſtified, That although in this Caſe the Leſſee had repaired the houſe of the Leſſor with the Trees, which was to his profit; yet becauſe he exceeded his Office and Authority, and took upon him the Authority of the Leſſor, without his requeſt, his Juſtification was not good, but he was puniſhable; like the Caſe of 21 H. 7. Where a Parſon brought an Action of Treſpaſs for carrying away his Corn; The Defendant ſaid, That the Corn was ſevered in nine parts, and was in danger to be eaten and deſtroyed by Cattel, where he took and carryed them into the Plaintiffs Barn, and there left them. In that Caſe, It was adjudged to be no Plea, and yet the Plaintiff had no damage, but rather benefit thereby. Trin. 29 H. 8. Dyer, 36, 37.

2. A man ſeiſed of 200 Acres of a Common Moor, made a Feoffment of 50 Acres of that Moor lying towards the North, unto another; the Feoffee put his Cattel into the 50 Acres, and for want of Incloſure, the Cattel eſtrayed into the reſt of the Moor, and there they were diſtreyned by the Lord of the Moor, Damage feaſant. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in that Caſe, That the Diſtreſs of the Lord was good and juſtifiable, becauſe the Purchaſor was bound by Law to incloſe his Land, or elſe to keep his Cattel within the ſaid 50 Acres; and ſo it was ſaid the Lord ought to do for his Cattel within the reſt of the Moor. Mich. 23 Eliz. Dyer, 372.

3. In Treſpaſs for breaking of his Cloſe at S. and fiſhing in his ſeveral Piſcary, and Aſſaulting and wounding of the Plaintiff, the Defendant as to the Aſſault and wounding, pleaded Not Guilty: the Plaintiff upon the new Aſſignment, ſaid, That the Cloſe and place aforeſaid was four Acres of Meadow called B. in S. aforeſaid, and his ſeveral Piſcary in the Water of A. in S. aforeſaid on the part of the Eaſt. The Defendant pleaded in Bar, That he was ſeiſed of the Mannors of D. and S. upon A. in the County of N. and of a ſeveral Piſcary in the River and Water of A. part of the ſaid four Acres of Meadow called B. running in S. aforeſaid, aſwell as in the ſaid Mannor of D. and S. in the County of N. and preſcribed to have a ſeveral Piſcary in the ſaid Water of A. at S. aforeſaid, as appurtenant to his Mannors of D. and S. and to go upon the ſaid peece of Meadow to draw his Nets when he fiſhed there; this was holden to be a good Preſcription, and the entry upon the four Acres to draw his Nets, was holden juſtifiable. Mich. 10 El. Dyer, 267.

4. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That if two Lords of Mannors have Common for their Tenants by reaſon of Vicinage; the one of them may

may encloſe againſt the other, but the Tenants of one Mannor cannot put in their Cattel into the Waſte of the Lord of the other Mannor; but they ſhall be excuſed when they come there by Eſcape, and that is by reaſon of auncient uſage which the Law alloweth them. Cook 4. Part, 38. in Terringhams Caſe.

5. Note, In London they have a Cuſtome, That one may enter into the houſe of another man, which is his Caſtle: For there the Cuſtome is, That when a Chaplin or a Prieſt hath a Woman in his houſe or Chamber, and one hath an ill ſuſpition thereof, he who hath ſuch ſuſpition, may come to the Conſtable of the Ward, and with him may enter into the houſe and Chamber of the Chaplin or Prieſt, and may commit the Offender to Priſon; And ſuch Cuſtome hath bin adjudged a good Cuſtome. Cook 8. Part, 126. in the Caſe of the City of London.

6. Six Carpenters came to a Tavern in London, and called for a Quart of Wine, and drank it, and upon requeſt made, refuſed to pay for it. The Queſtion was, If the denyal to pay for the Wine, made their entry into the Tavern to be wrongfull ab initio. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved, That when entry, Authority or Licence is given by the Law, and the party doth abuſe it, he ſhall be a Treſpaſſor ab initio; but where an entry or Authority is given by the party, and he abuſeth it, there he ſhall be puniſhed for his abuſe, but ſhall not be a Treſpaſſor ab initio; and the reaſon of the difference is, That in Caſe of a general Authority or Licenſe, the Law will adjudg by the ſubſequent act, quo animo he doth enter. But when the party giveth an Authority to do a thing, he cannot puniſh that Act which is done by his own Licenſe, and the Law giveth Authority to enter into a common Inn or Tavern. But if he who entreth into a common Inn, or Tavern doth a Treſpaſs, as if he carry away any thing, the Law in that Caſe will judg, That he entred for that purpoſe, and he ſhall be a Treſpaſſor ab initio. 2. Reſolved, That the not doing of a thing cannot make the party who hath an Authority to enter to be a Treſpaſſor ab initio, ſo as in the principal Caſe, the not paying for the Wine, the Defendants ſhall not be Treſpaſſors, for the not paying for the Wine is no Treſpaſs, and therefore they cannot be Treſpaſſors ab initio. Mich. 18 Jac. Cook 8. Part, 146. The ſix Carpenters Caſe, 33 H. 6. 47. acc.

3. Where, and in what Actions, and for what Cauſes a Juſtification pleaded ſhall be good; and where, and for what not; Where it ſhall be ſpecial, where not, and where he that juſtifies by a Deed, ſhall ſhew it; Where not.

1. IN Trover and Converſion, the Defendant pleaded, That before the Plaintiff ſuppoſed the goods to come to the Defendants hands, That J. S. was poſſeſſed of the goods, and amongſt other goods, ſold them to the Defendant, but kept them in his own hands, and afterwards ſold them to the Plaintiff, by reaſon whereof the Plaintiff was poſſeſſed, and afterwards loſt them, and after they came to the Defendants hands, who converted, as was lawful for him to do. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this was no good Plea, becauſe it amounts but to Not Guilty; and a Writ of enquiry was awarded. Trin. 10 Jac. in C. B. Auſtin and Auſtins Caſe. Brown. 1. Part, 5.

2. Act or upon the Caſe for ſaying, That the Plaintiff was perjured: The Defendant juſtifies, That it was found by Verdict, That the Plaintiff was perjured, but no Judgment was entred upon that Verdict. Whether it was good, becauſe there was no Judgment, was the Queſtion. Reſolved, it was no bar, becauſe no Judgment was given in the firſt Action. Paſc. 16 Jac. in C. B. Cruttal and Hoſeners Caſe. Brown. 1. Part, 11.

3. In Treſpaſs for breaking his Cloſe, and ſpoyling his Graſs: The Defendant pleaded, That in the Cloſe where, &c. time out of mind, &c. there hath bin a Foot way for all people, in, by, and through the ſaid Cloſe untill ſuch a day, and that ſuch a day, the Plaintiff Plowed up the ſaid Foot way, and ſowed it with Corn; and that the Plaintiff before the Treſpaſs ſuppoſed, ſet out another Footway for all people, which ſince it had bin layed forth, had bin uſed by all Foot Paſſengers; by reaſon whereof, the Defendant went in the ſaid new Foot way to ſuch a place; upon which the Plaintiff demurred, and it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, becauſe the Plaintiff did the firſt wrong by ſtopping the firſt way, and had aſſigned a new way for Paſſengers; and therefore it was adjudged, That the Defendants Plea was good by way of excuſe againſt the Plaintiff, for it is not fit he ſhould puniſh the Defendant againſt his own agreement. Mich. 6 Jac. in C. B. Horn and Widlakes Caſe. Brown. 1. Part, 212.

4. Action upon the Caſe for aſſaulting and wounding of the Defendant in ſuch a Pariſh in London. To the force, the Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty, and for the reſt ſhewed, That the Defendant at Graveſend being poſſeſſed of a Gelding, the Plaintiff came to him to hire him for 4 s. for two dayes, in which the Plaintiff would ride from Graveſend to N. and from thence to G. back again, within the ſaid two dayes, by reaſon whereof, the Defendant lent the Gelding to him, who in a direct way for the ſpace of a Mile, rode towards N. but afterwards to deceive the Defendant of his Gelding, rode out of his way to N. towards London; Whereupon the Defendant with his Servant came to the Plaintiff, riding upon the ſaid Gelding, and deſired the Plaintiff to deliver the Gelding, which he refuſed to do, by reaſon whereof, he and his Servant, to repoſſeſs himſelf of the ſaid Gelding, layed hands upon the Plaintiff, and took him from the Horſe back, and would have taken the Gelding from the Plaintiff, and that the Plaintiff did Aſſault the Defendant, and by ſtrong hands kept the Gelding, by reaſon whereof, the Defendant did defend the poſſeſſion of the Horſe againſt the Plaintiff, and if any damage was to the Plaintiff, it was of his own Aſſault; upon which the Plaintiff demurred, and it was adjudged for the Plaintiff, for that it appeared by the Defendants plea in Bar, That the Plaintiff had hired the Gelding for two dayes, and that within thoſe two dayes the Defendant did diſturb the Plaintiff of the poſſeſſion of the Horſe, and thruſt him off his back, which was not lawful, for that the Plaintiff had a good ſpecial property for the two dayes againſt all the World; and if the Plaintiff hath miſ-behaved himſelf in riding the Gelding, he was puniſhable by an Action upon the Caſe. Hill. 7 Jac. in C. B. Lee and Atkinſons Caſe. Brown. 1. Part, 218.

5. Trover and Converſion of goods in Ipſwich, The Defendant pleaded, That the goods came to his hands at Dunwich in the ſame County, and the Plaintiff gave unto him the goods which came to his hands in Dunwich, abſque hoc, that he was guilty of any Trover and Converſion of Goods in Ipſwich. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame was a good manner of pleading, by reaſon of the ſpecial Juſtification; but when the Juſtification is general, the County is not traverſable. Mich. 28 Eliz. in B. R. Strangden and Barnells Caſe. Godbolt. 137.

6. It was agreed by the Juſtices, That if a man in his pleading is to ſet forth the Juriſdiction of the Court of the Juſtices in Eyre, or of any other Court, if he ſay Curia tenenta, &c. he need not to ſet forth all the formalities of it: and that if a man do juſtify for divers cauſes, and ſome of the cauſes are not good, the ſame doth not make the whole Juſtification to be void, but it is void for that only, and good for the reſt. Hill. 16 Jac. in B. R. Webb and Tuck's Caſe. Godbolt. 277.

7. In Falſe Impriſonment, the Defendant juſtified, becauſe the Plaintiff brought a Child of the age of 16 years, and not above, into the Pariſh Church of W. et eundem ibidem relinquere voluiſſet et intendiſſet, without keeping or nouriſhment, contra pacem; for which the Defendant being Conſtable of the ſaid Pariſh, Arreſted the Plaintiff, and put him in Priſon until he did agree to carry the Child from whence it came. It was moved to be a good Juſtification for every ſubject à fortiori for a Conſtable. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame was a great Offence in the Plaintiff; but yet he ought to be puniſhed according to Law, but the Conſtable cannot Impriſon a Subject at his pleaſure, but according to Law, to ſtay him, and bring him before a Juſtice of Peace, to be there examined, and if he had ſo pleaded, it had bin good; but ruled the Juſtification as pleaded, not to be good. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Beal and Carters Caſe. Leon. 327.

8. In Treſpaſs for cutting his Nets and Oars; The Defendant juſtified, for that he was ſeiſed in Fee of a ſeveral Piſcary, and that the Defendant with others, endeavoured with his Oars to row upon his Water, and with his Nets to catch his Fiſh, and for ſafeguard of his Fiſhing, he cut the Oars and Nets; upon which the Plaintiff demurred, and it was adjudged to be no good plea of Juſtification, for he cannot by ſuch colour cut the Nets and Oars; but he might have taken and detained them as damage feaſant to the ſtop of their further Fiſhing. Cro. 1. Part, 165. Mich. 7 Car. in B. R. Reynell and Champernoons Caſe.

9. In Treſpaſs of Aſſault, Battery, and wounding, 1. Aug. 13 Car. The Defendant juſtified in his own defence by reaſon of an Aſſault made by the Plaintiff. Iſſue being thereupon, the Defendant gave in Evidence Aſſault and Battery by the Plaintiff, 2. July, 13 Car. before, and that it was in his own defence, and produced Witneſſes to prove it. The Plaintiff ſhewed, That the Battery which he intended, was 9 July, 13 Car. It was inſiſted upon by the Defendant, That it was no Evidence, for the Plaintiff ought to have made a ſpecial Replication, and ſhewed that ſpecial matter. But the Court was of Opinion, That that was not requiſite, and if another day had bin ſhewed, it had bin a departure, but it ſufficeth to ſhew it in Evidence at another day without his Aſſault, for the day is not material. Judgment was for the Plaintiff, and 100 l. damages. Paſc. 14 Car. in B. R. Thornton and Lyſters Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 370.

10. Treſpaſs againſt two, for taking of a Gun and and a Dagger from him; one of the Defendants juſtifies, becauſe the Plaintiff aſſaulted J. S. with it, and for preſervation of the Peace, juſtifies, and for ſafeguard of the life of J. S. the other pleads, Not Guilty: The Plaintiff replyes againſt him that juſtified De ſon tort demeſne: the Jury found againſt him that pleaded, Not Guilty, That he was guilty, and aſſeſſed damages and Coſts. It was ſaid, That the Action being brought againſt both joyntly, and the juſtification is found for the one, the other cannot be guilty. But notwithſtanding, the Plaintiff had Judgment, for that he is found guilty, and cannot take advantage of the Juſtification, for it ſhall be intended, he took it at another time without cauſe. But if one Defendant juſtifies by the gift of goods, if it be found for that Defendant, the Plaintiff cannot have Judgment, becauſe it appears to the Court, he had no cauſe of Action. Mich. 14 Jac. in B. R. Marler and Ayliffs Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 134.

11. Treſpaſs of Aſſault and Battery in London, the Defendant juſtifies in the County of N. by vertue of a Warrant from the Sheriff of N. upon a Latitat; qua eſt eadem tranſgreſſio, abſque hoc that he is guilty in London, vel alibi extra Com. N. It was demurred upon, 1. Becauſe he did not ſhew the Warrant hic in Curia. 2. Becauſe he juſtifies, and alſo traverſes; the firſt Exception diſallowed by the Court, becauſe the Warrant is executed and returned to the Sheriff, and ſo he cannot ſhew it; and for the ſecond, it is well enough; for the juſtification being in another County, the County where the Actions brought is to be traverſed. Trin. 13 Jac. in B. R. Bateman and Woodcocks Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 372.

12. In an Action upon the Caſe for words, which were, The Plaintiff is a Thief to you and to me, and hath ſtolen 20 l. from me, and 40 l. from you. The Defendant ſaith, That the Plaintiff was a Thief, and ſtole two Hens from her ſuch a day and year feloniouſly, and ſo juſtifies; the Plaintiff demurred, becauſe it is not any cauſe of juſtification of all the words, nor of any part of the laſt words: And of that Opinion was the Court, for the laſt are as ſlanderous as the firſt, and there is not any juſtification or anſwer of them. Mich. 21 Jac. in B. R. Hilſden and Meretts Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 676.

13. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas he was poſſeſſed of a Meſſuage for years, which had ancient lights; and the Defendant had a houſe adjoyning, and a Yard; the Defendant upon the ſaid Yard, had erected a houſe, and ſtopped his lights. The Defendant pleaded the Cuſtome of London, That every one might build upon an old Foundation; and if there be not any agreement or Covenant, might ſtop the Windows of his Neighbour, and ſo juſtified. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff againſt the Defendant, for that the Defendant in the pleading of his juſtification, did not ſet forth by way of pleading, that he did erect this new building upon the old Foundation, as he ought to have done. And in this Caſe, it was holden by the Court, That a man might build upon an old Foundation, and darken all the Lights of his Neighbour which were adjoyning to it; and that if he maketh new Windows higher, his Neighbour might alſo build his houſe higher, and ſtop thoſe new Windows. But a man cannot build a houſe upon a place where none was before, as in a Yard, and ſo thereby darken his Neighbours Lights: And ſo it was adjudged in Altham's Caſe; and Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. in Bland and Moſs 's Caſe. It was ſaid by Coke Chief Juſtice in this Caſe, That one Preſcription might be pleaded againſt another, where one might ſtand with the other, as it was adjudged in Wright and Wrights Caſe. Intratur. Trin. 7 Jac. in B. R. rott. 1590. Hughes and Keymes Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 115, 116.

14. A ſpecial Action upon the Caſe was brought againſt the Defendant, for ſtopping three anncient lights which had bin there time out of mind, and that the Defendant ſtopped them totaliter ad damnum. The Defendant pleads in bar, and doth confeſs the ſtopping of two of the lights, and part of the third light, and juſtifies, and afterwards takes a Traverſe in this manner, abſque hoc that he ſtopped up the three lights; and in his Juſtification, ſhews the Cuſtome of London, That one may build upon an old Foundation, and upon his own Land, which he had done, and ſo juſtifies. It was the Opinion of the Court, That in this Caſe, he ought not to have taken any traverſe: and that the traverſe, as it is taken in this Caſe, goes only to part; and as to the other part, there is no anſwer at all; for where three wrongs are layed to be done, (as in this Caſe) and the Defendant makes anſwer only to two of them, and ſaith nothing to the third it is not a good anſwer: And ſo in this Caſe, for default of pleading, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. rott. 597. Newall and Barnards Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 116, 117.

15. In Treſpaſs for comming upon, and digging and breaking of his Land; the Defendant pleaded in Bar by way of Juſtification; and ſet forth, That the common voice was, Quod quidam mulis, a noyſome Vermine called a Badger was there, and had done much hurt there, and therefore he came with his Dogs, and did hunt him, and in purſuit thereof et ad malum prædict. interficiendum he did follow him with his Dogs, and did catch him in the Plaintiffs ground, and there he came and digged him out of the ground, and killed him, and this this he pleaded by way of Juſtification, quoad the breaking et loci prædict. foſſionem, et foſſam eam terræ prædict. implevit. It was holden by the Court, That this was not a good Plea, and the difference was agreed, where a man enters firſt into another mans ground to find ſuch Beaſts and Vermine, and where ſuch entry is by way of purſuit, for in the firſt Caſe, the aſſent of the owner of the Land is firſt to be had, or elſe he will be a Treſpaſſor, in the ſecond not ſo, but will be juſtifiable. But all the Judges clearly agreed, that in the principal Caſe, the plea and juſtification of the Defendant was not good, for he cannot juſtify the digging, for he might uſe other means to kill him. Tr. 10 Jac. in B. R. Gedge and Minns Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 60, 61, 62.

16. Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum et liberum Warrannum fregit et intravit, and for digging of the ground; the Defendant pleaded, Not Guilty to part, and juſtified in this manner, That the place where is a Common, and that the Plaintiffs Father did ſtore this place with Conies, which came to the Plaintiff who had Conies there, and made holes, that the ſheep of the Defendant, and of other the Commoners, often fell into thoſe holes, and were hurt, by reaſon whereof, the Defendants came with Ferrets, and did chaſe the Conies, and digged down the burrows, and filled up the holes for the better preſervation of their Cattel, and enjoyment of their Common, and ſo juſtify, upon which it was demurred in Law. The Queſtion was, if it was a good Juſtification. The Court was clear of Opinion, That the Plea and Juſtification of the Defendants was not good, for that here by their Plea, the Defendants have confeſſed the Plaintiff hath a Free Warren: And if the King Grant to J. S. a Free Warren in his Lands, and afterwards J. S. makes a Feoffment in Fee of this Land, excepting the Warren, J. S. may afterwards make Cony-burrows in this Land de novo, and ſtore the ſame with Conyes. A Commoner hath no remedy but to take his Common with the mouths of his Cattel; and a Commoner cannot diſturb the Lord of the ſoil; He may diſtreyn the Cattel of a ſtranger being upon the Common, but not ſo the Cattel of the Lord, neither may he chaſe them, though they ſurcharge the Common, but the remedy which the Commoner hath, is by Action upon the Caſe, or Aſſiſe. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Carrell and Parks Caſe. Bolſt. 2. Part, 115, 116.

17. In Trover and Converſion of his Goods, of ſuch a quantity of Corn, the Defendant pleads and juſtifies the taking of it at ſuch a place at L. as Bellman there, by Cuſtome to take out of every bag of Corn holding a Buſhell, and no more, one Pint, and if it held more, then a Quart: and ſhewed, that he was choſen Bellman, et tempore quo, he did take the ſame as by Cuſtome belonged to him to do, and layes the taking at one place, and the Converſion at another; upon this Plea and Juſtification, the Plaintiff demurred in Law; and the Queſtion amongſt other things was, Whether this were a good Cuſtome, and ſo the Juſtification good. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the Cuſtome was good and reaſonable, and ſhall be conſtrued to have a reaſonable commencement: For the Office of a Bellman is to cleanſe and pave the Streets, and pro labore he had this allowance, and it is pro bono publico; and the Converſion in this Caſe is the point, and the Trover but the inducement to the Action, and he ſheweth that he hath not converted the goods of the Plaintiff, but his own goods when he conveyes to himſelf a property, and then converts. It was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff a good Cuſtome, and the Juſtification was good. Paſc. 12 Jac. in B. R. Hill and Hawks Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 201, 202, 203.

18. In Treſpaſs upon an Arreſt in the Caſe of the Marſhalſey, the Caſe appeared to be this. A man was arreſted to appear upon a Proceſs in Placito Tranſgreſſionis, at the Court of Marſhalſey, ad proximam Curiam ibidem Tent. And the Defendants ſhew and Juſtifie, That the Court of Marſhalſey is an ancient Court, and that they ought to hold Plea, and to have Juriſdiction of all manner of Actions infra Virgam; and ſet forth, that they had Portatores Virgarum, ſcil. Tipſtaves, who uſe to ſerve the Proceſs, and arreſt the parties; and that by their Command, the Defendant Portator Virgæ, did arreſt the Party to appear; but in his Plea and Juſtification, doth not ſet forth when the next Court was to be held; for to ſay, at the next Court, is too general, and ſo the party may be detained 40 years, before any Court may be holden: It was the clear Opinion of the Court, That it ought to have been certainly ſhewed, at what Court the party thus arreſted ought to appear, and when the ſame Court ſhould be held: and for the omiſſion of that, the Court were of Opinion, That the Plea by way of Juſtification of the Arreſt, was not good; and by Rule of the Court, the Party was diſcharged from the Arreſt. Trin. Jac. in B. R. Jones and Smiths Caſe. Bolſtr. 2 Part, 36, 37.

19. In Treſpaſs, for Aſſaulting and Wounding of his ſervant to his damage of 40 l. The Defendant as to the Battery, and vi & armis, pleaded Not Guilty; and as to the Aſſault, he Juſtified, and ſhewed, that he was poſſeſſed of a Houſe, and had a light time out of mind, and that the ſervants of the Plaintiff did intend and endeavour to erect another houſe upon a certain piece of ground adjoyning to his houſe, and had erected certain Timber for the houſe; the which houſe (if the ſame had been erected) would have ſtopped up his ancient ancient light; and for the cauſe that this would have been to his Nuſance, he ſtood in his own houſe, and with a ſtaff thruſt away the Plaintiffs ſervants, and did then throw down the Timber ſo erected; upon which Plea the Plaintiff did Demur in Law. It was holden by the Court, That in this caſe the Plea in Bar was not good for many cauſes: Firſt, Becauſe in this caſe, the principal cauſe of the Action is the loſs of his ſervice, and the Defendant doth Juſtifie as to the Battery, but doth ſay nothing to the loſs of his ſervice; and where the party doth not anſwer to all, it is no anſwer at all; and the loſs of his ſervice, which is the ground of the Action, ought to be confeſſed, avoided, or denyed. 2. The Juſtification is not good, for the Defendant ought to have damnum & injuriam; and if he have none of theſe, his Juſtification is not good: and it doth not appear that he hath any damage; and a man cannot juſtifie the beating of one for an endeavour only. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, and that the Plea and Juſtification was not good. Mich. 10 Jac. B. R. Mawrice and Bakers Caſe. Cro. 3 Part, 196, 197.

20. In Treſpaſs layed to be done 1 Maii, the Defendant pleaded a Releaſe made 1 Junii, and traverſes abſque hoc, that he was guilty at any time after 1 Junii. In this Caſe the Queſtions were, 1. Proceſs was directed to B. or to any one of them, to arreſt the Party, and two of them did execute the ſame; whether this was well executed or not? The Court held it was well Executed, and ſo it was adjudged, 45 Eliz. in B. R. in Hobbs and Kings Caſe. 2. Whether the Traverſe in this Caſe was good. It was Reſolved, That in this Caſe the Traverſe was not good, becauſe he did not ſay abſque hoc that he was Guilty before or after. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Amſon and Walots Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 209.

21. In Treſpaſs for breaking of his Cloſe and aſſaulting his Servants, the Plaintiff for Title ſhews, That it was parcel of a Mannor of which one J. S. was Lord, and that J. S. granted this Copyhold to the Plaintiff and his Heirs. The Defendants as to the Aſſault plead, Not Guilty; and as to the Treſpaſs in the Cloſe, B. the Defendant the Maſter, and the other Defendants juſtify, ſcil. they confeſs the Cloſe to be Copyhold; but plead, that long before it was parcel of the Mannor of D. and that long before the Treſpaſs, J. D. and his Wife was Lord of the ſaid Mannor in the right of his Wife for life, the Remainder in tail to S. one of the Defendants who made a Leaſe to the other Defendant, by force of which he was poſſeſſed, and he cut down the Timber Trees, and carried them away, and ſo juſtifies his Plea in bar, but doth not ſhew how S. came to this Eſtate for life, the Remainder over. It was agreed by the Court, That this Plea in Bar was not good, becauſe it is not therein ſhewed how this particular Eſtate came to J. D. and his Wife, they claiming under a derivative Eſtate for years, made by J. D. and his Wife, ought to have ſhewed how J. D. and his Wife came to that Eſtate for life, the Remainders over, and therefore Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Sanford and Stevens's Caſe. Bulſtr. 3. Part, 281.

22. In an Action of Conſpiracy for cauſing him to be endicted for ravithing his Daughter, and that he was acquitted: The Defendant pleaded, That his Daughter did complain unto him, upon which he complained to a Juſtice of Peace, who upon examination bound him over, and the Defendant to proſecute, this was adjudged by the Court to be a good cauſe of excuſe, and the Traverſe of the Felony not good. Hill. 4 Jac. in B. R. Rott. 886. Cox and Wirralls Caſe. See Trin. 14 Jac. in B. R. Weal and Wells Caſe adjudged acc.

23. Trover and Converſion for taking his Cattel by way of Diſtreſs, and ſelling of them by vertue of a Warrant of Commiſſioners of Sewers, for not paying of a Tax ſet by them towards the reparation of the Sea walls, the Defendant pleaded all the ſpecial matter by way of Juſtification; upon which plea, the Plaintiff did demur. And divers Exceptions were taken to the Plea. 1. That the Plea ſets not forth, that there was any notice given to the Plaintiff of the Tax before the Diſtreſs taken as there ought to have bin. 2. It doth not appear by the Plea, That the Land taxed was within the Levell. 3. That he cannot ſell the goods of a ſtranger for the Tax, as the Plaintiff is, for any thing appears in the Plea to the contrary. And for theſe cauſes, amongſt others, the Plea and Juſtification were Reſolved not to be good, and Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 23 Car. in B. R. Whetley and Fawſetts Caſe. Styles 13. See Mich. 17 Car. in B. R. Marſh. 179. acc.

24. In Treſpaſs for taking of a Mare and a Colt, and Impounding them till the Plaintiff paid 10 l. The Defendant pleaded by way of Juſtification, That he did diſtreyn her by vertue of an Order made by Commiſſioners of Sewers for a Tax aſſeſſed upon the Plaintiff. The Plaintiff demurred to the Plea for divers cauſes. 1. That it doth not appear that the Commiſſioners who impoſed it, had power to do it, for it ought to be by ſix of them; and it doth not appear they were more then four in number. 2. It doth not appear that they were all of the Quorum, as they ought to be. 3. There doth not appear to be any fault in the Plaintiff. 4. It doth not appear that the Land doth lye within the Juriſdiction of the Commiſſioners, and alſo the number of the Acres do not appear upon which the the Tax was layed, all which were holden to be good Exceptions where the Plea and Juſtification were by the Court held not to be good. Mich. 1649. in B. R. Brangy and Lees Caſe. Styles 178.

25. Treſpaſs for chaſing of his ſheep, the Defendant pleaded, That they were Treſpaſſing upon certain Lands, and he with a little Dog chaſed them out, and as ſoon as the Sheep were out of the Land, he called in his Dog. Upon this the Plaintiff demurred. The point was ſingly this, I chaſe the Sheep of another out of my ground, and the Dog purſues them into another mans Land next adjoyning, and I chide my Dog, and the Owner of the Sheep brings Treſpaſſe for chaſing of them. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That he might well drive out the ſheep with the Dog, and he could not withdraw his Dog in an inſtant; and here was no hedg, and when he ſaw them out of his own ground, he rated the Dog; And in the time of Popham Chief Juſtice, the Caſe was adjudged in this Court. Treſpaſſe was brought for hunting and breaking his Hedges, and the Caſe was, That a man ſtarted a Fox in his own Land, and his Hounds purſued him into another mans Land: And it was holden, That he might juſtify the Hunting and purſuing him in any mans Land, becauſe a Fox is a noyſome Creature of the Common-wealth. Hill. 22 Jac. in C. B. Millen and Faudryes Caſe. Poph. 161. See before Gedge and Mynns Caſe, ſeems to be contrary to this Caſe.

26. In Treſpaſſe of Aſſault and Impriſonment, ſuppoſed to be done at ſuch a Pariſh and Ward in London, 20 Marcii, 35 Eliz. The Defendant Juſtified, by reaſon of an Execution upon a Recovery in the Court of S. within the Cinque Ports, and traverſed abſque hoc, that they were Guilty in London. The Plaintiff replyed and maintained the Aſſault and Impriſonment, and traverſeth abſque hoc quod habetur aliquod tale Recordum loquela prout; The Defendant hath alledged, Et hoc paratus eſt verificare per Recordum illud, and upon this the Defendant demurred in Law. The Court was of Opinion, That the Defendants Plea prima facie was good, becauſe it was a ſpecial manner of Juſtification, which cannot be pleaded and alledged to be in any other place then where it was done. But it was ſaid in this Caſe, That if the ſpecial matter alledged in the Forrein County be falſe, as here, the Plaintiff may maintain his Action, and traverſe the ſpecial matter alledged by the Defendant, and ſo a Traverſe in ſuch a Caſe may be upon a Traverſe where falſity is uſed to ouſt the Plaintiff of that benefit which the Law gives him. Mich. 38 Eliz. in B. R. Paramour and Veryalds Caſe. Popham, 103.

27. Treſpaſs for cutting down four Aſhes in a Cloſe called Cave-Cloſe, and carrying them away; the Defendant ſaid, That before the Plaintiff had any thing, &c. J. S. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Cloſe, in which, &c. and by Indenture demiſed the ſaid Cloſe inter alia to J. D. and others, excepting the Wood and Underwood thereupon growing, for the life of A. and Covenanted, That it ſhould be lawful for the Leſſees and their Aſſigns, to take, upon the premiſes, neceſſary Fireboot, and Houſeboot, to be expended upon the premiſes, or for reparation of the premiſes. J. S. dyed, A. ſurvived, and took to Hurband J. N. and that the Leſſees aſſigned their Eſtate to A. and that the Defendants took the four Aſhes for neceſſary Cartboot, &c. and averred the life of A. It was adjudged, That the Plea and Juſtification was ill, for that the Servant Juſtifying under the Title of his Maſter, and medling with the Title, ought to ſhew the Deed, for that is the ſubſtance of the Title, and without ſhewing it, he cannot juſtify. 2. It was not good, becauſe not ſhewed, that the Maſter expended them for thoſe purpoſes. Hill. 8 Jac. in B. R. Pwſrey and Gymes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 291.

Judges, Juſtices, and Juſtices of the Peace.

1. SEE before, Lib. 1. Title Courts, the Juriſdiction, Power, and Authority of the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, Common-Pleas, Exchequer, Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, Juſtices of Aſſiſe, Juſtices of Goal-delivery, and the Caſes there put.

2. Juſtices of Goal-delivery who had commanded the reſpite of a Priſoner from Execution, may in the Vacation after the adjournment of their Commiſſion, command the Sheriff to reſpite over the firſt day, and this they may do by the Cuſtome of the Realme. Mich. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 205.

3. Juſtices of Aſſiſe hold Plea de appelis de Roberia by vertue of a Commiſſion, but of an Appeal of Murder, they may hold Plea by the Statute of 3 H. 7. by the expreſſe words of the Statute Mich. 1 Ma. Dyer, 99.

4. In a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop of Saliſbury and the Incumbent, Verdict paſſed before the Juſtices of Aſſiſe for the Plaintiff; Judgment was given before them, and a Writ to the Metropolitan awarded, and for damages, a Fieri facias to the Sheriff. The Defendant upon a Writ of Error, removed the Record into the Kings Bench, and had a ſuperſedeas to the Metropolitan made in the Common Pleas. Afterwards the Plaintiff ſued a Scire facias to have Execution, becauſe the Defendant did not aſſign Errors. And ſee there, that exception was taken to the Writ of Error, becauſe the Writ of Error was in recordo proceſſu, et redditione Judicii ſequelæ quæ fuit coram nobis, &c. which was falſe. Mich. 6 E. 6. Dyer, 76.

was

5. In a Writ of Entry brought upon the Statute of 5 R. 2. ubi ingreſſus non datur per legem; the parties were at Iſſue; which was tryed by the Juſtices of Niſi Prius; and the Jury having their charge given them, retorned, and ſaid, That they were all agreed of their Verdict but one of them, who had eat and drank, and would not agree: whereupon at the requeſt, they were remaunded, and afterwards found for the Plaintiff. The Juſtices there did not impoſe the Fine upon the Jurour who had eaten and drank, but gave him day in Bank by the advice of Fitzherbert one of the Juſtices; and there a Fine was aſſeſſed upon the ſaid Jurour of 20 s. and Judgment was there given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 5 Eliz. Dyer, 218.

6. It was moved as a doubt, If an Offence be made by Statute, which was no Offence at the Common Law. And by the Statute, if a penalty be appointed of a ſum of money to be recovered in any of the Courts of Record of the King: Whether this Offence and penalty may be heard, determined and puniſhed by Commiſſion of Oyer and Terminer in the Countrey. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices (being aſſembled by the command of the Queen to deliver their Opinions therein) that the ſame could not, but comes to be puniſhed, and the penalty to be recovered only in one of the four Courts of Record at Weſtminſter. But if no Court be appointed for determining of the ſame, then the King by his Authority and Prerogative may appoint what Court he pleaſeth to hear and determine the ſame. Mich. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 236.

7. Note, by the Juſtices, That at the Common Law, the Coroner of the County could not entermeddle with the death of a man within the Verge, but the Coroner of the Houſhold of the King only: and ſo it was adjudged, Paſc. 24 Eliz. in B. R. in Swifts Caſe, where he was endicted before the Coroner of the County of Middleſex of a Murder done at Tuthill in the ſaid County of Middleſex, and the Indictment being removed into the Kings Bench, he there pleaded, That Tuthill was at the time of the Murder, and yet is within the Verge, where it was adjudged, That it was a good Plea, and he diſcharged of the Indictment: But it was Reſolved, That the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer, Juſtices of Goal delivery, and Juſtices of the Peace may enquire of, hear, and determine, all Murders and Felonies within the Verge, becauſe their Authority and Juriſdiction are general throughout the whole County; and ſo it was adjudged in Holcroft's Caſe. Cook 4. Part, 46, 47. in Wrotes Caſe.

8. In all Commiſſions of Aſſiſe, of Goal-delivery, of Oyer and Terminer, and of Juſtices of Peace; Power and Authority is given them by the King to execute Juſtice, ſecundum legem, et conſuetudinem Regni noſtri Angliæ. Cook 7. Part, 12. in Calvins Caſe.

9. The King, R. 3. by his Letters Patentes Granted to the Burgeſſes of Glouceſter and their Succeſſors, that the Town of G. ſhould be a County of it ſelf, ſeveral and diſtinct from the County of G. for ever, and no part of the County ſhall be called the County of the Town of G. ſaving and reſerving to him and his Heirs, That the Juſtices of Aſſiſe in the County of G. the Juſtices of Goal-delivery, and of the Peace, in holding of their Seſſions, and the Sheriff of the County of G. in holding of their County Courts, may enter the ſaid Town, and keep their Seſſions, and County Courts, of, or for any matter ariſing out of the ſaid County of the Town of G. and within the ſaid County of G. as before time they had accuſtomed to hold them there; and further Grants them, That the Miniſters of the Sheriff of the County ſhall not afterwards enter to do or execute any thing there which to their Office of Sheriff appertaineth; except only for the Sheriff of the County of G. to hold there County Courts as aforeſaid. It was a Queſtion moved, Whether by the ſaving of the Charter, they have power reſerved to them to ſit within the Town, and to enquire there, of the Felonies done in the County of Glouceſter; and ſo for the Aſſizes of Niſi Prius. 2. If the Sheriffs may execute their Warrants there made at the time of the Aſſiſes or Goal-delivery, notwithſtanding the Exemption given them by the Letters Patents. It was agreed by all the Juſtices, That the ſaving in the Patent is ſufficient of Aſſiſe and Goal-delivery to ſit there for the things which happen within the County of G. for as the King may by his Letters Patents make a County, and exempt this from another County, ſo he may in the making of it ſave and except to himſelf and his Succeſſors, ſuch part of the Juriſdiction or Privileg which the other County from which it is exempted, had in it before; and although the words being in the Patent, (ſaving to him and his Heirs,) yet it ſhall be for a perpetual ſaving going to his Succeſſors. But it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That by a Commiſſion to the County, a thing which happens in the Town of

G. cannot be determined, albeit it be committed in the Hall during the Seſſions, but by a Commiſſion for the Town it may. See Hill. 35 Eliz. Popham 17, 18.

10. W. S. and others were endicted upon the Statute of 4 and 5 Ma. cap. 8. in Com. Middleſex, before the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, becauſe they took away F. the Daughter of J. S. under the age of ſixteen years unmarried, and in the cuſtody, and under the Government of her Father, without his conſent contra formam Statuti. It was moved, That this Judgment was coram non Judice, becauſe the Statute appoints, That for this Offence, the party offending ſhall be puniſhed by two years Impriſonment, or pay ſuch a Fine as the Star-Chamber ſhall appoint. And the words of the Statute are, [the Juſtices of Aſſiſe by Inquiſition or Indictment, ſhall have power to hear and determine, &c. whether this ſhall extend to the Juſtices of the Kings Bench, or only to Juſtices of Aſſiſe: And whether the Juſtices of the Kings Bench be not Juſtices of Aſſiſe. 2. Admitting they may hear and determine, Whether they have any power to impoſe a Fine, or only give Judgment for the Impriſonment, the Court doubted of both points, and gave no Reſolution, Ideo Quæ. Trin. 12 Car. in B. R. Mary Smiths Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 335.

The Power and Authority of Juſtices of the Peace, and what they may do within their Seſſions; and what out of Seſſions. And what Acts or things done by them, are good; What not.

1. NOte, It was holden by the Juſtices, That a Juſtice of Peace may enquire of Murder becauſe it is Felony contrary to the Opinion of Fitzherbert in Bucklers Caſe. Mich. 5 E. 6. Dyer, 68.

2. If a Juſtice of Peace maketh a Warrant to Arreſt one for Felony who is not endicted, although that the Juſtice erre in his Warrant, yet he who maketh the Arreſt by force of this Warrant, ſhall not be puniſhed by Writ of Falſe Impriſonment, becauſe he is not Judg of the cauſe. But if one be Endicted before Juſtices of the Peace, and confeſſeth the Felony, and hath a Coroner, and becommeth an Approver, and maketh an Appeal, ſuch Appeal was adjudged void, becauſe the Commiſſion of Peace extendeth only ad inquirendum, ſcil. to enquire before them audiendum et terminandum, and ſo the Appeal of the Approver is out of their Commiſſion, becauſe the Approver doth not make his Appeal before the Juſtices, but before the Coroner, and the Coroner Recordeth the ſame to the Court; and the reaſon why Juſtices of the Peace have not power to aſſign him a Coroner is, becauſe it is not within their Commiſſion. See Cook 10. Part, 77. in the Caſe of the Marſhalſey.

3. Action was brought againſt a Hundred upon the Statute of Winton; the Plaintiff ſhewed, that he took his Oath before J. S. Juſtice of Peace within the County of Berks (in which the Robbery was ſuppoſed to be), and inhabiting within the Hundred within 20 dayes before his Writ brought, That he was robbed, and did not know any of the parties according to the Statute of 27 H. 8. Upon a Special Verdict, it was found for the Plaintiff. The Oath was taken before the ſaid J. S. at his Chamber in the Middle Temple, London; and whether he took his Oath before J. S. Juſtice of the Peace of the ſaid County, and Inhabiting in the ſaid County ſecundum formam Statuti, was the Queſtion. It was ſaid in this Caſe, a Juſtice of Peace hath his Juriſdiction only within the County wherein he is a Juſtice of Peace, and not elſwhere, and may not elſwhere exerciſe his Juriſdiction. But the Opinion of the Court was, the Caſe being propounded to all the Juſtices of the other Courts and Barons of the Exchequer, That this Examination taken at London by a Juſtice of the Peace of the County, inhabiting in the Hundred, was good enough: And it was ſaid by them, That the Act of 27 Eliz. was not an Act of exerciſing Juriſdiction but rather a direction that ſuch an Oath and Examination ſhall be taken, and which may be aſwell taken in any place, as within the County, and there was a difference when a Juſtice of Peace doth an Act to compell one to perform, as to Impriſon one for not performance, or to command one for an Offence to be Impriſoned, ſuch Acts cannot be done, but where their Juriſdiction extends; but Juſtices of Peace may take Informations againſt Offenders in any place out of the County, to prove Offences in the County where they are committed. But they cannot compell any of the County to make a Recognizance, for they cannot uſe any coercive power out of the County. Wherefore it was adjudged in the principal Caſe, That the power of the ſaid Juſtice of Peace, for the taking of the ſaid Oath and Examination, was well executed within the meaning of the Statute of 27 Eliz. And Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 7 Car. in B. R. Hellier and the Hundred of Perſhonds Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 153, 154.

4. It appeared upon the Return of a Habeas Corpus, That A. the Priſoner upon the complaint at Lincoln of two Juſtices of Peace of the County adjoyning to the place, was Ordered to keep a ſtard child, being the reputed Father. From this Order he appealed to the Quarter Seſſions of the Peace, where the matter being examined, he was diſcharged, and the firſt order diſcharged. After at another Seſſions of the Peace, the matter being re-examined. It was ordered, according to the firſt order, That he ſhould be accounted the reputed Father, and ſhould keep the Baſtard, and if he did not perform it, that he ſhould be committed; and he was thereupon committed: all which matter appeared upon the return of the Habeas Corpus. The Court in this Caſe were of Opinion, That he being diſcharged at the next Quarter Seſſions, to which he appealed according to the Statute of 18 Eliz. the ſecond Seſſions had no power to alter it: Wherefore he was diſcharged of it, and of his commitment. 5. Information was in the Kings Bench againſt the Defendant, upon the Statute of 23 H. 8. cap. 4. for ſelling Beer at another price then is appointed by the Statute: being found for the Plaintiff, It was ſaid in Arreſt of Judgment, That the Information was not maintainable in this Court by the Statute of 21 Jac. which appoints, That Informations ſhall be before Juſtices of Peace for ſuch matters whereof they have power to enquire, and not in the Courts at Weſtminſter; and the Statute is in the Negative. But it was Reſolved, That the Information was well brought: And it was Reſolved, That the Statute of 21 Jac. makes not any new Law to enable Juſtices of Peace to intermeddle with Informations which were not before appointed by them to be enquired of, but only appoints, That where Informations may be brought before them, or at the Courts at Weſtminſter at their Elections; there they ſhall be brought into the Seſſions of the Peace, before the Juſtices of Aſſiſe, or Oyer and Terminer in the Counties where the offences were committed, and that for the eaſe of the Subject. 2. Reſolved, That the Statute of 33 H. 8. cap. 20. extended not to give them Authority to receive Informations upon the Statute of 23 H. 8. and that Brewers ſhall not be ſaid Victuallers within the ſaid Statute; for the words, Victualls, and Victuallers, are properly applyed and extended againſt Ale-houſe keepers, who ſell by Retail, and keep not the Aſſiſe. Trin. 4 Car. in C. B. Cro. 1. Part, 79. Farrington and Krymers Caſe.

6. A Bayliff of the Sheriff of D. was endicted before Juſtices of Peace in their Seſſions upon two Indictments of Extortion. One, That he as Bayliff colore Officii, had extorted 20 s. 8 d. extorſive. The other, That he took extorſive 20 colore Officii. upon which Endictments, he was enforced to plead preſently, and the ſame day they were tryed, and he convicted, and Judgment given at one and the ſame Seſſions, that he ſhould be Impriſoned and fined to the King, 40 l. Upon theſe Indictments, Error was brought; And it was the Opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That Juſtices of Peace ought not to try and determine civil Offences in one and the ſame day, for the party ought to have a convenient time to provide for tryal; and for that cauſe (amongſt other) the Judgment was reverſed. Hill. 11 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. Part, 317. Bampfields Caſe.

7. A Souldier who had received Preſs-money of the King to ſerve in his Wars, and was enrolled, taken pay, and delivered over amongſt other Souldiers to a Conductor to be brought to the Sea ſide, run away without Licenſe. This Caſe, by his Majeſties command, was referred to the Juſtices to conſider if it were Felony. It was Reſolved by them, That it was Felony. Then it was moved, How this Felony, and before whom it ſhould be tryed, becauſe it is a new Law, which makes a new Felony, and the Statute of 7 H. 7. or 3 H. 8. cap. 1. that it ought to be tryed before the Juſtices of the Peace at their Seſſions: Whereupon a doubt did ariſe, Whether Juſtices of Aſſiſe, or Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer may by their Commiſſion try it or not; there was not any reſolution given in the Caſe. But the greater Opinion of the Juſtices was, That the Juſtices of Oyer and Terminer might try it by their Commiſſion. Paſc. 3 Car. in B. R. The Caſe of Souldiers. Cro. 1. Part, 51.

8. A man was committed to the Goal by Juſtices of the Peace at their Seſſions, untill he ſhould obey an order of taking the Office of Conſtable upon him, for that he being an Inhabitant within the Hundred of C. within the Liberty of St. Albans, refuſed to take upon him the Execution of the ſaid Place; and becauſe the Court was informed, that he denyed to be within the Liberty, but affirmed, That he was within the County of H. out of the Liberty: The Court were of Opinion, That they ought not to have committed him, but have cauſed him to be endicted upon his refuſal, and then if he were found to be within the Liberty, ſhould have aſſeſſed a good Fine, and then have committed him; but the Impriſonment as it was, was unlawful: therefore the Court diſcharged him without Bail. King, &c.

KING.

1. Where the King cannot be a Diſſeiſor, or wrong doer; and therefore cannot be impleaded by Precipe, Quare Impedit, &c. but by Petition. And where, and in what Caſes the King may be put out of Poſſeſſion, and of what; and have redreſs by Action; Where not.

1. IT was found upon a Writ of Mandamus, That T. Cox, was ſeiſed of certain Meſſuages in London, and dyed without Heir; which were holden of the King in Socage: And the Corporation of Sadlers came and ſhewed their right, That one Robert Mylard was ſeiſed of thoſe Meſſuages in Fee. And by his Will in writing, deviſed the ſaid Meſſuages to the Wardens of the Comminalty in Fee, and that they were Diſſeiſed by the ſaid Tho. Cox, who dyed without Heir; and ſhewed the Cuſtome of London, That a Freeman might deviſe in Mortmain. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, if Monſtrans de droit did lye, or that they were put to have a Petition. And in that Caſe, theſe points were (amongſt others) Reſolved. 1. That at the Common Law, where the King was ſeiſed of any eſtate of Freehold or Inheritance by matter of Record, were it by Judicial, Miniſterial, or Conveyance of Record, or by matter in fait, found by Office of Record, he who had right, could not have any traverſe, upon which he was to have Amoveas manum, but was put to his Petition of Right. But when the King is entituled by matter in fait, and found by Office of Record, if in the ſame Office the Title and Intereſt of the party were found, there the party grieved, at the Common-Law might have a Monſtrans de droit, and was not put to Petition. 2. That in all Caſes at the Common Law, when the Title of the King did accrue to him by Judicial Record, or by Judgment of Record; there although the King granted his Eſtate over, the party grieved was put to his Petition, and to have a Scire facias againſt the Pattentee. But when the King was entituled by Conveyance of Record; as if a Diſſeiſor conveyed Lands to the King by Fine, Deed Inrolled, and the like; there although that the party was put to his Petition againſt the King; yet if he granted the Land over, the Diſſeiſor might enter, or have an Action againſt the Pattentee. Cook 4. Part, 55. The Wardens and Comminalty of Sadlers Caſe.

2. If the Queen uſurpeth, and a Quare Impedit is brought againſt her Incumbent (for it doth not lye againſt the Queen) and pendant the Writ, the Queen preſenteth another, who is Inſtituted and Inducted, he ſhall be removed, for he commeth in under the Title of the Plaintiff. But if a ſtranger to the Writ, who hath good right, preſenteth pendant the Writ, and his Clark is admitted, and Inſtituted, he ſhall not be removed; for then by ſuch Deviſe, his rightful Patron might be defeated of his Preſentment: And note in this Caſe, it was ſaid, That the King ſhall not recover damages in a Quare Impedit. 1. Becauſe at the Common-Law no damages were recoverable in a Quare Impedit. 2. Becauſe the King is not within the clauſe of Weſt. 2. concerning damages, becauſe he could not loſe his Preſentment, and therefore he could not recover damages. Cook 6. Part, 52. in Boſwells Caſe.

3. If the King Preſenteth where he hath no right or Title, and his Clark is Inſtituted and Inducted, a Quare Impedit lyeth againſt the Biſhop, and the Incumbent only for neceſſity, becauſe a Quare Impedit doth not lye againſt the King, for that he cannot be in law a diſturber. But it is ſaid in that Caſe, That a Quare Impedit brought by the King againſt the Incumbent ſolely, is good, without naming the Patron in the Writ, but it is not ſo in the Caſe of a common perſon, for there if the Patron be not named in the Writ, the Writ ſhall abate. Cook 7. Part, 26. in Halls Caſe.

4. Note, It was Reſolved, That the King, Tenant in tail by the gift of any of his Auncеſtors, being Subjects, might by a Fine levyed upon a Grant and render, bar the Eſtate tail. 1. Becauſe the King is bound by the Statute de Donis; and it is reaſon, That the King take benefit of the Statute of 4 H. 7. and 32 H. 8. which enables Tenant in tail to bar his Iſſues, and it ſhould be hard that the King ſhould be in worſe caſe then a common perſon. 2. A difference was taken when the King claimeth in his natural capacity as Heir of the body per formam Doni, for there he ſhall be bound by the Act of Parliament; and when the King claims in his Politick capacity, there a general Act ſhall not bind the King, unleſs he be particularly named. But in the principal Caſe, it was thought neceſſary, after the Render made, to have Letters Pattents, to grant to the Conuſee that he might enter into the Land, for otherwiſe the Fine being Executory upon grant and render, it might be doubted if the Conuſee without ſuch a Grant, might enter upon the poſſeſſion of the King. Cook 7. Part, 32. in the Caſe of Fines levyed by the Kings Tenant in Tail.

5. This Caſe was in the Court of Wards, The King was ſeiſed of the Mannor of B. in the County of York in Fee in the right of his Crown: A ſtranger erected a ſhop upon a vacant place of the Manner, and took the profits thereof without paying any Rent to the King for the ſhop: and afterwards the Queen granted the Mannor in Fee to the Earl of Leiceſter, who never entred into the ſhop, nor took any Rent for it; afterwards the Occupier thereof dyed in poſſeſſion. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in that Caſe, That the ſame was not any Diſcent againſt the Pattentee, becauſe it was no Diſſeiſin to the Queen. Mich. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 266. See Fineh. 11. acc. And ſee Paſc. 20 Eliz. in C. B. in the Caſe of one Garbery adjudged acc. in the Court of Wards.

6. At the Common Law, If one had uſurped upon the poſſeſſion of the King to his Advowſon, and his Clerk had bin admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted: this ſhould not have put the King out of the poſſeſſion of his Advowſon, by reaſon Quod nullum Tempus occurrit Regi by his Prerogative, but the King might have recovered his Preſentation by a Quare Impedit, for that the King was not bound by the Plenarty; but yet without a Quare Impedit brought, the King could not have removed the Incumbent who was in the Church, 18 E. 3. Quare Impedit, 151. 35 H. 6. 30. The King was not within the Statute of Weſt. 2. and an Uſurpation did not put him out of Poſſeſſion, for the words of the Statute are, per fraudem et negligentiam, &c.

7. If the King hath an Advowſon in the right of his Ward, and a Stranger uſurps, and his Clark is in by ſix Monethes before the King bring his Quare Impedit, yet this Plenarty ſhall be no good Bar againſt the King, and the reaſon thereof is, becauſe the King ſhould be otherwiſe without remedy: For a Writ of Right of Advowſon he cannot have, having an Eſtate in the Advowſon but as Gardian; and therefore in that Caſe nullum tempus occurrit Regi, for otherwiſe a ſtranger might hold a thing againſt him only by wrong, without any good ground; yet in that Caſe the King ſhall not put out the Incumbent, without a Quare Impedit brought, for ſo it is provided by the Statute of 13 R. 2. cap. 1. Stamford 32, and 33. But if the King hath Title to preſent by reaſon of Laps, and the Patron uſurps, and preſents his Clerk to the Ordinary, who is admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and then dyes. The King hath loſt his Preſentation, and ſhall not have the ſecond Preſentation by his Prerogative, for there Tempus occurrit Regi, and the Kings Intereſt was ſpecially limitted, and the ſix Moneths was the ſubſtance of his Title. Cook 7. Part, in Baskervilles Caſe.

8. Note, It was holden by the Juſtices, That by two Uſurpations, the King might be put out of poſſeſſion, and put to his Writ of Right: And that a Grant after two Uſurpations by the King of his Advowſon, was void. 47 E. 3. 46. Paſc. 25 Eliz. in C. B. and Mich. 13 Jac. in C. B. adjudged acc.

9. The King ſeiſed of the Mannor of W. in the right of his Crown by his Letters Pattents under the Great Seal ex certa ſcientia, &c. granted to J. S. illos duas peciastorra vocat. N. et M. jacent. in W. modo vel nuper in Tenura J. C. ac nuper Monaſterio de W. ſpectant. qua quidem omnia a nobis concelata et detenta fuerant. And it was found by Verdict, That the Mannor of W. was not concealed, or detained, ſed fuit in onere et computo, but that the Rents of the two parcells of Lands, N. and M. were not anſwered to the King. In this Caſe (amongſt other points), It was Reſolved, That the ſaid Grant of the ſaid two pieces of Land was void, for this reaſon (amongſt many others) becauſe that no Land of which the King is ſeiſed, although it be concealed from the King, can be ſaid ſubſtracted or detteyned from the King, for that the King cannot be deforced out of, or diſſeiſed of any Land, Cook 10. Part, 112. Arthur Legats Caſe.

10. In a Quare Impedit, the Caſe was, King E. 6. was ſeiſed of the Advowſon of the Vicarage of D. in the right of his Crown. The Church became void. J. S. by Uſurpation Preſented J. D. the Advowſon came and Diſcended to the Queen. J. D. ſurrendred. Afterwards J. D. Preſented B. who was Inſtituted and Inducted, who reſigned alſo. And then J. S. again by uſurpation Preſented T. who was admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and afterwards deprived; and before any new Preſentment, the Queen dyed; and the King Preſented, and upon a Diſturbance brought a Quare Impedit. It was ſtrongly Objected, That as the King cannot be diſſeiſed, No more might he be put out of Poſſeſſion of an Advowſon, for it was ſaid, It was a Rule, That of things Tranſitory, the King may be put out of poſſeſſion, but not of things permanent, or from an Inheritance: And in this Caſe, the King had an Inheritance; and so it was said it was adjudged in the Common Pleas, 25 Eliz. But it was Resolved by the whole Court against the King. For the King as to the Advowson, hath no greater priviledg then another person, for ot necessity the Cure must be served; and therefore the Law doth not give any Priviledg to the King to avoid the Incumbent, who is no more then to a common person. And it differs from Land; for of Land, the King cannot put a man out of possession, nor can he be put out of possession thereof, but of an Advowson, as he may gain the possession by a Presentation, so he may be put out of Possession by two Usurpations. See 18 Eliz. Dyer, 351. Mich. 2 Jac. in C. B. the King and the Bishop of Winchesters Case. Cro. 2. Part, 53, 54.

11. In a Quare Impedit by the King; and shews, That A. was seised of the Mannor of H. to which the Advowson of the Vicarage was appendant, and that the Church became void by a Simonaical agreement, betwixt J. S. and the Wife of A. that A. the Patron should Present him, and set forth the particular Simony, and that A. Presented accordingly, so as the Church was void by the Statute of 31 Eliz. and so it did belong to the King to Present. The Defendant pleaded, That Queen Eliz. was seised in Fee of the Rectory of H. whereout the Advowson of the Vicarage apperta ned, and dyed seised, and that the Parsonage came to the King by discent; and that A. Presented the Defendant by Usurpation, who was Admitted, Instituted, and Inducted. And that afterwards the King Presented the Defendant to that Advowson of the Vicarage, and that he was Inducted of the Kings Presentation, and traverseth, That the Advowson of the Vicarage was appertaining to the Mannor. Whereupon it was demurred for the King. In this Case, It was adjudged, That the Plea of the Defendant was not good. 1. It was Resolved, when one is Inducted upon the Presentation of a common person, although it were by Usurpation upon the King; yet the King cannot Present another, the Church being full, without removing the Incumbent by a Quare Impedit. 2. That if a stranger without the Privity of the after Incumbent, procures the Patron to Present one upon a Symoniacal contract, if such Presentation be made, the Church is ipso facto void; and it belongs to the King to present, and that the Presentation upon the Symoniacal contract of the Wife in the principal Case, was within the Statute, and the King had Title to Present. 3. That although the Incumbent afterwards procured a Presentation de Novo from the King, that such Presentation was void, for that the Statute of 31 Eliz. disables him to have the same Church during his life. It was adjudged for the King. Pasc. 13 Jac. in C.B. rott. 21. The King and the Bishop of Norwiches and Coles Case. Cro. 385. See Bolstr. 3. Part, 90. acc.

12. In a Quare Impedit, it was holden clearly by the Court, That if Title of Laps accrue to the King, and the Patron Presents, yet the King may Present at any time as long as that Presentee is Parson: But if the Presentee dyes, or resigns before the King hath Presented, the King hath lost his Presentation otherwise if the Resignation be by Covin. 2. If the King hath Title by Lapps, by reason of taking of a second Benefice. If the Parson dyes, or resigns the first Benefice, and the Patron presents, whose Presentee resigns by Covin, or dyes; the King hath lost that Presentment, for Laps is but unica et proxima vice. Trin. 6 Jac. in C. B. Cumber and the Bishop of Chichesters Case. Cro. 2. Part, 216.

2. The Priviledges, Preheminencies, and Prerogatives which the King hath beyond common persons; in his Grants, Pleadings: and in several Acts done by him; and of the several capacities of the King.

1. IT hath bin taken for a Rule and Maxime in the Law, That a common person cannot revoke, repeal, or make void, or vary from his first Presentation made by him to an Avoydance of a Church; because thereby he hath put it out of himself, and thereby given power to the Bishop to perfect what was by him begun. 38 E. 3. 35: Fitzh. Nat. Br. 34. 17 Eliz. Dyer, 348. But if the King doth present to a Church, and his Clark be admitted, and Instituted, the King may before Induction repeal or make void his first Presentation by Presentment of another Clark to the Bishop, and the very Presentment of the second Clark, without any more signification thereof to the Bishop, is in Law a repeal of the first. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 293. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 360. Mich. 8 Jac. in C. B. Walters Case adjudg. acc.

2. The Vicarage of Yatton in the County of S. came to the Queen by Lapps: The Ordinary of the Diocesse collated A. to the Vicarage. Afterwards the Queen Presented B. who brought a Quare Impedit against the Bishop and the Incumbent; pendant which suit, A. by Covin and fraud obtained a Presentation from the Queen, without making any mention of the pleasure of the Queen to revoke or repeal the first Presentment. It was in that Case holden by the whole Court, That the second ſecond Preſentation in it ſelf, had bin ſufficient, and had bin a repeal of the firſt, if it had not bin obtained by Covin. Mich. 17 Eliz. Dyer, 339. Mich. 4 Jac. in C. B. Williams and the Biſhop of Bangor's Caſe adjudged accordingly. See Godbolt.

3. If the King hath cauſe to Preſent by reaſon of Lapſe or otherwiſe, and Preſents J. S. to the Biſhop. And before J. S. be Inſtituted and Inducted, the King dyes: And the Succeſſor King without reciting or making mention of the Preſentment of his Predeceſſor, preſents J. D. to the ſame Church. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Demiſe of the King did determine the firſt Preſentment; for that the Preſentation was but a power given to the Ordinary, which was countermandable and revocable; and by the Preſentation of him, J. S. had nequit Officium nequit Beneficium: And in that Caſe it was Reſolved, That the firſt Preſentation was repealed, although it was not recited by the King, and was not within the Statute of 6. and 8. cap. 15. that the King ought for to recite the ſame. For it was agreed, That that Statute went only to Leaſes, and not to Preſentations to Churches. Mich. 8 Jac. in the Exchequer, in Calvert and Kitchins Caſe adjudged. See 16 Eliz. Dyer, 327. acc.

4. Note, it was agreed by the Juſtices, That if one wrongfully taketh the Rents and Profits of the Kings Lands; yet the ſaid Rents cannot be ſaid to be deteyned, and with-holden from the King; for the King may charge him who taketh the profits of the Rents or Lands as Bayliff, for in the Kings Caſe, the Law in ſuch Caſe maketh a Privity to charge the party in accompt. Cook 19. Part, 114.

5. It is a Rule in Law, That the Executors of a common perſon cannot be charged in an Action of account, but it is otherwiſe in the Kings Caſe. For if the Kings Steward aſſeſſeth Fines upon Copyholders upon their Admittances; and underhand takes great ſums of money of the Copyholders to his own uſe in diſceit and prejudice of the King, he may be charged in account for the whole, and if he dyeth, his Executors in the Kings Caſe, may be charged in an account. Cook 11. Part, 91. acc.

6. The Earl of Devonſhire, Maſter of the Ordinances pretended, That the old broken and unſerviceable Ordnance did belong unto him, by reaſon of his Office, and thereupon procured a Privy Seal: and afterwards he diſpoſed of the ſaid Ordnances, and made his Executors, and dyed. It was Reſolved, That the Executor of the ſaid Earl might be charged to the King for the Converſion of the ſaid Ordnance; and an account would lye by the King againſt his ſaid Executors. Cook 11. Part, 89. the Earl of Devonſhire's Caſe.

7. Sir Walter Mildmay was Chancellor of the Exchequer, and ſuggeſted to the Lord Treaſurer of England, that his Office was of great attendance; and deſired the Lord Treaſurer that he would be pleaſed to allow unto him 100 l. for his Dyet, and 40 l. per annum for his attendance, which the Lord Treaſurer did grant unto him, and he enjoyed it accordingly; and he afterwards made his Executors, and dyed. In that Caſe, his Executors were forced to account for it, and to pay back the money for all the time that their Teſtator received it. Mich. 38 Eliz. in the Exchequer. rott. 312. Sir Walter Mildmayes Caſe.

8. Sir William Chandiſh was Treaſurer of the Chamber of King Hen. 8. Ed. the 6th, and Queen Mary, and he was endebted to King Ed. 6. and Queen Mary in great ſums of money, and being ſo endebted, he purchaſed divers Lands, and afterwards alliened them, and took back an eſtate therein to himſelf and his Wife; and afterwards dyed without rendring any account. In that Caſe, the Ter-Tenants of the Lands were charged to the Queen for the money, to which they pleaded the eſpecial Pardon of the Queen. It was ſaid in that Caſe, That the Pardon was a matter of ſpecial Grace, but in Law the Ter-Tenants ſhall be chargeable to the Queen for the Monies. Cook 11. Part, 91, 92.

9. William Porter, Maſter of the Mint, did Covenant with the King by Indenture enrolled, That for all the Bullion which ſhould be delivered ad Cambium Regis pro moneta faciend. that money ſhould be delivered for it within 8 dayes, which Covenant he had broken; and therefore the King paid the Subject for the Bullion. And afterwards becauſe J. W. and R. P. dumerant et preſentaverant dict. William Porter in Officium illud tanquam ſufficientem; Ideo Conſideratum eſt quod prædict. J. W. et R. P. erga Dominum Regem onerentur: And afterwards they were charged to ſatisfy the King for all the monies which the King had paid for the ſaid William Porter. Mich. 30 E. 3. rott. 6. vouched, in Cook 11. Part, in the Earl of Devonſhires Caſe.

10. It is the Prerogative of the King, That the King ſhall have his Debt paid before the Debt of any Subject is paid, except in ſpecial Caſes. Laſſells was taken in Execution upon a Capias utlagatum out of the Kings Bench for 312 l. at the ſuit of the Lord Dacres, before the day of the Return of the Writ, there came a Writ of Prerogative out of the Exchequer, reciting a Debt of 300 l. to be due by Laſſells to the Queen, and a Habeas Corpus was awarded to the Sheriff of London, which Writ bore date a day before the Arreſt. The Sheriff by vertue thereof brought the body of Laſſells into the Exchequer, and being there examined upon the Queens Debt, and that he could not deny it. It was awarded by the Court, That he ſhould be committed to the Fleet in Execution for both Debts; the Debt to the Queen to be firſt ſatisfied. Paſc. 3 Eliz. Dyer, 179. Laſſells Caſe. And ſo it was adjudged, Mich. 5 Jac. in the Exchequer, in the Lady Sands's Caſe.

11. Upon an Extendi facias upon a Statute Staple, the Sheriff extended the Lands of the Defendant, and ſold the goods, and returned the extent into the Chancery. A Writ of Prerogative iſſued forth, That the Sheriff ſhould firſt levy 100 l. for the Kings Debt. In that Caſe, the Sheriff was driven to execute the Writ of Prerogative firſt: For notwithſtanding the extent, yet it was holden, That till a Liberate directed to the Sheriff, the property of the goods was not in the Conuſee, and then the Debt of the King was firſt to be ſatisfied. Mich. 3 Ed. 6. Dyer, 67. Stringfellows Caſe. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 131.

12. By the Common Law, the King might Grant a Protection to his Debtor, That no man might ſue him before the King was ſatisfied his Debt. And the Protection did run thus, Et quia Nolumus ſolutionem debitorum Noſtrorum cæteris omnibus prout ratione Prærogativæ noſtræ totis temporibus retroactis, &c. But that grew ſuch a grievance to the Subject, that the Statute of 25 E. 3. cap. 19. was made. And now by that Statute, a common perſon may lawfully ſue to Judgment, but he cannot proceed to Execution (and ſo the Kings Prerogative is ſaved) unleſs the Plaintiff who ſueth, will give ſecurity to pay firſt the Kings Debt. For otherwiſe, If the party doth take forth Execution upon his Judgment, and doth levy the money, the ſame may be ſeized upon to ſatisfy the Kings Debt. 45 E. 3. Tit. Decies Tantum 12.

13. Queen Eliz. by her Letters Patents did grant to Sir Chriſtopher Hatton the Office of Remembrancer or Collector of the Firſt Fruits for life; To have to him after the death of one Godfrey, who held the Office in poſſeſſion. Sir Chriſtopher Hatton thus ſtated in Reverſion of the ſaid Office, and being ſeiſed in Fee of divers Mannors, Lands, &c. did Covenant to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Lands to the uſe of J. H. his ſon in tail, with Remainders to his other Sons, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J. H. in Fee, with a Proviſo of Revocation at his pleaſure during his life. G. dyed, and Sir Chriſtopher became Officer, and afterwards became endebted to the Queen by reaſon of the ſaid Office. The Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether the Mannors and Lands which were ſo conveyed by Sir Chriſtopher, might be extended for the ſaid Debt due to the Queen by reaſon of the Proviſo and Revocation in the conveyance of the ſaid Lands. The Debt due to the Queen was aſſigned over, and the Lands extended, and the extent came to Sir Ed. Coke. The Heir ſued in the Court of Wards to avoid the extent. It was agreed by the Juſtices, Aſſiſtants to the Maſter of the Court of Wards, and by the Maſter of the ſaid Court, That the ſaid Mannors and Lands were lyable to the ſaid extent; for the power of diſpoſe of the ſaid Lands was in Sir Chriſtopher the Debtor, and the Lands which ſuch Debtor hath in his power, although he hath not an Eſtate in the Lands, ſhall be lyable to pay the Debt to the King; and he had a Fee in them to the time of his death by reaſon of the Proviſo and Revocation. Alſo he had the Lands when he was aſſured of the Office, although he had not the poſſeſſion of it; and he had a time in which he might let the Land to paſs, and yet he had a power to pull it back again at his pleaſure: And if he had bin living (being endebted to the King) the King might have extended the Lands, becauſe that then he had the poſſeſſion of them. And any Lands be the Lands in uſe, upon truſt, or under power of Revocation, the Kings debt ſhall be taken to extend unto them. Paſc. 21 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Godbolt. 292. to 300. 14. The Caſe was 3 A. recovered againſt B. in an Action upon the Caſe 500 l. Afterwards B. and C. purchaſed Lands in Fee, and afterwards alliened them to J. S. A. was Outlawed, and ſo his Debt became forfeited to the King. The Queſtion was, Whether the King ſhould have Execution of the moyety of the moyety of B. or of the entire moyety. And it was Reſolved, That he ſhould have the entire moyety, although that A. ſhould have had but the moyety of the moyety, but the Debt comming to the King, he ſhall by his Prerogative have Execution of the entire moyety. Trin. 15 Jac. in the Exchequer: The King and Deaths Caſe. Cro. 2, Part, 513.

15. A. in Execution for a Debt due to the King by a Judgment in the Exchequer, was condemned in Debt by a Judgment in B. R. and being brought by Habeas Corpus to the Bar, it was prayed he might be charged in Execution for that Debt alſo. It was Reſolved by the Court, That it could not be: For that by the Statute of 25 E. 3. cap. 19. A common perſon ſhall not have Execution againſt the Kings Debtor, untill he makes agreement for the Kings Debt. But foraſmuch as he had not a Writ of Protection, it was further Reſolved, That he was out of the Statute, and thereupon it was awarded, That he ſhould be in Execution, as well for the party, as for the King. 16. A common Recovery in a Writ of Entry was drawn againſt J. S. of the Mannor of D. wherein the Tenant prayed in aid of the King by reaſon of a Warranty whereby he Warranted that Land, this Aid Prayer was in ſtead of Voucher. It was drawn in Paper, and the Kings Attorney (by Warrant from the King) entred into Warranty, and prayed, That the Defendant might Count. But this being peruſed by the Court, becauſe that ſuch a courſe had not bin ſeen, or any Preſident ſhewen, That ever any ſhould Count againſt the King as Vouchee, therefore the Court would not ſuffer the Recovery to paſs, for that the King ſhall never render in value upon Voucher, but in ſuch Caſe they ought to ſue to the King by Petition to have in value, and not by Voucher. Mich. 3 Car. in C. B. Cro. 1. Part, 68.

17. The King had the Advowſon of the Vicarage of D. by reaſon of Wardſhip; the Church voided, during the minority of the Heir, the Heir ſued his Livery; The King Preſented under the Great Seal, and afterwards without mentioning the firſt Preſentment, Preſented another under the Seal of the Court of Wards, who is admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted by the Biſhop. Afterwards the King brought a Quare Impedit againſt the firſt Preſentee. It was adjudged it did not lye, for it was within the Diſpoſition of the Court of Wards, although it was after Livery, becauſe it was a Chattel veſted. And it was ſaid, That the ſecond Preſentation under the Seal of the Court of Wards was good, for that the King might Preſent by word, for nothing is Granted or given by Preſentation, for it is but a commendation or Declaration of the Kings Will, which may well be by word: And if the King hath an Advowſon in the right of the Dutchy, which becomes void, he may Preſent to it in the right of the Crown. Trin. 8 Jac. in C. B. The King and the Biſhop of Chicheſters Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 247, 248.

18. By command from the King, It was propounded to all the Juſtices of England, with divers of the Nobility, Whether the Deprivation of Puritan Miniſters by the High Commiſſioners, for refuſing to conform themſelves to the Ceremony appointed by the late Cannons was lawful. It was anſwered by them all, That it was, becauſe the King hath the Supream Eccleſiaſtical power which he hath delegated to the Commiſſioners, whereby they had power of Deprivation by the Canon Law of the Realm. And the Statute of 1 Eliz. doth not confer any new power, but explain and declare the Auncient power. And they held it clear, That the King without the Parliament, might make Orders and Conſtitutions for the Government of the Clergy by his own Prerogative, and might deprive them if they obeyed them not; And ſo the Commiſſioners might deprive them, but they could not make any Conſtitutions without the King. Trin. 2 Jac. Cro. 2. Part, 37.

19. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That in Caſe of a common perſon, If the Plaintiff in Evidence ſhew any matter in Writing, or of Record, upon which a Queſtion in Law doth ariſe, and the Defendant offereth to demur in Law, the Plaintiff cannot refuſe to joyn in Demurrer, but he ought to joyn, or elſe waive his Evidence. But if Evidence be given for the King, and the Defendant offereth to demur upon it, the King is not bounden to joyn in Demurrer, but the Court may direct the Jury to find the ſpecial matter, and upon that they ſhall judg according to Law: And in that Caſe, it was ſaid, That the King by his Prerogative might waive his Demurrer, and take Iſſue at his pleaſure. Trin. 42 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, 104. Bakers Caſe.

20. In an Information againſt the Defendant, for uſing the Trade of a Goldſmith upon the Statute of 5 Eliz. not being an Apprentice: The Defendant pleaded the Cuſtome of London, That one having bin an Apprentice for ſeven years, and made Freeman of London of any Trade, may uſe any other Trade in the ſame City, and ſhewed he was bound Apprentice in the Art of a Cordwainer, and ſerved ſeven years, and was made a Freeman, and ſo juſtified. It was objected, That the matter of the Plea was not good, becauſe a Cuſtome cannot be alledged againſt a Statute. To which it was anſwered, That being the Cuſtome of London, which Cuſtomes being confirmed by Parliament, it was good, but the Court gave no Reſolution of that point, becauſe the Kings Attorney this Term waived the Demurrer, and took Iſſue upon the Cuſtome, and prayed that the Defendant might rejoyn; and thereupon the Defendant prayed, That he might waive his Plea, and plead, Not Guilty. But the Court doubted, Whether he might do it without the aſſent of the Attorney General, who would not aſſent; whereupon the Defendant was enforced to rejoyn. Hill. 9 Car. in B. R. 21. Queen Eliz. Anno 43. of her Reign, made mixt monies in the Tower of London, and ſent it over into Ireland with Proclamation, that the ſaid money ſhould be currant in that Realm, and ſhould be accepted and received by all her Subjects uſing Trade and Merchandiſing within the ſaid Realm, with puniſhment for contempt of thoſe which ſhould refuſe it, and by the ſame Proclamation, made all other Coynes currant in that Realm of no eſteem. The Caſe proceeded further. But concerning this of monies, It was Reſolved. 1. That the ſtandard of money certain was neceſſary in every Common Wealth, becauſe there cannot be any equality in Contracts without money, and for the eaſe of commerce, money was invented. And Moneta eſt juſtum medium et Menſura rerum commutabilium.

bilium. 2. Reſolved, That it belongs only to the King of England to coyn money within his Dominions; and no other can make it without ſpecial Licenſe or command, and if any doth it of his own head, it is High Treaſon. And it was ſaid, That the King by his Proclamation may make any Coyn lawful money of England, à fortiori he may eſtabliſh the ſtandard of money within his own Dominions. 3. Reſolved, That the King may change his money in ſubſtance, or abaſe the value of it, or utterly decry it and annul it, as he did in the principal Caſe, and this by his Prerogative, and ſuch changes have bin by Authority of the King without Parliament in all ages. See Sir John Davis's Reports, the Caſe of mixt monies. See Cook 5. Part, 114. Wades Caſe, acc.

22. In all Originalls brought by a Subject, wherein Pledges de proſequendo are to be found, the preamble of the Writ is Rex vicecom. ſalutem. Si A. fecerit te ſecurum, &c. tunc ſummoneas, &c. But at the Kings ſuit, the preamble ſhall be Rex vicecom. ſalutem. Summoneas per bonos ſummon. &c. and ſhall not be Si Rex fecerit te ſecurum, &c. for the King ſhall not be bound to proſecute, becauſe he is ſubjected to be amerced if he do not proſecute, neither can he be Non-ſuit, becauſe he is alwayes preſent in Court. Fitz. Nat. Br. 31. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 127. See Cook 8. Part, 61. acc. in Butlers Caſe, the King ſhall not find Pledges, becauſe he cannot be amerced; no more ſhall the Queen, becauſe ſhe partaketh of the Kings Prerogative.

23. The King made a Leaſe for years, rendring rent, payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer, ſeu ad manus Baliworum, ſeu receptorum with Condition to be void for non-payment; and afterwards Granted over the Reverſion; And whether he ſhall demand the Rent, and take advantage of the Condition, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That if a common perſon reſerve a Rent upon a Demiſe payable at a place from of the Land, he who will take advantage of the Condition for not payment of the Rent, ought to demand the Rent at the place where it is limitted to be paid. But if the King makes a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent, with ſuch Condition, the King may take advantage of the Condition, without a demand, becauſe it is not for the Honour and Dignity of the King to demand Rent of his Subject; but the Law appoints the Subject to attend upon the King, and therefore the Subject ought to do the firſt act, either to pay or tender the Rent. But it was Reſolved, That this Prerogative was perſonal only, and therefore if the King Grant over the Reverſion, the Patentee ought to make demand of the Rent if he will take advantage of the Condition. 24. If a common perſon taketh an Allien born to Wife, and dyeth: If he were ſeiſed of Lands in Fee in tail, yet the Wife ſhall not be endowed of the Lands; but if the King taketh to Wife an Allien born, ſhe ſhall be endowed by the Law of the Crown. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 31. See 26 E. 1. Rott. Par. 1. Edmond, brother to King E. 1. married the Queen of Navar, and dyed. It was in that Caſe Reſolved by all the Judges, that ſhe ſhould be endowed of all his Lands of which he dyed ſeiſed in Fee-ſimple.

25. If a Villain purchaſeth Lands, and allieneth the ſame before the Lord doth enter, the Lord is barred for ever, for before entry, the Lord hath neither jus in re, nec ad rem: But if the Kings Villain purchaſeth Lands, and allieneth before the King (upon an Office found for him) doth enter, yet the King after Office found, ſhall have the Land, quia Nullum Tempus occurrit Regi; And yet after Office, the King ſhall not have the mean profits, becauſe the Title commeth by ſeizure; but it is otherwiſe of goods or Chattels, for there the property of them is in the King, before any ſeizure or Office. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 110. See Litt. Sect. 177, 178.

26. By the Common Law, the Wife of the King is an exempt perſon from the King, and is capable of Lands and Tenements of the gift of the King, as no other Feme Covert is, and ſhe may ſue and be ſued without the King, ſhe ſhall find no pledges, for ſuch is her Dignity, that ſhe ſhall not be amerced, and ſhe in many Caſes pertakes of the Prerogative of the King; and therefore if a Quare Impedit be brought by her, It hath bin the Opinion of our books, That Plenarty is no good Plea againſt the Queen. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 119. and Cook 4. Part, 23. in Clark and Pennyfathers Caſe, acc.

27. If a Villain remain in auncient Demeſne of the King a year and a day, without claim or ſeiſure of the Lord, the Lord cannot have a Writ of Nativo habendo, or ſeize him ſo long as he remains and continues there, and this Priviledg he hath in reſpect of the Service which he did the King in plowing the Kings Land, and other labours of Husbandry, which was for the Kings benefit. Fitz. Nat. Br. 79.

28. The Common Law gives to the King all ſuch things which are Nullius in bonis; as Wreck, which is, when goods by Shipwrack are caſt upon the Land; Flotſan, which is when a ſhip is drowned, and the goods float upon the Sea: Jetſan, when a ſhip is in danger to be drowned, and to diſburthen the Ship, the goods are caſt into the Sea, and afterwards the Ship periſheth. Legan, when the the goods are ſo ponderous, that they ſink, and the Mariners when they find them, faſten a Cork, or a Buoy to them, to diſcover whereabouts the goods do lye. All theſe do belong to the King Jure Prærogativæ; and ſo it is of all other goods and Chattels; wherein none can claim a property, the King ſhall have them by his Prerogative. Cook 5. Part, 106. in Sir Henry Conſtables Caſe.

29. All White Swans not marked, which have gained their Liberty, and ſwim in an open and common River, may be ſeized upon to the uſe of the King by his Prerogative. Cook 7. Part, 16. the Caſe of Swans.

30. When the King hath any Prerogative, Eſtate, Right, or Title, he ſhall not be barred of the ſame by the general words of an Act of Parliament: And the King hath a Prerogative, That Nullum Tempus occurrit Regi; and therefore the general Acts of Limitations, Plenarty ſhall not extend to the King. So the King by his Prerogative may ſue in what Court he pleaſeth; and therefore he ſhall not be barred of this Prerogative by the Statute of Magna Charta. Cook 10. Part, 74. in Magdalen Colledges Caſe. Fitz. Nat. Br. 7. and 32. acc.

31. Note, It is ſaid in the Regiſter, That the King may joyn with another in a Quare Impedit: and Fitz. Nat. Br. 32. ſets down the Writ, viz. Precipe R. de C. quod juſte, &c. permittat nos et P. de F. præſentare idoneam perſonam ad Eccleſiam de R. But it is there ſaid, That notwithſtanding that Writ, That the King alone ſhould have the Preſentation; and to that purpoſe; ſee 11 E. 3. Fitz. Quare Imp. 73. But the Opinion of Mr. Fitz. himſelf is, That it ſtands with reaſon that the King and another might joyn in the Writ; as in popular Actions, where the party ſueth for the King and himſelf; and there the words of the Writ are, Qui tam pro Domino Rege, quam pro ſeipſo ſequitur; And it is ſaid by him there, That it is the common experience, That another man may now hold Lands in common with the King; and therefore it is reaſon, That they may preſent to an Advowſon in Common. But Quære Fitz. Nat. Br. 32. G.

32. The Caſe was, A. was Indicted of a Premunire upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. and afterwards made a gift in tail of that Land, and after was Attainted by Verdict, and had Judgment for that Offence. It was afterwards found by Commiſſion out of the Exchequer. That A. was ſeiſed in Fee of thoſe Lands at the time of the offence committed, and that the Queen by her Letters Patents had granted thoſe Lands to J. S. under whom the Leſſee of the Plaintiff claimed; and the Defendant under the Title of the Tenant in tail. There were two points in the Caſe. 1. Whether an Attainder in a Premunire ſhall have relation to the Offence, for the forfeiture of the Lands, or only to the time of the Judgment. This being a matter of great difficulty, the Court gave no Reſolution in it. 2. Admitting it to be a forfeiture, Whether the Patents after the Inquiſition by Commiſſion under the Exchequer Seal (no Offence being found by Commiſſion under the Great Seal) were good by the Statute of 18 Eliz. which makes Patents upon valuable conſideration good, notwithſtanding there be not any Inquiſition found under the Great Seal. For this, the Court Reſolved, That by this Judgment he ſhould forfeit, &c. That in that Caſe, nothing veſted in the King untill Office found: for the Freehold being in the party offending at the time of the Attainder, it ſhall not be deveſted from him; and in the King without Office under the Great Seal, which is only an Office to entitle the King; and not by vertue of a Commiſſion under the Exchequer Seal, which is but Inſtruction and Information to the King, and for his Officer to put the Lands holden of the King in charge. But here the Lands are not come unto the King, untill Office found; Therefore for this point only, it was adjudged for the Defendant: and it was agreed, That this is out of the Statute of 18 Eliz. 33. Reges Sacro oleo uncti Spiritualis Juriſdictionis ſunt capaces. And 10 H. 7. Rex eſt perſona mixta cum ſacerdote: And whereas by the Common Law, no perſon was capable of Tythes, nor could ſue for Tythes, but in the Spiritual Court. Yet the King by his Prerogative (and ſo may his Pattentees under him, and the King) might ſue for Tythes in other Courts. See 22. Aſſ. 75. The King having Tythes in the Forreſt of Rockingham, did by his Letters Pattents, Grant the ſame to the Provoſt of C. who thereupon brought a Scire facias againſt the Occupiers of the Lands within the Forreſt, to have Execution of thoſe Tythes, and the Writ was allowed.

34. In 16 E. 3. Quare Imp. 147. The King brought a Precipe quod reddat of the fourth part of the Tythes and Offerings of the Church of Sr. Dunſtans in the Weſt; and it was adjudged, That the Action brought by the King, did lye.

35. If Tythes do lye in any Forreſt, as in the Forreſt of Sherwood, Windſor, &c. which is out of any Pariſh, the King ſhall have them by his Prerogative, and not the Biſhop of the Dioceſs, or the Metropolitan of the Province, as ſome have thought. 14 H. 4. 17.

36. A Prior Allien, Farmer of the King, was endebted to the King for his Farm, and being ſued for the ſame in the Exchequer, he ſhewed unto the Court, Court, That there was a Parſon who held a portion of Tythes which was parcel of his poſſeſſions belonging to his Farm, and that the Parſon withheld the Tythes from him, ſo as he could not pay the King his Farm without having thoſe Tythes which were in the Parſons hands; whereupon a Quo minus iſſued forth out of the Exchequer at the ſuit of the King. In that Caſe, it was ſaid by Skipwith, That by Prerogative of the King, That for whatſoever concerneth the King, and may turn to his advantage, and may haſten his buſineſs, be the thing Spiritual or Temporal, that the Juriſdiction thereof did belong to the Exchequer; but it was there agreed, That ſuch ſuit was by Prerogative only. For it was there agreed, That ſuch ſuit for Tythes did not fall into the Juriſdiction of the Kings Bench or Common Pleas. 38 E. 3. 20. See 44 E. 3. 43, 44. acc.

37. It is taken for a ground in Law, Cook 11. Part, in Pridle and Nappers Caſe, That no man can make any Appropriation of any Church, having Cure of Souls, the ſame being a thing meer Eccleſiaſtical, and to be made to ſome Eccleſiaſtical perſon, but he only that hath Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction: And therefore in all Appropriations, the Inſtrument of Appropriation is by the Biſhop or Ordinary, and runs in this form, viz. Authoritate noſtra Ordinaria Eccleſiam Parochialem de B. &c. Priori et Conventui, &c. annectimus appropriamus, et unimus. But yet it is Reſolved, That the King is ſuch a Spiritual perſon, that he of himſelf may appropriate any Church or Advowſon, becauſe he hath the Eccleſiaſtical Juriſdiction in him. And no perſon within the Realm or without, but the King, or the Ordinary, by Authority derived from the King, can make any Appropriation. Cook 5. Part, 10. in Cawdries Caſe. Cook 11. But if an Allien Merchant purchaſeth a houſe for habitation, becauſe of Commerce and Traffique, the King ſhall not have it: but if afterwards he relinquiſheth the Realm, or dyeth during the Term, the King ſhall have the Leaſe, and not his Executors. 39. The King by his Letters Patents Granted, That the Town of Dungannon in Ireland, ſhould for ever be a Free Borough, and be a Body Corporate, conſiſting of one Provoſt, and twelve Free Burgeſſes, and Commonalty: And in the Patent, was this clauſe, Quod ipſi prefati Propoſiti et Burgenſes et Succ. ſui in perpetuum habeant poteſtatem et Authoritatem, of chuſing of Burgeſſes for the Parliament of Ireland: And whether this Letters Patent had ſufficiently enabled them to ſend Burgeſſes to Parliament, was a doubt, becauſe the Corporation being Proveſt, Free Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, this Priviledg was neither Granted to them, nor paſſed by the word Grant. And in this Caſe, it was Reſolved. 1. That the King by his Letters Patents might ordain, That from a Town not Corporate, ſhould come Burgeſſes to be choſen by the Inhabitants, and that this Liberty could not commence by Grant, but by Ordinance; As the King may erect a Fair, or a Market, Park, Forreſt, Chaſe, Warren, by Ordinance, without Granting it to any. 2. Reſolved, That when there was a Corporation made by Charter, and by the ſame an Ordinance, That the Provoſt and Burgeſſes only ſhould chuſe, &c. the Law veſts this Priviledg in the whole Corporation in point of Intereſt, though the Execution of it be committed to ſome perſons, members of the ſame Corporation. 3. Where the King ſhall have a Scire facias; Where he may enter and ſeize, without a Scire facias; and where, and in what Caſe not: And what other Acts or things done by the King, ſhall be good; Where not.

1. MAtthew Herbert acknowledged a Recognizance of 3000 l. to the King, and dyed: And after his death, a Scire facias Iſſued againſt the Executors Teſtamenti et ultimæ voluntatis prædict. Matthei, et hæred. terrarum quæ ſua fuerint: and at the day, the Sheriff returned, That he had not Executors, but Scire feci Willelmo Herbert militi filio et hæredi hæredi diff. Matthei quod ſit, &c. William made default, and Judgment upon that default was given for the King. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other points, That at the Common Law, the Body, Lands, and goods of the Accomptant, or Debtor of the King was not lyable to Execution; for Theſaurus Regis, eſt vinculum pacis, et bellorum Nervi. There were three Errors aſſigned in the Scire facias: Firſt, that the Scire facias was hæred. terrarum et tenementorum, which was improper for one who is Heir to the Auncеſtor, & not to the Land. 2. That the Retorn did not anſwer the Writ, for he doth not retorn him Heir of the Lands, as the Writ requireth, and every Retorn ought to anſwer the point of the Writ. 3. Becauſe the Judgment is general where it ought to have bin ſpecial; for by this Judgment his own Lands ſhould be charged, which in Law ought not to be. Theſe points were not Reſolved. But afterwards upon a Petition, Sir William Herbert compounded with the King. Cook 3. Part, 12, 18, 19. Sir William Herlons Caſe.

2. In the Caſe of the Warden and Commonalty of Sadlers; theſe points amongſt others, were Reſolved, That at the Common Law, If the King was by a Falſe Office poſſeſſed of the Cuſtody or Intereſt of Land, by reaſon of Ward, Idiocy, or the like, although the Office was Falſe; yet the party could not have traverſed it, but was put to his Petition. But where the King by Office was only entituled, and could not make a ſeizure without ſuit; there in a Scire facias brought by the King, the party might traverſe the Office, becauſe that nothing was in the King by the Office. 2. That when the Kings Tenant ſeiſed in Fee, dyed without Heir, the Fee and Freehold was preſently in the King without Office, if the Tenant was in poſſeſſion at the time of his death; but when a ſtranger was in poſſeſſion at the time of the Eſcheat, there the King ſhould not be in poſſeſſion untill that ſeiſin and poſſeſſion were removed; and when no man is in poſſeſſion, the Law ſhall adjudg the King in poſſeſſion. 3. Reſolved, That when a common perſon againſt another common perſon is put to his real Action; in ſuch Caſe, he ſhall be put to Petition, which is his real Action againſt the King: And the difference was taken, where the Auncеſtor of the King diſſeiſeth another perſon, and dyeth, and the Lands diſcends to the King; there, becauſe by the Diſcent, the entry of the Diſſeiſee is taken away, the party ſhall be put to Petition; but in Caſe of Eſcheat, when the Diſſeiſor dyeth without Heir, if it were in Caſe of a common perſon, the entry of the Diſſeiſee was not taken away, and therefore there in that Caſe, in caſe of the King, the party ſhall not be put to Petition. 4. Reſolved, That in all Caſes at the Common Law, when the Title of the King accrued to him by Judicial Record, or by Judgment of Record, there although the King granteth his eſtate over, the party grieved was put to his Petition; and to have a Scire facias againſt the Pattentee; but when the King was entituled by Conveyance of Record, there although the party was put to Petition as againſt the King, yet if he Granted the Land over, the Diſſeiſee might enter, or have an Action againſt the Pattentee, becauſe a Judicial Record ſhall be preferred, before a Conveyance by Record by Aſſent. Cook 4. Part, 57, to 60. The Warden and Commonalty of Sadlers Caſe.

3. An Idiot above the age of 21 years, makes a Feoffment in Fee of his Lands: If it be demanded how, and in what manner it may be avoided during his life. The anſwer is, That if it be found by Office at the Kings ſuit (who hath the Cuſtody and Government of Lands of Idiots) that he was Idiot à Nativitate, and that he hath alliened his Lands, then upon a Scire facias againſt the Alliance, the Lands ſhall be ſeiſed into the Kings hands, and thereby the Inheritance ſhall be reveſted in the Idiot. For the Statute ſaith Quod poſt mortem eorum reddat eam rectis hæredibus; which the King cannot do, nor can the King have the poſſeſſion of the Land to his own uſe, if not, that by Office, and ſeizure, ſuch conveyance made by the Ideot be deſtroyed; and ſuch Office when it is found, ſhall have relation à tempore Nativitatis of the Idiot to avoid all mean Acts made by the Ideot, as Feoffments, Releaſes, &c. Cook 4. Part, 127, 128. in Beverleyes Caſe.

4. The King granted the Office of Marſhalſey for life; and afterwards Granted the ſame in Reverſion for 21 years; the Grantee of the Reverſion aſſigned his Intereſt to A. Tenant for life deputed J. S. at Will, and dyed. A. by Deed aſſigned the ſaid Office to J. S. Office found, That J. S. committed divers forfeitures of the ſaid Office by ſuffering voluntary eſcapes. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved (amongſt other points), That the King might ſeize the Office without ſuing of a Scire facias: And in that Caſe, theſe differences were taken by the Court. 1. That in ſome Caſes, the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion by ſeizure without Office, as in the Caſe of the Temporalties of the Biſhop, or Prior Alliens, becauſe the certainty thereof appeareth in the Exchequer. 2. In ſome Caſes the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion by the Office without ſeizure; as of Lands, Offices, Ward of Lands, whereof continual profits may be taken; as where it is found by Office, That a Condition is broken, or that a perſon Attainted is ſeiſed of Lands. 3. In ſome Caſes, The King ſhall be in Poſſeſſion by ſeizure and Office: As in Caſe of an Advowſon, the rightfull Patron ſhall not be cuſted poſſeſſion of it, by falſe Office found of it untill the King hath Preſented, and his Clark be admitted and Inſtituted. For if the King brings a Quare Impedit, in that Action he may traverſe the Office. 4. In ſome Caſes, the King ſhall be in poſſeſſion without Office, or ſeizure, as where the Kings Tenant dyeth without Heir. 5. In all Caſes, when a common perſon is put to his Action: There upon Office found, the King is put to his Scire facias; but when a common perſon may enter or ſeize, there Office found without a Scire facias, is ſufficient for the King. Cook 9. Part, 97, 98, 99. Sir George Reynells Caſe.

5. If Office be found againſt the King: and a Melius inquirendum awarded: and in that it is found for the King, but the Melius is void for incertainty in the Writ, a new Writ of Melius inquirendum ſhall be awarded; but if upon the Writ of Melius it be found againſt the King, there the King ſhalll not have a new Writ of Melius inquirendum, for then there ſhould be no end; but Writs infinite ſhould iſſue. And if an Office be found for the King, the party grieved may traverſe it, and if the Traverſe be found againſt him, it makes an end of the buſineſs: So if it be found for him that traverſeth, the King is bound thereby. See Cook 8. Part, 169. Paris Stoughters Caſe. And in that Caſe, it was further Reſolved, That the Eſcheator before Office found at this day, cannot ſeize any Lands into the Kings hands; but the ſeizure ought to be after the Office found.

6. A. brought a Quare Impedit againſt B. the Preſentee of the Queen, and the Plaintiff had Judgment to recover: Whereupon the Queen brought a Scire facias, and ſhewed, That after the ſaid Judgment, A. was Outlawed in an Action of Treſpaſs at the ſuit of J. S. and prayed, That the Writ to the Biſhop might be ſtayed: and a Scire facias iſſued ad reſpondendum Quare dicta Domina Regina ſhould not have Execution of the ſaid Judgment by reaſon of the Outlawry aforeſaid. It was objected, That the Scire facias did not lye for the Queen, for that Writ alwayes runs in privity of the Record upon which it is grounded, to which Record the Queen is a ſtranger; and by Outlawry in an Action perſonal, no Action real ſhall Eſcheat: And therefore this Scire facias which is a real Action, or at the leaſt, a mixt Action, ſhall not be forfeited: And it were abſurd now to Grant a Writ to the Biſhop for the Queen, whereas Judgment was given againſt the Queen. But it was the Opinion of all the Judges, That upon this matter, the Scire facias lay well enough: And it was good diſcretion in the Court, to award ſuch a Writ. And it was ſaid by Rhodes Juſtice, That if two Coparceners of an Advowſon, make compoſition to preſent by Turns; and afterwards one of them dyeth, her Heir within age, and in Ward to the King, the Church voideth, and the King is diſturbed in his Preſentment, he ſhall have a Scire facias upon ſuch compoſition, notwithſtanding that he be a ſtranger to it. Afterwards the Scire facias was awarded to be good. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Beverly and Cornwalls Caſe. Leon. 63. See Goldesbr. 44. the ſame Caſe.

4. Where the Reverſion or the Remainder of the King ſhall be Diſcontinued by the Act of a ſtranger, where not: and of other things by the King, and to the King.

1. SEE, It is Reſolved in Cook 1. Part, 16. in Sir William Pelhams Caſe, That a common Recovery by aſſent without Title, ſhall not deveſt a Reverſion or Remainder out of the King, becauſe the ſame being ſuffered by aſſent of the parties, without Title, is but a Conveyance. See 25 E. 3. 48. acc.

2. Tenant in tail, the Remainder in Fee, he in the Remainder, by Deed Indented, and Enrolled, Covenanted in Conſideration of Bloud, and other good conſiderations, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf in tail, the Remainder to the Queen and her Heirs and Succeſſors, Kings and Queens of England. Tenant in tail ſuffered a common Recovery. It was adjudged, That the Iſſue in tail was barred by this Recovery. And in this Caſe, it was Reſolved amongſt other points. 1. That no Eſtate tail is preſerved by the Statute of 34 H. 8. but that which is created by Letters Patents of the King, or that which is of the Proviſion of the King; and an Eſtate tail created by a common perſon is not preſerved by that Statute. And therefore it was Reſolved, That if a gift be made by a common perſon, and afterwards the Crown diſcendeth unto him, the ſame is out of the Statute of 34 H. 8. But when the King in conſideration of money, or for other conſideration, procures a Subject to make a gift in tail to one of his Servants; the Remainder to the King, the ſame is ſaved by the Statute. 2. It was Reſolved, That by the Statute of 34 H. 8. A common Recovery did bar an Eſtate in tail which was created by the Kings Letters Patents, although that the Reverſion was in the King. Cook 2. Part, 16. Wiſemans Caſe. See Cook 1. Part, Capells Caſe, acc.

3. Tenant in tail, the Remainder in tail; he in the Remainder bargained and ſold his Remainder to A. for the life of Tenant in tail, and after his death, the Remainder to the King in Fee, upon Condition; Tenant in tail ſuffered a Recovery. The King Granted his Remainder to Tenant in tail and his Heirs: Afterwards he in the Remainder Bargained and ſold to B. the Remainder to the King upon Condition: Another common Recovery was had; Tenant in tail dyeth without iſſue. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That he in the Remainder, and all claiming by him, were barred by the Recovery. And in this Caſe, divers other points were Reſolved. 1. That the Grant to A. was not good, becauſe he took no particular Eſtate, and then the Remainder to the Queen upon it was void by way of Remainder, becauſe the ſame could never come in poſſeſſion, and the Grantee ſhall never have any benefit of it; but a Grant of the Reverſion during the life of Tenant in tail, is good, becauſe he ſhall have the Services which Tenant in tail ought to do. 2. Reſolved, That the common Recovery did bar the Eſtate tail, and the Eſtate tail of A. in Remainder, although the Remainder was in the King, becauſe the eſtate tail was not within the Statute of 34 H. 8. of the gift of the King, or of any of his Auncеſtors, or Progenitors. Cook 2. Part, 53. Sir Hugh Cholmleyes Caſe.

to

4. King Hen. the 7th, Anno 19. of his Reign, Granted by his Letters Patents the Mannor of D. to A. and B. in tail; and afterwards reciting the Letters Patents, and that they were ſurrendred and delivered to be cancelled; the King by other Letters Patents, ex certa ſcientia, &c. Granted to the ſaid B. and E. his Wife manerium prædict. and to their Heirs. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Grant was good, and that the Reverſion of the Mannor which the King had paſſed by the Grant. For inaſmuch as the party had truly enformed the King of the Eſtate tail, and the delivery of the Letters Patents to be cancelled, although that the King had miſtaken the Law in matter in fact; yet the ſame ſhall not avoid his Grant, eſpecially the ſame being ex certa ſcientia, &c. which ſhall be taken in the moſt favourable and liberal ſenſe, according to the intent of the King, expreſſed in his Grant. 2. Reſolved, That by the Grant of the Mannor, without the word Reverſion, the Reverſion did paſs: For this word, Mannor, doth include all Eſtates and Degrees of Eſtates, of or in the Mannor. As if A. give the Mannor of D. to B. in tail; and afterwards the Donor is attainted, and the King ſeiſed of the Reverſion by his Letters Patents, Grants Manerium de D. to another and his Heirs, although that the King Grants the Mannor of D. in poſſeſſion; yet the Reverſion ſhall paſs, becauſe the King hath an Eſtate, viz. the Reverſion in Fee Grantable in him; and the Eſtate tail Granted by a common perſon, needs not to be recited. Cook 6. Part, 55. The Lord Chandois Caſe.

5. Grandfather, Father, and Son; the Grandfather ſeiſed of Lands in Capite, by act executed, conveyes part of his Lands to the uſe of the Father, and his Wife for their lives, the Remainder to the Son in tail, the Remainder to another in tail, the Remainder to the Grandfather for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the Grandfather: and conveyes other Lands holden in Capite, to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to other of his ſons for their lives ſeverally, the Remainder to the Father for life, the Remainder to the Son in tail, with divers Remainders over, the Reverſion to the right Heirs of the Grandfather, the Grandfather dyeth, the Father of full age, who tenders his Livery, and dyeth before Livery ſued, or Office found; the ſon of full age, and the Wife, and other Sons living. It was Reſolved in this Caſe. 1. That by the death of the Grandfather, before Livery ſued, the King had loſt his Primer ſeiſin after the death of the Grandfather, but the King ſhall not loſe the mean Rates, if any be, becauſe they are abſolutely veſted in the King. 2. That the ſon ſhall not ſue Livery, nor pay Primer Seiſin, becauſe he is out of the Statute of 32 and 35 H. 8. and the Primer Seiſin was due by the Father, and the King ſhall have but one Seiſin by the Statute. 3. That the King ſhould have Primer Seiſin of all the Lands conveyed to the younger Sons, becauſe they are within the Statute. 4. Reſolved, That the King ſhould not have Primer Seiſin of this dry Reverſion, and that by the Statute of Prerogativâ Regis, for when no Rent is reſerved, the King cannot take exitus; but yet it was agreed, That for ſuch a Reverſion, a man ſhould be in Ward. Cook 9. Part, 132. Holts Caſe.

6. Upon a ſpecial Verdict: the Queſtion was, Whether a Leaſe by the King under the Exchequer Seal of Lands uſually demiſed to one for life, the Remainder for life, the Remainder to a third for life, reſerving the uſual Rent, ſhould be good or not. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That Leaſes for life under the Exchequer Seal, being of Lands uſually Leaſed, and reſerving the Auncient Rent, are allowable and good for the benefit of the King, that his Land ſhall not lye unletten. Hill. 13 Car. in B. R. Kemp and Barnards Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 369.

7. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, Henry the 8th, ſeiſed of the Mannor of B. and of divers Lands in B. parcel of the Priory of S. by Indenture under the Great Seal, Bargained and ſold to J. S. the Mannor of B. and all his Lands in B. rendring 50 s. rent Tenendum, by the 10th part of a Knights Fee. Afterwards Henry the 8th, under the Great Seal, Grants to J. S. the Mannor of B. and all his Land n B. aut alibi in dict. Com. dict. Manerio ſpectant. Queen Eliz. ſuppoſing that the Lands in B. which were not part of the Mannor, had not paſſed, Granted them to Dr. Atkins. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Lands paſſed by the firſt Indenture. For although it was held, That neither by the Common Law, nor by the Statute of 27 H. 8. Lands cannot paſs by Indenture of Bargain and Sale enrolled in the Caſe of the King, becauſe there cannot paſs an uſe: For the King cannot be ſeiſed to an uſe: Yet it appears, That the intent of the King was to paſs it. And the Statute of 34 H. 8. makes all the Kings Grants by Letters Pattents to be good, or by Indenture to be good, which otherwiſe were not good. Some held, That they paſſed by the Letters Pattents. For when he Granted the Mannor, and all the Lands in B. et alibi dict. Manerio ſpectant. Thoſe words do not extend, but to Lands alibi in dict. Com. Trin. 44 Eliz. in C. B. Dr. Atkins and Longvilles Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 50, 51.

8. Note, It was ſaid by Cook Chief Juſtice, That it was adjudged, 30 Eliz. in Bawdes Caſe, That where an Enfant, or Husband and Wife make a conveyance to the Queen by Bargain and Sale, That it was not aided by the Statute of 18 Eliz. For that helps only in Caſes when there is an imperfection in the conveyance; and not where there is a diſſability in the perſon who makes the Conveyance. But when Tenant in tail makes a Conveyance by Deed, that is helped by the Statute, for he may make a Conveyance by Fine. Hill. 12 Jac. in B. R. Cro. 2. Part, 364.

9. The Caſe upon an Appeal concerning the Juriſdiction of the Kings Court of Delegates in Chancery, was this; One dyed Inteſtate in the County of York, and a ſtranger prayed Letters of Adminiſtration to be granted unto him, which was repealed by the Delegates at York. There was an Appeal to the Delegates in Chancery, who did repeal the former ſentence at York, and adjudged, that the party made no Will, and Granted Letters of Adminiſtration to him who appealed to them. The Arch-Biſhop of Canterbury Granted Letters of Adminiſtration of a ſecond perſon, and the Arch-Biſhop of York to a third perſon, who made a Releaſe unto the Debtor of the Inteſtate; upon which Releaſe, Debt was brought by the firſt Adminiſtrator againſt the Defendant, who pleaded the Releaſe made unto him. And whether this Grant of Letters of Adminiſtration by the Kings Judges Delegates, were good or not, was the Queſtion. It was very much inſiſted upon, That this ſentence given by the Kings Court of Delegates, was not to be remaunded to the Court at York, for if there were any nullity or iniquity in the ſentence at York; by this they have loſt their Juriſdiction; and the Biſhop hath in this offended his Superiour, who is repreſented as Supream Ordinary in the perſon of the Delegates; and the Letters of Adminiſtration Granted by the King by his Judges Delegates, are well Granted, and ſo the ſubſequent Grant by the Ordinary, is not good, and many Preſidents were ſhewed to that purpoſe. But the better Opinion of the Court was; That the Letters of Adminiſtration which were Granted by the Kings Judges Delegates, were not good; but there being bona Notabilia, the Adminiſtration was to be Granted by the Arch-Biſhop; and it was ſaid, That although the King be Supream Ordinary, and may do many Acts by his Delegates: Yet the Court of Delegates cannot do this, nor have any power to prove a Will: For the power of the Judges Delegates, ſis poteſtas delegata corrigere, non exequi, to examine, and not to correct. And it was ſaid, That the ſame had bin adjudged in one Brackenburies Caſe. That Judges Delegates had not power to Grant Letters of Adminiſtration. Mich. 10 Jac. in B. R. Stevenſon and Wood's Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 3, and 4.

10. A. had a Statute made unto him of 1000 l. by J. S. Afterwards A. was a Fugitive beyond the Seas, and after, and before Office found, he returned, and releaſed this Statute. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That this Releaſe ſhould not bar the King; for the King was entituled to the Statute by the Flight; and it was in him before Office found. 2. Reſolved, That whereas the King had Granted this Statute to J. D. and Liberty for him to ſue it in the Name of the King, and his Succeſſors, ſuch a Warrant was good, and all proceſs ſhall be made in the Kings Name, as if there had not bin any Grant thereof. Mich. 3 Jac. in the Exchequer. The King and Sir Rich. Wedmans Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 82, 83.

11. In Debt the Defendant pleaded the Letters Pattents of the King, of Protection, reciting, That whereas he was endebted to the King in 200 l. the King for the more ſpeedy payment of his Debt, received Garret Malins into his Protection, and that none ſhould meddle with him, or with his goods, or implead him in any Court for any Debt or Treſpaſs, untill the King was ſatisfied, and ſo demand Judgment if he ſhould anſwer. But becauſe Gerrard Malins is impleaded, and this Protection is of Garret Malins, the Protection was diſallowed: And whereas it was alledged, That by the Statute of 25 E. 3. cap. 19. that none ſhould be delayed upon them; but the parties ſhould anſwer, and go to Judgment, but Execution ſhould ſtay: the Court for that cauſe alſo held, That this Protection was not allowable; but when it came to Execution, they would adviſe upon it. Paſc. 16 Jac. in B. R. Travers and Malins Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 477.

12. The

12. The Queen made a Leaſe for years to J. S. who was Outlawed, rendring Rent: afterwards he was Outlawed again, and before ſeizure, there is a general Pardon of all goods and Chattells forfeited. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That a man Outlawed, may be capable of a Leaſe, and to be Farmer to the King. 2. That by the Pardon with reſtitution, it was ſufficient to revive the Term which was forfeited by the ſecond Outlawry. Mich. 30 Eliz. in the Exchequer. Knowls and Powells Caſe. Owen 116.

13. The King Granted the Rape of H. et bona et catalla fugitivorum of all Reſients, and non-Reſients, to J. S. A man ſeiſed of a Manor unto which an Advowſon was appendant, holden of J. S. as of his Rape of H. was Outlawed, and then the Church became void. J. S. Preſented; It is a Quære, and not Reſolved, If the Advowſon did paſs by the Grant of omnia bona et catalla. 31 Eliz. in C. B. The King and the Biſhop of Canterburies Caſe. Owen 155.

14. Note, It was Reſolved by the Court, That the Grant of a new Office made by the King for the Regiſtring of all ſtrangers within the Realm: Except Merchant ſtrangers to be at London, with a Fee, or without a Fee, was utterly void in Law. And ſee there, where new Offices may be Granted by the King, and where not. Paſc. 12 Jac. Sir Walter Chutes Caſe. Cro. 12. Part, 117.

15. The King Grants, That the Inhabitants villæ de D. ſint unum corpus corporat. per nomen Prepoſiti et 12 Burgenſium et Communitatis D. Et quod ipſi prædict. Præpoſiti et Burgenſes et Succeſſores ſui habeant poteſtatem Eligendi duos Burgenſes ad Parliamentum, &c. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That this Grant of the King was void: For this power to Elect Burgeſſes, is an Inheritance, and ought to be veſted in the Provoſt, Burgeſſes, and Commonalty, and not in the Provoſt and Burgeſſes only. 2. Reſolved, That in the Kings Caſe, the word volumus was a good word of Grant, and that the word Conceſſimus ſhould extend in the Grant, to the whole body of the Commonalty. Paſc. 12 Jac. Cook 12. Part, 120.

16. Note, it was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the King may create a name of Dignity which was not before, as a Dignity by the name of a Barronet. 2. That if he do not create him of ſome place, he ſhall not have an Eſtate in tail, but a Fee Conditional, which ſhall be forfeited for Felony. If he Create him of a place, the King may Grant him and his Heirs Males precedency before Knights Barronets, and other Knights. 3. Reſolved, That this Creation of this Dignity of a Barronet, ſhall not diſcharge the Heir to be in Ward, as if the Heir be made a Knight, for that the Dignity of a Knight is not Diſcendable. Paſc. 9 Jac. Cook 12. Part, 84, 85.

17. Note, It was Reſolved, That if the King hath Title to Preſent for Lapps, by reaſon of Plurality; and before he Preſents, the Patron Preſents J. S. who is Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted, and refuſeth to pay his Firſt Fruits, by which the Church ipſo facto, is void: If the Patron Preſent, his Preſentment ſhall not take away the Title of the King, becauſe the Church became void by the Act of the Incumbent himſelf, which may be done by Colluſion to deprive the King of his Title to Preſent by Laps. But in ſuch Caſe, if the Church become void by the death of the Incumbent, the King in that Caſe cannot Preſent. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. The Biſhop of Lincolns Caſe. Owen 5.

18. The King Granted the Cuſtody of Putney Park: with an annual Fee of 3 l. with the Windfalls, &c. to J. S. The King diſpoſed of the Park, and afterwards Granted all the Deer to J. D. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That by the diſ-parking of the Park, the Office of Keeper was determined, for ſublata cauſa tollitur effectus. 2. Reſolved, That the King might diſcharge the Patentee of his Office, though the Park continued. 3. Reſolved, That the annual Fee did remain, although the Patentee was diſcharged of the Office, or the Park diſ-parked. Hill. 2 Car. Sir Charls Howards Caſe. Hutton 86.

19. It was found by Office, 17 Eliz. That A. ſeiſed in Fee of Lands holden in Capite in 35 H. 8. deviſed all his Lands from his right Heir to ſtrangers; and afterwards in 2 E. 6. dyed ſeiſed of the Premiſes, C. his Couſin and next Heir being of the age of 35 years; and that J. S. received the profits of the Lands during the minority of C. the general Pardon of 5 Eliz. is Granted. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the taking of the profits during the minority of C. was no Intruſion, becauſe there was no Office then found for the King; and the Lands could not be the Wards Lands at the time of the Pardon, becauſe there was no ſeizure of them, nor Office found to entitle the King, and the profits during the minority of C. are diſcharged by the Pardon. Mich. 12 Jac. in Curia Wardor. Sir Warham St. Leigers Caſe. Lea 48.

20. The Debtor of the King ſeiſed in Fee of divers Mannors, conveyed the ſame to A. and his Heirs, who by Deed Indented, did Grant the premiſes to the King in Fee. Afterwards the King did re-grant the ſaid Mannors and Lands to A. and his Heirs, rendring Rent, pro omnibus Serviciis et demandis: And afterwards the ſaid Debtor became further endebted to the King. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the ſaid Mannors were not extendable, or lyable to any Debt of the Kings, but were diſcharged in Law by the poſſeſſion of the King. Paſc. 13 Jac. Sir John Molins Caſe. Lea 50.

21. A man claimed to have the hedging, ditching, and fencing of 300 Acres of Lands within the Kings Forreſt, and to keep Deer there, and to have and kill all Deer that ſhall come within the ſaid Land. In a Quo Warranto for the King brought againſt him. It was alledged, That he kept the Fencing and Hedges ſo low, that the Kings Deer entred the ſaid Lands. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That ſuch claim to have the Fencing, Incloſing of Land, and to uſe the ſame as a Park, and to kill all the Deer that come there, is not good, but they ought to make Title to a Park by Preſcription. 2. Reſolved, That none can pretend to have profit or pleaſure in a Forreſt which tends to the deſtruction of the Forreſt; and one cannot preſcribe to have Common in a Forreſt for Sheep, &c. 3. That a man may have a Park in a Forreſt by Preſcription, or Grant, but then he ought to keep it ſo incloſed, that the Beaſts of the Forreſt cannot enter it, which if he do not, it is a forfeiture of the Liberty of a Park. The King and Sir John Byrons Caſe, Bridgman 23, 24.

5. Where, and what Statutes ſhall bind the King; What not: And of what Statutes he ſhall take benefit, although he be not named in them; And of what not.

1. KIng Henry 7th ſeiſed of the Mannor of W. to him and the Heirs Males of his body, Granted the ſame to Queen Katherine for life, and having Iſſue King Ed. 6. dyed. And King E. 6. Granted the ſame to the Earl of Pembroke in Fee, and dyed without Iſſue Male. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the King was bound by the Statute de Donis Conditionalibus; and there Grants, both of Hen. the 8th, and E. 6. are none of them good, but were determinable by the death of the King that Granted them. See Plow. Com. 233. in the Lord Berkleyes Caſe. See Cook 1. Part, 48. in the Caſe of Alton Woods acc.

2. In a Quare Impedit, the Caſe was; A Counteſs being a Widdow, did retain two Chaplins, and afterwards retained a third Chaplin, which third Chaplin purchaſed a Diſpenſation to have two Benefices, with Cure, and was advanced accordingly, whereof the firſt was above the value of 8 l. per annum. It was adjudged, That he was not lawfully qualified within the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Pluralities, by which the firſt Benefice is void by taking of the ſecond Benefice; and the Title accrued to the Queen by the Statute to Preſent. Cook 10. Part, 89. Druries Caſe.

3. The Maſter and Fellows of Magdalen Colledg in Cambridg, after the Statute of 13 Eliz. by Indenture enrolled, conveyed a houſe parcel of their poſſeſſions of the Colledg, to the Queen in Fee, rendring rent at Mich. with clauſe of diſtreſs. Proviſo, That the Queen ſhould convey the ſame to J. D. in Fee. The Queen by her Letters Patents conveyed the ſame to J. D. according to the Proviſo, who levyed a Fine with Proclamations: The Maſter dyed, the Succeſſor accepted of the Rent. In this Caſe, theſe points (amongſt others) were Reſolved, 1. That the Maſter and Fellows were reſtreyned by the Act of 13 Eliz. to convey any of their Poſſeſſions to the Queen, although the Queen was not a perſon expreſly named in the Act; but the King is in the general words of the Act. 2. Reſolved, That general Statutes which provide neceſſary and profitable remedy for the maintainance of Religion, advancement of Learning, and Relief of the Poor, ſhall be expounded generally according to the words, and the King ſhall not be exempted out of them by any conſtruction of Law, and the Act of 13 Eliz. is ſuch an Act. 3. Reſolved, That the King ſhall not be exempted out of general Acts of Parliament made to ſuppreſs wrongs. And the Statute of 13 Eliz. was made to ſuppreſſe wrongs, ſcil. Dilapidations, and Diminution of Spiritual Livings; and the King cannot do wrong, and therefore is within the Act. 4. Reſolved, That general words of a Statute which tend to perform the Will of the Founder, or Donor, ſhall bind the King, although he be not named. Cook 11. Part, 68, 70, 71. Magdalen Colledg's Caſe.

4. If one who intendeth to ſell his Land by fraud and Covin, conveyes the ſame to the King, and afterwards he ſells the Land to another for valuable conſideration, the Purchaſor ſhall hold the Land againſt the King by the Statute of 27 Eliz. So if there be Tenant in tail, the Remainder in tail, or Fee, and he in the Remainder knowing that Tenant in tail will allien the Land to the intent to bar the Tenant in tail from ſuffering of a Recovery, which he may do by Law; Grants his Remainder to the King by Deed Inrolled, and afterwards Tenant in tail ſuffers a Recovery, and dyeth without Iſſue, the Purchaſor ſhall enjoy the Land againſt the King by the Statute of 27 Eliz. ibid.

5. Sir

5. Sir Tho. Cecil entred into Communication with one Foſter to exchange parcel of the Lands of the Mannor of D. whereof he was ſeiſed in Fee, for certain Lands which the ſaid Foſter had within the ſame Town, and before the Exchange perfected, Sir Tho. Cecil by Deed Inrolled, conveyed the ſaid Mannor of D. and the ſaid Lands of F. to the King; and Covenanted with the King, That he was ſeiſed aſwell of the ſaid Mannor, as of the ſaid Lands, late Foſters, of a good eſtate in Fee, and bound himſelf in a Bond of 10000 l. to perform the ſaid Covenants. Sir Tho exhibited a Bill into the Exchequer Chamber, ſetting forth all this matter, and prayed to be releived againſt the ſaid Bond given to the King by force of the branch of the Statute of 37 H. 8. cap. 34. and made full proof of all the parts of his Bill: and in this Caſe, it was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, That the ſaid Sir Tho. ſhould be relieved upon all the ſaid matter within the equity of the ſaid Act: and that the Court of Exchequer might upon an Engliſh Bill, make a Decree in that Caſe. And 3. That although the Obligation was for performance of Covenants, yet after the ſame was broken, it was a Debt to the King by Obligation within the ſaid Act. Cook 7. Part, 19. Sir Tho. Cecills Caſe.

6. The King Granted a Licenſe to tranſport Bell metal, notwithſtanding any Statute made, or to be made. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Diſpenſation for Statutes made after, was void: But the King may diſpence in things to come wherein he hath an Inheritance, as Subſidies, or Taxes, Paſc. 34 Hen. 8. Dyer, 52.

Knights.

1. IT was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That when the Heir within age is made a Knight in the life of his Anceſtor; and afterwards his Anceſtor dyeth, the ſaid Heir within age, That he ſhall be out of Ward, and ſhall pay no value of Marriage, nor ſhall the Lord have the Cuſtody of his Land; for by the making of him Knight in the life of his Anceſtor, he is made as of full age; ſo as that when his Anceſtor dyeth, no Intereſt, either of the body, or of the Land, veſts in the Lord: And the Statute of Magna Charta for the Cuſtody of the Lands, doth not extend to it, for the perview of that Statute extends only, when the Heir is made Knight infra ætatem, which ſhall be intended after the death of his Anceſtor. Plow. Com. 268. Ratcliffs Caſe. And ſee Cook 6. Part, in Sir Drue Druryes Caſe, acc. and ſee there, That when the King makes the Heir in Knights Service, being in Ward a Knight, he is out of Ward for his body. But if the King creates ſuch an Heir within age, Duke, Marqueſs, or Baron; yet he ſhall be in Ward notwithſtanding that Dignity.

2. It was Reſolved, That when the Heir within age is made Knight, after tender of Marriage made unto him, although he within age marry himſelf elſwhere, yet he ſhall not pay forfeiture of Marriage. For none ſhall pay forfeiture of Marriage, but when after refuſal he marries himſelf elſwhere during the time that he is under the Cuſtody and Wardſhip of the Lord, which he cannot be when he is made a Knight. See Stat. Magna Charta, cap. 6. Cook 6. Part, in Druryes Caſe, acc.

3. Tenant in Capite dyed ſeiſed: His Son and Heir within age is made a Knight in the life of his Father, the Son tendered his Livery after the death of his Father, before his age of 21 years, and continued the ſame. Two Queſtions were in the Caſe. 1. Whether the profits of the Land are ſaved to the King by the ſaid tender. 2. Whether the King ſhould have the mean Rates within the age of 21 years. It was Reſolved in both againſt the King; and that the King ſhould have Primer ſeiſin, as if the Heir had bin of the age of 21 years at the time of the death of his Father, becauſe the King by making of him Knight, had adjudged him to be of age to do Knights Service. Cook 8. Part, 173. Sir Henry Conſtables Caſe.

4. Note, That the fourth part of the Revenue (which

(which Revenue is 20 l. per annum for a Knight) ſhall be paid to the King for a Relief; and for a Baron 100 Marks, which is the fourth part of the Revenue of a Baron; and for an Earl, 100 l. which is the fourth part of an Earls Revenue; and for a Duke 200 l. which as appears by the Records of the Exchequer, is the Revenue yearly of a Duke. Cook 9. Part, 34. in Nevills Caſe. See Cook 9. Part, 124. Anthony Lowes Caſe, acc.

5. If the Plaintiff be made a Knight pendant the Writ, the Writ ſhall abate. 36 H. 8. Dyer, 55. and ſee Cook 6. Part, 10. acc. and it ſeemeth by the Book, That he ſhall not have a new Writ by Journeys Accompts.

6. Error was brought of a Judgment given in Aſſumpſit. The Error aſſigned was, That he the now Plaintiff at the time of the Defendants bringing his Action againſt him, was, and yet is a Knight of the Bath, in which Caſe, the then Plaintiff ought to have brought his Bill againſt him by the name of F. Forteſcue Knight of the Bath, and not by the name of Knight and Barronet. But forasmuch as he had appeared to that Name, and pleaded thereto: the Court was of Opinion, That he had concluded himſelf, and ſo the Judgment was affirmed by ſeven Juſtices at Serjeants Inn in Fleet-ſtreet. Paſc. 16 Jac. in B. R. Sir Francis Forteſcue and Markhams Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 482.

7. In an Action of Covenant, the Plaintiff declared, That Queen Eliz. was ſeiſed in Fee of a Capital Meſſuage, and of the Scite of the Manner of Y. and by her Letters Pattents, Anno 29. demiſed them to the Defendant for 21 years, who was tyed to repair them, and to leave them ſufficiently repaired; and that afterwards the Queen by her Letters Pattents, Granted the Reverſion to A. and B. and their Heirs, who by Indenture enrolled by them of the one part, and Ralph Lord Ewre, by the name of Ralph Ewre Knight, Bargained and ſold the Reverſion to the ſaid Ralph Lord Ewre; and for not repairing the ſaid houſes, the Action was brought. The Defendant pleaded, That at the time of the Bargain and Sale, the ſaid Ralph Lord Ewre was not Knight. Whereupon it was demurred. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That a Bargain and Sale made to one by the name of a Knight, who is not Knight, is good enough; for a conveyance ſhall not be avoided for ſuch cauſes, eſpecially when he is before ſufficiently deſcribed by the name of Ralph Lord Ewre, which is a greater Dignity. 2. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the clauſe of not repairing, ſhould be taken as a Covenant on the Leſſees part, and ſhould bind him and his Aſſigns, and the words for the keeping and leaving of the houſes in reparations, are as ſpoken by him, and that it is a Covenant which runs with the Land. Paſc. 7 Jac. in B. R. Ralph Lord Ewre and Strickland's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 240, 241.

Lacheſſe.

1 Where Lacheſſe of Entry, or making claime of a man to Lands or Tenements, ſhall be a barr to him, of the ſaid Lands; or of his right to them: And where not.

1. AT the Common Law, in a Recovery by Writ of Right, where the Tryal was by Battail, or Grand Aſſiſe, it was peremptory to every ſtranger, if they made not their Claim within a year, if they were not within age, or had other defects: As, where the Diſſeiſor joyned the Miſe in a Writ of Right brought by a Stranger, the Diſſeiſee was barred after the year, quia vigilantibus et non dormientibus ſubveniunt jura. And Battaile and Grand Aſſiſe are famous and more notorious then Trials in other Actions: But it behoveth them, that there be an execution by Suit, or Entry; for tranſmutation of the poſſeſſion, is one part of the Notice by which thoſe who have right may make their Claim. And where Judgment final is in a Writ of Right by default, there Proclamation muſt be made before Judgment, that the people may thereby have the better Notice. And ſo it was of a Fine, If Claime were not within a year, if it were executed, by ſuch Fine levied betwixt Strangers, and ſuffered by Tenant for life, he in the Reverſion or Remainder was barred after the year, by the Non-claim of the Tenant for life: and that was one of the principal Cauſes wherefore the Statute of 34 E. 3. Cap. 4. of Non-claim was made: But as to a Reverſion upon an Eſtate taile, the Statute of Weſt. 2. provided well enough for him in the Reverſion; that he needed not make any claime. Hill. 11 Eliz. Plo. Com. 358, 359.

2. In a Formedon, The Tenant ſaid, That the Land in demand was holden of the Mannor of B; which Mannor is Auncient Demeſne, and pleadable by Writ of Droit Cloſe, and pleaded to the Juriſdiction. This Plea was pleaded after the View, and yet it was allowed to be good: for it ariſeth upon the View; and doth not affirm the Juriſdiction of the Court; for the nature of the Tenancy is perceived upon the View: But of a Franchiſe, it is otherwiſe; for the Lord of the Franchiſe is to claim it: ſo as if he do not claim it before the Iſſue the firſt day, he ſhall loſe his Franchiſe, becauſe it is no miſchief to the Tenant where he is impleaded; for he ſhall be in the ſame plight here, as in the Franchiſe. See 50 Ed. 3. 10. acc.

3 The Caſe was; Grandfather, Father and Son; The Grandfather held of the King, the Father took a Wife; the Grandfather dyed; the Father had iſſue, and dyed before any Office found, and before any Entry; and afterwards an Office was found for the King, that the Grandfather was ſeiſed, and that he had Iſſue, who had Iſſue the heir within age; the King ſeiſed the Ward, and committed him durante minori ætate. The Wife of the Father brought Dower againſt the Committee. It was the Opinion of the Court, becauſe the Tenancy lawfully diſcended upon the husband, that the Wife was Dowable: and although the King hath an Intereſt when it is found, yet it ſhall not bar or exclude the wife of her Dower. And it was holden further in that caſe, That the Lacheſſe of entry of the husband ſhould not prejudice the wife where he might enter. See 1 H. 7. 17, 18. Hill. 4 H. 7. 1. acc.

4 The Committee of the King of a Ward committed Waſte, and afterwards tendered a Marriage to the heir, who refuſed, and married elſewhere; and afterwards the Waſte was found by Office: and afterwards the Committee brought forfeiture of Marriage. It was holden, That it did lye. For it was ſaid, If there be Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, and the Meſne grants his Menalty in Mortmain; the Lord may claim the Menalty by reaſon of Mortmain within the year and day; and if the Tenant dyeth his heir within age, and an Abbot ſeiſeth the Ward before the Claim of the Lord, the Abbot ſhall have the Marriage as a thing veſted. Hill. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 163.

5. A Fine was levied by Tenant in tail after 4 H. 7. and Proclamations paſſed, and 5. years paſſed, after Tenant in tail dyed; the Queſtion was, Whether the Iſſue ſhould be barred as Privy, becauſe he is to make his conveyance by his Father; or that he ſhall not be reputed privy, becauſe he claims per formam Doni: and then his right is ſaved, by the ſecond Saving of the Statute, becauſe he

he is the firſt to whom the right diſcends, after the Fine ingroſſed. See Statute, 32 H.8. But in that caſe, It was agreed, That if he to whom the Remainder in tail, or other title firſt accrued, ſuffered 5. years to paſs without claim, that this Lacheſſe of the Anceſtor ſhould bar the Iſſue. Paſch. 19 H. 8. Dyer, 3.

6. The Husband alone levieth a Fine with Proclamations of the Land of his Wife, and dyeth, and 5. years paſſes without any Action brought, or Entry made by the Wife. It was the Opinion of the Court, That ſhe was barred by the Statute of 4 H. 7. and that ſhe was not aided by the Statute of 32 H. 8. becauſe the Statute doth not ſpeak of Fines with Proclamations. Mich. 6 E. 6. Dyer, 72. See Cook 8. Part, 72. in Greenleys Caſe, acc. See 5 Eliz. Dyer, 224. acc. See Cook 2. Part, 93. in Bingham's Caſe, acc.

7 Land was given to Husband and Wife, and to the heirs of their two bodies begotten; the husband made a Feoffment in Fee, and dyed having Iſſue; and afterwards the Wife before any Entry made by her, dyed. In this caſe, theſe Points were Reſolved: 1. That at the Common-Law, this Feoffment was a Diſcontinuance to the Iſſue; for the Iſſue ought to claim as heir of their two bodies immediately; and as heir to one onely, he cannot inherit, and ſo cannot enter. 2. That although the Husband and Wife have a joynt and undivided Eſtate; that this Eſtate was within the Statute of 32 H.8. becauſe ſhe had the Freehold, although not the ſole Freehold; and by that Statute, the Entry of the Iſſue in tail were lawful. 3. That the ſaid Statute of 32 H. 8. extended only to Diſcontinuances, and not to future bars. And therefore it was holden, That if the Husband in ſuch caſe levieth a Fine with Proclamation to another, and dyeth, the Wife may enter, for her right remains, which ſhe may recontinue by her Entry; but if ſhe forceaſeth her time, and 5. years paſſe, there the Fine ſhall bar her and her right, ſo as ſhe cannot enter. Cook 8. Part, 72, 73. Greenleys Caſe.

8 If Tenant in tail be diſſeiſed, and levieth a Fine to the Diſſeiſor without Warranty, and dyeth, if the Iſſue in taile enter, and be ſeiſed by force of the taile before all the Proclamations be made, although the Proclamations be afterwards made, yet the ſame ſhall not bar the Iſſue. So if Tenant in tail levieth a Fine, and diſſeiſeth the Conuſee, and dyeth before all the Proclamations be paſt; and after the Proclamations in the time of the Iſſue in tail paſſe, yet the Iſſue is not bound thereby: and yet the words of the Act of 32 H. 8. are, That all Fines after Proclamations ſhall bar, but it hath alwayes been holden, That if the Iſſue in tail be reyniſted and ſeiſed by force of the taile, before the barr is compleat; ſcil. before all the Proclamations be paſt, the Iſſue is not bound. See Cook 1. Part, 97. in Shelley's Caſe, acc.

9 A. ſeiſed of the Mannor of D, leaſed a Meſſuage parcel of the ſame Mannor, to B. for years, rendring Rent; who held other Lands of him, parcel of the Mannor, at Will; and by Copy by ſeveral Rents: B. ſeiſed of other Lands within the ſaid Mannor in his own right in Fee, made a Leaſe for life to C. of the ſaid Meſſuages, Lands at Will comprehending all the ſaid Lands: and afterwards levied a Fine of all the ſaid Lands by Covin, to bar him who had the Inheritance, and 5. years paſſed. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That A. was not barred by this Fine and Proclamations, although the 5. years were paſſed, by the Statute of 4 H.7. For when Leſſee for years makes a Feoffment by Covin, which amounts to a wrong and diſſeiſin, a Fine levied by him who is particeps Criminis, and who pretends no right to the Land, ſhall not bar the Leſſor. 2. Reſolved, That where Tenant for life levieth a Fine, and 5. years paſſe in his life, the Leſſor ſhall have 5. years to make his claim after the death of Tenant for life; and if Tenant for life maketh a Feoffment to one who hath Land in the ſame Town, and the Feoffee levieth a Fine with Proclamations, the ſame ſhall not bind the Leſſor, but he ſhall have 5. years after the death of the Leſſee. 3. That if Leſſee for years makes a Feoffment in Fee by practice, that the Feoffee levy a Fine with Proclamations, to one who hath Land in the ſame Town, and the Leſſee continually payeth the Rent; the ſame ſhall not bind the Leſſor. 4. If A. purchaſt Lands of B. by Feoffment, or Bargain and Sale enrolled; and afterwards perceiving that B. hath but a defeaſible Title, and that C. hath right to the Land, levieth a Fine to a Stranger with Proclamations; this Fine by conſent ſhall bind: So when a Diſſeiſor levieth a Fine, and 5. years paſſe, the ſame ſhall bind; for the Diſſeiſee cometh tanquam in aretra; and it is not poſſible but that the Diſſeiſee to whom the wrong is done, ſhall have knowledg of it; and therefore it ſhall be his folly and Lacheſſe, that he did not make his claim within the 5. years. Cook 3. Part, 78, 79, 80. Fermor Caſe.

10. The Cuſtome of a Mannor is, That if a Copyholder of the ſaid Mannor dyeth ſeiſed, and the Heir doth not come at the next Court to claim the Lands, and pray to be admitted, and pay his Fine; that then Proclamations ſhall be made at 3. Courts holden for the Mannor, and if the Heir at ſome of the ſaid Courts doth not come and claim the Land, and pray to be admitted, that then the Lord ſhall ſeiſe the Copyhold as Forfeit. A Copyholder in Fee dyed ſeiſed, this Heir beyond Sea,

Procla-

Proclamations were made according to the Cuſtom, and the Heir did not come to claim the Lands; the Lord ſeiſed the Copyhold: the Heir returned, and when he had Notice of the death of his Father, he came to the Lord and claimed his Lands, and prayed to be admitted; which the Lord refuſed to do. In this caſe it was adjudged, That this Cuſtome and Non-claim ſhould not bar him who was beyond Sea at the time of the Proclamations of his Inheritance; becauſe by intendment of Law, he who is beyond Sea, cannot have knowledg of the death of his Father, nor of the Proclamations made to warn him to come in to make his claim, and pray to be admitted. And Non-claim upon the Statute of 18 E 3. of Fines; and upon the Statute of 23 E. 1. de Donis, although they be in Courts of Record, ſhall not barr him who is out of the Realm, à fortiori; nor Proclamations made in a baſe Court, ſhall not barr. But in this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That if the Heir had been within the Realm at the time of the firſt Proclamations, and afterwards had gone out of the Realm, that the Proclamations ſhould have bound him; for that he ſhall not defeat the Lord of his Fine or forfeiture by his own act. Cook 8. Part, 100. Sir Richard Lechford's Caſe.

11 The Father Tenant for life of a Copyhold, (where the Cuſtome was, to have for two or three lives ſucceſſivè) the Remainder to his eldeſt daughter for her life, the Remainder to his ſecond daughter for life: the Father Tenant for life by Bargain and Sale enrolled, purchaſed the Inheritance of the Copyhold of the Lord, who levied a Fine thereof to the Father and his Heirs with Proclamations according to the Statute of 4 H. 7; the Father dyed, his ſon entred, and levied a Fine thereof to the uſe of himſelf and his wife, and his Heirs, and dyed; 10 years paſſed, the wife entred, and the Queſtion was, If the daughter in Remainder were barred by the Fine. In this caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, That if a Copyholder or Leſſee for years by Covin to ſerve the Lord, or the Leſſor, levy a Fine, the ſame ſhall not barr them. 2. Reſolved, That if Leſſee for years, or a Copyholder be ouſted, and the Leſſor or Lord diſſeiſed, and the diſſeiſor levieth a Fine, and 5. years paſſe; the Leſſor or Lord are barred by the firſt Saving in the Act of 4 H. 7. becauſe that preſently they might have their Action, and recover the Land; and therefore if 5. years paſſe before Entry or Claim, they ſhall be barred. But he who hath the Reverſion, or the Lord of the Manor, may enter in the name of his Leſſee, or his Copyholder, as well to ſave their Inheritances, as the particular Eſtates, and that they may do without requeſt precedent, or conſent ſubſequent. and ſuch an Entry is lawful within the Statute; but a ſtranger of his own head cannot enter in the name of him who hath right to preſerve the Eſtate, and avoid by his claim ſuch a Fine without commandment precedent or aſſent ſubſequent; as it was adjudged. Mich. 39 Eliz. in B. R. in the Lord Audley's Caſe. Cook 9. Part, 105, 106. Margaret Podgers Caſe.

12 Lands were given to Husband and Wife, and to the Heirs of their two bodies, the Remainder to the Husband in Fee; the Husband levied a Fine of the Lands with Proclamations to the King, who by Letters Patents gave the Lands to J. S. and his heirs; the Husband dyed, the Wife within the 5. years entred, claiming the Eſtate; J. S. dyed; his Heir reciting the Eſtate in ſpecial tail, granted to the Husband and Wife, and that the Wife was ſeiſed of the Eſtate tail by Deed, did confirm to the Wife her Eſtate, To have to her and the Heirs of the body of her Husband deceaſed; the Wife having A. a ſon betwixt her and her Husband, dyed: A. the ſon entred, and afterwards accepted a Fine ſur Conuſans de Droit tacitum from two ſtrangers, with a render for 99. years after the death of A, if B. his Wife ſhould ſo long live; the Proclamations paſſe; A. dyeth, having Iſſue two Sons; the eldeſt in Ward to the King at his full age, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf, and the heirs of his body, with divers Remainders over. The eldeſt ſon dyed without Iſſue male, having a Daughter within age. It was Objected, That by the Fine levied by the Husband, the Eſtate tail was barred according to 18 Eliz. Dyer, 351. becauſe the Iſſue ought to claim as Heir to both their bodies; that the Eſtate tail was extinct, and the Eſtate of the Wife changed into an Eſtate for life diſpunihable of Waſte. 2. Admit the Wife had an Eſtate in tail, her Iſſues ſhould be inheritable by the Confirmation; for by the Confirmation J. S. hath excluded himſelf and his heirs by expreſſe words, as long as the Wife hath Iſſue of her body to claim the Land; and the Confirmation doth alter and qualifie the Eſtate of the Wife, and incorporate a new quality in the Eſtate. But it was Reſolved by the whole Court, 1. That the Wife after the death of her Husband, had an Eſtate in ſpecial tail; and by the Common-Law, the Eſtate of the Wife in ſuch caſe ſhould not be changed into an Eſtate for life: For by the Common Law, if it had been given to Husband and Wife, and to the Heirs of their two bodies, and after Iſſue, the Husband had aliened and dyed, the alienation ſhould not have barred the Wife, nor the Iſſue in tail, becauſe the Husband alone had not poteſtatem alienandi, becauſe he had an undivided Eſtate joyntly with the Wife: and to the caſe in Dyer, there the Wife entred, and claimed an Eſtate by the Deviſee; which proves, That if ſhe had not waived the Eſtate tail, that ſhe ſhould have had it, and not an Eſtate for life. 2. Reſolved, That the Confirmation did work nothing; for when the Wife entred, ſhe was ſeiſed in tail, and no Eſtate was left in the Conuſee, but only a poſſibility; and then when the Husband had the Remainder in Fee, the Confirmation made by the Heir of J.S. can paſſe nothing in reſpect of the poſſibility, which was gained by the Fine before the continuance of the Eſtate tail; but it ought to be extracted out of the Remainder in Fee, and that it cannot be, becauſe no Eſtate tail is created by the Confirmation, but the Eſtate confirmed; and a Confirmation cannot add a diſcendible quality to him who is diſabled to take by diſcent: and if a Confirmation ſhould add to the Eſtate of the Wife a diſcendable quality, it ſhould repeal the Statutes of 4 H. 7. & 32 H. 8. by which the Eſtate tail to the Iſſue is barred. Cook 8. Part, 138. Beaumont's Caſe.

13 In a Quid Juris Clamat brought by an Enfant, The Tenant ſaith, That he holds the Land for term of life of a Leaſe by the Enfants Auncеſtor, who granted unto him, that he ſhould not be impeached of Waſte by Deed; which Deed he ſhewed forth. In this Caſe, It was adjudged, That becauſe the Plaintiff was within age, and ſo could not acknowledg the Deed during his Nonage. It was adjudged, He ſhould ſtay untill his full age: Nevertheleſſe, in the principal Caſe, If when the Enfant attains his full age, the Defendant attorns by Judgment of Court, it ſhall not any way trench to the Enfants prejudice. For albeit the Attornment was after his full age; yet in as much as there was no Lacheſſe in the Enfant, but that he brought his Quid Juris Clamat to force the Tenant to attorn, the delay which was till his full age, ſhall not turn to his prejudice: and therefore by Judgment of Law, (which doth wrong to none) he ſhall have as much advantage as well for the Arrearages of Rent as for Waſte done, as if the Tenant had attorned at the time of the Plea pleaded. Cook 9. Part, 85. in Conys Caſe.

14 A. hath Iſſue B. and C. Enfants within age; A Leaſe is made to A. for life, the Remainder to B. in tail, the remainder to C. in tail; A. Tenant for life is diſſeiſed, and afterwards releaſeth to the Diſſeiſor with Warranty, and dyeth, and the Warranty diſcendeth upon B, being within age. After B. dyed within age; C. being then his brother and heir within age, upon whom the ſaid Warranty doth diſcend, and afterwards C. cometh of age, and 3. years after his full age, entreth. It was adjudged in this caſe, That his Entry was lawfull: For it was Reſolved, That if the Entry of an Enfant be lawful, and he cannot enter in the life of his Auncеſtor, and doth not enter, the Warranty ſhall not bind in ſuch caſe, à fortiori when the Warranty diſcendeth upon him, his Entry being lawful, and he cannot enter in the life of his Auncеſtor, and doth not enter, no Lacheſſe ſhall be attributed unto him: but if his Entry were not lawful, ſo as he was put to his Action; there the Warranty ſhall bind him. Cook 1. Part, 140. Chudleigh's Caſe.

15 If a Felon ſteal any goods, and bringeth them into his houſe within the Mannor, and there leaveth them, or in the houſe of any other, or in the Cuſtody of any other, or hideth them in the ground, or other ſecret place, and afterwards flyeth: It was Reſolved, That theſe goods are not forfeited, nor ſhall be ſaid Waiſe in Law, when the Felon in purſuit waveth the goods; or when the Felon, for fear to be apprehended, thinking that purſuit was made, having the goods in his poſſeſſion, flyeth, and waiveth the goods. In this caſe, they ſhall not be ſaid waived in Law; but the Owner may take them when he will upon the purſuit. But otherwiſe, if he hath not the Goods, with him when he flyeth. But if the Thief in his flight waiveth them, there the goods are forfeited by the Common Law, if the Felon upon the purſuit, was not attainted at the ſuit of the Owner of the goods: And the reaſon, that Waiſe is given to the King, and the party ſhall loſe his property, is for default of the Owner, That he doth not make freſh ſuit to apprehend the Felon; and therefore the Law hath impoſed this penalty upon the Owner, That if the Thief by his Induſtry and Suit, be not attainted, he ſhall for his default loſe all his goods which the Thief at the time of the flight doth waive. Cook 5. Part, 109. in Foxly's Caſe.

16. A man was Outlawed after Judgment before the General Pardon of 43 Eliz. and after the Pardon, dyed; his Executors made ſatisfaction upon Record; and without Proces, they pleaded the General Pardon, with an Averment, That they are not Perſons Excepted. In this caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. Although the words in the Proviſo in the Pardon are, [Untill ſuch time as the perſon ſo Outlawed, ſhall ſatisfie] the ſame is ſuch an an Intereſt in the perſon Outlawed, that although he dyeth after the pardon, yet his Executors may ſatisfie, and have benefic of the Pardon. 2. Reſolved, That foraſmuch as no Scire facias, nor other Proces lyeth againſt the Executors, they may gratis come in, and plead the general Pardon, with averment, that they are not perſons excepted. Cook 5. Part, 79. Sir Ed. Phittons Caſe.

17. If an Alien born, pray not medietatem linguæ, before the Venire facias be awarded, he comes too late after; for that it doth not appear to the Court, that he is an Alien born. 19 Eliz. Dyer, 357. Spinalots Caſe.

18. If one be bound by Preſcription, to keep the Sea-Bank in good repair; and by a ſudden and unuſual Courſe of Waters it is beaten down. It was holden by the Juſtices, That in ſuch caſe, the Commiſſioners of Sewers, by the Statute of 23 H. 8. Cap. 5. may charge all other perſons, and their Lands, that may receive any leſſe or damage thereby: But if any default or negligence be found in him that ſhould repair it, as that the danger was not ſo inevitable, but that he might have prevented it, the Commiſſioners may charge him only with the repair thereof. And if by his Lacheſſe or negligence, the danger becometh inevitable, or that he be not able to repair it, ſo as the Charge is layed upon others; each perſon charged may have an Action upon the Caſe againſt him. Cook 10. Part, 129. Knightleys Caſe.

19. If there be Father and Son, and the Father be diſſeiſed, and maketh his Claim, and the Diſſeiſor dyeth, and then alſo the Father dyeth: It was ſaid, That in that caſe, the Heir may enter, becauſe the diſcent was caſt in his Fathers time; and the right of Entry which the Father gained by his claim, ſhall diſcend to his Heir. But if the Father maketh continual Claim, and dyeth, and the Son maketh no continual Claim, and dyeth within a year and a day after the claim made by the Father, and the Diſſeiſor dyeth, this ſhall take away the Entry of the Son, for that the diſcent was caſt in his time; and the claim made by the Father, ſhall not avail him that might have claimed himſelf, becauſe no Continual Claim can avoid a Diſcent, unleſſe it be made by him who hath Title to enter, and in whoſe life, the dying ſeiſed was, Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 25. acc.

20. Note: It is put for a Rule in Law, That no Lacheſſe, or negligence ſhall be imputed in Enfants, or Feme Coverts, for not entry or claim to avoid a Diſcent: Yet it hath been holden, That Lacheſſe ſhall be imputed to them, for not performance of a Condition annexed to the Eſtate of the Land: For if a woman be enfeoffed either before or after Marriage, reſerving Rent; and for default of payment, a re-entry: In ſuch caſe, the Lacheſſe of the Husband ſhall diſinherit the Wife for ever. And ſo it is in caſe of an Enfant; and therefore, If a man makes a Feoffment to another reſerving Rent; and if he pay not the Rent within a moneth, that he ſhall double the Rent, and the Feoffee dyeth his Heir within age, the Enfant payeth not the Rent: although the Enfant at this day ſhall not forfeit any thing; yet in ſuch caſe a Feme Covert ſhall: and the reaſon is, for that the Enfant is provided for by the Statute of Merton, Cap. 5. but before that Statute, he could not have avoided ſuch penalty. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 296. acc.

21. A. ſeiſed of divers Lands in York holden in Capite, dyed ſeiſed, 40 Eliz. and the ſame diſcended to B. his Son; preſently after his death, it was found by Office in Com. Midd. that B. was a Lunatique, and ſo had been before the death of his Father, and that he was ſeiſed of the ſaid Manors; and the Queen granted the Cuſtody of him and his Lands to J. S: Afterwards, 42 Eliz. there was an Office found in the County of Y. of the ſeiſin of A; his death, and Livery, and that he was of full age. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the King was not to have any mean Rates for default of Livery ſued or tendred, becauſe no Lacheſſe could be imputed to the Heir, being a Lunatique, before, and ever ſince the death of his Anceſtor, and the Lacheſſe of his Friends ſhall not hurt him. Otherwiſe it had been, if he had been at any time ſana memoria ſince the death of his Anceſtor. Paſch. 15 Jac. in the Court of Wards, Bourchers Caſe, Hobart, 137. See Mich. 10 Jac. ibidem. Vaughans Caſe, accord.

22. A man diſſeiſeth the King's Tenant, and the Diſſeiſor is attainted of Felony: and before Office, the Diſſeiſee entreth upon the Land (as he may); in ſuch caſe clearly the Diſſeiſee is remitted, and then Office is found for the King. It was agreed in that caſe, That the Remitter was defeated, and that the poſſeſſion and Land is given to the King as it was in the perſon attainted, and the right remains to the Diſſeiſee, to be purſued and recovered againſt the King; and ſo every man hath his due: for the Kings Title to the Land was by the Attainder, and not by the Office, which did but find the Title, and not give it; and the Diſſeiſees due was the right which remained in him, notwithſtanding the Diſſeiſin, and the Attainder, and the Office. And it is againſt reaſon, ſince the Office is deviſed by Law for a means to bring the King to Land by matter of Record, that he ſhould not enter and ſeiſe the Lands of the Subject; and ſhould be ſo bound by times, that if he keep not his Inſtants, he ſhould loſe the Land for ever. 3 E. 3. 25. the Earl of Northumberland's Caſe. See Plow. Com. 489. Hobart 348. in the Lord Sheffield's and Ratcliffs Caſe. Godbolt, 326 acc.

23 If a man makes a Feoffment in fee of lands, and makes Livery in the view of the Land, and the Feoffee dares not enter into the ſaid Land for fear, but claims the land by force of the Feoffment, by ſuch claim the Inheritance of the Land is veſted in him, although by the Livery no eſtate paſſed unto him, neither in fait, nor in Law; and ſo note, that a Livery in Law is executed by an entry at Law, Cook, 1 Part, Inſtitutes 48.

24 If the Lord make claim to the goods of a Villain, which are in his view, the ſame amounts to a ſeiſure of the goods; and ſo it is if the Lord by word claims the Ward who is in his view, it is a ſeiſure of the Ward: And the claim of the Lord, of the goods of the villain, doth veſt all the goods which the villain hath, or which he ſhall after acquire in his own right, in the Lord. But if the villain of the King get any goods or chattels, the property of them is in the King preſently, without any claim, ſeizure, or office, quia nullum tempus occurrit Regi. If the villain of a Lord purchaſeth a Common without number, or a Coredie incertain, the Lord ſhall not have it: And ſo if a Warranty be to a villain and his heirs, the Lord ſhall not vouch by reaſon of ſuch Warranty: But a Seignory Rent common, purchaſed by the villain out of the Land of the Lord, ſhall be extinct, without claim made by the Lord, Cook 1 Part. Inſtitutes. 118.

2. Where the King by reaſon of his Prerogative, ſhall not be prejudiced by Amy Lacheſſe of claim or entry: Et e contra.

1 IF the Kings villain purchaſeth lands, and alieneth the ſame before an Office be found for the King, yet the King after Office found, ſhall have the land; yet after Office found, the King ſhall not have the mean profits, becauſe the Kings Title commenceth by ſeizure. But it is otherwiſe of goods, for there the property of them is in the King, without any ſeizure or Office found. See the Caſe before, Cook, 1 Part, Inſtitutes 118. and ſee Litt. Sect. 178. acc.

2 In a Writ of Right of Advowſon brought by the King, the Tenant ſhall not tender the demy mark to enquire of the ſeiſin; and therefore the King ſhall alledge, that he or his Progenitor was ſeized, without ſhewing any time: But it is otherwiſe in the caſe of a common perſon; for there the Tenant ſhall tender a demy Mark againſt him who brings the Writ to enquire of the ſeiſin alledged in the Count, Fitz. Nat. Brev. acc. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 294.

3 Before the Statute of Weſt. 2. If an uſurpation had been upon an Infant, or a Feme Covert, or upon Tenant for life, the Infant, Feme Covert, or he in the Reverſion was put to bring a Writ of Right of Advowſon; But if ſuch an uſurpation had been upon the King, and the Clerk had been admitted, inſtituted, and inducted, for without Induction, the Church was not full againſt the King, the King might have removed him by a Quare Impedit, and have been reſtored to his Preſentation, without other act done by him. Cook, 6 Part, 85. in Boſwell's Caſe.

4 A Tenant for life of the Mannor of D. to which a Rectory, which was a Benefice was appendant, the remainder to B in Fee; A. preſented D. who was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted; and he did not read the Articles for which cauſe he was deprived at the Suit of A. before the Biſhop, and he appealed to the Court of Arches, but no notice was given by the Ordinary, to the Patron of this deprivation: A. dyed, the Queen Jure Prærogative, by her Letters Patents, by reaſon of Lapps, preſented J. S. who was admitted, inſtituted, and inducted; D. dyed, B. preſented J. D. who was admitted, inſtituted, and inducted. In this caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, 1. That the Church was void ipſo facto, by the Statute of 13 Eliz. 2. If the King Preſent, his Preſentment is void; and ſo if the King hath not any Title to preſent by any means, and he preſent by reaſon of Lapps, his Preſentation is void. 3. That if a common perſon uſurp upon the King, and his Clerk is admitted, inſtituted, and inducted, the King is put to a Quare Impedit, and cannot preſent, until the Incumbent be removed; but in ſuch caſe, the common perſon by his uſurpation, doth not get the Inheritance of the Advowſon out of the King, becauſe the ſame is permanent in him; but as to the Preſentment, the ſame is tranſitory, and therefore the King is put to his Quare Impedit, to remove the Incumbent. Cook 6 Part, 29, 30. Green's Caſe.

5. If the King hath Title to preſent for Lapps, and the Patron preſents his Clerk, who is admitted, inſtituted, and inducted, and dyeth: It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the King hath loſt his Preſentment, and the King ſhall not have the ſecond Preſentation; and the Statute of Prærogativa Regis, Quod nullum tempus occurrit Regi, is to be intended, when the King hath an Intereſt certain and permanent, and not when his Intereſt is ſpecially limitted, for time is the ſubſtance of his Title, and in ſuch caſe Tempus occurrit Regi. Cook 7 Part, 28. in Baskervile's Caſe. See 28 Eliz. in C. B. the King and Bewleyes Caſe, adjudged acc.

6. King Henry the 8. granted a Mannor to the Queen his Wife for life; in that caſe it was Reſolved, ſolved, 1. That the Queen was a ſole perſon exempt from the Common Law, and might make a Leaſe or Grant without the King. 2. That where the Queen was Tenant for life of the Mannor, and a Copy-hold eſcheated to her, there the Queen might grant the ſame to whom ſhe pleaſed, and it ſhould binde the King, his Heirs, and Succeſſors for ever, for ſhe was Domina pro tempore, and the Cuſtome of the Mannor ſhall binde the King: And every one who hath a lawful eſtate in the Mannor, is Dominus pro tempore, and may grant Copy-hold Eſtates. Cook 4 Part, 23. in Clark and Pennyfathers Caſe.

Law.

1. Wager of Law, where it lyeth, where not; who may wage his Law, and for what; and in what Action wager of Law lyeth, and in what not.

1 IN Debt againſt J. S. for 4 l. and the Plaintiff Declared, That he bought a certain quantity of Wood of the Defendant; and the truth of the Caſe was, That the Wood was ſold to him upon condition, that if the Plaintiff did not prove it to be good and ſufficient Wood, that then the Defendant ſhould pay nothing for it: And this appearing by the Defendant upon his wager of Law, The Court ſaid, If the Caſe was ſuch, then he might wage his Law, and the Plaintiff muſt have Detinue for the Wood. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Millington and Burges Caſe. Goldesbr. 65.

2. The Plaintiff and another made a Joynt Contract with the Defendant, and the Plaintiff alone brought an Action of Debt upon the Contract: It was the Opinion of the Court, That in that caſe the Defendant might wage his Law, becauſe it is not upon the ſame Contract; See 20 H. 6. Accompt was before Auditors, and the Action ſets it forth where it was before one Auditor, and he was admitted to wage his Law. See 35 H. 6. acc. And ſo it was adjudged in the principal Caſe, Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Boſtocks Caſe. Goldesbr. 51.

3. In Debt, The Defendant pleaded Nihil debet per Legem; and in truth, the money was due to the Plaintiff, but the Plaintiff was alſo indebted to the Defendant in the like ſum, and before the Action brought they were agreed, that each of them ſhould be acquitted againſt the other, and thereupon the Defendant would have waged his Law. Anderſon and Periam Juſtices, doubted whether he might do ſo or not, for accord without ſatisfaction is no plea; and debt cannot be diſcharged by word: But Rhodes Juſtice ſaid, It was good by conſent of parties, with which Fenner agreed. See 22 & 37 H. 6. where payment by way of Retainer is good. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Sanderſons Caſe. Goldesborough 80.

4. Note, It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in the Starchamber, That if in an Action at the Common Law, a man wage his Law, although he makes a falſe Oath, yet he ſhall not therefore be impeached by Bill in the Starchamber. Then it was demanded by the Juſtices, If he were diſcharged of the debt by his Wager of Law? To whom the Judges anſwered, That he was; and Manwood ſaid, That it was the folly of the Plaintiff, becauſe he might have changed his Action into an Action upon the Caſe upon Aſſumpſit, wherein the Defendant cannot Wage his Law. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in Starchamber. Goldesborough, 51.

5. Debt was brought againſt J. R. of W. in the County of L. Chapman: The Defendant appeared by his Attorney, and offered to wage his Law, and was eſſoined; and at the day, the Plaintiff appeared, and the Defendant being ſolemnly called, one J. R. came to anſwer the Plaintiff, and offered to wage the Law. The Plaintiff ſaid, That J. R. now appearing to wage his Law, was not to be admitted, becauſe the ſaid J. R. is not that perſon which the Plaintiff proſecutes; becauſe the ſaid J. R. appearing, is J. R. of W. in the County of L. Junior, Chapman; and he who the Plaintiff ſues, is J. R. of W. in the County of L. Senior, Chapman, both of them at the time of the Writ brought, living at W. and that he agreed with the Defendant ſo to do; therefore becauſe J. R. of W. &c. had not appeared to wage his Law, he prayed Judgement: The Defendant confeſſes ſuch matter, and ſays, That he believing that the Writ was brought againſt him, appeared by his Attorney, and offered to wage his Law, and prays to be diſcharged; and the other J. R. being called, appeared not. In that Caſe, the Court ſaid they would adviſe, but gave no Judgement for the Plaintiff. Mich. 4. E. 4. rott. 144. C. B. Brownlow. 1. Part, 55.

6. Debt againſt an Adminiſtrator, that where the Inteſtate was indebted to J. S. in divers ſums of money for wares ſold, that J. S. became Bankrupt, and by Commiſſioners of Bankrupts was ſo adjudged, and that this debt amongſt other, was aſſigned to the Plaintiff, being a Creditor, and that the Inteſtate died; whereupon he brought this Action againſt his Adminiſtrator; upon which it was demurred in Law. It was ſaid, That this debt being aſſigned by Commiſſioners, is quaſi a debt upon Record, and the Plaintiff is enabled to the ſuit by Act of Parliament: And it was ſaid, That for a debt forfeited to the King, no wager of Law lay. But notwithſtanding the Opinion of the Court was clear, That the aſſignement by the Commiſſioners did not alter the Law, but that againſt this Aſſigament, the party might wage his Law; and that debt did not lie againſt an Executor or an Adminiſtrator upon a ſimple Contract of the Teſtator: It was adjudged for the Defendant. Paſch. 6 Car. in B. R. Cro. 1 Part, 135.

7 Two men were Partners in goods, the one of the Partners ſold unto J. S. at ſeveral times, goods of the value of 100 l. and for the goods at one time he paid the money, afterwards an Action was brought by one of the Partners for the reſt of the money, and the Plaintiff Declared upon one Contract for the whole goods, whereas in truth they were ſold upon ſeveral Contracts made; and the Defendant in that caſe would have waged his Law: But the Court adviſed the Plaintiff to be Non-ſuit, and to bring a new Action; becauſe that Action was not well brought; for it ought to have been a ſeveral Action upon the ſeveral Contracts: And in this Caſe it was agreed by the Court, That the ſale of one Partner is the ſale of them both; and therefore, That although one of them ſelleth the goods, or merchandizes with them, yet the Action muſt be brought in both their names; and then in ſuch caſe, the Defendant ſhall not be received to wage his Law, that the other Partner did not ſell the goods within, as is ſuppoſed by the Declaration. See Sect. before. See Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. Lamberts Caſe. Godbolt, 244.

8. Note, That Hobart Chief Juſtice ſaid, That it was adjudged Mich. 15 Jac. in C. B. That in an Action of Debt brought upon a Contract, the Defendant cannot wage his Law for part, and confeſs the Action for other part. And ſo it was adjudged in one Tucks Caſe: And a Contract cannot be divided, and ſo it was adjudged in this Caſe. Paſch. 21. Jac. in C. B. Godbolt, 327.

9. Dower by M. and his wife againſt J. S. who appeared upon the Grand Cape, &c. And it was, becauſe J. S. was but Leſſee for years of the Land of W. &c. in which caſe he might plead Non-Tenancy: And the Queſtion was, if now he might wage his Law of Non Summons, ſo as the Writ be abated: And it was ſaid, That by Wager of Law, he hath taken upon him to be Tenant, and affirmed himſelf to be Tenant: It was ſaid by the Juſtices, That here the Tenant being but Leſſee for years, is not at any miſchief; for if Judgement and Execution be had againſt him, he might afterwards enter upon the Demandant. Mich. 30 Eliz. C. B. Mitchel and Hides Caſe. Leon, 92.

10 A. brought debt againſt B. as Adminiſtrator of C. and Declared of a Contract without a Specialty. The Defendant pleaded, That he had fully Adminiſtred; which was found againſt him. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That upon the matter, the Action of Debt did not lie againſt an Executor or Adminiſtrator, which was granted by the Court: but the doubt was, If now, for as much as the Defendant by pleading the Plea above, hath admitted the Action, whether he ſhall take advantage of the Law in that point: Some of the Juſtices doubted of it, That the Defendant by his Plea had admitted the whole matter upon the ſpecial Plea pleaded, and had taken notice of the Debt: But it was the Opinion of the Court, That Judgment ſhould be entred againſt the Plaintiff, Quod nihil capiat per Billam; becauſe it is apparent to the Court, That the Action doth not lie, and the reaſon why the Action doth not lie, is, Becauſe the Teſtator himſelf might have waged his Law, if he had been impleaded upon it; and by intendment of Law, the Executor or Adminiſtrator cannot have notice of ſuch Debt, or of the diſcharge of it, afterwards ex aſſenſu of the other Juſtices which doubted: Judgment was entred againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Henſon and Wits Caſe. Leon. 165.

11. C. brought Debt againſt O. for a Pain aſſeſſed againſt him in a Court Baron, and declared that the Defendant was preſented there for ſuch an Offence, and if he did not amend it before the next Court, he ſhould pay ſuch a pain; which not being done, Debt was brought for the pain: and now the Defendant would wage his Law. It was much doubted whether wager of Law did lye in the Caſe. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Defendant might wage his Law, being for a pain, not in a Court of Record: And a Preſident of 6 Eliz. was ſhewed, where debt was brought by Sir Thom. Tyadall, upon a pain forfeited for breaking a By-law in a Court Baron againſt one Tyler, and the party was received to wage his Law. Paſc. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Caſtle and Goldmans Caſe. Leon. 203.

12. Divers Debts were aſſigned to the Plaintiff, and others, being Creditors, by the Commiſſioners of Bankrupts, upon the Statute of 13 Eliz. and they brought an Action of Debt in their own names for the ſaid debts. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it well lies; for it is a Debt tranſferred by Parliament, and being upon a Contract, the Defendant waged his Law, and was admitted thereunto; for although the Parliament tranſferred the Debt, yet it is not any Debt of Record, but as he might have waged his Law againſt the Bankrupt, ſo he may againſt the Plaintiffs. Mich. 9 Jac. in C. B. Braiſhaws Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 105.

13. A. brought an Action against B. and Declared upon the Customs of Merchants, That if any Merchant over Sea do deliver any money to a Factor, and make a Bill of Exchange under his Seal, and this is subscribed by the Master, or any of the Company of such Merchants, That the Merchant himself, or all the Company, or any one in particular may be charged to pay it, and shewed, that M. was Factor of the Company, of which the Defendant was one; and that the said M. did substitute one G. to whom the Plaintiff delivered 100 l. to which one B. who was one of the Company, set his hand in England; and so the Action accrued to the Plaintiff. The Defendant pleaded Nihil debet per Legem: Upon which the Plaintiff demurred. The Question was, whether the Defendant might wage his Law: In this Case it was said by Hobart Chief Justice, Two Merchants Trade over the Sea, who made a Factor there, who takes money there, and gives a Bill, and this is subscribed by one of the Company; That this should binde all, or any of the Company, is not a good Custome; and the Custome of Merchants is part of the Law of this Kingdom: And he was of Opinion, That the Defendant ought to be admitted to wage his Law, for the delivery of the money made a Contract in Law: And as he may have an Action of Debt, so without Question he may have an Action upon the Case, and so Declare upon a Promise, and then the Defendant may not wage his Law. Mic. 19 Jac. in C. B. Van Heath and Turners Case. Winch. 24.

14. Debt brought against the Defendant for money won of him at play; The Defendant prayed that he might be admitted to wage his Law, which was granted him, and day given him to perform it: At the day assigned, he moved that he might have the benefit to wave his Law, and to have the matter to be tryed by the Country, which the Plaintiff refused to consent unto: And therefore he being called by the Court, and not appearing, his non-appearance was entred of Record, and a defect in Lege entred. And Note, It was said by one of the Clerks of the Court, That by the course of the Court, the Defendant might at any time, without the consent of the Plaintiff, have waved his Law, and stood to Tryal in the Countrey. Pasch. 10 Jac. in B. R. Harrison and James Case. Bolstr. 1 Part, 186.

15. Note, per Curiam, That in an Action of Debt, where the Defendant may wage his Law, if he confesseth part of the Debt, and wageth his Law for the residue, and a Judgement is given, and entred for the Plaintiff for that which is confessed, after this Judgment, the Plaintiff cannot be Nonsuited as to the residue, but he ought to appear when the Defendant comes to wage his Law for this part of the debt. Pasch. 10 Jac. Bolstr. 1 Part, 194.

16. Debt upon a simul computaverunt, was brought by A. against B. T. and others, of an Arrear of 800 l: B. was Outlawed, and T. and the rest appeared. T. alone tendered his Law, that he with the rest did not owe; and the others not Outlawed, did plead to the Countrey. It was Objected, That T. was not to be admitted to his Law alone, because they were all charged as one Defendant: But upon divers Presidents shewed of 12 and 13 Jac. where one of the Defendants alone waged his Law, that he and the rest did not owe, and the rest Nihil dicunt, & paretur judicium, till the Law made, or the party fail; and after the Law being made, Judgment was against the Plaintiff. Scil. in the principal case, T. was received to wage his Law, and the Plaintiff was Nonsuit. Mich. 16 Jac. in C. B. Essington and Bourchers Case, Hob. 244, 245.

17. In debt, the Defendant had day given him by the Court to wage his Law; at the day, it was moved, that he was sick of a Fever, and another day prayed for him to come and wage it, which was offered to be made good by Affidavit; yet the Court refused to receive it, but advised him to plead ad Patriam. Mich. 14 Jac. in C. B. Binions and Bakers Case. Bolstrode, 3 Part, 263.

18. A. borrowed 100 l. of F. and at the day of payment, brought it in a Bag, and cast it upon the Table before F; and F. said to A. being his Nephew, I will not have it, take it you, and carry it home again with you. The Court held this to be a good gift of the money by parol, being cast upon the Table, for that it was then in the possession of F. and A. might well wage his Law in an Action brought for it; but if it had been only offered to F. then it had been otherwise, not given by Writing, for then it was but a thing of Action. Flowers Case. Noy 67.

19. Note, It was Resolved by the Court, That an Action doth not lye against an Executor upon a Concessit Solvere of the Testator upon a special Custome, for this would be to charge an Executor in debt, where he may by the Law wage his Law; And it was said, That the occasion of wager of Law is, because it is intended, That as well as the Contract to pay money may be made in private, so may the payment be made in private also. Hill. 1649. B. R. Hodges and Jones Case, Styles, 199.

20. Debt was brought against one for 50 l. due for divers pieces of Cloth sold to the Defendant: The Defendant was ready at the Bar to wage his Law: The Court being informed that the Defendants wife kept a shop, and used to buy and sell by her husbands privity, and consent and allowance, and that these parcels of cloth were bought by her to furniſh her ſhop; and although her huſband was a Seaman, and medled not in buying and ſelling, yet his wife did it by his allowance: The Chief Juſtice adviſed the Defendant to take heed that he waged not his Law, for that he could not do it with Conſcience, in regard of his allowance; for the allowance of his Wives buying, made it as his own buying: Wherefore the Law was waved by conſent of the parties. Paſch. 1652. in B.R. Styles 322.

by

21. An Executor brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt an Executor, upon an Aſſumpſit made by the Teſtator of the Defendant: It was adjudged, That the Action was maintenable, for theſe cauſes. 1. Becauſe the Teſtator himſelf in this Action, could not have waged his Law. 2. Becauſe that after the death of the Debtor, the debt did remain; and it ſhould be a defect in the Law, if no remedy ſhould be provided for it. And 3. Becauſe it is conſonant to Juſtice, that the debts ſhould be paid, then that the Executors ſhould convert the goods to their own uſes. 2. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That debt doth not lye againſt an Executor, for meat and drink of the Teſtator; and the reaſon is, Becauſe in an Action againſt the Teſtator, he might have waged his Law. But if a man be Impriſoned in the Tower of London, The Lieutenant ſhall have debt againſt his Executors who dyeth in the Tower, for meat and drink, becauſe that in ſuch caſe the Teſtator himſelf could not have waged his Law. But if A contract with B. for his Commons for a moneth, there in debt againſt A. he ſhall wage his Law, becauſe he is not compellable to deliver it, until he be paid for them in hand. Cook 9. Part, 82. 87. Pinchons Caſe. See Cook 4. Part, 93. Slades Caſe, &c.

22. Note, That there is not any Act of Parliament which by expreſs words takes away Wager of Law in an Action of Debt upon Arrearages of Accompt, but at the Common Law, the Defendant ſhall have his Law in an Action of Debt upon arrears of Accompt, whether the Account be before one Auditor, or many: But the reaſon why the Defendant ſhall not wage his Law, when the Account is made before Auditors, is, upon the Stat. of Weſt. 2. cap. 11. For now this Statute hath made the Auditors Judges of Record, becauſe they have power thereby to commit the Defendant to Priſon, which none can do, if they be not Judges of Record; and for this cauſe he was ouſted of his Law by all the Juſtices in ſuch caſe; But if an Accompt be before one Auditor only, the ſame is out of the Statute; for he cannot commit the Defendant to Priſon, and therefore it remaineth at the Common Law: And it appeareth by Judgment of the whole Court in 5 H. 48. That in an Action of Accompt before Auditory, that the Defendant ſhall not wage his Law, but there the remedy is given by examination, to diſcern if the matter lye in Account, and if not, there to allow the Defendant his Law. Cook 10. Part, 103. in Berbowches Caſe.

23. Note, That debts or duties due by ſimple Contract, ſhall be forfeited to the King by Curtaſy, although that the party for them might have Waged his Law: And Note there, That in every Quo minus brought in the Exchequer by the Kings debtor, againſt one who is indebted upon a ſimple Contract, the Defendant ſhall not have his Law for the benefit of the King, and here the King is no party a fortiori, where ſuch a debt or duty is forfeited to the King, and the King is the ſole and immediate party. Cook, 4. Part, 95. in Slade's Caſe.

24. In Debt, the Plaintiff Declared upon a ſale of certain Wood for 20 l. The Defendant pleaded Non debet per Patriam; and upon the evidence it appeared, that the Bargain was for twenty Marks. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Jury ought to give their Verdict for the Defendant, becauſe it cannot be intended one and the ſame Contract, and that the Defendant in this caſe might have waged his Law, notwithſtanding that the Plea is Non debet the ſum, nec aliquem denariam inde, See 22 E. 2. in Detinue of a Chain of three Links, weighing three ounces, and in truth it was but of a chain of two Links, and containing but two ounces, that in ſuch caſe the Defendant might wage his Law; otherwiſe, if the variance had been only in the price and value, Mich. 5 Eliz. 6. Dyer, 219.

25. An Action of Detinue was brought for 40 Quarters of Wheat. And the Plaintiff declared upon an abſolute contract. The Defendant ſaid, That he was to pay for it when it was delivered to the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff was to pay for it, or otherwiſe, it ſhould be void: and ſaid, That the Plaintiff had received 30 Quarters of him, and paid him for it, and at another day he came to receive the ten Quarters reſidue, and did not pay for them, and ſo the contract was void, and demanded Judgment of the Action. It was the Opinion of the Court in that Caſe, That the Plea was good without any traverſe, that the contract was ſimple, for the traverſe ought to be of the other part, viz. that it was abſolute without that, that it was upon condition. But in this Caſe, it was agreed, That the Defendant might either wage his Law, or plead, Non Detinet per Patriam. Hill. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 30.

26. A man brought Debt upon a contract before the Mayor and Recorder of London; the Defendant tendred to wage his Law: the Plaintiff ſaid, That in London there is ſuch a Cuſtome, That if a man man hath put his Seal to a Paper, teſtifying the Contract, that the party ſhall be ouſted of Wager of Law; and upon that there was a Demurrer. In that Caſe, it was adjudged, That that matter did not alter the nature of the contract, becauſe it was only a teſtimony of the contract; and ſo in that Caſe, the Defendant might wage his Law. 30 H. 6. vouch. in Tr. 28 H. 8. Dyer, 22.

2. Conſtruction of Law: Where it conſtrueth things according to common intendment, or poſſibility; the Original Cauſe and beginning of them; the equality of reaſon and moderation; the ſubject matter, and always to the beſt.

1. A Warranty which ſeemeth literally to be entire, ſhall by act of the party, and conſtruction of the Law be divided, where it cannot take effect according to the entire words. As if I enfeoff H. of 100 Acres of Lands in Fee, to the uſe of himſelf of 50 Acres, or of the Feoffer, or of a ſtranger of the other 50 Acres certain, and Warrant the Lands to the Feoffee and his Heirs; this Warranty is clearly divided by the meaning from the Letter for the Warranty, for ſo much as is to the uſe of the Feoffer himſelf, and his Heirs that doth Warrant, never took effect; and when it is divided to two, that Warranty which ſeemed entire at the firſt, is taken by conſtruction of Law to be reddendo ſingula ſingulis. Trin. 9 Jac. in C. B. Sir Henry Rolls and Sir Robert Osborns Caſe. Hob. 24.

2. William Lord Dacres made a Deed of Feoffment of Lands in divers Counties, dated the 13th of October, 4 Mar. upon Condition, That the Feoffee ſhould enfeoff him of all the ſaid Lands within 20 dayes after the date of the Deed. It was in this Caſe Reſolved, That if William Lord Dacres did make his Feoffment but of part within the 20 dayes, the Condition was not broken, though all were not re-conveyed within 20 dayes, according to the Letter of the Condition, which is entire as the Warranty; and the reaſon was, becauſe it was his own fault that it was not conveyed, without which it could not be re-conveyed, and therefore the Letter was abridged, the Condition being taken, that he ſhould re-convey ſo much as was conveyed. 26 Eliz. the Lord Dacres Caſe, ibid.

3. T. M. Debtor of the King, brought Quo minus in the Exchequer, and declared, That W. M. 5. Maii 10 Jac. leaſed to him a Meſſuage and 40 Acres of Land, with the appurtenances in C. Habendum from the Feaſt day of the Annunciation of our Lady laſt paſt, for 21 years then next enſuing. The Ejectment upon this Leaſe was alledged to be 5 Maii 10 Regis. Upon Not Guilty, It was found, That before the ſaid demiſe, the ſaid W. M. was ſeiſed of the ſaid Lands in Fee, and ſo ſeiſed the ſaid W. the ſaid 5 Maii 10 Regis, ſupradict. made a Leaſe to the ſaid T. M. in hac verba, ſcil. demiſit Tenementa prædict. Habendum the ſaid Meſſuage, with the appurtenances, from the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the Virgin laſt paſt, for, and during the Term of 21 years next enſuing the date hereof, to be compleat and ended: And whether the Defendant was guilty of the Ejectment in the Declaration mentioned, was the Queſtion, ſcil. If the Leaſe found by the Indenture, did agree with the limitation in the Declaration for a Term of years or not, becauſe the Leaſe by the Declaration was a Leaſe made 5 Maii 10 Regis, Habendum from the Feaſt of the Annunciation then paſt, for 21 years, extunc, ſcil. from the ſaid Feaſt of the Annunciation next following; but the Leaſe found by the Jury, was a Leaſe made 5 Maii 10 Regis, per Indent. dat. 5 Maii Anno 10 Regis; Habendum de feſto Annunciationis Beatæ Mariæ, tunc ultimè præterito pro termino 21 annorum proximè ſequent. dat. dict. Indenturum. In this Caſe, it was adjudged for the Plaintiff in Scaccario; and afterwards affirmed in a Writ of Error. Moor and Musgraves Caſe, in Scaccario, Hob. 18, 19.

4. Note, the Law ſhall conſtrue a Priority to be in an inſtant. And therefore in a Replevin, the Caſe was, A. ſeiſed of Land in Fee, Granted a Rent of 6 l. per annum out of the ſame to B. and C. his Wife for the life of C. payable at Mich. and our Lady day, or within ten dayes after: And if the Rent be behind, that he ſhould forfeit 10 l. by way of a pain after any of the ſaid Feaſt-dayes being lawfully demanded, and that then, and ſo often, it ſhould be lawful for B. and his Wife to diſtreyn, and the ſame to detein, untill the ſaid Rent and pain were ſatisfied: and ſhewed, that 54 l. was behind in the life of B. and unpaid, and that therefore he diſtreyned. It was moved, That the Rent behind in the life of B. did not belong to the Wife as Adminiſtratrix, but in her own right. But it was anſwered, That ſhe might diſtreyn in her own right, and ſo the Conuſans good, as Bayly to her. Then Exception was taken, That it was not averred, That the Rent was demanded before the diſtreſs, as it ought to be by the expreſs words. To that it was ſaid, That the Clauſe of diſtreſs is no otherwiſe to be extended then as the Grantor gives it; and therefore if the clauſe were, That if the Rent be behind, being demanded at another place beſide the Land, or of his perſon, then he may clearly diſtreyn, without ſuch demand firſt made; for there the demand is no other then the Law requires. But where the clauſe is no more but if the Rent be behind, being lawfully demanded, then he may diſtreyn, for it is no more then the Law ſpeaks, and therefore the diſtreſs implying a demand, and a diſtreſs one before the other, by operation of Law, ſatisfies it; but if he would have diſtreyned for the pains, he muſt have made an actual demand at the end of the ten dayes, for then it grew due. Trin. 15 Jac. in B. R. Brown and Danneryes Caſe. Hob. 208.

5. In an account brought againſt J. D. upon the Receipt of 200 l. by the hands of J. S. for 200 l. The Defendant pleaded he was not Receiver to render account. It was found by Verdict, That J. S. was endebted to the Plaintiff in 200 l. and that the Plaintiff required the Defendant to demand the ſaid 200 l. and that the Defendant required J. S. to pay it, and J. S. upon requeſt to him made, deſired the Defendant to borrow 200 l. of any perſon, and to pay the Plaintiff; and he thereupon borrowed 200 l. of one B. and received it of him to pay over to the Plaintiff; and J. S. gave Bond to B. for the payment of it, and the Defendant appointed his Wife to pay it over to the Plaintiff. In this Caſe it was adjudged by the whole Court, That the Action was well brought againſt the Defendant, for that the Defendant took upon him aſwell to be ſervant to the Plaintiff to ask, and receive the 200 l. of J. S. as to J. S. to borrow where he could the 200 l. and that not only with an intent to pay it over to the Plaintiff, but with an expreſs Commiſſion, to pay it over. So that although B. lent the money to be paid over to the Plaintiff. Yet it is found, That the Defendant received it as lent to J. S. whereby it became J. S. his money, and the rather, when he had given Bond for it. And ſo Judgment was given, That the Defendant was a Receiver. And in that Caſe, it was agreed for Law by the Juſtices, That if A. deliver money over to B. to deliver and pay over to C. That in ſuch Caſe, B. is anſwerable to two Actions of Account conditionally. Hill. 10 Jac. in C. B. Harrington and Deans Caſe. Hob. 36.

6. That the Law conſtrueth thus according to common Intendment, or poſſibility: As if a Diſcent be caſt when the Diſſeiſee is out of the Realm, albeit he be not there in the Kings Service, that Diſcent ſhall not take away the entry of him that hath right, becauſe he who is out of the Realm, cannot by Intendment have knowledg of the Diſſeiſin, no more then a thing done out of the Realm can be tryed by a Jury of 12 men; but otherwiſe it is, if ſuch Diſſeiſee were within the Realm at the time of the Diſſeiſin, or the Diſcent caſt. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 261.

7. The Husband and Wife levy a Fine of Land, whereof they are ſeiſed in the right of the Wife; and the Husband only declares the uſe of the Fine, this Declaration ſhall bind the Wife, if her diſaſſent appear not. For when ſhe joyns with her Husband in the Fine, it ſhall be intended (if the contrary appear not) that ſhe joyned with him in agreement for the Declaration of the uſes of the ſaid Fine. So if the Husband and Wife ſell the Lands of the Wife for money, by word, and afterwards levy a Fine to the Vendee of the ſame, and his Heirs, this ſhall bind the Wife without any writing, proving her aſſent. Cook 2. Part, 57. in Berkwiths Caſe.

8. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, by Indenture Inrolled, Covenants with B. That if B. ſhall pay to A. his Heirs or Aſſigns 100 l. ſuch a day at ſuch a place, that then A. and his Heirs ſhall ſtand ſeiſed of the Lands to the uſe of B. and his Heirs: Before the day of payment, A. having Iſſue a Son, makes his Will in Writing, and his Wife Executrix thereof, and dyeth, the Wife renounceth the Executorſhip, and then takes Letters of Adminiſtration. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That this word (Aſſigns) ſhall be only intended of the Aſſigns of the Eſtate of A. for he hath an Eſtate in him aſſignable; and the Law will never ſeek an Aſſignee in Law, when there may be an Aſſignee in fact. But if A. in ſuch Caſe had made a Feoffment in Fee upon Condition, That the Feoffee ſhall pay the money to the Feoffer, his Heirs, or Aſſigns, &c. there, becauſe he hath departed with the whole eſtate in Fee, and hath but a naked condition, which cannot be aſſigned over; the Law, which never rejects any word, will make conſtruction what perſon ſhall be moſt apt (as aſſignee in Law) to receive the money, and thoſe the Law adjudgeth to be his Executors, becauſe they repreſent the perſon of the Teſtator for all goods and Chattels, and in ſuch Caſe, the Feoffor cannot have any Aſſignees in fait. Cook 5. Part, 96. in Goodalls Caſe.

9. If Lands, of the value of 3 l. per annum be deviſed to A. and that A. ſhall pay out of it 50 s. per annum: In this Caſe, it was holden, That A. hath but an Eſtate for life, for that he may pay it out of the profits of the Land, and is ſure to be at no loſs. But if it be deviſed to B. for life, the Remainder to A. paying 50 s. per annum out of it, in that Caſe, A. hath a Fee-ſimple, becauſe after the payment thereof, A. may dye before he can receive ſatisfaction for the ſame out of the profits of the Lands; and therefore ſuch a Deviſe ſhall be a Feeſimple, becauſe the Law intends, That the Deviſe was for his benefit, and not for his prejudice. Cook 6. Part, 16. in Colthyers Caſe.

10. C.

10. C. and Eliz. were Divorced in the Court of Audience, ratione ætatis minoris of E. after they had lived 10 years together, and had Iſſue a Daughter. Afterwards C. marrying another Wife, by another ſentence in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, the firſt marriage was declared void, and the ſecond good, and liberty given them ad exequenda conjugalia obſequia. The ſecond Wife dyed. C. married a third Wife, and had iſſue another Daughter. The laſt Daughter is found Heir by Office, the firſt Daughter traverſeth the Office in the Court of Wards. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That although in truth the firſt was a lawful Marriage, yet the ſentence of Divorce being in force, no averment could be admitted againſt it, becauſe the Spiritual Judg having Juriſdiction thereof before the ſentence was repealed, it was intended by Law to be juſt, and our Law gives credence to it. Cook 7. Part, 43. Kenns Caſe.

11. In an Ejectione firme at the Common Law, Auncient Demeſne is a good plea to the Juriſdiction of the Court, becauſe by common intendment, the right and title of the Land will thereby come in debate: and where the realty comes in debate, it ſhall be but reaſon, That thoſe who beſt know to try it, and determine it, ſhall have Conuſans of it, otherwiſe the Auncient Priviledges which are much favoured in Law, ſhould be taken away. And ſo it is in a Replevin, Writ of Meſne, Writ of Ward; Account againſt Guardian in Socage. Auncient Demeſne is a good Plea for the appearance and common intendment, that the realty will come in debate. Cook 5. Part, 105. Aldens Caſe.

12. The Guardian ſhall have the Cuſtody of the Land untill the Heir come to his full age of 21 years, becauſe by Intendment of Law, the Heir is not able to do Knights Service before that age, which is grounded upon apparent reaſon.

13. The Law conſtrueth things according to the Original cauſe, and the beginning of them: And therefore if Lands be given to a man and a Woman in ſpecial tail, and they are Divorced cauſa præcontractus, both ſhall hold the Lands for their lives. But in Caſe of Frankmarriage, if they be Divorced, the Woman ſhall have the whole Land, becauſe ſhe was the cauſe of the gift. So if Lands holden in Socage be given in ſpecial tail, and the Donees dye, the Iſſue being within the age of 14 years, the next of kin of the part of the Father, or of the part of the Mother, which can hap the Cuſtody, ſhall have it, but in Caſe of Frankmarriage, the Heir of the part of the Mother ſhall have it, becauſe ſhe was the cauſe of the Grant. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 21. and 88.

14. When divers accidents are requiſite to the conſummation of a thing, the Law hath more reſpect to the beginning and Original cauſe, then any thing elſe: And therefore if a man preſents to another mans Church in the time of War, and the Preſentee be Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted into the Church in the time of Peace; yet the Law gives ſuch regard to the Original Act, ſcil. the Preſentation, that all which follows thereupon, although it be done in the time of Peace, ſhall be avoided. 6 E. 3. 41. Cook 2. Part, 93. in Bingbams Caſe. Cook 1. Part, 106. in Shellyes Caſe, acc.

15. If the Son purchaſeth Lands, and lets the ſame to his Father for Term of years, the Father enfeoffs another in Fee, and binds himſelf and his Heirs to Warranty, the Father dyes, by which the Warranty diſcends upon the Son; yet this Warranty ſhall not bar the Son from his entry, or Recovery in an Aſſiſe, becauſe this Warranty begins by Diſſeiſin. So if the Father, or any other Anceſtor be Tenant at Will, Tenant by Elegit, Statute Merchant, or Staple, and make a Feoffment in Fee with Warranty, as aforeſaid, ſuch Warranty ſhall not bar, becauſe it commenceth by Diſſeiſin; and the Law looks upon the firſt and Original cauſe. Cook 4. Part, 37. Terringhams Caſe.

16. A. brought Covenant againſt B. for not repairing of a houſe. The Defendant pleaded an accord betwixt him and the Plaintiff, and Execution of it; upon which the Plaintiff demurred in Law, It was objected in this Caſe, That this Covenant being founded upon the Deed, could not be diſcharged, but by matter of as high nature, viz. by Deed, and not by any Accord or matter in pais. But it was Reſolved, That the Plea of the Defendant was good. For it was ſaid, There is a difference when a duty accrues by the Deed in certainty, tempore conſtitutionis, as by Covenant, Bill, Obligations to pay a ſum of money; here this certain duty takes his eſſence and operation Originally only from the writing, and therefore ought to be avoided by a matter of as high nature; but when no certain duty accrues by the Deed, but a wrong or default ſubſequent, doth give an Action to recover damages, which are only in the perſonalty, for ſuch wrong or default Accord with ſatisfaction, is a good Plea. Cook 6. Part, 43. Blakes Caſe.

17. If a Clerk be Preſented to a Biſhop to be admitted unto a Benefice, and he refuſeth him upon pretence of inſufficiency, or other defect. In a Quare Impedit brought, the Biſhop ought to alledg ſome particular crime why he did not admit him, and cannot alledg generally, quod non eſt idoneus, or quod eſt Criminoſus, or Sciſmaticus inveteratus: For although it doth not belong to the Kings Courts to determine of Schiſms, or Hereſies: yet the Original cauſe of the Suit being matter whereof the Kings Court hath Conuſans, the cauſe of the Schiſm or Hereſy for which the Preſentee is refuſed, ought to be alledged in certain, to the intent that the Kings Court may conſult with Divines to know whether it be a Schiſm or not; and if the party be dead, the Kings Court may direct the Jury which is to try it. Cook 5. Part, 58. Specots Caſe.

18. Note, It is ſaid, That neither Cælum or ſolum; but it is Legiantie, et Obedientia, which makes one to be a Subject born. For, if Enemies come into the Realm, and poſſeſs a Town, or Fort, and have Iſſue there, that Iſſue is no Subject to the King of England, although he be born upon his Soil, and within his Kingdome, becauſe he was not born under the Allegiance of a Subject, or under the Protection of the King. And therefore when Stephano Ferrara de Gama, and Emanuel Lewes Tinoco, Portugales born, comming into England under Queen Eliz. ſafe conduct, and living here under her Protection, joyned with Dr. Lopez in Treaſon in this Realm againſt the Queen. In that Caſe, two points were Reſolved. 1. That the Indictment ought to begin, That they intended Treaſon contra Dominam Reginam, omitting theſe words (naturalem Dominam ſuam) and ought to conclude contra legiantiæ ſuæ debitum. But if an Allien Enemy come to invade this Realm, and be taken in War, he cannot be Indicted of Treaſon, for the Indictment cannot conclude, contra legiantiæ ſuæ debitum, becauſe he never was in the Kings Protection, but ſuch Enemy ſhall be put to death by Marſhal Law. Cook 7. Part, 6. in Calvins Caſe.

19. A Barroneſs in her Widdowhood, retain'd one C. to be her Chaplain, who according to the Statute of 21 H. 8. purchaſed a Diſpenſation to have Plurality; and before Preſentment, the Baroneſs took to Husband the Lord Compton, being a Baron of the Realm; and afterwards the Chaplain was Admitted, Inſtituted, and Inducted into a ſecond Benefice; and the Queen brought a Quare Impedit. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Chaplain after the ſecond Marriage, might accept the ſecond Benefice, for the Retainer was not countermanded by the entermarriage; and it is not requiſite that ſhe be Widdow at the time of the acceptance of the ſecond Benefice; and the power of purchaſing of Licenſe, is annexed to the Retainer; and although that Husband and Wife are one perſon in Law, yet it is not reaſon that her Retainer of a Chaplain to inſtruct her Soul, ſhould be countermanded by that entermarriage: And in that Caſe, If the Husband had dyed after the marriage, yet the Retainer of the Chaplain by the Baroneſs, was good; for that the Law had a reſpect to the Original Cauſe. Cook 4. Part, 117, 118, Actons Caſe.

20. The Law conſtrues things, ſecundum æquitatem rationis. If two men, 4 Eliz. joyn in a Recognizance, being ſeverally ſeiſed of Lands, all the Lands muſt be equally charged. So upon a Recognizance acknowledged by the Auncеſtor. Or if a Judgment be given in an Action of Debt againſt him, if he dye ſeiſed of two Acres of Lands, whereof the one is holden in Borough English, or having Iſſue two Daughters who make Partition. Or if he dyeth without Iſſue, whereby part of his Lands diſcendeth to the Heir of the part of the Fathers ſide, and a part to the Heir on the part of his Mother: In all theſe Caſes, if one only be charged, he ſhall have contribution againſt the other, becauſe they are in æquali jure. Cook 3. Part, in Sir William Herberts Caſe.

21. If a man, ſeiſed of divers Lands, of ſome in Feeſimple, and of the reſt in Tail; makes a gift in tail, or a Leaſe for life, or years of all, reſerving a Rent, and dyeth: In this Caſe, If the Iſſue in tail avoid the Leaſe, or gift, as to the entailed Lands, the Rent ſhall be apportioned; for ſeeing the Rent is reſerved out of, and for the whole Land, the Law ſaith, That when part thereof is evicted by an Eigne Title, That the Donee or Leſſee ſhall not be charged with the whole Rent, but that it ſhall be apportioned according to the value of the Land. Litt. Sect. 222. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 148. acc.

22. A man is indebted to A. and B. in 100 l. and afterwards he becomes Bankrupt, and a Commiſſion is awarded under the Great Seal, according to the Statute of 13 Eliz. to C. and D. to make ſale of the goods to the Creditors; afterwards the Bankrupt gives all his goods to another Creditor, for the payment of his debt, and afterwards the Commiſſioners ſell the goods joyntly. It was adjudged, That the ſale by the Commiſſioners was good, and according to the Statute; for the intent of the Statute was to relieve the Creditors equally, and that there ſhould be an equal and rateable proportion obſerved in the diſtribution of the goods to the Creditors; and ſuch a conſtruction is made by the Common Law, and divers Statutes, That every one ſhall be in æquali jure. A man ſeized of three Mannors, holden of three ſeveral Lords by Knights Service, (each Mannor being of equal value:) He cannot by the words of the Statute of 32 H. 8. Deviſe two Mannors, and leave the third Mannor to Diſcend; but he ought to deviſe but two parts of each Mannor, ſo as there ought to be equality: Cook 2. Part, 25. The Caſe of Bankrupts.

23. If a man make a Charter of Feoffment of an Acre of Land, to A. and his Heirs, and alſo another Deed of the ſame Acre of Land to A. and the Heirs of his body; and deliver and ſeizin according to the effect of both Deeds: In this caſe he cannot take a Fee-ſimple only, becauſe Livery was made according to the Deed in fact, as well as to

to the Charter in Fee: Neither can the Livery enure only to the Deed of an Eſtate Tail, with a Fee-ſimple expectant, becauſe Livery is made as well upon the Deed in Fee ſimple, as upon the Deed in Tail: But in that caſe it ſhall enure by moyties, viz. to have an Eſtate Tail in the one moytie with the Fee expectant, and a Fee ſimple in the other moyty, and ſo the Livery ſhall work immediately upon both the Deeds. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 21.

24. If a man be ſeized in Fee, or in Tail, of three Acres, each Acre of equal value, and dyes; and the Heir endowes the Wife of the third Acre; and afterwards the Wife is Impleaded by one that hath Title Paramount, and ſhe voucheth the Heir: In this caſe ſhe ſhall not recover according to her loſs, but only the third part of the two Acres which remain; for by the Law ſhe ought to have but the third part of that which her husband might keep and enjoy by good Title Cook 4. Part, 122. in Buſtards Caſe.

25. Tenant of the King of Lands in Knights Service, Conveyeth half his Land for the Joynture of his Wife that ſhall be; and after the marriage, he demiſeth the other moyty for years, for the payment of his debts and legacies, and deviſeth 1000 l. to his younger children. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That for as much as the advancement of his Wife is within the Statute of 27 H. 8. as the payment of his debts, and the preferment of his children; and for that the operation of that Statute doth principally take effect by the death of the Kings Tenant, for that cauſe, although the Eſtate of the Wife hath the Precedency, yet the Kings third part ſhall be taken equally out of both thoſe halfs, and not out of the half demiſed only: And ſo it was Reſolved. Mich. 42 Eliz. in Kynding and Savages Caſe. Cook 8 Part, 173. Virgil Packers Caſe.

26. A Parſon of a Church, and A. be Tenants in Common of a Wood; A. endeavoureth to commit waſte in the Wood; The Parſon for preſervation of the Timber-Trees, ſhall have a Prohibition againſt him that he ſhall not make Waſte; and the reaſon thereof is, becauſe if the Parſon of a Church will waſte the Inheritance of the Church to his private uſe, the Patron may have a Prohibition againſt him, for the Parſon is ſeized in the Right of the Church, and the Glebe is the Dower of his Church, for thereof he is ſaid to be endowed; and therefore, for as much as a Prohibition lyeth againſt him, it is but reaſon that he ſhall have like remedy againſt him who holds in common with him. See Fitzh. Nat. Br. 49. Cook 11. Part, 49. in Liſords Caſe.

27. The Law conſtrueth things to the beſt. If an Abbot who holds in Frankalmoigne together with his Covent, alieneth the Lands to a ſeculas perſon, the Alienee cannot hold as they held, ſcil. in Frankalmoigne: yet becauſe of neceſſity he muſt hold of ſome perſon, and by ſome ſervice, the Law in ſuch caſe creates a Tenure, and appoints him the eaſieſt Tenure; that is, viz. to hold the Land of the Lord by Soccage Tenure only, and Fealty, which is incident to every Tenure. So if there be Lord Meſn and Tenant, and the Tenant is an Abbot who holds of the Meſne in Frankalmoigne: In that Caſe, if the Meſne dyeth without heir, and the Menalty eſcheats to the Lord Paramount, the Abbot ſhall hold of the Lord Paramount by Fealty only, becauſe he cannot hold of him in Frankalmoigne. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes. 98, 99. acc.

28. If a man make a Leaſe to A. for the life of B. and afterwards releaſeth to A. all his Right in the Land, by this A. hath an Eſtate in the Land for his own life; for a Leaſe for the term of his own life, is higher and better in the Judgement of Law, then an Eſtate for the life of another man: So if a Releaſe be made to Tenant by Statute Merchant Elegit, by him in the Reverſion of all his right in the Land, by this a Freehold paſſeth to him for the Term of his life; for that is the beſt and greateſt Eſtate that can paſs, without the words of Inheritance, viz. Heirs. Cook, 1 Part Inſtitutes. 273.

29. Queen Eliz. ſeized in Fee of a Reverſion expectant, upon an Eſtate Tail in the Lord Staſford, Granted it to T. in Tail, upon condition to have prædictam Reverſionem in Fee. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the words prædictam Reverſionem, ſhould not be conſtrued to extend to the Eſtate Tail, Granted before to T. but to the Reverſion in Fee. Cook 8. Part, 77. The Lord Staſfords Caſe.

30. Note, It was Ruled to be the courſe in the Kings Bench, That although the Defendants Bail be taken, and Entred, but the laſt day of the Term, and the Bill be put in any time before in that Term, it is good enough; yet from the time of the Bail, the Defendant is anſwerable, as in Cuſtodia Mariſchalli, and not before, in ſtrictneſs of Law. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. The Lady Plaee and Plawmers Caſe. Hob. 70.

3. Where

3 Where the Law favoureth Common right, publique quiet; Poſſeſſion where right is, Certainty, Things done in truth, and for the Commonwealth, and for publique Trade and Commerce, much more then things done to the contrary.

1. THe Plaintiff in a Writ of Meſne made his Title by Preſcription, that the Defendant and his Auncеſtors had acquitted the Plaintiff and his Auncеſtors, and the Terr-Tenant of the Land time out of mind, &c. the Defendant took Iſſue, That the Defendant and his Auncеſtors had not acquitted the Plaintiff and his Auncеſtors, and the Terr-Tenant. By a Special Verdict it was found, That the Grandfather of the Plaintiff was enfeoffed by one A; and that A. and her Auncеſtors was acquitted by the Auncеſtors of the Defendant time out of mind before that time; ſince which time, the Acquittal had been. It was adjudged in that caſe, and afterwards affirmed in a Writ of Errour, That the Plaintiff ſhould recover his Acquittail; for that there was once a Title of Preſcription veſted: which cannot be taken away by a wrongful Ceſſer to acquit of late time: And in that caſe, although the Verdict found againſt the Letter of the Iſſue; yet becauſe the ſubſtance of the Iſſue was found; ſcil. a ſufficient Title by Preſcription. It was adjudged (as before) for the Plaintiff. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 114.

2. In a Prohibition, a Modus Decimandi was alledged time out of mind for Tythes of Lands, and thereupon Iſſue was joyned; and the Jury found, That before 20. years laſt paſt, there was ſuch a Preſcription, and that for 20 years he had payed Tythe Lamb in ſpecie. It was ſaid in that caſe, 1. That the Iſſue was found againſt the Plaintiff, for that the Preſcription was general for all the time of the Preſcription, and 20 years did faile thereof. 2. That the party by payment of Tythes in ſpecie, had waived the Preſcription. But it was adjudged for the Plaintiff in the Prohibition; for although the Modus Decimandi had not been paid by the ſpace of 20 years, yet the Preſcription being found, the ſubſtance of the Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff. And if a man hath Common by Preſcription, and taketh a Leaſe of the Land for 20. years, whereby the Common is ſuſpended. It was holden, That after the years ended, he may claim the Common generally by Preſcription; for that the ſuſpenſion was but to the poſſeſſion, and not to the right, and the Inheritance of the Common did alwayes remain: and when a Preſcription or Cuſtome doth make a Title of Inheritance, the party cannot alter or waive the ſame in pais Mich. 44 Eliz. in B.R. Nowell and Hicks Caſe. See 10 Jac. in C. B. Cowper and Andrews Caſe. Hob. 37,38. acc.

3. If the Diſſeiſee entreth upon the Heir of the Diſſeiſor, (which Entry is a Diſſeiſin) and the Heir bring an Aſſiſe, or a Writ of Entry in the nature of an Aſſiſe, he ſhall recover: But if the Heir bringeth a Writ of Right againſt the Diſſeiſee, he ſhall be barred, becauſe in the Writ of Right, the Charge of the Grand Aſſiſe upon their Oath, is upon the mere right, and not upon the poſſeſſion: and yet (in that caſe) the Heir in Aſſiſe, or a Writ of Entry, &c. may regain the poſſeſſion from the Diſſeiſee; and yet that the Diſſeiſee ſhall revive his auncient right, and thereupon again may regain the poſſeſſion of the Land from the Heir in a Writ of Entry in the Per, for the Diſſeiſin made unto him by the Auncеſtor of Heir, or otherwiſe he may recover it in a Writ of Right. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 266. 2. acc.

4. Note; where the right is equal, there the Law favoureth the poſſeſſion: And therefore if Lands which are holden in Soeage, are given to a man and the heirs of his body, and he dyeth his Heir within the age of 14. years, the next Coſen of the part of the Father (although he be the worthier) ſhall not be preferred before the next Heir of the part of the Mother, but ſuch of them as firſt ſeizeth the Heir, ſhall have the Cuſtody of him. See Plow. Com. Carell's Caſe. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 88.

5. Note. It is ſaid, That Seiſin by Incroachment ſhall be avoided in an Aſſiſe, or Ceſſavit, but not in Avowry. And if the Lord diſtrain for Rent due, and the Incroachment, the Tenant may tender the whole Rent which is due, and make Reſcous, if the Lord will not accept of it: but if the Lord encroach more Rent then he ought to have by Coertion of Diſtreſs, and not upon voluntary payment, the Lord ſhall avoid the ſame Seiſin in Avowry: But if the Lord by voluntary payment of the Tenant happeneth Seiſin of more Rent, then he ought to have, In that caſe, the Law ſo favoureth ſeiſins and poſſeſſions, that the Tenant ſhall not avoid this Seiſin had by Incroachment in an Avowry. Cook 4. Part, 11. in Bevill's Caſe.

6. If a man declare upon a Statute, he muſt recite it truly; for mentioning the Statute, and miſ-reciting of it, cauſeth Errour, although as to the ſubſtance of his Declaration he might have omitted it: and the reaſon is, becauſe a Declaration muſt neceſſarily have two things: 1. Certainty, ſo as the Defendant may know to what to make make Anſwer: and therefore when of neceſſity a Deed or thing certain muſt be ſhewed in a Declaration, it muſt be by no means omitted. 2. Verity, which ought to be joyned with the certainty; for if it appeareth to the Court, that falſhood is produced in the ſtead of truth, the party who ſheweth it, prejudiceth and hurteth himſelf thereby. See Plow. Com. 84. in Partridge and Strange's Caſe.

7. A Merchant obtained a Licence to him and his Aſſigns, to Import any Wines in any Ship or Veſſel beſides Engliſh, notwithſtanding the Statute of 4 H. 7. Cap. 10. In an Information brought againſt the Aſſignee of the Patentee, he pleaded the Letters Patents, and ſhewed his Aſſignment, but he produced not the Letters Patents in Court; and for that cauſe it was adjudged againſt him, That his Plea was inſufficient. 34 H.8. Dyer, 54. And ſee, that the Leſſee or Aſſignee of a Patentee ſhall not juſtifie his Eſtate, by producing only his Leaſe or Aſſignment; but he ought to ſhew the Original Letters Patents, or a true Copy thereof proved by oath, to the end the Judges and Jury ſeverally may give certain Judgment of the ſufficiency, or the inſufficiency thereof. See 28 H. 8. Dyer, 29. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 226. Cook 10 Part, 92. in Dr. Layfield's Caſe.

8. The Law favoureth things for the Commonwealth: And therefore it is ſaid, That of a Caſtle which is only maintained for the private uſe and habitation of the Owner, a woman may be endowed: But of a Caſtle which is only maintained for the neceſſary defence of the Realm, a woman ſhall not be endowed: And ſo it was adjudged in C. B; where in a Writ of Dower, the demand was, de tertia parte Caſtri Hilderker in Com. Northumb. which was a Caſtle for the defence of the Realm. And the words of the Statute of *Magna Charta, Cap.*7. ſcil. Niſi domus illa ſit Caſtra, is to be underſtood of a Caſtle for the neceſſary and publique defence of the Kingdom. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 31. And if a Caſtle that is uſed for the neceſſary defence of the Realm, diſcend to two or more Coparceners; this ſhall not be divided amongſt them in Rooms and Chambers, becauſe it is pro bono publico, et defenſione Regni: But Caſtles of habitation for private uſes, may be parted amongſt Coparceners as well as other houſes; and Wives thereof may be endowed. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 165.

9. A man may Juſtifie a wrong, which tends to the good of the Commonwealth: As in time of Warr, a man may juſtifie to make Bulwarks in the Lands of another man, without Licence: ſo a man may Juſtifie to pull down a houſe which is on Fire, for the ſafeguard of the Neighbouring houſes. And ſo the Sheriff may Juſtifie the purſuing of a Felon, into a houſe, and breaking of the houſe or door for the apprehending of him; for that all theſe are for the good of the Commonwealth. 29 H.8. Dyer, 36.

10. If the Tenant holdeth by Fealty and a Buſhell of Wheat, or a pound of Pepper, or the like. If the Lord purchaſeth part of the Land, there ſhall be an apportionment as well as if the Rent were in money; and yet if the Rent were by one grain of Wheat, or one Pepper Corn or other intire ſervice by purchaſe of part, the whole ſhould be extinct: But yet if ſuch an entire ſervice be pro bono publico; as Knights Service, Caſtle-gard pro Defenſione Regni; or to repair a Bridg, or to keep a Beacon, or to keep the Kings Records; or for the Advancement of Juſtice and Peace; Or to be High Conſtable of England; in ſuch caſe, although the Lord purchaſeth part of the Land, yet the entire ſervice doth remain. Cook 6. Part, 1. in Bruerton's Caſe. Cook 8. Part, 105. Talbot's Caſe. acc.

11. Note: It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That Inhabitants of a Town, without any Cuſtome, may make Ordinances and By-Lawes for the repair of the Church, or of any High-way, or any the like thing which is generally for the good of the Commonwealth; and in ſuch caſe, the greater part ſhall bind the leſſe without any Cuſtome. And all Corporations may make Ordinances and Conſtitutions (without Cuſtome, or the Kings Charter) for things which concern the Commonwealth; as reparation of the Church, Common High-wayes, or the like. 44 E.3.19. 21 E.4.34. 21 H.7.20. Cook 5. Part, 63. in the Chamberlain of London's Caſe.

12. The Term being appointed to be kept St. Albans, a Conſtitution was made there for aſſeſſing of a ſum of money, for repairing of the Courts and other the neceſſaries for the ſaid Terme and every Inhabitant was enjoyned to pay his reſpective Aſſeſsment upon pain of Impriſonment. J. S. an Alderman (who conſented to the Aſſeſsment) refuſed to pay his proportion: Whereupon he being Impriſoned by the Mayor, brought an Action of Falſe Impriſonment, and had Judgment to recover, becauſe the Conſtitution was againſt Magna Charta; Nullus liber homo impriſonetur. But it was there Reſolved, That if the Conſtitution had been upon a pain of a reaſonable ſum of money, and diſtreſſe, or Action of Debt for the Recovery thereof, the Mayor might well have Juſtified the Diſtreſſe or Action, becauſe it was pro bono publico. See Cook 5. Part, 64. Clark's Caſe. Cook 8 Part, 127. b. acc.

13. An Ordinance was made by the Corporation of Ipſwich, That none ſhould exerciſe any Trade there, unleſſe he had ſerved 7. years as an Apprentice, Apprentice in the ſame, and ſhould be approved by them to be skilful therein. It was holden, That ſuch Conſtitution was not good, becauſe it was againſt the Common Law, which reſtraineth no man from exerciſing any Trade; and alſo it was prejudicial to the Commonwealth; for that it put a greater reſtraint upon Tradeſmen, then the Statute of 5 Eliz. Ordained. Cook 11. Part, 54. The Taylors of Ipſwich's Caſe.

14. If an Alien taketh a Leaſe for years of Lands, &c. Or being no Merchant, taketh a Leaſe for years of a houſe for habitation, upon Office found, the King ſhall have them: For although he be capable of ſuch a Leaſe, or Lands to him and his Heirs; yet upon Office found, the King ſhall have them by his Prerogative. But an Alien being a Merchant, may take a Leaſe for years of an houſe for his habitation, as incident to commerce; for without habitation, he cannot Merchandize or Trade: But if he be no Merchant, or being a Merchant, departeth the Realm, the King ſhall have the Leaſe; or if he dye poſſeſſed thereof, neither his Executors nor Adminiſtrators ſhall have it, but the King; for he had it only for his habitation as neceſſary to his Trade and Traffique. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 2.

15. Trin. 44 Eliz. The Grant of the ſole making of Playing Cards, was adjudged void, becauſe it reſtrained Trade and Traffique, which are the very life of every Commonwealth. Cook 8. Part, 125. in the Caſe of London. And the ſame reaſon is of all other Monopolies. Cook 11. Part, 87. in the Caſe of Monopolies.

4. Where the Law hath more reſpect to Life, Liberty, Freehold and Inheritance; matters in the realty; matters of Record, and the ſubſtance of the matter: Then to poſſeſſions, Chattels, and things in the perſonalty, matters not of Record; or the Circumſtances of the matter.

1. IF a Villain be once enfranchiſed or manumitted, although he afterwards becometh ungratefull to the Lord in the higheſt degree; yet the manumiſſion and enfranchiſement remaineth good, and that by the Common Law in favorem Libertatis, wherein it differeth from the Civil Law: for Libertinam ingratam Leges Civiles in priſtinam relignt ſervitutem: ſed Leges Angliæ ſemel manumiſſum ſemper Liberum judicant, gratum, et ingratum. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 137.

2. The Law in general doth much tender the Liberty and Freedom of the Subject in general: And therefore if the Lord of a Mannor will preſcribe, that there is a Cuſtome within the Mannor, That every Tenant that marrieth his daughter to any man without the Lords Licence, ſhall pay a Fine to the Lord; this is adjudged to be a void Cuſtom to bind a Freeman: and therefore to claim ſuch a Cuſtome, will hold againſt Villeins, or men that hold in Villenage. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 139.

3. In an Appeal of Murder, the Defendant pleaded Not guilty, and was found guilty of Manſlaughter, and had his Clergy. Afterwards, he was Indicted of Murder, and thereupon arraigned at the Queens Suit, and he pleaded the former Conviction in the Appeal at the Suit of the party: It was adjudged by the Court, a good barr; and thereupon he was diſcharged: for it was a bar at the Common Law, which is not reſtrained by any Statute, becauſe the life of a man ſhall not be twice put in jeopardy for the ſame offence. Paſch. 35 Eliz. Withered and Barleys Caſe. Cook 4. Part, 40.

4. All acts which a man Non Compos mentis doth in a Court of Record concerning his Lands and Goods, ſhall bind him and all other perſons for ever; alſo all acts which he doth concerning his Lands and goods in pais, in ſome caſes ſhall bind him only during his life; and in ſome caſes they ſhall bind him for ever. But as for his life, the Law of England is, That he ſhall not loſe it, although he killeth a man, and thereby make him ſubject to be Indicted of Felony, or Murder. Cook 4. Part, 124. in Beverleys Caſe.

5. One Joynt-Tenant ſhall not prejudice his Companion as to any matter of Inheritance of Free-hold, but as to the Profits of the Free-hold the one may prejudice the other; for there is a Privity and Truſt between them: And therefore if one of them take all the profits of the Lands, or all the Rent, the other hath no remedy. Cook 2. Part. 68. in Tooker's Caſe.

6. All Corporate Inheritances, which may be held under the word (Tenements), may be entailed within the Statute of Weſt. 2. cap. 1. And not thoſe only, but alſo all Inheritances iſſuing out of thoſe Inheritances, or concerning, or annexed, or exerciſed with the ſame, may be entailed, although they lye not in Tenure; as Rents, Commons, and other Profits going out of Lands, Uſes, Offices, Dignities; and the reaſon is, becauſe they ſavour of the Realty. But if the Grant be of an Inheritance meer Perſonal, or to be exerciſed about Chattels, and is not to be iſſuing of Lands, nor to be exerciſed conderning the ſame, ſuch Inheritances cannot be entailed, becauſe they ſavour nothing of the Realty. Cook 1. Part. Inſtit. 19.

7. 18. E. 3, 27. The Office of the keeping of the Church of L. may be entailed, and a Formedon will lye of it. 10 E. 4. 14. The Office of Marſhall of England was Intailed. 11 E. 4. 1. The Office of one of the Chamberlains of the Exchequer was entailed. 1 H. 7. 18. The Office of Fofterſhip was entailed. 19 H. 8. 3. an Uſe was entailed. The Name of Duke, Baron, Earl, Marqueſs, or other Name of Dignity, may be entailed. Cook 7. Part. 34. Nevil's Caſe. But if a man grant to a man and the Heirs of his Body, to be Keeper of his Hounds, Maſter of his Horſe, they cannot be entailed; for that they are not iſſuing out of Lands or Tenements, but concern Chattels, and ſavour nothing of the Realty; and ſo is it of an Annuity, which only chargeth the Perſon, and concerneth not Land. Cook 7. Part. 33. 34. in Nevil's Caſe.

8. An Eſtate of Free-hold or for life is a greater Eſtate in the Eye of the Law than any Leaſe for years, although it be a Leaſe for 1000 years, which is in Law but a Chattel; which is leſs favoured than Free-hold. Cook 8. Part. 70. Whitlock's Caſe.

9. By the Common Law, and before the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Partition, Joynt-Tenants poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for years might have made Partition of it by word; but if they had been ſeiſed of an Eſtate of Inheritance or for life, they could not have made Partition without Deed. Cook 1. Part. Inſtit. 187.

10. Alſo the Law provideth greater ſafety and remedy for matters of Free-hold and Inheritance than for Chattels; for in perſonal Actions, as in Debt accompt the Bar is perpetual, becauſe the Plantiff cannot have an Action of higher Nature. But if a man be barred in a real Action upon Judgment by Verdict, Demurrer, or Confeſſion; yet he may have an Action of higher Nature, and the Barr is not perpetual, becauſe the ſame concerneth Free-hold and Inheritance; and therefore, If a man be barred in an Aſſiſe of Novel Diſſeiſin, yet he may have and maintain an Aſſiſe of Mortdanceſter, Writ of Aiel, or any other Writ which is of higher Nature. Cook 6. Part. 7. in Ferrer's Caſe.

11. A. makes a Leaſe for years, upon condition, That if the Leſſee doth ſuch an Act, that the Leaſe ſhall be void, and after the Leſſor grants the Reverſion over, and then the Condition is broken: The Grantee of the Reverſion ſhall by the Common Law take advantage of the Condition, becauſe thereby the Leaſe is abſolutely void: But if a Leaſe for life had been made by A. upon ſuch a Condition, the Grantee of the Reverſion in ſuch Caſe ſhould not have taken benefit of the Condition broken, becauſe a Free-hold (whereof a Precipe lyeth) cannot ſo eaſily ceaſe, but is voidable by Entry after the Condition broken, which could not by the Common Law be transferred over to a Stranger. Cook 8. Part. 95. in Manning's Caſe.

12. If Lands be given to Husband and Wife in Tail or in Fee, and the Husband dyes; the Wife in ſuch Caſe cannot deveſt the Free-hold out of her, by her ſaying, That ſhe will have nothing to do with the Land; and ſo if the Husband alliens the Land, and takes back an Eſtate to himſelf and his Wife in Tail; and the Husband dyes, and the Lords of whom the Land is holden by Knights Service, ſuppoſing that the Husband dyed ſole ſeiſed, aſſign Dower to the Wife which ſhe accepteth of; this refuſal of the Inheritance, and acceptance of the Dower, ſhall not deveſt the Free-hold out of the Wife; and the reaſon is, becauſe an Eſtate of Free-hold cannot be put out of a man by any verbal Waiver, Diſclaymer, or Diſagreement in pais, or otherwiſe than in a Court of Record: But a man may diſclaim or diſagree to an Intereſt in Chattels, in pais, and no ſuch diſagreement in a Court of Record is neceſſary. Cook 3. Part. 36. in Butler and Baker's Caſe.

13. If Leſſee for years or a Copy-holder be ouſted, and the Leſſor or Lord be diſſeiſed, and the Diſſeiſor levyeth a Fine, and five years paſs; the Leſſor or Lord are barred by the firſt, ſaving in the Statute of 4 H. 7. becauſe preſently they might have had a real Action to have recovered the Land, and therefore if five years paſs before Entry or Claim they are barred; and a meer Stranger of his own wrong cannot enter in the name of him who hath Right, and avoid the Fine by Commandment precedent, or Aſſent ſubſequent, within the five years. Cook 9. Part. 106. in Margaret Podger's Caſe, &c. But he who hath the Reverſion, or the Lord of the Mannor, may enter in the name of the Leſſee or his Copy-holder, aſwell to ſave the Inheritance as the particular Eſtates, becauſe they are privy in Eſtate, and that they may do without any Requeſt precedent, or Aſſent ſubſequent, and that is a lawful Entry within the Statute. Mich. 39 Eliz. in B. R. the Lord Audley's Caſe, ibid.

14. Note, That a Claim or Diſclaim of an Eſtate in pais, and a Claim and Diſclaim upon Record in pais ſhall not hinder a Remitter; but a Claim and Diſclaim of Record ſhall, becauſe the one worketh a Concluſion, the other not; and therefore, If the Diſſeiſor letts Lands to the Diſſeiſee for years, who enters and diſclaims by word in pais to have any thing but the Leaſe for years in the Land; yet the Diſſeiſee is in his Remitter, notwithſtanding ſuch Diſclaimer in pais; but if he diſclaimeth in a Court of Record, that he hath not any Eſtate, but only ſuch an Eſtate for years, ſuch Diſclaimer in a Court of Record ſhall conclude him. Cook 1. Part. Inſtit. 364. acc.

15. Note, There is a difference between matters of Record done or ſuffered by an Enfant, and matters in fait: For matters in fait, he ſhall avoid either within Age, or at his full Age: But matters of Record, as Statutes Merchants, and of the Staple, Recognizances, acknowledged by him; and a Fine levyed by him, or a Recovery againſt him by default in a real Action, muſt be avoided by him, viz. Statutes, Recognizances, &c. by Audita Querela, and the Fine, and Recovery by a Writ of Error during his Non-Age; and the reaſon thereof is, becauſe they are judicial Acts, and taken by a Court, and before a Judge of Record. Cook 1 Part. Inſtit. 380.

16. If a Fine be levyed of certain Lands by a certain number of Acres to diverſe perſons, that they ſhall grant and render the Land again in Fee-ſimple, which ſhall be to certain Uſes; and the Fine is levyed of the Land, but there is ſome variance in the number of Acres compriſed in the Fine, or the Fine is levyed to one of the parties only, who grants and renders the Land, ſo as there is variance between the Covenant and Fine in the number of Acres and Perſon yet in this Caſe. It was adjudged, That the Fine ſhall be averred to be to the Uſes compriſed in the Indentures: For the Original bargain and agreement of the parties was declared by writing, and although there be ſome little variance found in quantity of Acres, perſon, time, or the like, or ſuch other Circumſtances: Yet the Law, which in common Conveyances hath great regard to the intent of the parties, and to the ſubſtance and effect of their original bargain and agreement, will permit an Averment to agree the Fine and the Indenture, notwithſtanding thoſe little Circumſtances of number of Acres, Perſon, &c. eſpecially when the party averrs, that there was not any new conſideration or new agreement betwixt the parties; but that the Fine was levyed according to the ſaid Indenture, and to the Uſes conteined in the ſame. Cook 2. Part. 76. in the Lord Cromwell's Caſe. Cook 5. Part. 26. in the Earl of Rutland's Caſe. acc.

17. When the King hath Right of Entry for default of Payment of a Quarters Rent, and by Office it is found, That more Rent is arrears than the Quarters Rent doth amount unto: Yet it is ſufficient for the King, when the Office hath matter of ſubſtance; for the ſole and ſubſtantial Poynt which makes the Breach of the Condition, is The not Payment of the Rent, or any part thereof; and it is not material when the Rent was Arrear, for if any part thereof be behind it is ſufficient. Cook 5. Part. 56. in Knight's Caſe.

18. An Obligation was made and drawn thus, Ad quam quidem ſolutionem bene & fideliter faciendam, Obligo me per preſentes, leaving out the words, Sigillo meo ſigillat.; and alſo the words, In cujus rei Teſtimonium. Yet it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was good enough if the Bond was Sealed, for that is the ſubſtance, and the other are but circumſtances. 28 H. 8. Dyer 19. Cook 2. Part, Goddards Caſe acc.

19. A Writ of Summons of Parliament was awarded, 1 Mar. and theſe words, viz. Supremum Caput Eccleſiæ Anglicanæ were omitted, contrary to the Statutes of 26. and 35 H. 8. Yet it was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Summons was good enough, becauſe thoſe words was but an addition of Circumſtance, and were not parcel of ſubſtance of the name of the King, and ſo it was Reſolved 1 Eliz. by all the Juſtices alſo, Paſch. 1 Ma. Dyer 98.

20. The Dean and Chapter of Windſor were Incorporated by Act of Parliament, 22 E. 4. by this name, viz. The Dean and Channons of the Kings Free-Chappel of S. George the Martyr within the Caſtle of Windſor; and in the time of Queen Mary they made a Leaſe of certain Lands by this name, viz. The Dean and Channons of the King and Queens Free-Chappel of S. George within the Caſtle of Windſor. In this Caſe there were three variances obſerved. 1. Becauſe it was named the King and Queens Free-Chappel; whereas it ſhould only have been named the Kings. 2. It ought to have been S. George the Martyr, whereas the word (Martyr) was omitted. 3. It was ſaid, within the Caſtle; whereas it ſhould have been within the Kings Caſtle. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That in this Caſe the firſt Exception was only material, and of ſubſtance; but the other two were only matter of circumſtance, and not material; and ſo for the firſt Exception the Leaſe was adjudged to be void. Cook 10. Part, 124. Hall and Wingates Caſe. Mich. 30 Eliz. Vouch. in the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Lynns Caſe.

21. A Corporation was Incorporate by the name, Majoris & Burgenſium Burgi Domini Regis de Lyn Regis; and it is granted to them, that they ſhall be called by the ſame name only, and not by any other name; and an Obligation was made to them by the name Majoris & Burgenſium de Lyn Regis, leaving the words (Burgi Regis) out of the Obligation. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the Obligation was good notwithſtanding that miſnoſmer; And it was holden, That it needs not that the name of the Corporation be in Grants or Conveyances idem ſyllabis & verbis, but it is ſufficient if it be the ſame vero ſenſu: And in the principal Caſe, the variance is only in ſyllables and and words, and not in ſenſe, and in the thing it ſelf. And it was holden, That theſe words, Burgenſes de Lyn Regis implyed, that Lyn Regis is Burgus, for Burgus & Burgenſes ſunt conjugata; for of the Boroughs come the Burgeſſes: So as it was Reſolved, That the name in the Obligation, by matter apparent in it, did imply a ſufficient certain demonſtration of the true name of the Corporation; and where the true name of the Corporation, and the name in the Leaſe, Grant, or Obligation, are all one in effect, the ſame will much ſtrengthen the matter, although in the words there ſeems to be ſome ſhew of difference: But if the eſſential and ſubſtantial part of the name of the Corporation be omitted, or the Corporation miſtaken in any eſſential part of it, the ſame makes the Leaſes, Grants, and Obligations void. Mich. 10 Jac. in C. B. The Caſe of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Lyn Regis, Cook 10 Part, 123, 124.

22. In Debt upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. for granting a Leaſe for years of Lands, whereof the Leſſor had a defective Title: The Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant had demiſed the Lands for Term of years, without naming how many years: Exception was taken to it, becauſe the number of the years were not expreſſed in certain: But it was the Opinion of the Court, That it was not neceſſary to expreſs the number of years, becauſe the Term was but conveyance to the ſum in demand; and then that which is nothing elſe but Conveyance, ought not to be ſo certainly ſhewed, as that which was matter of ſubſtance. Hill. 6. E. 6. Plo. Com. 81. Strange and Partridges Caſe.

More, The Law: And ſome Rules and Maximes of the Law; and ſome Caſes put upon the ſaid Rules and Maximes.

1. IN an Action brought for a Deceit: The Caſe was, ; A. being a common Carrier: The Defendant having a Load of Woad to be carried, came to A. and bargained with him for the carriage of it, from ſuch a place to ſuch a place; and by agreement, he was to give him 2 s. for every hundred weight; and the Plaintiff demanding how many hundred weight it did contain, he ſaid it was about 800 weight; A. giving credit to the Defendant, put it into his Cart, and by the hardneſs of his weight and draught, two of the Plaintiffs Horſes were killed; and then the Plaintiff did weigh the Woad, and found it to be 2000 weight; and for this deceit, by which he was much damnified, he brought his Action: All which matter being found, upon Not Guilty pleaded by the Defendant, It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Action did not lye, for that it belonged to the Carrier to have weighed it firſt; and it was his own default if his Horſes were killed with the weight of it, becauſe it was his default that he did not weigh it, and the Law gives no remedy for voluntary negligence. Trin. 13 Jac. in B. R. Bayley and Merrels Caſe. Cro. 2 Part, 386, 387.

2. In Debt upon an Obligation of 20 l. Judgment was obtained before the Mayor of N. and Execution had thereupon; and becauſe the Obligation was not quaſhed (as it ought to have been, the uſe then being ſo) the Plaintiff had Judgment in another Action upon the ſame Obligation; and the Defendant in pleading the firſt Judgment could not be relieved, becauſe it was imputed his negligence that he did not procure the Obligation to be cancelled upon the firſt Judgment. 17 E. 3. 24. Cook 6. Part, 45. in Higgins Caſe.

3. Upon a Suit in the Court of Admiralty, the Caſe was, A. was Owner of a Ship, and ſent her to Spain, and made W. Maſter of her, who upon the high Sea did borrow of B. 50 l. for the payment of which he pawned the Ship; and afterwards returning, and the Ship being in the River of Thames, B. by Warrant from the Admiralty, arreſted the Ship; whereupon A. the Owner came there, and claimed his propriety in her, denying that W. was Owner of it: And the Court there proceeded to Judgment againſt the Ship for his debt: and thereupon a Prohibition was awarded. In this Caſe, It was ſaid by Hob. Chief Juſtice, That the Court of Admiralty hath no power over any Cauſe of Land, and is only to meddle with things ariſing upon the high Sea: But yet he was of Opinion, That the Admiral Law was reaſonable; That if a Ship be at Sea, and take Leak, or otherwiſe want Victual, or other neceſſaries, whereby either her ſelf be in danger, or the Voyage defeated, That in ſuch caſe of neceſſity, the Maſter might pawn her for money, or other things to relieve ſuch extremities; for he is the perſon truſted with the Ship and Voyage, and therefore reaſonably might be thought to have that power given him: But he ſaid, That in the Principal Caſe, neither the Contract, nor the Impawning were alledged to be for any ſuch cauſe, nor was the Impawning ſaid to be at Sea; and therefore he was clear of Opinion, the Prohibition ſhould ſtand. But if the Cauſe had been within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty, he ſaid, he would not prohibite them, becauſe they gave ſentence againſt our Law in this point of Impawning: for it ſhall be preſumed according to their Law: Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. Bridgmans Caſe. Hob. 11, 12.

1. De Minimis non curat Lex.

1. THe Law favours Eſtate tailes in poſſeſſion, but gives no regard to remainders or Reverſions upon an Eſtate in Tail; Therefore if Tenant in Tail ſuffereth a common Recovery, that ſhall not only bar the Eſtate Tail, and the Remainder and Reverſion, but alſo a Rent which he in the Reverſion or Remainder hath Granted. Cook 6 Part, 42. in Sir Anthony Mildmayes Caſe: And ſee, That a Reverſion or a Remainder expectant, upon an Eſtate in Tail, ſhall not be Aſſets to the Heir in Debt upon an Obligation made by his Father. 12 Eliz. in B. R. Tirling and Treffords Caſe acc. So if there be Tenant in Tail, the Remainder to the right Heirs of J. S. and Tenant in Tail ſuffer a common Recovery, J. S. being then alive, this ſhall bar the Remainder, although it were in Abeyance, which the Law uſually favours: but de Minimis non curet Lex. Hill. 14 Eliz. in C. B Copwoods Caſe.

2. If a Keeper of a Park doth not attend on his Office, one, two, or three dayes, this is no forfeiture of his Office; but if in his default any Deer be killed, whereby a damage cometh to the Lord, the ſame is a forfeiture of it; And non-Uſer of it ſelf, without ſome ſpecial damage, is no forfeiture of private Offices; but the non-Uſer of Publique Offices, which concern the Commonwealth, or the Adminiſtration of Juſtice, is of it ſelf a cauſe of forfeiture of ſuch Offices. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes. 233.

3. A man deviſeth a Rent of 10 l. per annum, out of his Mannor, to A. for life; and by the ſame Writ deviſeth the Mannor to B. for years: the Deviſor dyeth, the Leſſee for years pays the Rent to the Deviſee of the Rent, during the Term; the years expire; the Deviſee of the Rent demands it at the day, which is not paid, and thereupon brings an Aſſize. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That this payment by the Deviſee for years was not a ſufficient ſeizin to maintain an Aſſize againſt the Ter-Tenant after the years expire, in reſpect of the imbecility of the Eſtate of the Leſſee for years, which cannot prejudice nor draw in queſtion the Freehold. And 2. For that it ſhould be inconvenient, that he who had not a Freehold, ſhould give a Freehold; for then Tenant by Statute Merchant, Elegit, or other Owner of the Land might put the Lord in ſeiſin of a Rent, of which they never had any ſeiſin or poſſeſſion within the time of limitation, which ſhould be cauſe of Suits and Troubles. Cook 6. Part, 57. Bredimans Caſe.

4. If a Recovery be had againſt a man in a Precipe by default, when he is out of the Realm, he ſhall not avoid it by a Writ of Error, for ſo a man might be infinitely delayed of his Freehold or Inheritance, whereof the Law hath ſo great a regard; But Outlawry in a perſonal Action ſhall be avoided in that Caſe, becauſe otherwiſe he ſhould be without remedy, & de minimis non curat Lex; but in the other Caſe, the Tenant may reſort to his Writ of higher nature, or have a Quod ei deforceat, for his remedy. Cook, 1 Part, Inſtitutes 260.

5. A. brought an Aſſumpſit againſt B. and Declared, That B. had ſold him ſo many Oats, as according to the rate of 10 s. 9 d. for every Quarter, ſhall amount to 52 l. to be delivered ſuch a time; which money the Plaintiff promiſed to pay ſuch a time: And that the ſaid Oats, after ſuch a rate, came to 96 Quarters, and 6 Buſhels; which the Defendant hath not delivered, to his damage; Upon Non Aſſumpſit, it was found for the Plaintiff. Whereupon Error was brought, and Error aſſigned, That 96 Quarters and 6 Buſhels of Oats, after the rate aforeſaid, came to 52 l. and 3 farthings, and ſo no breach, becauſe he was not bound to deliver ſo many. But the Judgment was affirmed, both becauſe it was not certain whether it amounted to any more, and alſo becauſe it was not poſſible in effect to mince the meaſure ſo, as it ſhall hit the juſt ſum, as the odd hours were not mentioned in the year, & de minimis non curat Lex: Hill. 11 Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber, Laſlow and Thomlinſons Caſe, Hob. 80.

2. Lex non Cogit ad Impoſſibilia, nec præcipit Inutilia.

1. NOte, It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That where the Condition of an Obligation doth conſiſt upon two parts in the diſjunctive, and both are poſſible at the time of the making of the Obligation, and afterwards one becomes impoſſible by the Act of God, the Obligor is not bounden to perform the other, for the Condition is for the benefit of the Obligor, and ſhall be taken beneficially for him, and he hath election to perform the one or the other, for the ſaving of the penalty of his Bond, and ſo when one part becomes impoſſible by the Act of God, which by no Induſtry he could then perform, his Bond is ſaved. Trin. 37 Eliz. B. R. Cook, 5. Part, 22. Laughters Caſe.

2. A

2. A Copyholder in Fee ſurrendred to the uſe of J. S. and his Heirs, upon condition, That if he paid to the Mortgage 250 l. of lawful money of England, at the Manſion houſe of the Obligee, that the ſurrender ſhould be void: At the laſt inſtant of the day, the Mortgager tendered the whole ſum of money to the Mortgagee in a Bag, which he refuſed to accept of. It was Reſolved in that Caſe, amongſt other things, That the Tender was good, being made in convenient time, before the Sun was ſet, and that the tender of it in the Bag was good, if the true ſum was in it, and that without ſhewing and numbring of the money: And in that Caſe, It was holden by the Court, That if a man be bounden to pay 40000 l. at ſuch a day, if he tender it in Bags, it is ſufficient, for that it is not poſſible that it ſhould be numbred in one day. Cook 5 Part, 125. Wades Caſe.

3. If a man by Preſcription be bounden to repair a Wall contra fluxum Maris, and he keeps it in good Repair, and afterwards by ſudden Floods, the Wall is thrown down: It was holden in this Caſe, That by the Statute of 23 H. 8. the Commiſſioners of Sewers ought to tax all perſons which have any Lands or Tenements Common, of Paſture, or profit of Fiſhing, or who may have loſs or damage; to repair the Wall or Banks, according to the quantity of their ſeveral Lands, becauſe it was not through the default of him who ought to repair it, but it was by the Act of God, which the party was impoſſible to prevent, and therefore that in Law did excuſe him: But if it was by reaſon of any neglect of the party, that any default was in him, there if by his default the danger become inevitable, or that he be not able to repair it, ſo as the other Tenants are charged for the ſame, there an Action upon the Caſe lyeth by every ſuch Tenant againſt him who ought to repair the Wall: And ſo it is, if Tenant for life or years do not repair the Wall, for which cauſe the Land is drowned, or becomes impaſſible, it is waſte: But if the Land be drowned by ſudden violence of the Sea, which is the Act of God, the ſame is not waſte. Et Lex non cogit ad Impoſſibilia. Cook 10. Part, 139. in Leighs Caſe.

4. If there be Lord and Tenant by Rent-Service, and the Lord releaſeth unto his Tenant for ſo long time as J. S. hath Heirs of his Body, and 60 years paſs; and afterwards J. S. dyeth, without Heir of his Body: In that Caſe, although 60 years were paſt, ſo as the Lord could not have ſeizin of the Rent; yet in that Caſe it was holden, That he might diſtrain for the Rent-ſervice, becauſe it was impoſſible that he ſhould gain any ſeiſin of the Rent or Service within that time. Et impotentia excuſat Legem. Cook 4. Part, in Bevils Caſe.

5. The Lady M. Tenant for life of the Manner of B. the remainder in Fee to the Lady Finch, ſhe and S. her Husband, and D. levied a Fine to one of the Denizens, who grants and renders to B. for 50 years, the reverſion to C. and his wife, and their Heirs, with Proviſo in the Deeds which directed the Fine, that the Reverſioner ſhall Enter, and hold Courts: And it was averred, That this was known by the name of the Manner of B; D. maketh his Son of the age of three years, his Executor: Adminiſtration was committed to R. T; S. and his wife levie a Fine of all the Lands of the Wife in R. except the Manner of B. to the uſe of his Wife for life, the remainder to S; M. F. R. T. demiſe to P. L. for 13 years. The Lady M. dyeth; P. L. entreth by vertue of a Power and Revocation and Limitation of new uſes: S. with the aſſent of the Lady F. his Wife, limited the uſes to one who ouſted P. L. and maketh a Feoffment unto the uſe of the Lady F. for life, the remainder to H. F. in tail, P. L. re-enters, the Lady F. dyeth, and H. F. diſtrains for the Rent. In this Caſe, amongſt many other points, It was Reſolved, 1. That when the Reverſion is ſetled in any in Judgment of Law, and he hath no poſſible means to compel the Tenant to Attorn, and no Lacheſſe is in him, that in ſuch caſe he ſhall avow, and have an Action of Waſte without Attornment. That in this Caſe there was no Lacheſſe in the Conuſee to have Attornment, although he hath recited the particular eſtates in the Fine, for preſently after the Conuſans, and before the Fine engroſſed, the Reverſion paſſed to the Conuſee, & eo inſtante, was executed by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes; ſo as it was not poſſible to have a Quid Juris clamat, nor other remedy, to compel the Tenant to Attorn; and for as much as by the execution of the poſſeſſion to the uſe, the benefit of the Conuſee to have Quid Juris clamat, is taken away: and it was but reaſon that the Act of Parliament ſhould not turn to the prejudice of any; for impotentia excuſat Legem, and an Act in Law ſhall not prejudice any one. Cook. 6 Part, 63. Sir Moyle Finches Caſe.

6. Tenant in Capite dieth, his Heir within age, the Heir at his full age tendred his Livery, and was admitted to it; and within the time given him to proſecute his Livery, he bargained and ſold the Lands to another in Fee, and within that time alſo dyed. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That when the Heir at his full age tendreth his Livery, that is all that the Heir can do, Then when he dyeth within the time given him to proſecute his Livery, ſo as the ſuing of it is become impoſſible by the Act of God, the Intereſt which the King had, is determined by the death of the Heir, and the Bargainee may enter and hold the Land, without any Monſtrans de Droit, or Amoves Manum. Cook 8 Part, 171. Hales Caſe.

7. In

7. In a Quod permittat, the Plaintiff Declared, That the Defendant erected upon his Free-hold, a Houſe ſo neer the Houſe of the Plaintiffs, Quod pars ejuſdem Domus, ſuperpendit the Houſe of the Plaintiffs in Latitudine 17. inches, and in length 17 Feet, ad nocumentum lib. tent. ſui. It was Objected in that Caſe, That the Plaintiff ought to alledge a Nuſance certain, ſo that the rain did fall from the Houſe newly erected, upon the Plaintiffs houſe, or that his Houſe was ſpoiled with the rain. But it was Reſolved, That the Plaintiffs in their Declaration needed not to alledge any ſpecial Nuſance, becauſe that in this Caſe, the Plaintiff had erected a new Houſe which hung over the Plaintiffs houſe, ſo that of neceſſity the rain which falls, muſt fall upon the Plaintiffs Houſe: Et Lex non requirit verificari, quod conſtat Curiæ. Cook 8. Part, 53. Bottens Caſe.

8. A man having three ſons by his Wife ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, in conſideration of Natural Affection, and to the end that the Tenements might continue in his Name, Covenanted by Indenture, That he and his Heirs would ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Lands, to the uſe of himſelf, for life; and after his deceaſe, to the uſe of his Wife for life; and after their Deceaſes, of the moyty to the uſe of his ſecond ſon in Tail, and of the other moyty of the third Son in Tail. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That a Conſideration which ſtands with the Deed, and was not repugnant to it, might be averred. 2. Reſolved, That admit that another Conſideration then is expreſſed, might be averred, yet in this caſe, here is an expreſs Conſideration in it ſelf; for when he limits it to the uſe of his Wife for her life, the ſame implies a ſufficient conſideration in it ſelf, and needs not any averment; Et manifeſta probatione non indigent. Cook 7. Part, 140. Bedells Caſe.

9. If an Action upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. of buying of pretended Titles, be brought; if the Plaintiff ſheweth in his Declaration, that neither the Defendant, nor any of his Anceſtors, nor any other by whom he claims, were in poſſeſſion of the Land, &c. by the ſpace of a year, the Plaintiff in ſuch caſe need not aver the Title to be pretended; for the Statute it ſelf maketh the right of him which hath not been in poſſeſſion, to be pretended; and therefore to aver that which appears plainly by the Statute it ſelf, and by the Declaration, is vain and needleſs. See Plow. Com. Strange and Partridges Caſe. 87.

Note, It was Reſolved by the Court, That if the King be Tenant in Tail, by the Gift of any of his Anceſtors being ſubjects. That upon a Fine levied upon a Grant and Rendee he may bar the Eſtate Tail; and in ſuch Caſe, no averment by the Iſſue in Tail, Quod partes finis nihil habuerunt, ſhall be good: And it is reaſon, That if the King ſhall have benefit of the Statute of 4 H. 7. and 32 H. 8. And when the King claims in his Natural Capacity, per formam Doni, he ſhall be barred by the ſaid Act: But in that Caſe it was ſaid, It was neceſſary to have Letters Patents to Grant to the Conuſee that he may enter into the Land; for otherwiſe the fine being executory upon a Grant and Render, it might be doubted if the Conuſee without ſuch Grant, might enter upon the King. Cook 7. Part, The Caſe of Fine levied by the King, Tenant in Tail. 32.

10. The Cuſtome of London was ſet forth to be, That no perſon whatſoever, not being Free of the City, ſhall by any colour, way, or means whatſoever, directly or indirectly, by himſelf, or by any other, keep any ſhop, or any other place whatſoever, inward or outward, to put to ſale any Wares, or Merchandizes, by way of Retail; or uſe any Trade, Myſterie, or Handicraft, for hire, gain, or ſale within the City; upon pain of forfeiture for every time 5 l. In this Caſe, The City having ſet forth their Charter, It was Objected, That they had not averred the ſaid Conſtitution to be according to their Charter, the ſame conſiſting of divers miſchiefs and remedies, which ought to have been averred: But the Opinion of the Court was, That the Conſtitution there made, being agreeable to their Charter, and warranted by their Charter, the ſame needed not to be averred: And See, there No prize of money ſhall be expreſſed in the Writ, becauſe it appeareth of it ſelf, 46 E. 3. 16. So 11 H. 4. 17. If the Son within age bringeth an Aſſiſe of Mortdanceſter, he need not aver that it is within the time of Limitation, becauſe it appeareth to the Court. Cook 8. Part, 126. The Caſe of the City of London.

3. Expreſſio eorum, quæ tacitè inſunt, nihil operatur.

1. A Poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 15 years, of the Rectory of S. to which a Vicarage was Appendant, Granted the next avoidance of the Vicarage to B. if it ſhould become void during the ſaid term, and dyed Inteſtate; His Adminiſtrator ſurrendred the Rectory to him in the Reverſion, and then before the expiration of the ſaid term of 15 years, the Vicarage became void: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That notwithſtanding the ſaid ſurrender, that B. ſhould have the next avoidance, becauſe the Limitation before ſcil. if it ſhould become void, imported no more then what the Law would would have ſaid, if it had been omitted. Cook 8 Part, 145. in Davenports Caſe.

2. Queen Eliz. made a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent, payable at the Receipt of the Exchequer at Weſtminſter, ſeu ad manus Baliorum, ſeu Receptorum, with Condition to be void for non-payment of the Rent, and afterwards Granted the Reverſion, and when the Patentee ſhall demand the Rent, to take advantage of the Condition, was the queſtion. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That if a Common perſon reſerve a Rent upon a Demiſe, he who will take advantage of the Condition for non-payment of the Rent, ought to demand the Rent at the place where it is limitted to be paid; for the payment of the Rent off from the Land, doth not alter the Quality of the Rent. 2. That if the King makes a Leaſe, rendring Rent with ſuch Condition, the King ſhall take advantage of the Condition, without any demand; but that is by his Prerogative, which is perſonal only: But if the King Granteth over the Reverſion, the Grantee or Patentee ought to demand the Rent upon the Land; and the limitting of the payment of the Rent at the Receipt of the Exchequer in the Kings Caſe, is no more then the Law would have Ordered, if no place at all had been named in the Patent; But Reſolved, That the Patentee ought to demand the Rent upon the Land; Et expreſſio eorum quæ tacitè inſunt, nihil operatur. Cook 4. Part, 72. Boroughs Caſe.

3. A Leaſe is made to two, for Term of their lives, & diutius eorum viventi, and afterwards they make partition, and the one dyeth, and he in the Reverſion entereth: It was holden, That his Entry was lawful, notwithſtanding thoſe words, Et diutius eorum viventi; for without thoſe words, ſo much was implyed in Law. 17 E. 3. Hall's Caſe. Upon which Cook obſerveth, That in caſe of a Leaſe for life, it is more beneficial for the Leſſee to have the Joynture ſevered, then to have it to continue; but otherwiſe it is in a Leaſe for years: for if a man makes a Leaſe for years to two, with a Proviſo, that if the Leſſee dyeth within the Term, that the Term ſhall ceaſe, the Leſſees make partition, or one alieneth his part, and dyeth, the Leſſee ſhall not enter into his part that is dead, but the Grantee, or the Executors of the Leſſee, ſhall have it: Cook 4. Part, 73. acc.

4. A. ſeized of Lands in Fee, deviſeth the ſame to Husband, and Wife, and a Stranger, Habendum to the Husband and Wife for their lives, the Remainder to the Stranger for his life, rendering, during their lives, yearly 40 l. rent at Mich. and our Lady; the Husband dyeth, afterwards A. by Indenture in Conſideration of 10 l. to him paid, Demiſeth, Granteth, and to Farm Letts, the ſame Lands to J. S. Habendum to him, from the day of the date of the Indenture, for 99 years, rendring and paying during the ſaid Term to J. S. &c. the yearly rent of 40 s. at the Feaſt of our Lady, and S. Mich. and the Wife did not Attorn. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That the words of [Demiſe and Grant] for conſideration of money, did amount to a Bargain and Sale of the ſaid Lands for years, and it ſhall be executed preſently, by the Statute of 27 H. 8. and that there needed no Inrolment of it, becauſe but a Term for years paſſed; and there needed no Attornment, becauſe it was executed by the Statute, and the intent of the parties was, that it paſs preſently, becauſe the rent was to be paid preſently, Cook 8 Part, Edward Foxes Caſe.

4. Quilibet poteſt renunciare juri pro ſe introducto.

1. LOrd and Tenant by Fealty, and 20 s. Rent: the Lord by his Deed confirmeth the eſtate of his Tenant to hold by 12 d. This is a good diſcharge to the Tenant of all the other Services, and he ſhall render nothing to the Lord but what is compriſed in the Confirmation. For the Lord by his Confirmation to hold by leſs Services, hath abridged himſelf of the power and intereſt which was before lawfully veſted in him. Litt. 538. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 305.

2. The Father ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, made a Feoffment to the uſe of his Son and Heir apparent, upon Condition. Afterwards the Father and the Son joyned in a Grant of a Rent-charge, the Condition was broken, and the Father entred: the Queſtion was, if the Father ſhould hold the Land charged. It was Objected, That the Grant of the Father was pleaded as a Confirmation, and a Confirmation cannot make an eſtate which is ſubject to a Condition, abſolute. But it was Reſolved, That the Charge was good. For it was Reſolved, That it is a Rule in Law, That all Lands in Feeſimple may be charged one way or other, and therefore when all thoſe who have Intereſt in the Land joyn in the Grant of the Rent; the Grant is good. Cook 1. Part, 146. Anne Mayors Caſe.

3. A man at this day, may give Lands to a Biſhop, Parſon, and their Succeſſors in Frankalmoigne by conſent of the King, and of the Lords mediate, and immediate, of whom the Lands are holden, becauſe Quilibet poteſt renunciare juri pro ſe introducto; And a Confirmation may be at this day to any Eccleſiaſtical perſon, to hold to him and his Succeſſors in Frankalmoigne, becauſe no new Service is reſerved. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 98.

4. If

4. If a man make a gift in tail to one of Lands upon Condition, That he ſhall not make a Leaſe for three lives, or 21 years, which otherwiſe he might do by the Statute of 32 H. 8. this is a good Condition to reſtrein him from making of ſuch Leaſes. For notwithſtanding that the Statute doth give him power to make ſuch Leaſes; yet that power may be reſtreyned by his own agreement, becauſe the power is not incident to the eſtate, but is given him collaterally by the Act of Parliament. Cook 1. Part, Inſt. 203.

5. A. ſeiſed of two Mannors, enfeoffed thereof divers perſons, to the intent that they ſhould reconvey them to A. and B. whom he intended to Marry, and the Heirs of the body of A. A. and B. married, and had iſſue C. A. dyed, C. in the life of B. Tenant of the Freehold, ſuffered a common Recovery, with ſingle voucher, to the intent that the Recoverers make a Feoffment to uſes, which Feoffment and Releaſe with Warranty, were made accordingly. And whether the collateral Warranty was a bar unto the Demandant, who was Heir in tail, or was void by the Statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 20. was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other things, That when the Heir in tail conveyes the Land unto another, and the Releaſe or Confirmation of the Wife with Warranty, is but to perfect and ſtrengthen the eſtate which the Heir in tail hath made, ſuch a Warranty is not reſtreyned by the Statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 20. becauſe it ſhall be intended to his benefit, and not to his prejudice: And in this Caſe, it was ſaid, That the Wife with the Heir might have barred, the Eſtate tail by Fine, and then the Statute will not reſtrain the Warranty made by the Wife to him who hath the Land by the Conveyance of the Tenant in tail. Cook 4. Part, 60. Lincolne Colledges Caſe.

6. A man poſſeſſed of a houſe, and of half an Acre of Land for 5000 years, by his Will did Deviſe the ſaid houſe and Land to A. his Father for the Term of his life, and after his deceaſe, the Remainder of the ſaid houſe and Land to B. Siſter of the Deviſor, and to the Heirs of the body of B. and made A. his Executor, and dyed: A. proved the Will, and entred. B. took Husband, the Huſband and Wife at the requeſt of A. did Grant, Releaſe, Surrender, Aſſign, and yield up to A. the ſaid houſe and Land, with all their Right, Intereſt and Term in the Premiſes; Habendum præt. durante reſiduo Termini dict. 5000 years then to come. A. Deviſed the houſe and Land to C. for 10 years, the Husband dyed, B. took another Husband: A. dyed, the Wife and the ſecond Husband entred into the houſe and Land. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That ſuch a poſſibility (as was in the Caſe at bar) might be extinguiſhed by Grant, or Releaſe to him who is in poſſeſſion, becauſe it is a Maxime in Law, That every Right, Title, or Intereſt in præſenti, vel in futuro, by the joyning of all thoſe who may claim any ſuch Right, Title, or Intereſt, may be barred, and here both conſent to it, the one in Releaſing, the other in accepting of it, therefore the Right of B. is extinct, and the Intereſt of A. which was determinable by his death, is by this Releaſe made abſolute during the Term. Cook 10. Part, 48. Lampits Caſe.

5. Fortior eſt diſpoſitio Legis quam Hominis.

1. If a Reverſion of Tenant for life be granted by Fine to another and his Heirs, and the Grantee before Attornment, dyeth without Heir, ſo as the Reverſion Eſcheats to the Lord. If afterwards the Tenant for life doth commit Waſte, the Lords ſhall have an Action of Waſte againſt him, although he never attorned to the Grant: and the reaſon is, becauſe the Lord is in by Eſcheat, which is a meer act in Law. So it is when the party is in partly by act of Law, and partly by the Grant of the party. As where the Conuſee of a Statute Merchant, or of the Staple extendeth a Seignory, or a Rent, he ſhall diſtrein without an Attornment, becauſe he is in by force of the Statute. And ſo it is if a man makes a Leaſe for life, or years, and afterwards levyes a Fine to A. to the uſe of B. and his Heirs, B. ſhall diſtrein, and have an Action of Waſte, although the Conuſee never had any Attornment, becauſe the Reverſion is veſted in him by force of the Statute, and he hath no means to compel the Leſſee to Attorn. Cook 5. Part, 113. in Malories Caſe.

2. If a man maketh a Leaſe for years of Lands to begin at Mich. next, this is but a future Intereſt which cannot be ſurrendred, becauſe there is no Reverſion wherein it may be drowned. But yet in ſuch Caſe, by a ſurrender in Law, it may be drowned. And therefore in ſuch Caſe, If before Mich. the Leſſee taketh a new Leaſe of the ſame Land, either to begin preſently, or at Mich. it is a ſurrender of the former Leaſe. So as a ſurrender in Law is of greater force then a ſurrender in fact. Cook 6. Part, 96. in Sir Moile Finches Caſe.

3. If the Father enfeoffeth his Son and Heir apparent with Warranty, and dyeth, the Heir being in truth Aſſignee, ſhall vouch, for the Law which hath determined the Warranty of the Father to the Son, will give the Son the benefit of the firſt Warranty.

rant. And ſo if A. Leſſee for 50 years demiſeth to B. for 10 years, and then he in the Reverſion levyes a Fine to B. and his Heirs, who enſeoffs J. S. who outs B. and B. re-entreth upon J. S. then entry of B. is a good attornment in Law, and ſtronger then an expreſs Attornment. Cook 6. Part, 96. ibid.

4. In an Information upon Intruſion, it was found, That the King was ſeiſed of a Rectory, and by his Letters Patents demiſed the ſame to the Wardens of the Church of S. for 21 years. And afterwards the King by other Letters Patents reciting the ſaid Leaſe, which Letters Patents, and all their Eſtate, Intereſt, and Term of years, Gardiani prædict. modo habentes, et ad preſens poſſidentes nobis ſurſum reddiderunt, et reſtituerunt cancelland. quam quidem ſurſum-redditionem acceptamus in conſideratione ſurſum-reddit prædict. et pro ſine 20 l. ad recept. Scaccarii per præfat. Gardianos ſol. demiſed the ſaid Rectory to the Guardians of the ſaid Church for 50 years. And it was found, That the Guardians of the ſaid Church at the time of the making of the ſaid Leaſe for 50 years, ſurrendred and yeilded up the ſaid Letters Patents, cancelled, and paid the Fees in Chancery for the Cancelling of them, but no vacat was made of the Enrolment of them, and that the Defendants entred into the Rectory by force of the ſecond Leaſe. In this Caſe, thoſe points were Reſolved. 1. That in this Caſe, there needed not any actual ſurrender, becauſe that theſe words (modo habentes, et ad preſens poſſidentes) proved, That at the making of the ſaid Letters Patents, the Guardians had the Leaſe for years in them; and by the acceptance of the new Leaſe, the Eſtate for years was ſurrendred: And in Judgment of Law, the ſurrender doth precede the new Grant, and that the King is not prejudiced in his Eſtate, Intereſt, or value, or remedy: And although a Corporation cannot make an expreſs ſurrender without Deed under their Seal, yet they may by Act in Law, ſurrender all their Term without writing, Et fortior eſt diſpoſitio legis quam hominis. Cook 10. Part, 67. The Guardians of the Church of St. Saviours in Southwarks Caſe.

5. The Eſtate of a Tenant in tail, after poſſibility of Iſſue extinct, ought to be the reſidue of an Eſtate tail by the Act of God, and not by limitation of the party; ex diſpoſitione legis, non ex proviſione hominis. And therefore, If a man make a gift in tail upon Condition, That if he do ſuch an Act, that then he ſhall have it but for life, he is not Tenant in tail after poſſibility of Iſſue extinct, for this is ex proviſione hominis, not ex diſpoſitione legis, but it ought to be the reſidue of an Eſtate tail, and that by the Act of God. Cook 11. Part, 80. in Lewis Bowles Caſe.

6. If a man be taken in Execution, and be ſuffered to eſcape by the Sheriff, this is an abſolute diſcharge of the Debt, and the Plaintiff is no have his remedy againſt the Sheriff by Action of Debt. But if a Member of Parliament be Arreſted by a Sheriff, upon an Execution, and afterwards he be freed by Priviledg of Parliament, which the Law gives him, this is no diſcharge of the Debt, but that when he ceaſeth to be a Member, he may be Arreſted again upon the ſame Judgment. 35 H. 8. Dyer, 60.

7. If a man maketh a Leaſe for Term of years upon Condition, That if the Leſſee Aſſign the Term without aſſent of the Leſſor, That then the Leſſor may re-enter, and the Leſſee deviſeth his Term by his Will to another without aſſent; It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That this was a forfeiture, becauſe the Deviſee ſhall be ſaid to be in by the Aſſignment, that the Deviſor made during his life; but if the Executor had enjoyed the Term, it had bin no forfeiture, becauſe in that Caſe, the Law makes the Aſſignment. 31 H. 8. Dyer, 45.

8. If the Diſſeiſee releaſeth all Actions to the Heir of the Diſſeiſor in Judgment of Law his right is gone, for when a man hath not any other means to come by his Land, but only by way of Action. If he releaſe all Actions, his right inclusive in Judgment of Law is gone, becauſe by his own Act, he hath barred himſelf of all means to recover it. But if the Heir of the Diſſeiſor maketh a Leaſe for life, the Remainder in Fee, and the Diſſeiſee Releaſeth to the Tenant for life all Actions which he hath againſt him; and after Tenant for life dyeth, the Diſſeiſee ſhall have an Action notwithſtanding ſuch Releaſe againſt him in the Remainder, for he did but releaſe the Action, and the Law will not extend the Act of the party more largely then his expreſs words. As if the Lord Diſſeiſe his Tenant, and maketh a Leaſe for life; This Releaſe in Law ſhall not extend further then for the life of the Leſſee: For as it is true, Fortior et potentior eſt diſpoſitio legis quam hominis; So it is as true, Fortior et æquior eſt diſpoſitio legis quam hominis. Cook 8. Part, 152. in Edward Allhams Caſe.

Thus far of ſome Rules and Maxims in Law, and Caſes upon them.

Leaſes.

1. What ſhall be ſaid a Leaſe for years, or for life; and by what Deeds or Words, what not: Where a Leaſe for years may be by Fine. Of Leaſes at Will; and what ſhall be ſaid a good Leaſe at Will; and what a Determination of it.

2. J. S. Parſon of a Rectory, demiſed the ſame to E. for eighty years, if the ſhould ſo long live, and if ſhe dyed within the ſaid Term of 80. years, or alliened, that then her eſtate ſhould ceaſe, and then the ſame ſhou'd remain to A. for and during the reſidue of the ſaid Term of 80 years, if he ſhould ſo long live. And that if he ut ſupra, &c. that then his Eſtate ſhould ceaſe, and that then it ſhould remain to W. pro et durante totanuis dicti Termini 80 annorum. If, &c. And if he alliened ut ſupra, that then his Eſtate ſhould ceaſe; And then the ſaid J. S. conceſſit premiſſa durante tot annis de prædict. 80 annis quæ ad tunc continuerunt et remanerunt inexpirat. to T. his Executors and Aſſigns. J. S. dyed, T. dyed, E. and R. dyed, the Adminiſtrator of T. entred, and aſſigned the ſame over. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the demiſes to R. and W. were void, becauſe the Eſtate which E. had, was not for 80 years abſolutely, but ſub modo. Then the Demiſe to them pro tot annis quod remanerent poſt mortem dicta E. pro et durante reſiduo Termini prædict 80. annorum, was void, becauſe there could not be a Remainder of the ſaid Term, becauſe the ſame determined by the death of E. 2. Reſolved, That the limitation to T. was void for the Incertainty, for it was incertain at the making of the Leaſe, how many years ſhould be remaining at the time of the death of E. S. 7 E. 6. Br; Leaſes 154. But it was holden, That where a man was poſſeſſed of a Term for 90 years, and he in conſideration of Marriage, Demiſed the Land to his Son for 70 years, to begin after his death, and after the Leſſor dyed. It was adjudged, That the ſame was a good Leaſe, becauſe in that Caſe he Demiſed the Land, and not the Term; and in the Demiſe of the Land, there was ſufficient certainty, 35 Eliz. in B. R. Lecroſts Caſe. 3. Reſolved, That the Demiſe and limitation to T. was not good, becauſe that R. and W. ſurvived T. which was againſt the expreſs limitation, for his Eſtate was limited upon two Contingents; and for that cauſe the Leaſe to him was void. Cook 2. Part, 154, 155. The Rector of Chedingtons Caſe.

2. A man ſeiſed of Lands, had Iſſue two Sons, A. and B. A. had Iſſue two Daughters, and B. had Iſſue C. a Son, and he deviſed his Lands to his Executors for the payment of his Debts, untill C. being of the age of 9 years ſhould come to his age of 21 years, and when C. commeth to the age of 21 years: That then he ſhould enjoy the Lands to him and his Heirs, and dyes. C. before he came of the age of 21 years, dyed; his Heir entred, and made a Leaſe for years, the two Daughters entred, and the Heir re-entred; and his entry was adjudged lawfull. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Intereſt of the Executors ſhould not ceaſe, although that C. dyed before the age of 21 years. For in Wills, the Intent of the Deviſor ſhall be conſidered. And when he Deviſeth the Lands to his Executors for the payment of his Debts, it is intended that he hath made computation, That the profits of the Lands for 12 years, would ſuffice to pay his Debts; and therefore he did not intend that the ſame ſhould determine by the death of the Son: And this was taken for a Rule, When the Deviſor might by apt words, by good advice, make his Will good and ſufficient in Law, according to his intent, there although the Deviſor being hindred by ſickneſs, makes his Will in diſordered manner, and by unapt words; yet the Law ſhall reduce theſe words into good Order, according to his intent; and therefore theſe words, (untill ſuch time as C. ſhall come to the age of 21 years,) ſhall be conſtrued, untill ſuch time as C. ſhould have come to his age of 21 years. And in this Caſe, it was alſo adjudged, That the Remainder was good. Cook 3. Part, 19. Borraſtons Caſe.

3. Tenant in tail of certain Lands, entred into a houſe built upon the Land, and ſaid, Brother, I here demiſe unto you my houſe, as long as I live, paying 20 l. per annum to me, and finding me my Boord and waſhing, and keeping a horſe. It was adjudged by the whole Court, That that was not any Leaſe, for life becauſe it wanted Livery, for to every Leaſe is requiſite, either an Act which the Law ſhall adjudg Livery, or apt words which amount unto it; but if he had delivered a Turf, Twig, or any thing which came of the Land, it had bin a good Livery. So if he had ſaid, Enter into the Land, and enjoy it during your life, the ſame is a good Livery. Cook 6. Part, 26. Sharps Caſe. See Hil. 35 Eliz. in B. R. Callard and Callards Caſe. Poph. 47.

4. The Biſhop made a Leaſe of a Manner to A. and B. for 60 years, without impeachment of Waſte, rendring Rent. Proviſo, That if the ſaid

A.

A. and B. dyed within the ſaid Term, and preſently after the deceaſe of the ſaid A. and B. and the longer liver of them, that it ſhould be lawful for the Biſhop and his Succeſſors to re-enter. A. dyed, B. ſurvived, the Biſhop dyed: The Succeſſor leaſed the Mannor to C. Habendum cum, poſt, five per mortem ſuſum-reddit, or forfeiture prædict. B. it ſhould be void for 60 years, which was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter, and afterwards Granted the Reverſion to D. in Fee. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That every Leaſe for years ought to have a certain commencement when it ſhall take effect in Intereſt or poſſeſſion. Alſo every Leaſe ought to have a certain continuance, and a certain end, but that is to be intended when a Term is made certain by expreſs numbring of the years, or by reducing of it to a certainty by matter ex poſt facto. 2. Reſolved, That the ſecond Leaſe veſted preſently in Intereſt, and did not depend upon any contingency to take effect in poſſeſſion, or with the end of the firſt Term, if by none of the three former means the firſt Leaſe became void in the mean time. And therefore it was Reſolved, That if a man maketh a Leaſe for years to begin after the ſurrender, determination, forfeiture or end of the firſt Leaſe, the Leſſee hath an after Election to have the ſecond Leaſe, either upon ſurrender, or forfeiture, or end, which he ſhall pleaſe, but which of them ſhall firſt happen; the ſecond Leaſe which before conſiſted in Intereſt ſhall begin in poſſeſſion. Cook 6. Part, 35. The Biſhop of Bathes Caſe.

5. If a man Deviſeth, That J. S. ſhall have the Occupation and profits of his Land, the ſame is a good Leaſe of the Land, and he who hath the Occupation and profits, may Plow and ſow the Land. Plow. Com. 541. But the King cannot Plow and Sow the Land which he hath, by reaſon of Outlawry in a perſonal Action, for the King ſhall have but the profits which do ariſe of themſelves of the Land, without Plowing or Sowing of it. 5 H. 7. 1. And if a man do Covenant by Indenture, That he will permit that J. S. ſhall Occupy his Land from March next following, for ſeven years, or till the end of ſeven years; this is no Leaſe, becauſe it is but a future act, as it was holden by Manwood Juſtice. Mich. 20 Eliz.

6. A man makes a Leaſe for life by Deed. Proviſo, That if the Leſſee dyeth within 60 years, That his Executors ſhall have ſo many of the 60 years as ſhall be to come at the time of his death; the ſame was holden by the Juſtices to be but a Covenant, and not a Leaſe by reaſon of the incertainty. 3 and 4 Ma. Dyer, 150. Gravener's Caſe.

7. If a man maketh a Leaſe to one for 21 years the firſt day of May, and he makes the ſame day another Leaſe to another for 21 years, to begin preſently alſo, the ſame is void, if it be not by Deed Indented, or Fine, although the Termor who had the firſt Leaſe ſurrenders during the Term: And if it be made by Deed Indented, or Fine, then the Leſſor is eſtopped to ſay, that he had not the Land in poſſeſſion at the time of the ſecond Leaſe. 15 Eliz. Plow. Com. 434. in Smith and Stapleton Caſe.

8. A man had Iſſue two Sons, and, by Deed, in conſideration of Marriage, gave Lands to his younger Son, and to his Heirs after his death, but no Livery was made; the Father dyed, the eldeſt Son entred, and being ouſted by the younger, brought an Action. It was Objected in this Caſe, That the Eſtate paſſed to the younger Son by way of Covenant. But it was adjudged, That it did not enure by way of Covenant to raiſe an uſe to the younger Son; but by the word (Give) it ſhall be conſtrued to paſs an Eſtate by tranſmutation of poſſeſſion, which is not good, if Livery be not made. Mich. 15 Car. in B. R. Pirſield and Percies Caſe. Marſh.

9. Although that every Leaſe for years ought to have a certain beginning, and a certain end; yet the continuance of it may be uncertain, becauſe it may ceaſe and revive again. As if Tenant in tail maketh a Leaſe for years, and dyeth without Iſſue, his Wife with child with a Son, and he in the Reverſion entreth, the Leaſe as to him is void, but after the Son is born, the Leaſe is revived again, and ſtands good againſt him. Paſc. 2 Ma. in the Exchequer. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 46. acc.

10. A Leaſe is made to Huſband and Wife for their lives, the Remainder to the Executors of the ſurvivor of them; the Huſband Grants away the Term and dyes. It was adjudged, That the ſame ſhould not bar the Wife, becauſe it had but a poſſibility, and not an Intereſt. Hill. 17 Eliz. in B. R. adjudged. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 46.

11. If Tenant in tail, and one A. levyeth a Fine to a ſtranger of Lands, who Granteth and reſdreth to A. for years, rendring Rent, and by the ſame Fine, grants the Reverſion in Fee to Tenant in tail, and his Heirs, this is a good Leaſe for years: and although that all be by one Fine in one Inſtant, yet in Judgment of Law, the Leaſe doth precede the Grant of the Reverſion. And ſo it was adjudged in White and Whites Caſe. Mich. 42 Eliz. in C. B. Cook 1. Part, 76. in Bredons Caſe. Cook 1. Part, 174. Diggs Caſe, acc.

12. A man ſeiſed of Land in Fee, enfeoffed ſeveral perſons, upon Condition, That they ſhould give back the Land to him, and his Wife in tail, the Remainder to his right Heirs; they have Iſſue a Son, the Husband dyeth; the Son in the life of the Wife levied a Fine with Proclamations to A: the wife entred, and made a Leaſe for 3. Lives not warranted by the Statute of 32 H. 8: the Conuſee re-entred; and his Entry was adjudged lawfull. It was Reſolved in this caſe, That the Leaſe made by the wife, although it was without warranty, was within the Statute of 11 H. 7. Cap. 20. for a Diſcontinuance ſtands in equall degree with a Warranty. 2. Reſolved, That the Conuſee might enter for the Forfeiture, becauſe by the Fine, the Eſtate tail is barred, and now he is ſuch perſon to whom the Intereſt, Title, and Inheritance after the death of the wife, doth appertain. And in this Caſe, it was agreed, That if a Woman Tenant in tail accept a Fine ſur Conuſans de Droit come ceo. and thereby grant and render the Land for 1000. years, that the ſame is an Alienation within the Statute of 11 H. 7. Cap. 20. Note out of that Caſe, That a Leaſe may be made by years by Fine. Cook 3. Part, 51. in Sir George Brown's Caſe. See 3 & 4 Mar. Dyer, 148. and Hill. 18 Eliz. in C.B. by all the Judges adjudged accordingly.

12. A Mannor which did conſiſt of Free-Rents of 7 l. Copy-Rents of 3 l. and of Demeaſns which had uſed to be demiſed for ſeveral Rents and Fines of 7 l. To which Mannor an Acre of Waſte parcel of the ſaid Mannor of the value of 12 d. Heriots, Court Baron, Leet, and perquiſites of Court, which were never demiſed for Life, Years, or otherwiſe, was by a private Act of Parliament in 27 H. 8. given to A. and B. in Tail, with diverſe remainders over. By which Act the Donees were reſtrained, Quod non faceret aliquod ad Nocumentum, or Diſenhereſon of the Iſſue in Tail, or of them in Remainder, and that they ſhould have power to make a Leaſe for life, years, or at Will, rendring the true and ancient Rent, and that all other Acts ſhould be void. Tenant in Tail accepted a Fine of a Stranger ſur conuſans de droit, by which he granted and rendred the Mannor for 300 years rendring Rent, yearly amounting to the Free, Copyhold, and firme Rents, and 18 d. more, and 12 d. for the Waſte to be paid at two Feaſts, whereas the ancient Rent was payable at four Feaſts. Tenant in Tail dyed, and if the Leaſe for 300. years, was to be avoided by the Clauſe in the Act of Reſtraint, was the Queſtion. In this Caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That this Leaſe was good againſt Tenant in Tail himſelf, but ſhould be avoided by the Iſſues. 2. That the Rent being entire, (the Acre of Waſte not being before demiſed) could not be ſaid to be the true and ancient Rent. 3. That the Reſervation at two Feaſts, where the ancient Rent was at four Feaſts, was void, for that it was ad Nocumentum of the Iſſues in Tail, and all Beneficial Qualities of the Rent ought to be reſerved and obſerved. 4. Reſolved, That although there might be an apportionment of the Rent, after the death of the Tenant in Tail; yet that would not make the Leaſe by the Grant and Render to be good: for that if the true and ancient Rent was not reſerved yearly during the life of the Tenant in Tail, the power which the Tenant in Tail had, was not purſued. Cook 3. Part. The Lord Mountjoy's Caſe.

13. R. Earl of Suſſex, ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannor of B, made a Leaſe of the ſame to the King for 21. years, and dyed; the Mannor diſcended to T. Earl of S: Anno 5 Mar. it was Enacted by Parliament, That the Lady Frances, Wife of the ſaid R, ſhould hold and enjoy the ſame during the Widowhood of the ſaid Lady F: Provided, That it ſhould be lawful for the ſaid Earl by writing Indented, to make Leaſes for one and twenty years, rendring the Auncient Rent. Afterwards, the ſaid Earl made a Leaſe of the ſaid Mannor for 21 years, to begin at the Feaſt of St. Michael then next following. In this Caſe, although that the power was general, to make Leaſes for 21. years, without being reſtrained to make them either in poſſeſſion or reverſion, or to any number of years; yet it was adjudged, That the ſaid Leaſe was void, for two cauſes: 1. If by the ſaid power he may make any future Leaſe or Leaſes in Reverſion, he may make a Leaſe for 21. in poſſeſſion, and afterwards infinite Leaſes in Reverſion for 21. years, which was contrary to the meaning of the parties; and ſo the expreſſing of the 21. years was in vain, and the Proviſo ſhould alſo be idle and vain. 2. Becauſe the Proviſo ſhall be taken ſtrict, and not extend beyond the letter and meaning of the parties: And if I be bound to make a Leaſe to you for 21. years indefinitely, the Leaſe ought to begin preſently, and not in futuro. See Cook 6. Part, 34. in Fitz-Williams Caſe. Trin. 21 Eliz. in B.R. Leeper and Wyatts Caſe. Leon. 35.

14. In a Replevin, the Caſe was; The Lady Moyle ſeiſed of the Mannor of B. in the County of K. for life, the Remainder to K. Lady Finch in Fee: the Lady F. took to husband Nicholas Saint Leger; and afterwards he and his Wife, and one J. D. levied a Fine of all the Demeſnes of the ſaid Mannor (by certain quantity of Acres which did include all the Demeans) to F. and his heirs, who granted and rendred the Demeſnes of the Mannor to the ſaid J. S. for 50. years, from the Feaſt of St. Mich. then laſt paſt, rendring Rent, and granted the Reverſion to St. Leger, and the Lady Finch, and to the heirs of the Lady Finch: which Fine was levied according to certain Indentures between the parties, to certain uſes. In this caſe, amongſt many other Points, it was Reſolved, That the ſaid Leaſe for 50 years made by

Gears

Grant and Render by the ſaid Fine, was a good Leaſe for years. Cook 6. Part, 63. Sir Moyle Finch's Caſe.

15. Leſſee for 40. years of a houſe deviſed the ſame to J. S. without limiting any eſtate: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Deviſee ſhould have the whole Term; for he cannot have it for life, nor at Will; nor for leſſer Terms of years. Hill. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 307.

16. A. and B. Joynt-Tenants for life; A. by Indenture Covenanted, granted, and agreed with J. S. the Defendant, that he ſhould hold and enjoy from and after the death of B, the moity of all thoſe Lands which ſhe holdeth in Joynture with B. for 60. years, if the ſaid A. ſhall ſo long live, and doth demiſe and grant the other moyty of the ſaid Lands from and after the death of the ſaid A. for 60 years, if ſhe the ſaid B. ſhall ſo long live: B. ſurvives A: The Queſtion was, If it were a good Leaſe againſt A. for any part? It was agreed by the Court, 1. That if there be two Joynt-Tenants for life, and one maketh a Leaſe for years to begin after his death, it is good to bind his Companion; and Harvy and Boltons Caſe adjudged acc. 2. Reſolved, That the words, Covenant, Grant, and Agree, that he ſhould have the Land for ſo many years, ſhall enure as a Leaſe. 3. That it was a good Leaſe of the part of A, if ſhe had ſurvived B: but that never happened, for it was to commence after her death, and to continue for 60 years, if B. lives ſo long, which never happened by the Act of God. 4. That A. had no power to charge or contract for that which belonged to B; and that her power as for that part, was void. Trin. 2 Jac. in B.R. Whitlock and Horton's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 91, 92.

17. A. poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 76. years, Let it unto B. from the day of his death, untill the 1. of May, 1629. (which was 3. moneths after the end of the Leaſe) if D. his wife lived ſo long. Afterwards he deviſed, That W. his ſon, and his Aſſignes, ſhould have the Tenements and the Reverſion of them, and all his Title and Intereſt in them, for all the other of the ſaid 76 years which ſhould be unexpired at his wives death: Provided, That if W. dyed without Iſſue, living at the time of his death, that T. his ſon ſhould have all the reſidue of the ſaid Term of 76. years, from the death of his ſaid Wife and of W, without Iſſue. And if he dyed without Iſſue, then his Daughters; and made his Wife his Executrix, and dyed. The Wife aſſented to the Legacy; W. aſſigned this Leaſe and his Intereſt to D. the Wife; who aſſigned it to the Defendant: D. dyed; W. dyed without Iſſue: T. the Deviſee entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, That Leſſee for years letting it after his death, untill the firſt of May, 1629, It was a good Leaſe, which began immediately after his death, he dying within that time. 2. That the Leaſe being made 12. Aug. 1553, if D. his Wife ſhould ſo long live, he did not thereby convey the Intereſt and the remainder of the Term; viz. from 1. May, 1629, unto 12. Aug. 1629: which Intereſt and poſſibility he might Deviſe unto W. his Son. 3. This deviſe being to W. and his Aſſigns, with a Proviſo, That if he dyed without Iſſue living, that T. ſhould have it, and afterwards he alienes it, and dyes without Iſſue, that this Alienation ſhould bind T; for when he limited it to him and his Aſſigns; the Proviſo there added to reſtrain the Alienation, is void. Hill. 15 Jac. in B. R. Child and Bayliss Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 459, 460, 461.

18. In Ejectione Firme, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of Land leaſed to N. B. and his Aſſignes for his own life, and for the lives of T. A. and J. B: afterwards the Leſſor Leaſed the Reverſion to the Plaintiff for 21. years. N. B. made a Leaſe of the ſame Lands to T, to hold at Will, and dyed: and if the Eſtate of T. was determined by the death of N. B, was the Queſtion? The Points were, 1. If by this word, Aſſignee, an Occupant ſhall have the Land. 2. When a Leaſe is made to one, and his Aſſigns, for his own life, and the life of two others, if his own life drown and confound the lives of the two others; for that it is greater to the Leſſee, then the other two liver. It was Reſolved in this caſe, That a Leaſe made unto one for his own life, the remainder to him for anothers life is good, for that he may grant it over; and ſo it was Reſolved, Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. in Faudel's Caſe. And ſo adjudged in Chambers and Goſt eks Caſe, where a Leaſe was made to two for their lives, and the life of a ſtranger, and one of the Leſſees dyed, and the Survivor granted the Land for his life, and the life of the ſtranger; and it was holden to be no forfeiture. For the other Point, it was Reſolved, That there was no queſtion, but that the Eſtate of him that firſt entred, is better then the Eſtate of him that enters under the Eſtate of the Leſſor. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Roſſe and Ardwicks Caſe. Goldeſb. 157, 158.

19. A Leaſe was made of Land to two, Habend. eis ad terminum vitæ eorum (conjunctim) et eorum diutius vivent. et aſſignatis ſuis qui primus eorum decedare contigerit, durante vita ejus qui ſuperſtes et non aliter: It was a Quære, 32 H. 8. Dyer, 46. If he that firſt dyed, ſhall aſſign all, if it be good by the words aboveſaid, or for a moyty or no? But it hath been ſince Reſolved, That he hath right but in a moyty, and that he can aſſign but the moyty; mayty; but if he make no Aſſignment at all, the Survivor ſhall have the whole. See 9 H. 6. 63. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 187.

20. The Prior of St. Johns of Jeruſalem, and his Brethren, made a Leaſe by Indenture to three at Will; one dyed: the Leſſors, 4 H. 8. by Indenture reciting the death of one, and that the firſt Indenture was ſurrendred and cancelled, they made an Eſtate to the Survivors, Habend. to them et hæredibus; but there was no Letter of Attorney to make Livery: and it was adjudged void; for by the ſurrender of the Indenture, the Eſtate at Will was determined, and ſo the ſecond Grant could not enure to them by way of Confirmation. It was there a Quære, If the death of one do not determine the Will? for that an Eſtate at Will may not ſurvive. Hill. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 269. See Cook 5. Part, 10. in Henſleds Caſe, where this Quæry is Reſolved, That the Eſtate at Will is not determined.

21. Note: It was holden by Bromley, and other Juſtices, That if the Queen at this day by her Charter grant Lands probis hominibus de J. without ſaying, To have and hold to them and their Succeſſors) rendring a Rent, That the ſame is a good Corporation perpetual to that purpoſe only, and not to other Intents, becauſe a Rent is reſerved. But in that caſe they conceived, That they were but Tenants at Will; and that if the Queen Releaſe or give to them the ſaid Rent, and Fee-Farm, thereby the Corporation is ipſo facto diſſolved; for the Rent and Farm was the cauſe of inabling them to be a Corporation. Trin. 1 Mar. Dyer, 100.

22. When a man gives Lands by Deed to one in Fee in the premiſſes of a Deed, Habend. to the Feoffee for life, the Habend. is void; and untill Livery be made, the Feoffee hath but an Eſtate at Will. Cook 2. Part, 24. in Baldwins Caſe.

2. Where a Leaſe for years made by him in the Reverſion to begin preſently, or at a day to come, (another Leaſe being in being) ſhall begin; and when it ſhall begin: And where a Leaſe for life cannot commence at a day to come.

1. NOte, by Mountague, Juſtice, Where a man makes a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent; and after makes a Leaſe of the ſame Land to begin during the firſt Term; It is a good Grant of the Reverſion, and he ſhall have the Rent being but a Chattel which is granted in Reverſion without Attornment. But Baldwin and Shelley held the contrary. See Br. Caſes. 37 H. 8. 63. 2 E. 6. Br. 379. See Plow. Com. 432. in Brathwaigets Caſe.

2. A man made a Leaſe for life unto A. by Indenture, and afterwards reciting the ſaid Leaſe, he demiſed the Remainder to B, Habendum the ſaid Remainder after the determination of the firſt Leaſe for 20 years. It was a Quære, 32 Eliz. Dyer, 46. If the Reverſion did paſſe by the name of Remainder; and if there needed any Attornment? It ſeemeth it doth paſſe, and that there ought to be Attornment. See 14 H. 8. 2. 27 H. 8. 15. And ſee Bacon. Maxims 16. If a man grants Lands to J. S. and to the heirs of his body; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, that the Land ſhall revert to J. N; that by theſe words, the Remainder ſhall paſſe.

3. A man ſeiſed of divers Mannors, and of divers Lands, part in Leaſe with Rent reſerved, part in Copyholds, upon valuable Conſideration, demiſed, granted, bargained and ſold the ſaid Mannors, Lands, &c. with all Rents reſerved upon any Demiſe, To have after the death of the Bargainor for 17. years, rendring a Roſe to his heir; the Deed was acknowledged to be enrolled; and afterwards he Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Mannors and Lands to the uſe of himſelf, and the heirs of his body, no Attornment was to the Bargainees; and afterwards the Bargainor dyed: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Leſſees ſhould have the Rent upon the Bargain and Sale without Attornment. And it was Reſolved, That the Leſſees had Election to take the ſame either by Demiſe, or by Bargain and Sale; for when a man for money demiſeth, granteth, bargaineth and ſelleth his Lands for years, the owner giveth election to the bargainee to take one way or the other: and if the Law ſhould enforce them to take by demiſe, then they ſhould loſe the Rents reſerved upon the Leaſes for years; but if the Intereſt paſſeth by Bargain and Sale, then there needs no Attornment by the Statute of 27 H. 8. of Uſes, becauſe the Statute executes the poſſeſſion to the uſe. Cook 2. Part, 35. Sir Rowland Heywards Caſe.

4. A man by Indenture reciting a former Leaſe made by him 6. Aug. 30 H. 8. Habendum, from the Feaſt of St. Mich. next enſuing, for 21. years demiſed the ſame Land to J. S. for 21. years, from the expiration of the ſaid firſt Leaſe; and the truth was, that the firſt Leaſe was the 30th of Auguſt. In pleading the ſecond Leaſe being in Queſtion, the firſt Leaſe was ſhewed to be made the 30. of Auguſt; and Iſſue was joyned, if he de- miſit modo et forma? The Jury found the ſpeciall matter. It was holden, That the modo et forma was not materrial; but if demiſit, or not? It was holden to be a good Leaſe. Paſch. 3 Mar. Dyer, 116. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 46. If a man recieeth a Leaſe which is not, or which is void, or miſrecites it in a point material which is in eſſe, Habend. from the Expiration of the former Leaſe, the Leaſe ſhall begin from the time of the delivery. See 3 E. 6. Br. Leaſes, 62. acc.

5. Note. It was Reſolved in Cook 4. Part, 52. in Rawlyn's Caſe, 1. That if Leſſee for 20 years makes a Leaſe for 2. years, and afterwards grants all his Term and Intereſt to another, and the Leſſee attorneth, the Intereſt in Reverſion paſſeth: and the Grantee ſhall have the Lands after the two years paſſed. 2. That if Leſſee for 20 years Leaſeth part of it for two years, and after Leaſeth the whole to another for 30. years, rendring Rent, ſo as the Leaſe enures as a Leaſe in reverſion for part, that the Rent ſhall iſſue out of the whole. 3. That if a man takes a Leaſe for years by Indenture of his own Land, the ſame is no concluſion or eſtoppell but during the Term; and after the Term ended, the Leſſor may enter, and occupy and hold the Land; for by the determination of the Term, the eſtoppel is determined. Cook 4. Part, 53.

6. A man made a Leaſe to A. of White-Acre for 10. years, and of Black Acre to B. for 20 years; and afterwards by Indenture reciting the ſaid Leaſes, made a Leaſe to J. S. of both Acres for 40. years, to begin after the end or determination of the ſaid ſeverall Leaſes made to A. and B: The Leaſe of White Acre determined, and the Leaſe of Black Acre continued in being. It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Leaſe made to J. S. as to White Acre, did commence preſently after the firſt Leaſe made of it. Cook 5. Part, 7. Mich. 32 Eliz. in B.R. Juſtice Windham's Caſe.

7. A man ſeiſed of 3. Acres, made a Leaſe of one of them to A. for life, and of another of them to B. for life, and of the third Acre to C. in tail; And afterwards by Indenture covenanted with his brother, That after the ſaid Eſtates ended and determined, That he and his heirs would ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid 3. Acres to the uſe of his brother in tail. It was adjudged in this caſe, That preſently by the death of B, one of the ſaid Tenants for life, that the brother ſhould have the Acre of B, and ſhould not ſtay untill all the Eſtates were ended: For by the Covenant, the Eſtate in the ſeverall Acres veſted preſently in the brother. 32 Eliz. in the Court of Wards, Pollard and Alcock's Caſe.

8. The Queen ſeiſed of the Manor of S, demiſſed the ſame to H. B. for 21. years, who made ſeverall Leaſes of ſmall parcels of it for years: Afterwards the Queen reciting the ſaid Letters Patents, in Conſideration of a ſurrender of all his Eſtate, Term, and Intereſt, granted the ſaid Manor to the ſaid H.B. Habendum from the day of the making of the ſaid Letters Patents for 3. Lives. It was Reſolved in this caſe, amongſt other Points, That an Eſtate of Freehold cannot begin at a day to come, becauſe he cannot make Livery preſent to a future Eſtate; and an Eſtate for life cannot paſſe without Livery. See Cook 2. Part, Buckers Caſe, acc. And therefore the Grant by the Letters Patents, which amount to a Livery in Law, cannot begin at a day to come: For if the Freehold ſhould paſſe preſently by the Letters Patents, then the Queen ſhould have a particular Intereſt or Term without a Donor or Leſſor, againſt a Rule in Law. And therefore it was adjudged, That the Leaſe for 3. Lives was void. Cook 5. Part, 94. Berwicks Caſe.

9. A man made a Leaſe for years, to begin after the end of a Term for years then in being; the firſt years determined, and the ſecond Leſſee did not enter, but he in the Reverſion entred, and made a Feoffment, and levied a Fine with Proclamations, and 5. years paſſed without Entry or claim made by the ſecond Leſſee for years: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That the ſecond Leſſee for years was barred of his Term, by the Statute of 4 H. 7. For although the Leſſee for years had not an Eſtate that he might levy a Fine; yet becauſe that the words of the Statute are general, he ſhall be bound by the Fine levied by the Terr-Tenant. 2. It was Reſolved, That by the ſaid Feoffment, the ſecond Leſſee had but a Right, and when his future Intereſt commenced in the Land, then he hath a preſent Eſtate in the Land, which may be deveſted, and reveſted again by his Entry: As if a man maketh a Leaſe for years, and before that, the Leſſee entreth, the Leſſor dyeth, yet the Leſſee may enter, for he hath right preſently according to the form of his Leaſe; ſo as his Intereſt is accompanied with a preſent Entry, and ability to take the profits. Paſch. 3 Jac. C. B. Cook 5. Part, 123. Saffyns Caſe.

10. A man made a Leaſe by Indenture for Term of 10. years, the Term to begin preſently; and afterwards the Leſſor Leaſeth the ſame Land by Indenture for the ſame Term of 16. years to a ſtranger, the Term to begin at the Feaſt of St. Michael next following: and afterwards the firſt Leſſee purchaſeth the Fee-ſimple, ſo as his Term is drowned. In this caſe it was adjudged, That the ſecond Leſſee might enter after the Feaſt of St. Michael, and enjoy his Term. Hill. 2 Mar. Dyer, 112.

11. A Parſon made a Leaſe for 40. years, the Biſhop of London being Patron and Ordinary, Confirmed it under his hand and Seal, without the the Dean and Chapter; the Incumbent dyed; the Biſhop collated another, who made a new Leaſe, which is well confirmed: afterwards the Biſhop is tranſlated. It was a Queſtion, Which of the Leaſes was good? It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, The firſt, and not the ſecond during both the Lives of the Biſhop and Incumbent, which found the Church charged. Paſch. 19 Eliz. Dyer, 359.

12. A man ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, made a Leaſe of them for life; and afterwards by Indenture Covenanted to convey and aſſure the ſaid Lands to the uſe of himſelf for life, the remainder to his ſon in tail, with divers remainders over; and by the ſame by Indenture covenanted and agreed, That it ſhould be lawful for him at any time after to make of the ſaid Lands any Leaſes, or Grants, not exceeding the number of 3. Lives, or 21. years in Poſſeſſion or Reverſion; ſo as upon every ſuch Leaſe or Grant, the auncient Rent be reſerved during the ſaid Leaſe or Grants. Afterwards he levied a Fine according to the Uſes in the Indenture, and afterwards made a Leaſe of the ſaid Lands to J. S. to him and his Aſſigns for 99. years, if the ſaid J.S. and J. D. ſhould ſo long live, to begin after the death, or the determination of the Eſtate of the Tenant for life, yielding yearly after the beginning of the ſaid Leaſe to him, his heirs, or Aſſigns, or ſuch perſon to whom the Inheritance of the premiſſes after his death, ſhould appertain during the ſaid Term 14 s. at the four uſual Feaſts yearly to be paid. In this caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That the power which the Leſſor had, was well reſerved and purſued: for his power in the beginning, was abſolute to make Leaſe or Leaſes, Grant or Grants in Poſſeſſion or Reverſion, and the generality was by the Proviſo reſtrained, that the Leaſe do not exceed 3. lives; and when the Leaſe is made for 99. years determined upon 3. Lives, the ſame doth not exceed his power. 2. Reſolved, That the reſervation of the Rent was good: for the Leaſe had not his eſſence from the Eſtate of the Leſſor, which he had for life, but the Leaſe had his eſſence out of the Fine, and in Conſtruction of Law, preceded the Leaſe for life, and all the remainders. Cook 8. Part, 70. Whitlocks Caſe.

See before, Cook 8. Part, 93, 94. to this Diviſion, Edward Fox's Caſe.

3. Where a Leaſe made by him who hath power to make Leaſes for Lives or Years, or who hath but a particular Eſtate, ſhall ſtand, although the Eſtate of the Leſſor be determined, or doth ceaſe; Where not. And where Leaſes, Bargains and Sales made by Commiſſioners, ſhall ſtand good againſt the Owners; and where voidable by Entry: Where not.

1. NOte: There is a difference betwixt a general abſolute power and authority as owner of the Land, and a particular power and authority by him who hath but a particular Intereſt, and ſo makes Leaſes for lives or years. If a man hath an abſolute power and authority over the Land; there he may make leaſes for life or years by Attorney: but otherwiſe it is, of him who hath but a particular Intereſt: And therefore if A. be Tenant for life, the Remainder in tail; and A. hath power to make Leaſes for 21. years, rendring Rent; he in that caſe cannot make a Leaſe for 21. years by Attorney, by force of his power, becauſe he hath but a particular power which is perſonal to him: And ſo it was adjudged, 24 Eliz. in the Lady Greſhams Caſe. And ſome Powers and Authorities are ſo perſonal, that they cannot be transferred over to another: If the Lord diſtrain the Cattle of his Tenant, though nothing be behind, The Tenant for and in reſpect of the duty which he oweth to the Lord, ſhall not have an Action of Treſpaſs againſt him vi & armis: But if the Lord commandeth his Bayliff, or Servant, in ſuch caſe to diſtrain where nothing is behind, The Tenant ſhall have an Action of Treſpaſs Quare vi et armis againſt the Bayliff or Servant. 2 H.4.4. 1 H.6.6. 9 H.7.14. acc.

2. Husband and Wife were ſeized of Tenements in London, to them, and to the Heirs of the Husband; and the Husband Covenanted by Indenture, in conſideration of 20 l. That he and his Wife would ſuffer a Common Recovery, by Writ of Right, according to the Cuſtome of London, which bindeth as a Fine at the Common Law, and that the Recovery ſhould be to the uſe of the Recoverors, until they had made a good and ſufficient Leaſe by Indenture for 40 years; and after the making of the ſaid Leaſe, then to the uſe of the Husband and Wife, and the Heirs of the Husband; and the Recovery was had accordingly. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices in that Caſe, That the the Leaſe was good, and not defeaſible by the Wife, who ſurvived her Husband; and ſo it was adjudged in the Kings Bench. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 290. See Cook 2 Part, 57. in Beckworths Caſe.

3. Note, It was Reſolved, Cook 10. Part, 85. in Leonard Lovies Caſe, That if a man limitteth an eſtate by Indenture, to the uſe of himſelf for life, with power to make Leaſe for life or years, or to ſuch perſons as he ſhall name by his laſt Will, of any eſtate or eſtates, the Remainder to A. in Tail, with divers Remainders over; That theſe remainders are in contingencies, and do not veſt in them preſently by the Statute of 27 H. 8. until the contingence fall, becauſe it is a doubt whether the Eſtates in future ſhall ever veſt. See Paſch. 36 Eliz. B. R. Action and Hares Caſe, Cook 3. Part, Borraſtons Caſe, &c.

4. A. ſeized of two Mannors, enfeoffed divers perſons of them, to the intent, That they ſhould give them back again to A. and B. his Wife, whom he intended to marry; the remainder to the heirs males of the body of B: A. and B. marry, and have Iſſue C; A. dyeth, C. in the life of B. ſuffers a Common Recovery with Voucher, to the intent that the Recoverors ſhould make a Feoffment to uſes, and that the Wife, Tenant for life, Releaſe with Warranty; which Feoffment, and Releaſe with Warranty, was made accordingly. It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other things) That although the Statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 20. made the Diſcontinuance, Allienation, Warranty, and Recovery void: Yet thoſe general words have been ſo expounded, that they are not void amongſt the parties themſelves, but ſhall ſtand in force amongſt themſelves, and againſt all other perſons, but only ſuch to whom the Intereſt, Title, and Inheritance, after the death of ſuch woman ſhall appertain, and they only may make them void by their Entry. Cook 3. Part, 60. Lincoln Colledge Caſe.

5. A man ſeized of Lands in Fee, made a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent, upon condition, That if he, his Executors, or Aſſigns Granted, Alliened, or Aſſigned any part of the Land without the aſſent of the Leſſor, his Heirs, or Aſſigns, that it ſhould be lawful for Him, his Heirs, or Aſſigns to re-enter: The Leſſee aſſigned part of it without aſſent; The Leſſor before notice, and before re-entry, accepted the Rent, and afterwards re-entred. It was adjudged, That his re-entry was lawful: And in this Caſe, amongſt other points, it was Reſolved, That if the Concluoſin of a Leaſe for years is, , That if the Rent be behinde, that the Leaſe ſhall be void, that no acceptance of the Rent can make the void Leaſe good; but if the Leaſe be but voidable by Entry, there acceptance can make it good. 2. That there is a difference betwixt a Leaſe for life, and a Leaſe for years; for in a Leaſe for life, if the concluſion be, that the Leaſe ſhall be void; that becauſe a Freehold created by Livery cannot be avoided without Entry, acceptance of Rent due at a day after, ſhall bar the Leſſor of his Entry, and affirm the Leaſe; for he cannot receive the ſame upon any Contract, as in the Caſe of a Leaſe for years, but he ought to receive it as a Rent, and then he affirms the Leaſe to continue, and therefore the acceptance of the Rent ſhall bar him of his Entry. Cook 3. Part, 65. in Penman's Caſe.

6. If a Parſon, Vicar, or Prebend maketh a Leaſe for years rendring Rent, and dyeth, and the Succeſſor accepteth the Rent, the ſame is nothing worth, becauſe the Leaſe was void by his death, otherwiſe if it were a Leaſe for life. But if a Biſhop, Abbot, or Prior, maketh a Leaſe for years, and dyeth, and the Succeſſor accept the Rent, he ſhall never avoid the Leaſe, becauſe the Leaſe was but voidable, ibid.

7. Note, It was Reſolved, That every one who hath a lawful Eſtate in a Mannor, be it in Fee, in tail, in Dower, or by the Curteſy, or for life or years, or as Guardian, or Tenant by Statute, Elegit, or at Will; If a Copyhold Eſcheat or come to their hands during their time, every one of them at their Will may Grant the ſame, rendring the Ancient Rent, Cuſtomes, and Services, and the ſame ſhall bind the Lord who hath the Inheritance or Freehold of the Mannor, for every one is Dominus pro tempore, and within the Cuſtome. And this difference was alſo agreed and Reſolved, That if a Diſſeiſor, or Feoffee of a Diſſeiſor, or any other who hath a tortious or defeaceable Eſtate or Intereſt ſubject to the Action or entry of another hold Court, and make any voluntary Grant, upon Eſcheat or forfeiture of a Copyhold; ſuch voluntary Grant ſhall not bind him who hath right, when he hath re-continued the Mannor by Action, or entry. But if ſuch a Lord who hath a wrongful and deforcible Title, admit any upon a ſurrender made to the uſe of another, or admit the Heir upon a Diſtent, ſuch Admittances are good within the Cuſtome: For ſuch acts are lawful, and which he may be compelled and forced in a Court of Equity to do; and therefore ſuch Admittances ſhall bind him who hath right. Trin. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 23. Pennyfathers Caſe.

See before, Cook 5. Part, 124. Saffyns Caſe; to this Diviſion.

8. Tenant in tail of divers houſes, and of other Lands holden in Capite in Fee, by Indenture made a Leaſe of the Lands of which he was ſeiſed in tail for years, not Warranted by the Statute of 32 H. 8. and dyed without Iſſue, the Reverſion diſcended to his general Heir, who was in Ward to the King. Office was found that he dyed ſeiſed of an Eſtate the Dean and Chapter; the Incumbent dyed; the Bishop collated another, who made a new Lease, which is well confirmed: afterwards the Bishop is translated. It was a Question, Which of the Leases was good? It was the Opinion of the Justices, The first, and not the second during both the Lives of the Bishop and Incumbent, which found the Church charged. Pasch. 19 Eliz. Dyer, 359.

12. A man seised of Lands in Fee, made a Lease of them for life; and afterwards by Indenture Covenanted to convey and assure the said Lands to the use of himself for life, the remainder to his son in tail, with divers remainders over; and by the same by Indenture covenanted and agreed, That it should be lawful for him at any time after to make of the said Lands any Leases, or Grants, not exceeding the number of 3. Lives, or 21. years in Possession or Reversion; so as upon every such Lease or Grant, the auncient Rent be reserved during the said Lease or Grants. Afterwards he levied a Fine according to the Uses in the Indenture, and afterwards made a Lease of the said Lands to J. S. to him and his Assigns for 99. years, if the said J.S. and J. D. should so long live, to begin after the death, or the determination of the Estate of the Tenant for life, yielding yearly after the beginning of the said Lease to him, his heirs, or Assigns, or such person to whom the Inheritance of the premisses after his death, should appertain during the said Term 14 s. at the four usual Feasts yearly to be paid. In this case, it was Resolved, 1. That the power which the Lessor had, was well reserved and pursued: for his power in the beginning, was absolute to make Lease or Leases, Grant or Grants in Possession or Reversion, and the generality was by the Proviso restrained, that the Lease do not exceed 3. lives; and when the Lease is made for 99. years determined upon 3. Lives, the same doth not exceed his power. 2. Resolved, That the reservation of the Rent was good: for the Lease had not his essence from the Estate of the Lessor, which he had for life, but the Lease had his essence out of the Fine, and in Construction of Law, preceded the Lease for life, and all the remainders. Cook 8. Part, 70. Whitlocks Case.

See before, Cook 8. Part, 93, 94. to this Division, Edward Fox's Case.

3. Where a Lease made by him who hath power to make Leases for Lives or Years, or who hath but a particular Estate, shall stand, although the Estate of the Lessor be determined, or doth cease; Where not. And where Leases, Bargains and Sales made by Commissioners, shall stand good against the Owners; and where voidable by Entry: Where not.

1. NOte: There is a difference betwixt a general absolute power and authority as owner of the Land, and a particular power and authority by him who hath but a particular Intereſt, and so makes Leases for lives or years. If a man hath an absolute power and authority over the Land; there he may make leases for life or years by Attorney: but otherwise it is, of him who hath but a particular Intereſt: And therefore if A. be Tenant for life, the Remainder in tail; and A. hath power to make Leases for 21. years, rendring Rent; he in that case cannot make a Lease for 21. years by Attorney, by force of his power, because he hath but a particular power which is personal to him: And so it was adjudged, 24 Eliz. in the Lady Greshams Case. And some Powers and Authorities are so personal, that they cannot be transferred over to another: If the Lord distrain the Cattle of his Tenant, though nothing be behind, The Tenant for and in respect of the duty which he oweth to the Lord, shall not have an Action of Trespass against him vi & armis: But if the Lord commandeth his Bayliff, or Servant, in such case to distrain where nothing is behind, The Tenant shall have an Action of Trespass Quare vi et armis against the Bayliff or Servant. 2 H.4.4. 1 H.6.6. 9 H.7.14. acc.

2. Husband and Wife were seized of Tenements in London, to them, and to the Heirs of the Husband; and the Husband Covenanted by Indenture, in consideration of 201. That he and his Wife would suffer a Common Recovery, by Writ of Right, according to the Custome of London, which bindeth as a Fine at the Common Law, and that the Recovery should be to the use of the Recoverors, until they had made a good and sufficient Lease by Indenture for 40 years; and after the making of the said Lease, then to the use of the Husband and Wife, and the Heirs of the Husband; and the Recovery was had accordingly. It was the Opinion of all the Justices in that Case, That the the Leaſe was good, and not defeiſible by the Wife, who ſurvived her Husband; and ſo it was adjudged in the Kings Bench. 12 Eliz. Dyer, 290. See Cook 2 Part, 57. in Beckworths Caſe.

3. Note, It was Reſolved, Cook 10. Part, 85. in Leonard Lovies Caſe, That if a man limitteth an eſtate by Indenture, to the uſe of himſelf for life, with power to make Leaſe for life or years, or to ſuch perſons as he ſhall name by his laſt Will, of any eſtate or eſtates, the Remainder to A. in Tail, with divers Remainders over; That theſe remainders are in contingencies, and do not veſt in them preſently by the Statute of 27 H. 8. until the contingence fall, becauſe it is a doubt whether the Eſtates in future ſhall ever veſt. See Paſch. 36 Eliz. B. R. Acton and Hores Caſe, Cook 3. Part, Boraſtons Caſe, acc.

4. A. ſeized of two Mannors, enfeoffed divers perſons of them, to the intent, That they ſhould give them back again to A. and B. his Wife, whom he intended to marry; the remainder to the heirs males of the body of B: A. and B. marry, and have Iſſue C; A. dyeth, C. in the life of B. ſuffers a Common Recovery with Voucher, to the intent that the Recoverors ſhould make a Feoffment to uſes, and that the Wife, Tenant for life, Releaſe with Warranty; which Feoffment, and Releaſe with Warranty, was made accordingly. It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other things) That although the Statute of 11 H. 7. cap. 20. made the Diſcontinuance, Allienation, Warranty, and Recovery void: Yet thoſe general words have been ſo expounded, that they are not void amongſt the parties themſelves, but ſhall ſtand in force amongſt themſelves, and againſt all other perſons, but only ſuch to whom the Intereſt, Title, and Inheritance, after the death of ſuch woman ſhall appertain, and they only may make them void by their Entry. Cook 3. Part, 60. Lincoln Colledge Caſe.

5. A man ſeized of Lands in Fee, made a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent, upon condition, That if he, his Executors, or Aſſigns Granted, Allened, or Aſſigned any part of the Land without the aſſent of the Leſſor, his Heirs, or Aſſigns, that it ſhould be lawful for Him, his Heirs, or Aſſigns to re-enter: The Leſſee aſſigned part of it without aſſent; The Leſſor before notice, and before re-entry, accepted the Rent, and afterwards re-entred. It was adjudged, That his re-entry was lawful: And in this Caſe, amongſt other points, it was Reſolved, That if the Concluoſin of a Leaſe for years is, , That if the Rent be behinde, that the Leaſe ſhall be void, that no acceptance of the Rent can make the void Leaſe good; but if the Leaſe be but voidable by Entry, there acceptance can make it good. 2. That there is a difference betwixt a Leaſe for life, and a Leaſe for years; for in a Leaſe for life, if the concluſion be, that the Leaſe ſhall be void; that becauſe a Freehold created by Livery cannot be avoided without Entry, acceptance of Rent due at a day after, ſhall bar the Leſſor of his Entry, and affirm the Leaſe; for he cannot receive the ſame upon any Contract, as in the Caſe of a Leaſe for years, but he ought to receive it as a Rent, and then he affirms the Leaſe to continue, and therefore the acceptance of the Rent ſhall bar him of his Entry. Cook 3. Part, 65. in Pennan's Caſe.

6. If a Parſon, Vicar, or Prebend maketh a Leaſe for years rendring Rent, and dyeth, and the Succeſſor acceptech the Rent, the ſame is nothing worth, becauſe the Leaſe was void by his death, otherwiſe if it were a Leaſe for life. But if a Biſhop, Abbot, or Prior, maketh a Leaſe for years, and dyeth, and the Succeſſor accept the Rent, he ſhall never avoid the Leaſe, becauſe the Leaſe was but voidable, ibid.

7. Note, It was Reſolved, That every one who hath a lawful Eſtate in a Mannor, be it in Fee, in tail, in Dower, or by the Curteſy, or for life or years, or as Guardian, or Tenant by Statute, Elegit, or at Will; If a Copyhold Eſcheat or come to their hands during their time, every one of them at their Will may Grant the ſame, rendring the Ancient Rent, Cuſtomes, and Services, and the ſame ſhall bind the Lord who hath the Inheritance or Freehold of the Mannor, for every one is Dominus pro tempore, and within the Cuſtome. And this difference was alſo agreed and Reſolved, That if a Diſſeiſor, or Feoffee of a Diſſeiſor, or any other who hath a tortious or defeaceable Eſtate or Intereſt ſubject to the Action or entry of another hold Court, and make any voluntary Grant, upon Eſcheat or forfeiture of a Copyhold; ſuch voluntary Grant ſhall not bind him who hath right, when he hath re-continued the Mannor by Action, or entry. But if ſuch a Lord who hath a wrongful and deforcible Title, admit any upon a ſurrender made to the uſe of another, or admit the Heir upon a Diſtent, ſuch Admittances are good within the Cuſtome: For ſuch acts are lawful, and which he may be compelled and forced in a Court of Equity to do; and therefore ſuch Admittances ſhall bind him who hath right. Trin. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. Part, 23. Pennſathers Caſe.

See before, Cook 5. Part, 124. Saffyns Caſe; to this Diviſion.

8. Tenant in tail of divers houſes, and of other Lands holden in Capite in Fee, by Indenture made a Leaſe of the Lands of which he was ſeiſed in tail for years, not Warranted by the Statute of 32 H. 8. and dyed without Iſſue, the Reverſion diſcended to his general Heir, who was in Ward to the King. Office was found that he dyed ſeiſed of an Eſtate tail of the houſes, and that they diſcended to the Heir general. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the King in privity of the Heir in tail, ſhould avoid the ſaid Leaſes during the time that they were in the Wardſhip of the King. 2. Reſolved, That although the King had avoided the Leaſe for his time, yet the Heir in tail, after the Intereſt of the King determined, by acceptance of the Rent, might make the Leaſe to have continuance. And to that purpoſe, ſee 2 Ma. Dyer, 119. Auſtins Caſe. Tenant in tail, the Reverſion to the King; Tenant in tail makes a Leaſe for years, and dyeth, his Iſſue of full age; the King entreth and avoideth the Leaſe for his Primer ſeiſin, the Son ſues his Livery, and accepts the Rent, and afterwards was Attainted of Treaſon. It was adjudged, That by the acceptance of the Rent, after the Livery, by the Iſſue in tail, the Leaſe was affirmed, becauſe the Leaſe was avoyded by the King but for part of the Term. And further in that Caſe, it is put and agreed, That if Tenant in tail doth diſcontinue the tail, and takes back an Eſtate in Fee, and afterwards makes a Leaſe for years rendring Rent, and dyeth, the Iſſue before Entry levyeth a Fine; the Grantee ſhall not avoid the Leaſe, for although that the Son was remitted, yet the Leaſe was not meerly void without actual entry by the Iſſue. Cook 7. Part, 8. The Earl of Bedfords Caſe.

4. Of Leaſes made by Biſhops, Deans, and Chapters, Prebendaries, Parſons, Vicars: Where their Leaſes are good by the Statutes of 32 H. 8. 1 and 13 Eliz. and other Statutes; where not. And where their Leaſes, Charges, or Grants were, or now are good, without Confirmation; Where not.

1. EVery Archbiſhop, Biſhop, Arch-Deacon, Dean, Prebendary, Parſon, Vicar, and other Corporation Spiritual, by the Common Law, might have made Leaſes concurrentibus his qui in lege requiruntur for lives, or years, without limitation or ſtint of time: but they are now by the Statute of 32 H. 8. and 1 and 13 Eliz. and other Statutes reſtreyned to make any Leaſe of their Lands or poſſeſſions belonging to the Church, but according to ſuch limitations, and under ſuch Proviſoes as are mentioned in the ſaid Statutes. See Cook 5. Part, 14. in the Caſe of Eccleſiaſtical perſons. Cook 10. Part, 60. Cook 1. Part, 66. acc.

2. Note, That by the Statute of 32 H. 8. which is an enabling Statute. A Biſhop by his Deed, without the Dean and Chapter. A Parſon ſeiſed in Fee in the right of his Church, may make Leaſes; but then ſuch Leaſes muſt be made under theſe Cautions and Proviſoes following, viz. 1. The Leaſe muſt be made in Writing, by Deed Indented, and not by word only. 2. The Leaſe muſt begin from the day of the date thereof. 3. The Auncient Leaſe muſt be ſurrendred, expired, or ended within one year after the making of the ſecond Leaſe, and ſuch ſurrender muſt be abſolute, and not Conditional. 4. There muſt not be a double Leaſe in being at one time. 5. The Leaſe muſt not exceed 21 years or three lives from the making thereof. 6. The Leaſe muſt be of Lands or Tenements Manorable, out of which a Rent may be reſerved. 7. The Leaſe muſt be of Lands and Tenements which commonly have bin letten to Farm by the ſpace of 20 years next before the Leaſe made. 8. There muſt be reſerved to them and their Succeſſors, ſo much yearly Rent, or more, which hath bin accuſtomably uſed to be paid for the ſaid Lands or Tenements within 20 years before the Leaſe made. 9. The Statute of 32 H. 8. doth not extend to any leaſe to be made without impeachment of Waſte. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 44. All which are proved and made good by the Caſe in this Diviſion enſuing.

3. A Manner which conſiſted of Free Rents 7 l. Copy-Rents, 3 l. and of Demeſnes which had uſed to be Demiſed for ſeveral Rents, to which Manner, an Acre of Waſte was parcel, of the yearly value of 12 d. Heriots, Court Leet, &c. which were never demiſed for life or years, is given to A. and B. in tail, by a private Act of Parliament made 27 H. 8. by which Act the Donees were reſtreyned, that they ſhould not do any thing ad nocumentum, or diſinheriſin of the Iſſue in tail. Tenant in tail accepted a Fine ſur Conuſans de droit, by which they granted and rendred the ſaid Manner for 300 years rendring Rent, amounting to the Free, Copy, and Farm Rents, and 18 d. more, and 12 d. for the Waſte, payable at two Feaſts, whereas the Antient Rent was payable at four Feaſts. In this Caſe, theſe points were Reſolved. 1. In reſpect the ſaid Waſte was never demiſed before, the Rent which is entirely reſerved out of the whole, cannot be ſaid to be verus et antiquus redditus. 2. That the reſervation of the Rent at two dayes, whereas the Ancient Rent was payable at four dayes, made the Leaſe by Grant and Reſider void. 3. Reſolved, That if Tenant in tail reſerve a leſſer Rent during his life, and a greater Rent after his death, then the Ancient Rent after his death, the ſame is not good, but maketh the Leaſe to be void, Cook 5. Part, 6. The Lord Mountjoyes Caſe.

4. A Biſhop after the Statute of 1. Eliz. made a Leaſe for years, and afterwards ouſted the Leſſee, and made a Leaſe for three lives, yeilding the ancient and accuſtomed Rent. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That this Leaſe was voidable by the Succeſſor. 1. Becauſe the Statute is in the diſjunctive for 21 years, or 3 Lives. 2. Becauſe the Rent reſerved, was not payable within the meaning of the Statute; for the Statute was to maintain Hoſpitality, and to avoid Dilapidations; and that cannot be but by a continual Revenue yearly paid, and not in expectancy, and in futuro: And if this Leaſe ſhould be good, the Leſſees for life ſhould have the Rent reſerved upon the Leaſe for years. 3. Reſolved, Where the Statute ſaith, That the old Leaſe be ſurrendred within one year, that a Conditional Surrender is not within the Statute. Cook 5. Part, 3. Elmors Caſe.

5. A Biſhop after the Statute of 1 Eliz. made a Leaſe of a Fair for three Lives, rendring the ancient Rent, which was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That the Succeſſor ſhould avoid the Leaſe; becauſe a Fair is but a Franchiſe, or a Liberty not Maynorable, out of which a Rent cannot be reſerved; and all Leaſes of ſuch Inheritances, out of which the ancient Rent cannot be well and lawfully reſerved, are voidable by the Statute. Cook 5. Part, 3. Jewel's Caſe.

6. Copyholder for life of Land, rendring the ancient rent of 8 s. 8 d. quarterly, and heriotable; where the Cuſtome was, That a Leaſe might be made of the Copyhold for three lives; A Dean and Chapter, Lords of the Mannor, made a Leaſe of the Copyhold Lands for the lives of A. B. and C. and the Survivor of them; and if this Leaſe might be avoided by the Statute of 13 Eliz. cap. 10. was the Queſtion. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That Deans and Chapters by the equity of the ſaid Statute, are reſtrained to make Leaſes, without Impeachment of Waſte. 2. Reſolved, That Leaſes for the lives of others, are within the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Leaſes, made by Tenant in Tail, as well as within the Statute of 13 Eliz. 3. That the ſaid Eſtate granted by Copy, was in judgment of the Common Law, an Eſtate at Will, and ſuch lands are accuſtomable to be letten to Farm within the ſaid Act. 4. Reſolved, That the Statute of 13 Eliz. did not make the Leaſe void, if the accuſtomed yearly Rent, or more, be reſerved, and in the principal Caſe; becauſe the Heriot was not a thing annual, nor a thing depending upon the Rent, it was ſufficient if the yearly Rent was reſerved. 5. It was ſufficient if the yearly rent was reſerved at one time; for that the words of the Statute of 13 Eliz. are, (whereupon the accuſtomed Rent, or more ſhall be reſerved) and the Statute is ſatisfied by the word [yearly.] And therefore it was Reſolved, That this Caſe differs from the Lord Mountjoyes Caſe; becauſe in that caſe there wanted the word [yearly.] Cook 6. Part, 37. The Dean and Chapter of Worceſters Caſe.

7. A Biſhop of London leaſed parcel of the poſſeſſions of his Biſhoprick for 21 years, and afterwards ouſted the Leſſee, and leaſed the lands to another for three lives, rendring the ancient and accuſtomed rent, which was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter; afterwards A. was tranſlated: It was holden in this Caſe, That the leaſe was warranted by the Statute of 1 Eliz. At the Common Law a Biſhop might make an Alienation in Fee ſimple, being confirmed by Dean and Chapter: But by the Statute of 32 H. 8. Biſhops without Dean and Chapter, or their Confirmation, may make a leaſe for 21 years; but with their Confirmation, may make a leaſe for 1000 years: But by the Statute of 1 Eliz. the power of Biſhops in that Right is much abridged: for that now with Confirmation or without Confirmation, they can diſpoſe of their poſſeſſions but for 21 years, or three lives; and this leaſe is in all points according to the Statute; for 1. It begins preſently upon the making of it. 2. The ancient Rent is reſerved yearly, during the Term; for although there be an old leaſe in Eſſe, yet the Rent reſerved upon the ſecond leaſe, is payable during the ſecond Term; for Payable, is a word of Power, and not of Action. See the words of the Statute of 32 H. 8. [Rent reſerved yearly during the ſaid leaſe, due and payable to the Leſſor, &c.] ſuch Rent &c. and yet by the ſaid Statute, ſuch leaſes may be good, although there be a former Intereſt for years in being, if the ſame be expired, ſurrendred, or ended within one year after the making of ſuch new leaſe, and ſo not expreſly payable in rei veritate, annually during the Term. Paſch. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Bunny and Wright's Caſe. Leon. 59.

8. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was: The Warden and Fellows of All-Souls Colledge, 10 Eliz. leaſed to the Plaintiff divers lands, To have and to hold, from the Feaſt of the Annunciation next following, to the end of 20 years; and made a letter of Attorney to one, to enter into the ſaid Mannor, and to Seal and Deliver the Deed of the ſaid Leaſe in their names, to the Plaintiff, who by force thereof, entred into part of the demiſed premiſſes, and did there Seal and Deliver the ſame. But it was not found, that any Rent was reſerved thereupon: It was Objected, That this leaſe was void, for that it was not warranted by the Statute; for the Statute of 13. is other then for 21 years: But it was anſwered and holden, That it was not the intent of the Statute, but only to abridge the great and long leaſes heretofore made by Colledges, and to limit ſuch leaſes to a certain meaſure and time, for 21 years, or three lives, but on this ſide as much as they would. 2. It was Objected, That it was not found that the due Rent was reſerved upon the ſaid Leaſe (accuſtomed yearly rent or more.) But to that it was ſaid, It was good enough; for if the other party will take advantage of ſuch defect, he ought to ſhew the ſame, otherwiſe it ſhall be intended, becauſe it is found, That ſuch a leaſe was made, that it was made according to the Statute. It was alſo holden, That that leaſe was not void againſt the Warden that made it, but againſt his Succeſſor, although no Rent be reſerved upon it, notwithſtanding that percloſe of the Statute, [utterly void, and of none effect, to all intents, conſtructions, and purpoſes.] And it was ſaid in this Caſe by Anderſon Chief Juſtice, If ſuch a Leaſe ſhould be void, great miſchief would fall to the Colledge, for whoſe benefit this Statute was made; for if ſuch leaſe be made, rendring a ſmall rent, then if before the default be found or eſpied, the Rent was arrear, the Colledge could not have remedy for that rent. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the leaſe was not void, but voidable; and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Carter and Claycobbs Caſe. Leon. 314, 315.

9. In Trover and Converſion of 20 Loads of Wheat, upon a ſpecial Verdict; The Caſe was, A. leaſe was made by a Biſhop for three lives, viz. to one for life, the remainder to a ſecond for life, the remainder to a third for life; ſo not warranted by the Statute of 1 Eliz. and the Succeſſor accepted the Rent: Whether this was a good Leaſe againſt the Succeſſor himſelf, who accepted the Rent, and ſhall binde him during his time, ſo as he cannot enter, and avoid it, and make a new Leaſe, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved, That the acceptance of the Rent by the Biſhops Succeſſor, ſhould binde him for his time, ſo as he ſhall not avoid that Leaſe, which was otherwiſe voidable. 1 Hill. 2 Car. in C. B. Owen and Thomas Ap Rees Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 67.

10. In an Ejectione firme for an Acre of Land in M. It was found upon a Special Verdict, That the Biſhop of G. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Manor of M. whereof the Acre was parcel; and by Indenture 8 Eliz. demiſed the Acre to J. D. and W. D. Habendum to the ſaid J. à die datus Indenturæ for his life, the Remainder to W. for his life, rent dring 3 s. 2 d. per annum at Mich. and our Lady: the Biſhop dyed, G. was created Biſhop, and having notice that divers Rents of the ſaid Mannor were due and unpaid, commanded J. S. Bayliff of his Mannor to receive the Rents arrear, whereof the Rent of the ſaid W. was amongſt other paid to the Biſhop, the Bayliff not giving notice particularly to the Biſhop, that it was the Rent of W. and that the Biſhop 43 Eliz. accepted of all the ſaid Rents by the hands of his Bayliff, and the Statute of 1 Eliz. was found, and that the ſaid G. was Biſhop of Glouceſt. 44 Eliz. and demiſed to the Plaintiff the ſaid Acre, and all the Tythes growing thereupon for 21 years. In this Caſe, Judgment was given for the Defendant: And it was Reſolved, That although the Leaſe be for life, Habendum à die datus, yet being found Quod Epiſcopus demiſit, It ſhall be intended, that Livery was made after the day, and that it was a good Leaſe. And 2. That this acceptance of the Biſhop ſhould bind the Biſhop. Paſc. 5 Jac. in C. B. rott. 1041. Wheeler and Danbyes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 67.

11. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was; J. Biſhop of Carliſle let a portion of Tythes to A. B. and C. for their lives ſucceſſively, rendring the Auncient Rent, and dyed: His Succeſſor accepts the Rent for divers years, and afterwards made a Leaſe of thoſe Tythes for 21 years, which Leſſee took the Tythes, and A. the Plaintiff brought Treſpaſs. It was Reſolved firſt, That it was a void Leaſe, for no Leaſe is good, unleſs the auntient Rent be reſerved, and annually due and payable according to the reſervation; but this Rent being reſerved upon a Leaſe of Tythes for life, there is not any remedy for it by Diſtreſs or Aſſiſe, ſo as the Leſſee is not compellable to pay it; and becauſe it is not payable as the Law appoints, it is therefore void. 2. Reſolved, That the Leaſe being void, the acceptance ſhould not make it good, for it was abſolutely void by the Statute againſt the Succeſſor, but not againſt the Biſhop himſelf; and it is not like Leaſes made by Biſhops at the Common Law for three lives, there it is not void, but voidable, which may be made good by acceptance of the Rent. Trin. 5 Jac. in B. R. Rickman and Garths Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 173.

12. In an Ejectione firme, it was found by Verdict: A Prebend makes a Leaſe for years of Lands parcel of his Prebendary, with an Exception of great Woods, viz. Oaks, Aſhes, which Leaſe was confirmed by the Archbiſhop, Patron, but not by the Dean and Chapter. Afterwards he made a ſecond Leaſe, without Exception, being before demiſed with the Exception; and whether this Leaſe ſhould be good to bind the Succeſſor, was the firſt Queſtion: the ſecond Queſtion was, Whether the ſecond Leaſe were a good Leaſe within the Statute of 13 Eliz. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Confirmation by the Archbiſhop, Patron, was good without the Dean and Chapter. 2. It was Reſolved, That this ſecond Leaſe made without Exception, was a void Leaſe by the Statute of 13 Eliz. and ſo Judgment was given for the Plaintiff againſt the ſecond Leaſe. Hill. 13 Jac. in B. R. Smith and Bowles Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. Part, 290.

13. In a Replevin, the Caſe was; The Predeceſſor of the Biſhop of Chicheſter, ſeiſed of a Park in the right of his Biſhoprick by Deed. 44 Eliz. made a Leaſe of keeping of the ſaid Park, and all the profits appertaining to it to J. F. for life, et ulterius granted pro executione Officii, præſcit. 5. marks, with clauſe of Diſtreſſe, una cum. a Livery, and 13 s. 4 d, necnon Paſturam pro duobus equis, together with the Windfalls, which was confirmed in the life-time of the Biſhop by the Dean and Chapter: And the Defendant in his Avowry ſhewed, That the ſaid Park had been anciently granted with the Fee of 5. Marks; and for arrears of the Fee, the Defendant did avow the taking of the Cattel. The Plaintiff pleaded the Statute of 1 Eliz. and ſaid, That this Paſturage was a larger Fee then ever was granted before: Upon which, the Avowant did Demur: And the Queſtion was, if this new Addition of the Paſturage, to the Grant of the Office of Keeper, made the Grant void? The Court was divided in their Opinion: But the better Opinion ſeemed to be, That this Augmentation of Paſturage did not make the Grant void in all, but for the Augmentation only; and that it was ſeveral in ſpecie from the 5. Marks; and that this was out of the Statute of 1 Eliz. and the things are ſeveral, and may be ſeverally recovered as diſtinct things in their nature, in the Intent of the Grantor; and therefore the Grant was void, quoad the Paſturage, but not to make the Grant of the Office void with the Fee of 5. marks. Paſch. 1 Car. in C. B. The Biſhop of Chicheſter and Freeland's Caſe. Bridgman, 29, 30.

14. By the Statutes of 1 & 13 Eliz. and 1 Jacobi, Biſhops and other Eccleſiaſtical perſons are reſtrained to alien or diſcontinue any of their Eccleſiaſtical Lands or Livings; and if they alien their lands or poſſeſſions, although that it be to the King himſelf, the ſame is void in Law: For although the King be not expreſly named in the Act of 1 Jac. Yet the ſaid Statute being made to ſuppreſs Alienations, Diſcontinuances, and Wrongs done to their Succeſſors, the King is included in the general words of the Statute, (perſon or perſons) Cook 11. Part, in Magdalen Colledge Caſe.

15. If a Biſhop had been Patron of a Church, the Biſhop could not have made any Grant made by the Parſon of any Lands of his Parſonage good, either by Licence precedent, or Confirmation ſubſequent, which ſhould have bound the Succeſſors of the Parſon, without the Confirmation of the Dean and Chapter. 31 H. 8. Br. Charge 40. But if there had been Parſon, Patron, and Ordinary, and the Patron and Ordinary had given Licence by their Deed to the Parſon, to grant a Rent-Charge out of his Glebe, and the Parſon had made ſuch a Grant, this ſhould have bounden the Succeſſors of the Parſon at the Common-Law before the reſtraining Statutes, and although it had not been confirmed afterwards, by reaſon of the Licence precedent, 7 H. 4. 15. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 300. And in that caſe, the Ordinary alone might have agreed to ſuch a grant of a Rent by his Licence precedent, or Confirmation ſubſequent, without the Confirmation of the Dean and Chapter, becauſe in that caſe, the Dean and Chapter had not to do with any thing which the Biſhop did as Ordinary; for that did not concern their poſſeſſions: But yet in ſuch caſe, The Licence or Confirmation of the Patron, had not been good to have made the Charge perpetual, unleſs the Patron had had a Fee-ſimple in the Patronage; Which if he had, Then the grant of the Rent by the Parſon conſuetudine hic, &c. had been good, and ſhould have bound the Succeſſors of the Parſon at the Common Law, before the reſtraining Statutes. See 31 E. 3. Br. Grants 61. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 252.

16. If a Biſhop before the reſtraining Statutes of 1 Eliz. and 1 Jac. had made a Feoffment in Fee of Lands parcel of his Biſhoprick, and the Dean and Chapter had Confirmed the Deed of the Biſhop, the ſame had been good; and Livery and Seiſin made upon the firſt Deed had been good, after the ſaid Deed had been confirmed. So if a Biſhop by Deed enrolled, had conveyed Lands to the King, and the Dean and Chapter had confirmed the Deed of the Biſhop, it had been ſufficient to have confirmed the Lands to the King, although that the Deed of the Dean and Chapter had not been enrolled: For the aſſent was to be made to the act of the Biſhop, and to him, and not to the King. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 301.

17. If the Parſon and Ordinary make a Leaſe for years of the Glebe to the Patron, and afterward the Patron aſſign and grant this Leaſe over unto another perſon, the Aſſignment is good; and a Confirmation of the firſt Leaſe made unto himſelf, and the Deed of the Patron in ſuch caſe doth enure to a double intent, both to make the Aſſignment of the Leaſe good, and to a Confirmation of that Leaſe to the Aſſignee. Cook 5. Part, 15. acc.

18. If a Biſhop have two Chapters, (as there may be two or more Chapters, to one Biſhoprick) both the Chapters muſt confirm Leaſes made by the Biſhop: But if one of the Chapters after the date or making of the Leaſe be diſſolved, there a Confirmation made by the Chapter which is in being, is ſufficient to make the Leaſe good; and in ſuch caſe there needeth not any Confirmation of the the King, who is Supream Patron of all the Dioceſſes in England. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 31. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 282.

19. If a Dean of one Cathedral Church be elected Biſhop of another See, with Diſpenſation retinere Decanatum in Commendam. If after the Biſhop of that See whereof he was the Head and Dean, do make a Leaſe of parcel of the Poſſeſſions of the Biſhoprick, the Confirmation of that Leaſe by the Commendatory Dean, is good. Paſch. 3 Jac. in B.R. Evans and Aſcues Caſe, adjudged acc.

5. Of Leaſes, Grants, and Diſcontinuances, made by Tenant in tail, or others within the Statute of 32 H. 8. What ſhall be good; What not.

1. IF Tenant in tail maketh a Leaſe for Lives, according to the Statute of 32 H. 8. Cap. 28. and afterward dyeth without Iſſue, this Leaſe being derived out of the Eſtate tail, ſhall not continue longer then the Eſtate tail. Cook 8. Part, 34. in Payns Caſe.

2. Sir Richard Bridges ſeiſed of certain Lands, made thereof a Feoffment to W. and others, upon Condition, That they ſhould give the ſame to him and his wife, and to the heirs of their two bodies begotten; the remainder, to the right heirs of Sir Richard; which was done accordingly: they had Iſſue Anthony Bridges: Sir Rich. dyed; Anthony in the life of his Mother levied a Fine with Proclamation to Sir George Brown in Fee; the Wife, living the ſaid Anthony, made a leaſe for 3. Lives: It was Reſolved, 1. That that Leaſe was not good, nor warranted by the Statute of 32 H. 8. 2. Reſolved, That the ſaid Fine levied by the ſaid Anthony, ſhould barr the Iſſue in tail: and yet in that caſe, the Wife doth remain Tenant in tail. Cook 3. Part, Sir George Brown's Caſe. Cook 9. Part, 140. in Beaumonts Caſe, acc.

3. A Guift was made to Husband and Wife, and to the heirs of the body of the Survivor of them: In this Caſe, as to the Eſtate tail, there is incertainty in the perſon; And therefore if they make a Leaſe for 21. years, obſerving all Circumſtances required by the Statute of 32 H. 8, yet this Leaſe ſhall not bind the Iſſue; for that for the incertainty of the perſon of the Survivor, the Eſtate tail was not veſted. See Regiſter Orig. 239. Cook 10. Part, 51. in Lampits Caſe.

4. The Earl of Bridgwater, Tenant in tail before the Statute of 32 H. 8. was bound in a Recognisance to him in the Remainder, That he ſhould not make any Eſtate longer then for his own life. It was holden in this caſe, That if after the Statute he makes a leaſe for 21. years or 3. Lives, he forfeits his Recognizance. In that caſe it was ſaid, That he in the Reverſion or Remainder ſhould not avoid ſuch leaſe, if Tenant in tail dyed without Iſſue. Paſch. 33 H. 8. Dyer, 48. But for this latter point, ſee the contrary before. Cook 8. Part, 34. Sect. 1.

5. A Guardian during the minority of the Iſſue in tail, which is but of the age of one year, makes a Leaſe for 20 years of the Lands; the ſame was holden to be no good Leaſe warranted by the Statute of 32 H. 8. to bind the Iſſue in tail; and ſo it is in caſe of a Tenant in Dower: Tenant by the Curteſie, or of the husband ſeiſed in the right of his wife, becauſe they have no Inheritance. Hill. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 271. See Cook 6. Part, in the Dean and Chapter of Worceſters Caſe, and Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 44, acc.

6. Tenant in tail maketh a Leaſe to begin at Mich. next enſuing for 20. years; It was holden to be a good Leaſe by the Statute of 32 H. 8. 8 Eliz, Dyer, 246. And ſo is a leaſe for 10 years, and afterwards for 11. years, and yet the Statute is in the Negative. Trin. 31 Eliz. in B. R. in Read and Naſbes Caſe. Leon. 147.

7. In Debt for Rent, the Caſe was; Land was given to husband and wife, and to the heirs of their bodies; and the Plaintiff declared, That the Wife leaſed the Lands to the Defendant, and that the Donees were dead, and that the Plaintiff as heir brought an Action of Debt for the Rent behind: Upon Non demiſerunt, the Jury found, That the husband and wife demiſed by Indenture; and afterwards the husband dyed, and the wife entred, and within the Term dyed. In the Caſe, It was adjudged for the Defendant; for that it is now no Leaſe ab initio, becauſe the Wife by her diſagreement to it, and occupation of the Land after the death of her husband, made it the leaſe of the husband only. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C.B. Thurſord and Thurſords Caſe. Leon. 192.

8. A purchaſed Lands to him and his Wife, and their heirs; and afterwards A. (without his wife) let the Lands to J. S. for 60. years, if they lived ſo long, rendring 280 l. yearly rent, at two uſual Feaſts during the Term; A. dyed: and whether this Leaſe ſhould bind the Wife by the Statute of 32 H. 8. was the Queſtion, becauſe the Wife was not named a party to the Indenture: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it ſhould bind her. For it is a good Leaſe within the body of the Act, and is not within the Proviſo; for that it is out of the words and intent of the Proviſo.

After,

Afterwards, upon the Evidence it appeared, That the Land anciently was in leaſe, and occupied by two Tenants, the one paid 60 l. and the other 180 l; and ſo for both 240 l. Rent yearly onely, and now they are joyned in one Leaſe, and 280 l. yearly reſerved, which is more by 40 l. a year then both the Leaſes were before: and whether this was a good Leaſe within the Statute, was another Queſtion? But the Point was not Reſolved; but the Caſe ended and agreed by Arbitrament. Mich. 1 Car. in C.B. Smith and Trinders Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 15, 16.

9. Note. It was Reſolved, That the Statute of 32 H.8. Cap.28. which confirmeth Leaſes for 21 years made by Tenants in tail, or of the huſband and wife of the Lands of the wife, touch not Copyholds: For that Statute warrants only the leaſing of ſuch Lands as are grantable by Deed; but ſuch are not Copyhold lands: For although by the Lords licence they may be demiſed by Indenture; yet in their nature they are only demiſeable by Copy, and therefore out of the general purview of that Statute. Trin. 18 Jac. in C. B. Rowden and Mulſters Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 30, 31.

6. Upon Exception in Leaſes; of Woods, underwoods, &c. What is thereby excepted; What not: Whether the Intereſt in the ſoile be excepted, or not. And of divers other Exceptions in Leaſes, quid Operatur.

1. A Leaſe of lands was made, excepting Timber wood and underwoods: The Queſtion was, Whether Trees Sparſim, growing in Hedgrowes and Paſtures, did paſſe? It was holden, That by Timber woods, nothing but Timber growing, did paſſe: That it was moved, Who ſhould have the Tops and fruits of them; and alſo the ſoile under the Woods? And a difference was taken, Where the words are general, All Woods; and where they are, His Woods growing; But this Point was not Reſolved then. But in that Caſe, It was holden and agreed, That if a Stranger cutteth down Woods in a Forreſt, and there is no fraud betwixt him and the Owner of the Land, that the Owner of the ſoile ſhall have them, and not the King; and yet the Owner of the Soil could not cut them down; but is to take them by one appointed by the Statute for the delivery of them. Mich. 28 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt, 98, 99.

2. A man made a Leaſe for years of a Mannor, reſerving Woods, and Underwoods; the Leſſee cut down Trees, and the Leſſor brought an Action of Waſte: It was holden, That Waſte did not lye, becauſe the words of the Statute are, in boſcis ſibi dimiſſis; but an Action of Treſpaſſe did lye. It was holden by Shelley, That by reſervation of Woods, the land was not reſerved, but the Tenant ſhall have the herbage: But by a grant of Woods, the land it ſelf ſhall paſſe, becauſe the Deed of every man ſhall be taken ſtrongeſt againſt himſelf. And it was ſaid, That in a Writ of Entry, where demand is of 20 Acres of Wood, the land it ſelf ſhall be recovered. Trin. 28 H.8. Dyer, 19. See Cook 5. Part, 11. Ives Caſe. And Cook 11 Part, Lyſords Caſe.

3. A man ſeiſed of a Mannor, in which there was a Wood containing 30. Acres, within which, and in divers other parts of the Mannor, there were great Trees; He made a leaſe of the Mannor, excepting Timber-Trees, and great Woods: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That by this leaſe, Herbage and the Underwoods ſhould paſſe: For by the word [Great] appears the intent of the Leſſor, that he reſerved thoſe Woods only, and not the other Woods. Hill. 7 E 6. Dyer, 79. See Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 4. 14 H. 8. 1. acc. Cook 11. Part, Lyſords Caſe, acc.

4. In an Action of Waſte brought for Cutting down and ſelling of 30 Oaks, &c. the Defendant ſaid, That the Plaintiff ſold unto him omnes arbores creſcentes ſuper, &c. quæ poſſint rationabiliter parcari: and he ſhewed, that thoſe Trees might be ſpared, and therefore he cut them down: Upon which, the Plaintiff did Demur in Law. It was holden in this Caſe, That by the Grant of the Plaintiff de arboribus ſuis, they did not paſſe, for not being excepted, the Leſſor during the Term, had but a right in them, and not any property; and a Right could not be granted but by Deed. Alſo it was holden, That the Grant was void for incertainty, becauſe it did not appear how many might be ſpared; but if it had referred to the Arbitrament of another, whereby it might have been reduced to a certainty; in ſuch caſe, the Grant had been good. Mich. 1 Mar. Dyer, 91. See Cook 4. Part, 62. Herlakendens Caſe.

5. A man made a Leaſe of lands for years, Excepting the Woods; and afterwards the Leſſor granted the Woods to the Leſſee: If the Wood be ſo united to the land again, that by Leaſe of the land, that the Wood ſhall paſſe as a thing annexed unto it; or if the Wood remain as an Intereſt diſtinct and ſevered from the land, was the Queſtion? And in this caſe, it was Reſolved, That Leſſee for life either hath a ſpecial Intereſt or a property in the Trees as things annexed to the land, as long as they they are annexed to the land: But if the Leſſor or other ſevereth them from the Lands, the property or Intereſt of the Leſſee is determined; and the Leſſor may take them as things annexed to the Inheritance. 2. Reſolved, That if a houſe falleth down by tempeſt, or by the Act of God, the Leſſee hath a ſpecial Intereſt to take the Timber to build the houſe again: but if the Leſſee pulleth down the houſe, the Leſſor may take the Timber as a thing annexed to his Inheritance, and the Intereſt of the Leſſee is determined. Cook 4. Part. 63. Herlakendens Caſe.

6. A man made a leaſe for 30. years, of a Manor, excepting all Woods, and Underwoods, growing and being upon the Mannor; and afterwards made another leaſe to the ſame Leſſee, of all the Woods and Underwoods growing and being upon the Manor for 60 years, without impeachment of Waſte; and afterwards made a third leaſe to the ſaid Leſſee, of the ſaid Mannor for 30 years, without any exception to begin at a day to come; viz. from the expiration of the firſt leaſe for 30. years: the Term of 30 years expired, the Leſſee cut the Trees, and he in the Reverſion brought an Action of Waſte. It was Reſolved, 1. That by the Exception of the Wood and Underwood, the Soil it ſelf was Excepted; and the words [growing or being upon the Manor] were ſurpluſage; for by Demiſe of all Wood upon the Manor, all Woods growing or being upon the Mannor, paſſe. 2. Reſolved, That notwithſtanding the Exception, the Woods remained parcel of the Mannor, becauſe the Freehold remained entire, and the Leſſor is Tenant to every Precipe. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C.B. Cook 5. Part, 11. Ives Caſe.

7. Tenant for life without impeachment of Waſte, the Reverſion expectant, cut down the Trees growing upon the land: In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That if the Eſtate had been made without ſuch Clauſe [Without impeachment of Waſte], that he in the Reverſion ſhould have the Trees as parcel of his Inheritance. 2. That this Clauſe [Without impeachment of Waſte] did not give to Tenant for life a greater Intereſt in the Trees, but ſhould ſerve only that he ſhould not be impeached in an Action of Waſte. Cook 6. Part, Sir Moile Finches Caſe.

8 A man by Deed Indented, demiſed a houſe and land, exceptis omnibus arboribus, &c. adtunc creſcen. ultra creſentiam 21. annorum, Habendum Tenementa prædict. cum pertinentiis (exceptis præ-exceptis) for life, and afterwards by Deed Indented, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed de Tenementis prædict. to the uſe of J. S. in tail, with divers Remainders over: J. S. entred, and ſhewed Trees to J. D. and commanded them to be cut, being Oaks growing upon the land above the growth of 21. years: In this caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That the Trees notwithſtanding the Exception, did remain parcel, and growing out of the Inheritance, and were not Chattels which ſhould go to Executors, but ſhould diſcend to the heir, or go to him in the Reverſion, becauſe the Law doth not favour fractions and ſeverance of the Trees from the Freehold and Inheritance of the land, becauſe by that means the Trees ſhould be waſted and deſtroyed. 2. It was Reſolved, That the Leſſor might give or command the Leſſee by word of mouth to cut down the Trees, in reſpect of the Inheritance which he hath in them; but he cannot give them to a Stranger during the life of Leſſee for life, for the particular prejudice which might happen to the Leſſee. 3. Reſolved, That if a Wood, whereof a Precipe lyeth, be parcel of Mannor, and a man Leaſeth the Mannor, excepting the Wood, the ſoil it ſelf is excepted: But if a man exceepteth all Trees, which ſhall grow upon any Land or Paſture, there by the Exception of the Trees, the ſoil it ſelf is not excepted, but ſufficient nutriment out of the Land is reſerved to ſuſtain the vegetive life of the Trees: And if the Leſſor by Licence of the Leſſee, root up the Trees, the Leſſee ſhall have the ſoil. Cook 11. Part, 47, 48. Lyſords Caſe.

9. A man demiſed a Farm, with all manner of Timber, Wood, Underwood, and Hedg-rowes, except great Oaks growing in a Cloſe about the Farm houſe: It was adjudged in this Caſe, That the Leſſee could not cut down the Timber-Trees not excepted, for that they were not ſevered from the Inheritance, nor paſſed by the Grant. 2. Becauſe the Leſſee for life or years hath but a particular Intereſt to have the Maſt, fruit, and ſhadow of the Trees, and the Intereſt of the body of the Trees are to the Leſſor as parcel of his Inheritance; and therefore when no Exception is in the Leaſe, the Leſſee hath the particular Intereſt, and the Inheritance of them is in the Leſſor. 23 Eliz. Dyer, 374.

10. A. ſeiſed of the Mannor of D. in Fee, Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed thereof to the uſe of himſelf and B, who he intended to marry, for Term of their lives, without impeachment of Waſte; and after their deceaſe, to the uſe of their firſt Iſſue male, and to the heirs males of ſuch Iſſue male: and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of the heirs males of the body of the ſaid A. and B. begotten; and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of C. in tail, with divers remainders over: They marry, and have Iſſue D: Afterwards A. dyeth without any other Iſſue of the body of B, but the ſaid D: B. enters; A Barn per vim venti was thrown down; B. took the Timber of the Barn, and converted it to her own uſe, and dyed; and the Aſſignee brought an Action of Trover and Converſion againſt the Executors of B. for the Timber? It was adjudged, That the Action did well lye. In this caſe, It was Reſolved, amongſt other things, That if Tenant for life, or years, cut down Timber Trees, or throw down the houſes, that the Leſſor ſhall have the Timber; for the Leſſee had them not but as things annexed to the Lands: and therefore when they were ſevered from the Land, the property was in the Leſſor, and the Leſſee had but a particular profit in them; but the general property was in him who had the Inheritance. 2. Reſolved, That in this caſe, by force of the Clauſe [Without impeachment of Waſte], had ſuch a power and priviledg, that although that no waſte was made, and although that the houſe was overthrown with the wind, that yet ſhe ſhould have the Trees which was parcel of it; and therefore when they are ſevered from the houſe or Land by act in Law, of God, or of the party, the property of the Trees are in her by force of the ſaid Clauſe, Without impeachment of Waſte. Cook 11. Part, 82, 83, 84. Lewis Bowls Caſe.

Executors

11. Note. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, where Leſſee for life makes a leaſe for years, excepting the Wood, under-wood and Trees growing upon the Land, That it is a good Exception, although he hath not any Intereſt in them but as Leſſee, becauſe he remains always Tenant, and is charged in an Action of Waſte; to prevent which, he may make ſuch an Exception: But if the Leſſee for years aſſigns over his Term, with ſuch an Exception, it is a void Exception. Hill. 9 Jac. in B.R. Baton and Girlings Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 296.

12. In a Replevin, upon a Special Verdict, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of the Mannor of D, whereof 20 Acres of Coppice Woods were parcel, & wherein divers Timber Trees were Sparſim growing within the Mannor, made a Leaſe of the Scite and Demeſnes of the Mannor, Exceptis et ſemper reſervat. omnibus boſcis, ſubboſcis, Coppices, and Hedg-rowes, which then were, or at any time after during the Term, ſhould be in or upon the premiſſes, with egreſſe to fell and carry away the ſame, ſo as he leave ſufficient Free-boot, Plough-bote, &c. the Queſtion was, Whether the Soile of the 20 Acres were let to the Leſſee, or excepted to the Leſſor. It was adjudged, That the ſoil it ſelf was excepted, and that it paſſed not with the Fee: and difference was taken betwixt Exception of Wood and Underwood, and the Exception of all Timber Trees; for in the firſt, the ſoil it ſelf of the Wood and Underwood is excepted, but in the laſt no ſoil is excepted, but only ſo much as is ſufficient for the vegetive life of the Trees. Trin. 16 Jac. in B.R. Whiſſler and Paſtowes Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 487. See Hill. 16 Jac. in B. R. Pincomb and Thomas Caſe. Cro, 2. Part, 524. acc.

13. A. had a piece of ground, for a Garden Plat, and let it to B: Afterwards B. aſſigned his Leaſe to C, who built upon the Garden Plat two houſes, leaving a ſufficient Garden. Afterwards, A. let to D. all that Garden-Plat or piece of Ground late in the Tenure of B, and now in the Tenure of C: The Queſtion was, Whether the Garden-Plat and houſes then in the Tenure of C, or ſo much of the Garden-Plat as was not built upon, did paſſe? It was holden by the Court, That all the Garden as it was in the Tenure of B, (although it was afterwards built upon) did paſſe: for the Leſſor doth not take knowledg what is done by an under-Tenant; but by intendment Leaſed it as entirely as he Leaſed it to B; and ſo the houſes built upon it, did well paſſe. Mich. 20 Jac. in B. R. Barton and Browns Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 648.

14. A. and B. Tenants for life of a Tenement called R. the remainder to A. in Tail, the remainder to B. in Tail, the remainder to the right heirs of A; A. and B. his Wife, by Indenture, demiſed the Tenement to J. S. for divers years to come, excepting all Trees of Timber, Oaks, and Aſhes; with liberty to carry them away, rendring Rent: A. dyed, having Iſſue a Daughter, married to Sir Allen Piercy Knight; Afterwards J. S. demiſed the Tenement to Sir Allen for 7 years. The Queſtion was, Whether Sir Allen having the Inheritance in the Right of his Wife, expectant upon the eſtate of B, and having poſſeſſion by the Demiſe, might cut down the Timber Trees, &c. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That if Tenant for life maketh a Leaſe for years, excepting the Timber Trees, &c. It is a good Exception; for otherwiſe if the Leſſee cutteth down the Trees, the Tenant for life ſhould be puniſhed in Waſte; and the Trees remained annexed to his Freehold, and he may command the Leſſee to take them for neceſſary reparations. Mich. 7 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Sir Allen Piercies Caſe; Cook, Select Caſes, 60.

15. A Leſſee for years opens a Mine, and afterwards aſſigns over his whole Term in the Land, with all profits, excepting the profit in the Coal Mine: The Aſſignee digs the Coal-Mine, and the Leſſor brings Waſte. In this Caſe, theſe points were Reſolved, 1. That if a man hath land, in part of which there is a Coal Mine, which is open, and he leaſeth the land for life, or years, that the Leſſee may dig the Mine; and if the Mine be open, yet if he leaſe the land, with all Mines, the Leſſee may dig it; but if it be not open, there upon a Leaſe of the land, the Leſſee cannot make new Mines. 2. Reſolved, That the Exception was void, for that a man cannot except a thing which doth not belong unto him, and by the Exception of the Mine, the land it ſelf is not excepted: And ſee there in 28 Eliz. in C. B. Foſter and Speners Caſe. Leſſee for years aſſigns over his Term, excepting the Timber Trees, that it was a void Exception; and the Aſſignee cutting the Trees, was charged in Waſte. Cook 5. Part, 12. Saunder's Caſe.

16. A. made a Leaſe and Grant of a Mannor, Farm, and Capital Meſſuage to B. with all emoluments, profits, and appurtenances, together with all the Woods, and Under-woods there growing, and all the Trees, excepting ſix of the great Trees, Habendum for 40 years, rendring Rent, with liberty to fell and cut down at any time during the Term, with Covenant on the part of the Leſſee to leave Wood on the land at the end of the Term, to the value of 10 l. the Leſſee aſſigned over his Eſtate, and by mean aſſignment the ſame came to the Plaintiff, who aſſigned it over to the Defendant, with an Exception of the liberty of felling and cutting. It was objected, That by the word Grant, in the Leaſe, the Leſſee had an abſolute Intereſt in the Trees, either to fell, or make other diſpoſition of them. But it was Reſolved, That by the word Grant in the Leaſe, no Intereſt paſſed, but he hath only a liberty to fell during the Term, and the Trees remain annexed and united to the Inheritance; and the liberty which is given him to fell, amounts no more then to this, to make him diſpuniſhable in an action of Waſte for his ſo doing: And there the Caſe was put; If Tenant in Tail do give or ſell Trees growing upon the land, and dies before the ſeverance of them, and his Iſſue enters, the Donee or Vendee ſhall not have them againſt the Iſſue, and if he cutteth them down, an Action of Treſpaſs lyeth againſt him, ſo as no property by the gift or ſale is in the party to whom the gift or ſale is made before actuall ſeverance of them. Trin. 9 Jac. in B. R. The Lady Billingſly and Herſeys Caſe.

6. Where Leaſes ſhall be void, or voidable by falſe recitall, miſrecital, Miſnoſmer of the Leſſor, Leſſee, or thing Leaſed, or other Incertainty; and where not. And where by a Leaſe of one thing, other things parcel, appurtenant, or implyed, will paſs; and where not.

1. A Man made a Leaſe for 30 years, and four years after, made another Leaſe by theſe words, Noverint, &c. nos dict. 30. annis finitis dediſſe et conceſſe B. Habendum à die Confectione preſent. termini prædict. finit. uſque ad terminum 31 annorum; and the words (à die Confectione) were drawn through with a line by the Leſſee, but yet remained legible. It was holden in this Caſe, That the Leaſe begins at the end of the 30 years, and not before; and this clauſe à die Confectionis preſentium, is but a Declaration of the firſt ſentence, which is obſcure to ſome intent, and if it ſhould not be ſo expounded, the Leſſee ſhould have but a Term for four years, which was not the intent of the parties. 2. Reſolved, That the Indenture had loſt its force and validity by the drawing of the line by the Leſſee, although it was not in a place material, and that the ſame made the Leaſe void. Paſc. 9 Eliz. Dyer, 261, 262.

2. A Corporation by the name of Dean and Chapter, Eccleſia Cathedral. Sanctæ et individuæ Trinitat. Carlile, made a Leaſe by the name of Decanus Eccleſia Cathedral. Sanctæ Trinit. in Carlile, et totum Capitulum de Eccleſia prædict. It was the better and greater Opinion of the Juſtices, That notwithſtanding this variance which was not in the ſubſtance of the name, that the Leaſe was good enough. Mich. 11 Eliz. Dyer, 274. But ſee Trin. 4 Ma. Dyer, 150. whereas the Colledg of Eaton was founded by King Henry the 6th, per nomen Prepoſiti et Collegii Regalis Collegii Beatæ Mariæ de Eaton juxta Winſor: And in the time of King E. 6. Sir Tho. Smith being Provoſt there, a Leaſe was made, per nomen Prepoſiti et Sociorum Collegii Regalis de Eaton, leaving out Collegium Beatæ Mariæ, and the Opinion of all the Juſtices was, That it was a void Leaſe.

3. A man ſeiſed of a Mannor, demiſed 10 Acres of the Demeſnes of it for 10 years, rendring Rent, and afterwards he leaſed the whole Mannor by the name of Manerii ſui de, &c. for 20 years, the Term to begin at the Feaſt of St. Mich. then next following.

following. Now whether a Leaſe and Intereſt of 10 years in the ſaid 10 Acres paſs to the Leſſee of the Mannor, after the expiration of the firſt ten years, although no Attornment was had by the firſt Termor, or not, was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it did paſs, not as a Reverſion, but as a Member and parcel of the Mannor, for the 10 Acres, were never ſevered from the Mannor, but alwayes remained parcel, and member of the body, and named the Mannor. Paſc. 18 Eliz. Dyer, 350.

4. The Pariſh of H. did extend into two Counties, viz. Berks and Buck. and a man made a Leaſe of a Cloſe of Land called Cattis, in the Pariſh of H. in the County of Berks, whereas in truth the Cloſe was in the County of Buck. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That notwithſtanding the Miſnomer, that the Leaſe was good. Trin. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 292. And it was ſaid, That this was not like the Caſe, Where a man leaſed a houſe in the Pariſh of St. Buttolphs extra Aldgate, late in the Tenure of R. and the houſe was in the Pariſh of St. Buttolph without Aldersgate, that there the Leaſe was void, becauſe in that Caſe he had not given any particular name to the houſe, but only that it was in the Pariſh, which was miſtaken. See 2 E. 4. 19. Plow. Com. 399. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 376.

5. A man poſſeſſed of Lands for 60 years, in conſideration of a Marriage to be had betwixt his Son, and the Daughter of another, demiſed the Land to his Son for 70 years, to begin after his death; and after the Leſſor dyed. In that Caſe, it was Reſolved, That the Leaſe was good, becauſe when the Land is demiſed after the death of the Leſſor, there is a ſufficient certainty, and no incertainty in the Deed. Mich. 35 Eliz. Locroft's Caſe adjudged. But if a man be poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 40 years, and he Grants to B. ſo many of the years as ſhall be unexpired at the time of his death, the ſame is void for the incertainty. 7 E. 6. Grants. 154. Cook 1. Part, 155. in the Rector of Cheddington's Caſe.

6. In Ejectione firmæ, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas J. S. and others at S. in the County of D. did Demiſe, Grant, and to Farm Let, to the Defendant, one Meſſuage, four Gardens, 200 Acres of Land, 20 Acres of Meadow, 80 Acres of Paſture, &c. with the appurtenances, called Eaſt Dizard in the ſaid County, to have and to hold for five years, &c. The Defendant pleaded Not Guilty, and Judgment was for the Plaintiff, and Error brought and Aſſigned for Error, that the Plaintiff in his Declaration did not ſhew in what Town, Parſh, Hamlet, or place the ſaid Tenement called the Eaſt Dizard did lye, but in the general County aforeſaid; and for that cauſe the Judgment was reverſed in the Exchequer Chamber. Hill. 5 Jac. in C. B. rott. 1284. Rich and Sheres Caſe. Hob. 89.

7. In a Quare Impedit, the Caſe was, a Leaſe was made 2 E. 6. A Leaſe was made of all Hereditaments Scituate, lying and being in D. And the Queſtion was, Whether the Advowſon of the Vicarage paſſed. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it did paſs, for although the Advowſon be not viſible nor palpable, nor lyeth in Livery. Yet in a Writ of Right of Advowſon, the Church ſhall be put in view; ſo as it hath a being in the Town and Church. Paſc. 15 Eliz. Dyer, 323.

8. An Aſſiſe was brought of Land in Middleſex: The Defendant pleaded a Leaſe for years to him made by one F. by the name of a Meſſuage in Surrey, and of all Lands lately with that demiſed, and averred that to be the Land in the plaint. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices upon the Leaſe for years, That the Lands in both Counties ſhould paſs, but otherwiſe it was of an Eſtate made for Term of life; for in ſuch Caſe, there muſt be ſeveral Liveries. But in the principal Caſe, It was ſaid by the Juſtices, That it had bin a better form of pleading, if it had bin pleaded, That F. was ſeiſed aſwell of the Lands in view, as of the houſe, and leaſed the ſame per nomen, &c. Hill. 8 Eliz. Dyer, 246, 247.

9. King Henry 8. being ſeiſed of a Grange called S. in the Pariſh of B. in the County of B. to which divers Lands and Tenements, as well in the ſaid Pariſh, as in another Pariſh within the ſaid County were appertaining. By his Letters Patents Granted the ſaid Grange with the appurtenances in the ſaid Pariſh, and divers particulars expreſſly named in the ſaid Pariſh, with a general clauſe of all other Lands and Tenements in the Pariſh of great B. aforeſaid, to the ſaid Grange belonging, not mentioning the other Pariſh; and yet reſerving the 10th of all as it was rented. And if the Patentee ſhould have the Lands in the other Pariſh by the Statute of 38 H. 8. cap. 21. was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of divers, That nothing paſſed in the other Pariſh, for that the Statute of 34 H. 8. did not aid No naming. The Caſe afterwards agreed by Arbitrament. Hill. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 331.

10. A Leaſe for years was made of a Farm with divers Cloſes belonging to it, by the words, Demiſe, Grant, and to Farm let, together with all manner of Timber-wood, Under-wood, and Hedg-rowes (except and reſerved all manner of great Oaks growing and being in one of the Cloſes by name about the Farm houſe), To have and hold the Cloſe with the Appurtenances to the Leſſee, &c. for 21 years, rendring a yearly Rent. It was the Opinion of Dyer, That by force of the word Grant, the Leſſee might cut down the Timber Trees. But three other Juſtices, viz. Windham, Periam, and Meade, were againſt it: Wherefore in waſte brought, Judgment was given againſt the Defendant. Hill. 23 Eliz. Dyer, 374.

1. IN Debt for Rent, it was found by Verdict That J. N. had iſſue a Son and a Daughter, and deviſed that his Son ſhould have his land at the age of 24 years, and gives 40 l. to his Daughter, to be paid at the age of 22 years, and appointed that Carpenter ſhould be his Executor, and ſhould repair to his houſes, and have the overſight and doing of all his lands and moveable goods, until the ſeveral ages aforeſaid, and dyed: Carpenter makes a Leaſe to Collins, at Will to be holden from Mich. as long as both parties ſhould agree; the Leſſee entred, and continued the poſſeſſion from Mich. for one year, and more; and finding that within the year, the Daughter entred, and that the Defendant Attorned to the Daughter, and refuſed to continue Tenant to the Plaintiff. In this Caſe, Judgment was given againſt the Plaintiff; for the Plaintiff took no Intereſt in the land by the Will, for the overſight and doing of his land, ſhall be intended but in the right of the Heir, and to his uſe; becauſe the Teſtator thought not his Son of diſcretion, until the age of four and twenty years, and in the mean time, appointed the Executor to overſee the land, to the profit of the Heir; and then the Executor having no Intereſt in the land, the Leaſe was determined, and Debt brought by him, would not lye. Mich. 3 Jac. in B. R. Carpenter and Collins Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 88.

2. In an Ejectment, the Caſe was, The Abbot of C. before the Diſſolution made Leaſe to W. D. and J. his Wife, and F. their Daughter, for their lives by Indenture; and by the ſame Indenture, Covenanted and Granted to the ſaid three Leſſees, that the land ſhould remain to the Aſſignee of the Survivor of them, for 99 years; F. ſurvived, and took to husband one H. who 20 Eliz. Granted their Eſtate to J. S. and all their Intereſt in the Remainder, and all their power, for all the Term; and this by mean aſſignment came to the Defendant; and whether any Intereſt in Remainder paſſed by the Leaſe of the Abbot, was the Queſtion. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, and they held it to be a good Intereſt in poſſibility, and to be reduced into certainty in the perſon of the Survivor. Paſch. 4 Jac. in B. R. Clark and Sydenhams Caſe. Brownlow, 1. Part, 136.

3. A Man made a Leaſe for life, and afterwards made a Leaſe to another for years, to begin after the death of Tenant for life; the Leſſee for years dyed Inteſtate; the Ordinary committed Adminiſtration; the Adminiſtrator and the Tenant for life joyn in purchaſe of the Fee: Two points were moved, 1. If the Fee were executed in the Tenant for life for any part. 2. If the Term were gone in part, or in all. It was the Opinion of Manwood Juſtice, That if the land be to one for life, the remainder for years, the remainder to the firſt Tenant for life in Fee, there the Fee is executed; ſo as if he loſe by default, he ſhall have a Writ of Right, and not a Quod ei deforceat; and that the Term ſhall be no impediment that the Fee ſhall not be executed. And for the ſecond point, he was of Opinion, That the Term was not extinct, for that it is not a Term, but inter eſſe Termini, which cannot be Granted nor Surrendred; Dyer doubted of it, but ſaid it was a good point. Paſch. 17 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt, 1.

4. A Copyholder in Fee did ſurrender his Copyhold unto the uſe of another, and his heirs, which ſurrender was into the hands of two Tenants, according to the Cuſtome of the Manner, to be preſented at the next Court: And no Court was holden for the Manner for the ſpace of 30 years, within which time, the Surrenderor, the Surrenderee, and the two Tenants, all dyed: The Heir of the Surrenderor entered, and made a Leaſe for years of the Copyhold, according to the Cuſtome of the Manner. It was the Opinion of the Court, That it was a good Leaſe. Mich. 24 Jac. in B. R. Godbolt, 268.

5. Leſſee for 100 years, made a Leaſe for 40 years to T. S. if he ſhould ſo long live, and afterwards he leaſed the ſame to J. his Son, Habendum after the death of T. S. for 23 years, to be accounted from the date of theſe preſents. The Queſtion was, when the Term ſhould begin. It was the clear Opinion of the Juſtices, That the Leaſe to J. ſhould not be accounted from the time of the date, but from the end of the Term of T. S. becauſe that when by the firſt words of limitation, it is a good Leaſe to begin after the Term of T. S. it ſhall not be made void by ſubſequent words. Paſch. 8 Jac. in C. B. Stamans Caſe. Godbolt, 166.

6. In an Action of Waſte brought, the Writ was, That the Abbot and Covent had made a Leaſe for years; It was holden by the Court, That it was good; although the Court ſaid, It had been better if the Writ had been, That the Abbot, with the aſſent of the Covent made the Leaſe, for that is the uſual form; but in ſubſtance the Writ is good, becauſe the Covent being dead perſons in Law, by no Intendment can be ſaid to make a Leaſe. But the Dean and Chapter muſt of neceſſity joyn in making of a Leaſe, becauſe they are all able perſons to

And

And if the Dean make a Leaſe without the Chapter, it is not good per Curiam, if it be of the Chapter lands. Mich. 11 Jac. in C. B. Ireland and Barkers Caſe. Godbolt, 231.

7. Certain lands with a ſtock of Sheep were Leaſed by Indenture; and the Leſſee did covenant by the ſame Indenture, to reſtore to the Leſſor at the end of the Term, ſo many Sheep in number as he took in Leaſe, and that they ſhould be between the age of two and four years; afterwards the Leſſor Granted the ſame ſtock unto E. the Wife of A; whereas in truth, the ancient ſtock was ſpent. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That when a ſtock of Sheep is leaſed for years, the principal property doth remain in the Leſſor as long as thoſe Sheep which were in eſſe at the time of the Leaſe ſhould live; but if any of them do dye, and other do come in their rooms, then the property of thoſe Sheep doth come and belong unto the Leſſee; and therefore they held, that the ſecond Leſſee ſhould have as many of the Sheep as were left, and did remain at the end of the Leaſe, and no other; although it was ſtrongly objected, That the ſtock was entire, and that as ſoon as any other came in the rooms of the ancient ſheep that were dead, they were accounted part of the ſame ſtock. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Wood and Aſbes Caſe, Godbolt, 113.

8. A man demiſed a houſe for years, and the Leſſee covenanted for him and his Aſſignes to repair the houſe from time to time, and to leave it at the end of the Term ſufficiently repaired, and aſſigns the breach in not repairing of it; The Defendant pleaded, That by Indenture he aſſigned all his Eſtate and Intereſt in the Term to J. S. ſuch a day and yeer who entred and payed his Rent ſuch a day to the Plaintiff the Leſſor, who accepted thereof; and that there was not any default in reparations, before the aſſignment: Upon which it was demurred. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, That the Action did well lye againſt the Leſſee, notwithſtanding this acceptance of the Aſſignee to be his Tenant, or againſt the Aſſignee at the Election of the Plaintiff. Hill. 15 Car. in B. R. Norton and Ackland's Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 419. Hill. 19 Jac. Brett and Cumberlands Caſe adjudge acc.

9. Error brought of a Judgment in Ireland, in Ejectione firmæ, of a Leaſe made by the Earl of T. of 40 Meſſuages, 500 Acres of lands, 500 Acres of Paſture, 100 Acres of Bog, in Villis & Territoriis de A. B. C. Whereupon Not Guilty. It was found, that the ſaid Earl let them to the Plaintiff for 21 years, rendring Rent, with condition that he ſhould not let or alien any part above three years; and if he did that the Leaſe ſhould be void, and he re-enter: The Defendant let for three years, and ſo from three years to three years, during his life, if he lived ſo long: The Earl accepted the Rent from the Aſſignee, and notwithſtanding re-entred, and made the leaſe to the Plaintiff: The Queſtion in Ireland was, Whether it were a breach of the Condition. And 2. Whether the acceptance of the Rent by the hand of the Aſſignee, made it good, and diſpenſed with the breach, the acceptance being at another Rent day: And it was there adjudged for the Defendant: And upon Error brought here, It was Reſolved to be a plain breach of the Condition, and that the acceptance after, might not diſpenſe with the condition, ſeeing it was, that it ſhould be void, and ſo was abſolutely determined. Then Exception was taken, That the Leſſors Action was not good, of 100 Acres of Bog, for it is a word unknown; But the Court held, it was well known there, and the Plaintiff might releaſe his demand as to that Land, and have Judgment for the reſidue. And another Exception was, That it was in Villis & Territoriis: But that was holden good enough, for that they are of one ſenſe. Mich. 13 Car. in B. R. Mulcarry and Eyres Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 38.

10. Error to reverſe a Judgment in Cheſter. The Caſe was, The Earl of Oxford, and E. his Wife, were ſeized of the Manor of B. in Fee, and had Iſſue John: Afterwards the ſaid Earl of O. by Indenture let the ſaid Manor to F. S. for 30 years, E. dyed, J. Earl of O. dyed; John Emſon by Indenture, reciting the Leaſe to A. S. to be dated 20 Feb. 2 H. 8. let the ſaid Manor to J. S. Habendum, after the end, ſurrender, or forfeiture of the ſaid F. S. for 31 years: Then it was found, That after the making of the ſaid Indenture, the words 28 H. 8. were razed, and made 27 H. 8. and afterwards 36 H. 8. the ſaid John Earl, by Indenture betwixt him and J. D. reciting the Leaſe to A. S. to be 27 H. 8. Granted the Reverſion of the Manor and Premiſſes to the ſaid J. D. Habendum the ſaid Manor and Premiſſes from ſuch time as the ſame ſhall revert and come to the poſſeſſion of the ſaid Earl, or his Heirs, by ſurrender, or forfeiture, or otherwiſe, for 60 years. 4 Eliz. John dyed ſeized, and the Manor deſcended to his Son, Edw. Earl of Oxford: He by Indenture 14 Eliz. reciting, whereas John his Father by Indenture 3 July 35 H. 8. demiſed to J. S. the Manor of B. for 30 years, from the end and determination of the Leaſe made to J. S. which was dated 30 Feb. 28 H. 8. regranted the Leaſe to J. D. for 60 years, to begin after the Surrender, Determination, or Forfeiture, omitting the word [otherwiſe] of the Leaſe of A S. The ſaid Earl demiſed the ſaid Manor to J. S. Habendum from the end of the ſaid Leaſes for 50 years. The Queſtion was, Whether any of theſe Leaſes to J. D. or J. S. be good, or were in eſſe at the time: Judgment was given for for the Plaintiff in Chester: Upon which Error was brought, and it was Resolved, That the Judgment given there, should be affirmed. The Question in this Case was, 1. If the Lease to A. S. was determined after the death of John Earl of O. who was seized thereof in the right of his wife, and he Tenant by the curtesie, or only determinable by the Entry of the Heir: All the Justices agreed, That it was determined by the death of John Earl of O. Tenant by the curtesie, and there A. S. was but Tenant at sufferance, and the Freehold was in the Earl. The second Question was, When the Lease to J. S. began. Resolved, That it began presently from the time of the Sealing; because no such Lease was in esse to A. S. The third point The Lease to J. S. being razed in a material point, after the Sealing and Delivery thereof, whether it be a cause to make the Lease void. Some of the Justices said, That the Deed was void by the razure, but the Lease was good, and remained in esse, notwithstanding the razure; and took a difference when an Estate loseth its essence by a Deed, and when it may have essence without a Deed; where it may not have an Essence without a Deed, there if the Deed be razed after the delivery, it determines the Estate, and makes it void: but when an Estate may have an Essence without a Deed, there although it be created by Deed, and the Deed be razed afterwards by the party, or a stranger, it shall not destroy the Estate, though it destroy the Deed. The third point was, If the Lease to J. D. were good, or void. Resolved, It was void; for the Grant in the premisses is only of the Reversion, and it was the intent of the parties to pass the Reversion only ex vi termini upon the former Leases, and then when there is not any such Lease, it cannot pass the Lands in possession. Hill. 30 Car. in Exchequer Chamber. Miller, and Johns, and Manwaring's Case. Cro. 1. Part, 289, 290.

11. Lessee for years, rendring rent at Mich. and our Lady, upon condition of re-entry for default of payment, is ousted by a stranger, the disseisin continues till the day of payment; the Lessor demands the Rent, and the Lessee refuseth to pay it. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That notwithstanding the disseisin, the Lessor may enter upon the land for the condition broken, or he may distrain for the Rent, for the land leased shall be subject to those lawful remedies which the Lessor provides for the recovery of his Rent, or Possession, in whose hands soever the Land comes; and the Act of a stranger cannot deprive the Lessor to take advantage of a Condition which is annexed to the Estate of the Lessee, Pasch. 19 Jac. B. R. Humphry and Damions Case. Cro. 2. Part, 201.

12. In Debt for Rent, upon a Lease made to an Infant, The Question was, Whether the Lease was void. It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was voidable only at his Election; for if it was for his benefit, it shall be no wayes void: And because it was not shewed in the principal Case, that the Rent was of greater value then the Land, and so the Lease might be for his benefit: And also, because it appeared that he was of full age before the day the Rent became due. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Pasch. 11 Jac. in B. R. Kriseys Case. Cro. 2. Part, 320.

13. The Case was, Upon a communication of a mariage betwixt Sir Rob. Griffith and the Lady Stowell, The said G. promised to assure her 1000 l. per annum for her Joynture, his Estate being 12000 l. per annum; upon this confidence, she married him before any assurance: Afterwards he by Deed Conveyed Lands of great value to some friends of the Lady, then his Wife, to the use of the Lady, for the Term of an hundred years, if she should live so long, to begin after his death; and it was endorsed upon the back of the said Deed, that the Intent thereof was, That when there should be a Joynture of 1000 l. per annum setled upon her, that then the Lease should be void: And if it was a fraudulent Lease or no, was the Question; Because it was with a Proviso, to determine at the Will of the Husband. It was the Opinion of the Court, That this Lease being made in pursuance of the first promise, although there was not any mention of any Lease to be made; yet it was grounded upon a good consideration, and was not fraudulent, and although it was concealed by the Wife, during the life of her Husband, yet the Lease being good at the first, the Concealment cannot make it ill: And in this Case it was said, That a Lease may be determined by force of a Condition endorsed upon the back-side of it, if it be before the Sealing and Delivery, as well as by force of a Condition within the Deed. Mich. 15 Jac. in B. R. The Lady Griffith and Stanhopes Case, Cro. 455.

14. In a Replevin, the Case was; The King seised in Fee of a Farm, Anno 2. of his Raign, Let it the Earl of N. and others for 100 years, if F. the Wife of the Lord C. should so long live, to begin after the death of H. Lord C: and afterwards in the same year, granted the land in Fee to C. B; who 6. Decemb. 4 Jac. let it to B. for 21. years. Afterwards, 5 Jac. the Earl of N. and the other Lessees granted that Term to C. B: 5 Jac. C. B. granted a Rent of 20 l. per annum to J. S. and others, during the life of the said F: Afterwards, H. Lord C. dyed, the Grantees distrained upon P. the Lessee for this Rent: The Question in this case was, Whether the Lease for 100 years was in esse in C.B. who had the Inheritance, and granted the Rent? or if it was drowned in the Inheritance? It was Resolved, That it was drowned in the the Inheritance: for if it were not drowned, then it ſhould avoid the Leaſe for 21. years which was before this Rent-charge granted; and this Term being in the Grantor who granted it, is lyable to the payment of the Rent. And it was Reſolved, It was drowned in the Inheritance: For notwithſtanding this Leaſe for 21. years, it is not ſo ſevered from the Reverſion, but by grant thereof to him who hath the Inheritance, the future Term is drowned, and never ſhall riſe again, and by conſequent this Rent ſhall not charge the poſſeſſion of the Termor. It was adjudged for the Defendant. Trin. 19 Jac. in B. R. Salmon and Swan Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 619.

15. A. poſſeſſed of a houſe in London for 31. years, deviſeth, That J. his Wife ſhall enjoy the profits thereof durante viduitate, and that then the reſidue of the Term ſhould remain to B, and dyes; J. by Livery of the Executor, enters into the houſe, and purchaſeth the Fee, and then marries C: whereupon B. enters. It was Reſolved, That his Entry was lawful; for although the whole Term was in J. quoad &c. ſo as by the purchaſe of the Fee-ſimple, the Intereſt of J. was extinct; yet that ſhould not defeat the Intereſt executory of B; but that after the marriage of J, and not before, he may well enter. Cook 10. Part, 52. Hardington and Ridyers Caſe. Trin. 28 Eliz.

16. A man letteth Lands for life, upon Condition to have Fee, and afterwards warranteth the land in forma predict. afterwards the Leſſee performeth the Condition, whereby the Leſſee hath Fee: In this Caſe, it was holden, The the Warranty ſhall not extend and encreaſe according to the Eſtate: For a Warranty being a Covenant reall, executory may extend to an Eſtate in futuro, having an Eſtate upon which it may work in the beginning: But if a man granteth a Seignory for years, upon Condition to have Fee, with a Warranty in forma predict: and after the Condition is performed, this ſhall not extend to the Fee, becauſe the firſt Eſtate was but for years, which was not capable of a Warranty. And ſo it is, if a man make a Leaſe for years, the remainder in Fee, and warrants the land in forma predict. he in the Remainder cannot take benefit of this Warranty, becauſe he is not party to the Deed: and immedia ely he cannot take, if he were party to the Deed, becauſe he is named after the Habendum, and the Eſtate for years is not capable of a Warranty. Cook 1 Part, Inſtitutes, 378.

17. Leſſee of a Manner for 99. years, takes a Leaſe of the Bayliwick of the ſaid Manner for 21. years: If it be a ſurrender or determination of the firſt Leaſe, was the Queſtion? It was argued, That it was not a Surrender, becauſe it was of another thing, and of another nature, and may well ſtand with the Leaſe of the Manner: but if he had taken a grant of a Rent-Charge, Common, Eſtovers, or any parcel of the Mannor, it had been a Surrender. It was ſaid on the other ſide, that it was agreed, That if he take Cuſtodiam of it, it is a Surrender à fortiori, of the Bayliwick; for a Bayliwick hath a greater Intereſt then he who hath a Cuſtody: If Leſſee for years takes a new Leaſe for a leſſer Term, it is a Surrender of the firſt Leaſe, Mich. 37 Eliz. in C. B. Jeffs Caſe, adjudged acc. 45 Eliz. in a Quare Impedit, Thompſons Caſe; Leſſee for years of an Advowſon was preſented to the Church; It was adjudged a Surrender: and if a Copyholder in Fee takes a Leaſe for years of the ſame land, it is an extinguiſhment of his Copyholder. The principal Caſe was not Reſolved. Trin. 3 Jac. in B. R. Gibſon and Stark Caſe, Cro. 2. Part, 84.

18. In Debt for 100 l. The Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe made at London of the Mannor of L. R. in the County of S; and of a Capital Meſſuage, and 4. Cloſes of Paſture to the ſaid Meſſuage adjoyning, rendring 120 l. per annum, with a Nomine Pœnæ of 8 l. a day, for non-payment: and ſhewed, that 60 l. was behind for the half year; and ſo remained by the ſpace of 100 dayes, making 40 l; and ſo together 100 l: The Defendant confeſſed the Leaſe, and plead d an Extent of the land by a Stranger upon a Statute before the Leaſe: but ſhewed, that the Liberate was executed after the Rent day, and the Rent due: upon which the Plaintiff demurred. In that caſe, Judgment was given for the Plaintiff for the 60 l. Rent, becauſe it was due before the Liberate executed: But for the 40 l. paid, it was adjudged againſt the Plaintiff, becauſe the Plaintiff layed no demand of his Rent at the day, without which a pain is not forfeited. Hill. 10 Jac. in C. B. Sir Richard Grobham and Thornborough Caſe. Hob. 28.

19. In an Ejectione Firmæ for a Chamber, the Caſe was; A Leaſe was made of the Rectory of C. in the County of Eſſex, and of the Gleabe, Excepting the Parſonage; Saving and allowing unto the Leſſee a Chamber over the Parlour next the Church: It was adjudged, That the Leaſe of the Chamber was good; For as well as a man may by his Exception, except part of a thing, ſo as it ſhall be intended, that it was never let or granted: ſo in this Caſe, when he ſayes, Except the Parſonage houſe, Saving and allowing to the Leſſee a Chamber; this Saving, makes the Chamber, as it were, excepted out of it, as if it had been Leaſed. So a Saving out of a Saving, is as much as if there had been no Saving at all, and then this Chamber not being excepted out of the Leaſe, It ſhall paſſe by the Leaſe of the Rectory. 20. A. ſeiſed of Lands holden in Socage, made a Leaſe of them for divers years to J. S. and dyed his heir within age; his Wife being Guardian in Socage, leaſed the ſame Lands by Indenture to the ſame J. S. for years: If the firſt Leaſe was ſurrendred, or determined, was the Queſtion? It was the Opinion of Anderſon, Chief Juſtice, That it could not be a Surrender, becauſe the Guardian in Socage had not a Reverſion capable of a Surrender, but only an authority to take the profits to the uſe of the heir: but perhaps it is determined by operation of Law; As if A. make a Leaſe to B. for 100 years, and afterwards granteth the Reverſion to C. who Leaſeth to B. for two years, who accepteth the Leaſe, the ſame is not a Surrender, becauſe a Leaſe for 100 years cannot be drowned in a Reverſion for two years; and yet the firſt Leaſe is determined: which Periam, Juſtice granted. Hill. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Willis and Whitewoods Caſe. Leon. 322, 323.

21. A. ſeiſed of Lands, Leaſed the ſame to B. C. and D. for their lives, and for the life of the Survivour of them: Provided, and it was Covenanted betwixt the parties, That C. and D. ſhould not take any benefit or profit of the Lands during the life of A: and further, that D. ſhould not take any benefit of them during the life of C: A. dyed; C. entred: Afterwards D. entred, and made a Leaſe to the Plaintiff: If the Entry of D. was lawful, was the Queſtion? It was Reſolved, That they took in this caſe as joynt Tenants, & not by way of Remainder; and that the Habendum in this caſe had done its Office, to explain the Eſtate, and make it a joynt Eſtate; and therefore the clauſe afterwards comes too late, and in truth is repugnant and void, as to the dividing of the Eſtate by way of Remainder. Mich. 31 Eliz. in B.R. Scovell and Cavils Caſe. Leon. 317.

22. In Treſpaſſe, the Caſe was; A Leaſe was made of a houſe for 7. years, rendring Rent at the Annunciation and St. Michael, with Condition, If the Rent was behind by the ſpace of 10. dayes, the Leſſor to re-enter: After Annunciation, the Rent was behind; and the 10th day after, the Leſſor came to the houſe a quarter of an hour before the Sun-ſetting, and demanded the Rent in theſe words, I demand 3 l. 10 s. for a half years Rent of this houſe now due; and continued there till Sun was ſet, but no Rent was paid. The Iſſue was, If he came to the houſe half an hour before Sun-ſet, and there continued demanding the half years Rent: Alſo the Iſſue was, If the demand were of the Rent due at the Feaſt of the Annunciation paſſed: and the Verdict is for Rent due at the time of the demand. The Court was of Opinion, That the Verdict was well found for the Plaintiff. But it was agreed by all the Juſtices, That if in demand of Rent, the Leſſee or any for him, doth demand one penny more or leſſe then is due, or in his demand doth not ſhew the certainty of the Rent, and the day of payment; the demand is not good. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Fabian and Winſors Caſe. Leon. 305.

23. Indentures of a Leaſe were engroſſed, bearing date 26. Maii, 25 Eliz. To have and to hold for 3. yeats from thenceforth; and the Indentures were delivered at 4. of the clock in the afternoon, 28 Jan. Anno 25 Eliz. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. That (From henceforth) is as much as to ſay, from the delivery, or from the making. 2. Reſolved, That in this caſe, the day of the delivery of the Leaſe ſhall be taken inclusivè; and the day it ſelf no parcel of the Demiſe: But if a Leaſe be made to begin a die Confeſſionis, or a die datus, there the day of the date is excluded. Cook 5. Part, 1. Clayons Caſe.

24. If a Woman ſeiſed durante viduitate, makes a Leaſe for years, and the Leſſee ſoweth the Land with Corn or Grain; and afterwards the Wife taketh Husband: In that caſe, the Leſſee ſhall not have the Corn; for although his Eſtate be determined by the act of a ſtranger; yet he ſhall not be in better caſe then his Leſſor from whom he derives his Intereſt. And therefore the principal caſe, That a Woman Copyholder durante viduitate ſowed the Land, and before the ſeverance took husband. It was adjudged, That the Lord ſhould have the Corn ſowed, and not the husband. Cook 5. Part, 116. Olands Caſe.

25. Debt upon a Leaſe for years for Rent, the Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe for Rent, for twenty yeares by Indenture, Rendering forty pounds per annum at two Feaſts, Mich. and our Lady, or within 10. dayes after every Feaſt; and for 8 l. due at Mich. the Action was brought. Upon Not Guilty, it was found for the Plaintiff. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the Rent was due at Mich. and the Leſſee might then tender it to the perſon of the Leſſor; but yet he hath Election whether he will pay it untill the tenth day be determined: And by a Releaſe before the 10th day, the Rent is releaſed. Hill. 7 Jac. in B.R. Barwick and Foſter's Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 227, 233. See Trin. 34 Eliz. Clark and Bovendens Caſe, acc. Ibid.

26. A Tenant for life of the Manor of D. then in Leaſe for years, levied a Fine thereof to the uſe of her ſelf for life, and after to the uſe of her eldeſt ſon in tail, reſerving power to her at any time to make Leaſes for 21. years: The former Leaſe being in being, ſhe made a Leaſe to J. S. for 21. years, to begin after the determination of the former Leaſe. It was adjudged, That the ſecond Leaſe was not good; for that it ought to have have been a Leaſe in poſſeſſion, and not in reverſion or in futuro: for ſo ſhe might make infinite Leaſes, and thereby detain the poſſeſſion long from him in the Reverſion; which were unreaſonable. Hill. 10 Jac. in B.R. Shelcomb and Hawkins Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 318.

27. In a Prohibition to the Councel of the Marches in Wales; the Caſe was; J. ſeiſed of Land, made a Leaſe for life; and afterwards levied a Fine of all his Lands, to the uſe of J. D. for 15. years, and afterwards to the uſe of himſelf for life, with a power for him to make Leaſes for 21. years or 3 Lives in poſſeſſion. It was agreed by the Juſtices, That this Term of 15. years is preſently ſubject to the power to make Leaſes for years: and that the firſt Leſſee ſhould have the Rent reſerved during the Term of the 15 years limited to him: And that the Court of Marches ought not to entermeddle therewith; and a Prohibition was granted. Paſch. 12 Jac. in B. R. Fox and Prickwoods Caſe, 349.

28. In Ejectione Firmæ, The Plaintiff declared of a Leaſe made 12. December, Habendum à primo die: The Jury found, it was dated 1. Decemb. Habendum from henceforth, but delivered 12. Decemb. It was Reſolved, That from the date, and from henceforth, are all one, being a Computation of time paſt, and both ſhall be pleaded to begin from the day of the date: But if a man declares of a Leaſe of the 1. December, Habendum à die datus, the Ejectment cannot be alledged the ſame day; contrary, if it be from henceforth. 29. A man ſeiſed of a Manner, and of a Tenement in Fee-ſimple, and poſſeſſed alſo of a Leaſe for years in the Town of D, by Deed of Bargain and Sale, doth give, grant, bargain, ſell, enfeoffe and confirm to J.D. the Manner, Tenement, and all other the Lands and Tenements which he hath in the Town of D. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That by the general words in this Deed of Bargain and Sale, the Leaſe for years did not paſſe. And it was compared to 18 Eliz. the Lord North and the Biſhop of Ely's Caſe, Where the Predeceſſor of the Biſhop had made a Leaſe to him of his Mannor-Houſe and Demeſnes by particular name, and all other his Lands and Tenements, that in that caſe, an Ancient Park and Copyhold Land did not paſſe; for neither could be intended Demeſnes: and a Grant ſhall not be conſtrued by any violent conſtruction, but according to the Intention of the Law. Hill. 8 Jac. in B.R. Sir William Turpine and Forteynes Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. Part, 99.

30. The Dean and Chapter of Worceſter were Incorporated by the name of Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chriſt and the Bleſſed Virgin Mary of Worceſter: And they made a Leaſe for Life by the name of the Dean of the Cathedrall of Chriſt, and of our Bleſſed Lady the Virgin of Worceſter, and the Chapter there, Habendum from the day of the date; and made a Letter of Attorney to one to make Livery ſecundum formam Chartæ; the Attorney made Livery the next day after; And the Jury find the Leaſe to be made the 25th day of, &c. and that the Livery by the Attorney was made poſt vigeſſimum quintum diem præfix. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That as it was found, the Leaſe was not good: And if it be not good in it ſelf, It is not in the power of the Attorney by his Livery to make it good: but if this Leaſe were delivered after the firſt day: then clearly the Grant was good. Trin. 12 Jac. in B.R. Butler and Finchers Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 303, 304, 305.

31. If the King maketh a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent, with a Proviſo, That if the Rent be not paid at the day limited, that the Leaſe ſhall ceaſe, without making any mention that it was to be paid at the Receipt. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That in this caſe, ipſo facto, upon default of payment, the Leaſe is determined; and that there needs not any Office to be found of it in that caſe. Trin. 36 Eliz. Finch and Roſeley's Caſe. Popham 53. Trin. 32 Eliz. in the Exchequer-Chamber, Sir Moile Finch and Throgmorton's Caſe, adjudged acc.

32. The Lady Cromwell was poſſeſſed of divers Leaſes, and conveyed them in truſt; and afterwards ſhe entermarried with Sir John St. John: afterwards ſhe received the moneys which came of the Truſt, and with part of it ſhe bought Jewels, and other part of it ſhe left in ready money. Sir John St. John took Letters of Adminiſtration of the goods of the Wife: The Eccleſiaſtical Court would have him accompt for the Jewels and money, and have compelled him to have put them into the Inventory. But the Court granted a Prohibition to the Eccleſiaſtical Court. And the reaſon was, becauſe the money received upon the Truſt, was the money of the husband. And in this Caſe, It was agreed by the Juſtices, That if a woman doth convey a Leaſe in truſt for her uſe, and afterwards marrieth, That in ſuch caſe, it lyeth not in the power of the husband to diſpoſe of it; and if the wife dye, the husband ſhall not have it, but the Executor of the wife: And ſo it was ſaid, It was Reſolved in the Chancery. Trin. 15 Car. in B.R. Sir John St. John's Caſe. Marſh 44.

33. A Leaſe is made for years; and that the Leſſee ſhall have convenient Lignum, non ſuccidendo, da, &c. vel vendenda arbores; the Leſſee cut Trees, and the Leſſor brought an Action of Covenant: Reſolved, That the Action would well lye; for it is a Covenant on the part of the Leſſee, becauſe the Law gives him reaſonable Eſtovers: and by this Covenant he abridgeth his Priviledge. Paſch. 15 Car. in B.R. Mayſo 9.

34. In Ejectione Firmæ, The Plaintiff declared, That W. More 5. Maii, 10. Jac. leaſed to the Plaintiff a houſe, 40 Acres of Land, 50 Acres of Paſture, with the appurtenances in C. Habendum from the Feaſt of the Annunciation of the Bleſſed Virgin St. Mary laſt paſt for 21 years next enſuing; And the Ejectment was alledged to be 5. Maii, 19 Jac. And the Jury found, That W. was ſeiſed of the ſaid Lands; And the ſaid 5. Maii, 10. ſupradict. Demiſed the Tenements aforeſaid to the Plaintiff, Habendum from the Feaſt of the Virgin, &c. laſt paſt, for and during the Term of 21. years next enſuing the date to be compleat and ended. The Queſtion was, Whether the Leaſe found by the Jury, did agree with the Leaſe mentioned in the Declaration; becauſe the Leaſe by the Declaration, was a Leaſe made 5. Maii, 10. Jac. Habend. from the Feaſt of the Annunciation then laſt paſt; and the ſenſe found by the Jury, was a Leaſe made 5. Maii, 10. Jac. per Indent. dat. 5. Maii, 10. Jac. Habend. de feſto Annunciationis, &c. tunc proximo for 21 years proximè ſequend. dat. diſt. Indenturæ. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff in the Exchequer; and afterwards affirmed in a Writ of Errour. Mich. 10 Jac. in C.B. Moore and Muſgraves Caſe. Hob. 19. See Paſch. 24 Car. in B. 35. In Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was; J. S. being ſeiſed of the Lands in Queſtion in Fee, made a Feoffment thereof unto A. and B. and their heirs, untill they ſhould make a Leaſe of the ſaid Lands for divers years to certain uſes, to begin at the Feaſt of Philip and Jacob next coming; the Feoffees entred, and made a Leaſe for years of the Lands, to begin from the Feaſt of Philip and Jacob next. The Queſtion was, If the Feoffees had made ſuch a Leaſe as the Deed of Feoffment directed, and ſo the uſes are raiſed thereby? or whether it ſhall be intended another Leaſe not warranted by the Feoffment, and ſo no Uſes raiſed? It was holden, 1. That here was a good Conſideration to raiſe an uſe. 2. It was holden, That here was only a matter of Truſt in the Feoffees; and the intent was not, that the Feoffees ſhould have any thing by the not performance of the Truſt, but that the uſe ſhould be to the Feoffor. 3. It was holden, That this Leaſe was made to begin from the Feaſt of Philip and Jacob: and here it is made for a day longer then was agreed upon by the Deed: yet becauſe the intent of the parties is performed, it ſhall be conceived to be a good Leaſe according to the Agreement. Trin. 24 Car. in B.R. Watts and Dixes Caſe. Styles, 188, 205.

36. In Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was, That a man being Leſſee for 99. years of Lands, devi-ſed the Term to his Wife for life, with power to make ſuch Eſtates in as ample manner as he himſelf might have done during her life; the remainder in tail to his Daughter, and dyed: the Wife proved the Will, and accepted of the Legacy, and afterwards made a Leaſe for 99. years of the Land, and dyed; the Daughter brought the Ejectione Firmæ: In this Caſe, the Court was divided in Opinion; For Rolls, Chief Juſtice, held, That the Leaſe was good; for a Will ought to be interpreted, That all the parts of it might ſtand together; and if the Wife have not a power to make the Leaſe, the Clauſe of giving her this Leaſe, is idle: And without doubt, the Wife hath the ſole Eſtate in Law in her; and the power given, &c. is but a reſtoring of her to that which ſhe had before by the Law; and her conſenting to the Legacy doth not take away her power to make Eſtates, and this power and the remainder might well ſtand together, for it might be the Wife would not make ſuch a Leaſe, and then the Daughter ſhould have the Land in tail: To all which, Jermyn agreed. But Ashe and Nicholls, Juſtices, held, The Wife could diſpoſe of the land but during her life, by the expreſs words of the Will. The Caſe was not adjudged. Mich. 1651. Heal and Greens Caſe, in B.R. Styles, 315. & 275.

37. The Mayor and Comminalty of London brought an Action of Covenant upon a Leaſe, for non-payment of Rent upon a Leaſe for years made to the Defendant, of the Gaolers Office: The Defendant pleaded, It was an Office of Truſt repoſed in the City, and could not be let for years, and ſo no ground for an Action: And the Office it ſelf is not veſted in the Mayor, and that therefore he could not grant. On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That they had a Fee-ſimple in the Office by their Charter, and that this Leaſe was but a Deputation; and the Leſſee by taking the Leaſe, and entring into the Covenant, ſhall barr himſelf of this Plea. Quære; for the Caſe was not Reſolved. Mich. 1652. in B.R. The Mayor and Comminalty of London, and Hutton's Caſe. Styles, 317.

38. In Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, made a Leaſe thereof to J.D. at Will; A. D. put the Tenant at Will out of poſſeſſion, and afterwards the Tenant at Will entred, and took a Leaſe of the ſame land of him that put him out of poſſeſſion: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That if one make a Leaſe at Will to one; ons, and he be ouſted, and then again enters, and takes a new Eſtate, the Will is determined. But it was ſaid, A Stranger cannot determine his Eſtate without his Conſent; but in this caſe he hath determined his firſt Eſtate by his Contract with the Diſſeiſor of his Leſſor. Hill. 1652. B. R. Locky and Dumſowes Caſe. Styles, 383.

39. Note. In Ejectione Firmæ, It was agreed by the Juſtices, 1. That to make a ſuſpenſion of a Rent reſerved upon a Leaſe for years, the Leſſor muſt ouſt the Leſſee of part of the thing Let, and hold him out till after the day that the Rent is made payable by the Leaſe; and if the Leſſee re-entreth, the Rent is revived. 2. That if one taketh a Leaſe for years of Land by Deed; and during the Term, the Leſſee accepts to hold the land for a leſſer Term by word, this is a ſurrender of the Leaſe by Deed. 3. If there be a Leaſe for years, rendring Rent at a day, with clauſe of re-entry for non-payment. If the Leſſor do enter into part of the lands let before the day of payment; and at the day, he make demand of the Rent; and in default of payment, he re-enters: yet this re-entry ſhall not make the Leaſe void; for the Rent was ſuſpended at the time of the demand. Paſch. 1655. in B. R. Timbrell and Bullocks Caſe. Styles, 448.

40. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, by Deed granted a Rent to C. his ſon, to begin after the death of the Grantor: B. ſon and heir of A, entred into the land, and demiſed part of the land to C. for 500 years, who entred; and before any part of the Rent was arrear, C. ſurrendred the Leaſe to B: to which Surrender, B. agreed. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Rent though once ſuſpended, was revived, and the Contract now determined: And it was agreed, That where Leſſee for years ſurrenders, to which the Leſſor agrees, and accepts of it, the poſſeſſion and Intereſt is in him without Entry. Hill. 3 Car. in C.B. Peto and Pemberions Caſe. Hutton, 94.

41. Note. It was Reſolved by the Court, That if a man hath a Leaſe for years which is good in Law, that the taking of a new Leaſe of the ſame land, which is void in Law, is no ſurrender of the former Leaſe which is good: So if Leſſee for years take a new Leaſe after the death of his Leſſor of the Guardian in Socage, it is no Surrender: but if Leſſee for 20 years of an Advowſon, when the Church is void, takes a Preſentation of himſelf of the Leſſor, and is Admitted and Inducted; It is a ſurrender of his Leaſe. Hill. 3 Car. in C.B. Baker and Willoughby's Caſe. 42 Eliz. in C.B. Sir Arthur Capell's Caſe. acc.

42. A. and B. a woman, are Joynt-Tenants for life, the woman takes husband; and the husband and wife by Indenture do leaſe their moyty for years; Reſolved, That this Leaſe is voidable by the wife only, if ſhe over-live her husband, and not by the other Joynt-Tenant, but ſtood againſt him after the death of the wife. Mich. 13 Jac. in C.B. Smallman and Agborowes Caſe. Bridgman, 44, 45.

43. Leſſee for 99 years of a houſes, deviſeth them to his Wife for all the Term, if ſhe be ſo long continued unmarried; and after her death to B: and if the Wife marry, ſhe ſhall have one houſe, and 20 l. per annum, and not all other his Lands, and then B. ſhall have the other houſe, and makes his wife his Executrix, and dyes; the Wife enters, claiming by the Deviſe, and then marries; and then the husband and wife claim to have the houſe deviſed unto her after her marriage: B. by aſſent of the Executor, enters into the other houſe; the wife dyes: Reſolved in this caſe, That becauſe the wife took the whole Term as Executrix, that ſhe could not have the Rent out of it, becauſe that the Rent was extinguiſhed by the unity of the poſſeſſion. Quære, If the Rent ſhall be determined by the death of the wife. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Gouge and Heywards Caſe. Bridgman, 54, 55.

44. Leſſee for years of 20 Acres of land, rendring Rent, granted all his Eſtate in one of the Acres to J.S: the Leſſor confirmed the Eſtate of J. S: It was Reſolved in this caſe, That the whole Rent was gone; for being an entire Contract, by his one Act, there can be no occupation for part, and extinguiſhment for other part; and no Contract ſhall be apportioned. Mich. 43 Eliz. in C.B. Goddards Caſe, Owen, 10.

45. Two Coparceners of a houſe; each of them lets her part to ſeveral ſtrangers; then both Leaſes come to one hand; and then one Coparcener bargains and ſells her Reverſion to the other; the Leſſee commits Waſte, and the Grantee brings an Action of Waſte. It was Reſolved in this caſe, 1. That although at the firſt, the Leſſors were entituled to ſeveral Actions; yet by matter ex poſt facto, the Actions may be united. 2. That the Action was well brought, though the other Coparcener joyned not in it. Mich. 34 Eliz. in B. R. in Wardfords Caſe. Owen, 11.

46. Leſſee for 99 years of lands, grants parcel of the lands to B for the whole Term; They are both ſued in the Eccleſiaſtical Court for Tythes: It was Reſolved, That they might both joyn in one Prohibition, and the death of one of them, ſhould not abate the Prohibition. Hill. 36 Eliz. in B.R. Bartues Caſe, Owen, 13.

47. The Queen as Dutcheſs of Lancaſter, made a Leaſe to B. of parcel of the Dutchy lands, who was ouſted: B. makes a leaſe to C, who being ouſted, brings an Ejectione Firme: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Leſſee being ouſted, his Term is turned into a Right, and therefore an Ejectione Firme lyeth by him and his Leſſee. Paſch. 36 Eliz. B. R. Leigh's Caſe. Owen, 13.

48. Ejectione Firme was brought, of an Ejectment of him out of certain pieces of lands; The Plaintiff declared, but did not ſet forth the Quantity of the land pieces. It was Objected, That Ejectione Firme is in nature of Treſpaſs, and damages are the principal; But becauſe the particular quantity of the pieces were not ſet forth: Whereas Judgment was given for the Plaintiff in the Ejectione Firme in the Kings-Bench: Upon a Writ of Errour thereupon brought in the Exchequer-Chamber, the Judgment was reverſed. Paſch. 36 Eliz. in B. R. Palmer and Humphryes Caſe. Owen, 18.

49. The ancient Rent of 20 Quarters of Corn reſerved to a Priory, came to the Crown by the Statute of Diſſolution: The Queſtion was, Whether a Leaſe made of this Rent Corn to J. S. for years, was a good Leaſe, within the Statute of 27 H 8. Cap. 21. It was Objected, It was neither Land, Tenement, nor Hereditament, but a Chattel. But it was Reſolved by the Court, That a Leaſe made of it, was good within the word [Hereditament]; for it may diſcend, or eſcheat; and the wife may be endowed of it, and a Rent may be reſerved out of Corn; and a man may reſerve a Rent upon a leaſe of a Rent. Paſch. 7 Eliz. Owen, 32.

50. A man was Leſſee of a Parſonage; And Tythes being ſet forth, a ſtranger carried them away: It was Reſolved, That an Accompt doth not lye againſt him, becauſe there is no privity betwixt them: But Treſpaſs lyeth, becauſe by the very ſetting out, the Tythes were in the Leſſee. Mich. 15 Eliz. Owen 35. acc.

51. A Leaſe is made to A. and B. his Wife, et primo genito, Habendum to them et diutius eorum vivanti ſucceſſivè, and then they have Iſſue a daughter. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Daughter had no Eſtate, becauſe ſhe was not in being at the time of the Leaſe made, and a perſon not in eſſe, cannot take any thing by Livery, where the eſtate is not limitted by way of Remainder, and the word ſucceſſivè will not alter the Caſe. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Stephens and Leytons Caſe. Owen 40.

52. In a Replevin, the Defendant avowed for Rent: The Caſe was, Leſſee for 99 years, if A. and B. ſo long lived, granted a Rent out of the Land to J. S. his Executors, &c. for the reſidue of the Term to be paid at the houſe of A. in S. and if it were behind 28 dayes demanded at the ſaid houſe, 20 s. every day nomine pœnæ; and if behind ſix Moneths demanded at the ſaid houſe, then to diſtreyn for it, and the Nomine pœnæ. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That it was a Rent-charge, and a Diſtreſs incident to it. 2. That the Grantee might diſtreyn firſt without a demand. But if the Avowry had bin for the Nomine pœnæ, there ought to have bin an actual demand: And it was Reſolved in this Caſe, although it be reſerved to be paid at another place, it changeth not the Rent, but it is iſſuing out of the Land, and diſtreynable there. Mich. 8 Car. in C. B. Lamb and Weſt Caſe. Hutton 114.

53. Leſſee for years of Lands buyes the Trees growing upon the Lands, with liberty to cut them down within 8 years, and afterwards purchaſeth the Inheritance of the Lands, and deviſeth the Land to his Wife for life, and makes her his Executrix, who cuts down the Trees. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That an Action of Waſte lyeth againſt her; for although the Trees were once Chattells in the Leſſee, yet by the purchaſe of the Inheritance, they were again united to the Land. Paſc. 36 Eliz. Owen 49.

54. A Leaſe was made to two Habendum, to them, and to two other for their four lives, and the longer liver of them. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the two named in the Habendum, took nothing, and that if the firſt of the two dyeth, there ſhould be no Occupancy, for that the lives of them in the Habendum was intended to be an Eſtate to them by way of limitation, and not a limitation during the Eſtate of the two firſt lives only. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Kirkman and Reignolds Caſe.

55. A Leaſe for years was made of Lands upon Condition, That he ſhould not grant over his Eſtate by his Will, or otherwiſe: He Deviſed the ſame to A. and B. his Executors who entred and claimed the Lands only as Executors, and not as Deviſees. Yet it was Reſolved in that Caſe, That it was a breach of the Condition, becauſe he had done as much as he could in Law to Deviſe the Land. Hill. 19 Eliz. in B. R. See 31 H. 8. Dyer, 45, Parry and Herberts Caſe, acc.

56. A man deviſed his Land to his Son T. and to the Heirs Males of his body for 500 years. Provided, That if T. or any Iſſue Male of his body, did allien, give, or grant the Land, but only by Leaſe or otherwiſe determinable upon three lives, reſerving the ancient Rent; or if that he dyed without Iſſue Male, that then the Land ſhould remain to W. in tail. T. had Iſſue a daughter, and W. and T. made a Leaſe for 500 years. It was ſaid, That this was an Eſtate tail in T. But the Court was clear againſt it, That it was but a Term for years in T. and not any Eſtate tail. Mich. 7 Jac.

in

in C. B. Love and Goddards Caſe. And it was ſaid, That it was ſo Reſolved in Higgins and Mills Caſe in the Chancery. And it was ſaid in this Caſe, That if the Heir in this Caſe doth enter by colour of this Deviſe, that he was no Diſſeiſor.

57. Note, it was agreed by the whole Court upon Evidence given to the Jury in an Action of Waſte, That if Leſſee for years cutteth down Aſhes, that the ſame is Waſte. And if Leſſee for years cuts a Tree in the middeſt, and afterwards it is grubbed up by him, it is two Waſts. But it was agreed by them, and all the Serjeants at the Bar, That the cutting down of the Underwoods is not Waſte done by Leſſee for years, unleſs he utterly deſtroy the Wood by eradicating of it. And in this Caſe, it was further agreed, That if in Waſte brought, the Leſſee pleadeth, That the Leſſor had nothing in the Land, it is no good plea; for by that, by Implication he confeſſeth that he is Leſſee, and the Jury are not to enquire of another matter; but if Waſte be done or not. Paſc. 27 Eliz. in C. B. Beaumont and Steward's Caſe.

Legacies.

I. What they are, of what things Legacies may be, of what not: and in what Court they are ſuable for, in what not; and when and how they are to be payed.

1. LEgacy, called by the Civilians (Legatum), is by the Common Law, a Deviſe of lands or goods, or Chattells which any one ſhall make unto another perſon by his laſt Will, or Teſtament, either in Writing, or Nuncupative. But moſt properly (under the word Legacy) is a bequeſt made by Will or Teſtament, of Chattells real or perſonal to take effect after the death of the Teſtator in ſuch manner as he ſhall appoint, with the aſſent of the Executor.

2. All perſons who have ability to Grant, have like ability to make his laſt Will and Teſtament; and of all Chattells real or perſonal; as Leaſes, Plate, Cattel, moveable goods; a Deviſe may be thereof made, or a bequeſt, and the Deviſee ſhall have and take the ſame by way of Legacy. But then the Deviſor muſt have a right or property in the thing bequeathed in his own right. For if he hath Goods, Chattells, or Credits, as Executor to another man. He cannot by his Will or Teſtament bequeath thoſe goods, unleſs he alter the property of them, for that he hath them not to his own uſe, but to the uſe of the Teſtators Will: This only he may do, he may make a Continuation of them in his Executor; and then his Executor ſhall have them as Executor of the firſt Teſtator, but ſubject ſtill to the payment of the Legacies, and to the performance of the Will of the firſt Teſtator.

3. The Grandfather of the Defendant being Leſſee for years of a Term, ordained T. his Son his Executor, and dyed: T. entred as Executor to the Grandfather, and by his Will deviſed the ſame to V. the Defendant, his Son, and made four men his Executors, and dyed; the Defendant by the Executors entred into the Land. It was the Opinion of all the Juſtices, That the Deviſe by F. the Executor of the Grandfather, was void, becauſe he had the Term as Executor, and a man cannot deviſe any thing but that only which he hath to his own uſe, and although the Deviſee entred by the aſſent of the latter Executors, the ſame could not be taken as a Grant of the Term by them, but only an aſſent that the Defendant ſhould have that which the Teſtament gave him; and then, if the Deviſe was void in Law, the aſſent alſo was void; and ſo it was adjudged, That the Defendant took nothing by the Deviſe. Paſc. 20 Eliz. in B. R. Barnby and Granthams Caſe. Plow. Com. 525, 526.

4. If a man have Debts owing unto him, or money be owing to him upon a Mortgage of Lands; theſe are properly things in Actions, and cannot be given as Legacies, becauſe they are not aſſignable; and they are lyable and ſubject to the payment of the Teſtators Debts. Yet if the Teſtator doth bequeath ſuch a Debt to A. as a Legacy, and ſuch a Debt to B. as a Legacy, although they be things in Action: yet if there be ſufficient other Aſſets to pay and ſatisfy all the Teſtators Debts, the Legatee may in the Executors name ſue for ſuch a Debt, and may recover the ſame, and retain it as their Legacy; and an Acquittance or Releaſe made by the Executor to the Debtor or Mortgager of ſuch a Debt or ſum of money, will be good in Law: And when ſuch Debts are recovered in the Executors name, the Legatees may compel the Executors to deliver ſuch Legacy bequeathed unto them, by a ſuit in the Eccleſiaſtical Court brought againſt them for the ſame. See 48 E. 4. 14. 11 E. 3. Fitz. Tit. Condition 9.

5. If one be poſſeſſed or eſtated in, or of a Leaſe for years, a Wardſhip, or an Extent, or of the next Avoydance of a Church, and all of them in the right of his Wife; theſe being Chattel reall, cannot be not be diſpoſed by the Husband by his Will or Teſtament unto other perſons as Legacies: for that upon his death, they ſhall return and remain again to the Wife, and yet the Husband might have given and diſpoſed of them in his life time by his gift, and ſuch gift ſhould bind the Wife, and carry away the Intereſt from her: But the Goods, Chattells, and other Moveables, and perſonal Eſtate of the Wife, and which is veſted in the Husband by the Intermarriage; the abſolute Intereſt and property is in the Husband of them; and ſuch Goods, Chattells, &c. may be bequeathed by his Will or Teſtament, to other perſons as Legacies. Trin. 15 Car. in B. R. in Sir John St. John's Caſe. Marſh. 44, 45.

6. Legacies are moſt properly and frequently recoverable by ſuit in the Eccleſiaſtical Court; Yet the Common Law takes ſuch notice of them, that in many Caſes ſuits have bin in the Courts of Chancery and of Equity; and where Suits have bin for them in the Eccleſiaſticall Courts, Prohibition hath bin Awarded: As, viz. in the Caſes following.

7. A. lying on his Death bed, made his Will and made Executors thereof; and afterwards ſaid to his Executors named in the Will, I will that B. ſhall have 20 l. more if you can ſpare it. The Executors anſwered and ſaid, Yes forſooth; but no Codicill was made of the ſame Legacy: A Bill was preferred in the Spiritual Court for the Legacy. Whereupon the Executor prayed a Prohibition. In this Caſe, it was holden by the Court, That although this Court hath not power to hold Plea of the thing Libelled there in the Spiritual Court, yet it hath a power to limit the Juriſdiction of other Courts; and if they abuſe their Authority to grant a Prohibition, 2 H. 4. 10. acc. But it was doubted as this Caſe was, Whether the Spiritual Court might give remedy to the perſon for the Legacy; for the ſame not being annexed to the Will by a Codicil, it was but fidei Commiſſum; and ſo the doubt was, Whether the Spiritual Court might hold Plea of it: For if it cannot hold Plea of it, then in this Caſe, a Prohibition may be lawfully granted, although this Court have not power or Juriſdiction of the thing it ſelf. The Court would adviſe of it, and it was adjourned. Paſc. 12 Jac. in B. R. Cartwright's Caſe. Godbolt. 247.

8. Note, It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That if a Legacy be granted out of Land, this ſhall not be ſued for in the Spiritual Court. But if one by Will deviſeth Land to be ſold for the payment of his Debts, this may be ſued for in the Spiritual Court, per Curiam. Paſc. 10 Jac. in C. B. Brownlow, 1. Part, 32. And note further, it was Reſolved in that Caſe, That where the Commiſſary did grant Adminiſtration of the Inteſtates goods to the Wife, and did make a dividend of ſome of his Eſtate to the reſt of his Kindred, that the ſame was not Warranted by Law, and it was more than the Ordinary could do, becauſe the Adminiſtratrix is chargeable to pay all Debts and Promiſes and Legacies, and to bring up the Children of the Inteſtate, with the goods of the Inteſtate, which ſhe cannot do if the goods be taken away, and diſpoſed to others. Paſc. 10 Jac. ibid.

9. In a Prohibition by an Executor, the Caſe was this; One A. deviſed, That the Teſtator and three others ſhould ſell Lands, and ſhould diſpoſe the money to the Defendant, and three others equally. The Land was ſold accordingly, and the Defendant ſued this Executor in the Spiritual Court for the fourth part of the money. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That neither the Land nor the money was Teſtamentary, as this Caſe was. For it was not Aſſets to Debts, but a ſum ariſing of Land, and appointed to ſpecial uſes in way of Equity, and not as a Legacy, and therefore is not to be ſued for there, but in a Court of Equity; nor can that Court hold Plea of a Legacy in Equity, but where it is a Legacy in Law in Deed, for they muſt hold Plea by their Law, as our Courts of Law do. Trin. 17 Jac. in C. B. Edwards and Graves Caſe. Hob. 265.

10. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That all manner of Debts, whether they be due by matter of Record; Obligation, or by contracts, are to be paid before Legacies, for which remedy is given in the Eccleſiaſtical Court: and Debts by ſimple contract, ſhall be paid before the reaſonable aid of the Wife, and the Children. 2 E. 4. 2. Cook 9. Part, 88. in Pinchons Caſe.

11. In an Action of Covenant, the Caſe was; A. made a Leaſe of certain Lands to B. by Deed, and Covenanted for him, his Executors, &c. that the Leſſee ſhould peaceably and quietly enjoy the Lands let during all the Term: The Leſſor made his Will, and thereby made L. the Defendant his Executor, and dyed; And by the Will divers goods in ſpecie were deviſed to ſundry perſons: L. the Executor delivered the goods in ſpecie to the Legatees. B. was ouſted of the Land, and thereupon brought Covenant againſt the Executor: And the Queſtion was, Whether the payment of theſe Legacies by the Executor, were a Deveſtavit or not, and ſo the Executor chargeable de bonis propriis to ſatisfy the Covenant broken. This Caſe was often argued at the Bar, and the better Opinion of the Court ſeemed to be, That it was no Deveſtavit in the Executor, nor he chargeable de bonis propriis, for being Covenants to be performed, and none some broken before the Legacies paid, they might perhaps never come to be broken, and so the Legatees should be for ever delayed of their Legacies, and perhaps some of them being bona peritura, might perish for want of keeping of them, and the Legacies thereby lost. But the Case was not Resolved. Mich. 23 Car. in B. R. Estes and Lamberts Case. Styles 37, 38, 54, 55.

12. Note, It was agreed by the whole Court, That if a man Devise unto his Daughter 100 l. when she shall marry; or to his Son when he shall be of full age, and they dye before the time appointed, that their Executors shall not have the money: otherwise if the Devise were to them to be paid at their full ages, and they dye before that time, and make Executors, there the Executors may recover the Legacy in the Spiritual Court. Mich. 9 Jac. in C. B. Godbolt, 182. Pasc. 1654. in B. R. Domlawes Case adjudged acc.

13. A Woman was possessed of a Term for divers years, and had Issue two daughters, the one Married to A. the other to B. A. had Issue four daughters, and B. had Issue also. The Woman devised Legacies to the Children of A. out of the Rent reserved upon a Lease, and made B. her Executor, and dyed: A. required B. in the behalf of his Children, to pay the money to him, which he refused to do; and thereupon he sued him in the Spiritual Court. B. moved for a Prohibition, and alledged for ground of it, that he was Executor, and chargeable in account for the money. But because he came after sentence, and also after he had appealed to the Court of Delegates; and because he did refuse to give security for the payment of the Legacies, no Prohibition was granted. Hill. 11 Jac. in C. B. Aylffe and Brown's Case. Godbolt, 243.

2. Whether any Right or Property of a Legacy bequeathed, be in the Legatee before assent of the Executors: Where the Executor may assent; and upon what Terms; and what shall be said a sufficient assent of the Executors to vest the Legacy in the Legatees, or Devisee; What not.

1. IN no Case can a Legatee or a Devisee take the Legacy given unto him by the Will, lawfully, but by the assent of the Executor first had, nor is such Legacy really vested in him as to dispose thereof before the assent had to it of the Executor: And therefore if a house, peece of Plate, or other known thing in being, be by express words of the Will given to J. S. as a Legacy; yet J. S. cannot take the same, but by reason of the consent of the Executor: And the reason thereof is, because a Chattel shall not be transferred to a stranger, without the Executors assent. Nay, If a Devise be to the Executor himself; yet the thing Devised is not in him, till he elect to take it as a Legatee, and till such Election be may, it remains in him as Executor; and so it is adjudged. Pasc. 20 Eliz. in Welden and Elkingtons Case. Plow. Com. 516.

2. A Term for years was devised to an Executor, he entred into the land, and dyed before Probate of the Will. It was the Opinion of the Justices in that case, That his Entry was a good execution of the Legacy, and that his Administrator should have the Term. Mich. 22 Eliz. Dyer 367.

3. A Lessee for years devised his Term to one for his life, the Remainder to another, and made the Devisee his Executor, who proved the Will, and entred, and made his Executor, and dyed; and the Executor entred, and took the profits for a year; against whom he in the Remainder brought an Action of Accompt as Bayliff: It was the Opinion of the Justices, That the Action did not lye 1. For want of Privity. 2. Because the Executor had not declared to have the Term as Devisee, or as Executor, and then it shall be intended that he took it as Executor untill the contrary be shewed; and then the Accompt will not lye against him for the want of Privity. Trin. 10 Eliz. Dyer, 277. See Cook 9. Part, in Lampits Case, the 5th Resolution, adjudged accordingly.

4. A man possessed of a Term for divers years, devised the profits thereof to one for life; and after his devise to another for the residue of the years, and dyed; the first Devisee entred by the assent of the Executors; and afterwards he in the Remainder during the life of the first Devisee, assigned it to a stranger; and after, the first Devisor dyed: It was adjudged in this case, That the Assignment was void; for he in the Remainder had but a possibility during the life of the first Devisee: For it is as much in Law, as if the land had been devised to him for so many years as he should live; or for all the Term if he should live so long, so as the Interest of the Term is sub modo in him, and he in the remainder hath but a possibility, which he cannot grant over. Cook 6. Part, 66. in Fulwoods Case.

5. A. possessed of a Lease for 1000 years, devised the same to Eliz. his Daughter for life, the remainder to J. H. and made J. S. the husband of his his daughter, his Executor, and dyed: J. H. deviſed his Intereſt to Henry and George H, and made J. D. and other his Executors, and dyed: Afterwards J. S. ſpake theſe words, If Eliz. my Wife were dead, my Eſtate in the premiſſes were ended, and then it remains to the Hollowayes: Eliz. dyed, The Executors of J. H. made a Leaſe to the Plaintiff, upon whom the Leſſee of J. S. entred: The Queſtions in this Caſe were; 1. If the words ſpoken by J. S. the Executor, be a ſufficient aſſent to the deviſe? 2. Whether this aſſent came in due time as to the Intereſt of J. H. in the remainder, becauſe he dyed before the words ſpoken, which ſhould make the aſſent? In this caſe, It was Reſolved by all the Juſtices, 1. That J. S. had made a ſufficient Declaration to take the Term as Deviſee in the right of his Wife, and that it was a ſufficient aſſent; and the words, [viz. Then it remains to the Hollowayes] is a proof, that he took notice of it as a Legacy. 2. Reſolved, That the aſſent came time enough after the death of J. H; for otherwiſe it ſhould be a great inconvenience, for by that means it ſhould be diſtinctive to all Legacies; for of neceſſity there muſt be an Aſſent of the Executors to a Legacy: and if he will not Aſſent, and the Legatee dyeth before he can compell him to aſſent; Or dyeth immediately after the Deviſor, before any aſſent to the Legacy; In the firſt caſe, it would be in the power of the Executor to prejudice the party; or in the other caſe, the Act of God would prejudice him; which is againſt Law. Mich. 17 Car. in B.R. Southward and Millards Caſe. Marſh, 135, 136, 137.

6. If there be two Executors of the Will, one of them may aſſent to a Legacy thereby given to the Legatee; and ſuch aſſent ſhall be good: For one Executor may give any goods of the Teſtator, or releaſe any debt which is due unto him a fortiori, he may aſſent to a Legacy; which is no more or greater work in effect then an Attornment of one Leſſee upon the grant of the Reverſion where it is a Joynt Leaſe: and if in ſuch caſe there want goods ſufficient to pay the Teſtators debts, he only who aſſented ſhall be anſwerable of his own goods, and not his companion: But if ſuch Executor be under the age of 17. years, or under Coverture, ſuch Executor is unable to give any aſſent to bind him or her ſelf or others; but if the Executrix be a Feme Covert; in ſuch caſe, the aſſent of her husband ſhall both bind her ſelf and him. And ſo it was adjudged, Hill. 9 Jac. in the Kings-Bench, in Retorick and Chappells Caſe.

7. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was; A. poſſeſſed by Leaſe of the Manor of D, and of the Park there for 77. years, by his Will deviſed all his Leaſes to T, his eldeſt ſon for the whole Term, if the ſaid T. ſhould ſo long live; and if he dyed before he had Iſſue of his body, then he deviſed the ſame to J. his younger ſon, with divers Remainders over: And further declared, That his Will was, that his Wife ſhould have the occupation and profits of the Lands, untill T. came of the age of 21. years; and if he dyed, then till J. came to that age, to the intent, that with the profits of the Leaſes, ſhe might bring up his children, and ſee his Will performed; and made his Wife his Executrix, and dyed. The Wife took upon her the Will, and entred, and alwayes after during her Widowhood, brought up the Children; and afterwards ſhe took husband J. G: T. being of the age of 23, entred, and made the Leaſe to the Plaintiff. After long Argument in this Caſe, It was Reſolved, That the Deviſe and Legacy the wife, by her occupation, and bringing up of the Children at all times after the death of her husband the Teſtator, was an execution of the Eſtate given as well to the Wife, as of the Remainder to the ſon, and ſo by Conſequence the Entry and Grant of the Son to the Plaintiff was good; and Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Hill. 21 Eliz. Paramour and Yardleys Caſe. Plow. Com. 540, to 546.

8. Note; Theſe Points were Reſolved by all the Juſtices; 1. That if a man hath Lands in Fee-ſimple, and Lands for years, and he deviſeth all his Lands and Tenements, that the Fee-ſimple Lands only paſſe, and not the Leaſe for years. 2. If a man hath a Leaſe for years, and no Freehold, and deviſeth all his Lands and Tenements, the Leaſe for years paſſeth. 3. That if one deviſeth his Land which he hath by Leaſe, to his Executor for life, the remainder over, that there ought to be a ſpecial Aſſent thereunto by the Executors, as to a Legacy; otherwiſe it is not executed. Trinit. 7 Car. in B. R. Roſe and Bartlets Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 213.

9. An Executor may aſſent unto a Legacy, upon a Condition precedent; but not upon a Condition ſubſequent, nor can he alter the guiſt of the Legacy by his conſent. If a man deviſeth a Term to one for Term of years, or bequeath other Goods or Chattels: The Executor may aſſent to this Legacy, in this manner; viz. I give my conſent upon Condition, That if you get me in ſuch an Obligation wherein the Teſtator ſtood bound unto J. S, that then you ſhall enter into the Term, or take the thing bequeathed unto you: Or if you pay the arrearages of the Rent due by you to the Teſtator in his life-time; ſuch is a good aſſent: but if it be upon a Condition ſubſequent, it is otherwiſe: for an Aſſent cannot make that Legacy conditional, which the Teſtator gave abſolutely: So if a man deviſeth a Term to J. S. and the Executors aſſent and agree, That J. S. and J. D. ſhall have the Term; this ſhall be an Aſſent, That J. S.

ſhall

ſhall have the Term alone, and is a void agreement as to J. D; for that after the Executors have once aſſented to the Legacy, the Deviſee or Legatee is in by the Deviſor. See Cook 4. Part, 29. acc.

3. What ſhall paſſe by Bequeſts, and How equeſts ſhall be expounded.

1. A. Poſſeſſed of a Leaſe of a houſe for 40. years, Deviſed the houſe to J. S. without limiting any Eſtate. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in that caſe, That the Deviſee ſhould have the whole Term for 40 years: For he could not have it for life, nor at Will, nor for a leſſer Term of years, and therefore he ſhould have the whole Term. Hill. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 307.

2. The Lord Latimer deviſed to his Wife, the third part of all his Goods and Chattels: It was taken in that caſe to be the third part after Debts and Legacies paid, and not the third part of the whole, as it then was. 36 H. 8. Dyer, 59. And ſee, 5 Mar. Dyer, 164. where a man deviſed the moyty of his goods to his Wife. It was holden in that caſe, If the Executors have ſufficient Aſſetts, ſhe ſhall have the moyty of them, as they were at the time of his death.

3. If one ſeiſed of lands in Fee-ſimple, bequeath it to his Executors to pay debts, the Executors have no Eſtate of Freehold in the Land; for if they ſhould, then it ſhould be either for life, which might end before the debts be paid; or in Fee-ſimple, which would carry away the Land for ever from the heir: whereas perhaps within a few years, the debts might be paid out of the profits of the Lands.

4. A man poſſeſſed of Leaſes for years, and of moveable goods, grants omnia bona et Catalla ſua: It is holden in 4 E. 6. Br. Done. 43. That the Leaſes for years do not paſſe; for that the word (bona) comprehendeth onely moveable Goods. And ſo it was adjudged, Trin. 37 Eliz. in Portman and Syms Caſe. But if a man by his Will deviſeth or bequeath bona et Catalla ſua, the Leaſes for years will paſſe; for that by the Spiritual Law, where Legacies are demandable bona et Catalla, are taken to be all one. See 13 H. 7, Kelway 35. acc.

5. If a man maketh his Will in theſe words, viz. I give, grant, will, and bequeath to T. all my Mannors, Lands, &c. To have and to hold to T. and the heirs of his body, for and during the Term of 500 years, the ſame is but an Eſtate for years determinable upon the limitation for default of Iſſue, by Cook and Winch, Juſtices. See Cook 10. Part, in Lovies Caſe: But if one hath a Term for years, and deviſeth the ſame to one, and the heirs of his body, his heir ſhall not have it, but it ſhall go to his Executors; becauſe a Term which is but a Chattel, cannot be entailed, Paſch. 28 Eliz. Peacocks Caſe; and 21 Eliz. Higgins and Mills Caſe, adjudged acc.

6. A. poſſeſſed of a Leaſe for 60 years, Deviſed that B. his brother ſhould have the uſe and occupation of it, and take the profits thereof during his life; and after his death, the uſe and occupation thereof ſhould remain to the Wife of B. during her Widowhood; and after her Widowhood, the occupation and profits of the premiſſes to remain to the eldeſt ſon of B, which he ſhall happen to have during his life; and after ſuch ſon dying without any heir male, to any other ſons which B. ſhall have, one after the other: and if B. dye without heir male of his body; for that I purpoſe to have the Leaſe kept in my name, My Will is, That the uſe, profits, and occupation of the ſame, ſhall remain and be to C, and ſo to D. in the ſame words. It was Reſolved by the Juſtices in this caſe, That the Deviſe of a Term in this manner to make a perpetuity of it, could not be good: For that to limit a poſſibility after a poſſibility, and to limit a remainder of a Term after a dying without Iſſue, could not ſtand by the Rules of Law. Trin. 5 Car. in B. R. Sanders and Cornifhes Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 166.

Leet.

The Beginning of them; Who are the Judges there; What things are inquirable there; What not: Where, and at what time to be holden: And of Amerciaments there, and Avowry for them: And of severall other things touching the Leet.

1. SEe, Leets were derived out of the Sheriffs Torns, 28 H.8. Dyer, 13. And see Mirrour of Justices, 9. where it is said, The Torns of Sheriffs and Views of Frankpledges were ordained: And it was Ordained, That none of the age of 14. years or above, was to remain in the Realm above 40 dayes, If he were not first sworn to the King by an Oath of Fealty, and received into a Decennery. And see there, the Articles of the Leet, Mirrour, Sect. 17.

2. Leets were divided in Decuriae, or Decennae, unde dicitur Decennarii; and out of every 10; and one of them being pledg for the other, from whence the Court was called Curia visus Franci pledgii: one was called Capitalis pledgius, or Primarius fidejussor: And by the Statute of 18 E. 2. it ought to be enquired at the Leet, If all the Chief Pledges with their Decenners, viz. with the other 9. did appear; so as the 10th man was called, the Chief Pledge. See Lambert. de priscis Anglorum Legibus. Mirrour, ubi supra. Fleta. Lib. 2. Cap. 43.

3. A man had a Leet within his Mannor, and in a special Verdict it was found, That the Plaintiff was Resiant within the Mannor, , and that he was Certified at the Leet to be Chief Pledg; but he made default, and was Amerced for his default 2s. 6 d. but it did not appear, that he was sworn Chief Pledge. It was the Opinion of the Court, That they could not adjudge him to be Chief Pledge by that Verdict. But in that Case, It was agreed, That the Lord of a Leet might well have a certain sum as 10 s. pro certo Lete of all Resiants within his Leet, because the same might have a reasonable being, that they need not go to the Sheriffs Torn, but do their service at the Lords Court-Leet. Pasch. 5 Jac. Cook 6. Part, 77. Batens Case.

4. If the Jury in a Leet refuse to make a Presentment, The Steward may assess a Fine upon each of them for his contempt. 10 E. 4. 8. Avowry, 155. And if the Homage in a Court-Baron do refuse to make a Presentment, if they be Copyholders, it is a forfeiture of their Copyhold. Hill. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 211. and so it was adjudged in the Earl of Arundels Case, in the Star-Chamber.

5. In a Replevin; where the Defendant avowed, for 5 l. a Fine imposed in a Court-Leet, these Points were Resolved; 1. That if any disturbance or Contempt to a Court of Record, be committed in any Court of Record, that the Judges may impose upon the Offenders a Reasonable Fine: And a Leet is a Court of Record in which the Steward is Judge; and for a Contempt to the Court before himself, he may impose a reasonable Fine. 2. If any Fine be imposed by the Steward in any Court-Leet, it is good, although it be not afferred nor assessed by the Jury: For a Fine is imposed by the Court. But by the Statute of Magna Charta, and west. 1. Amerciaments ought to be taxed by the County: And therefore in Cases where the Plaintiff is Nonsuit, or Judgment given against the Defendant, the Justices do not assesse any Amerciament certain, but the Entry is, in Misericordia generally. 3. That the Amercement of any who is an Officer of Justice, or who hath execution of the Kings Writ, shall be by the Judges of the Court where the case dependeth. 4. If a Jury in a Leet tax an Amercement, it is sufficient without other afferment, for the Amercement is the Act of the Court. But if the Steward afferr an Amercement upon Presentment of the Jury, it is void, and shall not bind; but the Court shall assesse Fines, and they shall not be afferred by any. 5. That the Lord of the Leet may distrain as well for a Fine imposed by the Steward for a Contempt, as for an Amercement. Cook 8. Part, 38. Greisleys Case.

6. In Trespasse, the Defendant justified, That the Plaintiff was a Common Baker dwelling in T; and that it was presented in the Leet in T. that he sold Bread against the Assise in locis vicinis, whereupon he was Amerced, and the Amercement afferred to 10 s. and that by Precept out of the Court, he did distrain the Plaintiff: In this case, the Court gave Judgment for the Plaintiff, because it did not appear, that the Offence was committed within the Jurisdiction of the Leet; which shall not be presumed, unlesse it be specially pleaded. But it was said, That perhaps the Presentment in the Leet is good, without special mention in the Presentment, that it was done in the Jurisdiction, if the truth were so. But note; It was Observed, That the Plea was naught and absurd: For it is said, He was amerced, without saying [what,] and that that the Amercement was afferred to 10 s: Now the Jury muſt amerce to a certain ſum, which may be mitigated and afferred. Paſch, 14 Jac. in C.B. Wilſon and Hardingham's Caſe, Hob. 129.

7. Replevin againſt two; One pleads Not guilty; the other Juſtifies by reaſon of an Amercement in a Leet: Whereupon it was Demurred, and adjudged for the Avowant. And the Iſſue was afterwards tryed and found for the Defendant, and Damages and Coſts aſſeſſed for both. It was moved, That no Judgment ſhould be for the Damages and Coſts, for that it is out of the Statute of 7 & 21 H.8. But upon Conſideration of the Statute, the Court was of Opinion, That the Avowant ſhould have Coſts, but adviſed him to releaſe his Damages. Hill. 16 Jac. B. R. Samuel and Hoders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 520. James and Tutneys Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 357, 383. acc.

8. The Steward of a Leet impoſed a Fine joyntly upon A. B. and C. Chief Pledges, becauſe they refuſed at a Leet to Preſent, that they ought to pay at every Leet pro certo Lete 10 s. to the Lord; and becauſe it was not paid, the Lord diſtrained: In this caſe, It was Reſolved, 1. That the Fine ought to have been aſſeſſed upon them ſeverally and not joyntly, becauſe the refuſal of them was ſeveral and perſonal. 2. Reſolved, That the reaſonableneſſe of the Fine ſhall be adjudged by the Juſtices, and if the Fine be exceſſive, it ſhall not bind: For exceſſus in re qualibet reprobatur. 3. Reſolved, That when a Fine is impoſed againſt Law, as joynt, where it ſhall be ſeveral, if it be unreaſonable, it may be avoided by Plea or Judgment of the Court in which the ſuit depends; for no other remedy is given to the party. 4. Reſolved, That the Lord cannot diſtreyn for Head-ſilver, becauſe it is againſt common right, and for the private uſe of the Lord, which he cannot do without Preſcription; and then as he ought to preſcribe in the Principal, ſcil. the Head-ſilver, ſo he ought to preſcribe in the diſtreſs. And note, in that Caſe, it was ſaid, That for an Amercement in a Court Baron, the Lord cannot diſtreyn without a Preſcription. But for a Fine or an Amercement in a Leet, diſtreſs is incident of common right. Cook 11. Part, 42. Godfreys Caſe.

9. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, A Freeholder within the Mannor of J. of which the Earl of Northumberland was Lord, and had a Leet erected, a new Dovecote thereon, and ſtored them with Pigeons, and ſuffered them to fly out, which was Preſented in the Leet as a common Nuſance, and an Amercement of 40 s. aſſeſſed for this Offence, and a pain of 10 l. impoſed, that he ſhould ſtop it up before ſuch a day, which he did not do: Whereupon it was Preſented the next Court, and the pain impoſed, and for non-payment thereof, a diſtreſs was taken. He entred Bond for the payment of the Fine, and brought Treſpaſs for taking of his Cattel, and detreyning them untill he had entred Bond. It was holden in this Caſe by all the Juſtices, That the erecting of a Dovecote by a Freeholder who is not Lord of the Mannor, nor owner of the Rectory, and replenishing the ſame with Doves, is not any Nuſance enquireable or puniſhable in a Leet: And if it were a common Nuſance, neither the Lord of the Mannor, nor the Parſon could erect a Dovecote there more then any other Freeholder. For that none can preſcribe to make a common Nuſance; and the Common Law doth not look upon the erecting of a Dovecote as a common Nuſance, but makes proviſion againſt them that deſtroy Doves near a Dovecote. It was further adjudged in this Caſe, That the Avowry as it was made, was not good: For as they have pleaded it, they have not made it enquirable in the Leet: For they ought to enquire of publick Nuſances made within the Leet, and not of Nuſances made in the County, out of the Juriſdiction of the Leet; but in this Caſe they ſay, That he erected a Dovecote within the Leet, Et quod Columbæ volabant, et revolabant, and conſumed the Corn ad Nocumentum totius patriæ, but they do not ſhew that they conſumed any Corn within the Leet; and therefore the Avowry was not good. Trin. 16 Jac. in B. R. Dewell and Saunders Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 491. See Popham 141. the ſame Caſe under the name of the Earl of Northumberlands Caſe.

10. In a Replevin, the Defendant made Conuſans, That the Lord P. was ſeiſed of the Mannor of W. and that he and all thoſe, &c. have had within the Mannor, a Leet, of all the Reſients ſemel in anno. upon Munday next after Whitſonday, and all Amercements in that Leet: and that the Plaintiff was amerced for not comming to the Leet; and for the ſaid Amercement, the diſtreſs was taken: Upon Iſſue upon the Preſcription, the Jury found, That the Lord P. and all, &c. had a Leet, ut ſupra verbatim. But they further find, That the Warden and Colledg of New-Colledg in O. are ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannor of the Rectory of W. called Romans-Fee in W. and that they and all thoſe, &c. have had a view of Frank-pledg of all the Inhabitants and Reſients within the ſaid Mannor of R. ſemel in anno in feſto Commemorationis Pauli tenend. as to their Mannor of R. belonging. The point intended was, becauſe the Plaintiff was Reſient within the Leet of the Colledg; Whether alſo he might be Reſient within another Leet, and ſo chargeable to two Leets. The matter in Law was never debated, becauſe the Court upon the opening of the Verdict, held, That forasmuch as the Verdict hath found the Issue verbatim to be for the Avowant, the finding of the other matter after is not material, and so Judgment was given for the Avowant. Hill. 1 Car. in C. B. Eyre and Wrights Case. Cro. 1. Par. 54.

11. Note, it was Resolved by the Justices, That when the King Grants any Priviledges or Franchises which were in his own hands as parcel of the Flowers of the Crown; as Bona felonum, utlagatorum, Waife, Estray, in such Case, if they come again to the Crown, they are drowned and extinct in the Crown. But when Franchises or Liberties were created and erected by the King, there such Liberties or Priviledges are not extinct, nor the appendancy severed from the possessions, although they come again to the Crown: As if the King Grant a Market, Hundred, Leet, &c. Cook 9. Part, 25. In the Case of the Abbot of Strata Marcella.

12. Three Coparceners of a Mannor were, The King Granted to one of them a Leet: afterwards they made Partition of the Mannor. Yet it was holden, That he should have the Leet, and if the King grant to me a Leet within my Mannor, and I do afterwards enfeoff the King of the Mannor without the word appurtenances, I shall still hold the Leet: And the Court was clear of Opinion, That a man might have a Leet in the Lands of another man. Libels and Libelling.

IT was Resolved by the Justices, That every Libel which is called Libellus famosus, is made either against a private man, or against a Magistrate; and if it be against private persons, it deserves severe punishment, because it is the cause of sedition, quarrel, and contention, which lead to the breach of the Peace, and shedding of blood: But if it be against a Magistrate, the offence is the greater, because the same scandals the Government. 2. A Libeller, who is called Famosus Defamator, shall be punished either by Indictment at the Common Law, or by Bill; if he deny it; or Ore tenus, by his own Confession; either by Fine, or Imprisonment; and if the Case be exorbitant, by Pillory, and loss of Ears. 3. Resolved, That a scandalous Libel in Writing, is, when an Epigram, Rhyme, or other Writing, is composed or published to the disgrace of another, by which his Credit or Dignity shall be prejudiced; and a Libel without writing, may be Signis, aut Picturis. Cook 5. Part. 124. in the Case De Libellis famosis.

2. If a man finde a Libel, if it be composed and made against a private man; he which findeth it, may burn it, or may presently deliver it to a Magistrate: But if it be against a Magistrate, he ought to deliver it to a Magistrate, to the intent that the Author may be punished. 44 Eliz. in Cam. Stellat. Halywoods Case.

3. In a Bill preferred in the Star-chamber, for the publishing of a Libel, It was Resolved, 1. That every one Convicted in such case, ought to be either Contriver of the Libel, or a Procurer of the Contriving of it, or a malicious Publisher of it. 2. Resolved, That if a man read a Libel, or hear it read, the same is no Publication of it; but if after it is read, he repeat part of it in the hearing of another, the same is a Publication of it. 3. Resolved, If a man writeth a Copie of a Libel (knowing it to be a Libel) if he do not deliver it to a Magistrate, to examine of it, it is a great evidence of Publishing of it. Cook 9. Part. 59. Lamb's Case.

4. W. P. being general Heir to R. P. who was seized of lands of Inheritance of 900 l. per annum; Sir George Reynel, who married the daughter of Sir E. P. who was a younger Brother of R. P. and R. P. having a purpose to settle his land upon the said W. P. to remove the affection of the ſaid R. P. from his Heir, and to ſettle the ſame upon himſelf, wrote a letter to the ſaid R. P. containing, That W. P. the Plaintiff, was not the Son of a Peacock, but was a Hunter of Taverns, and that divers women followed him from London to the place o his Dwelling, and that he did deſire to hear of the death of the ſaid R. and that all h s Inheritance would not be ſufficient to ſatisfie his debts; with other matters concerning h's credit and Reputation. It was Reſolved in this Court, That this letter was a Libel, for which Sir G. Reynell was Fined and Impriſoned, although he ſubſcribed it with his Name, and directed it to R. P. himſelf: But if the letter had been directed to the Plaintiff, W.P. himſelf, and not to a third perſon, it ſhould not have been a libel; or if it had been directed to a Father, for reforming any of his children, it ſhould have been no libel, for it was but for Reformation, and not for Defamation, nay though it had contained ſcandalous matter concerning his children; but where a man intends his own profit. as in the Principal Caſe, there it is otherwiſe, Paſch. 10 Jac. in C. B. William Peacock, and Sir George Reynel's Caſe. Brownlow, 2. Part, 151, 152.

5. J. was Indicted for that he exhibited an Infamous Libel directed to the King, againſt the Chief Juſtice of the Kings Bench, and the Court, for a Judgment given in the ſaid Court in Magdalen Colledge Caſe; affirming the ſaid Judgment to be Treaſon, and calling the Chief Juſtice Traytor, perjured Judge, and ſcandalling all the Profeſſors of the Law: And this Libel he fixed upon the Gate entring Weſtminſter Hall, and divers other places. Being rated to plead to the Indictment, he put in a ſcandalous plea, affirming he would not plead otherwiſe. It was adjudged, That he ſhould be committed to the Marſhal, ſtand upon the Pillory, with paper mentioning the offence, ſubmit himſelf to every Court, bound to his good behaviour during life, and pay 1000l. Fine to the King. Mich. 1 Car. in B. R. Jeff's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part[e] 125.

6. Sir Baptiſt Hix having done many Charitable Acts, as erecting of an Hoſpital at C. Repairing of the Pariſh Church, and of the Seſſions Houſe in Middleſex; J. S. a Copyholder of his Mannor of C. out of a private malice, framed and Writ a Malicious and Invective Letter to him, in which in an Ironical and Deriding manner, he ſaid, That the ſaid Baptiſt Hix had done theſe charitable works, as the proud Phariſee, for vain glory and oſtentation, and to have popular applauſe; and further, in opprobrious manner, taxed him with divers other unlawful Acts. It was Reſolved by the Court, That for ſuch a private letter, an Action upon the Caſe did not lye at the Common Law, for he cannot prove the publiſhing of it; But becauſe it tends to the breach of the Peace, is to be puniſhed in the Starchamber, and ſo much the rather, becauſe it tends to a Publique wrong; for if it ſhould be unpuniſhed, it would diſcourage, not him only, but others, who were well diſpoſed to do ſuch pious Acts. 7. Wotton, a Doctor in Phyſick, wrote to Edwards a Phyſitian, an infamous, malicious, ſcandalous, obſcene Letter, to which he ſubſcribed his name, and this he Sealed, and directed thus, To his loving Friend, M. Edwards, Speed This. And after the Doctor publiſhed and diſperſed to others a great number of Copies of the ſaid Letter. It was Reſolved by the Lord Chancellor Egerton, the two Chief Juſtices, and the whole Court of Starchamber, That that was a ſubtle and dangerous Libel; in as much as the Writing of a private Letter to another, without any other Publication, the party to whom it is directed, cannot have an Action upon the Caſe, and ſo the Doctor thought, that this could not be puniſhed in any manner: Yet it was Reſolved, That the writing of the ſaid ſcandalous Letter (which in Law is a Libel) ſhould be puniſhed in the Starchamber; for that it is an offence to the King, and is a great motive to revenge, and tends to the breaking of the Peace: And it was Reſolved, That the diſperſing of Copies of it, or the publication of the effect of it, aggravates the offence, and makes it a new offence, for which the party may have an Action upon the Caſe. Trin. 3 Jac. in Cam. Stellat. Edwards and Wotton's Caſe. Poph. 35, 36. Trin. 13 Jac. Barton and Lewellins Caſe. Hob. 62. acc.

8. Secretary Lake exhibited a Bill againſt Luke Hatton, containing, That the ſaid Luke Hatton had delivered to the Lady R. his daughter, a writing, Importing a Conference had between the Counteſs of E. and him, wherein ſhe ſhould determine to give a Dram to the Lady R. and to make away the Secretary her Father, and to charge him with a plot againſt a King, in the time of the late Q. E n. This Writing coming to the Secretaries hand, he required Luke Hatton to confeſs the delivery of it; which he denyed, and had publiſhed and given out, That the ſaid Secretary himſelf, or the Lady R. or ſome other by their procurement, had deviſed it themſelves: Hatton (being the only Defendant) denyed the deviſing or delivering of it, and that he had at any time been with the Lady R. Exceptions were taken to the Bill. 1. That the Writing being a Libel againſt the Counteſs of E. and the wrong inſeparable to her, no other perſon could complain of it, having no Intereſt in it; and to this

That purpose Lambs Case was vouched. 2. Exception, The Charge was in the Disjunctive, and so uncertain. For the second Exception, It was overruled, That the Bill was good. But to the first Exception, Sir Edw. Coke Chief Justice of Common Pleas agreed to it, and added a further reason of his own, viz. That the Countesses of E. honour and dishonour was handled and traversed betwixt two strangers, whereunto she was made no party, which might be turned to a practise; but the Plaintiff might have made the Countess a Defendant with Hatton, or else have joyned her against Hatton. To which it was answered by the Kings Attorney General & the Chief Justice, That this was not like Lambs Case, for there Lamb had nothing to do in the Libel, but here the Plaintiff (the Secretary) was charged with a Plot against the King. 2. It was against Reason and Justice to have made the Countess a Defendant, because the Bill layes nothing against the Countess, and against Justice to enforce the Plaintiff to accuse her of those foule faults, whereof perhaps he hold her Innocent: And where it was said by Coke, That if the matter had been true, Hatton might have justified the Libel, that was denyed: for a Libel, although the Contents be true, is not to be justified. Lake and Hattons Case in the Star-Chamber. Hob. 252. 253.

9. Waller spake these words to one Bostock. I heard that five or six of the Lords of the Council have kneeled to the King for Toleration of Religion. And Bostock writ to another, That his Warden, the Arch Papist, and five or six other of the Council, had kneeled to the King for Toleration of Religion; That the Prince that was the Pillar, is now gone, and that Northampton would now shew himself what he hath been. These Speeches, Declaration, and Writing and Publishing of these matters in Letters, were holden by the whole Court, to be infamous Libels and Scandals; and Waller and Bostock were both punished by Sentence, with loss of their Ears, Whipping, Imprisonment during life, and each fined in great Fines to the King. Pasch. 1 Jac. in Cam. Stellat. The Earl of Northamptons Case.

2. Libels in the Spiritual Court.

1. S. Vicar of L. libelled in the Spiritual Court against D. and shewed, That upon his Endowment, four Quarters of Corn were assigned to the Vicar of the Tythes of the Parsonage of L. and that the Pastor or Farmer of the said Parsonage of L. had alwaies paid the said Corn to the Vicar and his Predecessors; and shewed, That the Lord Sands was seized of the Parsonage, and leased a Barn and Tythe-Corn, parcel of the said Parsonage, to D. his Wife, and Son: Habendum to D. for his life, remainder to his Wife for life, the remainder to his Son for life: And that D. Covenanted with the Lord Sands, to render the said four Quarters of Corn, to the Vicar and his Successors: And after a Prohibition procured, S. prayed a Consultation. It was Objected against the Consultation, That it was grounded upon a Covenant. But the Opinion of the Court was, It was not grounded upon the Covenant, but upon the Title of Endowment. 2. Objected, That the said D. his Wife and Son, were joynt Farmers; for the Habendum had not severed their Estate, and so the Libel should have been against them all: But that Exception was over-ruled by the Court. 3. It was Excepted, That the Parson, or Farme, ought to pay the said four Quarters of Corn; and that the Lease to D. and his Wife, and Son, was but of part of the Parsonage, viz. the Barn, and Tithe Corn, parcel of the Rectory, and that the rest of the Rectory did remain with the Lord Sands, and so the Vicar should have Libelled against the Lord Sands, and D. and for that cause the Consultation was denyed. And Note, In this case it was agreed, That if upon a Libel the Defendant maketh a surmise in Banco to have a Prohibition, if such surmise be insufficient, the other party needeth not to Demur upon it, but as Amicus Curiæ, he shall shew it to the Court, and the Court shall discharge the Prohibition. Mich. 26 Eliz. in C. B. Sutton and Dowses Case. Leon. 10, 11.

2. A Parson Libelled in the Spiritual Court against the Defendant, and shewed, That the Custome of the Town of L. was, That the Parson should have for his Tythe the tenth Land sowed with any manner of Corn, beginning to reckon at the first Land which was next the Church; and shewed, That the Defendant by Covin had sowed every tenth Land very ill, and with a small quantity of Grain, and did not manure it as he did the other nine parts; ſo as where every other of the ſaid lands yeilded eight Cocks, the tenth never yeilded above three Cocks; and for abuſing of the Cuſtome, the Parſon prayed Tythes in kinde. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Cuſtome was againſt reaſon, and ſo void; but if the Cuſtome were good, the Parſon might have his Action upon the Caſe. Paſch. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Stebbs and Goodlacks Caſe. Leon. 99.

3. The Parſon of B. Libelled in the Spiritual Court for the Tythe Milk of eight Kine, depaſturing within ſuch a field within his Pariſh. The Defendant ſaid, That he, and all thoſe he had uſed, time out of minde, to pay every year a certain ſum of money to the Parſon, for the Tythe of the ſame Field. Whereupon he had a Prohibition, and no Injunction to the Judges in the Spiritual Court. Afterwards the ſame Parſon libelled there again for the ſame Tythes, againſt the ſame Pariſhioner; and in both Libels there was no difference, but that in the latter it was for a leſs number of Kine: And thereupon an Attaint upon a Prohibition was Granted by the Court; for otherwiſe a Prohibition would be to no purpoſe. Paſch 30 Eliz. in C. B. Staffords Caſe. Leon. 111.

4. A Parſon libelled in the Spiritual Court for Tythes in kinde, in the year 1610. a Modus Decimandi was pleaded, and thereupon a Prohibition Granted: Afterwards he libelled there for Tythes in kinde, in the year 1611. It was the clear Opinion of the whole Court, That if he libelled the ſecond time for thoſe Tythes in ſpecie, for which before he was prohibited; or if he that ſueth again, &c. Attachment lyeth: But for other Tythes due for another year, he is not prohibited, but only to ſue again for the ſame thing; but if for any other Tythes, he is left at liberty to ſue for them: And ſo the Rule of the Court was, That if the Libel be for the ſame Tythes in the former Prohibition, That an Attachment be Granted for his Contempt. And in this Caſe Cook Chief Juſtice ſaid, That he had ſeen a Record in the time of King Edward 3. That if a Court do proceed contrary to a Prohibition, that not only an Attachment ſhall be Granted for the King, but a Special Action upon the Caſe will lye for the party; for ubicunque eſt injuria, ibi damnum ſequitur to the party; for which he ſhall have his Action upon the Caſe. Mich. 12 Jac. Downes and Hakebies Caſe. Bulſtrode 2. Part, 289.

5. The Parſon of North Lyn libelled in the Spiritual Court againſt P. for Tythes of certain Paſtures. The Defendant to have a Prohibition, ſurmiſed, that he is Inhabitant of South Lyn, and that time out of minde, every Inhabitant there, having Paſture in North Lyn, had paid Tythes in kinde for them to the Vicar of South Lyn, where he is non reſident; and that the Vicar, time out of minde, paid to the Parſon for the time being, 2 d. for every Acre. It was ſaid, That this Preſcription did ſtand with Reaſon; for ſuch benefit hath the benefit of North Lyn, if any Inhabitant hath any Paſtures in South Lyn. But the Court was againſt the Prohibition; for Modus Decimandi ſhall never come in debate upon this matter; but who ſhall have the Tythes, the Vicar, or the Parſon; Alſo the Court held the Preſcription not to be reaſonable. Trin. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Gatſould and Penns Caſe. Leon. 128.

6. B. libelled in the Spiritual Court againſt G. for Tythe-Hay; G. ſurmized that there was an agreement betwixt the ſaid parties, that for the yearly ſum of 7 s. to be paid by G. to B; B. promiſed that he ſhould have the Tythes of the Land during his life: And upon an Attachment upon a Prohibition brought by G. he Declared, That for the ſaid yearly ſum, B. leaſed to him the Tythes for his life: And upon the Declaration, B. demurred in Law, for the variance between the Surmiſe and the Declaration; for in the Surmiſe, a Promiſe is ſuppoſed; and in the Declaration a Leaſe: It was the Opinion of the whole Court, That the Surmiſe is as a Writ, for which, if variance be betwixt the ſame and the Declaration, all is naught. Trin. 30 Eliz in B. R. Gomerſal and Bſhops Caſe. Leon. 128.

7. C. libel'ed in the Spiritual Court againſt P. an Attorney of the Court, for a Seat in the Church of D. The Court was moved to Grant a Prohibition for this reaſon, That the Defendant is ſeiſed of a Houſe in the ſaid Pariſh, and that he, and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate he hath in the ſaid houſe, have had a Seat in the Iſle of the Church. And in this Caſe it was Reſolved by the Court, That if the Lord of a Mannor, or other perſon, who hath a Houſe and Land in the Pariſh time out of minde, had a Seat in an Iſle of the ſame Church, ſo as the Iſle is ſole and proper to his family, and they have maintain'd it at their own charges, That if the Biſhop would diſpoſſeſs him, he ſhall have a Prohibition; for it ſhall be intended, that the Parties Anceſtors, or thoſe whoſe Eſtate he hath, have erected and built the Iſle, with the aſſent of the Parſon, Patron, and Ordinary, to the intent to have it only to himſelf. But for a Seat in the body of the Church, if a Queſtion ariſeth concerning it, it is to be decided by the Ordinary; becauſe the Freehold is to the Parſon, and the place is dedicated and conſecrated to the Service of God, and is common to all the Inhabitants, See Garvens Caſe. Cook 12. Part. 105.

8. It was Reſolved in the Court of Star-chamber, That if a man have a Houſe in any Pariſh, and time out of minde, he and all thoſe whoſe Eſtate he hath, have uſed to have a certain Pew in the Church; That if the Ordinary will diſplace him, he ſhall have a Prohibition; for if he hath it by Preſcription, he hath as good right in the Seat, as he hath in his houſe; but then he muſt claim it as belonging to his Houſe, and not in other manner, for properly it belongs to the Inhabitants in the Manor houſe, if any Manor be, and not to the Manor which includes other Tenants, Farmers, and Inhabitants. Paſch. 10 Jac. in Cam. Stellat. The Lady Huſſey and Leytons Caſe. Cook 12. Part, 106.

9. E. libelled againſt A. in the Spiritual Court, pretending that a Seat which A. claimed, belonged to his Houſe? and Sentence was given in the Spiritual Court againſt E. and coſts, pro falſo clamore, he appealed to the Arches, and there when they were ready to affirm the Sentence, he prayed a Prohibition: It was prayed it might be Granted, and Mich. 33 Eliz. Treſhams Caſe was vouched, where in ſuch a Caſe a Prohibition was Granted after an Appeal. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if a Title be made there by Preſcription, it is meerly coram non Judice; and if they cannot meddle with the Principal, it is not reaſon that they ſhall tax Coſts; and a Prohibition was Granted. Paſch. 4 Car. in C. B. Eaton and Ayliffs Caſe. Hetley 94.

10. One libelled in the Spiritual Court againſt another man for the Tythe of two Pecks of Apples, and for feeding Cattel upon the ground. The Defendant for the Apples anſwered, That there were two pecks only growing in his Orchard, and that they were ſtollen, and never came to his hands. And for the Cattel That they were old milch beaſts, and were dry, and that for a moneth they paſtured with other Heifers, and that after he fed them with hay in his houſe. It was ſaid by Yelverton Juſtice, That if I ſuffer one to pull my Apples, the Parſon ſhall have Tythes, but if they be taken by perſons not known, the Parſon ſhall not have Tythes of them; for they are not Tythable before plucking: But if the party ſuffer them to hang ſo long by negligence after the time, ſo as they are imbezelled, the Parſon ſhall have Tythes for them: and for the other point, The Court was clear of Opinion, That the Parſon ſhould have Tythe of the Cattel, for ſo long time as they were in the Paſture with the Heifers. Trin. 4 Car. in C. B. Annonymus in the Caſe of a Prohibition. Hetley, 100 Licence.

Where the King may Licence a man to do divers Acts or Things which are contrary to Statutes, Where not: And what Acts the King's Tenants, or other Perſons, may do without Licence, what not: And where, and how long ſuch Acts ſhall binde, and be good, and where not.

1. THe King had Granted to one a Licence to carry Bell-metal out of the Realm, notwithſtanding any Statute made, or to be made; After the Licence Granted, it was Enacted by Parliament, That no perſon ſhould carry or convey Bell-metal beyond the Seas, upon a certain pain. It was the Queſtion, If by this Act the ſaid Licence was revoked: It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, That it was; becauſe the party is a party to the Act; as alſo, becauſe the King cannot diſpenſe with a penal Law to be after made, as he may do in ſome things of Inheritance; for if the King do grant to one to be diſcharged of all Taxes and Subſidies, Granted, or to be Granted; ſuch a Grant is void. Hill. 33. H. 8. Dyer, 52.

2. It was Enacted 4 H. 7. cap. 9. That no man ſhould Import Gaſcoign Wines into the Realm of England, but only in Engliſh Ships, and where the Maſter and Mariners were Engliſh, upon pain of forfeiture; Afterwards the King that now is, gave Licence to a man to Import 600 Tun of Gaſcoigne Wine in any Ship, notwithſtanding the Statute. Afterwards J. S. was ſued in the Exchequer by Information, for bringing in a quantity of Gaſcoigne Wines, contrary to the ſaid Act of Parliament. He pleaded the Licence of the King, as Aſſignee of the Patentee, but did not ſhew the Letters Patents; but he averred, That there was a Cuſtome amongſt Merchants, That every one having ſuch a Licence, might aſſigne part of it to others by word only. The Juſtices doubted of the matter in Law, Whether the Licence ſtood good or not: But they were clear of Opinion, That the Plea was not good, without ſhewing the Letters Patents. Mich. 34 H. 8. Dyer 54.

3. Queen Mary Granted to one a Licence to ſell Wines by Retail, with a Non obſtante the Statute tute of 7 E. 6. but it was not mentioned in the Licence how long the Licence ſhould continue, only there was a Commandment in the Patent, that the Officers ſhould permit him for life. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices in this Caſe, That the Licence ſhould be only Durante bene Placito of the Queen; and that by the death of the ſaid Queen, the Licence was determined. Hill. 10 Eliz. Dyer 290.

4. Cox, The Chaplain of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, having a Benefice of the gift of the Queen, he procured a Diſpenſation from the Archbiſhop, to have a Third Living, the which Diſpenſation the Queen confirmed in theſe words, ſcil. Ita quod omnibus & ſingulis in eiſdem Litteris ſpecificat. frui & potiri valeat libere & quiete abſque impedimento aliquo Statuto, Actu vel reſtrictione in contrarium edit. & proviſ. aut aliquare, cauſa, vel materia quacunque Non obſtante: And by force thereof he obtained three Benefices incompatible: and whether the firſt of the three was void by the Statute of 21 H. 8. was the Queſtion. Trin. 18 Eliz. Dyer. 341, 342.

5. King E. 6. Granted unto Merchant ſtrangers, to tranſport all Merchandizes paying pro Cuſtumis tot & tantas denariorum ſummas quot & quantas any Engliſh Merchant or Denizen paid & non ultra. It was the Opinion of the Juſtices, and ſo adjudged, That this Grant was good for the Cuſtome, though it was not Granted pro ſe & hæredibus, becauſe the King hath an Inheritance in the Cuſtomes as a Prerogative annexed to the Crown. But in that Caſe it was ſaid, That if the King Grant a Licenſe to one to carry out of the Realm 1000 Tun of Beer, aliquo Statuto vel reſtrictione in contrarium non obſtante, and doth not grant the ſame for him, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, that ſuch Grant is determined by the death of the King, becauſe it is but a Licenſe diſpenſative, and revocable before the Execution of it. Mich. 1. Ma. Dyer, 92.

6. In an Information for ſtopping of a Highway; It was ſet forth, That time out of mind, there was a common High way for Horſe, Foot, and Carriages in ſuch a Lane, leading to divers Market Towns, and that the Defendant with Hedges and Ditches ſtopped it, incloſed it, and ſo held it. The Defendants confeſs the old way, but ſay it was ſo foul and drowned with Water and dirt, that Paſſengers could not paſs it; and that for the profit and eaſe of the Paſſengers, J. S. ſeiſed of a Cloſe adjoyning, layed out another Way more commodious for the people: And before the laying out of it, a Writ of Ad quod damnum iſſued to enquire, Whether it would be to the damage of, &c. if the King ſhould grant ſuch a Licenſe to the Defendants, and that an Inquiſition was taken that it was not to the damage, &c. It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That the Plea was not good, both in matter and form, becauſe in the plea it did not appear by what Authority J. S. did it, for it is but at his pleaſure, and he may ſtop it when he will; and by that laying out, the Subjects have not any Intereſt therein: And the pleading of the Ad quod damnum, and the Inquiſition upon it is to no purpoſe, when he doth not plead, that he obtained the Kings Licenſe. Trin. 8 Car. in B. R. The King and Wards Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 193.

7. Every Grand Serjeanty is a Tenure in Capite, 30 H. 8. Dyer, 44. And in 14 E. 3. Quare Imp. 54. It is ſaid by Wilby, That if Tenant by Grand Serjeanty alieneth his Lands without Licenſe, the ſame is a forfeiture, becauſe the ſervice of the body cannot be transferred over to another. But notwithſtanding the Opinion of Wilby, It was holden by all the Juſtices, Mich. 39 Eliz. That at this day Grand Serjeanty ſhall not be forfeited by Alienation without Licenſe, and that by the Statute of 1 E. 3. cap. 12. See Cook 2. Part, in the Lord Cromwells Caſe, 81, 82.

8. It was found by Office, That T. by Licenſe of the King, did marry the Kings Neif, and that certain Lands diſcended to the ſaid Neif, which her Husband aliened without the Kings Licenſe to another; and for this cauſe, the Land was ſeiſed into the Kings hands. The Alience thereupon came into the Chancery, and ſhewed all this matter, viz. 1. That the Neif was married with the Kings Licenſe. 2. That the Diſcent to the Neif appeared by Office: Whereupon it was awarded, That the Husband might hold the Land by the Curteſy, and by ſuch Alienation put the Wife to her Action, and thereupon the Alienee had reſtitution; out of which Caſe, the Lord Coke obſerved, That the Wife being married with the Kings Licenſe, it is an Enfranchiſement to her during the Coverture; for if ſhe ſhould remain Neif, then the Husband ſhould not be Tenant by the Curteſy 33 E. 3. Tit. Traverſe, 36. Cook 4. Part, 59. acc.

9. Note, by Cook, in Cook 7. Part, 22. in Calvins Caſe, That an abſolute Monarch, or Prince, cannot come into England without Licenſe of the King; but a Subject being in League, may come into this Realm without Licenſe of the King. And ſee there, Artold King of Man ſued to King Hen. 3. to come into England to confer with him: And thereupon the King 34 of his Reign, at Weſtminſter by his Letters Pattents gave Licenſe to Artold King, as followeth; Sciatis quod Licentiam dedimus, &c. Artoldo Regi de Manna veniendi ad nos in Angliam, ad loquendum nobiſcum et ad faciendum nobis quod facere debet. Cook 7. Part, Calvins Caſe, 21.

10. No Subject can make a Park, Chace, or Warren, within his own Lands without the Kings Licenſe: and if he do it of his own head; In a Quo Warranto, they ſhall be ſeiſed into the Kings hands. Coke 11. Part, 86. in the Caſe of Monopolies.

2. Where a Licenſe to do a thing by word, ſhall be good, and ſhall be pleaded without ſhewing a Deed; where not: What ſhall be a good Licenſe; what not: Where countermandable; where not: and by what acts it ſhall be countermanded: and the difference betwixt Licenſes in fact, and Licenſes in Law.

1. IN Treſpaſs by an Aſſignee of a Leaſe for years; The Defendant pleaded, That the Leaſe was made upon Condition, that the Leſſee ſhould not aſſign it over without the Licenſe by Deed of the Leſſor, and that the Leſſee aſſigned it over; The Plaintiff pleaded a Licenſe by Deed by the Leſſor, without ſaying (in Curia probat.) It was Reſolved, That the Plaintiff needed not to ſhew it, becauſe the Plaintiff doth not claim by the ſaid Deed of Licenſe any Intereſt in the Land, but the Licenſe is only collateral to it, and pleaded only to excuſe the forfeiture of the Leaſe; and it is not like to a Releaſe or confirmation, for they transfer a Right. 2. Reſolved, When a Deed is requiſite, ex inſtitutione Legis; there it ought to be ſhewed to the Court, although it concerns a collateral thing, and conveyes nothing but when it is requiſite ex proviſione hominis, there the proviſion of man ſhall not change the Judgment of the Law. 3. Reſolved, That in the principal Caſe, the Licenſe was executed, and had not continuance. Cook 6. Part, 38. Bellamyes Caſe. See Cro. 2. Part, 103. the ſame Caſe.

2. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That if the King granteth the Office of Serjeant at Arms (to attend upon the Lord Keepe) for life, That the King may Licenſe him by word, that he may abſent himſelf from the Execution of that Office for a time, becauſe he is immediate Officer to the King, and is but attendant upon the Lord Keeper, and the King thereby doth not depart with any Intereſt, but doth ſuſpend the Service of the Serjeant at Arms for a time; and therefore the Licenſe by word is good enough. But it was agreed, That Non-attendance upon ſuch an Office, is a forfeiture of it, but then it ought to be voluntary negligence, and not when it is done by diſpenſation or aſſent of the King by his Licenſe. Paſc. 21 Eliz. Stewards Caſe. Cook 7. Part, 39, 100. in Sir George Reynells Caſe.

3. In Treſpaſs for entring his Cloſe, the Defendant pleaded, That J. S. was ſeiſed of the Land wherein, &c. and demiſed the ſame for years to the Plaintiff, reſerving Rent, in which Deed was a clauſe of re-entry for non-payment of the Rent and afterwards made his Will in writing, and by his ſaid Will gave the Land in qua, &c. to the Defendant, and after the Rent was behind, and that he for non-payment of the Rent, according to the Covenant in the Deed, entred; upon which Plea the Plaintiff demurred. In this Caſe it was adjudged againſt the Defendant, That the Plea was not good, becauſe he doth not ſhew in it, that he did enter into the Land by the leave and Licenſe of the Executor, which he ought to have done; for although the Land was deviſed to him by Will, yet he cannot enter into it without the leave of the Executor. Trin. 23 Car. in B. R. Matthew and Herles Caſe. Styles 65.

4. In Treſpaſs, Quare clauſum fregit, the Defendant made a ſpecial Juſtification, That he did enter into the Plaintiffs Cloſe to ſearch for ſheep which were ſtollen from him. The Plaintiff demurred upon the Plea, for that the Juſtification was not good, for it is not ſaid, That the Plaintiff had ſtolen his ſheep, or that he had ſuſpition that he had ſtole them; and ſo the entry to ſearch without Licenſe of the Plaintiff was not juſtifiable. And in that Caſe, it was ſaid, That if Cattel be ſtolen and put into my ground, I may take them damage feaſant, or bring an Action of Treſpaſs againſt the Owner, and the Owner cannot take them away without the Licenſe of the Poſſeſſor of the ground, for if he might, by that means the poſſeſſor of the ground would be without means for the damages the Cattel hath done. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Mich. 24 Car. in B. R. Teplady and Stayles Caſe. Styles 165.

5. In an Ejectione firme brought by the Leſſee of a Copyholder. It was ſaid by the Court, That if the Plaintiff declare generally, without mention of a Licenſe; If the Defendant pleadeth Not guilty, It is ſufficient if the Plaintiff ſheweth the Licenſe in Evidence. But if the Defendant doth plead plead ſpecially, then the Plaintiff ought to plead the Licenſe certain in his Replication. In the Principal Caſe, the Plaintiff replyed, That a Copyholder by Licenſe then firſt had of his Lord, did demiſe, but did not ſhew what eſtate the Lord had, nor the place nor time when it was made, and therefore it was agreed, That it was not good. For if a Copyholder without Licenſe of the Lord, maketh a Leaſe for years, the Leſſee who enters by force of it, is a Diſſeiſor, and a Diſſeiſor cannot maintain Ejectione firmæ. And the Lord of a Copyholder cannot give a Licenſe to make a leaſe for a longer time then he himſelf hath in the Seignory. Hill. 8 Jac. in C. B. Petty and Evans Caſe. Brownlow, 2. Part, 40.

6. In Treſpaſs, the Caſe was, A. Licenſed B. to lay his Hay upon the land of A. untill he could conveniently ſell it. B. made a leaſe of the land to P. who put in his Cattel, and they eat up the Hay, and it was two years betwixt the Licenſe, and the putting in of the Cattel, and yet B. brought an Action of Treſpaſs againſt P. But in this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That B. had a convenient time, ſcil. two years for the removing of his Hay, and therefore Judgment was given againſt him; but admit there had not bin a convethient time, yet the Court was clear of Opinion, That B. ought to have encloſed the land at his peril, for the Preſervation of his Hay. And in that Caſe it was agreed, That a Licenſe is countermandable, although it be concerning profit or pleaſure, unleſs there be a certain time in the Licenſe. Hill. 17 Jac. in B. R. Web and Paternoſters Caſe. Poph. 151.

7. The Queen gave Licenſe to Bartue to go beyond Sea to recover Debts; Provided, That he reſort not to the Fugitives; if he do, the Licenſe to ceaſe. One was ſent with a Privy Seal to command him to return, who returned, and certified a reſort, which being certified into the Exchequer, they there made out a Commiſſion to ſeize all his Lands and goods; and afterwards Bartue returned. It was holden in this Caſe, amongſt other things, That the Queen might not revoke the Licenſe, becauſe it was for a certain time, and that the reſort to the Fugitives did not make the Licenſe void from the beginning, but from that time only. 2 Eliz. Dyer, 176, 177. Bartues Caſe.

8. A Licenſe to come to my houſe to ſpeak with me, 9 E. 44. Goods bailed over to deliver to J. S. or elſe to beſtow them in Alms. A Letter of Attorney to deliver Seiſin. All theſe may be countermanded before they be done. But if I preſent J. S. to a Church, I cannot afterwards vary in my Preſentment, and preſent another; becauſe by the Preſentment to the Ordinary, I have put the Intereſt out of my ſelf, to the Ordinary. So if I deliver a Bond into a ſtrangers hand, as an Eſcrow, to be delivered to the Obligee upon a Condition to be performed, this cannot be countermanded afterwards by me, for that upon the delivery, there paſſeth a kind of Intereſt to the Obligee. See Finch 32.

9. A Leaſe was made to A. B. and C. upon Condition, That they, nor any of them ſhould allien without Licenſe; and the Leſſor afterwards gave Licenſe, That A. B. or C. might allien. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the ſame was a good Licenſe, and diſpenſation of the Condition, notwithſtanding the incertainty of it, and that thereby they had ſeveral Authorities to Allien. As a Letter of Attorney to A. or B. to make Livery. But it was holden by them, That a gift to A. or B. was void for the incertainty of it. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Lords and Comptons Caſe. Godbolt, 93.

10. Six Carpenters came to a Tavern, and called for a Quart of Wine, and drank it, and upon requeſt, refuſed to pay for it. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That when Entry, Authority, or Licenſe is given to any one by the Law, and he doth abuſe it, he ſhall be a Treſpaſſor ab initio. But where an Entry, Authority, or Licenſe is given by the party, and he abuſeth it, there he ſhall be puniſhed for his abuſe, but he ſhall not be a Treſpaſſor ab initio; the reaſon is, In Caſe of a general Authority or Licenſe in Law, the Law will adjudg by the ſubſequent Act, quo animo he doth enter. But when the party giveth Authority or Licenſe to do a thing, he cannot by any ſubſequent cauſe puniſh that which is done by his own Licenſe or Authority: and in the principal Caſe, the Law giveth Authority or Licenſe to enter into a common Tavern; and therefore he ſhall not be a Treſpaſſor ab initio for his firſt Entry. Cook 8. Part, 146. The ſix Carpenters Caſe.

Lieu, ſcil. Place, or County.

1, In what Place, or County Writs ſhall be brought. Where one Writ for things in ſeveral Counties. Where in Pleading, the Place muſt be ſhewed: And where the Place ſhall be alledged after Iſſue joyned, to have and try all by Viſne; Where not.

2. A Man brought an Action upon the Caſe in the County of N. and declared, That A. recovered againſt him 20 l. in the Court of Common-Pleas: And after Judgment, and before Execution, A. dyed, and that the Defendant knowing it, and malitiouſly intending to Outlaw the Plaintiff, brought in the name of A. in the County of Middleſex, a Capias utlagatum, directed to the Sheriff of London, and there ſued an Exigent, and took forth a Capias utlagatum to the Sheriff of N. by which he was taken and Impriſoned in the County of N. and the Plaintiff layed his Action againſt the Defendant in the County of N. upon which the Defendant did demur in Law, becauſe the Action ought to have bin brought in the County where the wrong did begin, and that was in Middleſex, for there the Capias Exigent, and Capias utlagatum were firſt ſued. But it was Reſolved, That the Action was well brought in the County of N. for the viſible wrong was in the County of N. for there the Plaintiff was Impriſoned; and when matter in fact is mixt with matter of Record, and the matter in one County doth depend upon the matter in another County, there the Plaintiff may chuſe in what County he will bring his Action. Cook 7. Part, 1. Bulwerts Caſe. And in that Caſe, theſe two Rules for bringing of Actions were put and agreed. 1. That in all Caſes, when an Action is founded upon two things, and both are material and traverſable, and the one without the other will not maintain the Action, there the Plaintiff may chooſe to bring his Action in what County he pleaſeth; As if a man be Arreſted in one County, and eſcapeth into another. 2. In all Actions Realls, If any Iſſue riſe upon the Land, or in any Action wherein the poſſeſſion of the Land, or a thing local is to be recovered: All theſe muſt be brought in the County where the Land lyeth: As a Writ of Ward of Land, Writ of Intruſion, Forfeiture of Marriage. But a Raviſhment of Ward ſhall be brought where the Raviſhment was. So a Quare Impedit, or Quare Incumbravit ſhall be brought where the Church is, ibid.

2. If a man hath a Rent iſſuing out of Land in two Counties, and he is diſſeiſed of it, he cannot have an Aſſiſe in one County, becauſe the whole muſt be put in view. But if a man makes a Leaſe for the life of another of Lands in two Counties, rendring Rent, and the Rent is behind, and the Ceſtuy que vie dyeth, the Leſſor in that Caſe ſhall have Debt in what County he pleaſeth, becauſe it is now changed into Debt, and there the perſon ſhall be charged: And if a Rent be granted to one out of the Lands of B. in two Counties, rendring Rent, and the Rent is behind, and the Grantee dyeth, his Executors upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. may have debt in the one County, or in the other, See 18 E. 3. 2. Aſſ. 380. 10. Aſſ. 4. 22 H. 6. 9, and 30. by Newton and Paſton.

3. Error of a Judgment in the Court of Sudbury in debt upon a Leaſe for years by an Aſſignee of the Reverſion. The firſt Error aſſigned was, That the Court is holden by Letters Patents, and proceſs is awarded ſecundum conſuetudinem Curiæ, which cannot be where the Court is erected within time of memory. 2. The Action is brought, ſuppoſing a Demiſe of Lands in D. whereas it ought to have bin brought in D. being brought upon privity of the Eſtate. 3. Becauſe he claims by grant of a Reverſion, and doth not ſhew a Deed; and without a Deed, or Fine, a Reverſion cannot paſs. For theſe Errors, the Judgment was reverſed. Trin. 4 Car. in B. R. Long and Neiberets Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 101.

4. Error of a Judgment in C. B. in Debt, the Error aſſigned was, becauſe the Debt was brought in London by an Aſſignee of J. S. of a Reverſion of Lands in the County of S. upon a Leaſe made thereof in London for two years Rent behind after the Aſſignment of the Reverſion and Attornment thereunto, whereas the Action ought to be brought in the County of S. where the Land lyeth: It was the Opinion of the Court in this Caſe, That forasmuch as the privity of contract is gone by the Aſſignment of the Reverſion, and the Attornment, and the Rent followeth the Land, the Plaintiff being only entituled thereunto by reaſon of having the Land, therefore the Action ought to be brought in in the County where the Land lyeth; the Judgment was reverſed: Paſc: 6 Car. in B. R. Sir Stephen Bard and Cudmores Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 132.

5. In Trover of goods, the Defendant pleaded a Bargain and Sale in Market overt: Upon which Iſſue was joyned, and found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in Arreſt of Judgment, becauſe the Plaintiff had ſhewed no place of Converſion. Yet it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Plaintiff ſhould have Judgment. And it was ſaid, If in debt upon an Obligation, the Plaintiff doth not ſhew the place, yet if the Defendant pleadeth a collateral bar as a Releaſe, or ſuch like, Judgment ſhall be given for the Plaintiff, if it be found for him by Verdict. Trin. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 54. See 36 Eliz. in C. B. rott. 266. acc.

6. In Error brought of a Judgment given in B. R. This Queſtion was moved to the Juſtices by Coke. If a man loſeth his goods, which come to the hands of another, and after, the Owner dyeth, Whether his Executors ſhall have an Action of the Caſe for this Trover, and whether he ought to ſhew the place and day of Converſion or not. The Court was of Opinion, That he ought to do it: And ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged, Where an Alderman of London brought an Action upon the Caſe of Trover and Converſion againſt Stranſham of an Obligation, and it was found that he had broken the Seals, and becauſe he did not ſhew the time and place of the Converſion, the Plaintiff could never get Judgment. Paſc. 31 Eliz. in C. B, Goldesbr. 89, 90.

7. Ejectione firmæ of a houſe in Winton, the Ejectment was layed to be of a houſe in auſtrali parte vici anglice the High-ſtreet. It was holden, it was well layed, not if it had bin ex auſtrali parte vici. It was moved, That the Venire facias was 12 liberos et legales homines de Winton, and doth not ſay of any Pariſh in Winton. But that was holden good, and it was ſaid, That it was not like Arundells Caſe, for there the Offence was layed to be done in Parochia Sanctæ Margaret. de Weſtminſt. therefore the Viſne ought to be of the Pariſh, but in this Caſe being layed generally in Winton, it is ſufficient that the Viſne come out of Winton. Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Trin. 20 Jac. in B. R. Hewet and Byes Caſe. Godbolt, 335.

8. In an Indictment of Murder, the Murder was alledged to be done apud Civitatem de Weſtminſt. in Com. Midd. in Parochia Sanctæ Margaret. And for the Tryal, a Jury was returned de vicineto Civitatis Weſtminſt. It was Reſolved, That the Tryal was inſufficient, for the Viſne ought to be from the Pariſh, and not of the City, for a Pariſh is to be intended more certain then a City; and when a Pariſh is alledged to be in a City, the Viſne ſhall come out of the Pariſh; and alwayes the Tryal ſhall be from ſuch a place which by preſumption may have the beſt knowledg of the matter of fact. Cook 6. Part, 41. Arundells Caſe.

9. Action upon the Caſe was brought for calling the Plaintiff perjured Knave; the Defendant juſtified, becauſe the Plaintiff had ſworn in the Exchequer, That the Defendant had refuſed to pay the Subſidy, whereas in truth he had not ſo done. The Plaintiff replyed, de injuria ſua propria abſque tali Cauſa. The Action was brought in London, and there tryed for the Plaintiff. It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, becauſe the Tryal was in London; whereas the perjury was ſuppoſed to be in the Exchequer. The Court ſaid, the matter is tryable in both Counties. It was then ſaid, That London cannot joyn with other Counties. Then the Court ſaid, the Iſſue was ill joyned, for when an Iſſue is tryable by two Counties, if they cannot joyn, you ought then to make ſuch an Iſſue as may be tryable by one County only. And all the Court was of Opinion, That this Iſſue ought to have bin tryed in Middleſex, for there the perjury is ſuppoſed to be committed. Mich. 28 and 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 28. See Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Bate and Mountſtowes Caſe, the ſame Caſe.

2. Where a Condition to be performed in one place, may be performed at another: Where no place is alledged; where it is to be performed: And how performed at the day and place by tender; Where not.

1. THE Queen made a Leaſe for yeers rendring Rent, payable at the Receipt of her Exchequer at Weſtminſter, ſeu ad manus Baliorum ſeu Recepturum, with Condition to be void for non-payment of the Rent; and afterwards granted over the Reverſion. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, 1. That if a common perſon reſerve a Rent upon a Leaſe payable at a place off the Land, he who will take advantage of the Condition for not payment of the Rent, ought to demand the Rent at the place where it is limitted to be paid. 2. Reſolved, If the King makes a Leaſe for years reſerving rent, with ſuch Condition, the King may take advantage of the Condition without any demand, but that is only only by a perſonal Prerogative annexed to the perſon of the King. And 3. Reſolved, If the King make ſuch Leaſe rendring rent, and no place is limitted for the payment of it, the Leſſee ought to pay it in the Exchequer, or unto the hands of the Bayliff or Receiver of the King. Cook 4. Part, 73. Boroughs Caſe.

2. A Copyholder in Fee ſurrendred to the uſe of J. S. and his Heirs upon Condition, That if he paid to the Mortgagee 250 l. of lawful money of England, at the Manſion houſe of the Mortgagee. That the ſurrender ſhould be void: at the day and place he tendred the money for the Mortgage in bags which he refuſed. In that Caſe, it was Reſolved, That if tender be made to him who ought to receive it at the place at any time of the day in which it ought to be paid, and the other refuſeth it, the penalty is ſaved, and the Mortgager need not make a new tender before the laſt inſtant of the day. 2. Reſolved, That the tender in bags was ſufficient if there be the whole ſum. And in that Caſe, A Caſe was put, where it was Reſolved, That if the Leſſor demands his Rent of his Leſſee, and the Leſſee payeth the Rent to the Leſſor, and he accepts of it, and puts it into his purſe, and after he finds that he hath received counterfeit money, and refuſeth to carry it away, That in ſuch Caſe he ſhall not enter for the Condition broken, for when he hath once accepted of the money, it was at his perill, and after ſuch allowance, he ſhall not except againſt it, and ſo enter for the Condition broken. Cook 5. Part, 114. Wades Caſe.

1. NOte. It was Reſolved by the Court, That if a man dwelleth in the Pariſh of S, and hath divers Lands in his own poſſeſſion in the Pariſh of D; that by the Law he is a Pariſhioner of D; for the place where he lyeth, doth not make him a Pariſhioner: but whereſoever he occupieth and manureth Land, he is a Pariſhioner, and he ſhall be ſubject to all Taxes and Aſſeſſments within the ſaid Town: But if he hath a Fermor there in D, and he himſelf receiveth the Rent, this receipt of Rent will not make him chargeable, becauſe there is an Inhabitant who may be charged. Mich. 32 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 5. Part, 66. Jeffery's Caſe.

2. In Debt againſt an Executor, the Jury found, That the Teſtator dyed in Ireland, and that the Defendant took divers goods of the Teſtator in Ireland, and adminiſtred them to the value of the Debt; and that he did not adminiſter any Goods of the Inteſtate infra Regnum Angliæ. It was Objected in this caſe, That the Jury cannot find tranſitory things in another County, or other Realm, becauſe by Preſumption of Law, they cannot have knowledg of the thing; and a thing meerly done beyond Sea, ſhall not be tryed here. But it was Reſolved, That the Jury might find Aſſets in another County, for they are tranſitory things. In Debt againſt the heir, he pleads Nothing by Diſcent; the Plaintiff for Conformity and neceſſity of tryal, ought to alledg Aſſets in a certain place; and yet the Jurours may find Aſſets in another County well enough. But it was Reſolved, That when the place is material, and made parcel of the Iſſue, there the Jury cannot find the Point in Iſſue in another place; for by ſpeciall pleading, the Point in Iſſue is reſtrained to a certain place. 2. It was Reſolved, That upon every general Iſſue, the Jury may find things Local in any other County, which are material in Law for the matter in Queſtion, as Warranty and Aſſets in another County: and ſo when Land is exchanged for Lands in another County. 3. Reſolved, That in the principal caſe, the Jury have found the ſubſtance of the Iſſue; ſtil. Aſſets: and the finding that they were beyond the Sea, was ſuperfluous. Cook 6. 3. The ſole Queſtion of the Caſe at Barr was, If a Quare Impedit did lye againſt the Ordinary and the Incumbent only, without naming the Patron? And it was adjudged, That it did not lye; 1. Becauſe the Patronage ſhould be recovered againſt him who had nothing in the Patronage. 2. Becauſe at the Common Law, the Incumbent could not plead any plea which concerned the Patronage, and therefore it ſhould be againſt all right, that he only ſhould be named in the Writ, who could not defend the Patronage. But now by the Statute of 25 E. 3. the Incumbent may plead all common Pleas, which go not to the right of the Patronage. And in this Caſe, this difference was agreed, That when the Inheritance or Intereſt of the Patron in the Patronage is not to be deveſted by the Judgment in the Quare Impedit, but the Preſentment only to be recovered, there the lawful Patron needs not to be named in the Writ. But if a Quare Impedit be brought againſt the Patron and the Incumbent, and depending the Writ, the Patron dyeth, the Writ ſhall abate: But where the King Preſents, and his Clerk is Inſtituted and Inducted, a Quare Impedit may be brought againſt the Biſhop and the Incumbent only for neceſſity, becauſe it will not lye againſt the King. Cook 7. Part, 46, 47. Hall's Caſe.

4. An Action was brought upon the Statute of 1 & 2 Ph. & Mar. The Statute is, That no diſtreſſe ſhall be driven out of the Rape, Hundred, Wapentake, or Laith, where ſuch diſtreſſes ſhall be taken, except it be to the Pound which is within the ſaid County, not exceeding 3. miles diſtant from the place where the Diſtreſſe was taken. And the Plaintiff declared of a Diſtreſſe taken in a Hundred in ſuch a County, and that he drove it 6. miles out of the County: And becauſe a Hundred may be in divers Counties, and the Statute is, That the driving ought not to be more then 3. miles out of the Hundred, and that it might be, that the driving was 6. miles from the place where the Diſtreſſe was taken in another County, and yet not 3. miles from the Hundred where the taking was; For that cauſe it was not adjudged againſt the party. Mich. 24 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt, 11.

5. One had certain Mineral Lands Leaſed to him for years, with liberty to digg and make his profit of the Mine. The Leſſee afterwards digged for Mine, and ſold the gravel which came of the place. It was the Opinion of the whole Court in this caſe, That the ſale was no Waſte; for no Sale is Waſte, if the firſt act be not waſte. As the ſale of Trees by Tenant for life or years, is not Waſte, if the cutting and felling down of them was not Waſte before; for the vendition is but a ſecondary act, and ſubſequent to the act precedent; which act if it were lawful, the ſale alſo is lawful; for the Sale alone is no Waſte. But it was ſaid, That if the Leſſee ſell or cut down Timber-Trees, and ſell them, it is waſte non quia vendidit, ſed quia ſcindebat. But in the principal caſe, becauſe he ought to digg the Land, and that was lawful for him to do, the ſubſequent cannot be unlawful: and ſo it was adjudged, That the Action of Waſte brought would not lye. Mich. 27 Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt, 28.

6. In Debt upon an Obligation; the Condition was, That if the Plaintiff did bring ſuch a Ship to ſuch a place in Greece, and at the ſame place ſhould ſtay for the ſpace of 40 dayes, or ſo long of the 40 dayes as ſhould pleaſe the Defendant, ſo as he might freight the Ship, the Defendant ſhould freight the Ship within 40 dayes, and ſhould bring it to ſuch a Port in England. And becauſe he had not freighted the Ship, and the Ship was there by the ſpace of 40 dayes, the Plaintiff brought the Action upon the Bond. The Defendant pleaded, That within thoſe 40 dayes, viz. by the ſpace of 24 dayes, the Ship was Laden with Hoops, ſo as the Defendant could not freight it; upon which Plea, the Plaintiff did Demur in Law: For the Plaintiff it was ſaid, That the Defendant had not anſwered to all the time, and that he had ſufficient time, although the Ship was laden with Hoops for 24 dayes. For the Defendant it was ſaid, That the Ship was to remain there to be freighted, for ſo many dayes as it ſhould pleaſe the Defendant; and therefore the firſt act was to ariſe on the Plaintiff's ſide, and that ought to have been ſhewed to have been done. Alſo it is not ſhewed, That the Ship was ready there by the ſpace of 40. dayes. And it is a Rule in Conditions, That if the Plaintiff himſelf be cauſe of diſablement ſo as the Condition cannot be performed, that he ſhall not take advantage of the Condition. The Court inclined to be of Opinion, That becauſe it is not averred, that the Ship was there at the place by the ſpace of 40 dayes, that the Condition was not broken: but no Judgment was given in the Caſe Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Taylor and Ribera's Caſe Godbolt, 74, 75.

7. In a Replevin, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant cepit averia of the Plaintiff apud Oteuld, and did not ſay, in Quodam loco: Upon which the Plaintiff did Demur in Law. The Queſtion was, Whether the expreſſing of the place where the taking and diſtraining of the Cattle was, was material in the Plaintiff's Declaration, or not? It was Objected for the Defendant, That the Auncient form of the Regiſter ought to be obſerved; and in the Regiſter, the place in which the taking is

only by a perſonal Prerogative annexed to the perſon of the King. And 3. Reſolved, If the King make ſuch Leaſe rendring rent, and no place is limited for the payment of it, the Leſſee ought to pay it in the Exchequer, or unto the hands of the Bayliff or Receiver of the King. Cook 4. Part, 73. Boroughs Caſe.

2. A Copyholder in Fee ſurrendred to the uſe of J. S. and his Heirs upon Condition, That if he paid to the Mortgagee 250 l. of lawful money of England, at the Manſion houſe of the Mortgagee. That the ſurrender ſhould be void: at the day and place he tendred the money for the Mortgage in bags which he refuſed. In that Caſe, it was Reſolved, That if tender be made to him who ought to receive it at the place at any time of the day in which it ought to be paid, and the other refuſeth it, the penalty is ſaved, and the Mortgager need not make a new tender before the laſt inſtant of the day. 2. Reſolved, That the tender in bags was ſufficient if there be the whole ſum. And in that Caſe, A Caſe was put, where it was Reſolved, That if the Leſſor demands his Rent of his Leſſee, and the Leſſee payeth the Rent to the Leſſor, and he accepts of it, and puts it into his purſe, and after he finds that he hath received counterfeit money, and refuſeth to carry it away, That in ſuch Caſe he ſhall not enter for the Condition broken, for when he hath once accepted of the money, it was at his perill, and after ſuch allowance, he ſhall not except againſt it, and ſo enter for the Condition broken. Cook 5. It was Reſolved by the Court, That if a man dwelleth in the Pariſh of S, and hath divers Lands in his own poſſeſſion in the Pariſh of D; that by the Law he is a Pariſhioner of D; for the place where he lyeth, doth not make him a Pariſhioner: but whereſoever he occupieth and manureth Land, he is a Pariſhioner, and he ſhall be ſubject to all Taxes and Aſſeſſments within the ſaid Town: But if he hath a Fermor there in D, and he himſelf receiveth the Rent, this receipt of Rent will not make him chargeable, becauſe there is an Inhabitant who may be charged. 2. In Debt againſt an Executor, the Jury found, That the Teſtator dyed in Ireland, and that the Defendant took divers goods of the Teſtator in Ireland, and adminiſtred them to the value of the Debt; and that he did not adminiſter any Goods of the Inteſtate infra Regnum Angliæ. It was Objected in this caſe, That the Jury cannot find tranſitory things in another County, or other Realm, becauſe by Preſumption of Law, they cannot have knowledg of the thing; and a thing meerly done beyond Sea, ſhall not be tryed here. But it was Reſolved, That the Jury might find Aſſets in another County, for they are tranſitory things. In Debt againſt the heir, he pleads Nothing by Diſcent; the Plaintiff for Conformity and neceſſity of tryal, ought to alledg Aſſets in a certain place; and yet the Jurours may find Aſſets in another County well enough. But it was Reſolved, That when the place is material, and made parcel of the Iſſue, there the Jury cannot find the Point in Iſſue in another place; for by ſpeciall pleading, the Point in Iſſue is reſtrained to a certain place. 2. It was Reſolved, That upon every general Iſſue, the Jury may find things Local in any other County, which are material in Law for the matter in Queſtion, as Warranty and Aſſets in another County: and ſo when Land is exchanged for Lands in another County. 3. Reſolved, That in the principal caſe, the Jury have found the ſubſtance of the Iſſue; ſcil. Aſſets: and the finding that they were beyond the Sea, was ſuperfluous. Cook 6. 7. In a Replevin, the Plaintiff declared, That the Defendant cepit averia of the Plaintiff apud Ocould, and did not ſay, in Quodam loco: Upon which the Plaintiff did Demur in Law. The Queſtion was, Whether the expreſſing of the place where the taking and diſtraining of the Cattle was, was material in the Plaintiff's Declaration, or not? It was Objected for the Defendant, That the Auncient form of the Regiſter ought to be obſerved; and in the Regiſter, the place in which the taking is, is ſet forth. And 35 H. 6. 40. Exception was taken to the Declaration, becauſe the Plaintiff in the Replevin did not alledg the place where the taking was. In this Caſe, it was ſaid by Coke, Chief Juſtice, to which the other Juſtices inclined, That the effect of the ſuit in this Caſe, is not the ſhewing of the place, but the taking of the Cattel: and it is on the part of the Defendant, to ſhew where he took the Cattel; for perhaps the Plaintiff doth not know where he took them; and if he did know the place where they were taken, yet perhaps he hath no Witneſſe to prove the ſame, and ſo by this means the Plaintiff ſhould be at a miſchief, and delayed in his Suit: whereas a Replevin is feſtinum remedium, to have his Cattle again, which perhaps are the Cattle of his Plough. And in this caſe, upon the matter, the Avowant is the Actor, and he beſt knowes the place where he took the Cattel: And it is no reaſon that the Plaintiff miſſing of the place, not being matter of ſubſtance, ſhould be tricted for that. In this Caſe, divers Books were vouched, where the taking was alledged to be in a Town, without ſaying, in Quo dam loco, &c. and was good. 4 E. 3. 13. 44 E. 3. 14. 21 H. 7. 22. 8. In an Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was, J. S. Tenant in tail of a Meſſuage and Lands called Eſtons, lying in B, levied a Fine thereof by the name of a Meſſuage, 200 Acres of Land, 50 Acres, &c. in Eſſington, Eſton, and Chilford, to the uſe of himſelf and his heirs: and the Jury found, That there was not any Vill, Hamlet, or place known by the name of the Meſſuage or Tenement called Eſtons, out of the Vills or Hamlets, and that none of the ſaid Tenements either be or were in Eſſington, or in Chilford: And whether a Fine levied of Lands in places known in a Vill, not mentioning of the Vill or Hamlet where the Land is, be good, was the Queſtion? It was Objected, That the Fine was not good; That a Fine cannot be of Lands in a Vill or Hamlet, by the name of a place known; for the Vill being the principal, ought to be named, and the place known, may be known by one name one day, and at another day by another name: and a Fine ought to be levied by a name certain. On the other ſide it was ſaid, That the Fine was good: For a Fine is but an Aſſurance by agreement of the parties, which may be by ſuch names as the parties agree; and the Fine is drawn according to the Writ of Covenant; and the Writ of Covenant is guided by the Indentures of agreement of the parties, and it ought not to vary from it. The Caſe was argued by all the Juſtices ſeverally, and they were all of Opinion, That the Fine being levied and recorded, was good enough: For a Fine being but an Aſſurance, is favourably to be taken. As a Recovery of an Advowſon or Penſion, although it be not proper, yet being ſuffered, hath been adjudged good, becauſe it is but a Common Aſſurance. Hill. 6 Car. in B. Limitation.

Where one ſhall take Lands by way of Limitation; Where not. What words make a Limitation: What ſhall be ſaid a Limitation of an Eſtate; and what a Condition: And the difference between Limitation and Condition.

1. A. Being Ceſtuy que uſe of certain Lands before the Statute of 27 H. 8. Deviſed the ſame to his Wife for her life; and that after her deceaſe, B. his eldeſt ſon ſhall have the Land 10 l. under the price it coſt: and if he dyed without Iſſue, that then C. his ſecond Son ſhould have the Land 10 l. under the price it coſt: and if he dye without Iſſue of his body, then his two Daughters E. and F. ſhall have the Land, paying the value thereof to the Executors of his Wife, and by the ſame Will he deſired his Feoffees at the requeſt of his Wife to make Eſtates accordingly: The chief Queſtion was in this Caſe, If B. the Deviſee hath an Eſtate tail, or not. And whether the payment is to be precedent the Eſtate, or ſubſequent? It was ſaid, That he ought to have the Lands before the payment; for the words imply ſo much, and that he ſhall have the Land by courſe of Limitation, and that if he do not pay the money, that C. ſhall have the Land, as here by Limitation. And it was ſaid, That B. ſhould have an Eſtate tail in the Land. And ſo it was ſaid, it was adjudged, 32 Eliz. in Wallock and Hammonds Caſe. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Ballys and Bulleyns Caſe. Goldsbr. 134.

2. A man deviſed his Land to his younger ſon, when he ſhould accompliſh the age of 24. years, upon Condition, That he ſhould pay 20 l. to the Daughter of the Deviſor; and if he dye before before the age of 24. years, then his Eldeſt Son ſhall have the Land, upon Condition, that he pay the ſaid 20 l; and if both the ſons failed, that then the Land ſhould remain to his Daughter, and dyed; the younger ſon after 21 years entred, and did not pay the 20 l. to the Daughters; the elder Brother entred upon him: It was by the whole Court Reſolved in this Caſe, That the ſame was a Limitation, and not a Condition; and therefore the Entry of the Elder Brother was not lawfull. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Wiſeman and Baldwin's Caſe. Goldesbr. 152.

3. The Caſe was; A. gave Lands to B. and his Wife; Habendum to the Husband and Wife, to the uſe of them, and the heirs of their bodies: and for want of ſuch Iſſue, to the uſe of C. and his heirs. Whether the Husband and Wife have an Eſtate tail, or but for their Lives, was the Queſtion? It was Objected, That the Eſtate out of which the Uſe ſhould riſe, was but for their Lives; and the uſe cannot make the Eſtate longer then the Limitation; as where Lands are given to two for their Lives, to the uſe of another for his life; if the Leſſees dye, the uſe to him to whom it is limited, is determined. But it was holden by the Court, That there is a difference where an Eſtate is limited to one, and the uſe to a ſtranger, there the Uſe ſhall not be larger then the Eſtate out of which it is derived. But when it is limited to two, Habendum to the uſe of the heirs of their bodies, this is no Limitation of the Uſe, but a Limitation of the Eſtate to them and the heirs of their bodies, and they are in by the Common Law, and ſhall take it as a remainder to them and the heirs of their bodies, with the remainder over, that the Deed may be conſtrued according to the intent of him that made it. Paſch. 6 Car. in B. R. Jenkins and Youngs Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 167.

4. In Treſpaſſe, the Caſe was very long, and was this; Sir G. M. Mayor of London, ſeiſed of divers Meſſuages in London, erected an Almshouſe and School-houſe in W. in the County of Eſſex; and by his Will deviſed (whereof one was now in Queſtion) to B. and G. and 4. others, whom he made his Executors; Habendum to them, their heirs and Aſſigns: Reciting, That whereas he had erected thoſe Almeſ-houſes and School-houſe for 13 Poor, and a School-houſe and a Chappel; he deviſed the ſaid Meſſuages to the ſaid 6. perſons, and to their heirs and aſſignees, upon Condition, that they ſhould pay out of the Iſſues and profits of them; viz. to the School-Maſter, 6 l. 13 s. 4 d; and to the Poor weekly 7 d. a piece; and to pay to a Clerk to help to teach the Children 26 s. 8 d; and if any of the purpoſes remained unperformed, Then he deviſed the ſame to W. M. and to the heirs males of his body, to perform all the Truſts and Purpoſes aforeſaid: and if they failed, then he deviſed them to the Mayor and Comminalty of London upon the ſame Conditions: and if they failed, that his heir ſhould enter, and perform the ſame; and appointed, That none of the Deviſees ſhould hold by Survivour, but that the Heir of him who dyed ſhould have his part by Survivourſhip. It was found, That Sir G. M. dyed ſeiſed in Fee; that the Deviſees entred, that none of them paid the ſum appointed to the Clerk; That G. dyed; That H. his heir entred into his part, but had not performed the Truſt: That 5 Eliz. the heir of Sir G. M. entred for breach of the Condition; That the heir of G. entred upon him, and purchaſed the other parts of the Deviſees; but upon the Truſts he ſhould perform the Purpoſes aforeſaid: Who being in poſſeſſion, 35 Eliz. a Fine for Releaſe with Proclamation was levied unto him, and that he continued poſſeſſion, and dyed ſeiſed: And it was found, That the 26 s. 8 d. was never paid to this day. Three great Queſtions were made in this Caſe, 1. Whether this was a Condition, or a Limitation appointed by the Will. 2. Admitting it to be a Limitation, and after the firſt Limitation, to the heir of Sir G. M, Whether ſuch a Limitation may be good to the Mayor and Comminalty, being but a poſſibility? 3. Whether they not entring for not performing of the Truſts, but ſuffering a Fine with Proclamations, and 5. years paſſed, whether it be not a barr to their Entry? Many of theſe Points were not Reſolved: But it was Reſolved in this caſe, That the Fine with Proclamations, and the 5. years paſſed, had abſolutely barred the Plaintiff's Eſtate: And the Court conceived, That it was a void Limitation to the Mayor and Comminalty, being a poſſibility upon a poſſibility: And afterwards in this Caſe, Judgment was given againſt the Plaintiff. Hill. 15 Car. in B. R. The Mayor and Comminalty of London, and Alford's Caſe. Cro. 1. Part, 417.

5. In an Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was; A man deviſed his Meſſuages in London in this manner; viz. I bequeath to F. my Son, my houſes in L. after the death of my Wife: and if my three Daughters R. E. and J, and either of them do overlive their Mother, and F. their Brother, and his heirs, then they to enjoy the ſame for the Term of their Lives: And the ſame Houſes thus I give to my Sisters Sons R. and G. and to pay yearly to the Batchelours Company of Merchant Taylors 6 l. 10 s; And if they or their Successours deny the payment of the said summe, Then it shall be lawfull for the Wardens of the said Company to enter, and discharge them for ever. The Devisor dyed; the Son and Heir of the Sisters dyed without Issue; the Wife survived them, entred, and dyed: the three Sisters survived, entred, and dyed, having Issue the Defendant: The Question in this Case was, Whether F. the Son had a Fee or a Fee tail by this Will? It was Resolved, That he had but a Fee-taile: For it was impossible, that the Son should dye without heirs, as long as his Sisters were alive: For heirs in this place, is intended heirs of his body; and it is necessarily to be intended, that if he should dye without Issue of his body, for his Sisters are his heirs collateral. Hill. 14 Jac. in B. R. Webb and Hearing's Case. See Mich. 15 Jac. in B. R. King and Rumball's Case. Cro. 2. Part, 248. acc.

6. In Ejectione Firme, the Case was; A Lease was made to a Woman a Widow for 40 years sub hac tamen Conditione quod si ipsa tamdiu sola fuerit et inhabitaverit in the same house: The woman continued a Widow all her life, and dwelt all her time in the said house, and dyed within the Term, The Question was, Whether the Term ended or not; and whether the words make a Condition, or a Limitation? The Court in this case was of Opinion, That the words were insensible, and that it was neither a Condition, nor a Limitation: But if the word [Si] had been omitted, it would have been a Condition. And in this case it was said, That if J. make a Lease for 40 years, if the Lessee dwell upon the thing let, during the Term thereof, the Lessee dyeth, the Lease is determined: But if it be a Lease for 40 years, if the Lessee dwell upon it during his life there, if he dyeth, the Lease continueth. The Opinion of the Court in the principal Case was, That the Term did continue, and Judgment was for the Plaintiff. Hill. 43 Eliz. in C. B. Sayer and Hardies Case Goldesbr. 179.

7. A man seised of Copyhold Borough English, devised the same to H. his Grandchild, and to his Heirs; and if he dye during the life of his Mother, the Remainder to J. his younger Brother, and his heirs: The Question was, If this were an Estate tail in H, or a Fee Executory. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if it was an estate tail, then the Devise was not good, because it is of a Copyhold: but if it be a Fee-simple, then it is a good Devise. And in this Case it was said, That a Limitation of an Inheritance after a Fee-simple, is not a good Limitation; for this would be to make a perpetuity, which the Law will not admit: but if it be upon a Contingent Fee-simple, it is otherwise. And so it was said, it was adjudged, Mich. 37 & 38 Eliz. in C.B. rott. 1149. And it was said in this Case, That if there could be such a Devise of other Lands; Yet Copyhold Lands cannot be so devised, for there cannot be so much as a possibility of Reverter; for there is no Custome to warrant it: and though there might be a Reverter, yet the party cannot devise it by Will; and if he could, yet the Conveyance is here made up by Surrender and Admittance and Devise; and the party is in by the Surrender, and not by the Devise. Trin. 1651. in B.R. Jay and Jay's Case. Styles, 258. & 275.

8. A man made his Will, in these words, viz. I give and bequeath one half of my Lands to my Wife; and after her death, I give all my Lands to the heirs males of any of my Sons, or next of Kin. It was Objected, That in this case, that the words, The heirs males of any of his Sons, are certain enough to create an Estate tail; for it is all one as if he had said, To the heirs males of any of his Sons, if they have heirs males, or to those who have heirs males; and the words, Or to the next of Kin, are certain enough, being joyned with the precedent words, and shall be meant to the next of Kin, and the heirs males of their bodies, if they have heirs males. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That the intent of the Testator was here caca et ficca, and sensesse, and cannot be known, and then the Court ought not frame a sense upon the words of a Will, where the meaning of the Testator cannot be found out. And it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Devise was void for incertainty. Mich. 1650. in B. R. Beal and Wymans Case. Styles, 240. And so it was said, It was adjudged. Hill. 2 Car. in C.B. in Hunt and Fishers Case.

9. A. having Lands in Fee-simple, and Goods and Chattels of the value of 5 l. onely in F, by Will devised to his Wife totum statum suum, paying his Debts and Legacies; and his Debts and Legacies did amount to 40 l; The Questions were, 1. If the Lands passed to the Wife by the Will? 2. What Estate passed to her? It was the Opinion of the Court, 1. That the Land did passe; for so the common understanding of the words [all his Estate] imports; and the words go to the value of the Estate. 2. A Fee-simple passeth; ſeth; and the words, paying his Debts and Legacies, doth import ſuch a Conſtruction, for they are to be paid preſently; which cannot be, if the Lands paſſe not in Fee: and the words, paying his Debts and Legacies, are words of Condition, and not of Limitation; as it was adjudged, Mich. 24 Eliz. in Denham and Bakers Caſe. And in this Caſe, Riches Caſe was vouched, Mich. 45 Eliz. in C. B. where it was holden, That a Deviſe of all his Rents, was held to paſſe all the parties Lands. Trin. 1651. in B. R. Kyman and Johnſons Caſe, Styles, 293.

10. In Ejectione Firmæ, the Caſe was; A. ſeiſed of Lands, upon the Marriage of F. his Son with E. C. levied a Fine of the ſaid Lands to the uſe of himſelf, during his own life, and the life of the ſaid F. his Son, and after during the life of E. C. the Wife of F; the remainder to the uſe of the heirs to be begotten upon the body of E. by F. her husband: The Queſtion in this Caſe was, Whether the word Heirs, ſhall be intended the Heirs of F, and E. his Wife? Or whether the Eſtate ſhall be intended to be limited to the Heirs only, and that F. ſhall have barely an Eſtate for life in the Land? It was Objected, That the word [Heirs] relate only to the heirs of E. and not to the heirs of F; for it is limited to no perſon certain, but is left to the Conſtruction of Law, and that doth apply it to E, to whom A. who ſettled the Land, expreſſed moſt affection; and A. did not intend to advance the Husband, but E. his Wife onely: for the words of the Limitation; ſcil. upon her, is as much as to ſay, of her. But it was the Opinion of the whole Court, That it was not the opinion of the Donour, to apply the word Heirs, to the body of E. only; but the word Heirs, according to Littleton, is to be applyed to Heirs of both parties: and we are not to frame a meaning againſt plain words, which ſhew the Intent of the Donour. It was adjudged for the Defendant, Paſch. 1652. in B. R. Goſſage and Taylors Caſe. Styles, 325, 326.

11. Copyholder in Fee of Lands deviſeable in Borough Engliſh, having 3. Sons and a Daughter, Deviſed his Lands to his eldeſt Son, paying to his Daughter and to his other Sons, 40 s. within two years after his death; the Deviſor ſurrendred to the uſe of his Will, and dyed: the eldeſt Son was admitted, and did not pay the money within the two years: It was adjudged in this Caſe, That although the word paying, maketh a Condition, yet in this caſe of Deviſe, the Law conſtrues it to be a Limitation: And the reaſon thereof is, For that if it ſhall be conſtrued to be a Condition, then it ſhall diſcend upon the eldeſt Son, and then it ſtands at his pleaſure, if his Brother and Sifters ſhall be paid, or not. See Wellock and Hammonds Caſe, vouch. Cook 3. Part, 20. And ſee, If a man ſeiſed of Land, Deviſeth them to one for life; and that he ſhould be Chaplain, and pray for his Soul all his life: and that after his deceaſe, the ſame ſhall remain to the Comminalty of ſuch a Town, to find a Chaplain perpetual; to that intent, this ſhall not be a Condition of which the Heir ſhall take advantage, but a Limitation, upon which the remainder ſhall take effect. Plow. Com. 412. in Newes and Scholaſticus Caſe.

12. A man by Deed, Covenanted to ſtand ſeized of Lands to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of divers of his ſons, and the heirs males of their bodies; Proviſo, That if they, or any of their heirs males, ſhould attempt any Act by which the limitation of the ſaid land, or any Eſtate Tail ſhould be barred, determined, or diſcontinued; that after ſuch act done or executed, that the uſes, as to ſuch perſon attempting, ſhould ceaſe, as if ſuch perſon were naturally dead; The eldeſt ſon ſuffered a Common Recovery, the younger ſon entred. It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other things) That the Proviſo to ceaſe on Eſtate limitted to one, and the heirs males of his body, as if Tenant in Tail were dead, was repugnant, and impoſſible, and againſt Law; for the death of Tenant in Tail, is not the ceaſing of the Eſtate Tail, but the death without Iſſue of his body is the determination of it, and before Iſſue, the Tenant hath an Inheritance, which by poſſibility may continue for ever. Cook 1. Part, 83, 84. Corbets Caſe.

13. Tenant in Tail had Iſſue two ſons; the eldeſt had iſſue a daughter, and dyed, his Wife young with childe in the life of his Father, Tenant in Tail ſuffered a Recovery to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after his deceaſe, to the uſe of J. S. for 21 years, and after to the heirs males of his body begotten, and to the heirs males of ſuch heirs males; and preſently after the Judgment, and before Execution, the ſame day in which the Recovery was ſuffered, Tenant in Tail dyed; and after the Recovery was executed, and after the ſon who was in his mothers belly was born, the younger ſon entred; and if his Entry was lawful, was the Queſtion. In this Caſe (amongſt other things) it was Reſolved, That the younger ſon, the Uncle, was in the courſe and nature of a Deſcent, although he ſhould not have his age, nor be in Ward. 1. Becauſe the Original Act, ſcil. the Recovery, out of which all the uſes had their eſſence, was had in the life of the father, to which the Execution might have a retroſpect. 2. Becauſe the uſe and poſſeſſion might have veſted in the father, if the Execution had been ſued forth in his life. 3. Becauſe the Recoverers by their entry, nor the Sheriff in making the Execution, could not make inheritable whom they pleaſe And 4. Becauſe the Uncle claimed the uſe by words of limitation, and not by words of purchaſe. Cook 1. Part, 98. Shelly's Caſe.

14. If a maketh A. Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of himſelf, and his wife in Tail, and to the uſe of the husband in Fee, and hath Iſſue a daughter, his wife with childe with a ſon, by which the Reverſion deſcendeth to the daughter; the wife before the birth of the ſon, levieth a Fine, or ſuffereth a common Recovery; in this Caſe, although the daughter enter or not, and although the daughter had joyned in the Fine, or been vouched in the Recovery, yet no act that ſhe can do, can bar the ſon againſt the Eſtate Tail: and it is not like the caſe in 5 E. 4. 16. Where by the Statute of 6 R. 2. cap. 6. it is provided, Quod proximus de ſanguine eorum rapientium & raptorum cui hæreditas deſcendere, vel diſcendere deberet poſt mortem rapitatis, vel raptæ habitat titulum immediate, &c. de tenore in Statut. Hæreditor. Becauſe in that caſe, the Daughter by the Statute hath the Land meerly as a Purchaſor; but when the daughter entereth by force of the Statute of 11 H. 6. ſhe is in of an Eſtate Tayl, per formam Doni, and ſo in nature of a Diſcent, and per formam Doni, the ſon after born is to be preferred. Cook 3. Part, 6. in Lincoln Colledge Caſe. Look the Principal Caſe of Lincolne Colledge.

15. Note, It is put for a Rule, in Cook 10. Part, in Portingtons Caſe, That there are in Law, apt and Legal words, as well of limitation, as of Condition: Apt words of Limitation are, Quamdiu, Dummodo, Dum Quonſque, Durante; as a Rent Granted out of the Mannor of D. quamdiu the Grantor ſhall remain there: A man makes a Leaſe of Lands, Dummodo, the Leſſee ſhall pay 20 l. A man maketh a Feoffment in Fee, Quouſque the Feoffee hath paid him a certain ſum of money: A Leaſe of Lands during Coverture; All theſe are words of Limitation, by which the Eſtate is determined before Entry or Claim. Cook 10. Part, 44. In Portingtons Caſe.

16. A man deviſed Lands to his youngeſt ſon, Proviſo, That if any of his ſons, or any of their Iſſues, demiſe any of the Lands before the age of 30 years, then the other ſhall have the Eſtate: the eldeſt ſon made a Leaſe thereof before his age of 30 years, the younger ſon entred, and before 30 years alliened the Land; the eldeſt ſon re-entred; It was Reſolved, 1. That it was a Limitation. 2. When the younger brother hath once entred for the allienation, then the Land is diſcharged of the Limitation to the Will. Hill. 30 Eliz. in C.B. Spittles Caſe. Owen 8.

17. A man Deviſeth Lands to his Wife for life, the remainder to F. his ſon, and the heirs of his body; Alſo he deviſeth to F. his ſon, Lands in B. and his Lands in C. and alſo he gives his Land called O. to the ſeed of his ſon, Habendum all the deviſed premiſſes to F. his ſon, and the heirs of his body. The Queſtion was, If F. have an Eſtate Tail in the Lands of B. and C. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Limitation ſhall go to all, and that he ſhall have an Eſtate Tail in all. Trin. 29. Eliz. Wiſeman and Roſſes Caſe. Owen 140.

Limi-

Limitation of Actions.

1. BY the Statute of 32 H. 7. cap. 2. of Limitations. In an Avowry or Conusance for real Suit or Services, the seisin shall be within 40 years before such Avowry or Conusance: Yet it is Resolved, That that Act shall not extend to such Rent or Service as by common possibility may not happen, or become due within 40 years: As if the Seignory consist of Homage and Fealty only, in this case the Tenant may live 40 years after they are made. In like manner, If the Service be to cover the Hall of the Lord, or to march with him when there shall be War betwixt the King and any of his enemies, such casual services by common possibility, cannot happen within 40 years, and therefore are not within the said Act. Cook. 4 Part, 10. in Bevils Case.

2. The Statute of Weſt. 1. cap. 38. Ordaineth, That the Writ of Assize of Mort dauncestor, have the Term of Limitation from the Coronation of King Henry the third. Yet it hath been adjudged, That if an Infant bringeth an Assize of Mort dauncestor, of the possession of his Mother or Father, he needeth not to alledge that it was after the Coronation of King Henry the third, because the same evidently appeareth, and manifesta probatione non indiget. Cook 7. Part, 40. in Bedell's Case.

3. A. seized of a Manor, by Deed Indented Enfeoffed thereof J. S: and his Heirs, rendring yearly to A. his Heirs and Assigns, ten pounds Rent; A. dyed seized, the Rent descended to his son and heir, who dyed Intestate, his Administrators distrained, and avowed for the Rent: It was Resolved in this Case, upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 37. which gave Distress to an Executor or Administrator, in like manner and form as the Testator might and ought to have done, and upon another clause of the said Statute: That the Administrators were not driven in their Avowry for the Rent, to alledge any seisin within 40 years; for in case of reservation, or Grant of a Rent, there the Deed is the Title, and the Commencement of it appeareth to be within time of memory, and no encroachment in such case shall hurt, neither is any seisin material: But the Statute shall be intended, when the Avowant was driven to alledge seizin by force of any uncertain Statute of Limitation; and that was, when the seizin was material, and of such force, as that it should not be avoided in an Avowry, although it was by encroachment. Cook 8. Part, 40. Sir William Foſtes Case.

4. Note Reader, Although the purview of the Act of 21 H. 8. cap. 19. be general, That the Lord avow, &c. as in Lands within his Fee and Seignory, alledging the same lands to be holden of him, yet all necessary Incidents are intended; and therefore the Avowant ought to alledge seisin by some hands: but the ancient form of alledging of seisin, shall not be altered; and therefore the Avowry shall be made generally after the Statute of 32 H. 8. cap. 2. as it was used before: But the Plaintiff in Bar of the Avowry, may plead Ne unque seiſi, within 40 years. See Cook 9 Part, 36. in Bucknel's Case.

5. In a Formedon in the Discender, the Plaintiff counted upon a Gift, and Explees in the Great Grandfather in the time of Henry 6. and shewed in the Conveyance, that the Father of the Demandant dyed within 50 years last, but did not shew any seisin in fact within that time, nor of any other Ancestor after the seisin, in the time of Henry the sixth. It was the Opinion of the Justices in this Case, That this Formedon was out of the Statute of 32 H. 8. and the seisin of the Donee was never Traverseable, nor intended to be within the ancient Statute of Limitations; for that the Formedon was given after the Statute of Westminster 1. ten years. Mich. 11 Eliz. Dyer 278. Whitton and Sir Henry Cromptons Case.

6. B. entred upon certain Lands of C. in the County of S. as in Lands purchased by his Villeyn, and made a Lease for years to his servant, who was ejected by C. against whom he brought the Action; the Defendant pleaded Not guilty; and upon the Evidence, the Question was moved, If there be Grandfather, Father, and Son; and the Grandfather is a villeyn regardant, and the father departs out of the Realm, and remains there without returning to the Mannor for the space of 60 years, and dyeth, without any seizure of him, or without doing any villeyn service; and beyond Sea hath Issue a son, who also remains there where his Father dyed, for the space of forty years, and more, and is there taken and reputed for a Freeman, which

Without any ſeizure of his body, or claim by the Lord, ſo as the Writ of Nativo habendo fails, by reaſon of the Statute of Limitation; if now he were ſeizable by the Lord as his villeyn, or not. It was the Opinion of the Court that he was not: Et hoc in favorem Libertatis; and thereupon it was found for C. the Defendant, and Judgement was againſt the Plaintiff. Mich. 10 Eliz. Dyer. Butler and Crouches Caſe. See Paſch. 11 Eliz. Dyer 383. the ſame Caſe.

7. Note, In a Formedon in the Reverter, or Remainder, the Demandant needed not alledge any ſeizin within 50 years, upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. Nor in a Scire facias, to execute a Fine of ſuch nature, for they ſhall come in upon Traverſe of the part of the Tenant is in Avowry; ſcil. Not ſeiſed of the ſervices after the limitation. Trin. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 315.

8. In Avowry for Fealty, 10 s. Rent, and ſuit of Court, they alledged ſeiſin within 50 years: The Plaintiff ſaid, That he held by Fealty, and twelve pence, and Suit, abſque hoc, &c. And it was found, That he was ſeized of the Rent, but not of the Fealty, and Suit of Court. It was the Opinion of the Court, That he could not have Judgment, for that all was not found in that Caſe: It is a Quære, If he muſt not alledge a ſeizin with 50 years. Mich. 16 Eliz. Dyer 330. See Cook 4. Part, Bevils Caſe.

9. In Aſſumpſit after Verdict, It was moved in ſtay of Judgment, That the promiſe is alledged to be made beyond the time limitted in the Statute of 21 H. 8. and the Action is not brought within the time limitted thereby. It was the Opinion of the Court, That if it appears ſo by the Plaintiffs owne ſhewing, the Plaintiff cannot maintain the Action, but Judgment ſhall be given againſt him: But if the Contract for the Aſſumpſit or Debt, be alledged to be within the time limitted by the Statute, and upon Non debet, or Non Aſſumpſit pleaded, It doth appear upon the Evidence, That the Aſſumpſit or Contract was beyond the time limitted, and ſo the Evidence cannot maintain the Action, the Defendant ſhall take the advantage thereof; for the Statute is in the Negative, That he ſhall not maintain Action, but within ſuch a time limitted by the Statute. Trin. 4 Car. in C. B. Brown and Hancocks Caſe. Cro. 1 Part, 81.

10. In Aſſumpſit the Caſe was, The Defendant had a Dog which did kill five of the Plaintiffs ſheep, and the Defendant in conſideration the Plaintiff would not ſue him for the ſaid ſheep, and alſo in conſideration the Plaintiff would ſuffer the Defendant to do away the Sheep, promiſed to give him recompence for the ſaid ſheep upon requeſt; and the Plaintiff alledged the Promiſe to be made 18 Jac. and that afterwards 2 Car. he did requeſt ſo much of the Defendant for the Sheep. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. cap. 16. of Limitation of Actions; and alledged, That the Action was not brought within ſix years of the Cauſe of the Action accrued, which was the promiſe. But it was adjudged, That the Plea was not good; for it was Reſolved, where a thing is to be done upon requeſt, that there, till requeſt, there is no cauſe of Action, and the time and place of the Requeſt is Iſſueable; and the meaning of the Statute was, but to bar the Plaintiff from the time that he had compleat Cauſe of Action, and that was not until the Requeſt was made; and in the principal Cauſe, the Cauſe of Action is the Breach, and that cannot be till after the requeſt made; and where a requeſt is material, it ought to be ſhewed in pleading. Judgment was entred for the Plaintiff. Mich. 4. Car. in B. R. Shelford and Boroughs Caſe, Godbolt, 437. 1 Car. in B. R. Perks Caſe. Hill. 13 Jac. in B. R. Hill and Wades Caſe, adjudged accordingly.

11. A. at the requeſt of a Feme Covert, took up certain pieces of Stuffe, the Husband did aſſume and promiſe to pay ſo much for it, as upon Requeſt, it was worth. A. brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt the Husband, and averred the ſum did amount to 40 l. and alledged the Requeſt. The Defendant pleaded the Statute of 21 Jac. of Limitation of Actions, and that the Plaintiff had not proſecuted any Action upon that Promiſe within ſix years after the promiſe made. Whether the Cauſe of Action ſhall be upon the Requeſt, or upon the Promiſe, was the Queſtion. It was Objected, This was a Contract by the Husband, whereupon he might have an Action of Debt, and then the Requeſt is not the Cauſe of the Action. But it was Reſolved in this Caſe, That no Action of Debt lay againſt the Husband upon this promiſe, but only an Action upon the Caſe upon the Aſſumpſit. Mich. 5. Car. in B. R. Bill and Lakes Caſe. Huston 105.

12. It was Reſolved, That Debt brought for Arrearages of Rent upon a Leaſe for years by Indenture, is out of the Statute of 21 Jac. of Limitation of Actions. 2. Reſolved, That a Rent charge which is founded upon a Deed, or a Reſervation of Rent upon a Fee-ſimple by Deed, are both both out of the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Limitations, Mich. 5. Car. in C. B. Freeman and Stathes Case. Hutton, 109.

Livery and Seisin.

See for it, Title Feoffments.

More.

1. NOte, It was agreed by the Court, That if a man bargaineth and selleth his Lands by Deed Indented to be Enrolled, and before the Deed Inrolled, he maketh Livery to the Bargainee, and after the Indenture is Enrolled, that in that Case, the Livery doth prevent the operation of the Enrolment, and the party shall be accompted in by the Livery, , and not by the Bargain and Sale; for Livery is the more worthy, and the more worthy Ceremony to pass Estates, and therefore shall be preferred. Mich. 26 Eliz. in B. R. Stoneley and Bracebridges Case. Leon. 5.

2. In Dower, the Case was, Land was given to the Father for life, the remainder to his Son and Heir for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the body of the Father; the Father and the Son joyned in a Deed to the Fathers brother, being Uncle to the Son in Fee, the Uncle took a Wife, the Father dyed, the Son being his Heir in Tail, the Uncle dyed without Issue, so as the Land did descend to the Son, as Heir to the Uncle, against whom the Wife of the Uncle brought Dower. It was moved, If the Son being Heir in Tail to the Father, and Heir also to the Uncle, of the Land, was remitted; for if there be a Remitter, then no Dower accrueth to the Wife of the Uncle; because the Estate of which she claims Dower, is gone: But if the Livery in which the Son joyned with the Father, be the Livery of the Son, then the same doth prevent the Remitter during his life, and he shall be adjudged seised in Fee by discent from the Uncle. The Court doubted of the Case, and gave no Opinion in it. Therefore Quære. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Partridg and Partridges Case. Leon. 37.

3. In a Second Deliverance, the Case was 1 A. seised of Lands, Leased the same for years, and afterwards made a Feoffment thereof to B; and made a Letter of Attorney to the Lessee and C. and D. conjunctim et divisim in omnia et singulas terras, & Tenementa intrare, & seisinam in de &c. secundum formam Chartæ, &c. The Lessee for years by himself makes Livery and Seisin in one part of the Land, C. in another part, and D. in another part by himself. It was Resolved in this Case, 1. That by the Livery in that Case by the Lessee for years, his Interest in the Term was not determined; for what he doth, he doth as Servant, or Attorney to the Lessor. 2. Resolved, That these several Liveries were good, and warranted by the Letter of Attorney, by reason of these words, Et omnia & singulas, &c. so as all of them, and every of them enter and make Livery in all and every part of the Land. Mich. 32 Eliz. in C. B. Petty and Trivillians Case. Leon. 192, 193.

4. Note, It was agreed by the Court, That if a Feoffment be made of a House, and the Deed be delivered in the House without other Circumstance, the same doth not amount to Livery of Seisin; but if he doth any act by which the intent of the Feoffer appeareth, that the Feoffee should have Livery and Seisin; as if the parties go of purpose to the place intended to pass, to the intent that the Deed may be delivered in that kinde, the same doth amount to a Livery. Pasch. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Mills and Shombals Case. Leon. 207.

5. The Case was, Lessee for life, the Remainder for life, the Remainder in Tail, the Remainder in Fee: The two Tenants for their lives made a Feoffment in Fee of the Lands. It was Objected, That it was the Livery of the first Tenant for life, and the Confirmation of him in the Remainder: But it was the Opinion of the Court, That by this Livery, the Remainder for life passed, and that it shall be as well the Livery of him in the Remainder, as of the Tenant in possession; and although where an Estate is lawfully made by many, it shall be said, the Livery of him who lawfully may make Livery; yet where an Estate is wrongfully made, it shall be accounted in Law, the Livery of all who joyn in it; and in this Case, the Remainder for life extinguished by the Livery in the Feoffee, and the Livery of him in the Remainder shall be holden a void Livery, especially when he joyneth with such a person, who hath not authority to make Livery: As if the Lord and a Stranger disseize the Tenant, and make a Feoffment over, the whole

Seignory

Seignory is extinct, as if he soly had been seised; So it he in the Reversion, and a stranger, disseise Tenant for life, and make a Feoffment over, the Seignory is gone, and yet it is the Livery onely of the Lessee. It was therefore in the principal Case adjudged, That the Entry of him in the Remainder in tail was lawful. Mich. 20 Eliz. in C. B. Leon. 262.

6. The Warden and Fellowes of All-Souls Colledg in Oxford, Leased Lands to J. S. To have and to hold from the Feast of the Annunciation next following for 20 years, The Lease bare date 1. July, 10 El z. and made a Letter of Attorney to J D. to enter into the Mannor, and to seal and deliver the said Deed in their names to the Plaintiff J. S: J. D. by force thereof entred into part of the demised premisses, and did there seal and deliver the Lease: But it was not found, that there was any Mannor. It was Objected, That because the Letter of Attorney was to enter into the Mannor, and all the Lands and Tenements of this Colledg in such a Town, and to seal the Indenture of the Lease in the name of the Lessors, and to deliver it to the Plaintiff as their Deed; That the Attorney in executing the Warrant had not pursued it, for that he only entred into the Lands, and it is not found, that he entred into the Mannor, and so the Lease is void: and if J. Lease two Acres in two several Counties, rendring for one Acre 10 s. Rent, and for the other 10 s, and make a Letter of Attorney to make Livery in both; if the Attorney entreth into one Acre, and makes Livery, it is void, for that the Attorney hath not pursued his Warrant; for peradventure J. would not have Leased the Acre of which Livery is made for such a Rent of 10 s, being perhaps of greater value, but with the other Acre which was of lesse. But it was Resolved by the Court, That it doth not appear upon the special Verdict, but that the Colledg was in possession at the time of the Lease made, and then there needed not such Entry, but a bare sealing and delivery of the Indenture, and that by the Attorney had been good enough: And it doth not appear, that the Colledg had any Mannor: Put if it had been found, that the Colledg had had such a Mannor there, then the Entry into the Land only, without meddling with the Mannor; and the Livery made accordingly should not have been good. It was adjudged, That the Warrant of the Attorney was well executed. Mich. 33 Eliz. in C. B. Carter and Claycocks Case. Leon. 260.

7. Note, It was Resolved by the Court, That if the Wife of a Lessee for years doth assent to a Livery of a house made in the absence of her husband: although the Servants and Children be and continue in the house; yet it is a good Livery. But Quære, if the Wife notwithstanding her assent, doth continue the possession of the house: But if a man doth commit his house to his Servants, and the one doth assent to the Livery, and departeth from the house, and the other do continue there, and Livery be made, it is no good Livery, for that the possession of the Servants, is the possession of the Master himself. Mich. 6 Jac. in B.R. Godbolt, 158.

8. A. and his Wife, seised of Land in the right of his Wife by Indenture, with a Letter of Attorney Let the said Land, Habendum à die datus, for the life of the Lessee rendring Rent. The Attorney made Livery the same day secundum formam Chartæ; the Lessee entred, and paid the Rent which was always reserved; the Wife dyed: It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Lease was void, and that Livery made the same day it beareth date, is void to make it a good Lease. Mich. 10 Car. in B. R. Bull and Wyats Case. Cro. 1. Part, 282.

9. The Case was; Enfant Tenant in tail of Land in Gavelkind, (where the Custome was, That at the age of 15, he might make a Feoffment of his Land, and bind himself) made a Feoffment of the Lands entailed: It was the clear Opinion of all the Justices, That this Feoffment was void, and was not any discontinuance to bind the Enfant; and that the Custome was a void Custome. And in this case, It was holden, That if a man makes a Deed of Feoffment of Land, and delivers the Deed, and saith no more, but, Take and enjoy the Land; Or, Take the Land according to the Deed; and such words, which amount to a Livery when he delivers the Deed, that nothing passeth: for that the Law requireth more Ceremony, then the delivery of the Deed upon the Land. 10. The Case was in Ejectione Firmæ, A. and E. his Wife seised of Land in Fee in the right of the wife, Let the same to J. S. and K. his Wife, and F. their daughter, Habendum to them et eorum diutius viventi successivè from Mich. for the Term of their 3. Lives, rendring yearly during their Lives 13 s. 4. d. at two usual Feasts, and a Heriot after the death of every of them: After A. and

A. and E. his Wife made Livery to J. S. and K. his daughter, according to the Indenture: After A. dyed, and E. his Wife accepted the Rent of J. S. Afterwards J. S. died ſeized; K. his Wife entred, and dyed; F. entred, upon whom E. entred. The firſt Queſtion was, Whether this Leaſe, Habendum, from Mich. for three lives, and Livery made from Mich. ſecundum formam Chartæ, were good or not: It was Reſolved it was good enough; for in this Caſe, there was not any intention that the Livery ſhould operate futurely, but that Livery ſhould be made when it ſhould operate, and the Eſtate ſhould be good preſently. The ſecond Queſtion was, Whether the Leaſe made by Husband and Wife, of Lands whereof he is ſeized in the Right of his Wife, can be good againſt the Wife, to binde her, although ſhe accept the Rent. It was Reſolved, That it ſhould; for it was holden, That the Livery alone did not make the Leaſe, but the Livery and the Deed, and it took its operation by both; and the Livery being made after Mich. it is made a good Leaſe by the Deed and Livery, and not by any of them ſolely; for the Livery in this Caſe is but the Execution of the Deed, and it is a ſufficient Witneſs of their agreement, which is the cauſe it ought to be by Deed, to prove the Agreement of the Wife, and all Reſervations and Covenants in the Deed are good, and the Leſſees and Leſſors bound by them. And ſo the Opinion of the Court was, That the Leaſe was a good Leaſe. Trin. 17 Jac. Greenwood and Tylers Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 563. See Hob. 314. The ſame Caſe.

11. A. by Indenture 10 Junii, 44 Eliz. demiſed a houſe to B. Habendum à die dat. Indenturæ prædict. for life, with a Letter of Attorney to make Livery. The Attorney made Livery 13 Julii after the day of the date. It was holden by the Juſtices, That the Licenſe was void, becauſe it was made by Attorney, who had not any ſuch Warrant. But if the Deed had bin delivered after the day of the date, and then the Livery had bin made by Attorney, it had bin good enough, and ſo it was adjudged. Paſc. 5 Jac. in B. R. Hennings and Panchardens Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 153.

12. A Prebend had uſed to be let with the Exception of all Crab-Trees, and ſuch like Trees; and a Leaſe was made unto B. of the ſaid Prebendſhip, omitting the Exception Habendum à die Conſectionis for three lives, rendring the ancient Rent, the Leaſe was made 6. Aug. 6 Jac. and Livery was made 9. Sept. 6 Jac. It was Reſolved in this Caſe firſt, That the Livery made after the day, was good enough, and did not work in futuro. 2. Reſolved, That the omitting of the Exception, made the Leaſe void, for that there was more let then was anciently, and ſo the Leaſe is void by the Statute of 13 Eliz. for that it is not the ancient Rent, where there is more let then there was before. H. 11. 15 Jac. in B. R. Smith and Boles Caſe. Cro. 2. Part, 458, 459.

See Cook 6. Part, 16. Sharps Caſe, before in Title Feoffments: and the Caſes there vouched.

13. Tenant in Fee enfeoffeth one by Deed Indented, and delivereth it upon the Land by name of Seiſin, this is good, and hath a double operation at one inſtant. 1. To deliver the Deed as a Deed. 2. To deliver Seiſin of the Land according to the Deed. 2. Reſolved, That the bare delivery of the Deed upon the Land, doth not amount to a Livery and Seiſin; but otherwiſe if he deliver it in the name of Seiſin. Cook 9. Part, 137. Thorowgoods Caſe.

14. If a man be Diſſeiſed, and maketh a Deed of Feoffment, and a Letter of Attorney to enter and take poſſeſſion, and after to make Livery, ſecundum formam Chartæ, it is a good Feoffment, although he be out of poſſeſſion at the time of the Charter made for the Authority given by the Letter of Attorney is Executory, and nothing paſſed by delivery of the Deed till Livery and Seiſin was made. But if a man be Diſſeiſed, and maketh a writing, purporting a Leaſe for years, and delivers the Deed, and afterwards he delivers it upon the ground, the ſecond delivery is void; for that the firſt delivery made it a Deed, and it is much as the Leaſe for years muſt take effect by the delivery of the Deed, therefore the Deed delivered when he was out of poſſeſſion, was void. But it is not ſo of a Deed of Feoffment, for that that takes effect by the Livery and Seiſin. Cook 3. Part, 35. Jennings and Braggs Caſe.

15. See, That when a Deed of Feoffment is void in it ſelf, If Livery be made ſecundum formam et effectum Chartæ, the Livery is alſo void: As if A. by Deed give Land to B. to have and to hold after the death of A. to B. and his Heirs, this is a void Deed, becauſe he cannot reſerve to himſelf a particular Eſtate, and if Livery be made according to that Deed, the Livery is alſo void, becauſe it refereth to a Deed which hath no effect in Law. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 48.

16. A Livery within the view (which is called a Livery in Law, is good to convey the eſtate to the Feoffee, &c. if he make entry, and ſo the eſtate be executed during his life, and the Life of the Feoffer, but if either of them dyeth before entry, the Livery is void. But if a man makes a Deed of Feoffment, and delivers Seisin within the view, and the Feoffee dares not enter for fear of death, this shall vest the Freehold and Inheritance in him, although by the Livery nothing passed to him in Deed, or in Law, so as for necessities sake, a Livery in Law shall be perfected and executed by an Entry in Law. Cook 1. Part, 48. acc.

17. A man made a Lease for years of a house, and of a Close severed from the house, and of other Lands. The Lessor made a Feoffment of the house, and of all the Land, demised, and made Livery and Seisin in the Close, the Lessee being in the house It was adjudged in this Case, That the Livery was void, aswell for the Close, as for the house and other Lands. For when a house and Lands are let entirely together, the Messuage or house is the principal, and there the Rent shall be demanded, and the Land is but the accessary, so as the possession of the house is the possession of all the Lands demised with it. But if the Lessee had made a Lease unto another of any part of the Land demised to him, and the Lessor had made Livery in that part, it had bin good to pass such part; but otherwise it had bin if he had made a Lease at will of it. Cook 2. Part, Bettiſworths Case.

18. If A. be to make a Feoffment to B. and C. and their Heirs, without D. e], and A. makes Livery to B. in the absence of C. in the name of both, and to their Heirs; the Livery made to C. is void, because a man being absent, cannot take a Freehold by a Livery, but by his Attorney lawfully authorised to receive Livery, unless the Feoffment be made by Deed; and then the Livery made to the one in the name of both, is good; and the reason is, because the Feoffment, being made without Letter of Attorney, or Deed, it is uncertain whether he consented thereunto, which is apparent by his sealing of the Letter of Attorney, or Deed. And note there, that a Deed may take effect by delivery, without words, but Livery and Seisin requireth words to express it. And also note, That a man absent can neither take, nor make Livery without Deed. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes, 339. acc.

19. The Bishop of Worcester, and the Dean and Chapter there, made a Lease for life, Habendum, from the day of the date, and made a Letter of Attorney to one to make Livery ſecundum formam Charte, the Attorney makes Livery the next day after. The Jury find the Lease for life the 25th day of Dec. and that the Livery by the Attorney was made poſt viceſſimum diem prædict. and if this Lease thus made and executed, was good or not, was the Question. This Case was argued long at the bar, and after at the Bench. And it was the Opinion of the Court, That the Lease was not good; and if the Lease be bad in it self, that then it was not in the power of the Attorney by his Livery to make it good. And the Opinion of the Court was, That the Jury having not found the certain time when the Lease was delivered Juratores male fecerunt in Veredicto ſuo dando, and a Venire facias de novo was awarded. Trin. 12 Jac. in B. R. Butler and Firaters Case. Bolſtr. 2. Part, 303.

20. A man dyed seised of Lands holden of the King, having an Heir; It was found by a false Office, that he dyed without Heir, the Heir afterwards tendred his traverse to the Office, and depending that, he made a Feoffment in Fee of the Land, and a Letter of Attorney to make Livery: afterwards upon the Traverse, it was adjudged for the Heir, and then the Attorney made Livery. It was adjudged in this Case, That the Livery was good, and yet at the time of the Feoffment, and Letter of Attorney made, he had but a right, and that in that Case he took by [the Livery from the time of the Livery made.] Mich. 38 Eliz. in C. Livery and Ouſter le mayne.

1. Of Livery and Ouſter le mayne; What they are: Of what Lands they ſhall be ſued. Where cum exitibus; where ſine exitibus, and the manner of ſuing thereby; and what the value of the Livery paid to the King ſhall be: And where a man cannot have his Land without ſuing Livery, et è contra.

1. LIvery, or that which is called ſuing of Livery, is nothing else but the Heir's ſuing to the King to have ſuch Lands re-delivered unto him by his Highneſs, which have bin ſeiſed by the Eſcheator into the King's Kings hands upon Office found, by which Office the King is in poſſeſſion of the Lands, and ſhall be anſwered all the profits thereof ſince the death of his Tenant, untill the Heir ſueth his Livery, and doth his homage, and hath the Land delivered to him out of the Kings hand, and payeth his Primer-Seiſin. And note, That Livery ſhall not be ſued, but where the Kings Tenant dyeth ſeiſed of Lands holden by Knights Service in Capite, or Socage in Capite. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 77.

2. Ouſter le mayne is a Writ which is directed to the Eſcheator, to deliver Seiſin or poſſeſſion out of the Kings hands unto the party that ſues the Writ, for that the Lands ſeiſed, are not holden of the King, or for that he ought not to have the Wardſhip of them, or for that the Kings Title is determined, &c. It is alſo the Judgment that is given in a Monſtrans de droit, or upon a Traverſe or Petition, for when it appears upon the matter diſcuſſed, That the King hath no right or Title to the thing here ſeiſed, then Judgment ſhall be given, That the Kings hands be amoved: and thereupon an Amoveas manum ſhall be awarded to the Eſcheator, which is as much as if Judgment were given, That the party ſhould have his Lands again. Stamford, Prerogat. 24.

3. If the Heir be in Ward by reaſon of a Tenure in Capite, there at full age he ſhall ſue Livery. But if the Tenure be of an Honor or of a Mannor, there he ſhall not ſue Livery, but at his full age he ſhall have an Ouſter le mayne una cum exitibus, although he hath not made any tender, and that by the uſage of the Court of Wards. Trin. 1 Eliz. Dyer, 168. Cook 8. Part, 172. in Hales Caſe. Cook 1. Part, Inſtitutes 77. acc.

4. A. held Land in Socage, and other in Knight-Service of F. as of his Mannor of S. and F. held over of the King in Capite; F. dyed, his Heir within age, and in Ward to the King: F. alſo dyed, his Heir within age. The Heir of F. ſued his Livery. And it was found by Office, That the Heir of A. was of full age. The Queſtion was, if he ſhould ſue Livery, or Ouſter le mayne, and if aſwell for the Land in Socage, as for the Land in Knight Service: It was a Quære. But it was the Opinion of the Court, That for the Socage Land, he ſhould not be in Ward, becauſe the Tenant held not immediately of the King. Mich. 3 Ma. Dyer, 123. Davies Caſe. And ſee, That if the Heir of Tenant in Socage in Chief, be within the age of 14 years at the time of the death of his Anceſter, he ſhall not ſue Livery, nor pay Primer Seiſin, becauſe the Cuſtody of the body doth appertain to the Prochin Amy as Guardian in Socage: 38 H. 8. br. Livery, 60. acc. 4 Eliz. Dyer, 213. acc. 20 Eliz. Dyer, 362.

5. Tenant in Capite makes a Feoffment in Fee to the uſe of the Feoffee and his Heirs, untill the Feoffor pay 100 l. to him or his Heirs, and then to the uſe of the Feoffer and his Heirs; the Feoffee dyeth, his Heir within age; the 100 l. is paid to the Heir, and all this is found by Office. It was holden in this Caſe, That although the Heir was in Ward; yet upon a monſtrans de droit, the Wardſhip ſhall be deveſted out of the Kings hands, and the King ſhall not have the value of the Marriage upon a tender of Marriage made to him. See Hill. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 298. Cook 1. Part, 133. in Chudleighs Caſe, acc.

6. Mortgagee of Land holden in Capite, dyed, his Heir within age; the King ſeiſed the Ward, and alſo certain Lands which were holden in Socage. The Mortgager afterwards performed the Condition. It was the Opinion of the Court, That the Mortgagor might enter, and ſo deveſt the Wardſhip out of the King both of the body, and the Land Paſc. 22 Eliz. Dyer, 369. Knightleyes Caſe.

7. Tenant in Capite dyeth, his Heir within age, the Heir at his full age, tendred his Livery, and was admitted to it, and within the time given him for the proſecution of it, he bargained and ſold part of the Lands to another in Fee, and within the ſame time alſo dyed. In this Caſe, it was Reſolved, That when the Heir at his full age tenders his Livery, it is as much as the Heir can do, and then when he dyeth within the time given him for the Proſecution of his Livery, ſo as the ſuing of it is become impoſſible by the Act of God; the Intereſt which the King hath, is determined by the death of the Heir, and the Bargainee may enter and occupy the Land without a Monſtrans de droit, or Ouſter le mayne. Cook 8. Part, 172. Hales Caſe.

8. The Lord Paget levyed a Fine of Lands holden in Knight Service in Capite, with a render to himſelf for life, the Remainder to his eldeſt Son and his Heirs Males, the Remainder to his younger Son and his Heirs Males, the Remainder to his own right Heirs, and dyed; the eldeſt Son entred, and at his full age, ſued Livery of the third part, upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. becauſe it was a diſpoſition for the advancement of Children, and after he paid the value of the third part in poſſeſſion; and for the Remainder to the right Heirs, he ſued Livery, as he that had a Remainder by Diſcent from his Father, and paid the value of the moyety of the Remainder in Fee, according to the usual rate. After he had Issue a Daughter, and dyed without Issue Male, the Daughter being in Ward, for the Remainder to the right Heirs. The younger brother entred for his Remainder in tail, the Daughter dyed without Issue, the younger brother being her Heir. It was said, That he ought not to sue Livery of the third part, as the eldest Son did, because the Statute is satisfied with one Livery, and the Statute extends not when there is many Issues advanced one after the other, that every one after another sue Livery, but Livery once for all. And as to the Remainder to the right Heirs, the younger brother sued Livery, for though he took as Heir to his Father, yet because the Kings Tenant is dead, and another is in by Discent, the King shall have that which is due to him. Pasc. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 308. the Lord Pagets Case.

9. Grandfather, Father, and Son; the Grandfather seised of Lands in Capite by act executed, conveyed part of his Lands to the use of the Father and his Wife for their lives, the Remainder to the Son in tail, the Remainder to the Grandfather for life, the Remainder to the right Heirs of the Grandfather; And conveyed other Lands holden in Capite, to the use of himself for life, the Remainder to his younger Sons for their lives severally, the Remainder to the Father for life, the Remainder to the Son in tail, with divers Remainders over, the Reversion to the right Heirs of the Grandfather, the Grandfather dyed, the Father of full age, who tendred his Livery, and dyed before Livery sued, or Office found, the Son of full age, and the Wife and the younger Sons being all alive. In this Case it was Resolved. 1. That by the death of the Father before Livery sued, the King had lost his Primer Seisin after the death of the Grandfather. 2. That the Son should not sue Livery, nor pay Primer Seisin, because he is out of the Statutes of 32 and 34 H. 8. And the Primer Seisin was due by the Father, and the King shall have but one Primer Seisin by the Statute. But it was Resolved, That the King should have Primer Seisin for the Lands conveyed to the younger Sons, because they are within the Statutes. Cook 9. Part, Holts Case.

10. The Lord Powes conveyed Lands in Capite to one Gray his Bastard in Remainder after his death. The Lord Paget dyed. It was holden by the Justices, Dyer, and Saunders, That the Bastard should not sue Livery for the third part, for that he was not a lawful Child within the Statute. Trin. 14 Eliz. Dyer, 313.

11. A man seised of a Reversion in Fee expectant upon an Estate tail by Indenture, in consideration of bloud, Covenanted to stand seised of the Reversion to the use of his Neece; And afterwards Tenant in tail in possession dyed. It was Resolved in this Case, That the King should not have Primer Seisin by the Statutes of 32 and 34 H. 8. 2. Resolved, That if the Father enfeoffeth another, either for the advancement of his Daughters, or of his younger Sons, or for payment of his Debts, and afterwards enfeoffeth his Heir, that the same is no Collusion, for that he is bounden to provide for them. 3. Resolved, That the saving in the Acts of 32 H. 8. of Wardship and Primer Seisin, shall have relation only to Acts executed, and not to Wills. 4. Resolved, That if there be Grandfather, Father, and two Sons; And the Grandfather in the life of the Father, conveyeth his Lands to any of the Sons, the same is out of the Statute of 32 H. 8. because the same is not vulgar, nor usual, and the Father ought to have the immediate care of his Issues, but if the Father be dead, then the care of them belongs to the Grandfather, and then if he conveyeth any of his Lands to any of his said Sons, the same is within the Statute. But a collateral conveyance to any of his collateral bloud, who is not his Heir apparent, is not within the said Act. Cook 6. Part, Sir George Cursons Case.

12. A. by Deed Indented, for consideration of money, Bargained and sold Lands to D. and his Heirs; D. dyed 4. October 13 Jac. and after his death, the same day, scil. 4. October, 13 Jac. the Deed was enrolled, E. Cousin and Heir of D. being of full age, the Land being holden in Capite. It was Resolved in this Case, That E. was to sue Livery. And it was said in this Case, That this differs from all the Cases of Recovery by Fine Executory, and Covenant to raise uses, and the Estate vests in the Heir, though quasi Heir, that never was in the Auncestor, for this upon the Inrolment settles in Law, as between the Bargainor and the Bargainee ab initio, upon the Statute of uses, which doth joyn all the Estates to the uses ipso facto: And that Statute of Enrolments sayes, That in that Case, it shall not vest, except the Deed be enrolled; so that if it be enrolled, it doth vest, not by the Statute of Inrolments, but by the Statute of uses presently. And yet the Bargainee cannot bargain and sell to another before his own Deed be enrolled. Pasc. 15 Jac. Dimocks Case. Hob. 136.

13. A. was seised of Lands holden of the King in Capite, and dyed, B. his Son being a Lunatique. It was found after the death of A. That he was seised of the same Lands; the Queen Granted the Custody of B. to J. S. Afterwards by another Office fice, it was found, That B. was of full age. It was Resolved in this Case, That the King was not to have any mean rates for default of Livery sued, or tendred, because no Lacheſs could be imputed to the Heir, being Lunatick before, and ever since the death of his Auncestor, and the Lacheſs of his friends should not prejudice him; otherwise it were if at any time he had been sane memoriæ since the death of his Auncestor. Pasc. 15 Jac. Butcher's Case. Hob. 137.

14. If the King hath a Ward, for cause of Ward, and after maketh Livery to the first Ward, the second Ward shall not sue Livery. Finch. 9.

15. A. seised of the fourth part of the Manner of D. holden of the King in Capite, made a Feoffment thereof to the use of himself for life, and after to the use of B. his Son in tail, and afterwards to the use of C. his younger Son in tail, and for want of such Issue, to the right Heirs of A. A. dyed, W. being his Son and Heir of full age. B. entred, as into his Remainder: All this was found by Office. The Question was, If the King ought to have Primer Seisin in this Case, or that Livery or Ouster le mayne should be sued by the Statute of 32 H. 8. It was Resolved by the Justices, That it should not, although A. had a Reversion which discended to William his eldest Son and Heir; and two Presidents were shewed of the like Resolution. 2. Where an Ouster le Main, or a Monstrans de Droit will serve, and the party needs not to sue Livery; And where a man may Enter, and avoid the Possession of the King, or his Patentee, without Ouster le Mayne, or other Act done; where not.

IN a Replevin, The Case, It was Enacted 11 E. 3. That the County of Cornwal should be a Dutchy, and that the Eldest Son of King Edw. 6. should be Duke of Cornwal, and so every Eldest Son, being Heir apparent of the Kings. Ed. 3. by Patent granted the Manner of M. which he had in the Right of his Crown, to be holden inseparably, and to go as the Dutchy went: Afterwards all escheated to King E. 3. and by discent came to King Henry the 8. who before, and also after the birth of E. 6. made a Lease of the Manner of Mere, and dyed. It was holden in that Case, That King E. 6. could not avoid that Lease; 1. Because it was but an Estate at Will in the Son of E. 6. 2. Because the limitting how it should go, and the annexing of it to the Dutchy, could not be by Charter without Act of Parliament. 3. Upon the Escheat, E. 3. was seized in his old first Estate, and a Son born after should not devest it. 4. Because no Livery was sued, or Ouster le Mayne by E. 6. when he was Prince, and now he should not avoid it, when he took upon him the Dignity of King. Mich. 1. Mar. Dyer, Chasties Case. But see Cook 8. Part, in the Princes Case. It was adjudged contrary: 1. That it was an Estate of Inheritance, by force of the Charter; which Charter was an Act of Parliament; for if it was not an Act of Parliament, such an Estate by the Rules of Law, could not have been Granted: And the reason of the Judgment in Chasties Case was, Because the Charter was not pleaded as an Act of Parliament, and that was the reason of that opinion in that Case, That the King had but an Estate at Will: Also in that Case it was holden, That to instaute that E. 6. was made Prince, that there needed no Livery, or Ouster le Mayne, to have the Lands out of the Kings hands. Also in that Case it was held, That by the Charter, the Prince had a Fee simple. Quare If for the Land Livery shall be sued; for that it appeareth 38 H. 6. Rott. Parliament, That Edw. 4. Son of H. 6. sued Livery for his Dutchy Lands. See the Case, 1 Eliz. Dyer, 168. to this Division.

2. A. had Lands in Knight Service, to him, and his Wife, and the Heirs of the Husband, upon the Body of the Wife, the Reversion to the Right Heirs of the Husband, and Lands holden in Soccage in Capite, and made a Feoffment to divers persons, to the use of himself for life, the Remainder to his younger Son in Tail, the Remainder to his own right Heirs, and dyed; the eldest son for his Body was in Ward, and after the son came of full age, and then the Wife dyed. It was adjudged, That he should not sue Livery for the Knight Service Land, because it never was in the Kings hands; and for the Soccage Land, he was not to sue Livery, because the younger son was living, and had Issue. Pasch. 7 Eliz. Dyer, 326. 237. Mack William's Case.

3. Tenant in Capite made a Feoffment to the use of his Feoffees, and their Heirs, untill the Feoffor paid 100 l. to him and his Heirs; and then to the use of the Feoffor and his Heirs: the Feoffee dyed, his Heir within age, the 100 l. is paid to the Heir: By a Monstrans de Droit, the Lands were removed out of the King. In this case, it was holden, That although the Heir was in Ward, yet the Land shall be devested out of the King, and he should not have the value of the marriage upon tender. Hill. 13 Eliz. Dyer, 299.

4. A seised of Land, had Issue two Daughters, and made a guift in tail to the eldest, the remainder to his own right heirs, and dyed; the eldest Daughter entred, and afterwards was attainted of Treason. Afterwards, 31 H. 8, It was Enacted by Parliament, That the should forfeit, &c. which Act saved to strangers their Rights and Titles, reversions, remainders; but there was no word of Entry in the Act. It was Resolved in that Case, That the Entry of the other Daughter for her moyty, was lawful upon the Kings Patentee, and that her Entry was good, without either Petition or Monstrans de Droit. Trin. 16 Eliz. Dyer, 325. Sayes Case.

More Livery and Ouster-le Mayne, and Primer Seisin, and Meane Rates.

1. NOte. It was Resolved, That Mean Rates, and not suing of Livery by the Heir of full age after the death of his Auncestor, who held in Capite, were not pardoned by the General Pardons of 27 & 29 Eliz. Pasch. 7 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Portmans Case. Lea, 6.

2. A man seised of Lands in the right of his Wife in Capite, having Issue by his Wife, aliened the Land in Fee, then the Wife dyed, her heir of full age; the Alienee held the Lands for 10 years, after which, Office was found. It was in this case Resolved, That the husband Tenant by the Curtesie did passe a good Estate to the Alienee during his life, and not avoidable by the Heir, and that Mean Rates were not payable for that time. And it was Resolved, That Mean Rates are not chargeable upon the Land till Entry was made by the Heir, which was not before the Office found. Trin. 7 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Sparrowes Case. Lea, 10.

3. It was found by Office, 17 Eliz. That A. seised of Lands in Fee, holden in Capite, 35 H. 8. devised all his Lands from his right Heir to strangers; and afterwards 2 E. 6. dyed seised of the premisses, C. his Cosen and next heir being of the age of 37 years, and that J. S. received the profits of the Lands during the minority of C; The general Pardon of 5 Eliz. was granted. It was Resolved in this Case, That the taking of the profits of the Lands during the minority of C, was no Intrusion, because there was no Office then found for the King: And the Lands could not be the Wards Lands at the time of the Pardon, because there was no seizure of them, nor Office found to entitle the King; and the profits during the Minority of C. are discharged by the Pardon. Mich. 12 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Sir Warham St. Leger's Case. Lea, 48.

¶ 4. A. Tenant of a Messuage and Lands in London holden in Capite, made her Will, and thereof made B, C, and D. her Executors: and by her said Will charged the said Messuage and Lands; viz. She gave to E. her Son and his Heirs 30 l. per annum for ever, and to F. her Grand-Daughter 10 l. per annum, and her Heirs for ever: And devised to her Executors, and to the Heirs of her Executors for ever, all her Free-hold Lands, Leases, Goods, &c. Except such and so much Lands as should amount yearly to 20 l. per annum, payable betwixt her Son and Grand-Daughter, and dyed. The Executors entred into the Messuage and Lands, the Daughters of E. her Son being her Co-heirs: It was Resolved in this Case, That all the Lands by the Will passed to the Executors, and were well devised, as also the Rents and Legacies out of the Lands to the Legatees, by the Custome of the City of London; and that there was no Livery, Primer Seisin, nor Meane Rates, due in respect of the said Devise. Pasch. 17 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Rigbeys Case, Lea, 61. Trin. 13 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Whitneys Case. Lea, 53. acc.

5. Note.

5. Note, It was Reſolved by the Court, That if Land holden in Capite diſcend or come to a Lunatique, who is of full age at the death of his Anceſtor, and ſo continueth, That in that caſe, the King ſhall not have Mean Rates for lack of ſuing Livery, becauſe he remaineth a Lunatique, and ſo is diſabled to ſue his Livery. Paſch. 15 Jac. in the Court of Wards. Metcalf and Barrington's Caſe. Lea, 56.

6. Tenant in Capite conveyes his Land by Act executed in his life, to the uſe of himſelf for life, the remainder to his Son and Heir in tail, with divers Remainders over, and after is attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth: It was Reſolved, That in that caſe, the King ſhould have neither Wardſhip, nor Primer Seiſin: for the King ſhall not have Wardſhip, nor Primer Seiſin, but where there is an Heir general or ſpecial; For Wardſhip or Primer Seiſin ought to be of ſome Land of ſome Anceſtor who hath an Heir; and a perſon attainted hath no Heir: yet in ſome caſes, the King ſhall have Wardſhip and Primer Seiſin, although the Father be attainted of Treaſon. And therefore if Tenant in tail of the Guift of the King by Knights-Service, before the Statute of 26 H. 8. is attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth, his Son within age; In that caſe, although the Blood be corrupted, yet by force of the Statute of Donis, the Son ſhall be in Ward, and in ſuch caſe ſhall pay Primer Seiſin. Cook 3. Part, 165. Digby's Caſe.

7. Grandfather, Father, and Son; the Grandfather ſeiſed of a Houſe holden of the King in Capite, and of other Lands holden in Gavelkind, of other Lands in Socage, Deviſeth part of his Lands to his Son in tail, and other part of them he deviſeth for the advancement of his Children, and dyeth, his Son within age, all the Grand-Children being alive: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, 1. When he Deviſeth to his Son, in ſuch caſe, the [ſaving] in the Statutes of 32 H. and 35 H. 8. gives to the King Wardſhip, and Primer Seiſin; and therefore the King ſhall have the third part of the whole. 2. The King ſhall have the third part out of every ſeveral part, ſo as the charge ſhall be equal. Cook 9. Part. Matthew Mewes Caſe.

8. Tenant in Capite dyeth, his Son and Heir is made a Knight in the life of his Father, the Son tenders his Livery after the death of his Father, before his age of 21 years, and continues it. Two points were, 1. Whether the profits of Lands were ſaved to the King by the Tender and Continuance. 2. Whether the King ſhould have the Mean Rates within the age of 21 years: Both which points were Reſolved againſt the King: And the King ſhould have Primer ſeiſin, as if he had been of 21 years, at the time of the death of his Father; becauſe the King by making of him Knight, had made him to be of full age. Cook 8. Part, Sir Hen. Conſtables Caſe.

9. If the Son and Heir, or any other Son, purchaſeth Lands of his Father (bona fide) for money, this is no preferment of a childe, within the Statutes of 32 and 34 H. 8. and therefore there ſhall be no third part taken of theſe Lands for Wardſhip, or Primer Seiſin, becauſe it was Land purchaſed by the childe, and not given by the Father to prefer him. Cook 2. Part, in Butler and Bakers Caſe.

10. If a man have Lands holden in Capite, of the yearly value of 20 l. and Soccage Lands of 10 l. yearly value; He in ſuch caſe may deviſe all the Lands holden, and leave the Soccage Land wholly to deſcend for Wardſhip and Primer Seiſin, and the Heirs ſhall Sue Livery for one of the Acres holden, though no land deſcend to him, if the Land be holden of the King by Knight Service in Capite. 20 Eliz. Calthrops Caſe, vouch. in Cook 3. Part, Butler and Bakers Caſe.

11. A. Tenant in Fee of a Manor holden in Capite, lying on the North ſide of the River of S. and B. owner of the Manor of D. holden in Knight Service, parcel of the Dutchy of C. the River on the South ſide running in a crooked manner and courſe, between the two Manors; the Lords of the Manor by conſent, cut a Courſe for the Water to run ſtreight: The Owner of the Manor of B. by conſent with A. took the profits of the ſeveral crooked Necks of the South-ſide of the ſaid ſtreight Brook: And the Owner of S. took the profit of the Nooks of the North ſide; A. dyed, his Heir of full age; B. continued in Poſſeſſion, and took the profits in the South; and then B. dyed his Heir of full age. The Queſtion was, If there were ſuch a thing ſeized of the South ſide of the ſtreight River, as ſhould cauſe the Heir of B. to ſue Livery. It was Reſolved, That B. was but a Tenant at ſufferance, and that there is no Deſcent of Nooks of Lands ſo exchanged. Hill. 16 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Green and Lapworths Caſe. Lea. 6.

12. A. ſeized of the Mannor of D. holden of the King in Capite, dyed, having Iſſue B. his Son, who was in Ward to the King. It was found by Office, that B. dyed being in Ward, and that L. and E. were his Siſters, and of full age; L. departed out of the Realm, and became a Nun profeſſed, contrary to the Statute of 3 Jac. And it was found, that by reaſon thereof, L. ought to take no profit of the Land by Conveyance or Diſcent, till ſhe returned; but that E. being her next of Kin and Blood, ought to receive all the profits of the ſaid Land. It was Reſolved in this Caſe by the two Chief Justices, and Chief Baron, Assistants to the Court of Wards, That E cannot as next of Kin to the said L. challenge of Right to have Livery out of the Kings hands of the part of L. by vertue of the Statute of 3 Jac. neither by the words nor intent of the said Statute, but that the King may retain the moyty of the said L. in his own hands, until she return, and take the Oath appointed by the Statute. Pasch. 15 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Tredways Case. Leon. 59.

13. A. seized of the Mannor of D. holden in Capite, sold the same to B. and E. his Wife, and the heirs of B. to the use of the said B. and E. and the Heirs and Assigns of the said B; B. and E. his Wife levyed a Fine of the said Mannor to C. and D. to the use of B. and E. during their lives, the remainder to the use of J. S. and the Heirs of his body, upon the body of the said E. to be begotten, and for want of such Issue, to the use of J. D. and the heirs of his body, with divers Remainders over. The Question was, If E. after the death of B. should be enforced to sue Livery, for that third part of the said Lands, by reason of the Fine levyed. It was Resolved in this Case, That after the death of B. found in the Office, there needed not at all any Livery to be sued or tendred, for that the Lands being purchased in the Names of B. and E. E. joyning in the Fine, had no greater Estate then she had before, and then the latter Estate was no Conveyance for the advancement of the said E. within the Statute of 32 H. 8. Trin. 15 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Mansfields Case. Leon. 51.

14. A. seised in Fee of the Mannors of B. and C. in the County of G, and of the Advowson of the Parish Church of A; and of, and in, the Mannor of H. in the said County, with the Appurtenance, and in divers Messuages, Tythes and Hereditaments in C, D, and H, being several in Deed, Use, and Occupation, parcel of the said Mannors, or to them belonging, or thereof occupied; dyed seised, N. his Son and next heir within age, part of the said Lands being holden in Capite: It was Resolved in this Case, That the said Office as touching any Tythes, was in part void, in regard the word [Reamos] was so general and uncertain, and that Tythes cannot be parcel of a Mannor; and therefore that the Office doth not entitle the King to any Tythes in Fee. Maintenance.

Maintenance.

Maintenance what: and of how many ſorts. What ſhall be ſaid to be Maintenance; what not, And what ſhall be Maintenance within the ſtat. of 32 H.8. c. 9. what not.

1. MAintenance is of two kinds; viz. Maintenetio Ruralis, with a maintening of Quarrels or ſides in pleas, in taking poſſeſſions, or keeping poſſeſſions, and this kind of Maintenance is puniſhable only at the Kings ſute; The other which is called Maintenetio Curialis, that is for Quarrels or ſides in Courts, is Maintenance by Champerty, to have part of the Land or thing in ſute, or any thing out of it, and Embracery, which is labouring the Juries, and theſe may be puniſhed, either at the Kings ſute, or at the ſute of the party. M. 7 Jac. in Cam. Stellat a djudge, 13 E. 4. 16. Cook 1. p. Inſtit. 368.

2. Note, It was reſolved by the Court, That a if man do aſſign an Obligation to another for a precedent Debt, due to him by the Aſſignee, in that caſe it is not Maintenance, but if he aſſign it for a Conſideration then given by way of Contract, that is Maintenance. Vide 34 H. 6. 30. M 38 Eliz. in Co. B. Noy 52.

3. If a man Covenant to have a Rent out of the Land of another, which is not in ſute, this is not Champerty or Maintenance: but if he do maintain, an Action of Maintenance lyeth againſt him, but not a Writ of Champerty: but if the Officers of any Court do maintain any plea in their Courts to have part of the ſame, or other profit by the Recoverie in that Action, the party grieved may maintain an Action of Maintenance or Champerty for ſo doing: and therefore Vide 18 E. 4. 2. by Pigot. If a Iuror giveth his Verdict, and after the Verdict given he requireth the Steward of the Court, that he give judgement in the Action for the Plaintiff, this is a ſpecial Maintenance.

4. It was ſaid by the Court, That an Attorny oweth to his Client fidelity, ſecrecy, skill, and diligence, that he oweth him not any diſhoneſt or undue practice: for by the general Obligation to Iuſtice, and the Court where he ſerveth, he is forbidden to do any thing to pervert Iuſtice, and therefore if he take a Bribe or Reward to raſe a Record, or cauſe another Attorney to appear on the other ſide, and confeſs the Action, or the like, he is puniſhable for it. M. 11 Iac. in Co. B. Yardley and Elliot's Caſe Hob. 9.

5. An Attorney brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt another for theſe words, viz. Thou art a common maintener of ſutes and a Champerter; and it being found for the Plaintiff, judgement was given only upon the word Champerter, for it was ſaid that there is maintenance lawful and unlawful; and an Attorney may and ought by his Office to maintain his Clients Cauſe; and yet if in ſuch Caſe an Action of Maintenance be brought againſt him, he cannot plead Not guilty, but he muſt juſtify; and an Attorney may be well ſaid a common Maintainer, becauſe he is common to as many as will receive him; but to be a Champerter is an Offence againſt his vocation, and it was the opinion of Hob. Chief Iuſtice, that if an Attorney follow a Cauſe to be paid in groſs when it is Recovered, that is Champerty, for which an Action lieth againſt him. Fi. 14 Iac. in Co. B. Bar and Barnabies Caſe, Hob. 117.

6. W. brought an Action upon the Caſe againſt G. and declared, that whereas he at the requeſt of the Defendant did ſollicite and proſecute an Action of Treſpaſs between the ſaid G. plaintiff, and I. S. defendant; the ſaid G. did promiſe to pay the ſaid W. 100 l. the Defendant pleaded Non aſſumpſit, and it was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in arreſt of judgment that the Sollicitng and the proſecuting of another mans ſute was not lawful for any, but for an Attorney or Councellor at Law. But the Court did all agree, That it is lawful to be a Sollicitor, if it be not for Maintenance, or that he lay not out money for Maintnance. M. 23 Eliz. in B. R. ſee Worthington and Gaſtons Caſe Hob. 67.

7. Note, It was holden by Cook and Hobbart Chief Iuſtices in the Star-Chamber, That where the Tenants of the Mannor of Gilſeland, claiming to hold by Tenant Right, were impeached by the L. W. Howard Lord of the Mannor in the Star-Chamber, who ſuppoſed their Eſtates to be void in Law, That they might all joyn together in a peaceable manner to defend the Cauſe being common to them all; and therefore although ſome particular perſons were ſued, yet they might defend the ſute upon their own Charges, becauſe that ſince the Title was one againſt all it was in effect but one defence, and one Defendant for the Tryal in one mans Cauſe tryed all; but in ſuch Caſe they muſt not joyn themſelves together by Oath. Paſch. 14 Iac. in the Star-

Chamber. The Lord St. Howard against Bell, Dawes and others. Hob. 92. and ſo it was adjudged Mich. 14 Iac. in Beech and Bamſter's Caſe. Vide ibid.

8. It was Reſolved by the whole Court of Star-Chamber, That if a man doth aſſiſt one who is Plaintiff in that Court, that it is not Maintenance, becauſe it is for the benefit and advantage of the King: But if a man doth aſſiſt an Informer in another Court in an Information upon a Penal Law, the ſame is ſuch a Maintenance for which he may be puniſhed in this Court. M. 6 Iac. in the Star-Chamber, Godb. 159.

9. Note, That Maintenance doth not lye, for Maintenance in the Spiritual Court, neither by the Statute of 32 H. 8. nor by the Statute of 1 H 2. cap 4 and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in Couſtantine's Caſe, vid Fiſdail and Bevington's Caſe, Noy 68 vid. M. 40 Eliz. in Co. B. Goldſbrough 113. the ſame Caſe.

10 In Debt upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. c 9. of pretenſed Titles, the Plaintiff declared that the Defendants did grant, bargain, and to ferm let a Meſſuage and 11 acres of Lands appertaining to it, for years, of which Lands and Tenements the Defendants nor any of their Anceſtors were in poſſeſſion of thoſe Lands nor of the Reverſion nor remainder of them, nec took the Rents or profits of them the ſpace of a year next before the ſaid grant, bargain, or demiſe made upon which Declaration the Defendant did demurr in Law, and diverſe Exceptions were taken to the Declaration: one was, becauſe the Plaintiff had not ſet forth the certain number of years: It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That all as to promiſe for years was againſt the Statute, and ſhall be intended within the danger of the Statute: but becauſe the Plaintiff had not averred, that the Title and Right of the Defendants was pretenſed: the better opinion of the Court ſeemed to be, that it ſhall be intended that the Defendants were in poſſeſſion of the Land, becauſe it is ſhewed that they made the leaſe, and he that makes a leaſe ſhall be intended in poſſeſſion, and if it be ſo, although it be but poſſeſſion for an hour it is out of the danger of the Statute. Hill. 7 E. 6. Plow. Co. 78. 79.

11. A. Covenanted which his eldeſt Son and two others do ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life, the remainder to his elder Son in tail, the remainder to himſef in tail, the remainder to B. his Baſtard Son in tail, and if any in the remainder ſhall make diſcontinuance or prejudice to any of the remainders his eſtate ſhall ceaſe and they ſhall ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of the next in remainder. A. ſurrendred and granted all his Eſtate to to the eldeſt Son, who levyed a Fine with proclamations, and five years paſſed, B. the Baſtard ſuppoſing he had title in the entire, made a Leaſe to try the title, and within the year an information upon the Statute was exhibited. It was the opinion of all the Juſtices, that it being but a Term, that it was within the Statute according as it was holden in Patrider's Caſe M. 23 El. Dyer 374. Worſley's Caſe. But vide Mich. 31 Eliz. in Co. B. Rott. 2811. Finch and Cockham's Caſe, where it was adjudged, That a leaſe for years to try a title is out of the Statute, becauſe it is in courſe of Law. Vide Cook 1. p. Inſtitut. 369. acc.

12. If one who hath a pretended Right or Title to Copyhold Land bargains and ſells the ſame to another, it was holden it is within the Statute of 32 H. 8. For the Statute ſaith, If any buy, bargain, ſell, &c. any Right or Title in or to any Lands or Tenements: So as theſe words any Right or Title, extends to all manner of Rights and Titles, and ſo by conſequence to Copyholders. Paſch. 31 Eliz. in B. R. Kite and Quenton's Caſe, Cook 4. p. 25. 26.

13. In an Information upon the Statute for buying of Titles, It was found by Verdict, That Lands were conveyed by the Husband, to the uſe of himſelf and his wife in ſpecial tail, the remainder to the husband in general tail, the remainder to the wife in Fee, and after the husband enfeoffed diverſe men thereof, and the feoffees continued in poſſeſſion diverſe years, and after the husband died, and then the wife by Indenture ſealed and delivered from off the Land, made a Leaſe to the Defendant, which well knew all this matter for 60. years if ſhe ſhould ſo long live, and that the wife was Siſter to the Defendant by the Mother: and if this was a Leaſe within the Statute of 32 H. 8. was the Queſtion. It was the opinion of the Juſtices, that it was, for the miſchief was, That when a man had title to Land he would let it to another to have maintainance, and imbracery, and make contentions and ſuits, for remedy whereof the Statute was made. For if a man have a Title he may recover according to his Title: But it was ſaid, That if a man doth recover by Formedon or Ceſſavit, and makes a leaſe, this is not within the Statute, although he hath not been in poſſeſſion by a year: It was Objected out of 6. E. 3. That if one Brother maintain the other this is not within the Statute of Champerty; The Court agreed that one Brother might maintain another: But ſaid, If he take a leaſe of him he is within the Sature of 32 H. 8. for this Statute is to prevent a general miſchief. And it is as great a miſchief, if one Brother takes a leaſe of another as if a ſtran-

ger take it. It was adjudged againſt the Defendant, Mich. 31 Eliz. in Co. B. Slywright and Page's Caſe. Goldesbr. 101. 102.

14. An Information was by the Kings Attorney againſt H. and others upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. of Maintenance, where the point was, A man was out of poſſeſſion, and recovered in an Ejectione firmæ in May. 2. Car. and Habere faciat poſſeſſionem was awarded. And 29. Sept. 4 Car. he ſold the Land, and whether he might ſell preſently or not, was the Queſtion. It was holden that he being put in poſſeſſion by Writ, might ſell preſently, and ſo it was ſaid, It was adjudged in Sir John Offley's Caſe 7 Car. in this Court. Barkley Juſtice, If a Diſſeiſor doth recover in an Ejectione firmæ, it he ſell the Land it is a pretended Title. Jones Iuſtice, vouched Page's Caſe. That if a man be put out of poſſeſſion for 7. years, and after he doth recover in a Formedon, that he may ſell the Lands preſently. And in this Caſe Mr. Brownlow's Caſe in the Star-Chamber was put, That a ſute in Chancery cannot make a Title pretended, nor Maintenance. Hill. 8 Car. in B. R. the King and Hill's Caſe. Godb. 45.

15. One A. bought a Title thus, That if he could recover it he ſhould pay 100 l. otherwiſe nothing: He was ſued in the Star-Chamber for the buying and maintenance of ſutes after: The buying was layd upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. after the year, ſo as for that part he could not be puniſhed there. For the Maintenance, the Defendants council ſaid it was lawful, becauſe he had taken the Eſtate of the Land, ſo he maintained but his own Cauſe. But is was the opinion of the Court, till he had recovered it, it was not in effect and truth his, becauſe he was to pay nothing if he recovered it not, and it was not meant to be given him freely, ſo all the while he maintained the Title at the peril of the Owner. It being a meer deviſe to transferre to himſelf another mans Title to follow upon a caſual match, was to be met withall in time: and ſo he was ſentenced. Hill. 13 Iac. in Star-Chamber. Flowr's caſe. Hob. 115.

16. Note, Upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. c. 9. of Maintenance and buying of Titles, theſe points have been adjudged. 1. That if A. be Owner of Land in poſſeſſion, and B. who hath no right, contracteth with another for the Land, although that the grant upon it be meerly void, yet the grantor and grantee are both within the Statute. 2. That if the Diſſeſſee being out of poſſeſſion, contract with another for the Land, he thereby makes his Right which was good, a pretenſed Right, and the Grantor and Grantee are both within the Statute. 3. That he who hath the abſolute Owners ſhip of the Land, ſuch an Owner may at his pleaſure bargain or contract for the Land, and needs not tarry a year before he makes ſale of it, or a contract for it, and therefore the Mortgager who redeems his Lands may ſell it within the year: And if the Diſſeiſee releaſeth to the Diſſeiſor, the Heir of the Diſſeiſor, although that he hath an antient Right, yet becauſe his poſſeſſion is not lawful, if he bargaineth and ſelleth the Land before he hath been in poſſeſſion by the ſpace of a year, he is within the Statute, becauſe the Heir of the Diſſeiſor hath right to the poſſeſſion. 5. That the buying of a leaſe for years is within the Statute, and the Defendant ſhall forfeit the value of the Land. But if a man makes a Leaſe for years to try a Title in an Ejectione firmæ, the ſame if out of the Statute, becauſe it is in courſe of Law. But if he makes it to a Great man, or to another to ſway and countenance the Cauſe, the ſame is within the Statute. 6. A Cuſtomary Right, or pretence to it, is within the Statute. 7. If there be Tenants for life the remainder in Fee by good Title, he in the remainder may obtain the pretended Right or Title of a ſtranger, becauſe the ſame is a means to extinguiſh ſutes and troubles, and cannot prejudice any. 8. If a Diſſeiſor makes a Leaſe for life, or years, the remainder for life in Tail, or in Fee: he in the remainder cannot take any promiſe or covenant that when the Diſſeiſee hath entred upon the Land and recovered it, that then he ſhall convey the Land to him in the remainder towards the particular Eſtate, becauſe the ſame is not lawful nor a reaſonable means, and the words (Reaſonable Means) in the Statute are intended to be Releaſe confirmation, or conveyance, or which doth amount to ſo much. Cook 1. p. Inſtit. 369. acc.

17. It was reſolved by the Iuſtices, That if a man makes a Leaſe for 3 years, or ſuch a ſmall time to his ſon, or ſervant, to try the title in an Ejectione firmæ, or if it be made to another inferior, by a ſuperior, who cannot countenance the ſute, it ſhall not be intended maintenance, nor buying of Titles which ſhall be puniſhed within the Statute. Fr. 7 Iac. in Co. B. Brownl. 2. p. 271.

18. In an Action upon the Caſe brought by an Attorney, for words ſpoken of him, the words were theſe, viz. He, meaning the Plaintiff, ſtirs up men to ſutes, and promiſeth, that if he recovereth it not for them, he will take no Fees; and yet in a ſute which he undertook for me wherein I was overthrown, he took charges of me. It was moved in arreſt of judgment, that the words were not actionable, becauſe that an Attorny may ſtir up men to ſutes, if their ſutes be lawfull, 17 Car. in B. R Gibſon and Baxter's caſe acc. Alſo an Attorney may preſent his Clients cauſe without Fees, and yet it is not maintenance. Fr. 16 Car. Hall and Saad's caſe. But in the principal caſe, it was adjudged, That the words are actionable, for the words here ſpoken, are, that he ſtirred up ſutes unlawfully, and ſtirring up of ſutes, and making of bargains unlawfully, is in it ſelf unlawful, and great inconveniences grow by ſuch manner of practizings; and the words are actionable, becauſe they tend to the ſlander of the Plaintiff in his Livelyhood and Practice. And in this caſe it was ſaid, That Attorneys ought not to go to Market to get Practice. M. 1749. in B. R. Smith and Andrew's caſe. Styles 184.

2. Maintainance of Writ.

1 A Formedon was brought againſt B. C. and D. by A. B. and C. appeared by one Attorney, and D. by another Attorney, and afterwards B. and C. confeſſed the action; D. ſaid, that he held joyntly at the time of the Writ brought with B. without that that A. had any thing in the Land, at the time of the Writ brought; and as to his moyte of the Tenements he vouched a ſtranger; the demandant maintained his Writ ſcil. that the 3 were joyntenants as the Writ ſuppoſed: and the ſame was holden to be a good manner of pleading; and thereupon Iſſue being taken, it was holden by the Court to be a good Iſſue. M. 26 H. 8. Dyer 6.

2 Husband and wife Ceſtuy que uſe before the Stat. of 27 H. 8. After the Statute, A Writ of entry in the Poſt was brought againſt the Husband only who pleaded joyntency with his Wife, the Queſtion was, If he ought to ſhew the Statute, It was the opinion of the Court, that he ought to do it as at the Common Law he ought to ſhew of whoſe feoffment. Then it was moved, whether the demandant might aver the Husband Perſon of the profits only, it was the opinion of the Court, that all pernancie of profits was taken away by the Statute. Peſe. 28 H. 8. Dyer 32.

3. In a Formedon in the remainder by F. 1. The Tenant for the moity vouched B. as Son and Heir of A. Son and Heir of C. It was holden, That is no good counterplea to the vouchee, That C. the Grand-father of the vouchee nor any of the Anceſtors of the vouchee whoſe Heir &c. never had any thing except joyntly with M. who ſurvived, with averment the Grand-father aliened not &c. without counterpleading alſo the ſeiſin of the vouchee himſelf, except he be vouched as within age, 2 As to the other moity (except the moity of 7 houſes) he pleaded a Fine with proclamations and 5. years encurred in bar, the Plaintiff counterpleaded that he had nothing. 3 As to the forſpriſe, pleaded joyntency by Fine which ſhall abate the Writ preſently, except the Demandant can conſeſſe and avoid it But as to that, It was the opinion of all the Iuſtices, joyntenancy of parcel ſhall not abate all the Writ, although the demand be of an entire thing, as of a Mannor, but otherwiſe it is of Non-tenure, becauſe the Writ ought to have a forſpriſe there; contrary of joyntency: and it was holden that becauſe in the principal Caſe, joynttcury was pleaded after voucher and barr, it was prepoſterous, and was not to be regarded. Trin. 12 Eliz. Dyer 291. Fitz-William's caſe.

3. In a Writ of Entry in the Quibus by K. againſt B. and T. B. pleaded Non-tenure in abatement, F. took the Tenancy upon him, and pleaded in bar the Feoffement of one W. and H. to him in Fee. The Demandant as to the Plea of B. in abatement of the Writ, averred him a T. to be tenants of the Freehold; upon which Iſſue was joyned, and as to the plea of T. he ſaid, That his Father was ſeiſed, until by the ſaid Feoffor diſſeiſed, who ſo in by diſſeiſin enfeoffed T. and that afterwards his Father died, and that he as Son and Heir entred upon T, and was ſeiſed in Fee in his Remitter, untill by the Tenants diſſeiſed, and did not averr, Et hoc paratus eſt verificare. T. rejoyned and traverſed the Diſſeiſin by the Feoffors to the Father of the Demandant, upon which they were at Iſſue: At the day of appearance the Demandant would have relinquiſhed his firſt Iſſue, becauſe the Demandant was not bound to maintain his Writ, but he might have demurred upon the plea of Non-tenure, but he was not permitted ſo to do: and upon the Evidence it appeared, that B. before the Entre of the Demandant was Leſſee at Will to T. and payed him Rent, and that he entred upon the Demandant, claiming his former Eſtate. And is was the opinion of the Court, that they were Diſſeiſors and Tenants, and that the Termor could not qualify his own wrong: and it was found for the Plaintiff: and judged accordingly. Mannor Mannor.

Mannor, what it is. Of what it Consists, and of the Incidents to it, what will passe by the Grant of the Mannor. Of the several kinds of Mannors. Nominal or in Reputation; and what time shall be sufficient to make it a Mannor in Reputation.

1. A Mannor is a Lordship or Seignory which doth consist of Demeans and Services; and of Tenants to the same, either Freeholders or Copyholders, which hold by certain Rents or Services. Or a Mannor is a Seignory Compounded of divers things, Houses, Lands Arrable Pastures, Meadows, Woods, Rents, Advowsons, Services of Freeholders, Copyholders, To which a Court Baron is incident; Such a Mannor cannot be erected at this day, but it ought to be of long continuance of time, unlesse it be in the Case of the King, (who as some hold) may create a Mannor at this day. In the Court of the Mannor the Freeholders and Suters are the Judges; And if there be not four Suters at least, a Court for it cannot be holden; for it must be before Suters, and therefore where there is but only one Freeholder it cannot be properly said a Mannor; For if all the Freeholds Escheat to the Lord; or all the Tenants of the Mannor die except one; the Mannor is gone, and cannot be revived again.

2. A Case was pleaded of a Mannor, whereof the Tenements in which were parcell, & issue was joyned quod non dimisit Maurium; and the Jurors found that there were not any Freeholders; but divers Copyholders of the said Mannor, and that it was known by the name of Mannor. In that case it was adjudged, That although the same was not a Mannor in law for want of Freeholders and because an issue is triable by lay gents, and that in truth the Tenements in which passed by the Lease; It was adjudged for him who pleaded the Demyse of the Mannor, 23 Eliz. Vines and Durhams Case, vide Cook. 6. Part 67. acc.

3. The Tenancy being a Mannor holden by 12*d.* of a Mannor, which is a Menalty, and holden by 6. d. and the Mesne Enfeofs the Tenant of the Mannor, which is the Menalty, now he holds both the Manors of the Lord Paramont by Joyntency by 6. d. and the Lord shall avow upon the Tenant because that both the Mannors are holden, of him by 6.d. So it had been if that the Tenancy had Escheated to the Menalty: and one Mannor had been parcel of another Mannor; and there the Tenancie hath not lost the name of a Mannor for the Tenements which were holden of the Tenancie are not now holden of the other Mannor which was the Menalty, and note, that it was there adjudged, That one Mannor might be parcel of another Mannor, vide 32. H. 6. 9. acc.

4 A Prior made a Lease for life of the Demeasns of a Mannor, rendring Rent, The Priorie came to the Crown by the Statute of Dissolution, and after the Dissolution the King made a Lease for years of the Mannor, it was adjudged in that Case, That by the name of the Mannor the Rent, and the Reversion of the Demeasns did passe; and though there was a severance for a time; yet the name of a Mannor did remain. M. 7. Eliz. Dyer. 233. vide Cook. 6. Part. 66. in Sir Maile Fincher's Case acc.

5. Note. It was resolved, that when the Lord of a Mannor having many antient Copy-holds in one Town granteth the Inheritance of all the Copy-holds to another, That in such Case the Grantee may hold a Court for the Copy-hold Tenements, and take surrenders to the use of others; For although it is not a Mannor in Law, because it wanteth free Tenements, yet as to the Copy-hold Tenements the Grantee of such a Mannor may hold a Court to make Admittances and grants Copy-holds: For every Mannor which consisteth of Free-hold and Copy-hold Tenements comprehendeth in it self 2. Courts; one called the Court Baron, which is the Court of the Free-holders, in which Court the suters with the free Tenants are Judges, another Court is for the Copy-holders, and there the Lord, or the Steward of the Mannor is the Judge: and therefore in the principal Case, when the Lord Grants the Inheritance of his Copy-holds to others such a Grantee hath a Copy-hold Mannor and may grant Copyholds; and it was holden in this Case, That although the Lord by his own Act cannot make of one Mannor after the Common Law sundry Mannors consisting of Demeasnes and Free-holds, yet he may make a Customary Mannor as before is said Pasc. 3. Eliz. in B. R. Melwich and Luthers Case. Cook. 4. Part 26.

6. The Case was thus, A man seised of a Mannor made a Lease of 10. Acres parcel of the Demeasnes for 10. years rendring Rent, and afterwards he demised the whole Mannor by the name Manerii sui de D. &c. for 20. years, the Term to begin at Mich. next following. Now whether the Interest, or Lease of 10 years in the said 10.

Acres

Acres does passe to the Lessee of the Mannor after the expiration of the first 10. years, although no Attornment was had by the first Tenant was the question. It was holden by the Iustices that it did passe, but not as a Reversion, but as a Member and parcel of the Mannor, for the 10. Acres were never severed from the Mannor, but the Freehold and Fee of them remained alwayes parcel of it, and of the body of their Mannor. Pasc. 18. Eliz. Dyer 350.

7. A man seised of a Mannor, made a Lease of it for years excepting one Acre. Bromly conceived, that this Acre was not now parcel of the Mannor, but severed from it, and become in grosse, as of an Advowson except, where the whole Mannor is Leased the Advowson is become in grosse: and if the Mannor be recovered against the Lessee the Acre excepted is not recovered. But Portman held the contrary, and took a difference betwixt a Lease of the Mannor for life with such exception, and a Lease for years. M. 2. Ma. Dyer 103. vide the Case before for the Resolution of this.

8. In an Ejectione firme. It was assigned for Error, because the Writ was in Manerium de A. ac in unum Messuagium, unum Horreum, &c. and in the Declaration it appeared that the Demyse was per hæc verba. Totum Manerium de A. Cum suis pertinentiis & in Domibus terris arrabilibus, &c. Advocatione Ecclesiæ ibid. Wardis, Heriotis, perquisit Curiæ boscis subs Maerio pertinent. exceptis & reservatis: So as it appeared the whole Mannor was not Let: Also the habendum in the Deed was but dictum manerium cum omnibus suis pertinent. without speaking de cæteris præmissis: In that Case it was holden by the Iustices, that the Exception of the Advowson, and other things was void, and that all the Services of the Mannor passed, because it is part, and the substance is the Mannor, and the Lease is Manere o specificat; and that th. Rent is but parcel of the Mannor. Hill. 1. M. Dyer 96. in Cliffords Error.

9. A Formedon was brought of Lands in A. B. and C. The Defendant pleaded a Fine of all by the name of the Mannor and Tenements in A. and B. It was Objected that he said nothing to the Land in C. But the opinion of the Court was that by the name of the Mannor, the Land in all the Villages should passe, and that the Defendant may if he will plead as to the Land in C. that it was not Comprised in the Fine. M. 15. Iac. in Co. B. Bromlo. 1. Part 155.

10. A. Was seised in Fee of a Capital Messuage, and 100. Acres of Land, known time out of mind by the name of the Mannor of F. to which the Advowson of the Church was appendant, which by mean conveyances came to I. S. who without deed did Enfeoff I. D. of the Mannor, and made Livery and seisin upon the Demeasnes. I. D. by Deed made a Grant of the Advowson, and afterwards the Tenant attorned to I. D. It was the opinion of all the Iustices, That the Advowson was Appendant to all the Mannor, but most properly to the Demeasnes out of which it was at the beginning derived, and that the attornment afterwards should have relation to the Livery, and the Advowson should passe inclusive in the Livery, and that the Grant of the Advowson made mean between the Livery and Attornment was void. M 33. Eliz. in Co. B. Long and Hennigs Case. Leon. 107.

11. A. Seised of the Mannor of Castard in Fee, which Mannor did extend into Daston, Northkelsey, Southkelsey D. and C. and had Demeans and Services in each of the said Towns parcel of the said Mannor, being so seised Granted totum Manerium suum de Northkelsey in Northkelsey to B. and his Heirs, and Granted further all his Lands Tenements and Hereditaments in Northkelsey, and to that Grant, the Tenants in Northkelsey did attorn And in a Replevin brought the Land in which the distresse is taken is alleged to be in Northkelsey. The onely question in this Case was, If by the Grant to B. a Mannor passed or not. It was Objected that no Mannor passed, for before the Grant there was no Mannor of Northkelsey or in Northkelsey, but the Lands in Northkelsey, and the Services shall passe as in grosse; for they were not known by a Mannor but for parcel of a Mannor. And a Manor is a thing which cannot be so easily created, for 'tis an Hereditament incorporated together before time of memory, of many things together, And a Court Baron is incident to a Mannor which cannot be created at this day: But it was the opinion of the Court, that in regard, That A. had before the Grant as well Demeasnes as Services in Northkelsey, it may be said he had a Mannor there, and although premise loquendo that tempore Concessionis, No Mannor was in Northkelsey, Yet now by operation of law upon this grant a new Mannor shall arise. Also it was holden by them, that the words (de Northkelsey) were void, and the Grant shall be construed as if the words had been Manerium suum in Northkelsey, and a Manor is such a thing, as may be determined, divided and suspended: and as to the Court Baron there needs not any Erection of any new Court, but because as before the Grant the Court might be by Law holden in any place within the Mannor, therefore every part of the Demeasnes is capable of a Court to be holden there: It was adjudged for the Defendant. Pasc. 27. Eliz. in Co. B. Mosse and Smiths Case. Leon. 216. 27.

12. Note. It was holden by the Iustices, That a Parsonage may be a Mannor, as if before the Statute Statute of Quia Emptores terrarum, The Parſon with the Patron and Ordinary Grant parcel of the Gleab to divers Perſons to hold of the Parſon by divers Services, the ſame makes the Parſonage a Mannor; alſo they hold that a Rent-charge by preſcription might be parcel of a Mannor and ſhall paſſe without the words cum pertinentiis. As if two Copertenors be of a Mannor and other Lands, and they make Partition, by which the eldeſt ſiſter hath the Mannor, and the other hath the other Lands, and ſhe who hath the other Lands Grants a Rent-charge to her ſiſter who hath the Mannor for equalitie of Partition. Paſc. 22. Eliz. in Co. B. Godbt. 3.

13. A Woman, having cauſe to be endowed of a Mannor in which are Copy-holds, doth demand her Dower by the name of the third part of certain Meſſuages, certain Acres of Lands, and certain Rents, and not by the name of the third part of the Mannor, and ſhe doth recover and keep Courts and Grants Copy-holds. It was holden by the Court, that in ſuch Caſe the Grants were void, for ſhe hath not a Mannor, becauſe ſhe hath made her demand as of things in groſſe. Otherwiſe. If the demand had been of the third part of the Mannor, for then ſhe had a Mannor, and might have kept Courts and Granted Copy-holds. And it was holden, that ſhe pleading that ſhe did recover the third part of the Mannor per nomen of certain Meſſuages, &c. was no recovery of the third part of the Mannor. M. 29. Eliz. in Co. The queſtion was whether the parcels of the Lands divided from the Mannor by the Intail and the Freehold Land ſhould paſſe. It was reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Lands Intailed which are parcel of the Mannor ſhall not be ſaid to be ſevered from the Mannor. For the Freehold never being ſevered and remaining entire in A. during his life ſhall paſſe as parcel of the Mannor, For the Freehold bought in and occupied with the Mannor, although it was but for two years before the bargain that ſhall paſſe being ſaid and reputed parcel, and by that name. And the Fine is well guided by the Indenture for the Mannors and for the Freehold purchaſed, although it was not in rei veritate parcel of the Mannor: and a litle time is ſufficient, for the gaining of Reputation. Marſhal and Marſhal-Sea.

The Antiquity, Authority and Juriſdiction of the Court of Marſhalſea: And in what Actions they may hold plea, in what not, by the Common, and ſince the Statute of Articuli ſuper Chartas.

1. THe Court of Marſhalſea is as Ancient as any of the Kings Courts, 4 H. 6. 8. And for the Honour of the Court, Fleta lib. 2. c. 2. ſaith, Next after the High Court of Parliament, addeth, the King Habet & Curiam ſuam coram Seneſchallo ſuo in aula ſua &c. And vid Diverſity of Courts. Firſt, The Court of Marſhalſea is an Ancient Court, and made for the ordering of the Kings Houſe, and for the preſervation of the King and his Servants, and this Court hath its bound within which it hath Juriſdiction, and not without.

2. Note, As to the Dignity of this Court, It is to be agreed, That the ſame is of as great Antiquity as any Court, vid. l. 5. E. 4. 124. where it was ſaid, That the Marſhalſea was and is one of the ancienteſt Courts within the Realm: This Court ſequitur perſonam Regis. For as Fleta ſaith, It followeth the perſon of the King, be he within the Realm, or out of the Realm, for there the King being in France, in alieno Regno, he notwithſtanding there did juſtice upon an Offence done within the Verge; and though it be of ſuch Dignity, yet it is not to be compared with the Court of Kings Bench; the difference of them is, the one of them, as before is ſaid, ſequitur perſonam Regis; but the other is Coram Domino Rege & coram ipſo Rege. Hill. 5 Iac. in B. R. in Cox and Gray's Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. p. 208.

3. An Action of Trover and Converſion was brought in the Maſhalſea, where none of the parties were of the Kings Houſhold. And upon judgment given there, a Writ of Error was brought in the Kings Bench: It was Reſolved in that Caſe, That the judgement ſhould be reverſed; and it was there ſaid, That for the Nature of the Actions, they ſhall hold plea in Treſpas, Contract and Covenant, and of no Action which concerns Free-hold, or the Realty; and in Treſpas within the Verge it is ſufficient, if one of the parties be of the Kings Houſhold, but in Contract or Covenant, both parties ought to be of the Houſhold. Cook 6. p. 20. Mitchelbourn's Caſe, and vid. there 32 H. 6. Rott. 27. 5. Note, It was adjudged upon a Writ of Error brought of a judgment given in the Court of Marſhalſea, In an Action of Trover and Converſion of goods, That if none of the parties be of the Kings Houſhold, and judgment be given there, that the ſame is Error, and for that cauſe the judgment was reverſed, Hill. 9 Jac. in Co. B. Cox and Gray's caſe. Godb. 184 vid. the ſame Caſe argued at large and adjudged in Rolſtod 1. p. 207, 208, 209, 210.

6. In an Action of Treſpas, Battery, and Falſe Impriſonment, the Defendant as to the whole Treſpas except the Battery and Impriſonment, and keeping of the party in priſon, pleaded Not guilty: And as to that, pleaded, That the Marſhals Court, is an ancient Court &c. and ſo juſtifies becauſe the Plaintiff was the Bail of T. C. to the Defendant in an Action upon the Caſe upon an Aſſumpſit general, and thereupon a judgment was againſt T. C. and a Capias awarded, and a Non eſt inventus returned; and thereupon a Capias was awarded againſt the Plaintiff, the Bail, according to the Cuſtome, by vertue whereof the Plaintiff was taken and detained, and traverſeth that he was guilty of any Impriſonment before ſuch a day, and avers they are the ſame perſons. The Plaintiff replied, That none of the parties were of the Kings Houſhold; upon which the Defendant did demurr. Vid. the Caſe, thus put, in Brownlo 1. p. 199. but ſee the Caſe more at large, Cook 10. part, 66. And in this Caſe, theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That at the Common Law, the Steward and Marſhal of the Marſhalſea had two Authorities to hold Courts, one as Juſtices in Eyre, by which Authority they held plea of Treſpas and of the Crown, and of other Real Actions; The other as Judges of the Marſhalſea of the Kings Houſhold, by which Authority they held plea only in Debt, Treſpas Vi & armis, and Covenant, and not in any perſonal Action or mixt. 2. That this appeareth by the ſtyle of the Court of the Marſhalſea, Placita coronæ aulæ Hoſpitii, that of the leaſt the one or the other of the parties ought to be of the Kings Houſhold, for otherwiſe to what purpoſe ſhould the plea be diſcontinued by the remove of the King, unleſſe the parties were of the Kings Houſhold. 3. Reſolved, That Articuli ſup. Chartas, was but an Explanation of the Statute of Magna Charta, and Charta de Foreſta; and the 3. chapter of Articuli ſup. Chartas, is but an explanation of the 29. chap. of Magna Charta, as to the Juriſdiction of the Court of Marſhalſea. 4. Reſolved, That the Common Law, and 28. E. 1. did extend to Treſpaſs ſimpliciter, and not to Treſpas ſecundum quid, as an Action upon the Caſe, upon Aſſumpſit, and Action upon Trover and Converſion. The ſecond point of the Caſe was, If the Deffts. having the Warrant of the ſaid Court, ſhould be puniſhed, for the Falſe Impriſonment. And it was Reſolved, that the Action did lye againſt the Deffts, becauſe all the proceedings was Coram non Judice, and it is not neceſſary to obey them which are not Judges of the Cauſes, no more than a Stranger. M. 10 Jac. in Co. B. Hall and Stanley's caſe, Cook 10. part, 69. the caſe of the Marſhalſea. Brownlo 2. part, 125, 126. the ſame caſe.

2 In what Courts Error in the Marſhalſea ſhall be reverſed. VVhether The Office of the Marſhalſea may be granted for years: and touching the Priſon of the Kings Bench and of the Marſhalſea, and to what Courts it is a Priſon, to what not. What perſon is Judge there, and the Authority of the Coroner of the Kings Houſhold.

1. NOte, It was Obſerved for the Honor of the Court of Marſhalſea; That the Judges hold the Kings place. And that a Man of Great Dignity, as the Earl of Norfolk, hath been Marſhal of the Kings Houſhold: and that Court was of ſuch High Juriſdiction, That before the the Statute of 5 E. 3. cap. 2. and 10 E 3. cap 2. That no Writ of Error lay of any judgment there given but in Parliament; But by the ſame Statutes, their Errors ſhall now be examined and redreſſed in the Kings Bench. Cook 10. part, 69. acc.

2. The King granted the Office of the Marſhalſea for life, and afterwards granted the ſame in Reverſion for 21. years, the grantee of the Reverſion aſſigned his intereſt to A. Tenant for life deputed I. S. at Will and died, A. by deed did aſſign the ſame Office to I. S. Office found that I. S. committed diverſe Forfeitures of the Office, by ſuffering eſcapes: In this caſe many points were Reſolved. 1. That in this caſe the King might ſeize upon the Office without ſuing out a ſcire facias. 2. That the ſaid grant of the ſaid Office in Reverſion for years was void; 1. becauſe this is an Office of Truſt, which is individual and perſonal, and cannot go to Executors, or Adminiſtrators. 2. becauſe it is an Office of attendance in Court, and if the Leſſee dieth inteſtate, there ſhould not be an Officer untill Adminiſtration were granted by the Ordinary. 3. Such Officer ought to be admitted and allowed by the Court, and if he dieth, his Executors ſhould be Officers without allowance or admittance. 4. Such Office hath alwayes been granted for life or at Will, ſo as the perſon was certainly known, and was never granted for years. 5. If it ſhould be granted for years, it ſhould be Aſſets to Executors, or it might be forfeited by Outlawry, upon which many Queſtions may ariſe: but it was agreed in that caſe; That by an Act in Law, a Term which is but a Chattel might be in ſuch an Office: as if the King ſeize ſuch an Office during the minority of the heir. Note, that the opinion in the caſe of 1 E. 4. 3. that ſuch an Office might be granted for years, was denied for Law. Cook 10. part, 67, 70, 71. Sir George Reynell's.

3. In an Action upon the Caſe for diſturbing him to execute the Office of Marſhal of the Kings Bench, granted unto him by Patent for years, The ſole Queſtion was, Whether a Patent of this Office granted for years be good, or not: It was Reſolved by the Court, Nullo contradicente, that it could not, and that judgment ſhould be for the Defendant; and the reaſons of their judgment were (as is in Sir George Reynel's Caſe) for that being an Office of Truſt and Confidence, and of Attendance in Court, many inconveniences would enſue, if it might be granted for years. And whereas it was Objected, That it may be granted in Fee or in Tail, and ſo deſcend to an Enfant, and aſwel therefore for years; It was anſwered, that the Court hath uſually put in another fit perſon for the time. M. 16 Car. in B. R. Meade and Sir John Lenthal's caſe. Cro. 1. p. 425.

4. The Duke of Norfolk being Marſhal of England, and having Authority to make a Deputy, he made one Gawdy his Deputy, who was ſworn in Court. Afterwards Gawdy licenced a Priſoner who was in Execution to go into Norfolk with a Keeper, For which the Plaintiff brought an Action of Debt againſt Gawdy, for the Eſcape, and he had judgment and recovered, Notwithſtanding that he was but the Under-Marſhall, and notwithſtanding that the Action was brought in Middleſex, ſuppoſing an Eſcape at Shorditch, and not in Surrey where the Priſon of the Marſhalſea is. M. 11 Eliz. Dyer 28. Gawdy's caſe. Cook 3. part, 52. in Rigeway's caſe acc.

5. Note, It was Reſolved by the Juſtices, That the Priſon of the Kings Bench is not any local Priſon confined only to one place; but that every place, where any perſon is reſtrained of his liberty, is a Priſon. Hill 6 Car. B. R. in Sir Miles Howard and Strowd's caſe. Cro. 1. p. 152.

6 Upon a Petition to the Kings Majeſty in the time of Peſtilence increaſing in London by the Priſoners of the Kings Bench and of the Fleet, for the avoiding of infection of the Plague much encreaſing, That they who ſhould give ſufficient ſecurity to the Marſhal, or to the Warden of the Fleet, to be true Priſoners, and to return to Priſon at the dayes to them preſcribed, might go at large by Habeas corpus at that time. The matter was referred by his Majeſty to all the Juſtices and Barons of the Exchecquer, to conſult of the matter what courſe was to be taken in the ſame: Whereupon it was Reſolved by them, That an Habeas corpus was an Antient and Legal Writ, but under colour thereof the Warden of the Fleet and Marſhal of the Kings Bench ought not to ſuffer Priſoners to go at large, but ſuch permiſſion was an abuſe of the Writ, and an Eſcape in the Keeper. But it was Reſolved by them, That for the ſafeguard of the Priſoners, The Warden of the Fleet, or Marſhal of the Kings Bench by Rule or Licence of the Courts may keep their Priſoners in any other place of the County to be aſſigned by the Courts unto them. But there they ought to be kept as Priſoners ſub ſalva & aſta cuſtodia, as they ought to be in their proper Priſons; which Reſolution of the Juſtices was certified to the Kings Majeſty. Tr. 12 Car. in B R. Cook 1. part, 335 336.

7. The Wife brought an Appeal of Murder of her Husband. The Defendant pleaded that another time, viz. 8. Octob. 32 Eliz. by Inquiſition taken before the Coroners of the County at S in the ſaid County, It was preſented, That the Defendant 23. Sept. 32 Eliz did ſtrike, &c. whereof he died 24. Sept. following; and ſo he was Indicted of Man-ſlaughter. Which Inquiſition being certified by the Juſtices of Gaol-delivery at New-gate, he was arraigned upon the ſame Indictment, and confeſſed the Felony, and had his Clergy: and pleaded over to the Felony: and it appeared that the ſaid Arraignment, Confeſſion and Clergy was after the Writ of Appeal brought and returned: In this caſe amongſt other points it was Reſolved: 1. That by the Common Law the Coroner of the Kings Houſhold had an exempt Juriſdiction within the Verge, and that the Coroner of the County could not intermedle with the death of a Man within the Verge; and ſo it was adjudged 24 Eliz. in Swiff's caſe. 2. Reſolved, That the Indictment taken before the Coroner of the Kings Houſhold, and the Coroner of the County was inſufficient, becauſe it doth not appear, that S. was within the Verge, and it cannot be ſuppoſed, by an Averment of the party. 3. Reſolved, That the Indictment being inſufficient, notwithſtanding ſuch conviction the party might be arraigned and impeached again for the ſame Offence, as was Reſolved 28 Eliz. in Heydons caſe. Mi. 34 Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. part 45. Wrote and Wigg's caſe.

Mariage, Matrimony, and Inter-Marriage.

Mariage, what it is; what ſhall be ſaid a lawful Mariage: and how the Loyalty of the Mariage and by whom it ſhall be tryed; and when, and by what Act, Mariage may be aſſented unto, or avoided.

1. MAriage, by the Civil Law, according to Juſtinian in his Inſtitutes, is Nuptiæ Mariti & Fœminæ conjunctio individua, continens vitæ ſocietatem, individuam dico, quia non niſi morte aut divortio ſuperandam: and therefore by the Civil Law, if the parties non attigerent annos Nubiles Nuptiæ eſſe non poſſunt, but only Sponſalia, which is but a ſtep to Mariage. And vid. Juriſprudentiæ Romanor. lib. 1. cap. 13. Societas, & Conſortium, omni vitæ jure Maritum & Fœminam ad coeubitum; which is, Societatis hujus conſummatio. But by the Common Law, Mariage is not to be conſidered according to the Rules and Grounds of the Canon or Civil Law. For, by the Common Law, Mariage is to be conſidered, either in the right, or in the poſſeſſion; Mariage in poſſeſſion, is ſufficient in perſonal things and cauſes, eſpecially where the poſſeſſion of the Wife is in Queſtion, but where the Mariage of the Husband is in Queſtion, there Mariage in right ought to be; and where Mariage in poſſeſſion falls in averment there it ſhall not be tryed by the Biſhop, as in caſe of a Mariage of Right. Paſc. 29 Eliz. in Co. B. Leon 53.

2. A brought an Action of Treſpas againſt B, and C. and B pleaded that C. is Wife of the Plaintiff, and demanded judgement of the Writ; The Plaintiff by Replication ſaid, Never accoupled in lawful Matrimony; in that caſe the plea was not allowed; but he was driven to ſay, Not his Wife: For if C was the Wife of the Plaintiff in Poſſeſſion, or in Right, it is ſufficient to abate the Writ, and vid. 29 E. 3. 18. by Belknap; the Right of Eſpouſals is alwayes to be tryed by the Biſhop, but the Poſſeſſion of the Mariage not. Vid. 50 E. 3. 20. adjudge acc.

3. In Debt upon a Recog. the caſe was. A. ſeiſed of Lands, had Iſſue E. his Daughter and Heir

Heir: and by Indenture 19 Eliz. granted, Custodiam, gubernationem, educationem & maritagium dict. E. to T. L. which T. L. afterwards assigned his said custodie and all his Interest to I. S. Afterwards I. S. assigned his Interest to I. H. and covenanted with L. That T. H Son and Heir of the said I. H. and Heir apparent of the said I. H. maritaret, & in uxorem duceret prædict. E. ad vel antequam dict. E. & T. H. implerent suas separales ætates 12. annorum si dict. E. ad id condescendere & agreare vellet; And afterwards before the said T. H. and E. suas separales ætates implevissent, &c. 8 Sep. 10 Eliz. the said T. H. took to Wife the said E, the said T. H. being then of the age of 12 years, and 9. months, and the said E. being of the age of 9. years and no more, and T. H overlived: and pleaded further, that the said T. H. afterwards attained his full age of 14. years, and before any agreement it to the said Mariage aforesaid betwixt the said T. H. and E. had, at or after the said T. H. came to his age of 14. years, 10. Sept. 22 Eliz. ad dictum maritagium disagreavit, & maritagium illud recusavit. And all his matter being pleaded in Bar, in performance of the covenant in the said Indenture of defeasance upon the said Recognizance, demanded Judgment of Action; The Question was, If this Mariage had in manner as aforesaid were such a mariage as was intended by the Covenant, so as the Covenant be performed or not. It was Resolved by the Court in this case, That it was a sufficient mariage in performance of the Covenant: For H. is bound for the performance of this Covenant, and that his Son and Heir apparent maritaret & in uxorem duceret dict. E ad vel ante &c. which is executed accordingly, and he is not bound for the continuance of the mariage; but the same ought to be left to the Law, which gives the parties liberty to continue the mariage by agreement or to dissolve it by disagreement. If I. be bounden to you, That I. S. who is an Infant shall levy a Fine before such a day which is done accordingly. If afterwards the Fine be reversed by Error, yet the condition is performed: It was adjudged for the Defendant against the Plaintiff. Pasc. 29 Eliz. in Co. B. Leigh and Hannets case. Le. 565

4. In Covenant brought against Husband and Wife, the Plaintiff declared, that one E. the first Husband of the Wife was indebted to the Plaintiff in 20. l. and that one G. A. was indebted to the said E in the sum of 20. l. and that the said E. made his said Wife his Executor, and died; and afterwards his Wife, dum sola fuit, for the satisfaction of his Debts, appointed the Plaintiff Attornatum suum irrevocabilem &c. in her name to receive of the said G. A. the said 20. l. And the said Wife covenanted, quod ipsa ad requisitionem of the Plaintiff, from time to time would maintain all Sutes which the Plaintiff should bring in the name of the said Wife against the said G. A. to the use of the Plaintiff, and not to be Non-sute, or to make any discontinance, Release or Revocation without the assent of the Plaintiff, and shewed, that he had brought a sute against G. A. for the Debt; and that the said Wife depending the said sute had taken to husband the Defendant without the Plaintiffs consent, and if by the mariage the sute were countermanded was the Question: In this case it was holden by the Court: 1. That the Declaration was insufficient, for that there is not any Request surmised in it. For the words of the Covenant are, Quod ipsa ad requisitionem &c. and so the Plaintiff ought to have notified to the Wife that he had commenced such sute, otherwise the Action did not lye. 2. It was holden, That here is not any countermand, for by the taking of the Husband, the Writ is not abated, but is only abatable; and therefore the Plaintiff ought to have shewed, that by the Inter-mariage and her taking of a second Husband that the Writ was abated, otherwise it is not a countermand. M. 31 Eliz. in Co. B. Lee and Madox's case. Le. 108.

5. A. maried one within age, and after disagreed, so as they might marie elsewhere, and the first Wife had Issue by other Husbands and died. A was sued in the Ecclesiastical Coure by an Informer, supposing he had maried a Woman living his first Wife, A. there proved the disagreement: and thereupon had sentence for him against the Informer. And yet they in the Ecclesiastical Court taxed A. to give 20. l. to the Informer for Costs: In this case it was Resolved, That by the disagreement within age, the first mariage was determined, and so no cause of sute there by the Informer; and it was holden to be Injustice in the Court there to allow Costs to one who had vexed a Man without cause; especially when they had given Sentence against the Informer: and therefore a Prohibition was granted by the Court. M. 8 Jac. in Co. B. Blackden's case, Rowle 2. p. 36.

6. Note, It was said by Dyer Justice, That if a Woman hath a Term, and takes a Husband who purchaseth the Fee, that the Term is extinct. Manwood agreed that the Law might be so in such case, because the Husband had done an Act which destroyed the Term; But he said, That if the Woman had Inter-maried with him in the Reversion there the Term should not be extinguished, for the Husband hath not done an Act to destroy the Term; but the the marriage is the Act in Law. Pasc. 17 Eliz. in Co. B. Godbt. 2.

7 Note, A woman hath 6. ages, 1. At the age of 7. years to have Aid to be maried. 2. At 9. years to have Dower. 3. At 13. years to Assent or Dissassent to mariage. 4. At 21. years to make Alienation of her Lands. 5 At 14. years to be out of Ward. 6. At 16. years to forfeit her mariage; But a Man hath but 2. ages. 1. At 14. years to have his Lands holden in Socage and to assent to mariage. 2. At 21. years to make an Alienation and to be out of Ward. H. 35. H. 6. 41. acc.

8. In Writs of Dower, and other Writs, If the Issue be joyned, That the parties were never lawfully joyned in Marriage, The Tryal must be by the Bishop in his Court, by Inquisition taken before him, and the Witnesses examined there by him, and published, and after they are published, they are sent to the Kings Court, where the Issue was joyned, and such Certificate usually is general. That copulata vel non copulata fuit in Legitimo matrimonio. 14 Eliz. Dyer 303. And after such Certificate there shall be no Appeal, but the same Certificate shall be a Barre and conclude all parties whatsoever. 15 H. 7. rot. 303. Book Entries 223.

9. A Writ of Dower was brought against the Bishop of N. and others, by several Precepts. They pleaded that the parties ne unque fuerunt accouple en loyal matrimonie; It was holden in that case that although the Bishop was a party to the Writ, and a Defendant in the cause, yet he himself should try the Loyalty of the Matrimony, because other persons were parties as well as himself, who shall be bounden by his Certificate. But if the Bishop alone were partie & Defendant, then the Tryal should be by the Metropolitan. 10 R. 2 Tryal 100. But if an Issue were joyned; If the Wife of I. S. or not, the same shall not be Tryed by the Certificate of the Bishop, but by a Jury at the Common Law. 139. E. 15. acc.

10. In a Writ of Dower brought by William C. and M. his wife against T. of the 3. part of the Manor of T. of the Endowment of R P. her late Husband. The Tenant said, That M. took to Husband C. Defendant, & that afterwards C. was long absent, and that in his absence she was married to P. R. and that afterwards C. Defendant returned home to his house, and sued a Divorce, and that the said C. Defendant is yet living; and demanded Iudgement of the Writ which supposed her to be the Wife of William C. And because it could not be Tryed here whether she was the lawfull Wife of William C. or not; and the Issue was joyned upon Ne unque accouple en loyal matrimonie, It was directed by the Court that the Tryal should be by the Bishop; and he to Certifie the Matrimony accordingly. But it was said, If the Issue had been whether she was his Wife or not, the same might have been Tryed by the Common Law. vide 34 E 3. 15 and 16. acc.

11. A Man promised a Woman, That if she would marry with him, that if he died, and she did survive him, that he would leave unto her 100. l. they Intermarried, and then the Husband died, not performing his promise, The Wife sued the Executor of her Husband upon the said promise, and whether the duty did survive with the Wife, or was extinguished by the Intermarriage was the question: The Court was divided in opinion, Hobart and Warburton held the Intermarriage was a release and discharge of the 100. l. Winch and Hutton contrary: Hill 15. Iac. in Co. B. Hall and Stafford's case. Godbt. 271. vide Hutton 17. the same case.

12. In Ecclesione fine the case was. A. a Woman possessed of a Lease of Lands of the Demyse of the Dean and Chapter of Westminster, beginning 5. December 35 Eliz. married one I. H. and then he and his Wife Mortgaged the interest herein to E. for 200 l. and before the day of payment A. died, and I. H. paid the money at the day in redemption of the Mortgage and entred, and then K. took Letters of Administration of the goods of A. and entred upon the Lessee. The Wife of I. H. entred, and made the Lease to the Plaintiff. It was adjudged in this case that the Plaintiff should recover, for although the Lease was at first the Wives, and that the Husband was possessed in her right; yet by the Intermarriage he had full power to Alien, and if he survive his Wife he is to enjoy it against her Executors and Administrators, and so when he survives, the condition survives to him restores him to the Lease in State as it should have been if it had not been Aliened. Pasc. 11 Iac. in Co. B. Yong and Hadsonds case. Hob 3.

13. A Covenant was, That the Defendant should assure such a Copy-hold to the Plaintiff, if he married with his Daughter secundum leges Ecclesiasticas; and he alleged, That he rite & legitime espowsed the Daughter of the Defendant, &c. and Issue being thereupon, It was found for the Plaintiff. Exception was taken to it, because it ought to have been Tryed by the Certificate of the Bishop, and not by a Tryal by Jury: but the Exception was disallowed by the Court, for the marriage is onely in Issue, and not if he were lawfully espowsed. M. 3. Iac. in Co. B. Fletcher and Lyfeld's case. Cro. 2. part. 102.

What

1. Where the Intermarriage of a Woman to a Husband is an abſolute gift of all her Goods and Chattels to the Husband, and where not; And where it is but a ſuſpenſion of a Promiſe; and where a Releaſe of it, where not.

1. A Communication between I. S. and A. was of the marriage I. S. being poſſeſſed of a Term for years, and of certain goods promiſed to A. that if ſhe would be married to him, and they had Iſſue a Son, that he ſhould have the Term, if a Daughter, that ſhe ſhould have the Moyety of his Goods, ſhe Intermarried and had Iſſue B. a Daughter, the Husband died, B. brought an action upon the caſe againſt the Adminiſtrator of I. S. upon the promiſes. The Court held it would not lye unleſſe as Adminiſtratrix of A. or in the name of A. And Staffords caſe was put, where there was a Communication between Stafford and a Woman, that if ſhe would marry him he would at his death leave her 100*l.* that after the Intermarriage and death of the Husband, the queſtion was, If the promiſe was by the Intermarriage extinct? And after a long debate, It was Reſolved, That the Intermarriage was but a ſuſpenſion of the promiſe. Paſc. 3. Car. in C. B. Heley 12.

2. T. B. and E. his Wife brought an Action upon the caſe againſt E. H and declared that in conſideration that the ſaid E. at his Requeſt would take one T. M. his familiar friend to her Husband, he promiſed, That if the ſaid E. ſurvived the ſaid T. M. that he would pay her 40. s. yearly for her maintenance, and ſhewed that thereupon ſhe did take the ſaid T. M. to her Husband, and ſurvived him, and then married with the Plaintiff, the Defendant pretended a Releaſe from T. M. of all Actions and Demands: It was in that caſe adjudged to be no ſufficient Releaſe; but the Lord Hobart ſaid, that if he had Releaſed all promiſes it would have diſcharged the Debt. vide 4 Eliz. Releaſe of all Actions, ſutes, quarrels, doth not Releaſe a Covenant before it is broken but other it is of a releaſe of all Covenants. Dyer 57. Hill. 6. Iac. in B. 3. Note, What things of the Wife are given to the Husband by his Intermarriage with her. 1. If a Woman hath a Term for years, or other Chattels reall, and taketh a Husband, he is poſſeſſed of the ſame in the Right of his Wife, and may diſpoſe of the ſame by Grant, or demiſe, or forfeit the ſame by Attainder or Outlawry, and ſuch a Term may be extended for the Debt of the Husband; but the Husband cannot diſpoſe of the ſame by his Will. vid. C. 8. part. 96. M. 17. Eliz. Amner and Luddington's his caſe. 2. If the Husband chargeth the Chattel real of his Wife, the ſame ſhall not bind the Wife if ſhe overliveth her Husband. 3. If a Woman hath a Right of Action to, or for a Chattel real, and takes a Husband and dieth, the Husband who ſurviveth her ſhall not have it by the Intermarriage, but the Executors, or Adminiſtrators of the Wife; and ſo is the Law, If the Wife hath but a poſſibility to a thing. 4. If a Woman hath Chattels real in the Right of another as Executor or Adminiſtrator, or as Gardian in Socage, theſe are not given to the Huſband by the Intermarriage, although that he overliveth the Wife. 5. If a Woman granteth a Term to her uſe, and afterward taketh a Huſband and dieth, the Husband ſhall not have the Truſt, but the Executors and Aminiſtrators of the wife, becauſe the ſame conſiſts in privitum Hill. 38. Eliz. in Canc. Waterhowſes caſe adjudge. acc. 6. Chattels real of a mixt nature, vid. part in poſſeſſion and part in Action which happen during the Coverture the Husband ſhall have by the Intermarriage if he over liveth the Wife as Arrearages of Rent incurred during the marriage, but if the Wife ſurviveth ſhe ſhall have them; and now by the Statute of 32. H. 8. cap. 37. the Husband ſhall have the Arrearages incurred before the marriage if he ſurviveth the Wife. 7. All the Chattels perſonal in poſſeſſion of the Wife in her own right are given to the Husband if he over liveth the Wife or not. But Chattels perſonal in Action, the Husband ſhall not have them, if he and his Wife do not recover them in the life of the Wife. 8. If the Wife hath but a bare poſſeſſion of Chattels perſonal as by Trover or Baylment, theſe are not given to the Husband by the Intermarriage, but for them Detinue lieth againſt the Husband and the Wife. Cook 1. part Inſtitut. 351. 352.

4. In Debt the caſe was. A man poſſeſſed of a Term for 30. years in the Right of his Wife made Leaſe for 10. years rendring Rent to him his Executors and Aſſigns, and died. The queſtion was if the Executors of the Husband or the Wife ſhould have the Rent. It was the opinion of Haughton and Crook Juſtices that the Rent was gone. But it was agreed by them all that the executors of the Husband ſhould not have the rent. But Haughton Juſtice ſaid that the wife ſhould have it. But it was agreed, That if Leſſee for 20. years make makes a leaſe for 10. years, and then ſurrenders, that the Rent is gone, and yet the Term of 10. years continueth. And in the principal caſe, It was ſaid, That if the Husband after the leaſe made, had granted over the Reverſion, that his Aſſignee ſhould not have the Rent. But Haughton Juſtice ſaid, that in that caſe, the Wife in Chancery ſhould be relcived for the Rent. Tr. 16 Jac. in B. R. Blackſton and Heape's Caſe. Godbt. 279.

5. Ifa Women who is ſole brings an Aſſiſe, and after Verdict before judgment, ſhe maries and takes a Husband, this Intermariage is no cauſe to hinder the judgment, for that this cannot be avoided but by plea, and the party hath no time to plead this between the Verdict, and the judgment: as it was holden by Crook Juſtice, In the Earl of Shrewsbury and Earl of Rutland's caſe. 3 To whom the Mariage of perſons belongs: and of the Writs de Valore Maritagii: and Maritagio non ſatisfacto; and wherefore the value of the Mariage tender ſhall be requiſite, where not.

Mr. Littleton ſaith, That the Father ſhall have the Marriage of his Son and Heir apparent during his life, and the reaſon thereof is, For that all the Eſtate of the Anceſtors, and the eſtabliſhing of his Inheritance, principally conſiſteth in providing a Covenable marriage for his heir apparent; And hence it is that every Anceſtor, Male, or Female, ſhall have Treſpas, or a Writ of Raviſhment of ward againſt a Stranger, who wrongfully Raviſheth the heir apparent of any perſon, be they Male or Female, and the Writ ſhall ſay, (cujus Maritagium ad ipſum pertinet, and it is not material of what age the heir apparent is; and the Cuſtodie and mariage of the Son and Heir apparent is inſeparably veſted in the Father, preſently after the Birth of the Son, Jure Naturæ; but after the death of the Father, the marriage doth belong to the Lord, by reaſon of the Tenure. And an Action of Raviſhment of Ward lyeth not againſt the Guardian in Knights Service by any Anceſtor, but only for the Father and for him the Action lieth againſt the Lord of whom the Land is holden in Knight Service, where his Son and Heir apparent is Raviſhed by him. Vid 9 E 4. 53. 32 E. 3. Cook 3. part, 39. in Ratcliffs caſe.

2. A. brought an Action upon the caſe againſt B. Quare filium ſuum & hæredem rapuit & maritavit; and there upon obtained Verdict. In arreſt of judgment, diverſe exceptions were taken to the Declaration. 1. That he doth not ſay, Hæredem apparentem, but Filium & hæredem. 2. Doth not ſay, Contra voluntatem ſuam rapuit. 3. Becauſe it doth not ſay, Cujus maritagium ad ipſum pertinet. And 35 Eliz. in B. R Child and Tower's caſe vouched for it; It was the opinion of the Court, That an Action quare filium ſuum rapuit will lye by the Father, although the Heir be of full age, or if he be within age; and that the Father hath the marriage of his Son Jure Naturæ, although he have no Eſtate to leave him. Paſc. 1649. in B. R. Wood and Topham's caſe. Styles 216, 235, 236.

3. If Tenant by Knight Service dieth his Heir within age, preſently the value of the mariage of the Heir takes effect and is veſted in the Lord: So as, although ſuch an Heir be within age, and be made a Knight, and to that purpoſe in the judgment of Law be eſteemed to be of full age, yet ſhall the Lord have the value of his marriage aſwell as the Cuſtodie of his Land until his age of 21. years. Cook 6. p. 74. Sir Drue Draw's caſe.

4. If the Lord hath the Cuſtodie of the Heir within age, and tendreth him a convenient mariage, and he refuſeth it, and intrudeth upon the Land, the Lord ſhall have a Writ againſt him to recover the value of the mariage, and alſo to recover the Land. 40 E. 3. 6. 2 H. 7. 9. C. B. 141. acc.

5. Note, It was Reſolved and adjudged by the Court, That the Guardian in Knight Service ſhall have the ſingle value of the Mariage of the Heir without tender of mariage to him; and that by the Common Law, it was in the Election of the Lord to have the mariage of the Heir, or permit the Heir to marry himſelf, and to have recompence ſuit to the value of it. And at the Common Law not only a Writ de valore Maritagii lay, But alſo, the Writ quare ſe intruſit maritagio non ſatisfacto: And at the Common Law, If the Heir within age had been Raviſhed and maried, the Guardian ſhould recover in Treſpas the value of the marriage, and in ſuch Caſe a Tender of mariage for the ſingle value was not neceſſary. Cook 5. p. 116. Palmer's caſe.

6. In a Writ de valore Mariagii, The Defendant tendered a Traverſe upon the Tender of mariage alleged in the Count, upon which it was demurred in Law; It was adjudged, That the tender tender was not traverſable in this Action; For that Maritagium de mero jure pertinet Domino; and if tender ſhould be neceſſary, the Lord might be defeated of the marriage by the Heirs going beyond Sea, or places unknown. But it was ſaid, that for an Heir female, becauſe the Lord hath two years after her age of 14. years to make tender of marriage. Warburton Juſtice ſaid, that in that caſe, the tender is traverſable. Tr. 4. Jac. in Co. B. The Lord Darcy and Pages caſe. Cro. 2. part. 15.

7. In a Writ de Valore Maritagii, It was moved, If the Lord ſhould recover his damages according to the value of the Land held of him onely, or according to all his Lands held alſo of others. It was the opinion of the Iuſtices, that the value of the marriage ſhould be accounted as well in reſpect of the Lands held of him as of other Lands held of other Lords by Poſteriority or in Socage, for there the Woman by the marriage to him ſhall be more advanced, and the better the advancement is, the better is the marriage to the Heir, and the perſon more to be eſteemed. M. 3. Car. in Co. B. Wrabely's caſe Hetley 15

8. It was found by Office, that Sir John Puckering, late Keeper of the Great Seal, and the Lady Jane his Wife were joyntly ſeiſed to them and to the Heirs of him of the Mannor of Weſton, in the County of H. & of the Mannor of K. in the County of L. by purchaſe of the ſaid Lord Keeper: And that he was ſeiſed of B. in the ſaid County of H. and of the Mannor of C. in the County of W. and 38 Eliz. ſo died ſeiſed; and his Lady ſurvived him, and that the Mannor of Weſton was holden onely in Capite, and the reſt were holden of the Queen in Socage, and that T. his Son and Heir was of the age of four years; the Lady 19. May 9. Iac. died, T. the Heir. 3. Junii 10. Iac. was made Knight, and 3. December accompliſhed his true full age, tendred, and ſued forth a ſpecial Livery, in which Livery was contained a Releaſe and Pardon to the Heir of all Entries, Intruſions, and a Pardon & Releaſe of all Accompts, Actions, and Demands: The Auditors ſince the ſpecial Livery impoſed ſeveral Charges upon the Heir; and amongſt other, not of a ſum in particular, but to bring the Heir ad Computandum pro meliore valore. Upon a demurrer to his charge, the queſtion was: Whether this charge were lawfully impoſed or not, in regard it is general ad Computandum pro meliore valore; not being grounded upon an Office, or Warranted by any Preſident in Court. In this caſe it was reſolved, That the Auditor can ſet no charge, nor award Proceſſe to anſwer any charge, but upon a Record as an Office, or the like; the 2. Queſtion was, whether the King could be entituled to any mean rates, between the death of the Lady and the Knighthood of T. or between his Knighthood and full age, no Office being found of the death of the Lady, nor any charge impoſed before the Knighthood. It was reſolved, That if the Feodaries Certificate of the Ladies death were in Court before the Livery granted the mean rates encurred from the death of the Lady till the Knighthood; but thoſe which encurred ſince his Knighthood were diſcharged by the Livery, or rather by the Knighting of him, and tender of his Livery, which he might tender ſo ſoon as he was Knighted: But it was holden, that for the value of his marriage that he muſt anſwer, becauſe it was fully veſted in the King by his Nonage before. Maſter and Servant.

Where the Maſter ſhall be Charged for the Act, Offence, Wrong or negligence of the Servant: and where an Action lieth againſt the Maſter for it, where not; & & converſo.

1. THe Queen by her Letters Patents Granted the Office of Clerk of the County Court of D. to M. with all the Fees for his life; And afterwards conſtituted A Sheriff of the ſaid County of D. who claiming the ſaid Clerkſhip to be incident to his ſaid Office of Sheriff, appointed another to be Clerk there; In this Caſe it was reſolved, that the Grant of the Queen was void, for when the Queen hath conſtituted a Sheriff who is the immediate Officer to her Court of Juſtice, ſhe cannot abridge him of any thing which is incident to his Office; And the Sheriff is anſwerable and chargeable with all things which are done by vertue of his Office; and if ſuch Grant of the Queen ſhould be good, If the Records of the Court ſhould be imbeſilled by the Grantee or other, the Sheriff ſhould be charged with the ſame, which were unconſcionable, the ſaid Clerk not being made and appointed by him. And the Sheriff himſelf is to certifie all the proceedings out of the County Court: and is to anſwer for all Wrongs and Offences done by the Clerk there. 2. In that caſe it was reſolved, That the cuſtodie of Gaols of the County do of right belong unto the Sheriff, and are incident and annexed nexed to his Office by the Statute of 4. Ed. 3. cap. 10. and therefore he ſhall anſwer for all Eſcapes and other Offences done by the Gaolers and the Keepers of them. Cook 4. part, 33. Mittons caſe.

2. Note, In the Grant of an Office, there is a difference betwixt an Aſſignee and a Deputy, for an Aſſignee is a perſon who hath an Eſtate and Intereſt in the Office it ſelf, and doth all things in his own name, and for whom his Grantor ſhall not anſwer if it be not in ſpecial caſes: but a Deputy hath not any Intereſt or Eſtate in the Office, but is but the Officers ſhadow, and doth all things in the name of the Officer himſelf, and nothing in his own name; for whoſe Offences and Miſdemeanor of his Office, his Grantor ſhall anſwer. Cook 9 part, 49. in the Earl of Shrewsbury's caſe.

3. The King Granted the Office of Marſhalſea for life, and afterwards Granted the ſame in Reverſion for 21 years, the Grantee of the Reverſion Aſſigned his Intereſt to A. Tenant for life deputed I. S at Will Officer, and died. A by Deed Aſſigned the ſaid Office to I. S. and it was found by Office that I. S. committed ſeveral forfeitures of the ſaid Office, by ſuffering priſoners in Execution to eſcape (ſee the caſe in the Book at large.) In this caſe amongſt many other points it was reſolved, That although the Office was ipſo facto in the poſſeſſion of the King by the forfeiture; yet there ought to have been a Writ of diſcharge, for that untill he be actually removed he ſhall anſwer for eſcapes: and he who hath the keeping of a Gaol, or Priſon, either wrongfully or of right, ſhall be chargeable for the eſcape of Priſoners; and he who hath the cuſtody of a Gaol, or Deputy to another, if he be not ſufficient to anſwer for the eſcapes, he, who hath the Inheritance of ſuch Office, and appointed ſuch Deputy, ſhall be charged and chargeable with them Cook 9. part, 98. in Sir George Reynel's caſe.

4. Tenant at Will ſuffered permiſſive waſt the Leſſor brought an action upon the caſe againſt him; it was adjudged that the Action did not ly againſt him, becauſe in ſuch caſe there was not any confidence repoſed in him by his Leſſor, and it was his own folly that he did not reſtrain him from doing evil: But in that caſe, It was reſolved, that where a truſt and confidence is put in the party, there for the breach of ſuch truſt and confidence an action upon the caſe will be; As if a man deliver a horſe to I. S. to keep, and for want of keeping of it the horſe dieth, there an action upon the caſe lieth: And ſo an action upon the caſe lieth againſt a Shepheard if by negligence the ſheep of his maſter be drowned, becauſe in ſuch caſe there is a truſt and confidence put by the maſter in the ſervant for the keeping of them. Cook 5. part 13. and 14. The Counteſſe of Shrewsbury's caſe.

5. A man was taken in Execution by Bayliffs of a Franchiſe by force of a Warrant upon a Writ of Capias & ſatisfaciendum, the Bayliffs before the Return of the Writ in B. R. at the Requeſt of the Priſoner brought him before the Return into another County, and after the Return delivered him again to the Kings Bench. In that caſe it was adjudged no eſcape in the Bayliffs: and in that caſe, this difference was taken. If the Sheriff or Bayliff of a Liberty ſuffereth one in Execution, and who is under his cuſtody, to go out of the Gaol for a time, and then to return, although that he returneth at the time, yet the ſame is an eſcape for which the Sheriff ſhall anſwer: ſo if the Sheriff ſuffereth one to go by Bayl or Baſton; for the Sheriff ought to keep the Priſoner in ſalva & arcta Cuſtodia. But when the Sheriff hath one in Execution for Debt, and a Habeas Corpus iſſues out of the Kings Bench, to have his body in Court at a certain day, and the Sheriff before the Return of the Writ brings the Priſoner to an Inn in another County, and the Priſoner of his own head goeth abroad without any one to Guard him into another County, and returns again to the Sheriff, who at the return of the Habeas Corpus brings the party into Court, it was adjudged in that caſe the ſame is no eſcape; and if the ſervant in ſuch caſe by negligence ſuffer the party to go at liberty, yet the Sheriff his Maſter ſhall not be puniſhed for the ſame. Cook 3. part, 43, 44. Boyſe's caſe.

6. A. Was in Execution ſeverally under the cuſtodies of the Sheriffs of London, at the ſutes of A. and B. the old Sheriffs delivered the body of A. by Indenture in which the Execution of B. only was mentioned, and the other left out, A. in the time of the New Sheriffs eſcaped; It was adjudged, That in this caſe the Old Sheriffs ſhould be charged with the eſcape, & the not delivery of A. in Execution to the New Sheriffs was an eſcape in the Old Sheriffs: although A. was in the Priſon it ſelf. 2. Reſolved, that the Old Sheriff ought to give notice to the new Sheriffs of all Executions which he hath againſt every perſon in his cuſtody, and the new Sheriffs are not to take notice of them at their perils; but if the Sheriffs hath divers perſons in his cuſtody in Execution and dieth, there the new Sheriffs are at their perils to take notice of all Executions againſt any parties which he ſhall find to be in the Gaol. But if the Sheriff dieth, and before another is made Sheriff one who is in Priſon in Execution doth eſcape, the Gaoler ſhall not be charged with ſuch eſcape, nor the Sheriff himſelf, ſelf, becauſe that then the Priſoners are in the cuſtody of the Law. Cook 5. part, 72. Weſtnes caſe.

7. In Audita Querela, the Plaintiff ſhewed, How that a Debt of 200. l. was recovered againſt him, upon which he was Outlawed, and afterwards by Capias utlagatum was taken in Execution, and being in Execution the Sheriff ſuffered him to eſcape, The Defendant pleaded, That after the ſaid eſcape, and before the Audita Querela brough the Outlawry was declared to be erronious, & ſo pleaded Nul tiel Record of the Outlawry. In this caſe amongſt other points it was reſolved. 1. That when an Erronious Judgement is given, and afterwards the Judgement is reverſed by Errour, collateral Acts are thereby barred: As if A. be in Execution at the ſuite of B. upon an Erroneous Judgement, and eſcapes, & afterwards the Judgement is reverſed by error, he may plead Nul tiel Record, but untill the Erronious Judgement be reverſed, the Sheriff ſhall not take benefit of it. But in the ſame caſe, if the Plaintiff bringeth an Action againſt the Sheriff upon the eſcape, & hath Judgment and Execution, and afterwards the Judgment is reverſed for Error, yet becauſe the Judgment is executed, notwithſtanding the revertal of firſt, the ſame ſhall ſtand in force. 2. Reſolved, that becauſe the Judgement to reverſe the Outlawry is declaratory, which declares the Outlawry to be of no effect; becauſe the Exigent which was the Ground of the Outlawry wanted ſubſtance, that when the ſame is ſo declared by the Court it is void ab initio. Cook 8. part, 141. 142. in Dr Downes caſe.

8. In an action upon the Caſe brought againſt a Common Inn-keeper it was reſolved, That if a man cometh to a Common Inn, and giveth his horſe to the Hoſtler, and requires him to put him to Paſture, which he doth, and the horſe is ſtollen, the Inn-keeper ſhall not anſwer for it, becauſe it is not infra Hoſpitium: but if the Inn-keeper putteth the horſe to graſſe without requeſt, and the horſe is ſtollen, the Inn-keeper ſhall anſwer for it. 2. Reſolved, that if one be Lodged with one who is not an Inn keeper upon requeſt, and the goods of the party Lodged be ſtollen by the ſervants of him who Lodgeth him, the Maſter ſhall not anſwer for ſuch goods 3. Reſolved, That an Inn-keeper ſhall not anſwer for goods unleſſe default be in him, or his ſervants in the ſafe cuſtody of them; for an In-keeper ought to keep ſafe all the goods of his Gueſts which come into his houſe; and in an Action brought for ſuch goods loſt, it is no plea for him to ſay that he delivered the Key of the Chamber to the Gueſt, and he in ſuch caſe ſhall be charged although the goods were not delivered unto him; But if a ſtranger at the requeſt of the Gueſt Lodge with him, and then the goods be ſtollen, or loſt, in ſuch caſe the Inn-keeper ſhall not be charged with ſuch goods, Cook 8. part, 32 Calyes caſe.

9. A. Delivered money to his ſervant to provide Victuals, the ſervant bought the Victuals in his Maſters name, and paid not for them, and afterwards an Action was brought againſt the Maſter for the money, and her would have waged his Law; It was the opinion of the Court, that he could not ſafely wage his Law, becauſe the Victuals came to his own uſe, and therefore he is chargeable for them, and muſt have his remedy againſt his ſervant: But it was holden, That if a Maſter doth forbid a Tradeſman to deliver wares to his man, except his man paid for them, In ſuch caſe, If the Tradeſman doth deliver wares to the ſervant, who payes not for them, in ſuch caſe in an Action brought againſt the Maſter for the wares he may wage his Law, as it was adjudged in Sir Henry Countons caſe. Paſc. 10 Jac. in Co. B. Sir Hen. Downys caſe. Brownlo 1. part, 64.

10. In an action upon the caſe, the caſe was. The Defendant being a Goldſmith in London, and having counterfeit Jewels, knowing them to be counterfeit, ſent his ſervant I. S with them to the Plaintiff being a Merchant in Barbary, to make ſale of the Jewels to the King of Barbary, to whom the Plaintiff ſold them for 800 l. I. S. having the money went from thence, The Jewels afterwards being diſcovered to be counterfeit, the party being impriſoned for the ſale of them was forced to make reſtitution to the King of Barbary: It was agreed by the Juſtices in this caſe, That although the Defendant did not command I. S. his ſervant to make uſe of the Plaintiff, and although that the Jewels were of ſome value, viz. 100 l. yet that the Action did well lye againſt the Maſter, and that the Maſter ſhould anſwer for his ſervant; In that caſe, It was ſaid, That if a Goldſmith makes Plate wherein he mingles droſſe, ſo as it is not according to the Standard, and ſends his ſervant to a Fair to ſell it, who ſelleth it for good plate according to the Standard, that in this caſe an action upon the caſe lieth againſt the Maſter. Tr. 16. Jac. in B R. Pooh. 143. Southcot and Hare's caſe. Cro. 2. part, 469. the ſame caſe 1. vide Bridgeman 128 the ſame caſe.

11. In an Action of Debt brought by an Attorny againſt the Sollicitor of I. S. for Monies due to him for his Fees, It was thus. The Defendant being a Sollicitor retained the Plaintiff as Attorny, and for Fees unpaid, the Plaintiff brought Debt againſt the Sollicitor who retained him: It was moved in Arreſt of Judgement, That the judgment was Erronious: for although an Attorny may have Debt for his Fee and Monies which he diſburſeth, yet it ought to be againſt him for whom he is Attorny, who is the Maſter, and not againſt the ſervant or Sollicitor who onely retained him, nor hath any profit thereby. But it was overruled upon reading of the Record, that the ſervant retaining him, Capiendo of him the ſaid Fees, It is a good Contract, and that the Action well lyes againſt the Sollicitor or ſervant: and it was compared to the Caſe, Simſon's Caſe, where one promiſed a Taylor, That if he will make a Garment for one of his ſervants, he will pay him, that an Action of Debt or Aſſumpſit lyes in that Caſe againſt the Maſter. Hill. 16. Iac. in B. R. Bradford and Woodhouſe's Caſe. Cro 2. part, 520. 521.

12. In an Action upon the Caſe upon an Aſſumpſit, the Plaintiff declared of an Aſſumpſit made to the Plaintiff, and the Jury found, That the promiſe was made to I. S. who the Plaintiff ſent, and appointed ad Compoundum & agreandum the Debt between the Defendant and the Plaintiff. Whereupon, the Defendant made the promiſe to the ſervant. In this Caſe, It was adjudged, that it was a promiſe to the Maſter himſelf. For it was ſaid, That an Aſſumpſit to the ſervant for the Maſter, is good to the Maſter; And an Aſſumpſit by the appointment of the Maſter of the ſervant ſhall bind the Maſter: And if my Bayliff of my Mannor buy Cattel to ſtock my grounds, I ſhall be chargeable in an Action of Debt for the money. 27. Aſſ. acc. And if my Bayliff ſells Corn, I ſhall have an Action of Debt for the money. For whatſoever comes within the compaſſe of the ſervants ſervice I ſhall be chargeable with, becauſe I have advantage of the ſame. If a ſervant ſelleth a Horſe with Warranty, it is the ſale and Contract of the Maſter; but it is the Warranty of the ſervant, unleſſe the Maſter giveth him authority to Warrant it, for a Warranty is void, which is not made and annexed to the Contract; but if the Maſter do agree after to it, it ſhall be ſaid the Warranty of the Maſter ab initio. It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Tr. 21. Jac. in B. R. Sigaior and Woolmers caſe. Godbt. 360.

13. In an Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That he was poſſeſſed of an Ewer of ſilver of the value of 500. l. and did give the ſame to A. to tranſport beyond ſea, and to ſell the ſame there, and to give an accompt thereof to him. And ſhewed that A. had broken it, and converted it to his own uſe, whereupon the Plaintiff brought his Action againſt A. ad damnum 400. l. upon which they were at Iſſue, and the Jury gave damages but 200 l. In this Caſe it was adjudged, That the Action would not lye, and chiefly becauſe the value of ſuch things are ſo uncertain, that ſome perſons value them higher than others. M. 39. Eliz. in Co. B. Davenport and Simpſons caſe. Bridgeman 129. vid. before Southern and Howes caſe.

14. In an accompt the Plaintiff charged the Defendant was Bayliff of his ſhop curam habens & adminiſtrationem omnium bonorum; the Defendant anſwered to the goods onely, and not to the ſhop: It was the opinion of the Court that it was not good, but that he ought to anſwer to all, and in that caſe this difference was taken for Law. That if one chargeth me as Bayliff of his goods ad Mercatandum, that in ſuch caſe I ſhall anſwer for the encreaſe; but if he chargeth me as Receiver ad Computandum, I ſhall anſwer but for the money or the bare thing which was delivered M. 29. 1. In what Caſe the Maſter may bring an Action for a wrong done to his ſervant: where Treſpaſſe lieth by him for taking away his ſervants: And what Acts or things the ſervant may do, and juſtifie in the right of his Maſter: And where, and for what an Action lieth by the ſervant, or other his friends againſt the Maſter.

1. IN an action upon the caſe the Plaintiff declared upon the cuſtom of the Realm, that Inkeepers ought to keep their Gueſts goods ſafely without ſubſtraction, and the Plaintiff ſhewed, that A. his ſervant Lodged at the Defendants houſe being a common Inn; and that he having a Bag of Money there of the Plaintiffs of 60. l. Quidam Maleſactores in default of the Defendant, and his ſervants, carried the ſame away: It being upon a Not guilty found for the Plaintiff and Judgement, Error was brought, and aſſigned for Error, That the Action ought to have been brought by the ſervant and not by the Maſter. But it was reſolved, that although the Maſter was not here the Gueſt, but the ſervant; yet that the Action was well brought by the Maſter: and ſo it was ſaid, It had been oftentimes reſolved: The Judgement was affirmed in the Exchequer Chamber. Tr. 7. Jac. Beadle and Morrices caſe. Cro. 2. part, 223. 224 vide Cook Entry 347.

2. In Treſpaſſe, Quare vi & armis, ſuch a one being his ſervant cepit & abduxit at D. in the County of E. The Defendant pleaded that he was a Vagrant in the ſame County, and how he not having notice that he was ſervant to another, he retained him. It was moved, If I retain a ſervant of another man in the ſame County where I and his Maſter inhabit, that this is not juſtifiable, though though in truth I had not notice of that, vide 19. E. 3. 48. Hob. Chief Juſtice ſaid, perhaps the Book may be ſo, and not Law, for it is a hard matter to make me take Notice of every ſervant which is retained in the ſame County, and yet perhaps if this retainer be upon the Statute of Laborers, I ought to take Notice of that at my peril, but it is otherwiſe of a private retainer, for although it be within the County, yet being a private matter in fact the Law will not compel me to take Notice of that at my peril, to which Winch Juſtice agreed. It was ſaid in this caſe by the Juſtices, That the receiving and retaining of a Servant, may not be ſaid to be vi & armis. M. 20. Jac. in Co. B. Winch 51.

3. In Debt upon ſeveral accompts of diverſe ſorts of Wares ſold at ſeveral times, and upon ſeveral retainers at ſeveral days to do ſeveral ſorts of works. One was alleged that he ſhould retain I. S. the Plaintiffs ſervant, to work with him for four days, Capiendo pro ſalario ſuo quolibet die 2 s. per quod ille accrevit, to demand 10 s. The action was brought by the Maſter, the Defendant pleaded Non debet; Judgement was for the Plaintiff, and Error brought. For Error it was aſſigned, That the Action lies not for the Maſter for the retainer of the ſervant. And it is not alleged that he did the ſervice for his Maſter, but for himſelf, and the retaining of the ſervant is for his own proper labour; It was the opinion of the Court, that the Action did not lye, and the judgement was reverſed. Hill. 20. Jac. in B. A. Treſwell and Middleton's caſe. Cro. 2 part, 653.

4. In Treſpaſſe of Aſſault and Battery, the Defendant juſtified in defence of his ſervant, that the Plaintiff Aſſaulted his ſervant, and would have beaten him; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was the better opinion of the Court, that the Barr was good, for the Maſter may defend his ſervant, for otherwiſe he may loſe his ſervice. And a man may uſe force in defence of his goods if another take them, and ſo a man may defend his ſon or ſervant, but he cannot break the peace for them, vide 19. H. 6. 31. 9. Eliz. 4. 43. Tr. 12. 5. In an Action brought the Plaintiff declared, that the Defendant ſuch a day did aſſault, and beat his Wife, of which ſhe dyed ſuch a day following, to his damage of 100. l. In this caſe, It was agreed for Law, That if one beat the ſervant of I. S. ſo that he dyeth of that beating, the Maſter ſhall not have an Action againſt the other for that Battery, and loſſe of his ſervant, for that the ſervant dying of the extremity of the beating it is now become an Offence againſt the Crown and turned into Felony, and this hath drowned the particular offence & prevails over the wrong done to the Maſter before: And ſo in the principal caſe the Action is gone by the death of the Wife, and turned into Felony, and if the Woman had not died, yet the Action brought by the Huſband alone had not been good, but it ought to have been brought in both their names. Tr. 4. Jac. in B. R. Higgons and Butchers caſe. Rowl. 2 part 205.

6. In Debt upon an Obligation; The condition was, That whereas I. S. had bound himſelf Apprentice to the Defendant for 8. years; the Defendant did Covenant with the Plaintiff, that he would retain, teach, keep, and imploy the ſaid Apprentice in his own houſe and ſervice in the Art of Chirurgery during the Term; and ſhewed, that within the Term, the Defendant ſent the Apprentice in a Voyage to Bantam in the Eaſt-Indies; which the Defendant pleaded to be in the Company of expect Chirurgeons the better to learn the Art: upon which the Plaintiff demurred; In this Caſe, It was adjudged for the Plaintiff, for it was expreſly againſt his Covenant; for although the Covenant were not ſo reſtrained to his houſe, but that he might ſend him to other places about his Cures: yet he muſt ſtill be one of his houſhold, and not put over to others; and in this caſe it was holden, That no man can force an Apprentice to go out of the Kingdom, except it be ſo expreſly agreed, or that the nature of the Apprentiſhip doth import it, as to be Apprentice to a Merchant Adventurer, Sayler, or the like Hill. 13. Jac. in Co. B. Coventry and Woodhalls caſe, Hob. 134.

7. In an Action for a falſe Impriſonment for ſix dayes, The Defendant juſtified by a Warrant from the Sheriff of S. who directed his Warrant to his Bayliff to execute it, who arreſted the Plaintiff, and required the Defendant to be aiding and aſſiſting to him which is the ſame. It was demurred upon the Plea, becauſe it was not pleaded, that the Writ was executed and returned, for the Writ is Conditional, Ita quod Habeas Corpus in Curia tali die, &c. And therefore if the Sheriff himſelf will juſtifie, it is no Plea without ſhewing the Return of the Writ, and the Bayliff ſhall not be in better condition than his Maſter. The Court ſaid, It is true, the Sheriff ought to Return his Writ, otherwiſe his Juſtification is not good; but it is not ſo with his Bailiff, or Servant; for he hath no means to enforce the Sheriff to make Return thereof; and that which he did was legally done, and it ſhall not be made illegal by the Sheriffs Act in not returning the Writ. 8. A Copy-holder in Fee, made a Letter of Attor-

Attorney to two Tenants of the Mannor to surrender his Copy-hold to the use of I. S. and his Heirs, who at the next Court brought in the surrender in Court, and did accordingly, no custom being found to Warrant such surrender; It was resolved, that the surrender was good, because he might so do de communi jure, without any custom. But it was there resolved, That when any one hath any Authority, either as Attorney, or Servant to any other to do any Act, there he must pursue it in the name of him who giveth him the Authority, and not in his own name. Cook 9. part, 75. 76. in Combes case.

9. In Trespasse, the Plaintiff declared of breaking of his Close, and beating of his Servant, and did not say per quod servitium amisit. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty, and the Jury found him guilty generally, and assessed damages entirely, whereupon Error was brought, and that assigned for Error, because No damages ought to have been given for the battery of the Servant, because he did not allege that thereby he lost his service; and it was adjudged Error, for when damages are entirely assessed, it shall be intended for all that which the Plaintiff complains of; and in that case the Jurors ought to have assessed the damages severally, and particularly for the breaking of the Close entire, and then it had been good. 15. Melius Inquirendum.

Where it lieth, where not: And for what Cause awarded; and what is to be found upon it, and where it shall be void, where not.

1. Melius Inquirendum is a Writ, which is directed unto the Escheator for a second Enquiry to be made, when there is any doubt made of the partiality of any Enquiry made upon a Diem clausit extremum, after the death of the Kings Tenant. Also this Writ lieth, Where the Escheator in the Inquisition doth not specify, what Estate the Tenant had in the Lands; Or because he doth not shew in the Office of whom the Lands are holden, or doth not mention the true value of them, and the King is informed that they are of greater value than they are certified by the Office: And this Writ lieth upon a surmise that the Tenant was seised of other Lands, or of other Estate than what is mentioned in the Office. Fitz. N. B. 255.

2. Upon a Commission in the nature of a Diem clausit extremum, A Tenure was returned of the Queen as of the Barony of S. in Socage. After a second Commission a Tenure was found by Knights Service as of the said Barony. After that a third Commission issued, reciting, quod Compertum est per Inquisitionem capt. post mortem A. tempor. H. 5. that the said Land was holden of the King in Capite, prout per praefat. Inquis. tempor. H. 5 liquet: In this case it was holden by the Court, that the Heir needs not to traverse the two last Inquisitions for that they were without warrant, but the first Office though against the Queen shall be allowed till disproved by a Scire facias. Pasc. 8. Eliz. Dyer 248. Bassets case.

3. Upon a Diem clausit extremum, It was found that the Lands were holden of the King, but by what Services the Jurors do not know. Whereupon a Melius inquirendum issued, and upon that It was found that the Lands were holden of a Subject; It was the opinion of the Court, that in that case, the first Office needed not to be traversed, for that it was void by the Statute of 2 and 3 E. 6. cap. 8. and in that case, It was said, That the Melius is in the nature of the first Diem clausit extremum. Tr. 13 Eliz. Dyer 292.

4. King Hen. the 8. gave Lands in tail to T. C. the remainder to I. C. T. C. was attainted of Treason, & by Parliament the Lands were given to the King without Office saving all Rights &c. of Strangers. The King seised of the Land granted the same to B. in Fee. T. C. died without Issue, I. C. entred, and being ousted by B. brought a Writ of Entre sur Disseisin and counted that he was seised at de libero tenito, B. shewed all this matter and of the descent of the Seignory to Ed. 6 and prayed in aid of him, and there were four searches in Chancery. Depending which a Mandamus issued at the suit of B. upon which the grant in tail to T. C. was only found: and a false Date of the Letters Pat. and the attainder, and that the King was seised and granted to B. Afterwards upon a Melius &c. the very Date was found, found, but the attainder and execution were found before the grant upon a miſpriſal of the change of the year the raign, upon which Retorn, for the manifold untruths a Procedendo was awarded. The Plaintiff took a Traverſe, That the Queen was not ſeiſed in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo: upon which they were at Iſſue. It was the opinion of the Court, that the matter in Law did maintain the Iſſue; For the baſe Fee of the King was determined by the death of J. C. without Iſſue, and that he was not ſeiſed in point of Reverter, becauſe of the mean Intereſt, and the remainder and entry of the Demandant was ſaved by the Act; wherefore the Defendant afterwards confeſſed the Action. Tr. 2 Ma. Dyer 101. Culpepers caſe.

5 It was found by Diem clauſit extremum, after the death of R. W. that the ſaid R. the day that he died was ſeiſed of the moity of the Mannor of Trewalliard, and of ſuch Eſtate died ſeiſed. and that the ſaid moity of the ſaid Mannor, 19 E. 3. was then holden of the Prince as of his Caſtle of D. parcel of the Dutchy of Cornwall by Knigh Service, as appeareth by an exemplification of D. 19 E. 3. and the Words of the extent were; VV. de T. tenet duo feoda & domid. multis apud P. Strickleſtone & Frewalliard per Servitium Militare & per reddit. per ann. 8 d. It was reſolved by the Juſtices in this caſe, That the Office concerning the Tenure was inſufficient and void, becauſe the Verdict of a Jury ought to be full and direct, and not with a prout, for upon that the whole force of their Verdict lieth upon the extent, which if it be falſe, he who is grieved hath no remedy by traverſe, for they have not found the Tenure indefinite which might be traverſed, but with a prout patet; which makes the Office in that point inſufficient. But upon that the Court was of opinion that a Melius Inquirendum ſhould be awarded. Tr. 7 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Cook, Select caſes 72. vid. Leo. 16. accord. the ſame caſe.

6. Note, It was reſolved by the Juſtices, That if an Office be found againſt the King, and a Melius Inquirendum is awarded, and in that the finding is for the King, but the Melius is void for repugnancy in the Writ; that there a new Writ of Melius ſhall be awarded; but if upon the Writ of Melius it be found againſt the King, there the King ſhall not have a new Writ of Melius Inquirendum, for then there would be no end of ſuch Writs; And if an Office be found for the King, the party grieved may traverſe it, and if the traverſe be found againſt him, it makes an end of the buſineſſe; So if it be found for him who traverſeth it, it ſhall bind the King. In that Caſe, it is put: If a Diem clauſit extremum, or a Mandamus be awarded, and it is found againſt the King, No new Writ of Diem clauſit &c. or Mandamus ſhall iſſue forth: But a Melius Inquirendum ſhall iſſue: But no Melius ſhall be awarded after Office found againſt the King without view of ſome Record, or other pregnant matter for the King, for avoiding vexation of the Subject. Cook 8 part, 169. Pain Staughters caſe, vid. Leo. 8 Jac. in Cur. Ward, 26. Gardiner's caſe, acc.

7. Upon a Diem clauſit extremum 32 Eliz. It was found that A. S. was ſeiſed in Fee of three Meſſuages &c. and ſo ſeiſed, made his laſt Will in writing, in hac verba, Item I give &c. and after the Jury found ſeveral Tenures in Socage of Common perſons, and no Lands holden of the King: then they ſay further, that predict. A. S. obiit circa 23. diem Aprilis ultimo praeterit. and that T. S. is his Son and next Heir. Afterwards 5 Jac. a Writ of Mandamus is awarded, whereby part of the ſaid Lands are found to be holden at the death of the ſaid A. S. of the late Queen in Capite by Knights Service, and at the time of the taking of the ſaid Laſt Inquiſition, were holden of the King by Knights Service: the Queſtion was, whether the firſt Office were void, or only voidable no dying ſeiſed being found. 2. Whether the Mandamus was well awarded before the firſt Office was avoided by matter of Record; It was Reſolved, That the Office finding no dying ſeiſed, and only a Tenure of common perſons was meerly void, but if a Tenure had been found of the King in Capite, or Knights Service, if no dying ſeiſed had been found, yet the Office had been but voidable; And a Melius inquirendum ſhould have been awarded to Enquire of the Eſtate whereof he died ſeiſed; Otherwiſe it is where no Tenure is found of the King: In the principal caſe it was holden the firſt Office was void; the Mandamus well awarded, and the ſecond Office good. Paſc. 9 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Shallock's caſe.

8. Upon a Mandamus after the death of J. Fotz. It was found that die obitus, he was ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannor called Sattons Mannor in B. and being ſo ſeiſed, poſtea, ſc. 10. Martii 42 Eliz. he did thereof infeoff one W. to the uſe of himſelf for life, the remainder to C. in Fee; and then concludes Quod predict. I. Ion. de omnibus dict. præmiſſ. ſic. modo & forma ſic ſeitus de tali ſtatu ſuo in eiſdem obiit inde ſeitus 12. Martii 2. Jac. It was reſolved by the Juſtices, that this Office was bad for repugnancy of the finding of the Eſtate whereof he died ſeiſed. Tr. 12 Jac. in Cur. Ward. Fotz caſe, Holt 38.

9. Ac-

9. An Office was found by Commissioners after the death of W. B. at C. whereupon a Melius &c. went forth and recited but thus, Cum per quandam Inquisitionem captam apud C. coram eis existit, and doth not say that it was either by Commission or Writ, or before whom &c. It was the opinion of the Justices that it was void; and the Office that was taken upon the Melius; For by the Melius it must appear that the first Office was by Warrant; But if it had been Virtute Commissionis, or De Mandato nostro, which is understood by Writ, it would have been good, although it be not said before whom. Tr. 12 Iac. in Cur. Ward. Dawtrye's case, Hob. 38.

10. And Office was found by Mandamus before the Escheator of L. in Cornwall, after the death of C. that he died seised of certain Lands (sed de quo, vel de quibus, vel per quæ servitia ignorant) whereupon a Melius was awarded reciting the place and time of the former Inquisition virtute Brevis de Mandamus, and that Ignorant was found of the Tenure, and say not that it was found before the Escheator, and then proceed, Et quia accepimus, that the said Lands or some of them were holden by Knights Service in Chief, Tibi Præcipimus, that you enquire whether the said Lands or any of them be so holden. It was the opinion of the Justices that the want of coram was not enough, because it was Virtute Brevis, which must be before the Escheator: But they held the Writ vicious because in an Ignavimus, the Enquire of the Tenure ought to be free and at Large, and not to be restreined to the Kings Tenure only. Tr. 12 Iac. in Cur. Ward. Castices case, Hob. 73.

11. Note, It was agreed by the Council of the Court of Wards, That what the Statute of 32 H. 8 gives Wardship in case where Land is conveyed for the advancement of the Wife or Infants, or for satisfaction of the Debts and Legacies of the partie by implication of the same Statute, that this may be found by inquisition; And if it be omitted in the inquisition, it may be found by a Melius Inquirendum, but not come in by a bare surmise; and therefore if in the Inquisition it be found, that the Ancestor conveyed his Land, by the Melius Inquirendum it may be found that it was for the payment of his Debts or Legacies, Or that the party to whom, or to whose use it was made, was the Son, or Wife of the party that made it. And so it shall be if one be found to be Heir on the part of the Mother, but they know not who is Heir to the party of the Father; a Melius Inquirendum may be awarded in such Case. Tr. 36 Eliz. in the Court of Wards, Smiths case, Pasch. 54 55.

Mesne and Meanalty.

Mesne, For whom and against whom it lieth, and where the Mesne shall put in his Cattel in the pound for the Tent, and for what it lieth, and for what not.

1. THe Writ of Mesne lieth; in Case where there is Lord, Mesne, and Tenant, and each of them holdeth by ouelty of services, as by Homage, Fealty and 20. s. Rent or the like, yearly to be paid: Now if the Tenant be distreyned by the Lord Paramount for the services of the Mesne which are behind, Then the Tenant may have a Writ of Mesne against his Lord who is the Mesne; and if he be distreyned, he shall herein recover his damages, otherwise not.

2. If there be Lord, Mesne and Tenant, and the Tenant is distreyned by the Lord for the default of the Mesne, and his Cattel be impounded, for which he brings a Replevin, and the Lord avoweth upon a Stranger: In that Case the Tenant may have a Writ of Mesne against his Lord the Mesne, and yet the Mesne cannot joyn with the Tenant in pleading because the avowry is made upon a Stranger. 13 Ed. 4. 6. acc. And a man may bring a Writ of Mesne before he be distreyned, and the Writ is maintainable, but then he shall not recover damages: For the Writ is brought only to recover the Acquittaile 7 H. 4. 12. But if the Mesne hath paid the services, to the Lord Paramount, yet if the Tenant be afterwards distreyned for those services, he shall have a Writ of Mesne; and in that Case, though it hath been a Question, if he shall recover damages; yet the better opinion of the Books hath been, that he shall have damages, because the Mesne shall have damages against the Lord Paramount, if he will put his Cattel in the Pound for the Tenant, and for ſue a Replevin. Vid. 38 H. 6. 12. by Priſot 50 E. 3. 23. And, Note, that the Meſne cannot have a Writ of Meſne againſt his Lord, till the Tenant hath brought his Writ of Meſne againſt him.

3. The Writ of Meſne lieth, and is maintenable, againſt the heir of the Meſne, where his Anceſtors have granted the Services of the Tenement by Fine, if the Tenant hath not attorned according to the Fine: for he ſhall not be compelled to attorn without granting Acquittal unto him, 40 E. 7. 7. 12 E. 4. 4. by Brian. But if there be Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, and the Meſne grants the Meanalty for life, the remainder over, and the Grantee brings a Per quæ ſervitia, againſt the Tenant to attorn, and the Tenant is ready to attorn, ſaving to him the advantage of his Acquittal: And the Tenant attorns, and afterwards the Grantee for life dieth. The Grantee in the remainder ſhall not diſtreyn the Tenant for the Services, until he hath granted him Acquittal, becauſe otherwiſe he ſhould be twice charged, viz. by the Lord and the Meſne, and he ſhould never have his Acquittal, 18 E. 4. 7. acc.

4. Note, when there is Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, and the Meſne payeth the Rent, and doth the Services to the Lord, and yet the Lord diſtreyneth the Tenant per avail for them, and impoundeth his Cattel, In this Caſe the Tenant may preſently repair to his Meſne, and relate the caſe to him, and pray him to acquit him; & thereupon the Law giveth power unto the Meſne, to go to the Pound, and to take the Cattel of the Tenant per avail out of the Pound, and to put his own Cattel in the Pound inſtead of them, and to ſue a Replevin and ſo make him parly, and then if the Lord will avowe upon a Stranger, he may ſhew the truth of the matter, and abate his feigned avowry made upon the Stranger, and compel the Lord to avow upon him as his very Tenant in Law: And although not diſtreyned in his default is a good plea in a Writ of Meſne, yet if the Meſne will not do it upon Requeſt, the Tenant upon the matter is diſtreyned in his default; and if the Lord in ſuch Caſe will not ſuffer the Meſne to take the Cattel out of the Pound, he is a Treſpaſſer ab initio. Cook 9. part, 22. in the caſe of Avowry.

5. If there be Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, and the Meſne doth his Services to the Lord Paramount, and yet the Lord doth diſtreyn the Tenant for them, Now the diſtreſs is tortious, and the Tenant is not diſtreyned in default of the Meſne: but in this Caſe, If the Tenant per avail Requeſt the Meſne to to take his Cattel not of the Pound, and put in his own Cattel in lieu of them, Or if the Tenant hath a Replevin of his Cattel, and Requeſteth the Meſne to joyn and acquit him, and he refuſeth, now by this matter, Ex poſt facto, the Law ſhall adjudge, that the Tenant was deſtreyned on the default of the Meſne, and if in a Writ of Meſne he pleads Not diſtreyned in his default, it ſhall be found againſt him, otherwiſe the Tenant ſhould be in no default and and ſhould have wrong, and yet be without remedy for the wrongfull diſtreſs. Cook 9. part 110, 111. in Ateziel Treſham's Caſe, in fine.

6. Note, by Hobart Chief Juſtice in the Caſe of Sir Hen. Rolls and Osborn. Tr. 9 Jac. Hob. 21. That a Second and Third Meane Lord, may have a Writ of Meſne as well as the Tenant in Demeſne. And if in a Writt of Meſne, The Defendant plead, Not diſtreyned in his default, if he will proceed to prove that he was diſtreyned in his default and fail, he ſhall be barred. Hob. 193. in Burkhead and the Arch-Biſhop of York's Caſe.

7. If a Seignory be granted to Husband and Wife, and to the Heirs of the Husband, and in a Per quæ ſervitia ſued againſt them, the Tenant will not attorn, unleſſe they will grant to acquit him, For which the Husband grants for him and his Heirs, to acquit the Tenant and his Heirs, and afterwards the Husband dieth, The Tenant may bring a Writ of Meſne againſt the Heir of the Husband during the life of the Wife, who was Tenant for life, and it ſhall be good. Vid. Fitz. N. B. acc.

8. In a Writ of Meſne brought againſt Huſband and Wife, they made default at the Grand Diſtreſſe, upon which the Plaintiff ſued Proclamation, and at the day the Proclamation was teſtified, and the Husband and Wife were demanded and appeared not. For which the Plaintiff prayd that they might be forejudged. It was ſaid by the Court, that it was not reaſon that the Wife ſhould be forejudged of her Seignory for the default of the Husband, eſpecially where he may have his Action at the Common Law. Cook 9. part 73. in Faſton's Caſe.

2. Where upon the Determination of the Meanalty the Tenant ſhall hold by the ſame Services as the Meſne held, where not; And where by purchaſe of the Tenancy the Meanalty ſhall be extinct, and what ſhall follow upon it.

1. THe King Lord, Meſne and Tenant: The Meanalty is a Mannor and holden of the King in Capite. Le Tenant Per avail who holdeth of the Mannor by Socage-tenure, obtayns a Releaſe of the Meſne. It was the opinion of the Juſtices in that Caſe, his Tenure ſhould be immediately of the King in Capite, as the Tenure of the Mannor was. Mich. 20 Eliz. Dyer 359.

2. If there be Lord and Tenant, and the Rent is behind, and the Tenant makes a Feoffment in Fee, If the Lord accept the Rent or Service of the Feoffee, he ſhall loſe all the arrerages in the time of the Feoffor, although he make no Acquittance, for after ſuch acceptance he ſhall not avow upon the Feoffor at all, nor upon the Feoffee, but for the Services which incurred in his time. But if the Feoffor dieth, although that the Lord accept of the Rent or Services by the hand of the Feoffee, he ſhall not loſe the Arrerages, for that now the Lord cannot avow upon any other but the Feoffee; And ſo it is, If there be Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, and the Rent due by the Meſne is behind, and afterwards the Tenant doth forjudge the Meſne, and the Lord receiveth the Services of the Meſne, which now iſſue immediately out of the Tenancy, yet he ſhall not be barred of his Arrerages which iſſued out of the Meanalty. Cook 3. part, 66. in Penant's Caſe.

3. If a Menalty become Rent-ſeck by ſurpluſage, It is ſaid that the Antient ſeiſin is ſufficient, For the Meanalty is extinct by the Act of the Lord, and the Tenant per avail, and the nature of the Rent of the Meſne is not altered by his own Act, but by the Act of others, and therefore although the Rent be become ſeck, yet he ſhall diſtreyn for it. 2 E. 2. Extinguiſhment 6. Cook 4. part, 9. in Bevils Caſe.

4. The King Lord, two Tenants in Common Meſnes, and Tenant, One of the Meſnes made a Feoffement of the moity of his Meanalty, to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to his Son in Tail, the Remainder to his Right Heirs; The Tenant made a Feoffement of the Tenancy to the Son; and afterwards the Son by Colluſion betwixt him and the Father enfeoffed the Father and his Heirs to the intent to defraud the Meſne of the ward, and died his Heir within age: It was Reſolved in this Caſe (amongſt other points) That by the Feoffment of the Tenant the Meanalty was extinct, becauſe the Feoffee had the Reverſion of the Meanalty, and the Reverſion being extinct no particular Eſtate of the Meanalty, either for life or in tail can remain. Paſch. 9 Jac. in Car. Ward. Cook 9 119. Quick's Caſe.

5. The Caſe was, the King Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, The Meſne held in Capite, and the Tenant in Socage, The Meſne granted the Meanalty to the uſe of himſelf for life, the Remainder to the Tenant per avail in Tail: It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Meanalty was not ſuſpended, for although the Remainder veſted preſently, Yet that could not ſuſpend the Franktenement of the Rent during the life of the Tenant for life, becauſe that the Tenant for life is Tenant to the Lord, and the Lord ſhall avow upon him during his life, and during his life, the Heir of him in the Remainder ſhall not be in Ward: But if the Meſne grant his Meanalty for life, or in Tail, the Remainder to the Tenant per avail in Fee, there the Meanalty is extinct, becauſe he hath as great Eſtate in the Meanalty as he had in the Tenancy, and there is no poſſibility of Reviving the Meanalty. Cook 9. part, 133. Aſtrey's Caſe.

6. Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, The Meſne held of the King in Capite, in Socage, and the Tenant held of the Meſne in Socage, the Tenant is attainted of Treaſon, the King ſeiſed, and by his Letters Patents granted the Tenancy to I. S. Tenend. de nobis & hæred. noſtris per ſervitium Militare & faciendo alia Capitalibus Dominis feodi ſi qui fuerint reddita & ſervitia que inde debebantur antequam ad manus noſtras taliter devenerunt; It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That the Tenure of the Meſne ſhould be Revived, although that the King by his Letters Patents in the firſt place had reſerved to him other Services, becauſe the King for his honor and for the advancement of ancient Right expreſſely intended that the Meanalty ſhould be revived, and therefore the Clauſe of the Revivor of the Meanalty ſhall be preſerved, and the Tenant per avail ſhall hold of the Meſne, as he held before the attainder, and the reſtitution of the antient right ſhall be preferred.

Note,

7. Note, There is a difference between Actions real which are founded upon a Title in the Writ, and Actions meerly founded upon Wrong and Deforcement. Real Actions which are founded upon Title; Writs, where in the titles are, are Writs of Eſcheat, Writs of Ceſſavit, Writs of Meſne &c. Writs of Formdon, in the Remainder, Deſcender, and Reverter; If before the Statute of Quia Emptores terrarum, B. had Enfeoffed A. of black Acre to hold by Fealtie, and 8. d. & afterwards by another Deed had Enteoffed him of white Acre to hold by Fealtie, and 6. d. And afterwards A. had died without Heir, B. ſhould not have one Writ of Eſcheat for both theſe two Acres, but the demandant is driven to ſeveral Writs upon the ſeveral Tenures: So upon ſeveral Tenures the Tenant ſhall have ſeveral Writs of Meſne againſt the Meſne, and ſhall not joyn them in one Writ. 2. H. 5. 2. Cook 8. part, 86. in Backmers caſe.

8. Note, It was the opinion of Priſot, and of all the Court in 39. H. 6. 30. That in a Writ of Meſne the Plaintiff ought to ſurmiſe the Tenure, between the Lord Paramount and the Meſne, as between the Meſne and the Tenant, Cook 4. part, 93. in Sladers caſe.

9. In a Writ of Meſne, the Proceſſe by the Common Law was Diſtreſſe infinite; and although the Statute of weſt. 2. cap. 9. giveth more ſpeedy Proceſſe, and in the end for judger. Yet the Plaintiff in that Action may take what Proceſſe he will, either at the Common Law, or upon the Statute, becauſe both are in the affirmative. Vide Cook 11. part, 64. in Dr. Foſters caſe.

10. If a man have his judgement to recover his Acquital in a Writ of Meſne, if he be not after acquitted, he ſhall have a Diſtringas ad acquietandum againſt the Meſne, if it be ten years after the judgement given. F. B. 137. And a Scire facias againſt the Lord. 14. E. 3. Fitz. Meſne 7.

11. If the Meſne do acknowledge Acquital by Fine, and after he ſueth a Scire facias thereupon, and he appeareth not at the Return of the Writ, Then ſhall iſſue forth a Writ of Diſtringas ad acquietandum, and ſo Writs infinite until he appear, and if he come in upon the Diſtringas, and cannot plead any thing, but that he ought to acquit him, then the Plaintiff ſhall recover dammages; But if upon the Diſtringas he come in and plead that he was not diſtrained in his default, which is found againſt him, he ſhall be for judged. 13 E. 2. fits Meſne 69.

12. In a Writ of Meſne brought by an Enfant, the paroll ſhall not demur for the Nonage of the Plaintiff, becauſe it is not reaſon that the Enfant ſhall be diſtrained for the ſervices of the Meſne during his Nonage, and ſhall not have any remedy till his full age, but for as much as his Nonage doth not priviledge him from the payment of Rent during his Nonage, the Law alſo will give remedy unto him during his Nonage. Cook 1 part, 85. in Conys caſe. vide Cook 6 part, 3. in Markall's caſe. acc.

13. Note, Cook 5. part, 105. in Aldens caſe, In a Replevin, In a Writ of Meſne, and in a Writ of Right of Ward, and in an Accompt againſt Gardian in Socage, It was reſolved, That Antient Demeſne was a good Plea, becauſe by common intendment the Realty may come in debate. Vide 8. E. 3. 26. Fitz. title Meſne 19. acc.

14. If there be Lord, Meſne, and Tenant, and Tenant is an Abbot, who holdeth of the Meſne by certain ſervices yearly, who hath not cauſe to have acquital againſt his Meſne by bringing a Writ of Meſne, In this caſe, If the Meſne confirmeth the eſtate which the Abbot hath in the Land, To have, and to hold in Frank almoigne; It is a good Confirmation, and then the Abbot ſhall hold of the Meſne in Frank almoigne, and the cauſe is, becauſe no new ſervice is reſerved, for all the other ſervices ſpecially mentioned are extinct; and no Rent is reſerved to the Meſne, but onely that the Abbot ſhall hold the Land of him, and that he did before the Confirmation. For he who holds in Frank almoigne ought not to do any Corporal ſervice, ſo as by this confirmation it appeareth that the Meſne did not reſerve to him any new ſervice, but that the Tenements are holden of him as they were holden before: and in this caſe the Abbot ſhall have a Writ, of Meſne, If he be diſtrained in his default, where as perhaps before he could not have any ſuch Writ. Miſnoſmer.

VVhere Writs ſhall abate by the Miſnoſmer of the County, Town, Perſon, or Place, where not, and who ſhall plead it, who not.

1. AN Aſſiſe was brought in the County of Middleſex in the Common Pleas, and the Writ was de libero tento in Cowly, and the Plaint was of 100. Acres of Land, 10. Acres of Meadow, 80. Acres of Paſture, and 10. Acres of Wood with the appertenances, &c. It was pleaded, that the Tenements, &c. were in Hellindon, and not in Cowly; and Judgement was demanded of the Writ, It was a queſtion if the Writ ſhould abate, The Court inclined to opinion it ſhould not, becauſe the Writ is but a ſuppoſal, ſcilt. de libero tento. M. 6. E. 6. Dyer 72.

2. In an Aſſiſe the Plaint was in D. tantum, and there are two Ds in the ſame County, and none without Addition; It was ſaid, that the Aſſiſe and Plaint was good enough, and the reaſon is, becauſe the Judgement in an Aſſiſe differs from other Writs, for that he ſhall recover ſeiſin of the thing put in Plaint by the view of the Recognitors of the Aſſiſe, and if the thing in the Plaint be ſo certain, that the Recognitors may put the Plaintiff in poſſeſſion of it, it is ſufficient. Paſc. 7. E. 6. Dyer 84.

3. A Writ of Partition was brought againſt the Duke of Suffolk, and his Wife, and others, per Randulphum Howard Armigerum, & Domi nam Annam Powes uxorem ejus, and ſo ſhe was named in the Writ: and Exception was taken to it Miſnoſmer of the Wife, becauſe ſhe ought to have been named onely by the name of her husband, and not otherwiſe. And it was the opinion of the whole Court that it was a good Exception, becauſe by the Law of God, the Wife is ſub poteſtate viri: and alſo her name of Dignity ſhall be changed, according to the degree of her Husband. Notwithſtanding the Curtiſie to the Ladies of Honour of the Court. Whereupon the Writ was abated, and a new Writ brought, to anſwer Randulpho H. & Annæ uxori ejus. Hill. 7. E. 6. Dyer 76.

4. A. Brought an Appeal of Murder of the death of her Husband againſt Margaret Old Caſtle, Spinſter; ſhe before the Return of the Exigent, appeared, and pleaded that ſhe was a Gentlewoman, and not Spinſter, and in truth ſhe was the Daughter of Sir Edw. Gorge Knight, and her husband was alſo a Gentleman: It was the opinion of the Court that it was not a ſufficient Addition; but becauſe ſhe had appeared, and purchaſed a Superſedeas to that Writ, the Court was of opinion that ſhe was eſtopped to plead that to the Writ: whereupon ſhe ſeeing the opinion of the Court pleaded Not guilty to the Felony. Tr. 7. E. 6. Dyer 88. Old Caſtles caſe.

5. A. Brought an Appeal of the death of his brother againſt I. S. of M. &c. as principal, and one Fortescue as acceſſary: whereas in truth, the Chriſtian name of the principal was T. S. the acceſſary F. appeared and pleaded, that there was no ſuch as I. S. in rerum natura, at the time of the Writ brought, nor ever after; It was the opinion of the Juſtices in this caſe, That although there be another I. S in another County, if the ſame be not in the Town of M. Or if the party were dead before the Writ brought, that the Writ was not good: and that the Plea was a good Plea. Hill. 13. Eliz. Dyer 349. vide 20. H. 6. 33. acc.

6. Note, It was reſolved by the Juſtices; That when a Writ abates by the Act or default of the Demandant himſelf as in miſinformation of the true name of the Defendant, or of the Town, Country, &c. there the Writ is abſolutely abated, and the Demandant ſhall never have a new Writ by Journeys Accompts: which is as it were but a Continuance of the firſt Writ: But where the Writ abates by the Default of the Clerk, as for falſe Latine, or other matter of Form, for that that is the Default of the Clerk, and not of the Demandant himſelf, there the Plaintiff may have a new Writ by Journeys Accompts. Cook 6. part, 10. in Sparrow's Caſe.

7. Note, It was ſaid, That the Law doth not favour Advantages of Miſnoſmer more than the ſtrict Rule of Law doth require, neither in Writs which ſhall be abated & new brought; nor in grants, or in other Conveyances in which the party hath not any remedy to have newer: And therefore if two be joyned in one Writ, the one ſhall not plead Miſnoſmer of the other.

In

In an Action brought againſt Husband and Wife the one ſhall not plead the Miſnoſmer of the other. In 33 E. 3. An Action of Treſpas was brought of a Treſpas in H. apud W. The Defendant pleaded, That it was nor Town, Hamlet, nor place known &c. The Plaintiff pleaded that it was, without ſhewing in certain, that it was either Town, Hamlet, or Place known; and taken to be good, in deteſtation of nice and dilatory Exceptions. Vid. Cook 6. part, 64. in Sir Malle Finches Caſe.

8. A Writ was brought Ad reſpondendum I. S. & Fidei Uxori ejus: The Defendant pleaded in Abatement of the Writ: Becauſe the Wife was named Faith, in Engliſh: It was adjudged in that Caſe, that the Writ ſhould not abate. And Rhodes Juſtice ſaid: That he knew a Woman, who was called Truth, in Engliſh; And in Latine, ſhe was called Tretha; And a Writ brought in againſt her, by that Name; and it was holden that the Writ was good, and ſhould not abate. Paſc. 30 Eliz. in Co. B. Godeſbr. 85.

9. In Attaint: One of the Jurors was returned by the name of Alexander Poreſtat. In the Reſummons (which was in the Nature of a Diſtringas) It was Alexander Beſcott, and he was ſworn by that name, And the Verdict of the Petit Jury was affirmed by them: In Areſt of Iudgement, It was moved, that it was tryed by a wrong Perſon, and therefore the Verdict not helped by the Statute. It was Reſolved by the Court, That this was not aided by the Statute of 18 Eliz. or 21 Jacobi, for thoſe Statutes extend to the Sirnames of Jurors, where there additions are miſtaken; and not where the Chriſtian name of a Juror is miſtaken. M. 6 Car. in B. R. Downs and Wateſfords Caſe. Cro. 1. part, 147. Cook 5. part, 42. Goldwell and Parker's Caſe.

10. William Dethick, King at Armes, was Indicted upon the Statute of 5 E. 6. for ſtriking I. S. in Saint Paul's Church-yard, London. The Defendant pleaded, That before the Indictment, he was Created, and Crowned by the Queens Letters Patents, Principal King of Arms, and it was granted by the Letters Patents, that he ſhould be called, Garter, and that that name was not in the Indictment; And ſo demanded Judgment of it: It was Objected, that the ſame was but a name of Office, and not a name of Dignity: But is was the opinion of the Iuſtices, That the word Coronamus in the Letters Patents implyed Dignity: And the words in the Patent, Nomen tibi Impoſimus (Garter), That thereby it was parcel of his Name: And therefore, the ſame being omitted out of the Indictment, it was not good; and the Indictment was holden void; and Dethick was diſcharged. M 33. Eliz. in B. R. Dethick King of Armes Caſe. Lion. 148.

11. If William Abbot of Worceſter purchaſeth a Writ by the name of Thomas Abbot of Worceſter, the VVrit ſhall abate, becauſe he may have another VVrit. But if he, with the conſent of the Covent, grants to the Burgeſſes of Worceſter Common of Paſture out of certain Lands, by the name of Thomas Abbot of Worceſter, when his name is William, the grant is good, becauſe there is certainty enough to make certain the name of the Grantor, viz. Abbot of Worceſter: And Nihil facit error Nominis cum conſtat de perſona. Cook 6. part, 65. in Sir Malle Finches Caſe.

12. A man was bound in an Obligation, by the name of Edmond, whereas his true name was Edward, In Debt brought againſt the Executors of Edmond, upon the ſaid Bond, the Defendant pleaded, That it was not the Deed of the Teſtator; And upon Iſſue joyned, It was found to be the Deed of Edmond: It was Reſolved, and adjudged in this Caſe, That the Plaintiff ſhould take nothing by his Bill; But that ſuch Miſnoſmer ſhould make the Action not to be well brought; And it was ſaid, That in the Caſe of a VVrit of Error in the Exchequer Chamber the party upon ſuch a Miſnoſmer after Verdict, did reverſe the Iudgment for Error. Tr. 20 Iac. in B. R Godet. 383.

13. Debt againſt the Defendant as Executor of I. S. the Defendant pleads, Plaiement Adminiſtred, The Plaintiff replies, Et prædict. VV^mus dicit, quod prædict. VV^mus habet bona, and miſtakes VV^m for John. Et prædict. Iohannes ſimiliter. Being found for the Plaintiff. It was moved, that by the Miſnoſmer and Miſpriſion of the Name, there was not any Iſſue joyned, and ſo all was void. But the Court held, That it was but Error and Miſpriſion of the Clerk, and that the Verdict was good, and that it was amendable, and judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 3 Iac. B. 2 VVhere Feoffments, Grants, Leaſes, Releaſes, Bonds, and other Deeds and Conveyances ſhall be good, and ſtand good; Notwithſtanding that the thing granted &c. or the perſon be Miſnamed, where not.

1. IN an Aſſiſe brought by the Husband and VVife, againſt M. de Libero tenu in S. the plaint was of a Meſſuage, 40. Acres of Meadow, 40. Acres of Paſture, cum pertinentiis, the Defendant pleaded a Leaſe for years, made by I. P. by Indenture at S. by the names of a Capital Meſſuage called B. in N. in the County of H. and of all Lands and Tenements, & Hereditaments, which were demiſed with the ſaid Capital Meſſuage called B. which before were in the Tenure or Occupation of I. P. or his Aſſigns, and averred, that the Tenements in the plaint were Occupied, and went with the ſaid Meſſuage, called B. late in the Occupation of the ſaid I. P. upon which plea, It was demurred; It was Objected, that the Houſe and Lands were in ſeveral Counties, and that the per nomen is not well pleaded; But it was the opinion of the Iuſtices, that upon a Leaſe for years, the Lands in both Countries ſhould paſs, but otherwiſe of an Eſtate for life, for that there muſt be ſeveral liveries; And the Court ſaid, That it had been a better form to have pleaded, That I. S. was ſeiſed as well of the Lands put in view, as of the Houſe, and Demyſed &c. Hill. 8 Eliz. Dyer 246. Carew and Marſh's Caſe.

2. Error of a judgment in Ejectione firmæ; diverſe Errors aſſigned. 1. The VVrit was in Manerium de A. & unum Meſſ. unum &c. and the Count was of the Demyſe of the Mannor (advocat Eccleſiæ, reddit Aſſiſ. &c. dicto Manerio excep.) 2. The Habend. is of the Mannor, without ſpeaking of the Meſſuages. 3. The VVrit ſuppoſeth a Demyſe, by the Abbot of C. and the Count is, that the Abbot and Covent of C. Demiſerunt: Reſolved to the firſt, it was a void exception of ſervice, which were parcel of the Mannor; To the ſecond, that the reſt beſides the Houſe might be known by the name of the Mannor; And to the third, that it was a good name of grant, becauſe he departed but with a Term, and the Covent do not demyſe, but only give conſent. Hill. 1. Mar. Dyer 97. Cliffords Error.

3. A Prior made a Leaſe for life of the Demeſnes of a Mannor rendring Rent; the Mannor came to the King by the Statute of Diſſolutions. And afterwards the King made a Leaſe for years of the Mannor. It was adjudged in that Caſe, That by the Leaſe of the King of the Mannor, the Rent and the Reverſion of the Demeans did paſſe. M. 7. Eliz. Dyer 233. vid Cook 6. part, 66. Sir Moile Finch's Caſe.

4. A. brought an Action of Waſte and counted, That an Abbot was ſeiſed &c. of a Houſe and 30. Acres of Lands &c. and demiſed them to the Defendant; and that afterwards by Surrender and the Act of 31 H. 8. of Diſſolutions, the King was thereof ſeiſed, and granted to the Plaintiff and his Heirs, the aforeſaid Tenement by the name of the Mannor of C. with the appertenances; Exception was taken by the Court, that there were not any words in it, which were ſufficient to convey the Lands to him, for the per nomen cannot maintain the grant of the Land without averrment, that the Lands in Leaſe were parcel of the Mannor of C. But it was the opinion of Dyer, That Manerium is nomen Collectivum, and comprehends and contains in it, Meſſuages, Lands, Gardens, Woods: and ſo the Lands in Leaſe paſſed by the name of the Mannor: But the grant went further, of all Meſſuages and Toſts, in &c. which being a diſtinct ſentence by it ſelf, It did convey the Lands in Leaſe, although they were not parcel of the Mannor, and ſo it was adjudged. But Error was brought. M. 4. Eliz. Dyer 207.

5. The King by his Letters Patents for valuable conſideration granted to one, Omnia illa meſſuagia, terras, &c. in tenura I. S. ſituate in W. nuper Priorat. de W. ſpectant, and it was found that the Lands were in the Tenure of I. S. but lay in D. It was adjudged in that Caſe, becauſe the words were general in the Grant, and reſtreined to a certain Town, the Grant was void, by the Common Law. 2. It was adjudged, that although the Lands were in the Tenure of I. S. and were parcel of the value mentioned in the particular to the Patentee, Yet this Miſpriſion of the Town was not helped by the Statute of 34 H 8. cap. 21. becauſe general Grants are not helped by that that Statute, but Grants which do contein convenient certainty. Cook 3. part, 39 Doddington's Caſe.

6. The Caſe was: A. was ſeiſed of diverſe Meſſuages, Lands, &c. And by Deed Indented and Enrolled, &c. bargained and ſold all his Meſſuages, Lands, &c. lying in the Pariſh of Saint Andrew in Holborn in the Tenure and Occupation of I. S. to B. for life, the Remainder to C. in Fee, B. entred, and took Husband, who made a Leaſe for years of the ſame; A. was attainted of Treaſon, the King granted the ſaid Meſſuagues to D. and his Heirs, provided that if they were not concealed that then the Letters Patents ſhould be void, And it was found that the Lands lay in the Pariſh of Saint Sepulchers, and that they were in the Tenure and Occupation of I. S. In this Caſe, amongſt other things it was Reſolved, that nothing paſſed by the ſaid bargain and ſale, becauſe the firſt certainty, ſc. in the Pariſh of Saint Andrew Holborn was falſe; but if the firſt certainty had been true, although the ſecond certainty had been falſe, the Grant had been good. Cook 3 part, 10. Dowties. Caſe.

7. The Queen ſeiſed of the Rectory of L. had a portion of Tythes appertaining to it, And by her Letters Patents granted to A. and B. totam illam portionem Decimarum in L. in Com. N. cum omnibus aliis decimis in L. in dict. Com. N. tunc in occupatione I. S. And further granted by her Letters Patents, That the ſaid Letters Patents ſhould be in force againſt the Queen and her Succeſſors, Non obſtante male nominando vel recitando prædict. portionem decimarum. Et non obſtantibus aliquibus defectis in eo nominando vel male nominando aliquos tenentia vel occupatoris, And it was found, that there was not any Tythes in L. in the Occupation of I. S. It was adjudged in this Caſe, that the Letters Patents were void; For in as much as I. S. never had any parcel of Tythes, the Grant ex vi termini was void, and when the Grant is not ſufficient to paſſe the thing granted, there any Non obſtante cannot make ſuch a Grant good. Cook 4. part, 53. Bonnus Caſe.

8. In a Replevin, the Caſe was, A. 4 E. 6. was poſſeſſed for 30. years of a Farm, called, Creſwell field Grange, which conſiſted of diverſe parcels, known by the ſeveral names of Hobsfield, and Parkfield, and diverſe other, and made his Will, and made H. his Son his Executor, and 4 Ma. demyſed all the ſaid Grange, except Hobsfield, to B. for 23. years; and demyſed Hobsfield to C. for 23. years, and afterwards granted all the Reverſion of his Term in the whole Grange to the ſaid B. and C. He in the Reverſion, 3 Eliz. granted a Rent-charge in Fee iſſuing out of all his Lands commonly called Creſwel field Grange, Some time in the Tenure of A. and then in the Tenure or Occupation of B. or his Aſſignees: It was Reſolved in that Caſe, (amongſt other points:) That Hobfield was not charged with the ſaid Rent; For although it be parcel of Creſwell field Grange; And that B. and C. had the Reverſion of the Term, and ſo the ſaid may be ſaid to be in Rent Tenure, yet for as much as B. had not then Hobsfield in his Occupation, Hobsfield is out of the ſaid Words, by reaſon of the ſaid laſt Clauſe, Et ad tunc in tenura & occupatione B. Cook 4 part, 50. Ogull's Caſe.

9. The Dean and Chapter of Winſor were Incorporated by Act of Parliament made 22 E. 4. by the name of Dean and Chanons, of the Kings free Chapel of St. George the Martyr, within his Caſtle of Winſor, and they made a Leaſe by the name of the Dean and Chanons of the King and Queens Free Chapel of S. George within the Caſtle of Winſor, It was adjudged in that caſe, That for one of theſe differences, ſc. of the King and Queens Free Chapel, that the Leaſe was void, for the Corporation ought to be ſuch as was given by the Foundor, and ſhall not be altered by alteration from the Name of the Foundor; but notwithſtanding the other differences in the Miſnoſmer, if the other had been true, the Leaſe had been good. For St. George implies St. George the Martyr; Et parum differunt, quæ ſe concordant. M. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Hill and Winyates caſe. Vid. alſo the caſe between Fiſher and Boys, 30 Eliz. in Co. B. called Merton College Caſe. Vide Cook 10. part 122.

10. The Provoſt, Fellows, and Scholars of Queens College in Oxford, are Guardians of the Hoſpitall or Meaſon de Dieu, in Southampton, and they made a Leaſe of Land, parcel of the ſaid Hoſpital to H. for Term of years, by the name of Præpoſitus, Socii, & Scolares Collegii Reginalis in Oxon. and in an Ejectione firmæ upon that Leaſe, It was found for the Plaintiff, It was moved in ſtay of Judgement, That the word Gardianus, ought to be Gardiani, for the College doth conſiſt of many perſons, and every perſon is capable; and it is not like the Caſe of Abbot and Covent: But it was the opinion of the Court, that the Exception was not good, but that as well the Leaſe, as the Declaration was good; for the Col-

College is one body, and as one perſon. Hill. 30. Eliz. The caſe of the Provoſt and Scholars of Queens College in Oxford. Leon. 134.

11. The true name of the Incorporation of Queens College in Oxford is Præpoſitus & Scholares Aulæ Scholarium Reginæ de Oxon. And they confirmed a Leaſe by name of Præpoſit. & ſociorum, & ſcholarium Aulæ vel Collegii Reginæ in Univerſitate Oxoniæ. It was adjudged in that caſe, That notwithſtanding that variance, that the Confirmation was good, for the College is named by ſuch names as it may be diſtinguiſhed from any other College in the ſame Univerſity; And it was there holden, that although the name of a Corporation is like the name of Baptiſm; yet if the perſons be ſo deſcribed, that they may certainly be diſtinguiſhed from other perſons, the Omiſſion, or Miſpriſion of their true names ſhall not make void their Acts. Cook 11. part, 19. Dr. Anays caſe.

12. In an Ejectione firmæ, it was found, That A. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Lands in queſtion, and thereof made a Feofment to the uſe of himſelf for life, and afterwards to the uſe of his two Daughters, Joan and Alice in Fee, and died, Joan entred into the Land, and by Indenture by the name of Jane let the Land to the Plaintiff for three years, and it was found, that Joan intended in the Feofment, and Jane who Leaſed were one and the ſame perſon. It was ſaid by Wray Chief Juſtice, that it had been agreed by good advice and conference with Grammarians, that Joan and Jane are but one name, and that women, becauſe that Joan ſeemed to them a homely name, would not be called Joan, but Jane, wherefore the opinion of the Court was, that this was not ſuch a Miſnoſmer as did make the Leaſe to be void; It was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Tr. 31. Eliz. in B. R. Hedd and Challoners caſe. Leon. 146. 147.

13. In an Ejectione firmæ, by Husband and Wife, the Plaintiff declared upon a Leaſe made by the Maſter of the Houſe, or College of St. Thomas de Acons in London to I. S. who aſſigned it over to K. who by his Will deviſed it to his Wife whom he made his Executrix & died. Upon Not guilty they were at Iſſue. And it was given in Evidence, That the Leaſe given in Evidence was not the Leaſe of which the Plaintiff declared. For the Original Leaſe ſhewed in Court is Maſter of the Houſe or Hoſpital, where the Leaſe ſpecified in the Declaration is Maſter of the Houſe or College. 38. E. 3. 28. It was the opinion of the Court, that the ſame was not any material variance: for they ſaid, College and Hoſpital they conceived to be all one. M. 33. Eliz. in Co. B. Cheney and Smiths caſe. Leon. 215.

14. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was: King Hen. the ſeventh in the fourth year of his Reign Erected and founded an Hoſpital by the name of the Maſter and Chaplains of the Hoſpital of King Hen. the ſeventh de le Savoy, and afterwards in the time of Queen Mary, the ſaid Maſter and Chaplains being ſeiſed, Leaſed, &c. to the Defendant by the name of W. H. Maſter of the Hoſpital nuper Regis Henrici ſeptimi vocat le Savoy & Capellani Hoſpitalis prædict; and afterwards by the former name which was the true name Leaſed the ſame to I. S. who Leaſed the ſame to the Plaintiff, and if the Leaſe made to the Defendant by that name was a good Leaſe was the queſtion. It was adjudged in the Court of Exchequer that the Leaſe made to the Defendant was void utterly by reaſon of the Miſnoſmer: upon which judgement a Writ of Error was brought in the Exchequer Chamber, and there long debated; and the better opinion ſeemed to be, that the Leaſe was void for the Miſnoſmer: and that there was great difference between the words, (De le Savoy) and (vocat) the Savoy: See the Caſe, learnedly debated. M. 31 Eliz. in the Exchequer Chamber, Muriot and Paſcalls Caſe. Leon. 159. to 165. And in the Argument of that Caſe, this Caſe was put by the Lord Burleigh, Lord Treaſurer. The Guild of Boſton in Lincolnſhire was incorporated by the name of St. Nicholas, and our Lady the Virgin Mary, &c. And they made a Leaſe for years by the name of the Guild of our Lady the Virgin and St. Nicholas, religioſæ quadam motus, ut nomen Virginis Mariæ in charta dimiſſionis præponeretur nomini S. Nicholai, and in that Caſe it was adjudged a void Leaſe for the variance.

15. If A. Levieth a Fine of Lands to W. his Son and his Heirs, upon this Fine the Iudges cannot make any queſtion to whom the Lands do belong; but if the party cometh and averreth that A. hath two Sons named W. the elder and the younger, and that his intent was to Levy the Fine to W. the younger, this averment out of the Fine is good of this matter of fact, and the ſame ſhall be tried by the Countrey. But if a man by Deed giveth any goods to one of the Sons of I. S. who hath divers ſons, here he ſhall not averre which Son he intended, for that in judgement of Law upon this Deed the Deed is void for incertainty, which cannot be made good by averment. So if a man Levy a Fine of the Manor of S. or of the Mannor of D. to two and their Heirs, and in truth there is the Mannor of North S. and South S. or great D. and little D. in this Caſe Iſſue may be taken, of which Mannor the Conuſor intended to paſſe, for that the ſame is matter matter of fact not apparent in the Fine whereof the Iudge cannot take Conuſance, but it ſtands well with the Fine, and ſhall be tried by the Iury. Cook 5. part, 155. in Edward Altham's Caſe.

16. A Corporation is incorporated nomen Maioris & Burgenſium Burgi Domini Regis de Lyn Regis, and it is granted to them, that they ſhall be called and named by the ſame name onely, & non per aliud nomen. An Obligation is made to them by the name of Maioris & Burgenſium de Lyn Regis, omitting the words (Burgi Regis) It was reſolved, That the Obligation was good notwithſtanding that Miſnoſmer, and it is not requiſite that the name of a Corporation be in Grants or Conveyances Idem verbis & ſyllabis, but it is ſufficient if it be idem re & ſenſu, and in this Caſe the variance is onely in ſyllables and words, and not in ſenſe. But it was reſolved, That if an eſſential part of the name of a Corporation be omitted in any Grant or Leaſe, or the Corporation miſnamed in any eſſential part of it, it makes their Leaſes and Grants void. Cook 10 part, 122. The Caſe of the Mayor and Burgeſſes of Lyn Regis.

17. In an Ejectione firmæ the Caſe was, That the Hoſpital of Donnington in the County of Berks, 16. R. by the Licence of the King was founded by Sir Rich. Abberbury Knight, by the name of Miniſter Dei pauperis domus de Donnington; and Lands were given to it. And afterwards one T. L. was made Miniſter there, and he and his Conferes by the name of T. L. Yeoman Miniſter of the Almeſhold of God beſides Newbury in the County of Berks, made a Leaſe of the Lands: and whether this Leaſe was made according to the name of the Corporation or not was the queſtion. This Caſe came in queſtion, Tr. 39. Eliz. between Sherborn and Lewis, where the Caſe being long debated it was not reſolved, but the better opinion ſeemed to be that the Leaſe was good, vide Tr. 39 Eliz. in B. R. Sherborn and Lewis Caſe. Gold. 120, 121, 122. Afterwards, The ſame came in queſtion again, Tr. 12. Iac. Rot. 2187. in Co. B. between Pitts and James: where it was much inſiſted upon, that whereas the true name of the foundation was Miniſter Dei pauperis domus It was made Miniſter Pauperis Domus Dei in the Leaſe, which was ſaid not onely to be an inverſion not onely of the words and Order, but of the ſenſe and matter; But it was then the greater opinion of the Court, that the Leaſe was good; for there is no material variance, for variance in letter and not in ſubſtance ſhall not hurt, and ſuch conſtruction ought to be made if it may be that the Leaſe may ſtand good; and interpoſition of a word ſhall not alter the Leaſe, and the word Miniſter is vox æquivocum, and the words Miniſter Dei & Miniſter pauperis, are words convertible, for whoſoever miniſters to the poor miniſters to God, as Hobert Chief Juſtice ſaid, and ſo the Leaſe was holden to be good. Tr. 12. Iac. in Co. B. Hob. 121, 122, 123.

18. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, The Dean and Chapter of Chriſts-Church in Oxford were incorporated by King Hen. the eighth, by the name of the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Chriſt in Oxford of the foundation of King Hen. the eighth, and were ſeiſed of a Houſe and certain Lands in H. and ſeiſed by the name of Dean and Chapter Eccleſiæ Cathedralis Chriſti in Academia Oxon. ex fundatione Hen. 8. made a Feofment of the ſaid Lands to the Lord North and his Heirs; who Entred; who Leaſed the ſame to the Plaintiff, & he was ouſted by the Defendant, claiming the ſaid Houſe by a Leaſe made by the Dean and Chapter made in the time of the late Queen Eliz. And it was found by the Verdict, That the Citie of Oxford, and the Univerſity of Oxford was all one, and that the Town of Oxford was made a Citie by the Charter of Hen. 8. It was Objected, that the Feofment made to the Lord North was void, for that Academia & villa de Oxon. are diverſe in Name and diverſe in Nature, for the Univerſity is to the Scholars there, and the Town for the Inhabitants, and the name of a place is the principal in a Corporation, which ought to be preciſe according to the Letter of the Charter. But is was the opinion of the Court, That this was not ſuch a miſnaming of the place which ſhall make the Feofment void, and if it had been Decanus & Capit. Eccleſiæ Cathedralis Chriſti in Civitate Oxon. it had been good, for Oxon. & Civitas Oxon. are all one. And in caſe of a Corporation it ſufficeth to have a ſufficient Demonſtration of the place where the Corporation is, albeit it be not by the preciſe words compriſed in the Charter, as naming Academia Oxon. pro villa Oxon. and a College Erected in Academia Oxon. or Cantabrig. is good. M. 37. Eliz. in B. R. Button and Wrightman's caſe. Poph. 56, 57.

19. The Caſe was, King Hen. the eighth Incorporated the Scholars of Trinity College in Cambridge by the name of Maſters, Fellows, and Scholars, Collegii St. & individuæ Trinit. in the Town an Univerſity of Cambridge, & in 6 E 6. they made a Leaſe by the name of Mr. and Fellows of Trinity College in Cambridge, leaving out the Univerſity, and whether the Leaſe were good or not was the queſtion. This Caſe was argued by the Iuſtices, Croſt and Williams Iuſtices were of opi-non that the Leaſe was good. But Fenner and Yelverton held the contrary. And Fleming Chief Juſtice argued that the Leaſe was not good, but ſaid it ſhould not be abſolutely his opinion; but moved the parties to a compoſition, and for maintenance of the opinion of Crook and Williams, the Caſe of 7. Eliz. Dyer, and Cook 1. part, Porters Caſe was put. No Judgement was given in the Caſe, Paſc. 7. Iac. in the Kings Bench Trinity College Caſe, Brownlo 2. part, 243. Vide before, The Caſe of the Mayor & Burgeſſes of Lyn, & vid. Cook 11. part, 18. Doctor Ayres Caſe, and the Caſes there vouched for this Caſe, and vide Buttons Caſe, next before.

Miſ-tryal.

1. IN an Action upon the Caſe: The Plaintiff Declared, Whereas the Office of the under Stewardſhip of the Courts of the Mannor of K. and other the Mannors of the Biſhop of Gloucr. were Grantable for life with a Fee of 6. l. 3. s. and 8. d. per annum; and a Grant was made by the Biſhop of the ſaid Office for life, with the Fee, &c. that he being ready to keep the Courts of the now Biſhop, the Defendant pretending a Grant made to him, diſturbed him: upon not guilty, and found for the Plaintiff; It was moved in Arreſt of Judgement, that there was a Miſ-trial, the diſturbance being alleged to be in the Court of K. and ſo in the other Mannors where no Vills are, and the Tryal being per Vicinetum of the Mannors, whereas it ought to be of the Vills where the Mannors are, and therefore not helped by the Statute of 21. Jac. But it was holden by the Court, that in regard ſome of the ſaid Mannors are alleged to be within thoſe Vills, and the Venue being of the Mannors, It ſhall be good by the Statute, although it were in fewer or more places than it ought to be. M 1. Car. in C. B. Cook and Youngs caſe. Cro 1. part, 12.

2. In Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, Whereas he at London ſuch a day and year lent to the Defendant a Gelding ad equitandum ab London uſque civitatem Exonie & ibidem ſalvo redeliberandum to the Plaintiff, that the Defendant to deceive the Plaintiff rid upon the ſaid Gilding from London to Exon. and from Exon. to London; and ſo abuſed him thereby that he became of little value, and notwithſtanding that at Exon. ſuch a day and year he required him to redeliver him, yet he refuſed to redeliver him, and the ſame day converted the Gelding to his own uſe. Upon Not guilty being found for the Plaintiff: It was moved in ſtay of Judgement that here was not a good Tryal, becauſe the bargain was at London, and the fact alleged in riding back to London that the Tryal ought to have been at London where the beginning of the Contract was, and not at Exon. where the Condition was alleged. But it was the opinion of the Court, that the Tryal was good de vicineto de Exon. becauſe the wrong is ſuppoſed to be done there, and not at London. M. 1. Car. in Co. B. White and Ryſdens caſe. Cro. 1. part 15.

Vide M. 6. Car. in B. R. Downes and Waterfloods caſe, in title of Miſnoſmer: before Sect. 9.

3. Debt upon the Statute of 2. E. 6. for not ſetting forth of Tythes, The Defendant pleaded Nihil debet which was found againſt him. It was moved in ſtay of Judgement, that it was Miſ-trial without ſufficient Warrant for the Jurat. upon the Niſi Prius is, Jurat. poterunt in reſpectum inter the Plaintiff and the Defendant in Placito Tranſgreſſionis uſque Oct. Mich. Niſi Prius, ſo as by this Jurat. there is not any Authority to the Juſtices to Try the Iſſue: which was in Placito debiti: It was holden it was a miſpriſion of the Clerk: But the queſtion was if it were amendable; the Court gave no reſolution in the point: but would adviſe of it. Tr. 7. Car. in B. R. Le Merchant and Rawſon's Caſe. Cro. 1. part 200.

4. In Aſſumpſit declared, That whereas D. was ſeaſed in Fee of Lands in C. in the County of K. 21 May 1631. and was in Communication with the Plaintiff to ſell the ſame for ſuch a ſum, that the Defendant ad tunc & ibid. ſcil. prædict. 21 May 1631. apud London in Parochia S. Ma. &c. In conſideration of ſuch a ſum promiſed: upon Non Aſſumpſit the Tryal was in London: It was the opinion of the Court that it was a Miſ-trial, for it ought to have been Tryed in K. where the Land lies, and where by the ad tunc & ibidem the promiſe is, and the Venue cannot be altered; and that the videlicet was Idle, and might not alter it. M. 8. Car. in B. R. Delves and Clerk's caſe. Cro. 1. part: 107.

5. Er-

5. Error to reverſe Judgement in a Replevin, The Error was, becauſe the Iſſue being whether Lands in B. were holden of the Mannor of W. by ſuch ſervices, the Venire facias was awarded de vicineto de B. where it ought to be de vicineto of the Mannor, or of B. and the Mannor. The Court held that by the Common Law, the Tryal ought to have been per vicinetum of both: But now by the Statute of 21. Jac. if the Tryal is to be of ſeveral places, it ſhall be Tryed per vicinetum of any of the places. Hill. 12. Car. in A. R. Cro. 1. part, 345.

6. In an Appeal of Maheim, A Juror in the Pannel of the Venire facias was named Palas Cheale, and in the Diſtringas and Poſtea, he was named Paulus Cheale, and becauſe the name of the Juror was miſtaken, eſpecially in the Venire facias, and that in his Chriſtian name, It was reſolved that the Judgement ſhould be reverſed; but if he had been well named in the Pannel of the Venire facias, and miſnamed in the Diſtringas or Poſtea; upon Examination, it ſhould be amended. Cook 5. part, Colwills caſe. Vide M. 35. Eliz. in B. R. The Counteſſe of Rutlands Caſe. Cook 5. part, &c.

7. Action upon the Caſe for a promiſe made to C. for the delivery of a Mare which the Plaintiff delivered to the Defendant to plow his ground in P. and ſhewed, that the Defendant did ſo exceſſively work and labour the Mare, that the Mare died. The Defendant confeſſed the promiſe, and ſaid, that the Mare at the time of the delivery was infirm and that he worked her not, and traverſed the exceſſive labouring. Being found for the Plaintiff; It was the Opinion of the Court, that it was miſ-tryed becauſe the Venire was of C. and there was no place alleged where the exceſſive labouring was: for the Venire ought to come from that place where the labouring was. Tr. 11. Iac. in Co B. Keymes and Morchams Caſe. Brownlo 1. part, 17.

8. Treſpaſſe for taking twenty Loads of Wheat in F. the Defendant as to all but two Loads pleaded Not guilty: and as to them, Pleaded that the Town of E. is in the Pariſh of W. and that I. S. was ſeiſed in Fee of the Rectory of W. and by his Will deviſed it to the Defendant in Fee, and died; and that he Entred, and that the Corn was the Tythes ſevered. The Plaintiff by proteſtation, that E is not within the Pariſh of W. ſaid, That I. S. was ſeiſed of the Rectory in Fee, and thereof died ſeiſed without Iſſue, which deſcended to the Plaintiff as his Coſen and Heir: and traverſed the Deviſe, whereto Iſſue was joyned, and a Venire facias was awarded to Trye theſe two Iſſues de vicineto Parochiæ de W. and the Jury found the Iſſue of Not guilty for the Defendant, and the other Iſſue for the Plaintiff: It was the opinion of the Court: that it was a Miſ-tryal, and although the Defendant is found not guilty as to one Iſſue, that doth not help it, for being Miſ-tryal it is a void Tryal of that Iſſue; and the Venire facias ought to be as well of E. as of W. for where there are two Iſſues riſing from both places, the Tryal ought to be per Vicinetum of both places, wherefore being adjudged a Miſtrial, a Venire facias de Novo was awarded. M. 3. Iac. in B. R. Lapworth's caſe. Cro. 2. part 99. 86, 87.

9. In an Action upon the Caſe the Plaintiff declared, That he was a Citizen and Merchant of London, and uſed to Traffick into the parts beyond the Sea, and 20 Martii 32. Eliz. he took his journey from London in partes tranſmarinas to Merchandize; and the ſame 20 Aprilis, 32. Eliz. in the Pariſh of Aldermanbury in the Ward of C. he did truſt the Defendant as his ſervant to receive in his abſence, and when he ſhould be in his journey, all Merchandizes of the Plaintiffs to the Plaintiffs own uſe, or which were conſigned unto him, and to pay the Cuſtom and the Subſidies for them Due and payable, and to convert them to the Plaintiffs uſe; and that to the Plaintiff in his abſence twenty pieces of Velvet, of the value of 800 l. were conſigned by one B. his Factor in S. beyond Sea, which by way of Merchandize were brought into England in a ſhip to a Port in London; and that the Defendant having Notice thereof, and that the Subſidy was due to the Queen for the ſame, and yet deducted from the Plaintiff ſo much as ſhould be due for the Subſidy as if he had paid it, cauſed the goods to be unladen and put aſhore, the Subſidy due for them not being paid, nor the Collector agreed with, whereby the Goods were forfeited and ſeiſed for the Queen. The Defendant pleaded Not guilty, which was found againſt him: It was moved for the Defendant in Arreſt of Judgement, that in this caſe there was a Miſ-tryal, for the Action being maintained againſt him for his Malefeiſance in taking the Goods out of the ſhip, which was ſayd to be in the Pariſh of St. Peters in the Ward of Queen Hithe, The venire ought to have been from that viſne and Pariſh onely: And it was awarded as well from that Pariſh and Ward, as from the Pariſh of Aldermanbury and Ward of C. and being made of two Pariſhes and Wards where it ought to have been but of one only, It is as well a Miſ-tryal, as when it is of one Town where it ought to be of two. And of that opinion was all the Court, and that it was a Miſ-tryal. And a venire facias de novo was awarded M 8 Jac. in B. R. Lewſon and Rolls caſe. Cro. 81 p. 265, 266.

10. In a Scire facias upon a Recognizance for breach of the good behaviour: and for tiotouſly entring at eleven of the clock at Night into a Cloſe of I. S. at L. and cutting up a Quickſet hedge of the ſaid Cloſe. The Defendant as to all the Offences, but entring the Cloſe and cutting down the Hedge, pleaded, Not guilty; and as to that juſtified, That in the ſaid Cloſe was a High-way, leading from S. in the ſaid County over the ſaid Cloſe to N. and becauſe it was ſtopped up with Quickſet, he cut it up to uſe the ſaid Way: The Plaintiff ſaid De injuria ſua propria; It was the opinion of the whole Court; That, admitting it was a good Iſſue de injuria ſua propria, yet there was a Miſ-tryal: For the venire facias was only from L. where the Cloſe is, where it ought to have been from S. and N. from which places and to which places the Way is ſuppoſed to lead, Then it was moved, That there was an Iſſue of Not guilty for the tiotous Entry and Aſſembly which is a breach of the good behaviour, wherefore the Iſſue was well tryed and joyned for that. But the Court held that that tryall of that Iſſue was but matter of form, and the ſubſtance is upon the ſpecial matter found, It was adjudged for the Defendant. M. 18 Jac. in B. R. the King and Hoppers caſe. Cro. 2. p. 399.

11. Treſpas for entring his Houſe and Cloſe at G. the Defendant Juſtified that a Capias was directed to the Sheriff of S. againſt one I. S. who made his Warrant to the Defendant to execute it: and becauſe it was the common voice that I. S. was at the Plaintiffs Houſe, he went in a Foot-path thorough the Cloſe to the ſaid Houſe, and asked leave of the Plaintiff to enter his Houſe and to ſearch for the ſaid I. S and the Plaintiff gave him leave, whereupon he entred, and not finding I. S. he returned the ſame way, It was found for the Plaintiff, and amongſt other things, in arreſt of Judgement, it was moved, That it was a Miſ-tryal; For that John White-head of Whitehead was returned, and John White-head of Whitehill was ſworn. But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court; and the Court held that the alteration of the name of the Vill was not material M. 12 Jac. in B. R. Watts and King's caſe. Cro. 2. part, 353.

12 Debt upon an Obligation for payment of 31 l. at C. Iſſue was taken that the money was paid at C. and yet by the conſens of the Parties, the Iſſue was tryed at London, and found for the Plaintiff, and judgment given, and upon a Writ of Error brought in the Eſch quer Chamber, the judgement was reverſed for miſtryal, for that the conſent of the Parties might not change the Law. Paſc. 7 Jac. in Exchequer Chamber. Hob. 5

13. In Debt for Rent upon a Leaſe for years, the Caſe was; The Grandfather of the Plaintiff ſeiſed of Lands in Southwark, made a Leaſe of the ſame to the Defendant at London Rendring Rent; Afterwards he deviſed the Reverſion to the Plaintiff in Fee, and in his Will declared his intent to be, That his Executors ſhould have the Reverſion during the Term, upon the condition, that they enter Bond to pay 42 l. per an. at uſual Feaſts, and deviſed that this Bond ſhould be made by the adviſe his of Overſeers, all this to be done within ſix Moneths after his deceaſe, And if his Executors refuſe, his Will was, That the Overſeers ſhould take the profits upon the ſame condition; the Deviſor died, No Obligation was made within the ſix Moneths; The Plaintiff required the Executors to enter Bond and to pay the Rent, which was not done: Whereupon he brought his Action in London, and not in Southwark, where the Land doth lye. It was agreed in this Caſe, that the Plaintiff had good title to have the Rent, but becauſe the Plaintiff had miſtaken in laying of his Action, It was holden to be a Miſ-tryal, and for that cauſe only adjudged againſt the Plaintiff. H. 21 Jac. in Co. B. Tethern and Clayhook's Caſe. Winch 69.

14. In an Action upon the Caſe in the nature of a Conſpiracy for conſpiring to endite Plaintiff of Felony, ſuppoſed to be done at Weſtbrummidge at Cawcit-hills, upon Not guilty pleaded: At Stafford Aſſiſes the Indictment was preferred to the Grand Jury, who found an Ignoramus; And the Venire facias de Weſtbrummidge and Stafford; It was ſaid, that this was a Miſ-tryal, for that the Venire facias ought to have been alſo of Cawcit-hills: It was the opinion of the Court, If nothing had been done by him at Stafford, but that which he was bound before to do by the Law, The Venire facias facias being awarded de Stafford is not well awarded; The Recognizance only was for him to appear at the Aſſiſes, and there to anſwer to ſuch matter as ſhould be layd to his charge, but no other matter was there done by the Defendant at that time, for he did not only there preſent his Bill of Endictment to the Grand Jury, but he did there alſo take a falſe Oath againſt the Plaintiff, but the Iury did not believe him. And ſo for this cauſe the Venire facias was well awarded de Stafford, and the other place not material. Vid. Librum. Hill. 12. Jac. in B. R. Hercot and Underhill's Caſe. Bulſtr. 2. part, 331, 332.

15. In an Action of Treſpas and Ejectment brought by C. againſt A. & B. They both pleaded Not guilty, The Award upon the Roll was againſt both the Defendants, The firſt proces, ſc. the Habeas corpus was againſt them both, But the Venire facias was againſt one of them only, one of them being only named, in this they proceeded to tryal, and a Verdict was for the Plaintiff againſt both the Defendants. It was the opinion of the Court, that this was amendable though it was after the Verdict, and the Venire facias is well amendable where it is miſtaken, and is to be made agreeable to the plea Roll, and by the plea Roll it is to be inter partes prædictas; Wherefore it was Ruled by the Court, tho ſame was to be amended, And a ſuperſedeas granted to ſtay, the former ſcire facias had had upon the Writ of Error, quid improvidè emanavit, and the party to proceed on his Writ of Error and to aſſigne his Errors without delay. M. 1 Car. in B. R. Craufild, and Turnor, and Collins Caſe. Proſtr. 3. part, 311.

14. In Debt upon an Obligation, The Condition was, That the Defendant ſhould pay ſo much in a Houſe of the Plaintiffs at Lincoln, The Defendant pleaded payment at Lincoln aforeſaid. Upon which they were at Iſſue, and the Venire facias was De vicineto Civitatis Lincoln, and found for the Plaintiff: In arreſt of Judgement it was moved, That it was a Miſ-tryal, becauſe the Venire facias ought to have been of the body of the County, and not of the City, which was alſo a County of it ſelf: But was Reſolved by the whole Court, that the tryal was good: vid. 34 H. 6. 49. and 50. p. 17. And it was taken for a Rule, That where it doth not appear upon the Record, that there is a more proper place for tryal, than where the tryal was, that there the tryal is good, and here the tryal was in the moſt proper place. M. 17 Car. in Co. B. Thorndike and Turpingtons caſe. Winch. 125.

15. In a Prohibition the caſe was, Queen Eliz. was ſeiſed of the Mannor of N. which extended into four Pariſhes, ſc. S. and three other: and the Plaintiff ſhewed, That he was ſeiſed of three Cloſes in S. and preſcribed, that the Queen and all thoſe whoſe eſtate he had, had a Modus Decimandi and payable for all the ſaid three Cloſes, and for all other the Demeans in the ſaid Mannor in the ſaid Pariſh of S. And if the Venire facias ſhould be De Parochia de S. or of the Mannor, was the Queſtion. It was Reſolved by the whole Court, That the Venire ſhould be of the Pariſh, and not of the Mannor; And a difference was taken, when one claimes any thing which goeth to the whole Mannor, and when only to parcel of it, for in the one caſe the viſne ſhall be from the Mannor, in the other not. Vid. 9 Eliz. Dyer. But it was ſaid, That the Modus in this caſe went only to things in S. and therefore the viſne ſhould be of S. only; And Nichols Juſtice ſaid, That although the Pariſh be a Town, and they are both of one name, yet the Venire facias ſhould be De Parochia, to which the Court agreed. M. 11 Iac. in Co. B. Norton and Lyſters caſe.

16. A had judgment to recover in an Action upon the caſe at the Aſſiſes, and damages given him 30. l. It was after moved in arreſt of Iudgment, That the Venire facias was de 12. and one did not appear, So as the Iſſue was tryed De Circumſtantibus, and yet the Entry in the Rott. was, That the ſaid Iuror being called, appeared, alſo the words juratus was omitted; and for theſe defects it was the opinion of the Iuſtices that the tryall was not good, and the judgment ſhould be ſtayed. M. 8 Iac. in Co. B. Quods caſe.

17. The Vicar of Pancras, leaſed all his Vicaraige to I. S. viz. the Gleab Land the Church and all things appertaining to it, excepting the Houſing: rendring 20 l. Rent yearly, at two Feaſts, and if the Rent was behind by the ſpace of a Moneth, that it ſhould be lawful for him to diſtreyn; and the Leſſee bound himſelf to perform all Covenants, Articles, and Agreements, conteyned or recited within the Leaſe, and for Rent behind 25 Eliz. the Vicar brought Debt: To which the Defendant pleaded, that the Rent was not demanded at the day: upon which they were at Iſſue; The Iury being ready at the Barr, It was moved againſt the taking of the Enqueſt, for three cauſes. 1. For that he had made a Leaſe of the Parſonage, except the Houſing, and the Plaintiff had had alleged the demand generally ſuper terras glebales; and had not ſhewed where. As to that it was ſaid by the Iuſtices, that it had been better to have ſaid, At ſuch a Gate, Hedge, or High-way, but that Exception was diſallowed, for if it was not well demanded, it ought to have been ſhewed on the other ſide. 2. Exception was, becauſe the Enqueſt was all De vicineto de Pancras, and it might be that ſome part of the Lands which did appertain to the Vicaraige, did extend to Iſlington: but that alſo was diſallowed. 3. Becauſe the Venire facias did not well recite the Iſſue, for in that the Houſing was omitted, It was the opinion of the Iuſtices, that that need not to be that all be recited, But if another Iſſue then that upon which they were at Iſſue had been recited, that ſhould not have been good: but had made the tryal void, and afterwards the Enqueſt was taken, and found for the Plaintiff. Modus Dec. Vid. Lib. 1. Diſmes, or Tithes.

Mort Dauncester.

What it is, of what, and for whom it lieth, and againſt whom, and of what Eſtate; what and where not.

1. THe Writ of Mortdaunceſter lieth, Where a Mans Father, Mother, Brother, Siſter, Uncle, Aunt, or other of the Blood and Kindred dieth ſeiſed of Lands, Tenements, Rents or other Hereditaments in Fee; and a Stranger, after the death of ſuch Anceſtors, abateth and entreth into the Lands, or receives the Rents, or profits thereof: then, he who is next Heir to the Anceſtor ſhall and may have an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter againſt ſuch Stranger, who ſo abates and receives the profits of the Lands. Vid. 22 E. 4. 13.

2. If the Anceſtor were ſeiſed of Lands, the day that he died, although that a Stranger entreth upon the Land that day, and diſſeiſed the Anceſtor of the Land; yet the Heir may maintain Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter, becauſe the Writ doth not ſuppoſe, that the Anceſtor died ſeiſed: But the Writ is ready upon Oath to recogniſe, If W. Father of the ſaid A. was ſeiſed in his Demeſne as of Fee of one yard Land with the appurtenances in D. the day which he dyed. Vid. F. B. 190. And vid. That in an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter, It was a good plea to ſay, That the day that the Anceſtor died, that the Anceſtor did enfeoff the Tenant of the Lands.

3. Note, The words in the Writ of Mortdaunceſter are, If A. be his next Heir, For viz. If a Man hath Iſſue a Son, and his Wife dieth, and he taketh another Wife, and hath Iſſue a Son, and Lands are given to him and his ſecond Wife in ſpecial tail before the Statute of Donis Conditionalibus; If a Stranger in ſuch Caſe had abated, No Writ of Mortdaunceſter did lye. Vid. 10 E. 2. In Formedon 55. vid. Plow. Com. 239. acc.

4. Note, That by the Common Law, a Mortdaunceſter did not lye for Lands which were deviſeable by Will, and the reaſon thereof was, becauſe the Title of the Land might fall to another, who is not Heir by the Will of the Anceſtor, and yet the Anceſtor was ſeiſed of the Lands the day that he died, as the Writ ſuppoſeth. Vid. 23. Aſſ. acc. But contrary it is at this day of Lands deviſeable by the Statute, and ſo it was adjudged in Co. B 20 Eliz.

5. If Lands be given to one in tail, the Remainder to his right Heir; and he dyeth ſeiſed without Iſſue, and a Stranger abateth: the opinion of ſome have been heretofore, as in 21 E. 3. and 5 H. 4. that if the Remainder be to his right Heirs, that then he ſhall not have and maintain Mortdaunceſter, others have holden, that if the gift hath been to him, and the Remainder to him and his right Heirs, that he in the Remainder ſhould maintain an Aſſiſ, becauſe he hath the Remainder in Fee to him: Mr. Fitz in his Natura Brevium 195. conceiveth that he ſhall not have an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter in the one Caſe, or in the other; for that the Words of the Writ are, Si Pater &c. fuit ſeiſitus die quo obiit in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo, and in both Caſes he was ſeiſed in Demeſne, ut de feodo tatiato but he leaves it: Quære, and vid. 33 E. 3. ſc. Title Mortdaunceſter. Land was given given to one in tail, and for want of ſuch Iſſue the Remainder to his right Heirs, he died without Iſſue, and his Heir collateral brought an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter; and there holden good; but if he had Iſſue, the Iſſue ſhould have but a Formedon, becauſe he had but tail.

6. A Mortdaunceſter was brought of 2. parts of the moity of a Mil, without ſaying in 3. parts undevided, altho gh there was no partition of that part: and of the Moity of the Moity unius carucatæ terræ, and good, 11. Aſſiſ. 20. and vid. in 6 E. 3. ſc. Demand 41. It was brought of 8. feet of Land in length, and of 6. feet in breadth, without ſpeaking of a place containing ſo many feet.

7. A Mortdaunceſter was brought of a Bailiwick, without ſaying that he was ſeiſed thereof in Dominico ſuo ut de feodo in the Writ, for that that it was not accounted a Freehold, at the Common Law. 10. Aſſiſ. p. 11.

8. An Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter is mainteable by an Infant upon an Abatement made after the death of his Anceſtor by a Stranger, 40 E. 3. acc. But if an Infant bringeth an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter of the poſſeſſion of his Father or Mother, he need not allege in the Writ, that it was after the Coronation of King Hen. the 3. which is the time of limitation appointed by the Statute of Weſt. 1. cap. 38. for that the ſame appeareth. Cook 7 part, 40 in Bedell's Caſe. Cook 8. part, 126. in the Caſe of the City of London acc.

9. If there be Tenant for life of Lands, the Remainder to B. and his Heirs in Fee, and he who hath the Fee dieth, and afterwards the Tenant for life dieth, and a Stranger abateth: It was Reſolved, that in that Caſe, It is in the election of the Heir, to have a Mortdaunceſter (which proveth his Anceſtor died ſeiſed in Fee) or a Scire facias, or a Formedon in the Remainder at his pleaſure. Cook 2. part, 61. in Wiſcotts Caſe.

10. Note, When any one bringeth an Aſſiſe of Novel diſſeiſin, Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter, or a Writ of Entry Sur diſſeiſin, or any other real Action, and he be barred by judgment upon Demurrer or Verdict, the Demandant and his Heir are not only barred of the ſame Action, but alſo as long as the judgment ſtandeth in force, he and his Anceſtors are barred of their Entry, and are put to their Action of a higher Nature; as Aiel, Beſaiel, Coſinage, &c. Cook 6 part, 7. and 8. Ferrer's caſe.

11. Note, For a Rule in pleading in an Aſſiſe of Mortdaunceſter; That if the Tenant of the Land or the Tenant by Warranty, plead a barr to the Aſſiſe viz. matter of Record, Releaſe, Collateral Warranty, &c. and it paſs againſt the Tenant the ſame is peremptory to the Tenant. But if he pleadeth in abatement of the Writ or Vouchee, which is Counterpleaded and found againſt him, there theſe three points ſhall be further inquired of: viz. If the Anceſtor died ſeiſed; If the Demandant is next Heir; and, If the Anceſtor died within 50. years; and theſe ought alſo to be found for the Demandant, otherwiſe he ſhall not recover; And if Iſſue be joyned upon one of the ſaid 3. points, and one of them is found againſt the Tenant, yet the other two points are to be enquired of; and in the principal Caſe no plea in barr was pleaded, but one of the points only traverſed. Monſtrans de Droit.

Where and to whom it lyeth; and where not; And where a Man may enter upon the Poſſeſſion of the King without Monſtrans de Droit, or other Proces, or Sute, where not.

1. Monſtrans de Droit, is given by the Statute of 34 E. 3. cap. 13. and is a ſute for the Subject in the High Court of Chancery; where Lands are by Office found before the Eſcheator ſeiſed into the Kings hands; by which Office the King is entituled to them, to the Freehold or Inheritance of them; there upon ſhewing of his Right in Chancery, if there be juſt cauſe, the Subject ſhall be reſtored to his lands and poſſeſſion. 2. Tenant in tail, the Remainder in tail, he in the Remainder bargained and ſold his Remainder to A. for the life of the Tenant in tail, and after his death the Remainder to the Queen in Fee upon condition. Tenant in tail ſuffered a common recovery and died without Iſſue, It was adjudged that he in the Remainder and all claiming under him were barred by the Recovery; and in that caſe it was argued, If the Remainder ſhould be diveſted out of the Queen without Petition or Monſtrans de Droit; and upon that, This Difference was taken, viz. When an Eſtate ſhall be diveſted out of a common perſon and veſted in another without Action or Entry, or Claim, there it ſhall be diveſted out of the King without Petition or Monſtrans de Droit, but when in ſuch caſe of a common perſon, the Eſtate ſhall not be deveſted out of him, there it ſhall not be diveſted out of the King without Petition or Monſtrans de Droit. Cook 2. p. 53. Sir Hugh Cholmley's caſe.

3. One deviſed Houſes in London deviſeable by the cuſtome and holden of the King in tail, and if the Donor died without Iſſue, that the Lands ſhould be ſold by his Executors, and died, the Deviſee died without Iſſue, the Land eſcheated to the King, Yet it was holden in that caſe, that the bargain and ſale of the Executors ſhould deveſt the Kings Eſtate without Petition or Monſtrans de Droit, and that by the bargain and ſale, the Bargainer was in paramount the eſcheat to the King. Vid. 39 Ed. 3. Iſſabell Goodcheaps Caſe.

4. A Diſſeiſor makes a Leaſe for life the Remainder to the King, If the Diſſeiſee or he who hath good right, recovereth againſt Tenant for life and entreth, It was holden that by that Recovery, the remainder was defeated, but if the Recovery be in feigned and upon no title, there the Remainder of the King is not touched, and ſo if the Diſſeiſee if he entreth he ſhall defeate the Remainder of the King. 5. Vid. For proof of the Rule in Sect. 3. before. A man ſeiſed of Lands in Fee for diverſe conſiderations Covenanted to ſtand ſeiſed thereof to the uſe of himſelf for life, and after to the uſe of his eldeſt Son in tail. Proviſo that at any time during his life with the conſent of diverſe by deed indented to be Inrolled in any of the Kings Courts to revoke any of the ſaid uſes, Eſtate, and to Limit uſes, And afterwards by deed Indented, and Enrolled in the Chancery, he revoked the uſes, and in part of the Land, and limited the ſame to him and his heirs, and afterwards by another deed he declared, that from the time of the Inrollment of that deed in the Chancery all the firſt uſes in the firſt Indenture ſhould be void, and that the Land ſhould be to the uſe of himſelf in Fee; and afterwards he levied a Fine of all the Land, and afterwards the deed was Enrolled in the Chancery: and after he entred and made claime and died: In this Caſe amongſt other things, it was Reſolved, That if the Fine had not been levied there by the Revocation the antient uſes were determined without entry or claim, becauſe he himſelf was Tenant for life of the Land, ſo that he could not enter upon himſelf, and claim he need not when he himſelf is ſeiſed of the Land, and makes an expreſſe Act of Revocation, which is as ſtrong as a claim can be. And ſo it was Reſolved, that the uſes in the principal Caſe did ceaſe without Entry or Claim. Cook 7. part, 174. Digs Caſe.

6. It was found by Mandamus, That A. was ſeiſed of certain Meſſuages &c. in London, and died without Heir, the Lands being holden of the King in Socage. The Corporation ſhewed their Right. That T. M. was ſeiſed of them in Fee, and by his Will deviſed them to the Wardens and Company of Sadlers: and that they were diſſeiſed by A. who died without Heir, and ſhewed that by the Cuſtom of London a Free-Man might deviſe his Lands in Mortmain. The Queſtion was, if Monſtrans de Droit did lye: Or they put to their Petition: And in that Caſe, it was Reſolved, 1. That at the Common Law when the King was ſeiſed of any Eſtate of Freehold by matter of Record were it by Judicial, Miniſterial, by Conveyance of Record, Or by matter in fact and found by Office of Record, He who had right could not have any Travers upon which he was to remove the Kings poſſeſſion, that was put to his Petition of Right: But when the King was entituled by matter in Fact, and found by Office of Record, If in the ſame Office the Title and Intereſt of the party was found there the party grieved might have Monſtrans de Droit. 2. Reſolved, That when the Kings Tenant dieth without Heir, The Fee and Freehold is preſently in the King without Office if the Tenant was in poſſeſſion at the time of his death, but when a ſtranger was in poſſeſſion at the time of the Eſcheate, there the King ſhould not be adjuged in in poſſeſſion untill that ſeiſin and poſſeſſion was removed: and when no Man is in poſſeſſion the Law will adjudge the King in Poſſeſſion according to his Title. 3. Reſolved, That when a common perſon againſt another common perſon was put to his real Action; In ſuch Caſes. In Caſe of the King he ſhould be put to his Petition, which is in the nature of a Real Action againſt the King. And it was reſolved in the principal Caſe; That although it ſhould be admitted, that the Corporation of Sadlers could not have a Monſtrans de Droit before Office found, yet when an Office is once found, the ſame ſhall have relation to the death of the Tenant without Heir, and then the Statute of 36. E. 3. cap. 13. extends unto it. Cook 4. part, 55, 56, 57, 58. The Caſe of the Warden and Commonalty of Sadlers.

7. Note, It was the opinion of Popham Chief Juſtice, That if the Heir of the Mortgager is in Ward to the King; and the Mortgager payeth the money, that his Entry is not lawfull upon the King, but in that Caſe he is put to his Petition, or Monſtrans de Droit. Hill. 43 Eliz. in B. R. Goldesbr. 125.

8. In a Monſtrans de Droit brought by William Paget, ſon of Tho. Lord Paget, the Caſe was this; Tho. Lord Paget ſeiſed of divers Mannors by Deed Indented Covenanted with I. S. That in conſideration of diſcharge of his Funeral, payment of his Debts and Legacies, and advancement of his ſon, & others of his blood, to ſtand ſeiſed of the ſaid Mannors to the uſe of the ſaid I. S. for the life of the Lord Paget, and afterwards to the uſe of C. P. and others for 21 years, and after the expiration of the ſaid Term of 21 years, to the uſe of William Paget his Son in Tail: Afterwards the Lord Paget was attainted of Treaſon: The firſt Queſtion was, if the uſes limited to I. S. and others were good or not; It was Reſolved, That they were void, becauſe there wanted a good conſideration, but if he had made the executors and chargeable to the payment of the Debts, then the ſame had been good. But the ſecond great Queſtion in the Caſe was, If the uſe limited to William Paget, ſon of the ſaid Lord Paget ſhould begin preſently after the death of the Lord Paget, or ſhould expect untill the 24 years were encurred, after the death of the Lord Paget, or not at all. This Caſe was very learnedly argued at the Barr, and the better opinion ſeems to be that it ſhould be in William Paget, preſently before the 24 years were expired: The Caſe was not Reſolved, but adjourned. Ideo Quære the Law in it. 9. In a Monſtrans de Droit, ſued by Roger Ratcliffe, the Caſe was this, Anno 17. E. 2. John de Mulo Laco, ſeiſed in Fee of the Mannor and Caſtle of Malgrave, gave the ſame to A. Bigod in Tail, which by diverſe deſcents came to Ralph Bigod in Tail, who 6. H. 8. made a Feoffment to the uſe of his laſt Will, and thereby after his Debts paid declared the uſe unto his right Heirs in Fee, and 9. H. 8. died, the Will was performed, F. Bigod Entred being Tenant in Tail, and 21. H. 8. made a Feoffment to the uſe of himſelf and K. his Wife, and to the Heirs of their two bodies. Then came the Statute of 26. H. 8. by which Tenant in Tail is to forfeit his Lands for Treaſon, which he hath in Tail. And then the Statute of 27. H. 8. of uſes is made. Then 28. H. 8. F. Bigod did commit Treaſon, and 29. H. 8. he is attainted and executed. A. 31 H. 8. A private Act of Parliament was made which did confirm the Attainder of Francis Bigod, and that he ſhould forfeit to the King (word for word as the Statute of 26. H. 8 is) ſaving to all ſtrangers, except the Offender and his Heirs, &c. 3 E. 6. The Heir of F. Bigod is reſtored in blood; K. Entred into the Mannor and died ſeiſed. 8. Eliz. the Iſſue Entred and maried with R. Ratcliff, who is Heir in Tail to Raph Bigod, and they continue poſſeſſion till 32. Eliz. And then all this is found by Office, and the Land ſeiſed for the Queen, who Granted the ſame to the Lord Sheffield in Tail: R. Ratcliff ſued a Monſtrans de Droit, whereupon a Scire facias Iſſued forth againſt the Lord Sheffield. And Judgement being given for Ratcliff in Court, The Lord Sheffield brought Error in the Exchequer Chamber. This Caſe was learnedly argued by the Councel at Bar and afterwards all the Judges: And for the ſaid Ratcliff, it was Objected, and ſaid. 1. That the old right could not be forfeitable to the Crown by the Statute of 26. H. 8. 2. That the perſon attainted had not that right by reaſon of the Feoffment, and therefore could not forfeit it. 3. The Heir was remitted by the deſcent of the Land. But it was reſolved by the Judges, nua voce, that becauſe here was an Actual Eſtate in Tail in the perſon attainted at the time of his Attainder, that that Eſtate was plainly forfeited by the Statute of 26. H. 8. 2 Reſolved, That the rights of him and his Heirs had been bound by that Law if there had been no ſaving; and there was no ſaving for them, becauſe they were excluded expreſly by the Act, and 3. Reſolved, That when all this appeareth by Office, then the Iſſue in Tail is barred notwithſtanding the Remitter. Wherefore Judgement was given for the King and the Lord Sheffield, and that the former Judgement given in the Court of Pleas ſhould be reverſed. Vide this Caſe, and the Arguments in it, Paſc. 21. 1. Where a Man ſhall make Title, maintain an Action, or Juſtifie by the Kings Letters Patents without ſhewing of the Letters Patents be he party, Privy, or Eſtranger to them, where not.

1. IN Treſpaſſe, The Defendant pleaded, that the King was ſeiſed of the Lands, where, &c. in Fee of the right of his Crown, and by his Letters Patents Granted the Land to I. S. for life, who lett the ſame to the Defendant for years, and averred the life of the Grantee: It was the better opinion of the Juſtices, that he need not ſhew the Letters Patents, and ſo it is of an Under Sheriff, Subcollector, Incumbent, becauſe they have no means to come to the poſſeſſion of them: But if the Patentee had Granted all his Eſtate to the Defendant, then the Defendant ought to ſhew the Letters Patent, Hill. 28. H. 8. Dyer 29.

2. An Information was againſt I. S. upon the Statute of 4. H. 7. cap. 9. for bringing in Gaſcoin Wines in a ſtrange ſhip. The Defendant pleaded as Aſſignee of part of a Licence of the King by Patent; but did not ſhew the Letters Patent, nor that the Patentee was alive, nor did he ſhew the Deed of Aſſignment, but averred, that there was a Cuſtom amongſt Merchants to Aſſign by word. Afterwards, it was Enacted by Parliament that the Statute of 4. H. 7. ſhould ſtand in force: It was the opinion of the Barons in the Exchequer that the Plea was not good without ſhewing the Letters Patents: but whether the Licence was determined by the ſaid Act of Parliament was not reſolved. M. 34. H. 8. Dyer 54.

3. In Treſpaſſe by an Aſſignee of a Leaſe for years, The Defendant pleaded that the Leaſe was upon Condition that the Leſſee ſhould not Aſſign it over, but by the Licence of the Leſſor by Deed, and that the Leſſee did Aſſign it over. The Plaintiff pleaded a Licence by Deed of the Leſſee without ſaying hic in Curia prolat. It was reſolved in that Caſe that the Plaintiff needed not to ſhew it, becauſe the Plaintiff did not claim by the ſaid Deed of Licence any Intereſt in the Land, but the Licence was only Collateral to it, and pleadable only to excuſe the forfeiture of the Leaſe, and it is not like a Leaſe or Confirmation which transferre a Right. 2. Reſolved, That when a Deed is requiſite ex inſtitutione Legis, there it ought to be ſhewed in Court, although it concern a Collateral thing, and transfer, or convey nothing. But when a Deed is requiſite ex poſitione hominis, there the Proviſion of man ſhall not change the Judgement of Law. As if the Farmer of the King bring Quo minus in the Exchequer, He ought to allege that he is Farmer of the King to enable him to ſue there, but he need not to ſhew the ſame to the Court. Cook 6. part, 33. Bellamys caſe.

4. In Treſpaſſe the Defendant juſtified and pleaded, That the King was ſeiſed of a Rectory in Fee, and demyſed the ſame to the Plaintiff for life, without ſhewing the Letters Patents to the Court; and that the Plaintiff demyſed the ſame to I. S. for eight years if he lived ſo long, and that he as ſervant to I. S. took the Tythes; upon which the Plaintiff did demurr. In this caſe amongſt other points it was reſolved, 1. That he who is party or privy in Eſtate or Intereſt, or he who juſtifies in the right of him who is party or privy muſt ſhew the Deed, although he doth not claim but parcel of the Original Eſtate, that is it may appear to the Court if it be legal or not; and that it may appear to the Jury that it is ſealed, it ought to be ſhewed in Court. 2. Reſolved, That where a man is a ſtranger to a Deed, or doth not claim any thing compriſed in the Grant, nor any thing out of it, nor doth any thing in the Right of the Grantee, there he may plead the Patent or Deed without ſhewing the ſame. 3. Reſolved, That the not ſhewing of the Letters Patents in the principal Caſe was matter of ſubſtance, and not of form. 4. Reſolved, That whereas an Eſtate is Created by Act in Law, and not by the Act of the party, there he ſhall not be compelled to ſhew the Deed as Guardian, Tenant in Dower, Tenant by Elegit, &c. Cook 10. part, 88. 1. IN a Quare Impedit the Plaintiff intituled himſelf to the next Avoydance by the Grant of the Patron made to a ſtranger, who made two Executors and died; and the Executors Granted the ſaid next Avoydance to the Plaintiff, and all their Intereſt in it, and then ſhewed that the Church was void, and averred that Avoyance to be the next Avoydance, and did not ſhew forth the Teſtament. 2. Note, It is ſaid and Reſolved by the Juſtices in Cook 9. part, 38. That as to bringing of Actions in the Kings Courts, The Judges do not admit the Executors to ſue for things in Action if they ſhew not the Teſtament duly proved under the Seal of the Ordinary: But alwayes the Kings Courts have uſed to allow the probate of any of the Executors to inable them to bring Actions; and further in that Caſe, It was reſolved, That probate of Wils did but of late times belong to the Ordinary, & if an Iſſue be joyned that Adminiſtration was not committed to the party, or that the Teſtament was not proved before the Ordinary, the ſame ſhall not be tryed by the Certificate of the Ordinary but by the Countrey, becauſe that Originally probate of Wills and Teſtaments did not belong to the Eccleſiaſtical Conuſance or Juriſdiction. Cook 1. part, 38. Henſlows caſe.

was as adminiſtrator poſſeſſed thereof at London: The Defendant pleaded the general iſſue, and it was found by ſpecial Verdict, That the Biſhop of York in Ireland being in England, granted Letters of Adminiſtration; In this caſe amongſt many other points, it was Reſolved, That upon the general Iſſue pleaded, the Jury might find a forein matter as a thing done out of the Realm. But the finding of the Letters of Adminiſtration was more than they had in Iſſue, and it was but matter of evidence, and the ſubſtance of the Caſe was the poſſeſſion and not the Adminiſtration, for he might have an Action of his own poſſeſſion without ſhewing the Letters of Adminiſtration. And Error aſſigned becauſe he doth not declare according to the uſual courſe, Quod ſcriptum Obligatorium conceſſit; nor any writing is mentioned in the Declaration, and that being faulty in ſubſtance it cannot be made good by plea or Verdict. But the opinion of the Court was, becauſe he ſhewed the writing, and the Defendant by his plea ſhewes, that it is an Obligation with a condition, and iſſue is thereupon, and found for the Plaintiff. That the Declaration was good enough; and it appears to the Court, the Plaintiff hath a juſt Debt, the judgment was affirmed. H. 6 Car. in B. R Courtney and Sir *Rich. 6. In Treſpas, the Defendant pleaded that A. was ſeiſed in Fee and died ſeiſed, and the Lands deſcended to two Daughters and Juſtifies by their command; The Plaintiff replyes, That A. was ſeiſed in Fee, and by Indentures covenanted with I. S. to ſtand ſeiſed, to the uſe of himſelf and the Heirs Males of his body, and for want of ſuch iſſue to the uſe of A. for life, the remainder to his eldeſt Son in tail, with diverſe remainders over are in tail, the remainder to the right Heirs of A. and died ſeiſed of ſuch eſtate without iſſue Male, R. entred, and the Plaintiff by his Licence put in the Cattel, and traverſed that A. died ſeiſed in Fee; The Defendant demurred becauſe the Plaintiff claiming by the deed of uſes doth not ſhew the ſame: But it was holden by the Court that the plea was good without ſhewing the Deed; 1. Becauſe it belongs not to him but to the Covenanters; 2. Becauſe it is an Eſtate executed by the Statute of uſes, and 3. Becauſe it is but an Inducement to the traverſe. Tr. 11. Car. in B. 7. The Queen granted Lands to the Earl of Lincoln by Letters Patents, the Patentee made a Leaſe of the Land to another, it was moved to the Court if the Patentee ought to ſhew the Letters Patents, It was Objected he ought not, becauſe they belong to the Earl. And Wogan's caſe, Plo. Com. 148. was vouched. Where an Abbot made a Leaſe to I S and afterwards the ſame Abbot made a Leaſe to another to begin after the expiration of the firſt Leaſe made to I S And exception was taken that he ought to have ſhewed the Deed of the firſt Leaſe, but the exception was diſallowed. But the opinion of the Court in the principal Caſe was, that becauſe the Leſſee deriveth his Intereſt from the Letters Patents, that he ought to ſhew them. M. 25 Eliz. in Co. B. Godb. 111, 112.

8. In an Action upon the Caſe the Plaintiff declared, that he was poſſeſſed of certain goods, viz. ſuch &c. at London, and in conſideration of 2. s. the Defendant at London did promiſe to carry the ſaid goods aboard ſuch a ſhip, if the Plaintiff would deliver the goods to him; and he ſhewed, that he had delivered the goods, and that he had not carryed them aboard: being found for the Plaintiff, It was moved in arreſt of judgment, that he did not ſhew when and where he delivered the ſaid goods to the Defendant, but only ſaid that deliberavit; It was the opinion of the Juſtices, that it was enough, for that the

ſhewing

ſhewing of that was but matter of Inducement to the promiſe, and ought not be ſhewed ſo preciſely. Paſc. 3 Car. B. R. Mole and Caters caſe. Godb. 41.

9. In Debt upon a Bond, the caſe was, A man was bound in a Bond, that he ſhould obſerve perform and keep the Rule, Order and final end of the Council of the Marches of Wales; In Debt brought upon the Bond, The Defendant pleaded, That the Council of the Marches Nullam ſicuram ordinem, The Plaintiff replied Quod fecerunt ordinem: The Queſtion was in this caſe, If the Plaintiff in his Replication ought to ſet forth and ſhew the Names of the Councellors by their proper names, It was ſaid for the Plaintiff, that he ought not: And Sir Rob. Bucklys caſe, Pla. Com. 126. was vouched, That the number of the Eſſoins ought not particularly to be ſhewed by their names. But in an Action brought upon the Statute of 23 H. 6. he may declare generally, that he was choſen per majorem numerum, and good: and 10 E. 4. 15. where the Defendant is bound to ſerve the Plaintiff in omnibus mandatis ſuis licitis, The Defendant did ſet forth that he did ſerve the Plaintiff ſuch a day, that he is not compellable to ſet forth the particular of the ſervices: On the other ſide, it was ſaid, That he ought to name, and ſhew the Council by their particular names. As if a man plead a Divorce, he muſt ſhew before what Judge, and ſo of a Fine; Alſo they ſaid, that the Replication was not good, becauſe the Plaintiff did not ſhew, that the Order was made by the Preſident: for by the Statute of 34 H. 8. It ought to be made by the Preſident and Council: The Court delivered no opinion in the caſe but it was adjourned. M. 4 Car. in B. R. Hill and Farleyes caſe. Godb. 436, 437.

10. In an Action brought upon the Statute of 32 H. 8. againſt ſuch as buy pretended Titles, If it be for the Demiſe of a Leaſe, the Plaintiff ſhall not be compelled to ſhew the Term, Rent, or any other circumſtance thereof, becauſe he is a ſtranger thereto, and (by intendment) can by no means come to the knowledge thereof. And vid. 35 H. 6. 8. where an Action is brought for goods carried away, the Defendant juſtifies, for that at the time of the Treſpas, he was Maior of the Town of C. and that the King had granted to the Defendant (being then Major) and to the Commonalty and their Succeſſors all goods of Outlawed perſons within the ſaid Town, and ſhewed that the Plaintiff was Outlawed, and ſo juſtifies, And by the better opinion of the Bench the plea was holden to be good without ſhewing the Letters Patents, becauſe they now belong to his Succeſſors and not to him, and he is now become a ſtranger to them, although he was once privy to them being Maior. Vid. Plo. Com. 80. in Patridge and Straoges Caſe.

11 Debt by an Adminiſtrator upon an Adminiſtration granted by an Inferior Ordinary the Defendant pleaded, that before the Adminiſtration granted to the Plaintiff, Adminiſtration was committed to him by the Gardian of the Spiritualties ſede vacante of the Archbiſhop, to quod the Inteſtate had bona notabilia in diverſe Dioceſes; The Plaintiff replied, That before the Writ brought the ſaid Adminiſtration in the Prærogative Court was revoked and annulled. It was Reſolved in that caſe, That becauſe the Defendant had not ſhewed in his bar that the Inteſtate had bona notabilia in certain, It ſhould be intended that Adminiſtration was granted when the Inteſtate had not bona notabilia in diverſe Dioceſes; But ſuch an Adminiſtration was not void but voidable. Vide Cook 8. part, 135. Sir John Needham's Caſe.

12. In an Action of Aſſault and Battery, the Defendant juſtified as Servant to I. S. becauſe the Plaintiff came to Fiſh in the ſeveral Piſcary of his Maſter, Judgment was for the Defendant and Error brought, and 2. Exceptions taken, 1. Where as the Defendant had in his plea of Juſtification entituled his Maſter to the ſeveral Piſcary by the K. Letters Patents, he had not ſhewed that the King was ſeiſed thereof Jure Coronæ, and ſo it might be that the King had not power to grant it. 2. Becauſe he did not ſhew the Letters Patents which he ought to do: It was the Rule of the Court, that Cauſe be ſhewed by a day, wherefore for theſe Cauſes the judgment ſhould not be reverſed. Paſc. 23 Car. in B. R. Jones and Young Caſe, Styles 15.

13. Upon a judgment given in an Action upon the caſe brought by an Adminiſtrator, Exceptions were taken, 1. That the Plaintiff did not ſhew his Letters of Adminiſtration. And 2. That there was no good Conſideration ſet forth to ground the Aſſumpſit upon; It was the opinion of the Court, that it was not neceſſary to ſet forth the Letters of Adminiſtration, becauſe they were but Inducements to the Action and not the ground of it; and for the ſecond, the Court held the Conſideration ſet forth to be good. 14. Treſpas

14. Trespasse for taking and carrying away four Ashes in a place called Car Close, The Defendant said that I. B. was seised of the Close in which, and by Indenture 21 Eliz. demysed the same to I. D. and others (inter alia) excepting the Wood and underwood there growing, to have for the life of one A. P. and Covenanted that it should be lawfull for the Lessees, and their Assigns to take necessary Firebote, Housebote, &c. to be expended upon the premisses. I. D. died, A. P. survived him, and took to husband I. N. and that the Lessees Assigned over their Estate to the said A. and the Defendant as her servant took the four Ashes for necessary housebote, and averred the life of A. It was thereupon demurred, because he justifies by force of a Covenant in an Indenture, and doth not shew the Indenture, it being a thing that cannot be granted without Deed. It was said for the Defendant, that in regard he justifies onely as servant, and doth not claim any title, that he needeth not shew the Deed of Covenant: But all the Court held the plea to be ill, for a servant justifying under the Interest of his Master, ought to shew the Deed, for it is the substance of his title, and without shewing it he cannot justifie, and it is his folly to justifie under one who neither could nor would shew the Deed. M. 8. Jac. in B. A. Pusey and Grimes Case. Cro. 2. part, 291 292.

15. L. brought a Scire facias in the Chancery against D. to avoid a Statute, the Case was this: H. acknowledged a Statute to D. and afterwards conveyed part of the Land lyable to the Statute to I. S. who conveyed it to L. the Plaintiff. Afterwards the Conusor conveyed other part of the Land to D. the Defendant who was the Conusee by Bargain and Sale, the Conusee extended the Lands of L. the purchaser, who thereupon brought the Scire facias to avoid the Statute because the Conusee had purchased part of the Land, and so extinguished his Statute. This Case coming by Mittimus in B. R. It was moved for the Defendant D. in Arrest of Judgement. That, the Bargain and Sale is alleged to be made to D. but it was not shewed that it was by Deed Enrolled: Yet it is pleaded, that virtute cujus of the Bargain and Sale the Conusee was seised, and doth not say that he Entred. The Question in the Case was, whether an Inrolment shall be intended without pleading of it: In which case this difference was taken by the Justices, where a man pleads a Bargain and Sale to a stranger, and where to himself. In the first case he needs not to plead an Inrolment, but contrary in the latter case: And another point was, what Estate he had before the Inrolment, if an Estate at Will, or if he were a Desseisor the better opinion seemed to be he had an Estate at Will by reason of the possibility of the Inrolments. Monopolies and new Inventions.

1. NOte, That every Gift or Grant of the King hath this Condition, either expressly or tacitly annexed to it, Ita quod Patria per donationem illam magis solito non oneretur seu gravetur, and therefore every Grant made in grievance and prejudice of the subject is void. Vide F. B. 222. in the Writ of Ad Quod Damnum, acc.

2. Coke in 1. part Institutes 379 saith, That new Inventions are full of Inconveniences, and therefore he saith, that when any Innovation or new Invention starteth up, the best way to trye it is by the Rules of the Common Law (which are indeed the Maxims of Reason) which being applied to such Novelties it doth utterly crush them, and bring them to nothing; and the Antient Judges and Sages of the Law have ever suppressed Innovations and Novelties so soon as they have offered to creep up, lest the quiet of the Commonwealth might be disturbed. Coke 1 part Institutes 181. 203. and 379. acc.

3. In a Quid Juris Clamat brought against E. F. she said, that she ought not to Attorn, because she was Tenant in Tail, and also because she was so weak and old that she could not Travel to the Court, she Prayed a Dedimus Potestatem: whereupon a Dedimus was awarded to Saunders, one of the Justices to receive an Attorney to appear for her; But because the same was conceived to be an Innovation and a new Invention, and that no President could be produced for the Warranting of it; Yet in regard of the Gentlewomans age age and infirm; the ſame was allowed of by the opinion of the Court in that caſe of neceſſity; though it was ſaid, it was rare to allow of ſuch proceeding without Warrant. Paſc. 4. Ma. Dyer 135.

4. Queen Eliz. by her Letters Patents Granted to Darcy, the making of playing Cards, and the ſole importation of all playing Cards into England for 21. years: And further by the ſaid Letters Patents prohibited, That no other perſon ſhould buy, import, or ſell any playing Cards within the Realm during the ſaid Term: A Citizen and Freeman of the Citie of London ſold a groſſe of playing Cards made within the Realm: In this caſe theſe points were Reſolved. 1. That the Grant of the ſole making of playing Cards within the Realm was void, 1. becauſe it is a Monopoly which is againſt the benefit and Liberty of the Subject, 2. becauſe the ſole Trade of any Menachical Artifice is a prejudice to all the Subjects, and only for the private Commodity of the Patentee, and a Grant of the King which is a prejudice to the Subject is void. 2. Reſolved, That the King cannot ſuppreſſe the making of playing Cards within the Realm, no more than the making of Dice, Bowls, Bells, Bales, &c. which are works of labour and skill, although that they ſerve for pleaſure or recreations: which cannot be ſuppreſſed but by Acts of Parliament. 3. Reſolved, That the Diſpenſation or Licenſe to have the ſole Importation and Merchandizing of Cards is void, and againſt Law: And in this Caſe, It was ſaid, That Privilegia quæ revera ſunt in præjudicium reipublicæ magis ſpecioſa habeat frontiſpicia, & boni publici prætextum, quam bona & Legales Conceſſiones, ſed prætexta Liciti non debet admitti illicitum. Coke 11. part, 74. 5. The Company of Merchant Taylors of London having power by Charter to make Ordinances for the better Rule and Government of the ſaid Company made an Order that every brother of the ſame ſociety who ſhould put any Cloath to be dreſſed by any Cloath worker not being a Brother of the ſame ſociety ſhould expoſe one half of his Cloaths to any Brother of the ſame ſociety, who exerciſed the Art of a Cloath-worker, upon pain of forfeiting 10. l. &c. and to diſtrain for it. It was adjudged in that caſe, That that Ordinance although it had the countenance of a Charter was againſt the Common Law, becauſe it was againſt the Liberty of the Subjects, for every Subject by the Law hath Freedom and Liberty to put his Cloath to be dreſſed by what Cloath-worker he pleaſeth; and cannot be reſtrained to any perſons, for that in effect ſhall be a Monopoly. 6. King E. 3. by his Letters Patents Granted to I. P. the ſole importation of ſweet Wines into England or London, It was holden at the Parliament holden 50. E. 3. that this Grant was void as a Monopoly. Vide 50. E. 3. Rot. Parliament Membr. 33. vouched in Coke 11. part, 87.

7. Queen Eliz. anno 43. of her Reign Granted to A. and B. by her Letters Patents the ſole Coynage, re-emption and tranſportation of all the Tin within the Counties of Devon. and Cornwall for 21 years under the Rent of 2010 l. per ann. to be paid yearly at the Receipt of the Exchequer. And Covenanted with the Patentees, that they ſhould hold and enjoy the ſame againſt the Queen her Heirs and Succeſſors during the ſaid whole Term of 21 years; the Patentees upon theſe Letters Patents diſburſed 100000. l. for the getting of all the Tin in their hands: The Rent of 2010. l. was unpaid, and King James in the firſt year of his Reign called in the ſaid Letters Patents, and then Granted the Arrearages of Rent to James Lewſton a Gentl. of his Bedchamber, who ſued the Patentees for the Arrearages of the Rent in the Exchequer, upon hearing of which caſe, It was reſolved in the Exchequer, that the ſaid Letters Patents for the ſole Coynage, re-emption, & tranſportation of the ſaid Tin was a Monopoly, and void, and yet the Patentees notwithſtanding their great diſburſments of the ſaid great ſums of monies which were to their utter undoings were compelled to pay the ſaid Arrearages of Rent: and had no relief againſt the Crown upon the ſaid Grant made by the ſaid Queen. 13. and 14. 8. By the Rule of the Common Law, All Inheritances were Fee ſimple, ſo as neither the Lords ſhould be defeated of their Eſcheats, Wards, &c. nor Purchaſers or Fermers loſe their Eſtates and Leaſes; To ſubvert this Rule of the Common Law, and the policy of it, The Statute of 13. E. 1. of Donis conditionalibus was made, which Ordained a general Perpetuity by Act of Parliament, By this Act of Perpetuity being a new Invention, Eſtate Tailes were not forfeitable for Felony or Treaſon, the Sales, Alienations, or Incumbrances of their An-

Anceſtors did not bind the Iſſue in tail: but this new invention of perpetuity continued from the time of E. 1. untill 12 E. 4. when the Iudges upon conſultation had did Reſolve that this Perpetuity of an Eſtate tail might be docked by a Common Recovery, and that by reaſon of the Intended Recompence the Common Recovery was not within the reſtreint of the ſaid Perpetuity made by the ſaid Statute of 13 E. 1. Vid. Cook 6. part, 40. in Sir Anthony Mildmayes Caſe. Cook 9. part, 128. in Soudayes Caſe. And Vid. Cook 8. part, 37. in Mary Portingtons Caſe. That cutting off the Intail by a common Recovery in 12 E. 4. was no new Invention, but was conſonant to the opinion of the Sages of the Law, even from the making of the ſaid Statute of Donis: as appeared by the Authorities of 43 E. 3. 33. 44. E. 3. 21, 22. Oſtavian Lambards Caſe, and 48 Ed. 3. 11. Brothers caſe, which Reſolutions and opinions of the ſaid Sages of the Law, with diverſe other Authorities did produce the ſaid Judgment in 12 E. 4. Cook 10. part, 37. in Mary Portingtons Caſe.

9. Upon a Fieri facias of the Goods of the Teſtator, the Sheriff returned, Nulla bona, And thereupon another Writ Iſſued forth to him to enquire by the Enqueſt, whether the Executors had waſted the Goods or not, The Sheriff returned Devaſtavit, whereupon execution was awarded of the Executor's own Goods, It was Reſolved in that Caſe, that the Execution ſhould be reverſed, becauſe the awarding of ſuch Execution was but a new Invention, of late dayes taken up, where as the ancient courſe was to ſue forth a Fieri facias to the Sheriff, to levy the Debt &c. of the Teſtators goods, and if it did appear unto him that the Executors had waſted the Teſtators Goods, the execution to be of their own Goods. Cook 5. p. 32. Pettiſers Caſe.

Mortage, Mortagior, and Mortgagee.

Mortgage, what it is: And how a Condition for payment of Monyes upon a Mortage ſhallbe ſaid to be performed, how not; where the payment ſhall be by the Heir and where by the Executor; And what Intereſt the Mortgagee hath in the Lands by the Mortage.

1. Mr. Littleton ſets forth a Mortage to be this, That if a man maketh a Feoffment in Fee of his Lands, upon condition, that if the Feoffor payeth unto the Feoffee a certain ſum of Money at a day certain, that then it ſhall be Lawfull for the Feoffor to re-enter; That in that caſe, the Feoffee is called Tenant in Mortgage, ſc. Mortuum vadium, and the cauſe why he is called Tenant, in Mortgage is, becauſe it is doubtful if the Feoffor will pay the Money at the day or not, and if he pay it not then is the Land forfeited for ever, and dead in Law as to the Mortgageor; and if the Feoffor pay the money at the day; then is the Land dead as to the Mortgagee: and by him Lands may be Mortgaged in tail for life or years: and all ſuch Tenants are called Mortgagees. Litt. Sect. 332, 332.

2. A bargained and ſold Lands to L S proviſo, That if the Bargainor paid to him his Heirs or Aſſignes 10. l. before Mich that the bargain and ſale ſhould be void, the Bargainee died, and the Bargainor paid the Money to his Executors, viz. 2 Eliz. Dyer 180, 181. It is a Quære if it was good, becauſe it is contrary to the expreſſe words, and the words Aſſignes will not help it, for although that an Executor be an Aſſignee in Law, yet he is not Aſſignee of the Land.

3. A man made a Feoffment in Fee of Land, upon condition, that if the Feoffor within a Moneth after the death of the Feoffee paid to his his Heirs, Executors, or Administrators 100. l. that then the Feoffment should be void, the Feoffee made a feoffment over and died, and afterwards within the year, It was agreed betwixt the first Feoffor and the heir of the Feoffee, that the Feoffor should pay the 100 l and that the heir should pay back all to the Feoffor but 20. l. which was done accordingly; the Feoffor entred the Lands pretending the condition to be performed; In this Case, these points were resolved. 1. That that payment was not any performance of the condition, because an estate of Inheritance was to be made by the payment of the said Money to the Heir, was to be divested out of the Assignee of the Land, and therefore the condition ought to have been performed in truth and verity, and not by a shadow or colour of payment; and estates of third persons shall not be divested by colourable payment, but by true and effectual payment. 2. It was Resolved, That the Feoffor should not have paid the Money unto the Assignee of the Land, for the Heirs, Executors and Administrators were expressed in the condition and not the Assignee. But the Assignee of the Land although he is not named in the condition amongst the Persons who shall pay the money, yet he may well pay the money for the safeguard of his Term: and so vid. the Quere in 1 Eliz. Dyer 180. before Resolved Cook 5. p. 96. Goodale's case.

4. Note, this difference was agreed by the Court for Law, That if a man makes a Feoffment upon condition that the Feoffee shall pay to the Feoffor his Heirs or Assignes 20. l. at such a day, and before the day the Feoffor makes his Executors and dies, the Feoffee may pay the money either to the Heir or to the Executors, because they are Assignees in Law to that purpose; But if the condition was, that if the Feoffor pay unto the Feoffee his Heirs or Assignes 20. l. at such a day, and before the day the Feoffee makes his Executors & dieth, there the Feoffor ought to pay the money to the Heir, and the reason of the difference is, because in the first Case the law for necessity ought to bind Assignes, because there cannot be Assignees in fact, because the Feoffor had but a bare condition and no estate in the Land, which he might assign over, but in the latter case, the Feoffee hath an estate in the Land which he may assign over, and where there may be Assignes in fact, the Law shall never appoint Assignees in Law, and although that the Feoffee made no Assignees of the estate, yet the Executors could not be Assignees, because Assignees were intended by the condition to be Assignees of the estate. M. 23 and 24 Eliz. in Cur. Ward. Randall and Barwas case. Vid. Cook 1. part, Institutes 210.

5. A man Mortgaged his Land, and the condition was, that he pay to the Mortgagee his Heirs Executors or Assigns, a certain sum of money at a certain day; the Mortgagee died and made his Heir within age his Executor, and the mortgagor paid the money at the day to the Heir, It was moved in that case, If the money should be assets in the hands of the Heir as Executor or not, It was the opinion of the Justices that it should be assets, and that he should not have the money as Heir; and although that he was within age, that he should be charged with it. M. 15 Eliz. in B. R. adjudge.

6. If the Feoffee in Mortgage before the day of payment which should be made unto him make his Executors and dieth, and his Heir enters into the Lands as he ought to do, In this case the Feoffor ought to pay the money at the day appointed to the Executors and not to the Heir of the Feoffee, because that the money at the first accurred to the Feoffee in the nature of a duty, and it shall be intended that the estate was made by reason of the lending of the money by the Feoffee, or in respect of some other duty. Cook 1. Institut. 219.

7. In Trover and Conversion of a Hatband beset with Perles and Diamonds, It was found by special Verdict, the Case was, A. pawnd a Hatband beset with Diamonds to B. a Goldsmith for 20 l. but no certain time appointed for the Redemption of it. B. being sick, his Wife in his presence and with his assent delivered it to D. the Defendant, and afterwards he made his Wife his Executrix and died, she Wife proved the Will, the Plaintiff tendred to the Executrix the 20 l. who refused it, and afterwards he demanded the Hatband of D. the Defendant, who refused to deliver it, but converted it to his own use; The first Question in this Case was, whether there being no time appointed for the redemption, whether it might be made after the death of him to whom it was pawned, or ought to be in the life time of both parties, It was Resolved, that it might well be made after the death of him to whom it was pledged, but not after the death of him that pledged it. For the pledge delivered is but a security for his money lent, so as he who borrows the money is to have again his pledge when he repays it, and his Tender gives him intereſt therein; and there is a difference betwixt Mortgaging of Lands and pledging of Goods, for the Mortgagee hath an abſolute intereſt in the Land, but the other hath but a ſpecial property in the goods, viz. to detain them for his ſecurity 2. In this Caſe it was Reſolved, that the tender of the money ought to be to the Executrix; and 3 when he tendred the money to the Executrix and ſhe refuſed it, it was as good as payment, and the eſpecial property of the good reverted on the Plaintiff. Hil. 9 Jac. in B. R Sir John Ratcliff and Davies Caſe. Cro. 2. part, 244, 245.

8. In Ejectione firmæ the Caſe was, A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee 10. Octo. 16 Jac. by Indenture of Feoffment mortgaged them to I. S. and his Heirs, upon condition that if he or his Heirs paid to I. S. and his Heirs 160. l. upon the 20. Octo. 1624. that he might reenter. Afterwards 30 Martii 1619 I. S. dyed, and by his Will gave to R. K. all his Goods, Monies, Bills, Bonds, Mortgages, or ſpecialties for Monies, and made him his Executor and died, and the 100. l. not being paid, R. K. entred and let the Land to the Plaintiff; It was Reſolved by the whole Court in this Caſe, That thoſe words, viz. All my Mortgages made a good deviſe of the Lands Mortgaged, and ſo judgment was given for the Plaintiff. Tr. 1 Car. in Co. B. Cripps and Gayſels Caſe. Cro. 1. par, 36.

In an Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, A. ſeiſed of diverſe Lands in A. B. and C. the Lands in C. being in him upon a Mortgage forfeited Deviſed the Lands in A. and B. to ſeveral perſons: and then adds this Clauſe in his Will, All the reſt of the Goods, Chattels, Leaſes, Eſtates, Mortgages whereof he was poſſeſſed, he deviſed to his Wife after his Debts and Legacies paid, and made his Wife his Executrix and died, the Wife entred into the Mortgaged Lands and deviſed them to the Defendant and his heirs and died: The Queſtion was whether the Fee paſſed to the Wife by this deviſe, by the name of all his Eſtates, Mortgages &c. It was ſtrongly urged, That in reſpect he had diſpoſed of his other Lands to his other Friends, and had not made any diſpoſing of the Mortgaged forfeited Lands, that it being in a Will his Wife had a Feeſimple in them: But it was the opinion of the whole Court, that an Eſtate for life only paſſed to the Wife, and it doth not appear that he intended to paſſe, but ſuch things to her whereof he was poſſeſſed, and of Freehold, whereof he was ſeiſed; and peradventure he was not poſſeſſed of this Land, For it is not found that the Mortgagee entred and was poſſeſſed, and commonly in Mortgages the Mortgagor reteines the poſſeſſion until the Mortgagee enters for a forfeiture, where Judgment was given for the Plaintiff. But it was agreed, That if he had deviſed all his Eſtate in ſuch Land, Or had mentioned, that he had ſuch Lands Mortgaged in Fee and deviſed this Mortgage, the Fee had paſſed. Tr. 10 Car. in B. R. Wilkinſon and Maryland Caſe. Cro. 1. p. 323, 324.

10 A man Mortgaged his Lands upon Condition, that if he or his Heirs repaid 100 l. at ſuch a day, that he ſhall reenter, he died leaving Iſſue a daughter only his Wife with Child with a Son, the Daughter and Heir at the day payes the 100. l. and afterwards the Son is born: The Queſtion was if the Son ſhould enter upon the Siſter, or if ſhe ſhould retain the Lands for ever, vid. Coke 1. part, 99. in Shelley's Caſe. This Caſe being referred to all the Judges out of the Court of Wards, four of the Juſtices doubted of it, and enclined: That becauſe ſhe hath it as Heir, that the neerer Heir after born ſhould have it out of the Daughter. But the greater part of the Juſtices, viz. ſix in number, were of opinion, that the Siſter ſhould retein the Land againſt the Son born after the performance of the Condition, For in as much as ſhe paid the money (and if ſhe had not paid it the Land had been loſt) if ſhe could not retain the Land againſt the Son ſhe had no remedy for the money, and by payment thereof ſhe gained the Land and is in as a purchaſor, although ſhe were entituled thereunto by a Condition; and ſhe ſhall retain it as ſhe ſhall the perquiſite of a villany, and as Land gained by her vigilance, for otherwiſe it ſhould be loſt to both, and ſhe ſhould loſe both Land and Money. 11. Note, by Williams Juſtice. A man pawns Goods, afterwards he is Outlawed, during this his Outlawry he cannot redeem them, and Mortgaged Goods if they be not redeemed, they ſhall not be forfeited by Outlawry, and if money be tendred to redeem them, and a Refuſal be to deliver them, this hath been adjudged to be a Converſion. 2. Where upon a Mortgage of Lands for payment of money, tender and refusal shall be sufficient to save the forfeiture; and when and where the tender must be made.

1. NOte, It was Resolved by the Justices, If upon Mortgage tender of the money be made to him who ought to receive it at the place specified in the condition at any time of the day, and the Mortgagee refuseth the money, the condition is saved for ever; and the Mortgagor (or Obligor, in case it be upon payment of money upon an Obligation) need not to make a tender of it again, at the last instance of the day, for that by the express Letter of the condition the monies are to be paid upon the day indefinitely: But if a tender be made in the place both parties being present, and the Mortgagee refuseth the money, there needs not any new tender within convenient time. Vid. 6 E. 6. br. Tender 41. Pla. Com. 173. Cook 1. p. 114. Walter case.

2. If a man be bounden to pay 20 l. at such a place, who tenders it accordingly, In an Action after brought against him for the money there needs not any other tender of the money in Court, because a tender in the place limited is sufficient. Vid. 7 H. 4. As in a Replevin the Defendant avowes for Rent, it is sufficient for the Defendant to say, that he tendred it upon the Land, and the Defendant refused it, without tendring it again in Court, and herewith agrees 12 E. 4. by Choke, but vid. 7 E. 4. 3. 19 H. 6. 12. 21 H. 6. 27 by Newton contrary: and according to that the Law seems to be, for that the sum conteyned in the Obligation is a present duty: But if the Obligation be to do any collateral duty or thing, there in such case there needs no any Tender as the old Books seem to be and agree. Vid. 47 E. 3. 26.

3. If a man enfeoff th another by Deed upon condition, that the Feoffor shall pay a certain sum of money, the Feoffor by accord betwixt them may give to the Feoffee a House, or a Ring of Gold in satisfaction, and yet the money is collateral in such case, having respect unto the Land, for if tender be made and refusal, he shall never pay the money. So if a man by Obligation be bound in 100 Quarters of Wheat, upon condition to pay 50 Quarters; he cannot give money or other thing in satisfaction thereof, because the contract was not originally for money but for a collateral thing, and in such case, If the Obligor tendreth it at the day, and the other refuseth it, he shall plead the same that he is yet ready, because that corn is bonum portatum, and it is a charge to the Obligor to keep it. Cook 9. p. 79. Peytoes case.

Mortmain.

1. NOrtmain is where Lands were given to any Religious House, or other Company who are not incorporated by the Kings Grant without Licence: In this case, the Lords of whom the Lands were holden mediate and immediate might enter into the Lands; and for default of such entry within the year and day the King might enter into the Lands; and such gift or alienation of Lands, is called Mortmain; as much as to say, that the Lands are put into dead hands: See for that the Statutes of Magna Charta cap. 36. West. 2. cap. 32. and the Statute of 7 E. 1. de Religiosis: And vid. the Statute of 15 H. 2. Cap. 5. That if a Feoffment in Fee, or other conveyance be made to the use of any Religious persons, or to the use of any Guild or other Fraternity or body Corporate without Licence, the same is Mortmain: and the same shall be subject to the Pains and Penalties of the Statute of 7 E. 1 de Religiosis, vid. Rastall Statutes, Tit. Mortmain, Sect. 1. 2. 9.

2. Lord, Mesne, and Tenant, the Tenane is an Abbot, and the Mesne is an Abbot, and the Tenant alieneth to the Mesne without Licence. It is a Question, If the Lord Paramount may enter, because the alienation is not to the prejudice of the Lord: vid. Cook Reports 11. part, 37. but I conceive it is a Mortmain within the expresse words of the Statute de Religiosis, the words of which Statute are, Quod nullus Religiosus ratione alicujus tituli cujuscunque terras &c. ab aliquo &c. recipiat, aut appropriare presumat.

3. If an Abbot hold Land of another by a certain Rent, and the Lord releaseth to the Abbot the Rent without the Kings Licence; it is the opinion of Fitzherb. in his N. B. 123. that the same is Mortmain, and that in such Case, a Writ of Ad quod damnum is to Issue forth, to whose prejudice it is; but vid. the old Books 38. Assiz. 5. br. Mortmain 20, 21 E. 3.

18. Br. Mortmain 31. that in that caſe it is not Mortmain, becauſe the Rent is extinct. vid in this Caſe Cook 7. part, 39. that although the Rent be extinct by the releaſe as betwixt the parties, yet as to the Lord Paramount it is in conſtruction of the Law inveſſe and the Lord ſhall have it.

4. If the King be Lord, and there be Meſne and Tenant, and the Tenant holdeth of the Meſne by homage and 20. ſhillings, and the Meſne holdeth of the King in Capite, and afterwards the Meſne doth Releaſe to the Tenant the 20. ſhillings to hold to him and his Heirs by homage and a penny: and this is done without Licence of the King, the King may ſeiſe the Lands for thoſe ſervices, and if in ſuch caſe, the King will grant and make reſtitution to the Tenant per avail; It ſhall not be good, unleſs it be enquired by Writ of Ad quod damnum, to whoſe prejudice it is.

5. The Friers Carmelites who had not any place of Habitation obteined of I. S. who was ſeiſed of 10. Acres of Lands holden of the Biſhop of W. to have the ſaid 10. Acres of Lands to build a Houſe upon for their habitation, and becauſe the ſaid I. S. could not grant them the ſaid 10. Acres by reaſon of the Statute of Mortmain; the ſaid I. S. to make an evaſion out of the Statute of Mortmain, conveyd the ſaid 10. Acres to the King and his Heirs, whereby the Biſhops Seignory was extinct, to the intent the King might grant the ſame to the ſaid Friers Carmelites, which the King did accordingly; It was adjudged in this Caſe, that the Kings Grant to the Friers ſhould be called in and cancelled. For being to a Religious Profeſſion, who had no Houſe of Habitation, and ſo might ſeem to be a work of Piety and Charity; yet the ſame was void, and the Letters Patents to them void, and the King could not be an inſtrument to take away the Right of the Biſhop: but in ſuch Caſe, if the Kings Licence only had been granted to the ſaid I. S. to have given the ſaid 10. Acres for to erect upon a Houſe for the Habitation of the ſaid Friers, and a Writ of Ad quod damnum had iſſued to inquire, to whoſe prejudice it ſhould have been, perhaps ſuch Grant made by the ſaid I. S. might have been good. Vid. 17 E 3. 59. Cook 11. part. 74. Magdalen-College caſe.

6 Vid. Where Lands given to charitable uſes, are not Mortmain, notwithſtanding, the Statute of Mortmain; and the Statute of 23 H 8. cap 1. which makes all Grants to perſons Incorporate or Corporate given to ſuperſtitious uſe to be utterly void: and Gifts and Grants made to Colleges, for the Education of youth in Learning, or to find Grammar-Shools And Lands given for the maintenance of Almſmen, and Almſwomen, are good uſes, and are out of the ſaid Statute of 23 H. 8. cap. 10. Cook 1. part, 23 H. 4. 25. in Porter's caſe. And Cook 11. part, in Magdalen-College Caſe.

7. Note, That in the Kings Licence to grant Lands to a Corporation, there needs not any Non obſtante the Statute of Mortmain, for that the King ſhall not be intended to be miſcony-ſant of the Law, and when he Licenceth expreſſely to alien to an Abbot (which is Mortmain) there needs no Non obſtante, for that it is apparent to be granted in Mortmain. Cook 1 p. Inſtit. 99. acc.

8 The King brought a Quare impedit againſt W. H of the Church of R. and made Title, for as much as the Biſhop of R. had preſented to the ſaid Church by uſurpation being void, (the Advowſon of which did of right appertain to three Daughters and Heirs) his Clerk who was admitted Inſtituted and inducted and he died, by which it belonged to the King to preſent, for as much as the Biſhop had gained that Advowſon to him and his Succeſſors without Licence, by which the Advowſon was become in Mortmain. The Defendant pleaded, That he is Parſon of the preſentation of W. Predeceſſor of the Biſhop that now is Thomas by name, ſo as the Patronage is in Thomas who was not named in the Writ. It was adjudged, in that caſe, that the Kings Writ was good enough againſt the Incumbent alone; becauſe he may give by the Statute what anſwer he will all one of the poſſeſſion of the Church. Cook 7. part, 27. in Halls caſe.

9 If a Church be appropriated to a Houſe of Religion, as to an Abby, &c. without Licence of the King, the ſame is Mortmain, and the King ſhall take advantage of it: A Writ of Right of Advowſon was brought againſt a Prior, The parties joyned the Grand Aſſiſe upon the meer Right, and the Demandant was Nonſuit, It was prayed, that judgment finall might be given againſt the Demandant. Hankford looked upon the Record and after ſaid, That the Prior claimed the Advowſon in the Right of him and his Succeſſors, and it is not declared, whether he held the ſame to his own uſe by Appropriation as Parſon by Licence of the Pope, or that he held the Advowſon as his Lay Fee by the Grant of the Patron and the Licence of the King. Horton we claim to hold the ſame to our proper uſe by the Appropriation of the Pope. Then the Juſtices ſaid that was not good, for that the Appropriation of the Pope cannot be good without the Kings Licence, and therefore it it was adjudged, That in regard the Licence of the King was not Recorded; ſo as it was an Alienation in Mortmain, without the Kings Licence, That a Writ ſhould be awarded to the Biſhop for the King. Tr. 11. H. 4. 87. Vouch. in Davies Reports in the Caſe of Commendam.

Murther and Manſlaughter.

1. MUrther is when any one of malice prepenſed, or forthought doth kill another felloniouſly. A. was Woodward of the Woods in a Park. B. with others entred into the Park to cut Wood, and B. climed up a Tree, and with a Hatchet cut down ſome boughs thereof. A. came riding into the Park, and ſeeing B. in the Tree, commanded him to come down, and he deſcending from thence, A. ſtruck him two blows upon the back with a Cudgel, and B. having a Rope about his middle, the one end of the Rope hanging down, A. tied the end of the Rope to his Horſes tayl, and the Horſe ran away with him, drew him upon the ground three furlongs, and by this means brake his ſhoulder whereof he inſtantly died, And A. caſt him over the Park pales into certain Buſhes: It was referred to all the Judges of England, If this was Murder in A. or not: And it was the opinion of all the Judges and Barons that it was Murder, for when the Boy who was cutting on the Tree came down from thence upon his command & made no reſiſtance, and A. ſtruck him then two blows, and tied him to the Horſes tayl, and then ſtruck him again, whereupon the Horſe ran away, and he by that means ſlain, the Law implyes Malice, and it ſhall be ſaid in Law pretenſed Malice, he doing it to one who made no reſiſtance: And A. had Judgement and was hanged for the Murder. M. 4 Car. in B. R. Hollowayes caſe. Cro. 1. part, 93.

2. Upon the Araigment of A. for the Murder of B. the Caſe upon the Evidence was this: B. was a Bayly ſworn to the Dean and Chapter of Weſtm. and he having the Sheriffs Warrant upon a Capias out of the Common Pleas to Arreſt A. ſeeing him within the Liberty of Weſtm. The ſaid A. ſeeing him come towards him, drew his ſword, and B. approaching to lay hold upon him, A. ſaid ſtand of, come not near me, I know you well enough, come at your peril, and B. taking hold of him, he thruſt him with his ſword that he died immediately: In this Caſe it was holden by all the Court that it was Murder. For he coming as an Officer to Arreſt, and not offering any other violence or provocation, although he uſed not the words I Arreſt you, or ſhewed him any Warrant becauſe he had not time, which was demanded the Caſe, the Law preſumes it to be Malice and Murder to him that ſo kills one being an Officer and tending to execute Proceſſe. Paſc. 6 Car. in B. R. Pew's caſe. Cro 1. part, 132.

3. Upon an Indictment of C. of the Murder of M. It was found, That M. was the Sheriffs Bayly, and had a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum againſt C. and his father, directed to him and other Bayliffs, who by colour thereof Entred C. Stable, and Outhouſe, and hid them there all night, and at 8 in the morning came to the dwelling houſe, and called him to open his doors, and ſuffer them to enter, becauſe they had ſuch Warrants upon ſuch Writs at the ſute of ſuch perſons to Arreſt him; But C. demanded them to depart, telling them they ſhould not enter. Whereupon they brake a Window, and afterwards came to the door of the houſe, and offered to force that open, and broke one of the hinges. Whereupon C. diſcharged his Musket at M. and ſtroke him, of which ſtroke the day following he died: It was reſolved by all the Juſtices in this Caſe, That it was not Murder but Manſlaughter onely: For although he killed a Bayliff, yet he killed him not in the duely executing of the Proceſſe, for it is not Murder unleſſe there be Malitia præcogitata, or Malitia implicita, as to Murder one ſuddenly, or in reſiſting of an Officer doing his Office, but here M. the Bayly was ſlain in doing an unlawfull act, in ſeeking to break open the houſe to execute Proceſſe, for a ſubject, which he ought not to do by Law. Cook 4. part, 91. Seaman's Caſe; and although he might have entred if the door had been open and Arreſted the party, yet he ought not to break open the houſe, for that is not warranted by Law; But the Court held the ſame to be Manſlaughter. Paſc. 15 Car. in B. R. Cooks caſe. Cro. 1. part, 386, 387.

4. Note, It was adjudged upon the Statute of 1. Jac. of deſperate ſtabbing to be Felony without Clergy, That becauſe that the party had a Cudgel in his hand, That that was a Weapon drawn within the Intent of the Statute, and the party was thereupon Araigned of Felony and not of Murder, and admitted to his Clergy. M. 5. Jac. At the Seſſions at Newgate. Vide Goabt. 154.

5. Note, It was reſolved by all the Judges in Mackalleys caſe, which ſee Cook 9. part, 66. That if any Sheriff, Undersheriff, Servant, or Officer, who hath Execution of Proceſſe be ſlain in doing his duty, it is Murder in him who kills him, although there was not any former Malice betwixt them: For the Executing of Proceſſe is the life of the Law; and therefore he who kills him ſhall loſe his life. For that Offence is contra poteſtatem Regis, & legis, and therefore in ſuch Caſe there needs not any enquire of Malice: The Law is the ſame, If any Juſtice of Peace, Conſtable, or other Officer, or any other, who comes in their aſſiſtance for the preſervation of the Peace be ſlain in executing that Office, it is Murder. So if a Watch-man be killed in ſtaying Night-walkers it is Murder. 2. It was reſolved in that Caſe, That if there were Error in awarding of the Proceſſe, or in the miſtake of one Proceſſe for another, and an Officer be ſlain in the Execution thereof, the Defendant ſhall not have advantage of ſuch Error: But the reſiſting of an Officer when he comes to make an Arreſt in the Kings name is Murder. 3. Reſolved, that the Arreſt made in the night, and alſo upon the Sunday was good, and 4. it was holden that when an Officer is ſlain, there needs not any ſpecial Indictment upon all the mattet to be drawn, but a general Indictment that ſuch a party ex Malitia ſua præcogitata &c. ſet, &c. and although there be not Proof made of any precedent Malice, yet the Indictment is good, for that the Law preſumes Malice. Cook 9. part, 66. Mackalley's caſe. Cro. 2. part, 280. the ſame caſe.

if

6. Upon an Indictment of I. R. of the Manor of W. D. the Caſe was this, W. R. ſon of I. R. fighting with I. D. in the field, and the ſaid I. D. beating him ſo as his Noſe bled; he thereupon went to the father, telling him of the ſaid battery, whereupon he inſtantly went into the field, and finding him, called him Villain, and ſtruck him with a little Cudgel whereof he inſtantly died. It was reſolved by the Iuſtices that this was but Manſlaughter and not Murder, for he came upon the complaint of his ſon, not having any Malice before, and in that anger beating of him, of which ſtroke he died, the Law ſhall adjudge it to be upon that ſudden occaſion and ſtirring of blood, being alſo provoked at the ſight of his ſons blood, and will not preſume it to be upon any former Malice, and although the diſtance of place where his ſon complained was a Mile from the place the ſtroke was given it is not material, being all upon one paſſion. H. 9. Jac. in B. R. Royſyer caſe. Cro. 2. part, 296.

7. Note, It was agreed by the Juſtices, and ſo reſolved: That if two do quarrel and fall out, and one of them doth give the cauſe and provocation, and ſends a Challenge to the other, and the other accepts of it, and upon this they enter Combat, and he which ſends the Challenge is killed, this is clearly Murder in the other, for it is not material in the Law who begins the quarrel (ſo as there was a former quarrel) and the Malice ſtill continuing untill the laſt ſtroke given: For the difference will be this, If they are once reconciled for the firſt matter, and afterwards they happen to fall out again ſuddenly, and do fight, and one kills the other, it is but Manſlaughter: But where time and place is appointed upon a Challenge, and the parties ſleep upon it, and ſo they fight, and he who doth not give the provocation, nor ſends the Challenge kills the other, the ſame is Murder, and where there is a mutual conſent to go to a place, and there to perform a fight, where they were not for their defence but to fight, each of them carries Malice with him, and then if the one is killed, the other is guilty of the Murther. Paſc. 14. Jac. in B. R. The King and Taverners Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. part, 171, 172. Vide Tr. 8. Jac. in B. Morgan and Egertons Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. part, 86, 87. to the ſame purpoſe. acc.

8. Divers men playing at Bowls at M. in the County of K. two of them fell out, and quarrelled the one with the other, and a third man who had not any quarrel in revenge of his friend ſtruck the other with a Bowl of which blow he died: This was holden by the Iuſtices to be but Manſlaughter, for that, that it happened upon a ſudden motion in revenge of his friend. Tr. 9. Jac. in B. R. Cook 12. part, 87.

9. If a man who is Non Compos mentis gives himſelf a mortal wound, and before he dieth he becomes of ſave memory, and afterwards dieth of the ſame wound, In this Caſe, although he dieth of ſane memory, yet becauſe the Original cauſe of his death, viz. the ſtroke was when he was Non Compos mentis, he ſhall not be felo de ſe, becauſe the death hath relation to the Original act which was the ſtroke: And ſo, if a ſervant hath an intent to kill his Maſter, and before execution of his intent leaveth his Maſters ſervice, and being out of his ſervice executeth his purpoſe and killeth him who was his Maſter, the ſame is Petit Treaſon, for the Execution doth look to the Original cauſe, which is the Malice which was conceived when he was with his Maſter; and yet if the Law ſhould in ſuch Caſes make conſtruction according to the ſeverall times, it would be clear, it would be no

Petit

Petit Treaſon. Cook 1. part, 99. in Shellcys Caſe.

10. In Treſpaſſe of Aſſault and Battery, The Defendant pleaded that he was amongſt others by the Command of the Lords of the Councel a Trained Soldier in London, in the Band of one A. a Captain, and ſo was the Plaintiff, and that they were skirmiſhing with their Muskets charged with powder, for their exerciſe, in re militari, againſt another Captain and his Band, and as they were skirmiſhing, the Defendant caſu lato & per infortunium, & contra voluntatem ſuam in diſcharge of his Piece did wound and hurt the Plaintiff, abſque hoc that he was guilty aliter, or alio modo. And upon Demurrer Judgement was given for the Plaintiff: For although it was agreed, That if men Tilt, or Turney in the preſence of the King; Or if two Maſters of Defence playing their Prizes kill one another, it is not Murder, Manſlaughter, or Felony; Or if a Lunatique kill a man, or the like; becauſe Felony muſt be done animo felonico. Yet in Treſpaſſe which tends onely to give damages according to the hurt, or loſſe, it is not ſo, and therefore if a Lunatique hurt a man, he ſhall be anſwerable in Treſpaſſe; But it was agreed that in the principal Caſe, if the Defendant had ſaid that the Plaintiff ran croſſe his Piece when it was diſcharging, or had ſet forth his caſe with the Circumſtances, ſo as it had appeared to the Court, that it had been inevitable, & that the Defendant had committed no neglect to give occaſion to the hurt: in ſuch caſe perhaps it might have been that no Judgement ſhould have been for the Plaintiff. Paſc. 14. Jac. in B. R. Weaver and Watts Caſe. Hob. 134.

11. This Caſe was at the Seſſions in the Old Bayly. One Lovel had two Maid-ſervants, one of them without his knowledge had received into the houſe a Chair-woman, who, (all being in their beds) by her negligence let a Thief into the houſe, and afterwards called out Thieves, Thieves; Afterwards Lovel came out of his bed with a ſword in his hand, and the Chair-woman calling to mind that ſhe was there without his privity, or his Wives, hid her behind the Dreſſer, and Lovel's Wife eſpying her there, cried out Thieves, Thieves; For which Lovel came and run her into the breaſt with his ſword: It was the opinion of all the Juſtices in this Caſe, That it was neither Murder nor Manſlaughter; Not Murder, becauſe there was no forethought of Malice; Not Manſlaughter, becauſe he ſuppoſed her to be the Thief, and if ſhe had been the Thief, then it was clear that it was not Manſlaughter. Tr. 15. Car. at the Seſſions at the Old Bayly, Lovel's Caſe. Marſh 5. Vide the like Caſe, P. 15. Car. in B. R. Cro. 1. part, 387. It was holden that in ſuch a Caſe, it was Manſlaughter.

12. Note, It was reſolved by all the Juſtices in this Caſe: That if a man putteth poyſon into an Electuary Potion, or other thing, to the intent to poyſon I. S. That although another man comes and drinks of it by accident, or ſtirs it with his knife and eats of it, ſo as he dieth of it, that the ſame ſhall be adjudged Murder; for the King, by the putting in of the poyſon with a Murderous intent, hath loſt a ſubject: But if one prepareth poyſon, or Ratsbane for to kill Ratts, and layeth the ſame in a certain place for that purpoſe with no ill intent, and another man finding of it, eateth of it and dieth, the ſame is no Felony, becauſe that he, who prepared the poyſon had no Felonious intent. Cook 9. part, 81. Anne Gooſes Caſe.

13. A. was Indicted of Murder of E. his Daughter, becauſe he gave to her two pieces of a roaſted Apple mixt with poyſon, called Arſnick, whereof ſhe died, and B. was Indicted as Acceſſary, becauſe that he prædict. A. ad murdrum prædict. faciend. & perpetrand. Felonice procuravit & conſuluit; upon Evidence given to the Jury the matter appeared to be this. A. had a purpoſe to kill his Wife, and he declared his purpoſe to B. and he counſelled him to poyſon her, and to that intent B. bought Arſnick, and delivered the ſame to A. to give to his Wife, and afterwards he gave it to his Wife lying ſick in a roaſted Apple, and the Wife eat a little of it, and gave the reſt to the ſaid E. the Daughter being of the age of three years. And A. ſeeing it ſuffered his daughter to eat of it, and the daughter died of the poyſoning: The Juſtices were clear of opinion, That A. was guilty of the Murder of E the daughter, for he had a Malicious intent to kill and poyſon his Wife when he delivered her the ſaid poyſoned Apple, and when that upon a Contingent afterwards killed his daughter though he intended not to kill her, yet his Offence was as great as if he had intended it: But if B. ſhould be adjudged guilty as Acceſſary to that Murder the Juſtices doubted of it: And afterwards upon Conference had with all the reſt of the Juſtices, they agreed not to give Judgement againſt B. becauſe they took the Law to be, that he could not be Acceſſary to the ſaid Offence of Murder, becauſe he did not aſſent that the daughter ſhould be poyſoned, but his procurement and aſſent was, that the Wife onely ſhould be poyſoned, which aſſent could not be be drawn further then he gave it, for the poyſoning of the daughter was a diſtinct thing to which he was not privy: and therefore he could not be Acceſſary to it. Hill. 8. Eliz. Saunders caſe. Plo. Com. 473. K. 476. H.

14. Divers perſons having a Malicious intent to kill Dr. Ellis, killed his ſervant unto whom they bore no former Malice; Yet it was adjudged Murder, becauſe of their Murderous intention which was the cauſe of his death, but it is otherwiſe when one having no Malicious intent joyns himſelf with others that Commit a Murder, for that is but Manſlaughter in him that ſo ſuddenly joyns with them. Plo. Com. Matters of the Crown 99. acc.

15. Upon an Affray made, the Conſtable, and others in his Aſſiſtance came to ſuppreſſe the Affray, and in doing of their Office, the Conſtable, or other of his Aſſiſtants are ſlain, this is Murder in Law, although that Murderer doth not know the party that was ſlain, and although the Affray was ſudden, becauſe the Conſtable and his Aſſiſtants come by Authority of Law to keep the Peace, and therefore the Law adjudgeth it Murder. Cook 4. part, 51. Longs caſe.

Natu-

Naturalization.

1. NOte, A man cannot be naturalized with limitation for life, or intail, or upon condition; for that is against the absolutness or indelebility of natural allegiance.

2. If an Alien be made a Denizen by Letter Pattent, if he had issue born in England before his denization, that issue is not inheritable to his Father; but contrary, if the Father be naturalized; But if an English man hath issue born beyond sea, if the issue be naturalized by Act of Parliament, he shall be inheritable to his Father; but if he be only made Denizen by Letters Pattent, then he shall not inherit his Father. Cook. 1. part. Institut. 128.

3. A man may be an Alien although he be born under the allegiance of the King; but if a man be born sub fide, allegientia, obedientia domini Regis, he is a natural born subject; vide Cook. 7. part. in Calvins Case 22. All such persons as were born in Normandy, Gascoigne, Acquittaine, Callice, &c. whilst they were in the dominions of the Kings of England, were natural born subjects. cap. 7. part. 22. &c.

4. Stephano Ferrara de Gama & Emanuel Lewes Fineco who were Portugals, being in England and under the Protection of the Queen, joyned in treason within the Realm with Dr. Lopez who was also an Alien born, it was resolved in this case, that although the said parties owed to the Queen a local Allegiance; yet the Indictments of them could not conclude that they committed treason contra dominam suam naturalem, because they were not her natural subjects; but their Allegiance was due only ratione loci; and therefore it was resolved, that the conclusion of their Indictments should only be contra allegientiæ suæ debitum Kill. 36. Eliz. in B. R. Cook 7. part 6. in Calvins case.

5. C. G. an Alien of Spain had issue D. born beyond sea under the Allegiance of the King of Spain, 4. Eliz. they came both into England, and the Father was made Denizen, and here had issue C. his yonger son; 3. years D. was naturalized by Act of Parliament, and afterwards purchased Copyhold lands, and dyed without issue; whether C. the younger son should inherit this land, was the question. The words of the Act of Naturalization were, that D. shall be enabled to purchase, inherit, have and enjoy, and demand as heir to any ancestor lineal or collateral: and that he be adjudged a natural subject of the Kingdom of England in every respect, condition and degree, to all intents, constructions and purposes; The doubt grew upon this, because it is enacted that he shall be heir to his ancestor lineal or collateral, but it doth not say, that they shall be heirs to him: and it was objected, that at the time of the Fathers death the eldest son had no inheritable blood in him: but it was resolved, that the Law respects not the blood where there is not any Allegiance; but in this case it is as if an Alien hath a son who is an Alien, and after the Father is made a Denizon, then hath another son born here, the second son shall inherit, although the eldest son be alive. And in this case it was resolved, that there needed not any blood from the Father, because the land came not from the Father, but by the purchase of D. and therefore it was adjudged that the younger son should inherit the land; and in this case it was said, that Naturalization is alwaies by Parliament, and perpetual. 6. Note, that although (since the time that King James took upon him the Crown of England) a Postnatus, or a Man born in Scotland, or any of his posterity, be the heir of a Noble man in Scotland, and by his birth is legitimated in England, so as he may inherit lands as any other natural born subject; yet he is none of the Peers or Nobility of England: for his natural allegiance and obedience due by the Laws of nature, maketh him a subject, and no Alien in England; but that subjection maketh him not Noble within England; because Nobility hath it is original by the Kings Creation, and not by nature. Cook. 7. part 15. in Calvins Case.

Name.

1. What it is what are names of Dignity: and where the parties ought to be named by such Names, where not: where a Name of Dignity shall be lost by intermarriage, taken for them where not, where it shall discend; and where it may be lost, or suspended, and of other things touching Dignities.

1. NOmen is quasi rei notamen: and Nomina sunt nota rerum: and were invented to made a distinction betwixt person and perſon, and betwixt one thing and another. Cook. 11. part 20. in Dr. Aries Caſe.

2. Nomen dicitur a Noſcendo, quia Notitiam facit. Cook. 6. part 65. in Sir Moile Finches Caſe. And Nihil facit Error Nominis, cum de corpore conſtat. Co. 11. part 21. in Ayries Caſe.

3. Duke, Earl, Dutcheſs, Counteſs, Baron, Baroneſs, Viſcount, Viſcounteſs, are names of Dignity: and the Caſe was, Ann Barroneſs of Mountgeale being a Widdow, did retain a Chaplain, who did purchaſe a diſpenſation to have a plurality; and before that he was preſented, the ſaid Baroneſs took to husband the Lord Compton being a Peer of the Realm, and afterwards the Chaplain was admitted, inſtituted and inducted into the ſecond benefice: It was reſolved that the Chaplain might obtain a ſecond benefice, and that the detainer was not countermanded by the intermarriage. Cook 4. part 117, 118. Athons Caſe.

4. It was reſolved, that the perſon of one who is a Counteſs by marriage, or by diſſent, cannot be arreſted for debt or treſpaſs; for although ſhe cannot ſit in Parliament, yet ſhe is a Peer of the Realm, and ſhall be tryed by her Peers; and the Law preſumes that ſhe hath ſufficient in which ſhe may be diſtrained: And the wife of an Earl, in a Writ ought to be named Counteſs by her name of Dignity. 2. It was reſolved, that the perſon of a Baron who is a Lord of Parliament, cannot be arreſted by his body in debt or treſpaſs; for he ſhall be tryed by his Peers; and by reaſon of his Dignity ſhall be intended to have ſufficient to anſwer the party: And Barons who are Peers of the Realm, may not be ſworn upon inqueſts without their wills. But in that Caſe it was ſaid, that if a Baroneſs, or a Counteſs by marriage doth marry another again under the degree of a Noble man, ſhe hath loſt her name of Dignity; quia ſi mulier nobilis nupſerit ignobili, deſinit eſſe nobilis; & eodem modo quo quicquid conſtituitur diſſolvitur: But if a woman be Noble by birth, and diſſent, who ever ſhe after marries, yet ſhe remains Noble, for that birthright, is Character indelibilis. Cook 6. pt. 53, 54. Iſabel Counteſs of Rutlands Caſe

5. The Caſe was in 21. R. 2. Ralph Nevil Lord of R. was created Earl of Weſtmerl. to him and the heirs males of his body, which Ralph by M. S. his firſt wife had iſſue Ralph, to whom Charles late Earl of Weſt. was lineal heir male of the body of the firſt Donee: The ſaid Ralph the firſt Donee, by the daughter of John of Gaunt had iſſue George Lord Latimer from whom is diſcended Edward Nevil, who is the next iſſue male of the firſt Doner; Charles was attainted by Act of Parliament, and dyed without iſſue: The queſtions in the caſe were, 1. If the ſaid dignity upon the firſt creation were an eſtate taile within the ſtatute of Donis, &c. 2. If it were forfeited by the ſtatute of 26 H. 8. cap. 13. of treaſon: in this Caſe it was reſolved. 1. That the name of dignity of an Earl, Viſcount, &c. might be entailed in one and the heirs males of his body, and was within the ſtatute of Donis, becauſe it concerned lands; and every Earl was created of ſome place; vide 32. H. 6. 28 2. Reſolved, that that dignity (if the ſtatute of 26. H. 8. had not been made) might be forfeited by attaindor of treaſon, by a condition in Law being annexed to the dignity, becauſe the ſame is an office of great truſt repoſed in him by the King; and when ſuch a perſon againſt his duty and the end of his dignity, commits treaſon, and is attainted for it, by that condition in Law tacite annexed he hath forfeited the dignity. 3. It was forfeited within the ſtatute of 26. H. 8. becauſe a dignity is an hereditament, within the ſaid ſtatute. Cook. 7. part 33, 34. Nevils Caſe. vide Cook. 8. part 16, & 17. the Princes caſe, where a dignity was created to go by way of diſcent, to the firſt begotten ſon only of the Kings of England; which grant, was, by Act of Parliament 11. E. 3. to the eldeſt ſon of the King created Duke of Cornwall.

6. Note the King by his Letters Pattents, may create an Earl for life, in tail, or in fee; But the King cannot by his Letters Pattents grant to one that he, his Executors and Adminiſtrators ſhall be Earls for years; for then his Executors or Adminiſtrators, one being appointed by him, and the other by the ordinary, ſhould be Earls. Cook. 9. part 97. in Sir George Reynelds Caſe.

7. In debt upon an obligation the defendant pleaded, that after the firſt continuance, the Plaintiff was made a Baronet; and whether the Writ ſhould abate or not, was the queſtion: for the ſtatute of 1. E. 6. recites the dignities of Dukes, Earls, Barons, &c. but mentions not Baronets, whereby it ſeems it was not a dignity known at the time of the making, & that ſtatute, the Court doubted If it were a dignity created after the ſtatute, whether the ſaid ſtatute ſhould extend unto it in equity; and the Court decreed that the Plaintiff ſhould demur thereupon. But in regard it was pleaded only in the abatement of the Writ, and it would be but a Reſpondes Ouſter, though judged for the Plaintiff, the Plaintiff offered to bring a new Original, & the defendant was contented to appear gratis to it, and plead in bar, and ſo the doubt was not reſolved. Hill. 3. Car. 5. Br. R. Sir Simon Bennets Caſe. Cro. 1. part 74.

8. Sir Hen. Ferrers was indicted by the name of Sir Hen: Ferrers as acceſſary to the murder of one I. S. Upon the indictment he being arraigned, ſaid, that he was never Knighted; wherefore he was indicted de novo by the name of Sir Hen. Ferrers Baronet; and he pleaded not guilty: upon the evidence evidence it appeared he was arrested for debt, and that his servant seeking to rescue him, killed the said I. S. but because the Warrant to arrest him was by the name of Sir Hen. Ferrers, &c. it was held by the Court that it was such an essential variance of part of his name, that they had no authority by that name to arrest Sir Hen. Ferrers Baronet; so the killing of the officer in executing the Warrant could not be murder. Also it appeared upon the evidence he obeyed the arrest, and was in the house before the fighting betwixt the officer and servant; wherefore he was found not guilty of murder and manslaughter. Pas. 11. Car. in B. R. Sir Hen. Ferrers Case. Cro. 1. part 271.

9. The Case was, the Grandfather was summoned to Parliament by Writ, and dyeth. Afterwards the Father is disabled by Parliament during his life to claim any dignity or Seignory by discent, or otherwise: After the Father is called to another Parliament by a Writ of summons, and dyeth; The question was, if the Son should be restored to the seat of his Grandfather in Parliament, or unto the seat of his Father. It was resolved, that he should be restored to the seat of the Grandfather; and a difference was taken betwixt a disability personal and temporary, and a disability absolute and perpetual: As if one be attainted of felony or treason, the same is a perpetual disability and corruption of the blood for any of his posterity to claim any hereditament in fee as a son and heir to him, or to any Ancestor above him. But when one is but disabled by Parliament (without any attainder) to claim a dignity for his life, the same is a personal disability for life only, and his heir after his death may claim as heir to him or any Ancestors above him. 2. It was resolved, that the acceptance of the new creation by the Father, could not hurt the Son, because the Father at that time was disabled; nor was a Baron but an Esquire, so as when the old and new dignity discend together, the old shall be preferred. Cook 11 part 1 the Case of the Lord De la Ware.

10. Sir John Savile was sued in Co. B. for battery and wounding, and found guilty, and damages 3000. l. upon a Writ of Error before judgement was executed, he procured a Writ out of the Chancery to the Justices of the Kings Bench: and shews, that Sir John Savile his Father was created Baron for his life, and afterwards the Barony was limited to him, and the heirs males of his body, and the Writ recites that he is a Peer of Parliament, and therefore it commands that no proces be awarded against him, but what is awarded against a Peer of the Realm. It was prayed on his behalf that the said Writ might be recorded, and offered a plea concerning such matter; and prayed that no proces of execution might be against him, but what ought to be against a Peer of the Realm. The Court appointed the Writ to be recorded; but for the plea, because there never was any such president, and for that he is not defendant in the Action, for he is plaintiff in the Writ of Error, and hath no day to plead, the plea was rejected, and the judgement was affirmed, and the Court would advise what the execution should be. M. 6. Cor. in B.R. The Lord Savils Case. Cro. 1. part 149.

2. Where the mistaking of the true Name in Writs, Grants, Pleas, or other things, shall make them void and of no effect: what shall be a sufficient Name to purchase or Grant, what not.

1. ERror of a judgement in Co. B. in an ejectione firme; where judgement being given against one of the defendants, it was assigned for Error, because in the Venire facias Constantinus Callard was returned and so named in the Distringas, but in the Pannel annexed thereunto by the Sheriff Constantius Callard was returned and sworn; and so returned by that name upon the back of the Postea; and that Error being assigned ore tenus, the record of Venire facias and Distringas being removed before, it was holden by the Court to be a manifest Error, for that they are distinct names of baptisme, and there cannot be any amendment, as this case is. M. 2. Jac. in B.R. Blunt and Snedstons Case. Cro. 2. part. 116.

2. In Audita Querela the defendant pleads that the plaintiff was not to be answered, because he was outlawed by the name of Peter Griffith. It was demurred thereunto, because Peter and Peirs are two names of baptisme; so it cannot be averred to be one and the same person: and, 2. or that the outlawry in this suit is not pleadable; but it was adjudged, 1, That they are but one name; for so it appears by Peirs Gaveston, who in some Acts of Parliament is so named, and in some other Peter Gaveston, and yet but one person. 2. Resolved, that the outlawry is not well pleaded in this suit; for a person outlawed is not receivable to sue in any Court, unless it be to redress his own outlawry. Case. 15. Jac. in B.R. Griffith and Middletons Case. Cro 2. part. 425.

3. In trespass upon not guilty, and found for the plaintiff, it was moved in stay of judgement, that upon the Venire facias, there wanted these words Qui fuit Juratus per plegios, ſo it is as if there had been no return of the Writ. 2 Exception was taken that a Jurour was named Franciſcus in the Venire facias; and upon the Diſtringas Francus. To the firſt, It was holden by the Court, that it was not as a blank return; or that the name of the Sheriff is omitted; but here it is an inſufficient return, which is helped by the Statute of Jeofals: and as to the ſecond exception, the Court held that they were both one name abbreviated. Paſc. 17. Jac. in B. R. More and Blacwells Caſe. Cro. 2. part 435.

4. Debt upon an obligation by Edmund Shepheard, upon Oyer of the obligation, it was, Noverint, &c. me Edwardum Shepheard teneri, &c. and he ſubſcribed it by the name of Edmund, which was his true name: It was moved upon verdict found for the plaintiff in ſtay of judgement, that judgement ought to be given againſt the plaintiff; for he declares upon a Bond by Edmund, and ſhews a Bond of Edward, which is another perſon, and they never were the ſame but diſtinct; and although it be ſubſcribed by the name of Edmund, yet that is no part of the Bond, which being apparent, the plaintiff cannot have judgement; and of that opinion was the whole Court: wherefore it was adjudged, that the plaintiff take nothing by his Writ. 5. In a Replevin, the defendant made Conuſance as bayliff, for an Amercement in a Leet, and being at iſſue it was found for the plaintiff, and damages and coſts: he ſurmiſed that the ſuit was againſt Ralph Stubbs Senior, and execution being ſued, the Sheriff endeavoured to levy the damages and coſts upon the goods of Ralph Stubbs Junior, whereupon he prayed a Writ of Identitate Nominis; which the Court allowed of although it was after verdict. 6. Error of a Judgement in the Grand Seſſions in Wales in the County of Flint: It was aſſigned for Error, becauſe the Venire facias was returned per Thomam Hammond Militem, nuper Vicecomitem of the ſaid County; So it was not returned by the Sheriff, but by one who was late Sheriff, and it appears not that he was Sheriff at the time of the Pannel made; for he ought to have ſubſcribed his name Tho. Hamond Vicecomes: But the Exception was diſallowed by the Court; for although the Writ be returned by J. S. the Sheriff at the time of the Grand Seſſions, when the action was tried, with a Writ delivered to you by Tho. Hamond his predeceſſor in exitu ab Officio. Yet it might be very well intended, That the Pannel was made and annexed in the time when he was Sheriff; and this addition nuper vicecomitem, is ſufficient proof of it, when one is diſcharged of his Office; the Judgement was affirmed. Hil. 9 Car. in B. A. Tabels Caſe. Cro 1. pt. 411.

7. In a Writ of Error of Judgment, the Error aſſigned was, That in the Writ of Venire facias to the Sheriff of S. the word Vicecomiti was omitted; and yet the Sheriff of S. retorned the Pannel, and his name was endorſed; and after the Habeas Corpus, the Jury appearing, Judgement was for the Plaintiff; and this was aſſigned for Error: It was holden by the Court to be Error; but becauſe upon the Roll, the Writ was awarded vicecomit. S. and the omittance of the Sheriffs name is the default of the Clerk: It was agreed that it ought to be amended; and the Judgment was affirmed H. 16. 8. One had houſes and Lands which were in the Tenures of thoſe which had the houſes, and he deviſed his houſes with the appurtenances; It was holden and adjudged by the whole Court, That the Lands did paſs by the name Appurtenances; for it was in a Will in which the intent of the Deviſor ſhall be obſerved. Hill. 28. Eliz. in B. A. Harwood & Hiſhams Caſe. Godbt. 4.

9. A. had a houſe called Jacks, uſually occupied with a houſe & 100. acres and he leaſed in 40. acres, parcel of the ſaid 100. acres to J. S. for life, and reſerved the other to himſelf, and afterwards made his Will, by which he doth deviſe the Houſe and all the Lands called Jacks in the occupation of J. S. to his wife for life; and after her deceaſe the remainder of that and all his other Lands appertaining to Jacks, to B. who was his ſecond ſon. Whether the wife ſhould have that of which her husband died ſeiſed of for her life, or whether the eldeſt ſon ſhould have it, and what eſtate he ſhould have in it, was the queſtion. The opinion of the Court was, that the younger ſon ſhould have the Reverſion; for although it doth not paſs by theſe words, Uſually occupied: yet becauſe the Deviſe cannot take other effect, and it appeareth his intent was to paſs the Land, the younger ſon ſhould have it: And Anderſon Chief Juſtice ſaid Jacks is the entire name of the houſe and Lands; and then the words where they have reference to an entire thing called Jacks, and is known by the name of Jacks, it ſhall paſs to the younger ſon: And if a man hath Lands called Mannor of D. &c. and he deviſeth his Mannor of D. to one, the Land ſhall paſs although it be not a Mannor. And if I be known by the name of Edward Williamſon, and my name is Edward Anderſon, and Lands are given to me by the name of Edward Wil-

Williamſon, the ſame is a good name of purchaſe. It was the opinion of the whole Court, That the Reverſion of the Land ſhould paſs to the younger ſon: Paſch. 25. Eliz. in Co. 1. B. Higham's Caſe. Godb. 17.

10. An Aſſiſe was brought for the Maſterſhip of an Hoſpital: Exception was taken to the Writ becauſe the Aſſiſe was brought under the name of Maſters: therefore he ought not to name him Mr. and the exception allowed. 10. H. 7. 18. So Abbot and Covent, the Abbot is preferred, and the Covent elected another Abbot: and the Patron brought a Quare Impedit to defeat the Election. It was allowed by the Court; becauſe he goes about to overthrow the Election, he need not name him Abbot. Vide 18. E. 4. 4. ac. Vid Paſc. 3. Car. in B. R. Brookers Caſe. Godlt 379.

11. Error to reverſe a judgement in debt upon an obligation, brought by the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London; The Error aſſigned was, becauſe the Judgement is, That the Mayor, Commonalty, and Citizens of London ſhould recover the debt, and 6 l. coſts, eiſdem Majori & Communit. adjudicat. omitting the word (Civibus) and ſo no ſuch Corporation: It was the opinion of the Court that the ſame was Error; but afterwards upon peruſal and examination of the Docket Roll, where it appeared to be well. It was awarded to be amended. Hill. 15. Car. in B. A. Heeling and the Mayor and Commonalty of London's Caſe, Cro. 1. pt. 413, 414.

12. In an Ejectione firme; It was found by verdict, That the Prior of Launceſton was ſeized in Fee of 4. Cloſes in North Drocomb in Launceſton: and 27. H. 8. deviſed them to I. P. by the name of four Cloſes in Drocomb, infra Burgum de L. for 99. years, rendring Rent. After the Priory came to Hen. 8. by ſurrender, and to Queen Eliz. who the 24. of her Raign by her Letters Patents granted to F. and W. and their heirs, Totum illud Meſſuagium & Fentuum vocat. Drocombs, &c. Prata ac omnia ter. tent. dicto Meſſuagio ſpectan. vel cum eodem dimiſſ. jacen. &c. exiſten. in Launceſton, nuper Prioratui de L. ſpect. And that theſe Lands by mean Conveyances came to the leſſor of the Plaintiff, and it was found before the leaſes Viz. 21. Eliz. A houſe was erected upon a Rod of Land, parcel of the ſaid Cloſes by the occupiers thereof, and that the ſaid Tenent in narratione nominata eodem Meſſuagio ſpectabat, and was always known and called by the name of Drocombs: and that the ſaid Prior had not other Lands in Launceſton called Drocombs, beſides his Lands in the Declaration: And that King James the 8. of his Raign demiſed the Lands to I. B. for 60. years, by the name of the 4. Cloſes late in the tenure of I. P. in North Drocombes. The Queſtions in this Caſe were. 1. Whether (the Leaſe made by the name of the 4. Cloſes in Drocombs, there being then no other name known when they came to H. 8.) the Pattent of Queen Eliz. by another name might be good, for that the Queen was not well informed. 2. The Patent being of a Meſſuage and Lands thereunto belonging, and the Meſſuage was newly erected after 1. Eliz. Whether the Lands ſhould paſs: It was the opinion of the whole Court, That the Letters Pattents were good for the Meſſuage and all the Lands. For although the Land was not built upon, when it was demiſed, and when it came to the King, and that afterwards a Meſſuage was erected thereupon; yet it ſhall be called as it is, and by ſuch name as it is known at the time of the Letters Patents; and although it varies from the firſt name in the Leaſe, yet being found to be all one, it paſſeth well by the Letters Patents: and the Court was of opinion, That Lands may be ſaid to be appertaining to a Houſe as well in the Kings Caſe as in the Caſe of a common perſon, where it hath been let and occupied to others by a convenient time. 1. IF a man Leaſe Land unto another for term of life, ſaving the reverſion to himſelf, and a villain purchaſeth the reverſion of the Leſſor: In this Caſe the Lord of the villain may preſently come upon the Land, and claim it as the reverſion purchaſed by his villain; and by ſuch claim the reverſion ſhall be veſted on the Lord; for in that Caſe, the Lord cannot enter during the life of Tenant for life; and if he ſtay till after his death, death, he may perhaps come too late; for the Villain may have given the Reverſion over unto another; and therefore for neceſſities ſake the claim of the Lord ſhall veſt the Reverſion in him preſently. Vide Co 1. & pt. Inſt. 119

2. If a Quare Impedit be brought againſt the Biſhop and Incumbent, without naming the Patron in the Writ, the Writ ſhall abate: But if the King preſenteth to a Benefice, and his Clerk be admitted and inſtituted: In this Caſe a Quare Impedit may be brought of neceſſity againſt the Biſhop, and the Incumbent alone; for that it lyeth not againſt the King. S.* by a warrant out of the Admiralty arreſted the ſaid Ship, whereupon the Owner of the Ship came and claimed property in the Ship. In that caſe, it was ſaid, that by the Civil Law, the Maſter of a Ship hath power to pawn the Ship and Tackle, in caſe of neceſſity, when he hath no other means to provide ſuch things as are neceſſary for her. And Hobart Chief Juſtice was clear of opinion, That the Admiral Law was reaſonable, That if a Ship be at Sea, and take rack, or otherwiſe want victual, or other neceſſaries whereby either her ſelf be in danger, or the voyage defeated, that in ſuch caſe of neceſſity the Maſter may impawn the Ship for money or for other neceſſaries to prevent ſuch extremities; for he is a perſon truſted with the Ship and Voyage; and therefore reaſonably may be thought to have power given him implicitely, rather then to ſee the Ship and the whole Voyage loſt. 7. If the Husband giveth part of his Manner of D. to hold of him in tail and dieth, the wife may bring her Writ of Right of Dower in the Court of the heir of the husband againſt the Donee in tail, and the Writ ſhall be to the heir. But if the husband giveth all his Lands in tail, and dieth, ſo as the heir cannot keep a Court becauſe he hath but a Seignory in groſs, & in ſuch caſe ſhe may have her Writ of Dower to the Sheriff againſt the Donee in tail, returned into the Common Pleas, with this clauſe in the Writ, *Quia B. 8. If a man by preſcription be bounden to repair a Wall of the Sea-bank, againſt the Sea, and the overflowing of the Salt water. In ſuch caſe if through his own default the water breaks in and drowneth the Lands of other men within the Level, he ſhall repair it at his own charge, and the other parties intereſſed in the Level ſhal have their Action againſt him, and ſhall recover their damages. But if he doth maintain the Bank or Wall at the uſual height, and in good repair, and by a ſudden & unuſual encroach or riſing of the waters of the Sea, the Wall or banks are thrown down, or the waters overflow the Banks, by reaſon whereof the reſt of the Lands in the Level be drowned; This being done inevitably, the Commiſſioners of Sewers by the Statute of 23. H. 8. are to Tax all the perſons who have lands within the Level, according to their ſeveral Qualities of their lands, towards the repair of the Banks and Wals; and in ſuch caſe no Action will be againſt him who ought to have repaired them, or by any of them. But if two Joyntenants, and to the heirs of one of them be of an Advowſon, they ſhall joyn in a Writ of Right of Advowſon; and the reaſon of the difference is becauſe in the firſt caſe they have ſeveral ways and means and remedies, as it is agreed. 46. E. 3. 21. but in the other Caſe, if Tenant for life ſhall not joyn with him that hath the Fee, neither the one nor the other ſhall have any remedy, and therefore in this caſe of neceſſity they ſhall joyn in the Writ. Cook 5. pt. 40. acc.

11. If a Biſhop granteth an Annuity out of his Biſhoprick, the ſame is reſtrained by the Statute of 1. Eliz. But if a Biſhop granteth an Office to one only that is not reſtrained by the Statute, becauſe ſuch grants are for neceſſity; for if the Biſhop ſhould not have power to grant ſuch offices of ſervice and neceſſity for the life of the Granter, no ſufficient perſons would ſerve them in ſuch Offices, or at leaſt, would not diſcharge it with ſuch alacrity, if they had no eſtate for their lives, but that their eſtates did depend upon incertainties, as death, or tranſlation of the Biſhop. Cook 101. pt. 61.

12. A man muſt not diſtrein in the Night for Rent behind; yet when there is a neceſſity of doing things they may be done in the Night time: as an arbitirement made and delivered in writing the laſt day after ſun ſetting is good enough; for Judgments and Arbitraments require long advice: and ſo goods may be diſtrained in the night for damage Feaſants: and a man may be arreſted in the night: for otherwiſe perhaps he may not be taken at all. 13. Foraſſa a Merchant Stranger ſhipped 4500. Kentals of Woad and brought them towards England: A great tempeſt did ariſe upon the Sea, ſo as the Ship was in danger to be ſunk; and for the ſafety of the lives of them that were in the Ship, the Maſter of the Ship and the Mariners caſt into the Sea a great part of the woad: Afterwards the Ship came to Port with the reſidue, and becauſe the certainty of the woad which was in the Ship was not known, the Defendant came to the Collectors of the Cuſtoms and ſhewed them all the matter: and ſaid he conceived there was 2000. Kentals left in the ſhip: and upon an uncertain agreement made with the Collector he landed the reſidue of the woad; and there was then found to be 1693. Kentals more: and upon a pretence that the ſaid goods were forfeited by the Statute of 1. E. 6. an Information was exhibited into the Exchequer: It was the opinion of the Juſtices in this caſe, when by reaſon of the tempeſt a great part of the woad was caſt into the ſea for neceſſity of ſaving the lives of the men in the Ship; and ſo thereby the quantity remaining could be by no means diſcovered before it was landed and weighed; and therefore the uncertain account made with the Collector before the landing, by reaſon of that neceſſity, was adjudged good; and the rigor of the Tempeſt did take away the rigour of the Statute. Hill, 4. E. 6. Reneger and Foraſſas Caſe: Plow. Com. 1. to 10.

14. The King granted to the Earl of Shrewsbury the Stewardſhip of the Mannors of A. and B. but in the Letters Patents, power of making a Deputy was omitted. It was reſolved in this caſe (amongſt other points) That although without ſpecial words, a Steward cannot make a Deputy, becauſe it is an office of truſt, ſecrecy, and diſcretion, and theſe qualities are ſo individually annexed to him that he cannot make a deputy, nor aſſign the ſame without ſpecial words: Yet it was reſolved, that when the King grants to an Earl, who is a Peer of the Realm, the office of Stewardſhip of his Mannors, he may make a Deputy in reſpect of the baſeneſs of the Office; and the great reſpect which the King hath of the perſon of an Earl, who is præfectus, or præpoſitus Comitatus, and therefore for conveniency he may make a Deputy, although there be no expreſs words in his Letters Patents. And alſo for neceſſity; for he ſhall be intended to be converſant about the great affairs of the Realm, and cannot attend upon ſuch an inferiour Office. Cook 9. pt. 49. the Earl of Shrewſburies Caſe.

15. Error was brought upon a Judgement given in a Writ of Entry in the Poſt, upon which a common Recovery was had in the Common Pleas: The Error aſſigned was, becauſe the Writ of Entry, was de uno annuli reddita ſine pencione, 4. marcarum exeunt. de Eccleſia, ſive Rectoria, &c. In that caſe it was adjudged, That although a Writ of Entry in the Court cannot be of an Advowſon, Rent, Common of Paſture and the like: Yet it was reſolved, That for the ſuffering of a Common Recovery which is a common aſſurance of the Realm by conſent of parties to cut off an entail, the Law for neceſſities ſake will permit a Writ of Entry in the Poſt to be brought in ſuch Caſe: For otherwiſe there could be no aſſurance of an Advowſon: Common in groſs, to bar a remainder upon an eſtate in tail. Cook 5. pt 40. Dorners Caſe.

Realm

16. Error was brought to reverſe a Judgement in Debt in the Exchequer: the Defendant pleaded an Excommunicat. of the Plaintiff in the Writ of Error; and brought the Excommunicat. certified by the Official of the Biſhop under the ſeal of the Biſhop of Durham, which recited that he was excommunicat. for contempt, in non comparendo. In this Caſe amongſt other things it was reſolved, That Excommunication is a ſpiritual thing; and if it be pleaded in diſability of the party in the Temporal Court, the ſame muſt be certified thither by the Biſhop himſelf: for that no man can certifie an Excommunication, but only the Biſhop, who is immediate Officer to the Court, to whom the Court may write to abſolve the party, if there be occaſion. But yet in that Caſe it was reſolved, That if the Biſhop be in remotis agendis, viz. beyond Sea in the Kings ſervice, or ſede vacante of the Biſhop, and the ſame appeareth by matter of Record, and not upon ſurmiſe of the party; then for neceſſities Caſe, (which is always the Law of time) the Certificate of the vicar-general who is Guardian of the Spiritualities for the time, ſhall be allowed, becauſe that no other can do it. Cook 8. pt. 69. Trollops Caſe.

17. The Queen was ſeized of a Reverſion expectant upon an eſtate tail, and upon her Letters Patent ſhe granted it to I.S. in tail upon condition that if he pay 20.s. at the Precept of the Exchequer, that then he ſhall have the ſaid Reverſion in Fee. I S. paid the 20.s. according to the Condition. The queſtion was, whether by the Condition performed, the Reverſion paſſed to I S. It was reſolved by the Court, that preſently upon the payment of the 20. s. by operation of Laws, the Reverſion was deveſted out of the Queen, and ſetled in I S. and this was for neceſſity; for if it ſhould not veſt at the time of the condition performed, it ſhould never veſt; and that in this caſe, neither office, petition or Monſtrans de Droit was requiſite: vide Plo. Com. The Lord Lovels Caſe ac. where it is ſaid, that when the condition is performed, the feeſimple ſhall be immediately out of the King without petition, Monſtrans de droit or other circumſtances, for if he muſt ſtay till ſuch circumſtances are done, then it cannot veſt preſently; and if an eſtate cannot be enlarged at the time of the enlargement appointed, it ſhall never be enlarged; and therefore in ſuch caſes of neceſſity the feeſimple paſſeth out of the King preſently, and doth veſt in the Pattentee upon the performance of the condition. Cook 8. part. the Lord Staffords Caſe.

18. In treſpaſs, the defendant juſtified and pleaded that the King was ſeiſed of a rectory in fee, and demiſed the ſame to the plaintiff for life (without ſhewing the Letters Pattent in Court) and that the plaintiff demiſed the ſame to I. S. for eight years if he ſhould ſo long live, and that he as ſervant to I. S. took the tythes: it was reſolved in this caſe (amongſt other things) That he who is party or privy in eſtate, or intereſt, or he who juſtifies in the right of him who is party privy, muſt plead and ſhew the deed, although that he who is privy, &c. claims but parcell of the original eſtate, that it may appear unto the Court if it be a legal deed or not; and alſo becauſe it may appear to the Jury if he ſealed it or no, yet it was reſolved, that upon a great neceſſity and extremity, as if all the evidences be burnt by a fire, thereupon the general iſſue pleaded, a deed may be proved in evidence by the teſtimony of Witneſſes given to the Jury, ne afflicto addatur afflictio. Cook. 10. part 92. in Dr. Leyfields Caſe.

19. Note, it was reſolved by the Court, that where the condition of an obligation doth conſiſt upon two parts in the disjunctive, and both are poſſible at the time of the obligation made, and afterwards one of them becomes impoſſible by the act of God: in that Caſe the obligor is not bounden to perform the other; for the condition is for the benefit of the obligor, and ſhall be taken beneficially for him, and he hath election to perform the one or the other; and ſo when it becomes impoſſible to be performed by the act of God, and now by no induſtry of him he can perform the ſame, his obligation is ſaved. Cook. 5. part 21. Laughters Caſe.

20. Tenant in capite dyeth, his heir within age; the heir at his full age tenderet'h his Livery and was admitted to it, and within the time given him for to proſecute his Livery, he bargained and ſold part of the lands to another in fee, and within that time alſo dyed: in this caſe it was reſolved, that when the heir at his full age tendered his Livery, the ſame was as much as he could do, and then when he dyed within the time given him for the proſecution of his Livery, ſo as the ſuing of it became impoſſible, the intereſt which the King had was determined by the death of the heir; & in that caſe it was reſolved, that the bargainer might enter and occupy the lands, without ſuing an Ouſter le Maine or a Monſtrans de Droit. Cook 8. part 172. Halls Caſe.

21. If a man dyeth ſeiſed of lands in feeſimple, and theſe lands diſcend to a daughter, and ſhe taketh taketh a husband and hath iſſue, and dyeth before entry, the husband in ſuch caſe ſhall not be Tenant by the curteſie, becauſe it was in the power of the husband to have entred: but if a man be ſeiſed of an advowſon or of a rent, and hath iſſue a daughter who is married, and hath iſſue, and dyeth ſeiſed before the rent become due, or the Church becometh void; in ſuch caſe the husband ſhall be Tenant by the curteſie of it, becauſe he could by no induſtry enter, or attain to any other ſeiſin, then to a ſeiſin in Law, or bring it to an actual ſeiſin. Cook 1. part Inſtitut. 29. acc.

22. If there be Lord and Tenant by rent and ſervices, if the Lord doth releaſe unto his Tenant ſo long as I. S. hath heirs of his body, and ſixty years paſſe, and then I.S. dyeth without heir of his body; in this caſe it was holden, that although the ſixty years be paſſed, yet the Lord may diſtrain and avow: for it was impoſſible that he ſhould attain to any ſeiſin within that time; and therefore the Act of Limitation made 32. H. 8. doth not extend to ſuch rent or ſervices, that by common poſſibility could not happen or become due within ſixty years Cook. 4. part 11. in Bevills Caſe. And ſo if land holden by Homage and Fealty be conveyed to Mayor and Commonalty, &c. in this caſe they cannot do their Homage and Fealty; yet although they have enjoyed the lands above ſixty years, yet if they after alien the land, the Lord may diſtrain for the Homage and Fealty. 37. H. 8. tit. Fealty 15.

23. In a Prohibition the caſe was, The Lord de Laware was ſeiſed of 140 Acres of land in Cowfeld, parcel of an ancient Park repleniſhed with Deer, and preſcribed that all the Farmers and occupiers thereof time out of minde had uſed to pay to the Vicar of Cowfeld two ſhillings a piece, and a ſhoulder of every third Deer which ſhould be killed in the Park in full ſatisfaction of all tythes ariſing upon the ſaid 140. Acres of land; The Vicar by proteſtation denying the preſcription ſaid, that the Deer in the ſaid Park were utterly deſtroyed by the owners and occupiers of the ſaid 140. Acres of lands, and the lands were converted into arable ground, and ſo prayed tythes in kind of the lands: In this caſe it was holden by Hobert Chief Juſtice, that if all the Deer dye of ſome diſeaſe by the act of God, yet the owner is not bound to repleniſh the Park with Deer again to maintain the Modus decimandi; and yet he held in that caſe, that the Modus decimandi ſhould continue, becauſe the failing of the Deer was by the act of God, which ſhould not prejudice the parties in their preſcription. M 10. Jac. in Co. B. Cowper and Andrews Caſe Hob. 40.

24 A rent cannot be reſerved upon an eſtate for life upon an incorporal inheritance, as Advowſons, Offices, Corodies, Multure of a Mill, Tythes, Markets, Priviledges, Franchiſes or the like, becauſe the leſſor cannot have reſort or recourſe to diſtrain for the rent arere; and in ſuch caſe, if the rent be reſerved upon a houſe for years, yet he ſhall have but an action of debt for the rent, becauſe he hath no means to come and diſtrain for ſuch rent or for the arrerages thereof; but yet a reverſion, or a remainder of lands or tenements, may be granted reſerving a rent, for the apparent poſſibility that the ſame may come into poſſeſſion, and then there may be a diſtreſs taken for the rent. Cook 1. part Inſtitut. 47.

25. If a man be ſeiſed of a houſe, and of divers ſeveral Cloſes in the ſame County in fee, and he maketh a leaſe thereof for years, and afterwards maketh a feoffment in fee of the ſame, and makes livery and ſeiſin in the Cloſes, the leſſee or his wife, or ſervants being in the houſe: In this caſe it was adjudged, that the livery and ſeiſin was void for the whole, becauſe it was impoſſible for the leſſee to be upon every part of the land to him demiſed for the preſervation and continuance of his poſſeſſion therein; and therefore his being in the houſe or any part of the land to him demiſed, is ſufficient to preſerve and continue his poſſeſſion in the whole from being outed and diſpoſſeſſed thereof. Cook. 2. part 31. Bettiſworths Caſe.

Ne injuſte vexes.

1. THE Writ of Ne injuſte vexes lyeth where there is Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant holdeth of the Lord and his Anceſtors by fealty, and 20. s. rent yearly; and the Lord of late time hath gotten ſeiſin of greater or more rent of the Tenant, by payment of the Tenant, of his own agreement without coertion or diſtreſs; if the Lord will diſtrain the Tenant for this ſurpluſage of rent, the Tenant cannot avoid the Lord in an avowry, in regard of the ſeiſin which the Lord hath had by the payment of the Tenant of his own agreement: But in ſuch Caſe, the Tenant may ſue Ne injuſte vexes directed to the Lord, which is in the nature of a prohibition to the Lord, that he do not diſtrain his Tenant to do other ſervices then of right he ought to do.

2. This Writ is a Writ of Right; and is grounded upon the Statute of Magna Charta cap. 10. the words of which are, Quod nullus diſtringatur ad faciendum majus ſervitium de libero Tenemento quam inde debetur: and therefore leſſee for life, or Donee in tail, ſhall not have Ne injuſte vexes againſt the Doner; for in as much as the reſervation is his title, no incroachment upon them ſhall hurt them; and they ſhall avoid the ſame in an avowry. Cook. 8. part 65. in Sir William Foſters Caſe.

3. Monſtraverunt was brought againſt the Biſhop of Exeter, and the plaintiffs counted, that ſome of them held a verge of land by certain ſervices, and ſome of them held by ſuch other ſervices, and that all of them held a Piſcary in common by 20. s. and that the Biſhop demanded 40. s. of them, and diſtrained them wrongfully; and in a ſecond plea by them it was, that they held by certain ſervices, and that the Biſhop did demand other ſervices, &c. Exception was taken to it, that a Piſcary doth not lye in tenure; to that it was ſaid, that that went to the action and not to the count, and it may be that the ſoil doth belong to the plaintiff as the water. It was the opinion of the Court, that the plaintiffs need not to ſhew that they held ſo much land aqua cooperta, as they are to do in an aſſiſe: Quere of that. It was ſaid in this Caſe, that they had no remedy at the Common Law: and that this Writ was in the nature of Ne injuſte vexes: and ſo if ſuch Tenants have common of paſture in ancient demeſne paying a certainty for every beaſt, and the Lord demandeth more, they may maintain ſuit againſt the Lord by Monſtraverunt, and that they ſhould not be put to an aſſiſe at the Common Law, of which opinion was Thorpe Chief Juſtice: but Kirton ſaid, that Piſcary or Common of paſture could not be ancient demeſne: for that nothing could be ancient demeſne, but what is holden or lyeth in Tenants: but in the principal Caſe, becauſe the plea was to the action, Finchden awarded, that the defendant ſhould plead to the reſt. M. 40. E. 3. 44, 45, 46.

4. If there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant holdeth by fealty and two ſhillings rent, and the Lord by encroachment and voluntary payment of the Tenant, had ſeiſin of more then he ought to have: the Law ſo greatly favoureth ſeiſins and poſſeſſions, that the Tenant ſhall not avoid this ſeiſin had by encroachment in an avowry, if it be not in caſe of a ſucceſſor, as in 4. E. 2. to avowry 204. is agreed; and in caſe of iſſue in tail as is holden in 20. E. 3. Avowry 131. But ſeiſin by encroachment ſhall be avoided in an Aſſiſe and Ceſſavit: and if the Lord diſtrain for the rent behind, and the encroachment alſo for the whole rent behind, the Tenant may tender that which is due of right, and may do reſcous if the Lord will not accept it, and the Tenant ſhall not be driven to a Ne injuſte vexes; but it ſhall be avoided in an action brought by the Lord for the reſcous, or in treſpaſs brought by himſelf for the diſtreſs for the ſum which was encroached, and which of right was not due. Cook. 4. part 11. Bevils Caſe. Cook 9. part 34. in Buckells Caſe.

5. The donor or leſſor ſhall not need in an avowry alledge ſeiſin, nor encroachment upon them ſhall bind them, becauſe the reſervation is their title: but if there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant maketh a gift in tail, or a leaſe for life, there remainder in fee, there encroachment upon the donee or leſſee ſhall bind them; for the Lord needs not to ſhew the commencement of the Seignory, but it ſhall not bind the iſſue in tail: ſo when the Law doth create a Tenure: as if Lord and Tenant be by fealty and the yearly rent of a Lamb; and the Tenant maketh a gift in tail to two men, and to the heirs of their two bodies without any reſervation, then the donees ſhall hold of the donor by the like ſervices as he held ever; yet if the donees having iſſue die, their ſeveral iſſues ſhall pay but one lamb; for the doner or his heirs in avowry ought to ſhew the tenure betwixt the Lord and the Tenant, and the gift in tail, ſo that it will appear to the Court, that but one Lamb at the time of the gift was due; and the Law, to the prejudice of the heirs of the donees, ſhall not encreaſe it. Cook 10. part 108. in Hamfrey Lofields Caſe.

6. In a Ne injuſte vexes, iſſue may be joyned betwixt them; and the defendant may put himſelf upon the grand aſſiſe, and judgement final ſhall be given in this Writ after the miſe joyned, if it paſs againſt either party, demandant or defendant, or if any of them be nonſuit or make default after the miſe joyned; but if after the miſe joyned the parties imparle untill another term and day, and after at that day the Lord who is the defendant makes default, it is a quere F. B. 11. If judgement final ſhall be given upon this default without any proces: It ſeemth to Fitzherbert, it ſhall: and ſo if the plaintiff at the day maketh default, he ſhall be nonſuit.

1. Where it lyeth; and when. And where it lyeth in the Diſcretion of the Juſtices to grant it: where granted with a Proviſo, where not. And what Plea ſhall be allowed at the day of Niſi Prius; What not.

1. A Man was wounded in one County, and died in another; and the heirs brought an appeal in the County where the death was, the defendant pleaded not guilty: It was holden by the Juſtices, that the Viſne ſhould come out of both Counties, and that the Viſne of each County ſhall be of the body of the County; and that the tryal ſhall be in the Kings Bench, and not by Niſi prius. M. 31. H. 8. Dyer 46.

2. In Debt upon a Bond of 40 l. for the payment of 20 l. at a day and place certain, The Defendant pleaded that he had paid the ſaid 20 l. according to the condition, upon which they were at Iſſue, and at the Niſi Prius, the Defendant gave in evidence that he had paid the money to the Plaintiff before the day, and that the Plaintiff had accepted of it; It was ſaid by the Court, That the payment before the day was a ſufficient diſcharge of the Bond; but becauſe the Defendant had not proved the ſame particularly but generally, the Court was of opinion, that they muſt find againſt the Defendant. M. 24. Eliz. in Com. B. Gadst. 10.

3. A. brought Debt againſt Sir John Chicheſter Executor of Windham Executor of Lutterel, upon an obligation of Lutterel; the Defendant pleaded that the ſaid Lutterel, the firſt Teſtator, was indebted upon a Statute of an 100 l. to Windham, and that after his death, goods of the value of 100 l. came to the hands of Windham as executor to Lutterel, which goods he adminiſtred and payed himſelf by way of Retainer: Et ultra dicta bona ad valentiam 100 l. &c. and ſo nothing in his hands. The Plaintiff averred Aſſets in the hand of Windham of the goods of Lutterel, ultra the ſaid 100 l. in London. And by Niſi Prius in London, Iſſue was found for the Plaintiff, that Windham, tempore mortis ſuæ had diverſa bona of Lutterel, &c. It was ſaid that this Iſſue was a jeofail, becauſe Chicheſter the Defendant anſwers nothing to the adminiſtration by them of the goods of the firſt Teſtator L. after the death of Windham; for it might be, that although Windham adminiſtred all the goods of L. which came to his hands; that yet the defendant Chicheſter might come to divers goods by ſeiſure, or action, which he ought to adminiſter: It was the opinion of the Court, that although this might be true; yet ſuch exception at the day of Niſi prius was not good, by reaſon of the uſage, and common courſe, to diſallow the exception at the day of Niſi prius. Tr. 2. Dyer 185. Sir John Chicheſters Caſe.

4. Note, It was holden by the Juſtices, that a Venire facias, with a Proviſo, is not grantable to the Defendant, but where he is actor or otherwiſe where there is Laches in the Plaintiff; but one Laches is ſufficient for all the ſuit: But if after the Venire facias, with Proviſo purſued by the Defendant, the Plaintiff ſueth another which is returned, and not that of the Defendant, becauſe here the Laches of the Plaintiff appears not upon Record, the Defendant ſhall not have a Habeas Corpora, cum Niſi prius with Proviſo, except that there be a new Laches in the Plaintiff. 2. Of the Record of Niſi Prius in what Caſes it ſhall be amended, and what not. And touching the day of Niſi Prius, and the day in Bank, and the Relation betwixt them.

1. IN Ejectione firmæ againſt Huſband and Wife, of the ejectment of the wife; Not guilty being pleaded and tryed: It was moved in arreſt of Judgement, becauſe the Iſſue was pleaded in this manner: Et dicunt quod ipſi in nullo ſunt culpabiles, &c. And the Ejectment was made by the woman alone; and ought to have been, that ſhe was not guilty: And upon examination of the Plea Roll, and of the Record of Niſi prius, it appeared to the Court, that the Plea Roll was right; but the Record of Niſi prius miſtaken. In that caſe, it was ordered by the Court, that the Record of Niſi prius ſhould be amended, and made according to the Plea Roll: Tr. 9. Jac. in Coi B. Coffe and Randals Caſe. Brownlo. 1 pt 133.

2. In Action upon the Statute of Winchester, brought againſt the Hundred of T. The Plaintiff in his Declaration had miſtaken to allodge the very day of the Robbery; for he ſhewed the Robbery to be committed in Octobet, whereas in truth it was committed in September: The Court was moved, That the Record which was taken out for tryal, but never put in, might be amended; for the notice given to the Hundred as the Record is, would appear to be before the Robbery; and the Court granted that it ſhould be amended. Th. 15. Jac. in Coi. B. Cambyn, and the Hundred of Featrings Caſe Brownlo. 1. ſt. 156.

3. Note the year of the Reign of the King was miſtaken in the Record of Niſi Prius; but the Record which remained in Court was very well: It was ruled by the Court that it ſhould be amended, for in as much as it was a ſufficient and certain Iſſue; this was ſufficient authority to the Iuſtices of Niſi prius to proceed; and nothing being miſtaken but the year of the Reign of the King, it ſhall be amended; for it is only miſpriſion of the Clerk. Hill. 8. Iac. in Coi. Br. Brownlo. 41. Vide 9. Eliz. Dyer 260. ac.

4. In Trover and Converſion of many parcels of goods (amongſt the reſt) the Plaintiff declared that he was poſſeſſed de uno Spadone una equa precii 53. 4. d: ſo as there was not any price at all for the Gelding: Poph. and Yelverton Juſtices, held the Declaration to be ill; for that to every thing there ought to be added the value, if it be a dead thing; and if it be alive, the price, which this wanted: But the other Juſtices held the contrary, and ſaid that that was not neceſſary, eſpecially where the thing is not demanded, but damages; and they held it was but a default of Form, which was aided by the ſtatute of 18. Eliz. but the other Juſtices, ſaid it was matter of ſubſtance. Afterwards upon viewing of the Roll in Court, although the Record of Niſi prius was ſo: yet the Roll is de uno ſpadone & una equa precii 53. 4. d. ſo that the price extends to both. Wherefore all agreed that it was good enough, and awarded that the Record of Niſi prius ſhould be amended according to the Roll; and judgement was given for the Plaintiff: M. 4. Jac. in B.R. Wood and Smith Caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 129, 130.

5. In Treſpaſs for breaking his Cloſe in the Pariſh of Pancras abutting upon Grays Inn Lane; the Defendant pleaded not guilty: and the Record of Niſi prius was Graves-Inn Lane; by reaſon of this miſpriſion, the Plaintiff was non-ſuit. Now in regard the Paper Book, and the Roll were good, viz. Grays Inn Lane, which was the true place, and it was but a miſpriſion in the Record of Niſi prius, which was void being variant from the Record here: A Venire facias de novo was prayed to try the Iſſue: And upon a Preſident ſhewed of Tr. 7. Jac. rot. 430. between Farthing and Dupper: Where in an action upon the Caſe, upon a Promiſe, in conſideration that he promiſed to pay 10 l. within ſix weeks, the Defendant aſſumed to do ſuch a thing, and for non-performance, brought the action; and upon Non Aſſumpſit pleaded, the parties being at Iſſue, the Record of Niſi prius was for conſideration that he promiſed to pay 10 l. within ſix moneths: And for this variance being againſt the truth and the former Record, the Plaintiff was non-ſuit: and upon adviſement of the Court upon 2. preſidents, produced, A Venire facias de novo was awarded. And for that reaſon, and upon the ſaid Preſident ſhewed it was ſo awarded in the principal Caſe Tr. 21. Iac in B.R. Young and Eaglefields Caſe: Cro. 2. pt. 670. vide Godm. 328. the ſame Caſe.

6. Error to reverſe a Iudgement in Co. B. the error aſſigned was, becauſe the Iudgement was there given againſt a dead man, the Defendant dying after the Niſi prius, and before the day in Bank: It was urged, that the day of Niſi prius, and the day in Bank were all one: and to warrant this, was vouched, 46. E. 3. 38. p. 12. that the day of Niſi prius and the day in Bank is all one in Law; It was the opinion of the whole Court: That the Iudgment given was erronious, becauſe the Iudgment is not true, the ſame being given at the day in Bank againſt ſuch a one, and there was no ſuch perſon, he being dead before; and ſo by the Rule of the Court the Iudgement was Reverſed. Nonſuit.

1. Where the Plaintiff or Demandant ſhall be Nonſuit, and in what Actions, and where and in what Actions it ſhall be peremptory, and in what not: And when after Verdict, where not.

1. NOnſuit is the relinquiſhing, or renouncing of a Suit, commenced and brought by the Plaintiff or Demandant, againſt the Defendant or Tenant, after the Defendant or Tenant hath appeared, and the matter proceeded in in ſome degree, tending to an Iſſue betwixt the parties.

2. The Queen brought a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop and the Incumbent; and they pleaded ſeveral Pleas. The Queen did not proſecute her Suit, but let it long depend; it was prayed, that ſhe ſhe might be called Nonſuit. It was the opinion of all the Court, and alſo of the Preignotories, that the Queen cannot be Nonſuit; but the Suit after a year may be diſcontinued upon the prayer of the party; and in the Caſe of a common perſon, the Plaintiff may diſcontinue it within a year, but the Defendant cannot diſcontinue it till after the year: Fr.29 Eliz. in Co.B. The Queen and Leigh's Caſe, Goldesbr. 53.

3 Note, It was agreed by the whole Court, That in a Replevin, the Plaintiff cannot diſcontinue his ſuit without the privity of the Court; for that, as the Caſus Brevium ſaid, the entry is Recordatur per Curiam: And if the Plaintiff would diſcontinue without moving the Court, the Defendant may enter the Continuance, if he will. Alſo it was holden in this Caſe, that where an original is diſcontinued, the Defendant ſhall not have coſts; but if the Plaintiff be Nonſuit, the Defendant ſhall have coſts by the Statute of 31. H.8. cap.16. But after diſcontinuance in a Latitat, the Defendant ſhall have coſts by the ſtatute of 8 Eliz. cap.2. And in this caſe, it was alſo agreed, that the Plaintiff may be Nonſuit after a Demurrer: M.30. Eliz. in Co. B. Bear and Underwoods Caſe, Lion 105.

4. In Debt for 10.l. the Defendant as to 5.l. confeſſed the debt; and for the other 5. l. pleaded that he owed the Plaintiff nothing, and would have waged his Law; and at the day of wager of Law, the Plaintiff would have him nonſuited: But it was agreed by all the Court, that if the Plaintiff be Nonſuited, he ſhall loſe all, as well the debt confeſſed, as the other: M.8. Iac. in Co. B. Brownlo, 2.pt.41. vide Paſc.19. Iac.Bolſtr.1.pt. 194. ac.

5. In Treſpaſs for a way: The Defendant pleaded a Plea in Bar, which was inſufficient, and after the Plaintiff was Nonſuited: It was reſolved in this caſe, that the defendant ſhould have his coſts againſt the Plaintiff: But it was holden by the Court, that if a default be in an Original Writ, and afterwards the Plaintiff is Nonſuited, there the Defendant ſhall not have coſts, becauſe where the original is abated, it is as if no ſuit had been: M. 11. Iac. in Co. B. Laiſons Caſe Godbt 220.

6. Vide. The Caſe of Young and Engleſield: Tr.21.Iac. in B.R. Godbt. 328. in the Title Niſi prius before: Where the Record of Niſi prius is miſtaken; that there before the Iury be ſworn, the Plaintiff may be nonſuit; and a new Venire facias to try the Iſſue betwixt the parties, may iſſue forth de Novo.

7. Debt was brought upon an Obligation, and the Defendant pleaded a plea, and after it was demurred upon; and the caſe being argued by Counſel at the Bar, the opinion of the Court was againſt the Plaintiff: and a Rule given, that Iudgement ſhould be entred for the Defendant: and thereupon the Plaintiff prayed that he might be Nonſuited; and becauſe he had the ſame Term appeared, and had argued his caſe by his Counſel, and had prayed Iudgement, it was the opinion of the Court, that he could not be Nonſuited the ſame Term: Fr.2. Iac. in B.R. Adderley and Adderleys Caſe: Cro.2.pt 35. The ſame point adjudged the ſame Term in Philps and Richards Caſe: ibidem.

8. If at the day of the Return of the Habeat Corpora, or the Diſtringas, the Iury and the Defendant do appear, although the Writ be not returned; If the Plaintiff doth make Default, he ſhall be Nonſuited, becauſe the parties had day in Court by the Roll; and ſuch was the opinion of the Court: Hill.12. Eliz. Dyer 28.b. Vide 4. Eliz. Dyer 214. ac. And vide, That where the Iury was called, and did not appear full, and the Defendant did not appear: it was the opinion of the Iuſtices, that the Enqueſt ſhall be awarded by default, becauſe the parties are demandable before the Iury do appear: and if the Plaintiff had made default, he ſhould have been Nonſuited: M. 10. Eliz. Dyer.265.

9. A Venire facias was returned Quinq; Paſch. the parties appeared, but the Sheriff did not return the Writ; therefor a Venire facias was awarded de novo returnable, as at firſt, and their continuance made upon the plea Roll: and yet at the Quinq; Paſch. the defendant was eſſoined: and upon the Venire facias, the Plaintiff appeared not, being demanded, made default; and this Nonſuit was entred upon the Eſſoin Roll: and notwithſtanding that Nonſuit, the Plaintiff proceeded in the Iſſue, which was found for him; and that was by the advice of the Court; for that the recording of the appearance of the parties in Court, at the day when the eſſoin was caſt, did confound the eſſoin without any challenge or exception to it: and in the Caſe where the Venire facias is ſerved, and returned at the firſt day, and then the Defendant is eſſoined, it ſhall ſerve to no purpoſe: 1. Paſ.5.Eliz. Dyer 224.

10 At a Plures Repleg. returnable in Banco, the Sheriff returned, Quod Catalla elongata, &c. & quod nullam aliud breve &c. Whereupon a Withernam was awarded: The Sheriff returned the Withernam, and that according to the Writ, the Plaintiff had found Sureties to proſecute; and in the return had alſo returned that he took ſix beaſts in Withernam, which he delivered to the Plaintiff quoſque, &c and that he had attached the defendant: and he returned that the defendant had nothing upon which he might be attached: Now the Plaintiff plaintiff appeared not, but the defendant did appear gratis, and prayed that the plaintiff might be demanded; and if he will not appear and prosecute, that the defendant might have a special Writ to the Sheriff to make deliverance; for he said that in truth the propriety of the cattel was in him: It was debated in Court, if the plaintiff upon this Plures might be nonsuit, as if it were upon a Replegiare; but at last both parties appeared: it was said by Lennard Prothonotarie, that notwithstanding the first return, that yet the Sheriff had made Replevin; and in a Replevin, the plaintiff cannot be nonsuit: wherefore the Withernam was well awarded. M. 2. El. Dyer 189.

11. In a Replevin, the defendant avowed for damage feasant, and after issue joyned, the plaintiff was nonsuit: it was a doubt if the defendant should have costs and damages; because the Statute of 7. H. 6. c. 4. speaks only where the plaintiff is barred, and where the Avowry is for rent, customes or services; but it was resolved, that the Statute of 21. H. 8. extended to nonsuits, as well as where the plaintiff was barred. Pasc. 4. M. Dyer 141. vide Plo. Com. 82. in Partridge and Strangers Case &c.

12. Note that regularly, that upon a nonsuit the demandant or plaintiff may bring another action of the like nature, &c. but yet in an attaint, if the plaintiff after appearance be nonsuit, it is peremptory, and he is for ever barred from bringing any attaint against the first Jury, and the reason is for the faith which the Law gives to the verdict, and for the terrible and fearful judgement which should be given against the first Jury if they should be convicted, and therefore upon the nonsuit, the plaintiff shall be imprisoned, and his pledges amerced. Cook 1. part Institut. 139.

13. If damages be recovered against divers in a Writ of Conspiracy; in that case it was adjudged that they all ought to joyn in an attaint; and in such case it was said, that the nonsuit of one of them should not hurt the other no more then in an Audita Querela, or a Scire facias upon a release. 35. H. 6. 19. Cook 6. part in Ruddocks Case.

14. The plaintiff was nonsuit in a Quare impedit after appearance; it was holden by the Court, that the same was a good bar in another Quare impedit, brought within the six months, and that the defendant should have a Writ to the Bishop; and so it was said is the Law, if the plaintiff discontinueth his suit; but if the Writ abateth for false Latine, or for insufficiency of forme, there the defendant shall not have a Writ to the Bishop; vide Cook 7. part 27. Sir Hugh Portmans Case.

15. A Writ of false judgement was brought of a judgement given in the County Court upon a Plaint there in an action upon the Case upon an Assumpsit: The Writ was brought to delay the execution of the costs and damages: The record was removed, and the Writ served; and the plaintiff was nonsuit, whereupon the defendant prayed a Scire facias against the plaintiff, to have execution of the judgement; and upon good advice of the Court, the Writ was granted; for otherwise he should have no judicial Writ to have execution. M. 16. Eliz. Dyer 329.

16. Three copartners were; one aliened her part, the other two brought a Writ of Partition against the alienee; the opinion of the Court, that the Writ should abate, because she might have a Writ in such case by order of the Common Law: but if the two copartners had joyned against the aliened, and one of them had been nonsuited, she should be summoned and severed, and her part should be parted and severed as well as the two other parts. M. 8. Eliz. Dyer 243.

17. An Infant plaintiff appeared by his Attorney, and afterwards became nonsuit in the action, and costs given against him according to the Statute of 4. Jac. He moved the Court to have some mitigation of the costs, because that his appearance was by Attorney; but the Court denyed to mitigate the costs: for that after nonsuit and costs given according to the statute, the parties are out of Court, and the plaintiff hath now pretermitted his time; and he being plaintiff, it is his own act to be nonsuit; and therefore they declared, that after his nonsuit, they could not give him any remedy. And whereas it was said privately that they would have a Writ of Error, Mas Secondary made answer to them, that by a Writ of Error in that Case they could not have any benefit after a nonsuit. Hill. 9. Jac. in B. R. Hawkes and Hawkes Case. Bolst. 1. part 199.

18. Trespass against A. B. and C. A. pleaded not guilty, B. and C. justified, the plaintiff replyed, a demeaner was joyned, depending which the issue was tryed against A. and damages and judgement against him. After judgement the plaintiff entred Nolle prosequi against B. and C. this being in B. R. they all brought Error in the Exchequer Chamber, and assigned for Error, that the Nolle prosequi discharged all the Defendants: It was agreed by the Court, that if the Nolle prosequi had been before judgement, it had discharged the whole action, and so it had been if judgement had been given against them all, and then the plaintiff had entred Nolle prosequi against the two as before for nonsuit, or release, for discharge of one discharges the rest: but because in this case the action was at an end against A. and no judgement against the other two, so as they are divided and not subject to the damage found against him, it was adjudged that he was not discharged. Hill. 12. Jac. in B. R.

Parker and Sir John Lawrence Caſe. Hob. 70.

19. In treſpaſs againſt I. S. for beating and wounding him, the plaintiff had judgement, & upon error brought in the Exchequer Chamber, upon an occaſion of aſſignment of error, the Court took this difference: that where a man hath a perſonal action againſt two defendants, if they plead ſeverally, and he be nonſuit againſt the one, before he hath judgement againſt the other, that he ſhall be barred againſt both, for that it works in the nature of a releaſe of the whole; but where there is but one defendant, and he pleads to one party in iſſue, and the other demurres, the plaintiff may be nonſuit for one point, and proceed for the other. Tr. 12. Jac. Slowley and Eveleys Caſe. Hob. 180.

20. In an action upon the Caſe for words, viz. I arreſt you for felony, the plaintiff was nonſuit: it was moved, that the defendant was to have no coſts, becauſe the words were not actionable, and ſo judgement was for that, and not for the nonſuit: and ſo it was ſaid, it had been ruled in B R. But Hob. Chief Juſtice was of opinion, that the defendant ſhould have coſts upon the nonſuit, for that the vexation was the more groſs if there was no cauſe of action. Hill 15. Jac. in Co. B. Drury and Fitcher Caſe. Hob. 219.

21. Note in all actions perſonal, as debt, detinue, and the like actions without force, or deceit to the Court, and alſo in actions which comprehend force or deceit to a Court of Record, if the plaintiff be barred, nonſuit, or the Writ abate becauſe vitious in matter or form, the plaintiff ſhall be amerced only; but if the Writ abateth by the death of one party, or if one party appeareth, and the other be nonſuit, (which in Law in a perſonal action is a nonſuit of both) he who ſurviveth, and appeareth, ſhall not be amerced; for no default is in him, but in him who appeareth not. Coo. 8. pt. 61. in Beechers Caſe.

22. Note, there is difference in real actions and perſonal, between a plea to the action of the Writ and a plea to the Writ; for if the demandant or plaintiff hath miſtaken his action, ſo as the plea of the Tenant goeth to the action of the Writ, as Formedon in the Reverter, where it ſhould be Formedon in the Remainder, ſuch action without judgement upon verdict or demurrer, &c. doth not bar the demandant of his rightful action; and therefore if the demandant in ſuch caſe be nonſuit, or the plea be diſcontinued, he may bring his rightful action; but if the plea be but to the Writ, in ſuch caſe although the plea to the Writ be adjudged againſt the demandant upon demurrer or verdict; yet he ſhall maintain the ſame Writ again, ſo that the judgement doth extend but to the Writ. Cook 6. part 7, and 8. in Ferrers Caſe.

23. A. and B. were bound joyntly and ſeverally in an obligation to I. S. who afterwards brought debt upon the bond againſt both: After appearance I. S entred a Retraxit againſt B. and if this was a diſcharge of A. alſo was the queſtion: It was ſaid that it was a diſcharge; for it doth amount to a releaſe, and it is clear, a releaſe to one is a releaſe to both; and of that opinion was Barkley Juſtice; for by his releaſe he doth confeſs he hath no cauſe of action. Croke Juſtice ſaid it was not a releaſe, but quaſi a Releaſe; and if the obligee ſueth one, and covenanteth with him that he will not ſue the other, the ſame is in the nature of a releaſe, and yet the other ſhall not take advantage of it; and in this caſe becauſe it is but in the nature of an Eſtoppel, the other ſhall not take advantage of it. Paſc. 17. Car. in B. R. Payne and Bennit Caſe. Miſh. 95.

Non eſt factum.

Vide Lib. 1. fol. 598. in title Deeds, Sect. 1, 2, 3.

1. DEbt upon a bill, the defendant pleaded Non eſt factum, and it was found a joynt bill made by him and another: it was adjudged for the plaintiff: and it was reſolved, that when two are joyntly bound in an obligation, none of them can plead Non eſt factum, for they have ſealed and delivered it, and therefore if the one appeareth, and the other maketh default and is outlawed, he who appeareth ſhall be charged with the whole. 2. It was reſolved, that when a deed is voidable, and ſo remaineth at the time of the pleading, in ſuch caſe he cannot plead that it is not his deed, but ſhall avoid it by ſpeciall pleading judgement of action; the ſame Law, if it be void by an Act of Parliament, he ſhall not plead Non eſt factum, but he ſhall ſhew the ſpecial matter for his advantage and demand judgement of action. Cook 6. part 119 Whelpdales Caſe. vide Cook 3. part 39. in Lincoln Colledge Caſe. act.

2. If an obligation be delivered to another to the uſe of the obligee, and it is tendered to him and he refuſeth it, now the delivery hath loſt its force, and the obligee can never agree to it afterwards: and therefore to ſuch deed the obligor may plead Non eſt factum: and ſo it is if an obligation be delivered to a feme covert, and the husband doth diſagree to it, the obligor may plead Non eſt factum to it: vide 1. Eliz. Dyer 167. cont. & vide Cook 3. part

3. part 26. in Butler and Baker's caſe, by the opinion of Cook: that if an obligation be made to A. and delivered to B. to the uſe of A. this is the deed of the obligor preſently, and although it loſe its force afterwards by the refuſal of A. yet the obligor cannot plead Non eſt factum to it.

3. In debt upon an obligation, the defendant pleaded Non eſt factum, and before the day of appearance of the enqueſt, the miſe had eaten the label unto the which the ſeal was fixed, by the negligence of the Clerk in whoſe cuſtody it was; in that caſe, the Juſtices charged the Jurours, that if they found the deed to be the deed of the defendant at the time of the deed proved, they ſhould then give in a ſpecial verdict, which they did accordingly. 36 H. 8. Dyer 59.

4. A man ſeiſed of a houſe and other lands holden in Capite, by his deed gave the ſaid houſe and lands to I. S. to have to him and his heirs, and in the houſe delivered the deed to A. in name of ſeiſin of the ſaid meſſuage and lands contained in the ſaid deed; it was reſolved, that the actual delivery of a deed to the party himſelf is a good delivery of a deed, and againſt it he cannot plead Non eſt factum, and it was reſolved, that a writing may take effect by words only without any actual delivery of it: and in that caſe, it was holden, that if A. maketh a writing or deed to B. and ſeal and deliver it to B. as an eſcruple to take effect as his deed upon a condition to be performed, that the ſame is the deed of A. preſently, and againſt ſuch deed he cannot plead Non eſt factum; for the Law reſpects the delivery to the party it ſelf, and the other words ſhall be taken to be but ſurpluſage: Cook 9. part 137. Thoroughgood's Caſe.

5. I. S. was Sheriff of Oxford, and an obligation was made to him thus, Noverint univerſi per præſentes me I. S. teneri I. S. armigero, in 60. l. and after the delivery of the deed, theſe words, viz. vicecomit. Oxon) before the words (in 60. l.) and after the words (I. S. Eſquire) were enterlined without notice of I. S. it was adjudged in that caſe, becauſe that addition was without the privity of the party in a place not material, that the obligation was good: and in this caſe, it was reſolved, that when a lawfull deed is raſed, by which it becomes to be void, that in ſuch caſe, the obligor may plead Non eſt factum to it, or may give the matter in evidence, that at the time of the plea pleaded it was not his deed. 2. That when a deed is altered by the plaintiff himſelf, or a ſtranger in a point material by addition, alteration, interlining, raſure or other means, the deed is void, and the party may plead Non eſt factum to it; but if a ſtranger without the privity of the party alter a deed in any of the ſaid wayes by interlineation, raſure, &c. in a point not material, the ſame ſhall not make void the deed. Cook 11. part 27. Henry Pigot's Caſe.

6. A Charter party indented between the Maſter and Owners of a Ship of the one part, and divers Merchants of the other part, was made; by which the Maſter and owners covenant to ſhip over certain merchandizes at ſuch a port beyond ſea, and to tranſport them to the City of London; for which the merchants covenant ſeverally, that the one merchant ſhall pay 3. l. and another 5. l. &c. and to the performance of all and ſingular the covenants, quilibet mercator obligat ſeipſum in double the freight; the ſeal of one of the merchants was broken from the deed: it was reſolved in this caſe, that although the merchants do joyn in covenant, yet this word (ſeparatim) makes them ſeveral covenants. 2. Reſolved, that although the covenants of the Maſter and owners were joynt, yet the covenants on the parts of the merchants were ſeveral, and for that cauſe, if the ſeal of one of the merchants was broken from the deed, the ſame did not make the whole deed void, but only againſt him; but if any of the ſeals of the Maſter and owners had been broken from the deed, all the covenants had been avoided, and againſt ſuch deed they might have pleaded Non eſt factum. Cook 5. part 23. Matthewſons Caſe.

7. Debt upon an obligation againſt an Executor, the defendant pleaded Non eſt factum of the teſtator upon a ſpecial verdict; the caſe was, the teſtator with two others were joyntly and ſeverally bound in an obligation, and afterwards the ſeals of the two others were eaten with Mice and Rats; and whether that was the bond of the teſtator was the queſtion: it was objected in this caſe, that the obligation was good, becauſe that where they are bounden joyntly and ſeverally, it was all one as if they had been ſeveral obligations according to Matthewſons Caſe. And Tr. 2. Car. in B. R. Bunting and Symonds Caſe was vouched, where twenty eight merchants were bounden joyntly and ſeverally, and three of their ſeals were broken from the deed, and reſolved, that the deed did remain good againſt the others; on the other ſide it was ſaid, that the whole deed was avoided, and that the defendant might plead Non eſt factum to it; for where it was joynt at the firſt, note if the deed ſhould ſtand good againſt the defendant only, whereas it was his bond and the bond of others at the firſt, and ſo now the ſame bond. And whereas it was objected this is a caſualty, and ſhall not prejudice the plaintiff; it was anſwered, the ſame ſhall not help him, becauſe it was his own Laches and default; and where the bond is altered in a material point or place by a ſtranger, the ſame ſhall avoid the deed in all: and this caſe differs from Matthewſons caſe, becauſe there the cove-names were several and not joyne as this obligation is. The whole Court was strongly inclined, that judgement in the principal case should be given for the defendant; and their reason was, that if the obligor by his act, or by his own Laches discharge one of the obligors, where they are joyntly and severally bounden, the same shall discharge them all: but the case was adjorned. Mich. 17. Car. in B. R. Bayly and Garfords Case, Mich. 125, 126, 127.

8. Debt against I. S. the plaintiff declared, that the defendant stood bound to him in septingent. & quinquagint. libris, and produced the writing obligatory, whereof the words were septuagint & quinquagint libris: whereupon the defendant pleaded the variance, and thereupon a demurrer, and it was adjudged for the plaintiff that it was no cause to abate the Writ; and thereupon the defendant pleaded Non est factum, and the Jury found the writing aforesaid obligatorie de summa septuagint. & quinquagint. librarum per quod predict. the plaintiff per breve suum predict. exigit de predict. I. S. septingent. & quinquaginta libras, sealed and delivered by I. S. to the plaintiff as his deed, and prayed the advice of the Court; the Court adjudged the plaintiff should recover the 750. l. demanded and damages and costs: note there was nothing either pleaded by the party or found by the Jury, that it was meant for 7000 l.: error was afterwards brought upon the Judgement. Tr. 44. Eliz. in C. B. 1931. Walter and Pigots Case. Hob. 216.

9. A man was bound in an obligation by the name of Edmund; and his true name was Edward: an action of debt was brought upon the bond against his executors by the name of Edmund, who demanded Oyer of the obligation, and then pleaded Non est factum of their Testator: and it was found by an enquest in London, that it was his deed, viz. the deed of Edmund; it was moved in arrest of judgement: Quod curtess nihil caperat per Billam: & such was the judgement of the Court: and it was said that the plea was a good plea, and that so it had been adjudged in the Exchequer Chamber, by reason of the misnaming of the party: But quere of it. Tr. 20. Jac. in B. R.

Non residency.

1. THe Statute of 21. H. 8. c. 13. sect. 10. is, that every spiritual person or persons, promoted to any dignities, benefices, with any Parsonage or Vicarrige, shall be personally residente and abiding, in, at or upon his said dignity or benifices, or at one of them at the least: and in case such spiritual person keep not residence at one of his said benifices, but absent himself willfully by the space of one month together, or by the space of two months, to be accounted at several times within one year, and makes his residence and abiding in any other places, then he shall forfeit for every such default 10. l.

2. In trespass brought the defendant pleaded not guilty; the Jury found the defendant Vicar of D. and that he such a day leased his Vicaridge to I. S. for three years rendring rent, which I. S. assigned one acre thereof to the plaintiff, and the Def. was absent several months in one year: viz. sixty dayes in every quarter: but they do not finde the Statute of 13. Eliz. c. 12. of Leases: in this case, it was adjudged for the defendant; for the Statute of 13. Eliz. is a general Law; for although it extends but to those who have care of souls; yet in respect of the multiplicity of Parsonages and Vicariges in England, the Judges must take notice of it generally according to the Statute. Vide Cook 4. pt. Hollands case, and so must they of the Statute of 21. H. 8. c. 13. of Non Residence: M 5. Jac. in Co. B. Jennings and Hethersaits Case. Brownlo 1. part 102.

3. In an information upon the Statute of 21. H. 8. c. 13. upon a special verdict it was resolved by the Court, That the Parson ought to abide upon his Rectory, viz. the Parsonage house, and not in any other house, although it be within the same parish; for the Statute is intended not only for the serving of the cure and for hospitality, but also for the managing of the houses, not only for himself, but also for his successors, that they also may keep hospitality there: and in that case it was resolved, that lawful imprisonment without covin was a lawful excuse of Non residencie, and so if there be not any house there: also sickness without fraud is a good excuse, if the patient remove by the advice of his Physitian. Cook 6. part 21. Goodale and Butlers Case.

4. The Case was: Dr Newman was incumbent of the Rectory of S in the County of Kent, and was also seised of a house in S. aforesaid for lease within twenty yards of the said Rectory: the Mansion house of the Rectory was in good repair, and Dr. N. held that in his own hands, and did not let it to any other: and he inhabited in the said messuage and not in the Parsonage house: and if in that case the Dr. was Non residens, and incurred the penalty of the Statute of 21. H. 8. was the question: It was said in his behalf, that it appears by the verdict, That the Dr. held the Parsonage house in his own hands; upon which it was gathered that his servant was resident in it, which is the reſidency of the Maſter: and it was alſo ſaid, that by the council of Lateran all the Pariſh is made the Benefice of the Parſon, and therefore he might reſide in any part of the Pariſh: and it was ſaid, that this caſe differed from Fuller and Goodales caſe; for that there the Parſon demiſed all the Parſonage houſe, but only one chamber, and was not reſident in that, but in his copy-hold within the Town. In this it was anſwered, that although all the Pariſh may be ſaid the benifice of the Parſon; yet that is not the benifice which the Statute intended; for the cauſes of making of the Statute were, hoſpitality, and relief of the poor, and reparation; and that it be done in and upon the Parſonage houſe: but the opinion of the Court was, that this reſidence of the Dr in his own meſſuage was not a reſidence intended by the Statute: there was no judgement in the caſe, the matter being compounded by the Lord Cook H. 8. Jac. in Co. B. Lowning and Dr. Newmans caſe. Brownlo 3. part 54, 55.

5. It was covenanted between A and B that A ſhould preſent B to the Church of D and that afterwards B. ſhould leaſe the Parſonage to A. or to any other perſon named by him, and that he ſhould not reſign: and B. was bound to perform theſe covenants: B. is preſented to the benifice, A. brought an action of covenant, pretending that he could not enjoy his leaſe by reaſon of the abſence of the Parſon, &c. and the leaſe was made to the Curate at the nomination of A: B the Parſon ſaid, that the obligation to perform the covenants was void, for that the Statute of 14. E. c. 11. ſaith that all leaſes, &c. made by any Curate ſhall be of no better force, then if they had been made by the benificed Parſon himſelf. It was ſaid by Tanfield, that by the Statute of 13. Eliz. when a Parſon leaſeth to his Curate, who leaſeth over to another, that the Statute doth not make the leaſe void by the abſence of the Parſon, but of the Curate by fourty dayes: quere of that, for it ſeemeth, that by the Statute of 14. Eliz. the Curate cannot leaſe, &c. Paſc. 30. Eliz. in B.R. St. John and Pettits Caſe. Leon 100.

6. The Prior of Bath was ſeiſed of a Grange, or Farm called Barton near Bath in fee, and he and the Covent leaſed that by deed indented to H. B. and to his wife for life, the remainder to W. B. their ſon for his life, ſi ipſe inhabitare vellet & reſidens eſſe omnino de & ſuper prædict. Grangium. It was the opinion of the Juſtices in that caſe, that the leſſee might be reſident in any other place then in the Grange houſe, then by poſſibility it might be intended, that the leſſor might be defeated in his intent, which was, that the Grange houſe ſhould be repaired: Plow. Com. Calthorpe and Bejopſions Caſe. act. And ſo it was ſaid, that that might be the reaſon that moved the makers of the Statute of 21. H. 8. to be of opinion that the Parſons ſhould be reſident upon the Parſonage houſe, for that by that means the Parſonage houſe ſhould be well kept and maintained in reparations, and ſhould not be left to the ſucceſſors in dilapidations: And it was ſaid, that the Proviſo in the cloſe of the Statute of 21. H. 8. which is, that it ſhall be lawful for any ſpiritual perſon to take to farm any Manſion houſe having but an Orchard or Garden in any City, Borough or Town, ſo that by that Proviſo, they have no colour to be Non reſident upon the Parſonage houſe: but it was ſaid, that Non reſidencie by compulſion was not within the Law. vide Mich. 40. Eliz. Gatheſtr. 170. act.

7. A Parſon made a leaſe by Indenture for twelve years, and covenanted to ſuffer the leſſee and his aſſignes to enjoy for thoſe years and that he would not do any act, by which the benifice ſhould become void. And that one A a farmer of part of the tythes, ſhould pay 8 l. yearly for ſeven years, and he was bound to perform the covenants: now in debt brought upon the obligation, he pleaded performance of the Covenants on his part to be performed till 20 Eliz. at which time he himſelf was abſent by the ſpace of 80 dayes generally, but he did not ſpeak of the St. of 13. E. c. 117. and 14. Eliz. c. 11. and as to the covenant in the negative, he ſaid nothing: in that caſe it was holden, that he needed not to expreſs that the farmer paid the 8. l. becauſe it is implyed, in that he performed the covenants by him to be performed; but it is a quere in that caſe, if the covenants and obligation were void ab initio; or from his Non reſidencie only before: and vide 23. Eliz. Dyer 372.

Notice.

1. Where Notice is requiſite, where not? where it is to be given of a thing done, or to be done. To whom, and when to be given: And what ſhall be a ſufficient Notice, what not?

1. IN a Caſe in the Chancery, this queſtion did ariſe: If A. be ſeized in truſt and confidence to the uſe of B. and his heirs: and A. ſelleth the Land to one who hath Notice of the Truſt, to whoſe uſe ſhall the vendee be ſeized? and if one before the ſale cometh to the Vendee, and ſaith to him Take heed how you buy ſuch Land;

Land; for A. hath nothing in it, but in truſt to the uſe of B. and another comes to the Vendee, and ſays to him, It is not as he is informed; for A. is ſeized of this Land abſolutely: If this Caveat given to him, ut ſupra, be a ſufficient Notice of the Truſt, or not: It was ſaid, That it was holden in the Star-chamber in Booths Caſe, That if a man ſay to another, Take heed how you publiſh ſuch a writing, for it is forged; and notwithſtanding the party doth publiſh it: it is a ſufficient Notice to the publiſher, that the Deed was forged: And Popham Chief Juſtice put this Caſe. If any one ſay to me, Take heed how you entertain A. B. for he hath committed ſuch a Felony, and I giving no credit to the report receive the party, where in truth he had committed the Felony, that in this caſe I am acceſſory to the Felony: Egerton Lord Keeper ſaid, He would not draw blood upon ſuch an opinion: and in the principal Caſe he ſaid, That the Caveat given was no notice; for flying reports are many times Fables, and not truth; and if it ſhould be admitted for a ſufficient Notice, then the Inheritance of every man might eaſily be ſlandred. Hill. 43. Eliz. in Cancel. Wildgoſe and Waylands Caſe. Goldesb. 147.

2. In an Aſſumpſit the Caſe was, R. bought 2. weighs of Barly of the Plaintiff, and promiſed to pay for them as much as the Plaintiff ſhould have of another, abating one penny only in every Buſhel. The Plaintiff ſhewed, that after the agreement, he ſold to I. S. 2. weighs for 18 l. with abating one penny in every buſhel only by 17 l. 10 s. It was the opinion of the Court, that becauſe it did not appear in the Declaration, that notice was given to the defendant, that I. S. had given 18 l. the judgement was reverſed: and this difference was taken, if the agreement be, that he ſhall pay ſo much as I. S. in particular paid there, quia tenetur de perſona, the defendant at his peril ſhall enquire of him, and the plaintiff is not bound to give notice; but when the perſon is altogether uncertain, there the plaintiff, to entitle himſelf to the action, ought to give notice. Tr. 15. Jac. in B. R. Holdings Caſe. Cro. 2. part 412.

3. Debt upon an obligation; the condition was, whereas I. S was become Apprentice to the plaintiff, if he at any time during his apprentiſhip imbezeled any of his Maſters goods, that if the defendant after proof thereof made by the confeſſion of the ſaid I. S. or otherwiſe, and notice thereof given, ſhould make ſufficient recompence for ſuch things ſo imbezeled, that then, &c. The defendant pleaded that no proof was made by the confeſſion of I S. or otherwiſe: the plaintiff replyed ſuch a day and year probatio facta fuit, that I. S. had imbezeled 4 l. of his Maſters goods, and that the ſame day, the plaintiff gave notice thereof to the defendant, it was demurred upon, and the demurrer ruled good for theſe cauſes, becauſe it is not alledged in fact, that he imbezeled ſo much. 2. The condition is, if he imbezel, and it be ſufficiently proved; and it is not ſufficient to ſay that proof was made, but he ought to alledge the fact, that there was ſuch an imbezelling. 3. Becauſe it is not alledged how the proof was made; for the defendant hath three months after proof and notice to make ſatisfaction: it was adjudged for the defendant. Tr. 16. Jac. in B R Lee and Fudges Caſe. Cro. 2. part. 488.

4. The ſummons of a coppyholder to appear at the Lords Court was at the Church; and there upon the coppyholder did not appear: it was the opinion of the Court, that the ſame was no cauſe of forfeiture of his coppyhold, becauſe it was not ſpecially ſhewed, that it was the cuſtom; and it ſhall be hard to make it a forfeiture; for perhaps the coppyholder had not notice of it; and ſo it was ſaid, it was holden in the Lord Dacres and Hurlſtons Caſe; and the Court held, that notice ought to be given to the perſon, and the refuſal muſt be wilfull. M. 31. Eliz. in B. R. Sir John Branches Caſe. Leon. 104.

5. In an action upon the Caſe, the plaintiff declared, that the defendant in conſideration of the love which he bare to his Father, did promiſe, that if the plaintiff would procure a diſcharge of a debt of I.S. which his father did owe to I.C. that he would ſave the plaintiff harmleſs againſt I.S. and proteſted that he had diſcharged the father of the debt, and is become bounden to the ſaid I. S. in a bond for the ſaid debt, upon which bond I. S. hath ſued the plaintiff, and he recovered and had execution: it was ſaid the declaration was not good, becauſe the plaintiff hath not ſhewed that he had given notice to the defendant of the ſaid obligation, or of the ſuit brought againſt him: but the opinion of the Court was, that the declaration was good, notwithſtanding the exception; and in that caſe it was ſaid, that if I be bounden to you to make ſuch an aſſurance as I. S ſhall adviſe, I am bound at my perill without notice; but if I be bounden to make ſuch aſſurance as your counſel ſhall adviſe, there notice ought to be given unto me. M 30. Eliz. C. R. Atkinſon and Rolfs Caſe. Leon. 105.

6. Error of a judgement in C B. in Aſſumpſit: where the defendant aſſumed in conſideration of divers ſums of money paid to him, that if C. affirmed at his return from beyond ſea, that he received of the plaintiff 20. l. that the defendant would pay the 20. l. upon Non Aſſumpſit adjudged for the plaintiff. Error brought, and aſſigned for Error that it is not ſhewed before whom he affirmed, nor that the defendant had notice given him of the affirmation: it was reſolved, that the defendant is to take notice of the affirmation at his perill, and the plaintiff is not bounden to give him notice; for the act being to be done by a ſtranger, the conuſance thereof lyeth as well in the notice of the defendant as of the plaintiff, and therefore the plaintiff needs not to give him notice. Tr. 16. Jac. in B R Powle and Haggers Caſe. Cro. 2. p. 492.

7. In Ejectione firme: it was found by verdict. That A. was ſeiſed of lands in fee, and by E his wife had iſſue I, and by Indenture in conſideration of love to his wife, and to I their ſon and heir apparant, and to ſettle the lands upon him and his heirs, enfeoffed I S and I D and others to the uſe of himſelf without impeachment of waſt, and after to his wife for her life, and after to the uſe of the ſaid I and the heirs males of his body, the remainder to his right heirs. Afterwards A. 5. Jac. enfeoffed I N of the ſame lands with warranty againſt all perſons, and 6. Jac. dyed. E the wife entred; I the ſon of I N enters upon I N and enfeoffed the leſſor of the plaintiff, with warranty I N enters the leſſor enters, and makes the leaſe to the plaintiff; the defendant as ſervant to I N enters and outs him: and it was found, that E the wife of A. was alive: two points were reſolved in this caſe; that this warranty was no bar to I, becauſe it was not found that he was heir, and it ſhall be intended that he is not heir, becauſe it is a collateral warranty which is not favoured; and it may be A had elder ſons by another venter, or there might be an attainder. 2. It was reſolved, that if the warranty had been well found, that the eſtate of the ſon had been bound: and her joyning in the feoffment with the ſon is a forfeiture, as if ſhe had joyned with a ſtranger who had nothing to do, and ſhe at her perill ought to take notice of the ſaid feoffment, becauſe the Livery is a notorious and publick act & the feoffment, is a forfeiture at the Common Law, and ſhe ought at her perill to take notice of this act upon the land, none being bound to give notice. Tr. 8. Car. in B R Gimlet and Sands Caſe. Cra. 1. pt. 285.

8. Aſſumpſit. The defendant in conſideration of a ruff Bond delivered to him, promiſed to pay to the plaintiff at the day of the plaintiffs marriage 5. l. and the plaintiff alledged that he was married ſuch a day, and licet ſæpius requiſitus, he had not paid the 5. l. It was moved in ſtay of judgement, that the declaration was not good, becauſe it was not alledged that he gave notice of his marriage before he married; and that reſts in the privity and knowledge of the plaintiff, and the defendant is not bound to take notice thereof; and it cannot be a breach of promiſe unleſs the plaintiff had given notice of the marriage: and one Morſes Caſe was alledged, where for not alledging ſuch notice, a judgement was reverſed. But it was the opinion of the Court, that the defendant at his perill ought to take notice, and the plaintiff needed not to ſhew that he gave notice of the marriage; and poſtea requiſitas, alſo is ſufficient without ſhewing the day of the requeſt. Paſc. 2. Car. in Co. B. Crane and Cromtons Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 23. vide Hutton 8. the ſame caſe.

9. Aſſumpſit. The plaintiff by the Kings licence having in ſeveral places of his own land erected ſeveral Locks upon the River of Ouſe, for the heightning of the water for the paſſage of boats: and there being conditions betwixt the plaintiff and the defendant and others, what ſums ſhould be paid for ſuch paſſage, upon a Petition to the Lords of the Counceil, it was referred to the Earl of N. to ſet down what rates thoſe which paſſed through the ſaid Locks ſhould pay: the defendant in conſideration that the plaintiff would permit him to paſs through the ſaid Locks, 20. October 3. Car. promiſed the plaintiff that he would pay unto him ſuch ſums as the ſaid Earl ſhould appoint; and ſheweth, that between 20. Octob. and 23. April following, the defendant paſſed through the ſaid Locks with 1120. Tuns of Coals; and 24. April the Earl ſet down and ordered, that 2.d. ob. ſhould be paid for every Tun; according to which rate the defendant ought to pay him 11. l. which 29. April he requeſted him to pay him and he refuſed: upon Non aſſumpſit being found for the plaintiff, it was moved in ſtay of judgement, 1. That here was no conſideration, becauſe the River was a common River, and it is not lawful for any to make ſtops upon it, or to take ſums of mony for paſſage through the Locks; but that was diſallowed, becauſe it was made upon the plaintiffs own lands and his coſts for the making of the River Navigable for veſſels of burthen: 2. Exception was, becauſe the defendant had not any notice given him of the Earl of Ns. order; but that was diſallowed alſo, becauſe he was to pay ſo much as he ſhould appoint, and the defendant is to take notice of the order as well as the plaintiff, he being a ſtranger to both: alſo the plaintiff alledged, he required the ſum according to the order which is an implyed notice. Tr. 4. Car. in B. R. Juxon and Thornhills Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 93.

10. In Ejectione firmæ, the Caſe was, a leaſe was made upon condition, that if the leſſee his executors or aſſignes did not repair the houſe within ſix months after notice and warning given, that the leaſe ſhould be void: the leſſee made a leaſe of it for ten years: the aſſignee of the reverſion comes to the tenement and gives notice to I S the occupier of the houſe under the leſſee for ten years, that the houſe was defective in reparations, and ſhews wherein, and becauſe not repaired within within six months he reteres: it was resolved in this case, that this notice to a person who is not interessed in the land, although it was the land, was not sufficient; for he is bound to repair it under forfeiture after notice; and here the notice at the land, being to a wrong person, is void: like a demand of the rent upon the land any time of the year, but not at the last day, is a void demand. Hill. 44 Eliz in B R Swetman & Cushes Case. Cr. 2. pt. 9.

11. Vide M. 3. Jac. in B R Gold and Deaths Case: Cro. 2. pt. 381. which agreed with Lee and Fidges Case in the principal matter: But in Golds Case, upon a Writ of Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber, An Exception was taken to the Replication that it was not alledged, that notice was given to the defendant, after the death of the testator; for if it were in his life time, it was to no purpose, and the strongest shall be taken against him who pleaded it; and all the Justices and Barons held it to be a material exception, for it shall not be helped by Judgement: and for that cause the judgement was reversed. See the Cause at large. Cro. 2. pt. 382.

12. The defendant upon a lease of a house let him by the plaintiff, covenanted that he would from time to time during the term after three months warning sufficiently repair it, and after the end of the term leave it sufficiently repaired; and for not leaving it repaired covenant was brought, and shewed in what parts it was defective; the defendant demurred, because he for three months before did not give notice to him of the defaults; It was resolved, the declaration was good, notwithstanding the exception; for the clause to leave it well repaired at the end of the term, is distinct by it self, and doth not depend upon the former clauses; for he ought to leave it sufficiently repaired, without notice at his perill. Tr. 20. Jac. in B R Hanslet and Butchers Case. Cro. 2. pt. 644.

13. Assumpsit, the plaintiff declared, that whereas he at the defendants request demised to one I S his house in L rendring 5. s. quarterly; the defendant promised, that if I S did not pay the rent, he would pay it, and alledged that I S virtute demissionis entred and was possessed and had not paid the rent; upon Non assumpsit found for the plaintiff and judgement, Error was brought, and amongst other, it was assigned for Error, because it was not alledged that notice was not given that the other had not paid it; but the exception was disallowed, for he at his perill ought to take conusance of the non payment, and pay the rent, otherwise the promise was broken: Hill. 21. Jac. in Exchequer Chamber; Brooksbank and Taylers Case. Cro. 2. pt. 684.

14. The Case was, a lessee for years was bound in a bond to give up the possession to the lessor or his assignes at the end of the term; the lessor assignes over his interest, and the assignee requires the lessee to perform the condition, who answers that he knew not whether he were assignee, and thereupon refused: It was adjudged, that he had broken the condition; for he had taken upon him so to do; and it is not like Greens Case, Cook 6. pt. where the Patron presented his Clerk upon a deprivation, yet the ordinary ought to give the Patron notice of the deprivation, because it is a thing spiritual, of which a lay-man shall not be bound to take notice. Pasc. 16. Jac. in Co. B. Pasham 136.

2. Where notice is requisite before action brought, where not.

1. A Was bound to B to pay him 1000. l. after he had married his daughter; Afterwards he married her, and brought debt upon the bond, and it was not avered, that he had given him notice of the marriage; it was objected that he ought to give notice; otherwise this mischief would ensue, that if he had not married her, and yet had demanded the money, he ought to pay it; and where an act is to be done by a stranger, there the plaintiff or defendant ought to take notice thereof at their perill; as where a man is bound to stand to the award of I S. But where it lyes properly in the conusance and notice of the plaintiff, there he ought to give notice thereof to the defendant. Cook 5. pt. Mapories Case; On the other side, it was said that here was an implyed notice, because the marriage was at the instance of the defendant which implyes a notice: It was the opinion of the Court, that there needed no notice in this Case, and judgement was given for the plaintiff; 1. Hill. 22. Jac. in Co. B. Hodges & Mores Case. Paph. 165.

2. Action upon the case against the defendant as executor upon a promise made by the Testator for a marriage portion; upon Non assumpsit, being found for the plaintiff, it was moved in arrest of judgement, that this action doth not lye against the executors, because this is a matter matrimonial with which the executor is not chargeable at the Common Law without a deed. Vide Fitz. 45. E. 3. 24. act. Jurisdict 15. and title Executors 4. In debt, the plaintiff counted, that a covenant was made between him and the defendant, that if he did take to wife the daughter of the defendant, that then he would be bound to him in 100. l. and shewed that he did take her to wife; exception was taken, becauſe this debt was demanded upon a covenant, touching matrimony, which ought to be tryed in the ſpiritual Court; but becauſe he demanded the debt upon a deed, by which it became in Law to be a Covenant, it was therefore ruled maintainable, otherwiſe if without deed: And M. 13. Jac. in B R Sanders and Eſtarlies Caſe was vouched: There an action upon the caſe againſt an Executor for a marriage portion did not lye againſt an Executor: Alſo Hurlan and Elyets caſe, where the promiſe by the Teſtator was, That in conſideration that he married his kinſwoman, he promiſed to give him ſo much; and it was holden in the Exchequer that the Executor was not charged with the promiſe made by the Teſtator, the promiſe being to pay 10 l. quarterly in Mavitagium. Alſo it was objected, That no notice was given to the defendant of the marriage; The Court doubted at the firſt, if notice of the marriage ought to have been given in this caſe: But afterwards upon view of the Preſidents of Hodges caſe, and of Tr. 7. Jac. in B R of the caſe between Bready and Cobb; and becauſe there is a difference where a collateral thing is to be done upon a marriage day; there notice ought to be given of it; but where the thing to be performed is a due debt to the party, although not demanded, it remains a debt, and no notice is to paſs in that caſe for bringing of an action: for theſe cauſes, and other, it was reſolved in the principal caſe: 1. That the action lyeth againſt the defendant being Executor upon this Aſſumpſit of the Teſtator. And, 2. That no notice here was requiſite to be given of the marriage: M. 14. Jac. in B R Bereſford and Goodricks caſe. Bolſtr. 3. pt 135, 136. vide Tr. 1. Car. in B R Alfrey and Blackamors caſe. Bolſtr. 3. pt 326. ac. Vide M. 12. Jac. in B R Selby and Wilkenſons caſe. Bolſtr. 2. pt. 254. ac.

3. In Aſſumpſit the caſe was: There being a difference between the plaintiff and defendant, concerning the quantity of rent to be paid by the defendant; The defendant ſaid, that if I S would ſay, that the rent reſerved upon the leaſe was, 6 l. he did there promiſe to double it to the Plaintiff; I S did affirme the rent to be 6 l. upon Non aſſumpſit and verdict for the Plaintiff, it was ſaid the declaration was not good, becauſe that no notice is ſaid therein to be given of this to the defendant: it being ſaid only in the declaration, that I S affirmed the rent to be 6 l. and notice is requiſite, becauſe no notice there is ſet down, but is here indefinite; and it being to be done by a ſtranger and under the penalty of doubling the rent, notice of it ought to be given to the defendant of it: but it was reſolved by the Court, that the declaration was good, although no notice was layed in it to be given to the defendant; and the difference was taken, where one is ignorant of a thing to be done by him, there notice is to be given him of the ſame; but if a man undertakes to do a thing, there he alſo undertakes to perform all circumſtances incident to the doing of the ſame, and that without notice. It was the opinion of the Court, that the declaration was good without expreſſing any notice. M. 11. Jac. in B R Childe and Hordens caſe. Bolſtr. 2 pt. 143, 144.

4. In Trover and Converſion for taking the Plaintiffs cattel by way of Diſtreſs, and ſelling them by virtue of a Warrant of Commiſſioners, of Sewers for not paying of a tax by them impoſed for the reparation of the Sea walls; the defendant pleaded all the ſpeciall matter by way of juſtification; the Plaintiff demurred to the plea, and took ſeveral declarations to it; one amongſt the reſt was, that it is not ſaid that he had notice of the tax: It was holden by the Court, that that was a good exception, for that there ought to have been notice given of the tax and of the demand of it, before any diſtreſs might be taken for it; and for that cauſe amongſt others it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Vide Libro. Paſc. 23. Car. in B R Whittes and Fauſetts caſe. Stubs 13.

5. Action upon the caſe, upon an Indebitatus Aſſumpſit to pay 20 s a piece for every cloth he ſhould buy of the defendant; the plaintiff declared for ſo much money due unto him, and had a verdict: It was moved in ſtay of judgement that it is not averred by the plaintiff, that he gave notice to the defendant how many cloaths he had bought for him; It was objected, that the cloaths were bought for the defendant himſelf, and he may well take notice of the number of them without notice given him; and here is a requeſt for the payment of the money which implies a notice; The Court inclined to opinion that the requeſt implyed not a notice, and that the notice ought not to be by implication, but to be avered certainly: M. 23. Car. in B R Tanner and Lawrences Caſe. Styles 53.

6. Debt; the condition was that the obligor ſhould make an eſtate of inheritance to the obligee of ſuch lands at ſuch a day and place; the defendant pleaded that he was ready at the day and place to make the aſſurance, and to make the plaintiff an eſtate of inheritance of the lands: The plaintiff demurred upon the plea, for that the defendant doth not ſhew that he gave notice to the plaintiff of the day and place, and alſo had not ſhewed that he gave the plaintiff notice what eſtate of inheritance he would make; for the firſt, the Court held it not to be neceſſary to give notice of the day and place; but for the ſecond, that he ought to have ſhewn, that he gave notice what eſtate he would make him. Tr. 23. Car. in B R Brack and Brookes caſe. Styles 61.

7. Aſſump-

7. Aſſumpſit, The plaintiff declared, That the defendant in conſideration that the Plaintiff ſold and delivered unto him ſuch a number of pieces of ſtuff, the defendant did promiſe to the plaintiff to deliver to him the value of the ſtuff in ſuch pipes of wine lying in L. Celler in London as the Plaintiff ſhould make choice of. A Verdict being for the Plaintiff, the Defendant moved an Arreſt of Judgement, That the Plaintiff doth not aver, that he made any Election of the Pipes of Wine, and before Election he was not bound to deliver them: 2. He doth not aver, that he gave notice to the plaintiff of his Election, and there being a condition precedent to be performed on the plaintiffs part, it is implied that the defendant cannot perform the bargain without notice of that performance: It was the opinion of the Court, that the defendant ought to have ſhewed the Plaintiff the Wines without which the Plaintiff can make no Election, and ſo the giving notice of his Election was impoſſible, and not material: M.23. Cor. in B.R. Parmiter and Creſſys Caſe. Stiles 74.

8. Aſſumpſit in conſideration that the Plaintiff ſhould let to the Defendant a Booth in Sturbridge Fair, he did aſſume and promiſe to pay the Plaintiff 16 l. for the ſame, and to pay the Plaintiff for all ſuch Wine and Hops as ſhall be ſpent in the Booth, during the Fair; A Verdict and Judgement was for the Plaintiff, and Error brought, and aſſigned for Error that the Plaintiff doth not expreſs in his Declaration, that he gave notice how much Wine and Hops he layed into the Booth during the Fair, and ſo the defendant could not know how much money he ſhould pay: It was the opinion of the Court that the Declaration was too general, and that he ought to have given notice of that; and for want of ſo doing, the Judgement was reverſed. M. 1649. in B R. Harris and Gibbons Caſe. Stiles 172.

9. Aſſumpſit; and declares, that the defendant in conſideration that ſhe the Plaintiff would leave her Fathers houſe, and come to the houſe of the defendant in ſuch a place, did promiſe unto her that he would marry her, and that thereupon ſhe did leave her fathers houſe, and come to the defendants houſe, & obtulit ſe in mortagium conjungi: and becauſe he had not performed his promiſe unto her, upon Iſſue joyned, it was found for the Plaintiff: In ſtay of Judgement it was ſhewed that the plaintiff did not ſhew in her Declaration when ſhe left her Fathers houſe, nor that ſhe gave him any notice thereof. Againſt which it was ſaid, that obtulit ſe in mortagium Conjungi, implyed Notice; and beſides no notice is requiſite; for the Aſſumſit is, that if ſhe will come, he will marry her, ſo as he is bound by his promiſe to take notice of her coming; It was the opinion of the Court, that there was a notice implyed here in theſe words. Obtulit ſe in mortagium conjungi; And there could not be a Marriage, if the party was not there; It was adjudged for the Plaintiff; M. 1651. in B.R. Peck and Ingram Caſe, Styles 173.

10. Error brought to reverſe a judgement in action upon the Caſe in Co. B. The Caſe was, that the Defendant did promiſe to pay ſuch a ſum of money to the Plaintiff, when he ſhould return from London; the Plaintiff did ſhew that he came from London, and the money was not paid him. Upon Non Aſſumpſit, judgement was for the Plaintiff, and Errour brought. It was aſſigned for Error, That there was no ſpecial requeſt of payment laid in the Declaration; nor was there any notice layed to be given to the defendant of the Plaintiffs return to London: It was the opinion of the Court, that the Declaration was not good for that cauſe: and the difference will be this, when it reſts upon a matter to be done between the parties themſelvs, there notice is to be given to the party who makes the payment; otherwiſe where it is to be done by a ſtranger; for there he hath aſſumed upon himſelf to take notice, and ſo there it is at his perill: and in this caſe the act to be done before the payment of the money, being to be done by the party himſelf, to whom the money by promiſe is to be paid, he himſelf is to give notice of the time of the performance of this act to the party who is to make the payment; and there being no notice laid in the Declaration, tis not good: and therefore the Iudgement is erroneous. And the Iudgement was reverſed by the Rule of the Court, Mich. 8. Iac. in B. R. Gobit and Moſſes Caſe. Bolſtr. 1. pt. 44.

11. Aſſumpſit: the Plaintiff declared, That whereas there was a ſpeech of Marriage between the Plaintiff and the Defendant; the Defendant did aſſume to the Plaintiff, that he would marry her; and that afterwards the Defendant in conſideration that the Plaintiff would diſcharge the Defendant of this promiſe, did promiſe that he would pay her 1000 l. and ſays that ſhe did diſcharge the Defendant of his promiſe of Marriage. Upon Non Aſſumpſit found for the Plaintiff: It was alledged in ſtay of Iudgement, that it is uncertain to which promiſe the Declaration relates: and alſo there is no conſideration temporal alledged, but only a promiſe to diſſolve a Contract of Marriage, which is a thing illegal. The opinion of the Court was that the Engagement to marry is not meerly a ſpiritual matter; and this action is not to compell the Marriage, but to recover damages for not doing it; and the Court was of opinion, that the diſagreement ſhall be intended to the party himſelf, and that in this Caſe, there needed no expreſs notice to be given to the party of it: Fr. 165.

12. The Caſe was, A. being a Coach-man, by careleſs driving of his Coach brake a Pipe of Wine of B which lay in the Street, whereby much of the wine run out and was loſt. B. apprehended A. who thereupon promiſed, That if he would forbear to ſue him for the wine, he would pay him as much as he was damnified: In an action upon the Caſe a Verdict was found for the Plaintiff. It was moved in reſt of Iudgement, that the Plaintiff had not averred how much the wine was worth which was ſpilt, ſo as he could not know what to pay in ſatisfaction of it, for he knows not the value, and it doth not appear that there was found any requeſt of ſatisfaction. It was the opinion of the Court, that the Declaration was good; for there doth appear apparent damage, and the defendant is bounden to take notice of the damage; and the Plaintiff is not bounden to give him notice of it. 3. Where the Obliger ſhall be bound to perform the Condition without Notice: And where Notice of the Award, or matter of the Condition, ought to be given to the Plaintiff, and how and by whom it ought to be given, and what ſhall be a good Notice, what not.

1 SIr Andrew Corbet ſeized of divers Lands holden in Capite, deviſed parcel of them to divers perſons to have to them, and the ſurvivor of them until ſuch time and term as 800 l. of them, and of the profits of them be levied, and to imploy the ſame for the ſervice of his daughter, and died; his ſon and heir took the Will into his hands, and entred into the ſaid Lands, and took the profits of them during his life; and afterwards the Deviſees entred and received the profits; and levied 640 l. according to the Will, and if the profits taken by the heir, and which the Deviſees might have taken, ſhould be parcel of the 800 l. was the Queſtion. It was reſolved in this Caſe, amongſt other points, That although the Deviſees had not notice of the Deviſee: yet if a ſtranger had occupied the Land, yet the Deviſees ought to take notice of the ſame at their peril; for vigilantibus & non dormientibus jura ſubveniunt. Cook 4 pt.83. 2. A man bound himſelf in an Obligation, to ſtand to the award of I.S. ſo as the award be put in writing before Mich. the Obligor before Mich. revoked the power of I. S. to make the award: It was reſolved, in this caſe amongſt other things, That by this countermand the obligation became ſingle; and the Obligee ſhould take advantage of it; and it was alſo reſolved, That in debt brought by the Obligee upon the ſaid obligation, that the Plaintiff needed not to aver that the Arbitrator had notice of the Countermand; for that was implyed in theſe words, renunciavit omnem authoritatem, &c. and it was ſaid that when two things are requiſite to the performance of an Act, both things are to be done by the ſame perſon, as a Demiſe, Revocation, Countermand, there notice is implyed: otherwiſe where the things are to be done by ſeveral perſons: Cook 8. pt.82. Viners Caſe.

3. A man ſeized of Land in Fee, by his Will, deviſed the ſame to I. his eldeſt ſon for ſixty years after the death of the deviſor, if the ſaid I. ſo long lived, and after to the uſe of B. his ſecond ſon for life; and afterwards to the heirs males of the body of I. provided that if I. did not ſuffer his Executors quietly to carry away all his goods in his houſe, or ſhall do any act to hinder the intent of his father, that then the uſes limited to I. and his heirs ſhould ceaſe; and died: The Executor came to the houſe, and there would have carried away the goods, and the ſaid I. would not ſuffer the executors to carry them away, but forbade and hindred them to carrie away the goods out of the houſe: It was reſolved in this caſe amongſt other points, That although the defendant had particularly ſhewed a ſpecial act of diſturbance againſt the Proviſo: Yet it was reſolved, that I. ſhould not loſe his Term; for none ſhall loſe any eſtate or Intereſt which he lawfully hath, without ſome act and default in himſelf; and therefore forasmuch as I. was a ſtranger to this Feoffment, he ſhall not loſe his eſtate without notice given him of the proviſo, and of the Will of his Father: for Quod noſtrum eſt ſine facto, ſine defectu noſtro amitti, vel in alium transferri non poteſt: vide Cook in Malories Caſe, 5. pt. In this caſe it was reſolved; 1. That B. ſhould have a convenient time to ſell his Hay; 2. That the Leſſee ought to give notice to B. before he ought to put in his Cattel into the ground of the Leaſe; as alſo that he took away his Hay: M.17.Iac. in B. 4. Where notice ought to be given by the Ordinary of an Avoydance, and of what manner of Avoydance: where not: And what ſhall be a ſufficient Notice; what not.

1. A. & B. were ſeiſed of an Advowſon to preſent by turns; A. preſented I.S. who was Inſtituted and Inducted and died; B preſented I.B. who was afterwards lawfully deprived by the Biſhop of Coventry and Lichfield, without giving any notice to A. who had the next turn; The Biſhop Collated I N. and after Collation, A. ſold his moyetie to I.G. and I. G. to the Earl of Shrewsbury: In this Caſe, the Court did incline that by the Collation the turn was loſt; but clear, if it had been by an uſurpation: and in this caſe, the court ſaid, that yet upon the deprivation the Patron ought to have had notice: Hill.43. Eliz in Com B. Langfords Caſe, Goldesbr. 142.

2. Note per Curiam, That if a Church become void and a ſtranger enters a Caveat with the Regiſter of the Biſhop, that none be inſtituted to that Church, until he be made privy thereunto, & the Biſhop before he hath notice of the Caveat, Inſtitute an Incumbent; the Inſtitution is meerly void in the Spiritual Law, as was ſaid by Dr. Amy; for that the Regiſter ought to notifie the caveat to the Biſhop, and his negligence in that ſhall not prejudice him who entred the Caveat; and if the Biſhop have notice of the Caveat, and gives day to him that puts it in, and before that day he Inſtitutes an Incumbent, that entring of the Caveat is a Superſedeas in our Law: Hill.43. Eliz. in Coi. B. in the Lord Zouches Caſe. Goldesbr 146.

3. If the Biſhop or Ordinary doth refuſe a Clerk which is preſented unto him; for that he is a Turk, Infidel, Heretick, Schiſmatick, perjured perſon, baſtard, illiterate, or for that he is a meer Lay man, or for other ſufficient cauſes of diſability, as villein, &c. In all ſuch Caſes he muſt give notice to the Patron, of the cauſe of ſuch his refuſal; and the particular crime muſt be ſet forth and proved, that the Patron may preſent another fit Clerk to the ſame Church; for if no notice be given, and the 6. moneths paſs, the Laps ſhall not incur to the Biſhop or Ordinary, for that he ſhall not take advantage of his own wrong, in not giving notice thereof to the Patron: Cook 5. pt 58. in Specots Caſe.

4. A Patron preſented a meer Lay perſon, and the Ordinary refuſed him; It was ſaid, that in that caſe he need not give notice to the Patron, becauſe it is notorious, that he is not capable; but if he refuſeth one becauſe he is criminous, or becauſe of inability, in ſuch caſe, it behoves the ordinary to give notice; But if a Lay man be admitted, inſtituted, inducted, this is a plenary and the Church is full, for he is Incumbent de facto; & here behoveth to be an annullation by ſentence before a new preſentation be made; and of that the Ordinary muſt give notice to the Patron, as in other avoidances where the Biſhop is party. M.13. Eliz. Dyer 292.

5. If the Church do become void by the death of the Incumbent, the 6. moneths ſhall be accounted from the time of his death, of which avoidance the Patron at his peril is to take notice, and to make his preſentment unto the Biſhop accordingly; and ſo if the Church do become void by Creation, as by making of the Incumbent Biſhop, or by Ceſſion, whereof the Patron at his perill is to take notice: But if the Church do become void by Reſignation, which is the Act of the party Incumbent himſelf (and which Reſignation muſt of neceſſity be made to the Biſhop or Ordinary) or by Deprivation which is the Act of the Law, there, although the 6. moneths incur before the Patron preſent, yet the Biſhop ſhall not preſent, unleſs the Biſhop upon the Reſignation or Deprivation had given notice to the Patron of the ſame avoydance; for in ſuch and the like caſes the 6. moneths ſhall be accompted from the time of the notice given by the Ordinary to the Patron: vide M 16. Eliz. Dyer 327. ac.

9. In a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop of St. Aſaph, the defendant juſtified for Laps; the Plaintiff Replyed, that he preſented one I.S. a Maſter of Arts, and an allowed Preacher: The Defendant rejoyned, that the Pariſhioners were Homines Wallici, or Wallicam loquentes linguam & non aliam; and that I. S. could not ſpeak the Welch language, for which he refuſed him, upon which the Plaintiff demurred; It was ſaid for the Plaintiff that the ſame was no ſufficient cauſe of refuſal, becauſe the language might be learned in a ſhort time, and proviſion was made for tranſlating the book of Common Prayer, Epiſtles and Goſpels into Welch; and alſo men were capable of Benifices with cure: on the other ſide it was ſaid, that in the ſtatute of 5 Eliz. the miſchief was recited; That the inhabitants of Wales did not underſtand Engliſh; and therefore it was provided that the Biſhop of Wales ſhould procure Bibles and books of Common Prayer to be tranſlated into the Welch language, and ſo upon that ſtatute, the imperfection of not having the Welch language was a good cauſe of refuſal; This point was debated, but not reſolved. 2. It was ſaid, that no ſufficient notice was given to the Patron after the refuſal; for the Church being void 14. March, the plaintiff did preſent 13. Auguſt, 29 Auguſt; the ſix moneths ended the fourth of September, the defendant gave notice to the Patron, and the 14. of September was the collation; It was adjudged in this caſe, that the defendant was a diſturber; and in this caſe it was ſaid, That it was adjudged in the Lord Mallineux caſe, That if the Patron doth preſent, and the Ordinary doth refuſe, he ought to give notice to the parſon of the Patron if he be within the County, and if not, at the Church it ſelf which is void. Tr. 27. Eliz. in C B Albany and Biſhop of St. Aſaphs caſe, Leon. 31, 32.

7. By the Statute of 21. H. 8. c. 13. If a man had taken a ſecond Benifice with cure without any diſpenſation, the firſt Benifice had been void without any ſentence, and of the ſame avoydance the Patron is to take notice at his peril: vide 7. Eliz. Dyer 237. Cook 4. pt. 79. But if a man hath a Benifice with cure of ſouls of the value of eight pound, and doth not read the Articles, and takes a ſecond Benifice without diſpenſation, and afterwards dyeth; The Inſtitution and Induction of him into the ſecond Benifice are meerly void, and the firſt Benifice is void by his death, and not by the Statute of 21. H. 8. for that he was never lawfull incumbent of the ſecond Benifice; 23. Eliz. Dyer 377.

8. Note that if a Church, become void by reſignation or upon the Statute of 21. H. 8. for that no notice is given to the Patron; In ſuch caſe although the lapps encur to the King, yet he ſhall not preſent; for then the Kings prerogative ſhould do wrong; adjudged in the Exchequer: vide 18. Eliz. Dyer 347. Weſtons Caſe.

9. A man is inducted into a Benifice with cure, of the value of eight pound per annum in the Kings books, and he accepts another Benifice, and then is made a Biſhop; and before Creation and Inſtallation, the King by his Letters Patent grants to him a Plurality, and that he ſhall hold both Benifices above his Biſhoprick; and afterwards pretending the Letters Patent to be void, the preſentee of the King by lapps, libels in the Spiritual Court for tythes, and makes no mention in the libel of the ſtatute of 21. H. 8. In this caſe amongſt other points it was reſolved: That before the ſtatute of 21. H. 8. If a man had a Benifice with cure, and took another Benifice, that the firſt Benifice was void, but that was void by the Spiritual Law, but not by the Common Law, and therefore no lapps encurred without notice, as upon Deprivation, or Reſignation, and yet the Patron might preſent, and take upon him notice if he pleaſed, ſo as for the benifit of the Patron, the Church was void in the principal caſe if he pleaſed: But now foraſmuch as it is affirmed by the ſtatute of 21 H. 8. If the firſt Benifice be of the value of eight pound, the Patron at his perill ought to preſent to the ſame, becauſe to an avoidance by Act of Parliament to which every one is party, every one ought to take notice of it at his perill: But if the firſt Benifice be not of the value of eight pound, it is otherwiſe; for then it is meerly void by the Eccleſiaſtical Law, of which the Patron needs not to take notice at his perill: Cook 4. pt. 75. Holands Caſe.

9. A Tenant for life of the Mannor of D to which a Rectory which is a Benifice with cure is appendant, the remainder to B in fee, A preſented D, who is admitted, inſtituted, and inducted, and doth not read the Articles, for which cauſe at the ſuit of A he was deprived before the Biſhop, and he appealed to the Court of Arches, no notice being given by the Ordinary to the Patron of this Deprivation: It was in this caſe amongſt other things reſolved; 1. That although the Patron took notice that D did not read the Articles, yet after ſuch notice lapps ſhould not encur, but ſpecial notice of not reading of the Articles ought to be given to him by the Ordinary, and after ſuch notice the lapps ſhould be accounted, and none ought to give notice but the Ordinary, and the notice which he giveth ought to be certain in particular, and that he hath not read the Articles, for which cauſe he is deprived, and general notice is not ſufficient: 2. It was reſolved, that the Church was void preſently by the ſtatute of 21. H. 8. c. 13. without any declaratory ſentence: and that if ſuch a Parſon ſued his Pariſhoners for tythes, they might plead againſt him the not reading of theſe Articles: Tr. 44. Eliz. in B R Cook 6. pt. 29. Greens Caſe.

10. Two men pretend right to preſent as Patrons to an Avoidance of a Church: If one of them preſenteth to the Ordinary, and the Ordinary makes doubt of his title, he may enquire of it for for his ſatisfaction by Jure Patronatus: But put caſe that the Parſon is deprived by the Ordinary, or reads not his Articles, in which caſe notice muſt be given to the very Patron for that time, or elſe the lapps encurs not; the quere is, how the Ordinary ſhall now aſſure himſelf of a ſufficient notice; for if he giveth notice to him that is not Patron for this very turn, his notice is vain; and the Patron perhaps knows not of the Deprivation, or if he knows, yet needs not preſent without notice; It was the opinion of Hobert Chief Iuſtice, that where the enquire is made by Jure Patronatus who is Patron; and the Ordinary gives that party notice, that if he preſents not within ſix months, the Ordinary may collate to the Church; and although ſuch collation ſhall not binde the very Patron, yet it ſhall excuſe the Ordinary of diſturbance upon the ſpecial matter ſhewed; and although in that caſe, if the ſix months encur, the Patron without notice is not bound by the Lapps; yet that is nothing to ſave the uſurpation of another pretended Patron who is not ſubject to give notice; Vide Paſc. 17. Iac. in C B in Sir William Elvis, and the Archbiſhop of Yorks Caſe. Hob 315, 316, 317.

5. Where Notice is neceſſary to be given to change the Avowry, and for what thing the Avowant diſtrains, and to whom given, and what ſhall be ſufficient, what not.

1. IF there be Lord and Tenant, and the Tenant maketh a feoffment in fee; In this caſe betwixt them, for the arrerages due as well before the feoffment as after untill notice is only privity as to avowry, and not any privity in eſtate, or in tenure, which privity ſhall not go with the eſtate: and before, the Statute of Quia emptores

If the Tenant maketh a feoffment in fee to hold of the chief Lord; the feoffee by no tender that he can make ſhall compell the Lord to avow upon him, but the Lord may avow upon the feoffee, for that by his own act he cannot change the avowry of the Lord, although that in ſuch caſe the Lord hath notice, or taketh notice of the feoffment. Cook 3. pt. 13. in Walkers caſe.

2. If there be Lord and Tenant by knight ſervice, and the Tenant infeoffable his ſon and heir with no age by colluſion; If the Lord accept of the ſervices by the hands of the feoffee, it was ſaid, that he ſhall loſe the Lordſhip: But againſt that was objected, 1. That the feoffee might compell the Lord to avow upon him by giving notice and tender of the arrerages; and that which the law enforceth him to do ſhall not prejudice nor eſtopp him. 2. That acceptance doth not conclude before title accrued, and no title of wardſhip was in this caſe accrued to the Lord at the time of the acceptance, but it came after the death of the feoffer: To the firſt objection, it was anſwered, That by no notice that he can give or tender that he can make, or compell the Lord to vow upon him; for the Lord may ſhew, that the feoffment was by colluſion againſt the Statute of Marlebridge, and therefore he ſhall maintain his avowry upon the feoffee; for the law doth not compell him to accrew upon the feoffee to his prejudice. 2. It was anſwered, that the Statute of Marlebridge hath made ſuch feoffment by colluſion void and of no effect as to the Lord: Vide Cook 3. pt. 66. in fine, Pennants caſe.

3. A man ſeiſed of lands in fee made a leaſe for years rendring rent upon condition, that if he, his executors, adminiſtrators or aſſigns did grant, alien, or aſſign any part of the land without the aſſent of the leſſor, his heirs or aſſigns, that it ſhould be lawful for him, his heirs or aſſigns to out the leſſee; the leſſee aſſigned part of it without the aſſent of the leſſor; the leſſor before notice and before reentry accepted the rent, and afterwards reentred. In this caſe amongſt other things it was reſolved, That the condition being collateral might be ſo ſecretly contrived, that it is impoſſible to come to the notice of the breach of it, and there notice was material in this caſe: But in a condition annexed to rent, although that he accept of the rent at the day for which demand was made, yet he may reenter and have debt for the rent, upon the contract betwixt him and the leſſee. 2. Reſolved, that in a condition annexed to the rent, if the Lord diſtrain for the ſame rent for which demand was made, by that he hath affirmed the leaſe; for a diſtreſs for rent affirmes the leaſe to have continuance after the rent received; for after the leaſe detained he cannot deſtrain: Cook 3. pt. 65. Pennants Caſe.

6. Where every perſon privy to acts of Parliament and matters of Record, muſt take Notice of them at their perills: and of what Acts the Judges are to take Notice ex officio, of what not.

1. IF the King makes a leaſe for years or for life, of lands, and afterwards grants the land unto another in fee or in tail without reciting of the leaſe; the laſt grant is void, and that for two cauſes: firſt, becauſe the King grants an eſtate in poſſeſſion where he had but a reverſion; and ſo is deceived in his grant: And, 2. Becauſe the ſubject had a means to come to the knowledge of the ſaid leaſe; for every Patent ought to be enrolled in the Chancery to which all ſubjects may have acceſs; but otherwiſe it is of leaſes which are not of Record: Cook 1. pt. 45. in the Caſe of Attonwoods, Vide ibid. 50. acc.

2. A man is indebted to A and B in 100. l. and afterwards becomes Bankrupt; a commiſſion is awarded under the great Seal according to the Statute of 13. Eliz. cap. 7. to C and D to make ſale of his goods to his creditors; afterwards the Bankrupt gives all his goods to another creditor for the payment of his debt, and afterwards the commiſſioners ſell the goods: It was adjudged in that caſe, that the ſale by the commiſſioners was good; for the intent of the Statute was to relieve the creditors equally, and that there ſhould be an equal proportion obſerved in the diſtribution of the goods; ſo as every creditor ſhould be in æquali jure: And it was reſolved, that the aſſignment of the Bankrupt after the commiſſion awarded under the great Seal was void: for that the commiſſion is matter of Record, of which every one is to take notice. Tr. 31. Eliz. Cook 2. pt. 25. the Caſe of Bankrupts.

3. A was in execution, ſeveral under the cuſtody of the Sheriffs of London at the ſuit of B and C the antient Sheriff delivered the body of A by Indenture, in which the execution of B was only mentioned; in the time of the new Sheriff A eſcaped: 1. In this caſe, it was reſolved that it was an eſcape in the old Sheriff. 2. Reſolved, That the old Sheriff ought to give notice of all executions which he hath againſt any perſon who is in the Goal to the new Sheriff; for although the executions be upon Record, yet the new Sheriffs are not bound to take notice of them at their perills: But it was reſolved, That if the Sheriff hath executions againſt ſeveral perſons in his cuſtody and dyeth; that the new Sheriff in ſuch caſe ought to take notice of all executions againſt all perſons who are in the Goal at his perill; the ſame being matters of Record, and that for neceſſity: Cook 3. pt. 71. Weſtbies Caſe.

4. Note; It is a rule in Law, That of general Statutes the Judges ought to take notice, although they be not pleaded; but otherwiſe it is of ſpecial and particular Statutes: And it was reſolved, that the Statute of 31. H. 8. c. 13. was a general Statute, for that it concerned all the ſpirituality in general: Cook 4. pt. 75. in Hollands Caſe. The Statute of 18. Eliz. concerning the Colledges in the two Univerſities, and the Colledge of Eaton and Wincheſter were but particular acts; of which the Judges were not to take notice unleſs they were particularly pleaded; But the acts of 13. Eliz. c. 10. 18 Eliz. c. 11. concerning Colledges, Deans, and Chapters, Hoſpitals, Parſon, Vicar, or any other having any Spiritual or Eccleſiaſtical living, are general acts of which Judges are to take notice: But the Act of 1. Eliz. concerning leaſes made by Biſhops, was but a ſpecial Act concerning the Biſhops, and of that Act the Judges are not to take notice unleſs it be ſpecially pleaded, as it was adjudged in Elmers Caſe. Tr. 30. Eliz. vide Cook 5. pt. Elmers Caſe. acc.

5. A man made a leaſe for years to begin after the end of a Term for years then in eſſe; the firſt years ended, and the ſecond leſſee did not enter, but he in the reverſion entred, and made a feoffment and levyed a fine with proclamations, and five years paſſed after the Proclamations without entry or claim made by the ſecond leſſee for years: It was reſolved in this caſe, That the ſecond leſſee was barred of his Term by the Statute of 4. H. 7. of Fines: for although that leſſee for years hath not an eſtate that he may levy a fine; yet becauſe that the words of the Statute are general and extend to all, and the words of the ſaving are (ſuch right claim and intereſt) and he who hath a Term for years hath an intereſt, and alſo becauſe he is within the miſchief: It was reſolved, that his intereſt, as alſo the intereſts of all Tenants by Statute merchant, Elegit, Guardian or Executors, are within the Statute, and bound by the Fine: Alſo he only that hath a naked right or title to an inheritance, cannot levy a Fine; and yet he ſhall be bound by a Fine levyed by the Tenant of the land, Paſc. 3. Jac. in Co. B. Cook. 5. pt. 123. Saffyns Caſe.

6. Divers Souldiers who were preſt and went to ſerve the Queen againſt the Rebells in Ireland, before they ſerved in the war, departed from their Captains; and upon conſideration of the Statutes of Captains and Souldiers, it was reſolved by all the Judges upon a Reference unto them; that the Statute of 18. H. 6. c. 19. was now of little force, becauſe becauſe the manner of relieving Souldiers was altered. But it was reſolved, that the Statutes of 7. H. 7. c. 1. and 3. H. 8. c. 5. were ſpecial Acts of Parliament, and not made for thoſe times of thoſe Kings only; but did extend to all ſucceſſion; of which Acts the ſubjects are to take notice; and that the word (King) in thoſe Acts, did include all his Succeſſors; and upon the departure of divers Souldiers from their Captains, divers Souldiers were attainted and executed; Cook 6. pt. 27. the Caſe of Souldiers.

7. Queen Eliz. Anno 37 of her Raign granted 3. Mannors, parcel of the Dutchy of Cornwall to H L and G M. The King at the ſuit of the Prince of Wales, brought a Scire facias againſt the ſaid H L and G M to make levy to the Prince by force of the Statute of 11. E. 3. being the Charter of the creation of the Prince and Duke of Cornwall; The which Charter was the Communi conſenſu & conſilio Prelatorum, and in the end of it, it was per ipſum Regem & totum conſilium in Parliamento H L pleaded Nul tiel record: the others pleaded ſeveral other pleas (vide librum) In this caſe, it was reſolved (amongſt many other points) That the ſaid Charter of Creation of the Prince Duke of Cornwall. was an Act of Parliament; for that the lands could not be ſo annexed to the Dutchy without Act of Parliament, nor ſuch eſtate given, but by Act of Parliament. 2. Reſolved, that againſt a general Statute (as this Charter was) Nul tiel record ſhall not be pleaded; for although that the Charter may be loſt, yet the Iudges ought to take notice of it, eſpecially the ſame concerning the Prince, Cook 8. pt. 1. The Princes Caſe.

8. Vide and note: That the Statute of Weſt. 2. De Malefactoribus in parcis: The Statute de Charta de Forreſta: The Statute of 22. E. 4 c. 7. and the Statute of 35. H. 8. c. 17. were general Acts of Parliament of which the Iudges ex officio ought to take notice without pleading of them; and reſolved that the ſaid Statutes of 22. E. 4. and 35. to H. 8. did not extend to take away the Common of the Subjects which they had in the woods mentioned in the ſaid Statutes; Cook 8. pt. 137, 138. in Sir Francis Barrington's Caſe, vide the Caſe at large.

7. Where and of what things, Iurours or Enqueſts are to take notice, where of things done in another County; and where they finde matter of record, they muſt take notice of it on pain of attaint, where not, where take notice of ſome things.

1. A Prior ſeiſed of divers houſes made a leaſe of them for years with the conſent of his Covent, rendring the ancient rent of 5. l. 10. s. 11. d. at the four Feaſts of the year uſual in the City of London; 5. for the one houſe 3. l. 11. d. for another 20. s. and for other houſes ſeveral rents reſidue of the ſaid 5. l. 10. s. 11. d. with condition, that if the 5. l. 10. s. 11. d. are behinde in part or in all at any of the ſaid Feaſts, then the Prior and his ſucceſſors to reenter. The Priory came to the King by ſurrender, who by his Letters Pattent under the great ſeal granted one of the houſes, to the leſſee and another in fee; and afterwards it was found by commiſſion under the Exchequer ſeal, that parcel of the ſaid rent of 5. l. 10. s. 11. d. was behinde at one of the ſaid Feaſts, viz. at the Feaſt of St. Michael; and it was found that the Feaſt of St. Michael was one of the four uſual Feaſts at London; In that caſe (amongſt other points) it was reſolved, that although it was found that there was 37. s. and 5. d. was behind at Michael, which was more then the rent for one quarter of a year; that it was not material how much was behind; for if any part was behind, it was a breach of the condition, and ſufficient for the King, the ſame being found by office. 2. It was reſolved, that the Iurors of Middleſex might finde which were the uſual Feaſts in London, being another County: Cook 5 pt. 56. Knights Caſe.

2. In debt againſt Executors, the Iury found that the Teſtator dyed in Ireland, and that the defendant took divers goods of the Teſtator in Ireland and adminiſtred them to the value of the debt, and that he did not adminiſter any goods of the Inteſtate intra regnum Angliæ; In this caſe, it was reſolved, that when the place is material and made parcell of the iſſue, there the Iurors cannot finde the point in iſſue in any other place; for by the ſpecial pleading the point in iſſue is reſtrained to a certain place. 2. Reſolved, that upon every general iſſue, the Iurors may finde all locall things in another County, which are material in Law for the matter in queſtion. 3 It was reſolved, that in the principal caſe the Iury had found the ſubſtance of of the Iſſue Aſſets; and the finding that the ſame was beyond the ſea in Ireland was but ſurpluſage: Cook 6. pt. 46. Dowdalls caſe. Vide there 28. Eliz. Gyas and Conſtantines caſe: and vide Paſc. 15. Jac. in B R The Counteſs of Oxford and Waterhouſes caſe; Marſh acc.

3. A ſued an Appeal of robbery in the County of W. where the robbery was done againſt B and C as acceſſaries, and declared that the principals named in the Writ, and who were attainted, did the robbery in the County of W. and that the defendant feloniouſly at London did abet him to it. It was reſolved in that caſe, That although the Plaintiff cannot have but one Appeal againſt the principals and acceſſaries, and againſt the principals it ought of neceſſity to be brought in the County of W. yet becauſe thoſe of the County of W. cannot enquire of a thing done in London, and London by the cuſtom cannot joyn with them; for in caſe of felony which concerneth a mans life every act ſhall be tryed in the County where the act was done: It was adjudged, that in that caſe, The Appeal brought againſt the acceſſaries ſhould abate: Vide 29. H. 8. 38. Dyer Gawyns Caſe.

4. It was reſolved by the whole Court, That if the Plaintiff in evidence ſheweth any matter in writing or of record, or any ſentence in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, upon which a Queſtion in Law doth ariſe, and the defendant offereth to demur in Law upon it, the Plaintiff cannot refuſe to joyn in demurrer; but he ought to joyn, and wave his evidence, becauſe the Jury cannot try it; ſo if the Plaintiff produceth Witneſſes to prove matter in fact, there alſo the Defendant may demur upon it; but then he is to admit the evidence given in by the Plaintiff to be true; that the matter of Law may not be tryed by the Jury who are laymen: And ſo in the like caſe, the Plaintiff may demur upon the Defendants evidence. But if evidence be given for the King in an Information or other ſuit, and the Defendant doth offer to demur upon it, the Kings Councell are not compelled to joyn in demurrer: But the Court ought to direct the Jury to finde the ſpecial matter; and upon that they ſhall judge according to Law; but that is by the Kings prerogative: It was alſo holden in this caſe, That the King may wave his demurrer and joyn iſſue when he pleaſeth: Cook 5. pt. 109. Bakers Caſe.

5. In an Aſſiſe the Defendant pleaded, That A was ſeiſed in fee and ſuffered a recovery to the uſe of himſelf for life without impeachment of waſt, and afterwards to the uſe of his eldeſt ſon in tail with divers remainders over; The Plaintiff confeſſed the recovery, and ſaid, that it was to the uſe of him and his heirs, abſque hoc, that the recovery was to the uſes expreſſed in the Bar; Iſſue being joyned upon that, it was found by ſpecial verdict, That after the recovery by deed indented between A and the ſaid recoverors, it was covenanted and agreed, that whereas a recovery was had, &c. that the recoverors ſhould ſtand ſeiſed, to the uſes and intents hereafter expreſſed, and expreſſed the uſes in the Bar: It was a point in this caſe amongſt others, if upon a ſpecial point in iſſue, upon an abſque hoc the Jury might give a ſpecial verdict; It was objected that Jurors cannot give their verdict at large, but where the general iſſue is pleaded, and not when an iſſue is joyned upon a certain point, and upon a collateral matter from the general iſſue; for there they ought to find the iſſue preciſely without giving a ſpecial verdict: But it was reſolved, That in all pleas as well of the Crown as of Common pleas between the King and party, or between party and party, the Iurors may finde the ſpecial matter which is pertinent, and tendeth only to the iſſue joyned, and may pray the advice of the Court, and that they may do by the Common Law; But when the Iury finde matter of fact at large which is not pertinent nor tending to the iſſue upon which they are to give their verdict, there the Court ought to diſallow of it: Cook 9. pt. 3. in Downants Caſe. More Notice.

1. A Writ of diſcharge of the old Sheriff of the County was brought and delivered to the Clerk of the County Court ſitting in Court in the abſence of the Sheriff; It was the opinion of the Iuſtices, That this being a commiſſion, and directed nuper vicecomiti, reciting the words of the Patent of the new Sheriff, with a command to the old Sheriff to deliver to him the cuſtody of the County cum omnibus rotulis, &c. there by ſuch publick delivery of the Writ of diſcharge in the County Court, the authority of the old Sheriff did ceaſe, and that every man of the County was to take notice of it: Hill. 19. Eliz. Dyer 355.

2. Note: It was holden by the Court, That an ordinance made by cuſtom in a Court Baron for the government of the Common upon a forfeiture being being proclaimed in Court, is good and ſhall bind the Commoners, and they are to take notice of ſuch ordinances at their perill: Vide Hill. 1. Car. in B. R. James and Turacys caſe. Cro 1 pt. 357. Vide their caſe at large lib. 1. title Amercements 171. ſect. 3.

3. Action upon the Statute of Hue and Cry, ſuppoſing he was robbed in a high-way in diverſ. hundredorum, and that he gave notice thereof to the inhabitants of the Hundred near the place where he was robbed: It was ſaid the Declaration was not good becauſe it doth not ſhew that the high-way is in any Hundred; and in truth it ought to be given to the inhabitants of both hundreds: But the exception was diſallowed; for it was the opinion of the Court, if notice be given to the Inhabitants of either Hundred, it is good: Paſc. 21. in B. R. Foſter and Inhabitants of the Hundred of Speaſor and Iſlworths caſe. Cro 2. pt. 695.

4. Aſſumpſit: The Plaintiff declared that he was poſſeſſed of a heap of woad containing ten Tunns, and that the defendant in conſideration that he would ſell and deliver him one Tunn of the ſaid woad, promiſed to pay him within ſix months after the rate that he ſhould ſell the reſt; and he delivered him the Tunn, and ſhewed that he ſold the reſt to I S for twenty three pound the Tunn; upon Non Aſſumpſit judgement was for the Plaintiff; and upon a Writ of Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber, the judgement was reverſed, becauſe the Plaintiff had not alledged, that he had given notice to the defendant of the ſale and price of the reſt, it being a thing in his private knowledge: Tr. 12. Jac. in B R rot. 1758. Holmes and Tweſt Caſe Hob 51.

5. Aſſumpſit ; The Plaintiff declared, That whereas he had informed in the Exchequer againſt one I S for engroſſing of corn and was ready for tryal; the defendant in conſideration that the plaintiff would not proceed to tryal, but ſhould deſiſt, and alſo ſhould deliver him a note of his coſts and charges expended in the ſuit, did promiſe to pay him ſuch charges expended in the ſuit, at the Plaintiffs firſt coming into Somerſetſhire, and layed the performance on his party, and that ſuch a day he came to T in Somerſetſhire, and the defendant had not paid his charges of ſuit being ſix pound; Upon Non Aſſumpſit found for the plaintiff, it was the opinion of the Court, that judgement ſhould be arreſted in this caſe, becauſe the plaintiff had not given notice unto the defendant of his firſt coming into Somerſetſhire, the ſame being a thing which lay beſt in his own notice; and alſo becauſe the defendant undertook not the payment by bond, but by Aſſumpſit only: Hill. 12. Jac. in Co B. rot. 790. Richards and Carvanels Caſe. Hob. 68.

6. The caſe was: Ceſtuy que uſe in tail to him and the heirs males of his body, the remainder in tail to his daughter; the remainder in fee to the uſe of the right heirs of the firſt Ceſtuy que uſe (which was the Earl of Ormond) upon a recovery had; Afterwards, the firſt Ceſtuy que uſe and the recoverers, did make a feoffment over to three perſons and their heirs, and did limit new uſes; two of the feoffes having notice, and the three having no notice of the firſt uſes, and the firſt Ceſtuy que uſe afterwards dyed; This caſe by the King was referred to three of the Juſtices; Mountague, Hob and Doddridge: It was in this caſe agreed by all the Juſtices, That upon the new uſes declared upon the laſt feoffment by the recoveries, and the Earl being Ceſtuy que uſe, the new feoffees could not be ſeiſed but to the new uſes. But yet they held that the two feoffees that had notice of the firſt uſes were bound to make recompence for the wrongful change of the old uſes, and becauſe that turned to the benefit of the Earl, that his eſtate might well be anſwerable for it; and for the other third part which is in the third feoffee that had no notice, there was no remedy at all: This caſe afterwards was ended by the award of the King amongſt other things; and the King by his award gave the Lady Dingwell, the daughter of the Earl of Ormond, who was the Ceſtuy que uſe, three Mannors for her part, five Mannors being controverted upon this point for her part; 15. Jac. upon a reference to the Judges: The Earl of Ormond and the Lord Dingwells caſe: Hob. 348, 349.

7. In treſpaſs againſt the Corporation of Butchers, They pleaded, that they had power to make Bylaws, and did ordain, That no Butcher or perſon being a ſtranger ſhould ſell any Veal within the City of London, unleſs they did dreſs the kidneys of the Veal in ſuch manner as the kidneys of the ſheep were dreſſed, and if they did otherwiſe to forfeit for every time ſix pence, and if he refuſe to pay it, then to forfeit the Veal: It was holden by the Court, That a ſtranger is not bound to take notice of a private Ordinance made in a Corporation: 2. That ſuch a By-law was not good to reſtrain ſtrangers; but the ſame had been good if made to ſuppreſs fraud, or any other general inconvenience uſed by forreiners, as corruption or the like in the ſale of their meat, and then they ought to take notice of the ſame: Hill. 7. Jac. in B R Franklin and Greens Caſe. Bolſtr. pt. 11.

8. In Aſſumpſit; The Caſe was, H did promiſe to I S that if he did borrow of P 100. l. that he would repay this to him upon the ſame day, and upon the ſame conditions as they between them ſhould agree upon; I S borrowed the money and agreed agreed, to be repaid at a day certain; before the day I. S. died, and made L. his Executor; the day paſſed, the money not paid, P. brings his action againſt L. and recovers; and L. as Executor of I.S. brings his action upon the Caſe upon the promiſe, againſt K. and had judgement to recover in Co. B. H. brings Error, and aſſigned for Error, that no notice was alledged to be given to him before the day, which agreement was made between them, and without notice thereof given, he was not bound by his promiſe: and of that opinion was Williams Juſtice; who took a difference where the thing is executed, and where executory; where executed, no notice is to be given; but otherwiſe where it is executory, as 4 H 7. But all the other Juſtices were of a contrary opinion; and ſaid that where a penalty is to be recovered, that notice is requiſite to be given; but where damages are to be recovered there no notice is to be given; and in an action upon the Caſe, he is only to recover damages; and the party hath ſufficient notice given him by the Declaration againſt him: and for want of notice the party is not diſcharged of his promiſe, for he ſhall pay the principall, and the notice is no parcel of the promiſe. It was the opinion of the Court that the Declaration was good, and the Plaintiff had Judgement to recover the principal, but not damages, the Judgement was affirmed. Paſch. 6. Jac B R. Ret. Com. 9. Leſſee for 20 years of a houſe upon Condition that if he did not repair within ſix moneths after warning the Leas to be paid, the Leſſee ſuffered I.S. to occupy the houſe: It was reſolved in this Caſe, That notice given to I.S. to repair it is not ſufficient, but it muſt be to the party aforeſaid in the Term, and it muſt be to his perſon, and not left at the houſe. Hill 44 Eliz. Stretman and Evereſleys Caſe: Owen 114.

10. A. brought action againſt the Hundred of O. for a Robbery done upon Red Hill in the County of Surrey the Robbery was upon his Man, and 400.l. taken from him: In this caſe, it was agreed by the Juſtices, that although there be a remiſneſs in the party that was robbed in purſuance of the Theeves; yet this doth not take away his action or excuſe the Hundred, if notice be given with as much convenient ſpeed as may be for them to make Hue and Cry: And notice given in a Hundred five miles from the place where the party was robbed is ſufficient, becauſe the party, who perhaps is a ſtranger to the Country, cannot have knowledge of the neereſt place or Town; and notice given at one Town, and Hue and Cry levied at another, is good: Paſc. 15. Cer. in B.R. Sir John Compſons Caſe. Marſh. 20. 21.

11. An award was made that the Defendant ſhould pay to the Plaintiff 8.l. or 3.l. and Coſts of ſuit as ſhould appear under a Note of the Attorneys hand of the Plaintiff: In this Caſe it was reſolved, That although the Attorney, as in ſome reſpect, he was a ſervant to his Mr. yet to this purpoſe he is a meer ſtranger, and therefore the Plaintiff was not bound to make any tender of that Note, but the Defendant ought to have required the Note and Coſts of ſuit of him that he might have his Election to pay the 8 l. or the 3 l. and coſts of ſuit: And in that caſe it was agreed, That when it is a thing, which lyeth in the knowledge of the Plaintiff, which is to be done, there he ought to make the tender and give notice: but in the principal Caſe, it did not lie in the knowledge of the Plaintiff, and he could not compell the Attorney to do it. Hill. 17. Car. in B.R. Dewel and Miſons Caſe, Marſh. 156.

12. In Covenant; the Caſe was, Leſſee for 90. years made an Aſſignment for 10. years, and the Aſſignee Covenanted to repair, &c. the firſt Leſſee deviſed the reverſion of the Term and died, the Deviſee brought covenant againſt the Aſſignee for 10. years. There was a Queſtion in this Caſe, If the action would lie becauſe there was no notice given of the grant of the Reverſion: It was the opinion of the Court there needed no notice in this Caſe; becauſe there is not any penalty in the Caſe; and it differs from Mallories Caſe; for there was a Condition: Paſc. 3. 13. Note, that in every attorement expreſs (which is but an aſſent to a Grant) it behoves that the Tenants, or he who ought to attorn have Notice of the Grant; And every attorement expreſſed, or implyed, ought to be according to the grant, as an attorement to the grant of a Reverſion, or on a Rent, in the abſence of the grantee is good. Cook 1. pt. Inſt. f. 310.

14. A. ſeiſed in Fee of Lands of the nature of Gavelkind, had Iſſue three ſons, B. C. and D. and demiſed them to E. his wife for life; and that E. after the deceaſe of his Mother, ſhould have them to him and his heirs for ever; and if B. die without iſſue of his body begotten, then that the lands ſhould remain to C. and his heirs for ever: And if B. and C. die without Iſſue of his body begotten, then that the Lands ſhould remain to C. and his heirs for ever; and if B. and C. die before they have iſſue of their bodies, then the Lands to remain to D. and his heirs for ever: And if B. ſhall enjoy the Lands, then he ſhall pay out of them to C. and D. 20.l. 13.s. 4 d. at his firſt entry to pay to C. 40.s. and ſo yearly, until 13 l. 6.s. 8 d. be anſwered, and then to pay to D. 40.s. &c. in like proportion, as aforeſaid; and if B. ſhall re-

fuſe to pay to C. and B. the ſaid ſumm in manner as it is limited; then the Lands to remain to C. and his heirs for ever, paying to B. and C. 13.s. 6.d. &c. And if C. ſhall enjoy the Lands, that he pay to D. his brother the whole ſumm of 26.l. 13. s. 4.d. * A. died, E. entred, in whoſe life time B. died without iſſue; After D. made his Will, and made M. his Wife his Executrix, and died, having iſſue a daughter F. E. died; C. entred, and was ſeiſed in tail; M. proved the Will of D. her huſband, and M. did not pay the ſaid 26.l. 13 4 d. to F. the daughter and heir of D. The main queſtion in this caſe, was; If the eſtate limited to C. be conditional, as the eſtate limited to B. was; Popham conceived that it was not conditional, but that the payment by C. unto F. was only a truſt repoſed in C. and not a condition; But if it ſhould be taken to be a condition; then he held in that caſe, that C. ought to have given notice to M. the Executrix of D. before his entry into the Lands when he intended to make his entry, ſo as the Executor might be there to demand the money, becauſe without a demand a Refuſal cannot be, and the Executor is excuſed to make demand when he had no notice of the time; and in this Caſe, if notice had been given to the Executrix, and ſhe had demanded the money and C. had ſaid nothing to it, but had omitted to pay it, yet this had been a Refuſall in Law, which would have made his eſtate, if conditional, void; A 35. Eliz. Ward and Brownings Caſe, Popham 12.13.

15. In Ejectione firmæ, upon ſpecial Verdict, It was found 1. that I.S. was ſeized of Land in Fee, and made a feoffment to divers to the uſe of A. his Wife for life, the remainder to him & his right heirs in Fee, and died; the reverſion deſcended to R. his ſon and heir, he being ſeiſed of the Reverſion by Indenture between him and A. his mother; a Fine was levyed to the uſe of A. and her heirs for ever, if R. did not pay to her 10 l. upon the firſt of Sept. next; and if he did, then to the uſe of A. for her life of part of the Lands, and of the reſt to the uſe of R. and his heirs: R. died at the age of 20. years, and that was before Septemb. C. and D. being ſiſters, and heirs of R. under whom the Plaintiff did claim; and it was found that they had not notice of the leaſe, nor of the Indenture, and they did not pay the money upon the firſt of September, but afterwards they entred and made the leaſe to the Defendant; and whether any notice was requiſite to be given to the heirs in this caſe, or not, was one queſtion amongſt others. Of the one part, It was ſaid, that the heir was bound to take Notice; for the heir is privy to the Condition which doth deſcend to him, and therefore he ought to take notice of it; and if a man be not bounden to give notice at the time of making of a Deed, he ſhall not be bound to give notice by any matter ex poſt facto, vid. Cook 8. pt. Frances Caſe. There the heir was bound to take Notice of the Proviſo in the Feoffment, without notice given him: Note, the difference was taken, where it is an hereditary Condition or limitation, and where it is collateral; and where there was an Original Notice upon the agreement, which is hereditary and deſcends to the heir, that ſhall enforce the heir to take notice of it at his peril; but if it be collateral to the Father, there it ſhall not binde the ſon, without expreſs notice: vide Cook 8. pt. in Frances Caſe, ac. The point was not reſolved. Idem Quære: M. 22. Jac. in Com. Br. Cowper and Edgers Caſe, Winch. 108, 117, 118.

Nuſance, and Aſsiſe of Nuſance.

1. Where, for what, and in what Caſe, and by whom it lyeth: Where not, and where, and in what Caſe, and by whom, it ſhall be abated, what not.

1. TEnant for life of a houſe brought an Action upon the Caſe, againſt one who ſtopped a way in his Land, which time out of minde, &c. had been a paſſage between the houſe and a Park; the Park was belonging to the Leſſor: It was holden in that Caſe, that an action upon the Caſe did not lie; but an Aſſiſe of Nuſance. Paſc. 8. Eliz. Dyer 250.

2. Action upon the Caſe was brought againſt a woman for the diverſion of part of a Water-courſe which ran from &c. to the Plaintiffs houſe: It appeared that the diverſion was of a Main pipe, but the husband did make a quill with a Cock to ſerve his houſe with water in his life time: It was the opinion of the Court, that becauſe it was with a Cock, ſo as every opening of the Cock was a new diverſion, the Court held that the action upon the Caſe would lie againſt the wife: But the Plaintiff could not obtain Judgement for a long time, becauſe he did not ſhew that he was ſeized of the houſe, to which, &c. at the time of the diverſion, but only thus, Quod cum ita ſit, &c. M. 15. Eliz. Dyer 319. the Lady Browns Caſe.

3. An Aſſiſe of Nuſance was brought for ſtraight-ning a way which the Plaintiff ought to have to his Mill; the Defendant did alledge unity of possession of the Land, and of the Mill in W. and demanded Judgement of the Writ; the Plaintiff shewed, That afterwards W. had two daughters, and died seized, and the Mill was allotted to one of them in partition, and the Land to the other, and the way was reserved to her that had the Mill; The Assise was awarded; for by the Partition the way was revived and appendent as it was before, vide 21. E. 3. 2. ac.

4. Action upon the Case, against an In-keeper for not scowring of a Ditch which ran between his house and the house of another man, judgement was given for the Plaintiff against the Defendant; and Error brought; and divers Errors assigned. 1. The Plaintiff doth prescribe that the Inhabitants of the house called the Bel had used to scowr the gutter, and that was not good, as 12. H. 7. ac. title prescription 16. where the Plaintiff said, That the Defendant, Et omnes alii terram illam prius habentes mundare debuerre & consuevere talem fossatum; and the Writ was abated, for it ought to have been, Quod ipsi & predicessores sui de tempore cujus contrarium, &c. 2. Because the prescription was uncertain; for it is that all Tenants; which extendeth to Fee, Fee tail for life and years; and the prescription being the ground of the action ought to be certain: 3. Because the Plaintiff hath not alledged, that the Defendant was Tenant at the time of the action brought: 4. Because it was for scowring of a Gutter betwixt the houses and ditch, not saying that the house was contigue adjacent to his house. It was the opinion of the Court, that these were good causes of Exception, and therefore the Judgement was reversed, M. 29. Eliz. in B. R. Joyces Case. Godbolt, 54. 55.

5. Assise was brought against the Defendant because that Levavit quendam Domū ad Nocumentum, &c. and shewed that he had a Wind-Mill, and that the Defendant had built the house, so as it hindred the Mill. The Jury found, that the Defendant Levavit Domum, &c. and that two foot of it did hinder the Plaintiffs Mill, and is ad Nocumentum. In that Case, it was the opinion of the Court, That Judgement should be, That but part of the house should be abated; viz. that which was found to be ad Nocumentum only, though it was said, That the Assise is such a Writ which extends to the whole house, and therefore that the whole house should be abated according to the Writ. But difference was taken betwixt the words Erexit, & Levavit; for erexit is but when parcel of a house is set up ad Nocumentum, &c. but Levavit is when an entire house is levied from the ground; The Judgement was, That that only should be abated which was found to be ad Nocumentum, &c. M. 11. Jac. in Com. B. Traherns Case, Godbolt 133.

6. A. levyed upon his own Free-hold a house so neer the Curtilage of the house of I. S. quod Domus illa superpendat magnam partem, viz. 3. pedes curtilagii predict. I. S. and afterwards A. conveyed the house to B. I. S. conveyed his house to C. who brought Quod permittat against B. and declared, that the water distilled and descended from that house to the Nusance of his Curtilage and house: and if the quod permittat did lie by the Feoffee, or not, was the question: It was objected that it did not lie, because that he to whom the wrong was done, had conveyed over the house, and so the wrong was remediless; for he shall take the house in the same plight as it was when it was conveyed unto him. But it was Resolved, That the distilling of the water in the time of the Feoffee was a new wrong; so that the permission of the wrong by the Feoffor or Feoffee to continue to the prejudice of the other, should be punished by the Feoffee of the house to which the Nusance is done: and if it be not reformed after request made, a Quod permittat lyeth by the Feoffee against the Feoffee, and he shall recover damages but against him that did the Nusance; It was resolved, 1. Quod permittat lyeth without request. 2. Resolved, that the Feoffee might abate the Nusance as the Feoffor it self as well in the hands of the Feoffee, who did not the Nusance, as in the hands of him who did the wrong. 3. Resolved, that the Feoffee to whom the Nusance was done, might abate the Nusance before he had any prejudice; for that he might prevent his prejudice. Tr. 40. Eliz. Com. B. Cook 5. pt. 101. Penruddocks Case.

7. Action upon the Case for assaulting and beating of his servant, per quod servitium amisit; the Defendant as to the Assault, justified, and shewed that he was possessed of a house, and had a right to it time out of minde, and that the servant of the Plaintiff did intend and endeavour to erect another house upon a certain piece of ground adjoyning to his house, and had erected certain timber for a house, which house if it had been erected, it would have stopped up his said ancient light; and for this cause that this would have been to his Nusance, he stood in his own house, and with a staff did thrust away the Plaintiffs Servants by him imployed in the building, and did then throw down the timber so erected: upon which barr, the Plaintiff did demur in Law: It was holden by the Court, that this plea in barr was not good, for many causes: 1. Because in this Case the principal cause of the Action is the losse of his service, and the Defendant doth justifie as to the battery and assault, but saith nothing to the loss of

of his service. 2. The plea amounts but to the general Issue: 3. The justification is not good; for the Defendant ought to have damnum & injuriam, and if he have none of these, his Justification is not good, and it doth not appear that he hath any damage; and a man cannot justifie the assaulting or beating of one for an endeavour only: Judgement was given for the Plaintiff. M. 10. Jac. in B. R. Morice and Bayers Case. Rolstrode 3. part 196, 197, &c.

8. An Action upon the Case, the Plaintiff declared, that the Defendant, malitiose intendens to deprive the Plaintiff of the profits and easements of his house, erected a Wood-pile so neer the Hall and Parlour of the Plaintiff, that he was barred of his light; and also erected a Hogstie so near the said Hall, that by the stink of it he could not endure his house. It was resolved in this Case, that the action was maintainable for the erecting of a house by which another is barred of his light: 2. It was resolved, that for the erecting of a Hogstie, action lyeth; for that by the stink of it the house is corrupted: The same Law is of a Lime Kill; for although it be profitable to the Common-wealth; yet if it be a Nusance to the party, an action lyeth: the same Law, if a Tanner or Dyer doth corrupt the waters which ran to my house, an action lyeth against them. Cook 7. part 51. Aldreds Case.

9. A man prescribed that he and all those whose estate he had in a house had used to have seven windows towards a piece of Land adjoyning to the said house, by which windows they had used to have divers wholsom easements and commodities by reason of the open ayre and light; and that the Defendant intending to deprive him of the Easements, & obscurare Messuagium predict. horridis tenebris, erected a building upon the said piece of Land, by which he lost the said easements, Et maxima pars Messuagii predict. horrid. tenebritate obscurata fuit: The Defendant pleaded in bar a custom of the City of York, quod si aliquis habuerit visum per fenestras versus terram vicini sui, vicinus vel aliquis illarum fenestrarum obstruere solebat. In that Case it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; for when a man hath a lawfull Easement by prescription, or custom, another custom cannot take away the same, because one custom is as ancient as the other: also it might be that the owner of the house have given consideration to the owners of the piece of Land, to have the windows without stopping, and so his prescription might have lawfull beginning: But it was resolved that for the stopping of a prospect, which is only matter of delight, and not matter of necessity, no action lyeth: Tr. 29. Eliz. in B. R. Mosley and Blands Case.

Vide M. 9 Jac. in B. R. Hughes and Keimes Case: Lib. 1. Title, Customs, pag. 537. Sect. 9. to this division.

10. A man seised of two old ruinous Fulling Mills, prescribed, quod magna pars aquæ cujusdam rivuli ran from a place called D. to the said Mills, and that there was a Bank to receive the water within the Current; and that he pulled down the two Fulling Mills, and conveyed them to Corn Mills; and that the Defendant brake the bank, and turned the water from the Mills; the Defendant pleaded Not guilty, which was found against him, upon which, the Plaintiff had Judgement: The Defendant brought Error, and assigned for Error: 1. That by the building of the new Mills, that he had destroyed his prescription: 2. That it was uncertain what quantity of water should be comprehended in these words, Magna pars aquæ: It was resolved, 1. That the prescription extended to the new Grist Mills, because in general the Mill is the substance, and the alteration was not of the substance, but of the Quality; and if one be to demand a Grist Mill, or a Fulling Mill, the Writ shall be de una Molendina generally without any addition: For the second point it was resolved, although the Declaration might have been better, yet in substance it was good enough; and it was said, that an Assise of Nusance was brought pro diversione majoris partis aquæ; and it was holden good. Pasc. 43. Eliz. in B. R. Cook 4. pt. Lutterels Case.

11. In an Action upon the Case, It was, that 2. E. 6. the Dean and Chapter of Wyton, leased two houses in L. to I. S. for 60. years, who leased one of them to A. and covenanted that it should be lawfull for the said A. his executors and assigns to make a window in the shop of the house to him assigned: Afterwards in the time of Q. Mary, a window was made where no window was there before. A. assigned the house to the Plaintiff: The defendant having a house adjoyning, erected a new building, super solum ipsius domus ex opposito the said house and new window, so as the new window was then stopped. Upon Not guilty being found for the Plaintiff; In stay of Judgement, it was said, that there was no cause of Action; for the windows upon the Plaintiffs own shewing, appears to be of late erected, and in the time of Queen Mary; the stopping of which by any act upon the parties own Land was lawfull; and such was the opinion of the Court. But if it were an ancient window time out of memory, then the light or benefit of it, ought not to be hindred by any act whatsoever. But it was holden, That if the Case had been that the house and soil upon which the defendant had erected the building, had been under the estate of I. S. who covenanted; then the defendant could not have justified the Nusance. 1 M 31.

12. In Treſpaſs for pulling up, cutting, and caſting down a Gate; the queſtion was, Whether the erecting of a gate croſs a high way which may be opened and ſhut at the pleaſure of the paſſengers, be a common Nuſance in it ſelf: 2. admitting it to be a Nuſance, whether every one may pull up and caſt down the ſaid Gate at their pleaſure: It was objected, that being ſo ſmall a trouble, but much for the publique good, that there ſhould be encloſures for preſervation of Corn & Graſs from Cattel ſtreying into it, it ſhould not be Nuſance; and 2. E. 4. 2. erecting a gate upon the high way is pleaded and admitted lawfull. But it was the opinion of the Court, that the erecting of a gate, although it be not locked or tyed, but that every Subject may open it, and have paſſage at pleaſure, is a Nuſance; for it is not ſo free and eaſie a paſſage as if no ſuch encloſure had been. 2. Reſolved that the cutting of the Gate was lawfull; and in this caſe it was ſaid, That ancient gates upon high wayes, that it ſhall be intended that they were by Letters Patent of Licence from the King, and upon Ad quod Damnum ſued out. Paſc. 6. Cur. in B. R. James and Haywards Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 333.

13. In Action upon the Caſe, the Plaintiff declared, That whereas he was Owner of a Common Inn in D. the defendant malitiouſly erected a Tallow Furnace, and boyled therein much ſtinking Tallow, to the great annoyance of him and his Gueſts, by reaſon whereof many of his Gueſts left his houſe, and many of his family became unhealthfull: It was objected, that a Tallow Chandler is a Trade, and a man ought to uſe his Trade, which cannot be ſaid a Nuſance: But it was reſolved, that as the Declaration is laid, the action was maintainable; for every man ought ſic uti ſuo quod alienum non Ledat; and when the Plaintiff is an Inn Keeper, the defendant erecting a Tallow Furnace, annoying his houſe with ſtenches, eſpecially with boyling ſtinking ſtuff, it is a Nuſance: Tr. 14. Car. in B.R. Morley and Progats Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 367.

14. In a Quod permittat prolevare quandam Domum, that by being new built hindered the light of the houſe adjoyning by over hanging: Upon the Iſſue and Verdict, it appeared, that the defendant had built the ſaid houſe upon the old foundation of an houſe which had been there built before, and had been pulled down, becauſe it was ruinous by one who was then owner of both houſes. It was the opinion of the Court in that Caſe, that the unity of poſſeſſion of both houſes in one man did ſuſpend that eaſement; ſo as the Defendant could not be charged with any damage but for what ſhould be cauſed by making it hang over more then what it did before; for that eaſement being once ſuſpended, is gone for ever, although the houſes afterwards come to ſeveral mens hands. Hill. 13. Jac. in Com. B. Robins and Barnes Caſe. Hob. 131.

15. In Treſpaſs the Caſe was A. a Free-holder within the Mannor of I. of which the Earl of N. was Lord and had a Leet, erected a new Dove-Cote thereupon, and ſtored it with Pigeons, and ſuffered them to flie out, which was preſented in the Leet as a Common Nuſance, and an amerciement of 40 s. aſſeſſed and aſſerred for this offence, and a paymynt of 10 l. impoſed, that he ſhould ſtop it up before ſuch a day, and he did not ſtop it. Whereupon it was preſented the next Court, and the pain impoſed to 12 l. and for not paying of it a diſtreſs was taken; the defendant entred bond for the payment of the 12 l. and afterwards he brought treſpaſs for taking of the Cattel, and detaining them until he had entred bond; all this appearing by way of Plea; it was demurred upon: It was the opinion of all the Juſtices in this Caſe, That the erecting of a Dove-Cote by a Freeholder who is not Lord of the Mannor, nor Parſon of the Rectory, and the repleniſhing it with Doves is not a Nuſance enquireable and puniſhable in a Leet. And if it were a common Nuſance, whether the Lord of the Mannor, or the Parſon could erect a Dove Cote, more then any other Freeholder, for that none can preſcribe to make a common Nuſance; and the common Law doth not look upon the erecting of a DoveCote as a common Nuſance, but makes proviſion againſt them that deſtroy Doves neer a Dove houſe; wherefore it was adjudged for the Plaintiff; and further in this Caſe it was adjudged, that the Avowry made was not good; for as they have pleaded, they have not made it appear it to be within the Leet; for they ought to enquire of publique Nuſances made within the Leet, and not of Nuſances made in the County out of their Juriſdiction; but in this caſe they ſay, That he erected a Dove Cote within the Leet, & quod Columbæ volabant, & revolabant, and conſumed the Corn: Al nocumentum totius patriæ, but they do not ſhew, that they conſumed any Corn within the Leet. Tr. 16. Jac. in B.R. Dewell and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 1. pt 491. Vide Poph. 141. the ſame Caſe.

16. Action upon the Caſe for laying in the high-way leading from G to B divers loads of logs whereby the way was much ſtraitned, ſo as the plaintiff riding in that way in the evening, his horſe ſtumbled upon thoſe blocks, and much hurt him: The defendant ſaid, that the Town of G was an ancient Town, wherein all the inhabitants having ancient houſes time out of minde uſed to lay logs in in waſt places of the ſaid high way before their doors for their fuel, leaving ſufficient paſſage for Carts, horſemen, and footmen; and the plaintiff riding upon the way improvidè, turned his horſe upon the blocks and fell: It was adjudged for the plaintiff, becauſe he having ſpecial damage had good cauſe of action, although it were a publick Nuſance; and in this caſe it was holden that the preſcription was void in law: Tr. 15 Jac. B. R. Fowler and Sanders Caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 446.

17. Action upon the Caſe, the plaintiff declared, That he was poſſeſſed of a meſſuage for forty years, in which he and his family dwelt, and kept an office of regiſter there; and that the defendant had erected a Brew-houſe, and a privy houſe to the ſaid houſe, and burned ſea-coal in the ſaid Brew-houſe, ſo as by the ſmoak, ſtench, and unwholſome vapours he and his family could not dwell in the ſaid houſe without danger of their healths: It was reſolved in this caſe; That although ſea-coal be neceſſary fuel to be uſed, and Brew-houſes neceſſary, and ſo as Chimnies, Dye-houſes, and Tanfats; yet the Law is, ſic utere tuo ut alienum non lædas; and becauſe it was found that the Brew-houſe and privy houſe were erected to deprive the plaintiff of the benefit of his houſe and office; It was adjudged that the action would lye againſt the defendant: M. 4. Car. in B R Jones and Powells caſe. Hutton 134.

18. In action upon the caſe the plaintiff declared, That he was ſeiſed of two Acres of medow in D. and I S was ſeiſed in fee of a watermill in D. whereunto the water run out of the river of S by the ſaid two Acres, and that the defendant erected ripas ſtagnum molendin. prædict. ſo high that by the exaltation of the water it overflowed the two Acres, and yet overflows them: upon not guilty found for the plaintiff, it was moved, that there was no place mentioned where ſtagnum molendini ſhould be, and there is the Nuſance done, and it may be in another Town. 2. The requeſt to abate it is layed to be to the leſſee, where it ought to be to him who had the freehold; But the exceptions were diſallowed by the Court; for it was holden, that the continuance of it was a Nuſance by him, againſt whom the action did lye. M. 17. Jac. in B R Brent and Haddons Caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 555.

19. Action upon the caſe for ſtoping his water-courſe; the plaintiff declared, that 22. Iac. he was poſſeſſed of the Rectory of M. of which a Curtilage was parcel, and that in his Curtilage is, and time out of minde hath been a water-courſe for the watering of the cattel of the plaintiff and others, and other neceſſary uſes, and that a certain water-courſe time out of minde flowed from M ſtream to the Curtilage and filled the pond; and that the defendant knowing this, intending to dam up the ſaid water-courſe, built a ſtone wall there upon, whereby the water-courſe was ſtope to his damage, and layed it to be with a Continuando. The defendant ſaid, That King H 8. was ſeiſed of the Mannor and Rectory in fee, and of a piece of ground lying between the watercourſe and the ſaid ſtream; and by Letters Patent from the King they both came to one B. and from him by mean conveyance to the defendant who was ſeiſed, and ſo juſtified the filling up of the ſaid water courſe: The queſtion was, whether the unity of poſſeſſion had extinguiſhed the water-courſe or not; and after much argument it was adjudged, that the action did well lye, and that the water-courſe was not extinguiſhed by the unity of poſſeſſion, and that the preſcription was not gone: Hill. 1. Car. rot. 142. B R Bury and Pigots caſe. Poph. 166.

Obligation.

1. Obligation: what words are Obligatory, what not; and what words make it joynt, or ſeveral: Where ſued jointly or ſeverally: How the Executions upon them ſhall be ſued, and where in ſeveral Courts, where not.

1. OBligation is defined to be the right of a perſon by which he hath another perſon bound to him, to pay that which he oweth; or to do that thing which is to be done; and they are either ſimple Obligations without conditions, or conditional: In every Obligation, there is two things conſidered; the creditor is he to whom any thing is due by Obligation, the debtor is he who is bounden.

2. Debt againſt A. the Adminiſtrator of W. the Plaintiff declared upon ſuch a Bill, Be it known to all men, &c. that I G have received 20. l. of A. to bear the adventure to R. and there to beſtow it in Pruins, and to ſee them ſhipped; and A to bear the adventure home: It was objected, that this Bill did not make the Inteſtate a debtor, becauſe it wanted words obligatory; but it was the clear opinion of the Court, That the words recepiſſe 20. l. made the bill obligatory; and ſo it doth if the words be me debere, or teneri: Or where a man reciteth, that whereas he hath 100. l.

100. l. of the money of I S he hath paid him 40. l. and so there remains 60. l. the same is a good obligatory, and shall binde the executor; for every word which proves a man to be debtor, or to have the money of any stranger in his custody, if it be by bill, it shall make his executors debtors also. Tr. 28. H. 8 Dyer 20, 21. ac. 22.

3. Debt upon an Obligation of 40. l. the defendant pleaded a release; the plaintiff demanded Oyer of the release, which was, That the plaintiff acknowledged himself to be discharged of all bonds, debts, and demands, to the day of release; and that the plaintiff is to deliver all bonds that he hath yet undelivered to the defendant, except one obligation of 40. l. not yet forfeited, in which he and two others stand bound to the plaintiff; and the plaintiff averred, that the obligation which was excepted, and that upon the action was brought, all one: In this case, it was resolved; That when the plaintiff confesseth himself to be satisfied and discharged of all bonds, that the same is a good release by the word discharge and satisfied; for by what words a debt may be created, by the contrary words it may be discharged: 2. Resolved that the plaintiff had mistaken his action; for it appeareth upon his own confession, that the obligation of 40 l. excepted was a joynt bond, and therefore because he had brought his action against one, it was adjudged that his action should abate. Cook 9. pt. 53. Hichmots case.

4. Three were bound in an obligation by these words, Obligamus nos & utrumque nostrum: It was objected, that the bond was not several, because the word utrumque hath reference to two persons: and it ought to have been quemlibet: But the opinion of the Court was, that the words utrumq; nostrum makes it several, as well as the words quemlibet nostrum Tr. 28. 18. Dyer 19.

5. Three were bound in an obligation by the words Obligamus nos & utrumque nostrum per se pro toto & in solido; Two of them were impleaded, and pleaded Non est factum; which was found against them; it was said in arrest of judgement, that one or all should be sued, and not two; but because it appeared not to the Court upon view of the roll, which was, quod quidam p scalit script predict. quod debitum, &c. testatur, &c. that three were obliged, judgement was given for the plaintiff: Pasc. 14 Eliz. Dyer 312.

6. A B and C purchased lands joyntly in fee, and each covenanted with other, and his heirs and assignes & alterique eorum to make such conveyance to the others heirs as should first dye as they should devise; A and B dyed; The heir of B. devised on Indenture of bargain and sale, and tendred it to C to seal and deliver; who required time to conferr with his Council; the heir brought Covenant and recovered; In this case it was resolved, that the word alterique made it as several, as the word alter, &c. 16. Eliz. Dyer 338. Cooks Case.

7. An Obligation of 200. l. was made to two, solvendum eis, viz. 100. l. to the one, and 100. l. to the other; one of the obligees dyed, his executor sued for 100. l. Pasc. 28. Eliz. 35. quere if it shall survive. Vide Hill. 32. Jac. in Stuckley and Butlers Case; by Hobart this quere is resolved, that the solvendum is void, and the duty shall survive: Hob. 172.

8. In an action of covenant brought upon an Indenture tripartite, it was resolved, That when it appeareth by the declaration, that each of the covenanters hath, or is to have a special interest or estate there, when the covenant is made with the covenanters, & cum quolibet eorum, these words cum quolibet eorum, makes the covenants several in respect of their general interests: A man by Indenture demised to A black acre, to B white acre, to G green acre; and covenants with them, & quilibet eorum, that he is owner of the land, there the covenant is severall: but if he demiseth the acres to them joyntly, then these words cum quolibet eorum is void, and the covenants are not several; for a man cannot make a thing first joynt and afterwards several: 2. Resolved, that an interest cannot be granted joyntly and severally; as if a man makes a lease for years to two joyntly & severally, the words & severally are void: but a power or authority as to make Livery, or to sell, may be joynt and several, because there they have not any interest, or act on, but are as servants to another. Cook 5. pt. 19. Slingsbys Case.

9. A Charter party indented was made betwixt the Master and owners of a ship of the one part, and divers Merchants of the other part, by which the Master and owners covenanted to ship certain merchandizes from such a Port beyond sea, and to transport them to the City of London; and by the same Indenture, The Merchants covenanted separatim, that the one merchant should pay 3. l. and another 5. l. and for the performance of all and singular the covenants quilibet mercatorum obliged himself in double the freight: It was resolved in this case, That although the Merchants joyn in covenant, yet the word separatim makes them several covenants 2. Resolved, that although the covenants of the part of the Master and owners were joynt; yet the covenants on the party of the Merchants were several; and therefore the breaking off of one of the seals of the Merchants from the deed, did not make the deed void, but against that party only. H. 29 Eliz. in Co. B. Cook 5. pt. 23. Mathewsons Case.

10. A had judgement in debt against B. A by deed deed enrolled and assigned the same to the Queen in satisfaction of a debt due to her as Collector of the Fifteens; Provided that if the Lords, Peers, or the Barons of the Exchequer, or any two of them for any reasonable cause shall disallow of the assignment, and reverse it by writing, that then the assignment should be void: It was in this case amongst other points resolved, that the revocation by three of them had been sufficient; but if the words of the revocation had been by them by words joyntly, or severally, then the third of them could not have done it, for that the same had been neither joyntly nor severally: M. 41. Eliz. in Exchequer. Cook 5. pt. 91. Hues Case.

11. Debt upon Obligation: The condition was to perform the arbitrement between the plaintiff on the one part, and A and B on the other part, Ita quod arbitrium predict. fiet & deliberatur utrique partium predict. The defendant pleaded, that the arbitrement was delivered to one of the parties only; It was adjudged, that the action did not lye: For it was resolved, that this word uterque in this case should be taken collective; and it is but reason, that every one who is subject to the penalty and danger, have the arbitrement severally delivered to him. 2. Resolved, that if two be of one party, and two of the other party, and the words are quod deliberetur utrique partium, the delivery to one of the one party and one of the other party, is not sufficient. Tr. 44. Eliz. in Co. B. Cook 5. pt. 103. Hungates Case.

12. In debt upon an Obligation, the defendant pleaded Non est factum; and it was found a joynt bill made by him and another: it was adjudged for the plaintiff; for when two are joyntly bound in an obligation, none of them can plead that it is not his deed, because they have sealed and delivered it, and therefore if in such case, the one appeareth, and the other maketh default, and is outlawed, he who appeareth shall be charged with the whole. Cook 5. pt. 119. Whelpdales Case.

13. If three distinct obligations are written upon one and the same piece of Parchment, and one of them is only read to the obligee, and he being a man not lettered seals and delivers the whole, this is good for that obligation which was read, and void for the rest; So if there be two absolute and distinct clauses in a deed, and one of them is read to him, he not lettered, and the other not, it is good for the clause that was read, and void for the other ab initio. Cook 11. pt. 27. in Piggots Case.

14. Note by Hobert Chief Justice: If two be bounden to me joyntly and severally, and I sue them joyntly, I may have a Capias against them both, and the death or escape of the one shall not discharge the other; but I cannot have a Capias against the one, and another kinde of execution against the other, because though they be two several persons, yet they make but one debtor when I sue them jointly; But if I sue them severally, I may sever them in the tryals of their executions; for although the obligation be but one, yet the originals, the suit, pleadings, judgements and executions are so diverse, as if they were upon several obligations: But yet so, as if once a very execution be had against one, or against the Sheriff upon an escape of one, the rest may be relieved upon an Audita querela. Vide Hill. 10. Jac. in Co. B. in Foster and Jacksons case. Hob. 59

15. Note by Cook Chief Justice in Co. B. That when two are bound in an obligation joyntly and severally, and the obligee sueth one of them in Co. B. and the other in the Kings Bench; and hath against him in the Kings Bench a Capias, and taketh him in execution, and afterwards taketh an Elegit against the other, and his lands and goods are thereupon delivered in execution, that in such case, the other in execution by his body might well have and maintain an Audita querela, and be delivered: because the judgement in that case must be, that he be delivered and discharged of the execution, and then he shall never be taken again, although the land delivered in execution be afterwards everted: Vide Hob. 2. ac. vide Pas. 12. Jac. in B R Cowley and Legats Case. Godl. 257. accordant.

16. Debt upon obligation: the Case was, two bound themselves or any of them, their heirs, executors, or either of their heirs, executors, &c. the action was brought against one of the obligors only, the other then living; whether this obligation be joyne and several, or only a joynt obligation to be sued against them both, was the question: It was urged that the obligation was sealed and delivered by both of them joyntly; and that the words subsequent, (or either of us) in respect one of the obligors was to be discharged there, and it being uncertain which of them, was void: and it was said that it differs from the Case. 28. H. 8. Dyer 19. which see before: But it was the opinion of the Court, that the acceptance here is not material as to the Election; but it still remains at the pleasure of the obligee to sue them joyntly and severally; and the joynt delivery of the bond shall not make it to be a joynt obligation, and not several; the same being by the Law joyne and several; and it was resolved in this case; that the words et and vel, are all one, whereupon judgement was given for the plaintiff: M. 10. Jac. in B. R. Hawkinson and Sandilans Case. Cro. 2. pt. 322.

2. Obligation: where it shall be good, and where not, where void, and for what cause void, for what not: where for false Latine, Misnosmer, &c.

1. DEbt upon an obligation upon condition that if the defendant did personally appear in the Kings Bench a day there, &c. The defendant pleaded the Statute of 23. H. 6. and said that he was taken by the plaintiff being Sheriff by force of a Latitat, and that the bond was not made according to the Statute; for being made for his deliverance, this word Personally was inserted in the condition more then is in the Statute: It was the opinion of Anderson Chief Justice, that the Obligation was void, for that it varies from the expres's form limited by the Statute; but all the other Justices were of opinion against him; for they said, That a man ought to appear in proper person upon a Latitat, where it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Pas. 29. Eliz. in Co. B. Lassels Case. Mic. 28. Eliz. in B. R. Sackford and Cats Case. ac. Goldesbor 54 and 61.

2. In debt upon an Obligation: the Case was this, A man was bound to another to appear at his suit in the Kings Bench; and doth not so; the question was if this Obligation shall be avoided: It was the opinion of the Court, that it was not within the Statute of 23. H. 6. and therefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff. M. 30. Eliz. in Co. B. Raven and Stockdale's Case. Goldesbr. 66.

3. Debt upon an Obligation by husband and wife; The bond bore date 13. Octob. 31. Eliz. and the condition was, that if the defendant did pay 8. l. &c. in the year of our Lord God 1599. at or upon the 13. day of Octob. which shall next ensue the date hereof; The defendant pleaded, That the day of payment was not come: The question was when the money should be paid; Gawdy he was of opinion, that it should be paid the 13. of Octob next after the date; and that the subsequent words in the year 1599. were void: Fenner Justice, the payment shall be in the year 1599. for where a certainty appears, although afterwards an incertainty come, the certainty shall stand, and the incertainty shall be void. Popham. It shall be paid 13 Octob. next after the year 1599. for the words are, that the obligor shall pay 8. l. in the year of our Lord 1599. and if the payment shall be before this time, none may know what money shall be currant that year before the year come, and it is impossible to pay that before: it was not resolved. Ideo quere. M 40. Eliz. in B. R. Sharples and Hardinsons Case. Goldesbr. 187.

4. Error to reverse a judgement in Co. B. the Case was: A. came before the Mayor of L. and put his seal to a statute, and also the Kings seal was put thereunto, but one part did not remain with the Major according to the statute of Acton Burnel: the question was, whether it was a good obligation against the party; it was adjudged in Co. B. it was: and upon error brought, it was the opinion of the Justices in B. R. that it was hard to make it an Obligation; for in every contract the intent of the parties is to be respected; and here it was to make it a statute, for the Kings seal is put to it; and a statute needs no delivery, but an Obligation ought to be delivered; otherwise it is not good; and being void as a Statute, it is void in all: The judgement was reversed. M. 40. Eliz. in B. R. Ascough and Hollingworths Case. Goldesbr. 190.

5. I. S. was arrested by force of a Latitat out of B. R. at the suit of I. D. the Sheriff took an Obligation of him with two sureties upon condition, to appear such a day in B. R. and also that ad tunc & ibidem he answer to I. D. in a plea of Trespass. It was objected the Obligation was void by the Statute of 23. H. 6 by which Statute no Obligation shall be good if not for appearance only, and this is to appear and also to answer, which is another thing: The Court was clear of opinion that the Obligation was good, because the words of the Writ to the Sheriff, are Ita quod Habeas corpus ejus hic such a day ad respondendum tali; and so nothing is contained in the bond which is not comprised in the Writ; but if any other collateral thing be put in the Obligation, then it is void for the whole. Pasc. 23. Eliz. in C. B. Godbolt. 136.

6. If one be bounden in an Obligation, That he will give to I. S. all the goods which were devised to him by his Father, this is a good Obligation: and in debt brought upon such Obligation, the defendant cannot plead that he had not any goods devised unto him, for that the Obligation shall conclude him to say the contrary: Pas. 8. Iac. in C. B. Cullingworths Case. Godb. 177.

7. Debt upon an obligation; the defendant pleaded that the bond was made upon condition, that if he paid 10. l. to him whom the Obligee should name by his last will, that then, &c. and said that the Obligee made his will, and made executors, but did not name thereby any person certain to take the 10 l. It was the opinion of the whole Court, that the executors should not have the 10. l. for that they were but named in the Will for such purpose, viz. to take the 10. l. for it was said, it was requisite that there should be an express naming who should take it; otherwise the bond could not be forfeited. Tr 10. Iac. in Co. B. Meades Case Godbolt 192.

8. Debt

8. Debt brought upon an Obligation of 20. l. upon Oyer of the bond, it appeared that the defendant was only bound in it, and the condition was, that one M. whom the Sheriff had arrested by a Latitat out of the Kings Bench, ſhould appear in perſon at the day contained in the Writ; and pleaded the ſtatute of 23. H. 6. that the obligation was taken in other form then the act preſcribed: It was objected, that there were three variances from the form in the ſtatute; one in the Obligation, the ſecond in the condition; in the Obligation becauſe the plaintiff took but one ſurety, and the ſtatute is, reaſonable and ſufficient perſons in the plural number, and ſo there ought to be two ſecurities at the leaſt. vide Plo. Com. Dive and Maningham's Caſe. acc. In the condition, that the priſoner ſhall appear in perſon: and 2. It is ſaid ad reſpondendum, which is more then the ſtatute preſcribeth: it was reſolved that the Obligation was not void by that firſt; for the branch which preſcribeth the form, requireth the Obligation be made to the Sheriff himſelf by the name of his office, and that the priſoner do appear, in which branch no mention is made of ſureties: and peradventure it may be better for the Sheriff ſometimes to take one ſurety who is ſufficient, then two others; and the ſame is at the peril of the Sheriff, and left to his diſcretion; and if the ſureties are not ſufficient, yet the bond is good enough; and the words in the ſtatute are for direction and counſel for the Sheriff, and are not words of reſtraint. 2. When by any Writ, the defendant is commanded by any Writ to appear in perſon, he ought by the Common Law to appear in perſon; and therefore the addition ad reſpondendum is not material; for he who ought to appear, ought to appear ad reſpondendum, parum differunt quæ in re concordant: Vide Tr. 27. Eliz. in B.R. Darby and Hallcates Caſe. If the Sheriff or Coaler for the eaſe or enlargement of any who is in his Ward, take a promiſe to ſave him harmleſs, although the ſtatute doth not ſpeak but only of an Obligation with condition, yet the ſame is an equal miſchief: Paſ. 27. 9. A man ſued an Executor in the Spiritual Court for a Legacy, where the Executor bound by his deed Obligatory to the party at ſuch a day certain; before which day ſuit was begun in the Spiritual Court: The Executor moved for a Prohibition, and it was granted; for by taking of the Obligation, the Legacy was extinct; but if the bond had been made to a ſtranger, then the opinion of the Court was that the Legacy had not been extinct. M. 8. Iac. in B.R. Brownlo 2. pt. 11.

10. Debt upon an Obligation for performance of covenants; the covenants were: That T.B. the ſon of W. B. ſhould marry the daughter of the defendant; in conſideration of which marriage the defendant covenanted to pay 300. l. and W.B. covenanted to aſſure ſuch lands to T.B. and his wife for her joynture; and the defendant covenanted, that he would procure the ſaid T.B. to be preſented and inducted into ſuch a benefice upon the next avoydance of the Church: and a breach was aſſigned for not performance of that covenant; The defendant demurred, becauſe the covenant is againſt Law, being a Simonaical agreement, and an Obligation for performance thereof is not good. It was the opinion of the Court, that if it had appeared to have been, that in conſideration of the marriage of his ſon, &c. he would procure him to be preſented, inſtituted, and inducted into ſuch a Church; that had been a Simonaical contract, and had avoided the Obligation: but here the covenant is not in conſideration of the former covenants, nor depending upon them; but it is a meer diſtinct covenant in it ſelf, and without ſpecial verdict, or ſhewing that it was a Simonaical contract, it ſhall not be ſo intended; but it may be a covenant upon a good conſideration; it was adjudged for the plaintiff. M. 11. Car. in B.R. Ryale and Mannings Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 307.

11. Debt upon an Obligation conditioned, whereas the plaintiff intended to preſent the defendant to ſuch a benefice, That if the defendant at any time after his admiſſion, inſtitution, induction, at the plaintiffs requeſt reſigned the ſaid benefice into the hands of the Biſhop of London, that then, &c. The defendant upon Oyer of the Writs demurred generally, and the cauſe was, for that the condition of the bond being to reſign upon requeſt, it was Simony againſt Law: It was the opinion of the whole Court, That if the plaintiff had averred, that the Obligation was made to binde him to pay ſuch ſum, or to make a leaſe or other act which appears in it ſelf to be Simony, then upon ſuch a plea, peradventure it might have appeared to the Court to be Simony: but as it is pleaded by way of demurrer upon the Oyer of the deed, it doth not appear that there is any Simony; for ſuch a bond to cauſe him to reſign, may be good, and upon good reaſon and diſcretion required by the Patron: viz. if he became reſident, or take a ſecond benefice by qualification: and 8. Jac. in B.R. in Jones and Lawrence caſe, it was adjudged, That a bond made to reſign a benefice upon requeſt, was adjudged good, and affirmed in a Writ of Error brought in the Exchequer Chamber by all the Judges of England. Hill. 5 Car. in B.R. Bebington and Woods Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 129.

12. Debt upon an Obligation of 30 l the condition was, that if R.B. ſon of the defendant, did uſe the trade of a Haberdaſher, as Journy manervant, or Apprentice, or as a Maſter, within the County of K. within the Cities of C or R. within four years after the date, that then if he pay 20. l. upon requeſt, &c. It was agreed by all the Juſtices, that the condition was againſt Law, and then all is void; for it is againſt the liberty of a Freeman, and againſt the ſtatute of Magna Charta; and it is againſt the Commonwealth: M. 44. Eliz. in Co. B. Claygat and Batchelor's Caſe. Owen. 143.

13. Debt upon an Obligation, the defendant pleaded the ſtatute of 23 H. 6. That an Obligation taken Colore officii of any one in their cuſtody with any other condition then for appearance, ſhall be void: and ſhewed, That an Extent iſſued out of the Chancery to extend the lands of I. S. upon a ſtatute of 12000. l. in which he was obliged to the plaintiff; and that A. was Sheriff, and B. was his Underſheriff, and ſhewed an extent of the land returned; and before any Liberate, it was agreed that the defendant ſhould pay to B. the Underſheriff 32. l. 10. s. and that he ſhould be bound to the plaintiff his brother for the payment thereof to the uſe of the ſaid B. Underſheriff, and thereupon he entred the ſaid Obligation, which by the ſtatute is void; The plaintiff replyed, that upon the execution of the extent he agreed to pay him the ſaid 32. l. 10. s. and pleaded the ſtatute of 29. Eliz. c 4. 6. upon which the defendant demurred: and it was adjudged againſt the plaintiff, for that this Obligation is extortion, and Colore officii, and void by the Common Law. Vide Cook 10. pt. 100. Dyer 144. And in this caſe it was agreed, That by the ſtatute the Sheriff ought to have 6. d. in the pound where the ſum exceeds 100. l. for all, and not 12. d. in the pound. 14. Debt upon an Obligation: The condition was, Whereas he had taken A. S. a widdow to wife, being poſſeſſed of divers goods, if he ſhould permit his ſaid wife to make a Will, and to diſpoſe in Legacies ſo much as ſhe would, not exceeding 40 l. and pay and perform what ſhe appointed, ſo as it did not exceed 40. l. that then, &c. the defendant pleaded that ſhe did not make any Will; It was found that ſhe made a Will, and thereby diſpoſed of divers Legacies not exceeding 40. l. but that ſhe was a Feme Covert at the time of the making of it: In this caſe it was adjudged for the plaintiff; for although ſhe being a Feme covert could not in Law be permitted to make a Will, or diſpoſe of any goods without the husbands conſent; yet it is a Will within the intent of the condition; and it is but her appointment which the husband by his Obligation is bound to perform, for which the finding that ſhe was a Feme Covert was not material; It was adjudged for the plaintiff. M. 5. Car. in B. R. Mariot and Kinſmans Caſe. Cro 1. pt 159.

15. Debt upon an Obligation conditioned, That whereas the defendant ſhould marry ſuch a widdow, who was poſſeſſed of divers goods which were her fore-husbands and his childrens; That her husband ſhould not meddle with them, but that ſhe and her children might enjoy them without claim or interruption of the defendant: the defendant pleaded performance of the Covenants, the plaintiff aſſigned a breach, that the firſt husband was poſſeſſed of Sheep, Oxen, &c. and that the wife had them before marriage; and that after the marriage ſuch a day the defendant took the ſaid goods into his hands, and yet detains them: upon iſſue joyned, found for the plaintiff; It was moved there was no ſufficient breach alledged; for it is not ſhewed that the defendant the husband made any diſturbance: But the Court was of opinion that there was a breach; for by the allegation, That he took the goods into his hands & detained them, is ſuppoſed a taking and denying them from the wife; and the iſſue being found for the plaintiff, the Court cannot intend, but that it was an unjuſt caption and detention contrary to the agreement: wherefore it was adjudged for the plaintiff M. 6. Car. in B. R. Crowle and Dawſons Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 148.

16. Debt upon a bond de quinquaginta duobus libris: the defendant pleaded Non eſt factum, the Jury finde the bond to be quinquaginta duobus libris, with a condition to pay 26. l. and that the defendant delivered it as his deed to the plaintiff: The Court in this caſe held it to be found for the plaintiff, for quinquaginta is all one with quinquaginti: It was adjudged for the plaintiff. 17. Debt upon an Obligation, and demands 6 l. 13. s. 4. d. The Obligation was Noverint, &c. teneri in viginti Nobilis, &c. and being entred in hac verba: it was thereupon demurred: It was moved, That Nobilis is not of any ſenſe: The Dictionary of Tho. Thomaſius was ſhewed, wherein Nobilis is ſet down for a Noble, as alſo for the ſum of 6. s. 8. d. wherefore reſolved, that the bond was good: Williams Juſtice ſaid, That whereas one was bound in viginti liberis, for libris, It was adjudged in B. 18. Debt upon an Obligation dated 22 Jan. 1608. the defendant demands Oyer, which was entred in hac verba, Noverint univerſi per preſentes me Keys teneri W. Dobſon in decem libris bene & fideliter ſolvend. Dat. tres viginti dies Januarii, Anno Domini 1608. and ſigned Bolt Keyes: It was adjudged to be good, for it is but falſe Latin, which will not make a bond void, and the name of the Obligo

20. Debt upon Obligation: The plaintiff declares, quod conceſſit ſe teneri in quinquaginta libris: The bond was entred, Noverint, &c. teneri in quinquageſſimis libris. It was objected that the words in the bond have a conſtruction, that he bound himſelf in fifty pounds and not fifty pounds: Reſolved, That quinquageſſimi and quinquaginta in an Obligation ſhall be conſtrued to be all one in ſenſe; adjudged for the plaintiff. 21. Debt upon an Obligation; which was entred: *Noverint, &c. 22. Debt upon an Obligation for 33. l. The Obligation was Noverint, &c. Teneri, &c. interregentate libris: It was demurred upon, becauſe the words are inſenſible, and cannot be taken for 33. l. It was holden by the Court to be a void bond. Tr. 18. Jac. in B. R. Hills and Cowpers caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 602.

23. Bill Obligatory demanding 32. l. 4. s 7. d. The bill was threty two ponds four ſhillings and ſeven pence: ſo threty for thirty, and ponds for pounds: and yet adjudged that the bond was good. Vide Cook 10. pt. 133. Osborns caſe. M. 14. Jac in B. R. Hobbert and Longs caſe. Cro 2. pt. 607.

25. Debt; the plaintiff declared that the defendant ſtood bounden unto him in Septingent. & quinquaginti libris, and upon Oyer the words were Septuagent. & quinquagint. libris; and upon a demurrer, it was adjudged, that ſuch variance was no cauſe to abate the Writ. 26. Note an Obligation made beyond the ſeas may be ſued here in England in what place the plaintiff will; as if it bear date at Burdeaux in France, it may be alledged to be made in quodam loco vocat Burdeaux in France, in Iſlington in the County of Middleſex, and there it ſhall be tryed; for whether there be ſuch a place in Iſlington or not, is not traverſable in this caſe, becauſe the place where it was made is only circumſtance, and not the ſubſtance of the Obligation: Cook 1. pt. Inſtitutes 261.

More Obligations, and Obligor, and Obligee.

1. IT was covenanted betwixt A. and B. that A. ſhould preſent B. to the Church of D. and that afterwards B. ſhould leaſe the Parſonage to A. or to any other perſon named by him, and that the ſaid B. ſhould not be abſent by 80. dayes, and that he ſhould not reſign; B. was bound in an Obligation to perform thoſe covenants, and was preſented to the benefice; A. brought an action upon the Obligation, pretending that he could not enjoy his leaſe by reaſon of the abſence of the ſaid Parſon: and the leaſe was made to the Curate at the Nomination of A. B. the Parſon pleaded, That the Obligation was void by the Statute of 14. Eliz. c. 11. Vide the ſtatute: All leaſes made by any Curate ſhall be of no better force then if they had been made by the beneficed Parſon; It was ſaid in this caſe, when the Parſon leaſeth to his Curate who leaſeth ever, the ſtatute doth not make the leaſe void by any abſence of the Parſon, but of the Curate by 40. dayes; quere, for it ſeemeth that by the ſtatute of 14. Eliz. the Curate cannot leaſe. Paſc. 30. Eliz. B. R. St. John and Peters Caſe. Leon. 100.

2. A. was bound in an Obligation to B. upon condition that if A. deliver to B. twenty quarters of Corn the twenty ninth day of Feb. next following datum preſentium, that then, &c. and the next moneth had but 28. dayes: It was holden by the Court, That A. cannot be bounden to deliver the Corn, untill ſuch a year as is a leap-year, for then Feb. hath 29. dayes; and the Obligation was holden to be good. Paſc. 10 Eliz. in B. R. Leon. 101.

3. Debt upon an Obligation; upon Non eſt factum pleaded, the Jury found that the defendant ſubſcribed and ſealed the ſaid bond, and caſt it upon a certain table, and the plaintiff took it without any other delivery, or any other thing amounting to a delivery. It was the opinion of the Court, that upon the matter the Jury had found againſt the plaintiff, and ſaid; It was not like the caſe adjudged, where the defendant the obligor ſubſcribed and ſealed the Obligation, and caſt it upon a table, ſaying, this will ſerve; the ſame was holden to be a good delivery, and the bond a good bond, for here is a circumſtance the ſpeaking of words by which the will of the Obligor appeareth that it ſhall be his deed, but not ſo in the principal caſe. Hill. 30. Eliz. in Co. B. Chamberlain and Stanton's caſe. Leon. 140.

4. In Aſſumpſit, the plaintiff declared of an Aſſumpſit, 1. May 32. Eliz. and counted upon a mutuatus of twenty ſhillings, and Indebitatus Aſſumpſit of four pound; The defendant pleaded that he being indebted to the plaintiff in five pound, and that in another five pound they became bounden to the plaintiff in twenty pound for the payment of ten pound, in ſatisfaction of the ſaid ſum of five pound, and five pounds; and that the Obligation was ſealed before the day of the Aſſumpſit ſuppoſed; and averred it to be the ſame debt, and that the Obligation was made for the ſame debt: It was the opinion of the Court, that the plea was not good; for an Obligation cannot determine a contract after made. But in that caſe, it was holden, that the defendant might plead the ſpecial matter abſque hoc, that the Obligation was made after the Aſſumpſit, abſque hoc quod Aſſumpſit. Tr. 30. Eliz. in Co. B. Jennings and Winches caſe. Leon. 154.

5. I. ſtole plate of Trinity Colledge in Oxon: It was concluded and agreed, That no evidence ſhould be given againſt him at the ſuit of the Colledge; and that the Colledge ſhould be recompenced for the loſs: And A. and B. were bound to the Rector of Lincoln Colledge in Oxford to the uſe of the Maſter and Schollars of Trinity Colledge, upon condition, that if the ſaid Obligors paid fourty pound within ſix moneths then next after, the ſaid I. ſhould be acquitted and releaſed of the troubles wherein he now is, with the ſafety of his life, that then, &c. In debt upon the Obligation the defendant pleaded, That he was endicted at the Aſſiſes at Oxon, and arraigned upon it, for the ſtealing of the ſaid plate, and found guilty, and had his Clergy, and demanded judgement of action, upon which it was demurred. It was adjudged for the plaintiff: But in this caſe; if the defendant had ſhewed the ſpecial matter, and pleaded that the Obligation was made for the diſcharge of a Felon, and ſo againſt Law, ſuch plea had been good; but now the defendants cannot take advantage of it. Hill. 31. Eliz. in Co. B. Jones caſe. Leon. 203.

6. Error of a judgement in debt in B. R. upon an Obligation, that the Obligor ſhould at all times well and truly pay, perform and keep all and ſingular the rents, covenants, grants, &c. on his part to be performed, contained in ſuch an Indenture of leaſe: The defendant pleaded generall performance of all covenants, &c. The plaintiff replyed, and ſhewed a breach for not payment of the rent at ſuch a time, and doth not ſhew any demand of that rent, and thereupon the defendant demurred, and it was adjudged for the plaintiff, and error brought, and aſſigned for error, that in as much as the condition of the Obligation is generally for the performance of all the covenants, and not particularly for the payment of the rent, the rent is not payable without demand, and therefore the breach was not well aſſigned: But all the Juſtices and Barons in the Exchequer Chamber held, that the judgement was well given; for the pleading the performance of the payments, covenants, and agreements, it ſhall be intended he had really performed them, and had payed all the rents: And when the plaintiff replies, he hath not paid ſuch a rent, he needs not alledge a demand, for the defendant may not ſay it was not demanded, for then it ſhould be a departure from his plea. But yet the Court held, That the Obligation being general for performance of covenants, doth not alter the nature of the rent, but that it ought ſtill to be demanded. Tr. 3. Car. in Exchequer Chamber. Chapman and Chapman's caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 54.

7. Debt upon an Obligation of 300. l. The defendant pleaded that it was agreed betwixt the plaintiff, and divers of the creditors of the defendant, That the defendant by Indenture of bargain and ſale ſhould aſſure divers lands in the County of L. to certain of the creditors to be ſold by them, and the money to be paid amongſt them: and that he aſſigned to them a leaſe for years of the cuſtoms of Wines, and certain other ſums of monies which the creditors by the ſaid Indenture accepted of: And ſaid de facto, that by the ſaid Indenture he ſold the ſaid lands to the ſaid perſons, and made them a letter of Attorny to receive the ſums of money. It was reſolved in this caſe, that forasmuch as the Indenture ſounds in the nature of a Covenant, it ſhall not be adjudged to be accepted of in ſatisfaction, nor pleaded in ſatisfaction in the action: and further admit it had been in ſatisfaction if performed; yet being not performed, it is no bar to the action, although the ſaid Indenture was accepted of by the creditors. 8. Debt upon Obligation to perform the Award of I. S. & I. D. ſo they made their Award before Octob. 10. under their hands and ſeals, and if they did not agree, then to ſtand to the umperage of

I. N.

I. N. ſo as he made it in writing under his hand and ſeal before Ollob. 20. The defendant pleaded, That neither the Arbitrators, nor the Umpire made Award before the ſaid dayes. The plaintiff replyed, true, the ſaid I.S. & I.D. did not agree, nor made any arbitrement before Ollob. 20. but I. N. the umpire did make the Award before Ollob. 20. where he Awarded (inter alia) that the defendant ſhould pay to the plaintiff 30. l. at the houſe of A. in C. being the ſign of the Cock; and for non-payment alledged the breach. It was objected, that the ſubmiſſion was void and incertain; for it is, if they do not agree, and it doth not appear to what they ſhould agree: and alſo the Arbitrement by the umpire was void, becauſe he appoints the money to be paid at the houſe of a ſtranger, where by intendment, the defendant hath not intereſt, nor can compell the owner of the houſe to ſuffer the money to be paid there; for ſo the defendant might be a treſpaſſor: But it was agreed by the whole Court that the Arbitrement was good, and the appointment of the payment of the money at a ſtrangers houſe, which ſhall by intendment be taken to be a Common Inn, ſhall not make it an unlawful act, and the plaintiff by common intendment may procure ſuch kindneſs of a ſtranger. 9. Covenant brought, for that the leſſee covenanted for him and his aſſigns to repair and maintain the houſes in reparations from time to time during the term, and ſhewed that the leſſee aſſigned all his term to the defendant, and for not repair, the action brought againſt the aſſignee; The defendant pleaded, That after the day, he made ſuch a concord, that the plaintiff ſhould have 30. s. and ſuch goods in ſatisfaction to that deſtruction, and ſhewed it to his executor, upon which it was demurred: It was moved for the plaintiff, that it was not any plea; for the action being grounded upon a deed, cannot be diſcharged by a contract, as an Obligation upon a condition cannot be diſcharged by a contract: But it was holden by the Court that the plea was good, for it is not pleaded in diſcharge of the Covenant, but for the damages which are demanded by reaſon of the breach of the covenant, and the covenant remains, and it is not like to the caſe of an Obligation, for there it is a duty certain, and it is not any plea, although it be before or after the day of payment. 10. Aſſumpſit: Whereas ſpeech was betwixt the plaintiff and defendant concerning an Obligation of 40. l. wherein the defendant and his father were obliged to one N. in conſideration the plaintiff would at the defendants requeſt pay to the ſaid N. 20. l. in diſcharge of the ſaid bond of 40. l. promiſed he would aſſure the plaintiff ſuch a copyhold for 21. years by ſuch aſſurance as I. S. ſhould deviſe; and that he paid the 20. l. to N. before the day of diſcharge of the bond of 40. l. and that I. S. deviſed a Letter of Attorny for the defendant to two of the tenants to ſurrender the ſaid 21. years, and an Obligation for the quiet enjoying, and tendred to the defendant the Letter of Attorney, which he refuſed to ſeal; upon non Aſſumpſit found for the plaintiff, it was moved, the declaration was not good, becauſe it is not alledged that he diſcharged him: And, 2. Becauſe I. S. deviſed two things to be done, and he alledges the requeſt of one of them only; but the exceptions were diſallowed by the Court; for he cannot diſcharge the bond but to pay in diſcharge: And, 2. The plaintiff may alledge the breach in the one, although the other be performed, and it is in his election when he will demand. Hill. 4. Jac. in B. R. Stainoid and Locorks Caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 194.

11. Debt upon Obligation, ſet forth to be made Nov. 15. 25. Eliz. the defendant pleaded Non eſt factum. The Jury found that it was dated Nov. 15. 23. Eliz. but was not ſealed or delivered till No. 18. 26. Eliz. It was reſolved by the Court in this caſe, That this verdict was found for the plaintiff, for the iſſue being generally Non eſt factum; it appears to be his deed; but peradventure by ſpecial pleading he might have helped himſelf. M. 4. Jac. in B. R. The Lady Platt & Pledals Caſe. Cro 2. pt. 136.

12. Debt upon an Obligation for the payment of 7. l. at the birth of the plaintiffs child. The defendant pleaded that before the birth of it, it was agreed betwixt them, That whereas the plaintiff was to have a load of Lime of the defendants, for which he ſhould be endebted unto him, that the defendant ſhould acquit him thereof, and accept of that debt in ſatisfaction of the ſaid Obligation; and that the plaintiff at ſuch a day and place accepted of the ſaid load of Lime in ſatisfaction of the ſaid Obligation; upon which plea the plaintiff demurred. Two exceptions were taken to the plea. 1. That nothing can be taken in ſatisfaction of the 7. l. it not being a duty, but a ſum payable in future and upon contingency. But of that the Court doubted; for if one be bound by Obligation conditioned to pay money when I. S. comes from beyond ſea, it is a duty preſently. 2. The defendant pleaded, that the plaintiff accepted the load of Lime in ſatisfaction of the bond, which cannot be; for it ought to have been pleaded in ſatisfaction of the ſum mentioned in the condition of the bond; for the bond it ſelf cannot be diſcharged without a ſpecialty; and that the Court held held to be a good exception, and ſo the plea not good, and it was adjudg d for the plaintiff. Tr. 8. Jac. in B. R. Neale and Sheffields caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 254.

13. Debt upon an Obligation to perform covenants, The defendant ſhewed that the deed was a deed of feoffment, wherein was contained, that he for 110. l. had enfeoffed the plaintiff in ſuch land, with a Proviſo, That if the defendant paid ſuch a ſum at ſuch a day, the feoffment ſhould be void, and he might re-enter with covenants to ſave harmleſs from incumbrances, and to make further aſſurance; and that he had performed all the covenants on his part to be performed. The plaintiff aſſigned breach, that he did not pay ſuch ſums at ſuch a day, according to the Proviſo. It was reſolved, That in as much as there is not any covenant to pay that ſum; it is a Proviſo in advantage of the feoffor, that if he paid the money, he ſhould have the land again, and it is in his election, to pay the money, or to loſe the land, and therefore the condition of the bond doth not extend thereunto, but extends to perform other covenants, as the covenants to ſave harmleſs from incumbrances; wherefore, it was adjudged againſt the plaintiff. Debt upon an Obligation with condition to pay 140. l. May 15. next enſuing; the date being May 1. whether it ſhould have relation to the moneth of May next following, and ſo a year after; or to the ſame wherein the bond was made, was the queſtion: It was adjudged it ſhould be referred to the fifteenth day of the ſame moneth, being a fortnight after the date, and not to May in the next year following. 15. In debt the caſe was; Two were bound to a third perſon joyntly and ſeverally; the Obligee made the wife the one of the Obligors his executrix, who adminiſtred; then the husband, the Obligor made her his executrix and dyed, having aſſets to pay the debt; then ſhe dyed; and the plaintiff took letters of Adminiſtration of the goods of the Obligee not adminiſtred, and brought debt againſt the defendant, being the ſurviving executor: It was adjudged in this caſe, that the action would not lye, for that at the leaſt the action was ſuſpended; and a perſonal action once ſuſpended is extinct: But 2. When the Obligee made the executrix of the Obligor his executrix and left aſſets, the debt was preſently ſatisfied by way of retainer, and ſo no new action could be had for that debt. Hill. 11. 16. A. recovered in debt againſt B. and had judgement who dyed, and upon a Scire facias againſt the Terr Tenant, the Sheriff returned that B. tenant of an houſe that was his at the time of the judgement: I. H. came in and pleaded, that B. enfeoffed him long before the judgement in fee, abſque hoc that he was ſeiſed at the time of the judgement, or at any time after: whereupon iſſue being taken, the Jury found the feoffment, and ſaid, it was made by covin to defraud the plaintiff and other creditors: it was adjudged for the plaintiff; for B. remained ſtill ſeiſed, as to the creditors, notwithſtanding the feoffment; but if the iſſue had been taken directly, enfeoffed or not enfeoffed, it had been found againſt the plaintiff; for in that caſe he muſt avoid the feoffment by covin eſpecially pleaded; for it is a feoffment tiel queil. Tr. 12. 17. Debt upon an Obligation, The condition was, that if the defendant ſhould at any time or times after the making of the Obligation by any way or means be ayding or aſſiſting to I. S. or any other perſon or perſons for him the ſaid I. S. in any actions, ſuits, &c. to be commenced or proſecuted againſt the plaintiff, his wife, children, or aſſignes: Then, &c. the plaintiff aſſigned a breach, That he brought an action againſt I. S. and the defendant had judgement for ſuch damages againſt I. S. and 2. l. damages againſt the defendant; and 8. l. coſts againſt them both, and that thereupon after the making of the bond, I. S. and the defendant brought a Writ of Error, and ſo hindred the plaintiff of his execution upon his judgement, upon which the defendant demurred in Law: it was adjudged by the Court to be no breach of the condition; for although the defendant might by himſelf act to bring a Writ of Error expreſſly, yet ſuch general words as theſe ſhall not enforce it ſo; for the ſenſe of the condition is, That he ſhall not maintain I. S. in any his proper ſuits againſt the plaintiff, which is juſt and rationable; but it is not reaſon that he ſhould be barred to defend himſelf by joyning with I. S. againſt unjuſt proceedings of the defendant againſt him; and therefore in this caſe, if the plaintiff after judgement had releaſed, and yet have taken forth execution, the defendant might have joyned with I. S. in an Audita querela; for it is his own defence againſt unjuſt proceedings and ſuits. M. 16. Iac. in Co. B. Lamb and Thompſons Caſe. Hob. 304. See Hatton 40. the ſame caſe.

18. I. S. was Sheriff of Oxford, and an Obligation was made to him thus, Nouerint, &c. me teneri I. S. arniger in 60 l. and after the delivery of the Deed, theſe words, viz. (Vice-Comit. Oxon) before the words in 60. l. and after the words I.S. armigero were enterlined without the notice of I.S. It was adjudged in that Case, that because that addition was without the privity of the parties in a place not material, that the Obligation remained good: and in this Case, It was resolved. 1. That when a Lawfull Deed is rased, by which it becomes void, that the Obligor may plead Non est factum, and give the matter in evidence, that at the time of the plea pleaded, that it was not his Deed. 2. That when a deed is altered by the Plaintiff himself, or a stranger in a point material by addition, interlineation, rasure, or other means, the Deed is void: But if a stranger without the privity of the parties alter a Deed by any of the said ways in a point not material, the same shall not make the Deed void. Cook 11. pt. Henry Pigots Case.

19. Debt upon an Obligation of 20.l. Conditioned, that if the Obligor shall deliver to the Obligee before such a day, a powder of Lead, that then, &c. The defendant pleaded in Bar, That after the entring of the Bond, and before the day for the delivery of the Lead, at the request of the plaintiff himself, he paid unto I S 10.l. for another powder of Lead; for which the plaintiff was indebted to him; and this he paid in full discharge of the first Bond, and that the plaintiff had so accepted of it: It was the clear opinion of all the Court, that the plea of the Defendant was not good; and Judgement was given for the Plaintiff; and in this case, It was said, that these three differences were warrantable by the Books 1. Where the condition of a bond is for payment of money, this may be performed by the payment of another thing, because it is of value certain, and therefore may be performed by any collateral thing, otherwise it is, where the condition is to do a collateral thing. 2. Three are bound to do a collateral thing; they pay money for this, this is no good satisfaction, notwithstanding that Numus est mensura rerum commutandarum. 3. A man is bound to pay a sum of money, or a powder of Lead; if he deliver this to any other, by, and with the consent of the Obligee, this is a good performance of the condition: M 12. Jac. in B.R. rot. 474. Moorwood and Dickens Case. Bolstr 3.pt. 148, 149.

20. In an action of Covenant for payment of money; the Case was, The Covenant was that a stranger should pay yearly 8 l. to one of the Covenantees, and to one F.I. a stranger, and F.I. took to husband I. S. who did release this payment: The question was, whether by this Release by him thus made, the defendant shall be discharged of this payment or not. It was the clear opinion of the Court in this Case, that the release he made to I S. was a void Release, and could not discharge the payment covenanted to be paid, and that Judgement ought to be given for the Plaintiff against the defendant for not paying the money according to his Covenant: And in this case it was said, That if the Obligee be the cause of the non performance, he shall have no advantage of any forfeiture. M. 13. Iac. in B.R. Quick and Ludbarrows Case. Bolstr. 3.pt. 28, 29.

21. Debt upon an obligation to perform an Award, the condition was, the Arbitrators to award for all actions, and demands in variance between the parties to the date of the obligation; so as, &c. the defendant pleaded, Nul Arbitrement, the plaintiff replyed, that the Arbitrators did award, That the defendant should pay to the plaintiff 20.l. in full satisfaction of all such moneys as the plaintiff did claim of the defendant as administrator of the goods of I. and that each of the parties upon payment of the said 20 l. should make generall acquittances of all actions and demands to the day of the making of the said Acquittances: It was objected, that the Award was void. 1. Because they had no power to discharge any action accrued to any of the parties as Administrators: 2. Because by the Release the Bond it self to stand to the Award is discharged: It was resolved, that the Award was good as to all that which was submitted to, and void for the rest; and a breach assigned in a matter submitted to, gives good cause of Action. Tr. 14. Iac. Vautore and Dribles Case: Bridgeman 58.

22. Debt upon an obligation; the condition was, That whereas the Plaintiff devised Lands to I. S. until the Feast of Mich. next; If upon the said Feast day, or after, upon request made by the plaintiff, his heirs or assigns, the said I.S. should deliver up the possession to the Plaintiff, his heirs or assigns, that then, &c. The defendant said, That the plaintiff or his assigns did not make any request, and the case was, that the Plaintiff had bargained and sold the reversion to B. and C. and the day after Mich. C. one of the bargainers came to the Lands, and required I.S. to deliver the possession, which he refused: It was resolved in this Case, That the request made by one of the joynt bargainers was good, and so the Obligation forfeited Tr. 13. Iac. Lingen and Paias Case. Bridgeman 129. Godbolt 272. the same Case.

23. Note it was resolved by the Court; if a Statute Merchant be acknowledged, and it doth not limit any day of payment, it is a void Statute, and an extent upon it is void. But if upon an Obligation no day of payment is limited, the money is payable presently. M. 18. Iac. in Com. B. Davies Case. Hutton 42.

24. In Debt upon Obligation, the condition was, That if I.S. and his wife did before Easter Term, levy a Fine of certain Lands to the Plaintiff, tiff, that, &c. The defendant pleaded, that before Easter Term, the plaintiff did not purchase a Writ of Covenant. In that case, It was holden by Hobert Chief Justice, that the Plaintiff ought to sue forth the Writ of Covenant, to make himself capable of the Fine, and if it were that the Defendant should acknowledge the Judgement, the Plaintiff ought to have purchased an Original: 2. Resolved that the Condition was to levy a Fine before Easter Term, and before Easter I.S. and his wife had carried away the Land by Fine, to a stranger, that by that the Obligation was forfeited according to Maynes Case. 25. A. at the instance of a Feme Covert took up certain stuffs amounnting to 40.l. the husband did assume to pay so much for it as it was worth upon request: A. brought an Action upon the Case against the husband, and averred the summ did amount to 40.l. and alledged the request: The defendant pleaded the Statute of 21. Jac. of limitation of actions, and that the plaintiff had not prosecuted any action upon this promise within six years after the promise made, whether the cause of action shall be upon the request, or upon the promise, was the question. It was objected, that this was a contract by the husband, whereupon he might have an action of Debt, and then the request is not the cause of the action: It was resolved in this case, no action lay against the husband upon this Assumpsit, but only an action upon the Case upon the request. 28. Debt upon an obligation, the condition was, That if the Defendant suffer the Plaintiff, his Executors, &c. not only to thresh Corn in the Defendants Barn, but to carry it away from time to time, and at all times hereafter convenient, &c. the Defendant suffered the Corn to lie there two years, in which time a great part of it was eaten with rats, and then the defendant threshed it. It was resolved in this Case, that the obligation was forfeited; for the words are not, that he suffer the plaintiff in convenient time to come and thresh. But the words are at all times convenient, which shall be construed at all times, when it pleaseth the plaintiff, unless in the night, and upon Sabbath-days. M.30. Eliz. in Com.B. The Earl of Kent and Byans Case. Owen 55.

29. Debt upon an obligation to perform an Award; the defendant pleaded, That the Arbitrator made no award. It was found by special verdict, That the defendant, and one W. submitted themselves to Arbitrement, and found that the Arbitrators made an Award in hæc verba; but further found, that W. one of the Obligors was an Infant within age at the time of the submission, and that the Arbitrators awarded (amongst other things) that W. the Infant should pay 5.l. to the other party for Quit Rents, and other small things: And in this case, these points were resolved: 1. That the submission of an Infant to an Award was utterly void. 2. That the Award was void, because of the uncertainty of these other small things, it not appearing what these other things were; and it might be they were such things for which an Infant by the Law might not be chargeable; and also for that by the reason they have assessed 5.l. for the Infant to pay, they might have assessed 50.l. 3. Resolved that the whole award was void, and that as well against the defendant, as against the Infant; for the submission is an entire thing, and void in part, is void in all: And so the obligation taken to perform the Award, was also void. 30. Debt upon an obligation: the condition was, that the defendant should not keep a Mercers shop in the Town of T. and if he did, that then within three moneths he should pay 40.l. to the plaintiff: It was said, that the Condition was good, because the restraint is but to a certain place, and not a general restraint of his Trade: But it was the opinion of all the Justices, that the condition being against the Law, all was void; nor the condition only, but the obligation also: and so it was said, It was adjudged. 31. Note, It was holden by the Court, that if I be bounden that my Lessee shall take, reap and carry his Corn away peaceably, and afterwards in the time of Harvest, when he is reaping the corn, I came upon the Land, and say to him that he shall not reap any corn there, but otherwise I do not disturb him; that for these words spoken by me upon the Land, I have forfeited my obligation; and yet it was strongly urged, that I was bound to suffer him to do three things, viz. to take, to reap, and to carry, and all these things he hath done. 32 Debt

32. Debt upon an obligation; the condition was for performance of Covenants: A. being high Sheriff of the County of H. made C. his undersheriff; who by Indenture, (amongst other Covenants) did Covenant that he would not execute any extent, Liberate Elegit, or any other execution for any suit above the summ of 20.l. before he had made known the nature and quality of the said Writ to the high Sheriff: The plaintiff upon the defendants plea, that he had performed all Covenants, replied, that I.S. had recovered against B. in the Common Pleas 200.l. and died, and that I.D. the Executor of I.S. sued forth a Scire facias against B. for the said summ, by force of which C. undersheriff arrested him in execution; and afterwards B escaped, the debt not satisfied, upon which the Plaintiff did demur in Law: In this case, It was Resolved, That although the Covenant was, That he should not serve or execute any process or execution, was a void Covenant in Law; yet the obligation was good for the rest of the Covenants which were agreeable to Law, and a difference was taken between a Bond made void by the Statute, and a Bond made void by the Common Law: For upon the Statute of 23. H 6. If the Sheriff will take a Bond for a point against Law, and also for a due debt, the whole Bond is void by the Letter of the Statute, but the Common Law doth divide according to common reason, and having made that void which is against Law, doth make the Bond to stand good for the residue; and in this case, It was lawfull for the Sheriff to take a Bond of his undersheriff to save him harmless against Escapes: and therefore, although that in this case, the condition of the Bond was as to one serving of Executions void as being repugnant to the office of a Sheriff; yet for the breach of the other Covenants, the bond and condition was both good, and so there being an escape, the bond put in suit for breach of the Covenant was lawfull. 33. If a man be bound to A. in an obligation, upon condition to enfeoffe B. who is a meer stranger before a day; the obligor doth offer to enfeoffe B. and he refuseth, the obligation is forfeit, for the obligor hath taken upon him to enfeoffe him, and his refusal cannot satisfie the condition, because no feoffment is made, but if the feoffment had been by the condition to be made to the Obligee, or to any other for his benefit or behoof, in that case a tender and refusall shall save the Obligee, because he himself upon the matter is the cause wherefore the condition could not be performed; and therefore shall not give himself cause of action. Cook pt.31. in Boothes Case.

34. Note, it was said by the Court, that the Book 17.E.3.24. was in debt upon an obligation of 20.l. obtained against the Mayor of N. and execution had thereupon, because the obligation was not cancelled (which after Iudgement had was the usual course in those days) the plaintiff had judgment in another action upon the same obligation, and the defendant by pleading the first Iudgement, could not be reversed, because he did not procure the obligation to be cancelled. But it was said, That now of latter time, men growing more contentious and not satisfied with any tryal or Iudgement, the Iudges have thought it dangerous to order the Bond to be cancelled either where the Plaintiff recovers, or where he is bound by the Iudgement; for in both cases the Iudgement may be reversed by Errour or Attaint. Cook 6. pt. 44. in Higgens Case.

35. If a man be bound in an obligation, upon condition to account before Auditors to be assigned by the Obligee when he shall be required thereunto; and to pay the arrearages found upon such account; In debt brought upon such an Obligation, the Obligor shall at his peril take notice of the arrearages found before the Auditors; for he having bound himself to satisfie them, shall also enquire after them to know what they are, because he hath bound himself to it, and if he do not, for such his neglect his obligation shall be forfeited: Cook 8.Pt 92. in France, Case.

36. Debt upon an obligation, The condition was, That if R.R. after marriage had between him and I.G. widow, together with the said I.G. alien in Fee or in tail all that great Messuage of the said I. in L. in the tenure of I.S. then if the said R.R. in his life time purchase to the said I.G. and her heirs, Lands of good right and title, and of as good value as the money raised upon the alteration of the said Messuage; or leave to the said I.G. after his decease, so much money as he shall receive upon the said sale, that then &c. R.R. married I.G. and sold the Messuage for 22.l. After which I.G. died, no Lands being purchased to her by the said R.R. It was Resolved in this Case, That when the condition of an obligation doth consist on two parts in the disjunctive, and both are possible at the time of the obligation made, and afterwards the one becomes impossible by the Act of God, the Obligor is not bounden to perform the other; for the condition which is for the benefit of the obligor shall be to him most beneficially for him, and he hath election to perform the one or the other for the saving of the penalty of the Obligation; and so when it becomes impossible by the act of God, which by no industry he can perform it, the Obligation shall be saved. upon an Obligation: the Case was, A. was seised in Fee of the Scite of the Mannor of G. 27. Eliz. demised it to R.H. for 17. years from the last day of November; the defendant entred the next day, and was possessed: and the last day of November 28 Eliz. entred an obligation to A. with condition, that if he, his heirs, executors, or any of them, should pay to D.G. widow, or her assigns at the said Mannor house of G. for the term of 17. years from the Feast of St. Mich. last past, one annual Rent of 20. marks at the Feasts of the Annunciation, and St. Michael, if the said D.G. should so long live; and the said R.H. or his Assigns, or any claiming by or under the said R. or his assigns shall or may occupy or use the said Scite of the Mannor of G. that then, &c. After which until 9. May 29. Eliz. the defendant enjoyed the Scite, and paid the said Annual Rent, and then surrendred his estate in the same to the said R. and after did not pay the said Annual Rent, and yet continued the possession of the said Scite: It was the opinion of all the Justices, that notwithstanding the said surrender made to the obligee himself, he ought to have continued the payment to D.G. for albeit the Term be drowned and merged in the Reversion, and so hath no continuance as to him in the Reversion; yet as to any thing heretofore done by the defendant, who was the Tenant and Termer in Judgement of Law, it is to be said to have continuance. Occupant, and Occupancie.

1. Who and where a man shall be said Occupant of an estate in Lands, and of what things there may be an Occupancy, of what not.

1. A Man made a Lease for years to two; provided that if they die within the Term, that the Term shall cease; the Termors made partition, and afterwards one of them died: It was holden in this case, that his Executor should have it, because there is no occupancy in this Case; and it shall not cease during the life of his Companion: But if it were a Lease for life it should be determined. 2. A woman Copyholder for life, took husband; the Reversion of the said Copy-hold was granted to A.B. and C. cum accideret post mortem sursum reddit, or forfeiture for their lives successively according to their custom; the husband surrendred to the use of A. for life, to whom the Lord granted a Copy for the life of A. and B. died; It was the opinion of the Justices in that case, That C. should not be admitted, for that after the death of the husband, the wife might enter, or have her plaint in the nature of a cui in vita; & it was holden, that during the life of the husband, the Lord should not have it in the nature of an Occupant: After the husband the wife would have released to C. and the Lord would not hold his Court, till he was enjoyned to hold Court, or avoid the possession. Tr. 9. Eliz. Dyer 264.

3. A Lease was made to one, his Executors and Assigns, for the life of another; the Lessee made a Lease for years rendring rent to him, his executors and assigns, and died: It was a Quere, if the Lessee for years should be Occupant; and if the Rent was extinct, or that the Freehold should revert to the first Feoffor, and the Term be in esse. The Court conceived that the Rent was extinct: Tr. 16. Eliz. Dyer 328. the other point is not resolved here: vide Cook 1. pt. Institut. 41. this Quere resolved.

4. A. grants a Rent to F. by Fine, during the life of C. wife of the Grantor, and if it was behinde, that it should be lawfull for F. and his heirs during the life of C. to distrein: F. devised the Rent and died. If the Grantor should detain the Rent as an Occupant, or that the Devisee should have it, was the question? It was the opinion of Dyer, that the Devisee should have it; for that the cause of Distresse made that the Grantee had a Fee determinate upon the death of C. Tr. 9. Eliz. 5. If a Disseisor makes a Lease for the life of another to one and his heirs, and the Lessee dieth, the discent shall not take away the entry of the Disseisee, because he died seised only of the Freehold, and the word (Heirs) was added to prevent the Occupancy; for the heir in that case shall not have his age. Tenant for life of another man of a Mannor, makes a Lease for years of the Freehold, of which a stranger hath a Copy-hold estate for life in esse; the Lessee dieth, the Copyholder in this case shall not be an Occupant; for Occupancy ought to be vacua possessio: And therefore, it was adjudged 10. Eliz. in Adams Case: Where a man makes a long lease for years, and afterwards intending to avoid this Lease, makes a Lease to another old man for anothers life, to the intent that the Lessee for years should be Occupant when the old old Leſſee died, and ſo drowned his Term; and after the Leſſee died: It was reſolved, in that caſe, that the Leſſee for years ſhould not be Occupant, in ſo much as there was not vacua poſſeſſio; and therefore if Leſſee for another mans life makes a Leaſe for years and dies, that the Leſſee for years ſhall not be occupant, notwithſtanding that he make ſpecial claim; but if Leſſee for another mans life makes a Leaſe at Will and dies, there the Leſſee at Will ſhall be an Occupant: Tr. 10. Jac. in Com. B. by Cook Chief Juſtice in Rolls and Moſons Caſe. Brownlo 2. pt 202.

7. In Ejectione firme, the Caſe was, A. ſeized in Fee, made a Leaſe to B. and his aſſigns for his own life, and for the lives of C. and D. and afterwards A. the Leſſor leaſed the Reverſion to the Plaintiff for 21. years; and afterwards B. made a Leaſe to C. to hold at Will, and died. If the eſtate of C. was determined by the death of B. was the Queſtion: The Caſe is but this, a Leaſe is made to one and his Aſſigns for his own life, and the life of two others, whether they may both ſtand together? It was the opinion of the Court, that they might well ſtand together; for although that the Leſſee may not have it during his life; yet he may diſpoſe of it; and an eſtate for the life of another ſhall be in eſſe for the benefit of the Occupant; and many inconveniences would be if the eſtate ſhould not endure for all their lives. And where a Leaſe was made to two for their lives, and the life of a ſtranger; and one of the Leſſees died, and the ſurvivor granted the Land for his life: it was adjudged in that caſe to be no forfeiture, in Chambers and Goſtocks Caſe in Com. B. and M. 32. Eliz. in Com. B. Bordels Caſe was, a Leaſe was made to him for his own life, and for the lives of two others. and it was adjudged a good Leaſe for all their lives: 1. Hil. 43. Eliz. in Com. B. Roſſe and Ardwicks Caſe, Goldesbr. 157.

8. Note by three Juſtices in the Common Pleas, That if a Rent be granted to one, and his heirs for the life of another man, and the Grantee dyeth, that his heir ſhall not be an Occupant of the Rent, but that he ſhould have it as a Freehold diſcended; but not in the nature of an Inheritance. Paſc. 8. Jac. in Com. B. Godbolt 172.

9. The Biſhop of W. made a Leaſe to I.S. for the life of him, and two others his ſons; he let the Land to I.D. at will, rendring Rent, and afterwards died: I. D. holds himſelf in, but mentions not he claims as Occupant or otherwiſe. B. one of the ſons of I.S. being one of the Ceſtuy Que uſes enters, as Occupant, and let the Land to the Plaintiff: the defendant by the command of I.D. outs him; Whether I.D. were the Occupant without claiming it as Occupant, was the doubt: It was adjudged for the defendant, that the Leſſee was the Occupant; for he being in poſſeſſion, the Law caſts the Freehold upon him, unleſs he wave it, and it is not requiſite that he claim as Occupant. Hill. 15. Jac. B.R. Skelliton and Hayes Caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 554.

10. A Tenant for life granted by Fine his eſtate to B. and by Indenture limited the uſe to B. for the life of A. and B. & if he died living A. that it ſhould remain to C. Afterwards B. died leaving C. entred, and Let the Land to D. for years and died, leaving A. whether the Leſſee ſhould return the Land as an Occupant living A. or that A. ſhould have it again, was the queſtion: it was adjudged, That C. ſhould have it as an Occupant, and his Leſſee ſhould hold it as an Occupant, and that A. had not any reſidue of the uſe in him; for when Tenant for life, or he who hath a particular eſtate, grants his eſtate by Fine, and limits the uſe for years, or for a particular time, it ſhall not return unto him, but be to his Conuſee, although the Fine were without any conſideration; becauſe he who hath the particular eſtate by Fine, is ſubject to the ancient rent and forfeiture, which is a ſufficient conſideration to convey the eſtate unto him; and although it was objected, That there ſhall not be an Occupant of an eſtate veſted to an uſe: Yet it was ſaid that there may be an Occupancy; for that the uſe and the Land are incorporated now, and of one nature. 1. M. 15. Jac. in Com. B. Caſtle and Dods Caſe. Cro. 2. pt. 200.

11. If a man deviſeth Lands to one, and his heirs, during the life of I.S. or Tenant for life granteth his eſtate to one, and his heirs; in theſe caſes, the Leſſee or Grantor hath an eſtate of Free hold deſcendible, but no eſtate of inheritance; for he ſhall be puniſhed for waſte; and he in the Reverſion or Remainder ſhall enter for a forfeiture, and his heirs ſhall not have his age; for he is in a manner but a ſpecial Occupant. Cook 10. pt. 98. in Seymors Caſe.

12. A Leaſe was made to I.S. by deed; Habendum, to him, his wife, and his daughter, ſucceſſive ſicut ſcribuntur & nominantur in Ordine, I.S. died, and then his wife died: If it was a good remainder to his daughter, was the Queſtion: It was ſaid that the remainder was void, for the incertainty: And 29. Eliz. in B.R. Windſmore and Halborts Caſe was vouched. Whereas Indenture was to one, Habendum to him, and his wife, and a third perſon ſucceſſive; and it was holden it was void by way of remainder to any of them; and there reſolved that they did not take preſently; 2. That they could not take as Occupants, becauſe that the intent of the Leſſor was, that they ſhould take but as one eſtate: But in the principal Caſe it was reſolved, That the daughter had a good eſtate in remainder; and that it did not differ from the Case in Dyer, where a Lease was made by Indenture to one, to have to him and to another, successive sicut nominatur in charta, that those words sicut nominatur in charta did make the estate certain enough. M. 11. Jac. in Com. B. Hill and Grubhams Case, Godbolt 120.

13. In an Ejectione firmæ, the Case was A. and B his wife Tenants in tail to them, and the heirs of their bodies of the gift of I.F. the remainder to the right heirs of A. the said A. having issue betwixt them. 6 E.6. Levied a Fine to the King with Proclamations: The King, 7. E.6. granted the Lands to Francis Earl of Huntington, and his heirs. Afterwards 1. M.2. A. died; E. entred: Francis Earl of Huntington died, seized of the Reversion, which descended to H. his son, who by Indenture betwixt him and B. reciting that the said B. held the Tenants in tail of the gift of I H. the remainder expectant to the right heirs of the Earl of H. ratified, confirmed and allowed to the said B. all her estate, title, &c. Habendum to the said B. and the heirs of her body, and the body of A. begotten, with warranty to the said B. and the heirs of her body by A. begotten, against him and his heirs: B. died 29. Eliz. Francis entred, and had issue Sir Henry Beamont, Sir John Beamont, and F.B. 41. Eliz. died: Sir Henry Beamont covenanted to stand seized to the use of himself, and the heirs male of his body; the remainder to Sir John B. his brother, and the heirs males of his body, and afterwards dies without issue male, his wife with childe of a daughter, the wife of the Lessor: Afterwards Sir John B. died and had issue I. his son: It was said in this Case, that the Issue tail in this case was so barred by the Fine, and the Acts of 4. H.7. and 32. H.8. that he cannot claim; for he is a person disabled by the Act of Parliament; and that Nihil operatur by the confirmation to B. nor to the heirs of the body of her and John B. because he in the Reversion had but a possibility to have it after the death of John B. without issue, and till the time he had issue, he might not claim, and a possibility cannot be transferred; and he in the Reversion cannot have it so long as there is any heir of the body of John B. and B. in esse; and that any who enters, shall have it as an Occupant; for the Case was not resolved. Pasc. 2. Car. in B.R. Baker and Willis Case. Cro. 1. pt. 343.

14. Error to reverse a Judgement given in Com B. in a Replevin; The Case was, A Rent was granted to one, and his heirs Habend. for his own life, and the life of three others: What estate this should be was the Question. It was the opinion of all the Justices, That if a Rent be granted to one and his heirs, to have to him, for his own life, and for the life of two others, his own life is greater then the lives of the others (where the same is by way of present interest, but whereas in this case it is) by way of limitation, that he shall have this after his own life, of that also, this kinde of limitation is good in Law, shall this Rent here in this case go back again after the death of the first grantee, and during the other lives: clearly shall not, for there is here one particularly limited to take this, and accordingly he shall have it, and his heir in this case is not so to have the same, as heir by descent, but by way of limitation, and that for to prevent Occupancy. M.8. Jac. in B.R. Bowles and Poores Case. Bolstr. 1. pt. 135, 136.

15. In Covenant the case was; A. Tenant for three lives (his own life being one of them) makes a Lease to E. for six years, who made a Lease at Will to two men; A. who was the Tenant for three lives died; the two Tenants at Will be then in the possession of the Lands; the Tenant for years, for and in consideration of 400.l. to him paid by the Plaintiff, sells all his estate to the plaintiff, shewing the whole matter unto him, and how the two Tenants at Will, did claim only at Will, and to his use; And then sets forth the death of A. who was the Tenant for three lives, and that he virtute cujus was seized of the Freehold for the term of other lives as an Occupant; and he being so seized, did Assign, set over, bargain, and sell to the Plaintiff all his estate, right, title, and interest in the Land, to have, and to hold to him, for the lives then in being; and covenanted that he had such an estate in Law, as would warrant the Sale so by him made: The Question in Law in this case was, Whether upon the death of A. the Tenant for three lives E. the defendant had any greater estate in him then for years? It was adjudged, that he had only an estate for years; and that the Tenant at Will should be the Occupant: And upon that the Action of Covenant was brought by the Plaintiff against E. for not performing his bargain and sale to him, good according to his Covenant: and it was adjudged for the Plaintiff: Tr. 10. Jac. in B.R. Chamberlane and Ewers Case. Bolstr. 2. pt. 11, 12, 13.

Offices and Officers.

1. Particular Offices, grantable and by whom, and for what estates; where for life, years, in Fee, or at Will, and what Act shall be a determination of forfeiture of such Offices: And of Judicial, and Ministerial Offices; and the difference betwixt them.

1. IN the time of vacancy of the Office of chief Justice of the Common Pleas, Queen Mary granted the Office of Exigenter of London to Scrogs; It was holden by the Court in that case, that the grant was therefore void, because it was incident to the Office of Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, which Office the Queen could not have; and therefore it was holden, that the Chief Justice should avoid the grant: 2. Eliz. Dyer 175. Scrogs Case

2. The Queen by her Letters Patent, granted the Office of Clerk of the County Court to M. with all Fees, for the term of his life, and afterwards constituted A. Sheriff of the same County, who claiming the same to be incident to his Office, appointed another to be Clerk: It was adjudged in this case, that the grant of the Queen by her Letters Patent was void: and in that case, it was resolved, that the Sheriff is an ancient officer of the Realm, and when the King hath appointed such an officer, he cannot abridge the Sheriff of any thing incident, or appertaining to his office: Also the office of the Sheriff is entire, and cannot be determined for part; for it ought to continue his entirely without fraction or disjoyning, unless it be by Act of Parliament. 2. Resolved, that the County Court is incident to the office of Sheriff. 3. Resolved, that if such grant should be good, many inconveniences would rise and follow; for if the Records be imbezzelled, the Sheriff should answer for them; and the entry of the proceedings of that Court doth belong to the Sheriff: and also that the Certificate of the Records out of the County Court doth appertain to the Sheriff. 4. Resolved, that the custody of the Courts of the County doth belong to the Sheriffs; Pasc. 26. Eliz. Cook 4. p. 33. Mittons Case.

3. King Hen. 8. by his Letters Patents granted the office of Clerk of the Hampire to Sir R.S. I.H. for the term of their lives, and the longest liver of them; of which grant there was two Patents, of the same form, one of them called a Duplicate, and that was in the custody of I.H. but the principal Patent was by warrant of the Privy Seal Authoritate Parliamenti, and that remained with Sir I.B. I.H. being beyond Sea: Sir I.S. surrendred his Patent, which was cancelled; but no vacat was made of the Inrolment of it; I.H. returned, and claimed his joynt estate in the said office, and shewed the Duplicate undefaced. Queen Mary reciting the first Patent and the surrender, granted the said office to the said Sir I.S. and I.B. It was the opinion of all the Justices in this case, that when the original Patent is cancelled, the Duplicate hath no force, but is gone in Law; and so the 2. Grant of Queen Mary was good. Pasc. 2. Eliz. Dyer 179. Kempe and Males Case.

4. The Office of Marshall of the Marshall Sea cannot be granted for years, but ought always to be granted for life, and always to be executed by the Grantee himself; because it is an office of great trust conferred to the person, and concerns the Administration of Justice, and the life of the Law, which is to keep such as are in execution in salvâ & arctâ custodiâ, to the end they may the sooner pay their debts: and this trust is individual and personal, and therefore cannot be transferred to Executors or Administrators: Cook 4. pt. 96. Sir George Rexels Case.

5. Brook Lord Chief Justice of the Common Pleas, to whom the grant of the office of Chief Preignathory did appertain, did revoke a grant which was made by himself before to one Gutear his wives brother; because the grantee, was indoneus; and granted the same to I.S. who executed the said office under his grant. Ex quo vide, that the grant of the said Office was incident, and did belong to the Chief Justice of the Bench: And vide there a President of 1. E. 4. Where the King granted the Office of Clerk of the Crown in the Kings Bench to I.S. and another. I.S. died, and because the said other person was unable to execute and exercise the said office of Clerk of the Crown, upon a Certificate made by the Lord Chief Justice of the disability of the said person, the King ore tenus commended another man to the said office, and commanded the Chief Justice to admit and swear him in the same; Ex quo nota, also that the said office is in the Kings Grant, M. 5. Ma. Dyer 110.

6. An Assise was brought of the Office of the Register of the Admiralty; And it was prescribed that Quilibet hujusmodi persona, which shall be named by the Admiral, shall be register of the Admiralty for life; and it was found that the Admiral named two by Deed, Habend. for life, and that one of them was dead; It was there a Quære if Quilibet shall be taken singularly, or collective, or if when one dies; so that the other ought to claim it by the first Grantor, as by a Grant made to him alone; and if that did maintain the preſcription: The opinion of the Book ſeems to be, it ſhall be, Vide Ma. Dyer 153. Hunts Caſe. But note, that although the proceedings in that Court be according to the Civil Law; yet the offices are determinable by the Common Law; Cook 8. pt. 47. on John Webs Caſe.

7. The Lord Admiral did grant the office of Regiſter of the Admiral Court to P. and H. for their lives, & eorum diutius viventi: H. bound himſelf in an obligation of 50 l. that P. ſhould enjoy the office, cum omnibus proficuis, during his life. Afterwards H. did interrupt P. in his office, upon which he brought debt upon the obligation; The defendant pleaded, That ſuch is the cuſtom, That the Admiral might grant the ſame office for the life of the Admural only, and that he is dead, and ſo the office void, and that he did interrupt him, as it was lawfull for him to do; and demanded Judgement of Action; It was demurred upon the defendants plea for theſe cauſes. 1. For that he hath pleaded a cuſtom, ſo as that no Iſſue can be taken upon it; for he ſaith, Quod ufitatum eſt quod Admiralis pro tempore exiſtent non poteſt concedere officium predict. niſi pro termino vitæ ſuæ; and doth not ſay where the Court is holden; nor ſay, Quod talis habetur conſuetudo in Curia, as he ought to do. 2. He doth not ſay, That Curia Admiralis is an Ancient Court; for where a Preſcription is alledged and pleaded in a Court, he ought to ſay it is an ancient Court: in qua talis habetur conſuetudo, &c. 3. Becauſe in the Condition of the Bond, it is ſaid, that they are ſeized of that office to them for their lives, & eorum diutius viventi: therefore he ſhall be eſtopped to ſay, That the grant was good only for the life of the Admiral, becauſe he hath bound himſelf that the other ſhall enjoy it all his life without interruption; wherefore although the office become void by forfeiture, or otherways he cannot have it againſt his own bond: All which Exceptions were allowed of by the Court; and ſo Judgement was given for the Plaintiff. M. 19. Eliz. in B.R. Parker and Heroldes Caſe Godbolt 47.

8. A ſuggeſtion was made to the Court, That a Coroner had not ſufficient Lands within the Hundred; for which a Writ iſſued forth to chooſe another, and one was choſen; it was moved to the Court, if the firſt Coroner did ceaſe to be a Coroner preſently, untill he be diſcharged by Writ: It was the opinion of the Iuſtices, that he ceaſeth preſently; for otherwiſe there ſhould be two officers of one Corenerſhip, which cannot be. Alſo the Writ is, Quod loco I. S. Elegi faciat, &c. aliam Coronatorem, &c. And he cannot be in place of the firſt, if the firſt do not ceaſe to be Coroner. M 29 Eliz. in Com. P. Godbolt 105.

9. In an Action of Falſe Impriſonment, it was agreed by the Court, that a Fine may be aſſeſſed for Vert and Veniſon; and it was ſaid in this caſe by the Iuſtices, that a Regardor is an officer of whom the Law taketh knowledge; and ſo are Iuſtices in Eyre. 2. It was agreed, that of ſuch things of which the Law takes notice, they ought to be pleaded. 3. That if a man in his pleading is to ſet forth the Iuriſdiction of the Iuſtices in Eyre; If he ſay Curia tenta, &c. he need not ſet forth all the formalities of it; and in this caſe alſo, it was ſaid, that if a man doth juſtifie for divers cauſes, and ſome of the cauſes are not good, the ſame doth not make the whole juſtification to be void, but it is void only for that, and good for the reſt. Hill. 26. Iac. in B.R. Web and Tucks Caſe, Godbolt 277.

10. Queen Eliz. An. 15. of her Raign granted to G. Earl of Shrewsbury the Office of Earl Marſhal of England; The Earl came now and prayed that I.S. one of his ſervants, to whom he had granted the office of Marſhal of the Kings Bench, becauſe it is an office incident to his office, and in his power to grant might be admitted ſo to do. And that one K. to whom the Queen had granted the ſaid office of Marſhall of the Kings Bench, might be removed; and a preſident 14. & 11. Eliz. betwixt Gawdy and Verney was ſhewed, Where it was agreed, That the ſaid office, was a ſeveral office, and not incident to it. On the other ſide, Preſidents was ſhewed of the times, H. 2. and R. 2. When the ſaid great office was in the King, he granted the ſaid office of Marſhall of the Kings Bench; and it was moved, that when the great office is in the Kings hands, and the King grants the ſaid under-office, if this office be not ſeverd from the great Office for ever: Wray Chief Juſtice ſaid it was no ſeverance; for the chief office is an office of Dignity, which may remain in the King; but the under officer is an officer of neceſſity, and the King himſelf cannot execute it; by which of neceſſity he ought to grant it: vide 16. E. 3 60. The King ſeized of the Honour of Pickering, to which a Forreſt was appendant; the Bayliffwick of which Forreſt he granted in Fee, rendring rent; and afterwards he granted the Honour with the Appurtenances, and afterwards the Baily committed a forfeiture, and that was found in Eyre; It was holden the Grantee of the Honour ſhould ſeize it: Yet the King ſhould have the Rent; In the principal Caſe it was holden, that the Earl of S. ſhould have this Office in his power to grant, and ſo much the rather, becauſe it was granted but for life. Tr. 31. Eliz. in B.R. The Earl of Shrewsburies Caſe, Leon. 321.

11. Hen. 8. granted to A. & B. Officium unius Auditer. curiæ ſuæ Wardorum, Habend to them

conjunctim & divisim pro termino vitarum suarum & eorum alterius diutius viventis, A. dyed, and then B. dyed. 31. Eliz. the Queen granted to C.D. Officium unius Auditor. curiæ suæ Wardorum: Habend. to the said C. & D. & cuilibet eorum conjunctim & divisim pro termino vitarum suarum, & eorum alterius diutius viventis, 4. Jac. the King granted to E. and F. Officium unius Auditor Habend. post mortem dicti C. & D. & eorum diutius viventis vel a tempore quo Officium illud per surrend. vel quemquam alium modum vacaverit, reciting the grant made to C. and D. E. dyed, Afterwards the King reciting both the said grants, granted Officium prædict. to G. Habend. post mortem C. D. & F. vel aliquem duorum eorum qui citius mori contigerit: C. dyed D. F. & G. living: in the case it was resolved: 1. That the said Letters Patent to A. and B. de Officio unius Auditorum, were good; for although the Act of Parliament of 32. H. 8. c. 46. enacts, that there shall be two persons who shall be called Auditors of the lands, &c. Yet it is but one office, and both are but one officer. 2. That although that two persons called Auditors are but one officer; yet the words in the grant, Conjunctim & divisim & eorum alterius diutius viventis are material; for if the office be granted to two without more for term of their lives, and one dyeth, the grant is void, for being an office of trust, no survivor shall be of it, and therefore the word Conjunctim serves to that purpose, that the survivor shall be one of the persons. 3. Resolved, That the grant made by the King to E. and F. in reversion was void, because an Auditor is a judicial officer, for they are Judges of the Court; and a judicial office cannot be granted in reversion. 4. Resolved, That when one of the persons dyeth, the King might add another to him, and untill another be added, his voyce is suspended, for that both are but one officer. 5. Resolved, That the grant made to G. was void, 1. Because a judicial office cannot be granted in reversion: And, 2. Because the same recites the grant made to E. and F. to be good where it was void; and so the King was deceived in his grant. Cook 11. pt. Auditors. Curtes Case.

12. The King granted unto John Webb, Officium Magist. pilarum palmar Anglice, the office of the Master of the Tennis Plays of the King in Westminster, To have and to hold the said office of Master of the Tennis, as well within the Pallace of Westminster, as of the said Lord the King elsewhere, for and during the term of his natural life; and to take, receive the profits thereof unto his own use; It was resolved, that this was a good grant to him made for life: And of such office it was resolved, no assise of Novel disseisin did lye: Cook 8. pt. 45. John Webb and the Lord Kaevills Case.

13. In an action upon the case for disturbing him to execute the office of Register, it was found by special verdict, That the Bishop of Rochester for the time being had used to grant the office of Register within his Dioces, as well in possession as in reversion for life, to be exercised by such person to whom such grant was made, when it should come in possession per se vel per sufficientem deputatum: And that the Bishop of Rochester before had granted the said office to one W. for life, which grant was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter; and the then Bishop dyed: And that the Bishop of Rochester that now was, had granted the said office of Register to John his son the plaintiff in reversion; who was then an Infant of the age of eleven years at the time of the grant; and they found that the plaintiff was of full age before the tenant for life dyed: And they found, that the Bishop dyed, and that his successor granted the said office to the defendant, who executed many things concerning the said office. 1. It was resolved by all the Justices, That this grant of the office in reversion after the death of the tenant for life, to an Infant of the age of eleven years to be exercised by him and his sufficient deputies, was good. And Scamblers case. 41 Eliz. Cook 1. pt. Instit. 3. where the grant of an office of the Undersheriff, Stewardship, in possession or reversion to an Infant, is void, because he is uncapable thereof, not having knowledge to execute it pro commodo Regis & populi; was denyed to be Law, unless it be with this difference, where it is granted without such clause to exercise the same by himself or his sufficient deputy. 2. It was resolved, That it being found, to be an office usually granted in possession for life, or in reversion for life, that every Bishop for his time might grant the said office, because it is a necessary office, and ought alwayes to be full; and there is not any prejudice to the successor by any such grant, for that he takes not any matter of profit from him: Hill. 14. Car. in B. R. Young and Fowlers Case. Cro. 1. pt. 401. vide Mash. 38, 39. the same case, vide M. 8. Car. B. R. Young and Stoells case. Cro. 1. pt. 103, acc.

14. In an action upon the case, for disturbing the plaintiff to exercise the office of official of an Archdeacon, and of the office of a Commissary of the Bishop, The questions were: 1. If the Patent made to the plaintiff being a Lay person, and not a Doctor of Law of the said offices for life, were good, or were restrained by the statute of 37. H. 8. It was resolved as to that point, that the said statute was but an assistance of the Common Law, and that any Lay person might have hold and enjoy such an office, and that the same was not restrained to Doctors of Law only: but that such persons as have held and been imployed in such offices: And Hill. 35. Eliz. in B. R. in Pratt and Stocks case, a Commissaryship was granted to one who was but a Batchellor of Law, and he granted Administration, and they were holden good: wherefore for that point it was resolved, that the grant was good: The second point was, If the said offices be grantable by the statutes of 1 & 13. Eliz. because it was pretended, they were not parcel of the possession of the Archdeacon or Bishoprick; and so the statutes do not restrain the grants of such offices. But it was resolved that they were within the words and intent of the statutes for they be hereditaments; and resolved, That the grant of the said offices to two where they were before granted but to one for life, and being in reversion, was a void grant by the said statutes against the successor. For the statutes restrain all grants of any thing, unless grants of necessity, and leases for three lives, or twenty one years, upon which the ancient rent is referred; and all other grants, as well of offices as of other things, are void against the successor by the said statutes. Tr. 7. Car. in B. R. Walker and Sir John Lambs Case. Cro. 1. pt. 187.

15. Articles were exhibited before the Commissioners Ecclesiastical against Dr. Sutton, because he being a Divine and having a benefice with cure, and never brought up in the Science of the Civil or Canon Law, nor having knowledge in them, took upon him the office of Chancellor of the Bishop of Glocester against divers Ecclesiastical Canons, and constitutions, and directions from the King, That none should be admitted to the office of a Chancellor of a Bishop, unless he were learned in the Civil and Canon Laws: He being examined, here confessed himself to be a Divine, and that he had a benefice; but shewed that the said office of Chancellorship was granted to him by such a Bishop of Glocester for life, which grant was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter; and therefore prayed a prohibition: but it was denyed by the Court to be granted; for if he be a person unskillfull in those Laws, and by Law ought not to enjoy it, they may examine that there; for although a Lay person by his admission and institution to a benefice hath a freehold; yet he may be sued in the Spiritual Court and be deprived; for that cause the prohibition was denyed. Hill. 2. Car. in Co. B. Dr. Suttons Case. Cro. 1. pt. 47. vide Godbolt. 390, 391.

16. It was resolved by all the Justices, That the offices of Register, Chancellor, and Commissary, of Ecclesiastical Courts, were offices within the statute of 5. E. 6. for although they concern principally matters pro salute animæ, yet they concern also Matrimony and Legitimation, and matters of Legacies for chattels real and personal, and in that respect are Courts of Justice: And therefore those offices in those Courts, are within the said statute which restrains the buying of offices, as in other Courts of the Common Law. Hill. 8. Jac. in B. R. Dr. Ferrers Case. Cro. 2. pt. 269.

17. Note, It was resolved in the case of Sir Arthur Ingram, who bought the office of Coferer, being an office handling the Kings revenew; that he was not only removeable for the present, but for ever after incapable of that office by the statute of 5. E. 6. though he had a Non obstante of the statute in his Patent, for the person being disabled by the statute, could not be enabled by the King. vide Hob. 75. acc.

2. More diverse cases, concerning Offices, Officers, and the grants of them, and the forfeiture of them; and of the punishments of the misdemeanors, in the executing of them: and divers other cases concerning them.

1. IT was found by office in Iac. 9. that Sir George Reynell had forfeited the office of Marshalsey of the Kings Bench by suffering divers voluntary escapes: It was resolved in that case, That the King might seise that office without suing forth a Scire facias. Cook 9. pt. 95. in Sir George Reynells Case.

2. If the King grants the office of Stewardship of the Mannors of D. and S. to an Earl without power to make deputies; nevertheless, in respect of the meanness of the office, to be exercised in a base Court, and the dignity of the person of an Earl, for conveniency it is implyed in Law that he may make a deputy for whom he will answer, so as no prejudice may happen to the King; and the deputies shall execute officium liberum, to hold the Courts and to enter the pleas: And if a Fostership be granted unto an Earl without words to make a deputy, yet he may keep it by his servants: And if a Duke have licence to hunt in a Park, the Law will allow him attendance suitable to his condition. Cook 9. pt. 49. in the Earl of Shrewsburies Case.

3. If an office either of the grant of the King or Subject, which concerns the Administration, proceeding, or execution of Justice, or the Kings revenew, or the Commonwealth, or the interest, benefit, or ſafety of the ſubject, be granted to a man who is unexpert, and hath no skill nor ſcience to exerciſe, or execute the ſame; ſuch a grant is meerly void, and the party diſabled by Law, and uncapable of the ſame: So an Infant or Minor is not capable of the Stewardſhip of a Court, either in poſſeſſion or in reverſion: Nor is a man though never ſo skillfull and expert, capable of a judicial office in reverſion. Alſo the bargaining, or giving of money, or any manner of reward for offices, ſhall make the purchaſes of them void; becauſe it is preſumed he will by bribery, extortion, or other means, make that good to him again, which he layed out and expended in the purchaſe of it, and that with greater advantage. Cook 1. pt. Inſtitutes 3. acc.

4. An action was brought for 20. l. per annum which was agreed to be paid to a Juſtice of Wales for the office of Clerk of Fines; it was reſolved in that caſe, that the action would not lye, for that the Aſſumpſit to pay the money in ſuch caſe was void by the ſtatute of 5. H. 6. for that it is not lawfull to ſell ſuch an office. M. 43 Eliz. in Co. B. Walter & Walters caſe. Goldesbr. 180.

5. Error brought of a judgement in Northampton, becauſe the Court being holden before the Mayor and two Bayliffs, the venire facias upon the iſſue was awarded to the two Bayliffs to return a Jury before the Mayor and Bayliffs ſolam conſuetudinem; which being returned, judgement was given, and that matter aſſigned for error: it was objected, that the Bayliffs being Judges of the Court, could not be officers: but it was reſolved, that it might be good by cuſtom; for the Judges be not the Bayliffs only, but the Mayor and Bayliffs; and one may be Judge and officer in diverſe reſpects, as in Rediſſeiſin the Sheriff is Judge and officer; the judgement was affirmed. M. 4. Car. in B. R. Evans and Hollands Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 98.

6. Aſſiſe brought by Sir I. B. of the office of the Chancellor of the Biſhop of York: An injunction was prayed for the defendant; becauſe the ſaid Sir I. B. was by ſentence and decree in the Star Chamber for bribery and other miſdemeanors, made uncapable of any office of Judicature; and ſo diſabled to hold the office in queſtion: day being given him to ſhew cauſe, he ſhewed a pardon from the late King after the ſentence, wherein was recited all the briberies and offences contained in the decree, and all the penalties and puniſhments by reaſon thereof, and all diſabilities and incapacities by the ſaid pardon were pardoned him, except againſt the fine of 20000. l. granted to the King: it was referred to all the Juſtices and Barons of the Exchequer to conſider of the ſaid decree and pardon, and to certifie the ſame: it was reſolved by all the Juſtices and Barons, That this pardon hath taken away the force of the ſentence in the Star Chamber, except for the 20000. l. fine, and all diſabilities are diſcharged thereby, and that the ſentence never took from him the office, but the execution thereof, or gave authority to place another therein: but it was holden, that if the Biſhop before the pardon and after the ſentence, had appointed him to execute his office, and he did not do it, perhaps the Biſhop for his non attendance might have ſeiſed the office, and have granted it to another; but the ſentence by it ſelf cannot take away the office which is a freehold; and the pardon having taken away all the offences, all the Juſtices were clear of opinion, that the Plaintiff might proceed in his aſſiſe. M. 2. Car. Sir John Bennet and Dr. Eaſtedales Caſe. Cro. 1. pt. 40.

7. In an Action againſt Sir George Reynell for a forfeiture of his office, for ſuffering a priſoner to eſcape, the caſe was, The number of priſoners encreaſing and wanting room in the Marſhalſea, the defendant cauſed a new building adjoyning to the Marſhalſea to be erected, but within the precinct of the ſame, and removed I. S. thither, who was a priſoner in his cuſtody in execution: The queſtion was, whether this was an eſcape in Law or not, and a forfeiture of the defendants office: It was the opinion of the Juſtices, that it was no eſcape, and it was their opinions, That all non-uſes, miſuſes, or miſdemeanors of the officers of their Courts, both in eſcapes and otherwiſe ought to be examined only by the Court; Vide 39. H. 6. 32. ac. and therefore whereas in this caſe all the matter of miſdemeanor was examined in the Chancery, upon iſſue there agreed upon, the Court agreed in this, that all which was done there in Chancery, was only ſo there done ad informandum, and not in any other manner, and not to foreclose and to foreclude this Court of that juriſdiction which doth properly belong to the Court, and to its juriſdiction as to have the examination of all their peculiar offices, in ſuch matters eſpecially as do trench to a forfeiture of their offices; upon which the Jury having received their charge and directions from the Court, found the defendant not guilty of the eſcape for to cauſe a forfeiture of his office. M. 10. Jac. in B. R. Sir Thomas Mead and Sir George Reynell's Caſe. Bolſt. 2. pt. 58, 59.

8. In an Action of falſe impriſonment brought by the plaintiff againſt the defendant, being a Conſtable, for arreſting and impriſoning him; the queſtion was, whether a Conſtable may make a deputy to arreſt one upon a Writ to him directed by a Juſtice of the peace, the Conſtable himſelf being ſick: and whether ſuch a deputy Conſtable upon an action brought againſt him, and found for him, be ſuch a perſon as may plead, and by pleading may have the benefit of the ſtatute of 7. Jac. c. 5. to have double coſts. It was reſolved in this caſe by the whole Court, That a Conſtable may well make a deputy, and a deputy is within the meaning of the ſtatute of 7. Iac. for he is a Conſtable pro tempore: And it was ſaid in this caſe, That Magiſtrates may make deputies: and it was agreed in this caſe, That there are two ſorts of officers, Iudicial and Miniſterial; a Iudicial officer cannot make a deputy, becauſe he is called to do Iuſtice; but it is otherwiſe of a Miniſterial officer, and yet all returns made by a Miniſterial officer ought to be in the name of the principal officer. Hill. 9. Iac. in B.R. Phelps and Winſcombs caſe. Bolſtr. 3. pt. 77.

9. In an Action upon the caſe; the caſe was, The Earl of Pembrook granted the office of the Leiutenancy of the Forreſt of C. to Sir Maurice Berkley and the heirs males of his body, and in the ſaid deed of grant were theſe words, viz. Provided alwaies, and the ſaid Sir Maurice doth covenant and grant, that it ſhall be lawfull for the Earl, his heirs and aſſigns, to have the preheminence of the ſame. Provided alſo, and the ſaid Sir Maurice doth covenant and grant to and with the ſaid Earl, that neither he nor his heirs ſhall or will cut down any timber trees growing in the ſaid walk, &c. Sir Maurice dyed, his ſon cut down timber trees; It was reſolved in this caſe, That although the Proviſo was repeated with an expreſs covenant of the grantee, and every condition ought to be created by the words of the Grantor; yet it was ſaid, that the word Proviſo in this caſe was a condition, although it was mixt with the word covenant: And, 2. In this caſe, it was reſolved, that the cutting down of the ſaid timber trees by the ſon was a breach of the condition, and ſo a forfeiture of the ſaid office: vide Hill. 38. Eliz. The Earle of Pembrook and Sir Maurice Berkleys caſe. Poph. 117, 118.

10. In a Replevin. A. Biſhop was ſeiſed of a Park in the right of his Biſhoprick, and by deed granted the office of keeping of the Park and all profits to it to I. F. the defendant for life, Et ulterius conceſſit pro executione officii predicti. 5 marks, which clauſe of diſtreſs, non cum a Livery, nec non paſturam pro duobus equis una cum the windfalls, which grant was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter in the life of the Biſhop; and ſhewed that this Park had been anciently granted with the fee of five marks and for 33 s. 4 d behinde; avowed the taking of the cattel, The plaintiff ſhewed the ſtatute of 1. Eliz. and ſaid that this paſture was a larger fee then was ever granted before, and upon that the Avowant demurred in Law: This caſe depended long and was argued by the Juſtices; and at laſt it was reſolved for the Avowant, that the grant was good and ſtood good for the old and ancient fee of five marks and other profits: and was void only as to the paſturage of the two horſes: Paſ. 1. Car. in Co. B. The Biſhop of Chicheſter and Freelands caſe. Lea. 78.

11. Note, It was holden in the Exchequer Chamber: That whereas the Queen had granted to one Pelham, That he ſhould not be Bayliff, Conſtable, nor other officer, nor Miniſter, Licet eligatur; That if the king make him Sheriff of a County, that he ſhall not be diſcharged by that Patent, for that ſuch offices do not extend to Royal offices: As a grant of Amercements ſhall not extend to Amercements Royal: and alſo the making of a Sheriff is not by election, but only by denomination of the Queen. So that if he have not theſe words, licet eligatur per nos, he ſhall be Sheriff: and it was ſaid that ſuch alſo was the opinion of Bromley Lord Chancellor Paſ. 14. Eliz. in Exchequer Chamber. Pelhams caſe. Godb. 11.

12. In treſpaſs, it was found by ſpecial verdict, That A. was Churchwarden of the Pariſh of H. and B. was overſeer of the poor of that Pariſh. That a rate was made by the inhabitants of H. for a relief for the poor of the Pariſh: That the plaintiff was an inhabitant of T. not having lands in H. but having lands in T. and was rated to the relief of the poor of H. which rate was allowed by Juſtices of the Peace of the County, according to the ſtatute; and the plaintiff refuſing to pay it by warrant from the Juſtices of the Peace, they diſtrained the plaintiffs goods and ſold them, &c. And it was found, that the Town of T. was anciently parcel of the Pariſh of H. and that there was not any legal act to ſever them from the ſaid Pariſh. And that there is no Parſon of T. and that the Parſon of H. uſed to finde a Curate at F. It was found, that at the time of the making of the ſtatute of 43. Eliz. for relief of the poor, and ever ſince, the Town of T. was reputed a Pariſh of it ſelf, and had Conſtables, Churchwardens & Overſeers of the poor, and that ratements, levies, and aſſeſſements had been made there for the relief of the poor of F. which were levyed by the proper officers without payment of the poor of H. or joyning in any aſſeſſement with the Town of H. and had alſo all particular rights; and that the inhabitants of T. have not uſed to contribute to the reparation of the Church of H. It was reſolved in this caſe, That F. being ſo long a Pariſh in reputation before the ſtatute, it ſhould not be now charged to H. And whereas it was ſaid, that the defendants were not guilty, becauſe what they did, they did by Warrant from the Juſtices of Peace, ſo they did it as officers and ſo excuſable: The exception was diſallowed; for the rate being unduely taxed, the Warrant of the Juſtices of Peace will will not excuſe; and it is not like where an officer makes an arreſt by Warrant out of the K. Courts, which if it be erroneous, the officer muſt not contradict, becauſe the Court hath the general juriſdiction: but the Juſtices of Peace have but a particular juriſdiction; it was adjudged for the plaintiff. Office before the Eſcheator.

1. Where the King ſhall ſeiſe lands without office: and when and where the poſſeſſions ſhall be veſted and ſetled in the King preſently upon office: and what ſhall be ſaid to be a good office to entitle the King, what not.

1. KIng Hen. 8. gave lands to Tho. Culpeper in tail, the remainder to I. C. in tail; T. C. is attainted by Parliament, and the actual ſeiſin of the land given to the King without office, ſaving rights, title, reverſions, &c. to ſtrangers: The King afterwards granted the land to B. in fee: T. C. dyed without iſſue; I. C. entred, and ouſted by B. he brought Entre ſur diſſeiſin; and counted ut de libero tenemento; B. ſhewed the whole matter and diſcent of the Seignory to E. 6. and prayed in aid of him dependant which a Mandamus was awarded at the ſuit of B. and upon that, the grant in tail to T. C. was only found, and a falſe date of the Letters Patent; after upon a melius inquirendum, the very date was found; but the attainder and execution was found before the grant upon a miſtake to the year of the raign, for the apparant untruth of which the demandant was put to a Petition, or Monſtrans de droit; the plaintiff traverſeth that the Queen was not ſeiſed in Dominio ſuo ut de feodo; and iſſue being joyned upon that, it was the opinion of the Court, that the matter in law would not maintain that, for that the Kings baſe fee was determined by the death of T. C. without iſſue: and the King was not in poynt of Reverter becauſe of the mean intereſt; and it was holden, that the entry of the demandant was ſaved by the Act of Parliament. M 8. M. Dyer 100.

2. A man purchaſed lands of the Queen which was parcel of the poſſeſſions of the Duke of S. who was attainted of Treaſon; of which purchaſe the office was found; and if the Patent was void by the ſtatute of 18. H. 6. c. 6. which is, that no Letters Patent ſhall be made to any perſon or perſons of any lands before inquiſition of the Kings title found and returned in the Chancery or Exchequer, if the Kings title in the ſame be not found of record; and if any Letters Patent be made to the contrary, they ſhall be void and holden null. Notwithſtanding that the Act of his attainder veſts the actual and real poſſeſſion in the King without office: it was holden that the Letters Patent in the principal caſe were good; becauſe the Act of attainder is found in the Chancery and Exchequer on record; and it was holden that that ſtatute of 18. H. 6. c. 6. was made to reform grants and leaſes made by the Chancellor, Treaſurer, or other Officers mean between the finding of the offices, and the return of them; and that the ſame did not extend to grants made in feeſimple, or in feetail Paſ. 1. M. Dyer 145, 146.

3. King E. 6 granted to Sir Robert Cheſter the office of receiver of four ſeveral Counties: In 4. H. 6. he was found in arreares upon his account before the Auditor, and did not pay in the arreares according to an Ordinance made for the payment of the ſame within certain dayes: It was holden by the Court in this caſe, that there needed not any office to be found of this to repeal the Letters Patent; but yet the ſtatute was not found: for he being an officer of record, there ought to be a Scire facias upon record to repeal the ſame. Hill. 4 Eliz. Dyer 211. Sir Robert Cheſters Caſe.

4. A. Tenant in Knights Service of Lands holden of C. as of his Mannor of D. which Mannor was holden in Capite, levied a Fine thereof, and by the ſame took back an eſtate to himſelf for life, the remainder to his wife for life, the remainder to the right heirs of the husband, C. being within age: It was found by office in the County of Middleſex, that he held the Mannor of B. &c. and that he was not in Ward. The King granted the Wardſhip during the Minority to P. except Maridis & maritagiis; A. died having two ſons, his wife entred; the eldeſt ſon died, the youngeſt Son within age: It was holden in this caſe (amongſt other points) that the grant made by the King to P. was void, becauſe no office was found in the County where the Mannor did lye. M. 2. Eliz. Dyer 171. Lanes Caſe.

5. I. S. ſeiſed of Land, having iſſue two daughters, made a gift in Tail to his eldeſt daughter, the remainder to his own right heirs, and died; the daughter entred, and was attainted of Treaſon, 31. H. 8. by Parliament, and it was enacted, that ſhe ſhould forfeit, &c. ſaving to ſtrangers, their rights, titles, reverſions, and remainder, but there was no word of (entries) in the Act. It was reſolved in this caſe (amongſt other things) that the entry of the other daughter, for her moyetie was lawfull upon the Patentee of the King, becauſe the Act of Parliament had not put the King in poſſeſſion without office found. Tr. 16. Eliz. Dyer 325. Sir William Sayes Caſe.

6. Note, it was holden, That if the King under the Great Seal, or under his Privy Seal, doth command one who departed beyond Sea without Licenſe to return by a certain day within the Realm, and he refuſeth to return; In that caſe he ſhall forfeit his Lands, Goods, & Chattels, and they ſhall be ſeized into the Kings hands for his contempt, although it be not found by office, or otherwiſe. Vide 19. E. 2. William de Bretaigne Caſe. Hill 3. Ma. Dyer 128.

7. A Thief ſtole goods in a Franchiſe, where the Lord had Waiſe and Eſtrayes; and before they were ſeized by the Lord, or his Bayliff, the goods (being ſheep) eſtrayed into the Franchiſe of another Lord, who likewiſe had Waiſe and Eſtrays; the Queſtion was, to which Lord they did appertain; it was ſaid, that the property of them ſhould be in the firſt Lord, as it ſhould have been in them, to whom the property of them did belong without any ſeizure; But Catlyn Juſtice ſaid, that that was in the King by his Prerogative only; but that Prerogative was grantable to any other; and therefore conſented that the paſture of the ſheep was in him who made the ſeiſure of them. Tr. 11. Eliz. Dyer 288.

8. A. being Sheriff of the County of D. for the term of his life, was endicted for the eſcape of felons, felonice & voluntarie. It was the opinion of the Juſtice, that the ſaid office of Sheriffrick, might be ſeiſed in the Kings hands quouſque, &c. without any Scire facias, or other proces awarded againſt the party. M. 4. M. Dyer 151. Sir Johs Savages Caſe.

9. In Intruſion it was found, that A. was ſeized of divers Meſſuages, &c. and by Deed Indented, &c. enrolled, bargained, and ſold all his Lands, Meſſuages, &c. lying in the Pariſh of St. Andrews Holborn in the tenure and occupation of I.L. for life, the remainder to C. in Fee; B entred, and took husband, who made a Leaſe for years: A. is attainted of treaſon; the King granted all the ſaid Meſſuages to D. and his heirs; Proviſo, that if they were not concealed, that the Letters Patents ſhould be void. It was reſolved in this caſe (amongſt other things,) 1. That by the common Law the Lands in Fee-ſimple, and by the Statute of 26. H. 8. for Lands in tail, the actual poſſeſſion was not in the King by attainder before office: But when Tenant in Fee ſimple is attainted of Treaſon, and dyeth, there the Fee and Freehold ſhall be in the King for neceſſity, without office found, becauſe a Freehold cannot be in abeyance; but otherwiſe it is if Tenant in tail be attainted, the ſame ſhall deſcend to his Iſſue until office be found; for the Act of 26. H. 8. gives only forfeiture, and attainder is no corruption of blood for lands in tail, until the ſtatute of 33. H. 8. cap. 20. 2. Reſolved, that although by the Statute of 33. H. 8 the King ſhall be in actual poſſeſſion without Office; Yet when the Diſſeiſee is attainted of Treaſon, preſently by the attainder the King had but a Right; and if the Diſſeiſee at the Common Law be attaintod of Treaſon, and the ſeiſin and diſſeiſin be found by office, the poſſeſſion ſhall not be in the King without a Scire facias or ſeizure at the leaſt, becauſe when a ſtranger is ſeiſed at the time of the office found, the King ſhall not be in poſſeſſion without ſeizure: Cook 3. pt. 10. & 11. Downes Caſe.

10. Note it was reſolved (amongſt other points) That when the Kings Tenant in Fee dieth ſeiſed without heir, the fee and the Freehold is preſently in the king without office found of the Kings Tenant was in poſſeſſion at the time of his death; but where a ſtranger is in poſſeſſion at the time of the Eſcheat, there the King ſhall not be adjudged in poſſeſſion until this ſeiſin or poſſeſſion be removed; and when no man is in poſſeſſion, the Law will adjudge the King in poſſeſſion according to his title; but if the heir be diſſeiſed, and dyeth without Iſſue, or if an Alien born, or villein of the King be diſſeiſed, there the King ſhall not be in poſſeſſion, untill the poſſeſſion of the Diſſeiſor be removed: Cook 4. pt. 56. in the Caſe of the Ward and Commonalty of Sadlers.

11. The King granted the office of Marſhal-Sea of the Kings Bench for life, and afterwards granted the Reverſion of it for 21. years, he in the reverſion aſſigned his Intereſt: Tenant for life deputed I.S. in the office, who permitted ſeveral priſoners in Execution to eſcape; which was found by Office: In this caſe theſe points (amongſt others) were reſolved: 1. That in this caſe the King might ſeize the office, without ſuing forth a Scire facias; And in this caſe, theſe differences were taken and agreed: 1. That in ſome caſes, the King ſhould be in poſſeſſion by ſeizure without office, as in the Caſe of the Temporals of a Biſhop or of Prior Aliens, becauſe the certainty thereof appears in the Exchequer. 2. In ſome caſes the king ſhall be in poſſeſſion by the office, without any

any ſeizure, as of Lands, Offices, Cuſtody of Lands, &c. whereof continual profit may be taken, as where it is found by office that a Condition is broken, or that a perſon attainted was ſeiſed of lands; 3. In ſome caſes, the king ſhall be in poſſeſſion by ſeizure and office, as in caſe of an Advowſon, the rightfull Patron ſhall not be ouſted of it by a falſe office found of it before the king hath preſented, and his Clerk admitted, and inſtituted; for if the king bring a Quare Impedit in that caſe, the party may reverſe the office. 4. In ſome caſes the king ſhall be in poſſeſſion without office or ſeiſure; as where the kings Tenant dyeth without heir: And 5. In all caſes where a common perſon is put to his action, there upon an office found, the king is put to his Scire facias; but when a common perſon may enter or ſeize, there an office without a Scire facias will ſuffice for the king. Cook 9 pt. 95, 96. Sir George Reynels Caſe.

See for this point of this diviſion, Cook 11. pt. 12. in Priddle and Nappers caſe: where the poſſeſſion ſhall be veſted and ſetled in the king, his Heirs, and Succeſſors, without ſeizure or office found.

12. A. ſeiſed of Lands in Fee, by Indenture, in conſideration of blood Covenanted with B. his Nephews, to ſtand ſeiſed to the uſe of himſelf for life; and afterwards to the uſe of B. in tail, the remainder to the right heirs of B. Proviſo if the ſaid A. made by himſelf, or by another during his natural life, tender to the ſaid B. of a Ring of Gold to the intent to make void the ſaid uſes, that then the ſaid uſes ſhould be void. Afterwards A. 26. Eliz. was attainted of Treaſon done beyond Sea, and outlawed for it; the king by his Letters Patents Let the Lands to C. and D. for 40 years; the attainder was confirmed by Act of Parliament, 28. Eliz. and by another Act of the ſame Parliament it is enacted, That the ſaid Act ſhould not extend to make any leaſe made by the king after the Treaſon committed, void: And by another Act of the ſame Parliament it is enacted, That all perſons which claim any eſtate or intereſt in the lands of any perſon attainted, not revoked ſince 28. Eliz. ſhall within two years after the Seſſion of Parliament, ſhew and bring into his Majeſties Court of Exchequer, his, or their Grant, Conveyance, or Aſſurance, then the effect thereof to be entred and enrolled of Record, or elſe the conveyance and aſſurance to be void. The king in his Letters Patents reciting the ſaid Proviſo, and that the benefit of it is given him by the Act of Parliament, authoriſed E. to deliver the Ring of gold to B. to the intent to make void the ſaid uſe: He reads the Patent to B. and makes a tender of it to him, which he refuſeth; and certifies the whole matter into the Exchequer. It was reſolved in this caſe (amongſt other things) that this condition was given to the Queen by the attainder of A. as well by the Act of his attainder, as by the ſtatute of 33. H 8. which gives the forfeiture of conditions by expreſs words, in caſe of Treaſon; and whereas it was objected, that there ought to have been an office for the finding the performance of the condition according to the warrant; To that it was anſwered and reſolved, that that needed not, becauſe when any man is to do a thing by warrant of Letters Patent for the Queen to be returned in any Court, it ſufficeth for him to return it, which in this caſe he hath done according to the Letters Patents, with the warrant it ſelf; and then that which is returned is as well of Record, as if it were found by office, and returned of Record; and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged. 16. 13. One N.M. ſeiſed of lands in Fee, took a wife and levied a Fine of the ſaid lands with Proclamation, and afterwards was indicted, and outlawed of High Treaſon, and died. The Conuſees convey the lands to the Queen, who is ſeiſed: the 4. years paſs after the death of the husband; the daughters and heirs of the ſaid N.M. reverſe the attainder by Error in B.R. the wife thereupon ſueth to the Queen (who was ſeized of the land as aforeſaid) by Petition, containing all the ſpecial matter: viz. the Fine, the death of her husband, the attainder, and the reverſal of it, and her own title; viz. her marriage, ſeiſin of her husband before the Fine. The Queen upon the Petition, endorſeth Fiat Brevi; it was objected in this caſe, that the wife could not have any Petition, becauſe there was not any office by which her title of Dower was found: viz. her marriage, ſeiſin of the husband, and death: But it was reſolved, that it needed not in this caſe, becauſe the title of Dower ſtood with the Queens titles; and affirmed it otherwiſe of the title of the Demandant, in the Petition had diſaffirmed the Queens title: alſo in this caſe the Queen was not entituled by any office, that the wife ſhould be driven to traverſe it; for there ſhe ought to have an office to finde her title: But in caſe of Dower, although that office had been found for the Queen, which doth not diſaffirm the title of Dower, in ſuch caſe the wife ſhall have her Petition without office, becauſe the Dower is favoured in Law. ſhe claiming only for term of life, and affirming the title of the Queen: Hill. 27. 14. The king in the right of his Dutchy of L. (Lord)

(Lord) R. H. ſeized of the Mannor of M. in the County of L. holden of the king as of his Dutchy, (Meſne) R. M. ſeiſed of Lands in M. holden of the Meſne, as of his Mannor, by Knights Service: (Tenant) R.H. died, 31.H.8. It was found, that he died ſeiſed of the ſaid Menalty, and that it deſcended to E. his ſon and heir, &c. and during the time he was within age, R.M. the Tenant died: After which 35. H.8. it was found, that R H. died ſeiſed of the ſaid Tenement, & that the ſame deſcended to R. H. his ſon and heir within age; and that the Tenancy was holden of the king as of his Dutchy of L. by Knights ſervice, whereas in truth the ſame was holden of Ed. Holme, then in Ward to the king as of his Menalty; for which cauſe the king ſeiſed the heir of the Tenant. Afterwards 4. Jac. after the death of R.H. it was found, that the ſaid Rich. died ſeiſed of the ſaid Tenancy, and held the ſame of the king by Knights ſervice, his heir within age. Whereupon the Coſen and heir of Rich. preferred his Bill to be admitted to traverſe the office 4. Jac. The Queſtion was, whether the office found 35. It was reſolved by the Juſtices, Aſſiſtants to the Court of Wards, that the ſaid former office found 35.H.8. was no concluſion or Eſtoppel to the Plaintiff to traverſe the ſaid office, becauſe king Hen.8. had received the fruit and benefit which was then due to him by the former office: And in this caſe, it was further reſolved, That when the king cometh to the poſſeſſion by a falſe office, or other means upon a pretence of right, where in truth he hath no right, if it appeareth, that the king hath any other right or intereſt to have the Land, none ſhall traverſe the office or title of the king. 2. Where an Office found ſhall be void for incertainty, repugnancy, or for other defects in it; where not; and where void for other inſufficiencies; where not.

1. A Man ſeiſed of lands holden of the Queen in Capite, conveyed the ſame in his life time by Act executed to his Baſtard ſon, and d'ed: Office is found of this eſtate, but it was not found by the office that he was Baſtard, or that he was heir to the Donor. It was holden in this caſe, that the 3. part ſhould not be in Ward; for that a Baſtard is not within the ſtatute of 32. H.8. for the children within that ſtatute are intended lawfull children, and a Baſtard eſt nullius filius. But whereas it was not found in the office, that he was heir of the Donor, it was holden that the defect of that might be ſupplied by an averment; and ſuch ſuggeſtion ſhall not be repugnant, but a ſupplement to the office. M.13. Eliz. Dyer 296.

2. It was holden by office found virtute brevis, before the Eſcheator, That I.S. was ſeiſed of a Mannor, and held the ſame of the Queen by knights ſervice; the heir alſo was found within age. It was alſo found before the Eſcheator in another County, that the ſaid I.S. died ſeiſed of another Mannor, and held the ſame of B.C. by knights ſervice. The queſtion was, If B.C. might not traverſe the firſt office; the opinion of the Court was, that if the truth be ſuch, that the firſt Mannor was not holden in Capite; that in ſuch caſe the ſaid R.C. ſhould be put to his Traverſe; becauſe the beſt ſhall be intended for the king, viz. that it is a Tenure in chief; and the office firſt found ſhall not be void. Tr. 4. Ma. Dyer 761.

3. Upon a Diem clauſit extremum, a Tenure is found; but by what ſervice, the Jury are ignorant, whereupon a Melius inquirendum iſſued; and upon that it was found that the Tenure was of a ſubject. It was the opinion of the whole Court, that the firſt office needed not to be traverſed, but that it was void by the ſtatute of 1. E.6. cap 8. and it was holden, that the Melius inquirendum is but in the nature of the firſt Diem clauſit extrem m. Tr. Eliz. Dyer 291.

4. If an office be found againſt the king, and a Melius inquirendum is awarded, and in that, It is found for the king; but the Melius is void for repugnancy in the Writ; a new Writ of Melius inquirendum ſhall be awarded: But if upon the Writ of Melius, it be found againſt the king, there the king ſhall not have a new Writ of Melius, for then there ſhould be no end, but Writs infinite; and if the office be found for the king, the party grieved may traverſe it; and if the traverſe be found againſt him, the ſame makes an end of the matter, and he is concluded by it; and ſo it is that if it be found for him that traverſeth, it ſhall binde the king. Cook 8. part 168. Stoughtons Caſe.

5. It was found by office, 32. Eliz. That A. was ſeiſed of three Meſſuages, and made his Will in writing, and gave in hac verba, &c. and found ſeveral Tenures of common perſons, and no lands holden of the king, and then they finde that

An. 23. Aprilis died, B. his ſon within age. Afterwards 5. Jac. a Mandamus is awarded after the death of A. whereby part of the Lands are found to be held at the death of A. of the late Queen by knights ſervice in Capite; and at the taking of the ſaid laſt inquiſition, where held of the king in Capite by knights ſervice, and Ignoramus of the reſt. It was the opinion of the Juſtices, Aſſiſtants to the Court of Wards, That the office finding no dying ſeiſed, and only a tenure of common perſons, was meerly void. But they ſaid, if any tenure in Capite, or by knights ſervice had been found for the king, and no dying ſeiſed; yet the office had not been void, but only voidable; and that a Melius inquirendum ſhould be awarded, to enquire of what eſtate he was ſeiſed. Paſc 9. Jac. in Cur. Ward Shellocks Caſe. Lea. 36.

6. Upon a Mandamus, after the death of Jo. Foss, it was found that he was ſeized in his demeſn as of Fee of the Mannor of S. in B. and that he being ſo ſeiſed, poſtea 10. Martii, 43. Eliz. did thereof enfeoff W. to the uſe of himſelf for life, the remainder to in Fee; and then the office concluded: *Quod predict. J. 7. An office was found by Commiſſioners after the death of W. D. M. 10. Jac. in Cur. Ward. Dawtries Caſe. Hob. 38.

8. It was found by Mandamus, 6. Jac. That George Earl of Cumberland was ſeized to him, and the heirs Males of his body of the Mannors of A. and B. the remainder to I. C. in tail with diverſe rem. over the rem. to the right heirs of H. Earl of C. Father of the ſaid George: and that G. ſo ſeized by Fine and Recovery, conveyed them to the uſe of himſelf, and M. his wife for their lives for the joynture of the ſaid M. the remainder to the heirs male of the body of George, and for want of ſuch iſſue, to Francis Earl of C. and the heirs males of his body, the remainder to the right heirs of George: And afterwards by another Indenture conveyed the Fee-ſimple to Francis Earl: Afterwards 4. Octob. 3. Iac. George died without heir Male of his body, and it was found that M. Counteſs of C. was alive, and took the profits from the death of George. It was objected, That here was no dying ſeiſed found by office; and therefore the office was inſufficient. It was anſwered, and reſolved, That by this office the king was not enetituled by the Common Law; for then the finding of a dying ſeiſed was neceſſary: But this office was to be maintained upon the ſtatutes of 32. and 34. H. 8. by force of which no dying ſeiſed is requiſite, if the land be conveyed to the wife: and ſo it was ſaid it was reſolved, 23. Eliz. in Vincents caſe; where all the land in Capite was conveyed to the younger ſon, and yet the eldeſt ſon was in Ward. 2. Reſolved that this office was ſufficient prima facie for the king, becauſe it is a thing collaterall and no point of the Writ; and if any ſuch alienation be (which ſhall not be intended) the ſame ſhal come in of the other part of the alienee by a Monſtrans de Droit: Tr. 7. 9. By Diem clauſit extremum, it was found that I. B. was ſeiſed of a Meſſuage, or Tenement of and in a 4th. part of an acre of Land parcel of the Demeans of the Mannor of N. in Fee: It was holden by the Chief Iuſtices, and Chief Baron in this Caſe, 1. That the words, Meſſuagium vel Tenementum, were uncertain, and therefore the office void for incertainty. 2. That it was void for the whole, becauſe that no Town is mentioned in the office, where the Meſſuage, or Tenement, or 4th. part of the Acre doth lie; and upon a Viſne from the Mannor none can come, becauſe it is not affirmed by the office, that they are parcel of the Mannor, but nuper parcel of the Mannor, which impleyth, that they now are not parcel: But a Melius Inquirendum was awarded, becauſe the whole office was void and incertain. 11. In a Quare impedit, the plaintiff counted, That R. G. was ſeiſed of the Mannor in the right of B. his wife and ſo ſeiſed, he and his wife levied a fine thereof to a ſtranger ſur conuſant de droit, &c. who rendred it to the husband and wife for their lives, the remainder to the heirs of the body of the husband, the remainder to the right heirs of the husband; and they ſo ſeiſed, the husband alone levyed a fine to a ſtranger, who rendred it to the husband and wife in tail, the remainder to the heirs of the body of the husband, the remainder to the right heirs of the husband: the husband dyed ſeiſed, the wife entred and leaſed the Mannor to the plaintiff, and then the Church became void: Now on the behalf of the Queen, an office was ſhewed into the Court, which office did purport, That the ſaid R. G. was ſeiſed of the ſaid Mannor, and held the ſame of the Queen by knights ſervice in chief, and that the ſaid R. G. dyed, ſed quis ſit propinquior hæres penitus ignorat, and therefore prayed a Writ to the Biſhop for the Queen: exceptions was taken to the office, becauſe it was not found that the ſaid R. G. dyed ſeiſed, and it might be that after the ſaid fine he had conveyed his eſtate in the lands to others, or that he was diſſeiſed. But to that it was anſwered and reſolved, that the defect of the office was ſupplyed by the Conut, for there it is expreſly alledged that the ſaid R. G. dyed ſeiſed. 2. Objected, that no heir was found by the ſaid office; it was anſwered, that perhaps the ſame had been a good exception at the Common Law; but that is remedied by the ſtatute of 34. H. 8. and therefore as to the wife, the Queen is entituled to Primer ſeiſin, becauſe the conveyance was made for her advancement; and it was in this caſe reſolved, that it was in the election of the wife, which eſtate ſhe would have; either that by the firſt fine, or that by the ſecond: and the Court was clear of opinion, that upon the matter a Writ ought not be granted to the Biſhop for the Queen; and it was holden by the whole Court, that the Tenure alledged, modo et forma, could not be a Tenure in chief, for that it is ſaid, that the land is holden of the king, as of the Caſtle of Dover in Capite. 1. A Writ of Mandamus, after the death of the Lord Powes, was awarded to the Eſcheator; the Jury being agreed of their verdict, delivered it to the Eſcheator in paper before the engroſſing and ſealing of it: a Superſedeas came to the Eſcheator: there was a miſtake in the word Superſedeas; for it was in the Writ Superdeas, omitting ſe: It was holden by the Court, that the office ought to be delivered by Indenture under the hands and ſeals of the Jurors; and it was holden, that the Eſcheator in that caſe, do make return of it in the Chancery, and of all the ſpecial matter: and then vail que vail parvit. But afterwards it was ruled, that a Superſedeas did not lye in this caſe; nor in a Diem clauſit extremum: M. 2. Eliz. Dyer 170.

2. In the caſe of Altonwoods, exception was taken to an office, found (to entitle the king:) before the Eſcheator virtute officii, becauſe the ſame was returned into the Chancery, whereas it ought to have been returned into the Exchequer; for it was ſaid, That offices found virtute brevis returnable in the Chancery, ought to be returned in the Chancery; but offices found virtute officii, found before the Eſcheator, ought to be returned into the Exchequer: but the exception was diſallowed by the Court upon the view of infinite preſidents of offices found virtute officii returned into the Chancery: and it was found in that caſe by the Juſtices, that the office was ſufficient to entitle the king, although it were never returned; for upon examination of the Eſcheator, if it appeareth that he hath ſeiſed the lands into the kings hands, it is ſufficient. Cook 7. rr. 16. The caſe of Swans.

4. Note the difference betwixt an office of Inſtruction, and an office entituling: for it was ſaid by the Iuſtices, That a condition under the Exchequer ſeal, and a return thereof was ſufficient to inſtruct the kings officers to ſeiſe a Mannor and certain parcells of lands, which were pretended to be concealed from the king; and that the ſame ſerveth for a ſufficient record for that purpoſe: but an office found by force of a Commiſſion under the Exchequer ſeal, was not ſufficient to entitle the king in caſe of attainder of felony, Mortmain, Ceſſavit or the like. Cook 10. pt. 115. in the end of Legats Caſe.

5. It was found by office taken before the Eſcheator vi. tutæ brevis, That A. dyed ſeiſed of lands holden of the king by knights ſervice, and that his heir was within age: It was the opinion of the Iuſtices, that in that caſe it ſhall be intended in Capite; but whereas it was found before the Eſcheator in another County, That the ſame A. held of B. other lands by knights ſervice, there it was holden that B. was put to his traverſe of the tenure in Capite at the Common Law. Paſ. 5. M. Dyer 161.

6. It was found by office taken at B. in the County of H. That Sir John P. knight, and the Lady I. his wife, were joyntly ſeiſed to them and their heirs of the Mannor of D. in the County of H. and of the Mannor of K. in the County of L. and ſo ſeiſed, that the ſaid Sir I. P. being likewiſe ſeiſed of the Mannor of S. in the ſaid County of H. and of the Mannor of T. in the County of W. dyed ſeiſed, that the Lady I. his wife ſurvived him, and that the Mannor of D. was only holden of the king in Capite, and that the reſt of the Mannors were holden in ſocage, and not of the king in Capite or knights ſervice, and that T. P. was his ſon and heir of the age of four years, That the Lady I. dyed 9. Iac. T. P. 10. Iac. was made knight, and 19 Iac. he was of full age and tendred his Livery, and ſued forth a ſpecial Livery; no office being found of the death of the Lady I. and upon the ſpecial Livery there was a ſpecial pardon of all entries and intruſions: The Auditors ſince the ſpecial Livery impoſed charges upon the heir; One was ad computandum pro meliore valore: It was reſolved by the Iuſtices in this caſe, That the Auditor can ſet no charge, nor award proces to anſwer any charge, but upon a record, as an office or the like: But yet if an office be found only in one County of all the lands, lying as well in other Counties as there, which in Law is no office, but for the proper County; yet by the courſe of the Court of Wards, this is allowed as an office to all to ground a charge and proces upon, and this is beneficial to the ſubject, who elſe by divers offices would be put to intolerable charges. 1. IF an Ideot above the age of twenty one years, being an Ideot a Nativitate, maketh a feoffment in fee of his inheritance, if it be found by office at the kings ſuit, That he was Ideot a Nativitate, and that he hath aliened his lands, then upon a Scire facias againſt the alienee, the lands ſhall be ſeiſed into the kings hands, and the inheritance ſhall be reveſted in the Ideot; for the ſtatute is, Quod poſt mortem eorum reddatur eam rectis hæredibus, which the king cannot do, nor can the king have the poſſeſſion of the lands to his own uſe, if not that by office and ſeiſure ſuch conveyance made by the Ideot be deſtroyed: But when all is found by office, by inquiſition at the kings ſuit, ſuch office when it is found, ſhall have relation à tempore nativitatis, to avoid all mean acts made by an Ideot as feoffments, releaſes, &c. Alſo by the Common Law, The king ſhall have as great protection of the goods and chattels of an Ideot as of his lands; and as after office found, he cannot alien, give, &c. ſo alienations gifts made before office found, ſhall be avoided after office found, for that no lacheſe ſhall be accounted in the king; nor no prejudice thereby ſhall accrue to the Ideot for not ſuing the office before the feeoffment or gift; but if the Ideot dyeth before office found, after his death no office can be found, and without office, the king cannot be entituled. Cook 4. pt. 127. in Beverlies Caſe.

2. A Prior ſeiſed of divers houſes, with the conſent of his covenant made a leaſe of them for years, rendring rent of 5. l. 10. s. 11. d. at four uſual Feaſts, upon condition that if the rent were behinde in part or in all, at any of the ſaid Feaſts, then he and his ſucceſſors to reenter: The Priory came to the king by ſurrender; the king by his Letters Pattent under the great ſeal, granted one of the houſes to the leſſee, and another in fee; and after, it was found by commiſſion under the Exchequer ſeal, that parcell of the ſaid rent was behinde at one of the ſaid Feaſts; The king before the commiſſion returned, granted the reſt of the houſes to I. S. in fee. It was reſolved in this caſe amongſt other points, That although without office the leaſe was not void, and that although the office was not returned before the date of the Letters Pattent made to I. S. yet foraſmuch as the office was found before the grant, and afterwards it was returned of record; it was holden, that the grant was good, and that in this caſe of reentry without ſeiſure, the leaſe was void. Cook 5. pt. 56. Knights caſe.

3. A Ideot à Nativitate, by force of a remainder after the death of his Father was joyntly ſeiſed with his elder brother; for term of their lives the leſſor did purchaſe the eſtate of the elder brother, and took the body of the Ideot and the profits of his lands; and afterwards it was found by inquiſition that he was an Ideot; it was reſolved in this caſe amongſt other things, That the office ſhould have relation from the time of the Nativity, to avoid alienations, incumbrances, and mean acts done by the Ideot; but for the mean profits that it ſhould not have relation, but from the time of the office found. Paſ. 8. Iac. Cook 8. pt. 170. Tourſons caſe.

More Office found before the Eſcheator.

1. IF the kings tenant by knight ſervice dyeth, his heir within age, and upon office found the king ſeiſeth the body and lands, yet the heir during the poſſeſſion of the king may ſell the land by deed enrolled, or make a leaſe of ſuch lands, and the ſame ſhall binde the heir notwithſtanding the poſſeſſion of the king; but if he maketh a feeoffment in fee, it is utterly void, for that it is an incruſion upon the kings poſſeſſion; but where the king by office found is intituled to the inheritance, as that his tenant dyeth without heir (whereas it is falſe) for which the king ſeiſeth in ſuch caſe, the kings tenant before his Ouſter le main ſued cannot make a leaſe for years, or ſell the land by deed inrolled; The principal caſe was; The king by colour of a falſe office which doth falſly intitle to the inheritance, is ſeiſed of certain land; he who had right, leaſed the ſame for years by deed indented. and then an Ouſter le main was ſued, and he enfeoffed a ſtranger. It was holden that the leaſe ſhould not binde the feoffee, although it was by deed indented; for the feoffee is a ſtranger to the Indenture, and therefore ſhall not be eſtopped by it. M. 31. Eliz. in Co. B. Leon. 157.

2. A tenant in Capite made a leaſe to B. for 1000. years, and covenanted with B. and his heirs, that upon payment of 5. s. that he and his heirs would ſtand ſeiſed of the lands to the uſe of B. and his heirs, and in the deed were the ordinary clauſes of a conveyance bona fide, viz. that the leſſee ſhould enjoy the lands diſcharged of all incumbrances, and that he would make further aſſurance. B. aſſigned his intereſt to C. who dyed in poſſeſſion, his heir within age: and in two offices the Jury would not finde a Tenure becauſe of the leaſe for years; but in a Que plura; the matter came in queſtion in the Court of Wards: It was the opinion of the two Chief Juſtices and Chief Baron, aſſiſtants to the Court of Wards, That becauſe That it was found by offices, that C. dyed in poſſeſſion, that the ſame was ſufficient to entitle the king to the wardſhip of the lands: and they were clear of opinion, that ſuch an heir ſhould be in Ward; and it was ſaid and agreed by them, That all offices found to deceive the Crown of ſuch an ancient flower of the Crown as Wardſhip, ſhould be void as to that purpoſe, and taken moſt beneficial for the king. 3. In Monſtrans de droit, the caſe was, John de Malo Lacu, gave to Peter de Malo Lacu, and the heirs of his body, the Caſtle and Mannor of Malgrave, which afterwards came to Sir Ralph Bigod: Sir Ralp. 6. H. 8. made thereof a feeoffment in fee to W. and others, to the uſe of his will, and dyed; the right of the land together with the entail and the uſe diſcended to Sir F. Bigod: who 21. H. 8. made a feeoffment to I. S. and others to the uſe of himſelf and K. and his wife, and the heirs of their two bodies, who had iſſue Ralph and Dorothy, 26. H. 8. the ſtatute of forfeiture for Treaſon was made: 29. H. 8. Sir Francis was attainted of Treaſon and executed; K. ſurvived him; 31. H 8. a ſpecial Act was made for his attainder, and forfeiture, &c. 6. Eliz. Ralph ſon of Sir Francis and K. was reſtored by Parliament in blood, and after dyed without iſſue. Dorothy married Roger Ratcliff, and they had iſſue Fr. Ratcliff; 8. Eliz. K. dyed, Francis entred: 33 Eliz. all this matter was found by office. 34. Eliz. the Queen granted the Caſtle, Mannor, &c. to Ed. Earl of Mulgrave and the heirs males of his body: Roger Ratcliff brought his Monſtrans de droit and had judgement: whereupon upon Error was brought in the Exchequer Chamber. There were two queſtions in this caſe. 1. Whether Fr. Bigod, who had an eſtate in ſpecial tail in poſſeſſion, had alſo the right of an old entail in him at the time of the attainder; or whether it was in abeyance in reſpect of the feoffment made by him 21. H. 8. The opinion of the Court in this point was, That the feoffment gave away all the eſtate the tenant in tail had concerning himſelf, or any benefit that he might receive thereby, but as concerning his iſſue inheritable to that entail, and to him in the reverſion, and for their good there ſtill remained in him a right of that entail by force of the ſtatute of weſt. 2. for the good of thoſe that are ſaved by that ſtatute; but whether it were in the feoffer himſelf ſheeping till there be an heir of the tail, or in abeyance, or in conſideration of the Law, was a queſtion, but not reſolved. 2. It was reſolved, that the old right of the entail was forfeited to the Crown by the ſtatute of 26. H. 8. for that there was an actual eſtate tail in the perſon attainted at the time of the attainder; and the right bound by the expreſs words of the ſtatute there being no ſaving to the heirs, &c. 4. Reſolved, that when the office was found, the iſſue in tail was barred notwithſtanding any remitter pretended to be in the caſe, and that office ſhould relate to that purpoſe: wherefore the judgement given in the Court of Exchequer was reverſed: 13. Jac. in the Exchequer Chamber; the Lord Sheffeild and Ratcliffs caſe. Hob. 334. Godbt. 314. the ſame caſe.

4. It was found by office by force of a Diem clauſit extremum, that one held houſes of the king in London, and that the tenant dyed without heir: whereupon the king granted them to P. P. for life, who ſued a Writ to the Major to put him in poſſeſſion; he returned, that the tenant made his will, and gave them to his wife for life, who was yet alive, and ſeiſed of the ſaid houſes together with one I. D. her then husband; P. P. ouſted I. D. who thereupon brought a Scire facias againſt P. P. who demanded judgement of the Writ, becauſe he being tenant for life, and the reverſion in the king, they ought to ſue to the king by petition; It was in this caſe adjudged by all the Juſtices that the Writ ſhould abate; and that I. D. and his wife ſhould ſue to the king by Petition, becauſe forasmuch as the kings title was found by enqueſt of office upon Oath, the title of the ſubject ought alſo to appear by record of as high a nature, viz. by like office upon oath, and not by the return of the Major only; for although that return be matter of record, yet it is not of ſo high regard, as an office found upon oath. 39. Aſſ. 21. Pierce Patiſeilds caſe. Vouch in Cook 4. pt. in the Warden of Sadlers caſe.

5. It was found by office: That A. by the kings licence married the kings Neece, and that lands deſcended to the ſame Neece, which the husband had alienedwithout the kings licence to another, for which cauſe the lands were ſeiſed into the kings hands: The alience came into Chancery and ſhewed all the ſpecial matter as it was found in the office; and becauſe that all the truth of the matter did appear in the office, it was adjudged in that caſe, that the husband ſhould hold the land as Tenant by the Curtiſee, and the alienee had reſtitution made to him of the land, during the life of the husband. 33. E. 3. to Traverſe 36.

6. It was found by office, That I. held lands of the king, and that M. his daughter and heir was of full age and had Livery: and by another office it was alſo found that I. had another daughter named K. who was yet within age, whereupon a Scire facias iſſued forth againſt M. and her huſband, &c. who ſaid, that the ſaid lands were given to the ſaid I. and to his firſt wife the mother of the ſaid M. in tail, and that K. was his daughter by another wife: It was awarded by the Juſtices, that the lands ſhould be ſeiſed into the kings hands, becauſe the entail was not found by any office, but only that M. was general heir. 30. Aſſ. pt. 28. Cook 4. pt. 46. acc.

7. An office by vertue of a Mandamus was found before the Eſcheator of L. in the County of C. after the death of I. S. that he dyed ſeiſed of certain woods (ſed de quo, vel de quibus, vel per quæ ſervitia ignorant) A Melius was awarded reciting the place and time of the inquiſition, and that Ignoramus of the Tenure, and ſay not that it was found before the Eſcheator; and then proceeded, that the ſaid lands or ſome of them were holden by knights ſervice in chief or otherwiſe. Tibi Præcipimus, that you ſhall enquire whether the ſaid lands or any of them be ſo holden; It was the opinion of the Juſtices, that the want of Coram was well enough, both becauſe it was virtute brevis, which muſt be before the Eſcheator, and becauſe alſo there is a Melius inquirendum: But the Juſtices held the Writ to be naught, becauſe in an Ignoramus the enquiry of the Tenure ought to be at large, and not to be reſtrained to the Kings Tenure only. Tr. 12. Iac. in Cur. Ward. Curtices caſe. Hob. 73.

8. The Chancellor, &c. of the Univerſity of Cambridge brought a Quare Imp: againſt A. B. and C. and claimed the preſentation to the Church of D. by the ſtatute of 3. Iac. becauſe B. being Patron of the Church at the time of the avoidance by the death of I. S. the laſt incumbent was then a Popiſh Recuſant: All the defendants pleaded; but A. pleaded, and did confeſs that B. was ſeiſed of the Mannor of S. to which, &c. in his demeſne as of fee, and that he was a Popiſh Recuſant; but ſaid that for non payment of 20.s.a month by condition and inquiſition upon it, it was found that the ſaid B. was ſeiſed at the time of his Conviction of the ſaid Mannor, to which, &c. and that thereupon the Courts did ſeiſe two parts of the ſaid Mannor into the Kings hands, and that the King under the ſeal of the Exchequer demiſed the ſaid two parts to C. for twenty one years, ſi tam diu, &c. and he ſhewed that the Church became void, by reaſon whereof he preſented his Clerk, Abſque hoc, that B. was Patron at the time of the avoidance. It was the opinion of the Court upon this plea, that the title to this avoidance did appear to be in the King, for the ſtatute gives him two parts of all Recuſants poſſeſſions; ſo that although there be no mention made in the Inquiſition of the Advowſen ſpecially, yet the two parts ſhall follow the two parts of the Mannor, and then the King will preſent alone: 2. Point, That there are no words in the Kings grant to A. to carry the Advowſen from the King: But becauſe this ſerved only to prove the Kings title againſt the defendants, the Court would not award a Writ to the Biſhop for the King (being no party to the action) except his title were clear: But yet the plaintiffs were demanded of the Court, if they had any thing to ſay why a Writ to the Biſhop ſhould not be awarded for the King; it appearing upon the defendants plea, the King had title; whereupon the plaintiffs did diſclaim, and a Writ to the Biſhop was awarded for the King. M. 14. Iac. in Co. B. The Chancellor of Cambridge, &c. and Walgraves caſe. Hob. 326, 127.

9. The Queen made a leaſe for years rendring rent, with a Proviſo, that if the rent be not paid at the day limited, that the leaſe ſhall ceaſe without making mention that it was to be paid at the receit; the queſtion was, whether the leaſe ſhould ceaſe upon the default of payment, before office found thereof: ſome of the Iuſtices held it ſhould not ceaſe untill an office was found, becauſe it is matter of fact which determines it, viz. non payment; and that it ſhall be taken; as if it had been that the leaſe ſhall be forfeited, in which caſe it is not determined till reentry made for the forfeiture, which in the Queens caſe ought alwaies to be by office: But the greater part of the Iuſtices and Barons reſolved, That ipſo facto upon default of payment the leaſe was determined according to the purport of the contract, beyond which it cannot have any being, and that there needs no office in the caſe; but they agreed, that where it is that it ſhall be forfeited, or that ſhe ſhall reenter, there untill advantage be taken of the forfeiture in the one caſe, and of reentry in the other, the Term continues by the contract, and where in the caſe of a common perſon there is need of a reentry to undo an eſtate, there in caſe of the King there needs an office to determine the eſtate; for an office in the Kings caſe countervails a reentry. 10. A man being ſeiſed of three houſes in fee, demiſed them to his wife being an alien born; the King by his Letters Patents under the great ſeal, made the wife a Denizen; the deviſor dyed, the wife took another husband, and the Letters Patents being falſe in the Teſte, they obtained an exemplification of the enrolement of the Letters Pattent under the ſeal of the Exchequer which was with a true Teſte; and afterwards office was found by force of a Commiſſion to them directed under the Exchequer ſeal; by which it was found, that the wife was an alien born: It was reſolved in this caſe, That an office found under the Exchequer ſeal is not ſufficient to entitle the King to the lands of an alien born; but ſuch office which concerns fee and freehold, ought to be by force of a Commiſſion under the great ſeal: and in this caſe it was ſaid, that there are two kinds of offices; offices of entituling which veſt the eſtate and poſſeſſion of land in the King where he hath but a right or title before, and ſuch office ought to be found by commiſſion under the great ſeal; offices of inſtruction, when the eſtate of land is in the king before, but the particularity of it doth not appear of record ſo as it may be put in charge, and that may be under the Exchequer ſeal. 11. It was found by office after the death of W. B. by virtue of a Mandamus, that the ſaid W. B. dyed ſeiſed in his Demean as of fee of and in two Meſſuages or Tenements in M. in the ſeveral tenures of C. and D. holden of the king as of his honour of T. parcell of his Dutchy of L. by knights ſervice: It was reſolved that the ſaid office was meerly void, both in the dying ſeiſed, and tenure by knights ſervice thereby found, for it findes a dying ſeiſed of two Meſſuages or Tenements, which are not certain; and it is not found in what Pariſhes the Meſſuages do lye. Office of the Court.

1. Of what things the Court ought to take notice Ex Officio, of what not; and where they ſhall abate the Writ, though admitted good by the Plaintiff, and ſhall not give Judgement of any thing which is naught in the Count, or Writ; although it be found for, or againſt the Plaintiff or Defendant.

1. DEbt brought by the Abbot of W. againſt the Executors of L. upon an Obligation dated 10. Nov. 12. H.8. the defendant pleaded an Indenture of Defeaſance of the ſame date, by which the Plaintiff demiſed to L. the Rectory of A. And A. Covenanted that he and his aſſigns would diſcharge the Abbot of all charges and burthens ordinary and extraordinary; and would repair, &c. during the term; ſo as he do not alien without the Licenſe of the Abbot; the defendant pleaded, that he entred and held the land till 1. Aug. 21. H.8. during which time he paid the Rent; and paid 5. marks due per appropriat. Rector. predict. quæ ſunt omnia onera tam ordinaria quam extraordinaria, uſque diem dict. quo die ſtatum ſuum conceſſit quidam P. and demanded Judgement of the Action; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. It was reſolved in this caſe, amongſt other things; that although the Statute of 21. H. 8. doth countervail a Licence: Yet it was holden that the ſaid Statute ought to have been pleaded; and the Court is not bounden to take notice of it; becauſe the ſame is a particular Statute; but contrary where a ſtatute is general, there the ſame needs not particularly be pleaded; but the Court ought ex officio, to take notice of it. Hill. 28. H.8. Dyer 27. ac. Vide M.2. Ma. Dyer 119 ac.

2. Ejectione firmæ brought againſt two, one appeared and pleaded the general Iſſue, proces continued againſt the other, who appeared & pleaded entry after the laſt continuance in abatement of the Writ; upon which the Plaintiff demurred. After the Iſſue aboveſaid was found for the Plaintiff. It was the opinion of the Court, that he ſhould not have judgement; for that by the demurrer he confeſſeth the entry, and thereby ſhall abate his own Writ, becauſe in this action the Terme is to be recovered. M. 6. Eliz. Dyer 226.

3. Note, there is a difference, when in an action brought, the Plaintiff doth reply to a plea in bar, and by his Replication it appeareth that he hath no cauſe of Action, there he ſhall never have Judgement; But when a bar is inſufficient in matter, or amounteth to a confeſſion of the point of the action, and the plaintiff replyeth, and ſhews the truth of the matter to enforce his caſe, and in judgement of Law it is not material, yet the Plaintiff ſhall have judgement given for him ex officio Curiæ; for it is true, that ſome times the Count ſhall be made good by the bar, and ſometimes the bar by the Replication; but the difference is, that when the Count wanteth time, perſon, or other certainty, it may be made good by the bar, and ſo the bar by the Replication, but when the Count wants ſubſtance, no bar can make it good. But when the Plaintiff replies, or makes ſur-rejoynder, and thereby it appeareth that upon the whole matter and Record, that the Plaintiff hath no cauſe of action, there he ſhall never have judgement, although there the bar or rejoynder be inſufficient; for that the Court ought to judge upon the whole Record, and every one ſhall be intended to make the beſt of his own caſe. Cook 8. pt. 12. in Dr. Bonhams Caſe. Vide Cook 8. pt. 133. Turners Caſe, acc.

4. Debt by Adminiſtrators upon an Obligation, the defendant pleaded that the Inteſtate died before the date of the obligation, and ſo Non eſt factum; the Jury found, that the deed was delivered in the life of the Inteſtate, and that the Inteſtate died before the date of Deed. It was in that caſe ſaid, that it was his deed; for although the Obligor in pleading cannot alledge the delivery before the date, becauſe he is eſtopped; to take any averment againſt a thing expreſſed in the Deeds; yet the Jurors are not eſtopped by it, or concluded to ſpeak the truth; but the Jury cannot finde any thing which the parties have affirmed or admitted if it be of Record: and in that caſe, it was reſolved, That the Juſtices ex officio ought to give judgement for the Plaintiff, becauſe the date of the obligation is not material; and many times Bonds are delivered at other times then they bear date. Cook 2. pt 5. Goddards Caſe.

5. Debt againſt the Sheriffs, for letting C. who was in Execution to eſcape: The Defendant pleaded and confeſſed that C. was in Execution, 20. Aprilis 33. Eliz. and ſo continued till December following, at which time he brake priſon, and eſcaped, and that he being Sheriff recenter

inſecutus eſt, & in recenti inſecutione of the ſaid C. 11. December retook him in Execution at S. It was adjudged in this caſe againſt the defendant; for the Plaintiff hath declared of an eſcape at London; and he juſtifieth the retaking him at S. ſo as the eſcape at L. is not anſwered: but in that caſe, foraſmuch as the Plaintiff not denying the freſh ſuit, but by pleading hath relyed upon that matter, that the priſoner was out of his fight, and the Court ſhall not intend other matter to maintain his Action then he himſelf hath ſhewed; and upon the record it doth not appear that the Plaintiff hath cauſe of action: Wherefore the Court in that caſe could not give Judgement for the Plaintiff; but if the Plaintiff had demurred upon the bar, he ſhould have had Judgement. Cook 3. pt. 52. Rigeways Caſe.

6. In Appeal of murder by I.G. of his brother A.G. againſt B. as principal, and H. as acceſſary before, and D. as acceſſary after &c. The principal pleaded, Not guilty; and by Niſi prius in the County of M. he was found guilty of Manſlaughter, and had his Clergy; It was (amongſt other points) reſolved in this caſe, That although the principal were convicted by verdict; yet foraſmuch as he had his Clergy before Judgement; for this cauſe, it was awarded, that both the Acceſſaries ſhould be diſcharged; for none can be a principal before he be adjudged ſo in Law, and that ought to be upon Judgement upon a verdict, or by confeſſion, or by Outlary; for it doth not ſuffice, that there be a principal, unleſs it doth appear by judgement of Law; and therefore where the principal is pardoned, or hath his Clergy before Judgement; in that caſe the acceſſory ſhall never be arraigned; and therefore the acceſſary ſhall be diſcharged. 7. In a Replevin, the plaintiff entituled himſelf to have Common of Paſture to his Copy hold; and it was found, that he ought to have Common; but it was further found, that every Copy-holder had uſed to pay time out of minde, &c. pro eodem Communi nuam gallinam, & quinque ova annuatim: Yet the Plaintiff (againſt his own ſaying) had Judgement; for that the ſame was not a matter of Commoning, but a collateral recompence to be had for the Common: But it was reſolved, That if the Jury had found that the plaintiff was to have Common, paying ſo many Hens and eggs, the Iſſue had been found againſt him, becauſe that is parcel of the Cuſtom. 8. In Treſpaſs for breaking of his Cloſe, and beating of his ſervant, and doth not ſay, per quod ſervitium amiſit; the defendant pleaded, not guilty, and the Jury found him guilty, and aſſeſſed damages entirely; and becauſe the Plaintiff had no cauſe of action for beating of his ſervant, becauſe he hath not averred that he left his ſervice; for this cauſe, the plaintiff could not have judgment, but judgement was, that the Plaintiff take nothing by his Bill. 9. Action upon the Caſe upon Aſſumpſit, where the defendant promiſed to do divers things, and the plaintiff alledged two breaches, whereof one was inſufficient; The defendant pleaded non Aſſumpſit; the Jury gave damages generally: It was in this caſe reſolved. 1. That it ſhall be intended, that they give damages for both. 2. that foraſmuch as the plaintiff had no cauſe of damages to ſue the one; for this caſe, where judgement was given for the plaintiff in the Kings Bench, the judgment was reverſed upon a Writ of Error in the Exchequer Chamber. M. 29. Eliz. in B.A. Ret. 476. More and Bedels Caſe. Cook 5. pt. 108. acc.

10. In an action upon the Caſe, the caſe was A. Copy-holder in Fee did preſcribe to have Common in B. and he alledged that the defendant put in his cattel into the Common, and that they had deſtroyed the Common, ſo that he could not have any benefit of his Common; the defendant pleaded not guilty; and the Jury found, that for the putting in he was not guilty; but as to the feeding and the conſuming of the graſs he was guilty. It was objected for the defendant, that the wrong found by the Jury, was not the wrong of which the Plaintiff complains in his action; for he hath complained of a miſ-doing, and the Iury have found a not doing, which is againſt the Plaintiff; for he hath declared that the defendant, poſuit averia, &c. which is wrong and miſ-doing, and the Iury have found, Quod non poſuit, &c. but that his cattel have paſtured: But it was reſolved, that notwithſtanding that, that the action was maintainable; for the Iudges in finding of verdict do reſpect the ſubſtance, rather then the circumſtances; and therefore amongſt other things it was adjudged for the Plaintiff. Cook 9. pt. 112. Robert Marys Caſe.

11. Treſpaſs of Battery againſt A.B. and C. A. appeared, and the plaintiff declared againſt him, ſimul cum, &c. and he pleaded, not guilty: Afterwards B. appeared, againſt whom the Plaintiff declared ſimul cum, &c. And upon not guilty pleaded, a Venire facias was awarded, and both Iſſues tryed at the Aſſiſes; and the Iſſue againſt A. being firſt tried, the Iury upon that Iſſue aſſeſſed for the Plaintiff damages 200. l. Afterwards the Iſſue was tryed againſt B. and 50. l. damages aſſeſ-assessed by the second tryal: C. appeared, and confessed the action; and a Writ of Enquiry of damages was awarded by the Roll, but none Issued. It was resolved in this case: 1. When in Trespass against divers defendants they plead not guilty, in several pleas, and the Iury finde in all for the plaintiff, the Iurors cannot Assess several dammages against the defendant, because all is but one trespass, and made joynt by the Writ and Count. But if the Iury finde one guilty at one time, and another at another time, there several damages may be taxed: But if the Plaintiff confesseth that they have committed the Trespass severally, there the Writ shall abate. 2. Resolved, that the Defendant who last pleaded, shall be charged with the damages taxed by the first Iury: and the 2. Enquest shall not assess damages, but the party shall be contributary to the damages assessed by the first Enquest; and if the Damages assessed by the first Enquest be excessive, it was the opinion of the Court in such case, the party to the second Trial should have an Attaint against the Iurors. And it was holdsn in this case, that for saving of a discontinuance, if one of the Defendants makes default, a Writ of Enquiry of Damages shall be awarded by the Court, but none shall issue forth. Ordinary.

1. The causes of which Bishops and Ordinaries have Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction: And of the Power of Ordinaries in Granting of Administrations.

1. Ordinary by the Common Law is properly taken for the Bishop of the Dioces, who is the true Ordinary, to whom the Courts of common Law do write, to certifie spiritual acts done in the Ecclesiastical Courts within the particular Dioceses; as Excommunication, Loyalty of Matrimony, Deprivation, &c. Yet some time Ordinary is taken for the Commissary or Official of the Bishop, or other Ecclesiastical Judge that hath Judicial authority within their Jurisdictions. Vide Cook 9.pt.26.ac.

2. Now the General Causes Ecclesiastical, of which Bishops and Ordinaries have Jurisdiction, are these, viz. Blasphemy, Apostacy from Christianity, Heresie, Schisms, Ordaining, Institutions of Clerks, Celebration of Divine Service, Rights of Matrimony, Divorces, general Bastardy, Substraction, & right of Tithes, Obventions, Oblations, Dilapidations, Reparation of Churches, Probate of Testaments, Administrations, and accounts for the same, Symonie, Incests, Fornications, Adulteries, Sollicitation of Chastity, Pensions, Proclamations, Appeals in Causes Ecclesiastical, Commutation of Pennance, &c. The Conusans of which doth not belong to the Common Law; and therefore they are determined by Bishops and Ordinaries in their Ecclesiastical Courts: Cook 5.pt. 5. & 6. in the Case of Ecclesiastical persons. Cawdries Case.

3. If the Incumbent of a Church, with cure of souls dyeth, If the Patron of that Church present not within six moneths, the Bishop, the Ordinary of the Dioces ought to collate, to the end the Cure may not be destitute of a Pastor; and if he neglect to present to the Church within the space of six moneths, then the Arch-bishop, who is ſupream Ordinary and Metropolitan of the Dioceſs, ſhall collate one to that Church: and if he do not collate within ſix moneths, then the King as ſupream Ordinary of all the Dioceſſes of England, ſhall provide a Competent Paſtor for that Church.

4. In the Kings Courts of Record, where Felonies are determined, the Biſhop or his Deputy ought to give their attendance, to the end that if any who is indicted and arraigned for felony, do demand the benefit of his Clergy, that the Ordinary may inform the Court of his ſufficiency, or inſufficiency; viz. whether he can read as a Clerk or not, whereof notwithſtanding the Ordinary is not to judge, but is a Miniſter to the Kings Court; and the Iudges of that Court are to judge of the ſufficiency or inſufficiency of the party, whatſoever the Ordinary doth inform them: and upon due examination of the party may give Iudgement againſt the Ordinaries Information; for the Kings Iudges are Iudges of the cauſe: Vide Hob. 290.

5. A Parſon of D. brought a Prohibition againſt W. and Declares, reciting the Statute of 18 Eliz. of Clergy. That whereas he was Parſon of D. he was Indicted at the Aſſiſes for manſlaughter for the death of one I. S. and convicted for the ſame and that at the next Aſſize he was allowed his Clergy; but was not burnt in the hand, becauſe of his Orders, but by Iudgement of the Court was enlarged and delivered out of priſon, by which Iudgement he was purged and acquitted of the felony; and that yet the defendant pretending him to remain ſtill convicted of the Felony, and thereby deprived of his Benefice, and ſo the Church void (which was not ſo) that the Patron preſented him to the Church, and drew him in Plea before the Chancellor of London; and thereupon he prayed a prohibition againſt the Defendant. It was the opinion of the Iuſtices in this caſe, after long arguments, that the Plaintiff being convict and diſcharged by the ſaid Statute, that he could not be queſtioned for it again in the Eccleſiaſtical Court as an offence, to make the Church void by ſentence of Deprivation, and that a man might have benefit of that Statute, although he was not burnt in the hand. Tr. 16. Iac. in Com. B. Spark and Williams Caſe. Hob. 2. 88. 290. And ſo was it reſolved alſo. M. 28. Eliz. in Com B. in Nicholls and Chaffes Caſe. Where the Plaintiff was convicted of Felony, and burnt in the hand, and afterwards was impeached by the Defendant in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, Contra debitam legem hujus Regni Angliæ formam: affirming that the Vicaridge was void by reaſon of the Conviction; and that he was preſented thereunto by the Queen; and in that Caſe a Prohibition was awarded. Ibid. 294.

6. In a Prohibition upon the Statute of 23. H. 8. cap 3. for citing one out of the Dioceſs, the caſe was, the Chancellor of the Inferior Ordinary did make requeſt to Doctor Dunn, Dean of the Arches to take the Cauſe to his hearing; and the reaſon was, that the Cauſe (being indeed a Cauſe of Modus Decimandi) was ſo difficult that the Plaintiff could have no ſufficient Councel there: the Queſtion was, whether this transferring of this cauſe were warranted by the exception in the Statute; which exception is of two ſorts, the one for ſpecial cauſe particularly here expreſſed (whereof this is none) the other a general Clauſe, viz. That in caſe, that any Biſhop, or any other inferiour Iudge, having under him juriſdiction in his own right and title, or by Commiſſion, make requeſt to the Archbiſhop or other Superiour Ordinary to take, treat, examine, or determine the matter before him or his ſubſtitute; and that to be done in caſes only where the Civil Law doth affirm execution of ſuch requeſt, or juriſdiction to be lawfull or tolerable; upon pain to forfeit, &c. double damages, &c. It was the reſolution of the Iuſtices in this caſe, That to expound the Statute, That the Ordinary may at his will and pleaſure ſend the Subjects from one end of the Kingdom to another, without cauſe, is both againſt the Letter of the Statute, and it eludes it utterly: Alſo the referring was not according to the form of the Statute, the referring being from a Chancellor to a Delegate; and not from Biſhop to D. and it was reſolved in this caſe, That a Prohibition lyes upon this Statute, becauſe it hath words prohibitory, as well as a penalty of 10 l. Tr. 15. Iac. in Com. B. Jones and James Caſe. Hob. 185. Vide Brownl. 2. pt. 28.

7. Note, If a Lay man be Patron of an Hoſpital, he may viſit the ſame, and depoſe or deprive the Maſter for good cauſe; but if he be deprived without juſt cauſe, and that by colour thereof he be put out, he ſhall have an Aſſiſe, becauſe he hath no other remedy: But if the Ordinary depriveth a Maſter, who is Eccleſiaſtical, without cauſe, he ſhall not have an Aſſiſe, for that he hath other remedy by Appeal. Cook 11. pt. 99. in Baggs Caſe.

8. In Treſpaſs brought for the Tithes of the Church of B. it was found by ſpecial verdict, That the defendant was Collated to the Church of B. being a Donative by A. and B. the Patrons; and that the Church was exempt from the juriſdiction of any Ordinary: The defendant reſigned to A. and C. who was a ſtranger, who had no Intereſt Intereſt in the Church of B. with all right afterwards the Church comes to D. who collates and intereſts the plaintiff in the Church; by reaſon whereof he ſeiſed the tythes in queſtion, and the defendant took them: and then the Jury concluded upon the matter, that if the Reſignation be good, then they finde for the plaintiff; otherwiſe for the defendant. It was the opinion of the whole Court in this Caſe, That judgement ought to be given for the plaintiff; for it being a Donative, and exempt from all Ordinary juriſdiction, the Reſignation muſt be into the hands of the Patron, and the Incumbent ſhall not be conſtrained to keep the Church whether he will or no if the Patron will not accept of it; and becauſe in this caſe there is no perſon to whom the Reſignation can be made, but only into the hands of the Patron, it is good; and although the Reſignation be but to one Patron and to a ſtranger, yet it is good to both Patrons; and then when D. hath the eſtate of both Patrons, the veſting of the plaintiff in the Church is good to give him power to take the profits by reaſon of the primer poſſeſſion, and ſo the action is well brought. Paſ. 3. Jac. in B.R. Fairchild and Gayers caſe. Broun. lo. 1. pt. 201.

9. Note, The opinion of the Court was, That if a ſuit be before an Archdeacon, whereof by the ſtatute of 23. H. 8. the Ordinary may licence the ſuit to a higher Court; That the Archdeacon cannot in ſuch caſe balk his Ordinary, and ſend the cauſe immediately to the Arches; for he hath no power to give a Court, but to remit his own Court, and leave it to the next, for ſince his power was derived from the Biſhop to whom he is ſubordinate, he muſt yeild it to him of whom he hath received it; and ſo it was ſaid it had been before adjudged. Vide Hob. 16. acc.

10. A. brought a Quare Impedit before the Judges of Lanc. the caſe was, That he had preſented one R. his Clerk to the Biſhop of Cheſter being Ordinary, who refuſed his Clerk; thereupon he complained to the Archbiſhop of York, who ſent a Monition to the Biſhop to receive the Clerk within a time, or to appear before him and anſwer, who did neither: The Archbiſhop did receive the Clerk and inſtitute him: Now the Biſhop and one K. preſented by the King, ſued in the Delegates, ſuppoſing that the inſtitution by the Archbiſhop was void; and ſo by conſequence meant to avoid the induction, as being without Warrant, becauſe the Archbiſhop did inſtitute here in London: It was the opinion of the Court, that this ſuit ought to be prohibited; for ſince by induction which is a temporal act, the Church is full; it is not to be avoided, but by a Quare Impedit, and not to be determined by alledging inſtitution inſufficient in the Eccleſiaſtical Court; and it was ſaid by the Court, that if this courſe might be admitted, they might avoid all plenarties in the Eccleſiaſtical Court, or queſtion there the inſtitution. Tr. 10. Jac. in Co. B. Sir Timothy Huttons Caſe. Hob. 15.

11. This caſe was moved to the Court: whereas the Dioceſs of Winchester did extend it ſelf to the borough of S. as part of the County of S. Dr. Jones Judge of the Audience of the Archbiſhop of Canterbury, did of late ſometimes keep a Court in S. and call a man thither from the remoteſt part of the Dioceſs of W. being ſixty miles, and if they kept not their day of appearance, they were excommunicated, and could not be abſolved unleſs they would yeild to the tranſmitting of the cauſe into the Archbiſhops Court; whereby the ſtatute of 23. H. 8. was eluded: and a Prohibition was prayed: It was anſwered, that no ſuch Act of Tranſmitting was uſed; but that ſuch Courts had been kept there; and that by Law they might be kept; for the Archbiſhop may ſit in any Dioceſs within his own Province, and might there hear cauſes by his Prerogative; for that he hath a concurring juriſdiction with the inferior Ordinary; and ſo it was ſaid the Biſhop had no wrong; nor the party called out of his Dioceſs: But it was the opinion of the Court, That ſuch Tranſmitting of cauſes was expreſly againſt the ſtatute, and that the party in this caſe hath a kinde of wrong: for whereas the Biſhop of W. himſelf would not draw the people out of the heart of the Dioceſs wherein he lives himſelf; the Archbiſhops officers would draw them thither as more commodious for them; and alſo it deprive the Subject of an Appeal which he ſhould have had if the cauſe had began with the inferior Ordinary; a Prohibition was awarded. M. 19. Jac. Co. B. Dr. Jones Caſe. Hob 17.

12. Before the ſtatute of 31. E. 3. when a man dyed inteſtate, and did make no diſpoſition of his eſtate, viz. of his goods, nor committed his truſt in that behalf to any, the King in ſuch caſe (who is Parens Patriæ hath the Supream power to provide for all his ſubjects) did uſe by his Miniſters to ſeiſe the goods of the inteſtate, to the intent that they might be preſerved and beſtowed for the burial of the dead, for the payment of his debts, and for the advancement of his wife and children; and if not, then for thoſe of his blood: This care and truſt of the King, was by him committed to the Ordinarie, for there could be found none more fit for such a care then he, who all his life time had the care and charge of their souls, and therefore the Ordinary was in that case appointed in Loco parentis: But no power was given to the Ordinary to sell or dispose of the goods, either to his own use or to the use of any other, and yet he hath a propriety in the goods of the intestate, but that is only secundum quid and not simpliciter. Cook 4. pt. 39. in Heasfloets Case.

13. If debt be brought against the Ordinary, for the debt of the intestate; it was holden by the Court, that after notice, that he cannot dispose of any of the goods to others before he hath satisfied that debt for which the action was brought against him. Vide 7. Elizabeth, Dyer 252.

14. The Commissary of the Bishop of a Diocess granted Letters ad colligendum & ad vendendum ea quæ peritura sunt, & computum inde faciendum: and he to whom the Letters were granted, sold things that would perish: In this Case, it was holden that he was an Executor of his own wrong, for that the Ordinary himself had not such power and authority to sell the goods. M. 9. Eliz. Dyer 256. vide Cook 5. pt. 27. acc.

15. The Bishop who is an Executor appointed by Law, cannot by Law make a release of a debt or a gift of the goods of the intestate; for he hath a special propriety in the goods only for the benefit of the intestate, and nothing to his own use: and vide the statute of West. 2. which is, That Bona quæ veniunt ad manus Ordinarii dispenda: viz. for the good of the dead; and he is like to an Administrator durante minori ætate, who hath a special power committed to him to dispose of the goods, and to do nothing to the prejudice of the Executor. Cook 8. pt. 135. in Sir John Needhams Case.

16. In a Prohibition, the case was; A. had issue four sons viz. B. C. D. and E. and dyed intestate. Administration was committed to B. and C. E. had issue nine children, and D. had issue three children; the Fathers dyed, the children infants. The Administrators upon their account before Sir John Bennet by his mediation and not judicially, were content to make a distribution of the estate of the intestate per capita, non per stipites; or è converso: for and on the behalf of the infants it was appealed to the Delegates, and a Prohibition was granted in this case, because the Ordinary hath no power to make distribution of the surplusage, nor to take bond for it by the true meaning of the statute of 21. H. 8. which intends a benefit to the Administrator and not an unprofitable burthen. Tr. 15. Jac. in Co. B. Tooker and Lessees case. Hob. 191. vide Hob. 83. Sherwins case. acc.

17. A man dyed intestate; and there being a controversie between the widdow of the intestate and one of the kindred about the Administration, it was agreed, that the widdow should have the Administration, and should enter bond in the Prerogative Office to make an equal distribution of the goods of the intestate amongst the kindred; and she entred bond, and had her Administration: Afterwards the bond was sued against her in the Spiritual Court; It was objected, That in regard the Administration was granted to one to whom the Ordinary was not bound to grant it, that such bond taken for an equal distribution was good: But it was resolved by the whole Court, that the taking of the bond was not lawfull; for when the Ordinary hath once committed the Administration to the party, his power is determined, and he cannot grant Letters of Administration upon a condition; wherefore a Prohibition was granted to stay the proceedings in the Spiritual Court upon the bond. Pas. 1655. in B. R. Davies and Matthews case. Sty'es 456.

18. Note by Hobart Chief Iustice, that it was his opinion and the opinion of the whole Court in one Barows case in Co B. that if Administration be committed by force of the statute of 21. H. 8. and the Administrator pay all the debts and legacies, that in such case, the Ordinary had not power to dispose of the rest of the goods to the children of the intestate, but that they shall remain to the Administrator, and that by the very intention of the statute of 21. H. 8. vide Pasc. 19. Iac. in Co. B. Winch. 11.

19. The case was this; one dyed intestate in the County of Y. and a stranger prayed Letters of Administration to be granted unto him, which was repealed by the Delegats at Y. There was an appeal to the Court of Delegats in the Chancery, who did repeal the former sentence at Y. and adjudged that the party made no Will, and granted Letters of Administration to him who appealed to them. The Archbishop of Canterbury granted Administration to a second person, and the Archbishop of York to a third person, who made a release unto the debtor of the intestate: upon which release debt was brought by the first Administrator against the defendant, who pleaded the release made unto him; and whether this grant of Letters of Administration by the Iudges Delegates was good, or not, was the question: The better opinion of the Court was, That the Letters of Administration which were granted by by the Delegates was not good; but there being Bona Notabilia, the Adminiſtration was to be granted by the Archbiſhop; and then it was ſaid, That the party who dyed inteſtate, had goods in ſeveral Dioceſſes, both the Archbiſhops there having a peculiar might, granted Letters of Adminiſtration; and although that the King be Supream Ordinary, and by Delegates may do many acts; yet the Court of Delegates cannot do this nor have they power to prove any Wills: for the power of the Iudges Delegates, is poteſtas delegata corrigere, non exequi, to examine and not to correct, and the Court ſaid that it was adjudged in Bracktenburies caſe, That the Iudges Delegates had not power to grant Letters of Adminiſtration. M. 10. Iac. in B. R. Stevenſon and Woods Caſe. Bolſtr. 2. pt. 3, and 4.

20. In a Prohibition to the Eccleſiaſtical Court the caſe was: a widdow Adminiſtratrix of the goods of her husband made an Inventory; and in the Inventory ſhe put in all the goods that her husband had, and therein ſhe did miſtake her ſelf, and did put in ſome goods which her husband the Inteſtate had given away and diſpoſed of in his life time to a younger childe: In her account in the Spiritual Court ſhe ſhewed to them a deed of gift made of them by the Inteſtate in his life time of thoſe goods in particular to his daughter E. they being in her cuſtody; and ſhe pleaded there this gift, but they rejected her plea; wherefore ſhe prayed a Prohibition; it was agreed by the whole Court in this Caſe, That a Prohibition to prohibite them did lye as this caſe was, but with an exception of other debts which were then in action, and afterwards a Prohibition was granted accordingly. Hill. 12. Iac. in B. R. James and James Caſe. Bolſtr. 3. part 315, 316.

21. The Commiſſary of the Biſhop of London granted Adminiſtration by word, and gave Oath to the Adminiſtrator, and entred the ſame in the Regiſter; the Adminiſtrator ſold the goods and dyed, and a new Adminiſtrator to whom Letters of Adminiſtration were granted, ſued for the goods; and the iſſue joyned was ſi Epiſc. London commiſit adminiſtration, it was doubted if the Adminiſtration committed by word was good. M. 13. Eliz. Dyer 294. vide 21. E. 4. 10. Adminiſtration cannot be granted without deed. Vide Cook 9. pt. 41. in Henſloes Caſe. And Cook 8. pt. acc. vide 21. H. 6. 29.

2. Where, and what action is maintenable by the Ordinary, what not; and where and what Action lyeth againſt him; where he ſhall be charged upon a Devaſtavit of his own goods, where not; And where an Adminiſtration committed by him ſhall be void, where not.

1. THe cuſtom of London is, that if any contract be made by a Citizen of London to pay ſo much money to another Citizen, and he who ought to pay the money dyeth inteſtate, that his Adminiſtrator ſhall be bound to pay it as well as upon an Obligation: It was adjudged in this caſe, to be a good cuſtom; for although that none was chargeable at the Common Law by the name of an Adminiſtrator; and a cuſtom cannot begin within time of memory; yet becauſe they were chargeable at the Common Law as Executors, for every Executor is an Adminiſtrator; for the pleading is, Neque Executor, neunque Adminiſt. come Executor. and the Adminiſtrator hath the office and quality of an Executor; therefore it was reſolved, that ſuch a general cuſtom is good. 2. Reſolved, that if the Ordinary taketh the goods into his cuſtody, he ſhall be charged by the Common Law. Cook 5. part 83. Suellings Caſe.

2. Note that the Ordinary cannot releaſe any debt, nor make a gift of any of the goods of the Inteſtate; and if he doth, Devaſtavit, or other action lyeth againſt him; for he hath but a ſpecial property in the goods of the dead, and nothing to his owne uſe; neither can the Ordinary give authority to another to ſell the goods, becauſe he hath not any ſuch authority himſelf. Cook 8. pt. 135. in Sir John Needhams caſe.

3. Leſſee for years had iſſue a ſon and a daughter both within age, and deviſed his Term to his ſon, and made his daughter his Executrix. Adminiſtration durante minore ætate of the daughter, was committed to the Mother, who took a husband who ſold the Term: It was reſolved in this caſe, That the Adminiſtrator durante minore ætate, cannot ſell any of the goods of the dead, unleſs it be for neceſſity of payment of debts; and if he doth, it is a Devaſtavit in him, and an action lyeth againſt him: nor can ſuch an Adminiſtrator do any thing to the prejudice of the infant. Cook 5. pt. Princes caſe.

3. For what cauſes he may refuſe a Clerk preſented unto him, and where he muſt give notice; and what power the Ordinary hath in, or for the doing of other things.

1. BEfore a Clerk preſented to a Benifice, be admitted and inſtituted into the ſame, the Ordinary is to examine him of his ability; and if he be found upon his examination, to be unable, or to be criminous, the Ordinary may refuſe to admit him: But then this examination is to be done at a convenient time within the ſix moneths; for he cannot refuſe to examine him all the ſix moneths, and ſo ſuffer a Laps to encur to himſelf, for he ſhall not take advantage of his own wrong; But if the Ordinary, when the Clerk comes to be examined, Sedet circa curam paſtoralem, he is not bound preſently to leave his buſineſs in hand, and go to examine the Clerk, but the Ordinary may appoint a convenient time and place for the examination of him. Vide 14. H. 7. 22. M. 15. Eliz. in Co. B. adjudg. acc.

2. Note, if the Ordinary doth demand of the Clerk preſented unto him his Letters of Orders, and alſo his Letters of Teſtimonial of his good behaviour; and the Clerk requires time for the ſpace of a week to ſhew them, but doth not return within the time, and thereupon afterwards the Ordinary doth refuſe him, and preſents another to the benifice: In a Quare Impedit brought upon ſuch a Caſe, it was adjudged, That the Ordinary was a Diſturbor; and the reaſon is, becauſe the ſtatute doth not compell the Clerk who is preſented, to ſhew the Ordinary either his Letters of Ordination, or his Letters of Teſtimonial of his good behaviour: Paſ. 33. Eliz. in Co. B. in Palmer and the Biſhop of Peterboroughs Caſe. adjudg.

3. If two men preſent one man ſeverally to the Ordinary, the Ordinary cannot admit him generally to the Church: But he muſt admit him incumbent of the preſentation of one of them; them; and if they do preſent claiming by ſeveral Patrons, the Ordinary is to award his Writ de Jure Patronatus; for that in that caſe the Church is Litigious. Vide 37. H. 6. 41. 21. H. 6. 44. 7. E. 4. Quare Imp. 100. But Quere, If the Ordinary be to award the Jure Patronatus, at the requeſt of the parties, and at their coſts, or at his own charges; Some old books hold, (as 5. H. 7. 22. by Brian 36. H. 6. 3[illegible]) that it muſt be ſued forth at the coſts of the Ordinary, becauſe it is for his excuſe, and ſo for his advantage: But other books, viz. 34. Hen. 6. 41. 18. E. 3. 8. E. 4. 24. ſeems to be contrary; for it was not adjudged in the principal caſe, which was M. 8. Jac. in Co. B. Danby and Liſleys Caſe.

4. If a Clerk be preſented by the Patron to the Ordinary, and he doth refuſe to admit and inſtitute him into the Benifice, The Ordinary muſt ſhew the particular cauſe why he refuſeth him; and muſt not ſhew for cauſe of refuſal generally, that the Clerk preſented is a man unfit, uncapable, or criminous; but he muſt certifie the particular crime, incapacity and inability; 38. E. 3. 2. in the Earl of Arrundells Caſe. Cook 5. pt. 58. Specots Caſe. And vide there what are ſufficient cauſes of Refuſal for the Ordinary to certifie, what not.

5. If the Patron preſenteth a Clerk to the Ordinary, and the Ordinary upon enquiry finde that he hath a Plurality; It was holden that that was no ſufficient cauſe of refuſal; becauſe it is at the peril of the Incumbent if that he keep two livings; becauſe that then both Benifices are void, 14. H. 7. 28. But if the Clerk preſented be a Villain, Heretick, Schiſmatick, &c. then the Ordinary may refuſe him; but of ſuch his refuſal he muſt give notice to the Patron, be he either a lay or a Spiritual perſon. Vide 14. H. 7. 28. 15. H. 7. 8. 12. Eliz. Dyer 291. acc.

6. If a Church do become void by the death of the Incumbent, the Patron is to take notice of the avoidance at his perill, and the Ordinary is not bounden to give him notice thereof; and ſo it is, if it do become void by creating the Incumbent Biſhop, or by ceſſion: But if a Church do become void by Reſignation, which is an act of the Incumbent, and which of neceſſity muſt be to the Ordinary, or by deprivation which is the act of Law; in ſuch caſe the Ordinary ſhall not preſent in caſe of Lapſe, unleſs upon the Reſignation, or Deprivation notice had been given of the avoidance to the Patron by the Ordinary; and the ſix moneths for the Lapſe ſhall be accounted from the time of the notice. Vide 28. H. 7. 49. in Kellaway, 16. Eliz. Dyer 327. 13 Eliz. Dyer 293. And vide Tr. 27. Eliz. in Co. B. in Albany and the Biſhop of Saint Aſaphs Caſe. Leon. pt. 39. where it was ſaid, That it was adjudged in Mallineux Caſe, That if the Patron doth preſent, and the Ordinary doth refuſe, he ought to give notice to the Patron if he be reſident within the County; and if he be not, then he is to leave a Certificate of notice at the Church, that the Church is then void.

7. If a Parſon be deprived by the Ordinary, or reads not his Articles, in which Caſe the Church is void, yet notice muſt be given to the very Patron for that time, or elſe the Lapſe incurs, which is very inconvenient for the Church, and a prejudice to the Ordinary: How ſhall the Ordinary aſſure himſelf of a ſufficient notice? for if he giveth notice to him who is not very Patron, his notice is vain; and the Patron perhaps knows not of the Deprivation, or if he knows it, yet he needs not to preſent without notice given him; therefore in this Caſe, the Ordinary is to award a Jure Patronatus, with ſolemn premonition quorum intereſt, and the enquiry being made who is Patron, to give him notice, and if he preſent not within ſix moneths, then the Ordinary may collate; although that ſhall not bind the very Patron, yet it ſhall excuſe the Ordinary from being a diſturber upon the ſpecial matter ſhewed: But if the other Patron preſent, and the ſix moneths incur, yet in that caſe although the Patron is not bound by the Lapſe, yet that is nothing to ſave the pretended uſurpation of another pretended Patron, who is not ſubject to give notice. Vide by Hobert Juſtice, in the Caſe of Sir William Elvis, and the Archbiſhop of York. Hob. 318.

8. A. Executor of B. brought a Prohibition againſt C. and his ſurmiſe was, That whereas I. S. was ſeiſed of the Mannor of D. and that he and thoſe whoſe eſtate he hath in the ſame, had uſed time out of minde to have a Pew in the body of the Church, and that the defendant by ſuit in the Eccleſiaſtical Court ſought to poſſeſs them of the ſame: It was the opinion of the Court in this Caſe, that this was no good ground for a Prohibition; for although the Church and Churchyard be in Law the ſoil and freehold of the Parſon; yet the uſe of the body of the Church, and the repair and maintenance of it is common to all the Pariſhioners; and for avoiding confuſion, the diſtribution and diſpoſing of ſeats, and charges of repair, doth belong to the Ordinary; and therefore no man can challenge a peculiar ſeat without reaſon: But if it had been preſcribed, That I. S. had uſed time out of minde, minde, at his own only costs to maintain that Pew, and had therefore had the sole use of it, the preseription might have stood, and been a Warrant for a Prohibition, although the Pew were in the body of the Church. M. 12. Jac. in Co. B. Boothby and Bayleys Case. Hob. 69.

9. Garven libelled against Pym, for a seat in the Church, before the Bishop of Exeter, which was removed by appeal into the Arches; The defendant surmised, That he and his Ancestors, had used time out of minde to have an Ile with a seat in the said Church for him and his family; and thereupon prayed a Prohibition: But because it appeared upon the examination of the party himself, that the Parish had used to repair the said Ile and seat, the Court would not grant a Prohibition; for that proved, that his Ancestors were not the founders of the said Ile and seat: But it was said by Cook Chief Justice, That if a Gentleman by assent of the Ordinary hath built an Ile adjoyning to the Church, and put convenient seats there for him and his family, and hath alwayes repaired it at his proper costs, In such Case, if the Ordinary do place another within him to sit in the same seat, he may have his action upon the Case against the Ordinary; and if he be impleaded in the Spiritual Court for that seat, he shall have a Prohibition. Tr. 10. Jac. in Co. B. Garvens and Pyms case.

10. Note upon consideration had by all the Justices, in the time of Parliament 4. Jac. it was holden by all the Justices, That the Ordinary cannot constrain any man Ecclesiastical or Temporal to swear generally to answer to such Interrogatories as shall be administred unto them; but ought to deliver him the Articles upon which he is to be examined, to the intent that he may know whether he ought by Law to answer to them: and no Ecclesiastical man or Temporal shall be examined upon secrets of heart, or of his secret opinion, but something ought to be objected against him what he hath spoken or done: And vide 1. Eliz. one Leigh an Atturney of the Common Pleas was committed to the Fleet by the High Commissioners in Causes Ecclesiastical for this, that he had been at Mass, and refused to swear to certain Articles to be proposed to him; and although that in such case by the statute of 1. Eliz. they have Ecclesiastical Jurisdiction; yet it was resolved, that in that case they ought not ex officio to examine the party upon oath. Vide Cook 12. part 26, 27. acc. Outlawrie.

Where an Outlawry ſhall be avoided by Plea, or otherwiſe, without bringing a Writ of Error, and where not. And for what Cauſes Outlawry ſhall be reverſed.

1. A Writ of Proclamation was returned upon an Exigent by the Sheriff, who was out of his office at the time of the Return of it: It was adjudged in that caſe, that the Outlawrie was void by the Statute of 6. H. 8. Paſc. 30. Eliz. Dyer 42.

2. When a man pleads an Outlawry in diſability of the perſon, he ought to ſhew the ſame under Seal, unleſs it be in the ſame Court; and the Exigent ought to be duly returned, and appear upon Record; and the purchaſing of a Superſedeas, is an appearing upon Record; and although it be not delivered to the Sheriff before the 5. exactus; yet it ſhall avoid the Outlawry. Cook 1. pt. Inſtitutes 128. Tr. 44. Eliz. in Com. B. Meere and Dalbwist Caſe, acc.

3. A. was Indicted in the Kings Bench for the death of a man; Whereupon an Exigent was awarded into the County of Lincoln, A. died, and was never Convicted, nor Attainted; It was the opinion of the Court, that his Executors are to bring a Writ of Error to reverſe the Outlawry; for that the King being entituled by matter of Record, the Outlawry ought to be avoided by matter of as high nature. Eatons Caſe, vouch. in Cook 5. pt. 111. in Foxleys Caſe.

4. A Capias Utlagatum was awarded to the Sheriff of London againſt F. B. by the name of F. B. of London, Gent. He came in gratis at the day of the return, and pleaded in diſcharge of the Outlawrie, that he was Commorant at C. in the County of B. at the time of the Writ brought, and not at London: It was the opinion of the Court, that he ſhould not have the plea; for that the Plaintiff is out of Court; and becauſe it is not known to the Court, if he be the defendant, or not, becauſe he comes in gratis, and not by the return of the Sheriff of Cepi Corpus. M. 2. Eliz. Dyer 192. Browns Caſe.

5. Note, an Outlawrie was reverſed upon the Statute of 8. H. 6. without a Writ of Error brought, becauſe the uſual words which we put in the writ of Proclamation, viz. facias, tribus ſeperatis diebus, ande una proclam. who omitted not of the proclamation, ſo as there was not ſenſe in the Writ. M. 3. Eliz. Dyer, 206.

6. If an Action be brought in London, or Middleſex, and the Exigent be awarded there: In ſuch caſe, it behoves that the Writ of Proclamation go to the place where the defendant is abiding at the time of the Exigent awarded, and that by the Statute of 6. H. 8. But if he be named Nuper of L. alias dict. of N. in the County of K. Gent. there if the Proclamation go into K. whereas in truth the Defendant is dwelling in Middleſex, he ſhall in ſuch caſe without a Writ of Errour avoid the Outlawrie by the Statute of 6. H. 8. Becauſe the alias dictus is no part of his name. Paſc. 4. Eliz. Dyer 214.

7. A. was Outlawed in Detinue de 3. pixid. & una bag. cum chartis, &c. and that was at the County 19. Octobor; The Exigent was returnable Cro. animarum; on which day the Sheriff did not return the Outlawry, but that the defendant at the ſaid 19. day which was the 5th. County, the defendant appeared and brought a ſuperſedeas, and offered to appear by his Attorney; the Teſte of the ſuperſedeas was 12. Octobor, which was a week before the 5th. County; and upon a ſuggeſtion that the defendant was 5. exactus, a Certiorari was directed to the Coroner of the County of Y. who returned that he was Outlawed; and returned the Record of the exigent verbatim, by reaſon of which return the defendant was arreſted in his body and goods. In this caſe, it was agreed by the Court, 1. That proces of Outlawry doth not lie in Detinue of Charters. 2. That the return of the Coroners was not a ſufficient Record to make the party Outlawed, and therefore the Outlawry was reverſed, without a Writ of Error; and a Writ of Reſtitution was awarded of the goods of the Defendant ſendant. Paſch. 5. Eliz. Dyer. 223. Prellers Caſe.

8. If a Capias utlagatum be awarded, whereby the Sheriff is commanded to take the body, &c. & bona & catella, quæq; in inquiſitione inveniret in manus noſtras capiat ut de vero valore, &c. and by force of the Writ the Sheriff taketh the goods of a man Outlawed, and ſelleth them, and afterwards the Outlawry is reverſed: In ſuch caſe, the party ſhall be reſtored to his goods and chattels, becauſe the Sheriff was not commanded nor compelled by the Kings Writ to ſell them. Cook 8. pt. 143. in Dr. Druries Caſe. M. 27. Eliz. Amner and Laddiegtons Caſe: adjudg. acc.

9. One who had the priviledge of the Common Pleas, was arreſted in London, and before Iudgement, the defendant delivered a Writ of ſuperſedeas to the Inferiour Court, and notwithſtanding he proceeded in London to Iudgement, and afterwards he was taken in execution; and he was brought into the Common Pleas by Habeas Corpus, and becauſe it appeared to the Court, that by the Superſedeas, there was a Nullity as well of the Iudgement as of the execution, the party was diſcharged of the execution, and that without ſuing any Writ of error to reverſe the Iudgement: vide Cook 8. pt. 143. in Dr. Druries Caſe.

10. In Debt brought againſt 3. Heirs in Gavelkind upon an Obligation of their Anceſtor, one of them being within age, they were Outlawed; the two who were of full age purchaſed their charter of Pardon; and upon a Scire facias the plaintiff declared againſt them altogether: It was holden in this caſe, that the plea ſhould not demur for the nonage of the third, becauſe by the Outlawry the original is determined againſt him; and it is not void becauſe he was an Infant, but voidable only by Writ of error. Tr 7. Eliz. Dyer 229.

11. A man was Outlawed in Iudgement upon debt, and procured a pardon of the Outlawry, it not being certified by the Chancellor that the plaintiff was ſatisfied, and the pardon was & quod ſtet reſtus: where it ſhould be ſatisfac. quærenti: upon two Nichels, the pardon was allowed; After the year the Plaintiff ſued a Scire facias, and had execution by default, and a Capias, and an Exigent; and if upon the Capias Utlagatum the defendant ſhould avoid the Outlary by plea, was a Quære. M. 2 Eliz. Dyer. 172.

12. Debt upon an Obligation: the Defendant pleaded that the plaintiff ought not to be anſwered, becauſe he was Outlawed, and ſhewed the Outlary by the name of I. S. of D. the plaintiff ſhewed that at the time of the ſuit begun againſt I. S. upon whom the Outlawry was pronounced, the ſaid I. S. now Plaintiff was dwelling at S. abſque hoc that he who dwelling at D. It was holden to be a good Replication to avoid the Outlawry M. 29. Eliz. in Com. B, Leon 87.

13. The Queen brought a Quare Impedit againſt the Biſhop of Canterbury, and the Incumbent and others; and counted that A. was ſeiſed of the Advowſon, and that he was Outlawed in an action perſonal, at the ſuit of ſuch a one, and ſhewed the whole Outlary certain; Exception was taken to the Court, becauſe in ſetting down of the Outlawry, the partie is alledged to be returned by the Sheriff, but the name of the Sheriff is not there expreſſed: It was agreed in this caſe, That the Sheriffs in their returns do put their names to their returns: but the Court ſaid, it is not requiſite ſo to plead it; for that the omitting thereof doth not make the Return void; but only that the Sheriff for not ſo doing ſhall be amerced. Hill. 30. Eliz. in Com B. The Queen and the Biſhop of Canterburies caſe: Leon. 139.

14. Error brought to reverſe a judgement in the Common Pleas in a Bill of Priviledge brought by an Attorney of the ſaid Court upon an obligation, and upon the judgement iſſued forth proceſs of execution, upon which the defendant was outlawed, and the error was aſſigned in this, that upon that Iudgement, proceſs of Outlary doth not lie; for Capias is not in the Original Action: And of that opinion was the whole Court, being upon a Bill of Priviledge: and the Outlawry was reverſed. Tr 31. Eliz. in B.R. Crew and Baites caſe 229.

15. A. brought Debt in the Common Pleas, & in the action demanded 40 l. and upon his Declaration he did confeſs himſelf ſatisfied of 20 l. and thereupon error was brought in B.R. and the Iudgement was reverſed becauſe by his Declaration he had abated his VVrit, and he ought to have Iudgement according to his VVrit, and not according to his Declaration: the error was aſſigned in the Outlary; It was holden by all the Iuſtices, that if the principal Record be reverſed for error, that the Outlawry which is grounded upon it ſhall be reverſed alſo. Hill. 29. Eliz. B.R. Warrens caſe: Gold.

16. A man was outlawed, and the Sheriff returned the Proclamation (tali die anuæ & ſingulas proclamationes fieri feci) and did not return that ſuch a day he made the firſt, and ſuch a day the ſecond, &c. and this was aſſigned for error: It was the opinion of the Court that it was was Error; and the Outlary was reverſed. Tr. 30. Eliz. in Com. B. Goldesbr. 97.

17. A. brought a Quare Impedit againſt the Ordinary and the Incumbent, which was in of the preſentation of the Queen; and upon pleading there was a demurrer, and before the ſame was diſcuſſed, A. was outlawed at the ſuit of another in an action of debt; then the Incumbent reſigned his Benefice, and the Queen preſented him again, whereupon he was admitted, and inſtituted: A. brought a Writ of Error in the Kings Bench, and reverſed the Outlary, becauſe he was named of Hamby, when there was two Towns of the ſame name, and neither of them without addition; and now he brought a Scire facias to execute the firſt Judgement againſt the Incumbent, who pleaded all the ſaid ſpecial matter in bar; and whether by the Outlawry of the plaintiff the Preſentation was forfeited to the Queen, was the point debated: But the better opinion of the Court was, that by the Plaintiffs reverſal of the Outlawry he ſhould have his Preſentation again, and it was a practiſe of the defendant to reſign; for otherwiſe the Queen could not have preſented; wherefore Judgement was entred for the Plaintiff. M. 31. Eliz. in Com. B. Beverley and Cornwall's Caſe: Goldesbr. 103. Leon. 63. the ſame Caſe.

18. A Judgement was had in an action of debt of 80 l. and the Plaintiff had a Fieri facias, and the Sheriff levyed 20 l. of the goods of the defendant, and returned that of Record, but non conſtat by the Record whether the Plaintiff had received the 20 l. or not. The Plaintiff took forth a Capias ad ſatisfaciendum for the whole execution, being 80 l. and upon that the defendant was outlawed, and therein he brought error to reverſe that Outlawry; and it was reverſed, for that it appeared upon Record that execution was made by Fieri facias of 20 l. of the 80 l. and that the Capias ad ſatisfaciendum ſhould have been but 60 l. M. 40. Eliz. in Com. B. Goldesbr. 148.

19. Debt brought by husband and wife as Executrix, the defendant pleaded in Bar an Outlawry of the Teſtator by a ſtranger, which ſtands in force upon a Demurrer and ſolemn debate. It was adjudged to be no plea. Tr. 37. Eliz. in Com. B. Wilkies Caſe, vide. An Adminiſtrator of I. S. exhibited a Bill againſt F. an Attorney of the Common Pleas; and he pleaded in bar an Outlawry againſt the Adminiſtrator, and adjudged no plea. Dixon and Fawdas Caſe, ibid.

20. An action of Accompt was brought againſt two; one was outlawed, the other comes in by the Exigent, and enters the Accompt; he who was outlawed, obtained his Charter of pardon, and for that the proces was determined againſt him, and the Plaintiff hath choſen to have his action againſt the other, he prayed he might be diſcharged: but it was reſolved, that the proces was not determined, nor he which was outlawed ſhall not be diſcharged till the plaintiff be ſatisfied, viz. 41. E. 3. 13. Brownlo. 2. pt. 313. ac.

21. If a Recovery be had againſt a man in a Precipe by default, when he was extra 4. Maria, it ſhall not be reverſed by a Writ of Errour for that cauſe; for that he is not left without remedy, but may have his Action of a higher nature, for a Quod ei deforceat lyeth. But if a man be Outlawed in a perſonal action, being then extra 4. Maria, he may reverſe it by a Writ of Errour; for otherwiſe he ſhould be without remedy. Cook 1. pt. Inſtitutes 260.

22. If the defendant plead indiſability of the perſon an Outlary in the ſame Court, he ſhall not need to ſhew it forth preſently; or if he plead an outlary in bar, and it be denied, then he ſhall have a day to bring it in. But if he plead an Outlary, and offer withall to ſhew it to the Court, he muſt ſhew forth the Record of the Outlary preſently, ſub pede ſigilli; becauſe it is but a delatory Plea. Cook 1. pt. Inſtitutes 128.

23. A. was arraigned upon an Indictment of Murder found by Commiſſioners of Oyer and Terminer; which being certified by Certiorari into the Kings Bench, and he was arraigned upon it, and he alledging that he had matter of Exception in Law againſt the Indictment, had Counſell aſſigned him, and his Counſell of Exception for the Indictment, took Exception to it, that one of the Indictors was Outlawed in Treſpaſs: But becauſe he had not the Record ready, and the Court conceiving it to be alledged only for delay of Juſtice, and for that if it had been produced, it would not have been material, the Outlary not being for felony, the exception was by the Court diſallowed; and the defendant ordered to plead. 1. Hill. 4 Cor. in B. R. Sir William Withirs Caſe 105.

24. Debt upon a Contract, the defendant after imparlance pleaded an Outlawry in Bar; the plaintiff says, Nul tiel Record: and the defendant had day to bring in the Record, and fails of it, The Question was, what Judgement should be given: It was said, by the secondary of the Court, that it had been adjudged in that Court, That if the defendant after imparlance plead an Outlawry in Bar, and the defendant says, Nul tiel Record; and the defendant hath day to bring it in, and fails of it, That Judgement should be given absolutely, and not Respondeat Ouster; and such was the opinion of the whole Court in this case, and judgement was given accordingly. M. 15. Cor. in B. R. Dawson and Lees Case, 1. pt. 408.

25. Error to reverse an Outlawry for Murder, The Errour assigned was, That tempore promulgationis utlagariæ, & die antea & post: he was beyond Sea; viz. at H. in Holland: And the Attorney General confessed it: It was moved that this Assignment of Errour was ill; for that he ought to have said at the time of the Exigent awarded, and not at the time of the Judgement of the Outlawrie: It was said in this Case per Curiam, That if a man Commits a Murder, and after Exigent awarded he flyeth out of the Realm, and afterwards is outlawed, he shall not reverse this Outlawry for that cause; for he departed, obstinato Consilio, upon a set purpose to avoid the Law; and therefore by his absence he shall not have benefit of the Law: But in the principal Case, because the Attorney General had confessed, Et non Constat Curiæ, that he departed; for that cause, the Outlawry was reversed, and he pleaded to the Indictment. Hill. 15. Jac. in B. R. Carters Case. Cro. 2. pt. 464.

26. Error to reverse a Judgement in Ejectione firmæ, the defendant in the Writ of Error pleads an Outlawry against one of the parties, Plaintiffs: It was demurred, because this is an Action not to recover any thing, but to restore them to what they lost, and to discharge them of damages: It was the opinion of the Court in this Case, That this being a suit by way of discharge wherein they shall recover nothing; and they being enforced to joyn because one of the Plaintiffs was a Defendant in the former Action; and it would be very mischievous in case of Error, Attachment, or Audita Querela, which is only by way of discharge, if it should be any Bar, this Writ being but a Commission: It was agreed by all the Court, that it was no plea; and therefore awarded, the defendant should answer to the Errour. Tr 19. Iac. in B.R. Bythell and Harris Case. Cro. 2. pt. 616.

27. Error to reverse an Outlawry was, because the Capias was awarded against five, viz. three men, and two women, and so the exigent; and the Return was, quod ad quantum Comitatum &c. non comparu erunt, and doth not say, nec aliquis eorum comparuit: also the exigent is returned, quod Judicio Coronatorum utlagati sunt, and doth not shew, that there is any Coroner of his name; also it was utlagati existant; whereas for the women, it ought to have been waviata existant; for those Errors the Outlawry was reversed. Tr. 11. Jac. in B. R. Middletons Case. Cro. 2. pt. 358.

28. A. was outlawed upon a quo warranto brought against him for keeping of an Inn; and he brought error to reverse the Outlawry; the error assigned was, because he was outlawed per Judicium Coronatorum, and he doth not shew the names of any of the Coroners; the Judgement was reversed. Pasc. 17. Iac. in B. R. Patrichs Case. Cro. 3. pt. 528. vide Pasc. 17. Iac. in B.R. Gerrards Case. ac. vide Dyer 317.

29. Error to reverse an Outlawry in Debt after Judgement: Diverse errors assigned: 1. The Writ of exigent, being directed to the Sheriffs of the City of Lincoln, the Writ is, quod Capias Corpus ejus, ita quod habeas; whereas it ought to have been Capiatis & habeatis. 2. Because in the original, and all the proceeding he was called A. G. of L. in Com. Eborum, and in the exigit, she is named Naper de K. 3. Because the Writ mentions, Quod recuperavit versus eam, rather it ought to be eum. 4. Because there was not any Proclamation in the County where she inhabited: For these second and third Errors; the Judgement was reversed. Tr. 19. Iac. in. R. B. the Lady Gargrave and Marchams Case. Cro. 2. pt. 576.

30. Error of a Judgement in the Common Pleas upon the Outlawry in the said Judgement; The error in the Outlawry was, 1. for that that the former Hustings were de Communibus placitis; and this is de placitis terræ; and 2. because this was returned upon the same day that it bears date; for that cause it was holden that it was not good, and the Judgement reversed; but of the first error, the Court doubted. Hill. 20. Iac. in B. R. Archer and Dalbies Case. Cro. 2. part 660.

31. Audita Querela brought to avoid a Statute upon the Statute of Usury; the defendant pleaded, that he ought not be answered because he was outlawed at the Suit of T. M: by the name of Peter Griffith, whereas his name was Piers Griffith; it was therefore thereupon demurred: 1. Because Peter and Piers are two names of Baptism, and so it cannot be averred to be one and the same person. 2. For that this Outlawry, which is only by way of discharge is not pleadable: But it was adjudged for the Defendant. 1. That it was but one name. 2. That it is well pleadable in this Suit; for a person outlawed is not receiveable to sue in any Court, unless it be to reverse his own Outlary; for it was said, where the action is ad lucrandum, there ought to be ability in the person; and it is all one to gain by way of discharge, as by provision; it was adjudged for the Defendant, and that the plaintiff take nothing by his Writ. Pas. 15. Iac. in B R. Griffith and Middletons Case: Cro. 2. pt. 425.

32. Note exceptions was taken to avoid an Outlary in husband and wife: 1. Because the wife cannot be outlawed but Waive. 2. It was Comparant for Comparuerunt: it was much questioned, if this Outlawrie might be avoided by way of exception upon a Motion; the Clerks of the Court affirmed, that by the course of the Court in the same Term such an Outlawry might be avoided upon exception by a Motion in Court, but this being in another Term it could not, but by Writ of Errour brought, and not otherwise; all which was affirmed by the Court. Tr 14. Iac. in B.R. Bolstr. 3. part 213.

33. A. brought debt upon a bond against B. The Defendant pleaded that the Plaintiff was Outlawed, and a day was given him to bring in the Record, at which day he made default: it was prayed, that the judgement for the Plaintiff in this case should be, that the defendant should answer; for the Plea of Outlawry was but a dilatory plea, and no plea in bar. but this difference was taken by the Court: In an Action of debt upon a bond, Outlawry of the Plaintiff is a Plea in barr: and the reason is, because all the debts in specialities are forfeited to the King by reason of the Outlawry; and because the King is to have them, it is a good plea in bar. But in Trespass, or in debt upon a contract, the Outlawrie is but to the abatement of the Writ, and the King shall not have the debts upon simple Contracts; but after the Outlawrie pardoned the Plaintiff may have an action for them again. M. 38. Eliz. in B. R. Owen 22. Barnards Case.

34. A. brought debt upon an obligation against B. Administrator of G. the defendant pleaded, that the Plaintiff, was outlawed at the suit of I.S. after Judgement, and pleaded it specially, and being so outlawed died, and that Outlawrie is of full force. Iudgement of action. Upon which the plaintiff demurred: Upon the reading of the Record, It was the opinion of the Court, that it was no plea; (or it is only by Implication; also the Executor or Administrator may have diverse things which are not forfeitable; as if the Testator had Mortgaged his Lands upon condition that if the Mortgagee pay not such a day to him, his heirs, &c. an hundred pound, then it shall be lawfull for him, his heirs, executors, &c. to re-enter, and before the day the Testator is outlawed, and makes his executor, and dies; yet at the day the Mortgagee payes the money to the Executors, that is affers, and not forfeited to the King. And in this case, it was agreed, That an Executor, or an Administrator might bring a Writ of Error for the Reversall of an Outlawrie, and the Outlawrie is not a barr to him; and it was adjudged, Tr. 37. Eliz. in Woodley and Bradwells case, in Com. B. rot. 2954. accordingly that it was no plea; for it is a plea but by Argument. Vide 3. H. 6. 14. & 32. And it was said, That a man outlawed may make an Executor, and this Executor may have a Writ of error to reverse the Outlawrie; and upon view of the president of Wolbies Case, the Court gave Iudgement that that it was no plea. M. 20. Iac. in Com. B. Baker and Gervis case, Hutton 53.

35. In Debt, the Defendant said, that he is attainted of Felony, that the attainder yet continues, and demands Iudgement, if he shall be put to answer: It was adjudged, he shall answer, and may be taken in execution; and none attainted or outlawed may be put to answer in any action against them, but in an action brought by them, they shall not be answered. Note this Iudgement was much against the opinion of Walmsley Iustice, who said it was in vain to put a man to answer, who in truth hath nothing to be taken in execution: Vide Hasting and Blakes case: Noy 1. acc.

Pardons.

1. General Pardons: what things shall be pardoned by it, what not: how they shall be expounded: to what things they shall extend, to what not; and to whom; and where to be pleaded and allowed, where not.

1 A Was indicted, that he the 12 day of February 13 Eliz. gave to B. a mortal wound, whereof he died the 18 of June the same year. Upon his Arraignment, he pleaded the General Pardon 13 Eliz. of all Felonies, Offences, Misdemeanours, in the Act not excepted before and until the 14 of the said month of February; and averred, that neither he nor the offence was excepted in the said Pardon; and prayed to be discharged. It was the opinion of all the Justices, that the Pardon did discharge him, because the stroke given was the cause of the Felony; the giving of which wound, was the offence and misdemeanour against the Queen, which is pardoned by the Act of Parliament; and by that all things ensuing the said offence are pardoned. Mich. 13 Eliz. Plow com. 401 Eales Case; and so the Quere in 1 Eliz. Dyer 19 is resolved. See Co. 2 part 42. Heydons Case, &c.

2. A. who had practised Multiplication, which is Felony by the Statute of 4 H. 4. cap. 41. was pardoned by the General pardon; but B. who was Accessary was excepted, as one of those who was in the Tower. It was a Question if he should be discharged by the Pardon. It is a Quere in Pasch. 7 E. 6. Dyer 88. But see for the Resolution of this Quere, Stanf. 47, 48. Lamb. Justice of peace, 279, 280, and Dalton 284. by which Books the Quere seems to be resolved, That he shall be discharged.

3. If a man killeth his Master, and Petit treason is pardoned by the general Pardon, and Murder is excepted; yet he shall be discharged, for that Petit Treason is Murder, and more. 1 Eliz. Dyer 274. and see 33 H 8. Dyer 50. If Murder or Petit Treason be made High Treason, thereby the Murder or Petit Treason is extinct, for that High Treason doth drown every less offence.

4. A. Parson of B. was deprived of his Benefice, anno 12 Eliz. for Adultery committed anno 11 Eliz. and after by the General Pardon of 2 Aprilis 13 Eliz. the offence of Adultery amongst other was pardoned before the 14 of February last past. It was resolved in that case, That the said A. who was deprived, by force of that Pardon is now become Parson again; and the sentence declaring the said deprivation was holden void: for by the Pardon the Adultery, which was the cause and foundation of the sentence, is discharged, and by consequence all that dependeth upon it is also discharged. See Cook 6 part 13. Bartons Case vouched in the Case of Pardons.

5. A. being indicted of Piracy, stood mute, and would not plead, and had Judgment to be pressed. The Parliament pardoned all pains, contempts and execution, &c. and excepted Piracies. It was the opinion of the Justices, that he might be indicted again of the same Piracie, or of any other Piracie committed at the same time; for that the Judgment was not for the conspiracie, but for the contempt. Pasch. 14 Eliz. Dyer 308. Cobhams case.

6. An Act on upon the Case was brought for these words, viz. He is a Thief; and why will you take a Thief's part? The words were spoken 1 Maii 10 Jac. the Defendant justified the words, because the Plaintiff stole Sheep: the Plaintiff by way of replication, set forth a general pardon granted such a time; and further said, That if any Felony was committed, it was before the general pardon made, upon which the defendant did demur. It was the opinion of the Court, that by the pardon both the punishment and the fault was taken away, and that the wrong was done to the King by the Common Law; and the King if he pardons, the party is cleared of the offence and wrong. Tr. 12 Jac. in C. B. Cuddington and Wilkins Case. Bowalow 1 par. 10.

7. A sentence was given in the Spiritual Court in the case of Tythes against the defendant, and an Appeal sued thereupon, and I. S. made thereby a party, as procurator of the Suit, who was not any arty thereto. The firſt ſentence was confirmed in November 1621. and Coſts then awarded to I. S. but not taxed till Hillary-Term 1623. and afterwards comes the general pardon, which pardons all offences before December 1623. by which it was pretended that the Coſts given in the Spiritual Court were pardoned, and a Prohibition prayed: but the Prohibition was denyed by the Court: for thoſe Coſts being awarded to the party before the Pardon, although they be taxed afterwards, be not taken away by that Pardon. Paſch. 1 Car. in C.B. Dr. Brikendens Caſe. Cro. 1 par. 6.

8. Upon a ſuit before the Commiſſary of the Biſhop of N for Defamation, the plaintiff had ſentence, and 6 l. Coſts. The defendant appealed to the Arches: which ſuit was depending 1622. and by the general pardon of 21 Jac. the defamatory words were pardoned; which was pleaded in the Spiritual Court of Arches, and notwithſtanding they proceeded in the Appeal, where the ſentence was reverſed, and in that 16 l. Coſts for the Appellant; whereas by the Law they ought not to have proceeded, nor given coſts: and a Prohibition was prayed. But it was reſolved, There was no cauſe of Prohibition: for although the Pardon hath diſcharged the offence of Defamation, without puniſhment to be inflicted by way of penalty or otherwiſe; yet the Coſts aſſeſſed before the day to which the Pardon relates, are not diſcharged: and if they be not duly aſſeſſed, the Court may well proceed in the Appeal, to diſcharge the parties of them: for the pardon doth not extend to ſtop the proceedings in the Appeal. Trin. 2 Car. in C.B. Baldry and Kicks ds Caſe. Cro. 1 par. 33.

9. Note, It was reſolved and adjudged, 1. That in all caſes depending betwixt party and party, in the Spiritual Court, where the ſuit is only pro ſalute animæ, or reformatione morum, as for defamation, laying of violent hands upon a Clerk, &c. there the Kings pardon is a bar of the ſuit: for the ſuit is not to recover any damages, but to inflict puniſhment upon the offender. But if one Libelleth there for Tythes, or for a contract of Marriage, or for any thing wherein the plaintiff hath an intereſt, then the King cannot pardon it either before or after the ſuit begun. 2. Reſolved, although that the ſuit be for the King, yet when ſentence is given, and Coſts taxed for the party, the pardon ſhall not diſcharge them; contrary if the pardon had been before the ſentence given. 3. That although the party Appeal, ſo as to divers purpoſes the ſentence is ſuſpended; yet by the firſt ſentence the party hath an intereſt in the Coſts, which cannot be diſcharged by the Kings pardon. Trin. 20 Jac. in C.B. Cook 5 par. 11. Halls Caſe.

10. A. and B. exhibited a Bill in Mich. Term 19 Jac. againſt the Biſhop of C. and I. S. which was ſcandalous, and a Libel againſt the Biſhop. 21 Jac. came the general pardon, where all offences (not Treaſon) were pardoned. 22 Jac. it was moved, that the Bill againſt the Biſhop being ſcandalous, might be taken off the File; which was done accordingly, and the plaintiff fined 100 l. to the King, and 100 l. damages to the Biſhop. Now the plaintiff prayed to have benefit of the pardon, and to be diſcharged of coſts to the party. It was Reſolved in this Caſe, That this general pardon intervening betwixt the Bill and the Sentence for the Fine and Coſts, the plaintiff ought to be diſcharged of the Fine and Coſts by reaſon thereof, and becauſe he hath not any means now to plead the pardon. Mich. 3 Car. in the Star-chamber. The Lord Morley and the Biſhop of Chicheſters caſe. Cro. 1 par. 48.

11. The King brought a Quare impedit againſt the Biſhop of C. and one P. and made title by the Statute of 21 H. 8. For that A. being Vicar of I. a Benefice with cure above 8 l. 15 Jac took a ſecond Benefice, viz. the Vicarage of H. in the county of D. being alſo a Benefice with cure; whereby the firſt benefice became void, and remained void for two years; and that the preſentation from King James accrued to the King. The defendant P. pleaded the general pardon of 21 Jac. and that A. was not a perſon excepted out of the pardon, nor the ſaid cauſe of lapſe excepted; and that the ſaid A ſo being incumbent, reſigned the benefice of I. and gave title to I. D. to preſent, who upon the ſaid Reſignation preſented P. the defendant, who was admitted and inducted before the Writ brought. The Atterney-general for the King replyed; ſhewing the Exception in the Pardon, where is excepted all Titles and Actions of quare impedit, other then ſuch Actions of quare impedit which the King hath or may have ratione lapſi incurred ultra three years laſt paſt, for or concerning any benefice whereof an Incumbent then was, or at the laſt day of the Parliament ſhould be in actual poſſeſſion by the preſentation of any Patron, or the collation of any Ordinary: and that the ſaid Church being ſo void by lapſe, I. D. preſented, and traverſed, that the Vicarage of I did become void by the Reſignation of the ſaid A. and upon the Replication, the defendant demurred in Law. In this caſe it was reſolved by all the Juſtices and Barons in the Exchequer chamber (amongſt other Points) That it was not the intent of the ſaid general Pardon to diſpenſe with Pluralities; and alſo, that the general words in a Pardon ſhall not extend to make a Diſpenſation; and the Church being once void, ſhall not be full, without a new preſentation; and that the words of exception in the general Pardon do not extend to A. for that extends onely to thoſe who are in as Incumbents, (which

(which A. is not) and not to thoſe who are in as Incumbents by uſurpation: and it was ſaid, That ſince the Statute of 21 *H.*8. there have been divers general Pardons, and no Pluralities were ever conceived to be within them. It was adjudged for the plaintiff. Hill. 9 Car. in the Exchequer-chamber. The King and the Biſhop of Carl. and Pryſls caſe. Co. 1 par. 258, 259, 160, 161.

12. A Bill was exhibited into the Star-chamber for a Riot five years before the general pardon of 35 Eliz. and the pardon excepted all penalties, forfeitures, due, or which ſhall or may be due for or by reaſon of any offence, miſdemeanour, and for which any Bill or Information within eight years before the laſt day of this preſent Parliament, hath been or ſhall be exhibited. Upon that pardon, it was agreed, That the Queen might proceed for the Fine, but the party ſhould not ſuffer impriſonment or any corporal puniſhment, for that is not excepted. But if the Bill had been exhibited within four years, the offence it ſelf had been excepted by the pardon, and ſo all incidents depending upon it, as well corporal puniſhment as pecuniary, had been excepted. Mich. 30 Eliz. in Cam. Stell. Co. 1 par. 46. Erankyns Caſe.

13. The Exception in the general pardon of 35 Eliz. was: Except out of this General Pardon all Offences, whereof, or for the which no Suit by Bill, &c. at any time within four years of this preſent Parliament, is or ſhall be commenced in the Court of Star-Chamber, and now is, and at the laſt day of this preſent Seſſion ſhall be there depending. A Bill was exhibited before the Parliament, and proceſs awarded, which was returnable after the Parliament ended: And if that ſhall be ſaid depending, was the Queſtion: and it was reſolved, that the ſuit was depending; and it was ſaid, There is a great difference betwixt an Original Writ out of the Chancery returnable in the Common-pleas, or Kings Bench, for there the original comes out of another Court, and therefore the Court hath no Record of it before it be returned: but in the Star-chamber the proces iſſueth out of the ſame Court, and is returnable in the ſame Court, and therefore the ſuit ſhall be ſaid there depending before the return of it Mich. 34 Eliz. in Cam. Stell. Co. 5 par. Gilbert Littletons caſe 47.

14. A man was plaintiff in the Star-chamber againſt I. S. for a Ryot by Bill brought before the beginning of the Parliament, and afterwards the general pardon of 34 Eliz. was made; and afterwards the plaintiff died: and the Kings Attorney-general informed againſt the defendant for the offences, and proſecuted upon the firſt ſuit. It was reſolved in this caſe, That the ſaid offences were pardoned; and theſe words in the exception (remaining to be proſecuted) ought to be conſtrued, to be proſecuted by the party. Paſch. 42 Eliz. in Cam. Stell. Co. 5 par. 47. Drywoods caſe.

15. In a Writ of Entry in the Quibus brought in Wales, the Defendant pleaded Non diſſeiſivit, and pendant that plea the general pardon of 35 Eliz. was made, by which all Fines, amerciaments and contempts were pardoned; and afterwards the iſſue was found for the demandant, and Judgment given; but non miſericordia, quia pardonatur. And in Errour brought, Errour was aſſigned, becauſe that the defendant ought to have been amerced, becauſe the general pardon did not diſcharge the amerciament. But it was Reſolved, that the original cauſe of the amerciament was the wrong and contempt of the tenant, that he did not render the Land to the demandant; and the original cauſe being pardoned, the amerciament by conſequent was pardoned; and a general pardon ſhall be taken beneficial for the ſubject, and moſt ſtrongly againſt the King. Mich. 40 Eliz. in B. R. Co. 5 par. 49. Vaughans caſe.

16. Two are bound in a Recognizance to I. S. of 500 l. afterwards the conuſee is outlawed, and after the general pardon of 39 Eliz. is made: and if the ſaid debt were pardoned or not, was the Queſtion, which conſiſted upon two exceptions in the ſaid pardon, viz. Except out of this Pardon all debts which were or ſhall be due to the Queen, or to any other to her uſe, by any condemnation, Recognizance, or otherwiſe: And alſo except all goods, chattels, debts, actions, &c. already forfeited by reaſon of any Outlawry, whereof her Majeſtie by her Highneſs Letters Patents hath before the day of this preſent Seſſion made any Grant, Covenant or Proviſo to any perſon or perſons. It was reſolved in this caſe, that by the latter exception it was proved, that the intent of the Queen was not to include debts which accrued to her by Outlawry within the firſt exception, for there is a ſpecial ſaving, and in a ſpecial manner for them by the latter exception. And alſo the Pardon is to be taken moſt beneficially for the ſubject and moſt ſtrongly againſt the Queen. Hill. 41 Eliz. in Scac. Wyrralls caſe. Co. 5 par. 50.

17. In an Appeal the defendant was found guilty of Manſlaughter. The Queſtion was, if the King might pardon the burning in the hand. It was reſolved, that he might, becauſe that the burning of the hand is not parcel of the Judgment; for then the King could not pardon it, becauſe the defendant hath an intereſt in the Judgement; and the burning in the hand is to no other purpoſe but to notifie to the Judge, whether he hath had his Clergie before, or not. But it was objected, that although the King might pardon the burning in the hand, yet the defendant might be impriſoned at the ſuit of the party; for in caſe of Indictment before the Statute of 18 Eliz. cap. 17. the King might pardon the Impriſonment, but not in an Appeal. But it was Reſolved, that the Statute of 18 Eliz. did extend as well to an Appeal as to an Indictment, otherwiſe the party ſhould be lawfully diſcharged of his impriſonment, and yet remain perpetually in priſon; which was not the meaning of the makers of the Statute. Trin. 41 Eliz. in B. R. Cok. 5 par. Biggs his caſe. See 3 Ma. Dyer 201. 9 Eliz. Dyer 261. in Muſgraves caſe. 15 Eliz. Dyer 323. Taverners caſe.

18. The general pardon of 28 Eliz. did pardon all Felonies, &c. in which Burglary was excepted. The Queſtion was, If the Attainder of one for Burglary was excepted. It was reſolved, that it was excepted, becauſe that now this Burglary appears by Record of Judgement in Law: and although the Jury hath found the priſoner guilty of Burglary, and upon that he had Judgement; yet the offence of Burglary is the foundation of all, and therefore if the ſame be excepted, the whole proceeding upon it is excepted; and by the exception of the offence in a general pardon, all dependencies upon it are alſo excepted. Hill. 19 Eliz. Cok. 6 par. 13. the caſe of Pardon.

19. A man was outlawed after Judgement before the general pardon 43 Eliz. and after the Judgement died; his Executors made ſatisfaction upon Record; and without any proces they pleaded the general pardon, with an Averment that they were not any of the perſons excepted. In this caſe, it was reſolved, 1. that the Executors ſhould take advantage of the general pardon. 2. that although the words in the proviſo in the pardon are (until ſuch time as the perſon ſo outlawed ſhall ſatisfie) that is ſuch an intereſt in the perſon outlawed, that although that he dieth after the pardon, yet his Executors may ſatisfie, and have benefit of the pardon. 3. Reſolved, that becauſe no Scire facias nor Capias utlagata, nor charges lyeth againſt the Executors, they may gratis come in for neceſſity without proces, and plead the general pardon, with averment, that they are not any perſons except. Cok. 6 par. 79, 80. Sir Ed. Pbittons Caſe.

20. Proces iſſued out of the Kings Bench for a Cart and Horſes which were the cauſes of a mans death, as a Deodand. It was moved, that there had been a general pardon by Parliament ſince that time, by which Deodands were pardoned; and therefore it was prayed, that the proces might be ſtayed. The Court demanded if there be not an exception in it of the Almoners intereſt, and by what words in the pardon Deodands are pardoned. It was anſwered, By no particular, but by the general words: whereupon it was ordered that the proces ſhould ſtay until the Almoner was heard what he could ſay in the caſe.

2. Of ſpecial Pardons: what good, what not: what things ſhall be pardoned by them: how they ſhall be extended: how far, and to what things extended: and of divers other things ariſing by Pardons.

1. TWo were outlawed in an Appeal of Murder; they purchaſed a Pardon, and had a Scire facias againſt the Plaintiff, and Loſes mediate and immediate, and the Pardon agreed not with the Indictment in the addition. Alſo the Pardon was, Pardonamus A & B. omnes utlag. verſus præfat A. & B ſeu alterum eorum promulgat: and although that the words of the Pardon were joynt, and they are joyned in the words of the Pardon, whereas the felony of the one is not the felony of the other; yet it was holden, that the enſuing words made it ſeveral; and therefore it was holden notwithſtanding the Exceptions, that the Pardon was good, and ſhould be allowed. Paſc. 29. H. 8. Dyer 34. See 22 E. 4. 7. &c.

2. A. and B. as Principals, and C. an his Wife as Acceſſaries, were found guilty in the procurement of the death of I.S. at the ſuit of the Queen; and the Principals were executed, and C. the Acceſſary, for his Clergy was taken away by Parliament. The Queen pardoned the Wife: it was a Quere, if an Appeal did lie againſt them; it ſeemeth it doth not, for that the principal was not named in the Appeal, nor was alive. Mich. 1. Ma. Dyer 132.

3. A man indebted to the Queen in 200 l. upon a Recognizance, was attainted of Treaſon; the Queen pardoned the Treaſon, and gave, granted and reſtored all his Goods, Chattels, &c. which he had forfeited by the Attainder: it was the opinion of the Juſtices, that in this caſe the debt was not gone by the pardon. Mich. 3. Ma. Dyer 124

4. A. purchaſed Lands in Comite to him and his Wife, and the heirs of the Husband, without licence: the Queen pardoned all offences pro quacunq; alienatione ſibi facta; the pardon was allowed, and the party was diſcharged in the Exchequer, although in the pardon there was no mention made of the wife. Hill. 3 Eliz. Dyer 196. Sir Robert Catlins Caſe.

5. A. brought debt upon an Obligation againſt B. the Defendant pleaded, that after the making of the Obligation, the Plaintiff was attainted of coyning, and pleaded the Attainder at length: the Plaintiff confeſſed the Attainder; but ſaid, that afterwards the Queen by Letters patents did pardon him, him, and did reſtore unto him omnia bona & catalla ſua; and thereupon the Defendant did demur in Law: the Queſtion was, If the debt by ſpecialty be included in thoſe words. Quere, The point was not reſolved. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 114, 115.

6. A. was ſeiſed of the Mannor of W holden of the King in Capite, the ſame being in Leaſe to ſeveral Tenants for years, for ſeveral Rents, and died ſeiſed, 26. his Heir without tendring any livery, entred, and took the profits to this time to his own uſe, no Office being found. The Heir being called into the Court of Wards, to know what he could ſay why an Office ſhould not be found, and he ſue his Livery pleaded the general pardon made 5 Eliz. and if any words in that Pardon were ſufficient to diſcharge him of the intruſion, and of the mean profits, and ſuing of Livery, was the Queſtion. It was reſolved by the Court, That the pardon did diſcharge all entries and intruſions, and ſo by conſequent all mean Rates, and ſuing of Livery: but if he had once tendred his Livery, then by the Proviſo he ought to have ſued it forth. Paſch. 8 Eliz. Dyer 249.

7. A. being ſeized of two Mannors, one in poſſeſſion, the other in reverſion, died 2 Eliz. An Office was found of the Mannor in poſſeſſion, and that it was holden of a ſubject in Socage; and nothing found of the Mannor in reverſion, which was upon Extent, the heir being of full age, took the profits of the Mannor in poſſeſſion, and then ſold them both to a ſtranger, who took the profits till now: and 11 Eliz. a new Office was found, by which the Mannor in Extent was found to be holden of the Queen by Knights ſervice in capite, and the ſeiſin and dying ſeized of A. Whether the leaving out of the Mannor in capite in the firſt Office, and the taking of the profits of the other, be an Intruſion, before the laſt Office found; and if it be, if it be pardoned by the general pardon of 5 Eliz. was the Queſtion; and alſo, if the ſuing of Livery was alſo gone; and if the ſuing of Livery be not gone, then whether the intruſion was pardoned by the general pardon of 5 Eliz. It was the clear opinion of the Court, That for the Socage Mannor, the pardon did diſcharge the entry and intruſion; the other the Court doubted. But the better opinion ſeemed to be, That it was alſo diſcharged by the pardon. Trin. 11 Eliz. Dyer 281, 285.

8. Hill. 22 H. 7. the Kings tenant died ſeized, and an Office was found accordingly, and that the heir entred and took the profits before the Office found and after; and afterwards the King pardoned him omnes intruſiones. It was holden, that the ſame was not good, without the words exitus & proficuas, &c. Trin. 12 Eliz. Dyer 280.

9. Errour brought to reverſe a Judgement in Debt againſt him in the Exchequer; The defendant pleaded an Excommunication of the plaintiff in the ſaid Writ of Errour, and brought the Letters of the ſaid Excommunication certified by the Official under the Seal of the Biſhop of D. which recited, that they proceeded againſt him for Recuſancie, and for contempt in Non Compariendo, he was excommunicate. The Plaintiff ſaid, That after the Excommunication, the King by his general pardon, 3 Jac. pardoned all contempts; and averred, that neither the offence nor the perſon was excepted. It was in this caſe reſolved, that the plea of Excommunication was inſufficient, becauſe it was certified by the Official or Commiſſary, whereas it ought to have been certified by the Biſhop himſelf. The other chief point of Law was, whether the Pardon had not diſcharged the Excommunication: it was not reſolved; but the Court ſeemed to be of opinion that it was, becauſe the Defendant was ruled to anſwer over. Cook. 8 par. 68, 69. Trollops caſe.

10. Sir John Bennet by ſentence and decree in the Star chamber for bribery and miſdemeanour in his Office of Judge of the Prerogative-Court, was fined 20000 l. and cenſured to be impriſoned, and made uncapable of any Office of Judicature: The Defendant obtained the ſaid Office; Sir John Bennet brought an Aſſize of the Office; the Defendant upon pretence of this ſentence and decree, would have ſtayed his proceedings; and Sir John having day given to ſhew cauſe, ſhewed a pardon of the late King after the ſentence, wherein all the matter was recited which was contained in the decree, and all penalties and puniſhments by reaſon thereof, and all diſabilities and incapacities, except the fine of 20000 l. This Caſe was referred to all the Juſtices to conſider of; it was reſolved by all the Juſtices and Barons, That the pardon had taken away all force of the ſentence, except for the fine of 20000 l. and all inhabilities were diſcharged thereby; and that the ſentence took not from him his Office; and the pardon having taken away all offences, all the Juſtices were of opinion that he might proceed in his Aſſize. Mich. 2 Car. Sir John Bennet and Doctor Eaſedales caſe. Cro. 1 par. 40.

11. Excommunicato Capiendo, upon a ſentence in the Delegates for coſts in caſtigatione morum, the ſentence being before 21 Jac. divers Capias iſſued according to the Statute of 5 Eliz. The Defendant being taken, pleaded quoad all the penalties, that it is not any of the cauſes within the Statute; therefore of them he ought to be diſcharged: and quoad the Excommunicato Capiendo, he pleaded the general pardon of 21 Jac. upon which it was demurred. It was the opinion of the Court, That this this Excommunication was diſcharged by the pardon; and all contempts before the pardon, are diſcharged; and all the ſentences for the crime, except onely the coſts: for the payment of which, the party ought to have new proceſs. Tr. 6 Car. in B. R. Codrington and Rodmans caſe. Cro. 1 par. 144.

12. Sir Matthew Mints, who was convicted of Manſlaughter, and had his Clergy, his burning in the hand was reſpited: He now came and pleaded his pardon, whereby the burning of the hand for the Manſlaughter, and all other felonies by him committed, & alia mal. facta, before the eighth of July, were pardoned; and there was a ſpecial clauſe in it, that He ſhould not finde ſureties for his behaviour; the pardon bore date the 31 of October. It was the opinion of the Court, that although there were divers miſdemeanours committed by him after the ſaid eighth day of July, for which he deſerved to be bound to the good behaviour, yet his pardon was allowed, and he diſcharged for finding ſureties. Mich. 16 Car. in B. R. Sir Matthew Mints Caſe. Cro. 1. par. 433.

13. A. was indicted that he feloniouſly 8 Jac. ſtole plate from King James, whereas in truth it was the plate of Queen Anne, and ſtolen from her; for which he obtained his pardon by the means of the Queen. Now he was indicted again for ſtealing the ſame plate; whether he ſhould have the benefit of the general pardon of 21 Jac. was the doubt, without pleading it, and praying a diſcharge, becauſe of the ſpecial Exception in it of the goods of the King: the Court doubts of it, and conceived it excepted; and therefore they adviſed him to plead. Hill. 11 Car. in B. R. Belts caſe. Cro 1 par. 324.

14. Prohibition to the Court of High Commiſſion for one W. Parſon of S. who was there deprived for incontinency, and another preſented to his Benefice; whereupon he procured a pardon to be reſtored: this pardon was before ſentence thereupon, and afterwards they proceeded there againſt him for Coſts of ſuit. The pardon was allowed by the Court; for altho gh another be Plaintiff in the Spiritual Court, as High Commiſſion, or Star-chamber; yet they be the Kings ſuits, and he may pardon them; and if the pardon be before ſentence given, they ſhall give no Coſts. Hill. 11 Jac. in B. R. Watts caſe. Cro. 2 par. 335.

15. An Indictment was drawn againſt Sir Anthony Mildmay, upon the Statute of 27 E. 3. Cap. 1. for a Præmunire for his illegal acting as a Commiſſioner in the Commiſſion of Sewers, and committing one to priſon without baile, becauſe he would not diſcharge a Judgement given for him in the Kings Bench againſt ſome of the Commiſſioners Officers: for which offence he was fined: he procured the Kings pardon; which was in theſe words: Pardonamus omnes & ſingulas tranſgreſſiones, offenſiones, & contemptus: and whether by this pardon the Præmunire were releaſed, the Judgement of a man attainted in a Præmunire, being that he is to loſe his lands, goods, liberty, and to be out of the Kings protection, was the queſtion; and upon divers Preſidents ſhewed in Court, that the Kings by ſuch words have heretofore pardoned the offence of a Præmunire, the Court ordered the pardon to be read, and allowed of the ſame. Mich. 12 Jac. in B. R. Sir Anthony Mildmay's caſe. Bolſtr. 2 par. 299.

16. One killed a man with a Gun by miſadventure; the Queſtion was, whether in this caſe he might plead the general pardon, and ſo be diſcharged: it was ſaid by the Court, That if one kill another by doing an act which was needleſs for him to do, it is manſlaughter; and ſo it was adjudged in Sir John Chichſters caſe, who killed his man by miſadventure in fencing with him: but if he kill another in doing an act which belongs to his calling, it is not manſlaughter; for men muſt be wary not to do things which concern them not to do: it was reſolved in the principal caſe, That this act was not within the general Pardon, but the party muſt purchaſe his pardon. Tr. 1652. in B. R. Style 337.

17. A. was plaintiff in the Star-chamber, againſt B. C. and others, by Bill exhibited 16 Jac. and was for ſcandalous matters not examinable in that Court, and for other matters which were examinable here; and Witneſſes were examined and publiſhed, 19 Jac. 21 Jac. the general Pardon by Parliament was made, by which all offences, contempts and miſdemeanours from 20 December before (except ſuch offences, contempts, &c. whereof or for which any Suit or Bill within eight years before was exhibited into the Star-chamber, and there remaining to be proſecuted this laſt day of this preſent Parliament) Afterwards, 1 Car. the cauſe came to hearing at the ſuit of the defendant; and upon the hearing, the defendant was fined 200 l. and for abuſe of the Court, for exhibiting the ſcandalous matter, the plaintiff was fined 500 l. and damage to the defendant 200 Marks. By reaſon of the diverſity of opinions of the Court of Star-chamber, this caſe was referred to all the Juſtices; and they all agreed, that the contempt and offence for exhibiting the ſcandalous Bill, was pardoned, and not within the Exception: for it cannot be intended that the plaintiff exhibited a Bill upon which he ſhould not be fined; but this exception was of that which was laid to the charge of the defendant, and the defendant dant may have his remedy at the Common Law; and the contempt, which is accidental to the offence, is pardoned; and so by consequence, the fine also is pardoned. Hill. 1 Car. Beverly and Powers Case. Hutton 79.

Parson and Vicar, Patron and Ordinary.

1. A Parson is inhibited by the Archbishop, that he shall not intermeddle with the Benefice; by means whereof, the Parson is absent by the space of fourty days. The Question was, If such absence should make a Lease made by the Parson void. It was agreed by all the Justices, in this case, That such absence doth not make the Lease void: for it must be a voluntary absence, for such absence the Statute intendeth; and this absence is by reason of an inhibition. Mich. 40 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. 163.

2. In a quare impedit the case was: A. was outlawed in Debt; B. Incumbent of the Church resigned his Benefice to the Queen, and the Queen presented him again; whereupon he was instituted and inducted. Then A brought a Writ of Error in the Kings Bench, and reversed the Outlawry, and brought a Scire facias to execute his first Judgement against B. who pleaded all the special matter. It was holden in this case, that the plaintiff should be barred: for by the Outlawry of the plaintiff, the presentation was forfeited to the Queen, although it was but a thing in Action; and by the reversal of the Outlawry, he shall not be restored to the presentation, because it was a thing once lawfully executed, and vested in the Queen. Mich. 31 Eliz. in C.B. Beverly and Cornwallis case. Goldesbr. 103, 104.

3. Note: There is a difference betwixt persons who have the meer right of the land or thing in demand in them, and them which have it not: those who have not the meer right in them, but a qualified right, although they be barred in Real Actions, yet the same shall not binde the successor, as Parson, Prebendary, &c. For in such case, in a new Action of the same nature by the successor, he shall falsifie the Recovery; and the Recovery in such case doth not make any discontinuance, but that the successor may enter. Cok. 6 part 8. in Ferrers case.

4. If a Writ of Annuity be brought against a Parson or Vicar, upon a feigned prescription, or by agreement, by the Parson, Patron and Ordinary, supposed to be before the Statute of 13 Eliz. and the Parson prayeth an Aid of the Patron and Ordinary, and loseth by Action tryed; and all this is feigned to make an evasion out of the said Act: It was Resolved, that this intention was taken to be within the Act: for although the Annuity charge the Parson or Vicar, and not the possessions, yet it is within the mischief of the Statute, viz. the impoverishing the successor, cause of delapidations, and decay of Spiritual livings, mentioned within the preamble of the Act. Cok. 5 part 15. in the case of Ecclesiastical persons. Pasch. 14 Eliz. in C.B. Eitrues case.

5. Note: The Incumbent may charge the Glebe, if the Patron and Ordinary joyn with him in the Grant, or consent thereunto either by license precedent, or confirmation subsequent: yet if the Patron be but tenant in tayl or for life, or the Ordinary be Patron, the charge shall not be perpetual: for in the first cause, the issue in tail, the reversioner or he in the remainder shall avoid it; and in the other case, the license or confirmation is not available to charge the Church without the consent of the Dean and Chapter, but shall be avoided by the successor of the Ordinary. Cok. 1 part Institutes 300.

6. Note: It was holden by the Justices, That a Parsonage may be a Mannor: as if before the Statute of quia emptores terrarum, the Parson with the Patron and Ordinary grant parcel of the Glebe to divers persons, to hold of the Parson by divers services; the same makes the Parsonage a Mannor. Pasch. 22 Eliz. in C.B. Goldsbr. 3.

7. A Parson, to the end that he may give his continual attendance upon his Function, is freed from all personal charges which may hinder him in his Calling; and therefore he shall not be chosen a Bayliff, Reeve, Beadle, or other Officer, for land annexed to his Church: and if a Parson have a Benefice, and taketh another without a dispensation, the first Benefice is void, and the Patron may present: for this avoidance is called Cession, because the taking of the last makes him neglect the first. See

8. I. S. brought an Action of Debt againſt I. Rector of F. in the County of B. The Defendant pleaded, that the day of the Writ brought he dwelt at D. in the County of N. It was adjudged to be no Plea; for a Parſon ſhall be intended by Law to be always reſident upon his Benefice for the cure of ſouls which he hath there; and the Parſon who hath the cure of ſouls, and is not reſident upon his Parſonage, Non eſt diſpenſator, ſed diſſipator. Cook. 11 par. upon Magdalen Colledge caſe.

1. What right the Parſon or Vicar have to the Church. Of the Rights of the Patron and Ordinary. In whom the Fee-ſimple of the Glebe of the Parſonage and Vicaridge is: And who ſhall be ſaid to be Patron of a Vicaridge endowed.

1. THe Rights of the Parſon, Vicar, Patron and Ordinary to the Church, and Glebe Lands to it belonging, are of ſeveral natures: The Parſon hath jus poſſeſſionis, a right unto the poſſeſſion of the Church and Glebe-Lands, for that the Parſon hath in him the Freehold, and is to receive the profit of the Church and Glebe, the Oblations, Tythes and Offerings, to his own uſe. The Patron hath jus preſentationis, a right of preſentation of his Clerk to the Ordinary, to be admitted and inducted into the Church: The right of the Ordinary is jus ordinationis, a right of enabling and inveſture of the incumbent, and to ſee the cure to be ſerved. The Parſon hath jus habendi, jus retinendi, jus poſſidendi; he may have and receive the profits to his own uſe, without the Patrons and Ordinaries conſent; and nothing can be done by them to charge the Church during his Incumbence, without his conſent and agreement. But the Rights of the Patron and Ordinary are only Collateral Rights; for none of them can retain or poſſeſs the Glebe; and yet they have a kinde of jus diſponendi, a kinde of diſpoſition in the Church, for that no charge could have been layed upon the Church in perpetuity, to have bounden the ſucceſſors of the Patron, unleſs the Patron and Ordinary had agreed thereunto. Cok. 1 par Inſtit. 119.

2. If a Writ of Annuity had been brought againſt the Parſon, and he had prayed in aid of the Patron and Ordinary, and the Patron had made default, and the Ordinary appeared and confeſſed the action; or if the Ordinary had made default, and the Patron had confeſſed the action; this ſhould have bound the ſucceſſours of the Parſon, 12 H 8. 7. 29 H. 6. 75. 2. H 6. 3. 39 H. 6. 50. 28 H. 8. 1 & 2. But if the Parſon himſelf, with the conſent onely of the Ordinary, had granted an Annuity out of the Glebe, having quid pro quo in conſideration thereof; this by the Common Law ſhould have bounden the ſucceſſors of the Parſon, without the conſent of the Patron. 16 E. 3. Annuity 24. 7 E. 4. 40. 40 E 3. 30. Cok. 1 par. Inſtitutes, 343, 344.

3. At the Common Law, if a Recovery had been had by Act on tryed againſt the Patron, where the right of the patronage had been in queſtion; the preſent incumbent ſhould not have put the right again in tryal: nor was he helped by the Statute of 25 E 3. cap. 7. If the Patron had not pleaded faintly, but the Parſon ſhould have been bounden by the Judgement 28 E. 3. Quare imp. 66. Yet ſee F.B. 49. a. The ſucceſſor of the Parſon after ſuch Recovery had againſt his predeceſſor by Action tryed, might have had a Juris utrum, notwithſtanding ſuch Recovery

4. Note: It hath always been holden, that the Free hold of the Glebe, and of the Church and Church-yard, is in the Parſon; of which if he be put out of poſſeſſion, or diſſeiſed, he may have or maintain an Aſſiſe: ſee 28 H. 6. 16, 67 Markham. If the Parſon be ejected, he ſhall have treſpaſs; or he may have an Aſſize if he be diſſeized of the Church-yard. And ſee 13 R. 2. Fitz. title Juriſdiction: The Vicar ſhall have an Aſſiſe of the Church-yard, but not againſt the Parſon. And ſee 17 H. 3. Prohibition 26. where it is agreed, That for ſuch things as are annexed to the Church or Glebe, the Parſon ſhall have an Aſſize, or his Action of Treſpaſs, for that the right and intereſt of them is in him See 11 H. 4. 12. accordingly.

5. The Free-hold of the Church and Glebe being admitted to be in the Parſon or Vicar; it is controverted in old Books, in whom the Fee ſimple of the Parſonage and Vicarage, and of the Glebe is. Some are of opinion, that the Parſon hath the Fee ſimple in him; and that for theſe Reaſons. 1. A Parſon is a Spiritual Corporation, and lands may be given to him in Frankalmoigne; and every gift in Frankalmoign doth ſettle the Fee-ſimple in the Donee; and in ſuch a gift the Fee doth paſs without the word Succeſſors 2. A Parſon hath brought a Writ of Right in the nature of a quod permittat of a Common, 3 E. 1. quod permittat 8. and counted that he was ſeized in Fee & droit; and the Writ hath been admitted good. F.B. 50. Alſo a Parſon brought a quod permittat of the ſeiſin of his predeceſſor in Eſtovers, and counted of a ſeiſin in Fee, and joyned the Aſſize upon the meer Right. And ſee 8 H. 6. 24. by Paſton. A parſon may may joyn the Aſſize upon the meer Right. Alſo if the parſon dieth, the Glebe is not in the patron. And it is ſaid, 8 H. 6. 24. That in a Precipe quod reddat, or in a Scire facias to execute a Recovery in a Ceſſavit, he ſhall not have aid. If a parſon doth make a Leaſe for his own life, that he hath a Reverſion in him, and may be vouched. See 9 E 3. Juris utrum 18. and Aid 19. A Formdon was brought againſt I S the defendant pleaded that W. was Vicar of the Church of S. and made a Leaſe to him for life; and vouched the Vicar, who entred into the Warranty, and pleaded that he found the Church ſeized of the Lands as parcel of the Glebe of the Vicarage, and that A. was Parſon of the Church; and prayed in Aid of him, which was granted: and Voucher and Aid prayer ſhall not be but of them that have a Fee-ſimple; alſo the Writ of Juris utrum is, viz. utrum ſit Eleemoſyna Eccleſiæ de B. and not of the Patron. Co. 1 par. Inſtit. 341.

6. But notwithſtanding the reaſons and authorities in the Section next above, yet the Law is taken to be at this day, That the Parſon hath not the abſolute Fee-ſimple of the Glebe in him; and that he hath but a qualified Fee-ſimple at the moſt in it; and that the abſolute Fee, according to Littleton, is in Nubibus, that is, in conſideration of the Law; and that it was provided that it ſhould be ſo, by the wiſdom and policie of the Law, to the end that the Parſon & Vicar, who have curam animarum, and are bound to celebrate Divine Service, and adminiſter Sacraments, might have ſomewhat ſtill to live upon; and therefore the Law provided that the Fee-ſimple of the Glebe ſhould be out of them, ſo as no alienation or diſcontinuance thereof made by them might be a bar to the ſucceſſor, and leave him deſtitute of maintenance; and for that by the wiſdom of the Law, they cannot make any diſcent of the Lands, for every Diſcontinuance giveth a Fee; therefore it neceſſarily followeth, that the abſolute Fee of the Glebe is not in him.

7. An Aſſiſe of Novel diſſeiſin was brought againſt a Parſon of part of the Glebe-lands; and he pleaded that he was preſented to the Church by the King; and prayed in Aid of the King, and Aid was granted: and Aid ſhall never be granted to one that hath the abſolute Fee-ſimple of the lands in him, 43 Aſſ. 15.

8. If a Writ of Right be brought againſt a Parſon, and after the Miſe joyned he makes default, and Judgement be given againſt him upon his default; this ſhall not binde the ſucceſſor, but the ſucceſſor ſhall have a Juris utrum, becauſe the Parſon did not pray in Aid of the Patron and Ordinary, and he had not the meer right in him to looſe by his default: and in that caſe the Parſon himſelf might have had a Juris utrum, notwithſtanding the bar in the former Action, for that is his Writ of Right, and a Writ of the higheſt nature that a Parſon can have. See Co. 6 part, in Ferrers Caſe. Co. 1 par Inſtit. accordingly. Littleton Sect 646 accordingly.

9. In Treſpaſs the caſe was, A. Prebend of the Prebendary of P. and F. was ſeized of the Rectory of P. in the right of his Prebend, and 13 Eliz. did demiſe the ſame to I S. and I D. for 70 years. A. Biſhop of L. Patron of the Prebend, and Ordinary of the Dioceſs, granted the next avoidance to D. which Grant was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter. Afterwards D. did confirm the Leaſe made by A. to I.S. and I.D. the ſaid I.S. being then alive: then I.S. died; and the next Avoidance being come to E. and G. they preſented I. N. who was admitted, inſtalled and inducted into the Prebend. L. ſucceeded him; then died I. N. L. did collate K. to the Prebend, who was inſtituted and inducted, and entred into the Parſonage, and Leaſed the ſame to W. for years; which Leaſe came to the plaintiff; upon which the defendant, as ſervant to one who claimed under the Leaſe made by A. to I.S. and I.D. entred. In this caſe it was adjudged for the plaintiff. For although B. the Prebendary came in after and under the confirmation of the Leaſe; and although the Leaſe made by A for 70 years were not expired; yet I. N. the Prebendary before him came in by a Grant of the next Avoidance, made, confirmed and perfected before the confirmation of the Leaſe, and ſo conſequently was not ſubject to do it: and then when he entred upon the Parſonage, he was ſeiſed in his demeaſne as of Fee, and ſo did defeat the Leaſe totally, ſo as it could never take effect or force againſt any ſucceſſour whatſoever. And in this caſe it was ſaid, That although Littleton ſeems to be of opinion that the Parſon hath not the right of the Fee-ſimple, that muſt be intended as to the bringing of a Writ of right; but otherwiſe it is, that the act of the Parſon it is that chargeth the land; and it ſufficeth that the Patron and Ordinary, or either of them, licenſe or aſſent. Trin. 11 Jac. in C. B. Spendlowes and Barketts Caſe.

2 Of the Vicar and Vicarage: in whom the Fee-ſimple of the Glebe of the Vicarage is, being a Vicarage endowed; and who ſhall be ſaid to be Patron of the Vicarage; if the Patron of the Parſonage, or the Parſon: and of the Endowment of it.

VIcarages were originally endowed out of Parſonages; and the Vicar was to have aid of the Parſon, if he were impleaded for any thing concerning his Vicarage; and the Parſon was ſubject to every charge of the Vicarage. 31 H. 6. 27. by Yelverton; and ſee 9 Aſſi. 2. The Vicar in ancient time was not eſteemed the tenant of the Freehold of the Lands of the Vicarage, but the Freehold of the Lands was in the Parſon; and the Vicar himſelf was not ſuch a perſon againſt whom the Land of the Vicarage could be demanded; neither did any Precipe lie againſt him as Vicar, nor could he maintain an Aſſize in his own name. See 8 Aſſ. 36. 15 Aſſ. 8.

2. A Writ of Intruſion was brought againſt a Vicar; who pleaded unto the Writ, That the Freehold was in the Parſon: and notwithſtanding that plea, the Writ did not abate: but the reaſon of that caſe was, for that the intruſion was a tortious act, and a perſonal wrong, and therefore the perſon of the Vicar was charged therein. And note in that caſe, that the Vicar had aid of the Patron and Ordinary; by which it appeareth, that it was ſuppoſed that the Free-hold was in the Vicar, but not the Fee-ſimple of the Glebe of the Vicarage. See 4 E. 3. Fitz. brc. 704.

3. An Aſſize was brought againſt a Vicar: he pleaded that he had nothing but as Vicar; and demanded Judgement of the Writ. The plaintiff ſaid that he was ſeized until diſſeized by him. It was held in that caſe, that if he had found the Vicarage ſeized, that then it was a good plea: but there it is holden, that a Vicar ſhall not have an Aſſize in his own name. See 12 E. 3. See Brief 256. accordingly.

4. Note. It is holden for Law at this day, That the Free-hold of the Glebe of the Vicarage is in the Vicar himſelf, and not in the Parſon; for that the poſſeſſions of the Vicar and Parſon are ſevered, and every of them ſhall have ſeveral Writs concerning the rights which do appertain unto them, and ſhall not joyn in any Writ; and they ſhall pay their Tenths and other charges charged upon their ſeveral Lands, ſeverally by themſelves. And the Vicar at this day ſhall have and maintain a Writ of Juris utrum againſt the Parſon who is the Patron of the Glebe of the Vicarage. Upon which it appeared, that upon the very endowment of the Vicarage of any lands, the Free-hold is in the Vicar. And for the abſolute Fee-ſimple of the Glebe of the Vicarage, it is holden at this day that the ſame is in the conſideration and intendment of the Law in ſuch manner as the Fee-ſimple of the Glebe of the Parſonage is, in the caſe of a Parſon, as before is ſaid.

5. If there be Parſon and a Vicar endowed of lands in one Church, and the Vicarage doth become void; it hath been ſtirred a Queſtion in this caſe, who ſhall be the Patron of the Vicarage, whether the Patron of the Parſonage, or the Parſon. Upon which Queſtion, conſider theſe books and authorities following. In 17 E 3 51. ſome of the Judges are of opinion, that the Advowſon of the Vicarage doth appertain to the Parſon: others hold that it belongeth to the firſt Patron: and the Court was divided in opinion.

6. Mich. 16 E. 3. quare imp. 145. by Parning and Hall, The Ordinary cannot make a Vicar without the aſſent of the Patron.

7. 5 E. 6. Quare imp. 165. puts the caſe, That although the Vicarage be made with the aſſent of the Patron and Ordinary, yet the Advowſon of the Vicarage doth remain in the Parſon, becauſe the ſame is parcel of the Advowſon of the Parſonage.

8. 16 E. 3. Grants 56. 13 R. 2. Juriſdiction 19. 16 E. 3. Monſtrens defaits 166. it was a Queſtion, If by the grant of the Advowſon of the Church, the Advowſon of the Vicarage did paſs: and there by Stone it doth paſs as incident to the Parſonage.

9. The King was ſeiſed of the Rectory of D. and of the Advowſon of the Vicarage of D. and granted Rectoriam prædict. cum pertinent. ac etiam Vicariam Eccleſiæ prædict. It was adjudged, that by thoſe words the Advowſon of the Vicarage did not paſs. But if the King had granted Eccleſiam ſuam de D. the Advowſon of the Vicarage had paſſed, by Walmſly Juſtice, Mich. 31 Eliz. in C. B. Aſhgell and Dennis caſe. Leon 191.

10. See 31 H. 6. 13 & 14. by Hengiſton. The Parſonage and Vicarage are all one; and he who is Patron of the Parſonage, is Patron of the Vicarage.

11. But notwithſtanding all the Books and Authorities aforeſaid, yet it is conceived at this day, That the Parſon is the rightful Patron of the Vicarage, unleſs upon the endowment by the Ordinary it be otherwiſe provided. See F. B. 33. That the preſentation of the Vicarage doth de communi jure belong unto the Parſon, if it be not otherwiſe agreed. See 2 H. 3. Grants 89. Perkins 121.

If

If a man by Fine grant the Parſonage, ſaving the preſentation to the Vicarage, it is a good ſaving, and the Parſon ſhall preſent when the ſame is void. 2. Common experience is, That when there is an Appropriation, and a Vicar endowed, that the Parſons to whom the Appropriations were made, were always accounted Patrons of the Vicarage and Benefice. See 50 E. 3. 26. An Abbot who had an Advowſon appropriate, upon which Appropriation there was a Vicar endowed, did preſent to the Vicarage. See 17 E. 2. Quare imp 178. accordingly. 3. It is manifeſt by Reaſon: for as the Patronage of the Church doth appertain unto him who was the firſt Founder of the Church, and firſt endowed the ſame with Lands: ſo in regard the endowment of the Vicarage is taken out of the Parſonage, and out of the eſtate of the Parſon, and if he be impleaded of his Glebe, he ſhall have aid of the Parſon; and alſo if the Vicarage be diminiſhed, the Parſons conſent with the Ordinaries act may endow the ſame de novo out of the Parſonage, as the Book of 31 H. 9. 13. is. And again, becauſe the Vicar is but ſubſtitute to the Parſon, and his endowment at the firſt was onely for the eaſe of the Parſon; and alſo becauſe it belongeth to the Parſon to ſee that the Cure be ſerved with a fit and honeſt man, of whoſe care and learning he was to be aſſured, & ſufficiencie to officiate the Cure: for theſe and many other cauſes, it is conceived at this day, That the Patronage of the Vicarage doth de communi jure belong unto the Parſon, and not to the Patron of the Parſonage.

8 Where Leaſes made by Parſons, Vicars, Prebendaries, ſhall be void by death, Reſignation, Non-reſidence, and for other cauſes, where not: And where and what act of the Patron may extinguiſh a charge going out of the Church, and where, and what not.

A Parſon 28 H. 8. made a Leaſe for life of Land, rendring rent; and it was of lands which were given to him and his ſucceſſors to finde lights, &c. The rent was employed accordingly, until the Statute of 1 E. 6. after which Statute, the ſucceſſor accepted the rent. It was the opinion of the Court in this caſe, That the Patentee of the King might enter upon the Leſſee, and avoid the Leaſe, as the ſucceſſor of the Parſon might have done before the Statute, if he had not accepted of the Rent; and the acceptance of the rent aforeſaid, ut ſupra, was void as to the affirming of the Leaſe. But it was ſaid in that caſe, that the acceptance before the Statute by any ſucceſſor, ſhould binde the Patentee by the ſaving of the ſaid Act. See Trin. 16 Eliz. Dyer 337. See Cok. 1 par. 41. in the caſe of Alton-woods accordingly.

2. I S. Parſon of a Parſonage, demiſed the ſame to E. for 80 years, if he ſhould ſo long live; and if he died within the ſaid term of eight years, or ſhould alien it, that her eſtate ſhould ceaſe, and that then it ſhould remain to R. pro & durante reſiduo prædict. termini 80 annorum, if he ſhould ſo long live; and if he ſhould die, &c. that then his eſtate ſhould ceaſe, and that then it ſhould remain to W. prædict. durante tot annis de prædict. termin. 80 annorum, &c. and if he ſhould aliene, ut ſupra, that his eſtate ſhould ceaſe. And then the ſaid I.S. conceſſit premiſ. durante tot annos de prædict. 80 annorum quæ adtunc continuarent & remanerent inexpirat, to F his Executors & Aſſignes. I.S. died, T. died, E. and R. died; the Adminiſtrator of T. entred, and aſſigned the ſame over. In this caſe it was reſolved, 1. That the demiſe to R. and W. were void, becauſe that the eſtate which E. had was not for 80 years abſolutely, but ſub modo; and then the demiſe to them pro toto anni quod remanerent poſt mortem dictum E. pro & durante reſiduo termino prædict. 80 annorum, was void, becauſe there could not be a reſidue of the ſaid term, becauſe the ſame determined by the death of E. 2. Reſolved, that the Leaſe and limitation to T. was void for the incertainty; for it was incertain at the making of the Leaſe, how many years ſhould be behinde at the death of E. Cok. 1 part. the Rector of Chiddingtons caſe.

3. Note, That all Leaſes made by Parſons, Vicars, Prebendaries, and others having Eccleſiaſtical livings, are void by the Statutes of 32 H. 8. cap 1. and 13 Eliz. and other reſtraining Statutes; unleſs the Leaſes be made with theſe cautions, and under theſe limitations following: 1. The Leaſe muſt be made in writing by Deed Indented, and not by word. 2. The Leaſe muſt begin from the day of the date thereof, or from the making thereof. 3. The old Leaſe muſt be ſurrendered, expired, or ended within one year, at the making of the ſecond Leaſe; and ſuch ſurrender muſt be abſolute, and not conditional. 4. There muſt not be a double Leaſe in being at the ſame time. 5. The Leaſe muſt not exceed 21 years, or three Lives, from the making thereof. 6. The Leaſe muſt be made of Lands and Tenements mainorable, and out of which a rent may be reſerved. 7. The Leaſe muſt be of Lands or Tenements which commonly have been letten to farm by the ſpace of twenty years next before the Leaſe made.

8. There muſt be reſerved to them and their ſucceſſors ſo much yearly rent, or more; which hath been accuſtomably uſed to be paid for the ſaid Lands and Tenements within twenty years before the Leaſe made. And 9. The Leaſe muſt not be made without impeachment of Waſte. Note, theſe Rules reſolved for Law in the caſes following. See Coke. 1 par. the Lord Mountjoys caſe. Coke. 1 par. Elmers caſe. Coke. 5 par. 3. Jewels caſe. Coke. 4 par. 37. the Dean and Chapter of Worceſters caſe. Co. 4 par. Inſtit. 44.

4. If a Parſon, Vicar or Prebend make a Leaſe for years rendring rent, and dieth, and the ſucceſſour accepteth the Rent, it is nothing worth, for that the Leaſe was void by his death: but otherwiſe it is of a Leaſe for life. And if a Biſhop, Abbot, Prior, and ſuch-like, maketh a Leaſe for years, and dieth, if the ſucceſſor accepteth the rent, he ſhall never avoid the Leaſe, for that the Leaſe was but voidable, and not void Co. 3 par. 65. in Penants caſe.

5. Note. It was reſolved upon the Statute of 21 H. 8. of Non-reſidencie, That the Parſon ought to dwell and remain upon his Parſonage-houſe, and not in any other houſe, although it be within the ſame pariſh. For the Statute is intended not onely for the ſerving of the Cure, but alſo for the maintenance of the houſing, and the reparation of them alſo for the habitation of the ſucceſſor, and that he may keep Hoſpitality there. But it was agreed, that lawful impriſonment is a good cauſe of excuſe of Non-reſidence, and ſo is ſickneſs, if it be without fraud, and the patient be removed out of his houſe for the taking of air, by the advice of his phyſician. Co. 6 par. 61. Baxter and Goodales caſe.

3 Of Uſurpation, and where the ſame ſhall put the lawful Patron out of the poſſeſſion of his Church or Advowſon, where not.

1. USurpation is, where a ſtranger who hath no title to the Advowſon, the Church being void, doth preſent his Clerk to the Biſhop or Ordinary, and the Ordinary doth thereupon admit the Clerk preſented into the Church: this preſentation is a diſturbance and uſurpation, and doth put the rightful Patron out of poſſeſſion of the Church. This appeareth by the Statute of Weſtm. 2. cap. 5. Cum aliquis jus preſentandi non habens, preſentaverit ad aliquam Eccleſiam, cujus preſentatus eſt admiſſus. For no man can be put out of the poſſeſſion of his Advowſon, but upon admiſſion, and inſtitution upon a preſentation onely. For if a Biſhop doth collate to the Church without title, and his Clerk be inducted, this doth not put the Patron out of poſſeſſion, for that it ſhall be taken onely provi ſionally made for the celebration of Divine Service, until the Patron doth preſent. See Coke par Inſtit. 344. Coke. 6 par. 20. Mich. 30 Eliz. in C. B. Jurdens caſe, accordingly.

2. Note, by the Juſtices, Collation cannot gain any patronage, & cannot be an Uſurpation againſt a common perſon, & à fortiori, not againſt the King. And it was there holden, that Collation is a giving of the Church to the Parſon; perſentation is an offering of the Parſon to the Church. Paſch 30 Eliz. in C. B. the Queen and the Biſhop of York's caſe. Leaſe 126.

3. If Tenant for years or Guardian bring a Quare impedit, although that the defendant have a Writ to the Biſhop againſt the Tenant for years or Guardian, and his Clerk be inducted, yet the ſame is no ſuch uſurpation, as ſhall put the tenant of the Free-hold out of the poſſeſſion. 50 E. 3. by Fulthorp.

4. At the Common Law, if A being ſeiſed of an Advowſon, had levied a Fine thereof to B. and his heirs, and afterwards the Church had become void; and A. had preſented by uſurpation his Clerk unto the Ordinary, who had been admitted, inſtituted and inducted: this ſhould have put the Parſon out of poſſeſſion. And ſo it was, if A. had recovered againſt B. in a Writ of Right of Advowſon, and had had final judgement, and afterwards the Incumbent had died, and B. by preſentation had preſented his Clerk to the Church, who had been admitted and inſtituted, and afterwards B. had died; this ſhould have put A out of poſſeſſion, and the heir of B. ſhould not have been bounden by the Judgement either in bloud or eſtate, but that he ſhould have preſented. And the reaſon of both the ſaid Caſes was, Becauſe that every preſentation did put the rightful Patron out of poſſeſſion; and therefore although that in both the ſaid Caſes the Uſurpation was before execution; yet the rightful Patron was put out of poſſeſſion, and the uſurper had gained the inheritance of the Advowſon thereby, and the preſentment of the rightful Patron pro hac vice loſt for ever. See 44 E. 3. quare imp. 179. Co. 1 par. Inſtit. 279.

5. At the Common Law, if an Uſurpation had been made upon an Infant Patron of the Church, or a feme covert, they had been put out of poſſeſſion, and had been put to their Writs of Right of Advowſon: the reaſon thereof was, becauſe the Incum-

Incumbent came in by Judicial act of the Ordinary; and it was preſumed, that the Ordinary would not have done any act, or aſſented to any wrong to be done to the patronage of the Church. B. If one had uſurped upon the poſſeſſion of the King, this at the Common Law ſhould not have put the King out of poſſeſſion of his Advowſon, though the Clerk had been inſtituted and inducted; becauſe by prerogative, Nullum tempus occurrit Regi; but the King might have recovered by quare impedit, for that he was not bound by the Plenarty. See Cok. 6 par. in Boſwels caſe. See 35 H. 6. accordingly.

6. Note. It was holden by the Juſtices, that by two uſurpations the King might be put out of poſſeſſion of his Advowſon, and put to his Writ of Right; and that a grant after two uſurpations upon the King, made by him of his Advowſon, ſhould be void. Paſch. 25 Eliz. in C. B adjudged. Hill. 13 Jac in C. B. adjudged accordingly. See 47 E 3, 4. accordingly. See Cok. 6 par. 29, 30. Greens caſe.

7. If the King hath an Advowſon in the right of his Ward, and a ſtranger uſurps, and his Clerk is in by ſix months before the King brings his quare impedit, yet this Plenarty ſhall be no good bar againſt the King: the reaſon is, becauſe the King ſhall be otherwiſe without remedy; for a Writ of Right of Advowſon he cannot have, having an eſtate in the Advowſon but as Guardian, and therefore Nullum tempus occurrit Regi; yet in that caſe the King ſhall not put out the Incumbent admitted without a quare impedit, for that ſo it is provided by the Statute of 13 R. 2. cap. 1. See Stamf. 31, 32. accordingly. But if the King hath title to preſent by reaſon of lapſe, and the Patron doth uſurp, and doth preſent his Clerk, who is admitted, inſtituted and inducted, and then dies, the King hath loſt his preſentation, and ſhall not have the ſecond preſentation by his prerogative; for there Tempus occurrit Regi, and the Kings intereſt was ſpecially limited, for ſix months was the ſubſtance of his title. Cok. 7 part, Rutervils caſe.

8. If an Uſurper preſent unto a Church in time of War, and the inſtitution and induction of the Clerk (which are but executions of the preſentment) be in time of peace; yet the ſame ſhall not hold good, but ſhall be avoided by the rightful Patron; becauſe the Law looks back unto the original act, which was the preſentation; for, Cauſa & origo eſt materia negotii. See 6 E. 3. 44. Cok. 1 par. 99 in Shelleys caſe. Cok. 2 par. 93. in Bagshaws caſe accordingly.

9. Note: It was reſolved, That if a common perſon uſurp upon the King, and his Clerk is admitted, inſtituted and inducted, the King is put to his quare impedit, and cannot preſent until the Incumbent be removed. But in ſuch caſe the common perſon doth not gain by his uſurpation the inheritance of the Advowſon out of the King, becauſe the ſame is permanent in him; but as to the preſent act, the King is put out of poſſeſſion, for that is tranſitory; and he cannot remove the Incumbent but by a quare impedit. See Cok. 6 par. in Greens caſe. 18 Eliz. Dyer 351. accordingly.

10. A. ſeiſed of the Mannor of B to which an Advowſon was appendant, preſented C. and afterwards died ſeiſed, having iſſue three daughters, viz. M. married to the Earl of Eſſex, and Anne married to the Lord Mountjoy. The Mannor of B. upon partition was allotted to the Earl of Eſſex, and M. his wife, for her part, who both died having iſſue E. who took to husband the Earl of Northampton. Afterwards, 33 H. 8. Fine was levied of the ſaid Mannor, with a render to the Marqueſs for his life, the remainder to E. his wife in tail, the remainder to King Hen. 8. in Fee. The Marqueſs was attainted of Treaſon; E. died without iſſue, the Church voided, and the Queen preſented. The defendent did confeſs the ſeiſin of A. and the whole matter in the Count till the Attainder; and pleaded, that after the Attainder the Queen, to whom the Mannor was come, Leaſed the Mannor with the Advowſon to I. S. and I. R. for 40 years, if the Marqueſs ſhould ſo long live in their poſſeſſion: the Church did become void, and one I. N. did preſent the defendant, who upon his preſentment was inſtituted and inducted: upon which the Queen did demur in Law. In this caſe it was adjudged againſt the Queen; and the reaſon of the Judgement was, for that here is not onely a bare preſentation pleaded againſt the Queen, but alſo an eſtate, viz. a Leaſe for years, in this Advowſon, derived from Queen Mary; and that the Avoidance upon which the Action is brought, falleth within the ſaid term, ſo as the Queen who is plaintiff is encountred with a Leaſe of the Anceſtor, againſt which ſhe cannot make title to preſent, without ſpecial matter. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. the Queen and Middletons caſe. Leon 45, 46.

11. If a man be ſeiſed of an Advowſon in Fee, and grants three Avoidances unto one man, one after the other, and the Church becomes void, and the Grantor himſelf preſents his Clerk, who is admitted, inſtituted and inducted; and afterwards the Church doth become void again, the Grantee ſhall preſent to the ſecond Avoidance, for that he was not put out of poſſeſſion by the firſt preſentment, for the Grantee had the Frank-tenement and Fee of the Advowſon in him, ſo as he could not make any uſurpation to gain any eſtate to put the Grantee out of poſſeſſion; and alſo in reſpect, reſpect of the privity of contract betwixt the Grantor and the Grantee, the uſurpation of the Grantor doth not put the Grantee out of the two laſt avoidances. Cap. 1 par. Inſtit. 249.

12. Two Coparceners be of an Advowſon; they make compoſition to preſent by turns, and one of them uſurps in the turn of the other: this uſurpation doth not put the other out of poſſeſſion, becauſe they claim both by one title. 12 H. 8. 1. in Kelway. 22 E. 4. 4. So it is if two Joyntenants be of an Advowſon, and the one preſents his Clerk, who is inſtituted and inducted, this doth not put the other out of poſſeſſion: but if the Joyntenant who preſented dieth, his preſentation ſhall ſerve for a Title in a quare impedit brought by the ſurvivor. See 35 H. 8. Br. 370. 17 E. 3. 37. 15 E 3. Darrein preſentment 11. accordingly.

13. If an Advowſon be granted to one for life, the remainder to another in Fee, and the tenant for life dieth, and afterwards a ſtranger uſurps, and ſix months paſs; in this caſe he in the remainder was without remedy by the Common Law, for that he could not have a Writ of Right of Advowſon: for that Writ was not maintainable but of his own poſſeſſion, or of his Anceſtors: and an Aſſiſe of Darrein preſentment he could not have, becauſe the ſix months were paſt: and ſo although he had the right of the Advowſon in him, yet this uſurpation ſhould have bounden him, and gained the poſſeſſion from him, for that he had not any Action for the recovery of his right. See 18. 4. 3. by Skreen. 22 H. 6. 26. accordingly.

14. If Tenant for life of a Manor to which an Advowſon is appendant, had ſuffered an uſurpation, and the tenant for life had died; he in the remainder at the Common Law, had no remedy for this uſurpation: and although the words of the Statute of Weſtm. 2. cap. 5. are, Habeant eandem Aſſiſam & recuperationem per Breve de advocatione poſſeſſorium, quam haberet ultimus anteceſſor; yet it is conceived that at this day they ſhall be aided by this Statute of Weſtm. 2. notwithſtanding the uſurpation was upon tenant for life. For ſee 7 E. 2. Statham, quare impedit 31. A Purchaſor was received in an Aſſiſe of Darrein preſentment, to avoid an uſurpation had upon tenant in Dower. See 17 E. 3. 19. It is admitted for Law, That if tenant for life ſuffereth an uſurpation, he in the Reverſion ſhall avoid it after the death of tenant for life. 45 E. 3. by Finchden. If a ſtranger uſurp upon my tenant for life, and afterwards the tenant confirms his eſtate in Fee, and the ſtranger doth preſent two or three times, and tenant for life dieth, and the Church void, I ſhall preſent; and upon any diſturbance, I ſhall have a quare impedit. For the Statute of Weſtm. 2. being made for to ſuppreſs wrong doing, ſhall be taken largely. And ſo it was adjudged in the Court of Common Pleas, where the caſe was, That a Prior did grant the next Avoidance, and the Grantee ſuffered an uſurpation; and it was adjudged that the Prior himſelf might have been aided by the Statute of Weſtm. 2. cap. 5. and had a quare impedit: and ſo was the Law there taken for every Leſſor, upon an uſurpation upon his Leſſee. Paſch 14 Jac. in C. B. The Lord Stanhope, and the Biſhop of Lincoln, and Williams caſe. Hob. 137 to 144.

15 Errour was brought of Judgement given in the Common Pleas in a quare impedit; the Queſtion being, Whether a double uſurpation ſhould put the King out of poſſeſſion, and put him to a Writ of Right of Advowſon. And it was there adjudged, That the King was put to his Writ of Right, and could not maintain a quare impedit. But it was reſolved, That the King might well maintain a quare impedit; for the King hath ſuch priviledge, that he cannot by any act be put out of his Inheritance, unleſs by his own Patent. And Mich. 38 Eliz. Haſſets caſe was avouched, where it was reſolved, That two or three uſurpations upon the King doth not gain ſuch a poſſeſſion againſt him, but that the Advowſon remains always in him, which he may grant, and upon avoidance may preſent thereunto, and maintain a Quare impedit upon diſturbance. And ſo the Judgement given in the Common Pleas was reverſed, Mich. 2 Jac. in BR. the King and Champion caſe. Cro. 2 par. 123.

16. In a quare impedit brought, theſe Points were reſolved by the Court: 1. When one uſurps upon a Leaſe for years, that this uſurpation gains the Fee, and puts the very Patron out of poſſeſſion. And although by the Statute of Weſtm. 2. cap. 5. he in the reverſion after the Leaſe may have a quare impedit when the Church is void, or may preſent; and if he preſent, & his Clerk is inducted, that then he is remitted: yet till it be recovered, or his Clerk be in, the uſurper hath the Fee, and againſt him lieth the Writ of Right. 2. When the King preſents one by lapſe, not having any title of lapſe, and a Recovery is had againſt him in a quare impedit, by one which had no title; that this doth not gain the Patronage, and yet he is Incumbent as to Eccleſiaſtical matters, viz. to have Offerings, Tythes, &c. but as to the rightful Patron of it, no gaining of the Patronage. 3. When one having good title to preſent, & an Incumbent by uſurpation is admitted, inſtituted and inducted; and after that the Patron preſents, and the Biſhop refuſeth; and after the Patron recovers, and then he which had the preſentation exhibits it to the Biſhop; this is now a good preſentation, and the Patron cannot revoke, or give him a new preſentation: but if the the Patron before the death of the Incumbent make Letters of preſentation, that is void, becauſe he had no title to preſent. Mich. 20 Jac. in C.B. Rudd and the Biſhop of Lincolns caſe. Hutton 66.

17. Note: It was reſolved by the whole Court, That if a Biſhop ſuffereth an uſurpation, and dieth, the ſucceſſor may have a quare impedit, or preſent to the next turn, by the Statute of 5 Eliz. And ſo it is if a Biſhop purchaſe of an Advowſon, and ſuffers an uſurpation, & dies; the ſucceſſor ſhall have and maintain a Quare impedit. Mich. 21 Jac. in C.B. Dalton and Pamplins caſe. Leon 80, 81.

4 What Remedy the Patron hath for the recovery of his Advowſon or Preſentment, upon an Uſurpation had thereof.

1. THe Writs which the Law hath given to the Patron for the recovery of his Advowſon or Preſentment upon uſurpation or otherwiſe, are, A writ of Right of Advowſon, A Writ of Darrein preſentment, or A quare impedit.

2. The Writ of Right of Advowſon lieth onely for him who hath a Fee-ſimple in the Patronage, and doth not lie for him that hath but an eſtate in tail, or any other inferiour or particular eſtate. For if a man have an Advowſon to him and the heirs males of his body, and for default of ſuch iſſue, the remainder to him and his heirs; if an uſurpation be had upon him, he ſhall not have a Writ of Right of Advowſon, and recover the Fee-ſimple. That appeareth by the Book of 4 E. 3. 48. by Willy, where ſuch a tenant in tail brought a Writ of Right, and recovered but an eſtate tail. But yet ſuch a tenant in tail may have an Aſſiſe of Darrein preſentment, or a quare impedit, at his election. And in a Writ of Right of Advowſon, a man muſt Count, either of his own poſſeſſion of the Advowſon, or of the poſſeſſion of one of his Anceſtors: for if a man purchaſeth an Advowſon to him & his heirs, and afterwards the Church becomes void, and then a ſtranger who hath no right preſents to the Avoidance, and his Clerk be inſtituted and inducted, and afterwards the Church becomes void again; there the Parſon by this uſurpation is put out of poſſeſſion of the Church, and cannot maintain a Writ of Right of Advowſon, becauſe therein he cannot count of his own poſſeſſion, or of the poſſeſſion of any of his anceſtors. 21 E. 4. 1. 22 E. 4. 9. Cok. 1 par. Inſtit. 336, and 365. accordingly.

Note: There is a difference in the form and frame of the Writ of Right of Advowſon: for there is Advocatio medietatis Eccleſiæ, and Medietas Advocationis Eccleſiæ. Advocatio medietatis Eccleſiæ is, where there be two Patrons of one Church, and every of them hath a right to preſent a ſeveral Incumbent, one to one moyety of the Church, and the other to the other moyety. If in ſuch caſe an uſurpation be had upon any one of them, or if one of them be diſturbed in his preſentment, he ſhall have his Writ de Advocatione medietatis Eccleſiæ, or his Quare impedit preſentare ad medietatem Eccleſiæ. But Medietas Advocationis Eccleſiæ is, where two Coparceners be of one Advowſon, and they make compoſition to preſent by turns; here each of them in truth hath a right but unto the moyety of the Church, for that there is to be but one Incumbent of the time; and if one of them be to bring a Writ of Right upon any uſurpation, the Writ muſt be de Medietate Advocationis Eccleſiæ: but if any of the ſaid Coparceners be diſturbed in her preſentment, ſhe may bring a Quare impedit præſentare ad Eccleſiam, for that that Writ is not grounded upon the right of the Patronage. 36 H. 6. 12. and 36. Cok. 5 par. 102. in Wiſors caſe.

4. A man cannot have a Quare impedit de advocatione medietatis Eccleſiæ, or de medietate advocationis Eccleſiæ: and therefore if two have an Advowſon in common, or joyntly, and one preſents, the other hath no remedy, becauſe the preſentment is but a perſonal thing, which is entire. And if two Patrons make a conſolidation or union of two Churches, if one of them be diſturbed, he muſt have a Quare impedit præſentare ad Eccleſiam, and not ad advocationem medietatis, or ad medietatem advocationis Eccleſiæ. See 33 H. 6. 12. & 36. by Priſot. And ſo, if there be two Patrons of two Churches adjoyning, and the Incumbent of one Patron demandeth Tythe in the Spiritual Court, againſt the Incumbent of the other; and the one of the Patrons ſueth a Writ of Indicavit, to ſtop his proceedings againſt the other, becauſe the right of the Patronage cometh in queſtion: in ſuch caſe, the Patron of the Clerk prohibited by the Writ of Indicavit, may have a Writ de Recto advocationis Decimarum, in this form: Præcipe A. quod reddat B. advocationem Decimarum, tertiæ vel quartæ partis unius carucatæ terræ, &c. See 38 H. 6. Br. droit de Recto 8. Cok. 2 par. Inſtit. 364. accordingly.

5. Aſſiſa ultimæ preſentationis, and Quare impedit, are Writs grounded upon the poſſeſſion, which the Patron upon an uſurpation had upon his own poſſeſſion or his anceſtors, or upon a ſpecial diſturbance, may have and maintain, and thereby recover the preſentment, and remove the Incumbent. Yet there is a difference between the Writs of Darrein preſentment and Quare impedit: For,

1. Where-

3. Where a man may have an Aſſiſe of Darr in preſentment, there he may have a Quare impedit; but not è contra. 2. A man may have a Quare impedit without alleadging any preſentment in a perſon certain: but a man cannot have an Aſſiſe of Darr. preſentment, but therein he muſt alleadge the preſentment in a perſon certain. See 20 E 3. Fitz. Darr. preſent. 13. accordingly 3. Leſſee for years, Guardian, or tenant at will, may have a Quare impedit; but they cannot have or maintain a Darrein preſentment, becauſe that no perſon can maintain an Aſſize, but he that hath a Free-hold. 5 H 7. 14. by Fauſax. 50 E. 3. 14 by Holt. 4. If the husband be ſeized of an Advowſon in the wives right, he may have a Quare impedit in his own name, without naming the wife in the Writ; for that the diſturbance is perſonal, which falls in damage to the husband: but he cannot have an Aſſize of Darrein preſentment wherein the Advowſon is to be recovered, but the wife muſt be joyned and named in the Writ.

6. Quare impedit is a Writ poſſeſſory, and muſt be brought againſt the Patron, Ordinary, and Incumbent: for if it be brought againſt the Ordinary and Incumbent onely, without naming the Patron in the Writ, the Writ ſhall abate. Cok. 7 par. 26. in Halls caſe. But yet it ſtands upon this difference, viz. If the Inheritance of the Patron in the patronage be to be deveſted by the judgment to be given in the Quare impedit, then the Patron is to be named in the Writ: but where the Inheritance is not to be recovered by the Judgment, but the preſentment onely to be recovered; there it is not neceſſary that the Patron be named in the Writ. See 7 H. 4. 25. 13 H. 8. 13. Cok. 7 part. Halls caſe accordingly.

7. If A. hath the nomination to a Church, and a Biſhop the preſentation, and the temporalities of the Biſhop come to the King, and afterwards the King doth preſent without the nomination of A. and his Clerk be inducted, the Quare impedit muſt be brought againſt the Biſhop and the Incumbent onely, becauſe the King cannot be a diſturber; and the Writ will not lie againſt him, becauſe he can do no wrong: but the Biſhop muſt be named in the Writ, for that the Incumbent could not come into the poſſeſſion of the Church, but by the admiſſion of the Biſhop; and the Biſhop may be a ſpecial diſturber. And therefore it is ſaid, that it is good policie upon every preſentation by uſurpation, or other diſturbance, to bring a Quare impedit as ſpeedily as may be, and to name the Biſhop in the Writ; for then he ſhall not collate for lapſe, if the Church void during the ſix months: neither ſhall the Metropolitan, if the time be come to him, collate for the ſame lapſe, for that it is a Rule in Law, That the Metropolitan ſhall never collate for lapſe, but when the immediate Ordinary might have collated for lapſe, and hath forceaſed his time; and in ſuch caſe the Ordinary cannot collate, becauſe he is made a party to the Writ. Mich. 3 Jac. in Lancaſter and Lowes caſe adjudged accordingly. See Cok. 1 par. Inſtit. 344. See 38 H. 8 Dyer 48.

8. If two Tenants in common, or Coparceners, be of an Advowſon, and a ſtranger uſurps, ſo as their right is turned into Action, and they bring a Quare impedit, and ſix months paſs, and then one of the plaintiffs dieth; the Writ ſhall not abate, but the ſurvivor ſhall recover; otherwiſe there would be no remedy to redreſs this wrongful uſurpation: but in ſuch caſe, they muſt joyn in the firſt Writ; for if the Writ be brought by one of them, the Writ ſhall abate. 10 Eliz. Dyer 274. Cok. 1 par. Inſtit. 198. Fitz. 35. accordingly. But if a Quare impedit be brought againſt the Patron and the Incumbent, and pendant the Writ the Patron dieth, there the Writ ſhall not abate. Cok. 7 par. Halls caſe.

9. The Biſhop of Coventry and Lichfield was Patron of two Prebends, and granted the next Avoidance alterius eorum primo vacant. which was confirmed by the Dean and Chapter: the Biſhop died, and one of the Prebends voided, and the ſucceſſour of the Biſhop preſented; and afterwards the Grantee brought a Quare impedit within ſix months; and two years after, the iſſue was found for the plaintiff, and the Biſhop died, and yet the plaintiff had his Judgement, and had a Writ to the Biſhop to remove the Incumbent preſented by the ſucceſſor of the firſt Biſhop. 3 Eliz. Dyer 194.

More, Parſon, Vicar, and Patron.

Where they may Unite or Appropriate, where not.

1 A Parſon or a Vicar of a Church becauſe he is ſeized in the right of his Church, for the benefit of his Church and ſucceſſor, in ſome caſes ſhall be eſteemed to have a Fee ſimple qualified: but to do any thing thing to the prejudice of his ſucceſſour, the Law in many caſes adjudgeth him to have but an eſtate for life. And it is a Rule in Law, Meliorem facere poteſt conditionem Eccleſiæ, deteriorem nequaquam. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 342.

2. In debt upon Obligation which was conditioned, That whereas the Plaintiff intended to preſent the Defendant to ſuch a Benefice, that if the Defendant at any time after his admiſſion, inſtitution and induction, at the Plaintiffs requeſt, reſigned the ſaid Church to the hands of the Biſhop of London, that then, &c. It was ſaid on the part of the Defendant, That this Condition to reſigne to the Patron upon requeſt, was Symony, and ſo the Bond void in Law. It was the opinion of the Court, That if the Plaintiff had acknowledged, that the Obligation was made to bind him to pay ſuch a ſum of money, or to make a Leaſe or other act, which appears in it ſelf to be Symony, then upon ſuch a plea peradventure, it might have appeared to the Court to have been Symony, and ſo the Bond voi'd: But as it is pleaded by way of Demur, upon the Oyer of the Condition, it doth not appear that there is any Symony; for a Bond to cauſe him for to reſigne, may be good, and required by the Patron upon good diſcretion. Hill. 5 Car. in B. R. Babington and Woods Caſe. Cro. 1 par. 129.

3. Errour to reverſe a Judgement in C.B. the Caſe was, Parſon, Patron and Ordinary, before 13 Eliz. made a Leaſe for ninety nine years, there being a Grant of the next avoidance before this Leaſe. Afterwards the Parſon who made the Leaſe, died; the Grantee of the next avoidance preſented another, who being admitted and inducted, avoided this Leaſe during his time, and afterwards died: the Patron who joyned in the Leaſe for years, preſented a new Incumbent, who was admitted, inſtituted and inducted; whether he ſhould hold it diſcharged of the Leaſe for years as his predeceſſor did, was the Queſtion; it was adjudged, that he ſhould, for that the Leaſe was utterly avoided by the entry of the ſecond Incumbent, and not void for his time onely: and the reaſon was, becauſe the Parſon hath the entire Fee as a Parſon may have of a Rectory Preſentative: and when he is in, and hath evicted the Leſſee, it is an abſolute eviction of the entire term; and it is not onely an eviction for himſelf, but for his ſucceſſour. Mich. 14 Car. in B. R Cro. 1 par. 420. Plowden and Oldfields caſe.

3. In Treſpaſs for taking of 200 Loads of Woad, it was found by the Jury, that if they were Minutæ Decimæ, then they found for the Plaintiff; if otherwiſe, for the Defendant: It was ſaid for the Plaintiff, That without more circumſtances it ſhall not be intended that they were Minutæ Decimæ; for it may be a great quantity of Woad may be ſowen, and the greateſt part of the commodity of the Parith might conſiſt of it; for Decimæ Minutæ are but of ſmall conſideration in a Pariſh, as the tythe of herbs in a Garden, and ſuch like; and therefore Woad ſowed in a Field, is not Decimæ Minutæ. But it was reſolved by the whole Court, That Woad growing in the nature of an herb, the tythe thereof ought to be accounted Decimæ Minutæ, and belonging to the Vicar; and Paſch. 42 Eliz. was vouched to prove it: where the tythe of forty Acres of Lands ſowed with Saffron, did belong to the Vicar, and not to the Parſon, as was adjudged, becauſe they were Minutæ Decimæ. Hil. 1 Car. in C. B. Udal and the Vicar of Altoncaſe. Hutton 77.

4. A Prohibition was prayed to the ſpiritual Court, for that I. S. Parſon, being convicted of Homicide, and allowed his Clergy, was ſued in the ſpiritual Court by Libel, that whereas he was convicted of Homicide, it ſhould be a cauſe to deprive him of his Benefice. But it was reſolved, That no Prohibition ought to be granted: for although the Statute of 18 Eliz. ordains, that after Clergy the party ſhall be ſet at liberty, and ſhall not be put to his Purgation; yet that doth not diſ-affirm the Judgment, but the rather affirm it: and it was ſaid to be a Rule, Not to grant a Prohibition where the proceedings of the Eccleſiaſtical Court are not againſt the Law of the Land, nor the liberty of the Subject. Tr. 15 Jac. in B. R. Searles caſe. Cro. 2 par. 430.

5. If a meer Lay-man, or a man utterly illiterate, be preſented to a Benefice, and be inſtituted and inducted; this is not a meer Nullity, but he is Parſon de facto; for he hath all the Ceremonies to make him a Parſon; and his inſufficiency muſt receive examination. And yet although a Lay-man be a Parſon de facto, yet no diſpenſation can make him a lawful Parſon not ſubject to deprivation, becauſe it is malum in ſe, even as a man may get Land by diſſeiſin de facto, but no licence can make it lawful. 13 Eliz. Dyer 292. Hut. 149. accordingly.

6. It hath been a Queſtion, If an Union may be made of one Chappel or Church to another Church or Chappel by the Parſon, Patron and Ordinary, without the Kings licence or conſent: it hath been the opinion of divers, that it may well be, for that the Union is the act of the Ordinary: for, unio eſt actus ſpiritualis; and Manus Epiſcopale eſt unire, quia tota Dioceſis eſt Cura Epiſcopi; and the licence of the King is not ſo neceſſary in caſe of Union as in caſe of appropriation; and in caſes of Union, the licence of the King is not pleaded, but it is onely ſaid, That the Union was made by the Patron and Ordinary concurrentibus his qui in Lege re- requisitum, and see 9 Eliz. Dyer 259. The Parish-Churches of Ilesfield and St. Maties in the County of Southampton, were united by the Ordinaries, by the consent of the Patrons, but it doth not appear that there was any licence of the King. 9 Eliz. Dyer 259.

7. Note, That by the Statute of 37 H. 8. cap. 21. it is enacted, That whereas there be many poor Parishes within one mile of another, the Tythes and Revenues whereof are not sufficient to maintain the Curate, and for the maintenance of the Reparations, Ornaments and Duties belonging to the Church, That an Union or Consolidation of two such Churches may be made one by the consent of the Ordinaries, and lawful Patrons and Incumbents. In that Statute there is no mention made of the licence of the King to be had, or that the Union must be with his consent; which if it were requisite, the Makers of the Law would not have omitted; and the King doth not lose any thing by such Union, for that all Tenths and first-fruits of Churches or Chappels united according to that Statute, are thereby saved & reserved to the Crown. And it was a Question of late years, viz. Tr. 9 Car. in C. B. Doctor Rawlins and Sir Henry Yaxley's case, for the Church of Bowthorp in Norfolk. Whether by the said Statute of 37 H. 8. a Parochial Church might be united to a Church Collegial, and whether the same might be by the Parson, Patron and Ordinary, without the Kings licence; but the case was not resolved. And see 21 H. 7. 9. that after an Union made, the King granted his pardon, which was holden a Subsequent assent, and sufficient to make an Union good: and so it was adjudged, That the confirmation by the Kings Letters patent of an Union made by the Parsons, Patrons and Ordinaries of the Parish-Church of Ashe, unto the Deanery of N. after the Union made, was sufficient. Tr. 37 Eliz. in C. B. Austin and Twyses case. But an appropriation of an Advowson cannot be made by the Parson, Patron and Ordinary, or by their consents, without the Kings licence first obtained, for that every Appropriation is a Mortmain, and the Patronage of the Advowson is thereby lost and extinguished. See 25 H. 8. c. 19. 8 H. 4. 15. 21 H. 7. 9 accordingly. See Cook. 11 par. in Pridie and Nappers case accordingly.

Partition and Parceners.

1 What and where partition of Lands, &c. is good, what and where not: where between Joynt-Tenants, Parceners, Tenants in common, Leases for life or years, are good, where not: how made by Writ; and what persons were compellable to make partition by the common Law, what by the Statute: where if unequal made by the Sheriff, what remedy for the party.

1. A Man seised of Lands in Fee, devised them to his two Sons and their heirs, and they made partition by Word: It was the opinion of the whole Court, That the Sons were Joyntenants, and not Tenants in common; and that the partition of the Lands being in case of inheritance by Word, was not good. Mich. 29 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesb. 18. See 18 Eliz. Dyer 350. A man devised his Lands to his two Daughters in tail, they make partition by Word, and the one of them died: It was the opinion of the Court, That the Survivor should have the whole Land.

2. Of things which lie in grant, as of Rent, Commons, Advowsons, partition may be made by Parceners by Word without Deed: but Joyntenants or Tenants in common cannot make partition without Deed; but Tenants in common may make partition of Lands by Word, if it be executed by Livery. Cook. 1 par. Instit. 168.

3. Two Joynts are with warranty, and partition was made between in a Writ de Partitione facienda, by force of the Statute of 31 H. 8. cap. 1. It was resolved in that case, That the warranty did remain, because by Writ they are compellable by the Statute (to which every one is a party) to make partition, and the party hath pursued his remedy according to the Act: but if they had made partition by Deed, by consent after the said Act, although they were compellable by Writ to make partition, yet for as much as they have not pursued the Statute to make partition by Writ, in such case such partition doth remain at the common Law, and by consequence the warranty is gone. Pasch. 27 Eliz. in C. B. Cook. 6 par. Morrices Case.

4. If the Queen grant to three Coparceners of three Mannors the liberty of Warren in all the ſaid three Mannors, and afterwards they make partition, ſo as each of them hath a Mannor, and the one of them grants her Mannor, the other ſhall have VVarren. But if the Queen grant a Leet, (ut ſupra) and the Coparceners make partition, and each of them hath a Mannor, ſhe ſhall not have alſo a Leet; but the Leet which was granted doth remian in common, and there ſhall not be there upon ſuch partition, three Leets. Alſo if two Coparceners be of a Mannor, if to each of them upon partition be allotted demeans and ſervices, each of them hath a Mannor; for they were compellable to make partition by the common Law, being in by deſcent. 26 H. 8. 4. But contrary of Joyntenants, for they are in by purchaſe, and were not compellable by the common Law to make partition; and therefore upon a partition betwixt them, a Rent cannot be reſerved for equality of partition. Paſch. 27 Eliz. in C. B. Maſſy and Smiths Caſe. Leon 26.

5. In Treſpaſs the caſe was, That two were Tenants in common of a Houſe, and of a Cloſe adjoining to the Houſe, and they being in the Houſe, make partition without Deed of the Houſe and Cloſe. It was objected, That 2 E. 4. 9 and 10. is, That partition without Deed upon the Land is good enough, and partition upon the Lands amounts to a Livery. It was the opinion of the Court in this caſe, That partition by Tenants in common without Deed, whereſoever it is made, is good: but in this caſe it appears, that the parties who made the partition were in the Houſe, (for they were Tenants in common of the Meſſuage and Cloſe adjoyning) and made partition that one ſhould have the Houſe, and the other the Cloſe, ſo as they were not upon the Cloſe when they made the partition, and then it was void for the Cloſe; and if it was ſo for the Cloſe, then alſo for the Houſe. Paſch. 30 Eliz. in B. R. Dollon and Preiſts Caſe. Leon 103.

6. Errour brought upon a Judgement given in a VVrit de Partitione facienda, two Errours were aſſigned: 1. That the party doth not ſhew in his VVrit, nor in his Declaration, upon what Statute he grounds his Action; and there are two Statutes, viz. 31 H. 8. cap. 1. and 32 H. 8. cap. 32. and he grounds his Action upon one of the Statutes. 2. Errour was, that the Declaration doth ſhew, quod tenet pro indiviſo, and doth not ſhew what eſtate they held pro indiviſo; and the one Statute, viz. 31 H. 8. gives partition of the eſtate of inheritance, and 32. H. 8. gives partition of eſtate for life or years; and it was ſaid, That the party ought to ſhew that he is ſeiſed of ſuch an eſtate, of which by the Statute he may have a VVrit of Partition; for that in many caſes there ſhall be Joyntenants, & yet the one ſhall not have a Writ of Partition againſt the other. As if a Statute-Merchant be acknowledged to two, and they ſue forth Execution upon it; in ſuch caſe the one ſhall not have partition againſt the other. So if two Joyntenants be of a Seignory, and the Tenant dieth without Heir, ſo as the Lands eſcheate, they are Joyntenants, and yet partition doth not lie betwixt them by any Statute. It was the better opinion of the Court, 1. That he ought to ſhew upon what Statute he grounded his Action; and 2. That he ought to have ſhewed of what eſtate they were ſeiſed pro indiviſo: and whereas it was objected, That he cannot know the eſtate of the other his Companion, for that he might ſecretly change it; it was anſwered, That he muſt take notice of it at his peril: for if he cannot take knowledge of his eſtate, there cannot be any partition upon any of the Statutes. Quere, for the caſe was not reſolved. Mich. 29 Eliz. in B. R. Straſſon and Colburns Caſe. Goldsbr. 84. 85.

7. Three Coparceners are, and one of them alieneth all that which belongs to her in Fee; and afterwards one of the other Coparceners brings a VVrit of Partition againſt the other, and the Alienee upon the Statute; and the opinion of the Court was, That becauſe in this caſe ſhe might have a VVrit at the common Law, it was holden that the VVrit ſhould abate: but if the two Coparceners had joyned againſt the Alienee, if one of them had been non ſuit, ſhe ſhould have been ſummoned and ſevered, and her part ſhould be parted and ſevered as well as the two other parts; it was holden in this caſe, that if the Huſband of one of the three Coparceners purchaſeth the part of one of the other, he and his wife ſhould have a joynt VVrit ſpecial at the common Law againſt the other. So if one of the three purchaſe of the other her part, the Purchaſor might have ſuch VVrit againſt the third. Mich. 8 Eliz. Dyer 243.

8. A man made a Leaſe for years to two, provided, that if they die within the term, that the term ſhall ceaſe: the Termors made partition, and afterwards one of them died. It was holden in that caſe, that his Executors ſhould have it, becauſe there was no Occupant in that caſe, and it ſhall not ceaſe during the life of his Companion: but if it were a Leaſe for life, it ſhould be determined. Mich. 2 E. 6. Dyer 97. See Cook 4 par. 73. in Barrough's Caſe accordingly.

9. In partition the caſe was, A. and B. were Joyntenants for years: B. ſuffered C. to occupy his Moyety with him. A. brings a VVrit of Partition againſt B. and C. ſuppoſing that B. had granted a Moyety of his part to C. C. ſhews that he was but Tenant at Will to B. whereby the VVrit abated: and then it was a Queſtion, if A. might have another VVrit of Partition againſt B. by Journey's accompt, it was reſolved that he might; for that the poſſeſſion of C. was good colour for bringing the VVrit of Partition, and A. could not take notice what eſtate C. had, &c. Hill. 6 Jac. in B.R. Beadle and Cloke's Caſe. Cro 2 par. 218.

10. A VVrit of Partition was brought upon the Statute of 32 *H.*8. and the partition was confeſſed; by which it was awarded, quod Partitio fiet: upon which a VVrit was awarded to the Sheriff to make equal partition, who returns the partition made by twelve lawful men: one of the Defendants was grieved with the partition, becauſe it was of ſo little value, and would have avoided the ſame, and had a new VVrit of Partition: It was a Quere, if he ſhould have. Tr. 6 *E.*6. Dyer 73. and ſee Dyer 92. But ſee that this Quere is reſolved now, That if the partition be made without VVrit, if it be unequal, the ſame is avoidable onely by entry: but if it be by VVrit, it is then unavoidable. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 171.

11. Note: If there be two Siſters Coparceners, and they take Husbands, and partition is made by the two Husbands in the life-time of their Wives Coparceners; yet if ſuch partition be unequal, it is not good, but voidable: for if after the deceaſe of the Husband, the VVife cometh into the unequal part, and agreeth thereunto, this ſhall binde her and her heirs for ever. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 170

12. Partition made by VVrit, ſhall not be defeated, although it be unequal; becauſe the Judgment in the VVrit of partition is, That a Partition ſhall ſtand firm for ever. But partition made by VVrit out of the Chancery, directed to the Eſcheator, where one is of full age, and ſues Livery, and the other within age who hath an unequal part allotted to her, ſhall not bind her when ſhe comes of full age: contrary if ſhe have an equal part upon the partition. See 21 *E.*3. 31. 9*H.*6. 6. Fitz 256. accordingly.

13. A. and B. Tenants in common of a Mannor: A. purchaſed a Freehold, ſo mixed with the Demeaſns of the Mannor, that it was unknown: B. brought a VVrit of partition, and Judgement was given that they ſhould make partition; and to that purpoſe a Writ was directed to the Sheriff. It was holden in that caſe, That A. ought to ſhew the bounds of the Frank-tenement ſo purchaſed, and the ſaid B. needs not to ſhew the bounds of the Mannor to the Jury: But in ſuch caſe, if evidence be given on no part, if the Jury make partition of ſuch a quantity, it ſufficeth, for that they are compellable to ſerve the Law and the Court, and at the appointed time to deliver in their verdict. Mich. 10 Eliz. Dyer 265. Cooke and Watſons caſe.

14. In a VVrit of partition, the VVrit was of two parts, without ſaying In three parts divided: It was moved that it was Errour: but it was the opinion of the Court, that it was good; and the difference was taken, that if there be but three parts, and two are demanded, that it is good without ſaying In three parts to be divided: for when parts are demanded, it is intended all the parts but one, and that it is onely one which remains: and ſo it was ſaid it was adjudged in the Kings Bench in Jordens caſe: ſee Thelwell in his Digeſt of Writs, 146. Mich. 7 Jac in C. B. Baylie and Sir Henry Clerks caſe. Brownlow 2 par. 275.

2 Of what things partition may be made by Parceners, &c. and of what not; and how made. Where a Rent granted by one in allowance of Surpluſage, ſhall be good: and where Entre betwixt Coparceners ſhall not be taken away by reaſon of privity of blood. Et è contra.

1 PArtition may be made betwixt Coparceners of Inheritances which are entire and diviſible: as of a Villain, Advowſon, Rent-charge; and there each of them ſhall have their turns: but of Inheritances entire indiviſible, as of a Corody incertain, Piſcary incertain, Common without number, or other ſuch uncertain profits out of Lands, they cannot be divided between them, but the eldeſt Coparcener ſhall have them, and the others ſhall have contribution from her. But if in ſuch caſe, no other inheritance is left by the Anceſtor out of which there may be a contribution, then the one Coparcener ſhall have the Corody incertain, Piſcary or Common, &c. for one time, and the other for another time. See Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 165. 5 Ma. Dyer 153. Mich. 25 Eliz. in the Earl of Huntingtons caſe adjudged accordingly.

2. If a Dignity, as an Earldome or a Barony, do deſcend to Coparceners, the poſſeſſions of the ſame ſhall upon partition be divided amongſt Coparceners; but the King may confer the Dignity upon which of them he pleaſeth: but if a man hath but one Daughter, the ſaid Dignity ſhall deſcend to that Daughter. Sampſon Leonards caſe.

caſe. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 161. accordingly. But if an Office of Honour, as the Office of Conſtable of England, doth deſcend to two Coparceners, and the one taketh a Husband, the Husband of the eldeſt Siſter ſhall execute the Office onely: but if they are unmarried, they both may joyn and make a Deputy to execute the ſaid Office. See 11 Eliz. Dyer 285. Humfrey de Bohun caſe. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 107. accordingly.

3. A Caſtle which is pro bono publico, & pro defenſione Regni, ſhall not be parted or divided betwixt Coparceners: but a Caſtle which is for private uſe of the Anceſtor, and for his habitation, if the ſame do deſcend to Coparceners, partition may be made of it betwixt them: and if two Coparceners be of Lands with Warranty, and they make partition, the Warranty by the partition is not deſtroyed, but doth remain. 29 E. 3. Grants 70. accordingly.

4. If an Advowſon be appendant to a Manor which deſcends to divers Coparceners, and the Coparceners make partition of the Manor to which, &c. without ſpeaking of the Advowſon, the Advowſon notwithſtanding the diviſion and ſeverance from the Manor to which, doth remain ſtill appendant, and they ſhall preſent by turns. Cook. 8 par. 79. in Hat wilds Caſe.

5 If two Coparceners be of an Advowſon, and they agree to preſent by turns; this is a good partition of the Advowſon as to the poſſeſſion: but notwithſtanding that, if they be put out of the Inheritance, they ſhall joyn in a Writ of Right. So a partition made betwixt them, that one ſhall have the Land from Eaſter to the firſt day of Auguſt in ſeveralty; and that the other ſhall have the ſame from the firſt day of Auguſt until Eaſter: this is a good partition as to the poſſeſſion, but it is not a ſeverance of the eſtate of inheritance. Cook. 1 par. 87. in Corbets caſe.

6. Note: It was adjudged in the Lord Mountjoy's caſe, That of Franchiſes entire, as de bonis felonum & utlagatorum, Waifs, Eſtreys, and ſuch like Hereditaments which are caſual, partition cannot be made betwixt Coparceners within the Statute of 32 H. 8. And therefore if a man hath three Mannors, and in each of them ſuch Franchiſes, each Mannor being of equal value, he cannot demiſe one Mannor and the Franchiſes which he hath in it. Paſch. 25 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. accordingly.

7. If there be divers Parceners of an Advowſon, the Eldeſt hath the prerogative to make the firſt preſentment; but that is not in reſpect of her perſon, but in reſpect of her eſtate: and ſo if one Coparcener hath a Rent granted to her for owelty of partition, ſhe may diſtrain for the ſame of common right without any words of diſtreſs, and ſo ſhall her Grantee; and the reaſon thereof is, becauſe the Rent is not annexed to her perſon onely, but to her eſtate. See 5 H. 5. 10. Cook. 3 par. 22. in Walkers caſe.

8. One Coparcener granteth a Rent to two other Coparceners for owelty of partition: in that caſe it was reſolved, That although the words are joynt, yet the cauſe of the Grant ſhall be reſpected, and the Rent ſhall be of the quality of the Land; and therefore they ſhall have the Rent in degree and quality of Coparceners and not joyntly. And if two Coparceners do make a Feoffment in Fee, rendring Rent to them and their Heirs, the Heirs of the one and the other ſhall inherit, becauſe their right in the Land is ſeveral. See 15 H. 7. 14. 39 E. 3. 26. Cook. 5 par. 8. in Juſtice Windhams caſe.

9. If two Coparceners be, and they make partition of the Lands; if one of the parts be evicted by Eigne Title, ſhe that loſeth her part ſhall enter upon the reſt to have recompence, becauſe the privity which the Law creates betwixt them, doth ſtill remain: but if one of the Coparceners ſells her part, and then the other part which the other Coparcener hath, is evicted; in that caſe the Coparcener who ſo loſeth her part, ſhall not enter upon the Alienee, becauſe that by the Alienation the privity is deſtroyed. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 173. And therefore if a man hath Lands in Taile, and as much in Fee-ſimple, and hath iſſue two Daughters, and dieth, and the Daughters make partition, ſo as the Entail Lands is allotted to the eldeſt, and the Fee-ſimple to the youngeſt; in this caſe if the youngeſt Daughter alieneth the Fee-ſimple Land to another in Fee, and hath iſſue, and dieth, the iſſue may enter into the entailed Lands, and ſhall hold it with her Aunt; yet ſhall not the eldeſt Daughter enter in the half of the Land in Fee-ſimple upon the Alienee, becauſe that by the Alienation the privity of eſtate was deſtroyed.

10. If a man be ſeiſed of a Carue of Land by juſt title, and diſſeiſeth an Infant within age of another Carue of Land, and hath iſſue two Daughters, and dieth, and the Carue by good title is allotted to the eldeſt, and the other to the youngeſt, who alieneth it to another in Fee, and afterwards the Infant at full age entreth upon the Alienee; in this caſe the youngeſt Daughter hath excluded her ſelf from having any part of the Carue by good title, for that by her Alienation the privity was deſtroyed: But if the youngeſt Daughter before the entry of the eldeſt, had granted it only for years of life or entail, ſaving the Reverſion, then it had been otherwiſe, becauſe the privity was not utterly deſtroyed, ſhe having reſerved the Reverſion to her ſelf in Fee. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 173.

3. Where a Moyety of his part to C. C. ſhews that he was but Tenant at Will to B. whereby the Writ abated: and then it was a Queſtion, if A. might have another Writ of Partition againſt B. by Fourney's accompt, it was reſolved that he might; for that the poſſeſſion of C. was good colour for bringing the Writ of Partition, and A. could not take notice what eſtate C. had, &c. Hill. 6 Jac. in B.R. Beadle and Clerks Caſe. Cro. 2 par. 218.

2 Of what things partition may be made by Parceners, &c. and of what not; and how made. Where a Rent granted by one in allowance of Surpluſage, ſhall be good: and where Entre betwixt Coparceners ſhall not be taken away by reaſon of privity of blood. Et è contra.

1 PArtition may be made betwixt Coparceners of Inheritances which are entire and diviſible: as of a Villain, Advowſon, Rent-charge; and there each of them ſhall have their turns: but of Inheritances entire indiviſible, as of a Corody incertain, Piſcary incertain, Common without number, or other ſuch uncertain profits out of Lands, they cannot be divided between them, but the eldeſt Coparcener ſhall have them, and the others ſhall have contribution from her. But if in ſuch caſe, no other inheritance is left by the Anceſtor out of which there may be a contribution, then the one Coparcener ſhall have the Corody incertain, Piſcary or Common, &c. for one time, and the other for another time. See Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 165. 5 Ma. Dyer 153. Mich. 25 Eliz. in the Earl of Huntingtons caſe adjudged accordingly.

2. If a Dignity, as an Earldome or a Barony, do deſcend to Coparceners, the poſſeſſions of the ſame ſhall upon partition be divided amongſt Coparceners; but the King may confer the Dignity upon which of them he pleaſeth: but if a man hath but one Daughter, the ſaid Dignity ſhall deſcend to that Daughter, Sampſon Leonards caſe.

caſe. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 161. accordingly. But if an Office of Honour, as the Office of Conſtable of England, doth deſcend to two Coparceners, and the one taketh a Husband, the Husband of the eldeſt Siſter ſhall execute the Office onely: but if they are unmarried, they both may joyn and make a Deputy to execute the ſaid Office. See 11 Eliz. Dyer 285. Humfrey de Bohun caſe. Cook. 1 par. inſtit. 107. accordingly.

3. A Caſtle which is pro bono publico, & pro defenſione Regni, ſhall not be parted or divided betwixt Coparceners: but a Caſtle which is for private uſe of the Anceſtor, and for his habitation, if the ſame do deſcend to Coparceners, partition may be made of it betwixt them: and if two Coparceners be of Lands with Warranty, and they make partition, the Warranty by the partition is not deſtroyed, but doth remain. 29 E. 3. Grants 70. accordingly.

4. If an Advowſon be appendant to a Manor which deſcends to divers Coparceners, and the Coparceners make partition of the Manner to which, &c. without ſpeaking of the Advowſon, the Advowſon notwithſtanding the diviſion and ſeverance from the Manner to which, doth remain ſtill appendant, and they ſhall preſent by turns. Cook. 8 par. 79. in Hill Wolds Caſe.

5 If two Coparceners be of an Advowſon, and they agree to preſent by turns; this is a good partition of the Advowſon as to the poſſeſſion: but notwithſtanding that, if they be put out of the Inheritance, they ſhall joyn in a Writ of Right. So a partition made betwixt them, that one ſhall have the Land from Eaſter to the firſt day of Auguſt in ſeveralty; and that the other ſhall have the ſame from the firſt day of Auguſt until Eaſter: this is a good partition as to the poſſeſſion, but it is not a ſeverance of the eſtate of inheritance. Cook. 1 par. 87. in Corbets caſe.

6. Note: It was adjudged in the Lord Mountjoy's caſe, That of Franchiſes entire, as de bonis felonum & utlagatorum, Waifs, Eſtreys, and ſuch like Hereditaments which are caſual, partition cannot be made betwixt Coparceners within the Statute of 32 H. 8. And therefore if a man hath three Mannors, and in each of them ſuch Franchiſes, each Mannor being of equal value, he cannot demiſe one Mannor and the Franchiſes which he hath in it. Paſch. 25 Eliz. in C. B. Goldesbr. accordingly.

7. If there be divers Parceners of an Advowſon, the Eldeſt hath the prerogative to make the firſt preſentment; but that is not in reſpect of her perſon, but in reſpect of her eſtate: and ſo if one Coparcener hath a Rent granted to her for owelty of partition, ſhe may diſtrain for the ſame of common right without any words of diſtreſs, and ſo ſhall her Grantee; and the reaſon thereof is, becauſe the Rent is not annexed to her perſon onely, but to her eſtate. See 5 H. 5. 10. Cook. 3 par. 22. in Walkers caſe.

8. One Coparcener granteth a Rent to two other Coparceners for owelty of partition: in that caſe it was reſolved, That although the words are joynt, yet the cauſe of the Grant ſhall be reſpected, and the Rent ſhall be of the quality of the Land; and therefore they ſhall have the Rent in degree and quality of Coparceners and not joyntly. And if two Coparceners do make a Feoffment in Fee, rendring Rent to them and their Heirs, the Heirs of the one and the other ſhall inherit, becauſe their right in the Land is ſeveral. See 15 H. 7. 14. 39 E. 3. 26. Cook. 5 par. 8. in Juſtice Windhams caſe.

9. If two Coparceners be, and they make partition of the Lands; if one of the parts be evicted by Eigne Title, ſhe that loſeth her part ſhall enter upon the reſt to have recompence, becauſe the privity which the Law creates betwixt them, doth ſtill remain: but if one of the Coparceners ſells her part, and then the other part which the other Coparcener hath, is evicted; in that caſe the Coparcener who ſo loſeth her part, ſhall not enter upon the Alienee, becauſe that by the Alienation the privity is deſtroyed. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 173. And therefore if a man hath Lands in Taile, and as much in Fee-ſimple, and hath iſſue two Daughters, and dieth, and the Daughters make partition, ſo as the Entail Lands is allotted to the eldeſt, and the Fee-ſimple to the youngeſt; in this caſe if the youngeſt Daughter alieneth the Fee-ſimple Land to another in Fee, and hath iſſue, and dieth, the iſſue may enter into the entailed Lands, and ſhall hold it with her Aunt; yet ſhall not the eldeſt Daughter enter in the half of the Land in Fee-ſimple upon the Alienee, becauſe that by the Alienation the privity of eſtate was deſtroyed.

10. If a man be ſeiſed of a Carue of Land by juſt title, and diſſeiſeth an Infant within age of another Carue of Land, and hath iſſue two Daughters, and dieth, and the Carue by good title is allotted to the eldeſt, and the other to the youngeſt, who alieneth it to another in Fee, and afterwards the Infant at full age entreth upon the Alienee; in this caſe the youngeſt Daughter hath excluded her ſelf from having any part of the Carue by good title, for that by her Alienation the privity was deſtroyed: But if the youngeſt Daughter before the entry of the eldeſt, had granted it only for years of life or entail, ſaving the Reverſion, then it had been otherwiſe, becauſe the privity was not utterly deſtroyed, ſhe having reſerved the Reverſion to her ſelf in Fee. Cook. 1 par. Inſtit. 173.

3 Where one Coparcener alone shall not deraign the Warranty without her Companion. Where aid shall be to deraign the Warranty, where not. Where a stranger shall have the like advantage of a Partition, as she who is privy in blood: And where the Judgement in Partition shall be to hold in severalty, where not.

1. NOte: there is a difference between a Warranty in Law upon an Exchange, and a Warranty in Law upon a partition as to the recovery in value: for in case of Exchange, he who voucheth shall recover in value according to the value which he lost; but it is not so in case of a Partition: for if a man seised of six Acres in Fee, every one of equal value, dieth, having issue two Daughters, and upon partition each hath three Acres; and after one Sister is impleaded for one Acre by one who hath title Paramount, and prayeth in aid of her Coparcener; she shall not recover an Acre, but an half Acre, so as each of them shall have an equal part: for in as much as both claim in by discent, which is an act in Law, and by Law each of them ought to have equal part of the inheritance of her Ancestor: for this cause she shall recover in value, but the moyety which she lost; so that the loss shall be equal. Cook. 4 par. 121. in Bastards case.

2. If one Coparcener maketh a Feoffment in Fee, and after her Feoffee is impleaded, and voucheth the Feoffor; she may have aid of her Coparcener to deraign the Warranty paramount, but never to recover pro rata against her by force of the Warranty in Law upon the partition; for by her Alienation, the Unitas juris that was betwixt them, is severed, and she hath dismissed her self to have any part of the Land as Coparcener, and as Coparcener she must recover pro rata upon the Warranty in Law, or not at all. Cook. 1 par. Instit. 171.

3. If a man hath issue two Daughters, Bastard Eigne & Mulier puisne, and they enter and occupy as Heirs; the Law in favour of Legitimation will not adjudge the whole possession in the Mulier, who then hath the sole right, but in both; so that if the Bastard dieth seised, her issue shall inherit: and if in the same case the Daughters, viz. the Bastard eigne and Mulier puisne enter, and make partition, this shall binde the Mulier for ever: but if partition be made betwixt two Daughters, where one hath no colour, there the partition is void. Cook. 8 par. 101. in Sir Rich. Lechfords case.

4. When Lands and Warranties descend to two Coparceners, and one of them is impleaded, he shall not vouch alone, but shall pray in aide of his Companion; and so they shall put themselves in representation of one Heir, and shall vouch together: but if one Coparcener alieneth his part, or maketh default upon Aid-prayer, the other shall vouch alone. And if a Coparcener maketh a Feoffment in Fee with Warranty, and comes as Vouchee, he shall have aid to deraign the Warranty paramount as if he were in possession. See Tr. 9 Jac. in C. B. Sir Henry Rolls and Sir Robert Osborn case. Hob. 21. and 26. accordingly. See 20 H. 6. 2. and 43 E. 3. 23.

5. Note: A Warranty must remain entire as it was created, without the voluntary division of the party; and therefore if Lands be given to two joyntly, with Warranty, if one of them maketh a Feoffment with Warranty of his part, he hath lost his Warranty, but the other may vouch for his moyety; but if they make partition, both have lost it by the common Law. Hob. 25. accordingly.

6. If there be two Joyntenants with Warranty, and the one doth disseise the other, and the Disseisee bringeth an Assize, and upon his prayer hath Judgement to recover in severalty: in this case the Warranty is gone: for although he hath partition by Judgement, yet he who is bound by the Warranty is not party nor privy, nor consenting to it, as he is when partition is made according to the Statute. Cook. 6 par. 12. in Morrices case. Note there by Cook, That although some Books are, that Judgment shall be given to hold in severalty in the case of Joyntenants, as to E. 1. 40. yet by him it shall be hard to maintain the Judgement; for that 1. The Plaintiff in his Assize ought to recover according to his plaint, and that is nothing in severalty. 2. In the Assize he ought to recover upon the view of the Recognitors, and they have not the view of any thing in severalty. And 3. it shall be to the Plaintiffs prejudice as well for the Survivor as for the Warranty, and the like. And 38 Ass. 15. it was adjudged by the Court, That the Plaintiff shall recover generally, although the Plaintiff himself prayeth that the Judgement might be that he might hold in severalty; for the prayer of the party shall not alter the Judgement of the Law. Cook. 6 par. 13. in fine of Morrices case.

7. Two Coparceners were, one made a Feoffment, the other being impleaded, prayed in aid of her Sister to deraign the Warranty paramount: it it was there ſaid, That ſhe might deraign the Warrantry ſole, by Finchden and Kurvit; wherefore the Tenant pleaded over. 38 E. 3. 20. But ſee 38 E. 3. 23. in Plow. Com. in Maxwells caſe 7. Two Coparceners made partition, the one enfeoffed his Son and Heir apparent of his part, and died; the other made a Feoffment with Warranty, and died having iſſue: the Feoffee was impleaded in a Precipe, who vouched the Son, and he prayed in aid of the Heir of the other Parcener; and notwithſtanding the Alienation of his Grandmother, he had aid to deraign the Warranty paramount. See Plow. Com. in Maxwells caſe 7. accordingly, and ſee 22 H. 6. 47. If Coparceners preſent by turns, and one of them preſents, and the incumbent is impleaded, it was the opinion of the Court, That he ſhall have aid of all the Coparceners.

8. Note: Partition is an Eſtoppel betwixt privies in blood, and therefore ſee 22 E. 2. Fitz. Baſtardy. Between Baſtard eigne and Mulier puiſne, partition is an Eſtoppel; but ſuch partition betwixt privies in blood, ſtands upon this difference: If the partition be voluntary, then it is an Eſtoppel betwixt privies; but if it be compulſary, then it is no Eſtoppel. As if a man hath iſſue a Son and a Daughter by one woman, and a Daughter by another, and dieth ſeiſed, and the Son entreth and dieth ſeiſed, & the Daughter or Heir to him entreth, and the other Siſter by the other woman brings a Nuper obiit, and is found, and they make partition betwixt them; now notwithſtanding the partition, yet a Writ of Errour lieth to reverſe the Judgment; and the Judgement being reverſed, the privity ſhall be deſtroyed; for it was a compulſary partition by reaſon of the Judgement in the Nuper obiit See 19 H. 6. 26 and 27. accordingly.

9. If two Coparceners be of Land, and they make partition, and afterwards a Writ of Dower is brought, and a Recovery is had in the Writ of Dower: It is a Quere 22 Aſſ. 22. Br. Errour 131 If the ſame ſhall make void the partition, becauſe the ſame doth not avoid the partition for the whole, but for part, i. e. the Freehold onely But ſee 10 E. 4. 7. That if a ſtranger enters, or recovers part by an Eigne title, there the ſame doth diſ-affirm the firſt partition; but the Parceners cannot themſelves avoid the partition by entry. And ſee 9 E. 4 That if the Recovery be by colluſion, or a Title puiſne to the partition, the ſaid Recovery ſhall not make void the partition.

More, Partition and Parceners.

1. IF there be three Coparceners, and they make partition, & one of them grants 20 l per an. out of her part to her two Siſters and their heirs for equality of partition; the Grantees are not Joyntenants of this Rent, but the Rent is in the nature of Copercinary; and after the death of the one Grantee, the moyety of the Rent ſhall deſcend to her iſſue in courſe of Copercinary, and ſhall not ſucceed to the other, for that the Rent doth come in recompence of the Land, and therefore ſhall follow the nature of the Land. Cook. 5 par. in Juſtice Wiadhams caſe.
